The story of Esther takes place at this time.

⁶ Ezra came to Jerusalem from Babylon. He was a teacher[†] and knew the Law of Moses very well. The Law of Moses was given by the LORD, the God of Israel. King Artaxerxes gave Ezra everything he asked for because the LORD was with Ezra. ⁷ Among the people who came with Ezra were Israelites, priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, and Temple servants. They arrived in Jerusalem during the seventh year of King Artaxerxes. ⁸ Ezra arrived in Jerusalem in the fifth month[‡] of the seventh year that Artaxerxes was king. ⁹ Ezra left Babylon on the first day of the first month and arrived in Jerusalem on the first day of the fifth month. With God's blessing his trip went well. ¹⁰ Ezra had always given his time and attention to studying and obeying the law of the LORD. He also loved to teach its rules and commandments to others in Israel.

King Artaxerxes' Letter to Ezra

¹¹ Ezra was a priest and teacher. He knew much about the commands and laws the LORD gave Israel. This is a copy of the letter King Artaxerxes gave to Ezra the teacher:

¹² § From King Artaxerxes,

To Ezra the priest, a teacher of the law of the God of heaven:

Greetings!

¹³ I give this order: Any of the Israelites living in my kingdom, including priests and Levites, who want to go with you to Jerusalem, may go.

¹⁴ I and my seven advisors send you to Judah and Jerusalem. Go and see how your people are doing in obeying the law of your God. You have that law with you.

¹⁵ I and my advisors are giving gold and silver to the God of Israel, who lives in Jerusalem. You must take this gold and silver with you. ¹⁶ You must also go through all the provinces of Babylonia. Collect the gifts from your people, from the priests, and from the Levites. The gifts are for the Temple of their God in Jerusalem.

¹⁷ Use this money to buy bulls, rams, and male lambs. Buy the grain offerings and drink offerings that go with these sacrifices. Then sacrifice them on the altar in the Temple of your God in Jerusalem. ¹⁸ Then you and the other Jews may spend the silver and gold left over any way you want to. Use it in a way that is pleasing to your God. ¹⁹ Take all these things to the God of Jerusalem. They are for the worship in the Temple of your God. ²⁰ And you may get any other things that you need for the Temple of your God. Use the money in the king's treasury to buy anything you need.

²⁴ I want you men to know that it is against the law to make the priests, Levites, singers, gatekeepers, Temple servants, and other workers in God's Temple pay taxes. They don't have to pay taxes, money to honor the king, or any customs fees. ²⁵ Ezra, I give you the authority to use the wisdom you have from your God and choose civil and religious judges. These men will be judges for all the people living in the area west of the Euphrates River. They will judge all the people who know the laws of your God and they will teach those who don't know those laws. ²⁶ Anyone who does not obey the law of your God, or the law of the king, must be punished. Depending on the crime, they must be punished with death, or sent away to another country, or their property taken away, or put into prison.

Ezra Praises God

²⁷ § Blessed is the LORD, the God of our ancestors. He put the idea into the king's heart to honor the LORD'S Temple in Jerusalem. ²⁸ God showed his faithful love to me in front of the king, his advisors, and the king's important officials. The LORD my God was with me, and that gave me courage. I gathered together the leaders of Israel to go with me to Jerusalem.

The Return to Jerusalem

¹⁵ I called all these people to meet together at the river that flows toward Ahava. We camped at that place for three days. I learned there were priests in the group, but there were no Levites. ¹⁶ So I called these leaders: Eliezer, Ariel, Shemaiah, Elnathan, Jarib, Elnathan, Nathan, Zechariah, and Meshullam, and I called Joiarib and Elnathan. (These men were teachers.) ¹⁷ I sent the men to Iddo, leader in the town of Casiphia. I told them what to say to Iddo and his relatives, who are the Temple workers in Casiphia. I told the men to ask Iddo and his relatives to send us workers to serve in God's Temple. ¹⁸ Because God was with us, they sent Sherebiah, a skilled man from the descendants of Mahli (Mahli was a son of Levi, one of Israel's sons.) They also sent his sons and brothers, 18 men in all. ¹⁹ They also sent Hashabiah and Jeshaiiah from the descendants of Merari, along with their brothers and nephews. In all there were 20 men. ²⁰ Besides these, there were 220 Temple workers whose ancestors had been chosen by David and his officials to help the Levites. The names of all these men were written on the list.

²¹ There near the Ahava River, I announced that we all should fast. We should fast to make ourselves humble before our God. We wanted to ask God for a safe trip for ourselves, our children, and for everything we owned. ²² I was embarrassed to ask King

Artaxerxes for soldiers and horsemen to protect us as we traveled. There were enemies on the road. The reason I was embarrassed to ask for protection was because of what we had told the king. We had said to King Artaxerxes, “Our God is with everyone who trusts him, but he is very angry with everyone who turns away from him.”²³ So we fasted and prayed to our God about our trip. He answered our prayers.

²⁴ Then I chose twelve of the priests who were leaders. I chose Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers. ²⁵ I weighed the silver, gold, and the other things that were given for God’s Temple. I gave them to the twelve priests I had chosen. King Artaxerxes, his advisors, his important officials, and all the Israelites in Babylon gave those things for God’s Temple. ²⁶ I weighed all these things. There were 25 tons* of silver. There were also 7500 pounds† of silver dishes and things. There were 3 3/4 tons of gold. ²⁷ And I gave them 20 gold bowls. The bowls weighed about 19 pounds‡. And I gave them two beautiful dishes made from polished bronze that were as valuable as gold. ²⁸ Then I said to the twelve priests: “You and these things are holy to the LORD. People gave this silver and gold to the LORD, the God of your ancestors. ²⁹ So guard these things carefully. You are responsible for them until you give them to the Temple leaders in Jerusalem. You will give them to the leading Levites and the family leaders of Israel. They will weigh them and put them in the rooms of the LORD’S Temple in Jerusalem.”

³¹ On the twelfth day of the first month,§ we left the Ahava River and started toward Jerusalem. God was with us, and he protected us from enemies and robbers along the way. ³² Then we arrived in Jerusalem. We rested there for three days. ³³ On the fourth day, we went to the Temple and weighed the silver, gold, and special things. We gave them to Meremoth son of Uriah the priest. Eleazar son of Phinehas was with Meremoth. The Levites, Jozabad son of Jeshua, and Noadiah son of Binnui were with them also. ³⁴ We counted and weighed everything and we wrote down the total weight.

³⁶ Then the people gave the letter from King Artaxerxes to the royal satraps and to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. Then the leaders gave their support to the Israelites and to the Temple.

Marriages to Non-Jewish People

¹ After we finished all these things, the leaders of the Israelites came to me and said, “Ezra, the Israelites have not kept themselves separate from the other people living around us. And the priests and the Levites have not kept themselves separate. The Israelites are being influenced by evil things done by the Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Jebusites, Ammonites, Moabites, Egyptians, and Amorites. ² The Israelites have married the people living around us. The Israelites are supposed to be special, but now they are mixed with the other people living around them. The leaders and important officials of the Israelites have set a bad example in this thing.” ³ When I heard about this, I tore my robe and my coat to show I was upset. I pulled hair from my head and beard. I sat down, shocked and upset. ⁴ Then everyone who respected God’s Law shook with fear. They were afraid because the Israelites who came back from captivity were not faithful to God. I was shocked and upset. I sat there until the evening sacrifice, and the people gathered around me.

* 8:26 25 tons Literally, “650 talents” (22,425 kg). † 8:26 7500 pounds Literally, “100 talents” (3450 kg). ‡ 8:27 19 pounds Literally, “1000 darics” (about 8.63 kg). § 8:31 first month That is, March–April, 458 B.C.

⁵ Then, when it was time for the evening sacrifice, I got up. I had made myself look shameful while I was sitting there. My robe and coat were torn, and I fell on my knees with my hands spread out to the LORD my God. ⁶ Then I prayed this prayer:

⁸ “But now, finally, you have been kind to us. You have let a few of us escape captivity and come to live in this holy place. LORD, you gave us new life and relief from our slavery. ⁹ Yes, we were slaves, but you would not let us be slaves forever. You were kind to us. You made the kings of Persia be kind to us. Your Temple was ruined, but you gave us new life so that we can rebuild your Temple and repair it like new. God, you helped us build a wall to protect Judah and Jerusalem.

¹⁰ “Now, God, what can we say to you? We have stopped obeying you again. ¹¹ You used your servants the prophets to give these commands to us. You said, ‘The land you are going to live in and own is a ruined land. It has been ruined by evil things the people living there have done. They have done very bad things in every place in this land. They have made this land dirty with their sins. ¹² So Israelites, don’t let your children marry their children. Don’t join them. Don’t want the things they have. Obey my commands so that you will be strong and enjoy the good things of the land. And then you can keep this land and give it to your children.’

¹³ “What has happened to us is our own fault. We have done evil things, and we have much guilt. But you, our God, have punished us much less than we should have been. We have done many terrible sins, and we should have been punished worse. And you have even let some of our people escape captivity. ¹⁴ So we know that we must not break your commands. We must not marry those people. They do very bad things. God, if we continue to marry these bad people, we know you will destroy us. Then there would be no one from the Israelites left alive.

¹⁵ “LORD, God of Israel, you are good, and you still have let some of us live. Yes, we are guilty, and because of our guilt, not one of us should be allowed to stand in front of you.”

The People Confess Their Sin

⁵ So Ezra got up. He made the leading priests, the Levites, and all the Israelites promise to do what he said. ⁶ Then Ezra went away from the front of God’s house. He went to the room of Jehohanan son of Eliashib. While Ezra was there, he didn’t eat food or drink water. He did that because he was still very sad. He was very sad about the Israelites who came back to Jerusalem. ⁷ Then he sent a message to every place in Judah and Jerusalem. The message told all the Jewish people who had come back from captivity to meet together in Jerusalem. ⁸ Those who did not come to Jerusalem in three days like the officials and elders said would lose their property and be removed from the group.

⁹ So in three days all the men from the families of Judah and Benjamin gathered in Jerusalem. And on the twentieth day of the ninth month,* all the people met together in the Temple yard. They were very upset because of the reason for the meeting and because of the heavy rain. ¹⁰ Then Ezra the priest stood and said to them, “You people have not been faithful to God. You have married foreign women. You have made Israel more guilty by doing that. ¹¹ Now you must confess your sins to the LORD, the God of your ancestors. You must obey his command. Separate yourselves from the people living around you and from your foreign wives.”

¹² Then the whole group who met together answered Ezra. They shouted, “Ezra, you are right! We must do what you say. ¹³ But there are many people here. And it is the rainy time of year, so we cannot stay outside. This problem cannot be solved in a day or two because we have sinned in a very bad way. ¹⁴ Let our leaders decide for the whole group meeting here. Then let every man in our towns who married a foreign woman come here to Jerusalem at a planned time. Let them come here with the elders and judges of their towns. Then God will stop being angry with us.”

¹⁵ Only a few men were against this plan. They were Jonathan son of Asahel and Jahzeiah son of Tikvah. Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite also were against the plan.

¹⁶ So the Israelites who came back to Jerusalem accepted the plan. Ezra the priest chose men who were family leaders. He chose one man from each tribe. Each man was chosen by name. On the first day of the tenth month,† the men who were chosen sat down to study each of the cases. ¹⁷ And by the first day of the first month,‡ they finished discussing all the men who had married foreign women.

Nehemiah

Nehemiah's Prayer

¹ These are the words of Nehemiah son of Hacaliah: I, Nehemiah, was in the capital city of Susa in the month of Kislev. This was in the 20th year* that Artaxerxes was king.

² While I was in Susa, one of my brothers named Hanani and some other men came from Judah. I asked them about the Jews who had escaped captivity and still lived in Judah. I also asked them about the city of Jerusalem.

⁴ When I heard this about the people of Jerusalem and about the wall, I sat down and cried. I was very sad. I fasted and prayed to the God of heaven for several days. ⁵ Then I prayed this prayer:

"LORD, God of heaven, you are the great and powerful God. You are the God who keeps his agreement of love with people who love you and obey your commands.

⁶ "Please open your eyes and ears and listen to the prayer your servant is praying before you day and night. I am praying for your servants, the Israelites. I confess the sins we Israelites have done against you. I am confessing that I have sinned against you and that the other people in my father's family have sinned against you. ⁷ We Israelites have been very bad to you. We have not obeyed the commands, rules, and laws you gave your servant Moses.

⁸ "Please remember the teaching you gave your servant Moses. You said to him, 'If you Israelites are not faithful, I will force you to be scattered among the other nations.

⁹ But if you Israelites come back to me and obey my commands, this is what I will do: Even if your people have been forced to leave their homes and go to the ends of the earth, I will gather them from there. And I will bring them back to the place I have chosen to put my name.'

¹⁰ "The Israelites are your servants and your people. You used your great power and rescued them. ¹¹ So, Lord, please listen to my prayer. And listen to the prayers of all your other servants who are happy to honor you. Help me today as I ask the king for help. Make him pleased with me so that he will be kind and give me what I ask for."

At that time, I was the king's wine servant.†

The King Sends Nehemiah to Jerusalem

Then I was very afraid. ³ But even though I was afraid, I said to the king, "May the king live forever! I am sad because the city where my ancestors are buried lies in ruins, and the gates of that city have been destroyed by fire."

* 1:1 Kislev ... 20th year This was about December, 444 B.C. † 1:11 wine servant This important official was always close to the king and tasted the food and wine to make sure they were safe for the king to eat and drink. * 2:1 20th year That is, 443 B.C.

⁴ Then the king said to me, “What do you want me to do?”

Before I answered, I prayed to the God of heaven. ⁵ Then I answered the king, “If it would please the king, and if I have been good to you, please send me to Jerusalem, the city in Judah where my ancestors are buried. I want to go there and rebuild that city.”

⁶ The king and the queen who was sitting next to him asked me, “How long will your trip take? When will you get back here?”

The king was happy to send me, so I gave him a certain time. ⁷ I also said to the king, “If it would please the king to do something else for me, let me ask. Please give me some letters to show the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River. I need these letters so that the governors will give me permission to pass safely through their lands on my way to Judah. ⁸ I also need lumber for the heavy wooden beams for the gates, the walls, the walls around the Temple, and my house. So I need a letter from you to Asaph, who is in charge of your forests.”

The king gave me the letters and everything I asked for. The king did that because my God was kind to me.

⁹ So I went to the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River and gave them the letters from the king. The king had also sent army officers and soldiers on horses with me. ¹⁰ Sanballat from Horon and Tobiah the Ammonite official heard about what I was doing. They were very upset and angry that someone had come to help the Israelites.

Nehemiah Inspects the Walls of Jerusalem

¹¹⁻¹² I went to Jerusalem and stayed there three days. Then at night I started out with a few men. I had not said anything to anyone about what my God had put on my heart to do for Jerusalem. There were no horses with me except the horse I was riding. ¹³ While it was dark I went out through the Valley Gate. I rode toward the Dragon Well and the Gate of the Ash Piles. I was inspecting the walls of Jerusalem that had been broken down and the gates in the wall that had been burned with fire. ¹⁴ Then I rode on toward the Fountain Gate and the King’s Pool. As I got close, I could see there was not enough room for my horse to get through. ¹⁵ So I went up the valley in the dark, inspecting the wall. Finally, I turned back and went back in through the Valley Gate. ¹⁶ The officials and important Israelites didn’t know where I had gone. They didn’t know what I was doing. I had not yet said anything to the Jews, the priests, the king’s family, the officials, or any of the other people who would be doing the work.

¹⁷ Then I said to them, “You can see the trouble we have here: Jerusalem is a pile of ruins, and its gates have been burned with fire. Come, let’s rebuild the wall of Jerusalem. Then we will not be ashamed anymore.”

¹⁸ I also told them that my God had been kind to me. I told them what the king had said to me. Then they answered, “Let’s start to work, now!” So we began this good work. ¹⁹ But Sanballat from Horon, Tobiah the Ammonite official, and Geshem the Arab heard that we were building again. They made fun of us in a very ugly way. They said, “What are you doing? Are you turning against the king?”

²⁰ But this is what I said to them: “The God of heaven will help us succeed. We are God’s servants and we will rebuild this city. You cannot help us in this work because none of your family lived here in Jerusalem. You don’t own any of this land, and you have no right to be in this place.”

Builders of the Wall

¹ The name of the high priest was Eliashib. He and his brothers, the priests, went to work and built the Sheep Gate. They prayed to make that gate holy to God. They set its doors in place in the wall. The priests worked on the wall of Jerusalem as far as the Tower of the Hundred and the Tower of Hananel. They prayed to make all this work holy to God.

² The men from Jericho built the wall next to the priests. And Zaccur son of a man named Imri built the wall next to the men of Jericho.

⁴ Meremoth son of Uriah repaired the next section of the wall. (Uriah was the son of Hakkoz.)

Meshullam son of Berekiah repaired the next section of the wall. (Berekiah was the son of Meshezabel.)

Zadok son of Baana repaired the next section of the wall.

⁵ The men from Tekoa repaired the next section of the wall, but the leaders from Tekoa refused to work for Nehemiah their governor.

⁷ The men from Gibeon and Mizpah fixed the next section of the wall. Melatiah from Gibeon and Jadon from Meronoth did the work. Gibeon and Meronoth are places that are controlled by the governors of the area west of the Euphrates River.

⁹ Rephaiah son of Hur repaired the next section of the wall. Rephaiah was the governor of half of Jerusalem.

¹¹ Malkijah son of Harim and Hasshub son of Pahath-Moab repaired the next section. They also repaired Oven Tower.

¹² Shallum son of Hallohesh repaired the next section of the wall. His daughters helped him. Shallum was the governor of the other half of Jerusalem.

¹³ The Valley Gate was repaired by Hanun and the people who live in the town of Zanoah. They built the Valley Gate. They put the doors on their hinges. Then they put the locks and bolts on the doors. They also repaired 500 yards* of the wall. They worked on the wall all the way to the Gate of Ash Piles.

¹⁵ Shallun son of Col-Hozeh repaired the Fountain Gate. Shallun was the governor of the district of Mizpah. He repaired the gate and put a roof over it. He put the doors on the hinges. Then he put the locks and bolts on the doors. He also repaired the wall of the Pool of Siloam that is next to the King's Garden. He repaired the wall all the way to the steps that go down from the City of David.

¹⁶ Nehemiah son of Azbuk repaired the next section. This Nehemiah was the governor of half the district of Beth Zur. He made repairs up to a place that is across from the tombs of David. And he worked as far as the man-made pool and the House of Heroes.

¹⁸ Their brothers repaired the next section. They worked under Binnui son of Henadad. Binnui was the governor of the other half of the district of Keilah.

* 3:13 500 yards Literally, "1000 cubits" (444 m).

²⁴ Binnui son of Henadad repaired the section of wall from Azariah's house to the bend in the wall and then to the corner.

²⁶ The Temple servants lived on Ophel Hill. They repaired the next section all the way to the east side of the Water Gate and the tower near it.

²⁷ The men from Tekoa repaired the rest of that section from the big tower all the way to the Ophel wall.

³⁰ Hananiah son of Shelemiah and Hanun son of Zalaph repaired the rest of that section of wall. (Hanun was Zalaph's sixth son.)

Meshullam son of Berekiah repaired the section in front of his house. ³¹ Malkijah repaired the next section of wall all the way to the houses of the Temple servants and the merchants. That is across from the Inspection Gate. Malkijah repaired the section all the way to the room over the corner of the wall. Malkijah was a goldsmith. ³² The goldsmiths and the merchants repaired the section of wall from that corner to the Sheep Gate.

Sanballat and Tobiah

¹ When Sanballat heard that we were building the wall of Jerusalem, he was very angry and upset. He started making fun of the Jews. ² Sanballat talked with his friends and the army at Samaria and said, "What are these weak Jews doing? Do they think we will leave them alone? Do they think they will offer sacrifices? Maybe they think they can finish building in only one day. They cannot bring stones back to life from these piles of trash and dirt. These are just piles of ashes and dirt!"

³ Tobiah the Ammonite was with Sanballat. Tobiah said, "What do these Jews think they are building? If even a small fox climbed up on it, he would break down their wall of stones!"

⁴ Nehemiah prayed and said, "Our God, listen to our prayer. These men hate us. Sanballat and Tobiah are insulting us. Make bad things happen to them. Make them ashamed, like people taken away as prisoners. ⁵ Don't take away their guilt or forgive the sins they have done in your sight. They have insulted and discouraged the builders."

⁶ We built the wall of Jerusalem all the way around the city. But it was only half as tall as it should be. We did this much because the people worked with all their heart.

⁷ But Sanballat, Tobiah, the Arabs, the Ammonites, and the men from Ashdod were very angry. They heard that the people continued working on the walls of Jerusalem. They heard the people were repairing the holes in the wall. ⁸ So all these men got together and made plans against Jerusalem. They planned to stir up trouble against

Jerusalem. They planned to come and fight against the city. ⁹ But we prayed to our God. And we put guards on the walls to watch day and night so that we could be ready to meet them.

¹⁰ And so at that time the people of Judah said, “The workers are becoming tired. There is too much dirt and trash in the way. We cannot continue to build the wall. ¹¹ And our enemies are saying, ‘Before the Jews know it or see us, we will be right there among them. We will kill them and that will stop the work.’”

¹² Then the Jews living among our enemies came and said this to us ten times, “Our enemies are all around us. They are everywhere we turn.”

¹⁴ After looking over everything, I stood up and spoke to the important families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, “Don’t be afraid of our enemies. Remember the Lord, who is great and powerful! You must fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters! You must fight for your wives and your homes!”

¹⁵ Then our enemies heard that we knew about their plans. They knew that God ruined their plans. So we all went back to work on the wall. Everyone went back to their own place and did their part. ¹⁶ From that day on, half of my men worked on the wall. The other half of my men were on guard, ready with spears, shields, bows, and armor. The army officers stood behind all the people of Judah who were building the wall. ¹⁷ The builders and their helpers had their tools in one hand and a weapon in the other hand. ¹⁸ Each of the builders wore his sword at his side as he worked. The man who blew the trumpet to warn the people stayed next to me. ¹⁹ Then I spoke to the leading families, the officials, and the rest of the people. I said, “This is a very big job and we are spread out along the wall. We are far from one another. ²⁰ So if you hear the trumpet, run to that place. We will all meet together there, and our God will fight for us!”

²³ So none of us took off our clothes—not me, not my brothers, not my men, and not the guards. Each of us had our weapon ready at all times, even when we went to get water.

Nehemiah Helps the Poor

¹ Many of the poor people began to complain against their fellow Jews. ² Some of them were saying, “We have many children. We must get some grain if we are going to eat and stay alive.”

⁶ When I heard their complaints, I was very angry. ⁷ I calmed myself down, and then I went to the rich families and the officials. I told them, “You are forcing your own people to pay interest on the money you loan them. You must stop doing that!” Then I called for all the people to meet together ⁸ and said to them, “Our fellow Jews were sold as slaves to people in other countries. We did our best to buy them back and make them free. And now, you are selling them like slaves again!”

The rich people and officials kept quiet. They could not find anything to say. ⁹ So I continued speaking. I said, “What you people are doing is not right! You know that you should fear and respect our God. You should not do the shameful things other people do! ¹⁰ My men, my brothers, and I are also lending money and grain to the people. But let’s stop forcing them to pay interest on these loans. ¹¹ You must give their fields, vineyards, olive fields, and houses back to them, right now! And you must give back the interest you charged them. You charged them one percent for the money, grain, new wine, and oil that you loaned them.”

¹² Then the rich people and the officials said, “We will give it back and not demand anything more from them. Nehemiah, we will do as you say.”

Then I called the priests. I made the rich people and the officials promise to God that they would do what they said. ¹³ Then I shook out the folds of my clothes. I said, “God will do the same thing to everyone who does not keep their promise. God will shake them out of their houses and they will lose everything they worked for. They will lose everything!”

I finished saying these things and all the people agreed. They all said, “Amen” and praised the LORD. So the people did as they had promised.

¹⁴ And also, during the whole time that I was appointed to be governor in the land of Judah, neither my brothers nor I ate the food that was allowed for the governor. I never forced the people to pay taxes to buy my food. I was governor from the 20th year until the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king.* I was governor of Judah for twelve years. ¹⁵ But the governors who ruled before me made life hard for the people. The governors forced everyone to pay 1 pound† of silver. They also made the people give them food and wine. The leaders under these governors also ruled over the people and made life even harder. But I respected and feared God, so I didn’t do things like that. ¹⁶ I worked hard at building the wall of Jerusalem. All my men gathered there to work on the wall. We didn’t take any land from anyone.

¹⁷ Also, I regularly fed 150 Jews who were always welcome at my table, and I fed those who came to us from the nations around us. ¹⁸ Every day I prepared this much food for the people who ate at my table: one ox, six good sheep, and different kinds of birds. Every ten days all kinds of wine were brought to my table. But I never demanded that they give me the food that was allowed for the governor. I knew that the work the people were doing was very hard. ¹⁹ My God, remember all the good I have done for these people.

More Problems

¹ Then Sanballat, Tobiah, Geshem the Arab, and our other enemies heard that I had built the wall. We repaired all the holes in the wall, but we had not yet put the doors in the gates. ² So Sanballat and Geshem sent me this message: “Come, Nehemiah, let’s meet together. We can meet in the town of Kephirim on the plain of Ono.” But they were planning to hurt me.

³ So I sent messengers to them with this answer: “I am doing important work, so I cannot come down. I don’t want the work to stop just so I can come down and meet with you.”

⁴ Sanballat and Geshem sent the same message to me four times, and I sent the same answer back to them each time. ⁵ Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his helper to me with the same message. And he had a letter in his hand that was not sealed. ⁶ This is what the letter said:

* 5:14 the 20th year ... king This was from 444–432 B.C. † 5:15 1 pound Literally, “40 shekels” (460 g).

“There is a rumor going around. People are talking about it everywhere. And, by the way, Geshem says it is true. People are saying that you and the Jews are planning to turn against the king. This is why you are building the wall of Jerusalem. People are also saying that you will be the new king of the Jews. ⁷ And the rumor is that you have chosen prophets to announce this about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’

“Now I warn you, Nehemiah, King Artaxerxes will hear about this. So come, let’s meet and talk about this together.”

⁸ So I sent this answer back to Sanballat: “Nothing you are saying is happening. You are just making all that up in your own head.”

⁹ Our enemies were only trying to make us afraid. They are thinking to themselves, “The Jews will be afraid and too weak to keep on working. Then the wall will not be finished.”

But I prayed, “God, make me strong.”

¹⁰ One day I went to the house of a man named Shemaiah son of Delaiah. Delaiah was the son of Mehetabel. Shemaiah had to stay in his house. He said, “Nehemiah, let’s meet in God’s Temple. Let’s go inside the Holy Place* and lock the doors. Men are coming to kill you. Tonight they are coming to kill you.”

¹¹ But I said to Shemaiah, “Should a man like me run away? You know that an ordinary man like me cannot go into the Holy Place without being put to death. I will not go!”

¹² I knew that God had not sent Shemaiah. I knew that he had prophesied against me because Tobiah and Sanballat had paid him to do that. ¹³ They hired Shemaiah to scare me and make me sin by going into that part of the Temple. They were planning those bad things against me so that they could shame me.

¹⁴ My God, please remember Tobiah and Sanballat and the bad things they have done. Also remember the woman prophet Noadiah and the other prophets who have been trying to scare me.

The Wall Is Finished

¹⁵ So the wall of Jerusalem was completed on the 25th day of the month of Elul.† It had taken 52 days to finish building the wall. ¹⁶ Then all our enemies heard that we had completed the wall, and all the nations around us saw that it was finished. So they lost their courage, because they understood that this work had been done with the help of our God.

¹⁷ Also in those days after the wall had been completed, the rich people of Judah were sending many letters to Tobiah, and he was answering their letters. ¹⁸ They sent those letters because many people in Judah had promised to be loyal to him. The reason for this is that Tobiah was son-in-law to Shecaniah son of Arah. And Tobiah’s son Jehohanan had married the daughter of Meshullam. Meshullam is the son of Berekiah. ¹⁹ And in the past, those people had made a special promise to Tobiah. So they kept telling me how good Tobiah was. And they kept telling Tobiah what I was doing. Tobiah kept sending me letters to make me afraid.

¹ After we finished building the wall and put the doors in the gates, we chose the men who would guard the gates and the men to sing in the Temple and help the priests.

² Next, I put my brother Hanani in charge of Jerusalem. I chose another man named Hananiah to be the commander of the fort. I picked Hanani because he was a very honest man and he feared God more than most people do. ³ Then I said to Hanani and Hananiah, “Each day you must wait until the sun has been up for several hours before you open the gates of Jerusalem. You must shut and lock the gates before the sun goes down. Also

* 6:10 Holy Place Literally, “palace.” Only priests were allowed to go into this part of the Temple. † 6:15 Elul That is, August–September, 443 B.C.

choose people who live in Jerusalem as guards. Put some of them at special places to guard the city, and put the other people near their own houses.”

The List of Captives Who Returned

⁴ Now the city was large and there was plenty of room. But there were few people in it, and the houses had not yet been rebuilt. ⁵ So my God put it in my heart to have all the people meet together. I called together all the important people, the officials, and the common people. I did this so that I could make a list of all the families. I found the family lists* of the people who had been the first to return from captivity. This is what I found written there:

⁶ These are the people of the province who came back from captivity. In the past, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took them as prisoners to Babylon. These people came back to Jerusalem and Judah. They all went to their own towns. ⁷ They returned with Zerubbabel, Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, and Baanah. ⁶¹ Some people came to Jerusalem from these towns of Tel Melah, Tel Harsha, Kerub, Addon, and Immer. But these people could not prove that their families really came from the Israelites:

⁶² the descendants of Delaiah, Tobiah, and Nekoda 642

⁶³ From the family of priests there were the descendants of

Hobaiah, Hakkoz, and Barzillai (If a man married a daughter of Barzillai from Gilead, he was counted as a descendant of Barzillai.)

⁶⁴ These people searched for their family histories, but they could not find them. They could not prove that their ancestors were priests, so they could not serve as priests. Their names were not included in the list of priests. ⁶⁵ The governor ordered them not to eat any of the most holy food until a priest could use the Urim and Thummim to ask God what to do.

⁷⁰ Some of the family leaders gave money to support the work. The governor gave 19 pounds‡ of gold to the treasury. He also gave 50 bowls and 530 pieces of clothing for the priests. ⁷¹ The family leaders gave 375 pounds§ of gold to the treasury to support the work. They also gave 2750 pounds* of silver. ⁷² All together the other people gave 375 pounds of gold, 2500 pounds† of silver, and 67 pieces of clothing for the priests.

⁷³ So the priests, the people from the tribe of Levi, the gatekeepers, the singers, and the Temple servants settled down in their own towns. And all the other Israelites settled down in their own towns. By the seventh month‡ of the year, all the Israelites had settled down in their own towns.

Ezra Reads the Law

⁵ So Ezra opened the book. All the people could see him because he was standing above them on the high stage. As he opened the Book of the Law, all the people stood up. ⁶ Ezra praised the LORD, the great God, and all the people held up their hands and said, "Amen! Amen!" Then all the people bowed down and put their faces low to the ground and they worshiped the LORD.

⁷ These men from the tribe of Levi taught the people about the law as they were all standing there. The Levites were Jeshua, Bani, Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodiah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, and Pelaiah. ⁸ They read the Book of the Law of God. They made it easy to understand, and explained what it meant. They did this so that the people could understand what was being read.

⁹ Then Nehemiah the governor, Ezra the priest and teacher, and the Levites who were teaching the people spoke. They said, "Today is a special day† to the LORD your God. Don't be sad and cry." They said that because all the people had begun to cry as they were listening to the messages of God in the law.

¹⁰ Nehemiah said, "Go and enjoy the good food and sweet drinks. Give some food and drinks to those who didn't prepare any food. Today is a special day to our Lord. Don't be sad, because the joy of the LORD will make you strong."

¹¹ The Levites helped the people to calm down. They said, "Be quiet, calm down, this is a special day. Don't be sad."

¹² Then all the people went to eat the special meal. They shared their food and drinks. They celebrated that special day. They were happy that they could hear the reading of God's law and were now able to understand it.

* 7:71 2750 pounds Literally, "2200 minas" (1265 kg). † 7:72 2500 pounds Literally, "2000 minas" (1150 kg).

‡ 7:73 seventh month That is, September–October. Also in 8:1, 14–15. * 8:2 first day of the month This was a special day of worship. The people met together and shared a fellowship meal. † 8:9 special day The first and second days of each month were special days of worship. The people met together and shared a fellowship meal.

¹³ Then on the second day of the month,[‡] the leaders of all the families went to meet with Ezra, the priests, and the Levites. They all gathered around Ezra the teacher to study the words of the law.

¹⁴⁻¹⁵ They studied and found these commands in the law. The LORD gave this command to the people through Moses: In the seventh month of the year, the Israelites must go to Jerusalem to celebrate a special festival. They must live in temporary shelters. And the people are supposed to go through all of their towns and Jerusalem and say this: “Go out into the hill country and get branches from different kinds of olive trees. Get branches from myrtle trees, palm trees, and shade trees. Use the branches to make temporary shelters. Do what the law says.”

¹⁶ So the people went out and got tree branches. Then they built temporary shelters for themselves. They built shelters on their own roofs and in their own yards. And they built shelters in the Temple yard, in the open place near the Water Gate, and near Ephraim Gate. ¹⁷ The whole group that had come back from captivity built shelters. They lived in the shelters they had built. Since the days of Joshua son of Nun up until that day, the Israelites had not celebrated the Festival of Shelters like this. Everyone was very happy!

The People of Israel Confess Their Sins

¹ Then on the 24th day of that same month, the Israelites gathered together for a day of fasting. They wore sackcloth and put ashes on their heads to show they were sad and upset. ² Those people who were true Israelites separated themselves from foreigners. The Israelites stood and confessed their sins and the sins of their ancestors. ³ They stood there for about three hours, and the people read the Book of the Law of the LORD their God. Then for three more hours they confessed their sins and bowed down to worship the LORD their God.

⁴ Then these Levites stood on the stairs: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Kenani. They called out to the LORD their God with loud voices. ⁵ Then these Levites spoke again: Jeshua, Bani, Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabneiah, Sherebiah, Hodiah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah. They said, “Stand up and praise the LORD your God! God has always lived and will live forever.

“People should praise your glorious name.

May your name be lifted above all blessing and praise.

⁶ You are God.

LORD, only you are God.

You made the sky and the highest heavens and everything in them.

You made the earth and everything on it.

You made the seas
and everything in them.

You give life to everything.

All the heavenly angels bow down and worship you.

⁷ You are the LORD,
the God who chose Abram.

You led him from Ur in Babylonia.

[‡] 8:13 second day of the month The first and second days of each month were special days of worship. The people met together and shared a fellowship meal.

You changed his name to Abraham.
8 You saw he was true and loyal to you,
and you made an agreement with him.
You promised to give him the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, and Amorites, Perizzites, Jebusites, and Girgashites.
But you promised to give that land to Abraham's descendants.
And you kept your promise because you are good.
9 You saw our ancestors suffering in Egypt and heard them call for help by the Red Sea.
10 You showed the miracles to Pharaoh.
You did amazing things to his officials and his people.
You knew that the Egyptians thought they were better than our ancestors.
But you proved how great you are,
and they remember that even today.
11 You split the Red Sea in front of them, and they walked through on dry land.
The Egyptian soldiers were chasing them,
but you threw that enemy into the sea.
And they sank like a rock into the sea.
12 With the tall cloud, you led them by day,
and at night you used the column of fire.
That is the way you lit their path and showed them where to go.
13 Then you came down to Mount Sinai.
You spoke to them from heaven.
You gave them good laws.
You gave them true teachings.
You gave them laws and commands that were very good.
14 You told them about your special day of rest—the Sabbath.
Through your servant Moses,
you gave them commands, laws, and teachings.
15 They were hungry,
so you gave them food from heaven.
They were thirsty,
so you gave them water from a rock.
You told them,
'Come, take this land.'
You used your power,
and took the land for them.
16 But our ancestors became proud and stubborn.
They refused to obey your commands.
17 They refused to listen.
They forgot the amazing things you did with them.
They became stubborn.
They decided to return to Egypt and become slaves again.

"But you are a forgiving God!
You are kind and full of mercy.
You are patient and full of love.
So you didn't leave them!
18 You didn't leave them even when they made golden calves and said,

'These are the gods that led us out of Egypt.'

- ¹⁹ You are very kind,
so you didn't leave them in the desert.
You didn't take the tall cloud away from them by day.
You continued to lead them.
You didn't take the column of fire away from them at night.
You continued to light their path and to show them which way to go.
- ²⁰ You gave them your good Spirit to make them wise.
You gave them manna for food.
You gave them water for their thirst.
- ²¹ You took care of them for 40 years.
They had all they needed in the desert.
Their clothes didn't wear out,
and their feet didn't swell and hurt.
- ²² You gave them kingdoms and nations,
and you gave them faraway places where few people live.
They got the land of King Sihon of Heshbon.
They got the land of King Og of Bashan.
- ²³ You made their descendants
as many as the stars in the sky.
You brought them to the land
you promised to give their ancestors.
They went in and took that land.
- ²⁴ Their children took the land.
They defeated the Canaanites living there.
You let them defeat those people.
You let them do whatever they wanted to those nations, people, and kings.
- ²⁵ They defeated powerful cities.
They took the fertile land.
They got houses filled with good things.
They got wells that were already dug.
They got vineyards, olive trees, and plenty of fruit trees.
They ate until they were full and fat.
They enjoyed all the wonderful things you gave them.
- ²⁶ And then they turned against you.
They threw away your teachings.
They killed your prophets.
Those prophets warned the people.
They tried to bring them back to you.
But our ancestors said terrible things against you.
- ²⁷ So you let their enemies have them.
The enemy caused them much trouble.
When trouble came, our ancestors called to you for help.
And in heaven, you heard them.
You are very kind,
so you sent people to save them.
And they rescued them from their enemies.
- ²⁸ Then as soon as our ancestors were rested,
they started doing terrible things again!

So you let the enemy defeat them and punish them.

They called to you for help,
and in heaven you heard them and helped them.

You are so kind.
That happened so many times.

²⁹ You warned them.
You told them to come back,
but they were too proud.
They refused to listen to your commands.

If people obey your laws, they will live.
But our ancestors broke your laws.

They were stubborn.
They turned their backs on you.
They refused to listen.

³⁰ “You were very patient with our ancestors.
You let them mistreat you for many years.
You warned them with your Spirit.
You sent the prophets to warn them.
But our ancestors didn’t listen.
So you gave them to people in other countries.

³¹ “But you are so kind!
You didn’t completely destroy them.
You didn’t leave them.
You are such a kind and merciful God!

³² Our God, you are the great God,
the awesome, powerful soldier!
You are kind and loyal.

You keep your agreement.
We have had many troubles,
and our troubles are important to you.
Bad things happened to all our people,
and to our kings and leaders,
and to our priests and prophets.

Those terrible things have happened from the days of the king of Assyria until today!

³³ But God, you were right about everything that happened to us.
You were right, and we were wrong.

³⁴ Our kings, leaders, priests, and fathers did not obey your law.
They didn’t listen to your commands.
They ignored your warnings.

³⁵ Our ancestors didn’t serve you even when they were living in their own kingdom.
They didn’t stop doing evil.
They enjoyed all the wonderful things you gave them.

They enjoyed the rich land and had plenty of room, but they didn’t stop their evil ways.

³⁶ And now, we are slaves.
We are slaves in this land,
the land you gave our ancestors so they could enjoy its fruit and all the good things that grow here.

³⁷ The harvest is big in this land.

But we sinned, so that harvest goes to the kings you put over us.

They control us and our cattle.

They do anything they want.

We are in a lot of trouble.

³⁸ “Because of all these things, we are making an agreement that cannot be changed. We are putting this agreement in writing. Our leaders, Levites, and priests are signing their names to this agreement and sealing it with a seal.”

Nehemiah the governor, son of Hacaliah. Zedekiah, ² Seraiah, Azariah, Jeremiah, ³ Pashhur, Amariah, Malkijah, ⁴ Hattush, Shebaniah, Malluch, ⁵ Harim, Meremoth, Obadiah, ⁶ Daniel, Ginnethon, Baruch, ⁷ Meshullam, Abijah, Mijamin, ⁸ Maaziah, Bilgai, and Shemaiah. These were the priests who put their names on the sealed agreement.

⁹ And these are the Levites who put their names on the sealed agreement:

Jeshua son of Azaniah, Binnui from the family of Henadad, Kadmiel, ¹⁰ and their brothers: Shebaniah, Hodiah, Kelita, Pelaiiah, Hanan, ¹¹ Mica, Rehob, Hashabiah, ¹² Zaccur, Sherebiah, Shebaniah, ¹³ Hodiah, Bani, and Beninu.

¹⁴ And these are the names of the leaders who put their names on the sealed agreement:

Parosh, Pahath-Moab, Elam, Zattu, Bani, ¹⁵ Bunni, Azgad, Bebai, ¹⁶ Adonijah, Bigvai, Adin, ¹⁷ Ater, Hezekiah, Azzur, ¹⁸ Hodiah, Hashum, Bezai, ¹⁹ Hariph, Anathoth, Nebai, ²⁰ Magpiash, Meshullam, Hezir, ²¹ Meshezabel, Zadok, Jaddua, ²² Pelatiah, Hanan, Anaiah, ²³ Hoshea, Hananiah, Hasshub, ²⁴ Hallohesh, Pilha, Shobek, ²⁵ Rehum, Hashabnah, Maaseiah, ²⁶ Ahiah, Hanan, Anan, ²⁷ Malluch, Harim, and Baanah.

²⁸⁻²⁹ So all these people now make this special promise to God. And they all ask for bad things to happen if they don't keep their promise. All these people promise to follow the law of God. That law of God was given to us through Moses his servant. These people promise with an oath to carefully obey all the commands, rules, and teachings of our Lord GOD. Now, these are the people who are making this promise: The rest of the people—the priests, Levites, gatekeepers, singers, Temple servants, and all the Israelites who separated themselves from the people living around them. They have separated themselves to obey God's law. Their wives, sons, and daughters who are able to listen and understand also did this. All these people joined their brothers and the important people to accept for themselves the promise to obey God's law. And they accepted the curse that asks for bad things to happen to them if they don't obey God's law.

³⁰ “We promise not to let our daughters marry the people living around us. And we promise not to let our sons marry their daughters.

³¹ “We promise not to work on the Sabbath day. If the people living around us bring grain or other things to sell on the Sabbath, we will not buy them on that special day or on any other festival. Every seventh year,* we will not plant or work the land. And every seventh year, we will cancel every debt that other people owe to us.

³² “We will accept the responsibility for obeying the commands to take care of God’s Temple. We will give 1/3 shekel† of silver each year to support the Temple service to honor our God. ³³ This money will pay for the special bread that the priests put on the table in the Temple. It will pay for the daily grain offerings and burnt offerings. It will pay for the offerings on the Sabbaths, New Moon celebrations, and other special meeting days. It will pay for the holy offerings and for the sin offerings that make the Israelites pure. It will pay for any work needed on the Temple of our God.

³⁴ “We, the priests, the Levites, and the people have thrown lots to decide when each of our families is to bring a gift of wood to the Temple of our God at certain times each year. The wood is to burn on the altar of the LORD our God. We must do that just as it is written in the law.

³⁵ “We also accept the responsibility of bringing the first part of our harvest, whether from the grain in our fields or the fruit from our trees. We will bring them to the LORD’S Temple each year.

³⁶ “Just as it is also written in the law, this is what we will do: We will bring our firstborn sons and our firstborn cattle, sheep, and goats. We will bring these to the Temple of our God, to the priests who are serving there.

³⁷ “And we will also bring the first part of our harvest to priests to put in the storage rooms of our God’s Temple. We will bring the first of our ground meal, the first of our grain offerings, the first fruit from our trees, and the first of our new wine and oil. And we will bring a tenth of our crops to the Levites, because they are the ones who collect these things in all the towns where we work. ³⁸ A priest from the family of Aaron must be with the Levites when they receive the crops. Then the Levites must bring the crops to the Temple of our God and put them in the storerooms of the Temple treasury. ³⁹ The Israelites and the Levites must bring their gifts to the storerooms. They are to bring their gifts of grain, new wine, and oil. All the things for the Temple are kept in the storerooms, and that is where the priests who are on duty stay. The singers and gatekeepers also stay there.

“We all promise that we will take care of the Temple of our God.”

New People Move Into Jerusalem

¹ Now the leaders of the Israelites moved into the city of Jerusalem. The rest of the people used lots to decide who else should move there with the leaders. They chose a tenth of the people to live in Jerusalem, the holy city. The rest of the people stayed in their own towns. ² The people who stayed asked God to bless those who were willing to move to Jerusalem.

³ Some of the Israelites, priests, Levites, servants, and descendants of Solomon’s servants lived in the various towns throughout Judah. These all lived on property they owned in these towns. But the area leaders lived in Jerusalem. ⁴ And other people from the families of Judah and Benjamin lived in Jerusalem.

These are the descendants of Judah who moved into Jerusalem:

Athaiah son of Uzziyah (the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Shephatiah, who was the son of Mahalalel, who was a descendant of Perez)

⁵ and Maaseiah son of Baruch (the son of Col-Hozeh, who was the son of Hazaiah, who was the son of Adaiah, who was the son of Joiarib, who was the son of Zechariah, who was a descendant of Shelah). ⁶ The number of Perez's descendants living in Jerusalem was 468. All of them were brave men.

* 10:31 seventh year See Exodus 23:10, 11. † 10:32 1/3 shekel This was probably a coin at this time, but 1 shekel is 2/5 of an ounce (11.5 g).

⁷ These are the descendants of Benjamin who moved into Jerusalem:

Sallu son of Meshullam (the son of Joed, who was the son of Pedaiah, who was the son of Kolaiah, who was the son of Maaseiah, who was the son of Ithiel, who was the son of Jeshaiiah), ⁸ and those who followed Jeshaiiah were Gabbai and Sallai. All together there were 928 men. ⁹ Joel son of Zicri was in charge of them. And Judah son of Hassenuah was in charge of the Second District of the city of Jerusalem.

¹⁰ These are the priests who moved into Jerusalem:

Jedaiah son of Joiarib, Jakin, ¹¹ and Seraiah son of Hilkiyah (the son of Meshullam, who was the son of Zadok, who was the son of Meraioth, who was the son of Ahitub), who was the supervisor in the Temple of God, ¹² and 822 men of their brothers that did the work for the Temple, and Adaiah son of Jeroham (the son of Pelaliah, who was the son of Amzi, who was the son of Zechariah, who was the son of Pashhur, who was the son of Malkijah), ¹³ and 242 men who were Adaiah's brothers (leaders of their families), Amashsai son of Azarel (the son of Ahzai, who was the son of Meshillemoth, who was the son of Immer), ¹⁴ and 128 of Amashsai's brothers. (These men were brave soldiers. The officer over them was Zabdiel son of Haggedolim.)

¹⁵ These are the Levites who moved into Jerusalem:

Shemaiah son of Hasshub (the son of Azrikam, who was the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Bunni), ¹⁶ Shabbethai and Jozabad (two of the leaders of the Levites in charge of the outside work of God's Temple), ¹⁷ Mattaniah (the son of Mica, who was the son of Zabdi, who was the son of Asaph), the director who led the people in singing songs of praise and prayer, Bakbukiah (the second in charge over his brothers), and Abda son of Shammua (the son of Galal, who was the son of Jeduthun). ¹⁸ So there were 284 Levites who moved into Jerusalem, the holy city.

¹⁹ These are the gatekeepers who moved into Jerusalem:

Akkub, Talmon, and 172 of their brothers. They watched and guarded the gates of the city.

²⁰ The other Israelites, and the other priests and Levites, lived in all the towns of Judah. Everyone lived on the land that their ancestors had owned. ²¹ The Temple servants lived on the hill of Ophel. Ziha and Gishpa were in charge of the Temple servants.

²² The officer over the Levites in Jerusalem was Uzzi. Uzzi was the son of Bani (the son of Hashabiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Mica). Uzzi was a descendant of Asaph. Asaph's descendants were the singers who were responsible for the service in God's Temple. ²³ The singers obeyed orders from the king, which told them what to do from day to day. ²⁴ Pethahiah son of Meshezabel told the people what the king wanted done. (Meshezabel was one of the descendants of Zerach. Zerach was Judah's son.)

²⁵ The people of Judah lived in these towns: In Kiriath Arba and the small towns around it, in Dibon and the small towns around it, in Jekabzeel and the small towns around it, ²⁶ and in Jeshua, in Moladah, in Beth Pelet, ²⁷ in Hazar Shual, in Beersheba and the small towns around it, ²⁸ and in Ziklag, in Meconah and the small towns around it, ²⁹ and in En Rimmon, in Zorah, in Jarmuth, ³⁰ and in Zanoah and Adullam and the small towns around them, in Lachish and the fields around it, and in Azekah and the small towns around it. So the people of Judah were living all the way from Beersheba to the Valley of Hinnom.

³¹ The descendants of the family of Benjamin from Geba lived in Micmash, Aija, Bethel, and the small towns around it, ³² in Anathoth, Nob, and Ananiah, ³³ in Hazor, Ramah, and Gittaim, ³⁴ in Hadid, Zeboim, and Neballat, ³⁵ in Lod and Ono, and in the Valley of the Craftsmen. ³⁶ Some of the groups from the family of Levi moved to the land of Benjamin.

Priests and Levites

¹ These are the priests and Levites who came back to the land of Judah. They came back with Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and Jeshua. This is a list of their names:

- Seraiah, Jeremiah, Ezra,
- ² Amariah, Malluch, Hattush,
- ³ Shecaniah, Rehum, Meremoth,
- ⁴ Iddo, Ginnethon, Abijah,
- ⁵ Mijamin, Maadiah, Bilgah,
- ⁶ Shemaiah, Joiarib, Jedaiah,
- ⁷ Sallu, Amok, Hilkiah, and Jedaiah.

These men were the leaders of the priests and their relatives in the days of Jeshua.

⁸ The Levites were Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and also Mattaniah. These men, with Mattaniah's relatives, were in charge of the songs of praise to God. ⁹ Bakbukiah and Unni were the relatives of those Levites. These two men stood across from them in the services. ¹⁰ Jeshua was the father of Joiakim. Joiakim was the father of Eliashib. Eliashib was the father of Joiada. ¹¹ Joiada was the father of Jonathan, and Jonathan was the father of Jaddua.

¹² In the days of Joiakim, these men were the leaders of the families of priests:

- The leader of Seraiah's family was Meraiah.
- The leader of Jeremiah's family was Hananiah.
- ¹³ The leader of Ezra's family was Meshullam.
- The leader of Amariah's family was Jehohanan.
- ¹⁴ The leader of Malluch's family was Jonathan.
- The leader of Shecaniah's family was Joseph.
- ¹⁵ The leader of Harim's family was Adna.
- The leader of Meremoth's family was Helkai.
- ¹⁶ The leader of Iddo's family was Zechariah.
- The leader of Ginnethon's family was Meshullam.
- ¹⁷ The leader of Abijah's family was Zicri.
- The leader of Mijamin and Maadiah's families was Piltai.
- ¹⁸ The leader of Bilgah's family was Shammua.
- The leader of Shemaiah's family was Jehonathan.
- ¹⁹ The leader of Joiarib's family was Mattenai.
- The leader of Jedaiah's family was Uzzi.
- ²⁰ The leader of Sallu's family was Kallai.
- The leader of Amok's family was Eber.
- ²¹ The leader of Hilkiah's family was Hashabiah.
- The leader of Jedaiah's family was Nethanel.

²² The names of the leaders of the families of the Levites and the priests in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, Johanan, and Jaddua were written down during the rule of Darius the Persian king. ²³ The family leaders among the descendants of the Levites and up to the time of Johanan son of Eliashib were written in the history book. ²⁴ And these were the leaders of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, and their brothers. Their brothers stood across from them to sing praise and honor to God. One group answered the other group. That is what was commanded by David the man of God.

²⁵ The gatekeepers who guarded the storerooms next to the gates were Mattaniah, Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, and Akkub. ²⁶ They served in the days of Joiakim. Joiakim was the son of Jeshua, who was the son of Jozadak. And the gatekeepers also served in the days of Nehemiah the governor and in the days of Ezra the priest and teacher.

Dedication of the Wall of Jerusalem

²⁷ The people dedicated the wall of Jerusalem. They brought all the Levites to Jerusalem. The Levites came from the towns they lived in. They came to Jerusalem to celebrate the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem. They came to sing songs of praise and thanks to God. They played their cymbals, harps, and lyres.

³⁰ So the priests and Levites made themselves pure in a ceremony. Then they also made the people, the gates, and the wall of Jerusalem pure in a ceremony.

³¹ I told the leaders of Judah to go up and stand on top of the wall. I also chose two large singing groups to give thanks to God. One group was to start going up on top of the wall on the right side, toward the Ash Pile Gate. ³² Hoshaiah and half of the leaders of Judah followed the singers. ³³ Also following them were Azariah, Ezra, Meshullam, ³⁴ Judah, Benjamin, Shemaiah, and Jeremiah. ³⁵ And some of the priests with trumpets also followed them up to the wall. Zechariah also followed them. (Zechariah was the son of Jonathan, who was the son of Shemaiah, who was the son of Mattaniah, who was the son of Micaiah, who was the son of Zaccur, who was the son of Asaph.) ³⁶ There were also Asaph's brothers, who were Shemaiah, Azarel, Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethanel, Judah, and Hanani. They had the musical instruments that David, the man of God, had made. Ezra the teacher led the group of people who were there to dedicate the wall. ³⁷ They went to the Fountain Gate and walked up the stairs all the way to the City of David. They were on top of the city wall. They walked over the house of David and went toward the Water Gate.

³⁸ The second group of singers started out in the other direction, to the left. I followed them as they went up to the top of the wall. Half of the people also followed them. They went past the Tower of Ovens to the Broad Wall. ³⁹ Then they went over these gates: the Gate of Ephraim, the Old Gate, and the Fish Gate. And they went over the Tower of Hananel and the Tower of the Hundred. They went as far as the Sheep Gate and stopped at the Guard Gate. ⁴⁰ Then the two singing groups went to their places in God's Temple. And I stood in my place. And half the officials stood in their places in the Temple. ⁴¹ Then these priests stood in their places: Eliakim, Maaseiah, Mijamin, Micaiah, Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah. These priests had their trumpets with them. ⁴² Then these priests stood in their places in the Temple: Maaseiah, Shemaiah, Eleazar, Uzzi, Jehohanan, Malkijah, Elam, and Ezer.

Then two singing groups began singing with Jezrahiah leading them. ⁴³ So on that special day, the priests offered many sacrifices. Everyone was very happy because God had made them happy. Even the women and children were excited and happy. People far away could hear the happy sounds coming from Jerusalem.

⁴⁴ Men were chosen to be in charge of the storerooms on that day. People brought the first part of the harvest and a tenth of their crops. So the men in charge put these things in the storerooms. The Jewish people were very happy about the priests and Levites on duty. So they brought many things to be put in the storerooms. ⁴⁵ The priests and Levites did their work for their God. They did the ceremonies that made people pure, and the singers and gatekeepers did their part. They did everything that David and Solomon had commanded. ⁴⁶ (Long ago, in the days of David, Asaph had been the director. And he had many songs of praise and thanks to God.)

⁴⁷ So in the days of Zerubbabel and of Nehemiah, all the Israelites gave every day to support the singers and gatekeepers. The people also set aside the money for the other Levites. And the Levites set aside the money for the descendants of Aaron.

Nehemiah's Last Commands

¹ On that day the Book of Moses was read out loud, so that all the people could hear. They found this law written there: No Ammonite and no Moabite would be permitted to join in the meetings with God. ² That law was written because those people didn't give the Israelites food and water. And they had paid Balaam to say a curse against the Israelites. But our God changed that curse and made it a blessing for us. ³ So when the Israelites heard that law, they obeyed it. They separated themselves from the people who were descendants of foreigners.

⁴⁻⁵ But, before that happened, Eliashib had given a room in the Temple to Tobiah. Eliashib was the priest in charge of the storerooms in our God's Temple. And he was a close friend of Tobiah. That room had been used for storing the grain offerings, incense, and the Temple dishes and things. They also kept the tenth of grain, new wine, and oil for the Levites, singers, and gatekeepers in that room. And they also kept the gifts for the priests in that room. But Eliashib gave that room to Tobiah.

⁶ I was not in Jerusalem while all of this was happening. I had gone back to the king of Babylon. I went back to Babylon in the 32nd year that Artaxerxes was king of Babylon.* Later, I asked the king for permission to go back to Jerusalem. ⁷ So I came back to Jerusalem. There I heard about the sad thing that Eliashib had done. He had given Tobiah a room in the Temple of God! ⁸ I was very angry about what Eliashib had done, so I threw all of Tobiah's things out of the room. ⁹ I gave commands for the rooms to be made pure and clean. Then I put the Temple dishes and things, the grain offerings, and the incense back into the rooms.

¹⁰ I also heard that the people had not given the Levites their share. So the Levites and singers had gone back to work in their own fields. ¹¹ So I told the officials that they were wrong. I asked them, "Why didn't you take care of God's Temple?" Then I called all Levites together and told them to go back to their places and duties in the Temple. ¹² Then everyone in Judah brought their tenth of grain, new wine, and oil to the Temple. These things were put into the storerooms.

¹³ I put these men in charge of the storerooms: Shelemiah the priest, Zadok the teacher, and a Levite named Pedaiah. And I made Hanan son of Zaccur, son of Mattaniah, their helper. I knew I could trust these men. They were responsible for giving the supplies to their relatives.

¹⁴ My God, please remember me for these things I have done. Don't forget all I have faithfully done for the Temple of my God and for its services.

¹⁵ In those days in Judah, I saw people working on the Sabbath day. I saw people pressing grapes to make wine. I saw people bringing in grain and loading it on donkeys. I saw people carrying grapes, figs, and all kinds of things in the city. They were bringing all these things into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, so I warned them about this. I told them they must not sell food on the Sabbath day.

* 13:6 the 32nd year ... Babylon That is, 432 B.C.

¹⁶ There were some men from the city of Tyre living in Jerusalem. They were bringing fish and all kinds of things into Jerusalem and selling them on the Sabbath day. And the Jews were buying them. ¹⁷ I told the important people of Judah that they were wrong. I said, "You are doing a very bad thing. You are ruining the Sabbath day. ¹⁸ You know that your ancestors did the same things. That is why our God brought all the troubles and disaster to us and to this city. Now you people are making it so that more of these bad things will happen to Israel. They are doing this because you are breaking the Sabbath by treating it just as if it were any other day."

¹⁹ So this is what I did: Every Friday evening, just before dark, I commanded the gatekeepers to shut and lock the gates to Jerusalem. They were not to be opened until the Sabbath day was over. I put some of my own men at the gates. They were commanded to make sure that no load was brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day.

²⁰ One or two times, traders and merchants had to stay the night outside Jerusalem. ²¹ But I warned them, "Don't stay the night in front of the wall. If you do that again, I will arrest you." So from that time on they didn't come on the Sabbath day to sell their things.

²² Then I commanded the Levites to make themselves pure. After they did that, they were to go and guard the gates. This was done to make sure the Sabbath day was kept a holy day.

My God, please remember me for doing this. Be kind to me and show me your great love!

²³ In those days I also noticed that some Jewish men had married women from the countries of Ashdod, Ammon, and Moab. ²⁴ And half of the children from those marriages didn't know how to speak the Jewish language. They spoke the language of Ashdod, Ammon, or Moab. ²⁵ So I told the men that they were wrong. I said bad things to them. I hit some of them, and I pulled out their hair. I forced them to make a promise in God's name. I said to them, "You must not marry the daughters of these foreigners. Don't let their daughters marry your sons, and don't let your daughters marry the sons of these foreigners. ²⁶ You know that marriages like this caused Solomon to sin. In all the many nations, there was not a king as great as Solomon. God loved him and made him king over the whole nation of Israel. But even Solomon was made to sin because of foreign women. ²⁷ And now, we hear that you also are doing this terrible sin. You are not being true to our God. You are marrying foreign women."

²⁸ Joiada was the son of Eliashib the high priest. One of Joiada's sons was a son-in-law of Sanballat from Horon. I forced him to leave this place. I forced him to run away.

²⁹ My God, punish these people. They made the priesthood unclean. They treated it as if it was not important. They did not obey the agreement that you made with the priests and Levites. ³⁰ So I made the priests and Levites clean and pure. I took away all the foreigners and the strange things they taught. And I gave the Levites and priests their own duties and responsibilities. ³¹ And I made sure that people will bring gifts of wood and the first part of their harvest at the right times.

My God, remember me for doing these good things.

Esther

Queen Vashti Disobeys the King

³ In the third year of Xerxes' rule, he gave a party for his officers and leaders. The army leaders and important leaders from all of Persia and Media were there. ⁴ The party continued for 180 days. All during this time, King Xerxes was showing the great wealth of his kingdom and the majestic beauty and wealth of his palace. ⁵ And when the 180 days were over, King Xerxes gave another party that continued for seven days. It was held in the inside garden of the palace. All the people who were in the capital city of Susa were invited, from the most important to the least important. ⁶ The inside garden had white and blue linen hangings around the room. They were held in place with cords of white linen and purple material on silver rings and marble pillars. There were couches made of gold and silver. They were sitting on mosaic pavement made of porphyry,† marble, mother-of-pearl, and other expensive stones. ⁷ Wine was served in golden cups, and every cup was different. There was plenty of the king's wine, because the king was very generous. ⁸ The king had given a command to his servants. He told them that each guest must be given as much wine as he wanted, and the wine server obeyed the king.

¹⁰⁻¹¹ On the seventh day of the party, King Xerxes was in high spirits from drinking wine. He gave a command to the seven eunuchs who served him. The eunuchs were Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas. He commanded them to bring Queen Vashti to him wearing her royal crown. She was to come so that she could show her beauty to the leaders and important people. She was very beautiful.

¹² But when the eunuchs told Queen Vashti about the king's command, she refused to come. Then the king was very angry. ¹³⁻¹⁴ It was the custom for the king to ask the advice of the experts about the law and punishments. So King Xerxes spoke with the wise men who understood the laws. They were very close to the king. Their names were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan. They were the seven most important officials of Persia and Media. They had special privileges to see the king. They were the highest officials in the kingdom. ¹⁵ The king asked them, "What does the law say must be done to Queen Vashti? She has not obeyed the command of King Xerxes that the eunuchs had taken to her."

¹⁶ Then Memucan answered the king with the other officials listening, "Queen Vashti has done wrong. She has done wrong against the king and also against all the leaders and people of all the provinces of King Xerxes. ¹⁷ I say this, because all the other women will hear about what Queen Vashti did. Then they will stop obeying their husbands. They will say to their husbands, 'King Xerxes commanded Queen Vashti to be brought to him, but she refused to come.'

¹⁸ "Today the wives of the Persian and Median leaders have heard what the queen did, and these women will be influenced by what she did. They will do the same thing to the king's important leaders. And there will be plenty of disrespect and anger.

¹⁹ "So if it pleases the king, here is a suggestion: Let the king give a royal command and let it be written in the laws of Persia and Media. The laws of Persia and Media cannot be changed. The royal command should be that Vashti is never again to enter the presence of King Xerxes. Let the king also give her royal position to someone else who is better than she is. ²⁰ Then when the king's command is announced in all parts of his large kingdom, all the women will respect their husbands. From the most important to the least important, all the women will respect their husbands."

²¹ The king and his important officials were happy with this advice, so King Xerxes did as Memucan suggested. ²² King Xerxes sent letters to all parts of the kingdom. He sent them to each province, written in its own language. He sent them to each nation in its own language. These letters announced in each person's language that every man was to be the ruler over his own family.

Esther Made Queen

⁸ When the king's command had been heard, many young women were brought to the capital city of Susa. They were put under the care of Hegai. Esther was one of these women. She was taken to the king's palace and put into Hegai's care. Hegai was in charge of the king's women. ⁹ He liked Esther. She became his favorite, so he quickly gave Esther beauty treatments and special food. He chose seven slave women from the king's palace and gave them to Esther. Then he moved Esther and her seven women servants into the best place where the king's women lived. ¹⁰ Esther didn't tell anyone she was a Jew. She didn't tell anyone about her family background, because Mordecai had told her not to. ¹¹ Every day Mordecai walked back and forth near the area where the king's women lived. He did this because he wanted to find out how Esther was, and what was happening to her.

¹⁶ So Esther was taken to King Xerxes in the palace. This happened in the tenth month, the month of Tebeth, in the seventh year of his rule.

¹⁷ The king loved Esther more than any of the other young women, and she became his favorite. He approved of her more than any of the others. So King Xerxes put a crown on Esther's head and made her the new queen in place of Vashti. ¹⁸ And the king gave a big party for Esther. It was for all his important people and leaders. He announced a festival in all the provinces and sent out gifts to people, because he was a generous king.

Mordecai Learns About an Evil Plan

¹⁹ Mordecai was sitting next to the king's gate at the time the young women were gathered together the second time. ²⁰ Esther had still kept it a secret that she was a Jew. She had not told anyone about her family background. This is what Mordecai had told her to do. She still obeyed Mordecai just as she had done when he was taking care of her.

²¹ During the time Mordecai was sitting next to the king's gate, this happened: Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's officers who guarded the doorway, became angry with the king. They began to make plans to kill King Xerxes. ²² But Mordecai learned about these plans and told Queen Esther. Then she told the king. She also told him that Mordecai was the one who had learned about the evil plan. ²³ Then the report was checked out. It was learned that Mordecai's report was true. The two guards who had planned to kill the king were hanged on a post. All these things were written down in a book of the king's histories in front of the king.

Haman's Plan to Destroy the Jews

⁴ Day after day, the king's leaders spoke to Mordecai, but he refused to obey the command to bow down to Haman. So they told Haman about it. They wanted to see what Haman would do about Mordecai. Mordecai had told them that he was a Jew. ⁵ When Haman saw that Mordecai refused to bow down to him or give him honor, he was very angry. ⁶ Haman had learned that Mordecai was a Jew. But he was not satisfied to kill only Mordecai. He also wanted to find a way to destroy all of Mordecai's people, the Jews, in all of Xerxes' kingdom.

⁷ In the twelfth year of King Xerxes' rule, in the first month, the month of Nisan, Haman threw lots to choose a special day and month. And the twelfth month, the month of Adar was chosen. (At that time the lot was called "pur.") ⁸ Then Haman came to King Xerxes and said, "King Xerxes, there is a certain group of people scattered among the people in all the provinces of your kingdom. They keep themselves separate from other people. Their customs are different from those of all other people. And they don't obey the king's laws. It is not right for the king to allow them to continue to live in your kingdom.

¹⁰ So the king took the official ring off his finger and gave it to Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite. Haman was the enemy of the Jews. ¹¹ Then the king said to Haman, "Keep the money. Do what you want with them."

* 3:9 750,000 pounds Literally, "10,000 talents" (340,000 kg).

¹² Then on the 13th day of the first month, the king's secretaries were called. They wrote out all of Haman's commands in the language of each province. And they wrote them in the language of each group of people. They wrote to the king's satraps, the governors of the different provinces, and the leaders of the different groups of people. They wrote with the authority of King Xerxes himself, and sealed the commands with the king's own ring.

¹⁴ A copy of the letters with the command was to be given as a law. It was to be a law in every province and announced to the people of every nation living in the kingdom. Then everyone would be ready for that day. ¹⁵ At the king's command the messengers hurried off. The command was given in the capital city of Susa. The king and Haman sat down to drink, but the city of Susa was in confusion.

Mordecai Persuades Esther to Help

¹ When Mordecai heard about all that had been done, he tore his clothes. Then he put on sackcloth, put ashes on his head, and went out into the city crying loudly. ² But Mordecai went only as far as the king's gate. No one was allowed to enter the gate dressed in sackcloth. ³ In every province where the king's command had come, there was much crying and sadness among the Jews. They were fasting and crying loudly. Many Jews were lying on the ground dressed in sackcloth with ashes on their heads.

⁴ Esther's slave women and eunuchs came to her and told her about Mordecai. This made Queen Esther very sad and upset. She sent clothes for Mordecai to put on instead of the sackcloth, but he would not accept them. ⁵ Then Esther called Hathach, one of the king's eunuchs who had been chosen to serve her. She commanded him to find out what was bothering Mordecai, and why. ⁶ So Hathach went out to where Mordecai was in the open place of the city in front of the king's gate. ⁷ Then Mordecai told Hathach everything that had happened to him. Mordecai told him about the exact amount of money Haman had promised to put into the king's treasury for killing Jews. ⁸ Mordecai also gave Hathach a copy of the king's command to kill the Jews. The command had been sent out all over the city of Susa. He wanted Hathach to show it to Esther and tell her everything. And he told him to encourage Esther to go to the king and beg him for mercy for Mordecai and her people.

⁹ Hathach went back and told Esther everything Mordecai had said.

¹²⁻¹³ Then Esther's message was given to Mordecai. When he got her message, Mordecai sent his answer back: "Esther, don't think that just because you live in the king's palace you will be the only Jew to escape. ¹⁴ If you keep quiet now, help and freedom for the Jews will come from another place. But you and your father's family will all die. And who knows, maybe you have been chosen to be the queen for such a time as this."

¹⁵⁻¹⁶ Then Esther sent this answer to Mordecai: "Mordecai, go and get all the Jews in Susa together, and fast for me. Don't eat or drink for three days and nights. I and my women servants will fast too. After we fast, I will go to the king. I know it is against the law to go to the king if he didn't call me, but I will do it anyway. If I die, I die."

¹⁷ So Mordecai went away and did everything Esther told him to do.

Esther Speaks to the King

¹ On the third day, Esther put on her special robes. Then she stood in the inside area of the king's palace, in front of the king's hall. The king was sitting on his throne in the hall, facing the place where people enter the throne room. ² When the king saw Queen Esther standing in the court, he was very pleased. He held out to her the gold scepter that was in his hand. So Esther went in to the room and went near the king. Then she touched the end of the king's gold scepter.

³ Then the king asked, "What is bothering you Queen Esther? What do you want to ask me? I will give you anything you ask for, even half my kingdom."

⁴ Esther said, "I have prepared a party for you and Haman. Will you and Haman please come to the party today?"

⁵ Then the king said, "Bring Haman quickly so that we may do what Esther asks."

So the king and Haman went to the party Esther had prepared for them. ⁶ While they were drinking wine, the king asked her again, "Now Esther, what do you want to ask for? Ask for anything, I will give it to you. So what is it you want? I will give you anything you want, up to half my kingdom."

⁷ Esther answered, "This is what I want to ask for: ⁸ If the king is pleased with me and thinks it good to give me what I ask for, let the king and Haman come tomorrow. I will prepare another party for them. Then I will tell what I really want."

Haman's Anger at Mordecai

⁹ Haman left the king's palace that day very happy and in a good mood. But when he saw Mordecai at the king's gate, he became very angry. Haman was very mad at him because Mordecai didn't show any respect when Haman walked by. Mordecai was not afraid of Haman, and this made Haman mad. ¹⁰ But Haman controlled his anger and went home. Then Haman called together his friends and his wife, Zeresh. ¹¹ Haman started bragging about how rich he was. He was bragging to his friends about his many sons, and about all the ways the king had honored him. And he was bragging about how the king had promoted him higher than all the other leaders. ¹² "And that's not all," Haman added. "I'm the only one Queen Esther invited to be with the king at the party she gave. And the Queen also has invited me to be with the king again tomorrow. ¹³ But all this means nothing to me. I cannot be happy as long as I see that Jew Mordecai sitting at the king's gate."

¹⁴ Then Haman's wife Zeresh and all his friends had a suggestion. They said, "Tell someone to build a post to hang him on. Make it 75 feet* tall. In the morning ask the king to hang Mordecai on it. Then go to the party with the king and you can be happy."

Haman liked this suggestion, so he ordered someone to build the hanging post.

Mordecai Is Honored

¹ That same night, the king could not sleep. So he told a servant to bring the history book and read it to him. (The Book of History of the Kings lists everything that happens during a king's rule.) ² The servant read the book to the king. He read about the evil plan to kill King Xerxes. That was when Mordecai had learned about Bigthana and Teresh. These two men were the king's officers who guarded the doorway. They had planned to kill the king, but Mordecai learned about the plan and told someone about it.

* 5:14 75 feet Literally, "50 cubits" (22 m).

³ Then the king asked, “What honor and good things have been given to Mordecai for this?”

The servants answered the king, “Nothing has been done for Mordecai.”

⁴ Haman had just entered the outer area of the king’s palace. He had come to ask the king to hang Mordecai on the hanging post Haman had commanded to be built. The king said, “Who just came into the courtyard?” ⁵ The king’s servants said, “Haman is standing in the courtyard.”

So the king said, “Bring him in.”

⁶ When Haman came in, the king asked him a question. He said, “Haman, what should be done for a man the king wants to honor?”

Haman thought to himself, “Who is there that the king would want to honor more than me? I’m sure that the king is talking about honoring me.”

⁷ So Haman answered the king, “Do this for the man the king loves to honor: ⁸ Have the servants bring a special robe the king himself has worn and a horse the king himself has ridden. Have the servants put the king’s special mark on the horse’s head. ⁹ Then put one of the king’s most important leaders in charge of the robe and the horse, and let the leader put the robe on the man the king wants to honor. Then let him lead him on the horse through the city streets. As he leads him, let him announce, ‘This is done for the man the king wants to honor!’ ”

¹⁰ “Go quickly,” the king commanded Haman. “Get the robe and the horse and do just as you have suggested for Mordecai the Jew. He is sitting near the king’s gate. Do everything that you suggested.”

¹¹ So Haman got the robe and the horse. Then he put the robe on Mordecai and led him on horseback through the city streets. Haman announced ahead of Mordecai, “This is done for the man the king wants to honor!”

¹² After that Mordecai went back to the king’s gate, but Haman hurried home with his head covered because he was embarrassed and ashamed. ¹³ Then Haman told his wife Zeresh and all his friends everything that had happened to him. His wife and the men who gave him advice said, “If Mordecai is a Jew, you cannot win. You have already started to fall. Surely you will be ruined!”

¹⁴ While they were still talking to Haman, the king’s eunuchs came to Haman’s house. They made Haman hurry to the party that Esther had prepared.

Haman Is Hanged

¹ So the king and Haman went to eat with Queen Esther. ² Then as they were drinking wine on the second day of the party, the king again asked Esther a question, “Queen Esther, what is it you want to ask for? Ask anything and it will be given to you. What do you want? I will give you anything, even half my kingdom.”

³ Then Queen Esther answered, “King, if you like me and it pleases you, please let me live. And I ask you to let my people live too. This is what I ask for. ⁴ I ask this because my people and I have been sold to be destroyed—to be killed and wiped out completely. If we had just been sold as slaves, I would have kept quiet, because that would not be enough of a problem to bother the king.”

⁵ Then King Xerxes asked Queen Esther, “Who did this to you? Where is the man who dared to do such a thing to your people?”

⁶ Esther said, “The man against us, our enemy, is this wicked Haman.”

Then Haman was filled with terror before the king and queen. ⁷ The king was very angry. He got up, left his wine, and went out into the garden. But Haman stayed inside to beg Queen Esther to save his life. He begged for his life because he knew that the king had already decided to kill him. ⁸ Just as the king was coming back in from the garden to the party room, he saw Haman falling on the couch where Esther was lying. The king said with anger in his voice, “Will you attack the queen even while I am in the house?”

As soon as the king had said this, servants came in and killed Haman.* ⁹ One of the eunuchs who served the king was named Harbona. He said, “A hanging post 75 feet[†] tall has been built near Haman’s house. Haman had it made so that he could hang Mordecai on it. Mordecai is the man who helped you when he told about the evil plans to kill you.”

The king said, “Hang Haman on that post!”

¹⁰ So they hanged Haman on the hanging post he had built for Mordecai. Then the king stopped being angry.

The King’s Order to Help the Jews

¹ That same day King Xerxes gave Queen Esther everything that belonged to Haman, the enemy of the Jews. Esther told the king that Mordecai was her cousin. Then Mordecai came to see the king. ² The king had gotten his ring back from Haman. The king took the ring off his finger and gave it to Mordecai. Then Esther put Mordecai in charge of everything that belonged to Haman.

⁴ Then the king held out the gold scepter to Esther. Esther got up and stood in front of the king. ⁵ Then she said, “King, if you like me and if it pleases you, please do this for me. Please do this if you think it is a good idea. If the king is happy with me, please write a command that would stop the command Haman sent out. Haman the Agagite thought of a plan to destroy the Jews in all the king’s provinces, and he sent out commands for this to happen. ⁶ I am begging the king because I could not bear to see these terrible things happen to my people. I could not bear to see my family killed.”

⁹ Very quickly the king’s secretaries were called. This was done on the 23rd day of the third month, the month of Sivan. They wrote out all of Mordecai’s commands to the Jews, and to the satraps, the governors, and officials of the 127 provinces. These provinces reached from India to Ethiopia. The commands were written in the language of each province and translated into the language of each group of people. The commands were written to the Jews in their own language and alphabet. ¹⁰ Mordecai wrote commands by the authority of King Xerxes. Then he sealed the letters with the king’s ring and sent them by messengers on horses. The messengers rode fast horses, which were raised especially for the king.

¹¹ The king’s commands in the letters said this: The Jews in every city have the right to gather together to protect themselves. They have the right to ruin, kill, and completely destroy any army from any group who might attack them and their women and children. And the Jews have the right to take and destroy the property of their enemies.

¹² The day set for the Jews to do this was the 13th day of the twelfth month, the month of Adar. They were permitted to do this in all King Xerxes’ provinces. ¹³ A copy of the letter with the king’s command was to be sent out. It became a law in every province. They announced it to all the people of every nation living in the kingdom. They did this so that the Jews would be ready for that special day. They would be allowed to pay their enemies back. ¹⁴ The messengers hurried out, riding on the king's horses. The king commanded them to hurry. And the command was also put in the capital city of Susa.

¹⁵ Mordecai left the king. He was wearing special clothes from the king. His clothes were blue and white, and he had on a large gold crown. He also had a purple robe made of the best linen. There was a special celebration in Susa. The people were very happy. ¹⁶ It was an especially happy day for the Jews, a day of great joy and happiness.

¹⁷ Wherever the king's command went in every province and every city, there was joy and gladness among the Jews. They were having parties and celebrating. Many of the common people from other groups became Jews. They did this because they were very afraid of the Jews.

Victory for the Jews

¹¹ That day the king heard how many men had been killed in the capital city of Susa. ¹² So the king said to Queen Esther, "The Jews have killed 500 men in Susa, including Haman's ten sons. Now, what do you want done in the other provinces of the king? Tell me, and I will have it done. Ask, and I will do it."

¹³ Esther said, "If it pleases the king, please let the Jews in Susa do the same thing again tomorrow. Also, hang the bodies of Haman's ten sons on posts."

¹⁴ So the king gave the command that it should be done. So the law was given in Susa, and they hanged Haman's ten sons. ¹⁵ The Jews in Susa met together on the 14th day of the month of Adar. They killed 300 men in Susa, but they didn't take the things that belonged to them.

¹⁶ At the same time, the Jews living in the other provinces also met together. They met together so that they would be strong enough to protect themselves. And so they got rid of their enemies. They killed 75,000 of their enemies. But the Jews didn't take anything that belonged to them. ¹⁷ This happened on the 13th day of the month Adar. On the 14th day the Jews rested and made that day a happy day of feasting.

The Festival of Purim

¹⁸ The Jews in Susa had met together on the 13th and 14th days of the month of Adar. And then on the 15th day they rested. So they made the 15th day a happy day of feasting. ¹⁹ So those who live in the country and small villages celebrate Purim on the 14th day of Adar. They keep the 14th day as a happy day of feasting. On this day they have parties and give presents to each other.

²⁰ Mordecai wrote everything down that had happened, and then he sent letters to all the Jews in all of King Xerxes' provinces. He sent letters far and near. ²¹ He did this to tell the Jews to celebrate Purim every year on the 14th and 15th days of the month of Adar. ²² They were to celebrate those days because on those days the Jews got rid of their enemies. And they were also to celebrate that month as the month when their sadness was turned into joy. It was a month when their crying was changed into a day of celebration. Mordecai wrote letters to all the Jews and told them to celebrate those days as a happy day of feasting. They should have parties, give gifts to each other, and give presents to the poor.

²³ So the Jews agreed to do what Mordecai had written to them. And they agreed to continue the celebration they had begun.

²⁴ Haman son of Hammedatha the Agagite was the enemy of all the Jews. He had made an evil plan against the Jews to destroy them. And Haman had thrown the lot to choose a day to ruin and to destroy the Jews. At that time the lot was called a "pur." ²⁵ Haman did this, but Esther went to talk to the king. So he sent out new commands. These commands not only ruined Haman's plans, but these commands caused those bad things to happen to Haman and his family! So Haman and his sons were hanged on the posts.

²⁶⁻²⁷ At this time lots were called "purim." So this festival is called "Purim." Mordecai wrote a letter and told the Jews to celebrate this festival. And so the Jews started the custom of celebrating these two days every year. ²⁸ They do this to help them remember what they had seen happen to them. The Jews and all the people who join them celebrate these two days every year at the right time in just the right way. Every generation and every family remembers these two days. They celebrate this festival in each and every province and in each and every town. And the Jews will never stop celebrating the days of Purim. Their descendants will always remember this festival.

²⁹ So Queen Esther daughter of Abihail, along with Mordecai the Jew, wrote an official letter about Purim. They wrote with full authority of the king to prove that the second letter was true. ³⁰ So Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in the 127 provinces of King Xerxes' kingdom. He told the people that the festival should bring peace and make people trust* each other. ³¹ He wrote these letters to tell the people to start celebrating Purim. And he told them when to celebrate this new festival. Mordecai the Jew and Queen Esther had sent out the command for the Jews to establish this two-day festival for themselves and their descendants. They will remember this festival just as they remember the other festivals when they fast and cry about the bad things that had happened. ³² Esther's letter made the rules for Purim official, and these things were written down in a book.

Mordecai Honored

¹ King Xerxes made people pay taxes. All the people in the kingdom, even the faraway cities on the seacoast, had to pay taxes. ² And all the great things Xerxes did are written in the Book of History of the Kings of Media and Persia. Also written in those history books are all the things Mordecai did. The king made Mordecai a great man. ³ Mordecai the Jew was second in importance to King Xerxes. He was the most important man among the Jews. His fellow Jews respected him very much, because he worked hard for the good of his people and brought peace to all the Jews.

* 9:30 peace ... trust Or "fellowship and truth." Zechariah 8:19 teaches that this is how people should celebrate the festivals and why God gave them.

Job

Job, the Good Man

¹ There was a man named Job who lived in the country of Uz. He was a good, honest man. He respected God and refused to do evil. ² Job had seven sons and three daughters. ³ He owned 7000 sheep, 3000 camels, 1000 oxen, and 500 female donkeys. He had many servants. He was the richest man in the east.

⁴ Job's sons took turns having dinner parties in their homes, and they invited their sisters. ⁵ The day after each of these parties, Job got up early in the morning, sent for his children, and offered a burnt offering for each of them. He thought, "Maybe my children were careless and sinned against God at their party." Job always did this so that his children would be forgiven of their sins.

⁶ Then the day came for the angels* to meet with the LORD. Even Satan was there with them. ⁷ The LORD said to Satan, "Where have you been?"

Satan answered the LORD, "I have been roaming around the earth, going from place to place."

⁸ Then the LORD said to Satan, "Have you noticed my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him. He is a good, faithful man. He respects God and refuses to do evil."

⁹ Satan answered the LORD, "But Job has a good reason to respect you. ¹⁰ You always protect him, his family, and everything he has. You have blessed him and made him successful in everything he does. He is so wealthy that his herds and flocks are all over the country. ¹¹ But if you were to destroy everything he has, I promise you that he would curse you to your face."

¹² The LORD said to Satan, "All right, do whatever you want with anything that he has, but don't hurt Job himself."

Then Satan left the meeting.

Job Loses Everything

¹³ One day Job's sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house. ¹⁴ A messenger came to Job and said, "We were plowing the fields with the oxen and the donkeys were eating grass nearby, ¹⁵ when some Sabceans† attacked us and took your animals! They killed the other servants. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

¹⁶ That messenger was still speaking when another one came in and said, "A bolt of lightning‡ struck your sheep and servants and burned them up. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

¹⁷ That messenger was still speaking when another one came in and said, "The Chaldeans§ sent out three raiding parties that attacked us and took the camels! They killed the other servants. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

¹⁸ That messenger was still speaking when another one came in and said, "Your sons and daughters were eating and drinking wine at the oldest brother's house. ¹⁹ A strong wind suddenly came in from across the desert and blew the house down. It fell on your sons and daughters, and they are all dead. I am the only one who escaped to come and tell you the news!"

²⁰ When Job heard this, he got up, tore his clothes, and shaved his head to show his sadness. Then he fell to the ground to bow down before God ²¹ and said,

* 1:6 angels Literally, "sons of God." † 1:15 Sabceans A group of people from the Arabian Desert, probably south of Uz. ‡ 1:16 A bolt of lightning Or "God's fire fell from the sky." § 1:17 Chaldeans Tribes of people who moved from place to place in the area between the Euphrates and Jordan rivers.

“When I was born into this world,
 I was naked and had nothing.
 When I die and leave this world,
 I will be naked and have nothing.
 The LORD gives,
 and the LORD takes away.
 Praise the name of the LORD!”

²² Even after all this, Job did not sin. He did not accuse God of doing anything wrong.

Satan Bothers Job Again

¹ Then another day came for the angels* to meet with the LORD. Satan joined them for this meeting with the LORD. ² The LORD said to Satan, “Where have you been?”

Satan answered the LORD, “I have been roaming around the earth, going from place to place.”

³ Then the LORD said to Satan, “Have you noticed my servant Job? There is no one on earth like him. He is a good, faithful man. He respects God and refuses to do evil. He is still faithful, even though you asked me to let you destroy, without reason, everything he has.”

⁴ Satan answered, “Skin for skin!† A man will give everything he has to protect himself. ⁵ I swear, if you attack his flesh and bones, he will curse you to your face!”

⁶ So the LORD said to Satan, “All right, Job is in your hands, but you are not allowed to kill him.”

⁷ So Satan left the meeting with the LORD and gave Job painful sores all over his body, from the bottom of his feet to the top of his head. ⁸ Job sat on the pile of ashes where he was mourning and used a piece of broken pottery to scrape his sores. ⁹ His wife said to him, “Are you still holding on to your faith? Why don’t you just curse God and die!”

¹⁰ Job answered, “You sound like one of those fools on the street corner! How can we accept all the good things that God gives us and not accept the problems?” So even after all that happened to Job, he did not sin. He did not accuse God of doing anything wrong.

Job’s Three Friends Come to See Him

¹¹ Job’s three friends heard about all the bad things that happened to him, so Eliphaz came from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah. They met together and went to comfort Job and show him their sympathy. ¹² But his friends didn’t even recognize him when they first saw him in the distance! They began to cry loudly. They tore their clothes and threw dirt in the air over their heads to show how sad they were.

¹³ Then they sat on the ground with Job for seven days and seven nights. They didn’t say a word, because they saw he was in so much pain.

Job Curses the Day He Was Born

¹ Then Job opened his mouth and cursed the day he was born. ² He said, ³ “I wish the day I was born would be lost forever.

I wish the night they said, ‘It’s a boy!’ had never happened.

⁴ I wish that day had remained dark.

I wish God above had forgotten that day and not let any light shine on it.

⁵ I wish that bitter day had remained as dark as death,

* 2:1 angels Literally, “sons of God.” † 2:4 Skin for skin This means a person will do anything to avoid pain.

- covered with the darkest clouds.
⁶ I wish the darkness had carried away that night, that it was left off the calendar and not included in any of the months.
⁷ I wish that night had produced nothing and no happy shouts had been heard.
⁸ Some magicians think they can wake Leviathan.*
 So let them say their curses and curse the day I was born.
⁹ Let that day's morning star be dark.
 Let that night wait for a morning that never comes.
 I wish it had never seen the first rays of sunlight.
¹⁰ I wish it had stopped me from being born and kept me from seeing all these troubles.
¹¹ Why didn't I die when I was born?
 Why didn't I die as I came from my mother's womb?
¹² Why did my mother hold me on her knees?
 Why did her breasts feed me?
¹³ If I had died when I was born,
 I would be at peace now.
 I wish I were asleep and at rest
¹⁴ with the kings and their advisors who built palaces that are now in ruins.
¹⁵ I wish I were buried with rulers who filled their graves with gold and silver.
¹⁶ Why wasn't I a child who died at birth and was put in the ground?
 I wish I had been buried like a baby who never saw the light of day.
¹⁷ There the wicked stop causing trouble,
 and the weary find rest.
¹⁸ Even prisoners find relief there;
 they no longer hear their guards shouting at them.
¹⁹ Everyone—from the greatest to the least important—will be there, and even the slave is free from his master.
²⁰ "Why must a suffering person continue to live?
 Why let anyone live such a bitter life?
²¹ Such people want to die, but death does not come.
 They search for death more than for hidden treasure.
²² They would be happy to find their grave.
 They would rejoice to find their tomb.
²³ But God keeps their future a secret and builds a wall around them to protect them.
²⁴ When it is time to eat, all I can do is sigh with sadness, not joy.
 My groans pour out like water.
²⁵ I was afraid something terrible would happen, and what I feared most has happened.
²⁶ I cannot calm down or relax.
 I am too upset to rest!"

* 3:8 Leviathan Here, this is probably a giant sea monster. Some people thought magicians were able to make it "swallow the sun," that is, cause an eclipse.

Eliphaz Speaks

- ¹ Eliphaz from Teman answered:
- ² “I must say something.
Would it upset you if I speak?
- ³ Job, you have taught many people.
You encouraged those who were ready to quit.
- ⁴ Your words helped those who were ready to fall.
You gave strength to those who could not stand by themselves.
- ⁵ But now trouble comes to you,
and you are discouraged.
Trouble hits you,
and you are upset.
- ⁶ You worship God.
You trust him.
You are a good man,
so let that be your hope.
- ⁷ Can you think of any innocent person who was ever destroyed?
Do you know of any place where good people are punished?
- ⁸ Yes, I have seen people whose lives were cut short,
but they were evil troublemakers.
- ⁹ They lost the breath God gave them.
They were cut off from his breath of life.
- ¹⁰ They were like roaring lions, like growling lions with broken teeth—
- ¹¹ like a lioness that cannot find prey.
They died, and their cubs starved to death.
- ¹² “I happened to hear a message.
My ears caught a whisper of it.
- ¹³ Like a bad dream* in the night,
it ruined my sleep.
- ¹⁴ It frightened me,
and I trembled down to my bones.
- ¹⁵ A spirit passed by my face.
The hair on my body stood up!
- ¹⁶ The spirit stood still,
but I could not see what it was.
A shape stood before my eyes,
and there was silence.
Then I heard a quiet voice:
- ¹⁷ ‘A person cannot be more right than God.
People cannot be more pure than their Maker.
- ¹⁸ Look, God cannot even trust his heavenly servants.
He sees faults even in his angels.
- ¹⁹ So surely people are worse!
They live in houses of clay† built on dust.
They can be crushed as easily as a moth!
- ²⁰ From dawn to sunset people are destroyed.

* 4:13 bad dream Or “vision of the night.” † 4:19 houses of clay This means the human body.

They die—gone forever—and no one even notices.

- ²¹ The ropes of their tent are pulled up, and they die before gaining wisdom.’

- ¹ “Job, call out if you want, and see if anyone answers!
But to which of the angels will you turn?
² A fool’s anger will kill him.
His jealousy will destroy him.
³ I saw a fool who thought he was safe,
but suddenly he died.*
⁴ There was no one to help his children.
No one defended them in court.
⁵ Hungry people ate all his crops, even the grain growing among the thorns,
and greedy people took all he had.
⁶ Bad times don’t come up from the dirt.
Trouble does not grow from the ground.
⁷ But people are born to have trouble,
as surely as sparks rise from a fire.
⁸ If I were you, I would turn to God and tell him about my problems.
⁹ People cannot understand the wonderful things God does.
His miracles are too many to count.
¹⁰ He sends rain all over the earth and waters the fields.
¹¹ He raises up the humble and makes sad people happy.
¹² He spoils the plans of even the smartest people so that they will not succeed.
¹³ He catches those who think they are wise in their own clever traps and brings to an end their evil plans.
¹⁴ Daylight will be like darkness for them.
Even at noon they will have to feel their way as in the dark.
¹⁵ God saves the poor from the hurtful words of the wicked.
He saves them from those who are powerful.
¹⁶ So the poor have hope;
God shuts the mouths of those who would cause them harm.

¹⁷ “You are fortunate when God corrects you.
So don’t complain when God All-Powerful punishes you.
¹⁸ God might injure you, but he will bandage those wounds.
He might hurt you, but his hands also heal.
¹⁹ He will save you again and again.
No evil will harm you.†
²⁰ God will save you from death
when there is famine.
He will protect you from the sword when there is war.
²¹ People might say bad things about you with their sharp tongues.

* 5:3 suddenly he died Or “suddenly his home was cursed.” † 5:19 Literally, “In six troubles, he will rescue you, and in seven, evil will not touch you.”

- But God will protect you.
 You will not be afraid when bad things happen!
- ²² You will laugh at destruction and famine.
 You will not be afraid of wild animals!
- ²³ It is as if you have a peace treaty with the wild animals and the rocks in the field.
- ²⁴ You will live in peace because your tent is safe.
 You will count your property and find nothing missing.
- ²⁵ You will have many children.
 They will be as many as the blades of grass on the earth.
- ²⁶ You will be like the wheat that grows until harvest time.
 Yes, you will live to a ripe old age.
- ²⁷ “We have studied this and know it is true.
 So listen to us, and learn for yourself.”

Job Answers Eliphaz

- ¹ Then Job answered:
- ² “I wish my suffering could be weighed and all my trouble be put on the scales.
- ³ They would be heavier than all the sand of the sea!
 That is why my words are so crazy.
- ⁴ God All-Powerful has shot me with his arrows.
 My spirit feels their poison!
 God’s terrible weapons are lined up against me.
- ⁵ Even a wild donkey does not complain when it has grass to eat.
 And a cow is quiet when it has food.
- ⁶ Food without salt does not taste good,
 and the white of an egg has no taste.
- ⁷ I refuse to touch that kind of food;
 it makes me sick!
- ⁸ “I wish I could have what I ask for.
 I wish God would give me what I want.
- ⁹ I wish he would crush me—
 just go ahead and kill me!
- ¹⁰ Then I would be comforted by this one thing:
 Even through all this pain,
 I never refused to obey the commands of the Holy One.
- ¹¹ “With my strength gone, I have no hope to go on living.
 With nothing to look forward to, why should I be patient?
- ¹² I am not strong like a rock.
 My body is not made from bronze.
- ¹³ I don’t have the power to help myself, because all hope of success has been taken away from me.
- ¹⁴ “Friends should be loyal to you in times of trouble, even if you turn away from God All-Powerful.*

* 6:14 Or “People who fail to be loyal to their friends have also failed to respect God All-Powerful.”

- 15 But I cannot depend on you, my brothers.
 You are like a stream that has no water when the weather is dry but is flooded when the rains come.
- 16 In the winter, it is choked with ice and melting snow.
- 17 But when the weather is hot and dry,
 the water stops flowing,
 and the stream disappears.
- 18 It twists and turns along the way and then disappears into the desert.
- 19 Traders from Tema search for it.
 Travelers from Sheba hope to find it.
- 20 They are sure they can find water,
 but they will be disappointed.
- 21 Now, you are like those streams.
 You see my troubles and are afraid.
- 22 But have I ever asked you to help me?
 Did I ask you to offer a bribe for me from your wealth?
- 23 No, and I never said, 'Save me from my enemies!'
 or 'Save me from those who are cruel!'
- 24 "So now, teach me, and I will be quiet.
 Show me what I have done wrong.
- 25 Honest words are powerful,
 but your arguments prove nothing.
- 26 Do you plan to criticize me?
 Will you speak more tiring words?
- 27 Are you the kind of people who would gamble for orphans and sell out your own friends?
- 28 Now, look me in the face,
 and see that I am telling the truth!
- 29 You need to start over and stop being so unfair!
 Think again, because I am innocent.
- 30 I am not lying.
 I know right from wrong.

- 1 "People have a hard struggle on earth.
 Their life is like that of a hired worker.
- 2 They are like a slave looking for cool shade or a hired worker waiting for payday.
- 3 Month after frustrating month has gone by.
 I have suffered night after night.
- 4 When I lie down, I think,
 'How long before it's time to get up?'
- The night drags on.
 I toss and turn until the sun comes up.
- 5 My skin is covered with worms and scabs.
 It is cracked and covered with sores.
- 6 "My days pass by faster than a weaver's shuttle,*

* 7:6 weaver's shuttle The tool a person who makes cloth uses to pass the thread between the other threads.

- and my life will end without hope.
- ⁷ God, remember, my life is like a breath.
I will not get a second chance to enjoy it.
- ⁸ Those who see me now will never see me again.
You watch me for a while, but then I am gone.
- ⁹ Just as clouds that come and go,
people are put in the grave, never to rise again.
- ¹⁰ They don't come back to their old homes.
The people there would not know them.
- ¹¹ "So I will not be quiet!
I will let my suffering spirit speak!
I will let my bitter soul complain!
- ¹² Am I one of your enemies?
Is that why you put a guard over me?[†]
- ¹³ My bed should bring me comfort.
My couch should give me rest and relief.
- ¹⁴ But when I lie down, you scare me with dreams;
you frighten me with visions.
- ¹⁵ So I would rather be choked to death than to live like this.
- ¹⁶ I hate my life—I give up.
I don't want to live forever.
Leave me alone!
My life means nothing.
- ¹⁷ God, why are people so important to you?
Why do you even notice them?
- ¹⁸ Why do you visit them every morning and test them at every moment?
- ¹⁹ You never look away from me or leave me alone for a second.
- ²⁰ You are always watching us!
If I sinned, would that hurt you?
Why have you made me your target?
Have I become a problem for you?
- ²¹ Why don't you just pardon me for doing wrong?
Why don't you just forgive me for my sins?
Soon I will die and be in my grave.
You will search for me, but I will be gone."

Bildad Speaks to Job

- ¹ Then Bildad from Shuah answered:
- ² "How long will you talk like that?
Your words are nothing but hot air!
- ³ God is always fair.
God All-Powerful does what is right.
- ⁴ If your children sinned against God, he punished them.

[†] 7:12 Literally, "Am I Yam or Tannin that you should appoint a guard to watch me?" In ancient Canaanite stories, Yam was the god of the sea, and Tannin was a sea monster.

- They paid for their sins.
5 But now, look to God and pray to the All-Powerful.
6 If you are pure and good,
he will quickly come to help you.
He will give your family back to you.
7 Then you will have a lot more than you had in the beginning!
- 8 “Ask those who are now old.
Find out what their ancestors learned.
9 It seems as though we were born yesterday.
We are too young to know anything.
Our days on earth are very short, like a shadow.
10 Maybe the old people can tell you something.
Maybe they will teach you what they learned.
- 11 “Can papyrus grow tall on a dry land?
Can reeds grow without water?
12 No, they will dry up before harvest.
They will be too small to cut and use.
13 People who forget God are like that.
Those who oppose him have no hope.
14 They have put their trust in something weak.
It is like a spider’s web.
15 When they lean against it,
it will break.
When they reach out for it,
it will not hold them up.
16 Such people are like a vine that gets plenty of water and sunshine, and its branches spread throughout the garden.
17 Its roots spread among the rocks, searching for good soil.
18 But if you move it, it will die,
and no one can tell it was ever there.
19 Everything might have been going well,
but another vine will take its place.
20 God does not support evil people,
and he does not abandon the innocent.
21 So perhaps you might laugh again.
Maybe shouts of joy will come from your lips.
22 Maybe your enemies will be humiliated and the homes of the wicked destroyed.”

Job Answers Bildad

- 1 Then Job answered:
2 “Of course, I know that this is true.
But how can a human being win an argument with God?
3 Anyone who chose to argue with him could not answer one question in a thousand!

- 4 God is so wise and powerful that no one could oppose him and survive.
- 5 When God is angry, he moves mountains before they know what happened.
- 6 He can shake the earth, and it will tremble down to its foundations.
- 7 With one command he can stop the sun from rising.
He can lock up the stars and keep them from shining.
- 8 He alone made the skies,
and he walks on the ocean waves.
- 9 “God made the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades.*
He made the planets that cross the southern sky.†
- 10 He does things too marvelous for people to understand.
He does too many miracles to count!
- 11 When he passes by, I cannot see him.
He goes right past me, and I don’t notice.
- 12 If he takes something away, no one can stop him.
No one can say to him, ‘What are you doing?’
- 13 God will not hold back his anger.
Even Rahab’s helpers are afraid of him.
- 14 So I cannot argue with God.
I would not know what to say to him.
- 15 I am innocent, but I cannot give him an answer.
All I can do is beg my Judge for mercy.
- 16 Even if I called and he answered,
I cannot believe he would listen to me.
- 17 He would just send storms to crush me.
He would give me more wounds for no reason.
- 18 He would not let me catch my breath again.
He would just give me more trouble.
- 19 I cannot defeat God.
He is too powerful!
- I cannot take him to court for justice.
Who could force him to come?
- 20 I am innocent, but anything I say makes me seem guilty.
I am innocent, but if I speak, my mouth proves me wrong.
- 21 I am innocent, but I don’t know what to think.
I hate my own life.
- 22 So I say, ‘Does it make any difference?
God destroys the innocent as well as the guilty.’
- 23 Is it God who laughs when a disaster kills innocent people?
- 24 Is it God who keeps the leaders from seeing when an evil person takes control?
If it is not God, then who is it?
- 25 “My days are passing faster than a runner.
They are flying by without any joy.
- 26 They go by as quickly as papyrus boats,
as fast as an eagle swooping down on its prey.
- 27 “I could say, ‘I will not complain.

* 9:9 Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades Names of well-known constellations (groups of stars) in the night sky. † 9:9 planets ... sky Literally, “Rooms of the South” or “Rooms of Teman.” This might be the planets or the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. North of the equator, these seem to move across the southern sky.

I will forget my pain and put a smile on my face.’
²⁸ But the suffering still frightens me.
 I know that God will not see me as innocent.
²⁹ I will be found guilty,
 so why should I even think about it?
³⁰ Even if I scrubbed my hands with soap and washed myself whiter than snow, ³¹ God would still push me into the slime pit,[‡] and even my clothes would hate to touch me.
³² God is not a human like me, so I cannot argue with him.
 I cannot take him to court.
³³ I wish there were someone who could listen to both sides,[§] someone to judge both of us in a fair way.
³⁴ I wish someone could take away the threat of God’s punishment.
 Then he would not frighten me anymore.
³⁵ Then I could say what I want without being afraid of him.
 But I cannot do that now.

¹ “I hate my own life, so I will complain freely.
 I am very bitter, so now I will speak.
² I will say to God, ‘Don’t just say I am guilty!
 Tell me what you have against me.
³ Do you enjoy hurting me?
 Do you enjoy ignoring me while smiling at what evil people say?
⁴ Do you have human eyes?
 Do you see things the way people do?
⁵ Is your life as short as ours?
 Is your life as short as a man’s life?
⁶ You look for my wrong and search for my sin.
⁷ You know I am innocent,
 but no one can save me from your power!
⁸ Your hands made me and shaped my body.
 But now they are closing around me and squeezing me to death!
⁹ Remember, you molded me like clay.
 Will you turn me into clay again?
¹⁰ You poured me out like milk.
 You spun me around and squeezed me like someone making cheese.
¹¹ You put me together with bones and muscles,
 and then you clothed me with skin and flesh.
¹² You gave me life and were very kind to me.
 You cared for me and watched over my spirit.
¹³ But this is what you hid in your heart.
 Now I know what you were planning for me.
¹⁴ If I sinned, you would be watching me so that you could punish me for doing wrong.
¹⁵ If I sin, I am guilty and should be cursed.
 But even when I am innocent,

[‡] 9:31 slime pit The grave, a place where bodies rot. [§] 9:33 someone ... sides Literally, “a mediator” or “an umpire.”

I cannot lift up my head.
 I am so ashamed
 because of all the troubles I have.
¹⁶ If I have any success and feel proud, you hunt me down like a lion and show your power over me.
¹⁷ You bring witness after witness to prove that I am wrong.
 Again and again you show your anger
 as you send army after army against me.
¹⁸ So why did you let me be born?
 I wish I had died before anyone saw me.
¹⁹ I wish I had never lived.
 I wish they had carried me from my mother's womb straight to the grave.
²⁰ My life is almost finished.
 So leave me alone!
 Let me enjoy the little time I have left.
²¹ I am going soon to the land of no return,
 the place of death and darkness—
²² that land of darkest night, of shadows and confusion, where even the light is darkness.' ”

Zophar Speaks to Job

¹ Then Zophar from Naamah answered Job and said,
² “This flood of words should be answered!
 Does all this talking make Job right?
³ Do you think we don't have an answer for you?
 Do you think no one will warn you when you laugh at God?
⁴ You say to God,
 ‘My arguments are right,
 and you can see I am pure.’
⁵ I wish God would answer you and tell you that you are wrong.
⁶ He could tell you the secret of wisdom.
 He would tell you that every story has two sides.
 You can be sure of this:
 God is not punishing you as much as he should.
⁷ “Do you think you really understand God?
 Do you completely understand God All-Powerful?
⁸ That knowledge is higher than the heavens and deeper than the place of death.
 So what can you do?
 How can you learn it all?
⁹ It is greater than the earth and bigger than the seas.
¹⁰ “If God decides to arrest you and take you to court,

- no one could stop him.
- ¹¹ God knows who is worthless.
When he sees evil, he remembers it.
- ¹² A wild donkey cannot give birth to a man, and a stupid person will never become wise.
- ¹³ Prepare your heart to serve only God.
Lift your arms and pray to him.
- ¹⁴ Put away the sin that you still hold on to.
Don't keep evil in your tent.
- ¹⁵ If you will do that, you could look to God without shame.
You can stand strong and not be afraid.
- ¹⁶ Then you can forget your troubles, like water that has already passed by.
- ¹⁷ Your life will be brighter than the sunshine at noon.
Life's darkest hours will shine like the morning sun.
- ¹⁸ You will feel safe because there is hope.
God will protect you and give you rest.
- ¹⁹ You will lie down without fear of anyone.
Many people will come to you for help.
- ²⁰ Evil people might look for help,
but they will not escape their troubles.
Their hope leads only to death."

Job Answers His Friends

- ¹ Then Job answered them:
- ² "I'm sure you think you are the only wise people left.
You think that when you die, wisdom will be gone with you.
- ³ But my mind is as good as yours.
You aren't any smarter than I am.
You haven't said anything that people don't already know.
- ⁴ "My friends laugh at me now.
They say, 'He prayed to God and got his answer.'
I am a good, innocent man,
but still they laugh at me.
- ⁵ Those who have no troubles make fun of those who do.
They hit a man when he is down.
- ⁶ But robbers' tents are not bothered.
Those who make God angry live in peace,
even though God has them in his power.
- ⁷ "But ask the animals, and they will teach you.
Or ask the birds of the air, and they will tell you.
- ⁸ Or speak to the earth, and it will teach you.
Or let the fish in the sea tell you their wisdom.
- ⁹ Everyone knows that the LORD made these things.

- ¹⁰ Every animal that lives and everyone who breathes—
 they are all under God's power.
¹¹ But just as the tongue tastes food,
 the ears test the words they hear.
¹² People say, 'Wisdom is to be found in those who are old.
 Long life brings understanding.'
¹³ But wisdom and power belong to God.
 Good advice and understanding are his.
¹⁴ Anything God tears down cannot be rebuilt.
 Anyone he puts in prison cannot be set free.
¹⁵ If he holds back the rain, the earth will dry up.
 If he lets the rain loose, it will flood the land.
¹⁶ God is strong and always wins.
 He controls those who fool others and those who are fooled.
¹⁷ He strips advisors of their wisdom and makes leaders act like fools.
¹⁸ He strips kings of their authority and makes them slaves.
¹⁹ He strips priests of their power and removes those who feel so secure in their position.
²⁰ He makes trusted advisors be silent.
 He takes away the wisdom of the older leaders.
²¹ He brings disgrace to important people.
 He takes power away from rulers.
²² He exposes even the darkest secrets.
 He sends light into places that are as dark as death.
²³ God makes nations great,
 and then he destroys them.
 He makes nations grow large,
 and then he scatters their people.
²⁴ He makes their leaders foolish.
 He makes them wander around in the desert.
²⁵ They are like someone feeling their way in the dark.
 They are like drunks who don't know where they are going.

- ¹ "I have seen all this before.
 I have already heard everything you say.
 I understand all these things.
² I know as much as you do.
 I am as smart as you are.
³ But I don't want to argue with you.
 I want to speak to God All-Powerful.
 I want to argue with God about my troubles.
⁴ But you men try to cover up your ignorance with lies.
 You are like worthless doctors who cannot heal anyone.
⁵ I wish you would just be quiet.
 That would be the wisest thing you could do.
⁶ "Now, listen to my argument.
 Listen to what I have to say.
⁷ Will you speak lies for God?
 Do you really believe your lies are what God wants you to say?

- 8 Are you trying to defend God against me?
You are not being fair.
You are choosing God's side simply because he is God.
- 9 If God checked you very closely,
would he see that you are right?
Do you really think you can fool God
the same as you fool people?
- 10 You know that God would criticize you if you chose someone's side simply because they were important.
- 11 God's majesty frightens you.
You are afraid of him.
- 12 The wise sayings you quote are worthless.
Your arguments are as weak as clay.
- 13 "Be quiet and let me talk!
I accept whatever happens to me.
- 14 I will put myself in danger and take my life in my own hands.
- 15 I will continue to trust God even if he kills me.*
But I will defend myself to his face.
- 16 And if he lets me live, it will be because I had the confidence to speak.
No guilty person would dare meet God face to face.
- 17 Listen carefully to what I say.
Let me explain.
- 18 I am ready now to defend myself.
I will carefully present my arguments.
I know I will be shown to be right.
- 19 If anyone can prove I am wrong,
I will shut up and wait to die.
- 20 "God, just give me two things,
and then I will not hide from you:
- 21 Stop punishing me,
and don't frighten me with your terrors.
- 22 Then call to me, and I will answer you.
Or let me speak, and you answer me.
- 23 How many sins have I committed?
What wrongs have I done?
Show me where I went wrong or how I sinned.
- 24 God, why do you avoid me and treat me like your enemy?
- 25 Are you trying to scare me?
I am only a leaf blowing in the wind.
You are attacking a piece of straw!
- 26 You have a list of terrible charges against me.
Are you making me suffer for the sins I did when I was young?
- 27 You have put chains on my feet.
You watch every step I take.
You see every move I make.
- 28 So I am becoming weaker and weaker,
like a piece of wood rotting away,

* 13:15 I will ... kills me Or "If he decides to kill me, I have no hope."

like a piece of cloth eaten by moths.

- 1 “We are all human beings.*
Our life is short and full of trouble.
- 2 Our life is like a flower that grows quickly and then dies away.
Our life is like a shadow that is here for a short time and then is gone.
- 3 God, do you need to keep an eye on something so small?
Why bother to bring charges against me?
- 4 “No one can make something clean from something so dirty.
- 5 The length of our life has been decided.
You alone know how long that is.
You have set the limits for us and nothing can change them.
- 6 So stop watching us; leave us alone, and let us enjoy this hard life until we have put in our time.
- 7 “There is always hope for a tree.
If it is cut down, it can grow again.
It will keep sending out new branches.
- 8 Its roots might grow old in the ground and its stump die in the dirt,
- 9 but with water, it will grow again.
It will grow branches like a new plant.
- 10 But when a man dies,
he becomes weak and sick, and then he is gone!
- 11 Like a lake that goes dry or a river that loses its source,
- 12 so people lose their lives,
never to live again.
The skies will all pass away before they rise from death.
The skies will all disappear before anyone wakes up from that sleep!
- 13 “I wish you would hide me in my grave.
I wish you would hide me there, until your anger is gone.
Then you could pick a time to remember me.
- 14 If a man dies, will he live again?
If so, I would gladly suffer through this time waiting for my release.†
- 15 God, you would call me, and I would answer you.
Then I, the one you made,
would be important to you.
- 16 You would still watch every step I take,
but you would not remember my sins.
- 17 It would be as if you had sealed my sins in a bag.
It would be as if you had covered my guilt with plaster.
- 18 “Mountains fall and crumble away.

* 14:1 human beings Literally, “born of woman.” † 14:14 I would ... release Or “I would wait my whole tour of duty for my replacement to come.”

- Large rocks break loose and fall.
¹⁹ Water flowing over stones wears them down.
 Floods wash away the soil on the ground.
 In the same way, God, you destroy the hope people have.
²⁰ You defeat them completely and then they are gone.
 You change the way they look and send them away forever to the place of death.
²¹ If their sons are honored, they will never know it.
 If their sons do wrong, they will never see it.
²² They only feel the pain in their bodies, and they alone cry for themselves.”

Eliphaz Answers Job

- ¹ Then Eliphaz from Teman answered Job:
- ² “If you were really wise,
 you would not answer with your worthless personal opinions!
 A wise man would not be so full of hot air.
³ Do you think a wise man would use empty words and meaningless speeches to win his arguments?
⁴ If you had your way,
 no one would respect God and pray to him.
⁵ What you say clearly shows your sin.
 Job, you are trying to hide your sin by using clever words.
⁶ I don’t need to prove to you that you are wrong.
 The words from your own mouth show that you are wrong.
 Your own lips speak against you.
- ⁷ “Do you think you were the first person ever to be born?
 Were you born before the hills?
⁸ Did you listen to God’s secret plans?
 Do you think you are the only wise person?
⁹ We know as much as you do!
 We understand as well as you.
¹⁰ The old, gray-haired men agree with us.
 People older than your father are on our side.
¹¹ God tries to comfort you, but that is not enough for you.
 We have spoken his message to you in a gentle way.
¹² Why will you not understand?
 Why can you not see the truth?
¹³ You are expressing your anger against God when you say these things.
- ¹⁴ “People cannot really be pure.
 They* cannot be more right than God!
¹⁵ God does not even trust his angels.†
 He does not even think the sky is pure.

* 15:14 They Literally, “a man born of woman.” † 15:15 angels Literally, “holy ones.”

- 16 People are even worse.
They are disgusting and dirty.
They drink up evil like water.
- 17 “Listen to me, and I will explain it to you.
Let me tell you what I have seen.
- 18 I will tell you what wise men would say, things they heard from their fathers and then freely passed on.
They didn’t hide any secrets from me.
- 19 These are important people in our country!
Everyone knows who they are.
- 20 And they said that an evil man suffers all his life.
A cruel man suffers all his numbered years.
- 21 Every noise scares him.
His enemy will attack him when he thinks he is safe.
- 22 An evil man has no hope of escaping the darkness.
There is a sword somewhere waiting to kill him.
- 23 He wanders from place to place, looking for food.
But he knows a dark day is coming, which he brought on himself.
- 24 He lives in fear, with worry and suffering threatening him like a king ready to attack.
- 25 That is because that evil man shook his fist at God, refusing to obey.
He dared to attack God All-Powerful,
- 26 like a soldier with a thick, strong shield who runs at his enemy to strike him in the neck.
- 27 He might be rich and fat,
28 but his town will be ruined;
his home will be destroyed;
his house will be empty.
- 29 He will not be rich for long.
His wealth will not last.
His crops will not grow large.
- 30 He will not escape the darkness.
He will be like a tree whose leaves die from disease and are blown away by the wind.
- 31 That evil man should not fool himself by trusting in worthless things, because he will keep nothing.
- 32 He will die before his time,
like a tree whose top branches have already begun to die.
- 33 He will be like a vine that loses its grapes before they ripen.
He will be like an olive tree that loses its buds.
- 34 That is because people without God have nothing.
Those who take bribes will have their homes destroyed by fire.
- 35 They are always thinking of ways to do evil and cause trouble.
They are always planning how they might cheat others.”

Job Answers Eliphaz

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 “I have heard all these things before.
You men give me trouble, not comfort.

- ³ Your long speeches never end!
 Why do you continue arguing?
- ⁴ I also could say the same things you say,
 if you had my troubles.
I could say wise things against you and shake my head at you.
- ⁵ But I would say things to encourage you and give you hope.
- ⁶ “Nothing I say makes my pain go away.
 But keeping quiet does not help either.
- ⁷ God, you surely took away my strength.
 You destroyed my whole family.
- ⁸ You have made me thin and weak,
 and people think that means I am guilty.
- ⁹ “God attacks me;
 he is angry with me and tears my body apart.
He grinds his teeth against me.
 My enemy looks at me with hate.
- ¹⁰ People have crowded around me.
 They make fun of me and slap my face.
- ¹¹ God has given me to evil people.
 He let the wicked hurt me.
- ¹² I was enjoying a quiet, peaceful life,
 but then God crushed me.
Yes, he took me by the neck and broke me into pieces.
He has made me his target.
- ¹³ With his archers all around me,
he shoots arrows into my kidneys.
 He shows no mercy
 and spills my gall* on the ground.
- ¹⁴ Again and again he attacks me.
 He runs at me like a soldier in battle.
- ¹⁵ “I am very sad, so I wear this sackcloth.
 I sit here in dust and ashes, feeling defeated.
- ¹⁶ My face is red from crying.
 There are dark rings around my eyes.
- ¹⁷ I was never cruel to anyone,
 and my prayers are pure.
- ¹⁸ “Earth, don’t hide the wrong things that were done to me.†
 Don’t let my begging for fairness be stopped.
- ¹⁹ Even now there is someone in heaven who will speak for me.
 There is someone above who will testify for me.
- ²⁰ My friend speaks for me,
 while my eyes pour out tears to God.
- ²¹ He speaks to God for me,

* 16:13 gall The bitter contents of the gall bladder, which is near the liver. Here, it means something bitter and painful. † 16:18 Earth ... done to me Literally, “Earth, don’t cover my blood.” See Genesis 4:10-11.

like someone[‡] presenting an argument for a friend.

²² “In only a few years
I will go to that place of no return.

¹ My spirit is broken;
I am ready to give up.

My life is almost gone;
the grave is waiting for me.

² People stand around me and laugh at me.
I watch them as they tease and insult me.

³ “God, give me some support.
No one else will!

⁴ You have closed my friends’ minds, and they don’t understand.
Please don’t let them win.

⁵ You know what people say:
‘A man neglects his own children to help his friends.’*
But my friends have turned against me.

⁶ God has made my name a bad word to everyone.
People spit in my face.

⁷ My eyes are almost blind from my grief.
My whole body is as thin as a shadow.

⁸ Good people wonder how this could happen.
The innocent are upset with anyone who is against God.

⁹ But those who do right will continue to do what is right.
Those who are not guilty grow stronger and stronger.

¹⁰ “But come on, all of you, and try to prove me wrong.
I don’t find any of you to be wise.

¹¹ My life is passing away, and my plans are destroyed.
My hope is gone.

¹² Everything is confused—night is day, and evening comes when it should be dawn.

¹³ “I might hope for the grave to be my new home.
I might hope to make my bed in the dark grave.

¹⁴ I might say to the grave, ‘You are my father,’ and to the worms, ‘my mother’ or ‘my sister.’

¹⁵ But you can’t really call that hope, can you?
Does anyone see any hope for me?

¹⁶ Will hope go down with me to the place of death?
Will we go down into the dirt together?”

Bildad Answers Job

¹ Then Bildad from Shuah answered:

[‡] 16:21 someone Literally, “son of man.” * 17:5 You know ... friends Literally, “He promises a share to his friends and his children’s eyes go blind.”

- 2 “When will you stop talking?
Be sensible; let us say something.
- 3 Why do you think we are stupid,
like dumb cows?
- 4 Your anger is hurting no one but you.
Do you think this world was made for you alone?
Do you think God should move mountains just to satisfy you?
- 5 “Yes, the light of those who are evil will go out.
Their fire will stop burning.
- 6 The light in their houses will become dark.
The lamps next to them will go out.
- 7 Their steps, once strong and fast, become weak.
Their own evil plans make them fall.
- 8 Their own feet lead them into a net.
They fall into its hidden pit and are caught.
- 9 A trap catches them by the heel,
and it holds them tight.
- 10 A rope is hidden on the ground to trip them.
A trap is waiting in their path.
- 11 On every side terrors frighten them.
Fears follow every step they take.
- 12 Disaster is hungry for them.
Ruin stands close by, waiting for them to fall.
- 13 Diseases will eat away their skin.
Death itself* will eat their arms and legs.
- 14 They will be taken away from the safety of their tents and be led away to meet death, the king of terrors.
- 15 Nothing will be left in their tents, which will be sprinkled with burning sulfur.
- 16 Their roots below will dry up,
and their branches above will die.
- 17 People on earth will not remember them.
Their names will be forgotten.
- 18 They will be forced from light into darkness.
They will be chased out of this world.
- 19 They will leave behind no children, no descendants.
None of their people will be left alive.
- 20 People in the west will be shocked at what happened to them.
People in the east will be numb with fear.
- 21 This is what will happen to the homes of those who are evil.
This is the place of those who don’t know God!”

Job Answers

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 “How long will you hurt me and crush me with your words?

* 18:13 Death itself Literally, “Death’s firstborn,” a name for a deadly disease, or the worms that eat a dead body.

- ³ You have insulted me ten times now.
You have attacked me without shame!
- ⁴ Even if I have sinned,
it is my problem, not yours!
- ⁵ You want me to look bad to make yourselves look good.
You say my troubles are proof that I did wrong.
- ⁶ I want you to know it was God who did this.
He set this trap for me.
- ⁷ I shout, 'He hurt me!' but get no answer.
No one hears my cry for fairness.
- ⁸ God has blocked my way to keep me from getting through.
He has hidden my path in darkness.
- ⁹ He took away my honor.
He took the crown from my head.
- ¹⁰ He hits me on every side until I am worn out.
He takes away my hope.
It is like a tree pulled up by the roots.
- ¹¹ His anger burns against me.
He treats me like an enemy.
- ¹² He sends his army to attack me.
They build attack towers around me.
They camp around my tent.
- ¹³ "God has made my brothers hate me.
Those who knew me have become strangers.
- ¹⁴ My relatives have left me.
My friends have forgotten me.
- ¹⁵ My servant girls and visitors in my home
look at me as if I am a stranger and a foreigner.
- ¹⁶ I call for my servant, but he does not answer.
Even if I beg for help, he will not answer.
- ¹⁷ My wife hates the smell of my breath.
My own brothers hate me.
- ¹⁸ Even little children make fun of me.
When I get up, they say bad things about me.
- ¹⁹ All my close friends hate me.
Even my loved ones have turned against me.
- ²⁰ "I am so thin, my skin hangs loose on my bones.
I have little life left in me.
- ²¹ "Pity me, my friends, pity me,
because God is against me.
- ²² Why do you persecute me as God does?
Don't you get tired of hurting me?
- ²³ "I wish someone would write down everything I say.
I wish my words were written on a scroll.
- ²⁴ I wish they were carved with an iron tool into lead or scratched on a rock so that they would last forever.
- ²⁵ I know that there is someone to defend me and that he lives!
And in the end, he will stand here on earth and defend me.
- ²⁶ After I leave my body and my skin has been destroyed,

I know I will still see God.
 27 I will see him with my own eyes.
 I myself, not someone else, will see God.
 And I cannot tell you how excited that makes me feel!*

28 “Maybe you will say, ‘How can we push Job a little harder and make him realize that he is the source of his problems?’
 29 But you need to worry about your own punishment.
 God might use the sword against you!
 Then you will know there is a time for judgment.”

Zophar Answers Job

1 Then Zophar from Naamah answered:
 2 “You upset me, so I must answer you.
 I must tell you what I am thinking.
 3 You insulted me with your answers!
 But I am wise and know how to answer you.
 4-5 “You know that the joy of the wicked does not last long.
 That has been true a long time, ever since Adam was* put on earth.
 Those who don’t know God are happy for only a short time.
 6 Maybe an evil man’s pride will reach up to the sky,
 and his head will touch the clouds.
 7 But he will be gone forever like his own body waste.
 People who knew him will say, ‘Where is he?’
 8 Like a dream, he will fly away, never to be found.
 He will be chased away like a bad dream.†
 9 Those who knew him before will not see him again.
 His family will never again get to see him.
 10 His children will have to give back what he took from the poor.
 His own hands will give up his wealth.
 11 When he was young, his bones were strong,
 but, like the rest of his body, they will soon lie in the dirt.
 12 “Evil tastes sweet in his mouth.
 He keeps it under his tongue to enjoy it fully.
 13 He hates to let it go and holds it in his mouth.
 14 But that evil will turn sour in his stomach.
 It will be like a snake’s bitter poison inside him.
 15 The evil man will spit out the riches he has swallowed.
 God will make him vomit them up.
 16 What he drank will be like a snake’s poison;
 it will kill him like the bite of a deadly snake.
 17 He will never again enjoy so much wealth—

* 19:27 Or “And in the end, he will stand here on earth and defend me, 26 even after my skin has been destroyed. But I want to see God while I am still in my body. 27 I want to see him with my own eyes, not through someone else’s eyes. - rivers flowing with honey and cream.[‡]
- 18 He will be forced to give back his profits.
He will not be allowed to enjoy what he worked for,
- 19 because he hurt the poor and left them with nothing.
He took houses he did not build.
- 20 “The evil man is never satisfied.
But the things he wants cannot save him.
- 21 After filling himself, there is nothing left.
His success will not continue.
- 22 Even while he has plenty, he will be pressed down with trouble.
His problems will come down on him!
- 23 If he does get all he wants,
God will throw his burning anger against him.
God will attack him and rain down punishment on him.
- 24 Maybe he will run away from an iron sword,
but then a bronze arrow[§] will strike him down.
- 25 It will go through his body and stick out of his back.
Its shining point will pierce his liver, and he will be shocked with terror.
- 26 All his treasures will be lost in darkness.
He will be destroyed by a fire, a fire that no human started.
It will destroy everything left in his house.
- 27 Heaven will prove that he is guilty.
The earth will be a witness against him.
- 28 His house and everything in it will be carried away in the flood of God’s anger.
- 29 That is what God will do to those who are evil.
That is what he plans to give them.”

Job Answers

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 “Listen to what I say.
Let this be your way of comforting me.
- 3 Be patient while I speak.
Then after I have finished speaking, you may make fun of me.
- 4 “My complaint is not against people.
There is a good reason why I am not patient.
- 5 Look at me and be shocked.
Put your hand over your mouth, and stare at me in shock!
- 6 When I think about what happened to me,
I feel afraid and my body shakes!
- 7 Why do evil people live long lives?
Why do they grow old and successful?
- 8 They watch their children grow up

[‡] 20:17 rivers ... cream A figure meaning a plentiful supply of rich food. The word translated “cream” could mean butter, curds, or yogurt. [§] 20:24 bronze arrow Literally, “bronze bow.” Or “powerful bow,” possibly a bow made of sinew, wood and horn.

- and live to see their grandchildren.
9 Their homes are safe and free from fear.
God does not punish them.
10 Their bulls never fail to mate.
Their cows have healthy calves.
11 They send their children out to play like lambs.
Their children dance around.
12 They sing and dance to the sound of harps and flutes.
13 Evil people enjoy success during their lives and then go to the grave without suffering.
14 They say to God, 'Leave us alone!
We don't care what you want us to do!'
15 And they say, 'Who is God All-Powerful?
We don't need to serve him!
It will not help to pray to him!'
- 16 "Of course, evil people don't make their own success.
I would never follow their advice.
17 But how often does God blow out their light?
How often does trouble come to them?
How often does God get angry with them and punish them?
18 Does God blow them away, as the wind blows straw or as strong winds blow the grain husks?
19 But you say, 'God is saving their punishment for their children.'
No! Let God punish the evil people themselves so that they will know what they have done!
20 Let them see their own punishment.
Let them feel the anger of God All-Powerful.
21 When their life is finished and they are dead,
they will not care about the family they leave behind.
- 22 "No one can teach God anything he doesn't already know.
God judges even those in high places.
23 One person dies after living a full and successful life,
a life completely safe and comfortable, 24 with a body that was well fed and bones that were still strong.
25 But another person dies after a hard life that has made them bitter, never having enjoyed anything good.
26 In the end, both of these people will lie together in the dirt.
The worms will cover them both.
- 27 "But I know what you are thinking, and I know you want to hurt me.
28 You might say, 'Show me a good man's house.
Now, show me where evil people live.*'
- 29 "Surely you have talked with travelers.
Surely you will accept their stories.
30 Evil people are spared when disaster comes.
They survive when God shows his anger.
31 No one criticizes them to their faces for how they lived.

* 21:28 Show me ... live Or "Show me a wicked ruler's house. Show me where evil people live."

No one punishes them for the evil they have done.

³² When they are carried to the grave, they will have someone to watch over the place they are buried.

³³ So even the soil in the valley will be pleasant for them, and thousands of people will join their funeral procession.

³⁴ “So your empty words are no comfort to me.
There is no truth at all in your answers!”

Eliphaz Answers Job

¹ Then Eliphaz from Teman answered:

² “Does God need our help?

Even the wisest of us is not really useful to him.

³ Does your living right benefit him?

Does God All-Powerful gain anything if you follow him?

⁴ Why does God blame and punish you?

Is it because you worship him?

⁵ No, it is because you sin so much.

You never stop sinning.

⁶ Maybe to guarantee loans you took things from people for no reason.

Maybe you took a poor man’s clothes to make sure he paid you back.*

⁷ Maybe you failed to give water or food to people who were tired or hungry.

⁸ You have a lot of farmland, and people respect you.

⁹ But maybe you sent widows away without giving them anything.

And maybe you took advantage of orphans.

¹⁰ That is why traps are all around you, and sudden trouble makes you afraid.

¹¹ That is why it is so dark you cannot see,

and why a flood of water covers you.

¹² “God lives in the highest part of heaven and looks down on the highest stars.

¹³ But you might say, ‘What does God know?

Can he see through the dark clouds to judge us?

¹⁴ Thick clouds hide us from his eyes, so he cannot see us as he walks around the edge of the sky.’

¹⁵ “Job, you are walking on the old path that evil people walked on long ago.

¹⁶ They were destroyed before it was their time to die.

They were washed away by the flood.

¹⁷ They told God, ‘Leave us alone!’

and said, ‘God All-Powerful cannot do anything to us!’

¹⁸ And it was God who filled their houses with good things.

No, I would never follow the advice of evil people.

* ^{22:6} paid you back See Deuteronomy 24:12-13 for rules about making loans to the poor.

- 19 Those who do what is right are happy to see them destroyed.
The innocent laugh at them and say,
- 20 ‘Surely our enemies are destroyed!
Their wealth burned up in the fire!’
- 21 “Now, Job, give yourself to God and make peace with him.
Do this, and you will get many good things.
- 22 Accept his teaching.
Pay attention to what he says.
- 23 If you return to God All-Powerful, you will be restored.
But remove the evil from your house.
- 24 Think of your gold as nothing but dirt.
Think of your finest gold as rocks from a stream.
- 25 And let God All-Powerful be your gold.
Let him be your pile of silver.
- 26 Then you will enjoy God All-Powerful, and you will look up to him.
- 27 When you pray, he will hear you.
And you will be able to do all that you promised him.
- 28 If you decide to do something, it will be successful.
And your future will be very bright!
- 29 When people are brought down and you ask God to help them,
he will rescue those who have been humbled.
- 30 Even those who are guilty will be forgiven.
They will be saved because you did what was right.”

Job Answers

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 “I am still complaining today.
I groan because God is still making me suffer.
- 3 I wish I knew where to find him.
I wish I knew how to go to where he lives.
- 4 I would present my case to him.
I would make my arguments to show that I am innocent.
- 5 He could give his response, and I would understand.
I would listen closely to what he says.
- 6 Would God use his power against me?
No, he would listen to me!
- 7 Since I am an honest man, he would let me tell my story.
Then my Judge would set me free!
- 8 “If I go to the east, God is not there.
If I go to the west, I still don’t see him.
- 9 When he is working in the north, I don’t see him.
When he turns to the south, I still don’t see him.
- 10 But God knows me.
He is testing me and will see that I am as pure as gold.
- 11 I have always lived the way God wants.
I have never stopped following him.
- 12 I always obey his commands.

I love the words from his mouth more than I love my food.

- 13 “But God never changes, and who can stand against him?
He does anything he wants.
14 He will do to me what he planned,
and he has many other plans for me.
15 That is why I am terrified to stand before him.
Just thinking about it makes me afraid.
16 The fear of God has made me lose my courage.
God All-Powerful makes me afraid.
17 What has happened to me is like a dark cloud over my face.
But the darkness will not keep me quiet.

24

- 1 “Why doesn’t God All-Powerful set times for judgment?
And why can’t his followers know when those times will be?
2 “People move property markers to get more of their neighbor’s land.
People steal flocks and lead them to other grasslands.
3a They steal a donkey that belongs to an orphan.
They take a widow’s cow until she pays what she owes them.
3b (8) * They take a nursing baby from its mother.
They take a poor person’s child to guarantee a loan.
4 They force the poor to move out of their way and to get off the road.
5 “The poor are like wild donkeys that go out to the desert to find food.
From morning to night they work to gather food for their children.
6 They have to work in the fields, harvesting grain.
They work for the rich,[†] gathering grapes in their vineyards.
7 They must sleep all night without clothes.
They have no covers to protect them from the cold.
8 They are soaked with rain in the mountains.
They stay close to the large rocks for shelter.
10 They have no clothes, so they work naked.
They carry piles of grain for others, but they go hungry.
11 They press out olive oil and walk on grapes in the winepress, but they have nothing to drink.
12 In the city you can hear the sad sounds of dying people.
Those who are hurt cry out for help, but God does not listen.
13 “Some people rebel against the light.
They don’t know what God wants.
They don’t live the way he wants.
14 A murderer gets up at dawn and kills poor, helpless people.
And at night he becomes a thief.
15 A man who commits adultery waits for the night to come.
He thinks, ‘No one will see me,’ but still, he covers his face.
16 When it is dark, evil people go out and break into houses.

* 24:8 In the Hebrew text this verse follows verse 8. † 24:6 the rich Or “the wicked.”

- But during the day they lock themselves in their homes to avoid the light.
- 17 The darkest night is their morning.
They are friends with the terrors of darkness.
- 18 “You say, ‘Evil people are taken away like things carried away in a flood.
The land they own is cursed, so no one goes to work in their vineyards.
- 19 As hot, dry weather melts away the winter snows,
so the grave takes away those who have sinned.
- 20 Their own mothers will forget them.
Only the worms will want them.
No one will remember them.
They will be broken like a rotten stick!
- 21 These evil people hurt women who have no children to protect them, and they refuse to help widows.
- 22 By his power God removes the powerful.
Even if they have a high position, they cannot be sure of their lives.
- 23 They might feel safe and secure,
but God is watching how they live.
- 24 They might be successful for a while, but then they will be gone.
Like everyone else, they will be cut down like grain.’
- 25 “I swear these things are true!
Who can prove that I lied?
Who can show that I am wrong?”

Bildad Answers Job

- 1 Then Bildad from Shuah answered:
- 2 “God is the ruler.
He makes people fear and respect him.
He keeps peace in his kingdom above.
- 3 No one can count his stars.*
His sun rises on all people.
- 4 How can anyone claim to be right before God?
No human being† can really be pure.
- 5 In God’s eyes even the moon is not pure and bright;
even the stars are not pure.
- 6 People are much less pure.
They are like maggots, as worthless as worms!”

26

Job Answers Bildad

- 1 Then Job answered:
- 2 “Bildad, what a great help you are to this tired, weary man!
You have really supported me!
- 3 You have given such wonderful advice to this foolish man!

* 25:3 his stars Or “his troops.” This means God’s heavenly army. It could be all the angels or all the stars in the sky.

† 25:4 No human being Literally, “No one born from woman.”

- You have provided so much useful information!*
- ⁴ Who helped you say these things?
Whose spirit inspired you to speak?
- ⁵ “The ghosts and their neighbors in the underworld[†] shake with fear.
- ⁶ But God can see clearly into that place of death.
Death[‡] is not hidden from God.
- ⁷ God stretched the northern sky over empty space.
He hung the earth on nothing.
- ⁸ He fills the thick clouds with water.
But he does not let its heavy weight break the clouds open.
- ⁹ He covers the face of the full moon.
He spreads his clouds over it and hides it.
- ¹⁰ He drew the horizon on the ocean,
like a circle where light and darkness meet.
- ¹¹ The foundations that hold up the sky
shake with fear when God threatens them.
- ¹² With his own power God calmed the sea.
With his wisdom he destroyed Rahab.
- ¹³ His breath made the skies clear.
His hand destroyed the snake that tried to get away.[§]
- ¹⁴ These are only a few of the amazing things God has done.
We hear only a small whisper of God’s thundering power.”

- ¹ Job continued his answer:
- ² “God All-Powerful has been unfair to me;
he has made my life bitter.
But I swear by his life,
³ as long as I have life in me,
as long as breath from God is in my nostrils,
⁴ I will not be a hypocrite.
I will not lie.
⁵ You will never hear me say you men are right!
Until the day I die I will not be untrue to myself.
⁶ I will hold on to my innocence and never let go!
My conscience will always be clear!
⁷ May my enemies be punished like those who are evil.
May those who stood against me end up like all who have done wrong.
⁸ What hope do people without God have when it is time to die, when God takes their life away?
⁹ When they have troubles and cry out for help,
God will not listen to them!
¹⁰ It will be too late for them to enjoy talking with God All-Powerful.
They should have prayed to God all the time.
- ¹¹ “I will teach you about God’s power.

* 26:3 Job is being sarcastic here—showing by the way he speaks that he does not really mean it. † 26:5 The ghosts ... underworld Literally, “The ghosts under the water.” This refers to Sheol, the place of death. ‡ 26:6 Death Or “Abaddon,” a Hebrew name meaning “death” or “destruction.” See Rev. 9:11. § 26:13 snake ... get away Or “the escaping monster.” This might be another name for Rahab. See Isaiah 27:1.

I will not hide anything about God All-Powerful.

¹² But you have seen it all with your own eyes.
So why do you say such useless things?

¹³ * “Here is what God has planned for those who are evil.
This is what cruel people will get from God All-Powerful.

¹⁴ They may have many children, but all of them will be killed in war.
Or their children will not have enough to eat.

¹⁵ All those who are left will die, and the widows will not even cry for them.

¹⁶ Evil people collect silver as easily as dirt.
They may have so many clothes that they are piled up like clay.

¹⁷ But their piles of clothes will be worn by those who have lived right.
All that silver will be given to those who have done no wrong.

¹⁸ Evil people might build houses, but they will not last long.
They will be like a spider’s web or a guard’s tent.

¹⁹ They might be rich when they go to bed, but when they open their eyes, all their riches will be gone.

²⁰ Terrible fears will come over them like a flood, like a storm in the night that blows everything away.

²¹ The east wind will carry them away, and they will be gone.
The storm will sweep them out of their homes.

²² They may try to run away from the power of the storm, but it will come down on them without mercy.

²³ It will make a sound like clapping hands as they run away.
It will whistle at them as they run from their homes.”

The Value of Wisdom

¹ “There are mines where people get silver and places where people melt gold to make it pure.

² Iron is dug out of the ground, and copper is melted out of the rocks.

³ Miners carry lights deep into caves to search for these rocks in the deepest darkness.

⁴ Far from where people live, they dig deep into the ground, down where no one else has been before.
There they work all alone, hanging from ropes.

⁵ Food grows on the ground above.
But underground it is different,
as if everything were melted by fire.

⁶ In the rocks there are sapphires and grains of pure gold.

⁷ Wild birds know nothing about the way to these places.
No falcon* has ever seen it.

⁸ Wild animals have never been there.
Lions have not traveled that way.

⁹ Miners dig the hardest rocks.
They dig away at the mountains and make them bare.

* 27:13 Though Zophar is not mentioned in the text, many scholars think he answers Job in verses 13-23. * 28:7 falcon A kind of bird, like a hawk.

- 10 They cut tunnels through the rocks and see all the treasures they hold.
- 11 They even find places where rivers begin.
They bring to light what once was hidden.
- 12 “But where can anyone find wisdom?
Where can we get understanding?
- 13 People don’t know where wisdom is.
It cannot be found by anyone on earth.
- 14 The deep ocean says, ‘It’s not here with me.’
The sea says, ‘It’s not here with me.’
- 15 You cannot buy wisdom with even the purest gold.
There’s not enough silver in the world to pay for it.
- 16 You cannot buy it with gold from Ophir or with precious onyx or sapphires.
- 17 Wisdom is worth more than gold or crystal.
It cannot be bought with expensive jewels set in gold.
- 18 It is far more valuable than coral and jasper,
more precious than rubies.
- 19 The topaz from Ethiopia cannot match its value, which is greater than the purest gold.
- 20 “So where does wisdom come from?
Where can we find understanding?
- 21 Wisdom is hidden from every living thing on earth.
Even birds in the sky cannot see it.
- 22 Death and destruction[†] say,
‘We have never seen wisdom;
we have only heard rumors about it.’
- 23 “Only God knows the way to wisdom.
Only he knows where wisdom is.
- 24 He can see to the very ends of the earth.
He sees everything under the sky.
- 25 God gave the wind its power.
He decided how big to make the oceans.
- 26 He decided where to send the rain and where the thunderstorms should go.
- 27 He looked at wisdom and discussed it.
He examined it and saw how much it is worth.
- 28 Then he said to humans,
‘To fear and respect the Lord is wisdom.
To turn away from evil is understanding.’ ”

Job Continues His Speech

- ² “I wish my life could be the same as it was a few months ago,
when God watched over me and cared for me.

[†] 28:22 Death and destruction Or “Abaddon,” a Hebrew name meaning “death” or “destruction.” See Rev. 9:11.

- 3 God's light shined above me,
 so I could walk through the darkness.
 4 I wish for the days when I was successful,
 when I enjoyed God's friendship and blessing in my home.
 5 God All-Powerful was still with me then,
 and my children were all around me.
 6 Life was so good that I washed my feet in cream and had plenty of the finest oils.*
 7 "Those were the days when I went to the city gate and sat in the public meeting of the elders.
 8 When the young men saw me coming, they stepped out of my way.
 And the old men stood up to show they respected me.
 9 The leaders of the people stopped talking and put their hands over their mouths.
 10 Even the most important leaders were quiet, as if their tongues were stuck to the roof of their mouths.
 11 All who heard me said good things about me.
 Those who saw what I did praised me,
 12 because I helped the poor when they cried out.
 I helped the orphans who had no one to care for them.
 13 People who were dying asked God to bless me.
 My help brought joy to widows in need.
 14 Right living was my clothing.
 Fairness was my robe and turban.
 15 I was like eyes for the blind,
 like feet for the crippled.
 16 I was like a father to the poor.
 I helped people I didn't even know win their case in court.
 17 I stopped evil people from abusing their power and saved innocent people from them.†
 18 "I always thought I would live a long life, growing old with my family around me.
 19 I was like a healthy plant with roots that have plenty of water and branches that are wet with dew.
 20 I thought each new day would bring more honor and be full of new possibilities.‡
 21 "In the past people listened to me.
 They waited quietly for my advice.
 22 When I finished speaking, they had nothing more to say.
 My words fell gently on their ears.
 23 They waited for my words as they would for rain.
 They drank them in like rain in the springtime.
 24 I smiled at them, and they could hardly believe it.

* 29:6 I had plenty of the finest oils Literally, "Around the anointed rock near me were streams of oil." This probably means Job had so much olive oil that there were streams of oil running down the altar from the part Job gave as a gift to God. † 29:17 Literally, "I shattered the teeth of the crooked and snatched the victims from their teeth." ‡ 29:20 Literally, "My glory is new with me and my bow in my hand renewed." The words "glory" and "bow" might both refer to a rainbow—the promise of good weather after a storm. Or this might be understood as, "My soul feels new every day, my hand always strong enough to shoot a new bow."

My smile made them feel better.

- ²⁵ I was their leader and made decisions about their future.
I was like a king among his troops, comforting those who were sad.

- ¹ “But now men younger than I make fun of me—
men whose fathers were too worthless to put with my sheep dogs.
² Their fathers are still too weak to be of any use to me.
All their strength is gone.
³ They are starving with nothing to eat,
so they chew on the dry, ruined land.
⁴ They pull up salt plants in the desert and eat the roots from the broom tree.
⁵ They are forced away from other people, who shout at them as if they were thieves.
⁶ They must live in the dry riverbeds, hillside caves, and holes in the ground.
⁷ They howl in the bushes and huddle together under thornbushes.
⁸ They are a bunch of worthless people without names, who were forced to leave their country.
- ⁹ “Now their sons sing songs to make fun of me.
My name has become a bad word to them.
¹⁰ They hate me and stay far away from me, except when they come to spit in my face!
¹¹ God has taken the string from my bow and made me weak, so they feel free to do whatever they want to me.
¹² They attack me on my right side.
They knock my feet out from under me.
They build ramps to attack and destroy me like a city.
¹³ They guard the road so that I cannot escape.
They succeed in destroying me, without help from anyone.
¹⁴ They break a hole in the wall and come rushing through it, and the crashing rocks fall on me.
¹⁵ I am shaking with fear.
They chased my honor away like dust in the wind.
My safety disappears like a cloud.
- ¹⁶ “Now my life is almost gone, and soon I will die.
Days of suffering have grabbed me.
¹⁷ All my bones ache at night.
Pain never stops chewing on me.
¹⁸ God grabbed the collar of my coat and twisted my clothes out of shape.
¹⁹ He threw me into the mud, and I became like dust and ashes.
- ²⁰ “God, I cry out to you for help, but you don’t answer.
I stand up and pray, but you don’t pay attention to me.
²¹ You have become cruel to me;
you use your power to hurt me.
²² You let the strong wind blow me away.

- You throw me around in the storm.
 23 I know you will lead me to my death,
 to that place where all the living must go.
- 24 “Surely no one would attack a man who is already ruined, when he is hurt and crying for help.
 25 God, you know that I cried for those who were in trouble.
 You know that I mourned for the poor.
 26 But when I hoped for good, trouble came instead.
 When I looked for light, darkness came.
 27 I constantly feel upset.
 And my suffering has only just begun.
 28 I am always sad and depressed, without any relief.
 I stand up in the public meeting and cry for help, 29 making sad sounds like the wild dogs,
 like the ostriches in the desert.
 30 My skin is burned and peeling away.
 My body is hot with fever.
 31 My harp is tuned to play songs of sorrow.
 My flute makes sad sounds like someone crying.

- 1 “I made an agreement with my eyes not to look at a young woman in a way that would make me want her.
 2 What does God above have for us?
 How does God All-Powerful repay people from his home high in heaven?*
- 3 He sends trouble to the wicked and disaster to those who do wrong.
 4 God is the one who knows what I do and sees every step I take.
- 5 “I have not lied to anyone.
 I never tried to cheat people.
 6 If God would use accurate scales,† he would know that I am innocent.
 7 If I ever stepped off the right path,
 if my eyes led my heart to do evil,
 or if my hands are dirty with sin,
 8 then let others eat what I planted.
 Let my crops be pulled up by the roots.
- 9 “If I have desired another woman or waited at my neighbor’s door to sin with his wife, 10 then let my wife serve someone else,
 and let other men sleep with her.
 11 To do such a thing would be shameful,
 a sin that must be punished.
 12 Such sin is like a fire that burns until it destroys everything.
 It would completely ruin my life’s work.

* 31:2 Or possibly, “I made an agreement with my eyes not to look with desire at the Virgin or the sacred things that belong to God All-Powerful.” Here, “the Virgin” refers to a goddess worshiped by the Canaanites. † 31:6 accurate scales Literally, “scales of righteousness.” As a wordplay, this could mean either “accurate scales” or “scales that show a person is good.”

- 13 “If I refused to be fair to my slaves
when they had a complaint against me,
14 then what will I do when I must face God?
What will I say when he asks me to explain what I did?
15 The one who made me in my mother’s womb also made them.
God shaped us all inside our mothers.
- 16 “I have never refused to help the poor.
I always gave widows what they needed.
17 I have never been selfish with my food.
I shared what I had with orphans.
18 All my life I have been like a father to orphans and have taken care of widows.
19 Whenever I found people suffering because they didn’t have clothes or saw a poor man with no coat,
20 I always gave them something to wear.
I used the wool from my own sheep to make them warm.
And they thanked me with all their heart.
21 I never threatened an orphan, even when I knew I had support in court.‡
22 If I ever did that, may my arm be pulled from its socket and fall from my shoulder!
23 But I didn’t do any of these bad things.
I fear God’s punishment too much.
His majesty scares me.§
- 24 “I have never trusted in riches.
I never said even to pure gold, ‘You are my hope.’
25 I have been wealthy,
but that didn’t make me proud.
I earned a lot of money,
but that is not what made me happy.
26 I have never worshiped the bright sun or the beautiful moon.
27 I was never foolish enough to worship the sun and the moon.
28 This is also a sin that must be punished.
If I had worshiped them, I would have been unfaithful to God All-Powerful.
- 29 “I have never been happy
when my enemies were destroyed.
I have never laughed at my enemies
when bad things happened to them.
30 I have never let my mouth sin by cursing my enemies and wishing for them to die.
31 The people in my house know that
I have never let anyone go hungry.
32 I always invited strangers into my home
so that they would not have to sleep in the streets.
33 I have not tried to hide my sins as some people do.

‡ 31:21 Or “I never shook my fist at an orphan who was at the gate asking for help.” § 31:23 His majesty ... me
Or “I could not stand before his majesty.”

I have never hidden my guilt.

³⁴ I was never so afraid of what people might say or of making enemies that I kept my sins secret and avoided going out.

³⁵ “How I wish someone would listen to me!
I will sign my name to all I have said.

Now let God All-Powerful answer me.
Let him make a list of what he thinks I did wrong.

³⁶ I would wear it around my neck.
I would put it on my head like a crown.

³⁷ Then I could explain everything I have done.
I could come to God with my head held high like a prince.

³⁸ “I did not use my land in a wrong way.
I never caused it to suffer.

³⁹ I always paid the workers for the food I got from the land.
I never let any of them starve.

⁴⁰ If I ever did any of these bad things, let thorns and weeds grow in my fields instead of wheat and barley!”

Job’s words are finished.

Elihu Adds to the Argument

¹ Then Job’s three friends gave up trying to answer him, because he was so sure that he was innocent. ² But there was a young man there named Elihu son of Barakel. He was a descendant of a man named Buz. Elihu was from the family of Ram. He became very angry because Job kept saying he was innocent—that he was right and God was wrong. ³ Elihu was also angry with Job’s three friends because they could not answer him, and yet they still considered him guilty of doing wrong. ⁴ Elihu was the youngest one there, so he had waited until everyone finished talking. ⁵ But when he saw that Job’s three friends had nothing more to say, his anger forced him to speak. ⁶ So here’s what Elihu son of Barakel the Buzite said:

“I am only a young man, and you are all older.

That is why I was afraid to tell you what I think.

⁷ I thought to myself, ‘Older people should speak first.
They have lived many years, so they have learned many things.’

⁸ But it is the spirit in people, the breath from God All-Powerful, that makes them understand.

⁹ Old men are not the only wise people.
They are not the only ones who understand what is right.

¹⁰ “So please listen to me, and I will tell you what I think.

¹¹ I waited patiently while you men talked.
I listened to the answers you gave as you searched for the right words.

¹² I listened carefully to what you said.
Not one of you proved Job wrong.
Not one of you answered his arguments.

¹³ You men cannot say that you have found wisdom.
The answer to Job’s arguments must come from God, not people.

¹⁴ Job was arguing with you, not me,

so I will not use your arguments to answer him.

- 15 “Job, these men lost the argument.
They don’t have anything more to say.
They don’t have any more answers.
- 16 I waited for them to answer you.
But now they are quiet.
They stand there with nothing more to say.
- 17 So now I will give you my answer.
Yes, I will tell you what I think.
- 18 I have so much to say that I cannot hold it in.
- 19 I feel like a jar of wine that has never been opened.
I am like a new wineskin ready to burst.
- 20 I must speak so that I will feel better.
I must answer your arguments.
- 21 I will treat you the same as I would treat anyone else.
I will not praise you to win your favor.
- 22 I cannot treat one person better than another.
If I did, God my Maker would punish me!

33

- 1 “Now, Job, listen to me.
Listen carefully to what I say.
- 2 I am ready to speak.
- 3 My heart is honest, so my words are sincere.
I will speak the truth about what I know.
- 4 God’s Spirit made me.
My life comes from God All-Powerful.
- 5 Listen to me and answer if you can.
Get your arguments ready to face me.
- 6 You and I are the same before God.
He used clay to make us both.
- 7 Don’t be afraid of me.
I will not be hard on you.
- 8 “But, Job, I heard what you said.
These were your very words:
- 9 ‘I am pure and innocent;
I did nothing wrong; I am not guilty!
- 10 But God found an excuse to attack me.
He treats me like an enemy.
- 11 He put chains on my feet and watches everything I do.’
- 12 “But you are wrong about this, and I will prove it to you.
God knows more than any of us.*
- 13 You are arguing with God!
Why do you think he should explain everything to you?
- 14 But maybe God does explain what he does but speaks in ways that people don’t understand.

* 33:12 God ... any of us Or “God is much greater than anyone.”

- 15 He may speak in a dream, or in a vision at night, when people are in a deep sleep lying in their beds.
- 16 He may whisper something in their ear,
and they are frightened when they hear his warnings.
- 17 God warns people to stop them from doing wrong and to keep them from becoming proud.
- 18 He does this to save them from death.[†]
He wants to keep them from being destroyed.
- 19 “Or those who are sick in bed might be suffering punishment from God.
The pain that makes their bones ache might be a warning from him.
- 20 They feel so bad they cannot eat.
Even the best food makes them sick.
- 21 Their bodies might waste away until they become thin and all their bones stick out.
- 22 They might be close to death,
their lives about to end.
- 23 But maybe one of God’s thousands of angels is watching over them, to speak for them and tell about the good things they have done.
- 24 Maybe the angel will be kind and say to God, ‘Save this one from the place of death!
I have found a way to pay for his life.’
- 25 Then that person’s body will become young and strong again.
He will be as he was when he was young.
- 26 He will pray and God will answer.
He will worship God and shout with joy.
He will again stand as right before God.
- 27 He will tell everyone, ‘I sinned.
I changed good into bad,
but God didn’t give me the punishment I deserved!’
- 28 God saved me from going down to the place of death.
Now I can enjoy life again.’
- 29 “God does all these things for people again and again.
- 30 He wants them to be saved from death
so that they can enjoy life.
- 31 “Job, pay attention and listen to me.
Be quiet and let me talk.
- 32 But if you have an answer, go ahead and speak.
Tell me your argument.
I would be happy to know that you are innocent!
- 33 But if you have nothing to say, then listen to me.
Be quiet, and I will teach you wisdom.”

- ² “Listen to what I say, you wise men.
Pay attention, you who know so much.

[†] 33:18 death Literally, “the Pit,” the place where people go when they die. Also in verse 22.

- ³ Your tongue tastes the food it touches, and your ear tests the words it hears.
- ⁴ So let us test these arguments and decide for ourselves what is right.
Together we will learn what is good.
- ⁵ Job says, 'I am innocent, and God is not being fair to me.
- ⁶ I am right, but I am judged to be a liar.
I have done no wrong, but I am badly hurt.'
- ⁷ "Would anyone but Job say such things?
He has more thirst for insulting God than for water.
- ⁸ He is a friend of evil people.
He likes to spend time with the wicked.
- ⁹ I know this because he says,
'You will gain nothing if you try to please God.'
- ¹⁰ "You men can understand, so listen to me.
God would never do what is evil!
God All-Powerful would never do wrong.
- ¹¹ He pays us back for what we have done.
He gives us what we deserve.
- ¹² The truth is that God does no wrong.
God All-Powerful is always fair.
- ¹³ No one chose God to be in charge of the earth.
No one gave him responsibility for the whole world.
- ¹⁴ If God decided to take away his spirit and the breath of life he gave us,
- ¹⁵ then everything on earth would die.
We would all become dust again.
- ¹⁶ "If you men are wise,
you will listen to what I say.
- ¹⁷ Can someone be a ruler if he hates justice?
Job, God is not only powerful, but he is fair.
Do you think you can judge him guilty?
- ¹⁸ God is the one who says to kings, 'You are worthless!'
He says to leaders, 'You are evil!'
- ¹⁹ He does not respect leaders more than other people.
And he does not respect the rich more than the poor.
God made everyone.
- ²⁰ Any of us can die suddenly, in the middle of the night.
Anyone can get sick and pass away.
Even powerful people die for no reason we can see.
- ²¹ "God watches what people do.
He sees every step they take.
- ²² There is no place dark enough for evil people to hide from God.
- ²³ God does not need to set a time for people to come before him and be judged.
- ²⁴ He does not have to ask questions when people do wrong, even if they are powerful leaders.

He simply destroys them and chooses others to take their place.
 25 When he learns what people have done,
 he defeats them, and overnight they are gone.
 26 He will punish them for the evil they have done,
 and he will do it where everyone can see.
 27 He will do this because they rebelled against him and ignored what he wanted.
 28 They hurt the poor and made them cry to God for help.
 And he hears their cry!
 29 But if God decides not to help them,
 no one can judge him guilty.
 If he hides himself, no one can find him.
 He is the ruler over every person and nation.
 30 He keeps the wicked from ruling
 so that they will not bring harm to the people.

 31 "A person should say to God,
 'I am guilty; I will not sin anymore.
 32 Show me the sins I am not able to see.
 If I have done wrong, I will not do it again.'
 33 Job, you want God to reward you, but you refuse to change.
 It is your decision, not mine.
 Tell me what you think.
 34 A wise person would listen to me.
 A wise person would say,
 35 'Job talks like an ignorant person.
 What he says doesn't make sense!
 36 I think Job should be punished even more,
 because he answers us like someone who is evil!
 37 He adds rebellion to his other sins.
 He sits there insulting us and arguing with God!"

35

1 Elihu continued talking and said,

 2 "Job, it is not fair for you to say,
 'I am more right than God,' 3 because you also ask him,
 'What's the use of trying to please you?
 What good will it do me if I don't sin?'

 4 "Job, I want to answer you and your friends here with you.
 5 Look up at the sky.
 Look at the clouds, which are so much higher than you.
 6 If you sin, it does not hurt God.
 Even if your sins are too many to count, that does nothing to God.
 7 And if you are good, that does not help God.
 He gets nothing from you.
 8 Job, the good and bad things you do affect only other people like yourself.

- ⁹ “If people are being hurt, they cry out and beg for protection from those who hurt them.
- ¹⁰ But they forget to say, ‘Where is God, the one who made me?
He is the one who gives us songs to sing in the night.
- ¹¹ He is the one who makes us smarter than any animal on earth and wiser than any bird.’
- ¹² “Or if evil people ask God for help, he will not answer them, because they are too proud.
- ¹³ God will not listen to their worthless begging.
God All-Powerful will not pay attention to them.
- ¹⁴ So, Job, God will not listen to you when you say that you don’t see him.
You say you are waiting for your chance to meet with him and prove that you are innocent.
- ¹⁵ “Job thinks that God does not punish evil and that he pays no attention to sin.
- ¹⁶ So he continues his worthless talking.
Everything he has said shows he does not know what he is talking about.”

- ¹ Elihu continued talking and said,
- ² “Be patient with me a little longer.
God has a few more words that he wants me to say.
- ³ I will share my knowledge with everyone.
I will prove that my Maker is right.
- ⁴ Job, I am telling the truth.
I know what I am talking about.
- ⁵ “God is very powerful, but he does not hate people.
He is very powerful, but he is also very wise.
- ⁶ He will not let evil people live.
He brings justice to the poor.
- ⁷ He watches over those who live right.
He lets them rule in high places.
- ⁸ So if people are punished,
if they are tied with chains and ropes, they did something wrong.
- ⁹ And God will tell them what they did,
that they sinned and were proud.
- ¹⁰ He will force them to listen to his warning.
He will command them to stop sinning.
- ¹¹ If they serve and obey him, he will make them successful and they will live a happy life.
- ¹² But if they refuse to obey him, they will be destroyed.
They will die like fools.
- ¹³ “People who don’t care about God are always bitter.
Even when he punishes them, they refuse to pray to him for help.
- ¹⁴ They will die while they are still young,

like the male prostitutes.

- 15 God saves those who suffer by using their suffering.
He uses their troubles to speak in a way that makes them listen.
- 16 “In fact, God wants to help you out of your troubles.
He wants to take away your burdens that are crushing you.
He wants to load your table with plenty of food.
- 17 But you are full of this talk about guilt, judgment, and justice!
- 18 Job, don’t let your anger fill you with doubt about God.
And don’t let the price of forgiveness turn you away.
- 19 Do you think your wealth will keep you out of trouble?
Will your great strength be of any help to you now?
- 20 Don’t be like those who wish darkness would come and hide them.
They try to disappear into the night.*
- 21 Job, don’t let your suffering cause you to choose evil.
Be careful not to do wrong.
- 22 “Look, God’s power makes him great!
He is the greatest teacher of all.
- 23 No one can tell him what to do.
No one can say, ‘God, you have done wrong.’
- 24 Remember to praise him for what he has done,
as many others have done in song.
- 25 Everyone can see what he has done, even people in faraway countries.
- 26 Yes, God is great, but we cannot understand his greatness.
We don’t know how long he has lived.
- 27 “God takes up water from the earth and changes it into mist and rain.
- 28 So the clouds pour out the water, and the rain falls on many people.
- 29 No one can understand how he spreads the clouds out or how the thunder rumbles from his home in the sky.
- 30 Look, he spreads lightning all over the sky and covers the deepest part of the ocean.
- 31 He uses them to control the nations and to give them plenty of food.
- 32 He grabs the lightning with his hands,
and commands it to strike where he wants.
- 33 The thunder warns that a storm is coming.
So even the cattle know it is near.

37

- 1 “The thunder and lightning frighten me;
my heart pounds in my chest.
- 2 Listen to God’s thundering voice!
Listen to the sound coming from his mouth.
- 3 He sends his lightning to flash across the whole sky.
It lights up the earth from one end to the other.
- 4 After the flashes of lightning you can hear his roaring voice.

* 36:20 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

He thunders with his wonderful voice!
And while his voice thunders, the lightning flashes continue.

⁵ God's thundering voice is amazing!

He does great things that we cannot understand.

⁶ He says to the snow,

'Fall on the earth.'

And he says to the rain,

'Pour down on the earth.'

⁷ God does this to stop everyone's work and to show the people he made what he can do.

⁸ The animals run into their dens and stay there.

⁹ Whirlwinds come from the south.

The cold winds come from the north.

¹⁰ God's breath makes ice and freezes even large bodies of water.

¹¹ He fills the clouds with water and scatters his lightning through them.

¹² He orders the clouds to be blown all around the earth.

The clouds do whatever he commands.

¹³ He causes the clouds to punish people with floods or to water his earth and show his love.

¹⁴ "Job, stop for a minute and listen.

Think about the wonderful things God does.

¹⁵ Do you know how God controls the clouds?

Do you know how he makes his lightning flash?

¹⁶ Do you know how the clouds hang in the sky?

This is just one of the amazing works of the one who knows everything.

¹⁷ All you know is that you sweat, your clothes stick to you, and all is still and quiet when the heat wave comes from the south.

¹⁸ Can you help God spread out the sky and make it shine like polished brass?

¹⁹ "Job, tell us what we should say to God!

We cannot think of what to say because of our ignorance.*

²⁰ I would not tell God that I wanted to talk to him.

That would be like asking to be destroyed.

²¹ A person cannot look at the sun.

It is too bright as it shines in the sky after the wind blows the clouds away.

²² In the same way God's golden glory shines from the Holy Mountain.†

He is surrounded by the brightest light.

²³ We have seen that God All-Powerful really is all powerful!

But he is just and never treats anyone unfairly.‡

²⁴ That is why people fear and respect him.

He shows no respect for those who think they are wise."

38

God Speaks to Job

¹ Then the LORD spoke to Job from a whirlwind and said,

* 37:19 We cannot ... ignorance Literally, "We cannot arrange our thoughts because of the darkness." † 37:22 Holy Mountain Or "the north" or "Zaphon." ‡ 37:23 But he ... unfairly Or "He does not answer us when we try to sue him for justice."

- 2 “Who is this ignorant person saying these foolish things?*
- 3 Brace yourself[†] and get ready to answer the questions I will ask you.
- 4 “Where were you when I made the earth?
If you are so smart, answer me.
- 5 And who decided how big the earth should be?
Who measured it with a measuring line?
- 6 What is the earth resting on?
Who put the first stone in its place
- 7 when the morning stars sang together and the angels[‡] shouted with joy?
- 8 “Who closed the flood gates as the sea gushed from the womb?
- 9 Who covered it with clouds and wrapped it in darkness?
- 10 I set the limits for the sea and put it behind locked gates.
- 11 I said to the sea, ‘You can come this far, but no farther.
This is where your proud waves will stop.’
- 12 “Did you ever in your life command the morning to begin or the day to dawn?
- 13 Did you ever tell the morning light to grab the earth and shake those who are evil out of their hiding places?
- 14 The morning light makes the hills and valleys easy to see.
- When the daylight comes to the earth,
the shapes of these places stand out like the folds of a coat.
They take shape like soft clay that is pressed with a stamp.
- 15 Evil people don’t like the daylight.
When it shines bright, it keeps them from doing the bad things they do.
- 16 “Have you ever gone to the deepest parts of the sea?
Have you ever walked on the ocean bottom?
- 17 Has anyone shown you the gates to the world of the dead?
Have you ever seen those gates that lead to the dark place of death?
- 18 Do you really understand how big the earth is?
Tell me, if you know all this.
- 19 “Where does light come from?
Where does darkness come from?
- 20 Can you take them back to where they belong?
Do you know how to get there?
- 21 Surely you know these things, since you are so old and wise.
You were alive when I made them, weren’t you?[§]

* 38:2 Or “Who is this person darkening advice with ignorant words.” † 38:3 brace yourself Literally, “gird yourself like a man.” This means “get ready for battle.” ‡ 38:7 angels Literally, “sons of God.” § 38:21 This is sarcasm—saying something in a way that everyone understands it is not really true.

- 22 “Have you ever gone into the storerooms where I keep the snow and the hail?
23 I save them there for times of trouble,
for the times of war and battle.
24 Have you ever gone to the place where the sun comes up, where it makes the east wind blow all over the earth?*
- 25 Who dug ditches in the sky for the heavy rain?
Who made a path for the thunderstorm?
26 Who makes it rain even in desert places where no one lives?
27 The rain gives that dry empty land all the water it needs,
and grass begins to grow.
28 Does the rain have a father?
Who produces the drops of dew?
29 Does ice have a mother?
Who gives birth to the frost?
30 That’s when the water freezes as hard as a rock.
Even the deep sea freezes over!
- 31 “Can you tie up the Pleiades†?
Can you unfasten the belt of Orion‡?
32 Can you bring out the other constellations§ at the right times?
Can you lead out the Bear* with its cubs?
33 Do you know the laws that control the sky?
Can you put each star in its place above the earth?†
- 34 “Can you shout at the clouds and command them to cover you with rain?
35 Can you give a command to the lightning?
Will it come to you and say, ‘Here we are; what do you want, sir?’
Will it go wherever you want it to go?
- 36 “Who makes people wise?
Who puts wisdom deep inside them?
37 Who is wise enough to count the clouds and tip them over to pour out their rain?
38 The rain makes the dust become mud, and the clumps of dirt stick together.
- 39 “Do you find food for the lions?
Do you feed their hungry babies?
40 No, they hide in their caves or wait in the grass, ready to attack their prey.
41 Who feeds the ravens when their babies cry out to God and wander around without food?

* 38:24 Or “Where is the place that the fog disperses and the place where the east wind scatters it all over the earth?”

† 38:31 Pleiades A famous group of stars. It is often called, “The Seven Sisters.” ‡ 38:31 Orion A famous group of stars. It looks like a hunter or powerful soldier. § 38:32 constellations Groups of stars in the night sky. Here, this probably means the twelve constellations of the Zodiac. They seem to pass through the sky so that a new constellation is in a certain part of the sky each month. * 38:32 Bear A famous group of stars. It looks like a bear. It is often called, “the Big Dipper.” Near it is a smaller constellation that looks like a small bear. It is often called, “the Little Dipper.” † 38:33 Can you ... earth Or “Can you put it in charge over the earth?”

- 1 “Do you know when the mountain goats are born?
Do you watch when the mother deer gives birth?
- 2 Do you know how many months they must carry their babies?
Do you know when it is the right time for them to be born?
- 3 These animals lie down, they feel their birth pains, and their babies are born.
- 4 Their babies grow strong out in the wild.
Then they leave their mothers and never come back.
- 5 “Who let the wild donkeys go free?
Who untied their ropes and let them loose?
- 6 I let the wild donkey have the desert for a home.
I gave the salt lands to them for a place to live.
- 7 They are happy to be away from the noise of the city.
They never have to listen to their drivers shouting at them.
- 8 They live in the mountains.
That is their pasture.
That is where they look for food to eat.
- 9 “Will a wild bull agree to serve you?
Will he stay in your barn at night?
- 10 Will he let you put ropes on him to plow your fields?
- 11 A wild bull is very strong,
but can you trust him to do your work?
- 12 Can you trust him to gather your grain and bring it to your threshing place?
- 13 “An ostrich gets excited and flaps its wings, but it cannot fly.
Its wings and feathers are not like the wings of a stork.
- 14 An ostrich lays her eggs on the ground and lets the sand keep them warm.
- 15 The ostrich forgets that someone might step on her eggs or that a wild animal might break them.
- 16 An ostrich leaves her little babies.
She treats them as if they were not her own.
If her babies die, she does not care that all her work was for nothing.
- 17 That’s because I did not give wisdom to the ostrich.
She is foolish, and I made her that way.
- 18 But when the ostrich gets up to run, she laughs at the horse and its rider, because she can run faster than any horse.
- 19 “Did you give the horse its strength?
Did you put the mane* on its neck?
- 20 Did you make it able to jump like a locust or snort† so loudly that it scares people?
- 21 A horse is happy to be so strong.
It scratches the ground with its foot and runs into battle.
- 22 It laughs at fear; nothing makes it afraid!

* 39:19 mane The hair on a horse’s neck. † 39:20 snort The sound a horse makes by blowing air very hard through the nose.

- It does not run away from battle.
²³ The soldier's quiver shakes on the horse's side.
 The spear and weapons its rider carries shine in the sun.
²⁴ The horse gets very excited and races over the ground.[‡]
 When it hears the trumpet blow, it cannot stand still.
²⁵ When the trumpet sounds, it snorts, 'Hurray!'
 It can smell the battle from far away and hear the shouts of commanders with all the other sounds of battle.
²⁶ "Did you teach the hawk how to spread its wings and fly south[§]?
²⁷ Are you the one who told the eagle* to fly high into the sky?
 Did you tell it to build its nest high in the mountains?
²⁸ It lives high on a peak at the top of a cliff.
 That is its fortress.
²⁹ From there it looks far into the distance, searching for its food.
³⁰ The eagles gather around dead bodies, and their young eat the blood."

- ¹ Then the LORD said to Job,
² "You wanted to argue with God All-Powerful.
 You wanted to correct me and prove that I was wrong.
 So give me your answer!"
³ Then Job answered the LORD:
⁴ "I am not worthy to speak!
 What can I say to you?
 I cannot answer you!
 I will put my hand over my mouth.
⁵ I spoke once, but I will not speak again.
 I spoke twice, but I will not say anything more."
⁶ Then the LORD spoke to Job again from the storm:
⁷ "Brace yourself*
 and get ready to answer the questions I will ask you.
⁸ "Are you trying to show that I am unfair?
 Are you trying to look innocent by saying that I am guilty?
⁹ Are your arms as strong as mine?
 Do you have a voice like mine that is as loud as thunder?
¹⁰ If so, you can be proud and wear glory and honor like clothes.
¹¹ If you are as powerful as God, then show your anger!
 Punish those who are proud and humble them.
¹² Yes, just look at the proud and make them humble.

[‡] 39:24 races over the ground Literally, "swallows up the ground." [§] 39:26 south Or "to Teman." * 39:27 eagle Or "vulture." * 40:7 Brace yourself Literally, "Gird yourself like a man." This means "get ready for battle."

- Crush those evil people where they stand.
 13 Bury them all in the dirt.
 Wrap their bodies up and put them in their graves.
 14 If you can do any of these things, then even I will praise you.
 And I will admit that you can save yourself by your own power.
- 15 “Look at the behemoth.[†]
 I made the behemoth, and I made you.
 He eats grass like a cow.
 16 But he has great strength in his body.
 The muscles in his stomach are powerful.
 17 His tail stands strong like a cedar tree.
 His leg muscles are very strong.
 18 His bones are as strong as bronze.
 His legs are like iron bars.
 19 The behemoth is the most amazing animal I made,
 but I can defeat him.
 20 He eats the grass that grows on the hills where the wild animals play.
 21 He lies under the lotus plants.
 He hides among the reeds of the swamp.
 22 The lotus plants hide him in their shade.
 He lives under the willow trees that grow near the river.
 23 If the river floods, the behemoth will not run away.
 He is not afraid if the Jordan River splashes on his face.
 24 No one can blind his eyes and capture him.
 No one can catch him in a trap.

- 1 “Can you catch Leviathan* with a fishhook?
 Can you tie his tongue with a rope?
 2 Can you put a rope through his nose or a hook through his jaw?
 3 Will he beg you to let him go free?
 Will he speak to you with gentle words?
 4 Will he make an agreement with you and promise to serve you forever?
 5 Will you play with Leviathan as you would play with a bird?
 Will you put a rope on him so that your girls can play with him?
 6 Will fishermen try to buy him from you?
 Will they cut him into pieces and sell him to the merchants?
 7 Can you throw spears into his skin or head?
- 8 “If you ever lay a hand on Leviathan, you will never do it again!
 Just think about the battle that would be!
 9 Do you think you can defeat him?
 Well, forget it! There is no hope.
 Just looking at him will scare you!
 10 No one is brave enough to wake him up

[†] 40:15 behemoth This might be a hippopotamus, a rhinoceros, or possibly an elephant.
 animal might be a crocodile or a giant sea monster.

* 41:1 Leviathan This and make him angry.

“Well, no one can challenge me either![†]

¹¹ I owe nothing to anyone.

Everything under heaven belongs to me.[‡]

¹² “I will tell you about Leviathan’s legs, his strength, and his graceful shape.

¹³ No one can pierce his skin.

It is like armor![§]

¹⁴ No one can force him to open his jaws.

The teeth in his mouth scare people.

¹⁵ His back has rows of shields tightly sealed together.

¹⁶ They are so close to each other that no air can pass between them.

¹⁷ The shields are joined to each other.

They hold together so tightly that they cannot be pulled apart.

¹⁸ When Leviathan sneezes, it is like lightning flashing out.

His eyes shine like the light of dawn.

¹⁹ Burning torches come from his mouth.

Sparks of fire shoot out.

²⁰ Smoke pours from his nose like burning weeds under a boiling pot.

²¹ His breath sets coals on fire, and flames shoot from his mouth.

²² His neck is very powerful.

People are afraid and run away from him.

²³ There is no soft spot in his skin.

It is as hard as iron.

²⁴ His heart is like a rock; he has no fear.

It is as hard as a millstone.

²⁵ When he gets up, even the strongest people* are afraid.

They run away when he swings his tail.

²⁶ Swords, spears, and darts only bounce off when they hit him.

These weapons don’t hurt him at all!

²⁷ He breaks iron as easily as straw.

He breaks bronze like rotten wood.

²⁸ Arrows don’t make him run away.

Rocks thrown at him seem as light as chaff.

²⁹ When a wood club hits him, it feels to him like a piece of straw.

He laughs when anyone throws a spear at him.

³⁰ The skin on his belly is like sharp pieces of broken pottery.

He leaves tracks in the mud like a threshing board.

³¹ He stirs up the water like a boiling pot.

He makes it bubble like a pot of boiling oil.

³² When he swims, he leaves a sparkling path behind him.

He stirs up the water and makes it white with foam.

³³ No animal on earth is like him.

He is an animal made without fear.

[†] 41:10 Well, no one ... either Or “No one can stand and fight him.” [‡] 41:11 Or “No one has come near to Leviathan and survived—no one under heaven!” [§] 41:13 It is like armor Or “No one can approach him with a bridle.” * 41:25 strongest people Or “gods.”

³⁴ He looks down on the proudest of creatures.
He is king over all the wild animals.”

42

Job Answers the Lord

¹ Then Job answered the LORD:

² “I know you can do everything.

You make plans, and nothing can change or stop them.

³ You asked, ‘Who is this ignorant person saying these foolish things?’*
I talked about things I did not understand.

I talked about things too amazing for me to know.

⁴ “You said to me, ‘Listen, and I will speak.

I will ask you questions, and you will answer me.’

⁵ In the past I heard about you, but now I have seen you with my own eyes.

⁶ And I am ashamed of myself.†

I am so sorry.

As I sit in the dust and ashes,‡

I promise to change my heart and my life.”

The Lord Gives Job’s Wealth Back

⁷ After the LORD finished talking to Job, he spoke to Eliphaz from Teman. He said, “I am angry with you and your two friends, because you did not tell the truth about me, as my servant Job did. ⁸ So now, Eliphaz, get seven bulls and seven rams. Take them to my servant Job. Kill them and offer them as a burnt offering for yourselves. My servant Job will pray for you, and I will answer his prayer. Then I will not give you the punishment you deserve. You should be punished, because you were very foolish. You did not say what is right about me, as my servant Job did.”

⁹ So Eliphaz from Teman, Bildad from Shuah, and Zophar from Naamah obeyed the LORD. Then the LORD answered Job’s prayer.

¹⁰ Job prayed for his friends, and the LORD made Job successful again. The LORD gave him twice as much as he had before. ¹¹ Then all his brothers and sisters and all the people who knew him before came to his house. They all ate a big meal with him. They comforted him and were sorry that the LORD had brought him so much trouble. Each person gave Job a piece of silver and a gold ring.

¹² The LORD blessed Job with even more than he had in the beginning. Job got 14,000 sheep, 6000 camels, 2000 oxen, and 1000 female donkeys. ¹³ He also got seven sons and three daughters. ¹⁴ He named the first daughter Jemimah and the second daughter Keziah. He named the third daughter Keren Happuch. ¹⁵ Job’s daughters were among the most beautiful women in all the country. And, like their brothers, they each got a share of their father’s property.§

¹⁶ So Job lived for 140 years more. He lived to see his children, his grandchildren, his great-grandchildren, and his great-great-grandchildren. ¹⁷ Job lived to be a very old man who had lived a good, long life.

* 42:3 Who ... things Or “Who is this person darkening advice with ignorant words.” † 42:6 I am ashamed of myself Or “I take back what I said.” ‡ 42:6 dust and ashes People sat in dust and ashes to show that they were very sad about something. § 42:15 And ... property Usually a person’s property was divided only among the sons, but here, even Job’s daughters got part of his property.

Psalms Book 1

(Psalms 1–41)

- ¹ Great blessings belong to those who don't listen to evil advice, who don't live like sinners,
 and who don't join those who make fun of God.*
- ² Instead, they love the LORD'S teachings and think about them day and night.
- ³ So they grow strong,
 like a tree planted by a stream—a tree that produces fruit when it should and has leaves that never fall.
 Everything they do is successful.
- ⁴ But the wicked are not like that.
 They are like chaff that the wind blows away.
- ⁵ When the time for judgment comes, the wicked will be found guilty.
 Sinners have no place among those who do what is right.†
- ⁶ The LORD shows his people how to live,
 but the wicked have lost their way.

- ¹ Why are the nations so angry?
 Why are the people making such foolish plans?
- ² Their kings and leaders join together to fight against the LORD and his chosen king.*
- ³ They say, "Let's rebel against them.
 Let's break free from them!"
- ⁴ But the one who rules in heaven laughs at them.
 The Lord makes fun of them.
- ⁵ He speaks to them in anger,
 and it fills them with fear.
- ⁶ He says, "I have chosen this man to be king, and he will rule on Zion, my holy mountain."
- ⁷ Let me tell you about the LORD'S agreement:
 He said to me, "Today I have become your father,†
 and you are my son.
- ⁸ If you ask, I will give you the nations.
 Everyone on earth will be yours.
- ⁹ You will rule over them with great power.

* 1:1 Or "The one who does not follow the advice of the wicked or turn onto Sinners Road or stay at Scoffers' House is blessed." † 1:5 Or "The wicked will not be allowed to sit as judges nor sinners in the meeting of good people."

* 2:2 his chosen king Or "his anointed one." † 2:7 I have become your father Literally, "I fathered you." Originally, this probably meant God was "adopting" the king as his son.

You will scatter your enemies like broken pieces of pottery!”

- ¹⁰ So, kings and rulers, be smart and learn this lesson.
¹¹ Serve the LORD with fear and trembling.
¹² Show that you are loyal to his son,[‡]
or the Lord will be angry and destroy you.
He is almost angry enough to do that now, but those who go to him for protection will be blessed.

A song of David written during the time he was running from his son Absalom.

- ¹ LORD, I have so many enemies.
So many people have turned against me.
² They say to themselves, “God will not rescue him!”

Selah

- ³ But you, LORD, protect me.
You bring me honor;
you give me hope.

- ⁴ I will pray to the LORD, and he will answer me from his holy mountain.

Selah

- ⁵ I can lie down to rest and know that I will wake up, because the LORD covers and protects me.
⁶ So I will not be afraid of my enemies, even if thousands of them surround me.

- ⁷ LORD, get up!^{*}
My God, come rescue me!
If you hit my enemies on the cheek,
you will break all their teeth.

- ⁸ LORD, the victory[†] is yours!
You are so good to your people.

Selah

To the director: With stringed instruments. A song of David.

- ¹ God, you showed that I was innocent.
You gave me relief from all my troubles.
So listen to me now when I call to you for help.
Be kind to me and hear my prayer.

- ² Men,^{*} how long will you try to dishonor me?

[‡] 2:12 Show ... his son Literally, “Kiss the son.” ^{} 3:7 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35-36. [†] 3:8 victory Or “salvation.” ^{} 4:2 Men Literally, “Sons of man.” This may be a term of respect spoken to the leaders who were judging the writer of this psalm.

Do you enjoy wasting your time searching for new lies against me?

Selah

³ You can be sure that anyone who serves the LORD faithfully is special to him.
The LORD listens when I pray to him.

⁴ Tremble with fear, and stop sinning.[†]
Think about this when you go to bed, and calm down.

Selah

⁵ Give the right sacrifices to the LORD, and put your trust in him!

⁶ Many people say, “I wish I could enjoy the good life.
LORD, give us some of those blessings.”[‡]

⁷ But you have made me happier than they will ever be with all their wine and grain.

⁸ When I go to bed, I sleep in peace, because, LORD, you keep me safe.

5

To the director: With flutes.* A song of David.

¹ LORD, listen to me and understand what I am trying to say.

² My God and King,
listen to my prayer.

³ Every morning, LORD, I lay my gifts before you and look to you for help.

And every morning you hear my prayers.

⁴ God, you don't want evil people near you.
They cannot stay in your presence.[†]

⁵ Fools[‡] cannot come near you.
You hate those who do evil.

⁶ You destroy those who tell lies.
LORD, you hate those who make secret plans to hurt others.

⁷ But by your great mercy, I can enter your house.
I can worship in your holy Temple with fear and respect for you.

⁸ LORD, show me your right way of living, and make it easy for me to follow.

People are looking for my weaknesses,
so show me how you want me to live.

⁹ My enemies never tell the truth.
They only want to destroy people.

Their words come from mouths that are like open graves.
They use their lying tongues to deceive others.[§]

¹⁰ Punish them, God!

[†] 4:4 Or “Be angry, but don't sin.” See Eph. 4:26, which is based on the ancient Greek version. [‡] 4:6 I wish ... blessings Or “Who will show us good. Lift up on us the light of your face, LORD.” ^{*} 5: With flutes This might be the name of a tune instead of a type of instrument. [†] 5:4 Or “You are not a God who likes evil people, and they don't respect you.” [‡] 5:5 Fools Here, this means people who do not follow God and his wise teachings. [§] 5:9 They use ... others Or “They say nice things to others, but only to trap them.”

Let them be caught in their own traps.
 They have turned against you,
 so punish them for their many crimes.
¹¹ But let those who trust in you be happy forever.
 Protect and strengthen those who love your name.
¹² LORD, when you bless good people, you surround them with your love, like a large shield that protects them.

6

To the director: With stringed instruments, on the sheminith. A song of David.

 Don't correct me when you are so angry.
² LORD, be kind to me.
 I am sick and weak.
 Heal me, LORD!
 My bones are shaking.
³ I am trembling all over.
 LORD, how long until you heal me?*

⁴ LORD, come back and make me strong again.
 Save me because you are so loyal and kind.
⁵ If I am dead, I cannot sing about you.
 Those in the grave don't praise you.

⁶ Lord, I am so weak.
 I cried to you all night.
 My pillow is soaked;
 my bed is dripping wet from my tears.
⁷ My enemies have caused me such sorrow that my eyes are worn out from crying.

⁸ Go away, you wicked people, because the LORD has heard my cries.
⁹ The LORD has heard my request for mercy.
 The LORD has accepted my prayer.

¹⁰ All my enemies will be filled with fear and shame.
 They will be sorry when disgrace suddenly comes upon them.

7

A song* of David that he sang to the LORD about Cush from the tribe of Benjamin.

¹ LORD my God, I come to you for protection.
 Save me from those who are chasing me.
² If you don't help me, I will be torn apart like an animal caught by a lion.
 I will be carried away with no one to save me.

³ LORD my God, I have done nothing wrong.
⁴ I have done nothing to hurt a friend† or to help his enemies.

* 6:3 LORD ... heal me Literally, "As for you, LORD, how long?"
 a special kind of song, perhaps one that is sad or full of emotion.

* 7: song Hebrew, "shiggayon," which may mean
 † 7:4 friend Or "ally."

⁵ If that is not the truth, then punish me.
 Let an enemy chase me, catch me, and kill me.
 Let him grind me into the dirt and put me in my grave.

Selah

⁶ LORD, get up[‡] and show your anger!
 My enemy is angry, so stand and fight against him.
 Get me the justice that you demand.

⁷ Gather the nations around you, and take your place as judge.

⁸ LORD, judge the people.
 LORD, judge me.
 Prove that I am right and that I am innocent.

⁹ Stop those who do evil.
 Support those who do good.

God, you are fair.
 You know what people are thinking.

¹⁰ God helps people who want to do right, so he will protect me.

¹¹ God is a good judge.
 He always condemns evil.

¹²⁻¹³ If the wicked will not change, then God is ready to punish them.

He has prepared his deadly weapons.
 His sword is sharp.
 His bow is strung, drawn back,
 and ready to shoot its flaming arrow.

¹⁴ The minds of the wicked are full of evil;
 they are pregnant with wicked plans,
 which give birth to lies.

¹⁵ They dig a pit to trap others,
 but they are the ones who will fall into it.

¹⁶ The trouble they cause will come back on them.
 They plan harm for others,
 but they are the ones who will be hurt.

¹⁷ I praise the LORD because he is good.
 I praise the name of the LORD Most High.

8

To the director: With the gittith. A song of David.

¹ LORD our Lord, your name is the most wonderful in all the earth!
 It brings you praise everywhere in heaven.

² From the mouths of children and babies come songs of praise to you.
 They sing of your power to silence your enemies who were seeking revenge.

³ I look at the heavens you made with your hands.

[‡] 7:6 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35-36.

I see the moon and the stars you created.
⁴ And I wonder, “Why are people so important to you?
 Why do you even think about them?
 Why do you care so much about humans*?
 Why do you even notice them?”

⁵ But you made them almost like gods and crowned them with glory and honor.
⁶ You put them in charge of everything you made.
 You put everything under their control.
⁷ People rule over the sheep and cattle and all the wild animals.
⁸ They rule over the birds in the sky and the fish that swim in the sea.
⁹ LORD our Lord, your name is the most wonderful name in all the earth!

* To the director: Use the Alamoth of Ben.[†] A song of David.
¹ I will praise you, LORD, with all my heart.
 I will tell about the wonderful things you have done.
² You make me happy, so I will rejoice in you.
 God Most High, I praise your name.
³ My enemies turned to run from you,
 but they fell and were destroyed.

⁴ You listened to me from your throne like a good judge, and you decided that I was right.
⁵ You told the nations how wrong they were.
 You destroyed those evil people.
 You erased their names from our memory forever and ever.
⁶ The enemy is finished!
 You destroyed their cities.
 There is nothing left to remind us of them.

⁷ The LORD set up his throne to bring justice, and he will rule forever.
⁸ He judges everyone on earth fairly.
 He judges all nations honestly.
⁹ Many people are suffering—crushed by the weight of their troubles.
 But the LORD is a refuge for them,
 a safe place they can run to.

¹⁰ LORD, those who know your name come to you for protection.
 And when they come,
 you do not leave them without help.

* 8:4 people ... humans Literally, “man ... son of man” or “Enosh ... son of Adam.” These are Hebrew ways of saying humans—descendants of Adam and Enosh. * 9: In many Hebrew copies and in the ancient Greek version, Psalms 9 and 10 are combined as one psalm. † 9: Alamoth of Ben This might be the name of a tune, “On the Death of the Son,” a music style, or one of the orchestral groups in the Temple. See 1 Chron. 15:20.

- 11 Sing praises to the LORD, who sits as King in Zion.‡
Tell the nations about the great things he has done.
- 12 He punishes murderers and remembers those who are in need.
When suffering people cry for help,
he does not ignore them.
- 13 I said this prayer: “LORD, be kind to me.
See how my enemies are hurting me.
Save me from the ‘gates of death.’”
- 14 Then, at the gates of Jerusalem,§ I can sing praises to you.
I will be so happy because you saved me.”
- 15 Those other nations have fallen into the pit they dug to catch others.
They have been caught in their own trap.
- 16 The LORD showed that he judges fairly.
The wicked were caught by what they did to hurt others.

Higgayon
Selah

- 17 The wicked will go to the place of death, as will all the nations that forget God.
- 18 It may seem that those who are poor and needy have been forgotten, but God will not forget them.
He will not leave them without hope.
- 19 LORD, get up† and judge the nations.
Don’t let anyone think they can win against you.
- 20 Teach them a lesson, LORD.
Let them know they are only human.

Selah

- 1 LORD, why do you stay so far away?
Why do you hide from people in times of trouble?
- 2 The wicked are proud and make evil plans to hurt the poor,
who are caught in their traps and made to suffer.
- 3 Those greedy people brag about the things they want to get.
They curse the LORD and show that they hate him.
- 4 The wicked are too proud to ask God for help.
He does not fit into their plans.
- 5 They succeed in everything they do.
They don’t understand how you can judge them.
They make fun of all their enemies.
- 6 They say to themselves, “Nothing bad will ever happen to us.
We will have our fun and never be punished.”
- 7 They are always cursing, lying,

‡ 9:11 Sing ... Zion Or “Inhabitants of Zion, sing praises to the LORD.” See “Zion” in the Word List. § 9:14 Jerusalem Literally, “daughter Zion.” See “Zion” in the Word List. * 9:16 Higgayon Or “Meditation.” Together with Selah this may mean a time to pause and think quietly. † 9:19 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35-36. Also in Psalm 10:12.

- and planning evil things to do.
- ⁸ They hide just outside the villages, waiting to kill innocent people,
always looking for any helpless person they can hurt.
- ⁹ They are like lions hiding in the bushes to catch weak and helpless animals.
They lay their traps for the poor,
who are caught in their nets.
- ¹⁰ Again and again they hurt people who are already weak and suffering.
- ¹¹ They say to themselves, "God has forgotten about us.
He is not watching.
He will never see what we are doing."
- ¹² LORD, get up and do something.
Punish those who are wicked, God.
Don't forget those who are poor and helpless.
- ¹³ The wicked turn against God because they think he will not punish them.
- ¹⁴ But, Lord, you do see the pain and suffering they cause.
You see it, so punish them.
Those who were left helpless put their trust in you.
After all, you are the one who cares for orphans.
- ¹⁵ Break the arms of those who are wicked and evil.
Punish them for the evil they have done,
and stop them from doing any more.
- ¹⁶ LORD, you are King forever and ever,
so I know you will remove the wicked nations from your land.
- ¹⁷ LORD, you have heard what the poor want.
Listen to their prayers, and do what they ask.
- ¹⁸ Protect the orphans and those who have been hurt.
Don't let powerful people drive us from our land!

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ I trust in the LORD, so why did you tell me to run and hide?
Why did you say, "Fly like a bird to your mountain?"
- ² Like hunters, the wicked hide in the dark.
They get their bows ready and aim their arrows.
They shoot at good, honest people.
- ³ What would good people do if the wicked destroyed all that is good?*
- ⁴ The LORD is in his holy temple.
The LORD sits on his throne in heaven.
He sees everything that happens.
He watches people closely.

* 11:3 Or "What if the foundations of society were really destroyed?"

- ⁵ The LORD examines those who are good and those who are wicked;
he hates those who enjoy hurting others.
- ⁶ He will make hot coals and burning sulfur fall like rain on the wicked.
They will get nothing but a hot, burning wind.
- ⁷ The LORD always does what is right, and he loves seeing people do right.
Those who live good lives will be with him.†

12

To the director: With the sheminith. A song of David.

- ¹ Save me, LORD!
We can no longer trust anyone!
All the good, loyal people are gone.
- ² People lie to their neighbors.
They say whatever they think people want to hear.
- ³ The LORD should cut off their lying lips and cut out their bragging tongues.
- ⁴ Those people think they can win any argument.
They say, "We are so good with words,
no one will be our master."
- ⁵ They took advantage of the poor and stole what little they had.
But the LORD knows what they did, and he says,
"I will rescue those who are poor and helpless,
and I will punish those who hurt them."*
- ⁶ The LORD'S words are true and pure, like silver purified by fire,
like silver melted seven times to make it perfectly pure.
- ⁷ LORD, take care of the helpless.
Protect them forever from the wicked people in this world.
- ⁸ The wicked are all around us,
and everyone thinks evil is something to be praised!

13

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ How long will you forget me, LORD?
Will you forget me forever?
How long will you refuse to accept me?*
- ² How long must I wonder if you have forgotten me?
How long must I feel this sadness in my heart?
How long will my enemy win against me?
- ³ LORD my God, look at me and give me an answer.
Make me feel strong again, or I will die.
- ⁴ If that happens, my enemy will say, "I beat him!"
He will be so happy that he won.

† 11:7 Those ... him Literally, "They will see his face."
helpless people who were hurt and asked me for help."

* 12:5 I will rescue ... hurt them Or "I will rescue poor,
* 13:1 refuse to accept me Literally, "hide your face from me."

- ⁵ But I trust in your faithful love, Lord.
I will be happy when you save me.
⁶ Then I will sing to the LORD because he was so good to me.

14

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ Only fools think there is no God.
People like that are evil and do terrible things.
They never do what is right.
- ² The LORD looks down from heaven to see if there is anyone who is wise, anyone who looks to him for help.
- ³ But everyone has gone the wrong way.
Everyone has turned bad.
No one does anything good.
No, not one person!
- ⁴ Those who are evil treat my people like bread to be eaten.
And they never ask for the LORD'S help.
Don't they know what they are doing?
- ⁵ They will have plenty to fear, because God is with those who do what is right.
- ⁶ You wicked people want to spoil the hopes of the poor,
but the LORD will protect them.
- ⁷ I wish the one who lives on Mount Zion
would bring victory to Israel!
When the LORD makes his people successful again,
the people of Jacob will be happy;
the people of Israel will be glad.

15

A song of David.

- ¹ LORD, who can live in your Holy Tent*?
Who can live on your holy mountain?
- ² Only those who live pure lives, do what is right, and speak the truth from their hearts.
- ³ Such people don't say bad things about others.
They don't do things to hurt their neighbors.
They don't tell shameful things about those close to them.
- ⁴ They hate those who fail to please God and honor those who respect the LORD.
If they make a promise to their neighbor,
they do what they promised.†
- ⁵ If they loan money to someone,
they do not charge them interest.

* 15:1 Holy Tent The special tent where the people of Israel worshiped God. Here, it is probably the Temple on the "holy mountain" (see "Zion" in the Word List) in Jerusalem. † 15:4 If they ... promised Or "They promised not to do bad things, and they do not do bad things."

And they refuse to testify against an innocent person, even if someone offers them money to do it.

Whoever lives like this will always stand strong.

16

A miktam of David.

- ¹ Protect me, God, because I depend on you.
- ² Some of you* have said to the LORD,
“You are my Lord.
Every good thing I have comes from you.”
- ³ But you have also said about the gods[†] of this land,
“They are my powerful gods.
They are the ones who make me happy.”
- ⁴ But those who worship other gods will have many troubles.
I will not share in the gifts of blood they offer to their idols.
I will not even say their names.
- ⁵ LORD, you give me all that I need.
You support me.
You give me my share.
- ⁶ My share[‡] is wonderful.
My inheritance[§] is very beautiful.
- ⁷ I praise the LORD because he taught me well.
Even at night he put his instructions deep inside my mind.*
- ⁸ I always remember that the LORD is with me.[†]
He is here, close by my side,
so nothing can defeat me.
- ⁹ So my heart and soul will be very happy.
Even my body will live in safety,
- ¹⁰ because you will not leave me in the place of death.
You will not let your faithful one rot in the grave.
- ¹¹ You will teach me the right way to live.
Just being with you will bring complete happiness.
Being at your right side will make me happy forever.

17

A prayer of David.*

- ¹ LORD, hear my prayer for justice.
I am calling loudly to you.
I am being honest in what I say,
so please listen to my prayer.
- ² You will make the right decision, because you can see the truth.

* 16:2 Some of you Literally, “you” (singular). Most translations assume it should be “I,” giving a different meaning to verses 2 and 3, which are very difficult in the Hebrew text. † 16:3 gods Literally, “holy ones.” ‡ 16:6 share Or “section of land.” § 16:6 inheritance Here, this probably means the land each Israelite received. * 16:7 mind Literally, “my kidneys.” † 16:8 Literally, “I set the LORD before me always.” * 17: A prayer of David Or “A prayer dedicated to David.”

- ³ You were with me all night and looked deep into my heart.
You questioned me and found that
I did not say or do anything wrong.
- ⁴ Unlike most people, I have obeyed your commands, so I have never been like those who are cruel and evil.
- ⁵ I have followed your way.
My feet never left your path.
- ⁶ Every time I call to you, God, you answer me.
So listen to me now, and hear what I say.
- ⁷ Show your amazing kindness and rescue those who depend on you.
Use your great power and protect them from their enemies.
- ⁸ Protect me like the pupil[†] of your eye.
Hide me in the shadow of your wings.
- ⁹ Save me from the wicked people who are trying to destroy me.
Protect me from those who come to hurt me.
- ¹⁰ They think only of themselves and brag about what they will do.
- ¹¹ They have been following me,
and now they are all around me.
They watch me, waiting to throw me to the ground.
- ¹² Like hungry lions, they want to kill and eat.
Like young lions, they hide, ready to attack.
- ¹³ LORD, get up[‡] and face the enemy.
Make them surrender.
Use your sword and save me from these wicked people.
- ¹⁴ Use your power, LORD,
and remove them from this life.
But as for the people you treasure,
fill them with food.
Give them plenty for their children and their grandchildren.
- ¹⁵ I have done only what is right, so I will see your face.
And seeing you,[§] I will be fully satisfied.

* To the director: A song of David, the LORD'S servant. He sang this song to the LORD when the LORD saved him from Saul and all his other enemies.

¹ I love you, LORD!

You are my strength.

² The LORD is my Rock, my fortress, my place of safety.

He is my God, the Rock I run to for protection.

He is my shield; by his power I am saved.[†]

He is my hiding place high in the hills.

[†] 17:8 pupil The center of the eye, which everyone wants to protect. [‡] 17:13 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle, showing that God was with them. See Num. 10:35-36. [§] 17:15 you Literally, "your likeness." * 18: This song is also found in 2 Sam. 22. [†] 18:2 by his power I am saved Literally, "He is the horn of my salvation."

- 3 I called to the LORD for help, and he saved me from my enemies!
 He is worthy of my praise!
- 4 Death had its ropes wrapped around me.
 A deadly flood was carrying me away.
- 5 The ropes of the grave wrapped around me.
 Death set its trap right there in front of me.
- 6 In my trouble I called to the LORD.
 Yes, I cried out to my God for help.
 There in his temple he heard my voice.
 He heard my cry for help.
- 7 The earth shook and shivered.
 The foundations of the mountains trembled.
 They shook because he was angry.
- 8 Smoke came from his nose.
 Burning flames came from his mouth.
 Red-hot coals fell from him.
- 9 He tore open the sky and came down!
 He stood on a thick, dark cloud.
- 10 He flew across the sky, riding on a Cherub angel racing on the wings of the wind.
- 11 He wrapped himself in darkness that covered him like a tent.
 He was hidden by dark clouds heavy with water.
- 12 Out of the brightness before him,
 hail broke through the clouds with flashes of lightning.
- 13 The LORD thundered from the sky;
 God Most High let his voice be heard.‡
- 14 He scattered his enemies with his arrows—
 the lightning bolts that threw them into confusion.
- 15 LORD, you shouted your command, and a powerful wind began to blow.§
 Then the bottom of the sea could be seen,
 and the earth's foundations were uncovered.
- 16 He reached down from above and grabbed me.
 He pulled me from the deep water.
- 17 He saved me from my powerful enemies, who hated me.
 They were too strong for me, so he saved me.
- 18 They attacked me in my time of trouble,
 but the LORD was there to support me.
- 19 He was pleased with me, so he rescued me.
 He took me to a safe place.
- 20 The LORD rewarded me for doing what is right.
 He was good to me because I am innocent.
- 21 The LORD did this because I have obeyed him.
 I have not turned against my God.
- 22 I always remembered his laws.
 I never rejected his rules.
- 23 He knows I did nothing that was wrong.
 I have kept myself from sinning.

‡ 18:13 The ancient Greek version and some Hebrew copies add “with hailstones and bolts of lightning.” § 18:15 and ... blow Or “and a blast of breath came from your nose.”

- 24 So the LORD rewarded me for doing what is right.
He could see that I am innocent.
- 25 Lord, you are faithful to those who are faithful.
You are good to those who are good.
- 26 You never do wrong to those who have done no wrong.
But you outsmart the wicked, no matter how clever they are.
- 27 You help those who are humble,
but you humiliate the proud.
- 28 LORD, you provide the flame for my lamp.
You, God, turn the darkness around me into light.
- 29 With your help I can defeat an army.
If my God is with me, I can climb over enemy walls.
- 30 God's way is perfect.
The LORD'S promise always proves to be true.
He protects those who trust in him.
- 31 There is no God except the LORD.
There is no Rock except our God.
- 32 God is the one who gives me strength.
He clears the path I need to take.
- 33 He makes my feet as steady as those of a deer.
Even on steep mountains he keeps me from falling.
- 34 He trains me for war
so that my arms can bend the most powerful bow.
- 35 Lord, you have given me your shield to protect me.
You support me with your right hand.
It is your help that has made me great.
- 36 You cleared a path for my feet
so that I could walk without stumbling.
- 37 I chased my enemies and caught them.
I did not stop until they were destroyed.
- 38 I struck them down, and they could not get up again.
They fell under my feet.
- 39 God, you made me strong in battle.
You made my enemies fall before me.
- 40 You made my enemies turn and run away.
I destroyed those who hated me.
- 41 They cried out for help,
but there was no one to save them.
They cried out to the LORD,
but he did not answer them.
- 42 I beat them to pieces like dust blown by the wind.
I smashed them like mud in the streets.
- 43 You saved me from those who fought against me.
You made me the ruler over nations.
People I never knew now serve me.
- 44 As soon as they heard about me, they were ready to obey.
Those foreigners fall helpless before me!
- 45 They lose all their courage and come out of their hiding places shaking with fear.

⁴⁶ The LORD lives!

I praise my Rock, the God who saves me.

How great he is!

⁴⁷ He is the God who punishes my enemies for me,
the one who puts people under my control.

⁴⁸ He saves me from my enemies!

You, Lord, help me defeat those who attack me.

You save me from cruel people.

⁴⁹ LORD, that is why I praise you among the nations.
That is why I sing songs of praise to your name.

⁵⁰ The Lord helps his king win battle after battle.

He shows his faithful love to his chosen one,*
to David and his descendants forever.

19

To the director: A song of David.

¹ The heavens tell about the glory of God.

The skies announce what his hands have made.

² Each new day tells more of the story, and each night reveals more and more about God's power.*

³ You cannot hear them say anything.

They don't make any sound we can hear.

⁴ But their message goes throughout the world.

Their teaching reaches the ends of the earth.

The sun's tent is set up in the heavens.

⁵ It comes out like a happy bridegroom from his bedroom.

It begins its path across the sky like an athlete eager to run a race.

⁶ It starts at one end of the sky and runs all the way to the other end.

Nothing can hide from its heat.

⁷ The LORD'S teachings are perfect.

They give strength to his people.

The LORD'S rules can be trusted.

They help even the foolish become wise.

⁸ The LORD'S laws are right.

They make people happy.

The LORD'S commands are good.

They show people the right way to live.

⁹ Learning respect for the LORD is good.

It will last forever.

The LORD'S judgments are right.

They are completely fair.

* 18:50 his chosen one Literally, "his anointed one." * 19:2 Or "Like the changing of the guards, each day passes the news to the next day and each night passes information to the next night."

- ¹⁰ His teachings are worth more than pure gold.
They are sweeter than the best honey dripping from the honeycomb.
- ¹¹ His teachings warn his servants, and good things come to those who obey them.
- ¹² People cannot see their own mistakes,
so don't let me commit secret sins.
- ¹³ Don't let me do what I know is wrong.
Don't let sin control me.
If you help me, I can be pure and free from sin.
- ¹⁴ May my words and thoughts please you.
LORD, you are my Rock—the one who rescues me.

20

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ May the LORD answer you in times of trouble.
May the God of Jacob protect you.
- ² May he send you help from his Holy Place.
May he support you from Zion.
- ³ May he remember all the gifts you have offered.
May he accept all your sacrifices.
- ⁴ May he give you what you really want.
May he make all your plans successful.
- ⁵ We will celebrate when he helps you.
We will praise the name of God.
May the LORD give you everything you ask for.
- ⁶ Now I know the LORD helps his chosen king.
From his holy heaven he answered.
With his great power he saved him.
- ⁷ Some give the credit for victory to their chariots and soldiers, but we honor the LORD our God.
- ⁸ They fall in battle, totally defeated,
but we survive and stand strong!
- ⁹ LORD, save the king!
Answer us when we call to you for help.

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ LORD, your strength makes the king happy.
He is so happy when you give him victory.
- ² And you gave him what he wanted.
You gave him what he asked for.
- ³ You gave the king such wonderful blessings.
You put a golden crown on his head.
- ⁴ He asked for life, and you gave it.
You gave him life that goes on forever.

- ⁵ You led him to victory that brought him great glory.
You gave him honor and fame.
- ⁶ You have given him blessings that will last forever.
You have given him the joy of being near you.
- ⁷ The king trusts in the LORD, and the faithful love of God Most High will keep him from falling.
- ⁸ Lord, you will show all your enemies that you are strong.
Your power will defeat those who hate you.
- ⁹ When you appear,
you will burn them up like a blazing furnace.
In your anger, LORD, you will completely destroy them;
they will be swallowed by flames of fire.*
- ¹⁰ Their families will be destroyed.
They will be removed from the earth.
- ¹¹ That is because they made evil plans against you.
They wanted to do things they could not do.
- ¹² You will make them turn and run away
when you aim your arrows at their faces.
- ¹³ LORD, we lift you up with our songs of praise.
We sing and play songs about your power!

22

To the director: To the tune “The Deer of Dawn.”* A song of David.

- ¹ My God, my God, why have you left me?
You seem too far away to save me, too far to hear my cries for help!
- ² My God, I kept calling by day,
and I was not silent at night.
But you did not answer me.
- ³ God, you are the Holy One.
You sit as King upon the praises of Israel.
- ⁴ Our ancestors trusted you.
Yes, they trusted you, and you saved them.
- ⁵ They called to you for help and escaped their enemies.
They trusted you and were not disappointed!
- ⁶ But I feel like a worm, less than human!
People insult me and look down on me.
- ⁷ Everyone who sees me makes fun of me.
They shake their heads and stick out their tongues at me.
- ⁸ They say, “Call to the LORD for help.
Maybe he will save you.
If he likes you so much, surely he will rescue you!”
- ⁹ God, the truth is, you are the one who brought me into this world.
You made me feel safe while I was still at my mother’s breasts.
- ¹⁰ You have been my God since the day I was born.

* 21:9 Or “You will make your king like a burning oven when you come to help him, LORD. And in his anger, he will completely destroy them.” * 22: “The Deer of Dawn” This is probably the name of the tune for this song, but it might refer to a music style or type of instrument.

I was thrown into your arms as I came from my mother's womb.

- 11 So don't leave me!
 Trouble is near, and there is no one to help me.
- 12 My enemies surround me like angry bulls.
 They are like the powerful bulls of Bashan, and they are all around me.
- 13 Their mouths are opened wide,
 like a lion roaring and tearing at its prey.
- 14 My strength is gone,
 like water poured out on the ground.
 My bones have separated.
 My courage is gone.[†]
- 15 My mouth[‡] is as dry as a piece of baked pottery.
 My tongue is sticking to the roof of my mouth.
 You have left me dying in the dust.
- 16 The "dogs" are all around me—
 a pack[§] of evil people has trapped me.
 They have pierced my hands and feet.*
- 17 I can see each one of my bones.
 My enemies are looking at me;
 they just keep staring.
- 18 They divide my clothes among themselves, and they throw lots for what I am wearing.
- 19 LORD, don't leave me!
 You are my strength—hurry and help me!
- 20 Save me from the sword.
 Save my precious life from these dogs.
- 21 Rescue me from the lion's mouth.
 Protect me from the horns of the bulls.[†]
- 22 I will tell my people about you.
 I will praise you in the great assembly.
- 23 Praise the LORD, all you who worship him!
 Honor him, you descendants of Jacob!
 Fear and respect him, all you people of Israel!
- 24 He does not ignore those who need help.
 He does not hate them.
 He does not turn away from them.
 He listens when they cry for help.
- 25 Lord, because of you I offer praise in the great assembly.
 In front of all these worshipers I will do all that I promised.
- 26 Poor people, come eat and be satisfied.[‡]

[†] 22:14 My courage is gone Literally, "My heart is melted inside me like wax." [‡] 22:15 mouth Or "strength."

[§] 22:16 pack A group of dogs. Dogs travel together in packs to hunt and kill other animals for food. * 22:16 They ... feet Literally, "Like a lion, my hands and feet." [†] 22:21 Protect me ... bulls Or "You have answered me and protected me from the horns of the bulls." This could be both a prayer for help (like the first half of the psalm) and also a statement that God had answered this prayer (like the second half of the psalm). [‡] 22:26 come eat ... satisfied This person was giving a thank offering that would be shared with other people at the Temple. This was how someone shared their happiness when God blessed them. See Leviticus 3:1-5 and Deuteronomy 14:22-29.

You who have come looking for the LORD, praise him!
 May your hearts be happy[§] forever.
²⁷ May those in faraway countries remember the LORD and come back to him.
 May those in distant lands worship him,
²⁸ because the LORD is the King.
 He rules all nations.
²⁹ The people have eaten all they wanted and bowed down to worship him.
 Yes, everyone will bow down to him—
 all who are on the way to the grave, unable to hold on to life.
³⁰ Our descendants will serve him.
 Those who are not yet born will be told about him.
³¹ Each generation will tell their children about the good things the Lord has done.

23

A song of David.

¹ The LORD is my shepherd.
 I will always have everything I need.*
² He gives me green pastures to lie in.
 He leads me by calm pools of water.
³ He restores my strength.
 He leads me on right paths[†] to show that he is good.
⁴ Even if I walk through a valley as dark as the grave,[‡]
 I will not be afraid of any danger, because you are with me.
 Your rod and staff[§] comfort me.
⁵ You prepared a meal for me in front of my enemies.
 You welcomed me as an honored guest.*
 My cup is full and spilling over.
⁶ Your goodness and mercy will be with me all my life, and I will live in the LORD'S house[†] a long, long time.[‡]

24

A song of David.

¹ The earth and everything on it belong to the LORD.
 The world and all its people belong to him.
² He built the earth on the water.
 He built it over the rivers.

* A song of David.

¹ LORD, I put my life in your hands.[†]

² I trust in you, my God, and I will not be disappointed.
My enemies will not laugh at me.

³ No one who trusts in you will be disappointed.
But disappointment will come to those who try to deceive others.
They will get nothing.

⁴ LORD, help me learn your ways.
Show me how you want me to live.

⁵ Guide me and teach me your truths.
You are my God, my Savior.
You are the one I have been waiting for.

- ² Evil people might attack me.
They might try to destroy my body.

but they will stumble and fall.
- ³ Even if an army surrounds me, I will not be afraid.
Even if people attack me in war, I will trust in the Lord.

This is what I want most:
Let me live in the LORD'S house all my life, enjoying the LORD'S beauty and spending time in his palace.*

He will hide me in his tent.[†]
He will take me up to his place of safety.

28

A song of David.

¹ LORD, you are my Rock.

I am calling to you for help.

Don't close your ears to my prayers.

If you don't answer me,

I will be counted among the dead.

² I lift my hands and pray toward your Most Holy Place.

Hear me when I call to you.

Show mercy to me.

³ Don't treat me like the evil people who do wicked things.

They greet their neighbors like friends,
but secretly plan to hurt them.

⁴ They do bad things to others,
so make bad things happen to them.

Give them the punishment they deserve.

⁵ They don't notice what the LORD does.

They ignore all the good things he has made.

So instead of building them up,
he will destroy them.

⁶ Praise the LORD!

He has heard my prayer for mercy.

⁷ The LORD is my strength and shield.

I trusted him with all my heart.

He helped me, so I am happy.

I sing songs of praise to him.

³ The LORD'S voice can be heard over the sea.

The voice of our glorious LORD God is like thunder over the great ocean.

⁵ The LORD'S voice shatters great cedar trees.

The LORD breaks the great cedars of Lebanon.

⁶ He makes Lebanon shake like a young calf dancing.

- ² LORD my God, I prayed to you, and you healed me.
- ³ LORD, you lifted me out of the grave.
 I was falling into the place of death, but you saved my life.
- ⁴ Praise the LORD, you who are loyal to him!
 Praise his holy name[†]!

 but then his kindness brings life.
 The night may be filled with tears,
 but in the morning we can sing for joy!
- ⁶ When I was safe and secure,
 I thought nothing could hurt me.
- ⁷ Yes, LORD, while you were kind to me,
 I felt that nothing could defeat me.[‡]
 But when you turned away from me,
 I was filled with fear.
- ⁸ So, LORD, I turned and prayed to you.
 I asked you, Lord, to show me mercy.
- ⁹ I said, "What good is it if I die and go down to the grave?
 The dead just lie in the dirt.
 They cannot praise you.
 They cannot tell anyone how faithful you are.
- ¹⁰ LORD, hear my prayer, and be kind to me.
 LORD, help me!"

⁶ I hate those who worship false gods.
I trust only in the LORD.
⁷ Your kindness makes me so happy.
You have seen my suffering.
You know about the troubles I have.
⁸ You will not let my enemies take me.
You will free me from their traps.
⁹ LORD, I have many troubles, so be kind to me.
I have cried until my eyes hurt.
My throat and stomach are aching.
¹⁰ Because of my sin, my life is ending in grief;
my years are passing away in sighs of pain.
My life is ending in weakness.
My strength is draining away.
¹¹ My enemies despise me,
and even my neighbors have turned away.
When my friends see me in the street,
they turn the other way.
They are afraid to be around me.
¹² People want to forget me like someone already dead, thrown away like a broken dish.
¹³ I hear them whispering about me.
They have turned against me and plan to kill me.

- ¹⁸ Those evil people brag and tell lies about those who do right.
 They are so proud now,
 but their lying lips will be silent.
- ¹⁹ Lord, you have hidden away many wonderful things for your followers.
 You have done so many good things for those who trust in you.
 You have blessed them so that all the world can see.
- ²⁰ Others make plans to hurt them.
 They say such bad things about them.
 But you hide your people in your shelter and protect them.
- ²¹ Praise the LORD, because he showed me how wonderful his faithful love is when the city was surrounded by enemies.
- ²² I was afraid and said, "I am in a place where he cannot see me."
 But I prayed to you, and you heard my loud cries for help.
- ²³ Love the LORD, all of you who are his loyal followers.
 The LORD protects those who are loyal to him.
 But he punishes those who brag about their own power.
 He gives them all the punishment they deserve.
- ²⁴ Be strong and brave,
 all of you who are waiting for the LORD'S help.

32

A maskil of David.

- ¹ It is a great blessing
 when people are forgiven for the wrongs they have done, when their sins are erased.*
- ² It is a great blessing
 when the LORD says they are not guilty, when they don't try to hide their sins.
- ³ Lord, I prayed to you again and again,
 but I did not talk about my sins.
 So I only became weaker and more miserable.
- ⁴ Every day you made life harder for me.
 I became like a dry land in the hot summertime.
- ⁵ But then I decided to confess my sins to the LORD.
 I stopped hiding my guilt and told you about my sins.
 And you forgave them all!
- ⁶ That is why your loyal followers pray to you while there is still time.
 Then when trouble rises like a flood, it will not reach them.
- ⁷ You are a hiding place for me.

- 8 Give the LORD a chance to show you[†] how good he is.
Great blessings belong to those who depend on him!
- 9 The LORD'S holy people should fear and respect him.
Those who respect him will always have what they need.
- 10 Even strong lions get weak and hungry, but those who go to the LORD for help will have every good thing.
- 11 Children, come and listen to me;
I will teach you to respect the LORD.
- 12 Do you want to enjoy life?
Do you want to have many happy days?
- 13 Then avoid saying anything hurtful,
and never let a lie come out of your mouth.
- 14 Stop doing anything evil, and do good.
Look for peace, and do all you can to help people live peacefully.
- 15 The LORD watches over those who do what is right, and he hears their prayers.
- 16 But the LORD is against those who do evil,
so they are forgotten soon after they die.

* 34: In Hebrew, each verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet. † 34:8 Give ... show you Literally, "Taste and see."

- 17 Pray to the LORD, and he will hear you.
He will save you from all your troubles.
- 18 The LORD is close to those who have suffered disappointment.
He saves those who are discouraged.
- 19 Good people might have many problems,
but the LORD will take them all away.
- 20 He will protect them completely.
Not one of their bones will be broken.
- 21 But troubles will kill the wicked.
The enemies of those who live right will all be punished.
- 22 The LORD saves his servants.
All who go to him for protection will escape punishment.

A song of David.

- 1 LORD, oppose those who oppose me.
Fight those who fight me.
- 2 Pick up your shields, large and small.
Get up and help me!
- 3 Take a spear and javelin and fight those who are chasing me.
Tell me, "I will rescue you."
- 4 Some people are trying to kill me.
Disappoint them and make them ashamed.
Make them turn and run away.
They are planning to hurt me.
Defeat and embarrass them.
- 5 Make them like chaff blown by the wind.*
Let them be chased by the LORD'S angel.
- 6 Make their road dark and slippery.
Let the LORD'S angel chase them.
- 7 I did nothing wrong, but they tried to trap me.
For no reason at all, they dug a pit to catch me.
- 8 So let them fall into their own traps.
Let them stumble into their own nets.
Let some unknown danger catch them.
- 9 Then I will rejoice in the LORD.
I will be happy when he saves me.
- 10 With my whole self I will say,
"LORD, there is no one like you.
You protect the poor from those who are stronger.
You save the poor and helpless from those who try to rob them."
- 11 There are witnesses[†] trying to harm me.
They ask me questions that I know nothing about.
- 12 They pay me back evil for the good I have done.
They make me so very sad.
- 13 When they were sick, I was sad and wore sackcloth.
I went without eating to show my sorrow.

* 35:5 wind This may be a wordplay, because the Hebrew word also means "spirit."
who tell what they have seen or heard. Here, these people were probably telling lies.

† 35:11 witnesses People

- (May my prayers for them not be answered!)
- ¹⁴ I mourned for them as I would for a friend or a brother.
I bowed low with sadness, crying as I would for my own mother.
- ¹⁵ But when I had troubles, they laughed at me.
They were not really friends.
I was surrounded and attacked by people I didn't even know.
- ¹⁶ They made fun of me, using the worst language.
They ground their teeth to show their anger.
- ¹⁷ My Lord, how long will you watch this happen?
Save my life from these people who are attacking me like lions and trying to destroy me.
- ¹⁸ I will praise you in the great assembly.
I will praise you there among the crowds.
- ¹⁹ Don't let my lying enemies keep on laughing at me.
They have no reason to hate me.
Surely they will be punished for their secret plans.‡
- ²⁰ They have no friendly words for others, but plan ways to hurt those who want to live in peace.
- ²¹ They are telling lies about me.
They say, "Aha! We know what you did!"
- ²² LORD, surely you can see what is happening.
So don't keep quiet.
Lord, don't leave me.
- ²³ Wake up! Get up!
My God and my Lord, fight for me, and bring me justice.
- ²⁴ LORD my God, judge me with your fairness.
Don't let those people laugh at me.
- ²⁵ Don't let them think, "Aha! We got what we wanted!"
Don't let them say, "We destroyed him!"
- ²⁶ Let my enemies be ashamed and embarrassed—
all those who were happy about my troubles.
Proud of themselves, they treated me as worthless.
So let them be covered with shame and disgrace.
- ²⁷ To those who want the best for me,
I wish them joy and happiness.
May they always say, "Praise the LORD, who wants what is best for his servant."
- ²⁸ So, Lord, I will tell people how good you are.
I will praise you all day long.

36

To the director: A song of David, the LORD'S servant.

- ¹ Deep in the hearts of the wicked a voice tells them to do wrong.
They have no respect for God.
- ² They lie to themselves.
They don't see their own faults,

‡ 35:19 Surely ... plans Literally, "Will the people who hate me freely wink their eyes?"

- so they are not sorry for what they do.
³ Their words are wicked lies.
 They have stopped doing anything wise or good.
⁴ They make wicked plans in bed at night.
 They choose a way of life that does no good.
 And they never say no to anything evil.
- ⁵ LORD, your faithful love reaches to the sky.
 Your faithfulness is as high as the clouds.
⁶ Your goodness is higher than the highest mountains.
 Your fairness is deeper than the deepest ocean.
 LORD, you protect people and animals.
⁷ Nothing is more precious than your loving kindness.
 All people can find protection close to you.
⁸ They get strength from all the good things in your house.
 You let them drink from your wonderful river.
⁹ The fountain of life flows from you.
 Your light lets us see light.
¹⁰ Continue to love those who really know you,
 and do good to those who are true to you.*
¹¹ Don't let proud people trap me.
 Don't let the wicked force me to run away.
- ¹² Put this on their grave markers:
 "Here fell the wicked.
 They were crushed.
 They will never stand up again."

37

- * A song of David.
- ¹ Don't get upset about evil people.
 Don't be jealous of those who do wrong.
² They are like grass and other green plants that dry up quickly and then die.
³ So trust in the LORD and do good.
 Live on your land and be dependable.†
⁴ Enjoy serving the LORD,
 and he will give you whatever you ask for.
⁵ Depend on the LORD.
 Trust in him, and he will help you.
⁶ He will make it as clear as day that you are right.
 Everyone will see that you are being fair.
⁷ Trust in the LORD and wait quietly for his help.
 Don't be angry when people make evil plans and succeed.
⁸ Don't become so angry and upset that you, too, want to do evil.
⁹ The wicked will be destroyed, but those who call to the LORD for help will get the land he promised.
¹⁰ In a short time there will be no more evil people.
 You can look for them all you want, but they will be gone.

* 36:10 true to you Or "honest hearted." * 37: In Hebrew, about every other verse in this psalm begins with the next letter of the alphabet. † 37:3 be dependable Literally, "shepherd faithfulness."

- 11 Humble people will get the land God promised, and they will enjoy peace.
- 12 The wicked plan bad things for those who are good.
They show their teeth in anger at them.
- 13 But our Lord will laugh at them.
He will make sure they get what they deserve.
- 14 The wicked draw their swords to kill the poor and the helpless.
They aim their arrows to murder all who live right.
- 15 But their bows will break,
and their swords will pierce their own hearts.
- 16 A few good people are better than a large crowd of those who are evil.
- 17 The wicked will be destroyed,
but the LORD cares for those who are good.
- 18 The LORD protects pure people all their life.
Their reward will continue forever.
- 19 When trouble comes,
good people will not be destroyed.
When times of hunger come,
good people will have plenty to eat.
- 20 But evil people are the LORD'S enemies,
and they will be destroyed.
Their valleys will dry up and burn.
They will be destroyed completely.
- 21 The wicked borrow money and never pay it back.
But good people are kind and generous.
- 22 Everyone the Lord blesses will get the land he promised.
Everyone he curses will be destroyed.
- 23 The LORD shows us how we should live, and he is pleased when he sees people living that way.
- 24 If they stumble, they will not fall,
because the LORD reaches out to steady them.
- 25 I was young, and now I am old,
but I have never seen good people left with no one to help them;
I have never seen their children begging for food.
- 26 They are kind and generous,
and their children are a blessing.
- 27 Stop doing anything evil and do good,
and you will always have a place to live.
- 28 The LORD loves what is right, and he will never leave his followers without help.
He will always protect them,
but he will destroy the families of the wicked.
- 29 Good people will get the land God promised and will live on it forever.
- 30 Those who do what is right give good advice.
Their decisions are always fair.
- 31 They have learned God's teachings, and they will never stop living right.‡

‡ 37:31 they ... right Literally, "his steps will not slip."

- 32 The wicked are always looking for ways to kill good people.
 33 But the LORD will not let the wicked defeat them.
 He will not let good people be judged guilty.
 34 Do what the LORD says, and wait for his help.
 He will reward you and give you the land he promised.
 You will see the wicked being forced to leave.
- 35 I once saw a wicked man who was powerful.
 He was like a strong, healthy tree.
 36 But then he was gone.
 I looked for him, but I could not find him.
 37 Be pure and honest.
 Peace loving people will have many descendants.
 38 But those who break the law will be destroyed completely.
 And their descendants will be forced to leave the land.[§]
 39 The LORD saves those who are good.
 When they have troubles, he is their strength.
 40 The LORD helps good people and rescues them.
 They depend on him, so he rescues them from the wicked.

38

A song of David for the day of remembrance.*

- 1 LORD, don't criticize me when you are angry.
 Don't discipline me in anger.
 2 You have hurt me.
 You punished me and hurt me deeply.
 3 You punished me severely, so my whole body is sore.
 I sinned, and now all my bones hurt.
 4 My guilt is like a heavy burden.
 I am sinking beneath its weight.
 5 I did a foolish thing,
 and now I have infected sores that stink.
 6 I am bent and bowed down.
 I am depressed all day long.
 7 I am burning with fever,
 and my whole body hurts.
 8 I hurt so much I cannot feel anything.
 My pounding heart makes me scream!
 9 My Lord, you heard my groaning.
 You can hear my sighs.
 10 My heart is pounding.
 My strength is gone, and I am going blind.[†]
 11 Because of my sickness,
 my friends and neighbors will not visit me;
 my family will not come near me.
 12 My enemies say bad things about me.
 They are spreading lies and rumors.
 They talk about me all the time.
 13 But I am like a deaf man and cannot hear.

§ 37:38 forced to leave the land Or "destroyed." Literally, "cut off." * 38: for ... remembrance The ancient Greek version has "for the Sabbath." † 38:10 I am going blind Or "My eyes have lost their sparkle." Literally, "Even the light of my eyes is no longer with me."

- I am like someone who cannot speak.
¹⁴ I am like those who cannot hear what people are saying about them.
 I cannot answer to prove my enemies wrong.
¹⁵ LORD, you must defend me.
 Lord my God, you must speak for me.
¹⁶ That's why I prayed, "Don't let my enemies smile at my pain.
 Full of pride, they will laugh if I stumble and fall."
¹⁷ I know I am guilty of doing wrong.
 I cannot forget my pain.
¹⁸ Lord, I told you about the evil I have done.
 I am sorry for my sin.
¹⁹ But my enemies are alive and healthy,
 and they have told many lies.
²⁰ I did nothing but good,
 and they paid me back with evil.
 I try to do what is right,
 but that only makes them turn against me.
²¹ LORD, don't leave me.
 My God, stay close to me.
²² Come quickly and help me.
 My Lord, you are the one who saves me.

39

To the director, Jeduthun. * A song of David.

- ¹ I said, "I will be careful about what I say.
 I will not let my tongue cause me to sin.
 I will keep my mouth closed[†]
 when I am around wicked people."
² So I didn't say anything.
 I didn't even say anything good,
 but I became even more upset.
³ I was very angry,
 and the more I thought about it, the angrier I became.
 So I said something.
⁴ LORD, tell me, what will happen to me now?
 Tell me, how long will I live?
 Let me know how short my life really is.
⁵ You gave me only a short life.
 Compared to you, my whole life is nothing.
 The life of every human is like a cloud that quickly disappears.
⁶ Our life is like an image in a mirror.[‡]
 We rush through life collecting things, but we don't know who will get them after we die.

Selah

* 39: Jeduthun Or "and to Jeduthun," one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38-42. † 39:1 will keep ... closed Literally, "guard my mouth with a muzzle." ‡ 39:6 Our life ... mirror Or "This life is not real—it is only a shadow" or "People wander around in the dark—not knowing what will happen."

- 7 So, Lord, what hope do I have?
You are my hope!
- 8 Save me from the bad things I did.
Don't let me be treated like a fool.
- 9 I will not open my mouth.
I will not say anything.
You did what should have been done.
- 10 But please stop punishing me.
You will destroy me if you do not stop.
- 11 You punish people for doing wrong to teach them the right way to live.
As a moth destroys cloth, you destroy what people love.
Yes, our lives are like a small cloud that quickly disappears.

- 12 LORD, hear my prayer!
Listen to the words I cry to you.
Look at my tears.
I am only a traveler passing through this life with you.
Like all my ancestors, I will live here only a short time. §
- 13 Leave me alone* and let me be happy
before I am dead and gone.

40

To the director: A song of David.

- 1 I called* to the LORD, and he heard me.
He heard my cries.
- 2 He lifted me out of the grave. †
He lifted me from that muddy place. ‡
He picked me up, put me on solid ground, and kept my feet from slipping.
- 3 He put a new song § in my mouth, a song of praise to our God.
Many will see what he did and worship him.
They will put their trust in the LORD.
- 4 Great blessings belong to those who trust in the LORD, for those who do not turn to demons and false gods* for help.
- 5 LORD my God, you have done many amazing things!
You have made great plans for us—too many to list.
I could talk on and on about them, because there are too many to count.
- 6 Lord, you made me understand this: †
You don't really want sacrifices and grain offerings.
You don't want burnt offerings and sin offerings.
- 7 So I said, "Here I am,

§ 39:12 I live ... time Literally, "I am a settler." * 39:13 Leave me alone Or "Stop looking at me." * 40:1 called Or "waited patiently." † 40:2 grave Literally, "pit of destruction." That is, "Sheol," the place of death. ‡ 40:2 muddy place In many ancient stories, Sheol, the place of death, is a dark place with mud all around, like a grave.
§ 40:3 new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.
* 40:4 demons and false gods Or "proud and deceptive people." † 40:6 you made ... this Literally, "you have dug my ears." The ancient Greek version has "you prepared a body for me."

- ready to do what was written about me in the book.
- ⁸ My God, I am happy to do whatever you want.
I never stop thinking about your teachings.”
- ⁹ I told the good news of victory[‡] to the people in the great assembly.
And, LORD, you know that I will never stop telling that good news.
- ¹⁰ I told about the good things you did.
I did not hide these things in my heart.
I spoke of how you can be trusted to save us.
I did not hide your love and loyalty from those in the great assembly.
- ¹¹ LORD, do not hide your mercy from me.
Let your love and loyalty always protect me.
- ¹² Troubles have surrounded me.
They are too many to count!
My sins have caught me,
and I cannot escape them.
They are more than the hairs on my head.
I have lost my courage.
- ¹³ Please, LORD, rescue me!
LORD, hurry and help me!
- ¹⁴ People are trying to kill me.
Please disappoint them.
Humiliate them completely!
They wanted to hurt me.
Make them run away in shame!
- ¹⁵ May those who make fun of me
be too embarrassed to speak!
- ¹⁶ But may those who come to you be happy and rejoice.
May those who love being saved by you always be able to say, “Praise the LORD!”[§]
- ¹⁷ My Lord, I am only a poor, helpless man, but please pay attention to me.
You are my helper, the one who can save me.
My God, don’t be too late.

41

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ Those who help the poor succeed will get many blessings.*
When trouble comes, the LORD will save them.
- ² The LORD will protect them and save their lives.
He will bless them in this land.
He will not let their enemies harm them.
- ³ When they are sick in bed,
the LORD will give them strength and make them well!
- ⁴ I say, “LORD, be kind to me.
I sinned against you, but forgive me and make me well.”
- ⁵ My enemies say bad things about me.
They ask, “When will he die and be forgotten?”

- ⁶ If they come to see me,
they don't say what they are really thinking.
They come to gather a little gossip and then go to spread their rumors.
- ⁷ Those who hate me whisper about me.
They think the worst about me.
- ⁸ They say, "He did something wrong.
That is why he is sick.
He will never get well."
- ⁹ My best friend, the one I trusted, the one who ate with me—even he has turned against me.
- ¹⁰ LORD, please be kind to me.
Let me get up, and I will pay them back.
- ¹¹ Don't let my enemy defeat me.
Then I will know that you care for me.
- ¹² I was innocent and you supported me.
You let me stand and serve you forever.
- ¹³ Praise the LORD, the God of Israel.
He always was, and he always will be.

Amen and Amen!

(Psalms 42—72)

To the director: A maskil from the Korah family.

- ¹ Like a deer drinking from a stream,
I reach out to you, my God.*
- ² My soul thirsts for the living God.
When can I go to meet with him?
- ³ Instead of food, I have only tears day and night, as my enemies laugh at me and say, "Where is your God?"
- ⁴ My heart breaks as I remember the pleasant times in the past, when I walked with the crowds as I led them up to God's Temple.
I remember the happy songs of praise as they celebrated the festival.
- ⁵⁻⁶ Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I tell myself, "Wait for God's help!
You will again be able to praise him,
your God, the one who will save you."
In my sadness I say, "I will remember you from here on this small hill,[†] where Mount Hermon and the Jordan River meet."
- ⁷ I hear the roar of the water coming from deep within the earth.
It shouts to the water below as it tumbles down the waterfall.
God, your waves come one after another,

* 42:1 Or "As a deer stretches out to drink water from a stream, so my soul thirsts for you, God." † 42:5-6 small hill Or "Mount Mizar."

crashing all around and over me.[‡]

⁸ By day the LORD shows his faithful love, and at night I have a song for him—a prayer for the God of my life.[§]

⁹ I say to God, my Rock,
“Why have you forgotten me?
Why must I suffer this sadness that my enemies have brought me?”

¹⁰ Their constant insults are killing me.
They never stop asking, “Where is your God?”

¹¹ Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I tell myself, “Wait for God’s help!
You will again be able to praise him,
your God, the one who will save you.”

43

¹ Defend me, God.
Argue my case against those people who don’t know you.
Protect me from those evil liars.

² God, you are my place of safety.
Why have you turned me away?

Why must I suffer this sadness that my enemies have brought me?

³ Send your light and your truth to guide me,
to lead me to your holy mountain, to your home.

⁴ I want to go to God’s altar, to the God who makes me so very happy.

God, my God, I want to play my harp and sing praises to you!

⁵ Why am I so sad?
Why am I so upset?
I tell myself, “Wait for God’s help!
You will again have a chance to praise him,
your God, the one who will save you.”

44

To the director: A maskil from the Korah family.

¹ God, we have heard about you.
Our fathers told us what you did in their lifetime.
They told us what you did long ago.

² With your great power you took this land from other people, and you gave it to us.

You crushed those foreigners and forced them to leave this land.

³ It was not our fathers’ swords that took the land.
It was not their strong arms that brought them victory.
It was your power.

[‡] 42:7 God, your waves ... over me These word pictures describe the psalmist’s feelings about the many troubles the Lord has allowed him to experience. [§] 42:8 the God of my life Or “my living God.”

- It was because you accepted them and smiled down on them.
⁴ God, you are my king.
 Give the command and lead Jacob's people to victory.
⁵ We need your help to push our enemies back.
 Only in your name can we trample those who attacked us.
⁶ I don't put my trust in my bow.
 My sword cannot save me.
⁷ You are the one who saved us from our enemies.
 You are the one who put our enemies to shame.
⁸ We have praised you all day long,
 and we will praise your name forever.

Selah

- ⁹ But you left us and put us to shame.
 You did not go with us into battle.
¹⁰ You let our enemies push us back.
 You let them take our wealth.
¹¹ You gave us away like sheep to be killed and eaten.
 You scattered us among the nations.
¹² You sold your people for nothing.
 You did not even argue over the price.
¹³ You made us a joke to our neighbors.
 They laugh and make fun of us.
¹⁴ You made us one of the stories that people love to tell.
 People all over the world laugh at us and shake their heads.
¹⁵ All I can think about is my shame.
 Just look at my face, and you will see it.
¹⁶ All I can hear are the jokes and insults of my enemies, as I watch them take their revenge.
¹⁷ We have not forgotten you.
 But you do all those things to us.
 We did not break the agreement you gave us.
¹⁸ We did not turn away from you.
 We did not stop following you.
¹⁹ But you crushed us in this home of jackals.
 You left us in this place as dark as death.
²⁰ Did we forget the name of our God?
 Did we pray to foreign gods?
²¹ If we did, then God knows it,
 because he knows our deepest secrets.
²² All day long we died for you.
 We are like sheep being led away to be killed.
²³ Lord, wake up!
 Why are you sleeping?
 Get up! Don't ignore us forever!
²⁴ Why are you hiding from us?
 Have you forgotten our pain and troubles?
²⁵ We have been pushed down into the dirt.
 We are lying face down in the dust.*
²⁶ Get up and help us!
 Rescue us because of your faithful love.

* 44:25 This shows that the people were being treated like slaves who must bow down to their masters.

45

To the director: To the tune “Shoshanim.”* A maskil from the Korah family. A love song.

- ¹ Beautiful thoughts fill my mind
as I speak these lines for the king.
These words come from my tongue as from the pen of a skilled writer.
- ² You are more handsome than anyone,
and you say such pleasant things.
So God will always bless you.
- ³ Put on your sword, mighty warrior,
so impressive in your splendid uniform.
- ⁴ Go out in your greatness to win the victory for what is true and right.
Let us see the amazing things you can do with your powerful right arm.†
- ⁵ Your sharp arrows will go deep into the hearts of your enemies, who will fall to the ground in front of you.
- ⁶ God,‡ your kingdom will last forever.
You use your authority for justice.
- ⁷ You love what is right and hate what is wrong.
So God, your God, chose you to be king, giving you more joy and honor than anyone like you.§
- ⁸ From your clothes comes the wonderful smell of myrrh, aloes, and cassia.
In palaces decorated with ivory, you enjoy the music of stringed instruments.
- ⁹ Here are ladies of honor, daughters of kings.
Your bride* stands at your right side, wearing a gown decorated with the finest gold.
- ¹⁰ My lady,† listen to me.
Listen carefully and understand me.
Forget your people and your father’s family,
¹¹ so that the king will be pleased with your beauty.
He will be your new husband,‡
so you must honor him.
- ¹² People from Tyre will bring you gifts.
Their richest people will try to win your friendship.
- ¹³ The princess is so beautiful in her gown,
like a pearl set in gold.
- ¹⁴ Clothed in beauty, she is led to the king, followed by her bridesmaids.
- ¹⁵ Filled with joy and excitement,
they enter into the king’s palace.
- ¹⁶ Your sons will be kings like their ancestors.
You will make them rulers throughout the land.
- ¹⁷ You will be famous for generations.

* 45: To the tune “Shoshanim” Or “On the Shoshanim.” † 45:4 right arm This pictures God as a warrior-king. The right arm is a symbol of his power and authority. ‡ 45:6 God This might be a song to God as king. Or here, the writer might be using the word “God” as a title for the king. § 45:7 chose ... anyone like you Literally, “anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.” This refers to the special oil used in the dedication of a new priest or king. * 45:9 bride Or “queen.” † 45:10 My lady Literally, “Daughter.” ‡ 45:11 husband Or “master.”

People will praise you forever and ever.

To the director: A song from the Korah family. Use the alamoth.* A song.

¹ God is our protection and source of strength.

He is always ready to help us in times of trouble.

² So we are not afraid when the earth quakes and the mountains fall into the sea.

³ We are not afraid when the seas become rough and dark and the mountains tremble.

when God shouts and makes the earth move.

I am the one who defeats the nations;
I am the one who controls the world."

Selah

47

To the director: A song from the Korah family.

Shout with joy to God!

² The LORD Most High is awesome.
He is the great King over all the earth.

³ He helped us defeat other nations.
He put those people under our control.

⁴ He chose our land for us.
He chose that wonderful land for Jacob, the one he loved.

Selah

⁵ The LORD God goes up to his throne at the sound of the trumpet and horn.

⁶ Sing praises to God, sing praises!

* 46: alamoth This might be a musical instrument, a special way of tuning an instrument, a music style, or one of the groups that played harps in the Temple orchestra. See 1 Chron. 15:21. † 46:9 shields Or "chariots."

Sing praises to our King, sing praises!
⁷ God is the King of the whole world.
 Sing songs of praise!*

⁸ God sits on his holy throne;
 he rules all the nations.

⁹ The leaders of the nations have come together with the people of the God of Abraham.
 All the rulers of the world belong to God.
 He is over them all!

48

A song of praise from the Korah family.

 He is praised throughout the city of our God, his holy mountain.

² His city is such a pleasant place.
 It brings joy to people from around the world.
 Mount Zion is the true mountain of God.*
 It is the city of the great King.

³ In the palaces of that city,
 God is known as the fortress.

⁴ Once some kings met together and planned an attack against this city.
 They marched toward the city,
⁵ but when they saw it, they were amazed.
 They all panicked and ran away.

⁶ Fear grabbed them;
 they trembled like a woman giving birth.

⁷ God, with a strong east wind, you wrecked their big ships.

⁸ Yes, we heard the stories about your power.
 But we also saw it in the city of our God, the city of the LORD All-Powerful.
 God makes that city strong forever.

Selah

⁹ God, in your Temple we remember your loving kindness.

¹⁰ Your name is known everywhere, God,
 and people throughout the earth praise you.
 You have shown that you do what is right.

¹¹ Mount Zion is happy, and the towns of Judah rejoice, because your decisions are fair.

¹² Walk around Jerusalem, and count its towers.

¹³ Look at the tall walls, and see the palaces.
 Then you can tell the next generation about them.

¹⁴ This God is our God forever and ever.
 He will lead us from now to the end of time!

* 47:7 songs of praise Literally, "maskil." See "maskil" in the Word List. * 48:2 true mountain of God Literally, "the summit of Zaphon." In Canaanite stories, Matthew Zaphon was where the gods lived.

49

To the director: A song from the Korah family.

¹ Listen to this, all you nations.

Pay attention, all you people on earth.

² Everyone, rich and poor, listen to me.

³ I have some very wise words for you.

My thoughts will give you understanding.

⁴ I listened to these sayings.

And now, with my harp, I will sing and make the hidden meaning clear.

⁵ Why should I be afraid when trouble comes?

There is no need to fear when evil enemies surround me.

⁶ They think their wealth will protect them.

They brag about how rich they are.

⁷ But no one has enough to buy back a life,

and you cannot bribe* God.

⁸ You will never get enough money to pay for your own life.

⁹ You will never have enough to buy the right to live forever and keep your body out of the grave.

¹⁰ Look, the wise die the same as fools and stupid people.†

They die and leave their wealth to others.

¹¹ The grave will be their new home forever.

And how much land they owned will not make any difference.

¹² People might be wealthy, but they cannot stay here forever.

They will die like the animals.

¹³ That is what happens to all who trust in themselves and to anyone who accepts their way of life.

Selah

¹⁴ They are just like sheep, but the grave will be their pen.

Death will be their shepherd.

When morning comes, the good people will enjoy victory, as the bodies of the proud slowly rot in the grave, far away from their fancy houses.

¹⁵ But God will pay the price to save me from the grave.

He will take me to be with him.

Selah

¹⁶ Don't be afraid of people just because they are rich.

Don't be afraid of people just because they have big, fancy houses.

¹⁷ They will not take anything with them when they die.

They will not take their wealth with them.

¹⁸ A wealthy man might tell himself how well he has done in life.

And other people might praise him.

¹⁹ But the time will come for him to die and go to his ancestors.

And he will never again see the light of day.

²⁰ Wealthy people don't seem to understand that they will die like the animals.

* 49:7 bribe Here, this means offering a gift or sacrifice so that God will not punish a guilty person. † 49:10 stupid people Or "animals."

50

One of Asaph's songs.

- ¹ The LORD God Most Powerful has spoken.
He calls to everyone on earth, from where the sun rises to where it sets.
- ² God appeared from Zion, the city of perfect beauty.*
- ³ Our God is coming and will not keep quiet.
Fire burns in front of him.
There is a great storm around him.
- ⁴ He tells the sky and the earth to be witnesses
as he judges his people.
- ⁵ He says, "My followers, gather around me.
Come, my worshipers, who made an agreement with me."
- ⁶ God is the judge,
and the skies tell how fair he is.
- Selah
- ⁷ God says, "My people, listen to me!
People of Israel, I will show my evidence against you.
I am God, your God.
- ⁸ The problem I have with you is not your sacrifices or the burnt offerings you bring to me everyday.
- ⁹ Why would I want more bulls from your barns or goats from your pens?
- ¹⁰ I already own all the animals in the forest.
I own all the animals on a thousand hills.
- ¹¹ I know every bird in the mountains.
Everything that moves in the fields is mine.
- ¹² If I were hungry, I would not ask you for food.
I already own the world and everything in it.
- ¹³ I don't eat the meat of bulls or drink the blood of goats."
- ¹⁴ You made promises to God Most High, so give him what you promised.
Bring your sacrifices and thank offerings.
- ¹⁵ God says, "Call me when trouble comes.
I will help you, and you will honor me."
- ¹⁶ But God says to the wicked,
"Stop quoting my laws!
Stop talking about my agreement!
- ¹⁷ You hate for me to tell you what to do.
You ignore what I say.
- ¹⁸ You see a thief and run to join him.
You jump into bed with those who commit adultery.
- ¹⁹ You say evil things and tell lies.
- ²⁰ You sit around talking about people, finding fault with your own brothers.
- ²¹ When you did these things, I said nothing.
So you thought that I[†] was just like you.
But I will not be quiet any longer.
I will correct you and make clear what I have against you.

* 50:2 God ... beauty Or "God shining from Zion is absolutely beautiful." † 50:21 that I Or "that the 'I AM.'"

- ²² You people who have forgotten God, understand what I am telling you,
or I will tear you apart,
and no one will be able to save you!
- ²³ Whoever gives a thank offering shows me honor.
And whoever decides to live right will see my power to save.”

51

To the director: A song of David written when Nathan the prophet came to him after David's sin with Bathsheba.

- ¹ God, be merciful to me because of your faithful love.
Because of your great compassion, erase all the wrongs I have done.
- ² Scrub away my guilt.
Wash me clean from my sin.
- ³ I know I have done wrong.
I remember that sin all the time.
- ⁴ I did what you said is wrong.
You are the one I have sinned against.
I say this so that people will know that I am wrong and you are right.
What you decided is fair.
- ⁵ I was born to do wrong,
a sinner before I left my mother's womb.
- ⁶ You want me to be completely loyal,
so put true wisdom deep inside of me.
- ⁷ Remove my sin and make me pure.*
Wash me until I am whiter than snow!
- ⁸ Let me hear sounds of joy and happiness again.
Let the bones you crushed be happy again.
- ⁹ Don't look at my sins.
Erase them all.
- ¹⁰ God, create a pure heart in me,
and make my spirit strong again.
- ¹¹ Don't push me away or take your Holy Spirit from me.
- ¹² Your help made me so happy.
Give me that joy again.
Make my spirit strong and ready to obey you.
- ¹³ I will teach the guilty how you want them to live, and the sinners will come back to you.
- ¹⁴ God, spare me from the punishment of death.†
My God, you are the one who saves me!
Let me sing about all the good things you do for me!
- ¹⁵ My Lord, I will open my mouth and sing your praises!
- ¹⁶ You don't really want sacrifices, or I would give them to you.
- ¹⁷ The sacrifice that God wants is a humble spirit.

* 51:7 Remove ... pure Literally, "Cleanse me with hyssop." See "hyssop" in the Word List. † 51:14 spare ... death Or "don't consider me guilty of murder."

God, you will not turn away someone who comes with a humble heart and is willing to obey you.‡

- 18 God, please be good to Zion.
Rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then you can enjoy the kind of sacrifices you want.§
You will receive whole burnt offerings, and people will again offer bulls on your altar.

52

To the director: A maskil of David written when Doeg the Edomite went to Saul and told him, "David is in Ahimelech's house."

- 1 Great warrior, why are you bragging about the evil you did?
You are a disgrace to God.
2 You are nothing but a hired killer,*
making plans to hurt people and making up lies!
3 You love evil more than goodness.
You love lies more than truth.

Selah

- 4 You and your lying tongue love to hurt people.
5 So God will ruin you forever!
He will grab you and pull you from your home,† like someone pulling up a plant by the roots!‡

Selah

- 6 Good people will see this and learn to fear and respect God.
They will laugh at you and say,
7 "Look what happened to the warrior who did not depend on God.
That fool thought his wealth and lies would protect him."
8 But I am like a green olive tree growing in God's Temple.
I will trust God's faithful love forever and ever.
9 God, I praise you forever for what you have done.
I will speak your name§ before your followers because it is so good!

53

To the director: Use the mahalath.* A maskil of David.

- 1 Only fools think there is no God.
People like that are evil and do terrible things.
They never do what is right.
2 God looks down from heaven to see if there is anyone who is wise,
anyone who looks to him for help.

‡ 51:17 someone ... obey you Literally, "a broken and crushed heart." § 51:19 the kind ... you want Or "the offering of righteousness." * 52:2 hired killer Literally, "sharpened razor." † 52:5 home This means the body. This is a poetic way of saying, "God will end your life here on earth." ‡ 52:5 like someone ... roots Literally, "He will root you up from the land of the living." This also means "He will kill you and your descendants." § 52:9 speak your name Or "I will trust your name." * 53: mahalath Probably a musical term. It might be the name of an instrument or a tune, or it might mean a certain musical style.

³ But everyone has turned away from him.
 Everyone has become evil.
 No one does anything good.
 No, not one person!

⁴ Those who are evil treat my people like bread to be eaten.
 And they never ask for God's help.
 Don't they understand what they are doing?

⁵ They will be filled with fear—
 a fear like they have never felt before!
 People of Israel, you will defeat those who attacked you, because God has rejected them.
 And he will scatter their bones.

⁶ I wish the one who lives on Mount Zion
 would bring victory to Israel!
 When God makes Israel successful again,
 the people of Jacob will be very happy;
 the people of Israel will be glad.

54

To the director: With instruments. A maskil of David written when the Ziphites went to Saul and told him, "We think David is hiding among our people."

¹ God, use your power and save me.

Use your great power to set me free.*

² God, listen to my prayer.

Listen to what I say.

³ Strangers who don't even think about God have turned against me.

Those powerful men are trying to kill me.

Selah

⁴ Look, my God will help me.

My Lord will support me.

⁵ He will punish the people who turned against me.

God, be faithful to me and destroy them.

⁶ LORD, I will give freewill offerings to you.

I will praise your good name.

⁷ You saved me from all my troubles.

I saw my enemies defeated.

55

To the director: With instruments. A maskil of David.

¹ God, hear my prayer.

Don't ignore my cry for help.

² Please listen and answer me.

Let me speak to you and tell you what upsets me.

³ My enemies shout at me and threaten me.

In their anger they attack me.

* 54:1 Literally, "God, save me with your name, judge me with your might."

They bring troubles crashing down on me.
⁴ My heart is pounding inside me.
 I am afraid to die.
⁵ I am trembling with fear.
 I am terrified!
⁶ Oh, I wish I had wings like a dove.
 I would fly away and find a place to rest.
⁷ I would go far into the desert and stay there.

Selah

⁸ I would run away.
 I would escape from this storm of trouble.
⁹ My Lord, confuse their words and stop their plans.
 I see so much cruelty and fighting in this city.
¹⁰ Day and night, in every neighborhood,
 the city is filled with evil and trouble.
¹¹ There is so much crime in the streets.
 People who hurt and cheat others are everywhere.
¹² If it were an enemy insulting me,
 I could bear it.
 If it were my enemies attacking me,
 I could hide.
¹³ But it is you, the one so close to me,
 my companion, my good friend, who does this.
¹⁴ We used to share our secrets with one another,
 as we walked through the crowds together in God's Temple.
¹⁵ I wish death would take my enemies by surprise!
 I wish the earth would open up and swallow them alive,*
 because they plan such terrible things together.
¹⁶ I will call to God for help,
 and the LORD will save me.
¹⁷ I speak to God morning, noon, and night.
 I tell him what upsets me, and he listens to me!
¹⁸ I have fought in many battles,
 but he has always rescued me and brought me back safely.
¹⁹ God, who has always ruled as king, will hear me and punish my enemies.

Selah

But they will never change.
 They don't fear and respect God.
²⁰ This one who was once my friend now attacks his friends.
 He is breaking every promise he made.
²¹ His words about peace are as smooth as butter,
 but he has only war on his mind.
 His words are as slick as oil,
 but they cut like a knife.
²² Give your worries to the LORD,

* 55:15 I wish ... alive Literally, "I wish they would go down into Sheol alive." See Num. 16:31-33.

and he will care for you.
He will never let those who are good be defeated.

²³ But, God, you will send those liars and murderers to the grave.
They will die before their life is half finished!
As for me, I will put my trust in you.

56

To the director: To the tune “The Dove in the Distant Oak.” A miktam of David written when the Philistines captured him in Gath.

¹ God, people have attacked me, so be merciful to me.
They have been chasing me all day, closing in to attack me.

² My enemies come at me constantly.
There are too many fighters to count.*

³ When I am afraid,
I put my trust in you.

⁴ I trust God, so I am not afraid of what people can do to me!
I praise God for his promise to me.

⁵ My enemies are always twisting my words.
They are always making plans against me.

⁶ They hide together and watch every move I make, hoping for some way to kill me.

⁷ God, send them away because of the bad things they did.
Show your anger and defeat those people.

⁸ You know I am very upset.
You know how much I have cried.
Surely you have kept an account of all my tears.

⁹ I know that when I call for help, my enemies will turn and run.
I know that because God is with me!

¹⁰ I praise God for his promise.
I praise the LORD for his promise to me.

¹¹ I trust God, so I am not afraid of what people can do to me!

¹² God, I will keep the special promises I made to you.
I will give you my thank offering.

¹³ You saved me from death.
You kept me from being defeated.
So I will serve you in the light that only the living can see.

57

To the director: To the tune “Don’t Destroy.” A miktam of David written when he escaped from Saul and went into the cave.

¹ God, be merciful to me.
Be kind because my soul trusts in you.
I have come to you for protection,
while the trouble passes.

² I pray to God Most High for help,

* 56:2 There are ... count Or “There are many attacking me from above.”

and he takes care of me completely!
³ From heaven he helps me and saves me.
 He will punish the one who attacks me.

God will remain loyal to me and send his love to protect me.

⁴ My life is in danger.
 My enemies are all around me.
 They are like man-eating lions,
 with teeth like spears or arrows and tongues like sharp swords.

⁵ God, rise above the heavens!
 Let all the world see your glory.

⁶ My enemies set a trap for my feet to bring me down.
 They dug a deep pit to catch me,
 but they fell into it.

⁷ God, I am ready, heart and soul,
 to sing songs of praise.

⁸ Wake up, my soul!
 Harps and lyres, wake up,
 and let's wake the dawn!

⁹ My Lord, I will praise you before all people.
 I will sing praises about you to every nation.

¹⁰ Your faithful love is higher than the highest clouds in the sky!

¹¹ Rise above the heavens, God.
 Let all the world see your glory.

58

To the director: To the tune "Don't Destroy." A miktam of David.

¹ You judges are not being fair in your decisions.
 You are not judging people fairly.

² No, you only think of evil things to do.
 You do violent crimes in this country.

³ Those wicked people started doing wrong as soon as they were born.
 They have been liars from birth.

⁴ Their anger is as deadly as the poison of a snake.*
 They shut their ears like a deaf cobra

⁵ that does not listen to the music of the snake charmers, no matter how well they play.

⁶ God, they are like lions.
 So LORD, break their teeth.

⁷ May they disappear like water down a drain.
 May they be crushed like weeds on a path.†

* 58:4 anger ... snake A wordplay in Hebrew. The word meaning "anger" can also mean "venom" (poison). † 58:7
 Or "May he shoot his arrows, cutting them down as if they were withering grass."

Selah

Selah

- ⁸ May they be like snails melting away as they move.
 May they be like a baby born dead, who never saw the light of day.
- ⁹ May they be destroyed suddenly,
 like the thorns that are burned to quickly heat a pot.
- ¹⁰ Good people will be happy when they see the wicked getting the punishment they deserve.
 They will feel like soldiers walking through the blood of their enemies!‡
- ¹¹ Then people will say, “Good people really are rewarded.
 Yes, there is a God judging the world!”§

59

To the director: To the tune “Don’t Destroy.” A miktam of David written when Saul sent people to watch David’s house to try to kill him.

- ¹ God, save me from my enemies.
 Protect me from those who stand against me.
- ² Save me from those who do wrong.
 Save me from those murderers.
- ³ Look, powerful men are waiting for me.
 LORD, they are waiting to kill me,
 even though I did not sin or commit a crime.
- ⁴ I have done nothing wrong, but they are rushing to attack me.
 Come and see for yourself!
- ⁵ You are the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel!
 Get up and punish them.
 Don’t show any mercy to those traitors.

Selah

- ⁶ Those evil men are like dogs that come into town in the evening, growling and roaming the streets.
- ⁷ Listen to their threats and insults.
 They say such cruel things,
 and they don’t care who hears them.
- ⁸ LORD, laugh at them.
 Make fun of them all.
- ⁹ God, my strength, I look to you for help.*
 You are my place of safety, high in the mountains.
- ¹⁰ God loves me, and he will help me win.
 He will help me defeat my enemies.
- ¹¹ Don’t just kill them, or my people might forget.
 My Lord and Protector, scatter and defeat them with your strength.
- ¹² Those evil people curse and tell lies.
 Punish them for what they said.
 Let their pride trap them.
- ¹³ Destroy them in your anger.
 Destroy them completely!

‡ 58:10 They ... enemies Literally, “They will wash their feet in the blood of the wicked.” § 58:11 Yes ... world Or “There really are judges in this land doing their job.” * 59:9 God ... help Or “I will sing my songs of praise to you.” See Psalm 59:17.

Then people all over the world will know that God rules over the people of Jacob.

Selah

- ¹⁴ Those evil men are like dogs that come into town in the evening, growling and roaming the streets.
¹⁵ They roam around looking for food, but even if they eat their fill, they still growl and complain.
¹⁶ But I will sing about your strength.
I will rejoice in your love every morning.
You have been my place of safety,
the place I can run to when troubles come.
¹⁷ I will sing praises to you, my source of strength.
You, God, are my place of safety.
You are the God who loves me!

60

To the director: To the tune “Lily of the Agreement.” A miktam of David for teaching.
Written when David fought Aram Naharaim and Aram Zobah, and Joab came back and defeated 12,000 Edomite soldiers at Salt Valley.

- ¹ God, you were angry with us.
You rejected us and destroyed our defenses.
Please make us strong again.
² You shook the earth and split it open.
It is falling apart like a broken wall.
Please put it back together.
³ You have given your people many troubles.
We are dizzy and fall down like drunks.
⁴ But you have provided a flag to show your faithful followers where to gather to escape the enemy’s attack.

Selah

- ⁵ Use your great power and give us victory!
Answer our prayer and save the people you love.

- ⁶ God has spoken in his Temple*:
“I will win the war and rejoice in victory!
I will divide this land among my people.
I will give them Shechem.
I will give them Succoth Valley.
⁷ Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
Ephraim will be my helmet.
Judah will be my royal scepter.
⁸ Moab will be the bowl for washing my feet.
Edom will be the slave who carries my sandals.
I will defeat the Philistines and shout in victory!”

- ⁹⁻¹⁰ But, God, it seems that you have left us!
You do not go out with our army.
So who will lead me into the strong, protected city?
Who will lead me into battle against Edom?

* 60:6 in his Temple Or “in his holiness.”

- ¹¹ Help us defeat the enemy!
 No one on earth can rescue us.
¹² Only God can make us strong.
 Only God can defeat our enemies!

61

To the director: With stringed instruments. A song of David.

- ¹ God, hear my cry for help.
 Listen to my prayer.
² From a faraway land I call to you for help.
 I feel so weak and helpless!
 Carry me to a high rock
 where no one can reach me.
³ You are my place of safety,
 a strong tower that protects me from my enemies.
⁴ I want to live in your tent* forever.
 I want to hide where you can protect me.

Selah

- ⁵ God, you heard what I promised to give you,
 but everything your worshipers have comes from you.
⁶ Give the king a long life.
 Let him live forever!
⁷ Let him rule in your presence forever.
 Protect him with your faithful love.
⁸ Then I will praise your name forever.
 Every day I will do what I promised.

62

To the director, Jeduthun.* A song of David.

- ¹ I must calm down and turn to God;
 only he can rescue me.
² He is my Rock, the only one who can save me.
 He is my high place of safety, where no army can defeat me.
³ How long will you people attack me?
 Do you all want to kill me?
 I am like a leaning wall,
 like a fence ready to fall.
⁴ You want only to destroy me,
 to bring me down from my important position.
 It makes you happy to tell lies about me.
 In public, you say nice things,
 but in private, you curse me.

Selah

- ⁵ I must calm down and turn to God;
 he is my only hope.
⁶ He is my Rock, the only one who can save me.

* 61:4 tent The place where God lives among his people. Here, it is the Temple in Jerusalem. See "Holy Tent" and "Temple" in the Word List. * 62: Jeduthun Or "and to Jeduthun," one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38-42.

He is my high place of safety, where no army can defeat me.

⁷ My victory and honor come from God.

He is the mighty Rock, where I am safe.

⁸ People, always put your trust in God!

Tell him all your problems.

God is our place of safety.

Selah

⁹ People cannot really help.

You cannot depend on them.

Compared to God, they are nothing—

no more than a gentle puff of air!

¹⁰ Don't trust in your power to take things by force.

Don't think you will gain anything by stealing.

And if you become wealthy,

don't put your trust in riches.

¹¹ God says there is one thing you can really depend on, and I believe it:

“Strength comes from God!”

¹² My Lord, your love is real.

You reward all people for what they do.

63

A song of David written when he was in the desert of Judah.

¹ God, you are my God.

I am searching so hard to find you.

Body and soul, I thirst for you in this dry and weary land without water.

² Yes, I have seen you in your Temple.*

I have seen your strength and glory.

³ Your faithful love is better than life,

so my lips praise you.

⁴ By my life, I will praise you.

In your name, I lift my hands in prayer.

⁵ When I sit down to satisfy my hunger,

my joyful lips hunger to praise you!

⁶ I remember you while lying on my bed.

I think about you in the middle of the night.

⁷ That is because you are the one who helps me.

It makes me happy to be under your protection!

⁸ I stay close to you, and you hold me with your powerful arm.

⁹ Those who are trying to kill me will be destroyed.

They will go down to their graves.

¹⁰ They will be killed with swords.

Wild dogs will eat their dead bodies.

¹¹ But the king will be happy with his God, and those who promised to obey him will praise him when he defeats those liars.

* 63:2 your Temple Or “your holiness.”

64

To the director: A song of David.

- ¹ God, listen to my complaint.
Save me from the terrible threats of my enemies!
 - ² Protect me from the secret plans of the wicked.
Hide me from that gang of evil people.
 - ³ They sharpen their tongues to use like swords.
They aim their poisonous words like arrows.
 - ⁴ Suddenly, from their hiding places, they let their arrows fly.
They shoot to kill innocent people.
 - ⁵ They encourage each other to do wrong.
They talk about setting traps and say, "No one will see them here!
 - ⁶ No one will discover our crime.
We have the perfect plan!"
- Yes, people can be very tricky and hard to understand.
- ⁷ But suddenly, God will shoot his arrows, and those wicked people will be hit.
 - ⁸ He will use their own words against them,
and they will be destroyed.
- Then everyone who sees them will shake their heads in amazement.
- ⁹ People will see what God has done.
They will tell other people about him.
- Then everyone will learn more about God.
They will learn to fear and respect him.
- ¹⁰ Good people are happy to serve the LORD.
They depend on him to protect them.
All those who want to do right will praise him!

65

To the director: A praise song of David.

- ¹ God in Zion, we praise you and give you what we promised.
- ² Anyone can come to you,
and you will listen to their prayers.
- ³ When our sins become too heavy for us,
you wipe them away.
- ⁴ Oh, how wonderful it is to be the people you chose to come and stay in your Temple.
And we are so happy to have the wonderful things that are in your Temple, your holy palace.
- ⁵ God, you answer our prayers and do what is right.
You do amazing things to save us.
People all over the world know they can trust in you, even those who live across the sea.
- ⁶ You made the mountains.
We see your power all around us.
- ⁷ You can calm the roughest seas or the nations raging around us.
- ⁸ People all around the world are amazed at the wonderful things you do.
You make all people, east and west, sing with joy.
- ⁹ You take care of the land.

You water it and make it fertile.
 Your streams are always filled with water.
 That's how you make the crops grow.
¹⁰ You pour rain on the plowed fields;
 you soak the fields with water.
 You make the ground soft with rain,
 and you make the young plants grow.
¹¹ You start the new year with a good harvest.
 You end the year with many crops.*
¹² The desert and hills are covered with grass.
¹³ The pastures are covered with sheep.
 The valleys are filled with grain.
 Everything is singing and shouting for joy.

66

To the director: A song of praise.

¹ Everything on earth, shout with joy to God!
² Praise his glorious name!
 Honor him with songs of praise!
³ Tell God, "Your works are wonderful!
 Your great power makes your enemies bow down in fear before you.
⁴ Let the whole world worship you.
 Let everyone sing praises to your name."

Selah

⁵ Look at what God has done!
 These things amaze us.
⁶ He changed the sea to dry land,*
 and his people went across the water[†] on foot.
 So let's celebrate because of what he has done!
⁷ He rules the world with his great power.
 He watches people everywhere.
 No one can rebel against him.

Selah

⁸ People, praise our God.
 Sing loud songs of praise to him.
⁹ He continues to give us life,
 and he keeps us from falling.
¹⁰ God, you have tested us, as people test silver with fire.
¹¹ You let us be trapped.
 You put heavy burdens on us.
¹² You let our enemies run over us.
 We went through fire and water,
 but you brought us to a safe place.
¹³⁻¹⁴ So I bring sacrifices to your Temple.
 When I was in trouble, I asked for help

* 65:11 In ancient Israel there were two calendars. The calendar for religious festivals began in the spring, at the barley harvest. The other calendar started in the fall, when they gathered other crops. * 66:6 changed the sea to dry land This was with Moses at the Red Sea. See Exodus 14. † 66:6 water Literally, "river." Although this word is not used for the Jordan River elsewhere, some think this line may refer to the later crossing there. See Josh. 3:14-17.

and made promises to you.
 Now I am giving you what I promised.
¹⁵ I bring my best sheep as burnt offerings.
 I offer the smoke from them up to you.
 I give you sacrifices of bulls and goats.

Selah

¹⁶ All you people who worship God, come and I will tell you what he has done for me.
¹⁷⁻¹⁸ I cried out to him for help,
 and I praised him.
 If I had been hiding sin in my heart,
 the Lord would not have listened to me.
¹⁹ But God did listen to me;
 he heard my prayer.
²⁰ Praise God!
 He did not turn away from me—he listened to my prayer.
 He continues to show his love to me!

67

To the director: With instruments. A song of praise.

¹ God, show mercy to us and bless us.
 Please accept us!

Selah

² Let everyone on earth learn about you.
 Let every nation see how you save people.
³ May people praise you, God!
 May all people praise you.
⁴ May all nations rejoice and be happy because you judge people fairly.
 You rule over every nation.
⁵ May the people praise you, God!
 May all people praise you.
⁶ God, our God, bless us.
 Let our land give us a great harvest.
⁷ May God bless us,
 and may all people on earth fear and respect him.

68

To the director: A praise song of David.

¹ God, get up and scatter your enemies!
 May all your enemies run from you.
² May your enemies be scattered like smoke blown away by the wind.
 May your enemies be destroyed like wax melting in a fire.
³ But let good people be happy.
 Let them gather before God and enjoy themselves together.
⁴ Sing to God! Sing praises to his name!
 Prepare the way for the one who rides on the clouds.

His name is YAH.*

Worship before him with joy.

⁵ God, who lives in his holy palace, is a father to orphans, and he takes care of widows.

⁶ God provides homes for those who are lonely.
He frees people from prison and makes them happy.
But those who turn against him will live in the desert.

⁷ God, you led your people out of Egypt.
You marched across the desert.

Selah

⁸ The ground shook and rain poured from the sky when God, the God of Israel, came to Sinai.

⁹ God, you sent the rain to make a tired, old land strong again.

¹⁰ Your people[†] came back to live there,
and you provided good things for the poor.

¹¹ My Lord gave the command, and many people went to tell the good news:

¹² “The armies of powerful kings ran away!
At home, the women divide the things brought from the battle.

¹³ Those who stayed home will share in the wealth—metal doves with wings covered in silver and feathers sparkling with gold.”

¹⁴ God All-Powerful scattered the kings like snow falling on Mount Zalmon.

¹⁵ Mount Bashan is a great mountain with many high peaks.

¹⁶ But, Bashan, why are you jealous of Mount Zion?
That is where God has chosen to live.
The LORD will live there forever.

¹⁷ With his millions of chariots,
the Lord came from Sinai into the holy place.

¹⁸ You went up to your high place, leading a parade of captives.

You received gifts from people,[‡] even those who turned against you.
The LORD God went up there to live.

¹⁹ Praise the Lord!
Every day he helps us with the loads we must carry.
He is the God who saves us.

Selah

²⁰ He is our God, the God who saves us.
My Lord GOD saves us from death.

²¹ God will smash the heads of his enemies.
He will punish those who fight against him.[§]

²² My Lord said, “If they run up to Bashan or down to the depths of the sea,
I will bring them back.

²³ So you will march through pools of their blood,

* 68:4 YAH This is a Hebrew name for God. It is like the Hebrew name usually translated “LORD.” Also in verse 18.

† 68:10 people Or “animals” or “living things.” ‡ 68:18 received gifts from people Or “took people as gifts.” Or “gave gifts to people,” as in the ancient Syriac and Aramaic versions and in Eph. 4:8. § 68:21 Literally, “God will smash the heads of his enemies. He will smash the hairy skull walking in guilt.”

and there will be plenty left for your dogs.”

- ²⁴ God, everyone can see your victory parade—
the victory march of my God and King into his holy place!*
- ²⁵ Singers come marching in front, followed by the musicians;
they are surrounded by young girls playing tambourines.
- ²⁶ Praise God in the meeting place.†
Praise the LORD, people of Israel!
- ²⁷ There is the smallest tribe, Benjamin, leading them.
And there comes a large group of leaders from Judah.
Following them are the leaders of Zebulun and Naphtali.
- ²⁸ God, show us your power!
Show us the power you used for us in the past.
- ²⁹ Kings will bring their wealth to you,
to your Temple in Jerusalem.
- ³⁰ Punish the people in Egypt.
They are like cattle in the marshes, like bulls among the calves.
You humiliated them.
You scattered them in war.
Now let them come crawling to you,
bringing their pieces of silver.
- ³¹ Messengers from Egypt will come bearing gifts.
Ethiopia will offer God their tribute.
- ³² Kings on earth, sing to God!
Sing songs of praise to our Lord!
- Selah
- ³³ Sing to him who rides his chariot through the ancient skies.
Listen to his powerful voice!
- ³⁴ Tell everyone how powerful he is!
He rules over Israel.
His power fills the skies.
- ³⁵ God, you are awesome in your Temple!
The God of Israel is the one who gives strength and power to his people.

Praise God!

69

To the director: To the tune “The Lilies.” A song of David.

- ¹ God, save me from all my troubles!
The rising water has reached my neck.
- ² I have nothing to stand on.
I am sinking down, down into the mud.
I am in deep water,
and the waves are about to cover me.
- ³ I am getting weak from calling for help.
My throat is sore.
I have waited and looked for your help until my eyes are hurting.

* 68:24 of my God ... holy place Or “led by my holy God and King!” † 68:26 in the meeting place Or “with the trumpets that announce the assembly!”

- ⁴ I have more enemies than the hairs on my head.
They hate me for no reason.
They try hard to destroy me.
My enemies tell lies about me.
They say I stole from them and they demand that I pay for things I did not steal.
- ⁵ God, you know my faults.
I cannot hide my sins from you.
- ⁶ My Lord GOD All-Powerful, don't let me embarrass your followers.
God of Israel, don't let me bring disgrace to those who worship you.
- ⁷ My face is covered with shame.
I carry this shame for you.
- ⁸ My own brothers treat me like a stranger.
They act as if I came from a foreign land.
- ⁹ My strong devotion to your Temple is destroying me.
Those who insult you are also insulting me.
- ¹⁰ When I spend time crying and fasting,
they make fun of me.
- ¹¹ When I wear sackcloth to show my sorrow,
they tell jokes about me.
- ¹² They talk about me in public places.
The beer drinkers make up songs about me.
- ¹³ As for me, LORD, this is my prayer to you:
Please accept me!
God, I want you to answer me with love.
I know I can trust you to save me.
- ¹⁴ Pull me from the mud, and don't let me sink down deeper.
Save me from those who hate me.
Save me from this deep water.
- ¹⁵ Don't let the waves drown me.
Don't let the deep sea swallow me or the grave close its mouth on me.
- ¹⁶ Answer me, LORD, from the goodness of your faithful love.
Out of your great kindness turn to me and help me!
- ¹⁷ Don't turn away from your servant.
I am in trouble, so hurry and help me!
- ¹⁸ Come save my soul.
Rescue me from my enemies.
- ¹⁹ You know the shame I have suffered.
You know all my enemies.
You saw how they humiliated me.
- ²⁰ I feel the pain of their insults.
The shame makes me feel like dying!
I wanted some sympathy,
but there was none.
I waited for someone to comfort me,
but no one came.
- ²¹ They gave me poison, not food.
They gave me vinegar, not wine.
- ²² Their tables are covered with food.
Let their fellowship meals destroy them.
- ²³ Let them go blind and their backs become weak.

- ²⁴ Show them how angry you are.
Let them feel what your anger can do.
- ²⁵ Make their homes empty.
Don't let anyone live there.
- ²⁶ They try to hurt people you have already punished.
They tell everyone about the suffering you gave them.
- ²⁷ Punish them for the bad things they have done.
Don't show them how good you can be.
- ²⁸ Erase their names from the book of life.
Don't let their names appear on the list of those who do what is right.
- ²⁹ I am sad and hurting.
God, lift me up and save me!
- ³⁰ I will praise God's name in song.
I will honor him by giving him thanks.
- ³¹ The LORD will be happier with this than with the offering of an ox or a full-grown bull as a sacrifice.
- ³² Poor people, you came to worship God.
You will be happy to know these things.
- ³³ The LORD listens to poor, helpless people.
He does not turn away from those who are in prison.
- ³⁴ Praise him, heaven and earth!
Sea and everything in it, praise him!
- ³⁵ God will save Zion.
He will rebuild the cities of Judah.
The people will settle there again and own the land.
- ³⁶ The descendants of his servants will get that land.
Those who love his name will live there.

70

To the director: A song of David to help people remember.

- ¹ Please, God, rescue me!
LORD, hurry and help me!
- ² People are trying to kill me.
Please disappoint them.
Humiliate them!
They want to hurt me.
Make them run away in shame.
- ³ May those who make fun of me
be too embarrassed to speak.
- ⁴ But may those who come to you be happy and rejoice.
May those who love being saved by you always be able to say, "Praise God!"*
- ⁵ I am only a poor, helpless man.
God, please hurry to me.
You are my helper, the one who can save me.
LORD, don't be too late!

* 70:4 Praise God Literally, "God is great" or "May God be magnified."

71

- ¹ LORD, I depend on you for protection.
Don't let me be disappointed.
- ² You always do what is right, so come and save me.
Listen to me and save me.
- ³ Be my Rock, my place of safety.
Be my fortress, and protect me!
You are my Rock and my protection.
- ⁴ My God, save me from wicked people.
Save me from cruel, evil people.
- ⁵ Lord GOD, you are my hope.
I have trusted you since I was a young boy.
- ⁶ I depended on you even before I was born.
I relied on you even in my mother's womb.
I have always prayed to you.*
- ⁷ You are my source of strength,
so I have been an example to others.
- ⁸ I am always singing about the wonderful things you do.
- ⁹ Don't throw me away just because I am old.
Don't leave me as I lose my strength.
- ¹⁰ My enemies make plans against me.
They have met together and are making plans to kill me.
- ¹¹ They say, "Go get him!
God has left him, so there is no one to help him."
- ¹² God, don't leave me!
My God, hurry and help me!
- ¹³ Defeat my enemies.
Destroy them completely!
They are trying to hurt me.
Let them suffer shame and disgrace.
- ¹⁴ Then I will always trust in you and praise you more and more.
- ¹⁵ I will tell people how good you are.
I will tell about all the times you saved me—
too many times to count.
- ¹⁶ I will tell about your greatness, my Lord GOD.
I will talk only about you and your goodness.
- ¹⁷ God, you have taught me since I was a young boy.
And to this day I have told people about the wonderful things you do.
- ¹⁸ Now that I am old and my hair is gray, don't leave me, God.
I must tell the next generation about your power and greatness.
- ¹⁹ God, your goodness reaches far above the skies.
You have done wonderful things.
God, there is no one like you.
- ²⁰ You have let me see troubles and hard times,
but you will give me new life;
you will lift me up from this pit of death!
- ²¹ You will help me do even greater things.
You will comfort me again!
- ²² I will play the harp and praise you.
My God, I will sing about your faithfulness.

* 71:6 prayed to you Or "praised you."

I will play songs on my lyre for the Holy One of Israel.

²³ I will shout for joy, singing songs of praise to you for saving me.

²⁴ My tongue will sing about your goodness all the time, because those who wanted to kill me have been defeated and disgraced.

72

To Solomon.*

¹ God, help the king be like you and make fair decisions.
Help the king's son know what justice is.

² Help the king judge your people fairly.
Help him make wise decisions for your poor people.

³ Let there be peace and justice throughout the land, known on every mountain and hill.

⁴ May the king be fair to the poor.
May he help the helpless and punish those who hurt them.

⁵ May people always fear and respect you, God, as long as the sun shines and the moon is in the sky.

⁶ Help the king be like rain falling on the fields, like showers falling on the land.

⁷ Let goodness grow everywhere while he is king.
Let peace continue as long as there is a moon.

⁸ Let his kingdom grow from sea to sea,
from the Euphrates River to the faraway places on earth.†

⁹ May all the people living in the desert bow down to him.
May all his enemies bow before him with their faces in the dirt.

¹⁰ May the kings of Tarshish and all the faraway lands by the sea bring gifts to him.
May the kings of Sheba and Seba bring their tribute to him.

¹¹ May all kings bow down to our king.
May all nations serve him.

¹² Our king helps the poor who cry out to him—
those in need who have no one to help them.

¹³ He feels sorry for all who are weak and poor.
He protects their lives.

¹⁴ He saves them from the cruel people who try to hurt them.
Their lives are important to him.

¹⁵ Long live the king!
Let him receive gold from Sheba.

Always pray for the king.
Ask God to bless him every day.

¹⁶ May the fields grow plenty of grain and the hills be covered with crops.

May the fields be as fertile as Lebanon, and may people fill the cities as grass covers a field.

¹⁷ May the king be famous forever.
May people remember his name as long as the sun shines.

* 72: To Solomon This might mean that this song was written by Solomon or dedicated to him, or that it is from some special collection of songs. † 72:8 faraway places on earth This usually means the countries around the Mediterranean Sea.

May all nations be blessed through him, and may they all bless him.

¹⁸ Praise the LORD God, the God of Israel!
Only he can do such amazing things.

¹⁹ Praise his glorious name forever!
Let his glory fill the whole world.
Amen and Amen!

²⁰ (This ends the prayers of David son of Jesse.)

Book 3

73

(Psalms 73—89)

Asaph's song of praise.

- ¹ God is so good to Israel, to those whose hearts are pure.
- ² But I almost slipped and lost my balance.
I almost fell into sin.
- ³ I saw that wicked people were successful, and I became jealous of those proud people.
- ⁴ They are healthy.
They don't have to struggle to survive.*
- ⁵ They don't suffer like the rest of us.
They don't have troubles like other people.
- ⁶ So they are proud and hateful.
This is as easy to see as the jewels and fancy clothes they wear.
- ⁷ If they see something they like, they go and take it.
They do whatever they want.
- ⁸ They make fun of others and say cruel things about them.
In their pride they make plans to hurt people.
- ⁹ They think they are gods!
They think they are the rulers of the earth.
- ¹⁰ † Even God's people turn to them and do what they say.
- ¹¹ Those evil people say, "God does not know what we are doing!
God Most High does not know!"
- ¹² Those proud people are wicked, but they are rich and getting richer.
- ¹³ Clearly, then, I gain nothing by keeping my thoughts pure!
What good is it to keep myself from sin?
- ¹⁴ God, I suffer all day long,
and you punish me every morning.

¹⁵ I wanted to tell others these things,
but that would have made me a traitor to your people.

¹⁶ I tried hard to understand all this,
but it was too hard for me.

¹⁷ But then, God, I went to your Temple,

* 73:4 Literally, "They have no bonds to their death." † 73:10 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

and I understood what will happen to the wicked.
¹⁸ Clearly, you have put them in danger.
 You make it easy for them to fall and be destroyed.
¹⁹ Trouble can come suddenly,
 and they will be ruined.
 Terrible things can happen to them,
 and they will be finished.
²⁰ Then they will be like a dream that we forget when we wake up.
 You will make them disappear like the monsters in our dreams.

²¹⁻²² I was so stupid.
 I thought about such people and became upset.
 God, I was upset and angry with you!
 I acted like a senseless animal.
²³ But I am always with you.
 You hold my hand.
²⁴ You lead me and give me good advice, and later you will lead me to glory.[‡]
²⁵ In heaven, God, I have only you.
 And if I am with you, what on earth could I want?
²⁶ Maybe my mind[§] and body will become weak,
 but God is my source of strength.*
 He is mine forever!
²⁷ God, people who leave you will be lost.
 You will destroy all who are not faithful to you.
²⁸ As for me, all I need is to be close to God.
 I have made the Lord GOD my place of safety.
 And, God, I will tell about all that you have done.

74

A maskil of Asaph.

¹ God, why have you turned away from us for so long?
 Why are you still angry with us, your own flock?
² Remember the people you bought so long ago.
 You saved us, and we belong to you.
 And remember Mount Zion, the place where you lived.
³ God, come walk through these ancient ruins.
 Come back to the Holy Place that the enemy destroyed.
⁴ The enemy shouted their war cries in the Temple.
 They put up their flags there to show they had won the war.
⁵ Their soldiers attacked the doors,
 like workmen chopping down trees.
⁶ Using axes and hatchets,
 they smashed the carved panels inside.
⁷ They burned down your Holy Place.
 It was built to honor your name,
 but they pulled it down to the ground.

[‡] 73:24 lead me to glory Or "receive me in honor." [§] 73:26 mind Literally, "heart." ^{*} 73:26 my ... strength Literally, "the Rock of my heart."

- 8 The enemy decided to crush us completely.
They burned every holy place* in the country.
- 9 We do not see any of our signs.†
There are no more prophets.
And no one knows how long this will last.
- 10 God, how much longer will the enemy make fun of us?
Will you let them insult your name forever?
- 11 Why won't you help us?
Use your power to defeat our enemies!
- 12 God, you have been our King for a long time.
You have saved us many times on this earth.
- 13 With your great power you split open the sea and broke the heads of the sea monster.
- 14 Yes, you smashed the heads of Leviathan‡ and left his body for animals to eat.
- 15 You make the springs and rivers flow, and you make the rivers dry up.
- 16 You control the day and the night.
You made the sun and the moon.
- 17 You set the limits for everything on earth.
And you created summer and winter.
- 18 LORD, remember, the enemy insulted you!
Those foolish people hate your name!
- 19 Don't give us like a helpless dove to those wild animals.
Never forget your poor, suffering people.
- 20 Remember the agreement you gave us, because violence fills every dark place in this land.
- 21 Your people were treated badly.
Don't let them be hurt anymore.
Let your poor, helpless people praise you.
- 22 God, get up and defend yourself!
Remember, those fools challenged you.
- 23 Don't forget the shouts of your enemies.
They insulted you again and again.

75

To the director: To the tune "Don't Destroy." One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- 1 We praise you, God!
We praise you because you* are near to us.
We tell about the amazing things you have done.
- 2 God says, "I have chosen a time for judgment,
and I will judge fairly.
- 3 The earth and all its people may shake,
but I am the one who keeps it steady.

* 74:8 holy place Or "El meeting place." This means every place where people went to meet with God. † 74:9 signs These were probably signal fires that people burned as a way of passing messages from one town to the next. In war, this was a way people showed other towns that the enemy had not yet destroyed their own town. ‡ 74:14 sea monster ... Leviathan These were creatures from ancient stories. People believed that they kept the world from being a safe, orderly place. So this verse means that God controls every part of the world and everything in it. * 75:1 you Literally, "your name."

Selah

- ⁴ “To those who are proud I say, ‘Stop your boasting.’
I warn the wicked, ‘Don’t brag about how strong you are.
⁵ Don’t be so sure that you will win.
Don’t boast that victory is yours!’ ”
- ⁶ There is no power on earth that can make a person important.†
- ⁷ God is the judge.
He decides who will be important.
He lifts one person up and brings another down.
- ⁸ The LORD has a cup in his hand.
It is filled with the poisoned wine of his anger.
He will pour out this wine,
and the wicked will drink it to the last drop.
- ⁹ I will always tell people how great God is.
I will sing praise to the God of Jacob.
- ¹⁰ God says, “I will take away any power the wicked have and give it to those who are good.”

76

To the director: With instruments. One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

- ¹ People in Judah know God.
People in Israel respect his name.
- ² His Temple is in Salem.*
His house is on Mount Zion.
- ³ There he shattered the arrows, shields, swords, and other weapons of war.

Selah

- ⁴ God, you are glorious coming back from the hills where you defeated your enemies.
- ⁵ They thought they were strong, but now they lie dead in the fields.
Their bodies are stripped of all they owned.
They could not defend themselves.†
- ⁶ The God of Jacob shouted at them,
and their army of chariots and horses fell dead.
- ⁷ God, you are awesome!
No one can stand against you when you are angry.
- ⁸⁻⁹ You stood as judge and announced your decision.
You saved the humble people of the land.
From heaven you gave the decision,
and the whole earth was silent and afraid.
- ¹⁰ Even human anger can bring you honor when you use it to punish your enemies.‡
- ¹¹ People, you made promises to the LORD your God.
Now give him what you promised.

† 75:6 Literally, “Not from the east or the west and not from the desert mountains.” * 76:2 Salem Another name for Jerusalem. This name means “Peace.” † 76:5 They ... themselves Literally, “The warriors could not find their hands.” ‡ 76:10 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

People everywhere fear and respect God, and they will bring gifts to him.

¹² God defeats great leaders;
all the kings on earth fear him.

77

To the director, Jeduthun. * One of Asaph's songs.

¹ I cry out to God for help.

I cry out to you, God; listen to me!

² My Lord, in my time of trouble I came to you.

I reached out for you all night long.

My soul refused to be comforted.

³ I thought about you, God, and tried to tell you how I felt, but I could not.

⁴ You would not let me sleep.

I tried to say something, but I was too upset.

⁵ I kept thinking about the past, about things that happened long ago.

⁶ During the night, I thought about my songs.

I talked to myself, trying to understand what is happening.

⁷ I wondered, "Has our Lord rejected us forever?"

Will he ever accept us again?

⁸ Is his love gone forever?

Will he never again speak to us?

⁹ Has God forgotten what mercy is?

Has his compassion changed to anger?"

Selah

¹⁰ Then I said to myself, "What bothers me most is the thought that God Most High has lost his power."

¹¹ LORD, I remember what you have done.

I remember the amazing things you did long ago.

¹² I think about those things.

I think about them all the time.

¹³ God, all that you do is holy.

No god is as great as you are.

¹⁴ You are the God who does amazing things.

You showed the nations your great power.

¹⁵ By your power you saved your people,

the descendants of Jacob and Joseph.

Selah

¹⁶ God, the water saw you and became afraid.

The deep water shook with fear.

¹⁷ The thick clouds dropped their water.

Thunder roared in the sky above.

Your arrows of lightning flashed through the clouds.

¹⁸ There were loud claps of thunder.

Lightning lit up the world.

* 77: Jeduthun Or "and to Jeduthun," one of the three main temple musicians. See 1 Chron. 9:16; 16:38-42.

- The earth shook and trembled.
¹⁹ You walked through the water and crossed the deep sea, but you left no footprints.
²⁰ You led your people like sheep,
 using Moses and Aaron to guide them.

78

One of Asaph's maskils.

- ¹ My people, listen to my teachings.
 Listen to what I say.
² I will tell you a story.
 I will tell you about things from the past that are hard to understand.
³ We have heard the story, and we know it well.
 Our fathers told it to us.
⁴ And we will not forget it.
 Our people will be telling this story to the last generation.
 We will all praise the LORD and tell about the amazing things he did.
⁵ He made an agreement with Jacob.
 He gave the law to Israel.
 He gave the commands to our ancestors.
 He told them to teach the law to their children.
⁶ Then the next generation, even the children not yet born, would learn the law.
 And they would be able to teach it to their own children.
⁷ So they would all trust in God, never forgetting what he had done and always obeying his commands.
⁸ They would not be like their ancestors, who were stubborn and refused to obey.
 Their hearts were not devoted to God,
 and they were not faithful to him.
⁹ The men from Ephraim had their weapons,
 but they ran from the battle.
¹⁰ They did not keep their agreement with God.
 They refused to obey his teachings.
¹¹ They forgot the great things he had done and the amazing things he had shown them.
¹² While their ancestors watched,
 he showed his great power at Zoan in Egypt.
¹³ He split the Red Sea and led the people across.
 The water stood like a solid wall on both sides of them.
¹⁴ Each day God led them with the tall cloud, and each night he led them with the light from the column of fire.
¹⁵ He split the rocks in the desert and gave them an ocean of fresh water.
¹⁶ He brought a stream of water out of the rock and made it flow like a river!
¹⁷ But they continued sinning against him.
 They rebelled against God Most High in the desert.
¹⁸ Then they decided to test God
 by telling him to give them the food they wanted.

- 19 They complained about him and said,
“Can God give us food in the desert?
20 Yes, he struck the rock and a flood of water came out.
But can he give us bread and meat?”
21 The LORD heard what they said and became angry with Jacob’s people.
He was angry with Israel,
22 because they did not trust in him.
They did not believe that God could save them.
23-24 But then God opened the clouds above,
and manna rained down on them for food.
It was as if doors in the sky opened,
and grain poured down from a storehouse in the sky.
25 These people ate the food of angels.
God sent plenty of food to satisfy them.
26 He sent a strong wind from the east,
and by his power he made the south wind blow.
27 He made quail fall like rain until they covered the ground.
There were so many birds that they were like sand on the seashore.
28 The birds fell in the middle of the camp,
all around their tents.
29 The people ate until they were full.
God had given them what they wanted.
30 But before they were fully satisfied,
while the food was still in their mouths,
31 God became angry and killed even the strongest of them.
He brought down Israel’s best young men.
32 But the people continued to sin!
They did not trust in the amazing things God could do.
33 So he ended their worthless lives;
he brought their years to a close with disaster.
34 When he killed some of them, the others would turn back to him.
They would come running back to God.
35 They would remember that God was their Rock.
They would remember that God Most High had saved them.
36 But they tried to fool him with their words;
they told him lies.
37 Their hearts were not really with him.
They were not faithful to the agreement he gave them.
38 But God was merciful.
He forgave their sins and did not destroy them.
Many times he held back his anger.
He never let it get out of control.
39 He remembered that they were only people, like a wind that blows and then is gone.
40 Oh, they caused him so much trouble in the desert!
They made him so sad.
41 Again and again they tested his patience.
They really hurt the Holy One of Israel.
42 They forgot about his power.
They forgot the many times he saved them from the enemy.
43 They forgot the miracles in Egypt,
the miracles in the fields of Zoan.

- 44 God turned the rivers into blood, and the Egyptians could not drink the water.
- 45 He sent swarms of flies that bit them.
He sent the frogs that ruined their lives.
- 46 He gave their crops to grasshoppers and their other plants to locusts.
- 47 He destroyed their vines with hail and their trees with sleet.
- 48 He killed their animals with hail and their cattle with lightning.
- 49 He showed the Egyptians his anger.
He sent his destroying angels against them.
- 50 He found a way to show his anger.
He did not spare their lives.
He let them die with a deadly disease.
- 51 He killed all the firstborn sons in Egypt.
He killed every firstborn in Ham's* family.
- 52 Then he led Israel like a shepherd.
He led his people like sheep into the desert.
- 53 He guided them safely.
They had nothing to fear.
He drowned their enemies in the sea.
- 54 He led his people to his holy land, to the mountain he took with his own power.
- 55 He forced the other nations out before them and gave each family its share of the land.
He gave each tribe of Israel a place to live.
- 56 But they tested God Most High and made him very sad.
They didn't obey his commands.
- 57 They turned against him and were unfaithful just like their ancestors.
They changed directions like a boomerang.
- 58 They built high places and made God angry.
They built statues of false gods and made him jealous.
- 59 God heard what they were doing and became very angry.
So he rejected Israel completely!
- 60 He abandoned his place at Shiloh,†
the Holy Tent where he lived among the people.
- 61 He let foreigners capture the Box of the Agreement, the symbol of his power and glory.
- 62 He showed his anger against his people and let them be killed in war.
- 63 Their young men were burned to death,
and there were no wedding songs for their young women.
- 64 Their priests were killed,
but the widows had no time to mourn for them.
- 65 Finally, our Lord got up like a man waking from his sleep, like a soldier after drinking too much wine.
- 66 He forced his enemies to turn back defeated.
He brought them shame that will last forever.
- 67 Then he rejected Joseph's family.

* 78:51 Ham The Egyptians were Ham's descendants. See Genesis 10:6-10. † 78:60 Holy Tent at Shiloh See 1 Sam. 4:4-11; Jeremiah 7:17.

- He did not accept Ephraim's family.
⁶⁸ No, he chose the tribe of Judah,
 and he chose Mount Zion, the place he loves.
⁶⁹ He built his holy Temple high on that mountain.
 Like the earth, God built his Temple to last forever.
⁷⁰ He chose David to be his special servant.
 He took him from the sheep pens.
⁷¹ He took him away from the job of caring for sheep and gave him the job of caring for the descendants of Jacob—Israel, his chosen people.
⁷² And David led them with a pure heart and guided them very wisely.

79

One of Asaph's songs of praise.

- ¹ God, some people from other nations came to fight your people.
 They ruined your holy Temple.
 They left Jerusalem in ruins.
² They left the bodies of your servants for the wild birds to eat.
 They let wild animals eat the bodies of your followers.
³ Blood flowed like water all over Jerusalem.
 No one is left to bury the bodies.
⁴ The countries around us insult us.
 The people around us laugh at us and make fun of us.
⁵ LORD, will you be angry with us forever?
 Will your strong feelings* continue to burn like a fire?
⁶ Turn your anger against the nations that do not know you, against the people who do not honor you as God.
⁷ Those nations killed Jacob's family and destroyed their land.
⁸ Please don't punish us for the sins of our ancestors.
 Hurry, show us your mercy!
 We need you so much!
⁹ Our God and Savior, help us!
 That will bring glory to your name.
 Save us and forgive our sins for the good of your name.
¹⁰ Don't give the other nations a reason to say,
 "Where is their God? Can't he help them?"
 Let us see you punish those people.
 Punish them for killing your servants.
¹¹ Listen to the sad cries of the prisoners!
 Use your great power to free those who are sentenced to die.
¹² Punish the nations around us!
 Pay them back seven times for what they did to us.
 Punish them for insulting you.
¹³ We are your people, the sheep of your flock.
 We will praise you forever.
 We will praise you forever and ever!

* 79:5 strong feelings The Hebrew word can mean any strong feelings such as zeal, jealousy, or love.

To the director: To the tune “Lilies of the Agreement.” One of Asaph’s songs of praise.

¹ Shepherd of Israel, listen to us.

You lead your people* like sheep.

You sit on your throne above the Cherub angels.

Let us see you.

² Shepherd of Israel, show your greatness to the tribes of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh.

Come and save your people.

³ God, accept us again.

Smile down on us and save us!

⁴ LORD God All-Powerful, when will you listen to our prayers?

How long will you be angry with us?

⁵ Instead of bread and water,
you gave your people tears.

⁶ You made us the target of everyone’s hatred.

Our enemies make fun of us.

⁷ God All-Powerful, accept us again.

Smile down on us and save us!

⁸ When you brought us out of Egypt,
we were like your special vine.

You forced other nations to leave this land,
and you planted that vine here.

⁹ You prepared the ground for it, and it sent its roots down deep and spread throughout the land.

¹⁰ It covered the mountains, and its leaves shaded even the giant cedar trees.

¹¹ Its branches spread to the Mediterranean Sea, its shoots to the Euphrates River.

¹² God, why did you pull down the walls that protect your vine?
Now everyone who passes by picks its grapes.

¹³ Wild pigs come and ruin it.
Wild animals eat the leaves.

¹⁴ God All-Powerful, come back.
Look down from heaven at your vine and protect it.

¹⁵ Look at the vine you planted with your own hands.
Look at the young plant† you raised.

¹⁶ Our enemies have cut it down and burned it up.
Show them how angry you are and destroy them.

¹⁷ Reach out and help your chosen one.‡
Reach out to the people§ you raised up.

¹⁸ Then we will never leave you.
Let us live, and we will worship you.

¹⁹ LORD God All-Powerful, accept us again.
Smile down on us and save us!

- ¹ Be happy and sing to God, our strength.
Shout with joy to the God of Jacob.
- ² Begin the music.
Play the tambourines.
Play the pleasant harps and lyres.
- ³ Blow the ram's horn at the time of the new moon* and at the time of the full moon,[†] when our festival begins.
- ⁴ This is the law for the people of Israel.
The God of Jacob gave the command.
- ⁵ God made this agreement with Joseph's people,
when he led them out of Egypt.
In a language we didn't understand, God said,
- ⁶ "I took the load from your shoulder.
I let you drop the worker's basket.
- ⁷ When you were in trouble, you called for help, and I set you free.
I was hidden in the storm clouds, and I answered you.
I tested you by the water at Meribah.[‡]"

Israel, open your mouth, and I will feed you.

Israel did not obey me.
- ¹² So I let them go their own stubborn way and do whatever they wanted.
- ¹³ If my people would listen to me and would live the way I want,
- ¹⁴ then I would defeat their enemies.
I would punish those who cause them trouble.
- ¹⁵ Those who hate the LORD would shake with fear.
They would be punished forever.
- ¹⁶ I would give the best wheat to my people.
I would give them the purest honey, until they were satisfied."

They have united against you.

the Philistines, and the people of Tyre.
- ⁸ Even the Assyrians have joined them.
They have made Lot’s descendants very powerful.

Selah

- ⁹ God, defeat them just as you defeated Midian.

- ¹⁰ You destroyed the enemy at Endor, and their bodies rotted on the ground.
- ¹¹ Punish their leaders as you did Oreb and Zeeb.
Do what you did to Zebah and Zalmunna.
- ¹² They said, “Let’s make this land our own—

 that you alone are the LORD.
 They will know that you are God Most High,
 ruler over all the earth!

To the director: On the gittith. A song of praise from the Korah family.

1 LORD All-Powerful, the place where you live is so beautiful!
 2 LORD, I cannot wait to enter your Temple.
 I am so excited!
 Every part of me cries out to be with the Living God.
 3 LORD All-Powerful, my King, my God,

 They make their nests near your altar,
 and there they have their babies.
 4 Great blessings belong to those who live at your Temple!
 They continue to praise you.

A song from the Korah family. To the director: About a painful sickness. A maskil of Heman the Ezrahite.

¹ LORD God, you are my Savior.

I have been praying to you day and night.

² Please pay attention to my prayers.

Listen to my prayers for mercy.

³ My soul has had enough of this pain!

I am ready to die.

⁴ People already treat me like a dead man, like someone too weak to live.

⁵ Look for me among the dead,

like a body in the grave.

I am one of those you have forgotten,

cut off from you and your care.

⁶ You put me in that hole in the ground.

Yes, you put me in that dark place.

⁷ Your anger presses down on me like a heavy weight.

It's like one wave after another pounding against me.

Selah

⁸ You made my friends leave me.

They all avoid me like someone no one wants to touch.

Like a prisoner in my house, I cannot go out.

⁹ My eyes hurt from crying.

LORD, I pray to you constantly!

I lift my arms in prayer to you.

¹⁰ Do you do miracles for the dead?

Do ghosts rise up and praise you? No!

Selah

¹¹ The dead in their graves cannot talk about your faithful love.

People in the world of the dead* cannot talk about your faithfulness.

¹² The dead who lie in darkness cannot see the amazing things you do.

Those in the world of the forgotten cannot talk about your goodness.

¹³ LORD, I am asking you to help me!

Early each morning I pray to you.

¹⁴ LORD, why have you abandoned me?

Why do you refuse to listen to me?

¹⁵ I have been sick and weak since I was young.

I have suffered your anger, and I am helpless.

¹⁶ Your anger covers me like a flood.

Your attacks are killing me.

¹⁷ They surround me on every side.

I feel like a drowning man.

¹⁸ You caused my friends and loved ones to leave me.

Now darkness is my closest friend.

- ³ You said, "I made an agreement with my chosen king.
I made this promise to my servant David:
- ⁴ "There will always be someone from your family to rule.

- ⁵ LORD, the heavens praise you for the amazing things you do.

- ⁶ No one in heaven is equal to the LORD.

- ⁸ LORD God All-Powerful, there is no one like you.

- ⁹ You rule the stormy sea.
You can calm its angry waves.

They praise your goodness.
- ¹⁷ You are their amazing strength.
Their power comes from you.
- ¹⁸ The king, our protector, belongs to the LORD,

- ¹⁹ Lord, you once spoke in a vision to your followers:
"I have made a young soldier strong.
From among my people I chose him for an important position.
- ²⁰ I have found my servant David and anointed him as king with my special oil.
- ²¹ I will support him with my right hand, and my arm will make him strong.
- ²² So no enemy will ever control him.

- ²³ I will destroy his enemies before his eyes.
I will defeat those who hate him.
- ²⁴ I will always love and support him.

Selah

I will always make him strong.

 He will control the rivers.
 26 He will say to me, 'You are my father.
 You are my God, my Rock, my Savior.'
 27 And I will make him my firstborn son.
 He will be the great king on earth.
 28 My love will protect him forever.
 My agreement with him will never end.
 29 I will make his family continue forever.
 His kingdom will last as long as the skies.
 30 If his descendants stop following my law and stop obeying my commands, 31 if they break my laws
 and ignore my commands,
 32 I will punish them severely for their sins and wrongs.
 33 But I will never take my love from him.
 I will never stop being loyal to him.
 34 I will not break my agreement with David.
 I will never change what I said.
 35 By my holiness, I made a promise to him,
 and I would not lie to David.
 36 His family will continue forever.
 His kingdom will last as long as the sun.
 37 Like the moon, it will continue forever.
 The sky is a witness to the agreement that can be trusted."

Selah

38 But now, Lord, you have become angry with your chosen king,^{*} and you have left him all alone.
 39 You ended the agreement you made with your servant.
 You threw the king's crown into the dirt.
 40 You pulled down the walls of his city.
 You destroyed all his fortresses.
 41 Everyone passing by steals from him.
 His neighbors laugh at him.
 42 You made all the king's enemies happy and let his enemies win the war.
 43 You helped them defend themselves.
 You did not help your king win the battle.
 44 You did not let him win.
 You threw his throne to the ground.
 45 You cut his life short.
 You shamed him.

Selah

46 LORD, how long will this continue?
 Will you ignore us forever?
 Will your anger burn like a fire forever?
 47 Remember how short my life is.
 You created us to live a short life and then die.

* 89:38 chosen king Literally, "anointed one."

Will anyone escape the grave?

Selah

⁴⁹ Lord, where is the love you showed in the past?
You promised David that you would be loyal to his family.
⁵⁰⁻⁵¹ My Lord, please remember how people insulted your servant.
LORD, I had to listen to all the insults from your enemies.
They insulted your chosen king wherever he went.

⁵² Praise the LORD forever!
Amen and Amen!

90

(Psalms 90—106)

The prayer of Moses, the man of God.

¹ My Lord, you have been our home forever and ever.

² You were God before the mountains were born, before the earth and the world were made.
You have always been and will always be God!

³ You bring people into this world,
and you change them into dust again.

⁴ To you, a thousand years is like yesterday, like a few hours in the night.

⁵ Our life is like a dream that ends when morning comes.

We are like grass

⁶ that grows and looks so fresh in the morning, but in the evening it is dry and dying.

⁷ Your anger could destroy us.
Your anger frightens us!

⁸ You know about all our sins.
You see every one of our secret sins.

⁹ Your anger can end our life.
Our lives fade away like a whisper.

¹⁰ We live about 70 years or, if we are strong, 80 years.

But most of them are filled with hard work and pain.

Then, suddenly, the years are gone, and we fly away.

¹¹ No one really knows the full power of your anger, but our fear and respect for you is as great as your anger.

¹² Teach us how short our lives are so that we can become wise.

¹³ LORD, come back to us.
Be kind to your servants.

¹⁴ Fill us with your love every morning.
Let us be happy and enjoy our lives.

¹⁵ For years you have made life hard for us and have given us many troubles.
Now make us happy for just as long.

¹⁶ Let your servants see the wonderful things you can do for them.
And let their children see your glory.

- ¹⁷ Lord, our God, be kind to us.
 Make everything we do successful.
 Yes, make it all successful.

91

- ¹ You can go to God Most High to hide.
 You can go to God All-Powerful for protection.
- ² I say to the LORD, "You are my place of safety, my fortress.
 My God, I trust in you."
- ³ God will save you from hidden dangers and from deadly diseases.
- ⁴ You can go to him for protection.
 He will cover you like a bird spreading its wings over its babies.
 You can trust him to surround and protect you like a shield.
- ⁵ You will have nothing to fear at night and no need to be afraid of enemy arrows during the day.
- ⁶ You will have no fear of diseases that come in the dark or terrible suffering that comes at noon.
- ⁷ A thousand people may fall dead at your side or ten thousand right beside you, but nothing bad will happen to you!
- ⁸ All you will have to do is watch, and you will see that the wicked are punished.
- ⁹ You trust in the LORD for protection.
 You have made God Most High your place of safety.
- ¹⁰ So nothing bad will happen to you.
 No diseases will come near your home.
- ¹¹ He will command his angels to protect you wherever you go.
- ¹² Their hands will catch you so that you will not hit your foot on a rock.
- ¹³ You will have power to trample on lions and poisonous snakes.
- ¹⁴ The Lord says, "If someone trusts me, I will save them.
 I will protect my followers who call to me for help.
- ¹⁵ When my followers call to me, I will answer them.
 I will be with them when they are in trouble.
 I will rescue them and honor them.
- ¹⁶ I will give my followers a long life and show them my power to save."

92

A song of praise for the Sabbath.

- ¹ It is good to praise the LORD.
 God Most High, it is good to praise your name.
- ² It is good to sing about your love in the morning and about your faithfulness at night.
- ³ It is good to play for you on the ten-stringed instrument and lyre and to add the soft sounds of the harp to my praise.
- ⁴ LORD, you make us very happy because of what you did.
 I gladly sing about it.
- ⁵ LORD, you did such great things.

- Your thoughts are too hard for us to understand.
⁶ Stupid people don't know this.
 Fools don't understand.
⁷ The wicked may sprout like grass, and those who do evil may blossom like flowers,
 but they will be destroyed, never to be seen again.
⁸ But, LORD, you will be honored forever.
- ⁹ LORD, all your enemies will be destroyed, and all who do evil will be scattered.
¹⁰ But you have made me as strong as a wild ox.
 You have given me your blessing.*
¹¹ My eyes will see the defeat of those waiting to attack me.
 My ears will hear the cries of my evil enemies.
- ¹² Good people are like budding palm trees.
 They grow strong like the cedar trees of Lebanon.
¹³ They are planted in the house[†] of the LORD.
 They grow strong there in the courtyards of our God.
¹⁴ Even when they are old,
 they will continue producing fruit like young, healthy trees.
¹⁵ They are there to show everyone that the LORD is good.‡
 He is my Rock, and he does no wrong.§

- ¹ The LORD is King.
 The LORD wears majesty and strength like clothes.
 He is ready, so the whole world is safe.
 It will not be shaken.
² Your kingdom has continued forever.
 You have lived forever!
³ LORD, the ocean roars.
 The mighty ocean sounds like thunder
 as the waves crash on the shore.
⁴ The crashing waves of the sea are loud and powerful,
 but the LORD above is even more powerful.
⁵ LORD, your laws will continue forever.*
 Your holy Temple will stand for a long time.

94

- ¹ The LORD is a God who punishes people.
 God, come punish them.
² You are the judge of the whole earth.
 Give proud people the punishment they deserve.
³ LORD, how long will the wicked have their fun?
 How much longer?
⁴ How much longer will those criminals

* 92:10 You ... blessing Or "You poured your refreshing oil over me." † 92:13 house Or "Temple." See "Temple" in the Word List. ‡ 92:15 good This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word means "straight" (like the trees) and "good" or "honest." § 92:15 he ... wrong Or "there is no crookedness in him." * 93:5 your laws ... forever Or "your agreement can really be trusted."

- brag about the evil they did?
5 LORD, they hurt your people and make them suffer.
6 They kill widows and foreigners living in our country.
They murder orphans.
7 And they say the LORD does not see them doing these evil things!
They say the God of Jacob does not know what is happening.
- 8 You evil people are foolish.
When will you learn your lesson?
You are so stupid!
You must try to understand.
9 God made our ears,
so surely he can hear what is happening!
He made our eyes,
so surely he can see you!
10 The one who disciplines nations will surely correct you.
He is the one who teaches us everything.
11 The LORD knows what people are thinking.
He knows that their thoughts are like a puff of wind.
- 12 LORD, great blessings belong to those you discipline,
to those you teach from your law.
13 You help them stay calm when trouble comes.
You will help them until the wicked are put in their graves.
14 The LORD will not leave his people.
He will not leave them without help.
15 Justice will return and bring fairness.
And those who want to do right will be there to see it.
- 16 No one helped me fight against the wicked.
No one stood with me against those who do evil.
17 And if the LORD had not helped me,
I would have been silenced by death.
18 I know I was ready to fall,
but, LORD, your faithful love supported me.
19 I was very worried and upset,
but you comforted me and made me happy!
- 20 You don't help crooked judges.
They use the law to make life hard for the people.
21 They attack those who do right.
They say innocent people are guilty and put them to death.
22 But the LORD is my place of safety, high on the mountain.
God, my Rock, is my safe place!
23 He will punish those evil judges for the bad things they did.
He will destroy them because they sinned.
The LORD our God will destroy them.

95

- 1 Come, let us sing praise to the LORD!
Let us shout praises to the Rock who saves us.

- 2 Come and worship him with songs of thanks.*
 Let us sing happy songs of praise to him.
- 3 For the LORD is a great God,
 the great King ruling over all the other “gods.”
- 4 The deepest caves and the highest mountains belong to him.
- 5 The ocean is his—he created it.
 He made the dry land with his own hands.
- 6 Come, let us bow down and worship him!
 Let us kneel before the LORD who made us.
- 7 He is our God,
 and we are the people he cares for,
 his sheep that walk by his side.

Listen to his voice today:

- 8 “Don’t be stubborn, as you were at Meribah,
 as you were at Massah[†] in the desert.
- 9 Your ancestors doubted and tested me,
 even after they saw what I could do!
- 10 I was angry with them for 40 years.
 I said, ‘They are not faithful to me.
 They refuse to do what I say.’
- 11 So in my anger I made this vow:
 ‘They will never enter my land of rest.’ ”

96

 Tell people everywhere about the amazing things he does.
- 4 The LORD is great and worthy of praise.
 He is more awesome than any of the “gods.”
- 5 All the “gods” in other nations are nothing but statues, but the LORD made the heavens.
- 6 He lives in the presence of glory and honor.
 His Temple is a place of power and beauty.
- 7 Praise the LORD, all people of every nation;
 praise the LORD’S glory and power.
- 8 Give the LORD praise worthy of his glory!
 Come, bring your offerings into his courtyard.
- 9 Worship the LORD in all his holy beauty.
 Everyone on earth should tremble before him.
- 10 Tell the nations that the LORD is King!
 The world stands firm and cannot be moved.
 He will judge all people fairly.
- 11 Let the heavens rejoice and the earth be happy!
 Let the sea and everything in it shout for joy!
- 12 Let the fields and everything in them be happy!
 Let the trees in the forest sing for joy

* 95:2 songs of thanks Or “thank offerings.” † 95:8 Meribah ... Massah See Exodus 17:1-7. * 96:1 new song
 Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it.

13 when they see the LORD coming!
 He is coming to rule† the world.
 He will rule all the nations of the world with justice and fairness.

97

1 The LORD rules, and the earth is happy.
 All the faraway lands are happy.
 2 Thick, dark clouds surround him.
 Goodness and justice make his kingdom strong.
 3 Fire goes before him
 and destroys his enemies.
 4 His lightning flashes in the sky.
 The earth sees it and trembles with fear.
 5 The mountains melt like wax before the LORD,
 before the Lord of all the earth.
 6 The skies tell about his goodness,
 and the nations see his glory.
 7 People worship their idols.
 They brag about their “gods.”
 But they will be embarrassed.
 And all their “gods” will bow down before the Lord.
 8 Zion, listen and be happy!
 Cities of Judah, be glad!
 Rejoice because the LORD’S decisions are fair.
 9 LORD Most High, you really are the ruler of the earth.
 You are much better than the “gods.”
 10 Hate evil, you who love the LORD.
 He protects his followers and saves them from evil people.
 11 Light and happiness shine on those who want to do right.
 12 Good people, be happy in the LORD!
 Praise his holy name!

98

A song of praise.

1 Sing a new song* to the LORD,
 because he has done amazing things!
 His powerful and holy right arm† has brought him another victory.
 2 The LORD showed the nations his power to save.
 He showed them his goodness.
 3 He has kept his promise of love and loyalty to the people of Israel.
 People everywhere have seen our God’s power to save.
 4 Everyone on earth, shout with joy to the LORD.
 Start singing happy songs of praise!

† 96:13 rule Or “judge.” Also in 98:9. * 98:1 new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it. † 98:1 holy right arm This pictures God as a warrior-king. The right arm symbolizes his power and authority. “Holy” may refer to the special cleansing and dedication that Israelites performed before going into battle.

 He will rule the world fairly.

 You have brought goodness and fairness to Jacob.
- ⁵ Praise the LORD our God, and bow down before his footstool,* for he is holy.
- ⁶ Moses and Aaron were some of his priests, and Samuel was one of the men who called on his name.
 They prayed to the LORD,
 and he answered them.
- ⁷ God spoke from the tall cloud, and they obeyed his commands and the law he gave them.
- ⁸ LORD our God, you answered their prayers.
 You showed them that you are a forgiving God and that you punish people for the evil they do.
- ⁹ Praise the LORD our God.
 Bow down toward his holy mountain and worship him.
 The LORD our God is holy!

100

A song of thanks.

- ¹ Earth, sing to the LORD!
- ² Be happy as you serve the LORD!
 Come before him with happy songs!
- ³ Know that the LORD is God.
 He made us, and we belong to him.
 We are his people, the sheep he takes care of.

* 99:5 footstool This probably means the Temple. See "Temple" in the Word List.

- ⁴ Come through the gates to his Temple giving thanks to him.
 Enter his courtyards with songs of praise.
 Honor him and bless his name.
- ⁵ The LORD is good!
 There is no end to his faithful love.
 We can trust him forever and ever!

101

A song of David.

- ¹ I will sing about love and justice.
 LORD, I will sing to you.
- ² I will be careful to live a pure life.
 I will live in my house with complete honesty.
 When will you come to me?
- ³ I will not even look at anything shameful.*
 I hate all wrongdoing.
 I want no part of it!
- ⁴ I will not be involved in anything dishonest.
 I will have nothing to do with evil.
- ⁵ I will stop anyone who secretly says bad things about a neighbor.
 I will not allow people to be proud and think they are better than others.
- ⁶ I will look throughout the land for those who can be trusted.
 Only such people can live with me.
 Only those who live pure lives can be my servants.
- ⁷ I will never let a dishonest person live in my house.
 I will not let liars stay near me.
- ⁸ My goal each day will be to destroy the wicked living in our land.
 I will force all who do evil to leave the city of the LORD.

102

A prayer for a time of suffering, when anyone feels weak and wants to tell their complaints to the LORD.

- ¹ LORD, hear my prayer.
 Listen to my cry for help.
- ² Don't turn away from me when I have troubles.
 Listen to me, and answer me quickly when I cry for help.
- ³ My life is passing away like smoke.
 My life is like a fire slowly burning out.
- ⁴ My strength is gone—
 I am like dry, dying grass.
 I even forget to eat.
- ⁵ Because of my sadness, I am losing so much weight that my skin hangs from my bones.
- ⁶ I am lonely, like an owl living in the desert,
 like an owl living among old ruined buildings.
- ⁷ I cannot sleep.
 I am like a lonely bird on the roof.

* 101:3 anything shameful Or "an idol."

- ⁸ My enemies insult me all the time.
They make fun of me and use me as an example in their curses.
- ⁹ My great sadness is my only food.
My tears fall into my drink.
- ¹⁰ You were angry with me,
so you picked me up and threw me away.
- ¹¹ My life is almost finished, like the long shadows at the end of the day.
I am like dry and dying grass.
- ¹² But you, LORD, will rule as king forever!
Your name will continue forever and ever!
- ¹³ You will rise up and comfort Zion.
The time has come for you to be kind to Zion.
- ¹⁴ Your servants love her stones.
They love even the dust of that city!
- ¹⁵ The nations will worship the LORD'S name.
All the kings on earth will honor you.
- ¹⁶ The LORD will rebuild Zion, and people will again see her glory.
- ¹⁷ He will listen to the prayers of those in poverty.
He will not ignore them.
- ¹⁸ Write these things for future generations,
so that they will praise the LORD.
- ¹⁹ The LORD will look down from his Holy Place above.
He will look down at the earth from heaven.
- ²⁰ And he will hear the prisoner's prayers.
He will free those who were condemned to die.
- ²¹ Then people in Zion will tell about the LORD.
They will praise his name in Jerusalem
- ²² when nations gather together and kingdoms come to serve the LORD.
- ²³ My strength failed me.
My life is cut short.
- ²⁴ So I said, "Don't let me die while I am still young.
God, you will live forever and ever!
- ²⁵ Long ago, you made the world.
You made the sky with your own hands!
- ²⁶ The earth and sky will end,
but you will live forever!
They will wear out like clothes,
and like clothes, you will change them.
- ²⁷ But you never change.
You will live forever!
- ²⁸ We are your servants today.
Our children will live here,
and their descendants will come here to worship you."

103

A song of David.

- ¹ My soul, praise the LORD!
Every part of me, praise his holy name!

- ² My soul, praise the LORD and never forget how kind he is!
- ³ He forgives all our sins and heals all our sicknesses.
- ⁴ He saves us from the grave,
and he gives us love and compassion.
- ⁵ He gives us plenty of good things.
He makes us young again,
like an eagle that grows new feathers.
- ⁶ The LORD does what is fair.
He brings justice to all who have been hurt by others.
- ⁷ He taught his laws to Moses.
He let Israel see the powerful things he can do.
- ⁸ The LORD is kind and merciful.
He is patient and full of love.
- ⁹ He does not always criticize.
He does not stay angry with us forever.
- ¹⁰ We sinned against him,
but he didn't give us the punishment we deserved.
- ¹¹ His love for his followers is as high above us as heaven is above the earth.
- ¹² And he has taken our sins as far away from us as the east is from the west.
- ¹³ The LORD is as kind to his followers as a father is to his children.
- ¹⁴ He knows all about us.
He knows we are made from dust.
- ¹⁵ He knows our lives are short, that they are like grass.
He knows we are like a little wildflower that grows so quickly,
¹⁶ but when the hot wind blows, it dies.
Soon, you cannot even see where the flower was.
- ¹⁷ But the LORD has always loved his followers, and he will continue to love them forever and ever!
He will be good to all their descendants,
- ¹⁸ to those who are faithful to his agreement and who remember to obey his commands.
- ¹⁹ The LORD set his throne up in heaven, and he rules over everything.
- ²⁰ Angels, praise the LORD!
You angels are the powerful soldiers who obey his commands.
You listen to him and obey his commands.
- ²¹ Praise the LORD, all his armies.*
You are his servants,
and you do what he wants.
- ²² Everything the LORD has made should praise him throughout the world that he rules!
- My soul, praise the LORD!

104

- ¹ My soul, praise the LORD!
LORD my God, you are very great!

* 103:21 armies This word can mean "armies," "angels," or the "stars and planets." This word is part of the name translated "LORD All-Powerful." It shows that God is in control of all the powers in the universe.

- You are clothed with glory and honor.
² You wear light like a robe.
 You spread out the skies like a curtain.
³ You built your home above them.*
 You use the thick clouds like a chariot and ride across the sky on the wings of the wind.
⁴ You make the winds your messengers and flames of fire your servants.†
⁵ You built the earth on its foundations, so it can never be moved.
⁶ You covered it with water like a blanket.
 The water covered even the mountains.
⁷ But you gave the command, and the water turned back.
 You shouted at the water, and it rushed away.
⁸ The water flowed down from the mountains into the valleys, to the places you made for it.
⁹ You set the limits for the seas, and the water will never again rise to cover the earth.
- ¹⁰ Lord, you cause water to flow from springs into the streams that flow down between the mountains.
¹¹ The streams provide water for all the wild animals.
 Even the wild donkeys come there to drink.
¹² Wild birds come to live by the pools;
 they sing in the branches of nearby trees.
¹³ You send rain down on the mountains.
 The earth gets everything it needs from what you have made.
¹⁴ You make the grass grow to feed the animals.
 You provide plants for the crops we grow—
 the plants that give us food from the earth.
¹⁵ You give us the wine that makes us happy, the oil that makes our skin soft,‡ and the food that makes us strong.
- ¹⁶ The great cedar trees of Lebanon belong to the LORD.
 He planted them and gives them the water they need.
¹⁷ That's where the birds make their nests,
 and the storks live in the fir trees.
¹⁸ The high mountains are a home for wild goats.
 The large rocks are hiding places for rock badgers.
- ¹⁹ Lord, you made the moon to show us when the festivals begin.
 And the sun always knows when to set.
²⁰ You made darkness to be the night—
 the time when wild animals come out and roam around.
²¹ Lions roar as they attack,
 as if they are asking God for the food he gives them.
²² When the sun rises, they leave and go back to their dens to rest.

* 104:3 above them Literally, “on the water above.” This is like the picture of the world in Genesis 1. There the sky was like a bowl turned upside down on the earth. There was water below the bowl and water above it. † 104:4 Or “You make your angels spirits and your servants flames of fire.” This may be a wordplay referring to the Cherub and Seraph angels. ‡ 104:15 makes our skin soft Literally, “makes our face shine.” This can also mean “makes us happy.”

- 23 Then people go out to do their work, and they work until evening.
- 24 LORD, you created so many things!
With your wisdom you made them all.
The earth is full of the living things you made.
- 25 Look at the ocean, so big and wide!
It is filled with all kinds of sea life.
There are creatures large and small—too many to count!
- 26 Ships sail over the ocean, and playing there is Leviathan,[§]
the great sea creature you made.
- 27 Lord, all living things depend on you.
You give them food at the right time.
- 28 You give it, and they eat it.
They are filled with good food from your open hands.
- 29 When you turn away from them,
they become frightened.
When you take away their breath,^{*}
they die, and their bodies return to the dust.
- 30 But when you send out your life-giving breath,[†] things come alive, and the world is like new again!
- 31 May the LORD'S glory continue forever!
May the LORD enjoy what he made.
- 32 He just looks at the earth, and it trembles.
He just touches the mountains, and smoke rises from them.
- 33 I will sing to the LORD for the rest of my life.
I will sing praises to my God as long as I live.
- 34 May my words be pleasing to him.
The LORD is the one who makes me happy.
- 35 I wish sinners would disappear from the earth.
I wish the wicked would be gone forever.
- My soul, praise the LORD!
Praise the LORD!

105

- 1 Give thanks to the LORD and call out to him!
Tell the nations what he has done!
- 2 Sing to him; sing praises to him.
Tell about the amazing things he has done.
- 3 Be proud of his holy name.
You followers of the LORD, be happy!
- 4 Depend on the LORD for strength.
Always go to him for help.

[§] 104:26 Leviathan This might mean any large sea animal, like a whale. But it probably means “the sea monster,” the “Dragon,” or “Rahab.” This creature represents the great power of the ocean, the power that God controls. ^{*} 104:29 breath Or “spirit.” [†] 104:30 life-giving breath Or “Spirit.”

- 5 Remember the amazing things he has done.
Remember his miracles and his fair decisions.
- 6 You belong to the family of his servant Abraham.
You are descendants of Jacob, the people God chose.
- 7 The LORD is our God.
He rules the whole world.
- 8 He will remember his agreement forever.
He will always keep the promises he made to his people.
- 9 He will keep the agreement he made with Abraham and the promise he made to Isaac.
- 10 He gave it as a law to Jacob.
He gave it to Israel as an agreement that will last forever!
- 11 He said, "I will give you the land of Canaan.
It will be your very own."
- 12 At the time God said this, there were only a few of his people, and they were strangers there.
- 13 They traveled around from nation to nation,
from one kingdom to another.
- 14 But the Lord did not let anyone mistreat them.
He warned kings not to harm them.
- 15 He said, "Don't hurt my chosen people.
Don't harm my prophets."
- 16 He caused a famine in that country,
and people did not have enough food.
- 17 But he sent a man named Joseph to go ahead of them.
Joseph was sold like a slave.
- 18 They tied a rope around his feet and put an iron ring around his neck.
- 19 Joseph was a slave until what he said had really happened.
The LORD'S message proved that Joseph was right.
- 20 So the king of Egypt set him free.
That nation's leader let him out of jail.
- 21 He put Joseph in charge of his house.
Joseph took care of everything the king owned.
- 22 Joseph gave instructions to the other leaders.
He taught the older men.
- 23 Then Israel came to Egypt.
Jacob lived there in Ham's country.*
- 24 Jacob's family became very large and more powerful than their enemies.
- 25 So the Egyptians began to hate his people.
They made plans against his servants.
- 26 So the Lord sent Moses, his servant,
and Aaron, his chosen priest.
- 27 He used Moses and Aaron to do many miracles in Ham's country.
- 28 He sent darkness to cover their land,
but the Egyptians did not listen to him.
- 29 So he changed the water into blood,
and all their fish died.
- 30 Their country was filled with frogs,

* 105:23 Ham's country Or "Egypt." The Egyptians were Ham's descendants. See Genesis 10:6-20.

- even in the king's bedroom.
- ³¹ The Lord gave the command, and the flies and gnats came.
They were everywhere!
- ³² He made the rain become hail.
Lightning struck throughout their land.
- ³³ He destroyed their vines and fig trees.
He destroyed every tree in their country.
- ³⁴ He gave the command, and the locusts and grasshoppers came.
There were too many to count!
- ³⁵ They ate all the plants in the country, including all the crops in their fields.
- ³⁶ Then the Lord killed every firstborn in their country.
He killed their oldest sons.
- ³⁷ He led his people out of Egypt.
They were carrying gold and silver,
and none of them stumbled or fell behind.
- ³⁸ Egypt was happy to see his people go, because they were afraid of them.
- ³⁹ The Lord spread out his cloud like a blanket.
He used his column of fire to give his people light at night.
- ⁴⁰ They asked for food, and he sent them quail.
He also gave them plenty of bread from heaven.
- ⁴¹ He split the rock, and water came bubbling out.
A river began flowing in the desert!
- ⁴² The Lord remembered his holy promise that he had made to his servant Abraham.
- ⁴³ He brought his people out of Egypt.
They came out rejoicing and singing their happy songs!
- ⁴⁴ Then he gave his people the lands of other nations.
His people got what others had worked for.
- ⁴⁵ He did this so that his people would obey his laws and follow his teachings.

Praise the LORD!

106

- ¹ Praise the LORD!
Give thanks to the LORD because he is good!
His faithful love will last forever!
- ² No one can describe how great the LORD really is.
No one can praise him enough.
- ³ Those who obey his commands are happy.
They do good things all the time.
- ⁴ LORD, remember me when you show kindness to your people.
Remember to save me too!
- ⁵ Let me share in the good things that you do for your chosen people.
Let me rejoice with your nation.
Let me join with your people in praise.

- ⁶ We sinned just as our ancestors did.
We were wrong; we did bad things!
- ⁷ Lord, our ancestors learned nothing from the miracles you did in Egypt.
They forgot your kindness at the Red Sea and rebelled against you.
- ⁸ But the Lord saved our ancestors for the honor of his name.
He saved them to show his great power.
- ⁹ He gave the command, and the Red Sea became dry.
He led them through the deep sea on land as dry as the desert.
- ¹⁰ He saved our ancestors and rescued them from their enemies.
- ¹¹ He covered their enemies with the sea.
Not one of them escaped!
- ¹² Then our ancestors believed what he had said.
They sang praises to him.
- ¹³ But they quickly forgot about what he did.
They did not listen to his advice.
- ¹⁴ They became hungry in the desert,
and they tested him in the wilderness.
- ¹⁵ He gave them what they asked for,
but he also gave them a terrible disease.
- ¹⁶ The people became jealous of Moses.
They became jealous of Aaron, the LORD'S holy priest.
- ¹⁷ The ground opened up and swallowed Dathan.
Then the ground closed up and covered Abiram's group.
- ¹⁸ Then a fire burned that mob of people.
It burned those wicked people.
- ¹⁹ The people made a golden calf at Mount Horeb.
They worshiped a statue!
- ²⁰ They traded their glorious God for a statue of a grass-eating bull!
- ²¹ They forgot all about God, the one who saved them,
the one who did the miracles in Egypt.
- ²² He did amazing things there in Ham's country*!
He did awesome things at the Red Sea!
- ²³ God wanted to destroy those people,
but Moses, the leader he chose, stood in the way.
God was very angry, but Moses begged him to stop,
so God did not destroy the people.†
- ²⁴ But then they refused to go into the wonderful land of Canaan.
They did not believe that God would help them defeat the people there.
- ²⁵ Our ancestors complained in their tents and refused to obey the LORD.
- ²⁶ So he swore that they would die

* 106:22 Ham's country Or "Egypt." The Egyptians were Ham's descendants. See Genesis 10:6-20. † 106:23 Or "God said he would destroy them. But Moses, his chosen one, stood in the breach and repelled his anger from destroying." This compares Moses to a soldier standing at a break in a wall defending the city against enemy soldiers.

- in the desert.
27 He promised to scatter them among the nations and to let other people defeat their descendants.
- 28 At Baal Peor they joined in worshiping Baal
and ate sacrifices to honor the dead.‡ 29 The LORD became angry with his people,
so he made them sick.
30 But Phinehas prayed§ to God,
and God stopped the sickness.
31 He considered what Phinehas did a good work,
and it will be remembered forever and ever.
- 32 At Meribah the people made the LORD angry and created trouble for Moses.
33 They upset Moses,
and he spoke without stopping to think.
- 34 The LORD told the people to destroy the other nations living in Canaan.
But the Israelites did not obey him.
35 They mixed with the other people and did what those people were doing.
36 They began worshiping the false gods those people worshiped.
And their idols became a trap.
37 They even offered their own children
as sacrifices to demons.
38 They killed their innocent sons and daughters and offered them to the false gods of Canaan.
So the land was polluted with the sin of murder.
39 They were unfaithful to him,
and they became dirty with the sins of other nations.
40 So the LORD became angry with his people.
He rejected those who belonged to him.
41 He gave his people to other nations and let their enemies rule over them.
42 Their enemies controlled them and made life hard for them.
43 He saved his people many times,
but they turned against him and did what they wanted to do.
His people did many bad things.
44 But whenever they were in trouble,
he listened to their prayers.
45 He always remembered his agreement, and because of his faithful love, he comforted them.
46 Other nations took them as prisoners, but the Lord caused them to be kind to his people.
47 LORD our God, save us!
Bring us back together from those nations.
Then we will give thanks to your holy name and joyfully praise you.

‡ 106:28 the dead This might refer to “lifeless gods” or to dead friends or relatives honored with meals eaten at their graves. § 106:30 prayed Or “intervened,” or “judged.” Phinehas not only prayed to God, but he also did something to stop the people from doing these sins. See Num. 25:1-16.

⁴⁸ Praise the LORD, the God of Israel!
He always was and will always be worthy of praise.
Let all the people say, "Amen!"

Praise the LORD!

107

(Psalms 107–150)

- ¹ Praise the LORD, because he is good!
His faithful love will last forever!
- ² Everyone the LORD has saved should repeat that word of thanks.
Praise him, all who have been rescued from the enemy.
- ³ He gathered his people together from many different countries.
He brought them from east and west, north and south.*
- ⁴ Some of them wandered in the dry desert.
They were looking for a place to live,
but they could not find a city.
- ⁵ They were hungry and thirsty and growing weak.
- ⁶ Then they called to the LORD for help,
and he saved them from their troubles.
- ⁷ He led them straight to the city where they would live.
- ⁸ Thank the LORD for his faithful love
and for the amazing things he does for people.
- ⁹ He satisfies those who are thirsty.
He fills those who are hungry with good things.
- ¹⁰ Some of God's people were prisoners, locked behind bars in dark prisons.
- ¹¹ That was because they had fought against what God said.
They refused to listen to the advice of God Most High.
- ¹² God made life hard for those people because of what they did.
They stumbled and fell,
and there was no one to help them.
- ¹³ They were in trouble, so they called to the LORD for help,
and he saved them from their troubles.
- ¹⁴ He took them out of their dark prisons.
He broke the ropes that held them.
- ¹⁵ Thank the LORD for his faithful love
and for the amazing things he does for people.
- ¹⁶ He breaks down their bronze gates.
He shatters their iron bars.
- ¹⁷ Some people became fools and turned against God,
and they suffered for the evil they did.
- ¹⁸ They became so sick that they refused to eat,
so they almost died.

* 107:3 south Or "the Sea." This might refer to all the coastal areas around the Mediterranean Sea.

- 19 They were in trouble, so they called to the LORD for help,
and he saved them from their troubles.
- 20 He gave the command and healed them,
so they were saved from the grave.
- 21 Thank the LORD for his faithful love
and for the amazing things he does for people.
- 22 Offer sacrifices of thanks to him.
Sing with joy about all that he has done.
- 23 Some sailed the sea in ships.
Their work carried them across the water.
- 24 They saw what the LORD can do.
They saw the amazing things he did at sea.
- 25 He gave the command, and a strong wind began to blow.
The waves became higher and higher.
- 26 The waves lifted them high into the sky and dropped them into the deep sea.
The storm was so dangerous that the men lost their courage.
- 27 They were stumbling and falling like someone who is drunk.
Their skill as sailors was useless.
- 28 They were in trouble, so they called to the LORD for help,
and he saved them from their troubles.
- 29 He stopped the storm and calmed the waves.
- 30 The sailors were happy that the sea became calm, and he led them safely to where they wanted to go.
- 31 Thank the LORD for his faithful love
and for the amazing things he does for people.
- 32 Praise God in the great assembly.
Praise him when the older leaders meet together.
- 33 He changed rivers into a desert.
He stopped springs from flowing.
- 34 He made the fertile land become salty, because the people living there did such evil things.
- 35 He changed the desert into a land with pools of water.
He caused springs to flow from dry ground.
- 36 He led the hungry to that good land, and they built a city to live in.
- 37 They planted seeds in their fields and grapes in their vineyards, and they had a good harvest.
- 38 God blessed them with many children and plenty of animals.
- 39 But because of disaster and troubles, their families became small and weak.
- 40 God shames even great leaders and makes them wander through empty deserts.
- 41 But he rescues the poor from their misery.
He makes their families large like flocks of sheep.
- 42 Good people see this and are happy.
But the wicked see it and don't know what to say.
- 43 Whoever is wise will remember these things and begin to understand the LORD'S faithful love.

108

A praise song of David.

- ¹ God, I am ready, heart and soul,
to sing songs of praise.
Wake up, my soul!
² Harps and lyres, wake up,
and let's wake the dawn!
³ LORD, I will praise you before all people.
I will sing praises about you to every nation.
⁴ Your faithful love is higher than the highest clouds in the sky!
⁵ Rise above the heavens, God.
Let all the world see your glory.
⁶ Use your great power and help us!
Answer my prayer and save the people you love.
- ⁷ God has made this promise in his Temple*:
"I will win the war and rejoice in victory!
I will divide this land among my people.
I will give them Shechem.
I will give them Succoth Valley.
⁸ Gilead and Manasseh will be mine.
Ephraim will be my helmet.
Judah will be my royal scepter.
⁹ Moab will be the bowl for washing my feet.
Edom will be the slave who carries my sandals.
I will defeat the Philistines and shout in victory!"
- ¹⁰⁻¹¹ But, God, it seems that you have left us!
You do not go out with our army.
So who will lead me into the strong, protected city?
Who will lead me into battle against Edom?
¹² Help us defeat the enemy!
No one on earth can rescue us.
¹³ Only God can make us strong.
Only God can defeat our enemies!

109

To the director: A praise song of David.

- ¹ God, I praise you!
Hear my prayer and do something!
² Wicked people are telling lies about me.
They are saying things that are not true.
³ They are saying hateful things about me.
They are attacking me for no reason.
⁴ I loved them, but they were against me.
So I said a prayer.
⁵ I did good things to them,
but they are doing bad things to me.
I loved them,
but they hated me.

* 108:7 in his Temple Or "in his holiness."

- ⁶ They said, "Choose someone evil to represent him.
Let the one at his side really be his accuser.
- ⁷ Let even his prayer be used as evidence against him,
and let the court find him guilty.
- ⁸ Let his life be cut short,
and let someone else take over his work.
- ⁹ Let his children become orphans and his wife a widow.
- ¹⁰ Make his children wander around as beggars, forced from homes that lie in ruins.
- ¹¹ Let the people he owes take everything he owns.
Let strangers get everything he worked for.
- ¹² Let no one be kind to him.
Let no one show mercy to his children.
- ¹³ May his family come to an end.
May his name be unknown to future generations.
- ¹⁴ May the LORD remember the sins of his father, and may his mother's sins never be erased.
- ¹⁵ May the LORD remember their sins forever, and may he cause people to forget his family completely.
- ¹⁶ He never did anything good.
He never loved anyone.
He made life hard for the poor and the helpless.
- ¹⁷ He loved to curse others,
so let those bad things happen to him.
He never blessed others,
so don't let good things happen to him.
- ¹⁸ Cursing was a daily part of his life,
like the clothes he wears.
Cursing others became a part of him,
like the water he drinks and the oil he puts on his body.
- ¹⁹ So let curses cover him like the robe he wears and always surround him like a belt."
- ²⁰ My enemies said these evil things against me.
But may those curses be the way the LORD punishes them.
- ²¹ My Lord GOD, treat me in a way that brings honor to your name.
Save me because of your faithful love.
- ²² I am only a poor, helpless man.
I am so sad; my heart is broken.
- ²³ I feel my life is over, fading like a shadow at day's end.
I feel like a bug that someone brushed away.
- ²⁴ My knees are weak from fasting.
I have lost weight and become thin.
- ²⁵ My enemies insult me.
They look at me and shake their heads.
- ²⁶ LORD my God, help me!
Show your faithful love and save me!
- ²⁷ Then they will know that you did it.
They will know that it was your power, LORD, that helped me.
- ²⁸ They curse me, but you can bless me.
They attacked me, so defeat them.
Then I, your servant, will be happy.
- ²⁹ Humiliate my enemies!

- Let them wear their shame like a coat.
³⁰ I give thanks to the LORD.
 I praise him in front of everyone.
³¹ He stands by the helpless and saves them from those who try to put them to death.

110

A praise song of David.

- ¹ The LORD said to my lord,*
 “Sit at my right side, while I put your enemies under your control.”
- ² The LORD will cause your kingdom to grow, beginning at Zion, until you rule the lands of your enemies!
- ³ Your people will gladly join you when you gather your army together.
 You will wear your special clothes and meet together early in the morning.
 Your young men will be all around you like dew on the ground.†
- ⁴ The LORD has made a promise with an oath
 and will not change his mind:
 “You are a priest forever—
 the kind of priest Melchizedek was.”
- ⁵ My Lord is at your right side.
 He will defeat the other kings when he becomes angry.
- ⁶ He will judge the nations.
 The ground will be covered with dead bodies.
 He will punish the leaders of powerful nations all around the world.
- ⁷ The king will drink from a stream on the way.
 Then he will lift his head and become strong!‡

111

- * ¹ Praise the LORD!

- I thank the LORD with all my heart in the assembly of his good people.
- ² The LORD does wonderful things, more than anyone could ask for.†
- ³ The things he does are great and glorious!
 There is no end to his goodness.
- ⁴ He does amazing things so that we will remember that the LORD is kind and merciful.

* 110:1 my lord That is, the king. † 110:3 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. Literally, “Your people will be freewill offerings on your day of power. In holy splendor from the womb of dawn your dew of youth will be yours.”
 ‡ 110:7 lift his head and become strong Literally, “lift his head.” Here, the poet probably means two things: “he will raise his head after drinking the water,” and “he will become strong or important.” * 111: In Hebrew, each line of this psalm begins with the next letter in the alphabet. † 111:2 more ... for Literally, “requested for all their desires.”

- ⁵ He gives food to his followers.
He remembers his agreement forever.
- ⁶ He has shown his people how powerful he is by giving them the land of other nations.
- ⁷ Everything he does is good and fair.
All his commands can be trusted.
- ⁸ His commands will continue forever.
They must be done with truth and honesty.
- ⁹ He rescued his people and made his agreement with them forever.
His name is awesome and holy.
- ¹⁰ Wisdom begins with fear and respect for the LORD.
Those who obey him are very wise.
Praises will be sung to him forever.

112

* ¹ Praise the LORD!

- Great blessings belong to those who fear and respect the LORD, who are happy to do what he commands.
- ² Their descendants will be given power on earth.
Those who do right will be greatly blessed.
- ³ Their family will be very rich, and their goodness will continue forever.
- ⁴ A light shines in the dark for those who are good,
for those who are merciful, kind, and fair.
- ⁵ It is good for people to be kind and generous and to be fair in business.
- ⁶ Such good people will never fall.
They will always be remembered.
- ⁷ They will not be afraid of bad news.
They are confident because they trust in the LORD.
- ⁸ They remain confident and without fear,
so they defeat their enemies.
- ⁹ They freely give to the poor.
Their goodness will continue forever.
They will be honored with victory.
- ¹⁰ The wicked become angry when they see this.
They grind their teeth in anger, but then they disappear.
They will never get what they want most.

- Servants of the LORD, praise him!
Praise the LORD'S name.
- ² May the LORD'S name be praised
now and forever.
- ³ May the LORD'S name be praised from where the sun rises to where it goes down.
- ⁴ The LORD is higher than all nations.

* 112: In Hebrew, each line of this psalm begins with the next letter in the alphabet.

- His glory rises to the skies.
⁵ There is no one like the LORD our God.
 He sits on his throne high in heaven.
⁶ He is so high above us that he must look down to see the sky and the earth.
⁷ He lifts the poor out of the dirt and rescues beggars from the garbage dump.
⁸ He puts them in important positions, giving them a place among the leaders of his people.
⁹ He gives children to the woman whose home is empty.
 He makes her a happy mother.

Praise the LORD!

- ¹ The people of Israel escaped from Egypt.
 Yes, Jacob's descendants left that foreign country.
² Then Judah became God's special people, and Israel became his kingdom.
³ The Red Sea saw this and ran away.
 The Jordan River turned and ran.
⁴ The mountains danced like rams.
 The hills danced like lambs.
⁵ Red Sea, why did you run away?
 Jordan River, why did you turn and run away?
⁶ Mountains, why did you dance like rams?
 Hills, why did you dance like lambs?
⁷ The earth shook in front of the Lord,
 the God of Jacob.
⁸ He is the one who caused water to flow from a rock.
 He made a spring of water flow from that hard rock.

115

- ¹ LORD, you should receive the honor, not us.
 The honor belongs to you because of your faithful love and loyalty.
² Why should the nations wonder where our God is?
³ Our God is in heaven,
 and he does whatever he wants.
⁴ The "gods" of those nations are only statues that some human made from gold and silver.
⁵ Those statues have mouths, but cannot talk.
 They have eyes, but cannot see.
⁶ They have ears, but cannot hear.
 They have noses, but cannot smell.
⁷ They have hands, but cannot feel.
 They have feet, but cannot walk.
 No sounds come from their throats.
⁸ The people who make and trust in those statues will become like them!

- 9 People of Israel, trust in the LORD!
He is your strength and shield.
- 10 Aaron's family, trust in the LORD!
He is your strength and shield.
- 11 Followers of the LORD, trust in the LORD!
He is your strength and shield.
- 12 The LORD remembers us.
He will bless us.
He will bless Israel.
He will bless Aaron's family.
- 13 The LORD will bless his followers, great and small.
- 14 May the LORD give more and more to you and to your children.
- 15 May you receive blessings from the LORD,*
who made heaven and earth.
- 16 Heaven belongs to the LORD,
but he gave the earth to people.
- 17 The dead don't praise him.
Those in the grave don't praise the LORD.
- 18 But we will praise the LORD
now and forever!

Praise the LORD!

116

- 1 I love the LORD for hearing me,
for listening to my prayers.
- 2 Yes, he paid attention to me,
so I will always call to him whenever I need help.
- 3 Death's ropes were around me.
The grave was closing in on me.
I was worried and afraid.
- 4 Then I called on the LORD'S name.
I said, "LORD, save me!"
- 5 The LORD is good and merciful;
our God is so kind.
- 6 The LORD takes care of helpless people.
I was without help, and he saved me.
- 7 My soul, relax!
The LORD is caring for you.
- 8 Lord, you saved my soul from death.
You stopped my tears.
You kept me from falling.
- 9 I will continue to serve the LORD
in the land of the living.
- 10 I continued believing even when I said,
"I am completely ruined!"
- 11 Yes, even when I was upset and said,

* 115:15 May ... the LORD Or "The LORD welcomes you with a blessing."

“There is no one I can trust!”

- ¹² What can I give the LORD for all that he has done for me?
¹³ He saved me,
so I will give him a drink offering,
and I will call on the LORD’S name.
¹⁴ I will give the LORD what I promised.
I will go in front of all his people now.
- ¹⁵ Very dear to the LORD are the lives of his followers.
He cares when they face death.
¹⁶ LORD, I am your servant!
Yes, I am your slave, as my mother was.
You set me free from the chains of death.
¹⁷ I will give you a thank offering.
I will call on the LORD’S name.
¹⁸ I will stand before the gathering of his people and give the LORD what I promised.
¹⁹ I will do this in Jerusalem,
in the courtyards of the LORD’S Temple.

Praise the LORD!

117

- ¹ Praise the LORD, all you nations.
Praise him, all you people.
² He loves us very much!
The LORD will be faithful to us forever!

Praise the LORD!

118

- ¹ Praise the LORD because he is good!
His faithful love will last forever!
² Israel, say it:
“His faithful love will last forever!”
³ Aaron’s family,* say it:
“His faithful love will last forever!”
⁴ You people worshiping the LORD, say it:
“His faithful love will last forever!”
- ⁵ I was in trouble, so I called to the LORD for help.
The LORD answered and made me free.
⁶ The LORD is with me, so I will not be afraid.
No one on earth can do anything to harm me.
⁷ The LORD is my helper.
I will see my enemies defeated.
⁸ It is better to trust in the LORD than to trust in people.
⁹ It is better to trust in the LORD than to trust in great leaders.

* 118:3 Aaron’s family That is, the priests.

- 10 Many enemies surrounded me,
but with the LORD'S power I defeated them.
- 11 They surrounded me again and again,
but I defeated them with the LORD'S power.
- 12 They surrounded me like a swarm of bees,
but they were quickly destroyed like a fast-burning bush.
I defeated them with the LORD'S power.
- 13 My enemy attacked me and almost destroyed me,
but the LORD helped me.
- 14 The LORD is my strength and my reason for singing.[†]
He saved me!
- 15 You can hear the victory celebration in the homes of those who live right.
The LORD has shown his great power again!
- 16 The LORD'S arm is raised in victory.
The LORD has shown his great power again.
- 17 I will live and not die,
and I will tell what the LORD has done.
- 18 The LORD punished me,
but he did not let me die.
- 19 Gates of goodness, open for me,
and I will come in and worship the LORD.
- 20 Those are the LORD'S gates, and only good people can go through them.
- 21 Lord, I thank you for answering my prayer.
I thank you for saving me.
- 22 The stone that the builders rejected became the cornerstone.
- 23 The LORD made this happen,
and we think it is wonderful!
- 24 This is the day the LORD has made.
Let us rejoice and be happy today!
- 25 *The people say, "Praise the LORD!
The LORD saved us!*[‡]
- 26 Welcome to the one who comes in the name of the LORD."
The priests answer, "We welcome you to the LORD'S house!
- 27 The LORD is God, and he accepts us.
Tie up the lamb for the sacrifice and carry it to the horns of the altar."
- 28 Lord, you are my God, and I thank you.
My God, I praise you!
- 29 Praise the LORD because he is good.
His faithful love will last forever.

[†] 118:14 my reason for singing Or "my protection." [‡] 118:25 Literally, "LORD, please save us. LORD, please make us successful." This was a shout of victory to honor a king returning after winning a war.

*Aleph

- 1 Great blessings belong to those who live pure lives!
They follow the LORD'S teachings.
- 2 Great blessings belong to those who follow his rules!
They seek him with all their heart.
- 3 They don't do wrong.
They follow his ways.
- 4 Lord, you gave us your instructions and told us to always obey them.
- 5 How I wish I could be more faithful in obeying your laws!
- 6 Then I would never feel ashamed
when I look closely at your commands.
- 7 The more I understand how fair your laws are,
the more sincerely I will praise you.
- 8 I will obey your laws,
so please don't leave me!

Beth

- 9 How can a young person live a pure life?
By obeying your word.
- 10 I try with all my heart to serve you.
Help me obey your commands.
- 11 I study your teachings very carefully
so that I will not sin against you.
- 12 LORD, you are worthy of praise!
Teach me your laws.
- 13 I will repeat the laws we have heard from you.
- 14 I enjoy following your rules
as much as others enjoy great riches.
- 15 I will study your instructions.
I will give thought to your way of life.
- 16 I enjoy your laws.
I will not forget your word.

Gimel

- 17 Be good to me, your servant,
so that I may live to obey your word.
- 18 Open my eyes so that I can see all the wonderful things in your teachings.
- 19 I feel like a stranger visiting here on earth.
I need to know your commands.
Don't keep them hidden from me.
- 20 I constantly feel a hunger to understand your laws.
- 21 You tell the proud how angry you are with them.
All those who refuse to obey your word are cursed.
- 22 Don't let me be ashamed and embarrassed.
I have obeyed your rules.
- 23 Even if rulers say bad things about me,

* 119: Aleph The first letter of the Hebrew alphabet. This psalm has a section for each letter of the Hebrew alphabet, and each of the eight verses in each section begins with the Hebrew letter for its section.

I am your servant,
and I continue to study your laws.
24 Your rules make me happy.
They give me good advice.

Daleth

25 I lie here like a dying man.
Say the word, and I will live again.†
26 I told you about my life, and you answered me.
Now, teach me your laws.
27 Help me understand your instructions, and I will think about your wonderful teachings.‡
28 I am sad and tired.
Say the word, and make me strong again.
29 Don't let me live a lie.
Guide me with your teachings.
30 I have chosen to be loyal to you.
I respect your laws.
31 I follow your rules closely, LORD.
Don't let me be put to shame.
32 I do my best to follow your commands, because you are the one who gives me the desire.

He

33 LORD, teach me your laws,
and I will always follow them.
34 Help me understand your teachings, and I will follow them.
Obeying them will be my greatest desire.
35 Help me follow your commands,
because that makes me happy.
36 Give me the desire to follow your rules,
not the desire to get rich.
37 Don't let me look at worthless things.
Help me live your way.
38 Do what you promised me, your servant,
so that people will respect you.
39 Take away the shame I fear.
Your laws are good.
40 See how much I want to obey your instructions!
Be good to me, and let me live.

Waw

41 LORD, show me your faithful love.
Save me, as you promised.
42 Then I will have an answer for those who make fun of me for trusting what you say.
43 Let me always say what is true.
I depend on your judgment to be fair.
44 I will follow your teachings forever and ever.
45 So I will live in freedom, because I do my best to know your instructions.
46 I will discuss your rules with kings,

† 119:25 Say ... again Or "Give me life as you promised." ‡ 119:27 teachings Or "deeds."

- and no one will embarrass me.
47 What joy your commands give me!
How I love them!
48 Not only do I love your commands, but I also honor them.
I will study your laws.

Zain

- 49 Remember your promise to me, your servant.
It gives me hope.
50 You comfort me in my suffering, because your promise gives me new life.
51 People full of pride are always making fun of me,
but I have not stopped following your teachings.
52 I remember the laws you gave us long ago, LORD,
and they bring me comfort.
53 I am overcome with anger when I see wicked people, who have stopped following your teachings.
54 Your laws are the songs I sing
wherever I am living.
55 LORD, in the night I remembered your name,
and I obeyed your teachings.
56 This happened because I carefully obey your instructions.

Heth

- 57 LORD, I decided that my duty is to obey your commandments.
58 I beg you with all my heart,
be kind to me, as you promised.
59 I thought very carefully about my life,
and I decided to follow your rules.
60 Without wasting any time,
I hurried back to obey your commands.
61 The wicked tried to trap me,
but I have not forgotten your teachings.
62 In the middle of the night, I get up to thank you because your laws are so fair.
63 I am a friend to everyone who worships you.
I am a friend to everyone who obeys your instructions.
64 LORD, your faithful love fills the earth.
Teach me your laws.

Teth

- 65 LORD, you did good things for me, your servant.
You did what you promised to do.
66 Give me the knowledge to make wise decisions.
I trust your commands.
67 Before I suffered, I did many wrong things.
But now I carefully obey everything you say.
68 You are good, and you do good things.
Teach me your laws.
69 People full of pride made up lies about me.
But I keep obeying your instructions with all my heart.
70 Those people are so stupid that they care for nothing, but I enjoy studying your teachings.
71 Suffering was good for me;

I learned your laws.

⁷² Your teachings are worth more to me than a thousand pieces of silver and gold.

Yod

⁷³ With your hands you made me and helped me become what I am.
Now help me learn and understand your commands.

⁷⁴ Your followers will see me and be happy, because I trust in your word.

⁷⁵ LORD, I know that your decisions are fair, and you were right to punish me.

⁷⁶ Now comfort me with your faithful love,
as you promised.

⁷⁷ Comfort me and let me live.
I enjoy your teachings.

⁷⁸ Bring shame on those proud people who lied about me.
All I want to do is study your instructions.

⁷⁹ Let your followers come back to me
so that they may learn your rules.

⁸⁰ Let me obey your laws perfectly so that I will not be ashamed.

Kaph

⁸¹ I feel weaker and weaker as I wait for you to save me.
But I put my trust in your word.

⁸² I keep looking for what you promised, but my eyes are feeling tired.
When will you comfort me?

⁸³ Even when I am like a dried wineskin on the trash pile,
I will not forget your laws.

⁸⁴ How long must I wait for you to punish those who persecute me?

⁸⁵ Proud people have tried to trap me and make me disobey your teachings.

⁸⁶ All your commands can be trusted.
Those people are wrong to persecute me.
Help me!

⁸⁷ They have almost destroyed me,
but I have not stopped obeying your instructions.

⁸⁸ Show me your faithful love and let me live.
I will do whatever you say.

Lamedh

⁸⁹ LORD, your word continues forever in heaven.

⁹⁰ You are loyal forever and ever.

You made the earth, and it still stands.

⁹¹ All things continue today because of your laws.
Like slaves, they all obey you.

⁹² If I had not found joy in your teachings, my suffering would have destroyed me.

⁹³ I will never forget your commands, because through them you gave me new life.

⁹⁴ I am yours, so save me!
I have done my best to know your instructions.

⁹⁵ The wicked tried to destroy me, but your rules made me wise.

⁹⁶ Everything has its limits, except your commands.

Mem

⁹⁷ Oh, how I love your teachings!

I talk about them all the time.

⁹⁸ Your commands are always with me,
and they make me wiser than my enemies.

⁹⁹ I am wiser than all my teachers, because I study your rules.

¹⁰⁰ I understand more than those who are older, because I obey your instructions.

¹⁰¹ I have avoided every path that leads to evil
so that I could obey your word.

¹⁰² You are my teacher,
so I will always do whatever you decide.

¹⁰³ Your words are so sweet to me, like the taste of honey!

¹⁰⁴ I gain understanding from your instructions, so I hate anything that leads people the wrong way.

Nun

¹⁰⁵ Your word is like a lamp that guides my steps, a light that shows the path I should take.

¹⁰⁶ Your laws are good and fair.
I have promised to obey them, and I will keep my promise.

¹⁰⁷ LORD, I have suffered for a long time.

Say the word, and I will live again![§]

¹⁰⁸ LORD, accept the praise I want to give you,
and teach me your laws.

¹⁰⁹ My life is always in danger,
but I have not forgotten your teachings.

¹¹⁰ The wicked try to trap me,
but I have not disobeyed your instructions.

¹¹¹ The rules you have given me to follow will be mine forever.
They give me great joy.

¹¹² More than anything I want to obey your laws always, until the end of my life.

Samekh

¹¹³ Lord, I hate those who are not completely loyal to you, but I love your teachings.

¹¹⁴ Hide me and protect me.
I trust what you say.

¹¹⁵ Don't come near me, you who are evil,
so that I can obey my God's commands.

¹¹⁶ Support me, Lord, as you promised, and I will live.
I trust in you, so don't disappoint me.

¹¹⁷ Help me and I will be saved.
And I will always give attention to your laws.

¹¹⁸ You reject all who don't obey your laws, because they are liars and did not do what they said.

[§] 119:107 Say ... again Or "Give me life as you promised."

Save me, and I will obey your rules.

147 I get up early in the morning to pray to you.

I trust what you say.

148 Late into the night I stay awake to think about your word.

149 I know your love is true, so listen to me.

LORD, you always do what is right, so let me live.

150 Here come those who have evil plans to hurt me.

They live far away from your teachings.

151 But you are near me, LORD, and all your commands can be trusted.

152 Long ago, I learned from your rules that you made them to last forever.

Resh

153 Look at my suffering and rescue me.

I have not forgotten your teachings.

154 Argue my case, and set me free.

Let me live, as you promised.

155 The wicked have no hope of being saved, because they don't follow your laws.

156 LORD, you are very kind.

You always do what is right, so let me live.

157 I have many enemies trying to hurt me,

but I have not stopped following your rules.

158 I look at those traitors and hate what I see,

because they refuse to do what you say.

But I love your teachings.

164 Seven times a day I praise you because your laws are fair.

165 Those who love your teachings will find true peace.

Nothing can make them fall.

166 LORD, I am waiting for you to save me.

I obey your commands.

167 I follow your rules.

I love them very much.

¹⁶⁸ I obey all your instructions and rules,
because you know everything I do.

Taw

so reach out and help me!

¹⁷⁴ LORD, I want you to save me.
Your teachings make me happy.

120

A song for going up to the Temple.

¹ I was in trouble.
I called to the LORD for help,
and he answered me!
² I said, "LORD, save me from liars, from those who say things that are not true."

³ Liars, do you know what the Lord has for you?
Do you know what you will get?

⁴ You will get a soldier's sharp arrow and hot coals to punish you.

⁵ How I hate living here among these people!
It's like living in Meshech or in the tents of Kedar.*

⁶ I have lived too long with those who hate peace.

⁷ I ask for peace,
but they want war.

121

A song for going up to the Temple.

¹ I look up to the hills,
but where will my help really come from?

² My help will come from the LORD,
the Creator of heaven and earth.

³ He will not let you fall.

* 120:5 Meshech ... Kedar Places where the people were known as wild and savage fighters.

- Your Protector will not fall asleep.
⁴ Israel's Protector does not get tired.
 He never sleeps.
⁵ The LORD is your Protector.
 The LORD stands by your side, shading and protecting you.
⁶ The sun cannot harm you during the day,
 and the moon cannot harm you at night.
⁷ The LORD will protect you from every danger.
 He will protect your soul.
⁸ The LORD will protect you as you come and go,*
 both now and forever!

122

- A song of David for going up to the Temple.
¹ I was happy when the people said,
 "Let us go to the LORD'S Temple."
² Here we are, standing at the gates of Jerusalem.
³ This is New Jerusalem!
 The city has been rebuilt as one united city.
⁴ This is where the tribes come, the tribes who belong to the LORD.
 The people of Israel come here to praise the LORD'S name.
⁵ The kings from David's family put their thrones here.
 They set up their thrones to judge the people.
⁶ Pray for peace in Jerusalem:
 "May those who love you find peace.
⁷ May there be peace within your walls.
 May there be safety in your great buildings."
⁸ For the good of my family and neighbors,
 I pray that there will be peace here.
⁹ For the good of the Temple of the LORD our God,
 I pray that good things will happen to this city.

123

- A song for going up to the Temple.
¹ Lord, I look up and pray to you.
 You sit as King in heaven.
² A slave looks to his master to provide what he needs,
 and a servant girl depends on the woman she serves.
 So we depend on the LORD our God, waiting for him to have mercy on us.
³ LORD, be merciful to us,
 because we have been insulted much too long.
⁴ We have had enough of the hateful words of those proud people who make fun of us and show us no respect.

124

- A song of David for going up to the Temple.

* 121:8 come and go This may refer to going to war.

- 1 What would have happened to us if the LORD had not been on our side?
Tell us about it, Israel.
- 2 What would have happened to us if the LORD had not been on our side when people attacked us?
- 3 They would have swallowed us alive
when they became angry with us.
- 4 Their armies would have been like a flood washing over us, like a river drowning us.
- 5 Those proud people would have been like water rising up to our mouth and drowning us.
- 6 Praise the LORD!
He did not let our enemies tear us apart.
- 7 We escaped like a bird from the net of a hunter.
The net broke, and we escaped!
- 8 Our help came from the LORD,
the one who made heaven and earth!

125

A song for going up to the Temple.

- 1 Those who trust in the LORD are like Mount Zion.
They will never be shaken.
They will continue forever.
- 2 Like the mountains that surround Jerusalem,
the LORD surrounds and protects his people now and forever.
- 3 The wicked will not always control the land of those who do right.
If they did, even those who do right might start doing wrong.
- 4 LORD, be good to those who are good,
to those who have pure hearts.
- 5 But, LORD, when you punish those who do evil,
also punish those who have stopped following your way.

Let Israel always enjoy peace!

126

A song for going up to the Temple.

- 1 It will be like a dream
when the LORD comes back with the captives of Zion.*
- 2 We will laugh and sing happy songs!
Then the other nations will say,
“The LORD did a great thing for Zion!”
- 3 Yes, we will be happy
because the LORD did a great thing for us.
- 4 So, LORD, bring back the good times,
like a desert stream filled again with flowing water.
- 5 Then those who were sad when they planted

* 126:1 when ... Zion Or “when the LORD restores Zion.” See “Zion” in the Word List.

will be happy when they gather the harvest!
 6 Those who cried as they carried the seeds[†] will be happy when they bring in the crops!

127

A song from Solomon for going up to the Temple.

1 If it is not the LORD who builds a house,
 the builders are wasting their time.
 If it is not the LORD who watches over the city,
 the guards are wasting their time.

2 It is a waste of time to get up early and stay up late,
 trying to make a living.
 The Lord provides for those he loves,
 even while they are sleeping.

3 Children are a gift* from the LORD,
 a reward from a mother's womb.

4 A young man's sons are like the arrows in a soldier's hand.

5 The man who fills his quiver with sons will be very blessed.
 He will never be defeated
 when he opposes his enemy at the city gates.[†]

128

A song for going up to the Temple.

1 Great blessings belong to those who fear and respect the LORD and live the way he wants.

2 You will get what you work for.
 You will enjoy the Lord's blessings, and all will go well for you.

3 At home, your wife will have many children, like a vine full of grapes.
 The children around your table will be like an orchard full of olive trees.

4 Yes, the LORD will really bless those who respect him.

5 May the LORD bless you from Mount Zion.
 May you enjoy the blessings of Jerusalem all your life.

6 And may you live to see your grandchildren.

Let Israel always enjoy peace!

129

A song for going up to the Temple.

1 All my life enemies have attacked me.
 Say it again, Israel.

2 All my life enemies have attacked me,
 but they have never defeated me.

[†] 126:6 carried the seeds Or "carried all their possessions." * 127:3 gift Literally, "inheritance." This usually means the land God gave to each family in Israel. [†] 127:5 city gates This can refer to either a battle to protect the city or to a court case held in this public place.

- ³ They beat me until I had deep cuts.
My back looked like a freshly plowed field.
- ⁴ But the LORD does what is right;
he cut the ropes and set me free from those wicked people.
- ⁵ May those who hate Zion be put to shame.
May they be stopped and chased away.
- ⁶ They will be like grass on a flat roof that dies before it has time to grow.
- ⁷ The one who goes to harvest it will not find enough to cut and stack.
- ⁸ May no one walking by those wicked people ever say,
“May the LORD bless you!
We bless you in the name of the LORD.”

130

A song for going up to the Temple.

- ¹ LORD, I am in deep trouble,
so I am calling to you for help.
- ² My Lord, listen to me.
Listen to my cry for help.
- ³ LORD, if you punished people for all their sins,
no one would be left alive.
- ⁴ But you forgive people,
so they fear and respect you.
- ⁵ I am waiting for the LORD to help me.
My soul waits for him.
I trust what he says.
- ⁶ I am waiting for my Lord, like a guard waiting and waiting for the morning to come.
- ⁷ Israel, trust in the LORD.
The LORD is the one who is faithful and true.
He saves us again and again,
⁸ and he is the one who will save the people of Israel from all their sins.

131

A song of David for going up to the Temple.

- ¹ LORD, I don't feel proud.
I don't see myself as better than others.
I am not thinking about doing great things or reaching impossible goals.
- ² No, right now I am calm and quiet, like a child after nursing,
content in its mother's arms.*
- ³ Israel, trust in the LORD.
Trust in him now and forever!

* 131:2 like a child ... arms Or “like a baby on its mother's back, like a baby on my back, so is my soul.” The metaphor may refer to the custom of a working mother tying her baby on her back after nursing.

132

A song for going up to the Temple.

¹ LORD, remember how David suffered.

² He made a promise to you, LORD, an oath to the Mighty God of Jacob.

³ He said, "I will not go into my house or lie down on my bed.

⁴ I will not sleep
or let my eyes rest,

⁵ until I find a home for the LORD,
a tent for the Mighty God of Jacob!"

⁶ We heard about this in Ephrathah.*

We found the Box of the Agreement at Kiriath Jearim.†

⁷ Now, let's go to the Lord's house.

Let's worship at his throne.‡

⁸ LORD, get up§ and go to your resting place;
go with the Box that shows your power.

⁹ May your priests be clothed in victory and your loyal followers be filled with joy.

¹⁰ For the sake of your servant David, don't reject your chosen king.*

¹¹ The LORD made a promise to David, an oath of loyalty to him:
"I will always put one of your descendants on your throne.

¹² If your descendants obey my agreement and the laws I teach them, then the king will always be someone from your family."

¹³ The LORD has chosen Zion to be the place for his Temple, the place he wanted for his home.

¹⁴ He said, "This will always be my place of rest.
This is where I want to sit on my throne.

¹⁵ I will bless this city with plenty of food.
Even the poor will have enough to eat.

¹⁶ I will clothe the priests with salvation, and my followers will be filled with joy.

¹⁷ This is where I will make David's family strong.
I will never let the lamp of my chosen king stop burning.

¹⁸ I will cover his enemies with shame, and on his head will be a shining crown."

133

A song of David for going up to the Temple.

when God's people all come together as one*!

* 132:6 Ephrathah Bethlehem, the town where David was born. † 132:6 Kiriath Jearim Literally, "fields of the forest." The Hebrew word meaning "forest" is like the name of this city. ‡ 132:7 at his throne Literally, "at his footstool." This can mean the Box of the Agreement, the Holy Tent, or the Temple. God is like a king sitting on his throne and resting his feet on the place where people worship him. § 132:8 LORD, get up The people said this when they lifted the Box of the Agreement and took it into battle with them. This showed that God was with them. See Num. 10:35-36. * 132:10 chosen king Literally, "anointed one." * 133:1 when ... as one Or "when brothers live together in peace."

² It is like the sweet-smelling oil that is poured over the high priest's[†] head, that runs down his beard flowing over his robes.

³ It is like a gentle rain[‡] from Mount Hermon falling on Mount Zion.
It is there that the LORD has promised his blessing of eternal life.

134

A song for going up to the Temple.

¹ Praise the LORD, all his servants who serve in the Temple at night.

² Lift your hands toward the Temple, and praise the LORD.

³ May the LORD, who made heaven and earth, bless you from Zion.

Praise the name of the LORD!
Praise him, you servants of the LORD,

² you who serve in the LORD'S Temple,
in the courtyard of the Temple of our God.

³ Praise the LORD, because he is good.
Praise his name, because it brings such joy!

⁴ The LORD chose Jacob to be his own.
Yes, he chose Israel to be his own people.

⁵ I know the LORD is great!
Our Lord is greater than all the gods!

⁶ The LORD does whatever he wants, in heaven and on earth, in the seas and the deep oceans.

⁷ He brings the clouds from the other side of the earth.
He sends the lightning and the rain,
and he opens the doors to release the winds.

⁸ He destroyed the firstborn males of the people in Egypt and their animals.

⁹ He did great wonders and miracles in Egypt.
He used them against Pharaoh and his officials.

¹⁰ He defeated many nations and killed powerful kings.

¹¹ He defeated Sihon, king of the Amorites, Og, king of Bashan,
and all the kingdoms in Canaan.

¹² Then he gave their land to Israel, his people.

¹³ LORD, your name will be famous forever!
LORD, people will remember you forever and ever.

¹⁴ The LORD defends his people;
he is kind to his servants.

¹⁵ The gods of other nations are only gold and silver idols that people have made.

¹⁶ They have mouths, but cannot speak.

[†] 133:2 high priest's Literally, "Aaron's." [‡] 133:3 gentle rain Or "mist" or "snow." The Hebrew can mean either "the oil is like the mist ..." or "Aaron's beard is like the snow"

- They have eyes, but cannot see.
¹⁷ They have ears, but cannot hear.
 They have mouths, but no breath.
¹⁸ Those who make idols and trust in them will become just like the idols they have made.

 Aaron's family, praise the LORD!
²⁰ Levi's family, praise the LORD!
 All you who worship the LORD, praise the LORD!
²¹ The LORD should be praised from Zion, from Jerusalem, his home.

Praise the LORD!

- ¹ We sat by the rivers in Babylon and cried as we remembered Zion.
² We hung our harps nearby, there on the willow trees.*
³ There in Babylon, those who captured us told us to sing.
 Our enemies told us to entertain them.
 They said, "Sing us one of your songs about Zion."
⁴ But we cannot sing the LORD'S songs in a foreign country!
⁵ Jerusalem, if I ever forget you,
 may I never play a song again.
⁶ If I fail to remember you,
 may I never sing again.
 I will always remember Jerusalem
 as my greatest joy!
- ⁷ LORD, be sure to punish the Edomites for what they did when Jerusalem was captured.
 They shouted, "Destroy its buildings!
 Pull them down to the ground!"
⁸ Babylon, you will be destroyed!
 Bless the one who pays you back for what you did to us.
⁹ Bless the one who grabs your babies and smashes them against a rock.

 I sing songs of praise to you before the gods.
² I bow down toward your holy Temple,
 and I praise your name for your love and loyalty.
 You are famous,
 and doing what you promised will make you even more famous!

 If my enemies are angry, you save me from them.
⁸ LORD, I know you will do what you have promised.
 LORD, your faithful love will last forever.
 You are the one who made us, so don't leave us!

To the director: A praise song of David.

¹ LORD, you have tested me,
 so you know all about me.
² You know when I sit down and when I get up.
 You know my thoughts from far away.
³ You know where I go and where I lie down.
 You know everything I do.
⁴ LORD, you know what I want to say,
 even before the words leave my mouth.
⁵ You are all around me—in front of me and behind me.
 I feel your hand on my shoulder.
⁶ I am amazed at what you know;
 it is too much for me to understand.
⁷ Your Spirit is everywhere I go.
 I cannot escape your presence.
⁸ If I go up to heaven, you will be there.
 If I go down to the place of death, you will be there.
⁹ If I go east where the sun rises or go to live in the west beyond the sea,
¹⁰ even there you will take my hand and lead me.
 Your strong right hand will protect me.
¹¹ Suppose I wanted to hide from you and said,
 “Surely the darkness will hide me.
 The day will change to night and cover me.”
¹² Even the darkness is not dark to you.
 The night is as bright as the day.
 Darkness and light are the same.
¹³ You formed the way I think and feel.*
 You put me together in my mother's womb.
¹⁴ I praise you because you made me in such a wonderful way.
 I know how amazing that was!
¹⁵ You could see my bones grow as my body took shape, hidden in my mother's womb.†

* 139:13 the way I think and feel Literally, “my kidneys,” which were thought to be the center of emotions.

† 139:15 mother's womb Literally, “deepest parts of the earth,” meaning a place we know nothing about.

- 16 You could see my body grow each passing day.[‡]
You listed all my parts, and not one of them was missing.
- 17 Your thoughts are beyond my understanding.[§]
They cannot be measured!
- 18 If I could count them, they would be more than all the grains of sand.
But when I finished, I would have just begun.*
- 19 You murderers, get away from me!
God, kill those wicked people—
20 those who say bad things about you.
Your enemies use your name falsely.[†]
- 21 LORD, I hate those who hate you.
I hate those who are against you.
- 22 I hate them completely!
Your enemies are also my enemies.
- 23 God, examine me and know my mind.
Test me and know all my worries.
- 24 Make sure that I am not going the wrong way.[‡]
Lead me on the path that has always been right.[§]

To the director: A praise song of David.

- 1 LORD, save me from people who are evil.
Protect me from those who are cruel,
2 from those who plan to do evil and always cause trouble.
- 3 Their words are as harmful as the fangs of a snake,
as deadly as its venom.

Selah

- 4 LORD, save me from the wicked!
Protect me from these cruel people who plan to hurt me.
- 5 These proud people are trying to trap me.
They spread nets to catch me;
they set traps in my path.

Selah

- 6 LORD, you are my God.
LORD, listen to my prayer.
- 7 My Lord GOD, you are the powerful one who saves me.
You protect my head in battle.
- 8 LORD, don't let the wicked have what they want.
Don't let their plans succeed.

Selah

- 9 My enemies are planning trouble for me.
Lord, make that trouble fall on them.
- 10 Pour burning coals on their heads.

[‡] 139:16 You ... day Or "You watched me every day." [§] 139:17 beyond my understanding Or "precious to me."

* 139:18 I ... begun Or "I would still be with you." [†] 139:20 Your enemies ... falsely The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. [‡] 139:24 Make sure ... way Or "See that I don't worship idols." [§] 139:24 Lead me ... right Or "Guide me on the ancient path."

- Throw them into the fire.
 Throw them into pits they can never escape.
- ¹¹ Don't let those cruel liars enjoy success here.
 Let disaster hunt them down.
- ¹² I know the LORD will provide justice for the poor and will defend the helpless.
- ¹³ Those who do what is right will praise your name;
 those who are honest will live in your presence.

141

A praise song of David.

- ¹ LORD, I call to you for help.
 Listen to me as I pray.
 Please hurry and help me!
- ² Accept my prayer like a gift of burning incense,
 the words I lift up like an evening sacrifice.
- ³ LORD, help me control what I say.
 Don't let me say anything bad.
- ⁴ Take away any desire to do evil.
 Keep me from joining the wicked in doing wrong.
 Help me stay away from their feasts.
- ⁵ If good people correct me,
 I will consider it a good thing.
 If they criticize me,
 I will accept it like a warm welcome.*
- But my prayer will always be against the wicked and the evil they do.
- ⁶ Let their judges be put to death.†
 Then everyone will know that I told the truth.
- ⁷ Like rocks in a field that a farmer has plowed, so our bones will be scattered in the grave.
- ⁸ My Lord GOD, I look to you for help.
 I look to you for protection; don't let me die.
- ⁹ Those evil people are trying to trap me.
 Don't let me fall into their traps.
- ¹⁰ Let the wicked fall into their own traps,
 while I walk away unharmed.

142

A maskil of David written when he was in the cave. A prayer.

- ¹ I cry out to the LORD.
 I beg the LORD to help me.
- ² I tell him my problems;
 I tell him about my troubles.
- ³ I am ready to give up.
 But you, Lord, know the path I am on,
 and you know that my enemies have set a trap for me.

* 141:5 a warm welcome Or "like oil poured over my head." † 141:6 Let their judges ... to death Or "Let their judges be thrown from the cliffs."

⁴ I look around,
 and I don't see anyone I know.
 I have no place to run.
 There is no one to save me.
⁵ LORD, I cry out to you for help:
 "You are my place of safety.
 You are all I need in life."
⁶ Listen to my prayer.
 I am so weak.
 Save me from those who are chasing me.
 They are stronger than I am.
⁷ Help me escape this trap,*
 so that I can praise your name.
 Then good people will celebrate with me,
 because you took care of me.

143

A praise song of David.

¹ LORD, hear my prayer.
 Listen to my call for help and answer my prayer.
 Show me how good and loyal you are.
² Don't judge me, your servant.
 No one alive could be judged innocent by your standards.
³ My enemies are chasing me.
 They have crushed me into the dirt.
 They are pushing me into the dark grave,
 like people who died long ago.
⁴ I am ready to give up.
 I am losing my courage.
⁵ But I remember what happened long ago.
 I am thinking about all you have done.
 I am talking about what you made with your hands!
⁶ I lift my hands in prayer to you.
 I am waiting for your help, like a dry land waiting for rain.

⁷ Hurry and answer me, LORD!
 I have lost my courage.
 Don't turn away from me.
 Don't let me die and become like the people lying in the grave.
⁸ Show me your faithful love this morning.
 I trust in you.
 Show me what I should do.
 I put my life in your hands!
⁹ LORD, I come to you for protection.
 Save me from my enemies.

A song of David.

¹ Praise the LORD!
He is my Rock.
 He prepares me for war.
He trains me for battle.
² He loves me and protects me.
He is my safe place high on the mountain.
 He rescues me.
He is my shield.
 I trust in him.
He helps me rule my people.

³ LORD, why are people important to you?
Why do you even notice us?
⁴ Our life is like a puff of air.
It is like a passing shadow.

⁵ LORD, tear open the skies and come down.
Touch the mountains, and smoke will rise from them.
⁶ Send the lightning and make my enemies run away.
Shoot your “arrows” and make them run away.
⁷ Reach down from heaven and save me!
Don’t let me drown in this sea of enemies.
Save me from these foreigners.
⁸ They are all liars,
even when they swear to tell the truth.

⁹ God, I will sing a new song* for you.
I will play a ten-stringed harp and sing praise to you.
¹⁰ You are the one who gives victory to kings.
You saved your servant David from the sword of his enemy.
¹¹ Save me from these foreigners.
They are all liars,
even when they swear to tell the truth.

¹² May our sons be as strong as trees and our daughters as beautiful as the carved columns of a palace.
¹³ May our barns be filled with crops of all kinds.
 May our sheep produce so many lambs,
that thousands of sheep will fill our fields.

 May no enemy break through our walls

My soul, praise the LORD!

² I will praise the LORD all my life.

Proverbs

Introduction

¹ These are the proverbs of Solomon, the son of David and king of Israel. ² They will help you learn to be wise, to accept correction, and to understand wise sayings. ³ They will teach you to develop your mind in the right way. You will learn to do what is right and to be honest and fair. ⁴ These proverbs will make even those without education smart. They will teach young people what they need to know and how to use what they have learned. ⁵ Even the wise could become wiser by listening to these proverbs. They will gain understanding and learn to solve difficult problems. ⁶ These sayings will help you understand proverbs, stories with hidden meanings, words of the wise, and other difficult sayings.

⁷ Knowledge begins with fear and respect for the LORD, but stubborn fools hate wisdom and refuse to learn.

Advice to a Son

⁸ My son,* listen to your father when he corrects you, and don't ignore what your mother teaches you. ⁹ What you learn from your parents will bring you honor and respect, like a crown or a gold medal.†

¹⁰ My son, those who love to do wrong will try to trick you. Don't listen to them. ¹¹ They will say, "Come with us. Let's hide and beat to death anyone who happens to walk by. ¹² We will swallow them whole, as the grave swallows the dying. ¹³ We will take everything they have and fill our houses with stolen goods. ¹⁴ So join us, and you can share everything we get."

¹⁵ My son, don't follow them. Don't even take the first step along that path. ¹⁶ They run to do something evil, and they cannot wait to kill someone.

¹⁷ You cannot trap birds with a net if they see you spreading it out. ¹⁸ But evil people cannot see the trap they set for themselves. ¹⁹ This is what happens to those who are greedy. Whatever they get destroys them.

The Good Woman—Wisdom

²⁰ Listen! Wisdom‡ is shouting in the streets. She is crying out in the marketplace. ²¹ She is calling out where the noisy crowd gathers:

²² "Fools, how long will you love being ignorant? How long will you make fun of wisdom? How long will you hate knowledge? ²³ I wanted to tell you everything I knew and give you all my knowledge, but you didn't listen to my advice and teaching.

²⁴ "I tried to help, but you refused to listen. I offered my hand, but you turned away from me. ²⁵ You ignored my advice and refused to be corrected. ²⁶ So I will laugh at your troubles and make fun of you when what you fear happens. ²⁷ Disasters will strike you like a storm. Problems will pound you like a strong wind. Trouble and misery will weigh you down.

²⁸ "Fools will call for me, but I will not answer. They will look for me, but they will not find me. ²⁹ That is because they hated knowledge. They refused to fear and respect the LORD. ³⁰ They ignored my advice and refused to be corrected. ³¹ They filled their lives with what they wanted. They went their own way, so they will get what they deserve.

* 1:8 My son The proverbs in this section may have been directed originally to a teenage boy, perhaps a prince, who was becoming a young man. They are intended to teach him how to be a responsible person and leader who loves and respects God. † 1:9 Literally, "They are like a wreath of favor to your head and a necklace around your neck."

‡ 1:20 Wisdom Wisdom is pictured here as a good woman trying to get the attention of this young man, calling him to be wise and obey God. In a later passage (9:13-18), Foolishness is represented as another woman who is urging him toward a life of sin.

³² “Fools die because they refuse to follow wisdom. They are content to follow their foolish ways, and that will destroy them. ³³ But those who listen to me will live in safety and comfort. They will have nothing to fear.”

Listen to Wisdom

¹ My son, pay attention to what I say. Remember my commands. ² Listen to wisdom, and do your best to understand. ³ Ask for good judgment. Cry out for understanding. ⁴ Look for wisdom like silver. Search for it like hidden treasure. ⁵ If you do this, you will understand what it means to respect the LORD, and you will come to know God.

⁶ The LORD is the source of wisdom; knowledge and understanding come from his mouth. ⁷ He gives good advice to honest people and shields those who do what is right. ⁸ He makes sure that people are treated fairly. He watches over his loyal followers.

⁹ If you listen to him, you will understand what is just and fair and how to do what is right. ¹⁰ You will gain wisdom, and knowledge will bring you joy.

¹¹ Planning ahead will protect you, and understanding will guard you. ¹² These will keep you from following the wrong path and will protect you from those who have evil plans. ¹³ Such people have left the straight path and now walk in darkness. ¹⁴ They enjoy doing evil and are happy with the confusion it brings. ¹⁵ Their ways are crooked; they lie and cheat.

¹⁶ Wisdom will save you from that other woman, another man’s wife, who tempts you with sweet words. ¹⁷ She married when she was young, but then she left her husband. She forgot the marriage vows she made before God. ¹⁸ Going into her house leads to death. She will lead you to the grave. ¹⁹ All who enter lose their life and never return.

²⁰ Wisdom will help you follow the example of good people and stay on the right path. ²¹ Honest people will live in the land, and those who do right will remain there. ²² But the wicked will be forced to leave. Those who lie and cheat will be thrown out of the land.

The Blessing of Wisdom

¹ My son, don’t forget my teaching. Remember what I tell you to do. ² What I teach will give you a good, long life, and all will go well for you.

³ Don’t ever let love and loyalty leave you. Tie them around your neck, and write them on your heart. ⁴ Then God will be pleased and think well of you and so will everyone else.

⁵ Trust the LORD completely, and don’t depend on your own knowledge. ⁶ With every step you take, think about what he wants, and he will help you go the right way. ⁷ Don’t trust in your own wisdom, but fear and respect the LORD and stay away from evil. ⁸ If you do this, it will be like a refreshing drink and medicine for your body.

⁹ Honor the LORD with your wealth and the first part of your harvest. ¹⁰ Then your barns will be full of grain, and your barrels will be overflowing with wine.

¹¹ My son, don’t reject the LORD’S discipline, and don’t be angry when he corrects you. ¹² The LORD corrects the one he loves, just as a father corrects a child he cares about.

¹³ Those who find wisdom are fortunate; they will be blessed when they gain understanding. ¹⁴ Profit that comes from wisdom is better than silver and even the finest gold. ¹⁵ Wisdom is worth more than fine jewels. Nothing you desire has more value.

²¹ My son, don't ever let wisdom out of your sight. Hold on to wisdom and careful planning. ²² They will bring you a long life filled with honor. ²³ As you go through life, you will always be safe and never fall. ²⁴ When you lie down, you will not be afraid. When you rest, your sleep will be peaceful. ²⁵ You have no reason to fear a sudden disaster or the destruction that comes to the wicked. ²⁶ You can trust the LORD to protect you. He will not let you fall into harm.

²⁷ Do everything you possibly can for those who need help. ²⁸ If your neighbor needs something you have, don't say, "Come back tomorrow." Give it to him immediately.

²⁹ Don't make plans to harm your neighbor, who lives near you and trusts you.*

³⁰ Don't take people to court without good reason, especially when they have done nothing to harm you.

³¹ Don't envy those who are violent. Never choose to be like them. ³² Such crooked people are disgusting to the LORD. But he is a friend to those who are good and honest.

³³ The LORD curses a wicked family, but he blesses the homes of those who live right.

³⁴ He will humiliate those who make fun of others, but he is kind to those who are humble.

³⁵ The way the wise live will bring them honor, but the way fools live will bring them shame.

4

A Father's Advice About Wisdom

¹ Children, listen to your father's teaching. Pay attention and you will learn how to learn. ² The advice I give is good, so don't ever forget what I teach you.

³ When I was my father's little boy and my mother's dear son,* ⁴ my father taught me this: "Pay attention to what I say. Obey my commands and you will have a good life. ⁵ Try to get wisdom and understanding. Don't forget my teaching or ignore what I say. ⁶ Don't turn away from wisdom, and she will protect you. Love her, and she will keep you safe.

⁷ "The first step to becoming wise is to look for wisdom, so use everything you have to get understanding. ⁸ Love wisdom, and she will make you great. Hold on to wisdom, and she will bring you honor. ⁹ Wisdom will reward you with a crown of honor and glory."

¹⁰ Son, listen to me. Do what I say, and you will live a long time. ¹¹ I am teaching you about wisdom and guiding you on the right path. ¹² As you walk on it, you will not step into a trap. Even if you run, you will not trip and fall. ¹³ Always remember this teaching. Don't forget it. It is the key to life, so guard it well.

¹⁸ The path of those who live right is like the early morning light. It gets brighter and brighter until the full light of day. ¹⁹ But the path of the wicked is like a dark night. They trip and fall over what they cannot see.

²⁴ Don't bend the truth or say things that you know are not right. ²⁵ Keep your eyes on the path, and look straight ahead. ²⁶ Make sure you are going the right way, and nothing will make you fall. ²⁷ Don't go to the right or to the left, and you will stay away from evil.

* 3:29 neighbor ... trusts you Or "neighbor. After all, you live near one another for protection." * 4:3 dear son Or "only son."

The Wisdom of Avoiding Adultery

¹ Son, listen to this piece of wisdom from me. Pay attention to what I know to be true. ² Remember to live wisely, and what you learn will keep your lips from saying the wrong thing. ³ Now, another man's wife might be very charming, and the words from her lips so sweet and inviting. ⁴ But in the end, she will bring only bitterness and pain. It will be like bitter poison and a sharp sword. ⁵ She is on a path leading to death, and she will lead you straight to the grave. ⁶ Don't follow her. She has lost her way and does not even know it. Be careful. Stay on the road that leads to life.

⁷ Now, my sons, listen to me. Don't forget the words I say. ⁸ Stay away from the woman who commits adultery. Don't even go near her house. ⁹ If you do, others will get the honor you should have had. Some stranger will get everything you worked years to get. ¹⁰ People you don't know will take all your wealth. Others will get what you worked for. ¹¹ At the end of your life, you will be sad that you ruined your health and lost everything you had. ¹²⁻¹³ Then you will say, "Why didn't I listen to my parents? Why didn't I pay attention to my teachers? I didn't want to be disciplined. I refused to be corrected. ¹⁴ So now I have suffered through just about every kind of trouble anyone can have, and everyone knows it."

²¹ The LORD clearly sees everything you do. He watches where you go. ²² The sins of the wicked will trap them. Those sins will be like ropes holding them back. ²³ Evil people will die because they refuse to be disciplined. They will be trapped by their own desires.

Dangers of Debt

¹ My son, don't make yourself responsible for the debts of others. Don't make such deals with friends or strangers. ² If you do, your words will trap you. ³ You will be under the power of other people, so you must go and free yourself. Beg them to free you from that debt. ⁴ Don't wait to rest or sleep. ⁵ Escape from that trap like a deer running from a hunter. Free yourself like a bird flying from a trap.

The Dangers of Being Lazy

⁶ You lazy people, you should watch what the ants do and learn from them. ⁷ Ants have no ruler, no boss, and no leader. ⁸ But in the summer, ants gather all of their food and save it. So when winter comes, there is plenty to eat.

⁹ You lazy people, how long are you going to lie there? When will you get up? ¹⁰ You say, "I need a rest. I think I'll take a short nap." ¹¹ But then you sleep and sleep and become poorer and poorer. Soon you will have nothing. It will be as if a thief came and stole everything you owned.

Troublemakers

¹² Some people are just troublemakers. They are always thinking up some crooked plan and telling lies. ¹³ They use secret signals to cheat people; they wink their eyes, shuffle their feet, and point a finger. ¹⁴ They are always planning to do something bad. ¹⁵ But they will be punished. Disaster will strike, and they will be destroyed. There will be no one to help them.

What the Lord Hates

¹⁶ The LORD hates these seven things:

¹⁷ eyes that show pride,
 tongues that tell lies,
 hands that kill innocent people,
¹⁸ hearts that plan evil things to do,
 feet that run to do evil,
¹⁹ witnesses in court who tell lies,
 and anyone who causes family members to fight.

Warning Against Adultery

²⁰ My son, remember your father's command, and don't forget your mother's teaching. ²¹ Remember their words always. Tie them around your neck and keep them over your heart. ²² Let this teaching lead you wherever you go. It will watch over you while you sleep. And when you wake up, it will give you good advice.

³⁰⁻³¹ A hungry man might steal to fill his stomach. If he is caught, he must pay seven times more than he stole. It might cost him everything he owns, but other people understand. They don't lose all their respect for him. ³² But a man who commits adultery is a fool. He brings about his own destruction. ³³ He will suffer disease and disgrace and never be free from the shame. ³⁴ The woman's husband will be jealous and angry and do everything he can to get revenge. ³⁵ No payment—no amount of money—will stop him.

Wisdom Will Keep You From Adultery

¹ My son, remember my words. Don't forget what I have told you. ² Consider my teaching as precious as your own eyes. Obey my commands, and you will have a good life. ³ Tie them around your finger. Write them on your heart. ⁴ Treat wisdom like the woman you love and knowledge like the one dearest to you. ⁵ Wisdom will save you from that other woman, the other man's wife, who tempts you with such sweet words.

⁶ One day I was looking out my window ⁷ at some foolish teenagers and noticed one who had no sense at all. ⁸ He was walking through the marketplace and came to the corner where a certain woman lived. He then turned up the road that goes by her house. ⁹ The day was ending. The sun had set, and it was almost dark. ¹⁰ Suddenly, there she was in front of him, dressed like a prostitute. She had plans for him. ¹¹ She was a wild and rebellious woman who would not stay at home. ¹² She walked the streets, always looking for someone to trap. ¹³ She grabbed the young man and kissed him. Without shame, she looked him in the eye and said, ¹⁴ "I offered a fellowship offering today. I gave what I promised to give, ¹⁵ and I still have plenty of food left. So I came out to find you, and here you are! ¹⁶ I have clean sheets on my bed—special ones from Egypt. ¹⁷ My bed smells wonderful with myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon. ¹⁸ Come, let's enjoy ourselves all night. We can make love until dawn. ¹⁹ My husband has gone on a business trip. ²⁰ He took enough money for a long trip and won't be home for two weeks.*"

²¹ This is what the woman said to tempt the young man, and her smooth words tricked him. ²² He followed her, like a bull being led to the slaughter. He was like a deer walking into a trap, ²³ where a hunter waits to shoot an arrow through its heart. The boy was like a bird flying into a net, never seeing the danger he was in.

²⁴ Now, sons, listen to me. Pay attention to what I say. ²⁵ Don't let your heart lead you to an evil woman like that. Don't go where she wants to lead you. ²⁶ She has brought down some of the most powerful men; she has left many dead bodies in her path. ²⁷ Her house is the place of death. The road to it leads straight to the grave.

Wisdom—the Good Woman

- ¹ Listen, Wisdom is calling.
Yes, Understanding is shouting for us.
- ² Wisdom stands at the top of the hill,
by the road where the paths meet.
- ³ She is near the entrance to the city, calling from the open gates.
- ⁴ “I am calling out to all of you.
I am speaking to everyone.
- ⁵ You who are ignorant, learn to be wise.
You who are foolish, get some common sense.
- ⁶ Listen, I have something important to say,
and I am telling you what is right.
- ⁷ My words are true,
and I will not say anything that is wrong.
- ⁸ Everything I say is right;
there is nothing false or crooked about it.
- ⁹ These things are clear to any intelligent person.
They are right to anyone with knowledge.
- ¹⁰ Choose discipline over silver and knowledge over the finest gold.
- ¹¹ Wisdom is better than pearls,
and nothing you desire compares with her.

The Value of Wisdom

- ¹² “I am Wisdom.
I live with Good Judgment.
I am at home with Knowledge and Planning.
- ¹³ To respect the LORD means to hate evil.
I hate pride and boasting,
evil lives and hurtful words.
- ¹⁴ I have good advice and common sense to offer.
I have understanding and power.
- ¹⁵ With my help kings rule, and governors make good laws.
- ¹⁶ With my help leaders govern, and important officials make good decisions.*
- ¹⁷ I love those who love me,
and those who look for me will find me.
- ¹⁸ With me there are riches and honor.
I have lasting wealth to give to you.
- ¹⁹ What I give is better than fine gold.

* 8:16 and important ... decisions The Greek Version and some Hebrew copies have “as well as important officials, all the judges on earth.”

What I produce is better than pure silver.

²⁰ I lead people the right way—along the paths of justice.

²¹ I give riches to those who love me,
and I fill their houses with treasures.

²² “The LORD made me in the beginning, long before he did anything else.

²³ I was formed a long time ago,
before the world was made.

²⁴ I was born before there was an ocean,
before the springs began to flow.

²⁵ I was born before the mountains and hills were set into place,

²⁶ before the earth and fields were made,
before the dust of this world was formed.

²⁷ I was there when he set up the skies, when he drew a circle in the ocean to make a place for the land.

²⁸ I was there when he put the clouds in the sky and made the deep springs flow.

²⁹ I was there when he set the limits on the sea to make it stop where he said.

I was there when he laid the foundations of the earth.

³⁰ I grew up as a child by his side,[†] laughing and playing all the time.

³¹ I played in the world he made and enjoyed the people he put there.

³² “Now, children, listen to me.
If you follow my ways,
you will be happy too.

³³ Listen to my teaching and be wise;
don’t ignore what I say.

³⁴ Whoever waits at my door and listens for me will be blessed.

³⁵ Those who find me find life, and the LORD will reward them.

³⁶ But those who do not find me put their lives in danger.
Whoever hates me loves death.”

Wisdom’s Invitation

[†] 8:30 I grew ... his side Or “I was beside him like a skilled worker.” * 9:1 seven columns In ancient Israel, a good house was one that had four main rooms with seven columns to support the roof. [†] 9:3 Or “She has sent out her servant girls and invited people to come to the highest hill in the city to eat with her.”

⁷ Criticize a person who is rude and shows no respect, and you will only get insults. Correct the wicked, and you will only get hurt. ⁸ Don't correct such people, or they will hate you. But correct those who are wise, and they will love you. ⁹ Teach the wise, and they will become wiser. Instruct those who live right, and they will gain more knowledge.

¹⁰ Wisdom begins with fear and respect for the LORD. Knowledge of the Holy One leads to understanding. ¹¹ Wisdom will help you live longer; she will add years to your life. ¹² If you become wise, it will be for your own good. If you are rude and show no respect, you are the one who will suffer.

Foolishness—the Other Woman

¹³ Foolishness is that other woman, who is loud, stupid, and knows nothing. ¹⁴ She sits on her chair at the door of her house, up on the highest hill of the city. ¹⁵ When people walk by, she calls out to them. They show no interest in her, but still she says, ¹⁶ “Whoever needs instruction, come.” She invites all the simple people and says, ¹⁷ “Stolen water is sweet. Stolen bread tastes good.” ¹⁸ Those simple people don't realize that her house is full of ghosts and that her guests have entered the world of the dead.

Solomon's Proverbs

A wise son makes his father happy; a foolish one makes his mother sad.

² Wealth gained by doing wrong will not really help you, but doing right will save you from death.

³ The LORD takes care of good people and gives them the food they need, but he keeps the wicked from getting what they want.

⁴ Lazy hands will make you poor; hard-working hands will make you rich.

⁵ A son who works hard while it is harvest time will be successful, but one who sleeps through the harvest is worthless.

⁶ People say good things about those who live right, but the words of the wicked only hide their violent plans.

⁷ Good people leave memories that bless us, but the wicked are soon forgotten.

⁸ The wise accept instruction, but fools argue and bring trouble on themselves.

⁹ Honest people can always feel secure, but lying cheaters will be caught.

¹⁰ If you fail to speak the truth, trouble will follow. If you speak openly, peace will come.*

¹¹ The words of good people are like a spring of fresh water,† but the words of the wicked only hide their violent plans.

¹² Hatred causes arguments, but love overlooks all wrongs.

¹³ Intelligent people speak words of wisdom, but fools must be punished before they learn their lesson.‡

¹⁴ Wise people are quiet and learn new things, but fools talk and bring trouble on themselves.

¹⁵ Wealth protects the rich, but poverty destroys the poor.

¹⁶ What good people do brings life, but wicked people produce only sin.

¹⁷ Those who accept correction show others how to live. Those who reject correction lead others the wrong way.

¹⁸ People sometimes lie to hide their hatred, but saying bad things about someone is even more foolish.

¹⁹ A person who talks too much gets into trouble. A wise person learns to be quiet.

* 10:10 If you ... come This is from the ancient Greek version. The Hebrew text repeats the second half of verse 8.

† 10:11 spring of fresh water Or “the source of life.” ‡ 10:13 Literally, “Wisdom can be found on the lips of the intelligent, but a rod on the back of fools.” This is a wordplay. In Hebrew, “lip” sounds like “rod.”

²⁰ Words from good people are like pure silver, but thoughts from the wicked are worthless.

²¹ Good people say things that help others, but the wicked die from a lack of understanding.

²² It is the LORD'S blessing that brings wealth, and no hard work can add to it.[§]

²³ Fools enjoy doing wrong, but the wise enjoy wisdom.

²⁴ The wicked will be defeated by what they fear, but good people will get what they want.

²⁵ The wicked are destroyed when trouble comes, but good people stand strong forever.

²⁶ Sending a lazy person to do anything is as irritating as vinegar on your teeth or smoke in your eyes.

²⁷ Respect for the LORD will add years to your life, but the wicked will have their lives cut short.

²⁸ What good people hope for brings happiness,* but what the wicked hope for brings destruction.

²⁹ The LORD protects those who do right, but he destroys those who do wrong.

³⁰ Good people will always be safe, but the wicked will be forced out of the land.

³¹ Those who live right say wise things, but people stop listening to troublemakers.†

³² Good people know the right things to say, but the wicked say things to make trouble.

¹ The LORD hates false scales, but he loves accurate weights.

² Proud and boastful people will be shamed, but wisdom stays with those who are modest and humble.

³ Good people are guided by their honesty, but crooks who lie and cheat will ruin themselves.

⁴ Money is worthless when you face God's punishment, but living right will save you from death.

⁵ Doing right makes life better for those who are good, but the wicked are destroyed by their own wicked ways.

⁶ Doing right sets honest people free, but people who can't be trusted are trapped by their greed.

⁷ When the wicked die, all their hopes are lost; everything they thought they could do comes to nothing.

⁸ Good people escape from trouble, but the wicked come along and are trapped by it.

⁹ With their words hypocrites can destroy their neighbors. But with what they know, good people can escape.

¹⁰ When good people are successful, the whole city is happy, and they all shout with joy when evil people are destroyed.

¹¹ Blessings from the honest people living in a city will make it great, but the things evil people say can destroy it.

¹² Stupid people say bad things about their neighbors.* Wise people know to be quiet.

¹³ People who tell secrets about others cannot be trusted. Those who can be trusted keep quiet.

¹⁴ A nation without wise leaders will fall. Many good advisors make a nation safe.

¹⁵ You will be sorry if you promise to pay a stranger's debt. Refuse to make such promises and you will be safe.

¹⁶ A kind and gentle woman gains respect, but violent men gain only wealth.

§ 10:22 Or "A blessing from the LORD will bring you true wealth—wealth without troubles." * 10:28 good people ... happiness Or "Good people can look forward to happiness." † 10:31 Or "The mouth of a good man speaks wisdom, but the tongue of a troublemaker will be cut off." * 11:12 Stupid people ... neighbors Or "The neighbors hate a stupid person."

17 People who are kind will be rewarded for their kindness, but cruel people will be rewarded with trouble.

18 The work of evil people is all lies, but those who do right will receive a good reward.†

19 People who do what is right are on their way to life, but those who always want to do wrong are on their way to death.

20 The LORD hates those who love to do evil, but he is pleased with those who try to do right.

21 The truth is, evil people will be punished, and good people will be set free.

22 A beautiful woman without good sense is like a gold ring in a pig's nose.

23 What good people want brings more good. What evil people want brings more trouble.

24 Some people give freely and gain more; others refuse to give and end up with less.

25 Give freely, and you will profit. Help others, and you will gain more for yourself.

26 People curse a greedy man who refuses to sell his grain, but they bless a man who sells his grain to feed others.

27 People are pleased with those who try to do good. Those who look for trouble will find it.

28 Those who trust in their riches will fall like dead leaves, but good people will blossom.

29 Those who cause trouble for their families will inherit nothing but the wind. A foolish person will end up as a servant to one who is wise.

30 What good people produce is like a life-giving tree. Those who are wise give new life to others.‡

31 If good people are rewarded here on earth, then surely those who do evil will also get what they deserve.

12

1 Whoever loves discipline loves to learn; whoever hates to be corrected is stupid.

2 It is good to learn what pleases the LORD, because he condemns those who plan to do wrong.

3 Evil people are never safe, but good people remain safe and secure.

4 A good wife is like a crown to her husband, but a shameful wife is like a cancer.

5 Good people are honest and fair in all they do, but those who are evil lie and cannot be trusted.

6 Evil people use their words to hurt others, but the words from good people can save others from danger.

7 When evil people are destroyed, they are gone and forgotten, but good people are remembered long after they are gone.

8 You praise people for their intelligence, but no one respects those who are stupid.

9 It is better to appear unimportant and have a servant than to pretend to be important and have no food.

10 Good people take good care of their animals, but the wicked know only how to be cruel.*

11 Farmers who work their land have plenty of food, but those who waste their time on worthless projects are foolish.

12 The wicked want a share of what an evil man might catch. But like a plant with deep roots, a good man is the one who produces the most.†

13 The wicked are trapped by their foolish words, but good people escape from such trouble.

† 11:18 This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The word "lies" sounds like the word "reward." ‡ 11:30 Or, according to one ancient version, "The fruit of a good man is a tree of life, but a violent man takes lives." * 12:10 but the wicked ... cruel Or "but even the 'kindness' of the wicked is still cruelty." † 12:12 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

¹⁴ People get good things for the words they say, and they are rewarded for the work they do.

¹⁵ Fools always think their own way is best, but wise people listen to what others tell them.

¹⁶ Fools are easily upset, but wise people avoid insulting others.

²¹ The Lord will keep good people safe, but evil people will have many troubles.

²² The LORD hates people who tell lies, but he is pleased with those who tell the truth.

²³ Smart people don't tell everything they know, but fools tell everything and show they are fools.

²⁴ Those who work hard will be put in charge of others, but lazy people will have to work like slaves.

²⁵ Worry takes away your joy, but a kind word makes you happy.

²⁶ Good people are careful about choosing their friends, but evil people always choose the wrong ones.

²⁷ Lazy people don't get what they want, but riches come to those who work hard.

²⁸ Along the path of goodness there is life; that is the way to live forever.‡

¹⁵ People like a person with good sense, but life is hard for someone who cannot be trusted.

¹⁶ Wise people always think before they do anything, but fools show how stupid they are by what they do.

‡ 12:28 that is ... forever Or "but there is a path that leads to death." * 13:9 Or "The light of those who do right is happy; the lamp of the wicked goes out."

¹⁷ Disaster will catch up to the wicked messenger, but a runner who can be trusted will bring peace.

¹⁸ If you refuse to learn from your mistakes, you will be poor, and no one will respect you. If you listen when you are criticized, you will be honored.

¹⁹ People are happy when they get what they want. But stupid people want nothing but evil, and they refuse to change.

²⁰ Be friends with those who are wise, and you will become wise. Choose fools to be your friends, and you will have trouble.

²¹ Trouble chases sinners wherever they go, but good things happen to good people.

²² It is good to have something to pass down to your grandchildren. But wealth hidden away by sinners will be given to those who live right.

²³ The poor might have good land that produces plenty of food, but bad decisions can take it away.[†]

¹¹ My son, be wise. This will make me happy. Then I will be able to answer those who criticize me.

¹² Wise people see trouble coming and get out of its way, but fools go straight to the trouble and suffer for it.

¹³ When you make a deal with a stranger, get something from him and any other foreigners with him to make sure he will pay you.

¹⁴ Don't wake up your neighbors early in the morning with a shout of "Good morning!" They will treat it like a curse, not a blessing.

¹⁵ A complaining wife is like water that never stops dripping on a rainy day. ¹⁶ Stopping her is like trying to stop the wind or trying to hold oil in your hand.

¹⁷ As one piece of iron sharpens another, so friends keep each other sharp.

¹⁸ People who take care of fig trees are allowed to eat the fruit. In the same way, people who take care of their masters will be rewarded.

¹⁹ Just as you can see your own face reflected in water, so your heart reflects the kind of person you are.

²⁰ Just as the place of death and destruction is never full, people always want more and more.

²¹ People use fire to purify gold and silver. In the same way, you are tested by the praise people give you.

²² Even if you pound fools to powder like grain in a bowl, you will never force the foolishness out of them.

²³ Learn all you can about your sheep. Take care of your goats the best you can. ²⁴ Neither wealth nor nations last forever. ²⁵ Cut the hay, and new grass will grow. Then gather the new plants that grow on the hills. ²⁶ Cut the wool from your lambs, and make your clothes. Sell some of your goats, and buy some land. ²⁷ Then there will be plenty of goat's milk for you and your family, with enough to keep the servants healthy.

¹ The wicked are afraid of everything, but those who live right are as brave as lions.

² A lawless nation will have many bad leaders. But a smart leader will rule for a long time in a land where people obey the law.

³ A leader who takes advantage of the poor is like a hard rain that destroys the crops.*

⁴ Those who refuse to obey the law promote evil. Those who obey the law oppose evil.

⁵ The wicked don't understand justice, but those who love the LORD understand it completely.

⁶ It is better to be poor and honest than rich and evil.

⁷ A smart son obeys the laws, but a son who spends time with worthless people brings shame to his father.

⁸ If you get rich by charging high interest rates, your wealth will go to someone who is kind to the poor.

⁹ When people do not listen to God's teachings, he does not listen to their prayers.

¹⁰ Those who plan to hurt good people will fall into their own traps, but good things will happen to those who are good.

¹¹ The rich always think they are wise, but a poor person who is wise can see the truth.

¹² When good people become leaders, everything is great, but when the wicked rise to power, everyone hides.

¹³ Whoever hides their sins will not be successful, but whoever confesses their sins and stops doing wrong will receive mercy.

¹⁴ People who respect others will be blessed, but stubborn people will have plenty of troubles.

¹⁵ An evil ruler over those who are helpless is like an angry lion or a charging bear.

¹⁶ A foolish ruler hurts the people under him, but a ruler who hates wrong will rule for a long time.

¹⁷ A murderer will never have peace. Don't support such a person.

¹⁸ Honest people will be safe, but dishonest people will be ruined.

¹⁹ Whoever works hard will have plenty to eat, but whoever wastes their time with dreams will always be poor.

²⁰ People who can be trusted will have many blessings, but those who are just trying to get rich in a hurry will be punished.

²¹ It is wrong for a judge to support someone simply because he knows them. But some judges will change their decisions for the price of a loaf of bread.

²² Selfish people only want to get rich. They do not realize that they are very close to being poor.

²³ Correct someone, and later they will thank you. That is much better than just saying something to be nice.

²⁴ Someone might steal from their parents and say, "I did nothing wrong." But that person is as bad as an enemy who smashes everything in the house.

²⁵ Greedy people might sue you in court, but those who trust the LORD are rewarded.

²⁶ It is foolish to be too confident. Those who ask for advice are wise and will escape disaster.

²⁷ Whoever gives to the poor will have plenty. Whoever refuses to help them will get nothing but curses.

²⁸ When the wicked rise to power, everyone hides. When they are defeated, good people multiply.

* 28:3 Or "A poor person who takes advantage of beggars is like a hard rain and no food."

29

¹ Some people refuse to bend when someone corrects them. Eventually they will break, and there will be no one to repair the damage.

² When the rulers are good, the people are happy. When the rulers are evil, the people complain.

³ A son who loves wisdom makes his father happy. One who wastes his money on prostitutes will lose his wealth.

⁴ A nation will be strong when it has a fair and just king. A nation will be weak when it has a king who is selfish and demands gifts.

⁵ If you give false praise to others in order to get what you want, you are only setting a trap for yourself.

⁶ Evil people are defeated by their sin, but good people will sing and be happy.

⁷ Good people want to do what is right for the poor, but the wicked don't care.

⁸ Proud people who laugh at what is right cause problems that divide whole cities, but people who are wise are able to calm those who are angry.

⁹ If someone who is wise tries to settle a problem with a fool, the fool will argue and say stupid things, and they will never agree.

¹⁰ If you always try to be honest, murderers will hate you, but those who do what is right will want you to be their friend.

¹¹ Fools are quick to express their anger, but wise people are patient and control themselves.

¹² If a ruler listens to lies, all his officials will be evil.

¹³ In one way the poor and those who steal from them are the same—the LORD made them both.

¹⁴ If a king judges the poor fairly, he will rule for a long time.

¹⁵ Punishment and discipline can make children wise, but children who are never corrected will bring shame to their mother.

¹⁶ If the wicked are ruling the nation, sin will be everywhere, but those who live right will win in the end.

¹⁷ Correct your children whenever they are wrong. Then you will always be proud of them. They will never make you ashamed.

¹⁸ If a nation is not guided by God, the people will lose self-control, but the nation that obeys God's law will be happy.

¹⁹ Servants will not learn a lesson if you only talk to them. They might understand you, but they will not obey.

²⁰ There is more hope for a fool than for someone who speaks without thinking.

²¹ Give your servants everything they want, and they will learn to be wasteful.

²² An angry person causes arguments, and someone who is quick-tempered is guilty of many sins.

²³ Your pride can bring you down. Humility will bring you honor.

²⁴ You are your own worst enemy if you take part in a crime. You will not be able to tell the truth even when people threaten you.

²⁵ Fear can be a trap, but if you trust in the LORD, you will be safe.

²⁶ Many people want the friendship of a ruler, but the LORD is the only one who judges people fairly.

²⁷ Good people think the wicked are disgusting, and the wicked feel disgust for those who are honest.

¹ These are the wise sayings of Agur son of Jakeh from Massa. He says, “God, I am tired, so tired. How can I keep going?”*

² I am stupid. I am not as smart as other people are. ³ I have not learned to be wise. I know nothing about the Holy One.† ⁴ Who has ever gone up to heaven and come back down? Who gathered the winds in his hand? Who can gather up all the water in his lap? Who set the limits for the world? What is his name, and what is his son’s name? Do you know?

⁵ You can trust this: Every word that God speaks is true. God is a safe place for those who go to him. ⁶ So don’t try to change what God says. If you do, he will punish you and prove that you are a liar.

⁷ God, I ask you to do two things for me before I die. ⁸ Don’t let me tell lies. And don’t make me too rich or too poor—give me only enough food for each day. ⁹ If I have too much, I might deny that I need you, LORD. But if I am too poor, I might steal and bring shame to the name of my God.

¹⁰ Never say bad things about a slave to his master. If you do, he will curse you, and you will suffer for it.

¹¹ Some people curse their fathers and refuse to bless their mothers.

¹² Some people think they are pure, but they have done nothing to remove the filth of their sin.

¹³ Some people are so proud of themselves, and they look down on everyone else.

¹⁴ There are people whose teeth are like swords and their jaws like knives. They take everything they can from the poor.

¹⁵ Greedy people know only two things‡: “Give me,” and “Give me.” There are three other things that are never satisfied—really, four things that never have enough: ¹⁶ the place of death, a woman with no children, dry ground that needs rain, and a fire that will never stop by itself.

¹⁷ People who make fun of their father or refuse to obey their mother should have their eyes plucked out by wild birds and be eaten by vultures.

¹⁸ There are three things that are hard for me to understand—really, four things that I don’t understand: ¹⁹ an eagle flying in the sky, a snake moving on a rock, a ship moving across the ocean, and a man in love with a woman.

²⁰ A woman who is not faithful to her husband acts innocent. She eats, wipes her mouth, and says she has done nothing wrong.

²¹ There are three things that make trouble on the earth—really, four that the earth cannot bear: ²² a slave who becomes a king, fools who have everything they need, ²³ a woman whose husband hated her but still married her, and a servant girl who becomes ruler over the woman she serves.

²⁴ There are four things on the earth that are small but very wise:

²⁵ Ants are small and weak, but they save their food all summer;

²⁶ badgers are small animals, but they make their homes in the rocks;

²⁷ locusts have no king, but they are able to work together;

²⁸ lizards are small enough to catch with your hands, but you can find them living in kings’ palaces.

²⁹ There are three things that act important when they walk—really, there are four:

³⁰ a lion—he is the warrior of the animals and runs from nothing,

³¹ a rooster walking proudly,§

* 30:1 He says, “God, ... keep going?” Or “This is his message to Ithiel and Ucal.” † 30:3 Holy One Literally, “the holy ones.” ‡ 30:15 Literally, “A leech has two daughters.” § 30:31 a rooster walking proudly Or possibly, “a greyhound” or “a war horse.”

a goat,
and a king among his people.

³² If you have been foolish enough to become proud and make plans against other people, stop and think about what you are doing.

³³ Stirring milk causes butter to form. Hitting someone's nose causes blood to flow. And making people angry causes trouble.

31

Wise Words for a King

⁸ Speak up for people who cannot speak for themselves. Help people who are in trouble. ⁹ Stand up for what you know is right, and judge all people fairly. Protect the rights of the poor and those who need help.

The Perfect Wife

¹⁰ * How hard it is to find the perfect wife.†

She is worth far more than jewels.

¹¹ Her husband depends on her.

He will never be poor.

¹² She does good for her husband all her life.

She never causes him trouble.

¹³ She is always gathering wool and flax‡ and enjoys making things with her hands.

¹⁴ She is like a ship from a faraway place.

She brings home food from everywhere.

¹⁵ She wakes up early in the morning, cooks food for her family, and gives the servants their share.

¹⁶ She looks at land and buys it.

She uses the money she has earned and plants a vineyard.

¹⁷ She works very hard.

She is strong and able to do all her work.

¹⁸ She works late into the night to make sure her business earns a profit.

¹⁹ She makes her own thread and weaves her own cloth.

²⁰ She always gives to the poor and helps those who need it.

²¹ She does not worry about her family when it snows.

She has given them all good, warm clothes.

²² She makes sheets and spreads for the beds, and she wears clothes of fine linen.

²³ Her husband is a respected member of the city council, where he meets with the other leaders.

* 31:10 In Hebrew, each verse of this poem starts with the next letter of the alphabet, so this poem shows all the good qualities of a woman "from A to Z." † 31:10 the perfect wife Or "a noble woman." ‡ 31:13 flax A plant used to make linen cloth.

- ²⁴ She makes clothes and belts and sells them to the merchants.
- ²⁵ She is a strong person,[§] and people respect her.
She looks to the future with confidence.
- ²⁶ She speaks with wisdom and teaches others to be loving and kind.
- ²⁷ She oversees the care of her house.
She is never lazy.
- ²⁸ Her children say good things about her.
Her husband brags about her and says,
- ²⁹ “There are many good women, but you are the best.”
- ³⁰ Grace and beauty can fool you,
but a woman who respects the LORD should be praised.
- ³¹ Give her the reward she deserves.
Praise her in public for what she has done.

[§] 31:25 She is a strong person Or “She is praised.”

Ecclesiastes

¹ These are the words from the Teacher, a son of David and king of Jerusalem.

² Everything is so meaningless. The Teacher says that it is all a waste of time!^{*} ³ Do people really gain anything from all the hard work they do in this life[†]?

Things Never Change

⁴ People live and people die, but the earth continues forever. ⁵ The sun rises and the sun goes down, and then it hurries to rise again in the same place.

⁶ The wind blows to the south, and the wind blows to the north. The wind blows around and around. Then it turns and blows back to the place it began.

⁷ All rivers flow again and again to the same place. They all flow to the sea, but the sea never becomes full.

⁸ Words cannot fully explain things,[‡] but people continue speaking.[§] Words come again and again to our ears, but our ears don't become full. And our eyes don't become full of what we see.

Nothing Is New

⁹ All things continue the way they have been since the beginning. The same things will be done that have always been done. There is nothing new in this life.

¹⁰ Someone might say, "Look, this is new," but that thing has always been here. It was here before we were.

¹¹ People don't remember what happened long ago. In the future, they will not remember what is happening now. And later, other people will not remember what the people before them did.

Does Wisdom Bring Happiness?

¹² I, the Teacher, was king over Israel in Jerusalem. ¹³ I decided to study and to use my wisdom to learn about everything that is done in this life. I learned that it is a very hard thing that God has given us to do. ¹⁴ I looked at everything done on earth, and I saw that it is all a waste of time. It is like trying to catch the wind.* ¹⁵ If something is crooked, you cannot say it is straight. And if something is missing, you cannot say it is there.

¹⁶ I said to myself, "I am very wise. I am wiser than all the kings who ruled Jerusalem before me. I know what wisdom and knowledge really are."

¹⁷ I decided to learn how wisdom and knowledge are better than thinking foolish thoughts. But I learned that trying to become wise is like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁸ With much wisdom comes frustration. The one who gains more wisdom also gains more sorrow.

Does "Having Fun" Bring Happiness?

¹ I said to myself, "I should have fun—I should enjoy everything as much as I can." But I learned that this is also useless. ² It is foolish to laugh all the time. Having fun does not do any good.

* 1:2 meaningless ... a waste of time The Hebrew word means "vapor or breath" or "something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time." † 1:3 in this life Literally, "under the sun." Also in verses 9, 13.

‡ 1:8 Words cannot fully explain things Literally, "All words are weak." § 1:8 but people continue speaking The Hebrew could also be translated, "People cannot speak." * 1:14 trying to catch the wind Or "It is very troubling to the spirit." The word for "troubling" can also mean "craving," and the word for "spirit" can also mean "wind." Also in verse 17.

³ So I decided to fill my body with wine while I filled my mind with wisdom. I tried this foolishness because I wanted to find a way to be happy. I wanted to see what was good for people to do during their few days of life.

Does Hard Work Bring Happiness?

⁴ Then I began doing great things. I built houses, and I planted vineyards for myself. ⁵ I planted gardens, and I made parks. I planted all kinds of fruit trees. ⁶ I made pools of water for myself, and I used them to water my growing trees. ⁷ I bought men and women slaves, and there were slaves born in my house. I owned many great things. I had herds of cattle and flocks of sheep. I owned more things than any other person in Jerusalem did.

⁸ I also gathered silver and gold for myself. I took treasures from kings and their nations. I had men and women singing for me. I had everything any man could want.

⁹ I became very rich and famous. I was greater than anyone who lived in Jerusalem before me. My wisdom was always there to help me. ¹⁰ Anything my eyes saw and wanted, I got for myself. My mind was pleased with everything I did. And this happiness was the reward for all my hard work.

¹¹ But then I looked at everything I had done and the wealth I had gained. I decided it was all a waste of time! It was like trying to catch the wind.* There is nothing to gain from anything we do in this life.†

Maybe Wisdom Is the Answer

¹² Then I decided to think about what it means to be wise or to be foolish or to do crazy things. And I thought about the one who will be the next king. The new king will do the same as the kings before him.‡ ¹³ I saw that wisdom is better than foolishness in the same way that light is better than darkness. ¹⁴ Wise people use their minds like eyes to see where they are going. But for fools, it is as if they are walking in the dark.

I also saw that fools and wise people both end the same way. ¹⁵ I thought to myself, “The same thing that happens to a fool will also happen to me. So why have I tried so hard to become wise?” I said to myself, “Being wise is also useless.” ¹⁶ Whether people are wise or foolish, they will still die, and no one will remember either one of them forever. In the future, people will forget everything both of them did. So the two are really the same.

Is There Real Happiness in Life?

¹⁷ This made me hate life. It was depressing to think that everything in this life is useless, like trying to catch the wind.

¹⁸ I began to hate all the hard work I had done, because I saw that the people who live after me would get the things that I worked for. I will not be able to take them with me. ¹⁹ Some other person will control everything I worked and studied for. And I don’t know if that person will be wise or foolish. This is also senseless.

²⁰ So I became sad about all the work I had done. ²¹ People can work hard using all their wisdom and knowledge and skill. But they will die and other people will get the things they worked for. They did not do the work, but they will get everything. That makes me very sad. It is also not fair and is senseless.

* 2:11 trying to catch the wind Or “It is very troubling to the spirit.” The word for “troubling” can also mean “craving,” and the word for “spirit” can also mean “wind.” Also in verses 17, 26. † 2:11 in this life Literally, “under the sun.” Also in verses 17, 22. ‡ 2:12 And I thought ... before him The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

I also saw that this comes from God.^{§ 26} If people do good and please God, he will give them wisdom, knowledge, and joy. But those who sin will get only the work of gathering and carrying things. God takes from the bad person and gives to the good person. But all this work is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.

A Time for Everything

¹ There is a right time for everything, and everything on earth will happen at the right time.

² There is a time to be born and a time to die.

There is a time to plant and a time to pull up plants.

³ There is a time to kill and a time to heal.

There is a time to destroy and a time to build.

⁴ There is a time to cry and a time to laugh.

There is a time to be sad and a time to dance with joy.

⁵ There is a time to throw weapons down and a time to pick them up.*

There is a time to hug someone and a time to stop holding so tightly.

⁶ There is a time to look for something and a time to consider it lost.

There is a time to keep things and a time to throw things away.

⁷ There is a time to tear cloth and a time to sew it.

There is a time to be silent and a time to speak.

⁸ There is a time to love and a time to hate.

There is a time for war
and a time for peace.

God Controls His World

¹² I learned that the best thing for people to do is to be happy and enjoy themselves as long as they live. ¹³ God wants everyone to eat, drink, and enjoy their work. These are gifts from God.

¹⁴ I learned that anything God does will continue forever. People cannot add anything to the work of God, and they cannot take anything away from it. God did this so that people would respect him. ¹⁵ What happened in the past has happened, and what will happen in the future will happen. But God wants to help those who have been treated badly.‡

¹⁶ I also saw these things in this life[§]: I saw that the courts should be filled with goodness and fairness, but there is evil there now. ¹⁷ So I said to myself, “God has planned a time for everything, and he has planned a time to judge everything people do. He will judge good people and bad people.”

Are People Like Animals?

¹⁸ I thought about what people do to each other. And I said to myself, “God wants people to see that they are like animals. ¹⁹ The same thing happens to animals and to people—they die. People and animals have the same ‘breath.’* Is a dead animal different from a dead person? It is all so senseless! ²⁰ The bodies of people and animals end the same way. They came from the earth, and, in the end, they will go back to the earth. ²¹ Who knows what happens to a person’s spirit? Who knows if a human’s spirit goes up to God while an animal’s spirit goes down into the ground?”

²² So I saw that the best thing people can do is to enjoy what they do, because that is all they have. Besides, no one can help another person see what will happen in the future.

Is It Better to Be Dead?

¹ Again I saw that many people are treated badly. I saw their tears, and I saw that there was no one to comfort them. I saw that cruel people had all the power, and I saw that there was no one to comfort the people they hurt. ² I decided that it is better for those who have died than for those who are still alive. ³ And it is even better for those who die at birth, because they never saw the evil that is done in this world.*

Why Work So Hard?

⁴ Then I thought, “Why do people work so hard?” I saw people try to succeed and be better than other people. They do this because they are jealous. They don’t want other people to have more than they have. This is senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.†

⁵ Some people say, “It is foolish to fold your hands and do nothing. If you don’t work, you will starve to death.” ⁶ Maybe that is true. But I say it is better to be satisfied with the few things you have than to always be struggling to get more.

⁷ Again I saw something else that didn’t make sense: ⁸ I saw a man who has no family, not a son or even a brother. But he continues to work very hard. He is never satisfied with what he has. And he works so hard that he never stops and asks himself, “Why am I working so hard? Why don’t I let myself enjoy my life?” This is also a very bad and senseless thing.

Friends and Family Give Strength

⁹ Two people are better than one. When two people work together, they get more work done.

¹⁰ If one person falls, the other person can reach out to help. But those who are alone when they fall have no one to help them.

¹¹ If two people sleep together, they will be warm. But a person sleeping alone will not be warm.

‡ 3:15 Or “What happens now also happened in the past. What happens in the future has also happened before. God makes things happen again and again.” § 3:16 in this life Literally, “under the sun.” * 3:19 breath Or “spirit.” * 4:3 in this world Literally, “under the sun.” † 4:4 trying to catch the wind Or “It is very troubling to the spirit.” The word for “troubling” can also mean “craving,” and the word for “spirit” can also mean “wind.” Also in verse 16.

¹² An enemy might be able to defeat one person, but two people can stand back-to-back to defend each other. And three people are even stronger. They are like a rope that has three parts wrapped together—it is very hard to break.

People, Politics, and Popularity

¹³ A young leader who is poor but wise is better than a king who is old but foolish. That old king does not listen to warnings. ¹⁴ Maybe the young ruler was born a poor man in the kingdom. And maybe he came from prison to rule the country. ¹⁵ But I have watched people in this life,[‡] and I know this: People will follow that young man. He will become the new king. ¹⁶ Many people will follow this young man. But later, those same people will not like him. This is also senseless. It is like trying to catch the wind.

Be Careful About Making Promises

¹ Be very careful when you go to worship God. It is better to listen to God than to give sacrifices like fools. Fools often do bad things, and they don't even know it. ² Be careful when you make promises to God. Be careful about what you say to him. Don't let your feelings cause you to speak too soon. God is in heaven, and you are on the earth. So you need to say only a few things to him. This saying is true:

³ Bad dreams come from too many worries, and too many words come from the mouth of a fool.

⁴ If you make a promise to God, keep your promise. Don't be slow to do what you promised. God is not happy with fools. Give God what you promised to give him. ⁵ It is better to promise nothing than to promise something and not be able to do it. ⁶ So don't let your words cause you to sin. Don't say to the priest,* "I didn't mean what I said." If you do this, God might become angry with your words and destroy everything you have worked for. ⁷ You should not let your useless dreams and bragging bring you trouble. You should respect God.

For Every Ruler There Is a Ruler

⁸ In some country you will see poor people who are forced to work very hard. You will see that this is not fair to them. It is against their rights. But don't be surprised! The ruler who forces them to work has another ruler who forces him. And there is still another ruler who forces both of these rulers. ⁹ Even the king is a slave—his country owns him.[†]

Wealth Cannot Buy Happiness

¹⁰ Those who love money will never be satisfied with the money they have. Those who love wealth will not be satisfied when they get more and more. This is also senseless.

¹¹ The more wealth people have, the more "friends" they have to help spend it. So the rich really gain nothing. They can only look at their wealth.

¹² Those who work hard all day come home and sleep in peace. It is not important if they have little or much to eat. But the rich worry about their wealth and are not able to sleep.

[‡] 4:15 in this life Literally, "under the sun." * 5:6 priest Or "angel" or "messenger." This might be an angel, a priest, or a prophet. [†] 5:9 The ruler ... owns him Or "One ruler is cheated by a higher ruler. And they are cheated by an even higher ruler. ⁹ Even the king gets his share of the profit. The wealth of the country is divided among them." [‡] 5:13 in this life Literally, "under the sun." Also in 6:1. [§] 5:13 for the future Or "to their harm."

¹⁵ People come into the world with nothing. And when they die, they leave with nothing. They might work hard to get things, but they cannot take anything with them when they die. ¹⁶ It is very sad that people leave the world just as they came. So what does a person gain from “trying to catch the wind”? ¹⁷ They only get days that are filled with sadness and sorrow. In the end, they are troubled, sick, and angry.

Enjoy Your Life's Work

¹⁸ I have seen what is best for people to do on earth: They should eat, drink, and enjoy the work they have during their short time here. God has given them these few days, and that is all they have.

¹⁹ If God gives some people wealth, property, and the power to enjoy those things, they should enjoy them. They should accept the things they have and enjoy their work—that is a gift from God. ²⁰ People don't have many years to live, so they must remember these things all their life. God will keep them busy with the work they love to do.*

Wealth Does Not Bring Happiness

¹ I have seen another thing in this life that is not fair and is very hard to understand. ² God gives some people great wealth, riches, and honor. They have everything they need and everything they could ever want. But then God does not let them enjoy those things. Some stranger comes and takes everything. This is a very bad and senseless thing.

⁷ People work and work to feed themselves, but they are never satisfied. ⁸ In the same way a wise person is no better than a fool is. It is better to be a poor person who knows how to accept life as it is. ⁹ It is better to be happy with what you have than to always want more and more. Always wanting more and more is useless. It is like trying to catch the wind.†

¹⁰⁻¹¹ You are only what you were created to be—a human, and it is useless to argue about it. People cannot argue with God about this because he is more powerful than they are, and a long argument will not change that fact.

¹² Who knows what is best for people during their short life on earth? Their life passes like a shadow. No one can tell them what will happen later.

A Collection of Wise Teachings

The day someone dies is better than the day they were born.

² It is better to go to a funeral than to a party, because everyone must die,
and the living need to remember this.

* 5:20 God ... to do Or “God will do whatever he wants to them.” * 6:6 then the baby ... the same end Or “Isn't it true that all go to the same place?” † 6:9 Or “Having what you can see is better than chasing after the things you want. This is also like trying to catch the wind.” * 7:1 A good reputation ... pleasures Literally, “better a name than good perfume.” This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The word for “name” and the word for “perfume” sound alike.

- ³ Sorrow is even better than laughter, because when our face is sad, our heart becomes good.
- ⁴ A wise person thinks about death,
but a fool thinks only about having a good time.
- ⁵ It is better to be criticized by the wise than praised by the foolish.
- ⁶ The laughter of fools is such a waste.
It is like thorns burning under a pot.
The thorns burn so quickly that the pot does not get hot.[†]
- ⁷ Even the wise will forget their wisdom,
if someone pays them enough.
That money destroys their understanding.
- ⁸ It is better to finish something than to start it.
It is better to be gentle and patient than to be proud and impatient.
- ⁹ Don't become angry quickly, because anger is foolish.
- ¹⁰ Don't say, "Life was better in the 'good old days.'
What happened?"
Wisdom does not lead us to ask that question.

¹¹ Wisdom is better if you also have property. Wise people[‡] will get more than enough wealth. ¹² Wisdom and money can protect you. But knowledge gained through wisdom is even better—it can save your life.

¹³ Look at what God has made. You cannot change a thing, even if you think it is wrong. ¹⁴ When life is good, enjoy it. But when life is hard, remember that God gives us good times and hard times. And no one knows what will happen in the future.

People Cannot Really Be Good

¹⁵ In my short life, I have seen everything. I have seen good people die young, and I have seen evil people live long lives. ¹⁶⁻¹⁷ So why ruin your life? Don't be too good or too bad, and don't be too wise or too foolish. Why should you die before your time?

¹⁸ Try to be a little of this and a little of that.[§] Even God's followers will do some good things and some bad things. ¹⁹⁻²⁰ Surely there is no one on earth who always does good and never sins. But wisdom can make one person stronger than ten leaders in a city.

²¹ Don't listen to everything people say. You might hear your own servant saying bad things about you. ²² And you know that many times you too have said bad things about other people.

²³ I used my wisdom and thought about all these things. I wanted to be wise, but I couldn't do it. ²⁴ I cannot understand why things are as they are. It is too hard for anyone to understand. ²⁵ I studied and I tried very hard to find true wisdom. I tried to find a reason for everything.

I did learn that it is foolish to be evil, and it is crazy to act like a fool. ²⁶ I also found that some women are dangerous like traps. Their hearts are like nets, and their arms are like chains. It is worse than death to be caught by these women. God's followers should run away from them. Let the sinners be caught by them.

[†] 7:6 Or "The cackling of fools, like the crackling of thorns under a pot, is senseless." [‡] 7:11 Wise people Literally, "People who see the sun." This means wise people can see and plan what they should do. [§] 7:18 Try ... of that Or "Hold onto this, but don't let go of that."

²⁷⁻²⁸ The Teacher says, “I added all this together to see what answer I could find. I am still looking for answers, but I did find this: I found one good man in a thousand. But I did not find even one good woman.

²⁹ “There is one other thing I have learned. God made people good, but they have found many ways to be bad.”

8

Wisdom and Power

¹ No one can understand and explain things the way wise people can. Their wisdom makes them happy. It changes a sad face into a happy one.

² I say you should always obey the king’s command. Do this because you made a promise to God. ³ Don’t be afraid to give suggestions to the king, and don’t support something that is wrong. But remember, the king gives the commands that please him. ⁴ He has the authority to give commands, and no one can tell him what to do. ⁵ People will be safe if they obey his command. But wise people know the right time to do this, and they also know when to do the right thing.

⁶ There is a right time and a right way to do everything. You must decide what you should do, even when it might cause problems ⁷ and you are not sure what will happen. No one can tell you what will happen in the future.

⁸ No one has the power to keep their spirit from leaving or to stop their death. During war, no soldier has the freedom to go wherever he wants. In the same way evil does not allow anyone who does wrong to go free.

⁹ I saw all this. I thought very hard about the things that happen in this world. I saw that people always struggle for the power to rule others, and this is bad for them.

¹⁰ I also saw great and beautiful funerals for evil people. While the people were going home after the funeral services, they said good things about the evil people who had died. This happened even in the same towns where the evil people had done many bad things. This is senseless.

Justice, Rewards, and Punishment

¹¹ Sometimes people are not immediately punished for the bad things they do. Their punishment is slow to come, and that makes other people want to do bad things too.

¹² A sinner might do a hundred evil things and still live a long time. But I know that it is still better to obey and respect God. ¹³ Evil people don’t respect God, so they will not get good things or live long lives. Their lives will not be like the shadows that become longer and longer as the sun goes down.

¹⁴ There is something else that happens on earth that does not seem fair. Bad things should happen to bad people, and good things should happen to good people. But sometimes bad things happen to good people, and good things happen to bad people. This is not fair. ¹⁵ So I decided it was more important to enjoy life because the best thing people can do in this life* is to eat, drink, and enjoy life. At least that will help people enjoy the hard work God gave them to do during their life on earth.

We Cannot Understand All God Does

¹⁶ I carefully studied the things people do in this life. I saw how busy people are. They work day and night, and they almost never sleep. ¹⁷ I also saw that no one can understand all that God does. People can try and try to understand the things that happen here on earth, but they cannot. There may be wise people who claim to understand the meaning of these things, but they are wrong. No one can understand it all.

* 8:15 in this life Literally, “under the sun.” Also in verse 16 and 9:3, 9, 11, 13.

Is Death Fair?

¹ I thought about all this very carefully. I saw that God controls what happens to the good and wise people and what they do. People don't know if they will be loved or hated, and they don't know what will happen in the future.

² But, there is one thing that happens to everyone—we all die! Death comes to good people and bad people. Death comes to those who are pure and to those who are not pure. Death comes to those who give sacrifices and to those who don't give sacrifices. Good people will die just as sinners do. Those who make promises to God will die just as those who are afraid to make those promises.

³ Of all the things that happen in this life, the worst thing is that all people end life the same way. But it is also very bad that people always think evil and foolish thoughts. And those thoughts lead to death. ⁴ There is hope for those who are still alive—it does not matter who they are. But this saying is true:

A living dog is better than a dead lion.

⁵ The living know that they will die, but the dead don't know anything. They have no more reward. People will soon forget them. ⁶ After people are dead, their love, hate, and jealousy are all gone. And they will never again share in what happens on earth.

Enjoy Life While You Can

⁷ So go and eat your food now and enjoy it. Drink your wine and be happy. It is all right with God if you do these things. ⁸ Wear nice clothes and make yourself look good. ⁹ Enjoy life with the wife you love. Enjoy every day of your short life. God has given you this short life on earth—and it is all you have. So enjoy the work you have to do in this life. ¹⁰ Every time you find work to do, do it the best you can. In the grave there is no work. There is no thinking, no knowledge, and there is no wisdom. And we are all going to the place of death.

Life Is Not Fair

¹¹ I also saw other things in this life that were not fair. The fastest runner does not always win the race; the strongest soldier does not always win the battle; wise people don't always get the food; smart people don't always get the wealth; educated people don't always get the praise they deserve. When the time comes, bad things can happen to anyone!

¹² You never know when hard times will come. Like fish in a net or birds in a snare, people are often trapped by some disaster that suddenly falls on them.

The Power of Wisdom

¹³ I also saw a person doing a wise thing in this life, and it seemed very important to me. ¹⁴ There was a small town with a few people in it. A great king fought against that town and put his armies all around it. ¹⁵ But there was a wise man in that town. He was poor, but he used his wisdom to save his town. After everything was finished, the people forgot about the poor man. ¹⁶ But I still say that wisdom is better than strength. They forgot about the poor man's wisdom, and the people stopped listening to what he said. But I still believe that wisdom is better.

¹⁷ Words spoken by the wise are heard more clearly than those shouted by a leader among fools.

¹⁸ Wisdom is better than weapons of war,
but one fool* can destroy much good.

* 9:18 fool Literally, "sinner."

¹ A few dead flies will make even the best perfume stink. In the same way, a little foolishness can ruin much wisdom and honor.

² The thoughts of the wise lead them the right way, but the thoughts of the foolish lead them the wrong way. ³ Fools show how foolish they are, just walking down the road. Their minds are empty, and everyone knows it.

⁴ Don't quit your job simply because the boss is angry with you. If you remain calm and helpful, you can correct even great mistakes.*

⁵ Here is something else that I have seen in this life[†] that isn't fair. It is the kind of mistake that rulers make. ⁶ Fools are given important positions, while the rich get jobs that are not important. ⁷ I have seen servants riding on horses, while rulers were walking beside them like slaves.

Every Job Has Its Dangers

⁸ If you dig a hole, you might fall into it. If you break down a wall, you might be bitten by a snake. ⁹ If you are moving large stones, you might be hurt by them. If you cut down a tree, you are in danger of it falling on you.

¹⁰ But wisdom will make any job easier. It is very hard to cut with a dull knife. But if you sharpen the knife, the job is easier.

¹¹ Someone might know how to control snakes. But that skill is useless if a snake bites when that person is not around.

¹² Words from the wise bring praise, but words from a fool bring destruction.

¹³ Fools begin by saying something foolish. But in the end, they speak nonsense. ¹⁴ Fools are always talking about what they will do, but you never know what will happen. People cannot tell what will happen in the future.

¹⁵ Fools aren't smart enough to find their way home, so they must work hard all their lives.

The Value of Work

¹⁶ It is very bad for a country if the king is like a child. And it is very bad for a country if its rulers use all their time eating. ¹⁷ But it is very good for a country if the king comes from a good family.[‡] And it is very good for a country if the rulers control their eating and drinking. They eat and drink to become strong, not to become drunk.

¹⁸ If someone is too lazy to work, their house will begin to leak, and the roof will fall in.

¹⁹ People enjoy eating, and wine makes life happier. But money solves a lot of problems.

Gossip

²⁰ Don't say bad things about the king. Don't even think bad things about him. And don't say bad things about rich people, even if you are alone in your home. A little bird might fly and tell them everything you said.

* 10:4 If you ... great mistakes Literally, "A healer can put to rest great sins." The word "healer" means a person who is forgiving and tries to help other people. † 10:5 in this life Literally, "under the sun." ‡ 10:17 comes from a good family Literally, "is a son of freedmen." This is a person who was never a slave and whose parents were not slaves.

Boldly Face the Future

¹ Do good wherever you go.* After a while, the good you do will come back to you.

² Invest what you have in several different things.† You don't know what bad things might happen on earth.

³ There are some things you can be sure of. If clouds are full of rain, they will pour water on the earth. If a tree falls—to the south or to the north—then it will stay where it falls.

⁴ But there are some things that you cannot be sure of. You must take a chance. If you wait for perfect weather, you will never plant your seeds. If you are afraid that every cloud will bring rain, you will never harvest your crops.

⁵ You don't know where the wind blows. And you don't know how a baby grows in its mother's womb. In the same way, you don't know what God will do—and he makes everything happen.

⁶ So begin planting early in the morning, and don't stop working until evening. You don't know what might make you rich. Maybe everything you do will be successful.

⁷ It is good to be alive. It is nice to see the light from the sun. ⁸ You should enjoy every day of your life, no matter how long you live. But remember that you will die, and you will be dead much longer than you were alive. And after you are dead, you cannot do anything.

Serve God While You Are Young

⁹ So young people, enjoy yourselves while you are young. Be happy. Do whatever your heart leads you to do. Do whatever you want, but remember that God will judge you for everything you do. ¹⁰ Don't let your anger control you, and don't let your body lead you to sin.‡ People do foolish things in the dawn of life while they are young.

12

The Problems of Old Age

¹ Remember your Creator while you are young, before the bad times come—before the years come when you say, “I have wasted my life.”*

² Remember your Creator while you are young, before the time comes when the sun and the moon and the stars become dark to you—before problems come again and again like one storm after another.

³ At that time your arms will lose their strength. Your legs will become weak and bent. Your teeth will fall out, and you will not be able to chew your food. Your eyes will not see clearly. ⁴ You will become hard of hearing. You will not hear the noise in the streets. Even the stone grinding your grain will seem quiet to you. You will not be able to hear the women singing. But even the sound of a bird singing will wake you early in the morning because you will not be able to sleep.

⁵ You will be afraid of high places. You will be afraid of tripping over every small thing in your path. Your hair will become white like the flowers on an almond tree. You will drag yourself along like a grasshopper when you walk. You will lose your desire,† and then you will go to your eternal home. The mourners will gather in the streets as they carry your body to the grave.

Death

* 11:1 Do good ... go Or “Throw your bread on the water.” † 11:2 Invest ... different things Or “Give a part to seven, or even eight.” ‡ 11:10 Don't let ... sin Or “Don't worry about things. Protect yourself from troubles.” * 12:1 I have wasted my life Literally, “I take no pleasure in them.” This might mean “I don't like the things I did when I was young” or “I don't enjoy life now that I am old.” † 12:5 desire Or “appetite” or “sexual desire.” The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

⁶ Remember your Creator while you are young, before the silver rope snaps and the golden bowl is crushed like a jar broken at the well, like a stone cover on a well that breaks and falls in.
⁷ Your body came from the earth.
 And when you die, it will return to the earth.
 But your spirit came from God,
 and when you die, it will return to him.

⁸ Everything is so meaningless. The Teacher says that it is all a waste of time![‡]

Final Words of Advice

⁹ The Teacher was very wise. He used his wisdom to teach the people. He very carefully studied and arranged[§] many wise teachings. ¹⁰ The Teacher tried very hard to find the right words, and he wrote the teachings that are true and dependable.

¹³⁻¹⁴ Now, what should we learn from everything that is written in this book?^{*} The most important thing a person can do is to respect God and obey his commands, because he knows about everything people do—even the secret things. He knows about all the good and all the bad, and he will judge people for everything they do.

[‡] 12:8 meaningless ... a waste of time The Hebrew word means “vapor,” “breath,” or “something that is useless, meaningless, empty, wrong, or a waste of time.” [§] 12:9 arranged This Hebrew word means “to make straight,” “arrange,” “correct,” or “edit.” ^{*} 12:13-14 Now ... book Literally, “The sum of the matter, when all is heard, is”

Song of Songs

The Woman to the Man She Loves

² Cover me with kisses, for your love is better than wine.

³ Your perfume smells wonderful,
but your name* is sweeter than the best perfume.
That is why the young women love you.

⁴ Take me with you.
Let's run away.

The king took me into his room.

The Women of Jerusalem to the Man

We will rejoice and be happy for you.
Remember, your love is better than wine.
With good reason, the young women love you.

She Speaks to the Women

⁵ Daughters of Jerusalem,
I am dark and beautiful,
as black as the tents of Kedar and Salma.†

⁶ Don't look at how dark I am,
at how dark the sun has made me.
My brothers were angry with me.
They forced me to take care of their vineyards,
so I could not take care of myself.‡

She Speaks to Him

⁷ I love you with all my soul!
Tell me, where do you feed your sheep?
Where do you lay them down at noon?
I should come to be with you or I will be like a hired woman§ caring for the sheep of your friends.

He Speaks to Her

⁸ You are such a beautiful woman.
Surely you know what to do.
Go, follow the sheep.
Feed your young goats near the shepherds' tents.

⁹ My darling, you are more exciting to me than any mare among the stallions* pulling Pharaoh's chariots.†

¹⁰ Your cheeks are so beautiful

* 1:3 name In Hebrew this word sounds like the word "perfume." † 1:5 Kedar and Salma Arabian tribes. For "Salma" the standard Hebrew text has "Solomon," but compare "Salma, Salmon" in Ruth 4:20-21. ‡ 1:6 myself Literally, "my own vineyard." § 1:7 hired woman Or "a woman wearing a veil." This might mean a prostitute.

* 1:9 mare ... stallions Female and male horses. Only male horses were used to pull chariots. † 1:9 Literally, "To a mare among Pharaoh's chariots I compare you, my darling."

with those ornaments hanging beside them.
 Your neck is so lovely under that beautiful string of jewels.
 11 Let's make you some more gold jewelry and decorate it with silver.

She Speaks

12 The smell of my perfume reaches out to the king lying on his couch.
 13 My lover is like the small bag of myrrh around my neck, lying all night between my breasts.
 14 My lover is like a bunch of henna flowers near the vineyards of En Gedi.

He Speaks

15 My darling, you are so beautiful!
 Oh, you are beautiful!
 Your eyes are like doves.

She Speaks

16 You are so handsome, my lover!
 Yes, and so charming!
 Our bed is so fresh and pleasant.‡
 17 The beams of our house are cedar.
 The rafters are fir.

2

1 I am a rose on the plain of Sharon,*
 a lily† in the valleys.

He Speaks

2 My darling, among other women, you are like a lily among thorns!

She Speaks

3 My lover, among other men, you are an apple tree among the wild trees in the forest!

She Speaks to the Women

I enjoy sitting in my lover's shadow;
 his fruit is so sweet to my taste.
 4 My lover took me to the wine house;
 his intent toward me was love.
 5 Strengthen me with raisins‡;
 refresh me with apples, because I am weak with love.§
 6 My lover's left arm is under my head, and his right arm holds me.

7 Women of Jerusalem, promise me by the gazelles and wild deer,
 don't awaken love,
 don't arouse love, until I am ready.*

‡ 1:16 fresh and pleasant Or "lush and green" like a fresh field of grass. * 2:1 rose ... Sharon Or "a crocus on the plain." † 2:1 lily A kind of flower. Here, it is probably a red flower. ‡ 2:5 raisins Or "raisin cakes." § 2:5 I am weak with love Or "I am lovesick." * 2:7 until I am ready Literally, "until it desires."

She Speaks Again

- ⁸ I hear my lover's voice.
 Here it comes, jumping over the mountains,
 skipping over the hills.
- ⁹ My lover is like a gazelle or a young deer.
 Look at him standing behind our wall,
 staring out the window,
 looking through the lattice.[†]
- ¹⁰ My lover speaks to me,
 "Get up, my darling, my beautiful one.
 Let's go away!"
- ¹¹ Look, winter is past,
 the rains have come and gone.
- ¹² The flowers are blooming in the fields.
 It's time to sing![‡]
 Listen, the doves have returned.
- ¹³ Young figs are growing on the fig trees.
 Smell the vines in bloom.
 Get up, my darling, my beautiful one.
 Let's go away!"

He Speaks

- ¹⁴ My dove, hiding in the caves high on the cliff, hidden here on the mountain,
 let me see you,
 let me hear your voice.
 Your voice is so pleasant,
 and you are so beautiful!

She Speaks to the Women

- ¹⁵ Catch the foxes for us—
 the little foxes
 that spoil the vineyard.
 Our vineyard is now in bloom.
- ¹⁶ My lover is mine,
 and I am his!
 My lover feeds among the lilies,
¹⁷ while the day breathes its last breath
 and the shadows run away.
 Turn, my lover,
 be like a gazelle or a young deer on the cleft mountains![§]

3

She Speaks

- ¹ At night on my bed,
 I look for the man I love.
 I looked for him,
 but I could not find him.
- ² I will get up now!
 I will go around the city.

[†] 2:9 lattice A wooden screen over a window. [‡] 2:12 sing Or "prune." [§] 2:17 the cleft mountains Or "the mountains of Bether" or "the mountains of spice."

In the streets and squares,
I will look for the man I love.

I looked for him,
but I could not find him.
3 The guards patrolling the city found me.
I asked them, "Have you seen the man I love?"

4 I had just left the guards
when I found the man I love!
I held him and would not let him go,
while I took him to my mother's house,
to the room of one who bore* me.

She Speaks to the Women

5 Women of Jerusalem, promise me by the gazelles and wild deer,
don't awaken love,
don't arouse love, until I am ready.†

The Women of Jerusalem Speak

6 Who is this woman coming from the desert‡
with this large group of people?
The dust rises behind them like clouds of smoke from burning myrrh and frankincense and other spices.§

7 Look, Solomon's traveling chair.*
There are 60 soldiers guarding it, strong soldiers of Israel.

8 All of them are trained fighting men with their swords at their side, ready for any danger of the night.

9 King Solomon made a traveling chair for himself.
The wood came from Lebanon.

10 The poles were made from silver, and the supports were made from gold.
The seat was covered with purple cloth.
It was inlaid with love by the women of Jerusalem.

11 Women of Zion, come out and see King Solomon.
See the crown† his mother put on him
the day he was married,
the day he was so happy!

4

He Speaks to Her

1 My darling, you are so beautiful!

* 3:4 bore Or "taught." See 8:2. † 3:5 until I am ready Literally, "until it desires." ‡ 3:6 woman coming from the desert See 8:5. § 3:6 spices Literally, "powders of the trader." These were imported spices and incense.

* 3:7 traveling chair A kind of chair that the rich traveled in. These chairs were covered and had poles that slaves used to carry them. Also in verse 9. † 3:11 crown This might be a wreath of flowers he wore on his head at his wedding.

Oh, you are beautiful!
 Your eyes are like doves
 under your veil.
 Your hair is long and flowing,
 like little goats dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead.
² Your teeth are white like ewes*
 just coming from their bath.
 They all give birth to twins;
 not one of them has lost a baby.
³ Your lips are like a red silk thread.
 Your mouth is beautiful.
 Your cheeks under your veil are like two slices of pomegranate.
⁴ Your neck is long and thin like David's tower.
 That tower was built to be decorated† with a thousand shields on its walls, with the shields of powerful soldiers.
⁵ Your breasts are like twin fawns,
 like twins of a gazelle, feeding among the lilies.
⁶ I will go to that mountain of myrrh and to that hill of frankincense while the day breathes its last breath,
 and the shadows run away.
⁷ My darling, you are beautiful all over.
 Every part of you is perfect.
⁸ Come with me, my bride, from Lebanon.
 Come with me from Lebanon.
 Come from the peak of Amana,‡ from the top of Senir§ and Hermon, from the lion's caves,
 from the mountain of the leopards.
⁹ My darling,* my bride, you excite me!
 You have stolen my heart with just one quick look from your eyes,
 with just one of the jewels from your necklace.
¹⁰ Your love is so beautiful, my darling, my bride!
 Your love is better than wine.
 The smell of your perfume is better than any kind of spice!
¹¹ My bride, your lips drip honey.
 Honey and milk are under your tongue.
 Your clothes smell as sweet as perfume.†
¹² My darling, my bride,
 you are pure like a locked garden.
 You are like a locked pool,
 a closed fountain.
¹³ Your limbs are like a garden

* 4:2 ewes Female goats. † 4:4 Your neck ... decorated Or "Your neck is like David's tower, built with rows of stone."
 This would mean she wore many necklaces, one above the other, which looked like rows of stone in a tower. ‡ 4:8
 Amana The name of a mountain in Lebanon. § 4:8 Senir The Amorite word for "Snow Mountain." This means Mount Hermon. * 4:9 darling Literally, "sister." Also in verses 10, 11; 5:1, 2. † 4:11 perfume Or "Lebanon."

filled with pomegranates and other pleasant fruit,
with all the best spices:

henna,[‡] ¹⁴ nard, saffron,[§] calamus,^{*} and cinnamon.[†]
Your limbs are like a garden filled with trees of frankincense, myrrh, and aloe.

¹⁵ You are like a garden fountain—

a well of fresh water—flowing down from the mountains of Lebanon.

She Speaks

¹⁶ Wake up, north wind.

Come, south wind.

Blow on my garden.

Spread its sweet smell.

Let my lover enter his garden and eat its pleasant fruit.

5

He Speaks

¹ My darling my bride, I have entered my garden.

I have gathered my myrrh and spice.

I have eaten my honey and honeycomb.

I have drunk my wine and milk.

The Women Speak to the Lovers

Dearest friends, eat, drink!

Be drunk with love!

She Speaks

² I am asleep,

but my heart is awake.

I hear my lover knocking, saying,

“Open to me, my darling, my love,

my dove, my perfect one!

My head is soaked with dew.

My hair is wet with the mist of the night.”

³ “I have taken off my robe.*

I don’t want to put it on again.

I have washed my feet.

I don’t want to get them dirty again.”

⁴ But my lover put his hand through the opening,[†] and I felt sorry for him.[‡]

⁵ I got up to open for my lover,

myrrh dripping from my hands,

myrrh scented lotion dripped from my fingers of cloth used to cover a person’s face. Also in verse 7. [†] 5:4 put ... opening Or “pulled his hand from the opening.”

In one sense, this might refer to a lock and key. Some ancient keys were shaped like a hand. The key was inserted through a hole in the door, and the “fingers” fit into special holes that allowed the bolt to slide, locking and unlocking the door. [‡] 5:4 I felt sorry for him Literally, “My insides stirred for him.”

onto the handles of the lock.
 6 I opened for my lover,
 but my lover had turned away and was gone!
 I nearly died
 when he came and went.[§]
 I looked for him,
 but I couldn't find him.
 I called for him,
 but he didn't answer me.
 7 The guards patrolling the city found me.
 They hit me.
 They hurt me.
 The guards on the wall
 took my robe from me.

8 I tell you, women of Jerusalem,
 if you find my lover, tell him I am weak with love.*

The Women of Jerusalem Answer Her

9 Beautiful woman,
 how is your lover different from other lovers?
 Is your lover better than other lovers?
 Is that why you ask us to make this promise?

She Answers the Women of Jerusalem

10 My lover is tanned and radiant.
 He would stand out among 10,000 men.
 11 His head is like the purest gold.
 His hair is curly and as black as a raven.
 12 His eyes are like doves by a stream, like doves in a pool of milk,
 like a jewel in its setting.
 13 His cheeks are like a garden of spices,
 like flowers used for perfume.
 His lips are like lilies,[†]
 dripping with liquid myrrh.
 14 His arms are like gold rods, filled with jewels.
 His body is like smooth ivory
 with sapphires set in it.
 15 His legs are like marble pillars on bases of fine gold.
 He stands tall
 like the finest cedar tree in Lebanon!
 16 Yes, women of Jerusalem, my lover is everything I desire.
 His mouth is the sweetest of all.
 This is my lover;
 this is my darling.

The Women of Jerusalem Speak to Her

1 Beautiful woman,

[§] 5:6 I nearly died ... went Or "My soul left when he spoke." * 5:8 I am weak with love Or "I am lovesick." † 5:13 lily A kind of flower. Here, it is probably a red flower.

where has your lover gone?
Which way did your lover go?
Tell us so that we can help you look for him.

She Answers the Women of Jerusalem

² My lover has gone down to his garden, where sweet-smelling spices grow.
There, like a sheep, he will eat the grass,
and he will enjoy the lilies.
³ I belong to my lover, and my lover belongs to me.
He is the one feeding among the lilies.

He Speaks to Her

⁴ My darling, you are as beautiful as Tirzah,*
as pleasant as Jerusalem,
as awesome as the stars in the sky.†
⁵ Don't look at me!
Your eyes excite me too much!
And your hair is long and flowing,
like little goats dancing down the slopes of Mount Gilead.
⁶ Your teeth are white like ewes‡
just coming from their bath.
They all give birth to twins.
Not one of them has lost a baby.
⁷ Your cheeks under your veil are like slices of pomegranate.

⁸ There might be 60 queens and 80 slave women,
and young women too many to count,
⁹ but there is only one woman for me,
my dove, my perfect one.
She is the favorite of her mother,
her mother's favorite child.
The young women see her and praise her.
Even the queens and slave women praise her.

The Women Praise Her

¹⁰ Who is that young woman?
She shines out like the dawn.
She is as pretty as the moon.
She is as bright as the sun.
She is as awesome
as the stars in the sky.

He Speaks to Her

¹¹ I went down to the grove of walnut trees, to see the fruit of the valley,
to see if the vines were in bloom,
to see if the pomegranates had budded.
¹² I was so excited when she put me in the royal chariot.§

* 6:4 Tirzah One of the capital cities of northern Israel. † 6:4 the stars in the sky Or "an army ready for war." The meaning of the Hebrew word here and in verse 10 is uncertain. ‡ 6:6 ewes Female goats. § 6:12 the royal chariot Or "the chariots of my noble people." See "chariot" in the Word List.

The Women of Jerusalem Call to Her

¹³ Come back, come back, Shulamith*!
Come back, come back, so we may look at you.

Why are you staring at Shulamith, as she dances the Mahanaim dance†?

7

He Praises Her Beauty

¹ Princess,* your feet are beautiful in those sandals.
The curves of your thighs are like jewelry made by an artist.

² Your navel is like a round cup†;
may it never be without wine.
Your belly is like a pile of wheat surrounded by lilies.

³ Your breasts are like twin fawns of a young gazelle.

⁴ Your neck is like an ivory tower.
Your eyes are like the pools in Heshbon near the gate of Bath Rabbim.

Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon that looks toward Damascus.

⁵ Your head is like Carmel, and the hair on your head is like silk.

Your long flowing hair captures even a king.

⁶ You are so beautiful and so pleasant,
a lovely, delightful young woman!

⁷ You are tall—
as tall as a palm tree.

And your breasts are like the clusters of fruit on that tree.

⁸ I would love to climb that tree and take hold of its branches.

May your breasts be like clusters of grapes and your fragrance‡ like apples.

⁹ May your mouth be like the best wine, flowing straight to my love,
flowing gently to the sleeper's lips.

She Speaks to Him

¹⁰ I belong to my lover, and he wants me.

¹¹ Come, my lover,
let's go out into the field;
let's spend the night in the villages.

¹² Let's get up early and go to the vineyards.

* 6:13 Shulamith Or "Shulamite." The word might be the feminine form of the name "Solomon." This could mean she was or would become the bride of Solomon. This name might also mean "perfect," "at peace," or "woman from Shunem." † 6:13 Mahanaim dance Or "the victory dance" or "the dance of the two camps." * 7:1 Princess Literally, "Daughter of a prince." † 7:2 round cup Or "turned bowl," a stone bowl made on a lathe and used for mixing wine before it is poured into cups. This might also mean a bowl shaped like a crescent or half-moon. ‡ 7:8 fragrance Literally, "breath of your nose."

Let's see if the vines are in bloom.
 Let's see if the blossoms have opened and if the pomegranates are in bloom.
 There I will give you my love.

¹³ Smell the mandrakes[§]
 and all the pleasant flowers by our door.
 I have saved many pleasant things for you, my lover, pleasant things, new and old.

8

¹ If you were a baby, like my little brother nursing at his mother's breasts, and if I found you outside,
 I could kiss you,
 and no one would say it was wrong.
² I would lead you into my mother's house,
 to the room of she who taught me.
 I would give you spiced wine squeezed from my pomegranate.

She Speaks to the Women

³ His left arm is under my head, and his right hand holds me.

⁴ Women of Jerusalem, promise me,
 don't awaken love,
 don't arouse love, until I am ready.*

The Women of Jerusalem Speak

⁵ Who is this woman coming from the desert, leaning on her lover?

She Speaks to Him

I woke you under the apple tree, where your mother gave birth to you,
 where you were born.
⁶ Keep me near you like a seal you wear over your heart, like a signet ring you wear on your hand.
 Love is as strong as death.
 Passion is as strong as the grave.†
 Its sparks become a flame, and it grows to become a great fire‡!
⁷ A flood cannot put out love.
 Rivers cannot drown love.
 Would people despise a man for giving everything he owns for love?

Her Brothers Speak

⁸ We have a little sister, and her breasts are not yet grown.
 What should we do for our sister

§ 7:13 mandrakes Plants with roots that look like people. People thought these plants had the power to make people fall in love. * 8:4 until I am ready Literally, "until it desires." † 8:6 the grave Or "Sheol," the place where dead people go. ‡ 8:6 great fire Or "the flame of the LORD."

when a man comes asking to marry her?

- ⁹ If she were a wall,
 we would put silver trim[§] around her.
 If she were a door,
 we would put a cedar board around her.

She Answers Her Brothers

- ¹⁰ I am a wall,
 and my breasts are my towers.
 And he is satisfied with me!*

He Speaks

- ¹¹ Solomon had a vineyard at Baal Hamon.
 He put men in charge of the vineyard.
 Each man brought in grapes worth 1000 shekels[†] of silver.

- ¹² Solomon, you can keep your 1000 shekels.
 Give 200 shekels to each man for the grapes he brought.
 But I will keep my own vineyard.

He Speaks to Her

- ¹³ There you are, sitting in the garden.
 Friends are listening to your voice.
 Let me hear it too!

She Speaks to Him

- ¹⁴ Hurry, my lover!
 Be like a gazelle or a young deer on the mountains of spice.

[§] 8:9 trim Or “supports.” Often horizontal beams and towers were built into walls to strengthen and support them. But here, this seems to be a decoration. ^{*} 8:10 he is satisfied with me Literally, “in his eyes I find peace.” In Hebrew this is also like the names “Solomon” and “Shulamith.” [†] 8:11 1000 shekels About 25 pounds (11.5 kg). Also in verse 12.

Isaiah

¹ This is the vision of Isaiah son of Amoz. God showed Isaiah what would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. Isaiah saw this during the time when Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah.

God's Case Against Israel

² Heaven and earth, listen! This is what the LORD says:

“I raised my children and helped them grow up,
but they have turned against me.

³ A bull knows its master, and a donkey knows where its owner feeds it.

But Israel does not know me.
My people do not understand.”

⁴ Oh, what a sinful nation! Their guilt is like a heavy weight that they must carry. They are evil, destructive children.* They left the LORD and insulted the Holy One of Israel. They turned away and treated him like a stranger.

⁵ What good will it do to keep punishing you? You will continue to rebel. Your whole head and heart are already sick and aching.† ⁶ From the bottom of your feet to the top of your head, every part of your body has wounds, cuts, and open sores. You have not taken care of them. Your wounds have not been cleaned and bandaged.

⁷ Your land is in ruins, and your cities are in flames. Your enemies have taken your land, and foreigners are taking what it produces. It looks like some foreigners destroyed it.‡

Warnings for Jerusalem

⁸ The city of Jerusalem§ is now like an empty shed left in a vineyard. It is like an old straw hut abandoned in a field of cucumbers or like a city surrounded by enemies. ⁹ If the LORD All-Powerful had not allowed a few people to live, we would have been destroyed completely like the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. And that almost happened!

¹⁰ You officers of Sodom, listen to the LORD'S message. You people of Gomorrah,* listen to God's teaching. ¹¹ The LORD says, “Why do you continue giving me all these sacrifices? I have had enough of your sacrifices of rams and the fat from well-fed animals. I don't want the blood of those bulls, sheep, and goats. ¹² When you people come to meet with me, you trample everything in my yard. Who told you to do this?

¹³ “Don't keep bringing me those worthless sacrifices. I hate the incense you give me. I cannot stand your festivals for the New Moon, the Sabbath, and other special meeting days. I hate the evil you do during those holy times together. ¹⁴ I hate your monthly meetings and councils. They have become like heavy weights to me, and I am tired of carrying them.

¹⁵ “When you raise your arms to pray to me, I will refuse to look at you. You will say more and more prayers, but I will refuse to listen because your hands are covered with blood.

* 1:4 They ... children Or “They are destructive children of evil parents.” † 1:5 Your whole ... aching Or “Every head and heart is already sick and aching.” ‡ 1:7 It looks ... destroyed it Or “It looks like the land of the foreigners that was destroyed.” This might refer to civil war in Israel or to some time when God destroyed foreign nations, such as Sodom and Gomorrah. § 1:8 city of Jerusalem Literally, “daughter Zion.” See “Zion” in the Word List. * 1:10 officers of Sodom ... Gomorrah Here, this refers to leaders and people from Judah.

¹⁶ “Wash yourselves and make yourselves clean. Stop doing the evil things I see you do. Stop doing wrong. ¹⁷ Learn to do good. Treat people fairly. Punish those who hurt others. Speak up for the widows and orphans. Argue their cases for them in court.”

¹⁸ “I, the LORD, am the one speaking to you. Come, let’s discuss this. Even if your sins are as dark as red dye, that stain can be removed and you will be as pure as wool that is as white as snow.

¹⁹ “If you listen to what I say, you will get the good things from this land. ²⁰ But if you refuse to listen and rebel against me, your enemies will destroy you.”

The LORD himself said this.

Unfaithful Jerusalem

²¹ Look at Jerusalem. She was a faithful city. What made her become like a prostitute? In the past, Jerusalem was filled with justice, and goodness should live there now. Instead, there are murderers.

²² Once you were like pure silver, but now you are like the impurities that people throw away when the silver is purified. You are like good wine that has been weakened with water. ²³ Your rulers are rebels and friends of thieves. They demand bribes and accept money for doing wrong. They take money to cheat people, and they don’t speak up for widows and orphans. They will not even listen to their cries for help.

²⁴ Because of this, the Lord GOD All-Powerful, the Mighty One of Israel, says, “Look, I will get relief from my enemies. You will not cause me any more trouble. ²⁵ People use lye to clean silver. In the same way, I will clean away all your wrongs. I will remove all the impurities from you. ²⁶ I will bring back the kind of judges you had in the beginning. Your counselors will be like those you had long ago. Then you will be called ‘The Good and Faithful City.’ ”

²⁷ God is good and does what is right, so he will rescue Zion and the people who come back to him. ²⁸ But all the criminals and sinners will be destroyed. Those who stopped following the LORD will be removed.

²⁹ In the future, you will be ashamed of the oak trees and special gardens[†] you chose to worship, ³⁰ because you will be like an oak tree whose leaves are dying. You will be like a garden dying without water. ³¹ Powerful people will be like small, dry pieces of wood, and what they did will be like the sparks that start a fire. These people and their works will both burn up, and no one will be able to put out that fire.

God’s Message to Judah and Jerusalem

¹ Isaiah son of Amoz received this message about Judah and Jerusalem.

² In the last days the mountain of the LORD’S Temple will be the highest of all mountains.

It will be raised higher than the hills.

There will be a steady stream of people from all nations going there.

³ People from many places will go there and say,
“Come, let’s go up to the mountain of the LORD,
to the Temple of the God of Jacob.

Then God will teach us his way of living,
and we will follow him.”

His teaching, the LORD’S message, will begin in Jerusalem on Mount Zion and will go out to all the world.

⁴ Then God will act as judge to end arguments between nations.

[†] 1:29 special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods.

He will decide what is right for people from many lands.
 They will stop using their weapons for war.
 They will hammer their swords into plows
 and use their spears to make tools for harvesting.
 All fighting between nations will end.
 They will never again train for war.

⁵ Family of Jacob, let us follow the LORD.

⁶ Family of Jacob, you have abandoned your people. This is clear because they have been filled with bad influences from the East,* and now your people try to tell the future like the Philistines. They have completely accepted those strange ideas. ⁷ Jacob's land has been filled with silver and gold from other places. There are many treasures there. His land has been filled with horses and many chariots. ⁸ His land is full of gods that the people bow down to worship. They made those idols themselves. ⁹ The people have become worse and worse. They have become very low, and you leaders did nothing to lift them up!†

¹⁰ You should be afraid of the LORD! Go hide in the dirt and behind the rocks. Hide from his glorious power!

¹¹ Proud people will stop being proud. They will bow down to the ground with shame, and only the LORD will still stand high.

¹² The LORD All-Powerful has a special day planned when he will punish the proud and boastful people. They will be brought down. ¹³ They might be like the tall cedar trees from Lebanon or the great oak trees from Bashan, but they will be cut down. ¹⁴ They might be like the tall mountains and high hills ¹⁵ or like the tall towers and high walls, but they will be brought down. ¹⁶ They might be like great ships from Tarshish,‡ filled with such wonderful cargo, but they will be brought down.

¹⁷ At that time those proud people will fall. They will bow low to the ground, and only the LORD will stand high. ¹⁸ All the idols will be gone. ¹⁹ People will go into the holes in the ground and the cracks in the rocks because they fear the LORD and his great power as he stands to shake the earth.

²⁰ At that time people will throw away their idols they made from gold and silver. They made these statues to worship, but they will throw them into holes in the ground where bats and moles live. ²¹ They will go down into cracks in the rocks and boulders because they are afraid of the LORD and his glorious power as he stands to shake the earth.

²² Stop trusting other people to save you. Do not think too highly of them; they are only humans who have not stopped breathing yet.

¹ Understand what I am telling you: The Lord GOD All-Powerful will take away everything Judah and Jerusalem depend on. He will take away all the food and water. ² He will take away all the heroes and soldiers. He will take away all the judges, the prophets, the fortunetellers, and the elders. ³ He will take away the army officers and important officials. He will take away the skilled counselors, the magicians, and those who try to tell the future.

⁴ He says, "I will put young boys in charge of you. They will be your leaders. ⁵ The people will turn against each other. Young people will not respect those who are older. The common people will not respect important leaders."

⁶ At that time a man will grab one of his brothers from his own family and tell him, "You have a coat,* so you will be our leader. You will be the leader over all these ruins."

* 2:6 East This usually refers to the area around Babylon. † 2:9 They ... up Or "The people have become very low. Surely you will not forgive them!" ‡ 2:16 ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship.

* 3:6 coat Or "robe." This showed that a person was a leader of the people.

⁷ But the brother will refuse and say, “I cannot help you. I don’t have enough food or clothes for my own family. You will not make me your leader.”

⁸ This will happen because Jerusalem has stumbled, and Judah has fallen. They turned against the LORD. They said and did things against him, right in front of his glorious eyes.

⁹ The look on their faces shows that they are guilty. They are like the people of Sodom; they don’t care who sees their sin. But it will be very bad for them. They will get what they deserve.

¹⁰ Tell the good people who do what is right that good things will happen to them. They will receive a reward for what they do. ¹¹ But it will be very bad for wicked people, because they, too, will get what they deserve. They will get what they did to others. ¹² Even children will defeat my people, and women will rule over them.

My people, your guides lead you the wrong way, and they destroy the path you should follow.

God’s Decision About His People

¹³ Look, the LORD is standing to judge his people. ¹⁴ The LORD is ready to present his case against the elders and leaders of his people.

He says, “You people have burned the vineyard,[†] and what you stole from the poor is still in your houses. ¹⁵ What gives you the right to hurt my people? What gives you the right to push the faces of the poor into the dirt?” The Lord GOD All-Powerful said this.

¹⁷ The Lord will put sores on the heads of those women in Zion. The LORD will make their heads bald. ¹⁸ Then the Lord will take away everything they are proud of: the beautiful ankle bracelets, the necklaces that look like the sun and the moon, ¹⁹ the earrings, bracelets, and veils, ²⁰ the scarves, the ankle chains, the cloth belts worn around their waists, the bottles of perfume, the charms,[‡] ²¹ the signet rings, and the nose rings, ²² the fine dresses, robes, veils, and purses, ²³ the mirrors, linen dresses, turbans, and long shawls.

²⁴ Those women now have sweet-smelling perfume, but it will get moldy and stink. Now they wear belts, but then they will have only ropes to wear. Now they have their hair fixed in fancy ways, but then their heads will be shaved—they will have no hair.[§] Now they have party dresses, but then they will have only mourning clothes. They have beauty marks on their faces now, but then they will have another mark. It will be a mark burned into their skin to show that they are slaves.

²⁵ Your men will be killed with swords. Your heroes will die in war. ²⁶ There will be crying and sadness in the meeting places by the city gates. Jerusalem will sit there empty, like a woman who has lost everything to thieves and robbers and now just sits on the ground and cries.

¹ At that time seven women will grab one man and say, “Please marry us! We will supply our own food and make our own clothes. You won’t have to do anything else if you let us wear your name and take away our shame.”

² At that time the LORD’S plant* will be very beautiful and glorious. The people in Israel who survived will be very proud of what the land grows. ³ And all those who are left in Zion and Jerusalem will be called holy. Their names were on the list of people in Jerusalem who were allowed to live.

[†] 3:14 vineyard A garden for growing grapes. Here, this probably means Judah. [‡] 3:20 charms Things people wore on bracelets and necklaces. People thought these things would protect them from evil or danger. [§] 3:24 they will have no hair This means that they will become slaves. * 4:2 the LORD’S plant This might refer to the country of Judah or to the future king or Messiah. See Isaiah 5:7.

⁴ The Lord will wash away the filth[†] from the daughters of Zion.[‡] He will wash away the blood from Jerusalem. With a spirit of judgment that burns like fire, he will make everything pure. ⁵ Then the LORD will create a cloud of smoke in the day and a bright flame of fire[§] at night over every building and over every meeting of the people on the mountain of Zion. And there will be a covering over everyone* for protection. ⁶ It will be a shelter to protect the people from the heat of the sun and from all kinds of storms and rain.

Judah, God's Vineyard

¹ Now I will sing a song for my friend, my love song about his vineyard.

My friend had a vineyard on a very fertile hill.

² He dug and cleared the field and planted the best grapevines there.
He built a tower in the middle and cut a winepress into the stone.
He expected good grapes to grow there,
but there were only rotten ones.

³ My friend said, "You people living in Jerusalem and you people of Judah,* think about me and my vineyard.

⁴ What more could I do for my vineyard?
I did everything I could.
I hoped for good grapes to grow,
but there were only rotten ones.
Why did that happen?

⁵ "Now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard:
I will pull up the thornbushes that protect it,
and I will burn them.
I will break down the stone wall and use the stones for a walkway.

⁶ I will turn my vineyard into useless land.
No one will care for the plants or work in the field.
Weeds and thorns will grow there.
I will command the clouds not to rain on it."

⁷ The vineyard that belongs to the LORD All-Powerful is the house of Israel. The grapevine, the plant he loves, is the man of Judah.[†]

[†] 4:4 wash away the filth This is like a special ceremony for washing away the blood after a menstrual period. After this a man and wife could have sexual relations. [‡] 4:4 daughters of Zion This can refer either to the small towns around Jerusalem or to the women living there. [§] 4:5 cloud of smoke ... fire The signs God used to show that he was with his people. * 4:5 everyone Literally, "glory," but this can also mean "soul" or "person." See Psalm 16:9. * 5:3 You people ... Judah Or "Rulers of Jerusalem and leader of Judah" [†] 5:7 man of Judah This could mean either "the king of Judah" or simply, "people of Judah."

The Lord hoped for justice, but there was only killing.
 He hoped for fairness,
 but there were only cries from people being treated badly.

⁸ Look at you people! You join houses to houses and fields to fields until there is no room for anyone else. But when the punishment comes, you will be forced to live alone. You will be the only people in the whole land. ⁹ I heard the LORD All-Powerful make this oath: “I swear, all these houses will be destroyed. These big, fancy houses will be empty. ¹⁰ A ten-acre vineyard will make only a little wine,[‡] and many sacks of seed will grow only a little grain.[§]”

¹³ My people don’t really know God. So they will be captured and taken away. Everyone, the respected leaders and the common people as well, will be hungry and thirsty. ¹⁴ They will die, and the place of death will open its mouth wide and swallow many of them. Then the noisy crowds and all the beautiful, happy people who are now so comfortable will go down into the grave.

¹⁵ Everyone, common people and leaders alike, will be humbled. Those who are now so proud will bow their heads in shame. ¹⁶ The LORD All-Powerful will judge fairly, and people will honor him. They will respect the Holy God when he brings justice. ¹⁷ Then sheep will be able to go wherever they want and graze on the land that rich people once owned.

¹⁸ Look at those people! They pull their guilt and sins behind them like people pulling wagons with ropes.* ¹⁹ They say, “We wish God would hurry and do what he plans to do so that we can see it. Let the plan of the Holy One of Israel happen soon so that we can know what it is.”

²⁰ Look at those people! They say good is bad and bad is good. They think light is dark and dark is light. They think sour is sweet and sweet is sour. ²¹ They think they are so smart. They think they are very intelligent. ²² They are famous for drinking wine and are heroes known for mixing drinks. ²³ And if you pay them enough money, they will forgive a criminal. But they will not let good people be judged fairly. ²⁴ So bad things will happen to them. Their descendants will be destroyed completely, just as fire burns straw and leaves. Their descendants will be like plants with rotten roots, whose flowers have all blown away like dust in the wind.

Those people refused to obey the teachings[†] of the LORD All-Powerful. They hated the message from the Holy One of Israel. ²⁵ So the LORD became angry with his people, and he raised his hand to punish them. Even the mountains shook with fear. Dead bodies were left in the streets like garbage. And he is not finished yet. He is still angry, and his arm is raised to continue punishing his people.

God Will Bring Armies to Punish Israel

²⁶ Look! God is giving a sign to the nations far away. He is raising a flag and whistling for them to come.

Now the enemy is coming from a faraway land and will soon enter the country. They are moving very quickly. ²⁷ The enemy soldiers never get tired and stumble. They never get sleepy and fall asleep. Their weapon belts are always ready. Their sandal straps never break. ²⁸ Their arrows are sharp. Their bows are strung and ready to shoot. The horses' hooves are as hard as flint. Clouds of dust rise from behind their chariots.

[‡] 5:10 only a little wine Literally, “one bath,” a measure that equals about 6 gallons (22 l). [§] 5:10 only a little grain Literally, “A homer of seed will grow only an ephah of grain.” A homer equals about 6 bushels (220 l). An ephah equals about 2/3 bushel (22 l). * 5:18 ropes Literally, “useless ropes.” The Hebrew words here are like those meaning “useless things,” that is, idols. † 5:24 teachings This can also mean “laws.” Sometimes this means the laws God gave Moses to teach to the people of Israel.

²⁹ The shouts of the enemy sound like the roar of lions. Like strong, young lions, they growl and grab their prey. The captives struggle and try to escape, but there is no one to save them. ³⁰ Then there is a roar as loud as the ocean waves, and the captives turn their faces to the ground. And there is only darkness closing in as the light fades away in a black cloud.

God Calls Isaiah to Be a Prophet

¹ In the year that King Uzziah died,* I saw the Lord sitting on a very high and wonderful throne. His long robe filled the Temple. ² Seraph angels stood around him. Each angel had six wings. They used two wings to cover their faces, two wings to cover their bodies, and two wings to fly. ³ The angels were calling to each other, "Holy, holy, holy is the LORD All-Powerful. His Glory fills the whole earth." ⁴ The sound was so loud that it caused the frame around the door to shake, and the Temple was filled with smoke.†

⁵ I was frightened and said, "Oh, no! I will be destroyed. I am not pure enough to speak to God, and I live among people who are not pure enough to speak to him.‡ But I have seen the King, the LORD All-Powerful."

⁶ There was a fire on the altar. One of the Seraph angels used a pair of tongs to take a hot coal from the fire. Then the angel flew to me with it in his hand. ⁷ Then he touched my mouth with the hot coal and said, "When this hot coal touched your lips, your guilt was taken away, and your sins were erased.§"

⁸ Then I heard the Lord's voice, saying, "Who can I send? Who will go for us?"

So I said, "Here I am. Send me!"

⁹ Then the Lord said, "Go and tell the people, 'Listen closely, but don't understand. Look closely, but don't learn.' ¹⁰ Confuse them. Make them unable to understand what they hear and see. If you don't do this, they might really look with their eyes, hear with their ears, and understand with their minds. Then they might come back to me and be healed!"

¹¹ Then I asked, "Lord, how long should I do this?"

He answered, "Do this until the cities are destroyed and all the people are gone. Do this until there is no one left living in the houses and the land is destroyed and empty."

¹² The LORD will make the people go far away, and there will be large areas of empty land in the country. ¹³ A tenth of the people will be allowed to stay in the land, but it will be destroyed again. They will be like an oak tree. When the tree is chopped down, a stump is left. This stump will be a very special seed that will grow again.

Trouble With Aram

¹ Ahaz was the son of Jotham, who was the son of Uzziah. Rezin was the king of Aram, Pekah son of Remaliah* was the king of Israel. When Ahaz was king of Judah, Rezin and Pekah went up to Jerusalem to attack it, but they were not able to defeat the city.†

² The family of David received a message that said, "The armies of Aram and Ephraim have joined together in one camp." When King Ahaz heard this message, he and the people became frightened. They shook with fear like trees of the forest blowing in the wind.

³ Then the LORD told Isaiah, “You and your son Shear Jashub[‡] should go out and talk to Ahaz. Go to the place where the water flows into the Upper Pool,[§] on the street that leads up to Laundryman’s Field.

⁴ “Tell Ahaz, ‘Be careful, but be calm. Don’t be afraid. Don’t let those two men, Rezin and Remaliah’s son,^{*} frighten you! They are like two burning sticks. They might be hot now, but soon they will be nothing but smoke. Rezin, Aram, and Remaliah’s son became angry⁵ and made plans against you. They said,⁶ “Let’s go fight against Judah and divide it among ourselves. Then we will make Tabeel’s son the new king of Judah.” ’ ”

⁷ But the Lord GOD says, “Their plan will not succeed. It will not happen⁸ because Aram depends on its capital Damascus, and Damascus is led by its weak king Rezin. And don’t worry about Ephraim. Within 65 years it will be crushed, no longer a nation.⁹ Ephraim depends on its capital Samaria, and Samaria is led by Remaliah’s son. So you have no reason to fear. Believe this, or you will not survive.”

Immanuel—God Is With Us

¹⁰ Then the LORD spoke to Ahaz again¹¹ and said, “Ask for a sign from the LORD your God to prove to yourself that this is true. You can ask for any sign you want. The sign can come from a place as deep as Sheol[†] or as high as the skies.[‡]”

¹² But Ahaz said, “I will not ask for a sign as proof. I will not test the LORD.”

¹³ Then Isaiah said, “Family of David, listen very carefully! Is it not enough that you would test the patience of humans? Will you now test the patience of my God? ¹⁴ But the Lord will still show you this sign:

The young woman is pregnant[§] and will give birth to a son.

She will name him Immanuel.^{*}

¹⁵ He will eat milk curds and honey[†]
as he learns to choose good and refuse evil.

¹⁶ But before he is old enough to make that choice, the land of the two kings you fear will be empty.

¹⁷ “But the LORD will bring troubled times to you. These troubles will be worse than anything that has happened since the time Israel separated from Judah. This will happen to your people and to your father’s family when God brings the king of Assyria to fight against you.

¹⁸ “At that time the LORD will call for the ‘Fly’ that is now near the streams of Egypt, and he will call for the ‘Bee’ that is now in the country of Assyria. Those enemies will come to your country. ¹⁹ They will settle in the deep valleys and in the caves, by the thornbushes and watering holes. ²⁰ The Lord will use Assyria to punish Judah. Assyria will be hired and used like a razor to shave off Judah’s beard and to remove the hair from his head and body.[‡]

[‡] 7:11 The sign ... skies Literally, “make your request very high.” [§] 7:14 And here ... pregnant Or “Look at this young woman. She is pregnant.” The ancient Greek version (quoted in Matthew 1:23) translates “young woman” in this passage with a word meaning “virgin” and has “Look! The virgin will become pregnant.” ^{*} 7:14 Immanuel This name means “God is with us.” [†] 7:15 milk curds and honey This refers to some of the first solid foods, something like yogurt, that were fed to a baby. This is also the food that even the poor can find to eat. Also in verse 22. [‡] 7:20 shave ... body This means that the people of Judah would be humiliated and treated like slaves.

²¹ “At that time someone might keep only one young cow and two sheep alive. ²² But there will be enough milk for them to eat milk curds. In fact, everyone left in the country will eat milk curds and honey. ²³ There are now fields that have 1000 grapevines, and each grapevine is worth 1000 pieces of silver. But those fields will be covered with weeds and thorns. ²⁴ That land will be wild and used only as a hunting ground where people go with bows and arrows. ²⁵ People once worked the soil and grew food on these hills, but at that time they will not go there, because the fields will be covered with weeds and thorns. It will be a place where cattle graze and sheep wander.”

Assyria Is Coming Soon

¹ The LORD told me, “Get a large scroll,* and use an ordinary pen† to write these words: ‘This is for Maher Shalal Hash Baz.’‡”

² I found some men who could be trusted to serve as witnesses: Uriah the priest and Zechariah son of Jeberekiah. They watched me write those words. ³ Then I went to my wife, the woman prophet. She became pregnant and had a son. The LORD told me, “Name the boy Maher Shalal Hash Baz.” ⁴ He said that because before the boy learns to say “Mama” and “Daddy,” God will take all the wealth and riches from Damascus§ and Samaria and give them to the king of Assyria.

⁵ The LORD spoke to me again. ⁶ He said, “These people* refuse to accept the slow-moving waters of Shiloah.† They prefer Rezin and Remaliah’s son.” ⁷ But the Lord will bring the king of Assyria and all his power against them. The Assyrians will come like their swift moving river, like water that rises and spills over its banks. ⁸ This water will be like a flash flood as it passes through Judah. It will rise to Judah’s throat and almost drown him.

But he will spread his wings over your whole country, Immanuel.‡

⁹ All you nations, prepare for war.

You will be defeated.

Listen, all you faraway countries!

Prepare for battle.

You will be defeated.

¹⁰ Make your plans for the fight.

Your plans will be defeated.

Give orders to your armies,

but your orders will be useless,

because God is with us!§

Warnings to Isaiah

¹¹ The LORD spoke to me with his great power and warned* me not to be like these people. He said, ¹² “Don’t think there is a plan against you just because the people say there is. Don’t be afraid of what they fear. Don’t let them frighten you!”

¹³ The LORD All-Powerful is the one you should fear. He is the one you should respect.† He is the one who should frighten you. ¹⁴ If you people would respect him, he would be a safe place[‡] for you. But you don't respect him, so he is like a stone that you stumble over. He is a rock that makes both families of Israel fall. He has become a trap that all the people of Jerusalem will fall into. ¹⁵ (Many people will trip over this rock. They will fall and be broken. They will be caught in the trap.)

* 8:1 scroll This Hebrew word might also mean a clay or stone tablet. † 8:1 ordinary pen Literally, “stylus of a man.” This might be a pen for writing on clay. ‡ 8:1 Maher Shalal Hash Baz This means “There will soon be looting and stealing.” § 8:4 Damascus A city in the country of Aram (Syria). * 8:6 These people Probably Judeans who wanted to join Rezin and Pekah. Also in verse 11. † 8:6 Shiloah A channel that carried water from Gihon Spring to a pool at the south end of the City of David (Jerusalem). Men from David’s family were anointed to be kings there. ‡ 8:8 But he ... Immanuel Or “Immanuel, it will spread throughout your whole country.” This might be a promise of God’s protection, or it might be a warning about Assyria’s power. § 8:10 God is with us In Hebrew this is like the name Immanuel. * 8:11 warned Or “prevented.” † 8:13 respect Literally, “consider holy.”

¹⁶ The Lord said, "Write this agreement.[§] Tie it up and seal it so that it cannot be changed. Give these teachings to my followers for safekeeping."

¹⁷ The LORD has turned away from the family of Jacob.
But I will wait for him.
I trust that he will come to save us.

¹⁸ Here I am with the children the LORD has given me. We are here as signs from the LORD All-Powerful, who lives on Mount Zion. He is using us to show his plans for the people of Israel.

¹⁹ The people will say, "Go to the fortunetellers and wizards who mumble and chirp like birds. Ask them what to do." But I say, "Shouldn't people go to their God for help? Why go to the dead to get help for the living?" ²⁰ You should follow the teachings and the agreement.* I swear, if you follow those other things, there is no future for you. ²¹ When the enemy comes, there will be hard times and hunger. And when he becomes hungry, he will become angry. He will say curses in the name of his king and his gods. Then he will lift his head upwards like a roaring lion. ²² And when the captives turn their faces to the ground, there is only a depressing darkness closing in—the dark sadness of people forced to leave their country.

A New Day Is Coming

¹ But there will be an end to the gloom those people suffered. In the past, people thought the land of Zebulun and Naphtali was not important. But later, that land will be honored—the land along the sea, the land east of the Jordan River, and Galilee where people from other nations live. ² Those people lived in darkness, but they will see a great light. They lived in a place as dark as death, but a great light will shine on them.

³ God, you will make the nation grow, and you will make the people happy. They will rejoice in your presence as they do at harvest time. It will be like the joy when people take their share of things they have won in war. ⁴ That will happen because you will lift the heavy yoke off their shoulders and take away their heavy burden. You will take away the rod that the enemy used to punish your people, as you did when you defeated Midian.*

⁵ Every boot that marched in battle and every uniform stained with blood will be destroyed and thrown into the fire. ⁶ This will happen when the special child is born. God will give us a son who will be responsible for leading the people. His name will be "Wonderful Counselor, Powerful God, Father Who Lives Forever, Prince of Peace." ⁷ His power will continue to grow, and there will be peace without end. This will establish him as the king sitting on David's throne and ruling his kingdom. He will rule with goodness and justice forever and ever. The strong love[†] that the LORD All-Powerful has for his people will make this happen!

God Will Punish Israel

[‡] 8:14 safe place Or "holy place." [§] 8:16 Write this agreement Or "Take a document." This could refer to the large scroll in verse 1 or to the promise that follows in verse 17. ^{} 8:20 agreement This usually means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. Here, it probably means the agreement in verse 17. ^{} 9:4 as you ... Midian See Judges 7:15-25. [†] 9:7 strong love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

⁸ The Lord gave a command against Jacob and someone in Israel fell.[‡] ⁹ So all the people in Ephraim, including the ruler in Samaria, learned their lesson.

Those people are very proud and boastful now. They say, ¹⁰ “Yes, those bricks fell, but we will rebuild with strong stone. Yes, those little trees were chopped down, but we will plant new trees. And they will be large, strong trees.”

¹¹ The LORD found people to go up and fight against Rezin. He stirred up Rezin’s enemies. ¹² As for Israel, the Arameans are in front of him and the Philistines are behind him. And they are both eating away at him. But the Lord is not finished yet. He is still angry, and his arm is raised to continue punishing Israel.

¹³ The people did not stop sinning. They did not come to the LORD All-Powerful for help. ¹⁴ So the LORD cut off Israel’s head and tail. He took away the branch and the stalk in one day. ¹⁵ (The head means the elders and important leaders. The tail means the prophets who told lies.)

¹⁶ Their guides are leading them the wrong way, so those who follow them will be destroyed. ¹⁷ All of them are evil. So the Lord is not happy with the young men, and he will not show mercy to their widows and orphans. That is because they are evil hypocrites. They tell lies.

The Lord has punished them, but he is not finished yet. He is still angry, and his arm is raised to continue punishing his people.

¹⁸ That evil was like a small fire that started among the weeds and thorns and then spread to the larger bushes in the forest. Finally, it became a giant fire, and everything went up in smoke.

¹⁹ The LORD All-Powerful was angry, so the land was burned. The people were fuel for the fire. No one showed any compassion to anyone else. ²⁰ People looked to the right and grabbed whatever they could, but they were still hungry. They grabbed whatever was on their left, but still they were not satisfied. So they turned on themselves and began to eat the bodies of their own children. ²¹ Manasseh fought against Ephraim, and Ephraim fought against Manasseh. Then both of them turned on Judah.

But the Lord is not finished punishing his people. He is still angry, and his arm is raised to continue punishing them.

¹ Just look at those lawmakers who write evil laws and make life hard for the people. ² They are not fair to the poor. They take away the rights of the poor and allow people to steal from widows and orphans.

³ Lawmakers, you will have to explain what you have done. What will you do then? Your destruction is coming from a faraway country. Where will you run for help? Your money and your riches will not help you. ⁴ You will have to bow down like a prisoner. You will fall down like a dead man, but that will not help you. God will still be angry and ready to punish you.

God Will Punish Assyria’s Pride

⁵ The Lord says, “I will use Assyria like a stick. In my anger I will use Assyria to punish Israel. ⁶ I will send Assyria to fight against the people who do evil. I am angry with them, and I will command Assyria to fight against them. Assyria will defeat them and take their wealth. Israel will be like dirt for Assyria to walk on in the streets.

⁷ “But Assyria does not understand that I will use him. He does not think of himself as my tool. He only wants to destroy other people. He only plans to destroy many nations. ⁸ Assyria says to himself, ‘All of my officers are like kings! ⁹ The city of Calno is no better than the city of Carchemish. Arpad is like Hamath, and Samaria is like Damascus. ¹⁰ I defeated those evil kingdoms and now I control them. The idols those people worship are better than the idols of Jerusalem and Samaria. ¹¹ I defeated Samaria and her gods. I will also defeat Jerusalem and the idols her people have made.’ ”

¹² When the Lord finishes doing what he planned to Jerusalem and Mount Zion, he will punish Assyria. The king of Assyria is very proud. His pride made him do many bad things, so God will punish him.

¹³ The king of Assyria said, “I am very wise. By my own wisdom and power I have done many great things. I have defeated many nations. I have taken their wealth and their people as slaves. I am a very powerful man. ¹⁴ With my own hands I have taken the riches of all these people—like someone taking eggs from a bird’s nest. A bird often leaves its nest and eggs, and there is nothing to protect the nest. There is no bird to chirp and fight with its wings and beak, so anyone can come take the eggs. And there is no one to stop me from taking all the people on earth.”

¹⁵ An ax is not better than the one who cuts with it. A saw is not better than the one who uses it. Is a stick stronger than the one who picks it up? It can’t do anything to the person who is using it to punish someone! ¹⁶ But Assyria doesn’t understand this. So the Lord GOD All-Powerful will send a terrible disease against him. He will lose his wealth and power like a sick man losing weight. Then Assyria’s glory will be destroyed. It will be like a fire burning until everything is gone. ¹⁷ The Light of Israel* will be like a fire. The Holy One will be like a flame. He will be like a fire that first begins to burn the weeds and thorns ¹⁸ and then spreads to burn up the tall trees and vineyards. Finally, everything will be destroyed—even the people. Assyria will be like a rotting log. ¹⁹ There will be a few trees left standing in the forest—so few that even a child could count them.

²⁰ Then the people from Jacob’s family who are left living in Israel will stop depending on the one who beat them. They will learn to depend on the LORD, the Holy One of Israel.

²¹ Those who are left in Jacob’s family will again follow the Powerful God.†

²² Israel, your people are as many as the sands of the sea, but only a few of them will be left to come back to God. But before that happens, your country will be destroyed. God has announced that he will destroy the land. And then justice will come into the land like a river flowing full. ²³ The Lord GOD All-Powerful really will destroy this land.

²⁴ The Lord GOD All-Powerful says, “My people living in Zion, don’t be afraid of Assyria! Yes, he will beat you, and it will be just as the time when Egypt beat you with a stick. ²⁵ But after a short time my anger will stop. I will be satisfied that Assyria has punished you enough.”

²⁶ Then the LORD All-Powerful will beat Assyria with a whip, just as he defeated Midian at Raven Rock.‡ He will punish his enemies, as he did when he raised his stick over the sea§ and led his people from Egypt.

²⁷ He will take away the troubles Assyria brought you—troubles that are like heavy weights carried with a yoke on your neck. But that yoke will be taken off your neck. The burden will be lifted from your shoulders.

The Army of Assyria Invades Israel

²⁸ * The army of Assyria will enter near the “Ruins” (Aiath). The army will walk on the “Threshing Floor” (Migron). It will keep its food in the “Storehouse” (Micmash). ²⁹ The army will cross the river at the “Crossing” (Maabarah) and sleep at Geba. Ramah will be afraid. The people at Gibeah of Saul† will run away.

³⁰ Cry out, Bath Gallim‡! Laishah, listen! Anathoth, answer me! ³¹ The people of Madmenah are running away. The people of Gebim[§] are hiding. ³² This day the army will stop at Nob and prepare to fight against Mount Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.

³³ Look, the Lord GOD All-Powerful will use his great power and chop down that great tree. Their highest officials will be brought down. Their most important leaders will be humbled. ³⁴ God will cut down his enemies. Like the tall trees of Lebanon he will cut them down with an ax.

The King of Peace Is Coming

¹ A small tree* will begin to grow from the stump of Jesse.† That branch will grow from Jesse's roots. ² The LORD'S Spirit will always be with that new king to give him wisdom, understanding, guidance, and power. The Spirit will help him know and respect the LORD. ³ He will find joy in obeying the LORD.

This king will not judge people by the way things look. He will not judge by listening to rumors. ⁴⁻⁵ He will judge the poor fairly and honestly. He will be fair when he decides what to do for the poor of the land. If he decides people should be beaten, he will give the command, and they will be beaten. If he decides people must die, he will give the command, and those evil people will be killed. Goodness and fairness will be like a belt he wears around his waist.

⁶ Then wolves will live at peace with lambs, and leopards will lie down in peace with young goats. Calves, lions, and bulls will all live together in peace. A little child will lead them. ⁷ Bears and cattle will eat together in peace, and all their young will lie down together and will not hurt each other. Lions will eat hay like cattle. ⁸ Even snakes will not hurt people. Babies will be able to play near a cobra's‡ hole and put their hands into the nest of a poisonous snake.

⁹ People will stop hurting each other. People on my holy mountain will not want to destroy things because they will know the LORD. The world will be full of knowledge about him, like the sea is full of water.

¹⁰ At that time there will be someone special from Jesse's family. He will be like a flag that all the nations gather around. The nations will come to him and ask him what they should do. And the place where he is will be filled with glory.

¹¹ At that time the Lord will again reach out and take his people who are left in countries like Assyria, North Egypt, South Egypt, Ethiopia, Elam, Babylonia, Hamath, and other faraway countries around the world. ¹² He will gather the people of Israel and Judah who were forced to leave their country. They were scattered to all the faraway places on earth. But he will raise the flag as a sign for the other nations, and he will gather his people together again.

¹⁵ Just as the LORD divided the Red Sea near Egypt,† he will raise his arm in anger over the Euphrates River and hit it. It will divide into seven small rivers. They will be so small that the people can walk across with their sandals on. ¹⁶ Then God's people who are left in Assyria will have a way to leave. It will be just like the time God took the people out of Egypt.

§ 10:31 Gebim An unknown city. This name is like the Hebrew word for "pit" or "cistern," a hole in the ground for storing water. * 11:1 small tree That is, a new king will come from the family of David. † 11:1 Jesse King David's father. ‡ 11:8 cobra A very poisonous snake. § 11:14 East This usually refers to the area around Babylon.

* 11:14 Edom, Moab, Ammon Three countries east of Israel. They were Israel's enemies for many years. † 11:15 the LORD ... Egypt Or "the LORD will dry up the tongue of the Sea of Egypt."

A Song of Praise to God

¹ At that time you will say,

“I praise you, LORD!

You have been angry with me,
but don't be angry with me now.

Show your love to me.

² God is the one who saves me.

I trust him, and I am not afraid.
The LORD YAH is my strength.

He saves me, and I sing songs of praise about him.*”

³ You people will get your water from the spring of salvation.

Then you will be happy.

⁴ At that time you will say,

“Praise the LORD and call out his name!
Tell everyone what he has done and how wonderful he is.”

⁵ Sing songs of praise about the LORD, because he has done great things.

Spread this news about God throughout the whole world.

Let all people know these things.

⁶ People of Zion, shout about these things!

The Holy One of Israel is with you in a powerful way.
So sing and be happy!

God's Message to Babylon

¹ God showed Isaiah son of Amoz this message* about Babylon:

² “Raise a flag on that mountain† where nothing grows.

Call out to the men.
Wave your arms to let them know they should enter through the gates for important leaders.

³ “I have separated these men from the people, and I myself will command them.

I have gathered these proud, happy soldiers of mine to show how angry I am.

⁴ “Listen to that loud noise in the mountains.
It sounds like crowds of people.

People from many kingdoms are gathering together.
The LORD All-Powerful is calling his army together.

⁵ They are coming from a faraway land.

They are coming from beyond the horizon.
The LORD will use this army as a weapon to show his anger.
They will destroy the whole country.”

* 12:2 The LORD YAH ... him Literally, “YAH, YAHWEH is my strength and praise. And he becomes my salvation.”
This comes from the victory song of Moses in Exodus 15:2. * 13:1 message Or “burden.” † 13:2 mountain This probably means Babylon.

⁶ The LORD'S special day is near. So cry and be sad for yourselves. A time is coming when the enemy will steal your wealth. God All-Powerful will make that happen.[‡]
⁷ People will lose their courage. Fear will make them weak. ⁸ Everyone will be afraid. They will stare at each other with shock on their faces. Fear will grip them like the pains of a woman in childbirth.

God's Judgment Against Babylon

⁹ Look, the LORD'S special day is coming! It will be a terrible day. God will be very angry. He will destroy the country and wipe out the sinful people who live there. ¹⁰ The skies will be dark. The sun, the moon, and the stars will not shine.

¹¹ The Lord says, "I will cause bad things to happen to the world. I will punish the evil people for their sin. I will make proud people lose their pride. I will stop the bragging of cruel people. ¹² There will be only a few people left. They will be as rare as pure gold. ¹³ In my anger I will shake the sky, and the earth will be moved from its place."

That will happen on the day the LORD All-Powerful shows his anger. ¹⁴ Then the people from Babylon will run away like wounded deer or sheep that have no shepherd. Everyone will turn and run back to their own country and people. ¹⁵ Anyone caught by the enemy will be killed with a sword. ¹⁶ Everything in their houses will be stolen. Their wives will be raped, and their little children will be beaten to death while they watch.

¹⁷ The Lord says, "Look, I will cause the armies of Media to attack Babylon. Nothing will stop them, even if someone offers them gold and silver. ¹⁸ They will walk on the bows of the young soldiers of Babylon. The enemy soldiers will not show any kindness or mercy even to the babies and young children. ¹⁹ Babylon will be destroyed like the time God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.

"Babylon is the most beautiful of all kingdoms. The Babylonians[§] are very proud of their city. ²⁰ But Babylon will not continue to be beautiful. People will not continue to live there in the future. Arabs will not put their tents there. Shepherds will not bring their sheep to let them eat there. ²¹ The only animals living there will be wild animals from the desert. People will not be living in their houses in Babylon. The houses will be full of owls and large birds. Wild goats* will play in the houses. ²² Wild dogs and wolves will howl in the great and beautiful buildings. Babylon will be finished. The end is near, and it will not be delayed."

Israel Will Return Home

¹ The LORD will again show his love to Jacob. He will again choose the people of Israel. He will give them their land. Then the non-Israelites* will join the Israelites, and both will become one family—Jacob's family. ² Those nations will bring the Israelites back to their land. The men and women from the other nations will become slaves to Israel. In the past, those people forced the Israelites to become their slaves. But in the future the Israelites will defeat those nations, and Israel will then rule over them in the LORD'S land. ³ In the past, you were slaves. People forced you to work hard. But the LORD will take away the hard work you were forced to do.

A Song About the King of Babylon

⁴ At that time you will begin to sing this song about the king of Babylon:

The king was cruel when he ruled us,
 but now his rule is finished.

[‡] 13:6 A time ... happen This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The word meaning "stealing things in war" sounds like the word meaning "God All-Powerful." [§] 13:19 Babylonians Literally, "Chaldeans." ^{} 13:21 Wild goats The Hebrew word means "hairy," "goat," or "goat-demon." ^{} 14:1 non-Israelites This usually means those who live in a country but are not yet citizens of that country. Here, it is the non-Israelites who decided to follow God.

- 5 The LORD breaks the scepter of evil rulers;
he takes away their power.
- 6 In anger, the king of Babylon beat the people.
He never stopped beating them.
He was an evil ruler who ruled in anger.
He never stopped hurting people.
- 7 But now, the whole country rests and is quiet.
Now the people begin to celebrate.
- 8 You were an evil king,
and now you are finished.
Even the pine trees are happy.
The cedar trees of Lebanon rejoice.
They say, "The king chopped us down,
but now the king has fallen,
and he will never stand again."
- 9 The place of death is excited that you are coming.
Sheol is waking the spirits of all the leaders of the earth for you.
Sheol is making the kings stand up from their thrones to meet you.
- 10 They will make fun of you, saying,
"Now you are as dead as we are.
Now you are just like us."
- 11 Your pride has been sent down to Sheol.
The music from your harps announces the coming of your proud spirit.
Maggots will be the bed you lie on,
and other worms will cover your body like a blanket.
- 12 You were like the morning star,
but you have fallen from the sky.
In the past, all the nations on earth bowed down before you, but now you have been cut down.
- 13 You always told yourself,
"I will go to the skies above.
I will put my throne above God's stars.
I will sit on Zaphon,[†] the holy mountain where the gods meet.
- 14 I will go up to the altar above the tops of the clouds.
I will be like God Most High."
- 15 But that did not happen.
You were brought down to the deep pit—Sheol, the place of death.
- 16 People will come to look at your dead body.
They will think about you and say,
"Is this the same man
who caused great fear in all the kingdoms on earth, 17 who destroyed cities and turned the land into a desert, who captured people in war and would not let them go home?"
- 18 The kings of other nations lie buried with honor, each king with his own grave.

[†] 14:13 Zaphon This Hebrew word literally means "north" or "hidden."

¹⁹ But you were thrown out of your grave like a branch cut from a tree and thrown away.
 You are like a dead man who fell in battle,
 trampled under the feet of other soldiers.
 Now you look like any other dead man wrapped in burial clothes.
²⁰ Other kings have their own graves,
 but you will not join them,
 because you ruined your own country and killed your own people.
 So your wicked descendants will be stopped.

²¹ Prepare to kill his children, because their father is guilty.
 His children will never take control of the land.
 They will never fill the world with their cities.

²² The LORD All-Powerful said, "I will stand and fight against those people. I will destroy the famous city, Babylon. I will destroy all the people there. I will destroy their children, their grandchildren, and their great-grandchildren." The LORD himself said this.

²³ "I will change Babylon. It will be a place for animals,[‡] not people. It will be a swamp. I will use the 'broom of destruction' to sweep Babylon away." The LORD All-Powerful said this.

God Will Also Punish Assyria

²⁴ The LORD All-Powerful made this promise: "This will happen exactly as I meant for it to happen. It will happen just the way I planned. ²⁵ I will destroy the king of Assyria in my country. I will walk on him on my mountains. He forced my people to be his slaves; he put a yoke on their necks. But that pole will be taken off Judah's neck, and that burden will be removed. ²⁶ This is what I plan to do for this land. I will use my power to punish all those nations."

²⁷ When the LORD All-Powerful makes a plan, no one can change it. When he raises his arm to punish, no one can stop him.

God's Message to Philistia

²⁸ This message[§] was given to me the year King Ahaz died*:

²⁹ Country of Philistia, don't be happy that the king who beat you is now dead. It is true that his rule has ended, but his son will come and rule. It will be like one snake giving birth to a more dangerous one. The new king will be like a quick and dangerous snake to you. ³⁰ But even the poorest of my people will be able to eat safely. And their children will be able to lie down and feel safe. But I will make your family die from hunger, and your enemy will kill anyone who survives.

³¹ People near the city gates, cry!
 People in the city, cry out!
 Everyone in Philistia,
 your courage will melt like hot wax.

Look to the north!
 There is a cloud of dust.
 An army is coming,

[‡] 14:23 animals Literally, "porcupines." [§] 14:28 message Or "burden." Also in 15:1. ^{*} 14:28 year King Ahaz died About 727 B.C.

and everyone in that army is strong.[†]

- ³² But what will the messengers from that nation report about us?
They will say, “The LORD made Zion strong, and his poor people went there for safety.”

15

God’s Message to Moab

- ¹ This is a message about Moab:

One night armies took the wealth from Ar in Moab,
and the city was destroyed.

One night armies took the wealth from Kir in Moab,
and the city was destroyed.

- ² The king’s family and the people of Dibon* go to the places of worship[†] to cry.
The people of Moab are crying for Nebo[‡] and Medeba.[§]
They have shaved their heads and beards to show their sadness.

- ³ Everywhere in Moab, on the housetops and in the streets,
people are wearing sackcloth.
Everyone is crying.

- ⁴ In Heshbon and Elealeh they are crying loudly.
You can hear their voices as far away as Jahaz.
Even the soldiers are frightened.
They are shaking with fear.

- ⁵ My heart cries, full of sorrow for Moab.
Its people run away to Zoar for safety.
They run to Eglath Shelishiyah.

The people are crying
as they go up the road to Luhith.
They are crying loudly
as they walk on the road to Horonaim.

- ⁶ But Nimrim Brook is as dry as a desert.
The grass has dried up,
and the plants are all dead.
Nothing is green.

- ⁷ So the people gather up everything they own and cross the border at Arabah stream.

- ⁸ You can hear crying everywhere in Moab—
as far away as Eglaim and Beer Elim.

- ⁹ The water of Dimon* is full of blood, and I will bring even more troubles to Dimon.
A few people living in Moab have escaped the enemy,
but I will send lions to eat them.

[†] 14:31 everyone ... strong Or “there are no stragglers in that group.” * 15:2 Dibon A city in the country of Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “to be very sad.” [†] 15:2 places of worship Or “high places.” See “high places” in the Word List. [‡] 15:2 Nebo A city in the country of Moab and the name of a false god. [§] 15:2 Medeba A city in the country of Moab. This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “to be very sad.” * 15:9 Dimon This is probably the city of Dibon. Dimon is like the Hebrew word meaning “blood.”

16

¹ You people should send a gift to the king of the land. You should send a lamb from Sela, through the desert, to the mountain in the city of Jerusalem.*

² The women of Moab try to cross the river Arnon.
They run around looking for help,
like little birds that have fallen from their nest.

³ They say, "Help us!
Tell us what to do.
Protect us from our enemies
as shade protects us from the noon sun.

We are running from our enemies.
Hide us!
Don't give us to our enemies.

⁴ People from Moab were forced to leave their homes.
So let them live in your land.
Hide them from their enemies."

The robbing will stop.
The enemy will be defeated.
The men who hurt the people will be gone from the land.

⁵ Then a new king will come.
He will be from David's family.†
He will be loyal, loving, and kind.
He will be a king who judges fairly.
He will do what is right and good.

⁶ We have heard that the people of Moab are very proud and conceited.
They are hot-tempered braggers,
but their boasts are only empty words.

⁷ Because of their pride, everyone in Moab will mourn.
They will wish for the way things used to be.
They will wish for the raisin cakes from Kir Hareseth.‡

⁸ The fields of Heshbon and the vines of Sibmah no longer grow grapes.
Foreign rulers have destroyed the vines.

The enemy has reached Jazer and has spread into the desert and down to the sea.§

⁹ I will cry with the people of Jazer and Sibmah, because the grapes have been destroyed.
I will cry with the people of Heshbon and Elealeh because there will be no harvest.
There will be no summer fruit,
and there will be no shouts of joy for the harvest.

¹⁰ There will be no joy and happiness in the orchard.
I will end the happy singing and shouting in the vineyard.
The grapes are ready to make wine,
but they will all be ruined.

* 16:1 city of Jerusalem Literally, "daughter Zion." See "Zion" in the Word List. † 16:5 David's family The royal family of Judah. God promised that men from David's family would be kings in Judah. ‡ 16:7 Kir Hareseth A city in the country of Moab. § 16:8 Foreign rulers ... the sea Or "These grapes made many foreign rulers drunk. The vines spread far to the city of Jazer, then into the desert and down to the sea."

¹¹ So I will hum a sad song for Moab and Kir Heres,* like a harp playing a funeral song.

¹² The people of Moab will go to their high places to worship.

They will go to their temple to pray,
but it will not help them.

¹³ The LORD said these things about Moab many times. ¹⁴ And now the LORD says, “In three years (counting as exactly as a hired helper would) all those people and the things they are proud of will be gone. Only a few of their weakest people will be left.”

17

God’s Message to Aram

¹ This is a message* about Damascus†:

“Damascus is now a city, but it will be destroyed.

Only ruined buildings will be left there.

² People will leave the cities of Aroer.‡

Flocks of sheep will wander freely in those empty towns;
there will be no one to bother them.

³ The fort cities of Ephraim will be destroyed.

The government in Damascus will be finished.

Those left in Aram will lose everything, just like the people of Israel,” says the LORD All-Powerful.

⁴ “At that time Jacob’s wealth will all be gone.

Yes, Israel will be like a sick man who has become weak and thin.

⁵ “That time will be like the grain harvest in Rephaim Valley.§ The workers gather the plants that grow in the field. Then they cut the heads of grain from the plants and collect the grain.

⁷ Then the people will look up to the one who made them. Their eyes will see the Holy One of Israel. ⁸ They will not trust the great things they have made. They will not go to the special gardens* and altars† they made for false gods. ⁹ At that time all the walled cities will be empty. They will be like the mountains and the forests‡ in the land before the Israelites came. In the past, all the people ran away because the Israelites were coming. In the future, the country will be empty again. ¹⁰ This will happen because you have forgotten the God who saves you. You have not remembered that God is your place of safety.

You brought some very good grapevines from faraway places. You might plant those grapevines, but they will not grow. ¹¹ You will plant your grapevines one day and try to make them grow, and the next day they will blossom. But at harvest time, you will go

* 16:11 Kir Heres Kir Hareseth, a city in the country of Moab. Kir Heres means “a city chosen to be destroyed.”

* 17:1 message Or “burden.” † 17:1 Damascus A city in the country of Aram (Syria). ‡ 17:2 Aroer A place in the country of Aram (Syria). § 17:5 Rephaim Valley A valley southwest of Jerusalem. * 17:8 special gardens

Gardens where people worshiped false gods. † 17:8 altars These might be altars for burning incense, or they might be altars for worshipping a special false god. ‡ 17:9 mountains and the forests With a minor change in the Hebrew, this could be “the Horites and Amorites.”

to gather the fruit from the plants, and you will see that everything is dead. A sickness will kill all the plants.

¹² Listen to all these people!

Their loud crying sounds like the noise from the sea.

Listen, it is like the crashing of waves in the sea.

¹³ And like the waves,

they will rush away when God speaks harshly to them.

They will be like chaff blown away by the wind.

They will be like weeds chased by a storm.

¹⁴ That night, the people will be frightened.

By morning, nothing will be left.

So our enemies will get nothing.

They will come to our land, but nothing will be there.

18

God's Message to Ethiopia

¹ Look at the land along the rivers of Ethiopia where you can hear the buzzing of insect wings. ² That land sends people down the Nile River in reed boats.*

Fast messengers, go to the people who are tall and smooth, who are feared far and wide.

Go to that powerful nation that defeats other countries and whose land is divided by rivers.

Go warn them!

³ Like a flag on a hill, everyone on earth will see what happens.

Like a trumpet call,

everyone in the country will hear it.

⁴ The LORD said, "I will be in the place prepared for me.† I will quietly watch these things happen: On a beautiful summer day, at noon, people will be resting. (It will be during the hot harvest time when there is no rain, but only early morning dew.) ⁵ Then something terrible will happen. Earlier in the year, the flowers bloomed and the new grapes formed buds and began to grow. But before the crop is harvested, the enemy will come and cut the plants. They will break the vines and throw them away. ⁶ The vines will be left for the birds from the mountains and the wild animals to eat. The birds will feed on them throughout the summer, and that winter the wild animals will eat the vines."

⁷ At that time a special offering will be brought to the LORD All-Powerful from the people who are tall and smooth, from those who are feared far and wide, from that powerful nation that defeats other countries and whose land is divided by rivers.‡ This offering will be brought to the LORD'S place on Mount Zion.

19

God's Message to Egypt

¹ A message* about Egypt: Look, the LORD is coming on a fast cloud. He will enter

* 18:2 reed boats These boats were made by tying many reeds (a type of water plant) together. † 18:4 the place prepared for me Probably the Temple in Jerusalem. ‡ 18:7 Or "At that time the people who are tall and smooth, who are feared far and wide, that powerful nation who defeats other countries and whose land is divided by rivers, those people will be brought to the LORD All-Powerful as a special gift." * 19:1 message Or "burden."

Egypt, and all the false gods of Egypt will shake with fear. Egypt's courage will melt away like hot wax.

² The Lord says, "I will cause the Egyptians to fight against themselves. Men will fight their brothers. Neighbors will be against neighbors. Cities will be against cities. Kingdoms will be against kingdoms."[†] ³ The Egyptians will be afraid and confused. They will ask their false gods and wise men what they should do. They will ask their wizards and magicians, but I will ruin their plans."[‡] ⁴ The Lord GOD All-Powerful says, "I will give Egypt to a hard master. A powerful king will rule over the people."

⁵ The water in the Nile River will dry up and disappear. ⁶ All the rivers will smell very bad.[‡] The canals in Egypt will be dry, and the water will be gone. All the water plants will rot. ⁷ All the plants along the riverbanks will die and blow away. Even the plants at the widest part of the river will dry up, blow away, and disappear.

⁸ The fishermen, all those who catch fish from the Nile River, will become sad and they will cry. They depend on the Nile River for their food, but it will be dry. ⁹ Those who make cloth from flax, who weave it into linen, will all be sad. ¹⁰ Those who weave cloth will be broken, and those who work for money will be depressed.

¹³ The leaders of Zoan have been fooled. The leaders of Noph* have believed lies, so they lead Egypt the wrong way. ¹⁴ The LORD confused them, so they wander around and lead Egypt the wrong way. Everything they do is wrong. They are like drunks rolling in their vomit. ¹⁵ There is nothing the leaders can do. (They are "the heads and the tails." They are "the tops and the stalks of plants."[†])

¹⁶ At that time the Egyptians will be like frightened women. They will be afraid of the LORD All-Powerful, because he will raise his arm to punish the people. ¹⁷ The land of Judah brings fear to everyone in Egypt. Anyone in Egypt who hears the name Judah will be afraid. This will happen because the LORD All-Powerful has planned terrible things to happen to Egypt. ¹⁸ At that time there will be five cities in Egypt where people speak Hebrew.[‡] One of these cities will be named "Destruction City."[§] The people in these cities will promise to follow the LORD All-Powerful.

¹⁹ At that time there will be an altar for the LORD in the middle of Egypt. At the border of Egypt there will be a monument to show honor to the LORD. ²⁰ This will be a sign to show that the LORD All-Powerful does amazing things. Any time the people cry for help from the LORD, he will send help. He will send someone to save and defend the people—to rescue the people from those who hurt them.

²¹ At that time the LORD will make himself known to the Egyptians, and they really will know the LORD. They will serve him and give him many sacrifices. They will make promises* to the LORD, and they will do what they promise. ²² The LORD will punish the Egyptians, but then he will heal them, and they will come back to him. The LORD will listen to their prayers and heal them.

²³ At that time there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria. Then the Assyrians will go to Egypt, and the Egyptians will go to Assyria. Egypt will work with Assyria.[†] ²⁴ Then

[†] 19:2 Kingdoms will be against kingdoms Or "States will be against states." This means Egyptians will fight other Egyptians. [‡] 19:6 smell very bad In Hebrew this is like a name for the Nile River. [§] 19:11 Zoan A city in Egypt. Also in verse 13. ^{} 19:13 Noph Or "Memphis," a city in Egypt. [†] 19:15 the heads and ... stalks of plants See Isaiah 9:14-15. [‡] 19:18 Hebrew Literally, "the language of Canaan." [§] 19:18 Destruction City This is a wordplay on the name meaning "Sun City," which is also called On or Heliopolis. ^{} 19:21 promises A special kind of promise to God. See Leviticus 22:18-24. [†] 19:23 Egypt will work with Assyria Or "Egypt will serve Assyria."

Israel, Assyria, and Egypt will join together and control the land. This will be a blessing for the land. ²⁵ The LORD All-Powerful will bless these countries. He will say, “Egypt, you are my people. Assyria, I made you. Israel, I own you. You are all blessed!”

Assyria Will Defeat Egypt and Ethiopia

¹ Sargon* was the king of Assyria. He sent his military commander to fight against Ashdod. The commander went there and captured the city. ² At that time the LORD spoke through Isaiah son of Amoz. He said, “Go, take the sackcloth off your waist and the sandals off your feet.” So Isaiah obeyed the Lord and went without clothes or sandals.

³ Then the LORD said, “My servant Isaiah has gone without clothes or sandals for three years. This is a sign for Egypt and Ethiopia. ⁴ The king of Assyria will defeat Egypt and Ethiopia. Assyria will take prisoners and lead them away from their countries. The people, young and old, will be led away without clothes or sandals. They will be completely naked. ⁵ Those who looked to Ethiopia for help will be shattered. Those who were amazed by Egypt’s glory will be ashamed.”

⁶ People living along the coast will say, “We trusted those countries to help us. We ran to them so that they would rescue us from the king of Assyria. But look at them. They have been captured, so how can we escape?”

21

God’s Message About Babylon

¹ This is a message* about the “desert by the sea”†:

It is coming like a storm blowing through the Negev.

It is coming in from the desert, from a frightening nation.

² I was given a vision of the hard times to come.

I see traitors turning against you.

I see people taking your wealth.

Elam, go against them!

Media, surround the city!

I will put an end to all their moaning.

³ I saw those terrible things, and now I am afraid.

My fear makes my stomach hurt like the pain of giving birth.

What I hear frightens me.

What I see makes me shake with fear.

⁴ I am worried and shaking with fear.

My pleasant evening has become a nightmare.

⁵ People are rushing around shouting their orders:

“Set the table!

Post the guard!

Get something to eat and drink!

Officers, get up!

Polish your shields!”

* 20:1 Sargon A king of Assyria. He was king about 721–705 B.C.

* 21:1 message Or “burden.” Also in verses 11,

13. † 21:1 the desert by the sea Probably Babylon.

⁶ The Lord said to me, “Go find someone to guard this city. He must report whatever he sees. ⁷ Whether he sees a chariot and a team of horses or men riding donkeys or camels, he must listen carefully.”[‡]

⁸ Then one day the watchman[§] called out,

“My master, every day I have been in the watchtower* watching.
Every night I have been standing on duty.

⁹ Look! I see a man in a chariot with a team of horses.[†]”

The messenger said,

“Babylon has been defeated!
It has fallen to the ground!

All the statues of her false gods were thrown to the ground and broken to pieces.”

¹⁰ My people, you will be like the grain crushed on my threshing floor. I have told you everything I heard from the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel.

God’s Message About Dumah

¹¹ This is a message about Dumah[‡]:

There is someone calling to me from Seir,[§]

“Guard, how much of the night is left?
How much longer will it be night?”

¹² The guard answered,

“Morning is coming, but then night will come again.

If you have something else to ask,
then come back* later and ask.”

God’s Message About Arabia

¹³ This is a message about Arabia:

A caravan from Dedan spent the night near some trees in the Arabian Desert.

¹⁴ They gave water to some thirsty travelers.
The people of Tema gave them food.

¹⁵ They were running from swords that were ready to kill.

They were running from bows that were ready to shoot.

They were running from a hard battle.

[‡] 21:7 Or “Whether he sees a column of teams of horsemen, columns of donkeys, or columns of camels, he must listen carefully.” [§] 21:8 the watchman “the seer,” an ancient title for a prophet. The standard Hebrew text has “a lion.”

* 21:8 watchtower A tall building where guards stood and watched to see if anyone was coming near their city. [†] 21:9 a man ... horses Or “a column of teams of horsemen.” This might be a team of horses pulling a war chariot or mounted archers in the Assyrian army who often worked in pairs.

[‡] 21:11 Dumah This Hebrew word means “silence.” It may refer to Edom or to a city in Arabia. [§] 21:11 Seir A mountain in Edom or a city in Arabia.

* 21:12 come back This can also mean “change your heart” or “repent.”

¹⁶ The Lord told me this would happen. He said, “In one year, the way a hired helper counts time, all Kedar’s glory will be gone. ¹⁷ Only a few of the archers, the great soldiers of Kedar, will be left alive.” The LORD, the God of Israel, told me this.

22

God’s Message to Jerusalem

¹ This is a message* about the Valley of Vision†:

Jerusalem, what is wrong?

Why has everyone gone up to hide in their upper rooms?

² This city was so happy,

but now there is a terrible uproar.

There are bodies lying everywhere,

but they were not killed with swords.

The people died,

but not while fighting.

³ All your officers ran away together, but they have all been captured without bows.‡

All the leaders ran away together, but they were found and captured.

⁴ So I say, “Don’t look at me!

Let me cry!

Don’t rush to comfort me about the destruction of Jerusalem.”

⁹⁻¹¹ Then you noticed how many cracks there were in the walls around the City of David, so you began collecting water from the Lower Pool.† You counted the houses and used stones from them to repair the walls. Then you built a pool between the double walls‡ for storing water from the Old Pool.§

You did all this to protect yourselves, but you did not trust the God who made all these things. You did not even notice the one who made all these things so long ago. ¹² So the Lord GOD All-Powerful told the people to cry and mourn for their dead friends. He told them to shave their heads and wear mourning clothes. ¹³ But look, everyone was happy. The people rejoiced, saying, “Kill the cattle and sheep, and let’s celebrate.

* 22:1 message Or “burden.” † 22:1 Valley of Vision This probably means one of the valleys near Jerusalem. Also in verse 5. ‡ 22:3 but they have ... bows Or “but the archers captured them.” § 22:8 cover protecting Judah This might be the wall around Jerusalem, but see Isaiah 4:5-6. * 22:8 Forest Palace A part of Solomon’s palace where his weapons and wealth were stored. † 22:9-11 Lower Pool The pool at the southern tip of the City of David, just below the Upper Pool (the Pool of Siloam). ‡ 22:9-11 pool between the double walls This is probably the Upper Pool (the Pool of Siloam). § 22:9-11 Old Pool Probably the pool at Gihon Spring on the eastern slopes of the city.

Let's eat meat and drink wine.
Eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."

¹⁴ The LORD All-Powerful said this to me and I heard it with my own ears: "You are guilty of doing wrong, and I promise that you will die before this guilt is forgiven." The Lord GOD All-Powerful said these things.

God's Message to Shebna

¹⁵ The Lord GOD All-Powerful told me to go to Shebna, the palace manager, ¹⁶ and say this: "What are you doing here? None of your relatives are buried here, are they? Then what right do you have to prepare a tomb for yourself in this high place? Why are you cutting a tomb out of this rock?

¹⁷⁻¹⁸ "What a big man you are! But the LORD will crush you. He will roll you into a small ball and throw you far away into the open arms of another country, and there you will die.

"You are very proud of your chariots. But in that faraway land, your new ruler will have better chariots. And your chariots will not look important in his palace. ¹⁹ I will force you out of your position here. Your new leader will take you away from your important job. ²⁰ At that time I will call for my servant Eliakim son of Hilkiah. ²¹ I will take your robe and put it on him. I will give him your scepter. I will give him the important job you have, and he will be like a father to the people of Jerusalem and Judah's family.*

²² "I will put the key to David's house around his neck. If he opens a door, no one will be able to close it. If he closes a door, no one will be able to open it. ²³ He will be like a favorite chair in his father's house. I will make him like a strong peg in a solid board. ²⁴ All the honored and important things of his father's house will hang on him. All the adults and little children will depend on him. They will be like little dishes and big water bottles hanging on him."

²⁵ The LORD All-Powerful said, "At that time the peg that is now in the solid board will get weak and break. It will fall to the ground, and everything hanging on it will be destroyed. Then everything I said in this message will happen. It will happen because the LORD said it would."

God's Message About Tyre

¹ This is a message* about Tyre:

Ships traveling from Cyprus heard this message:

"Cry, you ships from Tarshish†!
Your harbor has been destroyed."

² You people living near the sea, mourn in silence.
The merchants of Sidon sent traders across the sea and filled the city with riches.

³ They traveled the seas looking for grain.
The men from Tyre bought grain that grows near the Nile River and sold it to other nations.

⁴ Sidon, you should be very sad, because now the Sea and the Fort of the Sea‡ say,

* 22:21 people of Jerusalem and Judah's family Or "The king sitting on the throne in Jerusalem, the royal family of Judah." * 23:1 message Or "burden." † 23:1 ships from Tarshish This is probably a special type of cargo ship. Also in verse 14. ‡ 23:4 Fort of the Sea Another name for the city of Tyre.

“I have no children.
 I have never felt the pain of birth;
 I have never given birth to children.
 I have never raised young men and women.”

⁵ When Egypt hears the news about Tyre, it will feel the pain of sorrow.
⁶ You ships, try to escape to Tarshish!
 Cry out, you people living near the sea!
⁷ Can this be that happy city that was founded so long ago?
 Is it that same city whose people traveled so far to settle other lands?[§]
⁸ This city produced so many leaders.
 Its merchants were like princes.
 Its traders had the whole world’s respect.
 So who made these plans against Tyre?
⁹ It was the LORD All-Powerful.
 He decided to destroy the great things they were so proud of.
 He wanted to disgrace those who were so highly respected.
¹⁰ Ships from Tarshish, go back home.
 Cross the sea as if it were a river.
 No one will stop you now.
¹¹ The LORD raised his arm over the sea to make the kingdoms angry enough to fight against Tyre.
 He commanded Canaan to destroy her place of safety.*
¹² He said, “Daughter Sidon,[†] you have been hurt badly, so you will no longer rejoice like a bride.
 Go ahead, go to Cyprus[‡] for help, but you will not find a place to rest there either.”
¹³ As for Babylon, look at the land of the Chaldeans!
 It is not even a country now.
 Assyria built war towers to attack it.
 The soldiers took everything from the beautiful houses.
 Assyria destroyed Babylon.
 They turned it into a pile of ruins and made it a place for wild animals.
¹⁴ So be sad, you ships from Tarshish.
 Your place of safety has been destroyed.

¹⁵ People will forget about Tyre for 70 years—that is, about the length of a king’s rule.
 After 70 years, Tyre will be like the prostitute in this song:

¹⁶ “Oh, woman who men forgot,
 take your harp and walk through the city.
 Play your song well and sing it often.
 Maybe someone will remember you.”

¹⁷ After 70 years, the LORD will review Tyre’s case, and he will give her a decision. Tyre will again have trade. She will be like a prostitute for all the nations on earth. ¹⁸ But Tyre

[§] 23:7 traveled ... other lands? Or “came from so far to live here?” * 23:11 Or “He raised his arm over the sea and shook nations. He gave a command about Canaan to destroy its fortresses.” † 23:12 Daughter Sidon Another name for the city of Sidon. ‡ 23:12 Cyprus Literally, “Kittim.” This could also mean “Crete.”

will not keep the money she earns. The profit from her trade will be saved for the LORD. Tyre will give that money to the people who serve the LORD to buy good food and nice clothes.

God Will Punish Israel

¹ Look, the LORD is destroying this land.* He will clean out the land completely and force all the people to go far away. ² At that time whatever happens to the common people will also happen to the priests. Slaves and masters will be the same. Women slaves and their women masters will be the same. Buyers and sellers will be the same. Those who borrow and those who lend will be the same. Bankers and those who owe the bank will be the same. ³ Everyone will be forced out of the land. All the wealth will be taken. This will happen because the LORD commanded it. ⁴ The country will be empty and sad. The world will be empty and weak. The great leaders of the people in this land will become weak.

⁵ The people have ruined the land. They did what God said was wrong. They did not obey God's laws. They made an agreement with God a long time ago, but they broke their agreement with God. ⁶ The people living in this land are guilty of doing wrong, so God promised to destroy the land. The people will be punished, and only a few of them will survive.

¹⁰ "Total Confusion" is a good name for this city. The city has been destroyed. People cannot enter the houses. The doors are blocked. ¹¹ People still ask for wine in the marketplaces, but all the joy is gone. It was carried off with everything else. ¹² All that is left is destruction. Even the gates are crushed.

¹³ At harvest time, people knock olives from the trees.

But a few olives are left in the trees.

It will be like that in this land and among the nations.

¹⁴ Those who are left will begin shouting louder than the ocean.

They will rejoice about the LORD'S greatness.

¹⁵ They will say, "People in the east, praise the LORD!

People in faraway lands,

praise the name of the LORD, the God of Israel."

¹⁶ We hear songs of praise for God from every place on earth.

They praise the God who does what is right.

But I say, "Enough!

I have had enough.

What I see is terrible.

Traitors are turning against people and hurting them."

¹⁷ I see troubles for you people living in this land.

I see fear, pits, and problems all around.

¹⁸ People will hear about the danger, and they will be afraid.

Some of them will run away,

but they will fall into holes and be trapped.

Some of them will climb out of the holes,

but they will be caught in another trap.

* 24:1 land Or "earth."

The floodgates in the sky above will open,
and the floods will begin.

The foundations of the earth will shake.

¹⁹ There will be earthquakes, and the earth will split open.

²⁰ The sins of the world are very heavy,
so the earth will fall under the weight.

It will shake like an old house.
It will fall like a drunk.
It will not be able to stand.

²¹ At that time the LORD will judge the heavenly armies in heaven and the earthly kings on earth.

²² Many people will be gathered together.
They have been locked in the Pit.

They have been in prison.[†]

But finally, after a long time, they will be judged.

²³ The LORD will rule as king on Mount Zion in Jerusalem.
His Glory will be shown to the city leaders with such brightness that the moon will be embarrassed and the sun will be ashamed.

25

A Song of Praise to God

¹ LORD, you are my God.

I honor you and praise your name, because you did amazing things.

The words you said long ago are completely true;
everything happened exactly as you said it would.

² And you destroyed the city that was protected by strong walls.
Now it is only a pile of rocks.

The foreign palace has been destroyed.
It will never be rebuilt.

³ That is why powerful nations will honor you.

Powerful people from strong cities will fear you.

⁴ You have been a safe place for poor people in trouble.

You are like a shelter from floods and shade from the heat when powerful men attack.

They are like rain streaming down the walls that protect us from the storm.

⁵ Like the heat of summer in a dry land,
the angry shouts of those foreigners brought us to our knees.

But like a thick cloud that blocks the summer heat,
you answered their challenge.

God's Banquet for His Servants

⁶ The LORD All-Powerful will give a feast for all the people on this mountain. At the feast, there will be the best foods and wines. The meat will be good and tender, the wine pure and clear.

⁷ But now there is a veil covering all nations and people. This veil is called "death."

⁸ But death will be destroyed forever.* And the Lord GOD will wipe away every tear from

[†] 24:22 Pit ... prison This is probably "Sheol," the grave. * 25:8 But death ... forever Some Greek versions have "But death will be swallowed in victory."

every face. In the past, all of his people were sad, but God will take away that sadness from the earth. All of this will happen because the LORD said it would.

- ⁹ At that time people will say,
 “Here is our God!
 He is the one we have been waiting for.
 He has come to save us.
 We have been waiting for our LORD.
 So we will rejoice and be happy when he saves us.”
- ¹⁰ The LORD’S power is on this mountain, and Moab[†] will be defeated.
 The Lord will trample the enemy like someone walking on straw in a pile of waste.
- ¹¹ They will reach out their arms to escape like someone trying to swim.
 But their pride will sink with each stroke they take.
- ¹² He will destroy their high walls and safe places.
 He will throw them down into the dust on the ground.

26

A Song of Praise to God

- ¹ At that time people will sing this song in Judah:
 We have a strong city with strong walls and defenses.
 But God gives us our salvation.*
- ² Open the gates for the good people to enter.
 They are the God’s faithful followers.
- ³ God, you give true peace to people who depend on you,
 to those who trust in you.
- ⁴ So trust the LORD always, because in the LORD YAH[†] you have a place of safety forever.
- ⁵ But he will destroy the proud city and punish those who live there.
 He will throw that high city down to the ground.
 It will fall into the dust.
- ⁶ Then poor and humble people will walk on those ruins.
- ⁷ Honesty is the path good people follow.
 They follow the path that is straight and true.
 And God, you make that way smooth and easy to follow.
- ⁸ But, LORD, we are waiting for your way of justice.
 We want to honor you and your name.
- ⁹ At night my soul longs to be with you,

[†] 25:10 Moab Or “the enemy.” This name is like a Hebrew word meaning “enemy.” * 26:1 Or “We have a strong city that provides us with salvation. It has strong walls and defenses.” [†] 26:4 LORD YAH Or “YAH YAHWEH,” a Hebrew name for God.

and the spirit in me wants to be with you at the dawn of every new day.
 When your way of justice comes to the world, people will learn the right way of living.
 10 Evil people will not learn to do good,
 even if you show them only kindness.
 They will still do wrong, even if they live in a good world.
 They never see the LORD'S greatness.
 11 LORD, your arm is raised to punish them,
 but they don't see it.
 Show them how strong your love[‡] is for your people.
 Then those who are evil will be ashamed.
 Yes, your fire will destroy your enemies.
 12 LORD, you have succeeded in doing everything we tried to do, so give us peace.

God Will Give New Life to His People

13 LORD, you are our God,
 but in the past, we followed other lords.
 We belonged to other masters,[§]
 but now we want people to remember only one name—yours.
 14 Those dead lords will not come to life.
 Those ghosts will not rise from death.
 You decided to destroy them,
 and you destroyed everything that makes us think about them.
 15 LORD, you have helped the nation you love.
 You made our nation grow and brought honor to yourself.*
 16 LORD, people remember you when they are in trouble.
 So because of your punishment,
 we called out to you.
 17 LORD, because of you we were in pain,
 like a woman giving birth,
 who struggles and cries out when it is time.
 18 But we struggled in pain for nothing.
 We gave birth only to wind.
 We did nothing to save the land.
 No one was born to live in the world.
 19 But the Lord says,
 “Your people have died,
 but they will live again.
 The bodies of my people will rise from death.
 Dead people in the ground,
 stand and be happy!
 The dew covering you is like the dew sparkling in the light of a new day.
 It shows that a new time is coming,
 when the earth will give birth to the dead who are in it.”

[‡] 26:11 strong ... love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy. [§] 26:13 we followed ... masters This is a wordplay. It could also be translated, “Husbands other than you married us.” One word sounds like “Baal,” the other like a title for God. * 26:15 Or “You gathered together the nation you love, the nation you drove into faraway lands.”

Judgment: Reward or Punishment

²⁰ My people, go into your rooms and lock your doors.

Hide in there for a short time until God's anger is finished.

²¹ Look! The LORD is coming out from his place[†] to judge the people of the world for the bad things they have done.
The earth will reveal the blood that has been spilled on it.
It will no longer hide the proof of those murders.

27

¹ At that time the LORD will judge Leviathan,*
the crooked snake.
He will use his great sword, his hard and powerful sword, to punish Leviathan, that twisting, turning snake.
He will kill the monster of the sea.[†]

² At that time people will sing about the pleasant vineyard.
³ "I, the LORD, will care for the vineyard.
I will water it at the right time.
I will guard it day and night.
No one will hurt it.

⁴ I am not angry.
But if there is war and someone builds a wall of thornbushes,[‡]
then I will march to it and burn it.
⁵ But if anyone comes to me for safety and wants to make peace with me, then let them come and make peace.
⁶ In the future, Jacob will take root firmly on his soil.
Then Israel will sprout and bloom,
and the world will be filled with his fruit."

God Will Send Israel Away

⁷ Israel was not hurt as badly as the enemy who tried to hurt it. Not as many of its people were killed as those who tried to kill them.

⁸ The Lord will settle his argument with Israel by sending the people far away. He will speak harshly to Israel. His words will burn like the hot desert wind.

⁹ How will Jacob's guilt be forgiven? What will happen so his sins can be taken away? The rocks of the altar will be crushed to dust; the statues[§] and altars for worshiping false gods will all be destroyed.

¹⁰ The great city will be empty; it will be like a desert. All the people will be gone—they will run away. The city will be like an open pasture. Young cattle will eat grass there. The cattle will eat leaves from the branches of the vines. ¹¹ The vines will become dry, and the branches will break off. Women will use them for firewood.

The people refuse to understand. So God, their Maker, will not comfort them or be kind to them.

[†] 26:21 his place Probably the Temple in Jerusalem. * 27:1 Leviathan The Dragon or giant snake. Some ancient stories say the Dragon was an enemy of God. [†] 27:1 monster of the sea This is probably Rahab. Some ancient stories tell of Rahab fighting with God. [‡] 27:4 a wall of thornbushes Literally, "thorns and thistles." Farmers planted walls of thornbushes around vineyards to protect them from animals. See Isaiah 5:5. [§] 27:9 statues Or "idols." See "idol" in the Word List.

¹² At that time the LORD will begin separating his people from others. He will begin at the Euphrates River and will gather his people from there* to the River of Egypt.†

You people of Israel will be gathered together one by one. ¹³ Many of my people are now lost in Assyria. Some of my people have run away to Egypt. But at that time a great trumpet will be blown, and all those people will come back to Jerusalem. They will bow down before the LORD on that holy mountain.

28

Warnings to Northern Israel

The drunks of Ephraim are proud of that city.

It sits on a hill with a rich valley around it.

The Samaritans think their city is a beautiful crown of flowers.

But they are drunk with wine, and this “beautiful crown” is just a dying plant.

² Look, the Lord has someone who is strong and brave.

He will come into the country like a storm of hail and rain.

Like a powerful river of water flooding the country,

he will throw that crown* down to the ground.

³ The drunks of Ephraim are proud of their beautiful crown, but that city will be trampled down.

⁴ That city sits on a hill with a rich valley around it.

But that beautiful crown of flowers is just a dying plant.

It will be like the first figs of summer.

As soon as someone sees a ripe one, they pick it and eat it.

⁵ At that time the LORD All-Powerful will become the “Beautiful Crown.” He will be the “Wonderful Crown of Flowers” for his people who are left. ⁶ Then he will give wisdom to the judges who rule his people. He will give strength to the people who are in battles at the city gates. ⁷ But now those leaders are drunk. The priests and prophets are all drunk with wine and beer. They stumble and fall down. The prophets are drunk when they see their dreams. The judges are drunk when they make their decisions. ⁸ Every table is covered with vomit. There is not a clean place anywhere.

God Wants to Help His People

⁹ The people say, “Who does he think he is trying to teach and explain his message to? Does he think we are babies who were at their mother’s breast only a very short time ago? ¹⁰ He speaks to us as though we were babies:

“Saw lasaw saw lasaw

Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw

Ze’er sham ze’er sham.”†

¹¹ So God will use this strange way of talking, and he will use other languages to speak to these people.

* 27:12 He will begin ... from there Literally, “He will begin threshing at the stream of the river.” This Hebrew word for stream is like the word meaning “head of grain.” † 27:12 Euphrates River ... River of Egypt These are the borders of the land God promised to give Israel. * 28:2 that crown That is, Samaria. † 28:10 Saw lasaw ... ze’er sham This is probably a Hebrew song to teach little children how to write. It sounds like baby talk or a foreign language, but it can also be translated, “A command here, a command there. A rule here, a rule there. A lesson here, a lesson there.” Also in verse 13.

¹² In the past he spoke to them and said, “Here is a resting place. Let those who are tired come and rest. This is the place of peace.”

But they would not listen to him. ¹³ So the LORD’S words will be senseless sounds[‡] to them:

“Saw lasaw saw lasaw.
Qaw laqaw qaw laqaw.
Ze’er sham ze’er sham.”

When the people try to walk, they will fall backwards. They will be defeated, trapped, and captured.

No One Escapes God’s Judgment

¹⁴ You leaders in Jerusalem should listen to the LORD’S message, but now you refuse to listen to him. ¹⁵ You have said, “We have made an agreement with death. We have a contract with death. So we will not be punished. Punishment will pass us without hurting us. We will hide behind our tricks and lies.”

¹⁷ “Workers use a string and weight to show their work is straight and true. I will use justice as the string and goodness as the weight when I lay that foundation. But your safe places were built on lies. So they will be destroyed and washed away when the troubles come against you like hail storms and floods. ¹⁸ Your agreement with death will be erased. Your contract with Sheol will not help you.

“Someone will come and punish you. He will make you like the dirt he walks on. ¹⁹ He will come and take you away. Your punishment will be terrible. Your punishment will come early in the morning, and it will continue late into the night.

“Then you will understand this story: ²⁰ A man tried to sleep on a bed that was too short for him. He had a blanket that was not wide enough to cover him. The bed and blanket were useless, and so were your agreements.”

²¹ The LORD will fight as he did at Mount Perazim. He will be angry as he was in Gibeon Valley.[†] He will do what he must do. It will be what some stranger should do, but he will finish his work. Yes, this is a stranger’s job. ²² Now don’t complain about these things. If you fight against them, you will only tighten the ropes around you.

The words I heard will not change. They came from the Lord GOD All-Powerful, the ruler of all the earth, and these things will be done.

The Lord Punishes Fairly

²³ Listen closely to the message I am telling you. ²⁴ Does a farmer plow his field all the time? No, he doesn’t work the soil all the time. ²⁵ A farmer prepares the ground, and then he plants the seed. He plants different kinds of seeds different ways. He scatters dill seeds, he throws cumin seeds on the ground, and he plants wheat in rows. A farmer plants barley in its special place, and he plants spelt seeds at the edge of his field.

²⁶ Our God is using this to teach you a lesson. This example shows us that God is fair when he punishes his people. ²⁷ Does a farmer use large boards with sharp teeth to crush dill seeds? No, and he doesn’t use a wagon to crush cumin seeds. A farmer uses a small stick to break the hulls from these seeds of grain. ²⁸ People grind grain to make flour, but they don’t grind it forever. As God does in punishing people, a worker might drive his wagon over the grain to remove the hulls, but he does not allow the horses[‡] to crush it. ²⁹ This lesson comes from the LORD All-Powerful, who gives wonderful advice. He is very wise.

[‡] 28:13 senseless sounds Or “gibberish” or “baby talk.” [§] 28:16 very precious stone This also means a stone has been tested and shown that it has no cracks. ^{*} 28:16 Anyone ... disappointed This is found in the ancient Greek version. The standard Hebrew text has “Whoever trusts will not panic.” [†] 28:21 Mount Perazim ... Gibeon Valley See 1 Chron. 14:8-17.

29

God Punishes Jerusalem

⁵ There will be so many foreigners that they will be like dust. Cruel people will be like the chaff blowing in the wind. Then suddenly, ⁶ the LORD All-Powerful will punish you with earthquakes, thunder, and loud noises. There will be storms, strong winds, and a burning, destructive fire. ⁷ Many nations will fight against Ariel. It will be a nightmare. Armies will surround Ariel and punish her. ⁸ But it will also be like a dream to those armies. They will not get what they want. It will be like a hungry man dreaming about food. When the man wakes up, he is still hungry. It will be like a thirsty man dreaming about water. When the man wakes up, he is still thirsty. The same thing is true about all the nations fighting against Zion. Those nations will not get what they want.

⁹ Be surprised and amazed!

You will become drunk, but not from wine.

Look and be amazed!

You will stumble and fall, but not from beer.

¹⁰ The LORD will make you sleepy.

He will close your eyes. (The prophets are your eyes.)

He will cover your heads. (The prophets are your heads.)

¹¹ To you my words are like the words in a book that is closed and sealed.[†] You can give the book to someone who can read and tell that person to read it. But that person will say, “I cannot read the book. It is closed and I cannot open it.” ¹² Or you can give the book to someone who cannot read and tell that person to read it. That person will say, “I cannot read the book because I don’t know how to read.”

¹³ The Lord says, “These people come to honor me with words, but I am not really important to them. The worship they give me is nothing but human rules they have memorized. ¹⁴ So I will continue to amaze them by doing powerful and amazing things. Their wise men will lose their wisdom. Even the most intelligent among them will not be able to understand.”

¹⁵ Look at them! They try to hide things from the LORD. They think he will not understand. They do their evil things in darkness. They tell themselves: “No one can see us. No one will know who we are.”

¹⁶ You turn things upside down. You think the clay is equal to the potter. You think that something that is made can tell the one who made it, “You did not make me!” This is like a pot telling its maker, “You know nothing.”

A Better Time Is Coming

¹⁷ This is the truth: After a very short time, Lebanon will become rich farmland, and the farmland will be like thick forests. ¹⁸ The deaf will hear the words in the book. The blind will see through the darkness and fog. ¹⁹ The LORD will make poor people happy. The poorest people will rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.

[‡] 28:28 horses This word also means “horse soldiers.” ^{*} 29:1 Ariel A name for the altar at the Temple in Jerusalem. This name means “hearth” or “fireplace” but sounds like the word meaning “Lion of God.” Also in verse 7. [†] 29:11 sealed A piece of clay or wax was put on the closed book to show that the book should not be opened.

²⁰ This will happen when the people who are mean and cruel have come to an end. It will happen when those who enjoy doing bad things are gone. ²¹ (They lie about good people. They try to trap people in court. They try to destroy innocent people.)

²² So the LORD, who made Abraham free, speaks to Jacob's family. He says, "Now the people of Jacob will not be embarrassed and ashamed. ²³ They will look around at all the children they have I made with my hands, and they will say that my name is holy. They will honor[‡] the Holy One of Jacob. They will respect the God of Israel. ²⁴ Many of these people did not understand, so they did what was wrong. They complained, but now they will learn their lesson."

Israel Should Trust in God, Not Egypt

¹ The LORD said, "Look at these children. They don't obey me. They make plans, but they don't ask me to help them. They make agreements with other nations, but my Spirit does not want those agreements. These people are adding more and more sins to the ones they have already done. ² They are going down to Egypt for help, but they did not ask me if that was the right thing to do. They hope they will be saved by the Pharaoh. They want Egypt to protect them.

³ "But I tell you, hiding in Egypt will not help you. Pharaoh will not be able to protect you. ⁴ Your leaders have gone to Zoan, and your representatives have gone to Hanes.* ⁵ But they will be disappointed. They are depending on a nation that cannot help them. Egypt is useless—it will not help. Egypt will bring nothing but shame and embarrassment."

God's Message to Judah

⁶ This is a message[†] about the Negev animals[‡]:

There is a dangerous place full of lions, adders,[§] deadly snakes,* and useless people. And there are people who load their wealth onto donkeys and their treasures on the backs of camels. They carry them to a people who cannot help. ⁷ That useless nation is Egypt. Egypt's help is worth nothing, so I call Egypt the "Do-Nothing Dragon."[†]

⁸ Now write this on a sign so that all people can see it, and write this in a book. Write these things for a future time. This will be far, far in the future:[‡]

⁹ These people are like children who refuse to obey. They lie and refuse to listen to the LORD'S teachings. ¹⁰ They tell the prophets, "Don't see dreams[§] about things we should do. Don't tell us the truth. Say nice things to us and make us feel good. See only good things for us. ¹¹ Stop seeing things that will really happen. Get out of our way. Stop telling us about the Holy One of Israel."

Judah's Help Comes Only From God

¹² The Holy One of Israel says, "You people have refused to accept this message from me. You depend on fighting and lies to help you. ¹³ You are guilty of these things. So you are like a tall wall with cracks in it. That wall will fall and break into small pieces. ¹⁴ You will be like a large clay jar that breaks into many small, useless pieces. You cannot use them to get a hot coal from the fire or to get water from a pool in the ground."

[‡] 29:23 honor Or "treat as holy." * 30:4 Zoan, Hanes Cities in Egypt. † 30:6 message Or "burden." ‡ 30:6 Negev animals Or "Creatures of the South," a phrase that can refer to Egypt. § 30:6 adders Very poisonous snakes. * 30:6 deadly snakes Literally, "flying snakes." † 30:7 Do-Nothing Dragon Or "Resting Rahab," the great sea monster. Some ancient stories tell about Rahab fighting with God. ‡ 30:8 Write ... future Or "Write this for the future as a witness forever." § 30:10 dreams Or "visions." Special kinds of dreams God used to speak to his prophets.

¹⁵ The Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel, says, “If you come back to me you will be saved. Only by remaining calm and trusting in me can you be strong.”

But you don’t want to do that. ¹⁶ You say, “No, we need fast horses for battle.” That is true—you will need fast horses, but only to run away because your enemy will be faster than your horses. ¹⁷ One enemy soldier will make threats, and a thousand of your men will run away. And when five of them make threats, all of you will run away. The only thing that will be left of your army will be a flagpole on a hill.

God Will Help His People

¹⁸ So the LORD is waiting to show his mercy to you. He wants to rise and comfort you. The LORD is the God who does the right thing, so he will bless everyone who waits for his help.

¹⁹ You people who live in Jerusalem on Mount Zion will not continue crying. The Lord will hear your crying, and he will comfort you. When he hears you, he will help you.

²² Then you will take your idols covered with gold and silver and make them unfit to be used again. You will throw them away like filthy rags* and say, “Go away!”

²³ At that time the Lord will send you rain. You will plant seeds, and the ground will grow food for you. You will have a very large harvest. You will have plenty of food in the fields for your animals. There will be large fields for your sheep. ²⁴ Your cattle and donkeys will have all the food they need. There will be much food. You will have to use shovels and pitchforks to spread all the food† for your animals to eat. ²⁵ Every mountain and hill will have streams filled with water. These things will happen after many people are killed and the enemy’s towers are pulled down.

²⁶ At that time the light from the moon will be as bright as the sun, and the light from the sun will be seven times brighter than it is now. One day of sunlight will be like a whole week’s worth. This will happen when the LORD bandages his broken people and heals the hurts from their beatings.

³⁰ The LORD will cause all people to hear his great voice and to see his powerful arm come down in anger. That arm will be like a great fire that burns everything. His power will be like a great storm with much rain and hail. ³¹ Assyria will be frightened by the LORD’S voice and the stick that will beat him. ³² And as the LORD beats Assyria, his people will keep the rhythm with their drums and harps.

³³ Topheth‡ has been made ready for a long time. It is ready for the king.§ It was made very deep and wide. There is a very big pile of wood and fire there, and the LORD’S breath will come like a stream of burning sulfur to start the fire.

* 30:22 You ... rags Or “You will throw those gods away like menstrual clothes.” † 30:24 food This was special food that had been allowed to ferment. This made the meat of the animal tender and good. ‡ 30:33 Topheth Gehenna, the Valley of Hinnom. Israel Should Depend on God's Power

¹ Look at the people going down to Egypt for help. They think the horses they get will save them. They hope the many chariots and powerful soldiers will protect them. But the people don't trust the Holy One of Israel. They didn't ask the LORD for help. ² But he is the wise one who is bringing the disaster. And they will not be able to stop what he commanded. The Lord will attack those who are evil and all who try to help them.

³ The Egyptians are only human, not God. The horses from Egypt are only animals, not spirit. The LORD will stretch out his arm, and the helper will be defeated. And those who wanted help will fall. They will all be destroyed together.

⁴ The LORD told me: "When a lion or its cub catches an animal to eat, the lion stands over the dead animal and roars, and nothing can frighten it away. If men come and yell at the lion, the lion will not be afraid. They might make a lot of noise, but the lion will not run away."

In the same way, the LORD All-Powerful will come down to Mount Zion. He will fight on that hill. ⁵ Just as birds fly over their nest to protect it, so the LORD All-Powerful will defend* Jerusalem. He will save her. He will "pass over" and save Jerusalem.

⁶ People of Israel, you should come back to the God you turned away from. ⁷ That is because when those things happen, people will reject the gold and silver idols you made when you sinned against me.

⁸ It is true that Assyria will be defeated with a sword, but it will not be a human sword that defeats him. Assyria will be destroyed, but that destruction will not come from a man's sword. Assyria will run away from God's sword, but the young men will be caught and made slaves. ⁹ Their place of safety will be destroyed. Their leaders will be defeated, and they will abandon their flag.

The LORD, whose fireplace is on Zion and whose oven† is in Jerusalem, is the one who said this.

Leaders Should Be Good and Fair

¹ Listen to what I say! A king should rule in a way that brings justice. Leaders should make fair decisions when they lead the people. ² If this would happen, the king* would be like a shelter to hide from the wind and rain, like streams of water in a dry land, and like the cool shadow of a large rock in a hot land. ³ Then people would actually see what they look at. They would actually listen to what they hear. ⁴ People who are now confused would be able to understand. Those who cannot speak clearly now would be able to speak clearly and quickly. ⁵ Fools would not be called great men. People would not respect men who make secret plans.

⁸ But a good leader plans good things to do, and that will make him a leader over other leaders.

Hard Times Are Coming

* 31:5 defend Literally, "fight on" or "fight against." † 31:9 fireplace ... oven That is, the altar in the Temple.

* 32:2 king Literally, "man." † 32:6 Fools Here, this means people who don't follow God and his wise teachings.

⁹ Some of you women are calm now; you feel safe. But you should stand and listen to the words I say. ¹⁰ You feel safe now, but after one year you will be troubled. That is because you will not gather grapes next year—there will be no grapes to gather.

¹¹ Women, you are calm now, but you should be afraid. You feel safe now, but you should be worried. Take off your nice clothes and put on sackcloth. Wrap it around your waist. ¹² Beat your breasts in sorrow. Cry because your fields are empty. Your vineyards once gave grapes, but now they are empty. ¹³ Cry for the land of my people. Cry because only thorns and weeds will grow there. Cry for the city and for all the houses that were once filled with joy.

¹⁴ People will leave the capital city. The palace and towers will be left empty. People will not live in houses—they will live in caves. Wild donkeys and sheep will live in the city—animals will go there to eat grass.

¹⁵ This will continue until God gives us his Spirit from above. Then the desert will become rich farmland and the farmland will be like thick forests. ¹⁶ That is, what is now a desert will be filled with right decisions, and what is now a farmland will be filled with justice. ¹⁷ That justice will bring peace and safety forever. ¹⁸ My people will be safe in their homes and in their calm, peaceful fields.

¹⁹ But before this happens, the forest must fall and the city must be torn down. ²⁰ Some of you live away from the cities. You plant seeds by every stream and let your cattle and donkeys roam free. You will be very blessed.

33

The Lord Will Show His Power

¹ Look at you. You attack others when you have not been attacked. You turn against others when no one has turned against you. So when you stop your attacks, you will be attacked. When you stop turning against others, they will turn against you.

² LORD, be kind to us.

We have waited for your help.

Give us strength every morning.

Save us when we are in trouble.

³ Your powerful voice makes people run away in fear.

Your greatness causes the nations to run away.

⁴ You people stole things in war. Those things will be taken from you. Many will come and take your wealth. It will be like the times when locusts come and eat all your crops.

⁵ The LORD is very great. He lives in a very high place. He fills Zion with justice and goodness.

⁶ Jerusalem, you are rich with wisdom and knowledge of God. You are rich with salvation. You respect the LORD, and that makes you rich.

⁷ But listen! The messengers are crying outside. The messengers* who bring peace are crying very hard. ⁸ The roads are empty; there is no one walking along the paths. People don't respect each other. They have broken the agreements they made, and they refuse to believe what witnesses† tell them. ⁹ The land is sick and dying. Lebanon is dying and Sharon Valley is dry and empty. Bashan and Carmel once grew beautiful plants—but now those plants have stopped growing.

¹⁰ The LORD says, "Now, I will stand and show people how great and powerful I am. ¹¹ You people have done useless things. These things are like hay and straw. They are worth nothing! Your breath will be like a fire and burn you. ¹² People will be burned until their bones become lime.‡ They will burn quickly like thorns and dry bushes.

* 33:7 messengers ... messengers The Hebrew text has two different words that can also mean "angels." † 33:8 witnesses Literally, "cities."

¹³ “You people in faraway lands, listen to what I have done. You people who are near me, learn about my power.”

¹⁴ The sinners in Zion are afraid. Those who do wrong shake with fear. They say, “Can any of us live through this fire that destroys? Who can live near this fire that burns forever?”§

¹⁵ Good, honest people who refuse to hurt others for money will live through that fire. They refuse to take bribes or listen to plans to murder other people. They refuse to look at plans for doing bad things. ¹⁶ They will live safely in high places. They will be protected in high rock fortresses. They will always have food and water.

¹⁷ Your eyes will see the King in his beauty. You will see the great land. ¹⁸⁻¹⁹ When you think about the troubles you had in the past, you will wonder, “Where are those foreigners who spoke languages we could not understand. Where are the officials and tax collectors from other lands? Where are the spies who counted our defense towers?”

God Will Protect Jerusalem

²⁰ Look at Zion, the city of our religious festivals. Look at Jerusalem—that beautiful place of rest. Jerusalem is like a tent that will never be moved. The pegs that hold her in place will never be pulled up. Her ropes will never be broken, ²¹⁻²³ because the LORD is our powerful leader there. That land is a place with streams and wide rivers, but there will be no enemy boats or powerful ships on those rivers. You men who work on such boats can stop your work with the ropes. You cannot make the mast strong enough. You will not be able to open your sails, because the LORD is our judge. He makes our laws. He is our king. He saves us. The LORD will give us our wealth. Even crippled people will get their share. ²⁴ No one living there will say, “I am sick,” because everyone living there has had their guilt removed.

God Will Punish His Enemies

¹ All you nations, come near and listen! Listen, all you people. The earth and everyone on it should listen to these things. Everything in this world should hear this. ² The LORD is angry with all the nations and their armies. He will destroy them all and put them to death. ³ Their bodies will be thrown outside. The stink will rise from the bodies, and the blood will flow down the mountains. ⁴ The skies will be rolled shut like a scroll,* and the stars will die and fall like leaves from a vine or a fig tree. All the stars† in the sky will rot away. ⁵ The Lord says, “This will happen when my sword in the sky is covered with blood.”

Look, the LORD’S sword will cut through Edom. He judged them guilty, and they must die.‡ ⁶ The LORD decided there should be a time for killing in Bozrah and in Edom. So the sword of the LORD is covered with blood and fat. The blood is from the “goats.” The fat is from the kidneys of the “rams.”§ ⁷ So the rams, the cattle, and the strong bulls will be killed. The land will be filled with their blood. The dirt will be covered with their fat.

⁸ This will happen because the LORD has chosen a time for punishment. He has chosen a year when people must pay for the wrong they did to Zion. ⁹ Edom’s rivers will be like hot tar. Edom’s ground will be like burning sulfur. ¹⁰ The fires will burn day and night—no one will stop the fire. The smoke will rise from Edom forever. The land will be destroyed forever and ever. No one will ever travel through that land again. ¹¹ Birds and small animals will own that land. It will be a home for owls and ravens. God will leave that land in ruins. People will call it “the empty desert.”* ¹² The freemen[†] and leaders will all be gone, and there will be nothing left for them to rule.

¹³ Thorns and wild bushes will grow in all the beautiful homes there. Wild dogs and owls will live in them. Wild animals will make their homes there. Big birds will live in the grasses that grow there. ¹⁴ Wild cats will live there with hyenas.[‡] Wild goats[§] will call to their friends. Night animals* will spend some time there and find a place to rest. ¹⁵ Snakes will make their homes there and lay their eggs. The eggs will open, and small snakes will crawl from the dark places. Birds that eat dead things will gather there like women visiting their friends.

¹⁶ Look in the LORD’S scroll and read what it says: Not one of these will be missing. Not one will be without its mate. God said he would make this happen, so his Spirit will bring them together. ¹⁷ God decided what he should do with them, and then he chose a place for them. He drew a line and showed them their land. So the animals will own that land forever. They will live there year after year.

35

God Will Comfort His People

¹ The dry desert will rejoice. The desert will be glad and blossom. ² It will be covered with flowers and dance with joy. It will be as beautiful as the forest of Lebanon, the hill of Carmel, and the Sharon Valley. This will happen because all people will see the Glory of the LORD. They will see the beauty of our God.

³ Make the weak arms strong again. Strengthen the weak knees. ⁴ People are afraid and confused. Say to them, “Be strong! Don’t be afraid!” Look, your God will come and punish your enemies. He will come and give you your reward. He will save you. ⁵ Then the eyes of the blind will be opened so that they can see, and the ears of the deaf will be opened so that they can hear. ⁶ Crippled people will dance like deer, and those who cannot speak now will use their voices to sing happy songs. This will happen when springs of water begin to flow in the dry desert. ⁷ Now people see mirages* that look like water, but then there will be real pools of water. There will be wells in the dry land where water flows from the ground. Tall water plants will grow where wild animals once ruled.

⁸ There will be a road there. This highway will be called “The Holy Road.” Evil people will not be allowed to walk on that road. No fools[†] will walk on it. Only good people will walk there. ⁹ There will be no dangers on that road. There will be no lions there to hurt people or any dangerous animals on it. That road will be for the people God saves.

¹⁰ The LORD will make his people free, and they will come back to him. They will come into Zion rejoicing. They will be happy forever. Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads. Gladness and joy will fill them completely. Sorrow and sadness will be far, far away.

¹ During Hezekiah's 14th year as king, Sennacherib king of Assyria went to fight against all the strong cities of Judah. Sennacherib defeated those cities. ² He sent his commander with a large army to King Hezekiah in Jerusalem. The commander and his army left Lachish and went to Jerusalem. They stopped near the aqueduct* by the Upper Pool,[†] on the street that leads up to Laundryman's Field.

³ Three men from Jerusalem went out to talk with the commander. These men were Eliakim son of Hilkiah, Joah son of Asaph, and Shebna. Eliakim was the palace manager, Joah was the record keeper, and Shebna was the royal secretary.

⁴ The commander told them, "Tell Hezekiah this is what the great king, the king of Assyria says:

"What are you trusting in to help you? ⁵ I tell you, if you are trusting in power and great battle plans, that is useless. Those are nothing but empty words. Now I ask you, who do you trust so much that you are willing to rebel against me? ⁶ Are you depending on Egypt to help you? Egypt is like a broken walking stick. If you lean on it for support, it will only stab you and hurt you. Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, cannot be trusted by anyone who depends on him for help.

⁷ "So maybe you will say, "We trust the LORD our God to help us." But Hezekiah destroyed the altars and high places where people worshiped your God, right? Hezekiah told the people of Judah and Jerusalem, "You must worship only at this one altar here in Jerusalem."

⁸ "If you still want to fight, my master, the king of Assyria, will make this agreement with you. I promise that I will give you 2000 horses if you can find enough men to ride them into battle. ⁹ But even then, you couldn't beat even one of my master's lowest ranking officers. So why do you still depend on Egypt's chariots and horse soldiers?

¹⁰ "Now, do you think I came to this country to destroy it without the LORD'S help. No, it was the LORD who said to me, "Go up against this country and destroy it!" ' "

¹¹ Then Eliakim, Shebna, and Joah said to the commander, "Please, speak to us in Hebrew.[‡] We understand that language. Don't speak to us in the language of Judah. If you use our language, the people on the city walls will understand you."

¹² But the commander said, "My master sent me to speak to everyone, not just to you and your master. I must also speak to those people sitting there on the wall. When we surround your city, they will suffer too. Like you, they will become so hungry they will eat their own waste and drink their own urine!"

¹³ Then the commander, shouting loudly in Hebrew,[§] gave this warning to them all:

Hear this message from the great king, the king of Assyria! ¹⁴ This is what the king says: Don't let Hezekiah fool you! He cannot save you from my power. ¹⁵ Don't listen to him when he tells you to trust in the LORD. Don't believe him when he says, "The LORD will save us. He will not let the king of Assyria defeat the city."

¹⁶ Don't listen to Hezekiah! This is what the king of Assyria says: Come out here and show me that you want peace. Then you will all be free to have grapes from your own vines, figs from your own trees, and water from your own well. ¹⁷ After some time, I will come and take you to a land like your own. In that new land, you will have plenty of grain for making bread and vineyards for producing wine.

* 36:2 aqueduct A ditch or pipe that carries water from one place to another. Here, this is the Shiloah, a channel that carried water from Gihon Spring to the Old Pool and the Pool of Siloam. † 36:2 Upper Pool The Pool of Siloam at the southern tip of the City of David (Jerusalem), just above the older pool now called Birket al Hamrah. ‡ 36:11 Hebrew Literally, "Judean," the language of Judah and Israel. § 36:13 Hebrew Literally, "Judean," the language of Judah and Israel.

¹⁸ Don't believe Hezekiah when he tells you, "The LORD will save us." He is wrong. Did any of the gods of other nations save their land from the king of Assyria? ¹⁹ When I destroyed the cities of Hamath and Arpad, where were their gods? What about the gods of Sepharvaim? Were any gods able to save Samaria from my power? ²⁰ None of the gods of these other places were able to save their land from me! So why do you think the LORD can save Jerusalem from me?

²¹ But the people were silent. They did not say a word to the commander, because King Hezekiah had commanded them, "Don't say anything to him."

²² Then the palace manager (Eliakim son of Hilkiah), the royal secretary (Shebna), and the record keeper (Joah son of Asaph) went to Hezekiah. Their clothes were torn to show they were upset. They told Hezekiah everything the Assyrian commander had said.

37

Hezekiah Asks God to Help

¹ When King Hezekiah listened to their message, he tore his clothes to show he was upset. Then he put on sackcloth and went to the LORD'S Temple.

² Hezekiah sent Eliakim, the palace manager, Shebna, the royal secretary, and the elders of the priests to the prophet, Isaiah son of Amoz. They wore the special clothes that showed they were sad and upset. ³ They said to Isaiah, "King Hezekiah has commanded that today will be a special day for sorrow and sadness. It will be a very sad day—as sad as when a baby should be born, but there is not enough strength for the birth. ⁴ The commander's master, the king of Assyria, has sent him to say bad things about the living God. Maybe the LORD your God will hear it and prove the enemy is wrong. So pray for those who are still left alive."

⁵ When King Hezekiah's officers came to Isaiah, ⁶ he said to them, "Give this message to your master, Hezekiah: The LORD says, 'Don't be afraid of what you heard from the commanders! Don't believe what those "boys" from the king of Assyria said to make fun of me. ⁷ Look, I will send a spirit against the king of Assyria. He will get a report that will make him return to his own country. And I will cut him down with a sword in his own country.' "

The Assyrian Army Leaves Jerusalem

So the king of Assyria sent messengers to Hezekiah again. ¹⁰ He told them, "Tell King Hezekiah of Judah these things:

'Don't be fooled by the god you trust when he says, "Jerusalem will not be defeated by the king of Assyria." ¹¹ You have heard what the kings of Assyria did to all the other countries. We destroyed them completely. Will you be saved? No! ¹² Did the gods of those people save them? No, my ancestors destroyed them all. They destroyed the cities of Gozan, Haran, Rezeph, and the people of Eden living in Tel Assar. ¹³ Where is the king of Hamath? The king of Arpad? The king of the city of Sepharvaim? The kings of Hena and Ivvah? "

Hezekiah Prays to the Lord

¹⁴ Hezekiah received the letters from the messengers and read them. Then he went up to the LORD'S Temple and laid the letters out in front of the LORD. ¹⁵ He prayed to the LORD: ¹⁶ "LORD All-Powerful, God of Israel, you sit as King above the Cherub angels. You alone are the God who rules all the kingdoms on earth. You made heaven and earth.

* 37:9 Tirhakah This is probably Taharqa, the Pharaoh of Egypt about 690–664 B.C.

¹⁷ LORD, please pay attention and hear this. Open your eyes, LORD, and see what is happening. Listen to all the insults against the living God in the message Sennacherib sent! ¹⁸ It is true, LORD. The kings of Assyria did destroy all those nations. ¹⁹ They did throw the gods of those nations into the fire, but they were not real gods. They were only wood and stone—statues that people made. That is why the kings of Assyria could destroy them. ²⁰ But you are the LORD our God, so please save us from the king of Assyria. Then all the other nations will know that you are the LORD, the only God.”

God Answers Hezekiah

²¹ Then Isaiah son of Amoz sent this message to Hezekiah: “The LORD, the God of Israel, says, ‘You prayed to me about the message that came from King Sennacherib of Assyria. I have heard you.†’

²² “So this is the LORD’S message against Sennacherib:

‘The virgin daughter Zion‡ does not think you are important.

She makes fun of you.

Daughter Jerusalem shakes her head at you and laughs behind your back.

²³ But who was it that you insulted and made fun of?

Who was it that you spoke against?

You were speaking against the Holy One of Israel.

You acted like you were great and he was nothing.

²⁴ You sent your officers to insult the Lord.

This is what you said:

“I took my many chariots up the high mountains deep inside Lebanon.

I cut down its tallest cedars and its best fir trees.

I have been on its highest mountain and deep inside its forests.

²⁵ I dug wells and drank water from new places.

I dried up the rivers of Egypt and walked where the water was.”

²⁶ ‘How could you say this, Sennacherib?

Did no one ever tell you that I, the Lord, planned these things long ago?

From ancient times I decided what would happen.

And now I have made it happen.

I let you tear down strong cities and change them into piles of rocks.

²⁷ The people living there had no power.

They were afraid and confused.

They were about to be cut down like grass and plants in the field.

They were like grass growing on the housetops, dying before it grows tall.

²⁸ I know all about your battles;

I know when you rested,

when you went out to war,

† 37:21 I have heard you This is from the ancient Greek version and 2 Kings 19:20. ‡ 37:22 The virgin daughter Zion The city of Jerusalem, which is in danger of attack by the Assyrians. See “Zion” in the Word List.

and when you came home.
 I also know when you got upset at me.
²⁹ Yes, you were upset at me.
 I heard your proud insults.
 So I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth.
 Then I will turn you around and lead you back the way you came.’ ”

The Lord's Message for Hezekiah

³⁰ Then the Lord said, “I will give you a sign to show you that these words are true. You will not be able to plant seeds this year, so next year you will eat grain that grew wild from the previous year’s crop. But in the third year, you will eat grain from seeds that you planted. You will harvest your crops, and you will have plenty to eat. You will plant vineyards and eat grapes from them.

³¹ “The people from the family of Judah who have escaped and are left alive will be like plants that send their roots deep into the ground and produce fruit above the ground.

³² That is because a few people will come out of Jerusalem alive. There will be survivors coming from Mount Zion.” The strong love[§] of the LORD All-Powerful will do this.

³³ So the LORD says this about the king of Assyria:

“He will not come into this city or shoot an arrow here.
 He will not bring his shields up against this city or build up a hill of dirt to attack its walls.
³⁴ He will go back the way he came.
 He will not come into this city.
 The LORD says this!
³⁵ I will protect this city and save it.
 I will do this for myself and for my servant David.”

The Assyrian Army Is Destroyed

³⁶ That night the angel of the LORD went out and killed 185,000 men in the Assyrian camp. When the people got up in the morning, they saw all the dead bodies. ³⁷ So King Sennacherib of Assyria went back to Nineveh and stayed there.

³⁸ One day Sennacherib was in the temple of his god Nisroch, worshiping him. His sons Adrammelech and Sharezer killed him with a sword and ran away to Ararat. So Sennacherib’s son Esarhaddon became the new king of Assyria.

Hezekiah's Illness

¹ At that time Hezekiah became sick and almost died. The prophet Isaiah son of Amoz went to see him and told him, “The LORD told me to tell you this: ‘You will die soon. So you should tell your family what they should do when you die. You will not get well.’ ”

² Hezekiah turned toward the wall that faced the Temple and began praying to the LORD. ³ “LORD, remember that I have faithfully served you with all my heart. I have done what you say is good.” Then Hezekiah cried very hard.

⁴ Then Isaiah received this message from the LORD: ⁵ “Go to Hezekiah and tell him that the LORD, the God of your ancestor David, says, ‘I heard your prayer, and I saw your tears. I will add 15 years to your life. ⁶ I will save you and this city from the king of Assyria. I will protect this city.’ ”

§ 37:32 strong love The Hebrew word can mean strong feelings such as zeal, jealousy, or love.

[21] * Then Isaiah told Hezekiah, “Crush figs together and put them on your sore. Then you will get well.”

[22] Hezekiah asked Isaiah, “What is the sign that proves I will get well and go to the LORD’S Temple?”

⁷ This is the sign from the LORD to show you that he will do what he says: ⁸ “Look, I am causing the shadow that is on the steps of Ahaz[†] to move back ten steps. The sun’s shadow will go back up the ten steps that it has already been on.”

Hezekiah’s Song

⁹ This is the letter from Hezekiah when he became well:

¹⁰ I thought I would live a full life.

But now, in the middle of my life, the time has come for me to die.

¹¹ So I said, “I will not see the LORD YAH[‡] in the land of the living again.

I will not see the people living on earth.

¹² My home, my shepherd’s tent, is being pulled down and taken from me.

I am finished like the cloth someone rolls up and cuts from the loom.

You ended my life in such a short time.

¹³ All night I cried as loud as a lion,

but my hopes were crushed like a lion eating bones.

You finished my life in such a short time.

¹⁴ I cried like a bird and moaned like a dove.

My eyes became tired,

but I continued looking to the heavens.

Lord, I am so depressed.

Promise to help me.”

¹⁵ What can I say?

He told me what would happen,

and he will make it happen.

I have had these troubles in my soul,

so now I will be humble all my life.

¹⁶ Lord, use this hard time to make my spirit live again.

Help my spirit become strong and healthy.

Help me become well!

Help me live again!

¹⁷ Look, my troubles are gone!

I now have peace.

You love me very much.

You did not let me rot in the grave.

You took my sins

and threw them away.

¹⁸ The dead cannot praise you.

People in Sheol cannot sing praises to you.

Those who have died and gone below are not trusting in your faithfulness.

¹⁹ People who are alive, people like me,

are the ones who will praise you.

* 38:6 These verses fit better here than at the end of the chapter, where they appear in the standard Hebrew text. So we will sing and play songs in the LORD'S Temple all our lives."

Messengers From Babylon

¹ At that time Merodach Baladan son of Baladan was king of Babylon. He sent some men with letters and a gift to Hezekiah when he heard that Hezekiah had been sick. ² This made Hezekiah very happy, so he showed them all the valuable things in his storehouses. He showed them the silver, the gold, the spices, and the expensive perfumes. He showed them the building where he stored the weapons. He showed them everything in his treasuries and everything in his house and throughout his kingdom.

³ Then Isaiah the prophet went to King Hezekiah and asked him, "What did these men say? Where did they come from?"

Hezekiah said, "These men came all the way from Babylon just to see me."

⁴ So Isaiah asked him, "What did they see in your house?"

Hezekiah said, "They saw everything in my palace. I showed them all my wealth."

⁵ Then Isaiah said to Hezekiah, "Listen to this message from the LORD All-Powerful: ⁶ 'The time is coming when everything in your house and everything your ancestors have saved until today will be carried away to Babylon. Nothing will be left!' The LORD All-Powerful said this. ⁷ The Babylonians will take your own sons, and your sons will become officers* in the palace of the king of Babylon."

⁸ Then Hezekiah told Isaiah, "This message from the LORD is good." (Hezekiah said this because he thought, "There will be real peace and security during my lifetime.")

Israel's Punishment Will End

¹ Your God says,

"Comfort, comfort my people.

² Speak kindly to Jerusalem and tell her,

'Your time of service is finished.

You have paid the price for your sins.'

I, the LORD, have punished you twice for every sin you committed."

³ Listen, there is someone shouting:

"Prepare a way in the desert for the LORD.

Make a straight road there for our God.

⁴ Every valley must be filled.

Every mountain and hill should be made flat.

The crooked roads should be made straight, and the rough ground made smooth.

⁵ Then the Glory of the LORD will be shown to everyone.

Together, all people will see it.

Yes, this is what the LORD himself said!"

⁶ A voice said, "Speak!"

So the man said, "What should I say?"

The voice said, "People are like grass.

Any glory they enjoy is like a wildflower.

* 39:7 officers Or "eunuchs." See "eunuch" in the Word List.

⁷ When a wind from the LORD blows on them,
the grass dies and the flower falls.
Yes, all people are like grass.

⁸ Grass dies and flowers fall, but the word of our God lasts forever.”

Salvation: God's Good News

⁹ Zion, you have good news to tell.
Go up on a high mountain and shout the good news.

Jerusalem, you have good news to tell.

Don't be afraid; speak loudly.

Tell this news to all the cities of Judah:

“Look, here is your God!”

¹⁰ The Lord GOD is coming with power.

He will use his power to rule all the people.

He will bring rewards for his people.

He will have their payment with him.

¹¹ Like a good shepherd, he takes care of his people.

He gathers them like lambs in his arms.

He holds them close, while their mothers walk beside him.

God Made the World; He Rules It

¹² Who measured the oceans in the palm of his hand?

Who used his hand to measure the sky?

Who used a bowl to measure all the dust of the earth?

Who used scales to measure the mountains and hills?

¹³ Who could know the LORD'S mind?

Who could be his teacher or give him advice?

¹⁴ Did the Lord ask for anyone's help?

Did anyone teach him to be fair?

Did anyone teach him knowledge?

Did anyone teach him to be wise?

¹⁵ Look, all the nations in the world are like one small drop in the bucket.

If the Lord took all the faraway nations and put them on his scales, they would be like small pieces of dust.

¹⁶ All the trees in Lebanon are not enough to burn on the altar for the Lord.

And all the animals in Lebanon are not enough to kill for a sacrifice.

¹⁷ Compared to God, all the nations of the world are nothing.

Compared to him, they are worth nothing at all.

People Cannot Imagine

What God Is Like

¹⁸ Can you compare God to anything?

Can you make a picture of God?

¹⁹ No, but some people make statues from rock or wood, and they call them gods.

One worker makes a statue.

Then another worker covers it with gold and makes silver chains for it.

²⁰ For the base he chooses special wood,

a kind of wood that will not rot.

Then he finds a good wood worker, and the worker makes a “god” that will not fall over.

²¹ Surely you know the truth, don't you?

Surely you have heard.

Surely someone told you long ago.
 Surely you understand who made the earth.
 22 It is the Lord who sits above the circle of the earth.
 And compared to him, people are like grasshoppers.
 He rolled open the skies like a piece of cloth.
 He stretched out the skies like a tent to sit under.
 23 He takes away the power of rulers.
 He makes the world's leaders completely worthless.
 24 They are like plants that are planted in the ground.
 But before they can send their roots into the ground,
 God blows on the "plants";
 they become dead and dry,
 and the wind blows them away like straw.
 25 The Holy One says, "Can you compare me to anyone?
 No one is equal to me."
 26 Look up to the skies.
 Who created all those stars?
 Who created all those "armies" in the sky?
 Who knows every star by name?
 He is very strong and powerful,
 so not one of these stars is lost.
 27 People of Jacob, this is true.
 Israel, you should believe it.
 So why do you say, "The LORD cannot see the way I live;
 he will not find me and punish me"*?
 28 Surely you know the truth.
 Surely you have heard.
 The LORD is the God who lives forever!
 He created all the faraway places on earth.
 He does not get tired and weary.
 You cannot learn all he knows.
 29 He helps tired people be strong.
 He gives power to those without it.
 30 Young men get tired and need to rest.
 Even young boys stumble and fall.
 31 But those who trust in the LORD will become strong again.
 They will be like eagles that grow new feathers.†
 They will run and not get weak.
 They will walk and not get tired.

41

The Lord Is the Eternal Creator

1 The Lord says,
 "Faraway countries, be quiet and listen to me!
 Nations be brave.*
 Come to me and speak.

* 40:27 The LORD ... punish me Or "My way is hidden from the LORD; he ignores my case." † 40:31 like ... feathers This probably refers to the ancient belief that eagles regain their youth when they molt (lose and grow back their feathers). See Psalm 103:5. This line could also be translated, "They will rise up like eagles on their wings."

* 41:1 be brave Or "be strong again," as in Isaiah 40:31.

We will meet together and decide who is right.
² Who woke up the man who is coming from the east?
He called Justice to march with him.
He uses his sword to crush nations.
He uses his bow and conquers kings—
they run away like straw blown by the wind.
³ He chases armies and is never hurt.
He goes places he has never been before.
⁴ Who was able to make all this happen?
Who controlled the lives of everyone from the beginning?
I, the LORD, am the one.
I was here at the beginning,
and I will be here when all things are finished.
⁵ People along the coast saw this,
and they were frightened.
Nations at the ends of the earth shook with fear.
They have come near.
They have arrived.

⁶ “Workers help each other. They encourage each other to be strong. ⁷ One worker cuts wood to make a statue. He encourages the man who works with gold. Another worker uses a hammer and makes the metal smooth. Then he encourages the man at the anvil.[†] This last worker says, ‘This work is good; the metal will not come off.’ Then he nails the statue to a base so that it will not fall over. And it never moves!”

Only the Lord Can Save Us

⁸ The Lord says, “You, Israel, are my servant.
Jacob, I chose you.
You are from the family of my friend, Abraham.
⁹ You were in a faraway country,
but I reached out to you.
I called you from that faraway place.
I said, ‘You are my servant.’
I chose you,
and I have not rejected you.
¹⁰ Don’t worry—I am with you.
Don’t be afraid—I am your God.
I will make you strong and help you.
I will support you with my right hand that brings victory.
¹¹ Look, some people are angry with you,
but they will be ashamed and disgraced.
Your enemies will be lost and disappear.
¹² You will look for the people who were against you,
but you will not be able to find them.
Those who fought against you will disappear completely.
¹³ I am the LORD your God,
who holds your right hand.
And I tell you, ‘Don’t be afraid!’

[†] 41:7 anvil A heavy metal block. A worker puts hot metal on an anvil and beats the hot metal to change its shape.

I will help you.’

- ¹⁴ People of Israel, descendants of Jacob, you may be weak and worthless,[‡] but do not be afraid.
I myself will help you.”

This is what the LORD himself says.

“I am the Holy One of Israel,
the one who saves you.

- ¹⁵ Look, I have made you like a new threshing board with many sharp teeth.
You will trample mountains and crush them.

You will make the hills[§] like chaff.

- ¹⁶ You will throw them into the air, and the wind will blow them away and scatter them.

Then you will be happy in the LORD.

You will be proud of the Holy One of Israel.

- ¹⁷ “The poor and needy look for water,
but they cannot find any.

Their tongues are dry with thirst.

I, the LORD, will answer their prayers.

I, the God of Israel, will not leave them to die.

- ¹⁸ I will make rivers flow on dry hills.

I will make springs of water flow through the valleys.

I will change the desert into a lake filled with water.

There will be springs of water in that dry land.

- ¹⁹ I will make trees grow in the desert.

There will be cedar, acacias, olive trees, cypress, fir trees, and pines.

- ²⁰ I will do this so that people will see it and know who did it.

They will notice what happened.

Then they will understand that the LORD’S hand made it happen, that the Holy One of Israel created it all.”

The Lord Challenges the False Gods

²¹ The LORD, the king of Jacob, says, “Come, present your arguments. Show me your proof. ²² Let your idols come in and tell us what will happen. Idols, tell us what happened in the beginning. We will listen closely so that we can make a decision. Tell us what will happen in the future. ²³ What signs did you give in the past to prove that you really are gods? Do something! Do anything, good or bad, so that we can see that you are alive. Then we might fear and respect you.

²⁴ “Look, you false gods are worthless. You cannot do anything. Only some horrible fool* would want to worship you.”

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

²⁵ “I called someone in the north[†] to come.
He is coming from the east where the sun rises,
and he honors my name.

He tramples kings

the way a potter softens clay with his feet.

[‡] 41:14 Jacob ... worthless Literally, “Worm of Jacob, men of Israel.” [§] 41:15 mountains ... hills Symbols of the power of Israel’s enemies. * 41:24 fool Literally, “horrible thing.” The Hebrew word usually describes idols and other wicked things that God hates. [†] 41:25 someone in the north This probably means Cyrus, a king of Persia. He ruled about 550–530 B.C.

- 26 “Who told us about this before it happened so that we could say he was right?
None of your idols told us anything.
They didn’t say a word,
and they cannot hear anything you say.
- 27 I, the Lord, was the first one to tell Zion about these things.
I sent a messenger to Jerusalem to say,
‘Look, your people are coming back!’ ”
- 28 I looked at those false gods.
Not one of them said anything.
They had no advice to offer.
I asked them questions,
but they didn’t say a word.
- 29 Those gods are all less than nothing.
They cannot do anything.
They are worthless.

42

The Lord’s Special Servant

- 1 “Here is my servant,
the one I support.
He is the one I have chosen,
and I am very pleased with him.
I have filled him with my Spirit,
and he will bring justice to the nations.
- 2 He will not cry out or shout or try to make himself heard in the streets.
- 3 He will not break even a crushed reed.*
He will not put out even the weakest flame.
He will bring true justice.
- 4 He will not grow weak or give up until he has brought justice to the world.
And people in faraway places will hope to receive his teachings.”

The Lord Is Ruler and Maker of the World

5 The LORD, the true God, said these things. (He created the sky and spread it out over the earth. He formed the earth and everything it produced. He breathes life into all the people on earth. He gives a spirit to everyone who walks on the earth.)

- 6 “I, the LORD, was right to call you.
I will hold your hand and protect you.
You will be the sign of my agreement with the people.
You will be a light for the other nations.
- 7 You will make the blind able to see.
You will free those who are held as captives.
You will lead those who live in darkness out of their prison.
- 8 “I am YAHWEH.
That is my name.
I will not give my glory to another.

* 42:3 reed A plant that grows near water.

I will not let statues take the praise that should be mine.
 9 In the past, I told you what would happen,
 and it happened!
 Now I am telling you something new,
 and I am telling you now, before it happens.”

A Song of Praise to the Lord

10 Sing a new song[†] to the LORD;
 praise him everywhere on earth—
 all you who sail on the seas,
 everything in the sea,
 and all you people in faraway places!
 11 Deserts and cities, villages of Kedar,
 praise the Lord!
 People living in Sela, sing for joy!
 Sing from the top of your mountain.
 12 Give glory to the LORD.
 Praise him, all you people in faraway lands!
 13 The LORD will go out like a strong soldier.
 Like a man going into battle, he will be full of excitement.
 He will shout with a loud cry,
 and he will defeat his enemies.

God Is Very Patient

14 “For a long time I have said nothing.
 I have controlled myself and kept quiet.
 But now I will cry out like a woman giving birth.
 My breathing is getting faster and louder.
 15 I will destroy the hills and mountains.
 I will dry up all the plants that grow there.
 I will change rivers to dry land and dry up pools of water.
 16 Then I will lead the blind along a path they never knew to places where they have never been before.
 I will change darkness into light for them.
 I will make the rough ground smooth.
 I will do these things for them;
 I will not abandon my people.
 17 But some of them have left me.
 They say to their gold statues, ‘You are my gods.’
 They trust their false gods,
 but they will be disappointed and shamed.

Israel Refused to Listen to God

18 “Deaf people, listen to me!
 Blind people, look and see!
 19 In all the world, no one is more blind than my servant.[‡]
 No one is more deaf than my messenger.
 No one is more blind than my chosen people,
 the servant of the LORD.
 20 My people see what they should do,

[†] 42:10 new song Whenever God did a new and wonderful thing for his people, they would write a new song about it. [‡] 42:19 my servant Here, this probably means the people of Israel.

but they do not obey me.
 They can hear with their ears,
 but they refuse to listen to me.”
²¹ The LORD wants them to do what is right.
 He wants them to honor his wonderful teachings. §
²² But look at his people.
 Others have defeated them and have stolen from them.
 The young men are afraid.
 They are locked in prisons.
 People have taken advantage of them,
 and there is no one to protect them.
 Others take their money,
 and there is no one to say, “Give it back!”

²³ Will any of you pay attention to this warning? Will you ever learn to listen? ²⁴ Who let Jacob be defeated? Who let others take what belonged to Israel? The LORD allowed them to do this. We sinned against him, so he let people take away our wealth. The people did not want to live the way he wanted. They refused to listen to his teaching. ²⁵ So he poured out his anger on them and brought wars against them. It was as if there were fires all around them, but they didn’t know what was happening. It was as if they were burning, but they didn’t try to understand.

God Is Always With His People

¹ Jacob, the LORD created you. Israel, he made you, and now he says, “Don’t be afraid. I saved you. I named you. You are mine. ² When you have troubles, I am with you. When you cross rivers, you will not be hurt. When you walk through fire, you will not be burned; the flames will not hurt you. ³ That’s because I, the LORD, am your God. I, the Holy One of Israel, am your Savior. I gave Egypt to pay for you. I gave Ethiopia and Seba to make you mine. ⁴ You are precious to me, and I have given you a special place of honor. I love you. That’s why I am willing to trade others, to give up whole nations, to save your life.

⁵ “So don’t be afraid, because I am with you. I will gather your children and bring them to you. I will gather them from the east and from the west. ⁶ I will tell the north: Give my people to me. I will tell the south: Don’t keep my people in prison. Bring my sons and daughters to me from the faraway places. ⁷ Bring to me all the people who are mine—the people who have my name. I made them for myself. I made them, and they are mine.

⁸ “Bring out the people who have eyes but are blind. Bring out the people who have ears but are deaf.* ⁹ All people and all nations should also be gathered together. Which of their gods said this would happen? Which of their gods would tell what happened in the beginning? They should bring their witnesses. The witnesses should speak the truth. This will show they are right.”

¹⁰ The LORD says, “You people are my witnesses and the servant I chose. I chose you so that you would help people believe me. I chose you so that you would understand that ‘I Am He’—I am the true God. There was no God before me, and there will be no God after me. ¹¹ I myself am the LORD, and there is no other Savior. ¹² I am the one who spoke to you, saved you, and told you those things. It was not some stranger who was with you. You are my witnesses, and I am God.” (This is what the LORD himself said.) ¹³ “I have always been God. When I do something, no one can change what I have done. And no one can save people from my power.”

§ 42:21 Or “The LORD will make his teachings very wonderful. He will do this because he is good.” * 43:8 blind ... deaf This probably means the Israelites who would not believe God. See Isaiah 6:9-10.

¹⁴ The LORD, the Holy One of Israel, saves you, and he says, “I will send armies to Babylon for you. Many people will be captured. Those Chaldeans will be taken away in their own boats. (They are so proud of those boats.)[†] ¹⁵ I am the LORD your Holy One. I made Israel. I am your King.”

God Will Save His People Again

¹⁶ The Lord is making roads through the sea. He is making a path for his people, even through rough waters. The LORD says, ¹⁷ “Those who fight against me with their chariots, horses, and armies will be defeated. They will never rise again. They will be destroyed. They will be put out like the flame in a lamp. ¹⁸ So don’t remember what happened in earlier times. Don’t think about what happened a long time ago, ¹⁹ because I am doing something new! Now you will grow like a new plant. Surely you know this is true. I will even make a road in the desert, and rivers will flow through that dry land. ²⁰ The wild animals will thank me. The large animals and birds will honor me when I put water in the desert and make rivers flow through that dry land. I will do this to give water to my chosen people. ²¹ I made them, and they will sing songs of praise to me.

²² “Jacob, you did not pray to me. Israel, you became tired of me. ²³ You have not brought your sheep as sacrifices to me. You have not honored me with your sacrifices. I did not force you to give gifts to me like slaves. I did not force you to burn incense until you became tired. ²⁴ So you did not use your money to buy things to honor me. But you did force me to be like your slave. You sinned until the bad things you did made me very tired.

²⁵ “I, I am the one who wipes away all your sins. I do this to please myself. I will not remember your sins. ²⁶ But you should remember me. Let’s meet together and decide what is right. Tell your story and prove that you are innocent. ²⁷ Your first father sinned, and your lawyers[‡] committed crimes against me. ²⁸ I will make your Temple leaders unfit to serve there. I will destroy Jacob.[§] Bad things will happen to Israel.

The Lord Is the Only God

¹ “Jacob, you are my servant. Israel, I chose you. Listen to me! ² I am the LORD, and I made you. I am the one who created you. I have helped you since you were in your mother’s womb. Jacob, my servant, don’t be afraid. Jeshurun,^{*} I chose you.

³ “I will pour water for thirsty people, and streams will flow through the desert. I will pour my Spirit on your children, and I will bless[†] your family. ⁴ They will sprout like grass in the spring and grow like trees by streams of water.

⁵ “One man will call himself, ‘I am the LORD’S.’ Another will use the name, ‘Jacob.’ Another man will sign his name as ‘The LORD’S Hand.’ And another will use the name, ‘Israel.’ ”

⁶ The LORD is the king of Israel. The LORD All-Powerful is the one who will set Israel free. And he says, “I am the only God. There are no other gods. I am the Beginning and the End. ⁷ There is no other God like me. If there is, that god should speak now. Let him lay out everything he has done since the time I made these ancient people. Let him show me the signs he gave long ago that prove he knew what would happen in the future.

[†] 43:14 I will send ... boats Or with minor changes to the Hebrew, “I will send someone against Babylon to break open the gates, and the shouts of victory from the Chaldeans will be changed to crying.” [‡] 43:27 lawyers Or “speakers,” people who argue a person’s case in court. This might refer to priests or prophets. [§] 43:28 destroy Jacob Or “I will make Jacob completely mine.” ^{*} 44:2 Jeshurun Another name for Israel. It means “good” or “honest.” [†] 44:3 bless This is a wordplay. This Hebrew word sounds like the word meaning “pool.”

⁸ “Don’t be afraid! Don’t worry. I am the one who always told you what would happen. You are my proof.‡ There is no other God; I am the only one. There is no other ‘Rock’; I know I am the only one.”

False Gods Are Useless

⁹ Some people make idols, but they are worthless. They love their statues, which are useless. Those who serve as witnesses for these statues cannot even see. They don’t know enough to be ashamed.

¹⁰ Who made these false gods? Who covered these useless statues? ¹¹ Workers made them, and the workers are only human. If they all would come together before me, we could discuss this. Then they would all be ashamed and afraid.

¹⁴ To split the cedar tree, the worker took some oak or cypress wedges. To make sure he had plenty of wood, he planted some pines. But it was the rain that made them grow.

¹⁵ When the man wanted a fire, he took some of the wood to keep him warm. He also used some of it to bake his bread. But then he used that same wood to make a statue to worship as a god! That god is only a statue that he made, but he bows down to it! ¹⁶ He burns half of the wood in the fire. He uses the fire to cook his meat, and he eats the meat until he is full. He burns the wood to keep himself warm. He says, “Good! Now I am warm, and I can see by the light of the fire.” ¹⁷ There is a little of the wood left, so he makes a statue and calls it his god. He bows down before it and worships it. He prays to it and says, “You are my god, save me!”

¹⁸ People like that don’t know what they are doing! They don’t understand. It is as if they have mud in their eyes so they cannot see. Their minds cannot understand. ¹⁹ They don’t realize what they are doing. They aren’t smart enough to think, “I burned half of the wood in the fire. I used the hot coals to bake my bread and cook the meat I ate. And I used the wood that was left to make this terrible thing. I am worshipping a block of wood!”

²⁰ Someone like that is deceived. They don’t know what they are doing.§ They cannot save themselves, and they will not admit, “This statue I am holding is a lie!”

The Lord, the True God, Helps Israel

²¹ “Jacob, remember these things!

Israel, remember, you are my servant.

I made you, and you are my servant.

So, Israel, don’t forget me.

²² Your sins were like a big cloud,

but I wiped them all away.

Your sins are gone,

like a cloud that disappeared into thin air.

I rescued and protected you,

so come back to me.”

²³ Skies, rejoice for what the LORD has done.

‡ 44:8 proof Or “witnesses.” § 44:13 string line In ancient times, this was a piece of string with wet paint on it. It was used to make straight lines on wood or stone. * 44:13 compass A tool used to draw circles and copy measurements. † 44:13 chisels Sharp tools used to carve wood or stone. ‡ 44:13 calipers A special measuring tool, like a compass. § 44:20 They ... doing Literally, “They eat ashes.”

Earth, shout for joy down to your deepest parts!
Start singing, you mountains and all you trees in the forest!

Yes, the LORD has saved Jacob.

He has shown his glory by rescuing Israel.

²⁴ The one who rescued you is the LORD,
the one who formed you in your mother's womb.

He says, "I, the LORD, made everything.

I put the skies there myself.

I spread out the earth before me."

²⁵ False prophets tell lies, but the Lord shows that their lies are false. He makes fools of those who do magic. He confuses even the wise. They think they know a lot, but he makes them look foolish. ²⁶ The Lord sends his servants to tell his messages to the people, and he makes those messages come true. He sends messengers to tell the people what they should do, and he proves that the advice is good.

God Chooses Cyrus to Rebuild Judah

The Lord says to Jerusalem, "People will live in you again."

He says to the cities of Judah, "You will be rebuilt."

He says to them, "I will repair your ruins."

²⁷ He tells the deep waters, "Become dry!

I will make your streams dry too."

²⁸ He says to Cyrus, "You are my shepherd.

You will do what I want.

You will say to Jerusalem, 'You will be rebuilt!'

You will tell the Temple, 'Your foundations will be put in place!'"

45

God Chooses Cyrus to Make Israel Free

¹ This is what the LORD said to Cyrus, his chosen king*:

"I took you by your right hand to help you defeat nations, to strip other kings of their power,
and to open city gates that will not be closed again.

² I will go in front of you and make the mountains flat.

I will break the city gates of bronze and cut the iron bars on the gates.

³ I will give you the wealth that is stored in secret places.
I will give you those hidden treasures.

Then you will know that I am the LORD,
the God of Israel, who calls you by name.

⁴ I do this for my servant, Jacob.

I do it for my chosen people, Israel.

Cyrus, I am calling you by name.

You don't know me, but I know you.†

⁵ I am the LORD, the only God.

There is no other God except me.

* 45:1 chosen king Literally, "the anointed one." † 45:4 I know you Or "I will give you a title."

I put your clothes on you,[‡] but still you don't know me.

⁶ I am doing this so that everyone will know that I am the only God.

From the east to the west, people will know that I am the LORD and that there is no other God.

⁷ I made the light and the darkness.
I bring peace, and I cause trouble.
I, the LORD, do all these things.

⁸ "May the clouds in the skies above pour goodness on the earth like rain.

May the earth open up to let salvation grow.

And may goodness grow with that salvation, which I, the LORD, created.

God Controls His Creation

⁹ "Look at these people! They are arguing with the one who made them. Look at them argue with me. They are like pieces of clay from a broken pot. Clay does not say to the one molding it, 'Man, what are you doing?' Things that are made don't have the power to question the one who makes them. ¹⁰ A father gives life to his children, and they cannot ask, 'Why are you giving me life?' They cannot question their mother and ask, 'Why are you giving birth to me?'"

¹¹ The LORD God is the Holy One of Israel. He created Israel, and he says,

"My children, you asked me to show you a sign.
You told me to show you what I have done.[§]

¹² I made the earth, and I created the people on it.

I used my own hands to make the skies.

And I command all the armies in the sky.*

¹³ I was right to give power to Cyrus,[†] and I will make his work easy.

He will rebuild my city,
and he will set my people free without bribes or payment."

The LORD All-Powerful said this.

¹⁴ The LORD says, "Egypt and Ethiopia are rich, but, Israel, you will get those riches.

The tall people from Seba will be yours.

They will walk behind you with chains around their necks.

They will bow down before you and ask you to pray for them and say,

'The true God really is with you,
and there is no other God.'

¹⁵ You are the God people cannot see.
You are the God who saves Israel.

[‡] 45:5 I put ... you This also means "I made you strong." [§] 45:11 My children ... done Or "Those who are coming asked for my children. They commanded me to give them the people I made with my own hands." * 45:12 armies in the sky Sometimes this means the angels, and sometimes it means the stars. [†] 45:13 I was right ... Cyrus Or "I gave Cyrus power to do something good."

- 16 Many people make false gods,
but they will be disappointed.
All of them will go away ashamed.
- 17 But Israel will be saved by the LORD.
That salvation will continue forever.
Never again will Israel be shamed.
- 18 The LORD is God.
He made the skies and the earth.
He put the earth in its place.
He did not want the earth to be empty when he made it.
He created it to be lived on.
“I am the LORD.
There is no other God.
- 19 I have spoken openly, not in secret.
I did not hide my words in a dark and secret place.
I did not tell the people of Jacob to look for me in empty places.
I am the LORD, and I speak the truth.
I say only what is right.

The Lord Proves He Is the Only God

20 “You people who escaped from other nations, gather together before me. (These people carry statues of false gods. They pray to useless gods, but they don’t know what they are doing. 21 Tell them to come to me. Let them present their case and discuss these things.)

“Who told you about this before it happened? Who told you this so long ago? I, the LORD, am the one who said these things. I am the only God, the one who does what is right. I am the one who saves, and there is no other! 22 So all you people in faraway places, turn to me and be saved, because I am God, and there is no other.

23 “When I make a promise, that promise is true. It will happen. And I swear by my own power that everyone will bow before me and will take an oath to obey me. 24 They will say, ‘Goodness and strength come only from the LORD.’ ”

And all who show their anger against him will be humiliated. 25 The LORD will help the people of Israel live right[‡] and praise their God.

46

False Gods Are Useless

1 The Lord says, “Bel has fallen to the ground. Nebo* is kneeling before me.

“Men put those idols on the backs of animals. They are only heavy burdens that must be carried. They do nothing but make people tired. 2 But they all bowed down and fell to the ground. They couldn’t escape; they were all carried away like prisoners.

3 “Family of Jacob, listen to me! You who are left from the family of Israel, listen! I have carried you since you left your mother’s womb. I carried you when you were born, 4 and I will still be carrying you when you are old. Your hair will turn gray, and I will still carry you. I made you, and I will carry you to safety.

5 “Can you compare me to anyone? No one is equal to me. You cannot understand everything about me. There is nothing like me. 6 Some people are rich with gold and silver. Gold falls from their purses, and they weigh their silver on scales. They pay an artist to make a false god from wood. Then they bow down and worship that false god. 7 They put their false god on their shoulders and carry it. That false god is useless; people have to carry it! People set the statue on the ground, and it cannot move. That false god never walks away from its place. People can yell at it, but it will not answer. That false god is only a statue; it cannot save people from their troubles.

⁸ “Sinners, change your heart and mind. Think about this again. Remember it and be strong. ⁹ Remember what happened long ago. Remember, I am God and there is no other God. There is no other like me.

¹⁰ “In the beginning, I told you what would happen in the end. A long time ago, I told you things that have not happened yet. When I plan something, it happens. I do whatever I want to do. ¹¹ I am calling a man from the east to do what I want. He will come like an eagle from a faraway country. He will do all that I have planned. Everything I said will happen just as I said it would.

¹² “Listen to me, you stubborn[†] people! You are far from doing what is right. ¹³ But I am close to making things right. Salvation will not be delayed much longer. I will bring salvation to Zion and to my wonderful Israel.”

God's Message to Babylon

You have no throne, so sit on the ground, daughter of the Chaldeans.*

You are not the ruler now.

You are no longer the beautiful young princess that people said you were.

² Get the millstones ready and grind the grain into flour.

Take off your veil and fancy clothes.

Lift your skirt and get ready to cross the rivers.[†]

³ Men will see your naked body and use you for sex.

I will make you pay for the bad things you did,

and I will not let anyone help you.

⁴ “My people say, ‘God saves us.

His name is the LORD All-Powerful, the Holy One of Israel.’ ”

⁵ “So Babylon, sit down and shut up.

Daughter of the Chaldeans, go into the dark prison.

You will no longer be ‘The Queen of the Kingdoms.’

⁶ “I was angry with my people.

They were mine, but I turned against them.

I let you punish them,

but you showed them no mercy.

Even for those who were old you made the work hard.

⁷ You said, ‘I will live forever.

I will always be the queen.’

You didn’t care what you did to my people.

You didn’t think about what might happen later.

⁸ So now listen, you who love only pleasure!

Feeling so safe, you tell yourself,

‘I alone am important, and no one else matters.

[†] 46:12 stubborn Literally, “mighty of heart.” * 47:1 Virgin Daughter Babylon, daughter of the Chaldeans Names for the city of Babylon. [†] 47:2 rivers The Tigris and Euphrates rivers. Babylon was between these two rivers.

I will never be a widow or lose my children.’
 9 These two things will happen to you:
 First, you will lose your children and then your husband.
 And none of your magic spells will help you.
 10 You do bad things but still feel safe.‡
 You say to yourself, ‘No one sees the wrong I do.’
 You thought that your wisdom and knowledge would save you.
 You tell yourself, ‘I alone am important,
 and no one else matters.’

11 “But disaster is coming your way.
 You don’t know when it will happen, but disaster is coming.
 And there is nothing you can do to stop it.
 12 You worked hard all your life
 learning magic and spells.
 So start using that magic.
 Maybe those spells will help you.
 Maybe you will be able to frighten someone.
 13 You have many advisors.
 Are you tired of the advice they give?
 Then send out your men who read the stars.
 They can tell when the month starts,
 so maybe they can tell you when your troubles will come.
 14 But they cannot even save themselves.
 They will burn like straw.
 They will burn so fast that there will be no coals left to cook bread.
 There will be no fire left to sit by.
 15 That’s what will happen to those you have worked with,
 the people you did business with all your life.
 They will all go their own way.
 There will be no one left to save you.”

48

God Rules His World

1 “Family of Jacob, listen to me!
 You people call yourself ‘Israel,’ but you are from Judah’s family.
 When you take an oath, I, the LORD, the God of Israel, am the one whose name you use,
 but you are not honest and sincere.

2 “Yes, you call yourselves citizens of the holy city,*
 those who depend on the God of Israel.
 The LORD All-Powerful is his name.

3 “Long ago I told you what would happen.
 I told you about these things.
 And suddenly I made them happen.

4 I did that because I knew you were stubborn.
 You were like iron that will not bend,

‡ 47:10 You ... safe Or “You put your trust in your evil.” * 48:2 holy city That is, Jerusalem.

with heads as hard as bronze.
 5 So long ago I told you what would happen.
 I told you about those things long before they happened.
 I did this so that you could not say,
 ‘The gods we made did this.
 Our idols, our statues, made this happen.’ ”

God Punishes Israel to Make Them Pure

6 “You heard what I said would happen.
 And you can see it has all been done.
 Shouldn’t you tell this to others?
 Now I will tell you about new things, secrets you have not known before.
 7 This is something that is happening now, not long ago.
 You have not heard about it before today.
 So you cannot say, ‘We already knew that.’
 8 But even in the past you didn’t listen.
 You didn’t learn anything.
 You never listen to what I say.
 I have always known that you would turn against me.
 You have rebelled against me from the time you were born.

9 “But I will be patient.
 I will do this for myself.
 People will praise me for not becoming angry and destroying you.
 You will praise me for waiting.

10 “Look, I will make you pure,
 but not in the way you make silver pure.
 I will make you pure by giving you troubles.
 11 I will do this for myself—for me!
 I will not let you treat me as if I am not important.
 I will not let some false god take my glory and praise.

12 “Jacob, listen to me!
 Israel, I called you to be my people.
 So listen to me!
 I am the Beginning,
 and I am the End.
 13 I made the earth with my own hands.
 My right hand made the sky.
 And if I call them,
 they will come to stand before me.

14 “All of you, come here and listen to me.
 Did any of the false gods say these things would happen? No!
 The LORD’S friend[†] will do what he wants to Babylon and the Chaldeans.

15 “I told you that I would call him.
 I will lead him,
 and I will make him succeed.

[†] 48:14 friend Or “partner.” This probably means Cyrus, king of Persia. He ruled about 550–530 B.C.

¹⁶ Come here and listen to me!
 I was there when Babylon began as a nation.
 And from the beginning, I spoke clearly so that people could know what I said.”

Now, the Lord GOD sends me and his Spirit to tell you these things. ¹⁷ The LORD, the Savior, the Holy One of Israel, says,

“I am the LORD your God.
 I teach you for your own good.
 I lead you in the way you should go.

¹⁸ If you had obeyed me, then peace would have come to you like a full flowing river.
 Good things would have come to you again and again,
 like the waves of the sea.

¹⁹ If you had obeyed me,
 you would have had as many children as there are grains of sand.
 And they would always have been mine and would never have been destroyed.”

²⁰ My people, leave Babylon!
 My people, run from the Chaldeans!
 Tell the news with joy.
 Spread the news around the world.
 Tell them,
 “The LORD rescued his servant Jacob.”

²¹ They never got thirsty as he led them through the desert, because he made water flow from a rock.
 He split the rock,
 and water flowed out.

²² But the LORD also said,
 “There is no peace for evil people.”

49

God Calls His Special Servant

¹ Hear me, people by the sea.
 Listen to me, you faraway nations.
 The LORD called me before I was born.
 He called my name while I was still in my mother’s womb.

² He used me to speak for him.
 He used me like a sharp sword,
 but he also held me in his hand to protect me.
 He used me like a sharp arrow,
 but he also kept me safe in his arrow bag.

³ He told me, “Israel, you are my servant.
 I will do wonderful things with you.”

⁴ I said, “I worked hard for nothing.
 I wore myself out, but I did nothing useful.
 I used all my power,

but I did not really do anything.
So the LORD must decide what to do with me.
He must decide my reward.”

⁵ The LORD is the one who made me in my mother’s womb, so that I could be his servant.
He wanted me to lead Jacob and Israel back to him.
The LORD gives me honor.
I get my strength from my God.

⁶ And now he says, “You are a very important servant to me.
You must bring back to me the tribes of Jacob.
You must bring back the people of Israel who are still alive.
But I have something else for you to do that is even more important:
I will make you a light for the other nations.
You will show people all over the world the way to be saved.”

⁷ The LORD, the Holy Protector of Israel, speaks to his servant.
People hate that servant.
Nations despise him.
He is now a slave to rulers.
The Lord says to him,
“Kings will see you and stand to honor you.
Great leaders will bow down to you.”

This will happen for the LORD. The Holy One of Israel is the one who chose you, and he can be trusted.

The Day of Salvation

⁸ This is what the LORD says:
“There will be a special time when I show my kindness.
Then I will answer your prayers.
There will be a special day when I will save you.
Then I will help you and protect you.
And you will be the proof of my agreement with the people.
The country is destroyed now, but you will give the land back to the people who own it.

⁹ You will tell the prisoners,
‘Come out of your prison!’
You will tell those who are in darkness,
‘Come out of the dark!’
The people will eat along the road,
and they will have food even on empty hills.

¹⁰ They will not be hungry or thirsty.
The hot sun and wind will not hurt them.
Their Comforter will lead them.
He will lead them by springs of water.

¹¹ I will make a road for my people.
The mountains will be made flat,
and the low roads will be raised.

¹² “Look! People are coming to me from faraway places.
They are coming to me from the north and from the west.
They are coming to me from Aswan in Egypt.”

13 Heavens and earth, be happy!
Mountains, shout with joy!
The LORD comforts his people.
He is good to his poor people.

14 But now Zion says, “The LORD has left me;
the Lord has forgotten me.”

15 But the Lord says,
“Can a woman forget her baby?
Can she forget the child who came from her body?
Even if she can forget her children,
I cannot forget you.

16 I drew a picture of you on my hand.
You are always before my eyes.*

17 Your children will come back to you,
and those who destroyed you will leave.

18 Look up! Look all around you!
All of your children are gathering together and coming to you.”
The LORD says, “On my life, I promise you this:
Your children will be like jewels that you tie around your neck.
Your children will be like the necklace that a bride wears.

19 “You are destroyed and defeated now.
Your land is useless.
But after a short time, you will have many people in your land.
And those who destroyed you will be far, far away.

20 You were sad for the children you lost, but they will tell you,
‘This place is too small!
Give us a bigger place to live!’

21 Then you will say to yourself,
‘Who gave me all these children?
I was sad and lonely.
My children were taken away.

They were gone.
So who gave me these children?
Look, I was the only one left.
Where did all these children come from?’ ”

22 This is what the Lord GOD says:
“Look, I will wave my hand to the nations.
I will raise my flag for everyone to see.
Then they will bring your children to you.
They will carry your children on their shoulders,
and they will hold them in their arms.

23 Kings will be their teachers.
The daughters of kings will care for them.
The kings and their daughters will bow down to you.
They will kiss the dirt at your feet.
Then you will know that I am the LORD,

* 49:16 I ... eyes Or “I see your figure before me always.” This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word “figure” also means “walls.”

and anyone who trusts in me will not be disappointed.”

²⁴ If a strong soldier takes a prisoner, can you set him free?

If a powerful soldier guards someone,
can the prisoner escape?

²⁵ Here is the LORD’S answer:

“The prisoners will escape.

Those captured by the strong soldier will be set free.

That’s because I will fight your battles, and I will save your children.

²⁶ Those people hurt you,

but I will force them to eat their own bodies.

Their own blood will be the wine that makes them drunk.

Then everyone will know that the LORD saved you.

Everyone will know that the Powerful One of Jacob saved you.”

50

Israel Punished Because of Their Sin

¹ This is what the LORD says:

“People of Israel, you say that I divorced your mother, Jerusalem.

But where is the legal paper that proves I divorced her?

My children, did I owe money to someone?

Did I sell you to pay a debt?

No, you were sold because of the bad things you did.

Your mother was sent away because of the bad things you did.

² I came home and found no one there.

I called and called, but no one answered.

Do you think I cannot get you back?

Do you think I cannot save you?

Look, if I gave the command, the ocean would dry up!

I can turn rivers into a desert.

The fish would die without water, and their bodies would rot.

³ I can make the skies dark.

I can cover the skies in darkness as black as sackcloth.”

God’s Servant Depends on God

⁴ The Lord GOD gave me the ability to teach, so now I teach these sad people. Every morning he wakes me and teaches me like a student. ⁵ The Lord GOD helps me learn, and I have not turned against him. I will not stop following him. ⁶ I will let those people beat me and pull the hair from my beard. I will not hide my face when they say bad things to me and spit at me. ⁷ The Lord GOD will help me, so the bad things they say will not hurt me. I will be strong. I know I will not be disappointed.

⁸ God is with me, and he is the one who shows that I am innocent. So no one can say I am guilty. If anyone wants to try to prove me wrong, they should come here, and we will have a trial. ⁹ But look, the Lord GOD helps me, so no one can prove me guilty. As for them, they will all be like worthless old clothes, eaten by moths.

¹⁰ People who respect the LORD also listen to his servant. That servant lives completely trusting in God without knowing what will happen. He really trusts in the LORD’S name and depends on his God.

¹¹ The Lord says, “Look, you people want to do whatever you want. So light your own fires and torches, but you will be punished. You will fall into your fires and torches and be burned. I will make that happen.”

51

Israel Should Be Like Abraham

¹ “Some of you people try hard to live good lives. You go to the LORD for help. Listen to me. You should look at Abraham your father. He is the rock you were cut from.
² Abraham is your father, so look at him. Look at Sarah, who gave birth to you. Abraham was alone when I called him. Then I blessed him, and he began a great family with many descendants.”

³ In the same way, the LORD will bless Zion. He will feel sorry for her and her people, and he will do something great for her. He will turn the desert into a garden. It will be like the Garden of Eden. The land was empty, but it will become like the LORD’S garden. People there will be very happy. They will sing victory songs to thank God for what he did.

⁴ “My people, listen to me!

My decisions will be like lights showing people how to live.

⁵ I will soon save you and show that I am fair.

I will use my power and judge all nations.

All the faraway places are waiting for me.

They wait for my power to help them.

⁶ Look up to the heavens!

Look around you at the earth below!

The skies will disappear like clouds of smoke.

The earth will become like worthless old clothes.

The people on earth will die,

but my salvation will continue forever.

My goodness will never end.

⁷ You people who understand goodness should listen to me.

You people who follow my teachings should hear the things I say.

Don’t be afraid of evil people.

Don’t let their insults upset you.

⁸ They will be like old clothes eaten by moths.

They will be like wool eaten by worms.

But my goodness will last forever.

My salvation will continue forever and ever.”

God’s Own Power Will Save His People

⁹ Wake up! Wake up!

Arm of the LORD, clothe yourself with strength.

Show your power the way you did long ago,

as you have from ancient times.

You are the one who destroyed Rahab.

You defeated the Dragon.*

¹⁰ You dried up the water that was in the deep sea.

You made a road through the deepest parts of the sea.

Your people crossed over and were saved.

¹¹ The LORD will save his people.

They will return to Zion with joy.

They will be very happy.

Their happiness will be like a crown on their heads forever.

They will be singing with joy.

All sadness will be gone far away.

* 51:9 Rahab ... Dragon This is Rahab the great sea monster. Some ancient stories tell about Rahab fighting with God.

¹² The Lord says, “I am the one who comforts you.
So why should you be afraid of people?
They are only humans who live and die like the grass.”

¹³ I, the LORD, am the one who made you.
With my power I made the earth and spread the sky over the earth.
But you have forgotten me,
so you are always afraid that angry men will hurt you.
Those men planned to destroy you,
but where are they now?

¹⁴ People in prison will soon be made free.
They will not die and rot in prison.
They will have plenty of food.

¹⁵ “I am the LORD your God, the one who stirs up the sea and makes the waves roar.”
The LORD All-Powerful is his name.

¹⁶ “My servant, I gave you the words I want you to say, and I covered you with my hands to protect you. I did this to make a new heaven and earth and so that you would say to Israel, ‘You are my people.’ ”

God Punished Israel

¹⁷ Wake up! Wake up!
Jerusalem, get up!
The LORD was very angry with you.
So you were punished.
It was like a cup of poison you had to drink, and you drank it all.

¹⁸ Jerusalem had many people, but none of them became leaders for her. None of the children she raised became guides to lead her. ¹⁹ Troubles came to you, Jerusalem, in pairs: Your land was destroyed and lies in ruins, and your people suffered from famine and war.

But no one felt sorry for you or showed you mercy. ²⁰ Your people became weak. They fell on the ground and lay there. They were lying on every street corner, like animals caught in a net. They were punished by the LORD’S anger until they could not accept any more punishment. When God said he would give them more punishment, they became very weak.

²¹ Listen to me, poor Jerusalem. You are weak like a drunk, but you are not drunk from wine. You are weak from that “cup of poison.”

²² Your God is the one who fights for his people. He is your Lord GOD, and he says to you, “Look, I am taking this ‘cup of poison’ away from you. It is full of my anger, and I am taking it out of your hand. You will not be punished by my anger again. ²³ I will now use my anger to punish the people who hurt you. They tried to kill you. They told you, ‘Bow down before us, and we will walk on you.’ They forced you to bow down before them, and then they walked on your back like dirt. You were like a road for them to walk on.”

Israel Will Be Saved

Zion, clothe yourself with strength.
 Holy city of Jerusalem, stand up and put on your beautiful clothes!
 Those filthy foreigners* will not enter you again.
² Jerusalem, get up and shake off the dust!
 Daughter Zion,[†] you were a prisoner,
 but take the chains off your neck.
³ The LORD says,
 “You were not sold for money.
 So I will not use money to set you free.”

⁴ The Lord GOD says, “First, my people went down to Egypt and became slaves. Then Assyria made them slaves. ⁵ Now look what has happened. Another nation has taken my people,” says the LORD. “That country did not pay to take my people, but they rule over them and laugh at them, and they say bad things about me all the time.” The LORD is the one saying these things.

⁶ “This happened so that my people will learn about me. My people will know who I am. My people will know my name, and they will know that I Am He[‡] is speaking to them.”

⁷ How wonderful it is to see someone coming over the hills to tell good news. How wonderful to hear him announce, “There is peace! We have been saved!” and to hear him say to Zion, “Your God is the king!”

⁸ The city guards[§] are shouting.
 They are all rejoicing together.
 They can all see the LORD returning to Zion.

⁹ Ruins of Jerusalem, be happy again!
 Rejoice because the LORD
 comforted his people and set Jerusalem free.

¹⁰ The LORD showed his holy strength to all the nations.
 All the faraway countries saw how God saved his people.

¹¹ So leave Babylon!
 Leave that place!
 Priests, you carry the things that belong to the LORD.
 So make yourselves pure.
 Don't touch anything that is not pure.

¹² You will leave Babylon, but they will not force you to leave in a hurry.
 You will not be forced to run away.
 The LORD will be in front of you.
 The God of Israel will be behind you.*

God's Suffering Servant

¹³ The Lord says, “Look, my servant will succeed in what he has to do, and he will be raised to a position of high honor. ¹⁴ It is true that many were shocked when they saw him. He was beaten so badly that he no longer looked like a man. ¹⁵ But it is also true that many nations will be amazed at him. Kings will look at him and be unable to speak. They will see what they had never been told. They will understand what they had never heard.[†]”

* 52:1 filthy foreigners Or “unclean men that have not been circumcised.” † 52:2 Daughter Zion Another name for Jerusalem. ‡ 52:6 I Am He This is like YAHWEH, the Hebrew name for God. It shows that God lives forever, and that he is always with his people. See Exodus 3:13-17. § 52:8 guards Men who stand on the city walls and watch for messengers or trouble coming to the city. Here, this probably means the prophets. * 52:12 The LORD ... behind you This shows that God will protect his people. Compare Exodus 14:19, 20.

² He was always close to the Lord. He grew up like a young plant, like a root growing in dry ground. There was nothing special or impressive about the way he looked, nothing we could see that would cause us to like him. ³ People made fun of him, and even his friends left him. He was a man who suffered a lot of pain and sickness. We treated him like someone of no importance, like someone people will not even look at but turn away from in disgust.

⁴ The fact is, it was our suffering he took on himself; he bore our pain. But we thought that God was punishing him, that God was beating him for something he did. ⁵ But he was being punished for what we did. He was crushed because of our guilt. He took the punishment we deserved, and this brought us peace. We were healed because of his pain. ⁶ We had all wandered away like sheep. We had gone our own way. And yet the LORD put all our guilt on him.

⁷ He was treated badly, but he never protested. He said nothing, like a lamb being led away to be killed. He was like a sheep that makes no sound as its wool is being cut off. He never opened his mouth to defend himself. ⁸ He was taken away by force and judged unfairly. The people of his time did not even notice that he was killed.[†] But he was put to death[‡] for the sins of his[§] people. ⁹ He had done no wrong to anyone. He had never even told a lie. But he was buried among the wicked. His tomb was with the rich.

¹⁰ But the LORD was pleased with this humble servant who suffered such pain.* Even after giving himself as an offering for sin, he will see his descendants and enjoy a long life. He will succeed in doing what the LORD wanted. ¹¹ After his suffering he will see the light,[†] and he will be satisfied with what he experienced.

The Lord says, “My servant, who always does what is right, will make his people right with me; he will take away their sins. ¹² For this reason, I will treat him as one of my great people. I will give him the rewards of one who wins in battle, and he will share them with his powerful ones. I will do this because he gave his life for the people. He was considered a criminal, but the truth is, he carried away the sins of many. Now he will stand before me and speak for those who have sinned.”

54

God Brings His People Home

You have not had any children,
but you should be very happy.

“Yes, the woman who is alone*

[†] 52:15 They will see ... heard Or “Those who were not told the message saw what happened. Those who did not hear understood.” * 53:1 Who ... power Or “Upon whom was the arm of the Lord revealed?” This could mean, “Who received the punishment from the Lord?” [†] 53:8 The people ... killed Or “There is no story about his descendants, because he was taken from the land of the living.” [‡] 53:8 put to death Or “punished.” [§] 53:8 his This is the reading in a Hebrew copy among the Dead Sea Scrolls. The standard Hebrew text has “my.” * 53:10 But the LORD ... such pain Or “The LORD decided to crush him. He decided that he must suffer.” [†] 53:11 the light This is found in some Hebrew scrolls from Qumran and the ancient Greek version. Light is often used as a symbol for life. * 54:1 The woman ... alone This Hebrew word is like the word “destroyed.” This probably means “Jerusalem, the city that is destroyed.”

will have more children than the woman with a husband.”
This is what the LORD says.

² “Make your tent bigger.
Open your doors wide.
Don’t think small!
Make your tent large and strong,
³ because you will grow in all directions.
Your children will take over many nations and live in the cities that were destroyed.
⁴ Don’t be afraid!
You will not be disappointed.
People will not say bad things against you.
You will not be embarrassed.
When you were young, you felt shame.
But you will forget that shame now.
You will not remember the shame you felt when you lost your husband.†
⁵ Your real husband is the one who made you.
His name is the LORD All-Powerful.
The Holy One of Israel is your Protector,‡ and he is the God of all the earth!

⁶ “Like a woman whose husband has left her,
you were very sad.
You were like a young wife left all alone.
But the LORD has called you back to him.”
This is what your God says.

⁷ “For a short time I turned away from you,
but with all my love I will welcome you again.

⁸ I was so angry that for a while I did not want to see you.
But now I want to comfort you with kindness forever.”
The LORD your Savior said this.

⁹ “Remember, in Noah’s time I punished the world with the flood.
But I made a promise to Noah that I would never again destroy the world with water.
In the same way, I promise that I will never again be angry with you and say bad things to you.

¹⁰ “The mountains may disappear, and the hills may become dust,
but my faithful love will never leave you.
I will make peace with you,
and it will never end.”
The LORD who loves you said this.

¹¹ “You poor city!
Enemies came against you like storms,
and no one comforted you.
But I will rebuild you.

† 54:4 husband In Hebrew this word is like the name Baal. This means that the LORD is Jerusalem’s true God, not the false god Baal. ‡ 54:5 Protector Or “Redeemer,” someone who cared for and protected the family of a dead relative. Often this person bought back (redeemed) the poor relatives from slavery, making them free again.

- I will use a beautiful mortar to lay the stones of your walls.
 I will use sapphire stones when I lay the foundation.
¹² The stones on top of the wall will be made from rubies.
 I will use shiny jewels for the gates.
 I will use precious stones to build the walls around you.
¹³ I, the LORD, will teach your children,
 and they will have real peace.
¹⁴ You will be built on goodness.
 You will be safe from cruelty and fear.
 So you will have nothing to fear.
 Nothing will come to hurt you.
¹⁵ I will never send anyone to attack you.
 And if any army tries to attack you, you will defeat them.

¹⁶ “Look, I made the blacksmith. He blows on the fire to make it hotter. Then he takes the hot iron and makes the kind of tool he wants to make. In the same way, I made the ‘Destroyer’ to destroy things.

¹⁷ “People will make weapons to fight against you, but their weapons will not defeat you. Some people will say things against you, but anyone who speaks against you will be proved wrong.”

The LORD says, “That is what my servants get! They get the good things[§] that come from me, their LORD.

55

God Gives “Food” That Really Satisfies

- ¹ “All you people who are thirsty, come!
 Here is water for you to drink.
 Don’t worry if you have no money.
 Come, eat and drink until you are full!
 You don’t need money.
 The milk and wine are free.
² Why waste your money on something that is not real food?
 Why should you work for something that does not really satisfy you?
 Listen closely to me and you will eat what is good.
 You will enjoy the food that satisfies your soul.
³ Listen closely to what I say.
 Listen to me so that you will live.
 I will make an agreement with you that will last forever.
 It will be an agreement you can trust, like the one I made with David—a promise to love him and be loyal to him forever.
⁴ I made David a witness of my power for all nations.
 I promised him that he would become a ruler and commander of many nations.”
- ⁵ There are nations in places you don’t know, but you will call for them to come.
 They don’t know you,
 but they will run to you.
 This will happen because the LORD, your God, wants it.
 It will happen because the Holy One of Israel honors you.
⁶ So you should look for the LORD before it is too late.

§ 54:17 good things Or “victory.”

You should call to him now, while he is near.
⁷ Evil people should stop living evil lives.
 They should stop thinking bad thoughts.
 They should come to the LORD again,
 and he will comfort them.
 They should come to our God because he will freely forgive them.

People Cannot Understand God

⁸ The LORD says, “My thoughts are not like yours.
 Your ways are not like mine.
⁹ Just as the heavens are higher than the earth,
 so my ways are higher than your ways,
 and my thoughts are higher than your thoughts.”

¹⁰ “Rain and snow fall from the sky and don’t return until they have watered the ground.
 Then the ground causes the plants to sprout and grow, and they produce seeds for the farmer and food for people to eat.
¹¹ In the same way, my words leave my mouth,
 and they don’t come back without results.
 My words make the things happen that I want to happen.
 They succeed in doing what I send them to do.

¹² “So you will go out from there with joy.
 You will be led out in peace.
 When you come to the mountains and hills, they will begin singing.
 All the trees in the fields will clap their hands.
¹³ Large cypress trees will grow where there were thornbushes.
 Myrtle trees will grow where there were weeds.
 All this will happen to make the LORD known, to be a permanent reminder of his goodness and power.”

56

All Nations Will Follow the Lord

¹ The LORD said these things, “Be fair to all people. Do what is right, because soon my salvation will come to you. My goodness will soon be shown to the whole world. ² I will bless those who refuse to do wrong and who obey the law about the Sabbath.”
³ Some foreigners will choose to follow the LORD. They should not say, “The LORD will not really accept me like the rest of his people.” A eunuch should not say, “I am only a dry piece of wood. I cannot have any children.”
⁴ They should not say that because the LORD says, “Some eunuchs obey the laws about the Sabbath. They choose to do what I want, and they follow my agreement.* ⁵ So I will put a memorial stone in my Temple for them. Their name will be remembered in my city! Yes, I will give those eunuchs something better than sons and daughters. I will give them a name that will last forever! They will not be cut off† from my people.”

* 56:4 agreement This usually means the agreement God made with Israel through Moses. (See “agreement” in the Word List.) Here, it might mean the agreement of Isaiah 55:3. † 56:5 cut off To be removed from the list of the people of Israel. This included a person’s being forced to leave family, land, and the people of Israel.

⁶ “Some foreigners have chosen to follow the LORD. They do this so that they can serve him and love his name and be his servants. They keep the Sabbath as a special day of worship, and they will continue to follow closely my agreement. ⁷ So I will bring them to my holy mountain and make them happy in my house of prayer. The offerings and sacrifices they give me will please me, because my Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations.” ⁸ The Lord GOD said these things.

The Israelites were forced to leave their country, but the Lord will gather them together again. He says, “I will bring them back together again!”

⁹ Wild animals in the forest, come and eat.

¹⁰ The watchmen[‡] are all blind.
They don't know what they are doing.

They are like dogs that will not bark.
They lie on the ground and sleep.

Oh, they love to sleep.

¹¹ They are like hungry dogs.
They are never satisfied.

The shepherds don't know what they are doing.
Like their sheep, they have all wandered away.

They are greedy.
All they want is to satisfy themselves.

¹² They come and say,
“I will drink some wine.
I will drink some beer.
I will do the same thing tomorrow, but I will drink even more.”

57

Israel Does Not Follow God

¹ All the good people are gone, and no one even noticed.
The loyal followers were gathered up,
but no one knows why.

The reason they were gathered up is that trouble is coming.

² But peace will come too, and those who trust him will get to rest in their own beds.

³ “Come here, you children of witches.
Your father committed adultery,
and your mother was unfaithful.

⁴ You are children out of control, full of lies.
You make fun of me.

You make faces and stick out your tongue at me.*

⁵ All you want is to worship false gods
under every green tree.

You kill children by every stream and sacrifice them in the rocky places.

[‡] 56:10 The watchmen Literally, “The seers,” an ancient title for prophets. * 57:4 make faces ... tongue This probably refers to the god Bel, which is usually shown making a face and sticking out his tongue.

6 You love to worship the smooth rocks in the rivers.
 You pour wine on them to worship them.
 You give sacrifices to them, but those rocks are all you get.
 Do you think this makes me happy?
 7 You make your bed on every hill and high mountain.†
 You go up to those places
 and offer sacrifices.
 8 You hide the things that help you remember me behind the doors and doorframes.‡
 You were with me,
 but you got up to go to them.
 You spread out your bed and gave yourself to them.§
 You love their beds
 and enjoy looking at their naked bodies.*
 9 You use your oils and perfumes to look nice for Molech.
 You sent your messengers to faraway lands, and this will bring you down to the place of death.†
 10 All of them made you tired,
 but you never gave up.
 You found new strength,
 because you enjoyed them.
 11 You did not remember me.
 You did not even notice me!
 So who were you worrying about?
 Who were you afraid of?
 Why did you lie?
 Look, I have been quiet for a long time.
 Is that why you didn't honor me?
 12 I could tell about your 'good works' and all the 'religious' things you do, but that will not help you.
 13 When you need help,
 you cry to those false gods that you have gathered around you.
 Let them help you!
 But I tell you, the wind will blow them all away.
 A puff of wind will blow them all away.
 But the one who depends on me will get the land I promised and enjoy my holy mountain.‡”

The Lord Will Save His People

14 Clear the road! Clear the road!
 Make the way clear for my people!

15 God is high and lifted up.

† 57:7 every hill and high mountain The people worshiped false gods in these places. The people thought these false gods would give them good crops and more children. ‡ 57:8 doorframes The Israelites were supposed to put special things on their doorframes to help them remember God. See Deuteronomy 6:9. § 57:8 gave yourself to them Or “And made agreements with them.” * 57:8 naked bodies This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means “memorial,” as in Isaiah 56:5. † 57:9 this will ... death Or “You even send them down to Sheol.” ‡ 57:13 holy mountain Mount Zion, one of the mountains Jerusalem was built on.

He lives forever.
 His name is holy.
 He says, "I live in a high and holy place,
 but I also live with people who are humble and sorry for their sins.
 I will give new life to those who are humble in spirit.
 I will give new life to those who are sorry for their sins.
¹⁶ I will not accuse my people forever.
 I will not always be angry.
 If I continued to show my anger,
 then the human spirit, the life I gave them, would die before me.
¹⁷ Israel's evil greed made me angry,
 so I punished them.
 I turned away from them
 because I was angry.
 But they continued to do wrong.
 They did whatever they wanted.
¹⁸ I have seen their way of life, but I will heal them.
 I will guide and comfort them and those who mourn for them.
¹⁹ I will teach them a new word: peace.
 I will give peace to those who are near and to those who are far away.
 I will heal them."
 The LORD himself said this.

²⁰ But evil people are like the angry ocean.
 They cannot be quiet and peaceful.
 They are angry, and like the ocean,
 they stir up mud.
²¹ My God says,
 "There is no peace for evil people."

58

People Must Be Told to Follow God

¹ Shout as loud as you can and don't stop.
 Shout like a trumpet!
 Tell the people what they did wrong.
 Tell the family of Jacob about their sins.
² They still come every day to worship me,
 acting as if they want to learn my ways.
 They pretend to be a nation that lives right and obeys the commands of their God.
 They ask me to judge them fairly.
 They want their God to be near them.

³ They say, "We fast to show honor to you. Why don't you see us? We starve our bodies to show honor to you. Why don't you notice us?"
 But God says, "You do things to please yourselves on those special days of fasting.
 And you punish your servants, not your own bodies. ⁴ You are hungry, but not for food.
 You are hungry for arguing and fighting, not for bread. You are hungry to hit people with your evil hands. This is not the way to fast if you want your prayers to be heard in heaven! ⁵ Do you think I want to see people punish their bodies on those days of fasting?
 Do you think I want people to look sad and bow their heads like dead plants? Do you think I want people to wear mourning clothes and sit in ashes to show their sadness? That is what you do on your days of fasting. Do you think that is what the LORD wants?

⁶ “I will tell you the kind of day I want—a day to set people free. I want a day that you take the burdens off others. I want a day when you set troubled people free and you take the burdens from their shoulders. ⁷ I want you to share your food with the hungry. I want you to find the poor who don’t have homes and bring them into your own homes. When you see people who have no clothes, give them your clothes! Don’t hide from your relatives when they need help.”

⁸ If you do these things, your light will begin to shine like the light of dawn. Then your wounds will heal. Your “Goodness” will walk in front of you, and the Glory of the LORD will come following behind you. ⁹ Then you will call to the LORD, and he will answer you. You will cry out to him, and he will say, “Here I am.”

Stop causing trouble and putting burdens on people. Stop saying things to hurt people or accusing them of things they didn’t do. ¹⁰ Feel sorry for hungry people and give them food. Help those who are troubled and satisfy their needs. Then your light will shine in the darkness. You will be like the bright sunshine at noon.

¹¹ The LORD will always lead you and satisfy your needs in dry lands. He will give strength to your bones. You will be like a garden that has plenty of water, like a spring that never goes dry.

¹² Your cities have been destroyed for many years, but you will rebuild them and their foundations will last for a long time. You will be called “Fence Fixer” and “Builder of Roads and Houses.”

¹³ That will happen when you stop sinning against God’s law about the Sabbath and when you stop doing things to please yourself on that special day. You should call the Sabbath a happy day. You should honor the LORD’S special day by not saying and doing things that you do every other day of the week. ¹⁴ Then you could enjoy the LORD. As the LORD himself says, “I could carry you up to the highest mountain and let you enjoy the land that I gave to your father Jacob.”

59

Evil People Should Change Their Lives

¹ Look, the LORD’S power is enough to save you. He can hear you when you ask him for help. ² It is your sins that separate you from your God. He turns away from you when he sees them. ³ That’s because your hands are covered with blood from the people you murdered. You tell lies and say evil things. ⁴ You can’t be trusted, even in court. You lie about each other and depend on false arguments to win your cases. You create pain and produce wickedness. ⁵ You hatch evil, like eggs from a poisonous snake. Anyone who eats the eggs will die. And if you break one of them open, a poisonous snake will come out.

Your lies are like spider webs. ⁶ They cannot be used for clothes, and you cannot cover yourself with them.

Your hands are always busy sinning and hurting others. ⁷ Your feet run toward evil. You are always ready to kill innocent people. You think of nothing but evil. Everywhere you go you cause trouble and ruin. ⁸ You don’t know how to live in peace. You don’t do what is right and fair. You are crooked, and anyone who lives like that will never know true peace.

Israel’s Sin Brings Trouble

⁹ All fairness and goodness is gone.
There is only darkness around us,
so we must wait for the light.
We hope for a bright light,
but all we have is darkness.

- 10 We are like people without eyes.
 We walk into walls like blind people.
 We stumble and fall as if it was night.
 Even in the daylight, we cannot see.
 At noontime, we fall like dead men.
- 11 We are always complaining;
 we growl like bears and moan like doves.
 We are waiting for justice,
 but there is none.
 We are waiting to be saved,
 but salvation is still far away.
- 12 That's because we committed crimes against our God.
 Our own sins speak out against us.
 We know we are guilty.
 We know we have sinned.
- 13 We rebelled against the LORD and lied to him.
 We turned away from our God and left him.
 We planned to hurt others
 and to rebel against God.
 From hearts filled with lies,
 we talked about it and made our plans.
- 14 We pushed Justice away.
 Fairness stands off in the distance.
 Truth has fallen in the streets.
 Goodness is not allowed in the city.
- 15 Loyalty is gone,
 and people who try to do good are robbed.
- The LORD looked and saw there was no justice.
 He did not like what he saw.
- 16 He did not see anyone speak up for the people.
 He was shocked to see that no one stood up for them.
 So with his own power he saved them.
 His desire to do what is right gave him strength.
- 17 He put on the armor of goodness,
 the helmet of salvation,
 the uniform of punishment,
 and the coat of strong love.*
- 18 He will give his enemies the punishment they deserve.
 They will feel his anger.
 He will punish all his enemies.
 People along the coast will get the punishment they deserve.
- 19 People from the west to the east will fear the LORD and respect his Glory.
 He will come quickly, like a fast-flowing river driven by a wind† from the LORD.
- 20 Then a redeemer‡ will come to Zion to save the people of Jacob who have turned away from sin.

* 59:17 strong love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy. † 59:19 wind
 Or "spirit." ‡ 59:20 redeemer Someone who sets a person free by paying their debt.

²¹ The LORD says, “As for me, this is the agreement that I will make with these people. I promise my Spirit that I put on you and my words that I put in your mouth will never leave you. They will be with you and your children and your children’s children, for now and forever.

60

God Is Coming

- ¹ “Jerusalem, get up and shine!*
- Your Light is coming!
- The Glory of the LORD will shine on you.
- ² Darkness now covers the earth, and the people are in darkness.
- But the LORD will shine on you,
and his Glory will appear over you.
- ³ Then the nations will come to your light.
Kings will come to your bright sunrise.
- ⁴ Look around you!
See all the people gathering around.
Those are your sons coming from far away,
and your daughters are there beside them.
- ⁵ “At that time you will see your people,
and your faces will shine with happiness.
First, you will be afraid,
but then you will be excited.
All the riches from across the seas will be set before you.
The riches of the nations will come to you.
- ⁶ Herds of camels from Midian and Ephah will cross your land.
Long lines of camels will come from Sheba.
They will bring gold and incense.
People will sing praises to the LORD.
- ⁷ People will collect all the sheep from Kedar and give them to you.
They will bring you rams from Nebaioth.
You will offer those animals on my altar,
and I will accept them.
I will make my wonderful Temple
even more beautiful.
- ⁸ Look at the people.
They are rushing toward you like clouds quickly crossing the sky.
They are like doves flying to their nests.
- ⁹ The faraway lands are waiting for me.
The great cargo ships are ready to sail.
They are ready to bring your children from faraway lands.
They will bring silver and gold with them to honor the LORD your God, the Holy One of Israel.
He has done wonderful things for you.
- ¹⁰ Children from other lands will rebuild your walls.
Their kings will serve you.

“When I was angry, I hurt you,

* 60:1 Jerusalem ... shine Or “Jerusalem, my light, get up!”

- but now I want to be kind to you.
So I will comfort you.
- 11 Your gates will always be open.
They will not be closed, day or night.
Nations and kings will bring their wealth to you.
- 12 Any nation or kingdom that does not serve you will be destroyed.
- 13 All the great things of Lebanon will be given to you.
People will bring pine trees, fir trees, and cypress trees to you.
These trees will be used for lumber to make my Holy Place[†] more beautiful.
This place is like a stool in front of my throne, and I will honor it.[‡]
- 14 In the past, people hurt you,
but they will bow down before you.
In the past, people hated you,
but they will bow down at your feet.
They will call you ‘The City of the LORD’S,’ ‘Zion of the Holy One of Israel.’
- 15 “People hated you.
You were left all alone with no one passing through.
But I will make you great from now on.
You will be happy forever and ever.
- 16 Nations will give you what you need,
like a child drinking milk from its mother.
But you will ‘drink’ riches from kings.
Then you will know that it is I, the LORD, who saves you.
You will know that I, the Great God of Jacob, protect you.
- 17 “You now have copper,
but I will bring you gold.
You now have iron,
but I will bring you silver.
I will change your wood into copper and your rocks into iron.
I will change your punishment into peace.
And those who punished you will be replaced with those who are kind to you.
- 18 There will never again be news of violence in your country.
People will never again attack your country and steal from you.
You will name your walls, ‘Salvation’
and your gates, ‘Praise.’
- 19 “The sun will no longer be your light during the day.
The light from the moon will no longer be your light at night.
The LORD will be your light forever.
Your God will be your glory.
- 20 Your sun will never go down again.
Your moon will never again be dark.
That’s because the LORD will be your light forever,

[†] 60:13 my Holy Place This probably means the Temple in Jerusalem. [‡] 60:13 I will honor it Or “I will give it glory.”

and the dark days of mourning will end.

²¹ “All your people will be good.
They will get the land forever.

They are the young plant in my garden[§]
that will grow to be a wonderful tree.
I made them with my own hands.*

²² The smallest family will become a large family group.
The smallest tribe will become a powerful nation.

When the time is right,
I, the LORD, will come quickly.
I will make these things happen.”

61

The Lord's Message of Freedom

¹ The Spirit of the Lord GOD is on me. The LORD has chosen me to tell good news to the poor and to comfort those who are sad. He sent me to tell the captives and prisoners that they have been set free. ² He sent me to announce that the time has come for the LORD to show his kindness, when our God will also punish evil people. He has sent me to comfort those who are sad, ³ those in Zion who mourn. I will take away the ashes on their head, and I will give them a crown. I will take away their sadness, and I will give them the oil of happiness. I will take away their sorrow, and I will give them celebration clothes. He sent me to name them ‘Good Trees’ and ‘The LORD’S Wonderful Plant.’

⁴ Then the old cities that were destroyed will be rebuilt. Those ancient ruins will be made new, as they were in the beginning.

⁵ Then your enemies will come to care for your sheep, and their children will work in your fields and in your gardens. ⁶ You will be called, ‘The LORD’S Priests,’ ‘The Servants of our God.’ You will be proud of all the riches that have come to you from all the nations on earth.

⁷ In the past, other people shamed you and said bad things to you. You were shamed much more than any other people. So in your land you will get two times more than other people. You will get the joy that continues forever. ⁸ That’s because I am the LORD and I love justice. I hate stealing and everything that is wrong. So I will give the people what they deserve. I will make an agreement with my people forever. ⁹ Their descendants will be known throughout the earth, and everyone will know their children. Whoever sees them will know that the LORD has blessed them.

God's Servant Brings Salvation

¹⁰ The LORD makes me very happy.
I am completely happy with my God.
He dressed me in the clothes of salvation.
He put the victory coat on me.
I look like a man dressed for his wedding,
like a bride covered with jewels.

¹¹ The earth causes plants to grow, and a garden makes the seeds planted there rise up.
In the same way, the Lord GOD will make goodness and praise grow throughout the nations.

[§] 60:21 young plant ... garden See Isaiah 4:1 and 5:7. * 60:21 They ... hands Or “They are the plant I planted, which I made with my own hands, to show how wonderful I am.”

62

New Jerusalem: A City Full of Goodness

- ¹ I love Zion,
so I will continue to speak for her.
I love Jerusalem,
so I will not stop speaking.
I will speak until goodness* shines like a bright light, until salvation burns bright like a flame.
- ² Then all nations will see your goodness.
All kings will see your honor.
Then you will have a new name that the LORD himself will give you.
- ³ You will be like a beautiful crown that the LORD holds up, like a king's crown in the hand of your God.
- ⁴ You will never again be called 'The People God Left.'
Your land will never again be called 'The Land God Destroyed.'
You will be called 'The People God Loves.'
Your land will be called 'God's Bride,' because the LORD loves you, and your land will be his.[†]
- ⁵ As a young man takes a bride and she belongs to him, so your land will belong to your children.[‡]
As a man is happy with his new wife, so your God will be happy with you.
- ⁶ Jerusalem, I put guards on your walls.
They will not be silent.
They will keep praying day and night.
- Guards, keep praying to the LORD.
Remind him of his promise.
Don't ever stop praying.
- ⁷ Don't give him any rest until he rebuilds Jerusalem and makes it a place that everyone on earth will praise.
- ⁸ The LORD made a promise and guaranteed it by his own power.
And he will use that power to keep his promise.
The Lord said, "I promise that I will never again give your food to your enemies.
I promise that they will never again take the wine you make.
- ⁹ Whoever gathers the food will eat it and praise the LORD.
Whoever gathers the grape will drink the wine in the courtyards of my Temple."
- ¹⁰ Come through the gates!
Clear the way for the people!
Prepare the road!
Move all the stones off the road!
Raise a flag as a sign for the nations!
- ¹¹ Listen, the LORD is speaking

* 62:1 goodness Or "victory." † 62:4 your land ... his Or "He will marry your land." This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means "He will be the lord of the land." ‡ 62:5 your land ... children Or "Your builders will marry you."

to all the faraway lands:
 “Tell the people of Zion,
 ‘Look, your Savior is coming.
 He is bringing your reward to you.
 He is bringing it with him.’ ”
¹² His people will be called “The Holy People,”
 “The Saved People of the LORD.”
 And you, Jerusalem, will be called “The City God Wants,”
 “The City God Is With.”

63

The Lord Punishes the Nations

¹ Who is this coming from Edom, from the city of Bozrah?
 His clothes are stained bright red.
 He is glorious in his clothes.
 He is walking tall with his great power.
 He says, “I have the power to save you,
 and I speak the truth.”
² “Why are your clothes bright red?
 They are like the clothes of someone who tramples grapes to make wine.”
³ He answers, “I walked in the winepress by myself.
 No one helped me.
 I was angry, and I trampled the grapes.
 The juice* splashed on my clothes, so now they are stained.
⁴ I chose a time to punish people.
 Now the time has come for me to save and protect my people.
⁵ I looked around, but I saw no one to help me.
 I was surprised that no one supported me.
 So I used my own power to save my people.
 My own anger supported me.
⁶ In my anger I trampled down the nations.
 I punished them in anger and spilled their blood† on the ground.”

The Lord Has Been Kind to His People

⁷ I will remember the kind things the LORD has done, and I will remember to praise him.
 The LORD has given many good things to the family of Israel.
 He has been very kind to us.
 He has shown us mercy.
⁸ He said, “These are my people.
 These are my real children.”
 So he saved them.
⁹ The people had many troubles,
 but he was not against them.
 He loved them and felt sorry for them,
 so he saved them.
 He sent his special angel to save them.

* 63:3 juice Or “strong drink” or “blood.” † 63:6 blood Or “strong drink” or “strength.”

He picked them up and carried them, just as he did long ago.

¹⁰ But they turned against him and made his Holy Spirit very sad.

So the Lord became their enemy and fought against them.

¹¹ Then they remembered what happened long ago.
They remembered Moses and those with him.

So where is the one who brought them through the sea along with the shepherds who led his flock?

Where is the one who sent his Holy Spirit to live among them?

¹² He was by Moses' side and led him with his wonderful hand.

He divided the water,
so that the people could walk through the sea.

He made his name famous by doing those great things.

¹³ He led the people through the deep sea.
Like a horse running through the desert,
they walked without falling.

¹⁴ Like cattle going down to the valley,
The Spirit of the LORD led them.

This is how you led your people and made your name wonderful.

A Prayer for God to Help His People

¹⁵ Please, look down from the heavens.
See what is happening now.

Look down at us from your great and holy home in heaven.
Where is your strong love[‡] for us?

Where is your compassion?
Why are you hiding your kind love from me?

¹⁶ Look, you are our father!
Abraham does not know us.
Israel does not recognize us.

LORD, you are our father!
You are the one who has always saved us!

¹⁷ LORD, why are you pushing us away from you?
Why are you making it hard for us to follow you?

Come back to us!
We are your servants.

Come to us and help us!
Our tribes belong to you.

¹⁸ Your holy people had their land only a short time.
Then our enemies trampled down your holy Temple.

¹⁹ Some people don't follow you.
They don't wear your name.

And we have been like them for a very long time.

[‡] 63:15 strong love The Hebrew word means strong feelings like love, hate, anger, zeal, or jealousy.

64

- ¹ If you would tear open the skies and come down to earth, then everything would change.
Mountains would melt before you.
- ² The mountains would burst into flames like burning bushes.
The mountains would boil like water on the fire.
Then your enemies would learn about you.
And all nations would shake with fear when they see you.
- ³ But you have done awesome things that we did not expect.
You came down, and mountains shook in fear before you.
- ⁴ No one has ever heard of such a God.
No one has ever heard such a story.
No one has ever seen any God except you,
who does such great things for those who trust him.
- ⁵ You welcome people who enjoy doing good and who remember you by living the way you want them to.
But we sinned against you,
and you became angry with us.*
But you always saved us!
- ⁶ We are all dirty with sin.
Even our good works are not pure.
They are like bloodstained rags.
We are all like dead leaves.
Our sins have carried us away like wind.
- ⁷ We don't call to you for help.
We aren't excited about following you,
so you have turned away from us.
We are helpless before you,
because we are full of sin.
- ⁸ But, LORD, you are our father.
We are like clay, and you are the potter.
Your hands made us all.
- ⁹ LORD, don't continue to be angry with us!
Don't remember our sins forever!
Please, look at us!
We are all your people.
- ¹⁰ Your holy cities are as empty as the desert.
Zion has become a desert.
Jerusalem is destroyed.
- ¹¹ Our ancestors worshiped you in our holy Temple.
That wonderful Temple has now been burned.
All our precious possessions have been destroyed.
- ¹² LORD, will these things always keep you from helping?
Will you continue to say nothing?
Will you punish us forever?

65

All People Will Learn About God

* 64:5 we sinned ... us Or "But you became angry with us and we sinned."

¹ “I helped people who had not come to me for advice. Those who found me were not looking for me.* I spoke to a nation that does not use my name. I said, ‘Here I am! Here I am!’

² “All day long I stood ready to accept those who turned against me. But they kept doing whatever they wanted to do, and all they did was wrong. ³ They keep doing things, right in front of me, that make me angry. They offer sacrifices and burn incense in their special gardens.† ⁴ They sit among the graves, waiting to get messages from the dead. They eat the meat of pigs, and their pots are full of soup made from unclean meat. ⁵ But they tell others, ‘Don’t come near me! Don’t touch me because I am holy!’ They are like smoke in my eyes, and their fire burns all the time.”

Israel Must Be Punished

⁶ “Look, here is a letter that lists all your sins. I will not be quiet until I pay you back for these sins. I will do it by punishing you. ⁷ I, the LORD, am doing this because of your sins and the sins of your ancestors. They did these sins when they burned incense in the mountains. They shamed me on those hills, and I punished them first.”

⁸ The LORD says, “When there is new wine in the grapes, people squeeze out the wine. But they don’t completely destroy the grapes because the grapes can still be used. I will do the same thing to my servants. I will not destroy them completely. ⁹ I will keep some of the people of Jacob. Some of the people of Judah will get my mountains. I will choose the people who will get the land. My servants will live there. ¹⁰ Then Sharon Valley will be a field for sheep. The Valley of Achor‡ will be a place for cattle to rest. All this will be for my people—for the people who come to me for help.

¹¹ “But you people left the LORD, so you will be punished. You forgot about my holy mountain.§ You began to worship Luck. You held feasts for the false god, Fate.* ¹² But I decided what would happen to you: you will be killed with a sword. You will all be killed because I called to you, but you refused to answer me. I spoke to you, but you would not listen. You did what I said is evil and chose to do what I did not like.”

¹³ So this is what the Lord GOD says:

“My servants will eat,
but you evil people will be hungry.
My servants will drink,
but you will be thirsty.
My servants will be happy,
but you will suffer shame.

¹⁴ My servants will shout for joy, but you will cry out in pain.†
Your spirits will be broken, and you will be very sad.

¹⁵ Your names will be like curses to my chosen servants.”
The Lord GOD will kill you, and then he will call his servants by a new name.

¹⁶ The Lord says, “People now ask blessings from the earth.
But in the future they will ask blessings from the faithful God.
People now trust in the power of the earth when they make a promise.
But in the future they will trust in the God who is faithful.

* 65:1 I helped ... me Or “I was ready to answer those who did not come to me for advice. I was ready to be found by those who did not look for me.” † 65:3 special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods. ‡ 65:10 Valley of Achor A valley about ten miles north of Jerusalem. § 65:11 my holy mountain Mount Zion, the mountain Jerusalem is built on. * 65:11 Luck ... Fate Two false gods. The people thought these gods controlled their futures. † 65:14 My servants ... pain Literally, “My servants will rejoice with good hearts, and you will scream with painful hearts.”

That's because the troubles in the past will all be forgotten.
They will be hidden from my sight."

A New Time Is Coming

¹⁷ "I am creating a new heaven and a new earth.

The troubles of the past will be forgotten.

No one will remember them.

¹⁸ My people will be happy and rejoice forever and ever because of what I will make.

I will make a Jerusalem that is full of joy,
and I will make her people happy.

¹⁹ "Then I will rejoice with Jerusalem.

I will be happy with my people.

There will never again be crying and sadness in that city.

²⁰ In that city there will never be a baby who lives only a few days, and every older person will live for a long, long time.

A person who lives 100 years will be called young.

And whoever doesn't live that long will be considered cursed.

²¹ "In that city whoever builds a house will live there;

whoever plants a vineyard will eat the grapes from that garden.

²² Never again will one person build a house and another person live there.

Never again will one person plant a garden and another eat the fruit from it.

My people will live as long as the trees.

My chosen people will get full use of whatever they make.

²³ Never again will a woman suffer childbirth and have her baby die.

Women will not fear childbirth.

I, the LORD, will bless all my people and their children.

²⁴ I will answer them before they call for help.

I will help them before they finish asking.

²⁵ Wolves and little lambs will eat together.

Lions will eat hay like cattle, and snakes will eat only dust.

They will not hurt or destroy each other on my holy mountain."

This is what the LORD said.

66

God Will Judge All Nations

¹ This is what the LORD says:

"Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is where I rest my feet.

So do you think you can build a house for me?

Do I need a place to rest?

² I am the one who made all things.

They are all here because I made them," says the LORD.

"These are the people I care for:

the poor, humble people who obey my commands.

³ Some people kill bulls as a sacrifice,

but they also beat people.
 They kill sheep as a sacrifice,
 but they also break the necks of dogs.
 They offer up grain offerings,
 but they also offer the blood of pigs.*
 They burn incense,
 but they also love their worthless idols.
 They choose their own ways,
 and they love their terrible idols.
⁴ So I decided to use their own tricks.
 I will punish them using what they are most afraid of.
 I will do this because I called to them,
 but they did not answer.
 I spoke to them,
 but they did not listen.
 They did what I said is evil.
 They chose to do what I did not like.”

⁵ You who obey the LORD’S commands, listen to what he says:
 “Your brothers hated you.
 They turned against you because you followed me.
 Your brothers said, ‘When the LORD shows his glory,
 then we will rejoice with you.’
 But they will be punished.”

Punishment and a New Nation

⁶ Listen! There is a loud noise coming from the city and from the Temple. It is the LORD punishing his enemies. He is giving them the punishment they deserve.

⁷⁻⁸ “A woman does not give birth before she feels the pain. A woman must feel the pain of childbirth before she can see the boy she gives birth to. Who ever heard of such a thing? In the same way, no one ever saw a new world begin in one day. No one has ever heard of a new nation that began in one day. But when Zion feels the pain, she will give birth to her children. ⁹ In the same way, I will not cause pain without allowing something new to be born.”

The LORD says this: “I promise that if I cause you the pain of birth, I will not stop you from having your new nation.” Your God said this.

¹⁰ Jerusalem and all her friends, be happy!
 All of you who were sad for her, be happy and rejoice with her!
¹¹ Be happy that you will receive mercy like milk coming from her breast.
 Jerusalem’s “milk” will satisfy you!
 You will drink it and enjoy her glory.

¹² This is what the LORD says:
 “Look, I will give Jerusalem peace that will flow in like a river.
 Wealth from all the nations will come flowing into her like a flood.
 And like little babies, you will drink that ‘milk.’
 I will hold you in my arms, and bounce you on my knees.

* 66:3 dogs ... pigs God did not want his people to offer dogs and pigs as sacrifices.

13 I will comfort you like a mother comforting her child.
You will be comforted in Jerusalem.”

14 When you see these things, you will be happy.

You will be free and grow like grass.

The LORD’S servants will see his power, but his enemies will see his anger.

15 Look, the LORD is coming with fire.

His armies are coming with clouds of dust.

He is angry,

and he will punish his enemies with flames.

16 The LORD will judge the people and will punish them with fire and his sword.

There will be many people killed by the LORD.

17 The LORD says, “These are the people who wash themselves and make themselves pure so that they can go into their special gardens[†] to worship their idols. They follow each other into the gardens to eat meat from pigs, rats, and other dirty things. But they will all be destroyed together.

18 “They have evil thoughts and do evil things, so I am coming to punish them. I will gather all nations and all people. Everyone will be gathered together to see my Glory.[‡]

19 I will put a mark on some of the people. I will send some of these saved people to the nations of Tarshish, Libya,[§] Lud* (the land of archers), Tubal,[†] Greece, and all the faraway lands. Those people have never heard my teachings. They have never seen my Glory. So the saved people will tell the nations about my glory. ²⁰ And they will bring all your brothers and sisters from those other nations to my holy mountain[‡] Jerusalem as an offering to the LORD. Your brothers and sisters will ride on horses, mules, camels, and in chariots and wagons. They will be like the gifts that the Israelites bring on clean plates to the Temple of the LORD. ²¹ I will also choose some of these people to be priests and Levites.” The LORD himself said this.

The New Heavens and the New Earth

²² The LORD says, “I will make a new world—new heavens and a new earth—that will last forever. In the same way, your names and your children will always be with me.

²³ Everyone will come to worship me on every worship day; they will come every Sabbath and every first day of the month.[§] This is what I, the LORD, have said.

²⁴ “Whoever goes out of the city will see the dead bodies of those who sinned against me. The worms eating those bodies will never die, and the fires burning them will never go out. It will be horrible to anyone who sees it.”

[†] 66:17 special gardens Gardens where people worshiped false gods. [‡] 66:18 my Glory See “glory” in the Word List. [§] 66:19 Libya A country in North Africa, west of Egypt. ^{*} 66:19 Lud This country was probably in the country that is now western Turkey. Jeremiah

¹ These are the messages of Jeremiah, the son of Hilkiah. Jeremiah belonged to the family of priests who lived in the town of Anathoth.* That town is in the land that belongs to the tribe of Benjamin. ² The LORD began to speak to Jeremiah in the 13th year[†] that Josiah, son of Amon, was king of the nation of Judah. ³ He continued to speak to Jeremiah during the time that Jehoiakim, son of Josiah, was king of Judah and during the eleven years and five months that Zedekiah, also a son of Josiah, was king of Judah. In the fifth month of Zedekiah's eleventh year as king, the people who lived in Jerusalem were taken away into exile.

God Calls Jeremiah

⁴ The LORD'S message came to me:

⁵ "Before I made you in your mother's womb,
I knew you.
Before you were born,
I chose you for a special work.
I chose you to be a prophet to the nations."

⁶ Then I said, "But, Lord GOD, I don't know how to speak. I am only a boy."

⁷ But the LORD said to me,

"Don't say, 'I am only a boy.'
You must go everywhere I send you and say everything I tell you to say.
⁸ Don't be afraid of anyone.
I am with you, and I will protect you."
This message is from the LORD.

⁹ Then the LORD reached out with his hand and touched my mouth. He said to me,

"Jeremiah, I am putting my words in your mouth.
¹⁰ Today I have put you in charge of nations and kingdoms.
You will pull up and tear down.
You will destroy and overthrow.
You will build up and plant."

Two Visions

¹¹ The LORD'S message came to me: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered, "I see a stick made from almond wood."

¹² The LORD said to me, "You have seen very well, and I am watching[‡] to make sure that my message to you comes true."

¹³ The LORD'S message came to me again: "Jeremiah, what do you see?"

I answered, "I see a pot of boiling water. That pot is tipping over from the north."

¹⁴ The LORD said to me, "Something terrible will come from the north."

* 1:1 priests ... of Anathoth These priests probably belonged to the family of the priest Abiathar. Abiathar was a high priest in Jerusalem during the time David was king. He was sent away to Anathoth by King Solomon. See 1 Kings 2:26.

† 1:2 the 13th year That is, 627 B.C. ‡ 1:12 watching This is a wordplay. Shaqed is the Hebrew word for "almond wood," and shoqed means "watching."

It will happen to all the people who live in this country.

¹⁵ In a short time I will call all the people in the northern kingdoms.”
This is what the LORD said.

“The kings of those countries will come and set up their thrones near the gates of Jerusalem.
They will attack the city walls of Jerusalem.
They will attack all the cities in Judah.

¹⁶ And I will announce judgment against my people, because they are evil and have turned away from me.
They offered sacrifices to other gods and worshiped idols they made with their own hands.

¹⁷ “As for you, Jeremiah, get ready.
Stand up and speak to the people.
Tell them everything that I tell you to say.
Don’t be afraid of the people.

If you are afraid of them,
I will give you good reason to be afraid of them.

¹⁸ As for me, today I will make you like a strong city, an iron column, a bronze wall.
You will be able to stand against everyone in the land, against the kings of the land of Judah,
the leaders of Judah, the priests of Judah,
and against the people of the land of Judah.

¹⁹ All those people will fight against you,
but they will not defeat you,
because I am with you,
and I will save you.”

This message is from the LORD.

2

Judah Was Not Faithful

¹ The LORD’S message came to me: ² “Jeremiah, go and speak to the people of Jerusalem. Tell them that this is what the LORD says:

“ ‘At the time you were a young nation, you were faithful to me.
You followed me like a young bride.
You followed me through the desert,
through a land that had never been used for farmland.

³ The people of Israel were a holy gift to the LORD.
They were the first fruit he gathered.
Any people who tried to hurt them were judged guilty.
Bad things happened to those wicked people.’ ”

This message is from the LORD.

⁴ Family of Jacob, hear the LORD’S message.
Tribes of Israel, listen.

⁵ This is what the LORD says:
“Do you think that I was not fair to your ancestors?

Is that why they turned away from me?
Your ancestors worshiped worthless idols,
and they became worthless themselves.

⁶ Your ancestors did not say,
‘The LORD brought us out of Egypt.
He led us through the desert,
through a dry and rocky land.
He led us through a dark and dangerous land.
No one lives there;
people don’t even travel through that land.
But the Lord led us through that land.
So where is he now?’

⁷ “I brought you into a good land,
a land filled with many good things.
I did this so that you could eat the fruit and crops that grow there.
But you only made my land ‘dirty.’
I gave that land to you,
but you made it a bad place.

⁸ “The priests did not ask,
‘Where is the LORD?’
The people who know the law did not want to know me.
The leaders of the people of Israel turned against me.
The prophets spoke* in the name of the false god Baal.
They worshiped worthless idols.”

⁹ The LORD says, “So now I will accuse you again, and I will also accuse your grandchildren.

¹⁰ Go across the sea to the Islands of Kittim.†
Send someone to the land of Kedar.
Look very carefully.

See if anyone has ever done anything like this.

¹¹ Has any nation ever stopped worshiping their old gods
so that they could worship new gods?
No! And their gods are not really gods at all!
But my people stopped worshiping their glorious God and started worshiping idols that are worth nothing.

¹² “Skies, be shocked at what happened!
Shake with great fear!”
This message is from the LORD.

¹³ “My people have done two evil things.
They turned away from me,
and they dug their own water cisterns.‡
I am the source of living water;
those cisterns are broken and cannot hold water.

¹⁴ “Israel is not a slave, is he?
He was not born a slave, was he?”

* 2:8 spoke Or “prophesied.” † 2:10 Islands of Kittim The name means the Island of Cyprus. But the name was often used for the other islands and coastlands of the Mediterranean Sea. ‡ 2:13 they dug ... cisterns That is, they made false gods.

- Then why did the enemy carry him away as a captive?
¹⁵ Like a lion the enemy has roared at Israel.
 They have destroyed your[§] land.
 Your cities have been burned,
 and no one is left in them.
¹⁶ People from Memphis and Tahpanhes* have smashed the top of your head.
¹⁷ This trouble is your own fault.
 The LORD your God was leading you the right way,[†]
 but you turned away from him.
¹⁸ People of Judah, think about this:
 How did it help you to go to Egypt and drink from the Nile River?
 How did it help you to go to Assyria and drink from the Euphrates River?
¹⁹ You have done wrong,
 and that will only bring punishment to you.
 Trouble will come to you,
 and it will teach you a lesson.
 Think about it and understand how bad it is to turn away from the LORD your God.
 It is wrong not to fear and respect me.”
 This message is from Lord GOD All-Powerful.
²⁰ “Judah, long ago you broke free from me, like an ox that breaks its yoke and the ropes that held it.
 You said to me, ‘I will not serve you!’
 On every high hill and under every green tree, you acted like a prostitute.[‡]
²¹ Judah, I planted you like a special vine.
 You were all from good seed.
 How did you turn into a different vine that grows bad fruit?
²² Even if you wash yourself with lye,
 even if you use much soap,
 I can still see your guilt.”
 This message is from the Lord GOD.
²³ “Judah, how can you say to me,
 ‘I am not guilty because I have not worshiped the Baal idols’?
 Think about what you did in the valley.
 Think about what you have done.
 You are like a fast she-camel that runs from place to place.
²⁴ You are like a wild donkey that lives in the desert.
 At mating time, she sniffs the wind.
 No one can control her when she is in heat.
 At mating time, every male that wants her will get her.
 She is easy to find.
²⁵ Judah, stop chasing after idols!
 Stop wanting those other gods.
 But you say, ‘It is no use! I cannot stop!
 I love those other gods.
 I can’t stop chasing them.’

§ 2:15 your Hebrew, “his,” referring to “Israel,” which here means his people, as in verse 16. * 2:16 Memphis and Tahpanhes Two cities in Egypt. † 2:17 was leading ... way This is not in the ancient Greek version. ‡ 2:20 On every ... prostitute This means the people worshiped their false gods in these places.

- 26 "A thief is ashamed
when people catch him stealing.
The people of Israel should be ashamed too and so should their kings and leaders, priests and prophets.
- 27 They say to pieces of wood,
'You are my father.'
They say to a rock,
'You gave birth to me.'
All these people will be ashamed.
They don't look to me for help.
They have turned their backs to me.
But when the people of Judah get into trouble, they say to me,
'Come and save us!'
- 28 But where are the idols you made for yourselves?
Let's see if they come and save you when you are in trouble!
People of Judah, you have as many idols
as you have cities!
- 29 "Why do you argue with me?
You have all turned against me."
This message was from the LORD.
- 30 "I punished you people of Judah,
but it did not help.
You did not come back
when you were punished.
With your swords you killed the prophets who came to you.
Like a dangerous lion, you killed the prophets."
- 31 People of this generation, pay attention to the LORD'S message!
- "Have I been like a desert to the people of Israel?
Have I been like a dark and dangerous land to them?
My people say, 'We are free to go our own way.
We will not come back to you!
Why do they say these things?'
- 32 A young woman does not forget her jewelry.
A bride does not forget to wear her wedding dress.
But my people have forgotten me
too many times to count.
- 33 "Judah, you have become so good at finding lovers.
Even the worst women could learn some evil ways from you.
- 34 You have blood on your hands!
It is the blood of poor, innocent people.
You did not catch them breaking into your house.
You killed them for no reason!
- 35 But still, you say, 'I am innocent.
God is not angry with me.'
So I will also judge you guilty of lying, because you say,
'I have done nothing wrong.'
- 36 You go from one place to another looking for help, always changing your mind.
But Egypt will also disappoint you,

just as Assyria did.

³⁷ So you will eventually leave Egypt too, and you will hide your face in shame.

You trusted these countries,
but the LORD rejected them,
so they cannot help you win.

3

¹ “If a man divorces his wife and she goes and marries someone else, the first husband cannot take her back.

If he did,* it would make the land unclean.

Judah, you and all your false gods are like a prostitute with many lovers!

So why do you think you can come back to me?”

This message is from the LORD.

² “Look up to the bare hilltops, Judah.

Is there any place where you have not had sex with your lovers?

You sat by the road waiting for lovers, like an Arab in the desert.

You made the land ‘dirty’ with all the evil sins you did when you were unfaithful to me.

³ You sinned, so the rain has not come.

There has not been any springtime rains.

But still you refuse to be ashamed.

The look on your face is like that of a prostitute who refuses to be ashamed.

⁴ But didn’t you just call me ‘Father’?

Didn’t you say, ‘You have been my friend since I was a child’?

⁵ You also said, ‘God will not always be angry with me.

His anger will not continue forever.’

“Judah, you say that,

but you do as much evil as you can.”

The Two Bad Sisters: Israel and Judah

⁶ The LORD spoke to me during the time King Josiah was ruling the nation of Judah. He said, “Jeremiah, you saw the bad things Israel† did! You saw how she was unfaithful to me. She was unfaithful to me with every idol on every hill and under every green tree. ⁷ I said to myself, ‘Israel will come back to me after she has finished doing these evil things.’ But she did not come back to me. And Israel’s unfaithful sister, Judah, saw what she did. ⁸ Israel was unfaithful, and she knew why I sent her away. Israel knew that I divorced her because she committed the sin of adultery. But that did not make her unfaithful sister afraid. Judah was not afraid. She also went out and acted like a prostitute. ⁹ Judah did not care that she was acting like a prostitute. So she made her country ‘dirty.’ She committed the sin of adultery by worshiping idols made out of stone and wood. ¹⁰ Israel’s unfaithful sister did not come back to me with her whole heart. She only pretended that she came back to me.” This message is from the LORD.

¹¹ The LORD said to me, “Israel was not faithful to me, but she had a better excuse than unfaithful Judah. ¹² Jeremiah, look toward the north and speak this message:

“ ‘Come back, you faithless people of Israel.’

* 3:1 If he did It was against the Law of Moses for a man to marry a woman he had divorced if that woman had become another man’s wife. See Deuteronomy 24:1-4. † 3:6 Israel Here, the name Israel means the northern kingdom of Israel. Israel was destroyed by the Assyrians about 100 years before Jeremiah’s time.

This message is from the LORD.
 'I will stop frowning at you.
 I am full of mercy.'
 The LORD says, 'I will not be angry with you forever.
¹³ But you must recognize your sin.
 You turned against the LORD your God.
 That is your sin.
 You worshiped the idols of other nations.
 You worshiped them under every green tree.
 You did not obey me.'"
 This message is from the LORD.

¹⁴ The LORD says, "You people are unfaithful, but come back to me because I am your master. I will take one person from every city and two people from every family and bring you to Zion. ¹⁵ Then I will give you new rulers who will be faithful to me. They will lead you with knowledge and understanding. ¹⁶ In those days there will be many of you in the land." This message is from the LORD.

"At that time people will never again say, 'I remember the days when we had the Box of the LORD'S Agreement.' They will not even think about the Holy Box anymore. They will not even remember or miss it. They will never make another Holy Box. ¹⁷ At that time the city of Jerusalem will be called the 'LORD'S Throne.' All nations will come together in the city of Jerusalem to give honor to the name of the LORD. They will not follow their stubborn, evil hearts anymore. ¹⁸ In those days the family of Judah will join the family of Israel. They will come together from a land in the north to the land I gave to their ancestors."

¹⁹⁻²⁰ This message is from the LORD:

"I want to treat you like my own children.
 I want to give you a pleasant land,
 a land more beautiful than any other nation.
 I thought you would call me 'Father.'
 I thought you would always follow me.
 But you have been unfaithful to me, family of Israel!
 You have been like an unfaithful wife who leaves her husband.
²¹ You can hear crying on the bare hills.
 The people of Israel are crying and praying for mercy.
 They became very evil.
 They forgot the LORD their God.

²² "People of Israel, you are unfaithful to me, but come back to me.
 Come back and I will forgive[‡] you for being unfaithful."

"Just say, 'Yes, we will come back, because you are the LORD our God.
²³ It was foolish to worship idols on the hills.
 All the loud parties on the mountains were wrong.
 Surely the salvation of Israel comes from the LORD our God.
²⁴ That terrible false god Baal has eaten everything our fathers owned.
 This has happened since we were children.
 That terrible false god took our fathers' sheep and cattle

[‡] 3:22 forgive Literally, "heal."

and their sons and daughters.

²⁵ Let us lie down in our shame.

Let our shame cover us like a blanket.

We have sinned against the LORD our God.

We and our fathers have sinned.

We have not obeyed the LORD our God from the time we were children.’ ”

4

¹ This message is from the LORD.

“Israel, if you want to come back, then come back to me.

Throw away your idols.

Don’t wander farther away from me.

² If you do these things, you will be able to use my name to make a promise.

You will be able to say, ‘As the LORD lives.’

You will be able to use these words in a truthful, honest, and right way.

If you do these things, the nations will be blessed by the Lord.

They will brag about what the Lord has done.”

³ This is what the LORD says to the people of Judah and to Jerusalem:

“Your fields have not been plowed.

Plow those fields!

Don’t plant seeds among the thorns.

⁴ Become the LORD’S people.

Change your hearts.*

Men of Judah and people of Jerusalem, if you don’t change, then I will become very angry.

My anger will spread fast like a fire,
and it will burn you up.

No one will be able to put out that fire because of the evil you have done.”

Disaster From the North

⁵ “Give this message to the people of Judah:

Tell everyone in the city of Jerusalem:

‘Blow the trumpet all over the country.’

Shout out loud and say,

‘Come together!

Let us all escape to the strong cities for protection.’

⁶ Raise the signal flag toward Zion.

Run for your lives! Don’t wait!

Do this because I am bringing disaster from the north.†

I am bringing terrible destruction.”

⁷ A lion has come out of his cave.

A destroyer of nations has begun to march.

He has left his home to destroy your land.

Your towns will be destroyed.

* 4:4 Change your hearts Literally, “Be circumcised to the LORD. Cut away the foreskin of your hearts.” See “circumcise, circumcision” in the Word List. Jeremiah is saying that real circumcision must be from inside a person’s heart (mind). † 4:6 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

There will be no one left to live in them.
 8 The LORD is angry with us,
 so put on sackcloth and cry out loud!
 9 The LORD says, “When this happens,
 the king and his officers will lose their courage.
 The priests will be filled with fear, and the prophets will be shocked.”

10 Then I, Jeremiah, said, “Lord GOD, you have tricked the people of Judah and Jerusalem. You said to them, ‘You will have peace.’ But now the sword is pointing at their throats!”

11 At that time this message will be given to the people of Judah and Jerusalem:
 “A hot wind blows from the bare hills.
 It comes from the desert to my people.
 It is not like the gentle wind that is used to separate the grain from the chaff.

12 It is a stronger wind than that,
 and it comes from me.
 Now I will announce my judgment against the people of Judah.”

13 Look! The enemy rises up like a cloud.
 His chariots look like a windstorm.
 His horses are faster than eagles.
 It will be very bad for us!
 We are ruined!

14 People of Jerusalem,
 wash the evil from your hearts.
 Make your hearts pure so that you can be saved.
 Don’t continue making evil plans.

15 Listen! The voice of a messenger from the land of Dan[‡] is speaking.
 Someone is bringing bad news from the hill country of Ephraim[§]:

16 “Report it to this nation.*
 Spread the news to the people in Jerusalem.
 Enemies are coming from a faraway country.
 They are shouting words of war against the cities of Judah.

17 The enemy has surrounded Jerusalem like men guarding a field.
 Judah, you turned against me,
 so the enemy is coming against you.”
 This message is from the LORD.

18 “The way you lived and the things you did brought this trouble to you.
 It is your evil that made your life so hard.

[‡] 4:15 land of Dan The people from the tribe of Dan lived near the border in the northern part of Israel. They would be the first to be attacked by an enemy from the north. [§] 4:15 hill country of Ephraim This was the central part of the land that had been the northern kingdom of Israel. ^{*} 4:16 “Report ... nation The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

Your evil life brought the pain that hurts deep in your heart.”

Jeremiah's Cry

¹⁹ My sadness and worry is making my stomach hurt.

I am bent over in pain.

I am so afraid.

My heart is pounding inside me.

I cannot keep quiet, because I have heard the trumpet blow.

The trumpet is calling the army to war.

²⁰ Disaster follows disaster.

The whole country is destroyed.

Suddenly my tents are destroyed.

My curtains are torn down!

²¹ How long must I see the war flags?

How long must I hear the war trumpets?

²² The Lord said, “My people are foolish.

They don't know me.

They are stupid children.

They don't understand.

They are skillful at doing evil,

but they don't know how to do good.”

Disaster Is Coming

²³ I looked at the earth.

It was empty; there was nothing on it.

I looked at the sky,

and its light was gone.[†]

²⁴ I looked at the mountains, and they were shaking.

All the hills were trembling.

²⁵ I looked, but there were no people.

All the birds of the sky had flown away.

²⁶ I looked, and the good land had become a desert.

All the cities in that land were destroyed by the LORD and his great anger.

²⁷ This is what the LORD says:

“The whole country will be ruined,

but I will not completely destroy the land.

²⁸ So the people in the land will cry for the dead.

The sky will grow dark.

I have spoken and will not change.

I have made a decision, and I will not change my mind.”

²⁹ The people of Judah will hear the sound of the horse soldiers and the archers, and the people will run away!

Some of them will hide in caves;[‡]

some will hide in the bushes;

some will climb up into the rocks.

All the cities of Judah will be empty.

[†] 4:23 the earth ... gone Jeremiah is comparing his country to the time before people were put on the earth. See Genesis 1:1. [‡] 4:29 hide in caves This is from the ancient Greek version.

No one will live in them.

³⁰ Judah, you have been destroyed.
 So what are you doing now?
 Why are you putting on your best red dress?
 Why are you putting on your gold jewelry?
 Why are you putting on your eye makeup?
 You make yourself beautiful,
 but it is a waste of time.
 Your lovers hate you.
 They are trying to kill you.
³¹ I hear a cry like a woman in labor,
 a scream like a woman giving birth to her first baby.
 It is the cry of daughter Zion.[§]
 She is lifting her hands in prayer, saying,
 "Oh! I am about to faint!
 Murderers are all around me!"

5

The Evil of the People of Judah

¹ The Lord says, "Walk the streets of Jerusalem. Look around and think about these things. Search the public squares of the city. See if you can find one good person, one who does honest things and who searches for the truth. If you find one good person, I will forgive Jerusalem." ² The people make promises and say, 'As the LORD lives.' But they don't really mean it!"

³ LORD, I know that you want people to be loyal to you.
 You hit the people of Judah,
 but they did not feel any pain.
 You destroyed them,
 but they refused to learn their lesson.
 They became very stubborn.
 They refused to be sorry for the bad things they did.

⁴ But I said to myself,
 "It must be only the poor who are so foolish.
 They have not learned the way of the LORD.
 They don't know the teachings of their God."
⁵ So I will go to the leaders of Judah.
 I will talk to them.
 Surely the leaders know the way of the LORD.
 Surely they know the law of their God."
 But the leaders had all joined together to break away from serving God.
⁶ So a lion from the forest will attack them.
 A wolf from the desert will kill them.
 A leopard is hiding near their cities,
 to tear to pieces anyone who comes out.
 That's because the people have sinned again and again.

[§] 4:31 daughter Zion Another name for Jerusalem. See "Zion" in the Word List.

Many times they have wandered away from God.

- ⁷ God says, “People of Judah, why should I forgive you?
Your children have abandoned me.
They made promises to idols that are not really gods!
I gave your children everything they needed,
but they were still unfaithful to me!
They spent their time with prostitutes.
- ⁸ They are like horses that have had plenty to eat and are ready to mate.
They are like a horse that is calling its neighbor’s wife.
- ⁹ Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?”
This message is from the LORD.
“You know I should punish a nation such as this.
I should give it the punishment it deserves.
- ¹⁰ “Go along the rows of Judah’s grapevines.
Cut down the vines. (But don’t completely destroy them.)
Cut off all their branches, because they don’t belong to the LORD.
- ¹¹ The family of Israel and the family of Judah have been unfaithful to me in every way.”
This message is from the LORD.
- ¹² “Those people lied about the LORD.
They said, ‘He will not do anything to us.
Nothing bad will happen to us.
We will never see an army attack us.
We will never starve.’
- ¹³ The prophets are only empty wind.*
The word of God is not in them.†
Bad things will happen to them.”
- ¹⁴ The LORD God All-Powerful said these things:
“The people said I would not punish them.
So, Jeremiah, the words I give you will be like fire, and these people will be like wood.
That fire will burn them up completely.”
- ¹⁵ Family of Israel, this message is from the LORD.
“I will soon bring a nation from far away to attack you.
It is an old nation;
it is an ancient nation.
The people of that nation speak a language that you do not know.
You cannot understand what they say.
- ¹⁶ Their arrow bags are like open graves.
All their men are strong soldiers.
- ¹⁷ They will eat all the crops that you gathered.
They will eat all your food.
They will destroy your sons and daughters.
They will eat your flocks and your herds.
They will eat your grapes and your figs.
They will destroy your strong cities with their swords.

* 5:13 wind This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word for wind is like the word for spirit. † 5:13 The word ... them Literally, “And the ‘He said’ is not in them.”

They will destroy the strong cities that you trust in.”

¹⁸ This message is from the LORD: “But, Judah, when these terrible days come, I will not fully destroy you. ¹⁹ The people of Judah will ask you, ‘Jeremiah, why has the LORD our God done this bad thing to us?’ Give them this answer: ‘You people of Judah have left me, and you have served foreign idols in your own land. You did these things, so now you will serve foreigners in a land that does not belong to you.’

²⁰ “Tell this message to the family of Jacob, and tell it in the nation of Judah.

²¹ Hear this message,
you foolish people who have no sense.
You have eyes, but you don’t see!
You have ears, but you don’t listen!

²² Surely you are afraid of me.”

This message is from the LORD.

“You should shake with fear in front of me.
I am the one who made the sandy shores to hold back the sea.
I made it that way to keep the water in its place forever.
The waves may pound the beach, but they will not destroy it.
The waves may roar as they come in, but they cannot go beyond the beach.

²³ But the people of Judah are stubborn.
They are always planning ways to turn against me.
They turned away from me and left me.

²⁴ The people of Judah never say to themselves,
‘Let’s fear and respect the LORD our God.
He gives us autumn and spring rains at just the right time.
He makes sure that we have the harvest at just the right time.’

²⁵ You don’t have these blessings because you have done wrong.
Your sins have kept these good things away from you.

²⁶ There are evil men among my people.
They are like men who make nets for catching birds.‡
They set their traps,
but they catch people instead of birds.

²⁷ Their houses are full of lies,
like a cage full of birds.
Their lies made them rich and powerful.

²⁸ They have grown big and fat from the evil they have done.
There is no end to the evil they do.
They will not plead the case of children who have no parents.
They will not help these orphans.
They will not let the poor be judged fairly.

²⁹ Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?”
This message is from the LORD.
“You know I should punish a nation such as this.
I should give it the punishment it deserves.

³⁰ “A terrible and shocking thing has happened in the land of Judah.

³¹ The prophets tell lies.

‡ 5:26 men ... birds The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

The priests will not do what they were chosen to do,[§] and my people love it this way!
 But what will you people do when your punishment comes?

The Enemy Surrounds Jerusalem

- ¹ “Run for your lives, people of Benjamin!
 Run away from the city of Jerusalem!
 Blow the war trumpet in the city of Tekoa!
 Put up the warning flag in the city of Beth Hakkerem!
 Do these things because disaster is coming from the north.*
 Terrible destruction is coming to you.
- ² Jerusalem,[†] you are like a beautiful meadow.[‡]
 But I will destroy you!
- ³ Enemy shepherds will surround you with all their flocks.
 They will set up their tents all around you,
 and each one will let his sheep eat the grass.
- ⁴ “Get ready to fight against Jerusalem.
 Get up! We will attack the city at noon.
 But it is already getting late.
 The evening shadows are growing long.
- ⁵ So get up! We will attack the city at night!
 Let’s destroy the strong walls that are around Jerusalem.”
- ⁶ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
 “Cut down the trees around Jerusalem, and build a siege mound[§] against it.
 This city should be punished because inside there is no justice—only slavery.
- ⁷ As a well keeps its water fresh,
 so Jerusalem keeps its wickedness fresh.
 I hear about the robbing and violence in this city all the time.
 I see nothing but pain and sickness there all the time.
- ⁸ Listen to this warning, Jerusalem, or I will turn my back on you.
 I will make your land an empty desert.
 No one will be able to live there.”
- ⁹ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
 “Gather* the people of Israel who were left on their land.
 Gather them the way you would gather the last grapes on a grapevine.

[§] 5:31 priests ... were chosen to do The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. * 6:1 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel. † 6:2 Jerusalem Literally, “daughter Zion.” See “Zion” in the Word List. ‡ 6:2 you are like a beautiful meadow The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. § 6:6 siege mound A large pile of dirt and rock that an army put against the wall of a city they were attacking. This made it easier for the enemy soldiers to climb over the wall into the city. * 6:9 Gather Or “glean.” There was a law that a farmer must leave some grain in his field during harvest, so that poor people and travelers could find something to eat. See Leviticus 19:9; 23:22.

Check each vine, like the workers check each vine when they pick the grapes.”

¹⁰ Who can I speak to?

Who can I warn?

Who will listen to me?

The people of Israel have closed their ears,
so they cannot hear my warnings.

They don't like the LORD'S teachings.

They don't want to hear his message.

¹¹ But I am full of the LORD'S anger, and I am tired of holding it in!

“Pour out my anger on the children playing in the streets and on the young soldiers gathered there as well.

A man and his wife will both be captured as well as all the old people.

¹² Their houses will be given to others.

Their fields and their wives will be given to other people.

I will raise my hand and punish the people of Judah.”

This message is from the LORD.

¹³ “All the people of Israel want more and more money.

All of them, from the least important to the most important, are like that.

Even the prophets and priests tell lies.

¹⁴ They should bandage the wounds my people have suffered,
but they treat their wounds like small scratches.

They say, ‘It's all right, everything is all right.’

But it is not all right!

¹⁵ They should be ashamed of the evil things they do,
but they are not ashamed at all.

They don't know enough to be embarrassed by their sins.

So they will be punished with everyone else.

They will be thrown to the ground when I punish the people.”

This is what the LORD said.

¹⁶ This is what the LORD says:

“Stand at the crossroads and look.

Ask where the old road is.

Ask where the good road is,
and walk on that road.

If you do, you will find rest for yourselves.

But you people have said, ‘We will not walk on the good road.’

¹⁷ I chose watchmen to watch over you.

I told them, ‘Listen for the sound of the war trumpet.’

But they said, ‘We will not listen!’

¹⁸ So listen, all you nations, and pay attention, you people in those countries.†

¹⁹ Hear this, people of the earth:

I am going to bring disaster to the people of Judah because of all the evil they planned, and because they ignored my messages.

They refused to obey my law.

† 6:18 pay ... countries The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

20 “Why do you bring me incense from the country of Sheba[‡]?
 Why do you bring me sweet-smelling cane from a faraway country?
 Your burnt offerings don’t make me happy.
 Your sacrifices don’t please me.”

21 So this is what the LORD says:
 “I will give the people of Judah problems.
 They will be like stones that make people fall.
 Fathers and sons will stumble over them.
 Friends and neighbors will die.”

22 This is what the LORD says:
 “An army is coming from the north.[§]
 A great nation is coming from faraway places on earth.
 23 The soldiers carry bows and spears.
 They are cruel; they have no mercy.
 They are so powerful.
 They sound like the roaring ocean as they ride their horses.
 That army is coming, ready for battle.
 It is coming to attack you, Jerusalem. ^{*}”

24 We have heard the news about that army, and we are paralyzed with fear.
 We feel trapped by our troubles,
 in pain like a woman giving birth.

25 Don’t go out into the fields.
 Don’t go on the roads
 because the enemy has swords,
 and there is danger everywhere.

26 My people, put on sackcloth and roll in the ashes.[†]
 Cry loudly for the dead.
 Cry as if you lost an only son.
 Do this because the destroyer will come against us very quickly.

27 “Jeremiah, I want you to be like a worker who tests metals.
 You will test my people
 and watch how they live.

28 My people have turned against me,
 and they are very stubborn.
 They say bad things about people.

They are like bronze and iron that are covered with rust and tarnish.

29 They are like a worker who tried to make silver pure.

but only lead came from the fire.[§] trying to make that silver pure.

 In the same way the evil was not removed from my people.
³⁰ My people will be called ‘Rejected Silver.’
 They will be given that name because the LORD did not accept them.”

Jeremiah’s Temple Sermon

“Hear the message from the LORD, all you people of the nation of Judah. All you who come through these gates to worship the LORD, hear this message. ³ The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: Change your lives and do good things. If you do this, I will let you live in this place.* ⁴ Don’t trust the lies that some people say. They say, “This is the Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD, the Temple of the LORD!†” ⁵ If you change your lives and do good things, I will let you live in this place. You must be fair to each other. ⁶ You must be fair to strangers. You must help widows and orphans. Don’t kill innocent people! And don’t follow other gods, because they will only ruin your lives. ⁷ If you obey me, I will let you live in this place. I gave this land to your ancestors for them to keep forever.

⁸ “But you are trusting lies that are worthless. ⁹ Will you steal and murder? Will you commit adultery? Will you falsely accuse other people? Will you worship the false god Baal and follow other gods that you have not known? ¹⁰ If you commit these sins, do you think that you can stand before me in this house that is called by my name? Do you think you can stand before me and say, “We are safe,” just so you can do all these terrible things? ¹¹ This Temple is called by my name. Is this Temple nothing more to you than a hideout for robbers? I have been watching you.’ ” This message is from the LORD.

¹² “You people of Judah, go now to the town of Shiloh. Go to the place where I first made a house for my name. The people of Israel also did evil things. Go and see what I did to that place because of the evil they did.‡ ¹³ You people of Israel were doing all these evil things. This message is from the LORD! I spoke to you again and again, but you refused to listen to me. I called to you, but you did not answer. ¹⁴ So I will destroy the house called by my name in Jerusalem. I will destroy that Temple as I destroyed Shiloh. And that house in Jerusalem that is called by my name is the Temple you trust in. I gave that place to you and to your ancestors. ¹⁵ I will throw you away from me just as I threw away all your brothers from Ephraim.’

¹⁶ “As for you, Jeremiah, don’t pray for these people of Judah. Don’t beg for them or pray for them. Don’t beg me to help them. I will not listen to your prayer for them. ¹⁷ I know you see what they are doing in the towns of Judah. You can see what they are doing in the streets of the city of Jerusalem. ¹⁸ This is what the people of Judah are doing: The children gather wood. The fathers use the wood to make a fire. The women make the dough and then make cakes of bread to offer to the Queen of Heaven. The people of Judah pour out drink offerings to worship other gods. They do this to make me angry.

§ 6:29 lead came from the fire Workers melted metals like silver to make the metals pure. Lead was the first metal to melt, so the workers poured the lead out, leaving the other metal pure. Here, Jeremiah is saying the people are all bad—they are all lead and no silver! * 7:3 I will ... place This can also mean “I will live with you.” † 7:4 This is ... LORD Many people in Jerusalem thought the Lord would always protect the city where his Temple was, so it didn’t matter how evil they were. ‡ 7:12 Go ... they did Shiloh was probably destroyed by the Philistines in the time of Eli and Samuel. See 1 Sam. 4.

¹⁹ But I am not the one they are really hurting.” This message is from the LORD. “They are only hurting themselves. They are bringing shame on themselves.”

²⁰ So this is what the Lord GOD says: “I will show my anger against this place. I will punish people and animals. I will punish the trees in the field and the crops that grow in the ground. My anger will be like a hot fire—no one will be able to stop it.”

Obedience Is Better Than Sacrifice

²¹ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “Go and offer as many burnt offerings and sacrifices as you want. Eat the meat of those sacrifices yourselves.

²² I brought your ancestors out of Egypt. I spoke to them, but I did not give them any commands about burnt offerings and sacrifices. ²³ I only gave them this command: ‘Obey me and I will be your God, and you will be my people. Do all that I command, and good things will happen to you.’

²⁴ “But your ancestors did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were stubborn and did what they wanted to do. They did not become good. They became even more evil—they went backward, not forward. ²⁵ From the day that your ancestors left Egypt to this day, I have sent my servants to you. My servants are the prophets. I sent them to you again and again. ²⁶ But your ancestors did not listen to me. They did not pay attention to me. They were very stubborn and did evil even worse than their fathers did.

²⁷ “Jeremiah, you will tell these things to the people of Judah. But they will not listen to you. You call to them, but they will not answer you. ²⁸ So you must tell them these things: ‘This is the nation that did not obey the LORD its God. These people did not listen to God’s teachings. They don’t know the true teachings.’

The Valley of Slaughter

²⁹ “Jeremiah, cut off your hair and throw it away.[§] Go up to the bare hilltop and cry, because the LORD has rejected this generation of people. He has turned his back on these people. And in anger he will punish them. ³⁰ Do this because I have seen the people of Judah doing evil things.” This message is from the LORD. “They have set up their idols, and I hate those idols. They have set up idols in the Temple that is called by my name. They have made my house ‘dirty’! ³¹ The people of Judah built the high places of Topheth in the Valley of Ben Hinnom where they killed their own sons and daughters and burned them as sacrifices. This is something I never commanded. Something like this never even entered my mind! ³² So I warn you. The days are coming,” says the LORD, “when people will not call this place Topheth or the Valley of Ben Hinnom anymore. No, they will call it the Valley of Slaughter. They will give it this name because they will bury the dead people in Topheth until there is no more room to bury anyone else. ³³ Then the bodies of the dead people will become food for the birds of the sky. Wild animals will eat the bodies of those people. There will be no one left alive to chase the birds or animals away. ³⁴ I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. There will be no more sounds of the bride and bridegroom in Judah or Jerusalem. The land will become an empty desert.”

8

¹ This message is from the LORD: “At that time men will take the bones of the kings and important rulers of Judah from their tombs. They will take the bones of the priests and prophets from their tombs. They will take the bones of all the people of Jerusalem from their tombs. ² They will spread the bones on the ground under the sun, the moon, and the stars. The people of Jerusalem love to worship the sun, the moon, and the stars. No one will gather the bones and bury them again. So the bones of those people will be like dung thrown on the ground.

§ 7:29 cut ... away This showed that Jeremiah was sad.

³ “I will force the people of Judah to leave their homes and their land. They will be taken away to foreign lands. Some of the people of Judah who were not killed in the war will wish that they had been killed.” This message is from the LORD All-Powerful.

Sin and Punishment

⁴ “Jeremiah, say this to the people of Judah: ‘This is what the LORD says:

“ ‘You know if a man falls down,
he gets up again.

And if a man goes the wrong way,
he turns around and comes back.

⁵ The people of Judah went the wrong way.

But why do the people of Jerusalem continue going the wrong way?

They believe their own lies.

They refuse to turn around and come back.

⁶ I have listened to them very carefully,
but they don’t say what is right.

They are not sorry for their sins.

They don’t think about the evil they have done.

They do things without thinking.

They are like horses running into a battle.

⁷ Even the birds in the sky know the right time to do things.

The storks, doves, swifts, and thrushes know when it is time to fly to a new home.

But my people don’t know what the LORD wants them to do.

⁸ “ ‘You keep saying, “We have the LORD’S teachings. So we are wise!”
But this is not true, because the scribes have lied with their pens.

⁹ These “wise people” refused to listen to the LORD’S teachings.
So they are not really wise at all.

These “wise people” were trapped.
They became shocked and ashamed.

¹⁰ So I will give their wives to other men.
I will give their fields to new owners.

All the people of Israel want more and more money.
All of them, from the least important to the most important, are like that.

Even the prophets and priests tell lies.

¹¹ They should bandage the wounds my people have suffered,
but they treat their wounds like small scratches.

They say, “It’s all right, everything is all right.”
But it is not all right!

¹² They should be ashamed of the evil things they do,
but they are not ashamed at all.

They don’t know enough to be embarrassed by their sins.
So they will be punished with everyone else.

They will be thrown to the ground when I punish the people.’ ”
This is what the LORD said.

¹³ “ ‘I will take away their fruit and crops
so that there will be no harvest, says the LORD.
There will be no grapes on the vine and no figs on the fig tree.

Even the leaves will become dry and die.
I will take away the things I gave them.’ ”*

14 “They will say, ‘Why are we just sitting here?
Come, let’s run to the strong cities.
If the LORD our God is going to make us die,
then let’s die there.
We have sinned against the LORD,
so he has given us poisoned water to drink.

15 We hoped to have peace,
but nothing good has come.
We hoped that he would forgive us,
but only disaster has come.

16 From the land of the tribe of Dan,
we hear the snorting[†] of the enemy’s horses.
The ground shakes from the pounding of their hooves.
They have come to destroy the land
and everything in it.
They have come to destroy the city and all the people who live there.’ ”

17 “People of Judah, I am sending poisonous snakes[‡] to attack you.
These snakes cannot be controlled.
They will bite you.”
This message is from the LORD.

18 God, I am very sad and afraid.

19 Listen to my people.
Everywhere in this country, people are crying for help.
They say, “Is the LORD still at Zion?
Is Zion’s King still there?”

But God says,
“The people of Judah worshiped their worthless foreign idols.
That made me very angry!
Why did they do that?”

20 And the people say,
“Harvest time is over.
Summer is gone,
and still we have not been saved.”

21 My people are hurt, so I am hurt.
I am too sad to speak.

22 Surely there is some medicine in Gilead.
Surely there is a doctor in Gilead.
So why are the wounds of my people not healed?

9

1 If my head were filled with water,
and if my eyes were a fountain of tears,

* 8:13 I will take away ... gave them The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. † 8:16 snorting The sound caused by forcing breath very hard through the nose. ‡ 8:17 poisonous snakes This probably means one of Judah’s enemies.

I would cry day and night for my people who have been destroyed.

² If only I had a place in the desert—a house where travelers spend the night—
so I could leave my people.

I could go away from them,
because they are all unfaithful to God.
They have all turned against him.

³ “They use their tongues like a bow;
lies fly from their mouths like arrows.

Lies, not truth,
have grown strong in this land.
They go from one sin to another.
They don’t know me.”
This is what the LORD said.

⁴ “Watch your neighbors!
Don’t trust your own brothers,
because every brother is a cheat.
Every neighbor talks behind your back.

⁵ Everyone lies to their neighbor.
No one speaks the truth.
The people of Judah have taught their tongues to lie.
They sinned until they were too tired
to come back.

⁶ One bad thing followed another,
and lies followed lies.
The people refused to know me.”
This is what the LORD said.

⁷ So the LORD All-Powerful says,
“A worker heats metal in a fire to test it and see if it is pure.
I will test the people of Judah like that.

I have no other choice.
My people have sinned.

⁸ The people of Judah have tongues as sharp as arrows.
Their mouths speak lies.

They all speak kindly to their neighbors,
but they are secretly planning ways to attack them.

⁹ Should I punish the people of Judah for doing these things?”
This message is from the LORD.

“You know I should punish a nation such as this.
I should give it the punishment it deserves.”

¹⁰ I, Jeremiah, will cry for the mountains.
I will sing a funeral song for the empty fields,
because all the animals were taken away.

No one travels there now.
The sounds of cattle cannot be heard.
The birds have flown away,
and the animals are gone.

¹¹ The Lord says,* “I will make the city of Jerusalem a pile of garbage.
It will be a home for jackals.
I will destroy the cities in the land of Judah,
so no one will live there.”

¹² Is there a man who is wise enough to understand these things? Is there someone who has been taught by the LORD? Can anyone explain his message? Why was the land ruined? Why was it made like an empty desert where no one goes?

¹³ The LORD answered, “It is because the people of Judah stopped following my teachings. I gave them my teachings, but they refused to listen to me. They did not follow my teachings. ¹⁴ The people of Judah lived their own way. They were stubborn. They followed the false god Baal. Their fathers taught them to follow those false gods.”

¹⁵ So the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, “I will soon make the people of Judah eat bitter food and drink poisoned water. ¹⁶ I will scatter the people of Judah throughout other nations. They will live in strange nations that they and their fathers never knew about. I will send men with swords. They will kill the people of Judah. They will kill them until all the people are gone.”

¹⁷ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
“Now think about these things!
Call for the women who get paid to cry at funerals.
Send for the people who are good at that job.

¹⁸ The people say,
‘Let those women come quickly and cry for us.
Then our eyes will fill with tears that flow over our eyelids like streams of water.’

¹⁹ “The sound of loud crying is heard from Zion:
‘We are really ruined!
We are so ashamed!
We must leave our land,
because our houses have been destroyed.
Now our houses are only piles of rock.’ ”

²⁰ Now, women of Judah, listen to the message from the LORD.

Listen to the words from his mouth.
Teach your daughters how to cry loudly.
Each of them must learn to sing this funeral song:

²¹ “Death has climbed in through our windows and has come into our palaces.
Death has come to our children who play in the streets and to the young men who meet in the public places.”

²² This is what you should say: “The LORD says, ‘Dead bodies will lie
in the fields like dung.
Their bodies will lie on the ground like grain a farmer has cut.
But there will be no one to gather them.’ ”

²³ This is what the LORD says:
“The wise must not brag about their wisdom.

* 9:11 The Lord says This is implied from the context.

The strong men must not brag about their strength.
 The rich must not brag about their money.
²⁴ But if someone wants to brag, then let them brag about this:
 Let them brag that they learned to know me.
 Let them brag that they understand that I am the LORD,
 that I am kind and fair,
 and that I do good things on earth.
 I love this kind of bragging.”
 This message is from the LORD.

²⁵ This is what the LORD says: “The time is coming when I will punish all those who are circumcised only in the body. ²⁶ I am talking about the people of the nations of Egypt, Judah, Edom, Ammon, Moab, and all those who live in the desert. The circumcision they do is not the kind the Lord wants. But the people of Israel are not really circumcised either. They are not circumcised in their hearts.†”

The Lord and the Idols

¹ Family of Israel, listen to the LORD! ² This is what the LORD says:
 “Don’t live like people from other nations.
 Don’t be afraid of special signs in the sky.*
 The other nations are afraid of what they see in the sky.
 But you must not be afraid of them.
³ The customs of other people are worth nothing.
 Their idols are nothing but wood from the forest.
 Their idols are made by workers with their chisels.†
⁴ They make their idols beautiful with silver and gold.
 They use hammers and nails to fasten their idols down so that they will not fall over.
⁵ The idols of the other nations are like a scarecrow in a cucumber field.
 They cannot walk.
 They cannot talk, and the people must carry them.
 So don’t be afraid of their idols.
 They cannot hurt you.
 And they cannot help you either.”
⁶ LORD, there is no one like you.
 You are great!
 Your name is great and powerful!
⁷ Everyone should respect you, King of all the nations.
 You deserve their respect.
 There are many wise men among the nations,
 but not one of them is as wise as you.
⁸ All the people of the other nations are stupid and foolish.
 Their teachings come from worthless wooden statues.
⁹ They use silver from the city of Tarshish

† 9:26 circumcised in their hearts See the note at Jeremiah 4:4. * 10:2 special signs in the sky People believed that such things as comets, meteors, or eclipses of the sun and moon could be used to learn what was going to happen in the future. † 10:3 chisels Sharp tools used to carve wood or stone.

and gold from the city of Uphaz and make their statues.
Carpenters and metalworkers make the idols.

They put blue and purple clothes on them.
“Wise men” make these “gods.”

¹⁰ But the LORD is the only true God.

He is the only God who is alive.
He is the King who rules forever.

The earth shakes when he is angry.

The people of the nations cannot stop his anger.

¹¹ The Lord says, “Tell them this message:

‘These false gods did not make heaven and earth.

They will be destroyed and disappear from heaven and earth.’”[‡]

¹² God is the one who used his power and made the earth.

He used his wisdom and built the world.
With his understanding he stretched the sky over the earth.

¹³ God causes the loud thunder, and he causes great floods of water to fall from the sky.

He makes clouds rise in the sky every place on earth.

He sends lightning with the rain.
He brings out the wind from his storehouses.

¹⁴ People are so stupid!

Metalworkers are fooled by the idols that they themselves made.

These statues are nothing but lies.

They are stupid.[§]

¹⁵ These idols are worth nothing.

They are something to make fun of.
In the time of judgment they will be destroyed.

¹⁶ But Jacob’s God* is not like the idols.

He made everything,
and Israel is the family that God chose to be his own people.
His name is LORD All-Powerful.

Destruction Is Coming

¹⁷ Get everything you own and prepare to leave.

People of Judah, you are trapped in the city, and the enemy is all around it.

¹⁸ This is what the LORD says:

“This time, I will throw the people of Judah out of this country.

I will bring pain and trouble to them.

I will do this so that they will learn their lesson.”[†]

¹⁹ I am hurt badly.

I am injured and I cannot be healed.

But I told myself, “This is my sickness;

[‡] 10:11 Tell this message ... earth This part was written in Aramaic, not Hebrew. This was the language people used often when writing to people in other countries. It was also the language spoken in Babylon. I must suffer through it.”
²⁰ My tent is ruined.
 All its ropes are broken.
 My children left me.
 They are gone.
 No one is left to put up my tent.
 No one is left to fix a shelter for me.
²¹ The shepherds are stupid.
 They don't try to find the LORD.
 They are not wise,
 so their flocks are scattered and lost.
²² Listen! A loud noise!
 The noise is coming from the north.‡
 It will destroy the cities of Judah.
 Judah will become an empty desert.
 It will be a home for jackals.

²³ LORD, I know that our lives do not belong to us.
 We have no control over what happens.
²⁴ So correct us, LORD!
 But please be fair.
 Don't punish us in anger,
 or you will destroy us!
²⁵ If you are angry, then punish the other nations.
 They don't know or respect you.
 They don't worship you.
 Those nations destroyed Jacob's family.
 They destroyed Israel completely.
 They destroyed Israel's homeland.

The Agreement Is Broken

¹ This is the message from the LORD: ² “Jeremiah, listen to the words of this agreement and tell them to the people living in Jerusalem and the rest of Judah. ³ Tell them that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: ‘Bad things will happen to anyone who does not obey this agreement. ⁴ I am talking about the agreement I made with your ancestors when I brought them out of that furnace* called Egypt.’ At that time I told them, ‘Listen to me and obey all the commands I give you. Then you will be my people and I will be your God.’

⁵ “I did this to keep the promise that I had made to your ancestors. I promised to give them a very fertile land—a land flowing with milk and honey. And you are living in that country today.”

I answered, “Amen, LORD.”

⁶ The LORD said to me, “Jeremiah, tell this message in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem: ‘Listen to the words of this agreement, and then obey these laws. ⁷ I gave a warning to your ancestors at the time I brought them out of the land of Egypt. I have warned them again and again to this day. I told them to obey me. ⁸ But your ancestors did not listen to me. They were stubborn and did what their own evil hearts wanted. The agreement says that bad things will happen to them if they don't obey. So I made all the bad things happen to them. I commanded them to obey the agreement, but they did not.' ”

⁹ The LORD said to me, “Jeremiah, I know that the people of Judah and the people living in Jerusalem have made secret plans. ¹⁰ They are committing the same sins that their ancestors did. Their ancestors refused to listen to my message. They followed and worshiped other gods. The family of Israel and the family of Judah have broken the agreement I made with their ancestors.”

¹¹ So this is what the LORD says: “I will soon make something terrible happen to the people of Judah. They will not be able to escape. They will be sorry and cry to me for help, but I will not listen to them. ¹² The people in the towns of Judah and in the city of Jerusalem will go and pray to their idols for help. They burn incense to those idols. But their idols will not be able to help the people of Judah when that terrible disaster comes.

¹³ “People of Judah, you have many idols—there are as many idols as there are towns in Judah. You have built many altars for worshiping that disgusting god Baal—there are as many altars as there are streets in Jerusalem.

¹⁴ “As for you, Jeremiah, don't pray for these people of Judah. Don't beg for them. Don't say prayers for them. I will not listen. They will suffer and then call to me for help, but I will not listen.

¹⁵ “Judah is the one I love, but why is she in my temple?

She has done too many evil things.

Judah, do you think vows and sacrifices will keep you from being destroyed?

Will I then allow you to enjoy your evil ways?”

¹⁶ The LORD gave you a name.

He called you, “A green olive tree, beautiful to look at.”

But with a powerful storm, he will set that tree on fire, and its branches will be burned up.†

¹⁷ The LORD All-Powerful planted you, and he said that disaster will come to you. That is because the family of Israel and the family of Judah have done evil things. They offered sacrifices to Baal, and that made him angry!

Evil Plans Against Jeremiah

¹⁸ The LORD showed me that the men of Anathoth‡ were making plans against me. He showed me what they were doing, so I knew they were against me. ¹⁹ Before he showed me this, I was like a gentle lamb waiting to be butchered. I did not understand that they were against me. They were saying this about me: “Let us destroy the tree and its fruit! Let us kill him! Then people will forget him.” ²⁰ So I prayed, “LORD All-Powerful, you are a fair judge. You know how to test people's hearts and minds. I will tell you my arguments, and I will let you give them the punishment they deserve.”

²¹ The LORD said to me, “Those people from Anathoth are planning to take your life. They are telling you not to prophesy in the name of the LORD or they will kill you. This is what I have to say about them: ²² I, the LORD All-Powerful, promise that I will soon punish those people. Their young men will die in war. Their sons and daughters will die from hunger. ²³ No one from the city of Anathoth will be left. No one will survive. I will punish them and cause something bad to happen to them.”

† 11:16 The meaning of these verses is uncertain. ‡ 11:18 men of Anathoth Anathoth was Jeremiah's hometown. The people who were plotting against him there included his own relatives. See Jeremiah 12:6.

Jeremiah Complains to God

- ¹ LORD, if I argue with you,
you are always right.
But I want to ask you about some things that don't seem right.
Why are wicked people successful?
Why do people you cannot trust have such easy lives?
- ² You have put these wicked people here like plants with strong roots.
They grow and produce fruit.
With their mouths they say that you are near and dear to them, but in their hearts they are really far away from you.
- ³ But you know my heart, LORD.
You see me and test my mind.
Drag the evil people away like sheep to be killed.
Choose them for the day of slaughter.
- ⁴ How much longer will the land be dry?
How long will the grass be dry and dead?
The birds and the animals of this land have all died,
and it is the fault of the wicked.
But they are saying,
"Jeremiah will not live long enough to see what happens to us."

God's Answer to Jeremiah

- ⁵ "Jeremiah, if running in a race against men makes you tired, how will you race against horses?
If you trip and fall in a safe place,
what will you do in a dangerous place?
What will you do in the thornbushes that grow along the Jordan River?
- ⁶ These men are your own brothers.
Members of your own family are making plans against you.
People from your own family are shouting at you.
Don't trust them,
even when they speak to you like friends.

The Lord Rejects Judah

- ⁷ "I have abandoned my house.
I have left my own property.*
I have given Judah, the one I love, to her enemies.
- ⁸ My own people turned against me like a wild lion.
They roared at me, so I turned away from them.
- ⁹ My own people have become like a dying animal surrounded by vultures.
These birds are circling around her.
Come on, wild animals.
Come get something to eat.
- ¹⁰ Many shepherds have ruined my vineyard.
They have trampled the plants in my field.
They have made my beautiful field a desert.
- ¹¹ They have turned it into an empty desert.
It is dry and dead.

* 12:7 house ... my own property That is, the people of Judah.

The whole land has been ruined,
 and no one is left to care for it.
¹² The empty hills are covered with soldiers who have come to destroy everything.
 The LORD is using them to punish that land from one end to the other.
 No one is safe.
¹³ The people will plant wheat,
 but they will harvest only thorns.
 They will work hard until they are very tired,
 but they will get nothing for all their work.
 They will be ashamed of their crop.
 The LORD'S anger caused this."

The Lord's Promise to Israel's Neighbors

¹⁴ This is what the LORD says: "I will tell you what I will do for all those who live around the land of Israel. They are very wicked. They have destroyed the land I gave to the people of Israel. I will pull the evil people up and throw them out of their land, and I will pull the people of Judah up with them. ¹⁵ But after I pull them up out of their land, I will feel sorry for them. I will bring each family back to its own property and to its own land. ¹⁶ I want these people to learn their lessons well. In the past they taught my people to use Baal's name to make promises. Now, I want them to learn to use my name. I want them to say, 'As the LORD lives' If they do that, I will allow them to be successful, and I will let them live among my people. ¹⁷ But if a nation does not listen to my message, I will completely destroy it. I will pull it up like a dead plant." This message is from the LORD.

13

The Sign of the Loincloth

¹ This is what the LORD said to me: "Jeremiah, go and buy a linen loincloth.* Then put it around your waist. Don't let it get wet."

² So I bought a linen loincloth, just as the LORD told me to do, and I put it around my waist. ³ Then the message from the LORD came to me a second time. ⁴ This was the message: "Jeremiah, take the loincloth you bought and are wearing, and go to Perath.† Hide the loincloth there in a crack in the rocks."

⁵ So I went to Perath and hid the loincloth there, just as the LORD told me to do. ⁶ Many days later the LORD said to me, "Now, Jeremiah, go to Perath. Get the loincloth that I told you to hide there."

⁷ So I went to Perath and dug the loincloth out of the crack in the rocks where I had hidden it. But now I could not wear the loincloth, because it was ruined. It was not good for anything.

⁸ Then the message from the LORD came to me. ⁹ This is what the LORD said: "The loincloth is ruined and not good for anything. In the same way, I will ruin the proud people of Judah and Jerusalem. ¹⁰ I will ruin them because they refuse to listen to my messages. They are stubborn and do only what they want to do. They follow and worship other gods. They will be like this linen loincloth. They will be ruined and not good for anything. ¹¹ A loincloth is wrapped tightly around a man's waist. In the same way, I wrapped the family of Israel and the family of Judah around me." This message is from the LORD. "I did that so that they would be my people and bring me fame, praise, and honor. But my people did not listen to me."

* 13:1 loincloth A common undergarment in ancient Judah. It was a short skirt that was wrapped around the hips. It reached about halfway down the thighs. † 13:4 Perath Probably a village near Jerusalem. This town is called Parah in the list of the cities of the land of Benjamin in Josh. 18:23. But this name also means the Euphrates River.

Warnings to Judah

¹² “Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah: ‘This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: Every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ They will laugh and say to you, ‘Of course, we know that every wineskin should be filled with wine.’ ¹³ Then you will say to them, ‘This is what the LORD says: I will make everyone who lives in this land helpless, like a drunken man. I am talking about the kings who sit on David’s throne. I am also talking about the priests, the prophets, and all the people who live in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ I will make them stumble and fall against each another, even the fathers and sons.’ This message is from the LORD. ‘I will not feel sorry or have pity for them. I will not allow compassion to stop me from destroying the people of Judah.’ ”

¹⁵ Listen and pay attention.

The LORD has spoken to you.

Do not be proud.

¹⁶ Honor the LORD your God.

Praise him or he will bring darkness.

Praise him before you fall on the dark hills.

You people of Judah are hoping for light,

but the Lord will turn the light into thick darkness.

He will change it into the deepest gloom.

¹⁷ If you people of Judah don’t listen to him,

I will hide and cry.

Your pride will cause me to cry.

I will cry very hard.

My eyes will overflow with tears,

because the LORD’S flock[‡] will be captured.

¹⁸ Tell these things to the king and his wife,

“Come down from your thrones.

Your beautiful crowns have fallen from your heads.”

¹⁹ The cities in the Negev are locked.

No one can open them.

All the people of Judah have been taken away as captives.

They were carried away as prisoners.

²⁰ Jerusalem, look!

The enemy is coming from the north[§]!

Where is the flock* you were once in charge of?

That beautiful flock is gone now.

²¹ I will let your enemies become your rulers—people you once trusted with your secrets.

What will you say then?

Surely you will feel great pain,

like a woman giving birth.

²² You might ask yourself,

“Why has this bad thing happened to me?”

It happened because of your many sins.

Because of your sins, your skirt was torn off,

[‡] 13:17 LORD’S flock This is a figurative name for the people of Judah. The Lord is thought of as a shepherd, while his people are seen as his flock of sheep. [§] 13:20 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. - and your sandals were taken away.
They did this to embarrass you.
- 23 A black man cannot change the color of his skin,
and a leopard cannot change its spots.
In the same way, Jerusalem, you cannot change and do good.
You always do bad things.
- 24 “I will force you to leave your homes.
You will run in all directions.
You will be like chaff blown away by the desert wind.
- 25 This is what will happen to you.
This is your part in my plans.”
This message is from the LORD.
“Why will this happen?
Because you forgot me.
You trusted false gods.
- 26 Jerusalem, I will pull your skirt up over your face.
Everyone will see you,
and you will be ashamed.
- 27 I saw the terrible things you did.†
I saw you laughing and having sex with your lovers.
I know about your plans to be like a prostitute.
I have seen you on the hills and in the fields.
It will be very bad for you, Jerusalem.
How long will you continue doing your dirty sins?”

Drought and False Prophets

- 1 This is the LORD’S message to Jeremiah about the drought*:
- 2 “The nation of Judah cries for people who have died.
The people in the cities of Judah grow weaker and weaker.
They lie on the ground.
People in Jerusalem, cry to God for help.
- 3 The leaders of the people send their servants to get water.
The servants go to the water storage places,
but they don’t find any water.
The servants come back with empty jars,
so they are ashamed and embarrassed.
They cover their heads from shame.
- 4 No one prepares the ground for crops.†
No rain falls on the land.
The farmers are depressed.
So they cover their heads from shame.
- 5 Even the mother deer in the field leaves her newborn baby alone, because there is no grass.
- 6 Wild donkeys stand on the bare hills.

† 13:27 I saw ... you did This is probably talking about worshiping false gods. But part of that worship was having sex with temple prostitutes. * 14:1 drought A time when no rain falls and the crops become dry and die. † 14:4 No one ... crops This follows the ancient Greek version. The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

They sniff the wind like jackals.
But their eyes cannot find any food,
because there are no plants to eat.

⁷ “We know that this is our fault.
We are now suffering because of our sins.
LORD, do something to help us for the good of your name.
We admit that we have left you many times.
We have sinned against you.
⁸ God, you are the hope of Israel!
You save Israel in times of trouble.
But now it seems like you are a stranger in the land,
like a traveler who only stays one night.
⁹ You seem like a man who has been attacked by surprise, like a soldier who does not have the power to save anyone.
But, LORD, you are with us.
We are called by your name, so don’t leave us without help!”

¹⁰ This is what the LORD says about the people of Judah: “The people of Judah really love to leave me. They don’t stop themselves from leaving me. So now the LORD will not accept them. Now he will remember the evil they do. He will punish them for their sins.”

¹¹ Then the LORD said to me, “Jeremiah, don’t pray for good things to happen to the people of Judah. ¹² They might begin to fast and pray to me, but I will not listen to their prayers. Even if they offer burnt offerings and grain offerings to me, I will not accept them. I will destroy the people of Judah with war. I will take away their food, and they will starve. And I will destroy them with terrible diseases.”

¹³ But I said, “Lord GOD, the prophets were telling the people something different. They were telling the people of Judah, ‘You will not suffer from war or from hunger. The Lord will give you peace in this land.’ ”

¹⁴ Then the LORD said to me, “Jeremiah, those prophets are telling lies in my name. I did not send them or command them or speak to them. Their prophecies came from false visions, worthless magic, and their own wishful thinking. ¹⁵ So this is what I, the LORD, say about the prophets who are speaking in my name. I did not send them. They said, ‘No enemy will ever attack this country. There will never be hunger in this land.’ So those prophets will die from hunger or by an enemy’s sword. ¹⁶ And the people they spoke to will be thrown into the streets. The people will die from hunger and war. I will punish them, and no one will be there to bury them, their wives, their sons, or their daughters.

¹⁷ “Jeremiah, speak this message to the people of Judah:

‘My eyes fill with tears night and day without stopping.
I cry for my virgin daughter,[‡] and for my dear people, because someone hit them and crushed them.
They have been hurt very badly.

¹⁸ If I go into the country,
I see the bodies of those killed in war.
If I go into the city,
I see people sick from hunger.
The priests and prophets continue their work,

[‡] 14:17 virgin daughter Another name for Jerusalem.

but they don't understand what is happening.' ”

¹⁹ Lord, have you completely rejected the nation of Judah?

Do you hate Zion?

You hurt us so badly that we cannot be made well again.

Why did you do that?

We were hoping for peace,
but nothing good has come.

We were hoping for a time of healing,
but only terror came.

²⁰ LORD, we know that we are wicked.
We know that our ancestors did evil things.
Yes, we sinned against you.

²¹ For the good of your name, don't push us away.
Don't take away the honor from your glorious throne.

Remember your agreement with us and do not break it.

²² Foreign idols don't have the power to bring rain.
The sky does not have the power to send down showers of rain.
You, the LORD our God, are our only hope.
You are the one who made all these things.

¹ The LORD said to me, “Jeremiah, even if Moses and Samuel were here to pray for the people of Judah, I would not feel sorry for them. Send the people of Judah away from me! Tell them to go! ² They might ask you, ‘Where will we go?’ Tell them this is what the LORD says:

“ I have chosen some people to die.
They will die.

I have chosen some to be killed with swords.
They will be killed with swords.

I have chosen some to die from hunger.
They will die from hunger.

I have chosen some to be taken away to a foreign country.
They will be prisoners there.

³ I will send four kinds of destroyers against them.’
This message is from the LORD.

‘I will send the enemy with a sword to kill.
I will send the dogs to drag their bodies away.

I will send birds of the air and wild animals to eat and destroy their bodies.

⁴ I will make the people of Judah an example of something terrible for all the people on earth.

I will do this to the people of Judah because of what Manasseh* did in Jerusalem.
Manasseh was the son of King Hezekiah.
Manasseh was a king of Judah.’

⁵ “No one will feel sorry for you, city of Jerusalem.

* 15:4 Manasseh Manasseh was the most evil king of Judah according to 2 Kings 21:1-16. He worshiped many gods.

No one will be sad and cry for you.
 No one will go out of their way to even ask how you are.
 6 Jerusalem, you left me.”
 This message is from the LORD.
 “Again and again you left me!
 So I will punish and destroy you.
 I am tired of holding back your punishment.
 7 I will separate the people of Judah with my pitchfork.†
 I will scatter them at the city gates of the land.
 My people have not changed,
 so I will destroy them.
 I will take away their children.
 8 Many women will lose their husbands.
 There will be more widows than there is sand in the sea.
 I will bring a destroyer at noontime.
 The destroyer will attack the mothers of the young men of Judah.
 I will bring pain and fear on the people of Judah.
 I will make this happen very quickly.
 9 The enemy will attack with swords and kill the people.
 They will kill the survivors from Judah.
 A woman with seven children will lose them.
 She will cry until she becomes weak and struggles to breathe.
 She will be upset and confused,
 because her bright day has become dark.”
 This message is from the LORD.

Jeremiah Complains to God Again

10 Mother, I am sorry that you gave birth to me.
 I am the one who must accuse and criticize the whole land.
 I have not loaned or borrowed anything,
 but everyone curses me.
 11 Surely, LORD, I have served you well.
 In times of disaster and trouble,
 I prayed to you about my enemies.

God Answers Jeremiah

12 “Jeremiah, you know that no one can shatter a piece of iron.
 I mean the kind of iron that is from the north.‡
 And no one can shatter a piece of bronze either.
 13 The people of Judah have many treasures.
 I will give these riches to other people.
 They will not have to buy them,
 because Judah has many sins.
 The people sinned in every part of Judah.
 14 People of Judah, I will make you slaves of your enemies.
 You will be slaves in a land that you never knew.
 I am very angry.
 My anger is like a hot fire,

† 15:7 pitchfork A tool with sharp points for throwing hay from one place to another. ‡ 15:12 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

and you will be burned.”

¹⁵ LORD, you understand me.

Remember me and take care of me.

People are hurting me.

Give them the punishment they deserve.

You are being patient with them.

But don't destroy me while you remain patient with them.

Think about me.

Think about the pain I suffer for you.

¹⁶ Your words came to me, and I ate them up.

They made me very happy.

I was glad to be called by your name,

LORD God All-Powerful.

¹⁷ I never sat with the crowd
as they laughed and had fun.

I sat by myself because of your influence on me.

You filled me with anger at the evil around me.

¹⁸ I don't understand why I still hurt.

I don't understand why my wound is not cured and cannot be healed.

I think you have changed.

You are like a spring of water that became dry.

You are like a spring whose water has stopped flowing.

¹⁹ Then the LORD said, “Jeremiah, if you change and come back to me,

I will not punish you.

If you change and come back to me,

then you may serve me.

If you speak important things, not worthless words,

then you may speak for me.

The people of Judah should change and come back to you.

But don't you change and be like them.

²⁰ I will make you strong.

The people will think you are strong,

like a wall made of bronze.

The people of Judah will fight against you,

but they will not defeat you.

They will not defeat you,

because I am with you.

I will help you, and I will save you.”

This message is from the LORD.

²¹ “I will save you from these evil people.

They frighten you, but I will save you from them.”

16

The Day of Disaster

¹ The LORD'S message came to me: ² “Jeremiah, you must not get married. You must not have sons or daughters in this place.”

³ This is what the LORD says about the sons and daughters who are born in the land of Judah and about their mothers and fathers: ⁴ “They will die from terrible disease. And no one will cry for them or bury them. Their bodies will lie on the ground like dung. Or they will die in war or starve to death. Their dead bodies will be food for the birds of the sky and the wild animals of the earth.”

⁵ So the LORD says, “Jeremiah, don’t go into a house where people are eating a funeral meal. Don’t go there to cry for the dead or to show your sorrow. Don’t do these things, because I have taken back my blessing. I will not be kind to the people of Judah. I will not feel sorry for them.” This message is from the LORD.

⁶ “Important people and common people will die in the land of Judah. No one will bury them or cry for them. No one will cut himself or shave his head to show sorrow for them. ⁷ No one will bring food to those who are crying for the dead. No one will comfort those whose mother or father has died. No one will offer a drink to comfort those who are crying for the dead.

¹⁰ “Jeremiah, you will tell the people of Judah these things, and the people will ask you, ‘Why has the LORD said these terrible things to us? What have we done wrong? What sin have we done against the LORD our God?’ ¹¹ You must tell them: ‘Terrible things will happen to you because your ancestors stopped following me.’ This message is from the LORD. ‘They stopped following me and began to follow and serve other gods. They worshiped those other gods. Your ancestors left me and stopped obeying my law. ¹² But you people have sinned more than your ancestors. You are very stubborn, and you are doing only what you want to do. You are not obeying me. Because you do only what you want to do, ¹³ I will throw you out of this country. I will force you to go to a foreign land. You will go to a land that you and your ancestors never knew. There you can serve false gods all you want to. I will not help you or show you any favors.’

¹⁴ “People make promises and say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives—the Lord who brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt ...’ But the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when people will not say that. ¹⁵ They will say something new. They will say, ‘As surely as the LORD lives—the Lord who brought the Israelites out of the northern land, who brought them out of all the countries where he had sent them ...’ Why will they say that? Because I will bring the Israelites back to the land that I gave to their ancestors.

¹⁶ “I will soon send for many fishermen to come to this land.” This message is from the LORD. “They will catch the people of Judah. After that happens, I will send for many hunters* to come to this land. They will hunt the people of Judah on every mountain and hill and in the cracks of the rocks. ¹⁷ I see everything they do. The people of Judah cannot hide the things they do. Their sin is not hidden from me. ¹⁸ I will pay the people of Judah back for the evil things they did—I will punish them two times for every sin. I will do this because they have made my land ‘dirty.’ They made my land ‘dirty’ with their terrible idols. I hate those idols, but they have filled my country with their idols.”

¹⁹ LORD, you are my strength and my protection.

You are a safe place to run to in time of trouble.

The nations will come to you from all around the world.

They will say, “Our fathers had false gods.

They worshiped those worthless idols,

but the idols did not help them.

²⁰ Can people make real gods for themselves?

No, they can only make statues that are not really gods.”

* 16:16 fishermen ... hunters This means the enemy soldiers from Babylon.

²¹ “So I will teach those who make idols.
 Right now I will teach them about my power and my strength.
 Then they will know that I am God.
 They will know that I am the LORD.

17

Guilt Written on the Heart

¹ “The sins of Judah are written where they cannot be erased—cut into stone with an iron pen, cut deep with a hard tip into the stone that is the hearts of the people.
 Their sins are carved into the horns of their altars.*
² Their children remember the altars that were dedicated to false gods.
 They remember the wooden poles that were dedicated to Asherah.
 They remember those things
 under the green trees and on the hills.
³ They remember those things on the mountains in the open country.
 The people of Judah have many treasures.
 I will give those things to other people.
 People will destroy all the high places in your country.
 You worshiped there, and that was a sin.
⁴ You will lose the land I gave you.
 I will let your enemies take you to be their slaves.
 That is because I am very angry.
 My anger is like a hot fire, and you will be burned forever.”

Trusting in People and Trusting in God

⁵ This is what the LORD says:
 “Bad things will happen to those who put their trust in people.
 Bad things will happen to those who depend on human strength.
 That is because they have stopped trusting the LORD.
⁶ They are like a bush in a desert where no one lives.
 It is in a hot and dry land.
 It is in bad soil.
 That bush does not know about the good things that God can give.
⁷ “But those who trust in the LORD will be blessed.
 They know that the LORD will do what he says.
⁸ They will be strong like trees planted near a stream that send out roots to the water.
 They have nothing to fear when the days get hot.
 Their leaves are always green.
 They never worry, even in a year that has no rain.
 They always produce fruit.
⁹ “Nothing can hide its evil as well as the human mind.
 It can be very sick,
 and no one really understands it.

* 17:1 horns of their altars The corners of altars were shaped like horns, and the blood of sacrifices was smeared on them. So Jeremiah may mean that the people’s sins have made their altars unfit for sacrifices.

¹⁰ But I am the LORD, and I can look into a person's heart.
I can test a person's mind and decide what each one should have.
I can give each person the right payment for what they do.
¹¹ Sometimes a bird will hatch an egg that it did not lay.
Those who cheat to get money are like that bird.
But when their lives are half finished, they will lose the money.
At the end of their lives, it will be clear that they were fools.”

¹² From the very beginning, our Temple has been a glorious throne for God.
It is a very important place.
¹³ LORD, you are the hope of Israel.
You are like a spring of living water.
Those who stop following the LORD will have a very short life.†

Jeremiah's Third Complaint

¹⁴ LORD, if you heal me, I surely will be healed.
Save me, and I surely will be saved.
Lord, I praise you!
¹⁵ The people of Judah continue to ask me questions.
They say, “Jeremiah, what about the message from the LORD?
Let's see that message come true.”
¹⁶ Lord, I did not run away from you.
I followed you.
I became the shepherd‡ you wanted.
I did not want the terrible day to come.
You know what I said.
You see all that is happening.
¹⁷ Please don't make me afraid of you.
I depend on you in times of trouble.
¹⁸ People are hurting me.
Make them ashamed,
but don't disappoint me.
Let them be filled with fear,
but don't give me any reason to fear.
Bring the terrible day of disaster to my enemies.
Break them, and break them again.

Keeping the Sabbath Day Holy

¹⁹ This is what the LORD said to me: “Jeremiah, go and stand at the People's Gate,§ where the kings of Judah go in and out. Tell the people my message, and then go to all the other gates of Jerusalem and do the same.”

† 17:13 will have a very short life Literally, “he will be written in the dirt.” This might mean that a person's name was written on a list of people who would soon die, or that a person's life will soon be gone—like a name written in the sand. ‡ 17:16 shepherd God's people are sometimes called his “sheep,” and the person who takes care of them is called the “shepherd.” § 17:19 People's Gate This might be one of the gates into Jerusalem or perhaps one of the southern gates into the Temple area used by those who were not priests.

the Sabbath day. And don't bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath day. ²² Don't bring a load out of your houses on the Sabbath day. Don't do any work on that day. You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. I gave this same command to your ancestors, ²³ but they did not obey me. They did not pay attention to me. Your ancestors were very stubborn. I punished them, but it did not do any good. They did not listen to me. ²⁴ But you must be careful to obey me, says the LORD. You must not bring a load through the gates of Jerusalem on the Sabbath. You must make the Sabbath day a holy day. You will do this by not doing any work on that day.

²⁵ “If you obey this command, the kings and leaders will be from David's family. It will be the kings who sit on David's throne and the leaders from Judah and Jerusalem who come through the gates of Jerusalem riding on chariots and on horses. And Jerusalem will have people living in it forever. ²⁶ People will come to Jerusalem from the towns and villages of Judah, from the land where the tribe of Benjamin lives,* from the western foothills, from the hill country, and from the Negev. All these people will bring burnt offerings, sacrifices, grain offerings, incense, and thank offerings to the Temple of the LORD in Jerusalem.

²⁷ “But if you don't listen to me and obey me, bad things will happen. If you carry loads into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day, you are not keeping it as a holy day. So I will start a fire that cannot be put out. That fire will start at the gates of Jerusalem, and it will burn until it burns even the palaces.’”

18

The Potter and the Clay

¹ This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the LORD: ² “Jeremiah, go down to the potter's house. I will give you my message there.”

³ So I went down to the potter's house and saw him working with clay at the wheel. ⁴ He was making a pot from clay. But there was something wrong with the pot. So the potter used that clay to make another pot. With his hands he shaped the pot the way he wanted it to be.

⁵ Then this message from the LORD came to me: ⁶ “Family of Israel, you know that I can do the same thing with you. You are like the clay in the potter's hands, and I am the potter.” This message is from the LORD. ⁷ “There may come a time when I will speak about a nation or a kingdom that I will pull up by its roots or tear down and destroy it. ⁸ But if the people of that nation change their hearts and lives and stop doing evil things, I will change my mind and not bring on them the disaster I planned. ⁹ There may come another time when I speak about a nation that I will build up or plant. ¹⁰ But if I see that nation doing evil things and not obeying me, I will think again about the good I had planned to do for them.

¹¹ “So, Jeremiah, say to the people of Judah and those who live in Jerusalem, ‘This is what the LORD says: I am the potter preparing troubles for you and making plans against you. So stop doing the evil things you are doing. Each person must change and start doing good.’ ¹² But the people of Judah will answer, ‘We don't care what you say. We will continue to do what we want. We will do the evil our stubborn hearts want.’”

¹³ Listen to what the LORD says:

“Ask the other nations this question:

‘Have you ever heard of anything so bad?’

Israel, who is as dear to me as a young daughter, has done this terrible thing!

* 17:26 the land where ... Benjamin lives The land of Benjamin was just north of the land of Judah.

- ¹⁴ It is as strange as not finding snow on Lebanon's mountains or seeing the cool streams that come from there stop flowing.
That just does not happen!
- ¹⁵ But my people have forgotten me.
They burn offerings to worthless idols.
They have left the right way that their ancestors followed,
and they stumble on the path they have chosen.
Instead of staying on the good road I showed them,
they prefer to walk on bumpy paths.
- ¹⁶ So their land will become an empty desert,
a place for people from now on to make fun of.
All who pass by there will be shocked by what has happened.
They will just shake their heads at what they see.
- ¹⁷ Like a strong east wind, I will scatter my people.
I will use their enemies to scatter them like dust.
When disaster comes upon them,
they will see me leaving, not coming to help."

The People Plan Evil and Jeremiah Prays

¹⁸ Then the enemies of Jeremiah said, "Come, let us make plans against Jeremiah. We will always have a priest to tell us what the law says. We will still have wise men to advise us and prophets to tell us a message from God. So who needs Jeremiah? Let's tell lies to ruin him and stop listening to what he says."

- ¹⁹ LORD, listen to me!
Listen to what my enemies are saying.
- ²⁰ I have done only good to them.
It is not right for them to pay me back with evil.
But they are preparing a death trap for me!
Remember that I prayed to you for them.
I asked only good for them.
I tried to keep you from punishing them in anger.
- ²¹ So now make their children starve to death!
Let their enemies kill them with swords.
Let their wives lose their children and husbands.
Let their men die from disease,
and let their young men be killed in battle.
- ²² Let them cry out in their houses,
when you suddenly bring an enemy against them.
Let it happen because they prepared a death trap for me.
They hid traps for me to step in.
- ²³ LORD, you know about their plans to kill me.
So don't forgive their crimes or erase their sins.
Make them fall down in defeat.
Punish them in your anger!

19

The Broken Jar

¹ The LORD said to me, "Jeremiah, go and buy a clay jar from a potter. Take some of the elders of the people and some priests with you. ² Go out to the Valley of Ben Hinnom, near the front of the Potsherd Gate.* I have a message I want you to announce there.

* ^{19:2} Potsherd Gate The exact location of this gate is not known, though it was probably at the southwestern part of the city.

³ Say to those who are with you, ‘King of Judah and people of Jerusalem, listen to this message from the LORD! This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: I will soon make a terrible thing happen to this place! Everyone who hears about it will be amazed and full of fear. ⁴ I will do these things because the people of Judah have stopped following me. They have made this a place for foreign gods. The people of Judah have burned sacrifices in this place to other gods. The people long ago did not worship those gods. Their ancestors did not worship them. These are new gods from other countries. The kings of Judah filled this place with the blood of innocent children. ⁵ The kings of Judah built high places for the god Baal. They use those places to burn their sons in the fire. They burned their sons as burnt offerings to the god Baal. I did not tell them to do that. I did not ask them to offer their sons as sacrifices. I never even thought of such a thing. ⁶ Now people call this place Topheth and the Valley of Hinnom. But I give you this warning. This message is from the LORD: The days are coming, when people will call this place the Valley of Slaughter. ⁷ At this place, I will ruin the plans of the people of Judah and Jerusalem. The enemy will chase them, and I will let the people of Judah be killed with swords in this place. I will make their dead bodies food for the birds and wild animals. ⁸ I will completely destroy this city. People will whistle and shake their heads when they pass by Jerusalem. They will be shocked when they see how the city was destroyed. ⁹ The enemy will bring its army around the city. That army will not let people go out to get food, so the people in the city will begin to starve. They will become so hungry that they will eat the bodies of their own sons and daughters, and then they will begin to eat each other.’

¹⁰ “Jeremiah, tell this to the people, and while they are watching, break the jar. ¹¹ Then say this: ‘The LORD All-Powerful says, I will break the nation of Judah and the city of Jerusalem, just as someone breaks a clay jar! And like a broken jar, the nation of Judah cannot be put together again. It will be the same for the nation of Judah. The dead people will be buried here in Topheth until there is no more room. ¹² I will do this to these people and to this place. I will make this city like Topheth.’ This message is from the LORD. ¹³ ‘The houses in Jerusalem will become as “dirty” as this place, Topheth. The kings’ palaces will be ruined like this place, Topheth, because the people worshiped false gods on the roofs of their houses.† They worshiped the stars and burned sacrifices to honor them. They gave drink offerings to false gods.’ ”

¹⁴ Then Jeremiah left Topheth where the LORD had told him to speak. Jeremiah went to the LORD’S Temple and stood in the courtyard of the Temple. Jeremiah said to all the people: ¹⁵ “This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel says: ‘I said I would bring many disasters to Jerusalem and the villages around it. I will soon make this happen because the people are very stubborn. They refuse to listen and obey me.’ ”

Jeremiah and Pashhur

¹ Pashhur son of Immer was a priest. He was the highest officer in the Temple of the LORD. When he heard Jeremiah say those things in the Temple yard, ² he had Jeremiah the prophet beaten. And he had Jeremiah’s hands and feet locked between large blocks of wood. This was at the Upper Gate of Benjamin of the LORD’S Temple. ³ The next day Pashhur took Jeremiah out from between the blocks of wood. Then Jeremiah said to him, “The LORD’S name for you is not Pashhur. Now his name for you is, ‘Surrounded by Terror.’ ⁴ That is your name because of what the LORD says: ‘I will soon make you a terror to yourself and to all your friends. You will watch enemies killing your friends with swords. I will give all the people of Judah to the king of Babylon. He will take them away to the country of Babylon, and his army will kill the people of Judah with their swords. ⁵ The people of Jerusalem worked hard to build things and become wealthy, but I will give all these things to their enemies. The king in Jerusalem has many treasures, but I will give all the treasures to the enemy. The enemy will take them and carry them away to the country of Babylon. ⁶ And, Pashhur, you and all the people living in your house will be taken away. You will be forced to go and live in the country of Babylon. You will die in Babylon, and you will be buried in that foreign country. You told lies to your friends. You said these things would not happen. But all your friends will also die and be buried in Babylon.’ ”

Jeremiah's Fifth Complaint

⁷ LORD, you tricked me, and I certainly was fooled.

You are stronger than I am, so you won.

I have become a joke.

People laugh at me and make fun of me all day long.

⁸ Every time I speak, I shout.

I am always shouting about violence and destruction.

I tell the people about the message that I received from the LORD.

But they only insult me and make fun of me.

⁹ Sometimes I say to myself, “I will forget about him.

I will not speak anymore in his name.”

But when I say that, his message is like a fire burning inside me!

It feels like it is burning deep in my bones!

I get tired of trying to hold his message inside.

And finally, I am not able to hold it in.

¹⁰ I hear people whispering against me.

Everywhere, I hear things that frighten me.

Even my friends are speaking against me.

People are just waiting for me to make a mistake.

They are saying, “Let us lie and say that he did something bad.

Maybe we can trick Jeremiah.

Then we will have him.

We will finally be rid of him.

Then we will grab him and take our revenge on him.”

¹¹ But the LORD is with me.

He is like a strong soldier.

So those who are chasing me will fall.

They will not defeat me.

They will fail.

They will be disappointed.

They will be ashamed, and they will never forget that shame.

¹² LORD All-Powerful, you test good people.

You look deeply into a person's mind.

I told you my arguments against these people.

So let me see you give them the punishment they deserve.

¹³ Sing to the LORD!

Praise the LORD!

He saves the lives of the poor!

He saves them from the wicked!

Jeremiah's Sixth Complaint

¹⁴ Curse the day that I was born!

Don't bless the day my mother had me.
¹⁵ Curse the man who told my father the news that I was born.
 "It's a boy!" he said.
 "You have a son."
 He made my father very happy
 when he told him the news.
¹⁶ Let that man be like the cities the LORD destroyed.*
 He had no pity on them.
 Let him hear shouts of war in the morning;
 let him hear battle cries at noontime,
¹⁷ because he did not kill me
 while I was in my mother's womb.
 If he had killed me then,
 my mother would have been my grave,
 and I would not have been born.
¹⁸ Why did I have to come out of her body?
 All I have seen is trouble and sorrow,
 and my life will end in shame.

God Rejects King Zedekiah's Request

¹ This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. This was when King Zedekiah of Judah sent Pashhur* son of Malkijah and the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah to Jeremiah. They brought a message for Jeremiah. ² They said to Jeremiah, "Pray to the LORD for us. Ask him what will happen. We want to know, because King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon is attacking us. Maybe the LORD will do great things for us, as he did in the past. Maybe he will make Nebuchadnezzar stop attacking us and leave."

³ Then Jeremiah answered Pashhur and Zephaniah. He said, "Tell King Zedekiah, ⁴ 'This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: You have weapons of war in your hands that you are using to defend yourselves from the Babylonians and their king. But I will make those weapons worthless.

"The army from Babylon is outside the wall all around the city. Soon I will bring that army into Jerusalem. ⁵ I myself will fight against you people of Judah. I will fight against you with my own powerful hand. I am very angry with you, so I will fight against you with my own powerful arm. I will fight very hard against you and show how angry I am. ⁶ I will kill everything living in Jerusalem, both people and animals. They will die from a terrible disease that will spread all through the city. ⁷ After that happens,' " says the LORD, "I will give King Zedekiah of Judah and all his officials to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. And I will give to Nebuchadnezzar the people who remain alive in Jerusalem—those who did not die from the terrible disease and the people who did not die in war or from hunger. I will give them all to King Nebuchadnezzar. The people of Judah will be captured by their enemies who want to kill them. Nebuchadnezzar's army will use their swords to kill the people of Judah and Jerusalem. Nebuchadnezzar will not show any mercy. He will not feel sorry for them."

⁸ "Also tell the people of Jerusalem, 'This is what the LORD says: Understand that I will let you choose to live or die. ⁹ Anyone who stays in Jerusalem will die in war or from hunger or disease. But anyone who goes out of Jerusalem and surrenders to the Babylonians attacking you will live. Only those who leave the city will win anything in this war—their lives! ¹⁰ I have decided to make trouble for the city of Jerusalem. I will not help this city! I will give it to the king of Babylon, who will burn it with fire.’ ” This message is from the LORD.

¹¹ “Say this to Judah’s royal family: ‘Listen to the message from the LORD. ¹² Family of David, this is what the LORD says:

“ ‘You must judge people fairly every day.
Protect the victims from the criminals.
If you don’t do that, I will become very angry.
My anger will be like a fire that no one will be able to put out.
This will happen because you have done evil things.’ ”

¹³ “Jerusalem, I am against you.
You sit on top of the mountain.
You sit like a queen over this valley.
You people of Jerusalem say,
‘No one can attack us.
No one can come into our strong city.’ ”
This message is from the LORD.

¹⁴ “You will get the punishment you deserve.
I will start a fire in your forests that will completely burn everything around you.”
This message is from the LORD.

Judgment Against Evil Kings

¹ The LORD said, “Jeremiah, go down to the king’s palace. Go to the king of Judah and tell this message there: ² ‘Listen to this message from the LORD, King of Judah. You rule from David’s throne, so listen. King, you and your officials must listen well. All of your people who come through the gates of Jerusalem must listen to the message from the Lord. ³ This is what the LORD says: Do what is right and fair. Protect those who have been robbed from the ones who robbed them. Don’t hurt or do anything wrong to orphans or widows. Don’t kill innocent people. ⁴ If you obey these commands, kings who sit on David’s throne will continue to come through the gates into the city of Jerusalem. They will come through the gates with their officials. The kings, their officials, and their people will come riding in chariots and on horses. ⁵ But I, the LORD, tell you that if you don’t obey these commands, then I promise with an oath in my own name that this king’s palace will be destroyed—it will become a pile of rocks.’ ”

⁶ This is what the LORD says about the palace where the king of Judah lives:

“The palace is tall like the forests of Gilead, like the mountains of Lebanon.
But I will make it like a desert,
as empty as a city where no one lives.
⁷ I will send men to destroy the palace,
each armed with weapons.
They will cut up your strong, beautiful cedar beams and throw them into the fire.

⁸ “People from many nations will pass by this city. They will ask one another, ‘Why has the LORD done such a terrible thing to Jerusalem? Jerusalem was such a great city.’
⁹ This will be the answer to that question: ‘God destroyed Jerusalem because the people of Judah stopped following the agreement of the LORD their God. They worshiped and served other gods.’ ”

Judgment Against King Jehoahaz

¹⁰ Don't cry for the king who has died.*
 Don't cry for him.
 But cry very hard for the king who must leave this place.†
 Cry for him because he will never return or see his homeland again.

¹¹ This is what the LORD says about Jehoahaz‡ son of Josiah, who became king of Judah after his father Josiah died: “Jehoahaz has gone away from Jerusalem. He will never return. ¹² Jehoahaz will die in the place where the Egyptians have taken him, and he will not see this land again.”

Judgment Against King Jehoiakim

¹³ “It will be very bad for King Jehoiakim.
 He is doing wrong so that he can build his palace.
 He is cheating people so that he can build rooms upstairs.
 He is not paying his own people.
 He is making them work for nothing.

¹⁴ “Jehoiakim says,
 ‘I will build myself a great palace, with huge rooms upstairs.’
 So he built it with large windows.
 He used cedar wood for paneling, and he painted it red.

¹⁵ “Jehoiakim, having a lot of cedar in your house does not make you a great king.
 Your father Josiah was satisfied to have food and drink.
 He did what was right and fair,
 so everything went well for him.

¹⁶ Josiah helped poor and needy people,
 so everything went well for him.
 Jehoiakim, what does it mean “to know God”?
 It means living right and being fair.
 That is what it means to know me.
 This message is from the LORD.

¹⁷ “Jehoiakim, your eyes look only for what benefits yourself.
 You are always thinking about getting more for yourself.
 You are willing to kill innocent people.
 You are willing to steal things from other people.”

¹⁸ So this is what the LORD says to King Jehoiakim son of Josiah:
 “The people of Judah will not cry for Jehoiakim.
 They will not say to each other, ‘Brother, I am so sad!
 Sister, I am so sad!’

* 22:10 the king who has died That is, King Josiah who was killed in battle against the Egyptians in 609 B.C. † 22:10 the king ... place This means Josiah's son, Jehoahaz. He became king after Josiah died. He is also called Shallum. King Neco of Egypt defeated Josiah. And Neco took Jehoahaz off the throne of Judah and made him a prisoner in Egypt.

‡ 22:11 Jehoahaz The Hebrew text has “Shallum,” another name for Jehoahaz.

They will not cry for Jehoiakim.

They will not say about him, 'Master, I am so sad!
King, I am so sad!'

¹⁹ The people of Jerusalem will bury Jehoiakim like a donkey.

They will drag his body away and throw it outside the gates of Jerusalem.

²⁰ "Judah, go up to the mountains of Lebanon and cry out.

Let your voice be heard in the mountains of Bashan.

Cry out in the mountains of Abarim, because all your 'lovers' will be destroyed.

²¹ "Judah, you felt safe, but I warned you.

I warned you, but you refused to listen.

You have lived like this from the time you were young.

And from the time you were young,
you have not obeyed me, Judah.

²² Judah, the punishment I give will come like a storm, and it will blow all your shepherds away.

You thought some of the other nations would help you.

But these nations will also be defeated.

Then you will really be disappointed.

You will be ashamed of all the evil things you did.

²³ "King, you seem so safe in your palace of cedar.

It's as if you live in Lebanon!§

But when your punishment comes, you will groan.

You will be in pain like a woman giving birth!"

Judgment Against King Jehoiachin

²⁴ "As surely as I live," says the LORD, "I will do this to you, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah: Even if you were a signet ring on my right hand, I would still pull you off.

²⁵ Jehoiachin, I will give you to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and the Babylonians.

Those are the people you are afraid of. They want to kill you. ²⁶ I will throw you and your mother into another country where neither of you was born. You and your mother will die in that country. ²⁷ Jehoiachin, you will want to come back to your land, but you will never be allowed to come back."

²⁸ Jehoiachin is like a broken pot that someone threw away.

He is like a pot that no one wants.

Why will Jehoiachin and his children be thrown out and sent away into a foreign land?

²⁹ Land, land, land of Judah!

Listen to this message from the LORD!

³⁰ The LORD says, "Write this down about Jehoiachin:

'He does not have children anymore!

Jehoiachin will not be successful because none of his children will sit on the throne of David.

None of his children will rule in Judah.' "

§ 22:23 It's as if ... Lebanon The king's palace in Jerusalem was built with wood from the mountains of Lebanon, which was famous for its cedar trees.

² They are responsible for my people. And this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to them: “You shepherds have made my sheep run away in all directions. You have forced them to go away, and you have not taken care of them. But I will take care of you—I will punish you for the evil things you did.” This message is from the LORD: ³ “I sent my sheep to other countries. But I will gather together my sheep that are left, and I will bring them back to their pasture. When my sheep are back in their pasture, they will have many children and grow in number. ⁴ I will place new shepherds over my sheep. They will take care of my sheep, and my sheep will never again feel afraid. None of my sheep will be lost.” This message is from the LORD.

The Good “Branch”

⁵ This message is from the LORD:

“The time is coming,

when I will raise up a good ‘branch’ from David’s family.

He will be a king who will rule in a wise way.

He will do what is fair and right in the land.

⁶ When he rules, Judah will be saved, and Israel will live in safety.

This will be his name:

The LORD Makes Things Right for Us.*

⁷ “So the time is coming,” says the LORD, “when people will not make a promise by saying, ‘As surely as the LORD lives, the one who brought the Israelites out of the land of Egypt’ ⁸ But people will say something new: ‘As surely as the LORD lives, the one who brought the Israelites out of the land of the north and out of all the countries where he had sent them’ Then the people of Israel will live in their own land.”

Judgments Against False Prophets

⁹ A message to the prophets:

I am very sad—my heart is broken.

All my bones are shaking.

Because of the LORD and his holy words,

I am like a man who is drunk.

¹⁰ The land of Judah is full of people who commit adultery.

They are unfaithful in many ways.

So God cursed the land,
and it became very dry.

The plants are dried and dying in the pastures.

The fields have become like the desert.

The prophets are evil.

They use their influence and power in the wrong way.

¹¹ This message is from the LORD:

“The prophets and even the priests are evil.

I have seen them doing evil things in my own Temple.

¹² I will stop giving my messages to them.

They will walk in darkness.

The road will be slippery for those prophets and priests,

* ^{23:6} The LORD Makes Things Right for Us This is a wordplay. In Hebrew this is like the name Zedekiah, the king of Judah at the time this prophecy was probably given. But Jeremiah is talking about another king.

and they will fall in that darkness.
 I will bring disaster on them;
 I will punish them.”
 This message is from the LORD.

¹³ “I saw the prophets of Samaria doing wrong things.
 I saw them prophesy in the name of the false god Baal.
 They led the people of Israel away from me.
¹⁴ I have even seen the prophets of Jerusalem doing sinful things.
 They are committing adultery and living a life of lies.
 They support their fellow prophets and never stop doing evil.
 They have become like Sodom;
 they are all like Gomorrah.”

¹⁵ So this is what the LORD All-Powerful says about those Jerusalem prophets:
 “I will make them suffer.
 Their food will be bitter, their water like poison.
 I will punish them because they started a spiritual sickness that spread through the whole country.”

¹⁶ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
 “Don’t pay attention to what those prophets are saying to you.
 They are trying to fool you.
 They talk about visions,
 but they did not get their visions from me.
 Their visions come from their own minds.
¹⁷ Some of the people hate the real messages from the LORD,
 so the prophets give them a different message.
 They say, ‘You will have peace.’
 Some of the people are very stubborn.
 They do only what they want to do.
 So the prophets say,
 ‘Nothing bad will happen to you!’

¹⁸ But none of these prophets has stood in the heavenly council.[†]
 None of them has seen or heard the message from the LORD.
 None of them has paid close attention to his message.
¹⁹ Now the punishment from the LORD will come like a storm.
 His anger will be like a tornado.
 It will come crashing down on the heads of those wicked people.
²⁰ The LORD’S anger will not stop until he finishes what he plans to do.
 When that day is over,
 you will understand this clearly.
²¹ I did not send those prophets,
 but they ran to tell their messages.
 I did not speak to them,
 but they spoke in my name.
²² If they had stood in my heavenly council, then they would have told my messages to the people of Judah.

[†] 23:18 heavenly council The people in the Old Testament often talk about God as the leader of a council of heavenly beings (angels). Compare 1 Kings 22:19-23; Isaiah 6:1-8 and Job 1 and 2.

They would have stopped the people from doing bad things.
They would have stopped them from doing evil.”

²³ This message is from the LORD.

“I am God, and I am always near.

I am not far away.

²⁴ Someone might try to hide from me in some hiding place.

But it is easy for me to see that person, says the LORD, because I am everywhere in heaven and earth.”

This message is from the LORD: ²⁵ “There are prophets who tell lies in my name. They say, ‘I have had a dream! I have had a dream!’ I heard them say those things. ²⁶ How long will this continue? They think up lies and then they teach them to the people. ²⁷ They are trying to make the people of Judah forget my name by telling each other these false dreams. They are trying to make my people forget me, just as their ancestors forgot me and worshiped the false god Baal. ²⁸ Straw is not the same as wheat! In the same way, the dreams of those prophets are not messages from me. If people want to tell about their dreams, let them. But those who hear my message must speak it truthfully.” This is what the LORD says. ²⁹ Yes, the LORD says, “You must treat my message carefully, like a fire or like a hammer that can smash a rock.”

³⁰ This message is from the LORD: “So I am against the false prophets. They keep stealing my words from each other.” ³¹ Yes, the LORD says, “I am against the false prophets. They use their own words and pretend that it is a message from me. ³² I am against the false prophets who tell false dreams.” This message is from the LORD. “They mislead my people with their lies and false teachings. I did not send them to teach the people. I never commanded them to do anything for me. They cannot help the people of Judah at all.” This message is from the LORD.

The Sad Message From the Lord

³³ “The people of Judah, or a prophet, or a priest may ask you, ‘Jeremiah, what is the announcement of the LORD?’ You will answer them and say, ‘You are a heavy load[‡], and I will throw down this heavy load.’ This message is from the LORD.

³⁴ “A prophet, or a priest, or maybe one of the people might say, ‘This is an announcement from the LORD ...’ Because of that lie, I will punish that person and their whole family. ³⁵ This is what you will say to one another: ‘What did the LORD answer?’ or ‘What did the LORD say?’ ³⁶ But you will never again use the expression, ‘The announcement of the LORD.’ That is because his message should not be a heavy load for anyone. But you changed the words of our God. He is the living God, the LORD All-Powerful!

³⁷ “If you want to learn about God’s message, ask a prophet, ‘What answer did the LORD give you?’ or ‘What did the LORD say?’ ³⁸ But don’t say, ‘What was the announcement from the LORD?’ If you use these words, the LORD will say this to you: ‘You should not have called my message an “announcement from the LORD.” I told you not to use those words. ³⁹ But you called my message a heavy load, so I will pick you up like a heavy load and throw you away from me. I gave the city of Jerusalem to your ancestors. But I will throw you and that city away from me, ⁴⁰ and I will make you a disgrace forever. You will never forget your shame.’ ”

The Good Figs and the Bad Figs

[‡] 23:33 heavy load This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word for “announcement” is like the word translated “heavy load.”

¹ The LORD showed me these things: I saw two baskets of figs arranged in front of the Temple of the LORD. (I saw this vision after King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took Jehoiachin* as a prisoner. Jehoiachin, the son of King Jehoiakim, and all his important officials were taken away from Jerusalem. They were taken to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar also took away all the carpenters and metalworkers of Judah.) ² One basket had very good figs in it, the kind that ripen early in the season. But the other basket had rotten figs. They were too rotten to eat.

³ The LORD said to me, “What do you see, Jeremiah?”

I answered, “I see figs. The good figs are very good, and the rotten figs are very rotten. They are too rotten to eat.”

⁴ Then the message from the LORD came to me. ⁵ The LORD, the God of Israel, said, “The people of Judah were taken from their country. Their enemy brought them to Babylon. Those people will be like these good figs. I will be kind to them. ⁶ I will protect them. I will bring them back to the land of Judah. I will not tear them down—I will build them up. I will not pull them up—I will plant them so that they can grow. ⁷ I will make them want to know me. They will know that I am the LORD. They will be my people, and I will be their God. I will do this because the prisoners in Babylon will turn to me with their whole hearts.”

⁸ But the LORD also says, “I will treat King Zedekiah of Judah like those figs that are too rotten to eat. Zedekiah, his high officials, all those who are left in Jerusalem, and those people of Judah who are living in Egypt will be like those rotten figs. ⁹ I will punish them. Their punishment will shock all the people on earth. People will make fun of those people from Judah. People will tell jokes about them and curse them in all the places where I scatter them. ¹⁰ I will bring war, famine, and disease against them. I will attack them until they have all been killed. Then they will no longer be on the land that I gave to them and to their ancestors.”

A Summary of Jeremiah's Message

³ I have been a prophet for these past 23 years, from the 13th year that Josiah son of Amon was the king of Judah. And from that time until today, I have spoken messages to you from the LORD again and again. But you have not listened. ⁴ The LORD has sent his servants, the prophets, to you over and over again. But you have not listened to them. You have not paid any attention to them.

⁵ Those prophets said, “Change your lives and stop doing evil! If you change, you can return to the land that the LORD gave you and your ancestors long ago. He gave you this land to live in forever. ⁶ Don't follow other gods. Don't serve or worship them. Don't worship idols that someone has made. That only makes me angry with you. By doing this you only hurt yourselves.”†

⁷ “But you did not listen to me.” This message is from the LORD. “You worshiped idols that someone made, and that made me angry. And it only hurt you.”

⁸ So this is what the LORD All-Powerful says, “You have not listened to my messages. ⁹ I will soon send for all the tribes of the north.[‡]” This message is from the LORD. “I will soon send for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He is my servant. I will bring those people against the land of Judah and against the people of Judah. I will bring them against all the nations around you too. I will destroy all those countries. I will make those lands like an empty desert forever. People will see those countries, and whistle at how badly they were destroyed. ¹⁰ I will bring an end to the sounds of joy and happiness in those places. There will be no more happy sounds of the brides and bridegrooms. I will take away the sound of people grinding meal. I will take away the light of the lamp. ¹¹ That whole area will be an empty desert. All these people will be slaves of the king of Babylon for 70 years.

¹² “But when the 70 years have passed, I will punish the king of Babylon. I will punish the nation of Babylon.” This message is from the LORD. “I will punish the land of the Babylonians for their sins. I will make that land a desert forever. ¹³ I said many bad things will happen to Babylon, and all of them will happen. Jeremiah spoke about those foreign nations. And all the warnings are written in this book. ¹⁴ Yes, the people of Babylon will have to serve many nations and many great kings. I will give them the punishment they deserve for all the things they have done.”

Judgment on the Nations of the World

¹⁵ The LORD, the God of Israel, said this to me: “Jeremiah, take this cup of wine from my hand. It is the wine of my anger. I am sending you to different nations. Make all the nations drink from this cup. ¹⁶ They will drink this wine. Then they will vomit and act like crazy people. They will do this because of the war that I will soon bring against them.”

¹⁷ So I took the cup of wine from the LORD’S hand. I went to those nations and I made them drink from the cup. ¹⁸ I poured this wine for the people of Jerusalem and Judah. I made the kings and leaders of Judah drink from the cup. I did this so that they would become an empty desert. I did this so that place would be destroyed so badly that people would whistle and say curses about it. And it happened—Judah is like that now.

¹⁹ I also made Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, drink from that cup. I made his officials, his important leaders, and all his people drink from it.

²⁰ I also made all the Arabs and all the kings of the land of Uz drink from the cup. I made all the kings of the land of the Philistines drink from the cup. These were the kings of the cities of Ashkelon, Gaza, Ekron, and what remains of the city Ashdod.

²¹ Then I made the people of Edom, Moab, and Ammon drink from the cup.

²² I made all the kings of Tyre and Sidon drink from the cup.

I also made all the kings of the faraway countries drink from that cup. ²³ I made the people of Dedan, Tema, and Buz drink from the cup. I made all those who cut their hair at their temples drink from the cup. ²⁴ I made all the kings of Arabia drink from the cup. These kings live in the desert. ²⁵ I made all the kings from Zimri, Elam, and Media drink from the cup. ²⁶ I made all the kings of the north, those who were near and far, drink from the cup. I made them drink one after the other. I made all the kingdoms that are on earth drink from that cup. Finally, after all these other nations, the king of Babylon will drink from it too.

²⁷ “Jeremiah, say to those nations, this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘Drink this cup of my anger. Get drunk from it and vomit. Fall down and don’t get up. Don’t get up because I am bringing wars against you.’

²⁸ “They will refuse to take the cup from your hand. They will refuse to drink it, but you will tell them, ‘This is what the LORD All-Powerful says: You will surely drink from this cup! ²⁹ I am already making these bad things happen to Jerusalem, the city that is called by my name. Maybe you people think that you will not be punished, but you are wrong. You will be punished! I am giving the command for war to come against all the people of the earth.’ ” This message is from the LORD.

³⁰ “Jeremiah, you will give them this message:

‘The LORD shouts from above.

He shouts from his holy Temple.

He shouts against his people.

His shouts are loud like the songs of people walking on grapes to make wine.

³¹ The noise spreads to all the people on earth.

What is all the noise about?

The LORD tells why he is punishing all the nations.

He has given his arguments against them.

He has judged them,

and now he is killing the wicked with his sword.’ ”

This message is from the LORD.

³² This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

“Disasters will soon spread from country to country.

They will come like a powerful storm to all the faraway places on earth!”

³³ The dead bodies of those killed by the LORD will reach from one end of the earth to the other. No one will cry for them. No one will gather up their bodies and bury them. They will be left lying on the ground like dung.

³⁴ Shepherds, you should be leading the sheep.

Start crying, you great leaders!

Roll around on the ground in pain, you leaders of the sheep.

It is now time for your slaughter.

You will be scattered everywhere, like pieces flying from a broken jar.

³⁵ There will be no place for the shepherds to hide.

They will not escape.

³⁶ I hear the shepherds shouting.

I hear the leaders of the sheep crying, because the LORD is destroying their pastures.

³⁷ Those peaceful pastures will be ruined because of the LORD’S anger.

³⁸ He is like an angry lion that has left his cave.

And because of his terrible anger and by the attacks of the enemy army, their land will become an empty desert.

Jeremiah’s Lesson at the Temple

¹ This message came from the LORD during the first year that Jehoiakim* son of Josiah was king of Judah. ² The LORD said, “Jeremiah, stand in the Temple yard of the LORD. Give this message to all the people of Judah who are coming to worship at the Temple of the LORD. Tell them everything that I tell you to speak. Don't leave out any part of my message. ³ Maybe they will listen and obey my message. Maybe they will stop living such evil lives. If they change, I will change my mind about my plans to punish them. I am planning this punishment because of the many evil things they have done. ⁴ You will say to them, 'This is what the LORD says: I gave my teachings to you. You must obey me and follow my teachings. ⁵ You must listen to what my servants say to you. The prophets are my servants. I have sent my prophets to you again and again, but you did not listen to them. ⁶ If you don't obey me, I will make my Temple in Jerusalem just like my Holy Tent at Shiloh.† People all over the world will think of Jerusalem when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities.'

¹² Then Jeremiah spoke to all the rulers of Judah and all the other people. He said, "The LORD sent me to say these things about this Temple and this city. Everything that you have heard is from the Lord. ¹³ You people, change your lives! You must start doing good! You must obey the LORD your God. If you do that, he will change his mind. He will not do the bad things he told you about. ¹⁴ As for me, I am in your power. Do to me what you think is good and right. ¹⁵ But if you kill me, be sure of one thing. You will be guilty of killing an innocent person. You will make this city and everyone living in it guilty too. The LORD really did send me to you. The message you heard really is from the Lord."

¹⁶ Then the rulers and all the people spoke. They said to the priests and the prophets, "Jeremiah must not be killed. What he told us comes from the LORD our God."

¹⁷ Then some of the elders stood up and spoke to all the people. ¹⁸ They said, "Micah the prophet was from the city of Moresheth. He was a prophet during the time that Hezekiah was king of Judah. Micah said this to all the people of Judah: 'This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

Zion will be destroyed.

It will become a plowed field.

Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.

Temple Mount will be an empty hill‡ overgrown with bushes.'

Micah 3:12

¹⁹ "King Hezekiah of Judah and the people of Judah did not kill Micah. You know that Hezekiah respected the LORD and wanted to please him. So the LORD changed his mind and didn't do the bad things to Judah that he said he would do. If we hurt Jeremiah, we will bring many troubles on ourselves. And those troubles will be our own fault."

²⁰ In the past there was another man who spoke the LORD'S message. His name was Uriah son of Shemaiah from the city of Kiriath Jearim. Uriah said the same things against † 26:6 my Holy Tent at Shiloh The Holy Place at Shiloh was probably destroyed during the time of Samuel. See Jeremiah 7 and 1 Sam. 4. ‡ 26:18 empty hill Or "high place," a term usually used for local shrines (places for worship) where people often worshiped idols.

this city and this land that Jeremiah did. ²¹ King Jehoiakim, his army officers, and the leaders of Judah heard Uriah and became angry. King Jehoiakim wanted to kill Uriah, but Uriah heard about it. Uriah was afraid, so he escaped to the land of Egypt. ²² But King Jehoiakim sent Elnathan son of Acbor and some other men to Egypt. ²³ They brought Uriah from Egypt and took him to King Jehoiakim. Jehoiakim ordered Uriah to be killed with a sword. Uriah's body was thrown into the burial place where the poor are buried. ²⁴ There was an important man named Ahikam son of Shaphan who supported Jeremiah. He kept Jeremiah from being killed by the priests and prophets.

The Lord Made Nebuchadnezzar Ruler

¹ A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. It came during the fourth year that Zedekiah* son of Josiah was king of Judah. ² This is what the LORD said to me: "Jeremiah, make a yoke out of straps and poles. Put that yoke on the back of your neck. ³ Then send a message to the kings of Edom, Moab, Ammon, Tyre, and Sidon. Send the message with the messengers of these kings who have come to Jerusalem to see King Zedekiah of Judah. ⁴ Tell them to give the message to their masters. Tell them that this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: 'Tell your masters that ⁵ I made the earth and all the people on it. I made all the animals on the earth. I did this with my great power and my strong arm. I can give the earth to anyone I want. ⁶ Now I have given all your countries to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He is my servant. I will make even the wild animals obey him. ⁷ All nations will serve Nebuchadnezzar and his son and his grandson. Then the time will come for Babylon to be defeated. Many nations and great kings will make Babylon their servant.

⁸ "But if some nations or kingdoms refuse to serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and refuse to be put under his control, I will punish them, says the LORD. I will destroy them with war, hunger, and disease. I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy any nation that fights against him. ⁹ So don't listen to your prophets. Don't listen to those who use magic to tell what will happen in the future. Don't listen to those who say they can interpret dreams. Don't listen to those who talk to the dead or to people who practice magic. All of them tell you, "You will not be slaves to the king of Babylon." ¹⁰ But they are telling you lies. They will only cause you to be taken far from your homeland. I will force you to leave your homes, and you will die in another land.

¹² I gave the same message to King Zedekiah of Judah. I said, "Zedekiah, you must place your neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon and obey him. If you serve the king of Babylon and his people, you will live. ¹³ If you don't agree to serve the king of Babylon, you and your people will die from war, hunger, and disease. This is what the LORD said would happen. ¹⁴ But the false prophets are saying, 'You will never be slaves to the king of Babylon.'

"Don't listen to those prophets, because they are telling you lies. ¹⁵ 'I didn't send them,' says the LORD. 'They are telling lies and saying that the message is from me. So I will send you people of Judah away. You will die, and the prophets who spoke to you will die also.'"

¹⁶ Then I told the priests and all the people that this is what the LORD says: "Those false prophets are saying, 'The Babylonians took many things from the LORD'S Temple.

* 27:1 the fourth year ... Zedekiah The standard Hebrew text has "At the beginning of the kingship of Jehoiakim." This is probably a scribal error. Verse 3 talks about Zedekiah, and 28:1 says "that same year" was the fourth year of Zedekiah's reign (594–593 B.C.).

These things will be brought back soon.’ Don’t listen to them because they are telling you lies. ¹⁷ Don’t listen to those prophets. Serve the king of Babylon. Accept your punishment, and you will live. There is no reason for you to cause this city of Jerusalem to be destroyed. ¹⁸ If they are prophets and their message is from the LORD, let them pray. Let them pray to the LORD about the things that are still in the LORD’S Temple, in the king’s palace, and in Jerusalem. Let them pray that all those things will not be taken away to Babylon.

¹⁹ “This is what the LORD All-Powerful says about the things that are still left in Jerusalem. In the Temple, there are the pillars, the bronze sea, the moveable stands, and other things.† King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon left those things in Jerusalem. ²⁰ He didn’t take them away when he took Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim king of Judah away as a prisoner. Nebuchadnezzar also took other important people away from Judah and Jerusalem. ²¹ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says about the things still left in the LORD’S Temple and in the king’s palace and in Jerusalem: ²² ‘All those things will also be taken to Babylon. They will be brought to Babylon until the day comes when I go to get them,’ says the LORD. ‘Then I will bring those things back. I will put them back in this place.’ ”

The False Prophet Hananiah

¹ In the fifth month of the fourth year that Zedekiah* was king of Judah, the prophet Hananiah son of Azzur spoke to me. Hananiah was from the town of Gibeon. Hananiah was in the LORD’S Temple when he spoke to me. The priests and all the people were there also. This is what Hananiah said: ² “The LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘I will break the yoke that the king of Babylon has put on the people of Judah. ³ Before two years are over, I will bring back all the things that King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon took from the LORD’S Temple. Nebuchadnezzar has carried those things to Babylon. But I will bring them back here to Jerusalem. ⁴ I will also bring the king of Judah, Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim, back to this place. And I will bring back all the people of Judah that Nebuchadnezzar forced to leave their homes and go to Babylon,’ says the LORD. ‘So I will break the yoke that the king of Babylon put on the people of Judah.’ ”

⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah answered the prophet Hananiah. They were standing in the Temple of the LORD. The priests and all the people there could hear Jeremiah’s answer. ⁶ Jeremiah said to Hananiah, “Amen! May the LORD do that. May the LORD make the message you say come true. May he bring the things of the LORD’S Temple back to this place from Babylon. And may he bring all those who were forced to leave their homes back to this place.

⁷ “But listen to what I have to say to you and to all the people. ⁸ There were prophets long before you and I became prophets, Hananiah. They spoke against many countries and great kingdoms and always warned that war, hunger, and disease would come to them. ⁹ So the prophet who says that we will have peace must be tested. People can know that he really was sent by the LORD only if his message comes true.”

¹⁰ Jeremiah was wearing a yoke around his neck. The prophet Hananiah took the yoke from Jeremiah’s neck and broke it. ¹¹ Then Hananiah spoke loudly so that all the people could hear him. He said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘In the same way, I will break the yoke of King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. He put that yoke on all the nations of the world, but I will break it before two years are over.’ ”

After Hananiah said that, Jeremiah left the Temple.

† 27:19 pillars ... other things For a description of these things, see 1 Kings 7:23-37. Zedekiah This was about 594-593 B.C.

* 28:1 the fourth year ...

¹² Then the message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. This happened after Hananiah had taken the yoke off Jeremiah's neck and had broken it. ¹³ The LORD said to Jeremiah, "Go and tell Hananiah that this is what the LORD says: 'You have broken a wooden yoke, but I will make a yoke of iron in the place of the wooden yoke. ¹⁴ The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, is the one saying this. I will put a yoke of iron on the necks of all these nations. I will do that to make them serve King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and they will be slaves to him. I will even give Nebuchadnezzar control over the wild animals.' "

¹⁵ Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah, "Listen, Hananiah! The LORD did not send you. But you have made the people of Judah trust in lies. ¹⁶ So this is what the LORD says: 'Soon I will take you from this world, Hananiah. You will die this year, because you taught the people to turn against the LORD.' "

¹⁷ Hananiah died in the seventh month of that same year.

A Letter to the Captives in Babylon

⁴ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says to all the people he sent into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon: ⁵ "Build houses and live in them. Settle in the land. Plant gardens and eat the food you grow. ⁶ Get married and have sons and daughters. Find wives for your sons, and let your daughters be married. Do this so that they also may have sons and daughters. Have many children and grow in number in Babylon. Don't become fewer in number. ⁷ Also, do good things for the city I sent you to. Pray to the LORD for the city you are living in, because if there is peace in that city, you will have peace also." ⁸ The LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says, "Don't let your prophets and those who practice magic fool you. Don't listen to the dreams they have. ⁹ They are telling lies, and they are saying that their message is from me. But I didn't send it." This message is from the LORD.

¹⁰ This is what the LORD says: "Babylon will be powerful for 70 years. After that time, I will come to you people who are living in Babylon. I will keep my good promise to bring you back to Jerusalem. ¹¹ I say this because I know the plans that I have for you." This message is from the LORD. "I have good plans for you. I don't plan to hurt you. I plan to give you hope and a good future. ¹² Then you will call my name. You will come to me and pray to me, and I will listen to you. ¹³ You will search for me, and when you search for me with all your heart, you will find me. ¹⁴ I will let you find me." This message is from the LORD. "And I will bring you back from your captivity. I forced you to leave this place. But I will gather you from all the nations and places where I have sent you," says the LORD, "and I will bring you back to this place."

¹⁵ You people might say, "But the LORD has given us prophets here in Babylon." ¹⁶ But this is what the LORD says about your relatives who were not carried away to Babylon. I am talking about the king who is sitting on David's throne now and all the other people who are still in the city of Jerusalem. ¹⁷ The LORD All-Powerful says, "I will soon bring war, hunger, and disease against those who are still in Jerusalem. And I will make them the same as bad figs that are too rotten to eat. ¹⁸ I will attack those who are still in Jerusalem with war, hunger, and disease. And I will cause such pain that all the kingdoms of the earth will be frightened at what has happened to those people. They will be destroyed. People will whistle with amazement when they hear what happened. And people will use them as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to people. People will insult them wherever I force them to go. ¹⁹ I will make all these things happen because the people of Jerusalem have not listened to my message.” This message is from the LORD. “I sent my message to them again and again. I used my servants, the prophets, to give my messages to them, but they didn’t listen.” This message is from the LORD. ²⁰ “You people are captives. I forced you to leave Jerusalem and go to Babylon. So listen to the message from the LORD.”

²¹ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says about Ahab son of Kolaiah and Zedekiah son of Maaseiah: “These two men have been telling you lies. They have said that their message is from me. I will give these two prophets to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. And he will kill them in front of all you who are captives in Babylon. ²² They will be an example of a terrible way to die. Yes, in the future, when the Jewish captives want something bad to happen to someone, they will say this curse: ‘May the LORD treat you like Zedekiah and Ahab, those men the king of Babylon burned in the fire!’ ²³ They did very bad things among the people of Israel. They committed the sin of adultery with their neighbors’ wives. They also spoke lies and said those lies were a message from me. I did not tell them to do that. I know what they have done. I am a witness.” This message is from the LORD.

God’s Message to Shemaiah

²⁴ Also give a message to Shemaiah from the Nehelam family. ²⁵ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “Shemaiah, you sent letters to all the people in Jerusalem and to the priest Zephaniah son of Maaseiah. You also sent letters to all the priests. You sent those letters in your own name and not by my authority. ²⁶ Shemaiah, this is what you said in your letter to Zephaniah: ‘Zephaniah, the LORD has made you priest in place of Jehoiada. You are to be in charge of the LORD’S Temple. You should arrest anyone who acts like a crazy person* and acts like a prophet. You should put that person’s feet between large blocks of wood and put neck irons† on him. ²⁷ Now Jeremiah is acting like a prophet. So why didn’t you arrest him? ²⁸ Jeremiah has sent this message to us in Babylon: You people in Babylon will be there for a long time, so build houses and settle down. Plant gardens and eat what you grow.’ ”

²⁹ Zephaniah the priest read the letter to Jeremiah the prophet. ³⁰ Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: ³¹ “Jeremiah, send this message to all the captives in Babylon: ‘This is what the LORD says about Shemaiah, the man from the Nehelam family: Shemaiah has spoken to you, but I didn’t send him. He has made you believe a lie. ³² Because Shemaiah has done that, this is what the LORD says: I will soon punish Shemaiah, the man from the Nehelam family. I will completely destroy his family, and he will not share in the good things I will do for my people.’ ” This message is from the LORD. “ ‘I will punish Shemaiah because he has taught the people to turn against the LORD.’ ”

Promises of Hope

¹ This is the message that came to Jeremiah from the LORD. ² The LORD, the God of the people of Israel, said, “Jeremiah, write in a book the words I have spoken to you. Write this book for yourself. ³ Do this because the days will come”—this message is from the LORD—“when I will bring my people, Israel and Judah, back from exile.” This message is from the LORD. “I will put the people back in the land that I gave to their ancestors. Then my people will own that land again.”

* ^{29:26} crazy person Here, Shemaiah is referring to Jeremiah. See verses 27-28. † ^{29:26} neck irons A ring made from iron. People put the rings around prisoners, necks. They often fastened a chain to the ring to control the prisoners.

⁴ The LORD spoke this message about the people of Israel and Judah. ⁵ This is what the LORD said:

“We hear people crying from fear.
There is fear, not peace.

⁶ “Ask this question and consider it:
Can a man have a baby? Of course not!
Then why do I see every strong man holding his stomach like a woman having labor pains?
Why is everyone’s face turning white like a dead man?”

⁷ “This is a very important time for Jacob.
This is a time of great trouble.
There will never be another time like this,
but Jacob will be saved.

⁸ “At that time,” says the LORD All-Powerful, “I will break the yoke from the necks of the people of Israel and Judah, and I will break the ropes holding you. People from foreign countries will never again force my people to be slaves. ⁹ The people of Israel and Judah will not serve foreign countries. No, they will serve the LORD their God. I will send them David their king,* and they will serve him.

¹⁰ “So Jacob, my servant, don’t be afraid!”
This message is from the LORD.
“Israel, don’t be afraid.
I will save you from that faraway place.
You are captives† in that faraway land,
but I will save your descendants.
I will bring them back from that land.
Jacob will have peace again.
People will not bother Jacob.
There will be no enemy to frighten my people.

¹¹ People of Israel and Judah, I am with you.”
This message is from the LORD.
“I will save you.
I sent you to those nations,
but I will completely destroy all of them.
It is true; I will destroy those nations,
but I will not destroy you.
You must be punished for the bad things you did,
but I will discipline you fairly.”

¹² This is what the LORD says:
“You people of Israel and Judah have a wound that cannot be cured.
You have an injury that will not heal.

¹³ There is no one to care for your sores,

* 30:9 David their king This means another king of Israel who will be great like King David. † 30:10 captives People taken away as prisoners. Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylon.

- so you will not be healed.
- 14 You became friends with many nations,
but those nations don't care about you.
Your 'friends' have forgotten you.
I hurt you like an enemy.
I punished you very hard.
I did this because of your great guilt.
I did this because of your many sins.
- 15 Israel and Judah, why are you still crying about your wound?
There is no cure for it.
I did this to you because of your great guilt.
I did this because of your many sins.
- 16 Those nations destroyed you,
but now they have been destroyed.
Israel and Judah, your enemies will become captives.
They stole things from you,
but others will steal from them.
They took things from you in war,
but others will take things from them in war.
- 17 And I will bring your health back and heal your wounds," says the LORD,
"because other people said you were outcasts.‡
They said, 'No one cares about Zion.' "
- 18 This is what the LORD says:
"Jacob's people are now in captivity,
but they will come back.
And I will have pity on Jacob's houses.
The city§ is now only an empty hill covered with ruined buildings, but the city will be rebuilt on its hill.
And the king's palace will be rebuilt where it should be.
- 19 People in those places will sing songs of praise,
and there will be the sound of laughter.
I will give them many children.
Israel and Judah will not be small.
I will bring honor to them.
No one will look down on them.
- 20 Jacob's family will be like the family of Israel long ago.
I will make Israel and Judah strong,
and I will punish those who hurt them."
- 21 The LORD says,
"One of their own people will lead them.
That ruler will come from my people.
People can come close to me only if I ask them to.
So I will ask that leader to come to me,
and he will be close to me.
- 22 You will be my people, and I will be your God."
- 23 The LORD was very angry!

‡ 30:17 outcasts People who are thrown out of a group by others who don't like or respect them. § 30:18 city
This probably refers to Jerusalem. But it might also mean all the cities of Israel and Judah.

He punished the people.
 The punishment came like a storm.
 It came like a tornado against those wicked people.
²⁴ The LORD will be angry until he is through punishing them.
 He will be angry until he finishes the punishment he planned.
 When that day comes,
 you people of Judah will understand.

The New Israel

¹ This is what the LORD said, “At that time I will be the God of all the tribes of Israel. And they will be my people.”

² This is what the LORD says:
 “The people who escaped the enemy’s sword will find comfort in the desert.
 Israel will go there looking for rest.”

³ From far away, the LORD will appear to his people.

The Lord says, “I love you people with a love that continues forever.
 That is why I have continued showing you kindness.

⁴ Israel, my bride, I will rebuild you.
 You will be a country again.

You will pick up your tambourines again.
 You will dance with all the other people who are having fun.

⁵ You farmers of Israel will plant vineyards again.
 You will plant the vineyards on the hills around the city of Samaria.
 The farmers will enjoy the fruit from the vineyards.

⁶ There will be a time when watchmen* shout this message:
 ‘Come, let’s go up to Zion to worship the LORD our God!’
 Even the watchmen in the hill country of Ephraim† will shout that message.”

⁷ This is what the LORD says:
 “Be happy and sing for Jacob!
 Shout for Israel, the greatest of the nations!

Sing your praises and shout:
 ‘LORD, save your people!‡
 Save those who are left alive from the nation of Israel.’

⁸ Remember, I will bring Israel from that country in the north.

I will gather the people of Israel from the faraway places on earth.

Some of the people will be blind and crippled.
 Some of the women will be pregnant and ready to give birth.
 But many people will come back.

⁹ They will come back crying,
 but I will lead them and comfort them.

* 31:6 watchmen This usually means a guard who stands on the city walls watching for people coming to the city. Here, it probably means the prophets. † 31:6 hill country of Ephraim This was the central part of the land that had been the northern kingdom of Israel. ‡ 31:7 LORD, save your people Or “LORD has saved his people!” This is often a shout of victory.

I will lead them by streams of water.
 I will lead them on an easy road,
 where they will not stumble.
 I will lead them in that way because I am Israel's father.
 And Ephraim is my firstborn son.

¹⁰ “Nations, listen to this message from the LORD!
 Tell this message in the faraway lands by the sea:
 ‘God scattered the people of Israel,
 but he will bring them back together.
 And he will watch over his flock like a shepherd.’
¹¹ The LORD will bring Jacob back.
 He will save his people from those who are stronger.
¹² The people of Israel will come to the top of Zion, and they will shout with joy.
 Their faces will shine with happiness about the good things the LORD gives them.
 He will give them grain, new wine, olive oil, young sheep and cattle.
 They will be like a garden that has plenty of water.
 And the people of Israel will not be troubled anymore.
¹³ Then the young women of Israel will be happy and dance.
 And the men, young and old, will join in the dancing.
 I will change their sadness into happiness.
 I will comfort my people, making them happy instead of sad.
¹⁴ I will give the priests plenty of food.
 And my people will be filled and satisfied with the good things I give them.”
 This message is from the LORD.

¹⁵ This is what the LORD says:
 “A sound is heard in Ramah—
 bitter crying and great sadness.
 Rachel[§] cries for her children,
 and she refuses to be comforted,
 because her children are gone.”

¹⁶ But the LORD says, “Stop crying.
 Don't fill your eyes with tears.
 You will be rewarded for your work.”
 This message is from the LORD.
 “The people of Israel will come back from their enemy's land.

¹⁷ Israel, there is hope for you.”
 This message is from the LORD.
 “Your children will come back to their own land.

¹⁸ I have heard Ephraim crying:
 ‘Lord, you punished me, and I learned my lesson.
 I was like a calf that was never trained.
 Please stop punishing me,
 and I will come back to you.
 You really are the LORD my God.

¹⁹ I wandered away from you.
 But I finally realized how wrong I was.
 So I changed my heart and life.

[§] 31:15 Rachel Jacob's wife. Here, this means all the women who are crying for their husbands and children who have died in the war with Babylon.

I am ashamed and embarrassed about the foolish things I did when I was young.’ ”

²⁰ The LORD says,

“You know that Ephraim is my dear son.

I love that child.

Yes, I often criticized Ephraim,

but I still think about him.

I love him very much,

and I really do want to comfort him.

²¹ “People of Israel, repair the road signs.

Put up signs that show the way home.

Watch the road.

Remember the road you are leaving on.

Israel, my bride, come home.

Come back to your towns.

²² Unfaithful daughter,

how long will you wander around?

“The LORD has created something new in the land:

A woman surrounding a man.*”

²³ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: “I will again do good things for the people of Judah. I will bring back those who were taken away as prisoners. At that time the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘May the LORD bless you, good home and holy mountain†!’

²⁴ “People in all the towns of Judah will live together in peace. Farmers and those who move around with their flocks will live peacefully together in Judah. ²⁵ I will give rest and strength to those who are weak and tired.”

²⁶ After hearing that, I, Jeremiah, woke up and looked around. My sleep was very pleasant.

²⁷ “The days are coming,” says the LORD, “when I will help the family of Israel and Judah to grow. I will help their children and animals to grow too. It will be like planting and caring for a plant. ²⁸ In the past I watched over Israel and Judah, but I watched for the time to pull them up. I tore them down. I destroyed them. I gave many troubles to them. But now I will watch over them to build them up and make them strong.” This message is from the LORD.

²⁹ “People will not use this saying anymore:

‘The parents ate the sour grapes,

but the children got the sour taste.’‡

³⁰ No, people will die for their own sins. Those who eat sour grapes will get the sour taste.”

The New Agreement

³¹ This is what the LORD said, “The time is coming when I will make a new agreement with the family of Israel and with the family of Judah. ³² It will not be like the agreement I made with their ancestors. I made that agreement when I took them by the hand and

* 31:22 A woman surrounding a man The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. brought them out of Egypt. I was their master, but they broke that agreement.” This message is from the LORD.

³³ “In the future I will make this agreement with the people of Israel.” This message is from the LORD. “I will put my teachings in their minds, and I will write them on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. ³⁴ People will not have to teach their neighbors and relatives to know the LORD, because all people, from the least important to the most important, will know me.” This message is from the LORD. “I will forgive them for the evil things they did. I will not remember their sins.”

The Lord Will Never Leave Israel

³⁵ He makes the sun shine in the day, and he makes the moon and the stars shine at night.
He stirs up the sea so that its waves crash on the shore.
The LORD All-Powerful is his name.

This is what the LORD says:

³⁶ “The descendants of Israel will never stop being a nation.
That would happen only if I lost control of the sun, moon, stars, and sea.”

³⁷ The LORD says, “I will never reject the descendants of Israel.
That would happen only if people could measure the sky above,
and learn all the secrets of the earth below.
Only then would I reject them for the bad things they have done.”
This message is from the LORD.

The New Jerusalem

³⁸ This message is from the LORD, “The days are coming when the city of Jerusalem will be rebuilt for the LORD. The whole city will be rebuilt—from the Tower of Hananel to the Corner Gate. ³⁹ The measuring line[§] will stretch from the Corner Gate straight to the hill of Gareb and then turn to the place named Gorah. ⁴⁰ The whole valley where dead bodies and ashes are thrown and all the terraces down to the bottom of Kidron Valley all the way to the corner of Horse Gate will be holy to the LORD. The city of Jerusalem will never again be torn down or destroyed.”

Jeremiah Buys a Field

¹ This is the message from the LORD that came to Jeremiah during the tenth year that Zedekiah was king of Judah.* The tenth year of Zedekiah was the 18th year of Nebuchadnezzar. ² At that time the army of the king of Babylon was surrounding the city of Jerusalem, and Jeremiah was under arrest in the courtyard of the guard. This courtyard was at the palace of the king of Judah. ³ King Zedekiah of Judah had put Jeremiah in prison in that place. Zedekiah didn’t like the things Jeremiah prophesied. Jeremiah had said, “This is what the LORD says: ‘I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar will capture this city. ⁴ King Zedekiah of Judah will not escape from the army of the Babylonians. But he will surely be given to the king of Babylon. And Zedekiah will speak to the king of Babylon face to face. He will see him with his own eyes. ⁵ The king of Babylon will take Zedekiah to Babylon. Zedekiah will stay there until I have punished him.’ This message is from the LORD. ‘If you fight against the army of the Babylonians, you will not succeed.’ ”

⁶ While Jeremiah was a prisoner, he said, “This message from the LORD came to me. This was the message: ⁷ ‘Jeremiah, your cousin, Hanamel, will come to you soon. He is the son of your uncle Shallum. Hanamel will say to you, “Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth. Buy it because you are my nearest relative. It is your right and your responsibility to buy that field.”

[§] 31:39 measuring line A rope or chain for measuring property lines. ^{*} 32:1 the tenth year ... Judah This was 588–587 B.C. This was the year Jerusalem was destroyed by Nebuchadnezzar.

⁸ “Then it happened just as the LORD said. My cousin Hanamel came to me in the courtyard of the guard. Hanamel said to me, ‘Jeremiah, buy my field near the town of Anathoth, in the land of the tribe of Benjamin. Buy that land for yourself because it is your right to buy it and own it.’”

So I knew that this was a message from the LORD. ⁹ I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel. I weighed out 17 shekels[†] of silver for him. ¹⁰ I signed the deed and had a copy of the deed sealed up.[‡] I got some men to witness what I had done, and I weighed out the silver on the scales. ¹¹ Then I took the sealed copy of the deed, which contained the demands and limits of my purchase, and the copy that was not sealed. ¹² I gave the deed to Baruch son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah. I did this while my cousin Hanamel and the other witnesses were there. They also signed the deed. There were also many people of Judah sitting in the courtyard who saw me give the deed to Baruch.

¹³ With all the people watching, I said to Baruch, ¹⁴ “This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Take both copies of the deed—the sealed copy and the copy that was not sealed—and put them in a clay jar. Do this so that these deeds will last a long time.’ ¹⁵ The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, ‘In the future my people will once again buy houses, fields, and vineyards in the land of Israel.’”

¹⁶ After I gave the deed to Baruch son of Neriah, I prayed to the LORD:

¹⁷ “Lord GOD, with your great power you made the earth and the sky. There is nothing too hard for you to do. ¹⁸ You are loyal and kind to thousands of people, but you also bring punishment to children for their fathers’ sins. Great and powerful God, your name is the LORD All-Powerful. ¹⁹ You plan and do great things. You see everything that people do. You give a reward to those who do good things, and you punish those who do bad things—you give them what they deserve. ²⁰ You have been doing powerful miracles in the land of Egypt until now, in Israel and elsewhere. You are the one who made yourself as famous as you are today. ²¹ You used powerful miracles and brought your people Israel out of Egypt. You used your own powerful hand to do this. Your power was amazing!

²² “You gave the Israelites this land that you promised to give to their ancestors long ago. It is a very good land filled with many good things. ²³ They came into this land and took it for their own. But they didn’t obey you. They didn’t follow your teachings or do what you commanded. So you made all these terrible things happen to them.

²⁴ “And now the enemy has surrounded the city. They are building ramps so that they can get over the walls of Jerusalem and capture it. Because of war, hunger, and disease, the city of Jerusalem will fall to the Babylonian army. The Babylonians are attacking the city now. You said this would happen, and now you see it is happening.

²⁵ “Lord GOD, all those bad things are happening. But now you are telling me, ‘Jeremiah, buy the field with silver and choose some men to witness the purchase.’ You are telling me this while the Babylonian army is ready to capture the city. Why should I waste my money like that?”

²⁶ Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: ²⁷ “Jeremiah, I am the LORD. I am the God of every person on the earth. You know that nothing is impossible for me.” ²⁸ The LORD also said, “I will soon give the city of Jerusalem to the Babylonian army and to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. The army will capture the city. ²⁹ The Babylonian army is already attacking the city of Jerusalem. They will soon enter the city and start a fire. They will burn down this city. There are houses in this city where the people of Jerusalem made me angry by offering sacrifices to the false god Baal on the housetops. And they poured out drink offerings to other idol gods. The Babylonian army will burn down those houses. ³⁰ I have watched the people of Israel and the people of Judah. Everything they do is evil. They have done evil things since they were young. The people of Israel have made me very angry because they worship idols that they made with their own hands.” This message is from the LORD. ³¹ “From the time that Jerusalem was built until now, the people of this city have made me angry. This city has made me very angry, so I must remove it from my sight. ³² I will destroy Jerusalem because of all the evil things the people of Israel and Judah have done. The people, their kings, leaders, their priests and prophets, the people of Judah, and the people of Jerusalem have all made me angry.

³³ “They should have come to me for help, but they turned their backs to me. I tried to teach them again and again, but they would not listen to me. I tried to correct them, but they would not listen. ³⁴ They have made their idols, and I hate those idols. They put their idols in the Temple that is called by my name, so they made my Temple ‘dirty.’

³⁶ “You people are saying, ‘The king of Babylon will capture Jerusalem. He will use war, hunger, and disease to defeat this city.’ But this is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: ³⁷ ‘I have forced the people of Israel and Judah to leave their land. I was very angry with them, but I will bring them back to this place. I will gather them from the land where I forced them to go. I will bring them back to this place. I will let them live in peace and safety. ³⁸ The people of Israel and Judah will be my people, and I will be their God. ³⁹ I will give them the desire to be one, united people. They will have one goal—to worship me all their lives. They and their children will want to do this.

⁴⁰ “ ‘I will make an agreement with the people of Israel and Judah that will last forever. In this agreement I will never turn away from them. I will always be good to them. I will make them want to respect me. Then they will never turn away from me. ⁴¹ They will make me happy. I will enjoy doing good to them. And I will surely plant them in this land and make them grow. I will do this with all my heart and soul.’ ”

⁴² This is what the LORD says: “I have brought this great disaster to the people of Israel and Judah. In the same way I will bring good things to them. I promise to do good things for them. ⁴³ You people are saying, ‘This land is an empty desert. There are no people or animals here. The Babylonian army defeated this country.’ But in the future people will once again buy fields in this land. ⁴⁴ They will use their money and buy fields. They will sign and seal their agreements. They will witness the people signing their deeds. They will again buy fields in the land where the tribe of Benjamin lives, in the area around Jerusalem, in the towns of the land of Judah, in the hill country, in the western foothills, and in the area of the southern desert. This will happen because I will bring them back home.” This message is from the LORD.

The Promise of God

[§] 32:35 Valley of Ben Hinnom This valley is also called “Gehenna.” This name comes from the Hebrew name “Ge Hinnom—Hinnom’s Valley.” This place became an example of how God punishes wicked people.

¹ While Jeremiah was still locked up in the courtyard of the guards, the message from the LORD came to him a second time: ² “The LORD made the earth, and he keeps it safe. The LORD is his name. He says, ³ ‘Judah, pray to me, and I will answer you. I will tell you important secrets. You have never heard these things before.’ ⁴ The LORD is the God of Israel. This is what he says about the houses in Jerusalem and about the palaces of the kings of Judah: ‘The enemy will pull these houses down. They will build ramps up to the top of the city walls. They will use swords and fight the people in these cities.

⁵ “The people in Jerusalem have done many bad things. I am angry with them. I have turned against them, so I will kill many people there. The Babylonian army will come to fight against Jerusalem. There will be many dead bodies in the houses in Jerusalem.

⁶ “But then I will heal the people in that city. I will let them enjoy peace and safety. ⁷ I will make good things happen to Judah and Israel again and make them strong as in the past. ⁸ They sinned against me, but I will wash away that sin. They fought against me, but I will forgive them. ⁹ Then Jerusalem will be a wonderful place. The people will be happy. People from other nations will praise it when they hear about the good things happening there. They will hear about the good things I am doing for Jerusalem.’

¹⁰ “This is what the LORD says: ‘You people say that your country is an empty desert. There are no people or animals living there.’ It is now quiet in the streets of Jerusalem and in the towns of Judah. But it will be noisy there soon. ¹¹ There will be sounds of joy and happiness. There will be the happy sounds of a bride and groom. There will be the sounds of people bringing their gifts to the LORD’S Temple. They will say, ‘Praise the LORD All-Powerful! The LORD is good! His faithful love will last forever!’ They will say this because I will again do good things to Judah. It will be as it was in the beginning.” This is what the LORD said.

¹² The LORD All-Powerful says, “This place is empty now. There are no people or animals living here. But there will be people in all the towns of Judah. There will be shepherds, and there will be pastures where they will let their flocks rest. ¹³ Shepherds will count their sheep as the sheep walk in front of them. They will be counting their sheep all around the country—in the hill country, in the western foothills, in the Negev, and in all the other towns of Judah.”

The Good Branch

¹⁴ This message is from the LORD: “I made a special promise to the people of Israel and Judah. The time is coming when I will do what I promised. ¹⁵ At that time I will make a good ‘branch’ grow from David’s family. That branch will do what is good and right for the country. ¹⁶ When he rules, Judah will be saved. The people of Jerusalem will live in safety. This will be his name: ‘The LORD Makes Things Right For Us.’ ”

¹⁷ The LORD says, “Someone from David’s family will always sit on the throne and rule the family of Israel. ¹⁸ And there will always be priests from the family of Levi. They will always stand before me and offer burnt offerings and sacrifice grain offerings and give sacrifices to me.”

¹⁹ This message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. ²⁰ The LORD says, “I have an agreement with day and night. I agreed that they would continue forever. You cannot change that agreement. Day and night will always come at the right time. If you could change that agreement, ²¹ then you could change my agreement with David and Levi. Then descendants from David would not be the kings, and the family of Levi would not be priests. ²² But I will give many descendants to my servant David and to the tribe of Levi. They will be as many as the stars in the sky—no one can count all the stars. And they will be as many as the grains of sand on the seashore—no one can count the grains of sand.”

²³ Jeremiah received this message from the LORD: ²⁴ “Jeremiah, have you heard what the people are saying? They are saying, ‘The LORD turned away from the two families of Israel and Judah. He chose those people, but now he does not even accept them as a nation.’”

²⁵ The LORD says, “If my agreement with day and night does not continue, and if I had not made the laws for the sky and earth, maybe I would leave those people. ²⁶ Then maybe I would turn away from Jacob’s descendants. And then maybe I would not let David’s descendants rule over the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But David is my servant, and I will be kind to those people. I will again cause good things to happen to them.”

34

A Warning to Zedekiah

² This was the message: “This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: Jeremiah, go to King Zedekiah of Judah and give him this message: ‘Zedekiah, this is what the LORD says: I will give the city of Jerusalem to the king of Babylon very soon, and he will burn it down. ³ Zedekiah, you will not escape from the king of Babylon. You will surely be caught and given to him. You will see the king of Babylon with your own eyes. He will talk to you face to face, and you will go to Babylon. ⁴ But listen to the promise of the LORD, King Zedekiah of Judah. This is what the LORD says about you: You will not be killed with a sword. ⁵ You will die in a peaceful way. People made funeral fires to honor your ancestors, the kings who ruled before you became king. In the same way people will make a funeral fire to honor you. They will cry for you and sadly say, “Oh, my master!” I myself make this promise to you.’” This message is from the LORD.

⁶ So Jeremiah told all this message to Zedekiah in Jerusalem. ⁷ This was while the army of the king of Babylon was fighting against Jerusalem. The army of Babylon was also fighting against the cities of Judah that had not been captured. These cities were Lachish and Azekah. These were the only fortified cities left in the land of Judah.

The People Break an Agreement

⁸ King Zedekiah had made an agreement with all the people in Jerusalem to give freedom to all the Hebrew slaves. A message from the LORD came to Jeremiah after Zedekiah had made that agreement. ⁹ Everyone was supposed to free their Hebrew slaves. All male and female Hebrew slaves were to be set free. No one was supposed to keep another person from the tribe of Judah in slavery. ¹⁰ So all the leaders of Judah and all the people accepted this agreement. They would free their male and female slaves so that they would no longer serve them. Everyone agreed, and so all the slaves were set free. ¹¹ But after that,* the people who had slaves changed their minds. So they took the people they had set free and made them slaves again.

¹² Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³ “This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘I brought your ancestors out of the land of Egypt, where they were slaves. When I did that, I made an agreement with them. ¹⁴ I said to your ancestors, “At the end of every seven years, everyone must set their Hebrew slaves free. If you have fellow Hebrews who have sold themselves to you, you must let them go free after they have served you for six years.” But your ancestors did not listen to me or pay attention to me. ¹⁵ A short time ago you changed your hearts to do what is right. Everyone set free their fellow Hebrews who were slaves. And you even made an agreement before me in the Temple that is called by my name. ¹⁶ But now you have changed your minds. You have shown that you do not honor my name because each of you has taken back the male and female slaves that you had set free. You have forced them to become slaves again.’

* 34:11 after that In the summer of 588 B.C., the Egyptian army came to help the people of Jerusalem. So the Babylonian army had to leave Jerusalem for a short time to fight the Egyptians. The people of Jerusalem thought God had helped them, and things were back to normal, so they didn’t keep their promise. They took the slaves they had set free back into slavery.

¹⁷ “So this is what the LORD says: ‘You people have not obeyed me. You have not given freedom to your fellow Hebrews. So, because you have not given them freedom, I will give a special kind of freedom—freedom to die in war or by disease or by hunger! This message is from the LORD. When the other nations see what I have done to you, they will all be shocked. ¹⁸ I will hand over those who broke my agreement and have not kept the promises they made before me. They cut a calf into two pieces before me and walked between the two pieces.† ¹⁹ These are the people who walked between the two pieces of the calf when they made the agreement before me: the leaders of Judah and Jerusalem, the important officials of the court, the priests, and the people of the land. ²⁰ So I will give them to their enemies and to everyone who wants to kill them. Their bodies will become food for the birds of the air and for the wild animals of the earth. ²¹ I will give King Zedekiah of Judah and his leaders to their enemies and to everyone who wants to kill them. I will give Zedekiah and his people to the army of the king of Babylon, even though that army has left Jerusalem.‡ ²² But I will give the order,’ says the LORD, ‘to bring the Babylonian army back to Jerusalem. That army will fight against Jerusalem. They will capture it, set it on fire, and burn it down. And I will destroy the towns in the land of Judah. They will become empty deserts. No one will live there.’”

The Recabite Family’s Good Example

¹ During the time when Jehoiakim, son of King Josiah, was king of Judah, the LORD spoke this message to Jeremiah: ² “Go to the Recabite family* and invite them to come to one of the side rooms of the LORD’S Temple. Offer them wine to drink.”

³ So I went to get Jaazaniah† son of Jeremiah,‡ who was the son of Habazziniah. And I got all of Jaazaniah’s brothers and sons and the whole family of the Recabites together. ⁴ Then I brought them into the Temple of the LORD. We went into the room of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah. Hanan was a man of God.§ The room was next to the room where the princes of Judah stay. It was over the room of Maaseiah son of Shallum. Maaseiah was the doorkeeper in the Temple. ⁵ Then I put some bowls full of wine and some cups in front of the Recabite family. And I said to them, “Drink some wine.”

⁶ But the Recabite family answered, “We never drink wine. We never drink it because our ancestor Jonadab son of Recab gave us this command: ‘You and your descendants must never drink wine. ⁷ Also you must never build houses, plant seeds, or plant vineyards. You must never do any of those things. You must live only in tents. If you do that, you will live a long time in the land where you move from place to place.’ ⁸ So we have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. None of us ever drinks wine, and neither do our wives, sons, or daughters. ⁹ We never build houses to live in, we never own vineyards or fields, and we never plant crops. ¹⁰ We have lived in tents and have obeyed everything our ancestor Jonadab commanded us. ¹¹ But when King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon attacked the country of Judah, we did go into Jerusalem. We said to each other, ‘Come, we must enter the city of Jerusalem so that we can escape the Babylonian army and the Aramean army.’ So we have stayed in Jerusalem.”

† 34:18 They ... two pieces This is part of a ceremony people used when they made an important agreement. An animal was cut into two pieces. Those who were making the agreement would walk between the pieces. Then they would say something like, “May this same thing happen to me if I don’t keep the agreement.” See Genesis 15. ‡ 34:21 left Jerusalem In the summer of 588 B.C., the Egyptian army came to help the people of Jerusalem. So the Babylonian army had to leave Jerusalem for a short time to fight the Egyptians. See Jeremiah 37:5. See also the footnote to Jeremiah 34:11. *

¹² Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah: ¹³ “The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says to go to the people of Judah and Jerusalem and tell them this message: ‘You should learn a lesson and obey my message.’ This message is from the LORD. ¹⁴ ‘Jonadab son of Recab ordered his sons not to drink wine, and that command has been obeyed. To this day the descendants of Jonadab have obeyed their ancestor’s command. They do not drink wine. But I have given commands to you people of Judah again and again, and you have not obeyed me. ¹⁵ Time after time I have sent my servants the prophets to you. They said, “You must each stop doing evil things and do what is right. Don’t follow other gods. Don’t worship or serve them. If you obey me, you will live in the land I have given to you and your ancestors.” But you have not paid attention to my message. ¹⁶ The descendants of Jonadab obeyed the commands that their ancestor gave them, but the people of Judah have not obeyed me.’

¹⁷ “So this is what the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘I said that many bad things would happen to Judah and Jerusalem. I will soon make all those bad things happen. I spoke to the people, but they refused to listen. I called out to them, but they didn’t answer me.’”

¹⁸ Then Jeremiah said to the Recabite family, “This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘You have obeyed the commands of your ancestor Jonadab. You have followed all of his teachings. You have done everything he commanded.’ ¹⁹ So the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘There will always be a descendant of Jonadab son of Recab to serve me.’”

King Jehoiakim Burns Jeremiah’s Scroll

⁴ So Jeremiah called a man named Baruch son of Neriah. Jeremiah spoke the messages the LORD had given him. While he spoke, Baruch wrote the messages on the scroll. ⁵ Then Jeremiah said to Baruch, “I cannot go to the LORD’S Temple. I am not allowed to go there. ⁶ So I want you to go to the Temple of the LORD. Go there on a day of fasting and read to the people from the scroll. Read to the people the messages from the LORD that you wrote on the scroll as I spoke them to you. Read them to all the people of Judah who come into Jerusalem from the towns where they live. ⁷ Perhaps they will ask the LORD to help them. Perhaps each person will stop doing bad things. The LORD has announced that he is very angry with them.” ⁸ So Baruch son of Neriah did everything Jeremiah the prophet told him to do. Baruch read aloud the scroll that had the LORD’S messages written on it. He read it in the LORD’S Temple.

⁹ In the ninth month of the fifth year that Jehoiakim was king, a fast was announced. All those who lived in the city of Jerusalem and everyone who had come into Jerusalem from the towns of Judah were supposed to fast before the LORD. ¹⁰ At that time Baruch read the scroll that contained Jeremiah’s words. He read the scroll in the Temple of the LORD to all the people who were there. Baruch was in the room of Gemariah in the upper courtyard when he read from the scroll. That room was located at the entrance of the New Gate of the Temple. Gemariah was the son of Shaphan. Gemariah was a scribe in the Temple.

¹¹ A man named Micaiah heard all the messages from the LORD that Baruch read from the scroll. Micaiah was the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan. ¹² When Micaiah heard the messages from the scroll, he went down to the secretary's room in the king's palace. All the royal officials were sitting there in the king's palace. These are the names of the officials: Elishama the secretary, Delaiah son of Shemaiah, Elnathan son of Acbor, Gemariah son of Shaphan, Zedekiah son of Hananiah; all the other royal officials were there too. ¹³ Micaiah told them everything he had heard Baruch read from the scroll.

¹⁴ Then all the officials sent a man named Jehudi to Baruch. (Jehudi was the son of Nethaniah, son of Shelemiah. Shelemiah was the son of Cushi.) Jehudi said to Baruch, "Bring the scroll that you read from and come with me."

Baruch son of Neriah took the scroll and went with Jehudi to the officials.

¹⁵ Then the officials said to Baruch, "Sit down and read the scroll to us."

So Baruch read the scroll to them.

¹⁶ When the royal officials heard all the messages from the scroll, they were afraid and looked at one another. They said to Baruch, "We must tell King Jehoiakim about these messages on the scroll." ¹⁷ Then the officials asked Baruch, "Tell us, Baruch, where did you get these messages that you wrote on the scroll? Did you write down what Jeremiah said to you?"

¹⁸ "Yes," Baruch answered. "Jeremiah spoke, and I wrote down all the messages with ink on this scroll."

¹⁹ Then the royal officials said to Baruch, "You and Jeremiah must go and hide. Don't tell anyone where you are hiding."

²⁰ Then the royal officials put the scroll in the room of Elishama the scribe. They went to King Jehoiakim and told him all about the scroll.

²¹ So King Jehoiakim sent Jehudi to get the scroll. Jehudi brought the scroll from the room of Elishama the scribe. Then Jehudi read the scroll to the king and all the servants who stood around the king. ²² The time this happened was in the ninth month,[†] so King Jehoiakim was sitting in the part of the palace used for winter. There was a fire burning in a small fireplace in front of the king. ²³ Jehudi began to read from the scroll. But after he would read two or three columns, King Jehoiakim would grab the scroll. Then he would cut those columns off the scroll with a small knife and throw them into the fireplace. Finally, the whole scroll was burned in the fire. ²⁴ And, when King Jehoiakim and his servants heard the message from the scroll, they were not afraid. They did not tear their clothes to show sorrow for doing wrong.

²⁵ Elnathan, Delaiah, and Gemariah tried to talk King Jehoiakim out of burning the scroll, but he would not listen to them. ²⁶ Instead King Jehoiakim commanded some men to arrest Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet. These men were Jerahmeel, a son of the king, Seraiah son of Azriel, and Shelemiah son of Abdeel. But they could not find Baruch and Jeremiah, because the LORD had hidden them.

²⁷ King Jehoiakim burned the scroll on which Baruch had written all the words that Jeremiah had spoken to him. Then this message from the LORD came to Jeremiah:

²⁸ "Get another scroll. Write all the messages on it that were on the first scroll that King Jehoiakim of Judah burned. ²⁹ Also tell King Jehoiakim of Judah that this is what the LORD says: 'Jehoiakim, you burned that scroll. You said, "Why did Jeremiah write that the king of Babylon will surely come and destroy this land and kill all the people and animals in it?"' ³⁰ So this is what the LORD says about King Jehoiakim of Judah: Jehoiakim's descendants will not sit on David's throne. When Jehoiakim dies, he will not get a king's funeral, but his body will be thrown out on the ground. His body will be left out in the heat of the day and the cold frost of the night. ³¹ I will punish Jehoiakim and his children, and I will punish his officials. I will do this because they are wicked. I will bring terrible disasters on them and on all those who live in Jerusalem and on the people from Judah. I will bring all these bad things on them, just as I warned them, because they have not listened to me.' ”

³² Then Jeremiah took another scroll and gave it to Baruch son of Neriah, the scribe. As Jeremiah spoke, Baruch wrote on the scroll the same messages that were on the scroll that King Jehoiakim had burned in the fire. And many other words like those messages were added to the second scroll.

Jeremiah Is Put Into Prison

¹ Nebuchadnezzar was the king of Babylon. He appointed Zedekiah son of Josiah to be the king of Judah in the place of Jehoiachin son of Jehoiakim. ² But Zedekiah, his servants, and the people of Judah did not pay attention to the messages the LORD had given to Jeremiah the prophet.

⁴ At that time Jeremiah had not yet been put into prison, so he was free to go anywhere he wanted. ⁵ Also at that time Pharaoh's army had marched from Egypt toward Judah. The Babylonian army had surrounded the city of Jerusalem in order to defeat it. Then they had heard about the army from Egypt marching toward them. So the army from Babylon left Jerusalem to fight with the army from Egypt.

⁶ This message from the LORD came to Jeremiah the prophet: ⁷ “This is what the LORD, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘Jehucal and Zephaniah, I know that King Zedekiah of Judah sent you to me to ask questions. Tell King Zedekiah this: Pharaoh's army marched out of Egypt to come here to help you against the army of Babylon. But Pharaoh's army will go back to Egypt. ⁸ After that the army from Babylon will come back here and attack Jerusalem. Then they will capture and burn it.’ ⁹ This is what the LORD says: ‘People of Jerusalem, don't fool yourselves. Don't say to yourselves, “The army of Babylon will surely leave us alone.” They will not. ¹⁰ People of Jerusalem, even if you could defeat all the Babylonian army that is attacking you, there would still be a few wounded men left in their tents. Even those few wounded men would come out of their tents and burn Jerusalem down.’ ”

¹⁴ Jeremiah said to Irijah, “That is not true! I am not leaving to join the Babylonians.” But Irijah refused to listen to Jeremiah. And Irijah arrested Jeremiah and took him to the royal officials of Jerusalem. ¹⁵ Those officials were very angry with Jeremiah. They gave an order for Jeremiah to be beaten. Then they put him in a prison. The prison was in the house of Jonathan, a scribe for the king of Judah. His house had been made into a prison. ¹⁶ They put Jeremiah into a cell under the house of Jonathan. The cell was in a dungeon under the ground. Jeremiah was there for a long time.

* 37:12 the land of Benjamin Jeremiah was going to his hometown, Anathoth, which was in the land of Benjamin.

† 37:13 Benjamin Gate of Jerusalem This gate led out of Jerusalem to the road which went north to the land of Benjamin.

¹⁷ Then King Zedekiah sent for Jeremiah and had him brought to the palace. Zedekiah talked to Jeremiah in private. He asked Jeremiah, “Is there any message from the LORD?”

Jeremiah answered, “Yes, he said that you will be given to the king of Babylon.”

¹⁸ Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “What have I done wrong? What crime have I done against you or your officials or the people of Jerusalem? Why have you thrown me into prison? ¹⁹ King Zedekiah, where are your prophets now? They told you a false message. They said, ‘The king of Babylon will not attack you or this land of Judah.’ ²⁰ But now, my lord, king of Judah, please listen to me. Please let me bring my request to you. This is what I ask: Don’t send me back to the house of Jonathan the scribe. If you send me back, I will die there.”

²¹ So King Zedekiah gave orders for Jeremiah to be put under guard in the courtyard. And he ordered that Jeremiah should be given bread from the street bakers. He was given bread until there was no more bread in the city. So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the courtyard.

Jeremiah Is Thrown Into a Cistern

¹ Some of the royal officials heard what Jeremiah was saying. They were Shephatiah son of Mattan, Gedaliah son of Pashhur, Jehucal son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur son of Malkijah. Jeremiah was telling all the people this message: ² “This is what the LORD says: ‘Everyone who stays in Jerusalem will die from war, hunger, or disease. But everyone who surrenders to the army of Babylon will live and escape with their lives.’ ³ And this is what the LORD says: ‘This city of Jerusalem will surely be given to the army of the king of Babylon. He will capture this city.’”

⁴ Then the royal officials who heard what Jeremiah was telling the people went to King Zedekiah. They said to the king, “Jeremiah should be put to death. He is discouraging the soldiers who are still in the city and everyone else by what he is saying. He is not looking for peace; he is just trying to cause trouble.”

⁵ So King Zedekiah said to the officials, “Jeremiah is in your control. I cannot do anything to stop you.”

⁶ So the officials took Jeremiah and put him into Malkijah’s cistern. Malkijah was the king’s son. The cistern was in the Temple yard where the king’s guard stayed. They used ropes to lower Jeremiah into the cistern. The cistern didn’t have any water in it, only mud. And Jeremiah sank down into the mud.

⁷ But a man named Ebed Melech heard that the officials had put Jeremiah into the cistern. Ebed Melech was from Ethiopia, and he was a eunuch in the king’s palace. King Zedekiah was sitting at the Benjamin Gate, so Ebed Melech left the king’s palace and went to talk to the king at the gate. ⁸⁻⁹ Ebed Melech said, “My lord and king, these officials have done evil. They have treated Jeremiah the prophet badly. They have thrown him into a cistern and left him there to die.”*

¹⁰ Then King Zedekiah gave a command to Ebed Melech, the Ethiopian. This was the command: “Ebed Melech, take three[†] men from the palace with you, and go get Jeremiah out of the cistern before he dies.”

¹¹ So Ebed Melech took the men with him. But first he went to a room under the storeroom in the king’s palace. He took some old rags and worn-out clothes from that room. Then he let the rags down with some ropes to Jeremiah in the cistern. ¹² Ebed Melech, the Ethiopian, said to Jeremiah, “Put these old rags and worn-out clothes under your arms. When we pull you out, these rags will pad your underarms. Then the ropes will not hurt you.” So Jeremiah did as Ebed Melech said. ¹³ The men pulled Jeremiah up with the ropes and lifted him out of the cistern. And Jeremiah stayed under guard in the Temple yard.

Zedekiah Asks Jeremiah

Some Questions

¹⁴ Then King Zedekiah sent someone to get Jeremiah the prophet. He had Jeremiah brought to the third entrance to the Temple of the LORD. Then the king said, “Jeremiah, I am going to ask you something. Don’t hide anything from me, but tell me everything honestly.”

¹⁵ Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, “If I give you an answer, you will probably kill me. And even if I give you advice, you will not listen to me.”

¹⁶ But King Zedekiah secretly swore an oath to Jeremiah. Zedekiah said, “As surely as the LORD lives, who gives us breath and life, I will not kill you, Jeremiah. And I promise not to give you to the officials who want to kill you.”

¹⁷ Then Jeremiah said to King Zedekiah, “The LORD God All-Powerful is the God of Israel. This is what he says, ‘If you surrender to the officials of the king of Babylon, your life will be saved, and Jerusalem will not be burned down. And you and your family will live. ¹⁸ But if you refuse to surrender, Jerusalem will be given to the Babylonian army. They will burn Jerusalem down, and you will not escape from them.’ ”

¹⁹ But King Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “But I am afraid of the men of Judah who have already gone over to the side of the Babylonian army. I am afraid that the soldiers will give me to those men, and they will treat me badly and hurt me.”

²⁰ But Jeremiah answered, “The soldiers will not give you to the men of Judah. King Zedekiah, obey the LORD by doing what I tell you. Then things will go well for you, and your life will be saved. ²¹ But if you refuse to surrender to the army of Babylon, the LORD has shown me what will happen. This is what he has told me: ²² All the women who are left in the house of the king of Judah will be brought out. They will be brought to the important officials of the king of Babylon. Your women will make fun of you with a song. This is what they will say:

‘Your friends were stronger than you,
and they led you the wrong way.
You trusted them,
but now your feet are stuck in the mud, and your friends have left you.’

²³ “All your wives and children will be brought out. They will be given to the Babylonian army. You yourself will not escape from the army of Babylon. You will be captured by the king of Babylon, and Jerusalem will be burned down.”

²⁴ Then Zedekiah said to Jeremiah, “Don’t tell anyone that I have been talking to you. If you do, you might die. ²⁵ If the officials find out that I talked to you, they will come to you and say, ‘Jeremiah, tell us what you said to King Zedekiah and what he said to you. Be honest with us, and tell us everything, or we will kill you.’ ²⁶ If they say this to you, tell them, ‘I was begging the king not to send me back to the cell in the dungeon under Jonathan’s house. If I were to go back there, I would die.’ ”

²⁸ So Jeremiah stayed under guard in the Temple yard until the day Jerusalem was captured.

The Fall of Jerusalem

⁸ The army of Babylon set fire to the king's palace and the houses of the people of Jerusalem. And they broke down the walls of Jerusalem. ⁹ Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards. He took all the people who had surrendered to him and all the people still in Jerusalem and made them captives. He carried them away to Babylon. ¹⁰ But commander Nebuzaradan left behind some of the poor people of Judah who owned nothing. Nebuzaradan gave them vineyards and farmland in Judah.

¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar also gave an order about Jeremiah to commander Nebuzaradan: ¹² "Find Jeremiah and take care of him. Don't hurt him. Give him whatever he asks for."

¹³ So Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king's special guards, Nebushazban, a chief officer in the army of Babylon, Nergal-Sharezer, a high official, and all the other officers of the army of Babylon sent for Jeremiah. ¹⁴ They had Jeremiah taken out of the Temple yard where he had been under the guard of the king of Judah. They turned Jeremiah over to Gedaliah* son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. Gedaliah had orders to take Jeremiah back home. So Jeremiah was taken home, and he stayed among his own people.

The Lord's Message to Ebed Melech

¹⁵ While the guards were watching Jeremiah in the Temple yard, a message from the LORD came to him. This was the message: ¹⁶ "Jeremiah, go and tell Ebed Melech† the Ethiopian this message: 'This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: Very soon I will make my messages about this city of Jerusalem come true. My messages will come true through disaster, not through something good. You will see everything come true with your own eyes. ¹⁷ But I will save you on that day, Ebed Melech.' This is the message from the LORD. 'You will not be given to the people you are afraid of. ¹⁸ I will save you, Ebed Melech. You will not die from a sword, but you will escape and live. That will happen because you have trusted in me.'" This message is from the LORD.

Jeremiah Is Set Free

¹ The message from the LORD came to Jeremiah after he was set free at the city of Ramah. Nebuzaradan, the commander of the king of Babylon's special guards, found Jeremiah in Ramah. Jeremiah was bound with chains. He was with all the captives from Jerusalem and Judah. They were being taken away in captivity to Babylon. ² When commander Nebuzaradan found Jeremiah, he spoke to him. He said, "Jeremiah, the LORD, your God, announced that this disaster would come to this place. ³ And now the LORD has done everything just as he said he would do. This disaster happened because you people of Judah sinned against the LORD. You did not obey him. ⁴ But now, Jeremiah, I will set you free. I am taking the chains off your wrists. If you want to, come with me to Babylon, and I will take good care of you. But if you don't want to come with me, then don't come. Look, the whole country is open to you. Go anywhere you want. ⁵ Or go back to Gedaliah* son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan. The king of Babylon has chosen Gedaliah to be governor over the towns of Judah. Go and live with Gedaliah among the people. Or you can go anywhere you want."

Then Nebuzaradan gave Jeremiah some food and a present and let him go. ⁶ So Jeremiah went to Gedaliah son of Ahikam at Mizpah. He stayed with Gedaliah among those who were left behind in the land of Judah.

The Short Rule of Gedaliah

⁷ There were some soldiers from the army of Judah, officers and their men, still out in the open country when Jerusalem was destroyed. They heard that the king of Babylon had put Gedaliah son of Ahikam in charge of those who were left in the land. Those who were left were men, women, and children who were very poor. They were not carried off to Babylon as captives. ⁸ So the soldiers came to Gedaliah at Mizpah. They were Ishmael son of Nethaniah, Johanan and his brother Jonathan, sons of Kareah, Seraiah son of Tanhumeth, sons of Ephai from Netophah, and Jaazaniah son of the Maacathite, and the men who were with them.

⁹ Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, made an oath to make the soldiers and their men feel more secure. This is what he said: "You soldiers, don't be afraid to serve the Babylonian people. Settle down in the land and serve the king of Babylon. If you do this, things will go well for you. ¹⁰ I myself will live in Mizpah. I will speak for you before the Chaldeans who come here. You leave that work to me. You should harvest the wine, the summer fruit, and the oil. Put what you harvest in your storage jars. Live in the towns that you control."

¹¹ All the people of Judah who were in the countries of Moab, Ammon, Edom, and all the other countries heard that the king of Babylon had left some people of Judah in the land. And they heard that the king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah son of Ahikam, son of Shaphan, to be governor over them. ¹² When the people of Judah heard this news, they came back to the land of Judah. They came back to Gedaliah at Mizpah from all the countries where they had been scattered. So they came back and gathered a large harvest of wine and summer fruit.

¹³ Johanan son of Kareah and all the officers of the army of Judah who were still in the open country came to Gedaliah. Gedaliah was at the town of Mizpah. ¹⁴ Johanan and the officers with him said to Gedaliah, "Do you know that Baalis, the king of the Ammonites, wants to kill you? He has sent Ishmael son of Nethaniah to kill you." But Gedaliah son of Ahikam didn't believe them.

¹⁵ Then Johanan son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in private at Mizpah. Johanan said to Gedaliah, "Let me go and kill Ishmael son of Nethaniah. No one will know anything about it. We should not let Ishmael kill you. That would cause all the people of Judah who are

* 40:5 Or ... Gedaliah Or "Before Gedaliah goes back, return to him" gathered around you to be scattered to different countries again. And that would mean that the few survivors of Judah would be lost.”

¹⁶ But Gedaliah son of Ahikam said to Johanan son of Kareah, “Don’t kill Ishmael. The things you are saying about Ishmael are not true.”

¹ In the seventh month, Ishmael son of Nethaniah (the son of Elishama) came to Gedaliah son of Ahikam. Ishmael came with ten of his men. They came to the town of Mizpah. Ishmael was a member of the king’s family. He had been one of the officers of the king of Judah. Ishmael and his men ate a meal with Gedaliah. ² While they were eating together, Ishmael and his ten men got up and killed Gedaliah son of Ahikam with a sword. Gedaliah was the man the king of Babylon had chosen to be governor of Judah. ³ Ishmael also killed all the men of Judah who were with Gedaliah at the town of Mizpah. He also killed the Babylonian soldiers who were there with Gedaliah.

⁴⁻⁵ The day after Gedaliah was murdered, 80 men came to Mizpah. They were bringing grain offerings and incense to the LORD’S Temple. They had shaved off their beards, torn their clothes, and cut themselves.* They came from Shechem, Shiloh, and Samaria. None of these men knew that Gedaliah had been murdered. ⁶ Ishmael left Mizpah and went to meet the 80 men. He cried† while he walked out to meet them. Ishmael met them and said, “Come with me to meet with Gedaliah son of Ahikam.” ⁷⁻⁸ As soon as they were in the city, Ishmael and the men with him began to kill the 80 men and throw them into a deep cistern! But ten of the men said to Ishmael, “Don’t kill us! We have hidden some things in a field. We have wheat and barley and oil and honey.” So Ishmael stopped and didn’t kill them with the others. ⁹ (Ishmael threw the dead bodies into the cistern until it was full, and that cistern was very big! It had been built by a king of Judah named Asa. King Asa had made the cistern so that during war there would be water in the city.‡ Asa did this to protect his city from King Baasha of Israel.)

¹¹ Johanan son of Kareah and all the army officers who were with him heard about all the evil things Ishmael had done. ¹² So Johanan and the army officers with him took their men and went to fight Ishmael son of Nethaniah. They caught Ishmael near the big pool of water that is at the town of Gibeon. ¹³ When the captives that Ishmael had taken saw Johanan and the army officers, they were very happy. ¹⁴ Then all the captives who Ishmael had taken from the town of Mizpah ran to Johanan son of Kareah. ¹⁵ But Ishmael and eight of his men escaped from Johanan and ran away to the Ammonites.

¹⁶ So Johanan son of Kareah and all his army officers rescued the captives. Ishmael had murdered Gedaliah and then he had taken those people from Mizpah. Among the survivors were soldiers, women, children, and court officials. Johanan brought them back from the town of Gibeon.

The Escape to Egypt

¹⁷⁻¹⁸ Johanan and the other army officers were afraid of the Chaldeans. The king of Babylon had chosen Gedaliah to be governor of Judah. But Ishmael murdered Gedaliah, and Johanan was afraid that the Chaldeans would be angry. So they decided to run away to Egypt. On the way to Egypt, they stayed at Geruth Kimham, near the town of Bethlehem.

* 41:4-5 shaved ... cut themselves The men did this to show that they were sad about the destruction of the Lord’s Temple in Jerusalem. † 41:6 He cried Ishmael was acting like he was sad about the destruction of the Temple.

‡ 41:9 King Asa ... city King Asa lived about 300 years before the time of Gedaliah. See 1 Kings 15:22 for the story about Asa building defenses for Mizpah.

¹ While they were at Geruth Kimham, Johanan son of Kareah and Jezaniah son of Hoshaiiah went to Jeremiah the prophet. All the army officers went with Johanan and Jezaniah. All the people, from the least important to the most important, went to Jeremiah. ² They said to him, “Jeremiah, please listen to what we ask. Pray to the LORD your God for all those who are survivors from the family of Judah. Jeremiah, you can see that there are not many of us left. At one time there were many of us. ³ Jeremiah, pray that the LORD your God will tell us where we should go and what we should do.”

⁵ Then the people said to Jeremiah, “If we don’t do everything the LORD your God tells us, then we hope the LORD will be a true and faithful witness against us. We know he will send you to tell us what to do. ⁶ It doesn’t matter if we like the message or if we don’t like the message. We will obey the LORD our God. We are sending you to the Lord for a message from him. We will obey what he says. Then good things will happen to us. Yes, we will obey the LORD our God.”

⁷ At the end of ten days, the message from the LORD came to Jeremiah. ⁸ Then Jeremiah called together Johanan son of Kareah and the army officers who were with him. He also called all the other people together, from the least important to the most important. ⁹ Then Jeremiah said to them, “You sent me to the LORD, the God of Israel, and I asked him what you wanted me to ask. This is what he says: ¹⁰ ‘If you will stay in Judah, I will make you strong—I will not destroy you. I will plant you, and I will not pull you up. I will do this because I am sad about the terrible things that I made happen to you. ¹¹ Now you are afraid of the king of Babylon. But don’t be afraid of him. Don’t be afraid of the king of Babylon,’ says the LORD, ‘because I am with you. I will save you. I will rescue you. He will not get his hands on you. ¹² I will be kind to you, and the king of Babylon will also treat you with mercy. He will bring you back to your land.’ ¹³ But you might say, ‘We will not stay in Judah.’ If you say that, you will disobey the LORD your God. ¹⁴ And you might say, ‘No, we will go and live in Egypt. We will not be bothered with war there. We will not hear the trumpets of war, and in Egypt we will not be hungry.’ ¹⁵ If you say that, listen to this message from the LORD, you survivors from Judah. This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘If you decide to go and live in Egypt, this will happen: ¹⁶ You are afraid of the sword of war, but it will defeat you there. And you are worried about hunger, but you will be hungry in Egypt. You will die there. ¹⁷ Everyone who decides to go live in Egypt will die by war, hunger, or disease. Not one person who goes to Egypt will survive. Not one of them will escape the terrible things that I will bring to them.’

¹⁸ “This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘I showed my anger against Jerusalem. I punished the people who lived there. In the same way I will show my anger against everyone who goes to Egypt. People will use you as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other people. You will become like a curse word. People will be ashamed of you, and they will insult you. And you will never see Judah again.’

¹⁹ “Survivors of Judah, the LORD told you: ‘Don’t go to Egypt.’ I warn you right now, ²⁰ you are making a mistake that will cause your deaths. You sent me to the LORD your God. You said to me, ‘Pray to the LORD our God for us. Tell us everything the LORD our God says to do. We will obey him.’ ²¹ So today I have told you the message from the Lord. But you have not obeyed the LORD your God. You have not done all that he sent me to tell you to do. ²² So now be sure you understand this: You want to go live in Egypt. But these things will happen to you in Egypt: You will die by a sword, or hunger, or terrible sickness.”

¹ So Jeremiah finished telling the people the message from the LORD their God. He told them everything that the LORD their God had sent him to tell them.

² Azariah son of Hoshaiiah, Johanan son of Kareah, and some other men were proud and stubborn. They became angry with Jeremiah. They said to him, “Jeremiah, you are lying! The LORD our God didn’t send you to say to us, ‘You must not go to Egypt to live there.’” ³ Jeremiah, we think that Baruch son of Neriah is encouraging you to be against us. He wants you to give us to the Babylonians. He wants you to do this so they can kill us. Or he wants you to do this so that they can make us captives and take us to Babylon.”

⁸ In the town of Tahpanhes, Jeremiah received this message from the LORD: ⁹ “Jeremiah, get some large stones. Take them and bury them in the clay and brick sidewalk in front of Pharaoh’s official building in Tahpanhes. Do this while the people of Judah are watching you. ¹⁰ Then say to those who are watching you: ‘This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: I will send for King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon to come here. He is my servant, and I will set his throne over these stones I have buried here. Nebuchadnezzar will spread his canopy† above these stones. ¹¹ He will come here and attack Egypt. He will bring death to those who are to die. He will bring captivity to those who are to be taken captive. And he will bring the sword to those who are to be killed with a sword. ¹² Nebuchadnezzar will start a fire in the temples of the false gods of Egypt. He will burn the temples and he will take the idols away. Shepherds pick the bugs and thorns off their clothes to make them clean. In the same way Nebuchadnezzar will pick Egypt clean. Then he will safely leave Egypt. ¹³ He will destroy the memorial stones that are in the temple of the Sun God‡ in Egypt, and he will burn down the temples of the false gods of Egypt.’” streets of Jerusalem. My anger made Jerusalem and the towns of Judah the empty piles of stone they are today.’

The Lord Warns the People of Judah

⁷ “So this is what the LORD God All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘Why are you hurting yourselves by continuing to worship idols? You are separating the men and women, the children and babies from the family of Judah. And so you leave yourselves without anyone left from the family of Judah. ⁸ Why do you people want to make me angry by making idols? Now you are living in Egypt. And now you are making me angry by offering sacrifices to the false gods of Egypt. You will destroy yourselves, and it will be your own fault. The people of all the other nations on the earth will say bad things about you and make fun of you. ⁹ Have you forgotten about the wicked things your ancestors did? And have you forgotten about the wicked things the kings and queens of Judah did? Have you forgotten about the wicked things you and your wives did in Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? ¹⁰ Even to this day the people of Judah have not made themselves humble. They have not shown any respect for me, and they have not followed my teachings. They have not obeyed the laws I gave you and your ancestors.’

¹¹ “So this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says: ‘I have decided to make terrible things happen to you. I will destroy the whole family of Judah. ¹² There were a few survivors from Judah. They came here to Egypt. But I will destroy the few survivors from the family of Judah. They will be killed with swords or die from hunger. The people of other nations will point at them and wish evil for them. People will be shocked and frightened by what has happened to them. The name Judah will become a curse word and an insult. ¹³ I will punish those who have gone to live in Egypt. I will use war, hunger, and disease to punish them. I will punish them just as I punished the city of Jerusalem. ¹⁴ Not one of the few survivors of Judah who have gone to live in Egypt will escape my punishment. None of them will survive to come back to Judah. They want to come back to Judah and live there. But not one of them will go back to Judah, except a few people who escape.’ ”

¹⁵ There were many people from Judah living in southern Egypt. Many of the women from Judah were meeting together in a large group and making sacrifices to other gods, and their husbands knew what they were doing. Those men said to Jeremiah, ¹⁶ “We will not listen to the message from the LORD that you spoke to us. ¹⁷ We promised to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven, and we will do everything we promised. We will offer sacrifices and pour out drink offerings in worship to her. We did that in the past. Our ancestors, our kings, and our officials did that in the past. All of us did those things in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. When we worshiped the Queen of Heaven, we had plenty of food. We were successful. Nothing bad happened to us. ¹⁸ But then we stopped making sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven, and we stopped pouring out drink offerings to her. And we have had problems ever since we stopped worshiping her. Our people have been killed by war and hunger.”

¹⁹ Then the women spoke up* and said to Jeremiah, “Our husbands knew what we were doing. We had their permission to make sacrifices to the Queen of Heaven. We had their permission to pour out drink offerings to her. Our husbands also knew that we were making cakes that looked like her.”

²⁰ Then Jeremiah spoke to all the men and women who told him these things. ²¹ He said, “The LORD remembered that you made sacrifices in the towns of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem. You and your ancestors, your kings, your officials, and the people of the land did that. He remembered what you had done and thought about it. ²² The LORD hated the terrible things you did, and he could not be patient with you any longer. So he made your country an empty desert. No one lives there now. Other people say bad things about that country. ²³ The reason all those bad things happened to you is that you made sacrifices to other gods. You sinned against the LORD. You didn't obey him or follow his teachings or the laws he gave you. You didn't keep your part of the agreement.†”

²⁴ Then Jeremiah spoke to all the men and women. He said, “All you people of Judah who are now in Egypt, listen to this message from the LORD. ²⁵ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says: ‘You women did what you said you would do. You said, “We will keep the promises we made. We promised to make sacrifices and pour out drink offerings to the Queen of Heaven.” So go ahead. Do what you promised you would do. Keep your promises.’ ²⁶ But listen to this message from the LORD, all you people of Judah who are living in Egypt: ‘I, the LORD, use my own great name to make this promise: None of the people of Judah who are now living in Egypt will ever again use my name to make promises. They will never again say, “As surely as the Lord GOD lives” ²⁷ I am watching over the people of Judah, but I am not watching over them to take care of them. I am watching over them to bring them harm. The people of Judah who live in Egypt will die from hunger or be killed in war until they are completely destroyed. ²⁸ Some people of Judah will escape being killed by the sword. They will come back to Judah from Egypt. But only a few people of Judah will escape. Then the survivors of Judah who came to live in Egypt will know whose word proves to be true. They will know whether it was my word or their word that came true. ²⁹ I will give you people proof,’ says the LORD, ‘that I will punish you here in Egypt. Then you will know for sure that my promises to harm you will really happen. ³⁰ This will be your proof that I will do what I say.’ This is what the LORD says: ‘Pharaoh Hophra is the king of Egypt. His enemies want to kill him. I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemies. Just as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah to his enemy Nebuchadnezzar, in the same way I will give Pharaoh Hophra to his enemies.’ ”

A Message to Baruch

¹ In the fourth year that Jehoiakim* son of Josiah was king of Judah, Jeremiah the prophet spoke these things to Baruch son of Neriah. Baruch wrote them on a scroll. This is what Jeremiah said to Baruch: ² “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says to you: ³ ‘Baruch, you have said, “It is very bad for me. The LORD has given me sorrow along with my pain. I am very tired. I am worn out because of my suffering. I cannot find rest.” ⁴ Jeremiah, tell Baruch that this is what the LORD says: I will tear down what I have built, and I will pull up what I have planted. I will do that everywhere in Judah. ⁵ Baruch, you are looking for great things for yourself. Don't look for them, because I will make terrible things happen to all the people.’ This is what the LORD said. ‘You will have to go many places. But I will let you escape alive wherever you go.’ ”

The Lord's Messages About the Nations

¹ These messages about different nations came to Jeremiah the prophet from the LORD.

Messages About Egypt

² This message is about the nation of Egypt. It is about the army of Pharaoh Neco king of Egypt. His army was defeated at the town of Carchemish. Carchemish is on the Euphrates River. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated the army of Pharaoh Neco at Carchemish in the fourth year that Jehoiakim* son of Josiah was king of Judah. The Lord said, ³ “Get your large and small shields ready.

March out for battle.

⁴ Get the horses ready.

Soldiers, get on your horses.

Go to your places for battle.

Put your helmets on.

Sharpen your spears.

Put your armor on.

⁵ What do I see?

That army is afraid.

The soldiers are running away.

Their brave soldiers are defeated.

They run away in a hurry.

They don't look back.

There is danger all around.”

This is what the LORD said.

Strong soldiers cannot escape.

They will all stumble and fall.

This will happen in the north, by the Euphrates River.

⁷ Who is coming like the Nile River?

Who is coming like that strong, fast river?

⁸ It is Egypt that comes like the rising Nile River.

It is Egypt that comes like that strong, fast river.

Egypt says, ‘I will come and cover the earth.

I will destroy the cities and the people in them.’

⁹ Horse soldiers, charge into battle.

Chariot drivers, drive fast.

March on, brave soldiers.

Soldiers from Cush and Put, carry your shields.

Soldiers from Lydia, use your bows.

¹⁰ “But on that day, the Lord GOD All-Powerful will win.

He will give his enemies the punishment they deserve.

His sword will kill until it is finished,

until it has satisfied its thirst for blood.

Yes, the Lord GOD All-Powerful will kill them as a sacrifice in the land of the north by the Euphrates River.

¹¹ “Egypt, go to Gilead and get some medicine.

You will make up many medicines, but they will not help.

You will not be healed.

¹² The nations will hear you crying.

Your cries will be heard all over the earth.

One ‘brave soldier’ will run into another ‘brave soldier.’

And both ‘brave soldiers’ will fall down together.”

¹³ This is the message the LORD spoke to Jeremiah the prophet about Nebuchadnezzar coming to attack Egypt.

* 46:2 the fourth year ... Jehoiakim This was about 605 B.C.

- 14 “Announce this message in Egypt.
Tell it in the city of Migdol.
Tell it in Memphis and Tahpanhes.
‘Get ready for war,
because people all around you are being killed with swords.’
- 15 Egypt, your strong soldiers will be killed.
They will not be able to stand because the LORD will push them down.
- 16 They will stumble again and again.
They will fall over each other.
They will say, ‘Get up; let’s go back to our own people.
Let us go back to our homeland.
Our enemy is defeating us.
We must get away.’
- 17 In their homelands, those soldiers will say, ‘Pharaoh, the king of Egypt, is only a lot of noise.
His time of glory is over.’”
- 18 This message is from the King.
The King is the LORD All-Powerful.
“I promise, as surely as I live, a powerful leader will come.
He will be like Mount Tabor or Mount Carmel among smaller mountains.
- 19 People of Egypt, pack your things.
Get ready for captivity,
because Memphis will be a ruined, empty land.
Those cities will be destroyed,
and no one will live there.
- 20 “Egypt is like a beautiful cow.
But a horsefly[†] is coming from the north[‡] to attack her.
- 21 The hired soldiers in Egypt’s army are like fat calves.
They will all turn and run away.
They will not stand strong against the attack.
Their time of destruction is coming.
They will soon be punished.
- 22 Egypt is like a snake hissing and trying to escape.
The enemy comes closer and closer,
and the Egyptian army is trying to slither away.
The enemy will attack Egypt with axes, like men cutting down trees.”
- 23 This is what the LORD says:
“They will chop down Egypt’s forest.
There are many trees in that forest,
but they will all be cut down.
There are more enemy soldiers than locusts.
There are so many soldiers that no one can count them.
- 24 Egypt will be ashamed.
The enemy from the north will defeat her.”

[†] 46:20 horsefly A large insect that often flies around cows and horses and bites them. [‡] 46:20 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel.

²⁵ The LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says, “Very soon I will punish Amon,[§] the god of Thebes, and I will punish Pharaoh, Egypt, and her gods. I will punish the kings of Egypt, and I will punish the people who depend on Pharaoh. ²⁶ I will let all of them be defeated by their enemies—their enemies want to kill them. I will give the people to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon and his servants.

“Long ago, Egypt lived in peace. And after all these times of trouble, Egypt will live in peace again.” This is what the LORD said.

A Message for Northern Israel

²⁷ “Jacob, my servant, do not be afraid.

Do not be frightened, Israel.

I will save you from those faraway places.

I will save your children from the countries where they are captives.

Jacob will have peace and safety again,
and no one will make him afraid.”

²⁸ This is what the LORD says.

“Jacob, my servant, do not be afraid.

I am with you.

I sent you away to many different places.

But I will not destroy you completely.

But I will destroy all those nations.

You must be punished for the bad things you did.

So I will not let you escape your punishment.

I will discipline you, but I will be fair.”

A Message About the Philistine People

¹ This is the message from the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet about the Philistines. This message came before Pharaoh attacked the city of Gaza.

² This is what the LORD says:

“Look, the enemy is gathering in the north* like rising water.

They will come like a river spilling over its banks.

They will cover the whole country like a flood.

They will cover the towns and the people living in them.

Everyone in the country will cry for help.

Everyone will cry out in pain.

³ They will hear the sound of running horses, the noisy chariots, the rumbling wheels.

Fathers will not be able to protect their children.

They will be too weak to help,

⁴ because the time has come to destroy all the Philistines.

The time has come to destroy Tyre and Sidon’s remaining helpers.

The LORD will destroy the Philistines,

the survivors from the Island of Crete.†

[§] 46:25 Amon For many centuries Amon was the most important god of Egypt. At the time of this prophecy, he was not worshiped as much in northern Egypt. But he was still the most important god in southern Egypt, especially around the old Egyptian capital city of Thebes. ^{*} 47:2 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel. [†] 47:4

Island of Crete Literally, “Island of Caphtor.” Sometimes this means Crete, and sometimes it means Cyprus. The Bible says the Philistines originally came from Caphtor.

- ⁵ The people from Gaza will be sad and shave their heads.
The people from Ashkelon will be silenced.
Survivors from the valley, how long will you cut yourselves?[‡]
- ⁶ “Sword of the LORD, you have not stopped.
How long will you keep fighting?
Go back into your scabbard[§]!
Stop! Be still!
- ⁷ But how can the sword of the Lord rest?
The LORD gave it a command.
He commanded it to attack
the city of Ashkelon and the seacoast.”

A Message About Moab

¹ This message is about the country of Moab. This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:*

- “It will be bad for Mount Nebo.[†]
Mount Nebo will be ruined.
The town of Kiriathaim will be humbled.
It will be captured.
The strong place will be humbled.
It will be shattered.
- ² Moab will not be praised again.
Men in Heshbon will plan Moab’s defeat.
They will say, ‘Come, let us put an end to that nation.’
Madmenah, you will also be silenced.
The sword will chase you.
- ³ Listen to the cries from Horonaim.
They are cries of much confusion and destruction.
- ⁴ Moab will be destroyed.
Her little children will cry for help.
- ⁵ Moab’s people go up the path to Luhith.
They are crying bitterly as they go.
On the road down to the town of Horonaim, cries of pain and suffering can be heard.
- ⁶ Run away! Run for your lives!
Run away like a weed[‡] blowing through the desert.
- ⁷ “You trust in the things you made and in your wealth,
so you will be captured.
The god Chemosh will be taken into captivity,
and his priests and officials will be taken with him.
- ⁸ The Destroyer will come against every town.
Not one town will escape.
The valley will be ruined.
The high plain will be destroyed.

[‡] 47:5 sad ... cut yourselves The people did these things to show their sadness. [§] 47:6 scabbard A holder for a sword. ^{*} 48:1 This message ... says See Isaiah 15 for a similar message. [†] 48:1 Mount Nebo A mountain in Moab, a country east of Israel. [‡] 48:6 weed In Hebrew this word is like the name “Aroer,” an important city in Moab.

The LORD said this would happen,
so it will happen.

⁹ Spread salt over the fields in Moab.

The country will be an empty desert.[§]

Moab's towns will become empty.

No one will live in them.

¹⁰ Bad things will happen to those who don't obey the LORD and don't use their swords to kill those people.

¹¹ "Moab has never known trouble.

Moab is like wine left to settle.

Moab has never been poured from one jar to another.

He has not been taken into captivity.

So he tastes as he did before,
and his smell has not changed."

¹² This is what the LORD says:

"But I will soon send men to pour you from your jars.*

Then they will empty the jars and smash them to pieces."

¹³ Then the people of Moab will be ashamed of their false god, Chemosh. They will be like the people of Israel who trusted that god in Bethel[†] but were ashamed when he did not help them.

¹⁴ "You cannot say, 'We are good soldiers.

We are brave men in battle.'

¹⁵ The enemy will attack Moab.

The enemy will enter its towns and destroy them.

Its best young men will be killed in the slaughter."

This message is from the King.

The King's name is the LORD All-Powerful.

¹⁶ "The end of Moab is near.

Moab will soon be destroyed.

¹⁷ All you who live around Moab should cry for that country.

You know how famous Moab is.

So cry for it.

Say, 'The ruler's power is broken.

Moab's power and glory is gone.'

¹⁸ "You people living in Dibon,[‡]

come down from your place of honor.

Sit on the ground in the dust,

because the Destroyer is coming.

And he will destroy your strong cities.

¹⁹ "You people living in Aroer, stand next to the road and watch.

See the man running away.

[§] 48:9 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. ^{*} 48:12 jars This probably means the cities in Moab. [†] 48:13 in Bethel This means the temple that King Jeroboam built in the town of Bethel (see 1 Kings 12:28-33). It is not clear if this means the people still worshiped the Lord there, but in a wrong way, or if they worshiped a false god, perhaps the Canaanite god El or Baal. [‡] 48:18 Dibon A city in the country of Moab.

See that woman running away.
Ask them what happened.

²⁰ “Moab will be ruined and filled with shame.
Moab will cry and cry.

Announce at the Arnon River[§] that Moab is destroyed.

²¹ People on the high plain have been punished.
Judgment has come to the towns of Holon, Jahzah, and Mephaath.

²² Judgment has come to the towns of Dibon, Nebo, and Beth Diblathaim.

²³ Judgment has come to the towns of Kiriathaim, Beth Gamul, and Beth Meon.

²⁴ Judgment has come to the towns of Kerioth and Bozrah.

Judgment has come to all the towns of Moab, far and near.

²⁵ Moab’s strength has been cut off.
Its arm has been broken.”

This is what the LORD said.

²⁶ “The people of Moab thought they were greater than the LORD.

So punish them until they act like a drunk, falling and rolling around in his vomit.

Then people will make fun of them.

²⁷ “Moab, you made fun of Israel.

Israel was caught by a gang of thieves.

Every time you spoke about Israel,

you shook your head and acted as if you were better than Israel.

²⁸ People in Moab, leave your towns.

Go live among the rocks;

be like a dove that makes its nest
at the opening of a cave.”

²⁹ “We have heard about Moab’s pride.

He was very proud.

He thought he was important.

He was always bragging.

He was very, very proud.”

³⁰ The LORD says, “I know Moab gets angry quickly and brags about himself, but his boasts are lies.

He cannot do what he says.

³¹ So I cry for Moab.

I cry for everyone in Moab.

I cry for the men from Kir Hareseth.

³² I cry with the people of Jazer for Jazer.

Sibmah, in the past your vines spread all the way to the sea.

They reached as far as the town of Jazer.

But the Destroyer has taken your fruit and grapes.

³³ Joy and happiness are gone from the large vineyards of Moab.

[§] 48:20 Arnon River An important river in Moab.

I stopped the flow of wine from the winepresses.
 There is no singing and dancing from people walking on the grapes to make wine.
 There are no shouts of joy.

³⁶ “I am very sad for Moab. My heart cries like the sad sound of a flute playing a funeral song. I am sad for the people from Kir Hareseth. Their money and riches have all been taken away. ³⁷ Everyone has a shaved head. Everyone’s beard is cut off. Everyone’s hands are cut and bleeding.* Everyone is wearing sackcloth around their waists. ³⁸ People are crying for the dead everywhere in Moab—on every housetop and in every public square. There is sadness because I have broken Moab like an empty jar.” This is what the LORD said.

³⁹ “Moab is shattered. The people are crying. Moab surrendered. Now Moab is ashamed. People make fun of Moab, but what happened fills them with fear.”

⁴⁰ The LORD says, “Look! An eagle is diving down from the sky.
 It is spreading its wings over Moab.

⁴¹ The towns of Moab will be captured.
 The strong hiding places will be defeated.
 At that time Moab’s soldiers will be filled with fear,
 like a woman giving birth.

⁴² The nation of Moab will be destroyed, because they thought that they were more important than the LORD.”

⁴³ This is what the LORD says:

“People of Moab, fear, deep holes, and traps[†] wait for you.

⁴⁴ People will be afraid and run away,
 and they will fall into the deep holes.
 Anyone who climbs out of the deep holes will be caught in the traps.

I will bring the year of punishment to Moab.”
 This is what the LORD said.

⁴⁵ “People have run from the powerful enemy.
 They ran to safety in the town of Heshbon.

But a fire started in Heshbon.
 That fire started in Sihon’s town,[‡]
 and it is destroying the leaders of Moab.
 It is destroying those proud people.

⁴⁶ It will be bad for you, Moab.
 Chemosh’s people are being destroyed.
 Your sons and daughters are being taken away
 as prisoners and captives.

⁴⁷ Moab’s people will be taken away as captives.
 But in days to come, I will bring them back.”

* 48:37 Everyone ... cut and bleeding The people did these things to show their sadness for people who had died.

† 48:43 fear, deep holes, and traps This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The Hebrew words are “Pahad, Pahat, and Pah.”

‡ 48:45 Sihon’s town This was Heshbon. See Num. 21:25-30.

This message is from the LORD.

This ends the judgment on Moab.

49

A Message About Ammon

¹ This message is about the Ammonites. This is what the LORD says:

“Ammonites, do you think that the people of Israel don’t have children?
Do you think there are no children to take the land when the parents die?
Maybe that is why Milcom took Gad’s* land?”

² The LORD says, “The time will come in Rabbah of Ammon† when people hear the sounds of battle.
Rabbah of Ammon will be destroyed.
It will be an empty hill covered with ruined buildings, and the towns around it will be burned.
Those people forced the people of Israel to leave their own land.
But later, Israel will force them to leave.”
This is what the LORD said.

³ “People in Heshbon, cry because the town of Ai is destroyed!
Women in Rabbah of Ammon, cry!
Put on sackcloth and cry.
Run to the city for safety,
because the enemy will take away the god Milcom,
with his priests and officials.

⁴ You brag about your strength,
but you are losing your strength.
You trust in your wealth to save you.
You think no one would even think of attacking you.”

⁵ But this is what the Lord GOD All-Powerful says:
“I will bring troubles to you from every side.
You will all run away,
and no one will be able to bring you together again.”

⁶ “The Ammonites will be taken away as captives. But the time will come when I will bring the Ammonites back.” This message is from the LORD.

A Message About Edom

⁷ This message is about Edom. This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

“Is there no more wisdom in Teman?
Are the wise men of Edom not able to give good advice?
Have they lost their wisdom?”

⁸ You people living in Dedan, run away and hide, because I will punish Esau for the bad things he did.

⁹ “Workers pick grapes from grapevines,

* 49:1 Gad’s One of the tribes of Israel. Their land was on the east side of the Jordan River, near the country of Ammon. † 49:2 Rabbah of Ammon The capital city of the Ammonites.

but they leave a few grapes on the plants.
If thieves come at night,
they don't take everything.

¹⁰ But I will take everything from Esau.

I will find all his hiding places.

He will not be able to hide from me.

His children, relatives, and neighbors will all die.

¹¹ No one will be left to care for his children.

His wives will have no one to depend on."

¹² This is what the LORD says: "Some people don't deserve to be punished, but they suffer. But, Edom, you deserve to be punished, so you will really be punished. You will not escape the punishment you deserve. You will be punished." ¹³ The LORD says, "By my own power, I make this promise: I promise that the city of Bozrah will be destroyed. It will become a ruined pile of rocks. People will use it as an example when they ask for bad things to happen to other cities. People will insult that city, and all the towns around Bozrah will become ruins forever."

¹⁴ I heard a message from the LORD:

He sent this messenger to the nations.

This is the message:

"Gather your armies together!

Get ready for battle!

March against the nation of Edom!

¹⁵ Edom, I will make you become unimportant.

Everyone will hate you.

¹⁶ Edom, you made other nations afraid,
so you thought you were important.

But your pride has fooled you.

You live in caves, high on the cliff.

Your home is high in the hills.

But even if you build your home as high as an eagle's nest,

I will bring you down from there."

This is what the LORD said.

¹⁷ "Edom will be destroyed.

People will be shocked to see the destroyed cities.

They will whistle from amazement at the destroyed cities.

¹⁸ Edom will be destroyed like Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns around them.

No one will live there."

This is what the LORD said.

¹⁹ "Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River. And it will go into the fields where people put their sheep and cattle. I am like that lion. I will go to Edom. And I will frighten the people and make them run away. None of their young men will stop me. No one is like me. No one will challenge me. None of their leaders will stand up against me."

²⁰ So listen to what the LORD has planned to do to the people of Edom.

Listen to what he has decided to do to the people in Teman.

The enemy will drag away the young kids of Edom's flock.

Edom's pastures will be empty because of what they did.

²¹ At the sound of Edom's fall, the earth will shake.

Their cry will be heard all the way to the Red Sea.

²² Just as an eagle flies high to see the animal it will attack, so the Lord will spread his wings over Bozrah.
And Edom's soldiers will be filled with fear
like a woman giving birth.

A Message About Damascus

²³ This message is about the city of Damascus:

“The towns of Hamath and Arpad are afraid.
They are afraid because they heard the bad news.
They are discouraged.
They are worried and afraid.

²⁴ The city of Damascus has become weak.
The people want to run away.
They are ready to panic.

They are overcome with fear and pain,
like a woman giving birth.

²⁵ “Damascus is a happy city.
The people have not left that ‘fun city’ yet.

²⁶ So the young men will die in the public squares of that city.
All her soldiers will be killed at that time.”
This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

²⁷ “I will set the walls of Damascus on fire.
The fire will completely burn up the strong forts of Ben-Hadad.‡”

A Message About Kedar and Hazor

²⁸ This message is about the tribe of Kedar and the rulers of Hazor. King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon defeated them. This is what the LORD says:

“Go and attack the tribe of Kedar.
Destroy the people of the East.

²⁹ Their tents and flocks will be taken away.
Their tents and all their riches will be carried off.
Their enemy will take away the camels.

Men will shout this to them:
‘Terrible things are happening all around us.’

³⁰ Run away quickly!
People in Hazor, find a good place to hide.”
This message is from the LORD.

“Nebuchadnezzar has made plans against you.
He thought of a smart plan to defeat you.

³¹ “There is a nation that feels so safe and secure that it does not have gates or fences to protect it.
And no one lives near enough to help them.
So attack that nation!” says the LORD.

³² “Their camels are there to be taken in battle.
Their large herds of cattle will be yours.

I will scatter them throughout the earth—those people who cut their hair short.§

‡ 49:27 Ben-Hadad This was the name of several of the kings of Aram-Damascus. § 49:32 cut their hair short Literally, “cut on the side of their heads,” a custom different from that of Israelite men.

I will bring disaster on them from every direction.”

This message is from the LORD.

³³ “Hazor will become a home for wild dogs, an empty desert forever.

No one will live there.

No one will stay in that place.”

A Message About Elam

³⁴ Early in the time when Zedekiah was king of Judah, Jeremiah the prophet received a message from the LORD about the nation of Elam.*

³⁵ The LORD All-Powerful says,

“I will break Elam’s bow very soon.

It is Elam’s strongest weapon.

³⁶ I will bring the four winds against Elam.

I will bring them from the four corners of the skies.

I will send the people of Elam to every place on the earth where the four winds blow.

Elam’s captives will be carried away to every nation.

³⁷ I will break Elam to pieces while their enemies are watching.

I will break Elam in front of the people who want to kill them.

I will bring terrible troubles to them.

I will show them how angry I am.”

This message is from the LORD.

“I will send a sword to chase Elam.

The sword will chase them until I have killed them all.

³⁸ I will show Elam that I am in control, and I will destroy its king and his officials.”

This message is from the LORD.

³⁹ “But in the future I will make good things happen to Elam.”

This message is from the LORD.

A Message About Babylon

¹ This is the message the LORD spoke through the prophet Jeremiah about Babylon and its people.

² “Announce this to all nations!

Lift up a flag and announce the message!

Speak the whole message and say,

‘The nation of Babylon will be captured.

The god Bel will be put to shame.

The god Marduk will be very afraid.

Babylon’s idols will be put to shame.

Her gods will be filled with terror.’

³ A nation from the north will attack Babylon.

That nation will make Babylon like an empty desert.

No one will live there.

Both men and animals will run away.”

⁴ The LORD says, “At that time the people of Israel and the people of Judah will be together.

They will cry and cry together, and together, they will go look for the LORD their God.

* 49:34 Elam A nation east of Babylon.

- ⁵ They will ask how to go to Zion.
They will start to go in that direction.
They will say, 'Come, let us join ourselves to the LORD.
Let's make an agreement that will last forever.
Let's make an agreement that we will never forget.'
- ⁶ "My people have been like lost sheep.
Their shepherds led them the wrong way and caused them to wander away into the mountains and hills.
They forgot where their resting place was.
- ⁷ They were attacked by all who saw them.
And their attackers said,
'We were not wrong to attack them because they sinned against the LORD.
They should have stayed close to him, their true resting place.
The LORD is the one their fathers trusted in.'
- ⁸ "Run away from Babylon.
Leave the land of the Babylonians.
Be like the goats that lead the flock.
- ⁹ I will bring many nations together from the north.
This group of nations will get ready for war against Babylon.
Babylon will be captured by people from the north.
Those nations will shoot many arrows at Babylon.
Their arrows will be like soldiers who don't come back from war with their hands empty.
- ¹⁰ The enemy will take all the wealth from the Chaldeans.
The soldiers will take all they want."
This is what the LORD said.
- ¹¹ "Babylon, you are excited and happy.
You took my land.
You dance around like a young cow that got into the grain.
Your laughter is like the happy sounds that horses make.
- ¹² Now your mother will be very ashamed.
The woman who gave you birth will be embarrassed.
Babylon will be the least important of all the nations.
She will be an empty, dry desert.
- ¹³ The LORD will show his anger,
so no one will live there.
Babylon will be completely empty.
Everyone who passes by Babylon will be afraid.
They will shake their heads when they see how badly it has been destroyed.
- ¹⁴ "Prepare for war against Babylon.
All you soldiers with bows, shoot your arrows at Babylon.
Don't save any of your arrows.
Babylon has sinned against the LORD.
- ¹⁵ Soldiers around Babylon, shout the cry of victory!
Babylon has surrendered!
Her walls and towers have been pulled down!

The LORD is giving her people the punishment they deserve.

You nations should give Babylon the punishment she deserves.

Do to her what she has done to other nations.

¹⁶ Don't let the people from Babylon plant their crops.

Don't let them gather the harvest.

The soldiers of Babylon brought many prisoners to their city.

Now the enemy soldiers have come,

so the prisoners are going back home.

They are running back to their own countries.

¹⁷ "Israel is like a flock of sheep that was scattered all over the country.

Israel is like sheep that were chased away by lions.

The first lion to attack was the king of Assyria.

The last lion to crush Israel's bones was King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon.

¹⁸ So this is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, says:

'I will soon punish the king of Babylon and his country as I punished the king of Assyria.

¹⁹ " 'I will bring Israel back to his own fields.

He will eat food that grows on Mount Carmel and in the land of Bashan.

He will eat and be full.

He will eat on the hills in the lands of Ephraim and Gilead.' "

²⁰ The LORD says, "At that time people will try hard to find Israel's guilt, but there will be no guilt.

People will try to find Judah's sins,

but no sins will be found.

That is because I am saving a few survivors from Israel and Judah.

And I am forgiving them for all their sins."

²¹ The LORD says, "Attack the country of Merathaim!

Attack the people living in Pekod!

Attack them!

Kill them and destroy them completely!

Do everything I commanded you!

²² "The noise of battle can be heard all over the country.

It is the noise of much destruction.

²³ Babylon was called

'The Hammer of the Whole Earth.'

But now the 'Hammer' is shattered.

Babylon is the most ruined of the nations.

²⁴ Babylon, I set a trap for you, and you were caught before you knew it.

You fought against the LORD,

so you were found and captured.

²⁵ The LORD has opened up his storeroom and brought out the weapons of his anger.

The Lord GOD All-Powerful brought out those weapons, because he has work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.

²⁶ "Come against Babylon from far away.

Break open the storehouses where she keeps her grain.

Destroy Babylon completely.

- Don't leave anyone alive.
Pile up her dead bodies like big piles of grain.
- ²⁷ Kill all the young men in Babylon.
Let them be slaughtered like bulls.
How terrible for them that their day of defeat has come!
It is time for them to be punished.
- ²⁸ People are running out of Babylon.
They are escaping from that country and coming to Zion.
They are telling everyone the good news about what the Lord is doing.
The LORD our God is giving Babylon the punishment it deserves.
The Lord is destroying Babylon, because it destroyed his Temple!
- ²⁹ "Call for the archers.
Tell them to attack Babylon.
Tell them to surround the city.
Don't let anyone escape.
Pay her back for the bad things she has done.
Do to her what she has done to other nations.
Babylon did not respect the LORD.
Babylon was very rude to the Holy One of Israel.
So punish Babylon.
- ³⁰ Babylon's young men will be killed in the streets.
All her soldiers will die on that day."
This is what the LORD says.
- ³¹ "Babylon, you are too proud, and I am against you,"
says the Lord GOD All-Powerful.
"I am against you,
and the time has come for you to be punished.
- ³² Proud Babylon will stumble and fall,
and no one will help her get up.
I will start a fire in her towns.
That fire will completely burn up everyone around her."
- ³³ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
"The people of Israel and Judah are slaves.
The enemy took them, and the enemy will not let Israel go.
- ³⁴ But God will get them back.
His name is the LORD God All-Powerful.
He will defend them very strongly.
He will argue their case so that he can let their land rest.
But there will be no rest for those living in Babylon."
- ³⁵ The LORD says,
"Sword, kill the people living in Babylon.
Sword, kill the king's officials and the wise men of Babylon.
- ³⁶ Sword, kill the priests of Babylon.
They will be like fools.
Sword, kill the soldiers of Babylon.
They will be full of fear.
- ³⁷ Sword, kill the horses and chariots of Babylon.

Sword, kill all the soldiers hired from other countries.
They will be like frightened women.
Sword, destroy the treasures of Babylon.
Those treasures will be taken away.
³⁸ Sword, strike the waters of Babylon.
Those waters will be dried up.
Babylon has many, many idols.
These idols show that the people of Babylon are foolish.
So bad things will happen to them.
³⁹ Babylon will never again be filled with people.
Wild dogs, ostriches, and other desert animals will live there.
But no one will live there ever again.
⁴⁰ God completely destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah and the towns around them.
In the same way no one will live in Babylon, and no one will ever go to live there.”
This is what the LORD says.

⁴¹ “Look! There are people coming from the north.
They come from a powerful nation.
Many kings are coming together from all around the world.
⁴² Their armies have bows and spears.
The soldiers are cruel.
They have no mercy.
The soldiers come riding on their horses;
the sound is as loud as the roaring sea.
They stand in their places, ready for battle.
They are ready to attack you, city of Babylon.
⁴³ The king of Babylon heard about those armies, and he is paralyzed with fear.
He is overcome with fear and pain,
like a woman giving birth.

⁴⁴ “Sometimes a lion will come from the thick bushes near the Jordan River.
It will walk into the fields where people have their animals.
I will be like that lion;
I will chase Babylon from its land.
Who should I choose to do this?
There is no one like me.
There is no one who can challenge me.
No shepherd will come to chase me away.
I will chase away the Babylonians.”

⁴⁵ Listen to what the LORD has planned to do to Babylon.
Listen to what he has decided to do to the Babylonians.
“I promise that an enemy will drag away the young kids of Babylon’s flock, and Babylon will become an empty pasture.
⁴⁶ Babylon will fall,
and that fall will shake the earth.
People in all nations will hear about the destruction of Babylon.”

51

- ¹ The LORD says,
 “I will cause a powerful, destructive wind to blow against Babylon and the Babylonians.*
- ² I will send foreigners to winnow[†] Babylon, and they will take everything from the city.
 Armies will surround the city,
 and there will be terrible destruction.
- ³ The Babylonian soldiers will not get to use their bows and arrows.
 They will not even put on their armor.
 Don’t feel sorry for the soldiers of Babylon.
 Destroy her army completely!
- ⁴ Babylon’s soldiers will be killed in the land of the Chaldeans.
 They will be badly wounded in the streets of Babylon.”
- ⁵ The LORD All-Powerful did not leave Israel and Judah alone, like a widow.
 No, they are guilty of leaving the Holy One of Israel.
 Their God did not leave them.
 They left him!
- ⁶ Run away from Babylon.
 Run to save your lives!
 Don’t stay and be killed because of Babylon’s sins!
 It is time for the LORD to punish the Babylonians for the bad things they have done.
 Babylon will get the punishment that she should have.
- ⁷ Babylon was like a golden cup in the LORD’S hand.
 Babylon made the whole world drunk.
 The nations drank Babylon’s wine,
 so they went crazy.
- ⁸ But Babylon will suddenly fall and be broken.
 Cry for her!
 Get medicine for her pain,
 and maybe she can be healed.
- ⁹ We tried to heal Babylon,
 but she cannot be healed.
 So let us leave her,
 and let each of us go to our own country.
 God in heaven will decide Babylon’s punishment.
 He will decide what will happen to Babylon.
- ¹⁰ The LORD got even for us.
 Come, let’s tell about that in Zion.
 Let’s tell what the LORD our God has done.
- ¹¹ Sharpen the arrows!
 Get your shields!
 The LORD has stirred up the kings of the Medes because he wants to destroy Babylon.

* 51:1 Babylonians Literally, “Leb Kammai.” In Hebrew this was a secret way of writing “Chaldeans.” † 51:2 winnow To separate grain from the hulls around it. Farmers threw the grain with the hulls into the air. The wind blew the hulls away and left the good grain.

The army from Babylon destroyed his Temple in Jerusalem, so he will give them the punishment they deserve.

¹² Lift up a flag against the walls of Babylon.
Bring more guards.

Put the watchmen in their places.
Get ready for a secret attack.

The LORD will do what he has planned.

He will do what he said he would do against the people of Babylon.

¹³ Babylon, you live near much water.

You are rich with treasures, but your end as a nation has come.
It is time for you to be destroyed.

¹⁴ The LORD All-Powerful used his name to make this promise:

“Babylon, I will fill you with so many enemy soldiers they will be like a cloud of locusts.
They will win their war against you.
They will stand over you shouting their victory cry.”

¹⁵ God used his great power and made the earth.

He used his wisdom to build the world and his understanding to stretch out the skies.

¹⁶ When he thunders, the waters in the skies roar.
He sends clouds all over the earth.

He sends lightning with the rain.

He brings out the wind from his storehouses.

¹⁷ But people are so stupid.

They don't understand what God has done.

Skilled workers make statues of false gods.

Those statues are only false gods.

They show how foolish those workers are.

Those statues are not alive.

¹⁸ Those idols are worthless.

People made them, and they are nothing but a joke.

Their time of judgment will come,
and those idols will be destroyed.

¹⁹ But God, who is Jacob's Portion, is not like those worthless statues.

People didn't make God;

God made his people.

He made everything.

His name is the LORD All-Powerful.

²⁰ The Lord says, “Babylon, you are my club.

I used you to smash nations.

I used you to destroy kingdoms.

²¹ I used you to smash horse and rider.

I used you to smash chariot and driver.

²² I used you to smash men and women.

I used you to smash men, old and young.

I used you to smash young men and young women.

²³ I used you to smash shepherds and flocks.

I used you to smash farmers and oxen.

I used you to smash governors and important officials.

²⁴ But I will repay Babylonia and all the Babylonians for all the evil things they did to Zion.

I will pay them back so that you can see it, Judah.”

This is what the LORD said.

²⁵ The LORD says,

“Babylon, you are like a volcano that destroys the whole country.

But I have turned against you, and I will turn you into a burned-out mountain.

²⁶ People will not take stones from Babylon to use as the foundation of a building.
That is because they will not find any stones big enough for cornerstones.

Your city will be a pile of broken rocks forever.”

This is what the LORD said.

²⁷ “Lift up the war flag in the land!

Blow the trumpet in all the nations!

Prepare the nations for war against Babylon.

Call these kingdoms to come fight against Babylon:

Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz.

Choose a commander to lead the army against her.

Send so many horses that they are like a swarm of locusts.

²⁸ Get the nations ready for battle against her.

Get the kings of the Medes ready.

Get their governors and all their important officials ready.

Get all the countries they rule ready for battle against Babylon.

²⁹ The land shakes and moves as if it is in pain.

It will shake when the LORD does to Babylon what he plans—to make the land of Babylon an empty desert,
a place where no one will live.

³⁰ Babylon’s soldiers have stopped fighting.

They stay in their forts.

Their strength is gone.

They have become like frightened women.

Babylon’s houses are burning.

The bars of her gates are broken.

³¹ One messenger follows another.

Messenger follows messenger.

They announce to the king of Babylon that his whole city has been captured.

³² The places where people cross the rivers have been captured.

The swamplands are burning.

All of Babylon’s soldiers are afraid.”

³³ This is what the LORD All-Powerful, the God of the people of Israel, says:

“Babylon is like a threshing floor,
where people beat the grain at harvest time.
And the time to beat Babylon is coming soon.

³⁴ “King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon destroyed us in the past.

In the past he hurt us.

In the past he took our people away,
and we became like an empty jar.

He took the best we had.

He was like a giant monster that ate everything until it was full.

He took the best we had

and then threw us away.

³⁵ Babylon did terrible things to hurt us.
Now I want those things to happen to Babylon.”

The people living in Zion said,
“The people of Babylon are guilty of killing our people.
Now they are being punished for the bad things they did.”
The city of Jerusalem said those things.

³⁶ So this is what the LORD says:
“I will defend you, Judah.
I will make sure that Babylon is punished.

I will dry up Babylon’s sea.
And I will make her water springs become dry.

³⁷ Babylon will become a pile of ruined buildings,
a place fit only for wild dogs.
People will be shocked and shake their heads at what is left there.
It will be a place where no one lives.

³⁸ “The people of Babylon are like roaring young lions.
They growl like baby lions.

³⁹ They are acting like powerful lions.
I will give a party for them.
I will make them drunk.
They will laugh and have a good time,
and then they will sleep forever.
They will never wake up.”

This is what the LORD said.

⁴⁰ “Babylon will be like sheep, rams, and goats waiting to be killed.
I will lead them to the slaughter.

⁴¹ “Sheshach[‡] will be defeated.
The best and proudest country of the whole earth will be taken captive.
People from other nations will look at Babylon, and what they see will make them afraid.

⁴² The sea will rise over Babylon.
Its roaring waves will cover her.

⁴³ Babylon will be like a dry, desert land.
Its cities will be empty ruins.

No one will live in those cities.
No one will even travel through them.

⁴⁴ I will punish the false god Bel in Babylon.
I will make him vomit out the people he swallowed.
The wall around Babylon will fall,
and other nations will stop coming to Babylon.

⁴⁵ Come out of the city of Babylon, my people.
Run to save your lives.
Run from the LORD’S great anger.

⁴⁶ “Don’t be sad, my people.
Rumors will spread, but don’t be afraid.

[‡] 51:41 Sheshach Jeremiah used a special code to create this secret name for Babylon.

One rumor comes this year.

Another rumor will come next year.

There will be rumors about terrible fighting in the country.

There will be rumors about rulers fighting against other rulers.

⁴⁷ The time will surely come when I will punish the false gods of Babylon, and the whole land of Babylon will be put to shame.

There will be many dead people, lying in the streets of that city.

⁴⁸ Then heaven and earth and all that is in them will shout with joy about Babylon.

They will shout because an army came from the north and fought against Babylon.”

This is what the LORD said.

⁴⁹ “Babylon killed people from Israel.
Babylon killed people from every place on earth.
So Babylon must fall!

⁵⁰ You people escaped the swords.
You must hurry and leave Babylon.
Don’t wait!

You are in a faraway land,
but remember the LORD where you are and remember Jerusalem.”

⁵¹ “We people of Judah are ashamed.
We have been insulted, because strangers have gone into the holy places of the LORD’S Temple.”

⁵² The LORD says, “The time is coming,
when I will punish the idols of Babylon.
At that time wounded people will cry with pain everywhere in that country.

⁵³ Babylon might grow until she touches the sky.
Babylon might make her forts strong,
but I will send people to fight against that city.
And they will destroy her.”

This is what the LORD said.

⁵⁴ “We can hear people crying in Babylon.
We hear the sound of people destroying things in the land of Babylon.

⁵⁵ The LORD will destroy Babylon very soon.
He will stop the loud noises in that city.
Enemies will come roaring in like ocean waves.
People all around will hear that roar.

⁵⁶ The army will come and destroy Babylon.
Its soldiers will be captured, and their bows will be broken,
This will happen because the LORD punishes people for the bad things they do.
He gives them the full punishment they deserve.

⁵⁷ I will make Babylon’s wise men and important officials drunk.
I will make the governors, officers,
and soldiers drunk too.
Then they will sleep forever.

They will never wake up.”
 This is what the King said.
 His name is the LORD All-Powerful.

⁵⁸ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says:
 “Babylon’s thick, strong wall will be pulled down.
 Her high gates will be burned.
 The people of Babylon will work hard,
 but it will not help.
 They will get very tired trying to save the city.
 But they will only be fuel for the flames.”

Jeremiah Sends a Message to Babylon

⁵⁹ This is the message that Jeremiah gave to the officer Seraiah[§] son of Neriah. Neriah was the son of Mahseiah. Seraiah went to Babylon with King Zedekiah of Judah. This happened in the fourth year that Zedekiah* was king of Judah. At that time Jeremiah gave this message to Seraiah, the officer. ⁶⁰ Jeremiah had written on a scroll all the terrible things that would happen to Babylon. He had written all these things about Babylon.

⁶¹ Jeremiah said to Seraiah, “Seraiah, go to Babylon. Be sure to read this message so that all the people can hear you. ⁶² Then say, ‘LORD, you have said that you will destroy this place, Babylon. You will destroy it so that no people or animals will live in it. This place will be an empty ruin forever.’ ⁶³ After you finish reading this scroll, tie a stone to it and throw it into the Euphrates River. ⁶⁴ Then say, ‘In the same way Babylon will sink. Babylon will rise no more. It will sink because of the terrible things that I will make happen here.’ ”

The words of Jeremiah end here.

The Fall of Jerusalem

¹ Zedekiah was 21 years old when he became king of Judah. He ruled in Jerusalem for eleven years. His mother’s name was Hamutal daughter of Jeremiah.* Hamutal’s family was from the town of Libnah. ² Zedekiah did evil things, just as King Jehoiakim had done. The LORD did not like Zedekiah doing those evil things. ³ Terrible things happened to the people of Jerusalem and Judah because the LORD was angry with them. Finally, he threw them out of his presence.

Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. ⁴ So in the ninth year of Zedekiah’s rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month,[†] King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon marched against Jerusalem with his whole army. The army of Babylon set up their camp outside of Jerusalem. Then they built ramps all around the city walls so that they could get over the walls. ⁵ The city of Jerusalem was surrounded by the army of Babylon until the eleventh year that Zedekiah‡ was king. ⁶ By the ninth day of the fourth month of that year, the hunger in the city was very bad. There was no food left for the people in the city to eat. ⁷ On that day the army of Babylon broke into Jerusalem. The soldiers of Jerusalem ran away. They left the city at night. They went through the gate between the two walls. That gate was near the king’s garden. Even though the army of Babylon had surrounded the city, the soldiers of Jerusalem still ran away toward the desert.

§ 51:59 Seraiah Seraiah was a brother of Baruch, Jeremiah’s secretary. * 51:59 the fourth year ... Zedekiah That is, 594–593 B.C. † 52:1 Jeremiah This is not the prophet Jeremiah, but a different man with the same name. ‡ 52:4 ninth year ... tenth month That is, January of 588 B.C. † 52:5 the eleventh year ... Zedekiah That is, 587 B.C.

¹⁷ The Babylonian army broke up the bronze columns of the LORD'S Temple. They also broke up the stands and the bronze tank[†] that were in the LORD'S Temple. They carried all that bronze to Babylon. ¹⁸ The army of Babylon also took these things from the Temple: pots, shovels, lamp snuffers, large bowls, pans, and all the bronze things that were used in the Temple service. ¹⁹ The commander of the king's special guards took these things away: basins, firepans, large bowls, pots, lampstands, pans, and bowls used for drink offerings. He took everything that was made of gold or silver. ²⁰ The two pillars, the Sea and the twelve bronze bulls under it, and the moveable stands were very heavy. King Solomon had made those things for the LORD'S Temple. The bronze that those things were made of was so heavy it could not be weighed.

²⁴ The commander of the king's special guards took Seraiah the high priest and Zephaniah the next highest priest as prisoners. The three doorkeepers were also taken as prisoners. ²⁵ The commander of the king's special guards also took the officer in charge of the fighting men. He also took seven of the king's advisors as prisoners. They were still there in Jerusalem. He also took the scribe who was in charge of putting people in the army. And he took 60 of the ordinary people who were there in the city. ²⁶⁻²⁷ Nebuzaradan, the commander, took all these officials and brought them to the king of Babylon. The king of Babylon was at the city of Riblah. Riblah is in the country of Hamath. There at the city of Riblah, the king ordered all of them to be killed.

§ 52:12 the 19th year ... Nebuchadnezzar That is, 587 B.C. * 52:15 the people ... Jerusalem This is from the ancient Greek version. The phrase, "some of the poorest people," which appears in the standard Hebrew text, seems to have been accidentally copied from the next verse. † 52:17 bronze columns ... tank These verses list the things that the Babylonian army took away from the Lord's Temple. For a description of the Temple furniture, see 1 Kings 7:13-26. ‡ 52:21 31 feet Literally, "18 cubits" (9.33 m). § 52:21 21 feet Literally, "12 cubits" (6.22 m). * 52:21 3 inches Literally, "4 fingers" (7.4 cm). † 52:22 5 feet Or "1.63 m." Literally, "5 cubits" which would be 8' 6" (2.6 m), but see 2 Kings 25:17.

So the people of Judah were taken from their country. ²⁸ This is how many people Nebuchadnezzar carried into captivity:

In Nebuchadnezzar's 7th year[‡] as king of Babylon, 3023 people were taken from Judah.

²⁹ In Nebuchadnezzar's 18th year[§] as king of Babylon, 832 people were taken from Jerusalem.

³⁰ In Nebuchadnezzar's 23rd year* as king, Nebuzaradan took 745 people of Judah into captivity. Nebuzaradan was the commander of the king's special guards.

In all, 4600 people were taken captive.

Jehoiachin Is Set Free

³¹ King Jehoiachin of Judah was in prison in Babylon for 37 years. In the 37th year of his imprisonment,[†] King Evil Merodach of Babylon was very kind to Jehoiachin. He let Jehoiachin out of prison in that year. This was the same year that Evil Merodach became king of Babylon. He set Jehoiachin free from prison on the 25th day of the 12th month.

³² Evil Merodach spoke kindly to Jehoiachin. He gave Jehoiachin a place of honor higher than the other kings who were with him in Babylon. ³³ So Jehoiachin took his prison clothes off. For the rest of his life, he ate regularly at the king's table. ³⁴ Every day the king of Babylon paid Jehoiachin enough to take care of his needs until the day Jehoiachin died.

Lamentations

Jerusalem Cries Over Her Destruction

- ¹ Jerusalem once was a city full of people, but now the city is so empty.
She* was one of the greatest cities in the world,
but now she is like a poor widow.
She was once a princess among cities,
but now she has been made a slave.
- ² She cries bitterly in the night.
Her tears are on her cheeks.
She has no one to comfort her.
Many nations were friendly to her,
but not one of them comforts her now.
All her friends have turned their backs on her and have become her enemies.
- ³ Judah suffered very much,
and then she was taken into captivity.
She lives among other nations
but has found no rest.
The people who chased her caught her where there was no way out.†
- ⁴ The roads to Zion are very sad, because no one comes to Zion for the festivals anymore.
All of Zion's gates have been destroyed;
all her priests groan in sorrow.
Zion's young women have been taken away,‡ and all this made Zion sad.
- ⁵ Jerusalem's enemies have won.
Her enemies have been successful.
This happened because the LORD punished her.
He punished Jerusalem for her many sins.
Her children have gone away.
Their enemies captured them and took them away.
- ⁶ The beauty of Daughter Zion§ has gone away.
Her princes were like deer that cannot find a meadow to feed in.
They walk away without strength from those who chased them.
- ⁷ Jerusalem thinks back.
She remembers the time when she was hurt and when she lost her home.
She remembers all the nice things that she had in the past.
She remembers those nice things that she had in the old days.
She remembers when her people were captured by the enemy.
She remembers when there was no one to help her.
When her enemies saw her, they laughed,
because she was destroyed.
- ⁸ Jerusalem sinned very badly.
Because Jerusalem sinned,

* 1:1 She Throughout this poem, Jerusalem is represented as a woman. † 1:3 where ... way out Or "in the narrow valleys." ‡ 1:4 have been taken away This is from the ancient Greek version. The standard Hebrew text has "are upset." § 1:6 Daughter Zion Another name for Jerusalem. Also in 2:1, 8, 13, 18.

she became a ruined city that people shake their heads about.
In the past people respected her.
But now they hate her,
because they abused her.
Jerusalem groaned and turned away.
9 Jerusalem's skirts were dirty.
She gave no thought to what would become of her.
Her fall was amazing.
She had no one to comfort her.
She says, "LORD, see how I am hurt!
See how my enemy thinks he is so great!"

10 The enemy stretched out his hand.
He took all her nice things.
In fact, she saw the foreign nations go inside her Temple.
And you said those people could not join in our assembly!
11 All the people of Jerusalem are groaning.
All of her people are looking for food.
They are giving away all their nice things for food to stay alive.
Jerusalem says, "Look, LORD. Look at me!
See how people hate me.
12 All you who pass by on the road, you don't seem to care.
But look at me and see.
Is there any pain like my pain?
Is there any pain like the pain that has come to me?
Is there any pain like the pain that the LORD has punished me with?
He has punished me on the day of his great anger.
13 The Lord sent fire from above that went down into my bones.
He stretched out a net for my feet.
He turned me all the way around.
He made me into a wasteland.
I am sick all day.

14 "My sins were tied up like a yoke.
My sins were tied up in the Lord's hands.
His yoke is on my neck.
He has made me weak.
He has given me to those who I cannot stand up against.
15 "The Lord rejected all my powerful men who were inside the city.
Then he brought a group of people against me.
He brought them to kill my young soldiers.
The Lord has trampled his dearest city* like grapes in a winepress.

16 "I cry about all these things.
Tears are flowing down my cheeks.
There is no one near to comfort me.

* 1:15 dearest city Literally, "virgin daughter Judah," a name for the city of Jerusalem.

There is no one who can make me feel better.
My children are like a wasteland, because the enemy won.”

¹⁷ Zion spread out her hands.

There was no one to comfort her.
The LORD had given orders to Jacob’s enemies.
He ordered them to surround the city.
Jerusalem has become a dirty rag that her enemies threw away.

¹⁸ Now Jerusalem says, “I refused to listen to the LORD, so he is right for doing these things.

So listen, all you people!

Look at my pain!

My young women and men have gone into captivity.

¹⁹ I called out to my lovers,
but they tricked me.

My priests and my elders have died in the city.

They were looking for food for themselves.

They wanted to keep themselves alive.

²⁰ “Look at me, LORD. I am in distress!

I am upset, as if my heart turned upside down inside of me.

I feel this way because

I have been so stubborn.

Out in the streets,

I lost my children to the swords.

Inside, it is like death.

²¹ “Listen to me, I am groaning.

I have no one to comfort me.

All my enemies have heard of my trouble.

They are happy that you did this to me.

You said there would be a time of punishment.

You said you would punish my enemies.

Now do what you said.

Let my enemies be like I am now.

²² “Look how evil my enemies are!

Then you can treat them the same way you treated me because of all my sins.

Do this because I am groaning again and again.

Do this because my heart is sick.”

The Lord Destroyed Jerusalem

¹ Look how the Lord has covered daughter Zion*

* 2:1 daughter Zion The city of Jerusalem pictured as a young woman. Similar language is used in verses 8, 13, 15, and 18. See “Zion” in the Word List.

with the cloud of his anger.
 He has thrown her, the glory of Israel,
 from the sky to the ground.
 In his anger he showed no care even for the Temple where he rests his feet.[†]
² The Lord destroyed the houses of Jacob.
 He destroyed them without mercy.
 In his anger he destroyed the fortresses of Daughter Judah.
 He threw the kingdom of Judah and its rulers to the ground.
 He ruined the kingdom of Judah.
³ He was angry, and he destroyed
 all the strength of Israel.
 He took away his right hand from Israel.
 He did this when the enemy came.
 He burned like a flaming fire in Jacob.
 He was like a fire that burns all around.
⁴ He bent his bow like an enemy.
 He held his sword in his right hand.
 He killed all the good-looking men of Judah.
 He killed them as if they were the enemy.
 He poured out his anger
 like a fire on the tents of Zion.
⁵ The Lord has become like an enemy.
 He has swallowed up Israel.
 He has swallowed up all her palaces and all her fortresses.
 He has made much sadness and crying for the dead in Daughter Judah.
⁶ He pulled up his own tent[‡]
 as if it were a garden.
 He has ruined the place where the people came together to worship him.
 The LORD has made people forget the special assemblies and special days of rest[§] in Zion.
 He rejected the king and the priests.
 He was angry and rejected them.
⁷ He rejected his altar,
 and he left his holy place of worship.
 He let the enemy pull down the walls of the palaces of Jerusalem.
 The enemy shouted with joy in the LORD'S Temple.
 They made noise as though it were a festival.
⁸ The LORD planned to destroy the wall of Daughter Zion.
 He marked the wall with a measuring line.
 He didn't stop himself from destroying it.
 He made all the walls cry out in sadness.

[†] 2:1 Temple ... feet Literally, "the footstool of his feet," meaning the place God lived among his people. [‡] 2:6 his own tent This is a reference to the Temple in Jerusalem. [§] 2:6 special days of rest Or "Sabbaths." This might mean Saturday (see "Sabbath" in the Word List) or all the special days when the people were not supposed to work.

Together they wasted away.

⁹ Jerusalem's gates have sunk into the ground.
The bars on her gates are completely destroyed.
Her king and princes have been taken to other nations.
The teaching of the law has stopped.
And her prophets no longer receive visions from the LORD.

¹⁰ The elders of Zion sit on the ground.
They sit on the ground and are quiet.
They pour dust on their heads.
They put on sackcloth.
The young women of Jerusalem
bow their heads to the ground in sorrow.

¹¹ My eyes are worn out with tears,
and my insides are upset.
My heart feels like it has been poured on the ground;
I feel this way because of the destruction of my people.
Children and babies are fainting in the public squares of the city.

¹² They ask their mothers,
"Where is the bread and wine?"
as they pour out their life in their mother's laps.

¹³ My dear Jerusalem, what can I say about you?
What can I compare you to?
What can I say you are like?
How can I comfort you, city of Zion?
You have been hurt much too badly for anyone to heal.

¹⁴ Your prophets saw visions for you,
but their visions were only worthless lies.
They didn't speak against your sins.
They didn't try to make things better.
They spoke messages for you,
but they were false messages that fooled you.

¹⁵ Those who pass by on the road
clap their hands and laugh at you.
They make fun of Jerusalem,
shaking their heads at the sight of her.
They ask, "Is this the city that people called 'The Most Beautiful City' and 'The Joy of all the Earth'?"

¹⁶ All your enemies laugh at you.
They whistle and grind their teeth at you.
They say, "We have swallowed them up!
This is the day we were hoping for.
We have finally seen this happen!"

17 The LORD did what he planned to do.
 He did what he said he would do.
 He did what he commanded a long time ago.
 He destroyed, and he had no pity.
 He made your enemies happy because of what happened to you.
 He made your enemies strong.

18 Cry out with all your heart* to the Lord!
 Jerusalem, let tears roll down your walls.
 Let your tears flow like a stream day and night.
 Don't stop crying
 or let your eyes dry.

19 Get up throughout the night and cry for help.
 Let your sorrow pour out before the Lord like water.
 Lift up your hands in prayer to him.
 Ask him to let your children live.
 They are starving to death on every street corner.

20 Look at us, LORD!
 Have you ever treated anyone else so badly?
 Is it right for women to eat their own babies,
 the children they have cared for?
 Should priests and prophets be killed in the Temple of the Lord?

21 Young men and old men lie on the ground in the streets of the city.
 My young women and young men have been killed by the sword.
 You killed them on the day of your anger.
 You killed them without mercy!

22 You invited terror to come to me from all around.
 You invited terror as though you were inviting it to a festival.
 No one escaped on the day of the LORD'S anger.
 My enemy killed the people who I raised and brought up.

The Meaning of Suffering

1 I am a man who has seen much trouble.
 God beat us with a stick, and I saw it happen.
 2 He led and brought me into darkness, not light.
 3 He turned his hand against me.
 He did this again and again, all day.
 4 He wore out my flesh and skin.
 He broke my bones.
 5 He built up bitterness and trouble against me.
 He surrounded me with bitterness and trouble.
 6 He put me in the dark,

* 2:18 Cry out ... heart Or "Their hearts cried out."

- like someone who died long ago.
7 He shut me in, so I could not get out.
He put heavy chains on me.
8 Even when I cry out and ask for help,
he does not listen to my prayer.
9 He has blocked up my path with stones.
He has made my path crooked.
10 He is like a bear about to attack me,
like a lion that is in a hiding place.
11 He led me off my path.
He tore me to pieces and ruined me.
12 He made his bow ready.
He made me the target for his arrows.
13 He shot me in the stomach with his arrows.
14 I have become a joke to all my people.
All day long they sing songs about me and make fun of me.
15 He gave me this poison to drink.
He filled me with this bitter drink.
16 He pushed my teeth into rocky ground.
He pushed me into the dirt.
17 I thought I would never have peace again.
I forgot about good things.
18 I said to myself, "I no longer have any hope that the LORD will help me."
19 Remember, I am very sad, and I have no home.
Remember the bitter poison that you gave me.
20 I remember well all my troubles,
and I am very sad.
21 But then I think about this,
and I have hope:
22 We are still alive because the LORD'S faithful love never ends.
23 Every morning he shows it in new ways!
You are so very true and loyal!
24 I say to myself, "The LORD is my God, and I trust him."*
- 25 The LORD is good to those who wait for him.
He is good to those who look for him.
26 It is good to wait quietly for the LORD to save them.
27 It is good for a man to wear his yoke from the time he is young.
28 He should sit alone and be quiet
when the Lord puts his yoke on him.
29 He should bow down to the Lord.
Maybe there is still hope.
30 He should turn his cheek to the one who hits him and let people insult him.
31 He should remember that

* 3:24 The LORD ... him Or "The LORD is my portion and I trust him."

- the Lord does not reject people forever.
32 When he punishes, he also has mercy.
He has mercy because of his great love and kindness.
- 33 He does not enjoy causing people pain.
He does not like to make anyone unhappy.
- 34 He does not like any prisoner on earth to be trampled down.
- 35 He does not like anyone to be unfair to another person.
Some people will do such things right in front of God Most High.
- 36 The Lord does not like anyone to cheat another person.
He does not like any of these things.
- 37 No one can say something and make it happen,
unless the Lord orders it.
- 38 God Most High commands
both good and bad things to happen.
- 39 No one alive can complain
when he punishes them for their sins.
- 40 Let us check and see what we have done.
Then let us turn back to the LORD.
- 41 Let us lift up our hearts and our hands to the God of heaven.
- 42 Let us say to him, "We have sinned and have been stubborn.
Because of this, you have not forgiven us.
- 43 You wrapped yourself with anger.
You chased us.
You killed us without mercy!
- 44 You wrapped yourself in a cloud so that no prayer could get through.
- 45 You made us like garbage and dirt to the other nations.
- 46 All of our enemies
speak angrily against us.
- 47 We have been frightened.
We have fallen into a pit.
We have been badly hurt.
We have been broken."
- 48 My eyes flow with streams of tears.
I cry because of the destruction of my people.
- 49 My eyes will flow without stopping.
I will keep on crying.
- 50 I will continue to cry
until you look down and see us, LORD!
I will continue to cry
until you see us from heaven.
- 51 My eyes make me sad, when I see what happened to the young women in my city.
- 52 For no reason,
my enemies hunted me like a bird.
- 53 They threw me alive into a pit and then threw stones at me.
- 54 Water came up over my head.
I said to myself, "I am finished."

- 55 LORD, I called your name from the bottom of the pit.
- 56 You heard my voice.
You didn't close your ears.
You didn't refuse to rescue me.
- 57 You came to me on the day that I called out to you.
You said to me, "Don't be afraid."
- 58 You defended me
and bought me back to life.
- 59 LORD, you have seen my trouble.
Now judge my case for me.
- 60 You have seen how my enemies have hurt me.
You have seen all the evil plans that they made against me.
- 61 You heard them insult me, LORD.
You have heard all the evil plans that they made against me.
- 62 The words and the thoughts of my enemies are against me all the time—
63 when they sit down and when they stand up.
Look how they make fun of me!
- 64 Give them back what they deserve, LORD.
Pay them back for what they have done.
- 65 Make them stubborn and then curse them.
- 66 Chase them in anger and destroy them.
Wipe them off the face of the earth, LORD!

The Horrors of the Attack on Jerusalem

- 1 See how the gold has grown dark,
how the pure gold has changed.
There are jewels* scattered all around at every street corner.
- 2 The precious people of Zion were once worth more than gold.
But now they are treated like something worthless, like the cheap clay jars a potter makes.
- 3 Even a wild dog feeds her babies.
Even the jackal lets her pups suck at her breast.
But the daughter of my people† is cruel.
She is like the ostrich in the desert that forgets its eggs in the sand.
- 4 Babies are so thirsty their tongues stick to the roof of their mouths.
Young children ask for bread, but no one gives them any.
- 5 Those who ate rich food are now dying in the streets.
Those who grew up wearing nice red clothes now pick through garbage piles.
- 6 The sin of the daughter of my people was very great.
Their sin was greater than the sins of Sodom and Gomorrah.

* 4:1 jewels The meaning of the Hebrew word here is uncertain. † 4:3 daughter of my people Another name for Jerusalem. Also in verse 6.

Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed suddenly.

No human hand caused their destruction.[‡]

⁷ Some of the men of Judah were dedicated to God in a special way.

They were very pure.

They were whiter than snow, and whiter than milk.

Their bodies were red like coral and their beards like sapphire stones.

⁸ But now their faces are blacker than soot.

No one even recognizes them in the streets.

Their skin is wrinkled over their bones.

Their skin is like wood.

⁹ It was better for those who were killed by the sword than for those who died of hunger.

Those starving people were sad and hurt.

They died because they got no food from the field.

¹⁰ Then even nice women cooked their own children.

The children were food for their mothers.

This happened when my people were destroyed.

¹¹ The LORD used all of his anger.

He poured out all his anger.

He made a fire in Zion that burned it down to the foundations.

¹² The kings of the earth could not believe what had happened.

The people of the world could not believe what had happened.

They could not believe that enemies would be able to come through the city gates of Jerusalem.

¹³ This happened because the prophets of Jerusalem sinned.

This happened because the priests of Jerusalem did evil things.

They were shedding the blood of good people in the city of Jerusalem.

¹⁴ The prophets and priests walked around like blind men in the streets.

They had become dirty with blood.

No one could even touch their clothes because they were dirty.

¹⁵ People shouted, "Go away!

Go away! Don't touch us."

They wandered around and had no home.

People in other nations said,

"We don't want them to live with us."

¹⁶ The LORD himself destroyed them.

He didn't look after them anymore.

He didn't respect the priests.

He was not friendly to the elders of Judah.

¹⁷ We have worn out our eyes looking for help, but no help comes.

We kept on looking for a nation to save us.

We kept watch from our watchtower,

but no nation came to us.

¹⁸ Our enemies hunted us all the time.

[‡] 4:6 No human hand ... destruction The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

We could not even go out into the streets.
Our end came near. Our time was up.

Our end came!
19 The men who chased us were faster than eagles in the sky.
They chased us into the mountains.
They hid in the desert to catch us.

20 The king was very important to us.
He was like the breath we breathe,
but he was trapped by them.
The LORD himself chose the king,
and we said this about the king,
“We will live in his shadow.
He protects us from the nations.”

21 Be happy, people of Edom.
Be happy, you who live in the land of Uz.
But remember, the cup of the Lord’s anger will come around to you too.
When you drink from that cup,
you will get drunk and strip off all your clothes.
22 Your punishment is complete, Zion.
You will not go into captivity again.
But the Lord will punish your sins, people of Edom.
He will uncover your sins.

A Prayer to the Lord

1 Remember, LORD, what happened to us.
Look and see our shame.
2 Our land has been turned over to strangers.
Our houses have been given to foreigners.
3 We have become orphans.
We have no father.
Our mothers have become like widows.
4 We have to buy the water that we drink.
We have to pay for the wood that we use.
5 We are forced to wear a yoke on our necks.
We get tired, and we have no rest.
6 We made an agreement with Egypt.
We also made an agreement with Assyria to get enough bread.
7 Our ancestors sinned against you, and now they are dead.
And we are suffering because of their sins.
8 Slaves have become our rulers.
No one can save us from them.
9 We risk our lives to get food.
There are men in the desert with swords.
10 Our skin is hot like an oven.
We have a high fever because of our hunger.
11 The enemy raped the women of Zion.
They raped the women in the cities of Judah.
12 The enemy hanged our princes.
They didn’t honor our elders.
13 The enemy made our young men grind grain at the mill.

- Our young men stumbled under loads of wood.
14 The elders no longer sit at the gates of the city.
The young men no longer make music.
15 We have no more joy in our hearts.
Our dancing has changed to crying for the dead.
16 The crown has fallen from our head.
Things have gone bad for us because we sinned.
17 For this reason, our hearts have become sick,
and our eyes cannot see clearly.
18 Mount Zion is a wasteland.
Foxes run around on Mount Zion.
19 But you rule forever, LORD.
Your kingly chair lasts forever and ever.
20 You seem to have forgotten us forever.
You seem to have left us alone for such a long time.
21 Bring us back to you, LORD.
We will gladly come back to you.
Make our lives as they were before.
22 You were very angry with us.
Have you completely rejected us?

Ezekiel

Introduction

¹⁻³ I am the priest, Ezekiel son of Buzzi. I was in exile by the Kebar Canal in Babylonia when the skies opened up, and I saw visions of God. This was on the fifth day of the fourth month of the thirtieth year.* (This was the fifth year of King Jehoiachin's exile. The word of the LORD came to Ezekiel. The power of the LORD came over him at that place.)

The Chariot of the Lord—God's Throne

⁴ I was watching a big storm come in from the north. It was a big cloud with a strong wind, and there was fire flashing from it. Light was shining out all around it. It looked like hot metal[†] glowing in a fire. ⁵ Inside the cloud, there were four living beings that looked like people. ⁶ But each one of them had four faces and four wings. ⁷ Their legs were straight. Their feet looked like calves' feet, and they sparkled like polished brass. ⁸ Under their wings were human arms. There were four living beings. Each living being had four faces and four wings. ⁹ The wings touched each other. The living beings did not turn when they moved. They went in the direction they were looking.

¹⁰ Each living being had four faces. In the front they each had a man's face. There was a lion's face on the right side and a bull's face on the left side. There was an eagle's face on the back. ¹¹ Their wings were spread out over them. With two of the wings each living being reached out to touch the one near it, and with the other two wings it covered its body. ¹² Each living being went in the direction it was looking. They went wherever the spirit[‡] caused them to go, but they did not turn when they moved. ¹³ That is what the living beings looked like.

Inside the area between the living beings, there was something that looked like burning coals of fire. This fire was like small torches that kept moving around among the living beings. The fire glowed brightly and lightning flashed from it. ¹⁴ The living beings ran back and forth—as fast as lightning.[§]

¹⁵⁻¹⁶ I was looking at the living beings when I noticed four wheels that touched the ground. There was one wheel by each living being. All the wheels looked the same. The wheels looked as if they were made from a clear, yellow jewel. They looked like there was a wheel inside a wheel. ¹⁷ They could turn to move in any direction. *But the living beings did not turn when they moved.

¹⁸ The rims of the wheels were tall and frightening. There were eyes all over the rims of all four wheels.

¹⁹ The wheels always moved with the living beings. If the living beings went up into the air, the wheels went with them. ²⁰ They went wherever the spirit wanted them to go, and the wheels went with them, because the power that moved the living being was in the wheels. ²¹ So if the living beings moved, the wheels moved. If the living beings stopped, the wheels stopped. If the wheels went into the air, the living beings went with them, because the spirit was in the wheels.

²² There was an amazing thing over the heads of the living beings. It was like a bowl[†] turned upside down, and the bowl was clear like crystal. ²³ Under this bowl, each living being had wings reaching out to the one next to it. Two wings spread out one way and two wings spread out the other way, covering its body.

* 1:1-3 fifth day ... year If the year refers to Ezekiel's age, this is the same as the fifth year of exile, that is, July 31, 593 B.C. † 1:4 hot metal The Hebrew word might mean "melted copper," "an alloy of gold and silver," or "amber." Also in verse 27. ‡ 1:12 spirit Or "wind." Also in verse 20. § 1:14 Or "And there was something like lightning shooting back and forth among the living beings." * 1:17 The wheels ... moved Or "The wheels could move in any four directions, but they did not turn when they moved." † 1:22 bowl This Hebrew word is the same word used in Genesis 1:6-7 to describe the dome of the sky.

²⁴ Then I heard the wings. Every time the living beings moved, their wings made a very loud noise like a lot of water rushing by. They were loud like the Lord All-Powerful. They were as loud as an army or a crowd of people. When the living beings stopped moving, they put their wings down by their side.

²⁵ The living beings stopped moving and lowered their wings. Then there was another loud sound that came from above the bowl over their heads. ²⁶ There was something that looked like a throne on top of the bowl. It was blue like sapphire. There was also something that looked like a man sitting on the throne. ²⁷ I looked at him from his waist up. He looked like hot metal with fire all around him. I looked at him from his waist down. It looked like fire with a glow that was shining all around him. ²⁸ The light shining around him was like a rainbow in a cloud. It was the Glory of the LORD. As soon as I saw that, I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face to the ground, and then I heard a voice speaking to me.

The Lord Speaks to Ezekiel

¹ The voice said, “Son of man,^{*} stand up and I will speak with you.”

² Then the Spirit came into me[†] and lifted me up on my feet, and I listened to the one who spoke to me. ³ He said, “Son of man, I am sending you to speak to the family of Israel. Those people and their ancestors turned against me many times. They have sinned against me many times—and they are still sinning against me today. ⁴ I am sending you to speak to them, but they are very stubborn. They are very hardheaded, but you must speak to them. You must say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says.’ ⁵ They are people who refuse to obey, so they may not listen to you. But even if they don’t stop sinning, at least they will know that there is a prophet living among them.

⁶ “Son of man, don’t be afraid of the people or what they say. It is true: they will turn against you and try to hurt you. Their words will be sharp like thorns and will sting like scorpions. But don’t be afraid of what they say. They are people who refuse to obey, but don’t be afraid of them. ⁷ You must tell them what I say, whether they listen or not. They are people who usually refuse to listen!

⁸ “Son of man, listen to what I am telling you. Don’t turn against me like those people who refuse to obey. Now open your mouth to receive the words I will give you to speak.”

⁹ Then I saw an arm reach out toward me. It was holding a scroll with words written on it. ¹⁰ It rolled the scroll open in front of me. Words were on the front and on the back of the scroll. There were all kinds of sad songs, sad stories, and warnings.

¹ God said to me, “Son of man,^{*} eat what you see. Eat this scroll, and then go tell these things to the family of Israel.”

² So I opened my mouth and he put the scroll into my mouth. ³ Then God said, “Son of man, I am giving you this scroll. Swallow it! Let that scroll fill your body.”

So I ate the scroll. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth.

⁴ Then God said to me, “Son of man, go to the family of Israel. Speak my words to them. ⁵ I am not sending you to some foreigners you cannot understand. You don’t have to learn another language. I am sending you to the family of Israel. ⁶ I am not sending you to many different countries where people speak languages you cannot understand. If you went to those people and spoke to them, they would listen to you. But you will not have to learn those hard languages. ⁷ No, I am sending you to the family of Israel. Only, these people have hard heads—they are very stubborn! And the people of Israel will refuse to listen to you. They don't want to listen to me. ⁸ But I will make you just as stubborn as they are, and your head just as hard. ⁹ A diamond is harder than flint rock. In the same way you will be more stubborn than they are, and your head will be harder. Then you will not be afraid of them or those who always turn against me."

¹⁰ Then God said to me, "Son of man, listen to every word I say to you and remember them. ¹¹ Then go to all of your people in exile and tell them, 'This is what the Lord GOD says' They will not listen, and they will not stop sinning, but you must still tell them my message."

¹² Then the Spirit[†] lifted me up, and I heard a voice behind me. It was very loud, like thunder. It said, "Blessed is the Glory of the LORD!" ¹³ Then the wings of the living beings began moving. The wings made a very loud noise as they touched each other, and the wheels in front of them began making a noise as loud as thunder. ¹⁴ The Spirit lifted me and took me away. I was very sad and upset in my spirit, but I felt the LORD'S power in me. ¹⁵ I went to the people of Israel who were forced to live in Tel Aviv[‡] by the Kebar Canal. I sat there among them for seven days, shocked and silent.

The Watchman of Israel

¹⁶ After seven days, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁷ "Son of man, I am making you a watchman for Israel. I will tell you about bad things that will happen to them, and you must warn Israel. ¹⁸ If I say, 'These evil people will die!' Then you must warn them. You must tell them to change their lives and stop doing evil. If you don't warn them, they will die because they sinned. But I will also make you responsible for their death, because you did not go to them and save their lives.

¹⁹ "If you warn them and tell them to change their lives and stop doing evil, but they refuse to listen, they will die because they sinned. But since you warned them, you will have saved your own life.

²⁰ "If good people stop being good and begin to do evil, and I send something that makes them stumble and sin, they will die because they sinned. But since you did not warn them and remind them of the good things they had done, I will make you responsible for their death.

²¹ "But if you warn good people and tell them to stop sinning, and they listen to your warning and stop sinning, they will not die. In that way you will have saved your own life."

²² The LORD'S power came to me. He said to me, "Get up and go to the valley.[§] I will speak to you in that place."

²³ So I got up and went out to the valley. The Glory of the LORD was there—as I had seen it by the Kebar Canal. So I bowed with my face to the ground. ²⁴ But the Spirit came into me and lifted me up on my feet. He said to me, "Go home and lock yourself in your house. ²⁵ Son of man, people will come with ropes and tie you up. They will not let you go out among the people. ²⁶ I will make your tongue stick to the roof of your mouth—you will not be able to talk. So they will not have anyone to teach them that they are doing wrong, because they are always turning against me. ²⁷ But I will talk to you, and then I will allow you to speak. But you must say to them, 'This is what the Lord GOD says.' If a person wants to listen, fine. If a person refuses to listen, fine. But those people always turn against me.

[†] 3:12 Spirit Or "wind." Also in verse 24. [‡] 3:15 Tel Aviv This was a place outside of Israel. The name means "Spring Hill." [§] 3:22 the valley Possibly, Jezreel Valley, a fertile area where many battles were fought. It is often called simply "The Valley."

*Warnings About
the Attack of Jerusalem*

¹ “Son of man,^{*} take a brick and scratch a picture on it. Draw a picture of a city—the city of Jerusalem. ² And then pretend you are an army surrounding the city. Build a dirt wall around the city to help you attack it. Build a dirt road leading up to the city wall. Bring battering rams[†] and set up army camps around the city. ³ And then take an iron pan and put it between you and the city. It will be like an iron wall separating you and the city. In this way you will show that you are against it. You will surround the city and attack it. This is an example for the family of Israel to show that I will destroy Jerusalem.

⁴ “Then you must lie down on your left side. You must do this thing that shows that you are taking the sins of the people of Israel on yourself. You will carry the guilt for as many days as you lie on your left side. ⁵ You must bear the guilt of Israel for 390 days.[‡] In this way I am telling you how long Israel will be punished; one day equals one year.

⁶ “After that time, you will lie on your right side for 40 days. This time you will bear the guilt of Judah for 40 days. One day equals one year. I am telling you how long Judah must be punished.

⁷ “Now, roll up your sleeve and raise your arm over the brick. Act like you are attacking the city of Jerusalem. Do this to show that you are speaking as my messenger to the people. ⁸ Now look, I am tying ropes on you. You will not be able to roll over from one side to the other until your attack against the city[§] is finished.

⁹ “You must get some grain to make bread. Get some wheat, barley, beans, lentils, millet, and spelt. Mix all these things together in one bowl and grind them to make flour. You will use this flour to make bread. You will eat only this bread during the 390 days that you lie on your side. ¹⁰ You will be allowed to use only 1 cup^{*} of that flour each day to make bread. You will eat that bread from time to time throughout the day. ¹¹ You can drink only 3 cups[†] of water each day. You can drink it from time to time throughout the day. ¹² You must make your bread each day. You must get dry human dung and burn it. Then you must cook the bread over this burning dung. You must eat this bread in front of the people.” ¹³ Then the LORD said, “This will show that the family of Israel will eat unclean bread in foreign countries and that I am the one who forced them to leave Israel and go to those countries!”

¹⁴ Then I said, “Oh, but Lord GOD, I have never eaten any unclean food. I have never eaten meat from an animal that died from a disease or from an animal that was killed by a wild animal. I have never eaten unclean meat—not from the time that I was a little baby until now. None of that bad meat ever entered my mouth.”

¹⁵ Then God said to me, “Very well, I will let you use dry cow dung to cook your bread. You don’t have to use dry human dung.”

¹⁶ Then God said to me, “Son of man, I am destroying Jerusalem’s supply of bread. People will have only a little bread to eat. They will be very worried about their food supply, and they will have only a little water to drink. Every time they take a drink, they will feel more afraid. ¹⁷ That is because there will not be enough food and water for everyone. They will be terrified as they watch each other wasting away because of their sins.

People of Jerusalem Scattered

¹⁻² “Son of man,^{*} after your famine[†] you must do this: Take a sharp sword and use it like a barber’s razor. Shave off your hair and beard. Put the hair on a scale and weigh it. Separate it into three equal parts. Put a third of your hair on the brick that has the picture of the city on it. Burn that hair in that ‘city.’ Then use the sword and cut a third of your hair into small pieces all around the outside of the ‘city.’ Next, throw a third of your hair into the air and let the wind blow it away. This will show that I will pull out my sword and chase some of the people into faraway countries. ³ But then you must get a few of those hairs and wrap them up in your robe. ⁴ Take some of those hairs and throw them into the fire. This will show that a fire will start there and burn throughout the whole house of Israel.[‡]”

⁷ So the Lord GOD says, “I will do this because you did not obey my laws and commands. You broke more of my laws than the people who lived around you, and you did what even they know is wrong!” ⁸ So the Lord GOD says, “So now, even I am against you! I will punish you while those other people watch. ⁹ I will do things to you that I have never done before. And I will never do those terrible things again, because you did so many terrible things. ¹⁰ People in Jerusalem will be so hungry that parents will eat their own children, and children will eat their own parents. I will punish you in many ways, and those who are left alive, I will scatter to the winds.”

¹¹ The Lord GOD says, “Jerusalem, I promise by my life that I will punish you! I promise that I will punish you, because you did terrible things to my Holy Place. You did horrible things that made it dirty. I will punish you. I will not show any mercy or feel sorry for you. ¹² A third of your people will die inside the city from diseases and hunger. Another third will die in battle outside the city. And then I will pull out my sword and chase the last third of your people into faraway countries. ¹³ Only then will I stop being angry with your people. I will know that they have been punished for the bad things they did to me. They will know that I am the LORD and that I spoke to them because of my strong love[§] for them!”

¹⁴ God said, “Jerusalem, I will destroy you—you will be nothing but a pile of rocks. The people around you will make fun of you. Everyone who walks by will make fun of you. ¹⁵ People around you will make fun of you, but you will also be a lesson for them. They will see that I was angry and punished you. I was very angry and I warned you. I, the LORD, told you what I would do. ¹⁶ I told you I would send you terrible times of hunger. I told you I would send you things that would destroy you. I told you that I would take away your supply of food and that those times of hunger would come again and again. ¹⁷ I told you I would send hunger and wild animals against you that would kill your children. I told you there would be disease and death everywhere in the city. I told you I would bring enemy soldiers to fight against you. I, the LORD, told you all these things would happen!”

Prophecies Against Israel

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me again. ² He said, “Son of man,^{*} turn toward the mountains of Israel and speak against them for me. ³ Tell them this: ‘Mountains of Israel, listen to this message from the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says to the hills and mountains and to the ravines and valleys: Look! I am bringing the enemy to fight against you. I will destroy your high places. ⁴ Your altars will be broken into pieces. Your incense altars will be smashed, and I will throw down your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols. ⁵ I will put the dead bodies of the people of Israel in front of their filthy idols. I will scatter your bones around your altars. ⁶ Bad things will happen wherever your people live. Their cities will become piles of rock. Their high places will be destroyed so that those places of worship will never be used again. The altars will all be destroyed. People will never worship those filthy idols again. The incense altars will be smashed. Everything you made will be destroyed completely. ⁷ Your people will be killed, and then you will know that I am the LORD!’ ”

⁸ God said, “But I will let a few of your people escape. They will live in other countries for a short time. I will scatter them and force them to live in other countries. ⁹ Then the survivors will be taken as prisoners. They will be forced to live in other countries, but they will remember me. I broke their spirit.[†] They will hate themselves for the evil things they did. In the past, they turned away from me and left me. They chased after their filthy idols. They were like a woman leaving her husband and running off with another man. They did many terrible things,¹⁰ but they will learn that I am the LORD. Then they will know that if I say that I will do something, I will do it! They will know that I caused all the troubles that happened to them.”

¹¹ Then the Lord GOD said to me, “Clap your hands and stamp your feet. Speak against all the terrible things that the people of Israel have done. Warn them that they will be killed by disease and hunger. Tell them they will be killed in war. ¹² People far away will die from disease. People near this place will be killed with swords, and those who are left in the city will starve to death. Only then will I stop being angry. ¹³ Only then will you know that I am the LORD. You will know this when you see your dead bodies in front of your filthy idols and around their altars. Those bodies will be near every one of your places for worship,[‡] on every high hill and mountain, under every green tree and every oak tree with leaves. You offered your sacrifices everywhere. They were a sweet smell for your filthy idols. ¹⁴ But I will raise my arm over you and punish you and your people, wherever they live! I will destroy your country! It will be completely empty from the desert in the south to Riblah[§] in the north. Then they will know that I am the LORD!”

Disaster Is Coming to Jerusalem

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. ² He said, “Now, son of man, here is a message from the Lord GOD. This message is for the land of Israel:

“The end!

The end is coming.

The whole country will be destroyed.

³ Your end is coming now!

I will show how angry I am with you.

I will punish you for the evil things you did.

* 6:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in 7:2. † 6:9 spirit Literally, “heart.” ‡ 6:13 places for worship Or “high places.” See “high place” in the Word List. § 6:14 Riblah Most Hebrew copies have “Diblah.”

I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did.
⁴ I will not show you any mercy or feel sorry for you.
I am punishing you for the evil things you did.
You have done such terrible things.
Now, you will know that I am the LORD.”

⁵ This is what the Lord GOD said: “There will be one disaster after another! ⁶ The end is coming, and it will come quickly! ⁷ You people living in Israel, disaster is coming. It is time for punishment. Those are not shouts of joy in the mountains. Those are cries of panic. ⁸ Very soon now, I will show you how angry I am. I will show all of my anger against you. I will punish you for the evil things you did. I will make you pay for all the terrible things you did. ⁹ I will not show you any mercy or feel sorry for you. I am punishing you for the evil things you did. You have done such terrible things. Now, you will know that I am the LORD.

¹² “The time of punishment has come. The day is here. Those who buy things will not be happy, and those who sell things will not feel bad about selling them because that terrible punishment will happen to everyone. ¹³ The people who sold their property* will never go back to it. Even if some people escape alive, they will never go back to their property, because this vision is for the whole crowd. So even if some people escape alive, it will not make everyone feel better.

¹⁴ “They will blow the trumpet to warn the people. The people will get ready for battle, but they will not go out to fight because I will show the whole crowd how angry I am. ¹⁵ The enemy with his sword is outside the city. Disease and hunger is inside the city. If some people go out into the fields, enemy soldiers will kill them. If they stay in the city, hunger and disease will destroy them.

¹⁶ “But some people will escape. The survivors will run to the mountains, but they will not be happy. They will be sad for all their sins. They will cry and make sad noises like doves. ¹⁷ They will be too tired and sad to raise their arms. Their legs will be like water. ¹⁸ They will wear sackcloth and be covered with fear. You will see the shame on every face. They will shave their heads to show their sadness. ¹⁹ They will throw their silver idols into the streets. They will treat their gold statues like dirty rags, because those things will not be able to save them when the LORD shows his anger. Those things were nothing but a trap that caused the people to fall. They will not give food to the people or put food in their bellies.

²⁰ “They used their beautiful jewelry and made an idol. They were proud of that statue. They made their terrible statues. They made those filthy things, so I will throw them away like a dirty rag. ²¹ I will let strangers take them. Those strangers will make fun of them. They will kill some of the people and take others away as prisoners. ²² I will turn my head away from them—I will not look at them. The strangers will ruin my Temple—they will go into the secret parts of that holy building and make it unfit for worship.

²³ “Make chains for the prisoners, because many people will be punished for killing other people. There will be violence every place in the city. ²⁴ I will bring evil people from other nations, and they will get all the houses of the people of Israel. I will stop all you powerful people from being so proud. Those people from other nations will get all your places of worship.

²⁵ “You will shake with fear. You will look for peace, but there will be none. ²⁶ You will hear one sad story after another. You will hear nothing but bad news. You will look for a prophet and ask him for a vision. The priests will have nothing to teach you, and the elders will not have any good advice to give you. ²⁷ Your king will be crying for the people who died. The leaders will wear sackcloth. The common people will be very afraid, because I will pay them back for what they did. I will decide their punishment, and I will punish them. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Sinful Things Done at the Temple

¹ One day I, Ezekiel, was sitting in my house, and the elders of Judah were sitting there in front of me. This was on the fifth day of the sixth month of the sixth year of exile.* Suddenly, the power of the Lord GOD came on me. ² I saw something that looked like fire, like a man’s body. From the waist down, he was like fire. From the waist up, he was bright and shining like hot metal† in a fire. ³ Then I saw something that looked like an arm. The arm reached out and grabbed me by the hair on my head. Then the Spirit‡ lifted me into the air, and in a vision from God he took me to Jerusalem. He took me to the inner gate—the gate that is on the north side. The statue that makes God jealous is by that gate. ⁴ But the Glory of the God of Israel was there. The Glory looked just like the vision I saw in the valley by the Kebar Canal.

⁵ God spoke to me. He said, “Son of man,§ look toward the north.” So I looked, and there, north of the Altar Gate by the entrance, was that statue that made God jealous.

⁶ Then God said to me, “Son of man, do you see what terrible things the people of Israel are doing? They built that thing here, right next to my Temple! And if you come with me, you will see even more terrible things!”

⁷ So I went to the entrance to the courtyard, and I saw a hole in the wall. ⁸ God said to me, “Son of man, make a hole in the wall.” So I made a hole in the wall, and there I saw a door.

⁹ Then God said to me, “Go in and look at the terrible, evil things that the people are doing here.” ¹⁰ So I went in and looked. I saw statues of all kinds of reptiles* and animals that you hate to think about. The statues were the filthy idols that the people of Israel worshiped. There were pictures of those animals carved all around on every wall!

¹¹ Then I noticed that Jaazaniah son of Shapham and the 70 elders of Israel were there with the people worshiping in that place. There they were, right at the front of the people, and each leader had his own incense dish in his hand. The smoke from the burning incense was rising into the air. ¹² Then God said to me, “Son of man, do you see what the elders of Israel do in the dark? Each man has a special room for his own false god. They say to themselves, ‘The LORD cannot see us. The LORD left this country.’” ¹³ Then he said to me, “If you come with me, you will see these men doing even more terrible things!”

¹⁴ Then God led me to the entrance to the LORD’S Temple. This gate was on the north side. I saw women sitting there and crying. They were sad about the false god Tammuz†!

* 8:1 sixth year of exile This is the fall of 592 B.C. † 8:2 hot metal The Hebrew word might mean “melted copper,” “an alloy of gold and silver,” or “amber.” ‡ 8:3 Spirit Or “wind.” § 8:5 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 6, 7, 12, 15, 17. * 8:10 reptiles The Hebrew word can mean “lizards,” “snakes,” and “all kinds of bugs and insects.” † 8:14 Tammuz People thought this false god died and his wife Ishtar asked everyone to be sad and cry with her. Ishtar hoped this would bring him back to life. This ceremony was on the 2nd day of the fourth month (June/July). This month was named Tammuz because of this ceremony.

¹⁵ God said to me, “Son of man, do you see these terrible things? Come with me and you will see things that are even worse than this!” ¹⁶ Then he led me to the inner courtyard of the LORD’S Temple area. There I saw 25 men bowing down and worshipping. They were at the entrance to the LORD’S Temple between the porch and the altar—but they were facing the wrong way. Their backs were to the Holy Place. They were bowing down to worship the sun!

¹⁷ Then God said, “Son of man, do you see this? The people of Judah think my Temple is so unimportant that they will do these terrible things here in my Temple! This country is filled with violence, and they constantly do things to make me angry. Look, they are wearing rings in their noses to honor the moon as a false god![‡] ¹⁸ I will show them my anger! I will not show them any mercy or feel sorry for them! They will shout to me—but I refuse to listen to them!”

God’s Messengers Punish Jerusalem

¹ Then God shouted to the leaders in charge of punishing the city. Each leader had his own destructive weapon in his hand.* ² Then I saw six men walking on the road from the upper gate. This gate is on the north side. Each man had his own deadly weapon in his hand. One of the men wore linen clothes.[†] He wore a scribe’s pen and ink set[‡] at his waist. Those men went to the bronze altar in the Temple and stood there. ³ Then the Glory of the God of Israel rose from above the Cherub angels where he had been. Then the Glory went to the door of the Temple and stopped when he was over the threshold. Then he called to the man wearing the linen clothes and the scribe’s pen and ink set.

⁵⁻⁶ Then I heard God say to the other men, “I want you to follow the first man. You must kill all those who do not have the mark on their foreheads. It doesn’t matter if they are elders, young men or young women, children or mothers—you must use your weapon and kill everyone who does not have the mark on their forehead. Don’t show any mercy. Don’t feel sorry for anyone. Start here at my Temple.” So they started with the elders in front of the Temple.

⁷ He said to them, “Make this Temple unclean—fill this courtyard with dead bodies! Now go!” So they went and killed the people in the city.

⁸ I stayed there while the men went to kill the people. I bowed with my face to the ground and said, “Oh, Lord GOD, in showing your anger against Jerusalem, are you killing all the survivors in Israel?”

⁹ He said, “The family of Israel and Judah has committed many terrible sins! People are being murdered everywhere in this country, and the city is filled with crime. That is because the people say to themselves, ‘The LORD has left this country. The LORD cannot see what we are doing.’ ¹⁰ So I will not show any mercy or feel sorry for them. They brought it on themselves. I am only giving them the punishment they deserve!”

¹¹ Then the man wearing linen clothes and a scribe’s pen and ink set spoke up. He said, “I have done what you commanded.”

The Glory of the Lord Leaves the Temple

¹ Then I looked up at the bowl* over the heads of the Cherub angels. The bowl looked clear blue like sapphire, and there was something that looked like a throne over it. ² Then the one sitting on the throne said to the man dressed in linen clothes,† “Step into the area between the wheels‡ under the Cherub angels. Take a handful of the burning coals from between the Cherub angels and go throw them over the city of Jerusalem.”

The man walked past me. ³ The Cherub angels were standing in the area south§ of the Temple as the man walked to them. The cloud filled the inner courtyard. ⁴ Then the Glory of the LORD rose up off the Cherub angels near the threshold of the door of the Temple. Then the cloud filled the Temple, and the bright light from the Glory of the LORD filled the whole courtyard. ⁵ The noise from the wings of the Cherub angels could be heard all the way out into the outer courtyard. The sound was very loud—like the thundering voice when God All-Powerful speaks.

⁹ Then I noticed that there were four wheels. There was one wheel by each Cherub angel, and the wheels looked like a clear yellow jewel. ¹⁰ There were four wheels, and they all looked the same. They looked like there was a wheel in a wheel. ¹¹ They could go in any direction when they moved, but the Cherub angels did not turn around when they moved. They went in the direction that the head was looking. They did not turn around when they moved. ¹² There were eyes all over their bodies. There were eyes on their backs, on their arms, on their wings, and on their wheels—on all four wheels! ¹³ These wheels were what I heard called, “the area between the wheels.”

¹⁴⁻¹⁵ Each Cherub angel had four faces. The first was the face of a Cherub,* the second was the face of a man, the third was a lion’s face, and the fourth was an eagle’s face. (These Cherub angels were the living beings I saw in the vision by the Kebar Canal.†)

Then the Cherub angels rose into the air,¹⁶ and the wheels rose with them. When the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air, not even the wheels turned around. ¹⁷ If they flew into the air, the wheels went with them. If they stood still, so did the wheels, because the spirit‡ of the living being was in them.

¹⁸ Then the Glory of the LORD rose from the threshold of the Temple, moved to the place over the Cherub angels, and stopped there. ¹⁹ Then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. I saw them leave. The wheels went with them. Then they stopped at the East Gate of the LORD’S Temple. The Glory of the God of Israel was in the air above them.

²⁰ These were the living beings under the Glory of the God of Israel in the vision at the Kebar Canal, and now I realized that they were Cherub angels. ²¹ Each living being had four faces, four wings, and something that looked like human arms under their wings. ²² The faces of the Cherub angels were the same as the four faces on the living beings in

Prophecies Against the Leaders

¹ Then the Spirit* carried me to the East Gate of the LORD'S Temple. This gate faces the east, where the sun comes up. I saw 25 men there at the entrance of this gate. Some of the leaders were among them, including Jaazaniah son of Azzur and Pelatiah son of Benaiah.

² Then God spoke to me and said, "Son of man,† these are the men who make evil plans for this city. They always tell the people to do evil things. ³ These men say, 'We will be building our houses again very soon. We are as safe in this city as meat in a pot!' ⁴ So you must speak to the people for me. Son of man, prophesy against the people."

⁵ Then the Spirit of the LORD came on me. He said to me, "Tell them that this is what the LORD said: House of Israel, you are planning big things. But I know what you are thinking. ⁶ You have killed many people in this city. You have filled the streets with dead bodies. ⁷ Now, the Lord GOD says this: 'The dead bodies are the meat, and the city is the pot. But someone will come and take you out of this safe pot. ⁸ You are afraid of the sword, but I am bringing the sword against you!' " This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁹ He also said, "I will take you out of this city and give you to strangers. I will punish you. ¹⁰ You will die by the sword. I will punish you here in Israel, so you will know that I am the LORD. ¹¹ Yes, this place will be the cooking pot, and you will be the meat cooking in it. I will punish you here in Israel. ¹² Then you will know that I am the LORD. It was my law that you broke. You did not obey my commands. You decided to live like the nations around you."

¹³ As soon as I finished speaking for God, Pelatiah son of Benaiah died! I fell to the ground. I bowed with my face touching the ground and said, "Oh, Lord GOD, you are going to completely destroy all the survivors of Israel!"

Prophecies Against Survivors in Jerusalem

¹⁴ But then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁵ "Son of man, remember your brothers, the family of Israel. They were forced to leave their country, but I will bring them back.‡ But now, the people living in Jerusalem are saying, 'Stay far away from the LORD. This land was given to us—it is ours!'

¹⁶ "So tell them this: The Lord GOD says, 'It is true, I forced my people to go far away to other nations. I did scatter them among many countries. But I will be their temple for a short time while they are in those other countries. ¹⁷ But you must tell those people that the Lord GOD will bring them back. I have scattered you among many nations, but I will gather you together and bring you back from those nations. I will give the land of Israel back to you. ¹⁸ When my people come back, they will destroy all the terrible, filthy idols that are here now. ¹⁹ I will bring them together and make them like one person. I will put a new spirit§ in them. I will take away that heart of stone, and I will put a real heart in its place. ²⁰ Then they will obey my laws and my commands. They will do the things I tell them. They will be my people, and I will be their God.' "

The Glory of the Lord Leaves Jerusalem

²¹ Then God said, "But now, their hearts belong to those terrible, filthy idols, and I must punish those people for the bad things they have done." This is what the Lord GOD said. ²² Then the Cherub angels raised their wings and flew into the air. The wheels went with them. The Glory of the God of Israel was above them. ²³ The Glory of the LORD rose into the air and left the city and stopped on the hill east of Jerusalem.* ²⁴ Then the Spirit† lifted me into the air and brought me back to Babylonia. It brought me back to the people who were forced to leave Israel. I saw all this in the vision from God. Then the one I saw in the vision rose into the air and left me. ²⁵ Then I spoke to the people in exile. I told them about everything the LORD showed me.

Ezekiel Leaves Like a Captive

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* you live among people who refuse to obey me. They have eyes to see what I have done for them, but they don’t see those things. They have ears to hear what I told them to do, but they don’t hear my commands, because they are a rebellious people. ³ So, son of man, pack some things as if you are leaving on a trip. Pretend that you are a prisoner being taken far away. Do this during the day so that everyone can see you. Even though these people refuse to listen to me, maybe when they see you going away, they will understand what I have been trying to tell them.

⁸ The next morning, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ⁹ “Son of man, did the people of Israel—those people who always refuse to obey—ask you what you were doing? ¹⁰ Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD said. This sad message is about the leader of Jerusalem and all the people of Israel who live there. ¹¹ Tell them, ‘I am an example for all of you. What I have done will happen to you.’ You will be forced to go to a faraway country as prisoners. ¹² And your leader will make a hole in the wall and sneak out at night. He will cover his face so that people will not recognize him. His eyes will not be able to see where he is going. ¹³ He will try to escape, but I will catch him! He will be caught in my trap. Then I will bring him to Babylonia—the land of the Chaldeans. But he will not be able to see where he is going.† ¹⁴ I will force the king’s people to live in the foreign countries around Israel, and I will scatter his army to the winds. The enemy soldiers will chase after them. ¹⁵ Then they will know that I am the LORD. They will know that I scattered them among the nations. They will know that I forced them to go to other countries.

¹⁶ “But I will let a few of the people live. They will not die from the disease, hunger, and war. I will let them live so that they can tell other people about the terrible things they did against me. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Shake With Fear

¹⁷ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁸ “Son of man, you must act as if you are very frightened. You must shake when you eat your food. You must act worried and afraid when you drink your water. ¹⁹ You must say this to the common people: ‘This is what the Lord GOD says to the people living in Jerusalem and in the other parts of Israel. You will be very worried while you eat your food. You will be terrified while you drink your water, because everything in your country will be destroyed! This will happen because the people living there are so violent. ²⁰ Many people live in your cities now, but those cities will be ruined. Your whole country will be destroyed! Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Disaster Will Come

²¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ²² “Son of man, why do people quote this saying about the land of Israel:

‘Trouble will not come soon;
what is seen in visions will not come’?

²³ “Tell the people that the Lord GOD will end that saying. They will not say that about Israel anymore. Now they will quote this saying:

‘Trouble will come soon;
what is seen in visions will happen.’

²⁴ “There will not be any more false visions in Israel. There will not be any more magicians telling things that don’t come true. ²⁵ That’s because I am the LORD, and if I say something will happen, it will happen! I will not wait any longer. Those troubles are coming soon—in your own lifetime. Hear me, you people who always refuse to obey! When I say something, I make it happen.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

²⁶ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ²⁷ “Son of man, the people of Israel think that the visions I give you are for a time far in the future. They think you are talking about things that will happen many years from now. ²⁸ So you must tell them this: ‘The Lord GOD says, I will not delay any longer. If I say something will happen, it will happen!’ ” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Warnings Against False Prophets

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* you must speak to the prophets of Israel for me. They are only saying what they want to say. You must speak to them. Tell them this: ‘Listen to this message from the LORD! ³ This is what the Lord GOD says. Bad things will happen to you foolish prophets. You are following your own spirits. You are not telling people what you really see in visions.

⁴ “ ‘Israel, your prophets are false prophets. They are like jackals hunting for food among the ruins of a city. ⁵ You have not put soldiers near the broken walls of the city. You have not built walls to protect the family of Israel. So when the day comes for the LORD to punish you, you will lose the war!

⁶ “ ‘Your prophets say they have seen visions. They did their magic to see what will happen next. But everything they said would happen is a lie. They claim to speak for the LORD, but the LORD did not send them. And they still think that what they said is what will happen.

⁷ “ ‘If you prophets saw visions, they were not true. And all you got from your magic was lies! So how can you say that the LORD told you those things? I did not speak to you!’ ”

⁸ So now, the Lord GOD really will speak. He says, “You told lies. You saw visions that were not true. So now I am against you!” This is what the Lord GOD said. ⁹ “I will punish those prophets whose visions are false and who lie about the future. I will remove them from my people. Their names will not be in the list of the family of Israel. They will never again come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD!

¹⁰ “Again and again those false prophets lied to my people. They said there would be peace, but there is no peace. The people need to fix the walls and prepare for war. But they only slap a thin coat of plaster[†] over the broken walls. ¹¹ Tell them that I will send hail and a strong rain. The wind will blow hard, and a tornado will come. Then the wall will fall down. ¹² When the wall falls down, the people will ask the prophets, ‘What happened to the plaster you put on the wall?’ ” ¹³ The Lord GOD says, “I am angry and I will send a storm against you. I am angry and I will send a strong rain. I am angry and I will make hail fall from the sky and completely destroy you! ¹⁴ You put plaster on the wall, but I will destroy the whole wall. I will pull it to the ground. The wall will fall on you, and then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹⁵ I will finish showing my anger against the wall and those who put plaster on it. Then I will say, ‘There is no wall, and there are no workers to put plaster on it.’

¹⁶ “All these things will happen to the false prophets of Israel. They speak to the people of Jerusalem and say there will be peace, but there is no peace.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁷ God said, “Son of man, look at the women prophets in Israel. They say the things they want to say, so you must speak against them for me. You must say this to them: ¹⁸ “This is what the Lord GOD says: Bad things will happen to you women. You sew cloth bracelets for people to wear on their arms. You make special scarves for people to wear on their heads. You say those things have magic powers to control people’s lives. You trap the people only to keep yourselves alive! ¹⁹ You make them think I am not important. You turn them against me for a few handfuls of barley and a few scraps of bread. You tell lies to my people. They love to listen to lies. You kill those who should live, and you let people live who should die. ²⁰ So this is what the Lord GOD says to you: You make those cloth bracelets to trap people, but I will set them free. I will tear those bracelets off your arms, and the people will be free from you. They will be like birds flying from a trap. ²¹ And I will tear up those scarves and save my people from your power. They will escape from your trap, and you will know that I am the LORD.

²² “ ‘You prophets tell lies. Your lies hurt good people—I did not want to hurt them! You support the wicked and encourage them. You don’t tell them to change their lives. You don’t try to save their lives! ²³ So you will not see any more useless visions or do any more magic. I will save my people from your power, and you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Warnings Against Idol Worship

¹ Some of the elders of Israel came to me. They sat down to talk with me. ² The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ³ “Son of man, * these men came to talk to you. But they still have their filthy idols. They kept the things that made them sin. They still worship those statues, so why do they come to me for advice? Should I answer their questions? ⁴ But I will give them an answer. You must tell them this: ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: If any Israelites come to a prophet and ask me for advice, I myself will answer their questions. I, the LORD, will answer them even if they still have their filthy idols, even if

The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “It will fall.” Also in verse 14. * 14:3 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. they kept the things that made them sin, and even if they still worship those statues. I will speak to them in spite of all their filthy idols. ⁵ This is because I want to touch their hearts. I want to show them that I love them, even though they left me for their filthy idols.’

⁶ “So tell the family of Israel, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: Come back to me and leave your filthy idols. Turn away from those terrible, false gods. ⁷ If any Israelites or foreigners who live in Israel come to me for advice, I will give them an answer. I, the LORD, will answer them even if they still have their filthy idols, even if they kept the things that made them sin, and even if they worship those statues. This is the answer I will give them: ⁸ I will turn against them and destroy them. They will be an example to others. People will laugh at them. I will remove them from my people. Then you will know that I am the LORD! ⁹ And if a prophet is foolish enough to give his own answer, I, the LORD, will show him how foolish he is! I will use my power against him. I will destroy him and remove him from among my people, Israel. ¹⁰ So both the one who came for advice and the prophet who gave an answer will get the same punishment. ¹¹ Why? So that those prophets will stop leading my people away from me, and my people will stop being filthy with sin. Then they will be my special people, and I will be their God.’” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Jerusalem Will Be Punished

¹² Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹³ “Son of man, I will punish any nation that leaves me and sins against me. I will stop their food supply. I might cause a famine and remove the people and animals from that country. ¹⁴ I would punish that country even if Noah, Daniel, and Job[†] lived there. They could save their own lives by their goodness, but they could not save the whole country.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁵ “Or I might send wild animals through that country to kill all the people. Then no one would travel through that country because of the wild animals. ¹⁶ If Noah, Daniel, and Job lived there, those three men could save their own lives. But I promise by my own life that they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters! That evil country would be destroyed.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁹ “Or I might send a disease against that country. I will pour my anger down on the people. I will remove all the people and animals from that country. ²⁰ If Noah, Daniel, and Job lived there, those three men could save their own lives because they are good men. But I promise by my own life that they could not save the lives of other people—not even their own sons and daughters!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

²¹ Then the Lord GOD said, “So think how bad it will be for Jerusalem. I will send all four of those punishments against that city! I will send enemy soldiers, hunger, disease, and wild animals against that city. I will remove all the people and animals from that country. ²² Some of the people will escape from that country. They will bring their sons and daughters and come to you for help. Then you will see how bad those people really are, and you will feel better about all the troubles that I am bringing to Jerusalem. ²³ You will see how they live and all the bad things they do. Then you will know that I had a good reason for punishing them.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Jerusalem, the Vine, Will Be Burned

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* are the pieces of wood from a grapevine† any better than the little branches cut from trees in the forest? ³ Can you use that wood from a grapevine to make anything? Can you use that wood to make pegs to hang dishes on? ⁴ People throw that wood into the fire. The ends burn, and the middle is scorched. ⁵ If you cannot make anything from that wood before it is burned, you surely cannot make anything from that wood after it is burned! ⁶ So people throw the pieces of wood from a grapevine into the fire. It is just like wood from any other tree in the forest. In the same way I will throw the people living in Jerusalem into the fire!” This is what the Lord GOD said. ⁷ “I will punish those people. But some of them will be like the sticks that don’t burn completely. They will be punished, but they will not be destroyed completely. You will see that I punished them, and you will know that I am the LORD! ⁸ I will destroy that country because the people left me to worship false gods.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

God’s Love for Jerusalem

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man, tell the people of Jerusalem about the terrible things they have done. ³ You must say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says to Jerusalem: Look at your history. You were born in Canaan. Your father was an Amorite. Your mother was a Hittite. ⁴ Jerusalem, on the day you were born, there was no one to cut your navel cord. No one put salt on you and washed you to make you clean. No one wrapped you in cloth. ⁵ No one felt sorry for you or took care of you. On the day you were born, your parents threw you out into the field, because no one wanted you.

⁶ “Then I passed by. I saw you lying there, kicking in the blood. You were covered with blood, but I said, ‘Please live!’ Yes, you were covered with blood, but I said, ‘Please live!’ ⁷ I helped you grow like a plant in the field. You grew and grew. You became a young woman: your periods began, your breasts grew, and your hair began to grow. But you were still bare and naked. ⁸ I looked you over. I saw you were ready for love, so I spread my clothes over you* and covered your nakedness. I promised to marry you. I made the agreement† with you, and you became mine.’” This is what the Lord GOD said. ⁹ “I washed you in water. I poured water over you to wash away the blood that was on you, and then I put oil on your skin. ¹⁰ ‡ I gave you a nice dress and soft leather sandals, a linen headband, and a silk scarf. ¹¹ I also gave you some jewelry. I put bracelets on your arms and a necklace around your neck. ¹² I gave you a nose ring, earrings, and a beautiful crown to wear. ¹³ You were beautiful in your gold and silver jewelry, and your linen, silk, and embroidered material. You ate the best foods. You were very, very beautiful, and you became the queen! ¹⁴ You became famous for your beauty, all because I made you so lovely!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Jerusalem, the Unfaithful Bride

¹⁵ “But you began to trust in your beauty. You used the good name you had and became unfaithful to me. You acted like a prostitute with every man who passed by. You gave

²⁰ "You and I had children together, but you took our children. You killed them and gave them to those false gods! But that is only some of the evil things you did when you were unfaithful to me and went to those false gods. ²¹ You slaughtered* my sons and then passed them through the fire to those false gods. ²² You left me and did all those terrible things. You never remembered what happened when you were young. You did not remember that you were naked and kicking in blood when I found you.

²³ "After all these evil things, ... it will be very bad for you!" The Lord GOD said all these things. ²⁴ "After all those things, you made a mound for worshiping that false god. You built those places for worshiping false gods on every street corner. ²⁵ You built your mounds at the head of every road. Then you degraded your beauty. You used it to catch every man who walked by. You raised your skirt so that they could see your legs, and you acted like a prostitute with those men. ²⁶ Then you went to Egypt, your neighbor that is always ready for sex. With more and more sexual sin, you made me angry. ²⁷ So I punished you! I took away part of your land. I let your enemies, the daughters of the Philistines, do what they wanted to you. Even they were shocked at the evil things you did. ²⁸ Then you went to have sex with Assyria. You could not get enough. You were never satisfied. ²⁹ So you turned to Canaan, and then to Babylonia, and still you were not satisfied. ³⁰ You are so weak. You let all those men cause you to sin. You acted just like a prostitute who wants to be the one in control." This is what the Lord GOD said.

³⁵ Prostitute, listen to the message from the LORD. ³⁶ This is what the Lord GOD says: "You have spent your money[†] and let your lovers and filthy gods see your naked body and have sex with you. You have killed your children and poured out their blood. This was your gift to those false gods. ³⁷ So I am bringing all of your lovers together. I will bring all the men you loved and all the men you hated. I will bring them all together and let them see you naked.[‡] They will see you completely naked. ³⁸ Then I will punish you. I will punish you as a murderer and a woman who committed the sin of adultery. You will be punished as if by an angry and jealous husband. ³⁹ I will let those lovers have you. They will destroy your mounds. They will burn your places for worship. They will tear off your clothes and take your beautiful jewelry. They will leave you bare and naked as you were when I found you. ⁴⁰ They will bring a crowd of people and throw rocks at you to kill you. Then they will cut you into pieces with their swords. ⁴¹ They will burn your house. They will punish you so that all the other women can see. I will stop you from living like a prostitute. I will stop you from paying money to your lovers. ⁴² Then I will stop being angry and jealous. I will calm down. I will not be angry anymore. ⁴³ Why will all these things happen? Because you did not remember what happened when you were young. You did all those bad things and made me angry. So I had to punish you for doing them, but you planned even more terrible things.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁴⁴ “All the people who talk about you will now have one more thing to say. They will say, ‘Like mother, like daughter.’ ⁴⁵ You are your mother’s daughter. You don’t care about your husband or your children. You are like your sister. Both of you hated your husband and your children. You are like your parents. Your mother was a Hittite and your father was an Amorite. ⁴⁶ Your older sister was Samaria. She lived to the north of you with her daughters. Your younger sister was Sodom.[§] She lived to the south of you with her daughters. ⁴⁷ You did all the terrible things they did, but you also did much worse! ⁴⁸ I am the Lord GOD. As I live, I swear that your sister Sodom and her daughters never did as many bad things as you and your daughters.

⁵¹ “And Samaria did only half as many bad things as you did. You did many more terrible things than Samaria! You have done so many more terrible things than your sisters have done. Sodom and Samaria seem good compared to you. ⁵² So you must bear your shame. You have made your sisters look good compared to you. You have done terrible things, so you should be ashamed.

⁵³ “I destroyed Sodom and the towns around it, and I destroyed Samaria and the towns around it. And I will destroy you too, Jerusalem. But I will build those cities again, and I will rebuild you too. ⁵⁴ I will comfort you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed. ⁵⁵ So you and your sisters will be rebuilt. Sodom and the towns around her, Samaria and the towns around her, and you and the towns around you will all be rebuilt.

⁵⁶ “In the past, you were proud and made fun of your sister Sodom. But you will not do that again. ⁵⁷ You did that before you were punished, before your neighbors started making fun of you. The daughters of Edom* and Philistia are making fun of you now. ⁵⁸ Now you must suffer for the terrible things you did.” This is what the LORD said.

God Remains Faithful

⁵⁹ This is what the Lord GOD said: “I will treat you like you treated me! You broke your marriage promise. You did not respect our agreement. ⁶⁰ But I will remember the agreement we made when you were young. I made an agreement with you that will continue forever! ⁶¹ I will bring your sisters to you, and I will make them your daughters. That was not in our agreement, but I will do that for you. Then you will remember the terrible things you did, and you will be ashamed. ⁶² So I will make my agreement with you, and you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶³ You will remember me, and you will be so ashamed of the evil things you did that you will not be able to say anything. But I will make you pure, and you will never be ashamed again!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

The Eagle and the Vine

¹ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* I have a story with a hidden meaning for you to tell the family of Israel. ³ Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says:

“ A large eagle with big wings came to Lebanon.

He had feathers covered with spots.

⁴ He broke the top out of that big cedar tree and brought it to Canaan.

He set the branch down in a city of merchants.

⁵ Then the eagle took some of the seeds from Canaan.

He planted them in good soil by a good river.

⁶ The seeds grew and became a grapevine.

It was a good vine.

The vine was not tall,
but it spread to cover a large area.

The vine grew stems,
and smaller vines grew very long.

⁷ Then another eagle with big wings saw the grapevine.

The eagle had many feathers.

The grapevine wanted this new eagle to care for it.

So it stretched its roots and branches toward the eagle.

Its branches stretched toward this eagle.

The branches grew away from the field where it was planted.

The grapevine wanted the new eagle to water it.

⁸ The grapevine was planted in a good field near plenty of water.

It could have grown branches and fruit.

It could have become a very good grapevine.’ ”

⁹ This is what the Lord GOD says:

“Do you think that plant will succeed?

No, the new eagle will pull the plant from the ground, and the bird will break the plant’s roots.

It will eat up all the grapes.

Then the new leaves will wilt.

That plant will be very weak.

It will not take strong arms or a powerful nation to pull that plant up by the roots.

¹⁰ Will the plant grow where it is planted?

No, the hot east wind will blow, and the plant will become dry and die.

It will die there where it was planted.”

King Zedekiah Punished

¹¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹² “Explain this story to the people of Israel who always turn against me. Tell them this: The first eagle is the king of Babylonia. He came to Jerusalem and took away the king and other leaders. He brought them to Babylonia. ¹³ Then Nebuchadnezzar made an agreement with a man from the king’s family. Nebuchadnezzar forced that man to make a promise. So this man promised to be loyal to Nebuchadnezzar. Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah. Then he took all the powerful men away from Judah. ¹⁴ So Judah became a weak kingdom that could not turn against King Nebuchadnezzar. The people were forced to keep the agreement Nebuchadnezzar made with the new king of Judah. ¹⁵ But this new king tried to rebel against Nebuchadnezzar anyway! He sent messengers to Egypt to ask for help. The new king asked for many horses and soldiers. Now, do you think the new king of Judah will succeed? Do you think the new king will have enough power to break the agreement and escape punishment?"

¹⁶ The Lord GOD says, "By my life, I swear that this new king will die in Babylonia! Nebuchadnezzar made this man the new king of Judah, but he broke his promise with Nebuchadnezzar. This new king ignored that agreement. ¹⁷ The king of Egypt will not be able to save the king of Judah. He might send many soldiers, but Egypt's great power will not save Judah. Nebuchadnezzar's army will build dirt roads and dirt walls to capture the city. Many people will die. ¹⁸ But the king of Judah will not escape, because he ignored his agreement. He broke his promise to Nebuchadnezzar." ¹⁹ The Lord GOD makes this promise: "By my life, I swear that I will punish the king of Judah, because he ignored my warnings and broke our agreement. ²⁰ I will set my trap, and he will be caught in it. Then I will bring him to Babylon, and I will punish him there. I will punish him because he turned against me, ²¹ and I will destroy his army. I will destroy his best soldiers and scatter them to the wind. Then you will know that I am the LORD and that I told you these things."

²² This is what the Lord GOD says:

"I will take a branch from a tall cedar tree.
I will take a small branch from the top of the tree, and I myself will plant it on a very high mountain.

²³ I myself will plant it on a high mountain in Israel.

That branch will grow into a tree.
It will grow branches and make fruit and become a beautiful cedar tree.
Many birds will sit on its branches and live in the shadows under its branches.

²⁴ "Then the other trees will know that
I, the LORD, make tall trees fall to the ground, and I make small trees grow tall.

I make green trees become dry,
and I make dry trees become green.

I am the LORD.
If I say that I will do something, then I will do it!"

True Justice

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² "Why do you people say this proverb:

"The parents ate the sour grapes,
but the children got the sour taste"?"

³ But the Lord GOD says, "By my life, I swear that people in Israel will not think this proverb is true anymore! ⁴ I will treat everyone, child and parent, just the same. The one who sins is the one who will die!

⁵ "A person who is good will live! He is fair and does what is right. ⁶ He doesn't go to the mountains to share food offered to idols. He doesn't pray to those filthy idols in

* 18:2 The parents ... sour taste This means the children were suffering for things their parents did.

Israel. He doesn't commit adultery with his neighbor's wife or with a woman during her period. ⁷ He doesn't take advantage of others. If someone borrows money from him, he might take something of value before he gives the money. But when that person pays him back, he returns what he took. He gives food to the hungry and clothes to people who need them. ⁸ If someone wants to borrow money from him, he lends the money and doesn't charge interest on the loan. He refuses to be crooked. He is always fair with everyone. People can trust him. ⁹ He obeys my laws and studies my rules so that he can learn to be fair and dependable. He is good, so he will live." This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁰ "But someone like that might have a son who does not do any of these good things. The son steals things and kills people. ¹¹ He does things his father never did. He goes to the mountains and eats foods offered to false gods. He commits the sin of adultery with his neighbor's wife. ¹² He mistreats poor, helpless people. He takes advantage of them. When a debt is paid,[†] he does not give back what he took from them. He prays to filthy idols and does other terrible things. ¹³ He lends money to people who need it, but he forces them to pay interest on the loan. The evil son will not be allowed to live. He will be put to death because he did such terrible things, and he will be responsible for his own death.

¹⁴ "Now, that evil son might also have a son. But this son sees the bad things his father did, and he refuses to live as his father did. He treats people fairly. ¹⁵ He does not go to the mountains and eat foods offered to false gods. He does not pray to filthy idols in Israel. He does not commit the sin of adultery with his neighbor's wife. ¹⁶ He does not take advantage of people. If someone borrows money from him, the good son takes something of value and then gives the other person the money. When that person pays him back, the good son gives back what he took. The good son gives food to hungry people, and he gives clothes to those who need them. ¹⁷ He helps the poor. If people want to borrow money, the good son lends them the money, and he does not charge interest on the loan. He obeys my laws and follows them. He will not be put to death for his father's sins. The good son will live. ¹⁸ The father hurts people and steals things. He never does anything good for my people! He will die because of his own sins.

¹⁹ "You might ask, 'Why will the son not be punished for his father's sins?' The reason is that the son was fair and did good things. He very carefully obeyed my laws, so he will live. ²⁰ The one who sins is the one who will be put to death. A son will not be punished for his father's sins, and a father will not be punished for his son's sins. A good man's goodness belongs to him alone, and a bad man's evil belongs to him alone.

²¹ "Now, if evil people change their lives, they will live and not die. They might stop doing all the bad things they did and begin to carefully obey all my laws. They might become fair and good. ²² God will not remember all the bad things they did. He will remember only their goodness, so they will live!"

²³ The Lord GOD says, "I don't want evil people to die. I want them to change their lives so that they can live!

²⁴ "Now, maybe good people might stop being good. They might change their lives and begin to do all the terrible things that evil people have done in the past. (The evil people changed, so they can live.) So if those good people change and become bad, God will not remember all the good things they did. He will remember that they turned against him and began to sin. So they will die because of their sin.

²⁵ "You people might say, 'The Lord isn't fair!' But listen, family of Israel. I am fair. You are the ones who are not fair! ²⁶ If good people change and become evil, they must die for the bad things they do. ²⁷ And if evil people change and become good and fair, they will save their lives. They will live! ²⁸ They saw how wicked they were and came back to me. They stopped doing the evil things they did in the past. So they will live! They will not die!”

²⁹ The people of Israel said, “That’s not fair! The Lord isn’t fair!”

“I am fair! You are the ones who are not fair! ³⁰ Why? Because, family of Israel, I will judge each of you only for what you do!” This is what the Lord GOD said. “So come back to me! Stop committing those crimes and do away with those things that cause you to sin! ³¹ Throw away all the terrible idols with which you committed your crimes! Change your heart and spirit. People of Israel, why should you do things that will cost you your life? ³² I don’t want to kill you! Please come back and live!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

A Sad Song About Israel

¹ The Lord said to me, “You must sing this sad song about the leaders of Israel:

² “Your mother is like a female lion, lying there with the male lions.
She went to lie down with the young male lions and had many babies.

³ One of her cubs gets up.
He has grown to be a strong young lion.
He has learned to catch his food.
He killed and ate a man.

⁴ “The people heard him roar,
and they caught him in their trap.
They put hooks in his mouth and carried the young lion to Egypt.

⁵ “The mother lion had hoped that cub would become the leader, but now she has lost all hope.
So she took another of her cubs and trained him to be a lion.

⁶ He hunted with the adult lions and became a strong young lion.
He learned to catch his food.
He killed and ate a man.

⁷ He attacked the palaces and destroyed the cities.
Everyone in that country was too afraid to speak when hearing his growl.

⁸ Then the people who lived around him set a trap for him,
and they caught him in their trap.

⁹ They put hooks on him and locked him up.
They had him in their trap,
so they took him to the king of Babylon.

And now, you cannot hear his roar on the mountains of Israel.

¹⁰ “Your mother is like a grapevine planted near the water.
She had plenty of water,
so she grew many strong vines.

¹¹ Then she grew large branches.
They were like a strong walking stick.
They were like a king’s scepter.

The vine grew taller and taller.

It had many branches and reached to the clouds.

¹² But the vine was pulled up by the roots, and thrown down to the ground.

The hot east wind blew and dried its fruit.

The strong branches broke, and they were thrown into the fire.

¹³ “ Now that grapevine is planted in the desert.

It is a very dry and thirsty land.

¹⁴ A fire started in the large branch and spread to destroy all of its vines and fruit.

So there was no strong walking stick.

There was no king’s scepter.’

This was a sad song about death, and it was sung as a sad song about death.”

Israel Turned Away From God

¹ One day some of the elders of Israel came to me to ask the LORD for advice. This was on the tenth day of the fifth month of the seventh year of exile.* The elders sat down in front of me.

² Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ³ “Son of man,[†] speak to the elders of Israel. Tell them ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: Have you come to ask me what you should do? I, the Lord GOD, tell you that, as surely as I live, I will not listen to you.’

⁴ Should you judge them? Will you judge them, son of man? You must tell them about the terrible things their fathers have done. ⁵ You must tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: On the day I chose Israel, I raised my hand to Jacob’s family and made a promise to them in Egypt. When I let them know who I was, I raised my hand and said, “I am the LORD your God.”’ ⁶ On that day I promised to take you out of Egypt and lead you to the land I was giving to you. That was a good land filled with many good things.‡ It was the most beautiful of all countries!

⁷ “I told the family of Israel to throw away their horrible idols. I told them not to become filthy with those filthy statues from Egypt. I said, “I am the LORD your God.”

⁸ But they turned against me and refused to listen to me. They did not throw away their horrible idols. They did not leave their filthy statues in Egypt. So I decided to destroy them in Egypt—to let them feel the full force of my anger. ⁹ But I did not destroy them.

I had already told the Egyptians that I would bring my people out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people.

¹⁰ I brought the family of Israel out of Egypt. I led them into the desert. ¹¹ Then I gave them my laws and told them all my rules. All those who obey them will live. ¹² I also told them about all the special days of rest, which were a special sign between us. They showed that I am the LORD and that I was making them special to me.

¹³ “ ‘But the family of Israel turned against me in the desert. They did not follow my laws. They refused to obey my rules—even though people who obey my laws live because of them. They treated my special days of rest as if they were not important. They worked on those days many times. I decided to destroy them in the desert—to let them feel the full force of my anger. ¹⁴ But I did not destroy them. The other nations saw me bring Israel out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. ¹⁵ I made another promise to those people in the desert. I

* 20:1 seventh year of exile This was the summer of 591 B.C. † 20:3 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. promised that I would not bring them into the land I was giving them. That was a good land filled with many good things. It was the most beautiful of all countries!

¹⁶ “The people of Israel refused to obey my rules or to follow my laws. They treated my days of rest as if they were not important. They did all these things because their hearts belonged to their filthy idols. ¹⁷ But I felt sorry for them, so I did not destroy them. I did not completely destroy them in the desert. ¹⁸ I spoke to their children and told them, “Don’t be like your parents. Don’t make yourselves filthy with their filthy idols. Don’t follow their laws or obey their commands. ¹⁹ I am the LORD. I am your God. Obey my laws and keep my commands. Do the things I tell you. ²⁰ Show that my days of rest are important to you. Remember, they are a special sign between us. I am the LORD, and these days show you that I am your God.”

²¹ “But the children turned against me and did not obey my laws. They did not keep my commands—even though people who obey my laws live because of them. They treated my special days of rest as though they were not important. So I decided to destroy them completely in the desert—to let them feel the full force of my anger. ²² But I stopped myself. The other nations saw me bring Israel out of Egypt. I did not want to ruin my good name, so I did not destroy Israel in front of those other people. ²³ So I made another promise to those people in the desert. I promised to scatter them among the nations, to send them to many different countries.

³⁰ “Since Israel did those things, speak to them and tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: You people have made yourselves filthy by doing the things your ancestors did. You have acted like a prostitute. You have left me to be with the horrible gods your ancestors worshiped. ³¹ You are giving the same kind of gifts. You are putting your children in the fire as a gift to your false gods. You are still making yourself filthy with these filthy idols today! Do you really think that I should let you come to me and ask me for advice? I am the Lord GOD. By my life, I swear that I will not answer your questions or give you advice! ³² You keep saying you want to be like the other nations. You live like the people in other nations. You serve pieces of wood and stone idols!’ ”

³³ The Lord GOD says, “By my life, I swear that I will rule over you as king. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! ³⁴ I will bring you out of these other nations. I scattered you among these nations, but I will gather you together and bring you back from these countries. But I will raise my powerful arm and punish you. I will show my anger against you! ³⁵ I will lead you into a desert as I did before, but this will be a place where other nations live. We will stand face to face, and I will judge you. ³⁶ I will judge you as I judged your ancestors in the desert near Egypt.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

§ 20:28 anger offerings The people called these meals “fellowship offerings,” but Ezekiel is making fun of them and saying that those meals only made God angry. * 20:29 But that ... today Literally, “And its name is still called Bamah (high place) to this day.”

³⁷ “I will judge you guilty and punish you according to the agreement. ³⁸ I will remove all those who turned against me and sinned against me. I will remove them from your homeland. They will never again come to the land of Israel. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

³⁹ Now, family of Israel, this is what the Lord GOD says: “Whoever wants to worship their filthy idols, let them go and worship them. But later, don’t think you will get any advice from me. You will not ruin my name anymore—not when you continue to give your gifts to your filthy idols!”

⁴⁰ The Lord GOD says, “People must come to my holy mountain—the high mountain in Israel—to serve me! The whole family of Israel will be on their land; they will be there in their country. There you can come to ask me for advice, and you must come there to bring me your offerings. You must bring the first part of your crops to me there. You must bring all your holy gifts to me in that place. ⁴¹ Then I will be pleased with the sweet smell of your sacrifices. That will happen when I bring you back. I scattered you among many nations, but I will gather you together and make you my special people again. And all the nations will see it. ⁴² Then you will know that I am the LORD. You will know this when I bring you back to the land of Israel, the land I promised to give to your ancestors. ⁴³ In that country you will remember all the evil things you did that made you filthy, and you will be ashamed. ⁴⁴ Family of Israel, you did many evil things, and you should be destroyed because of them. But to protect my good name, I will not give you the punishment you really deserve. Then you will know that I am the LORD.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁴⁵ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ⁴⁶ “Son of man, look toward the Negev, the southern part of Judah. Speak against the Negev Forest.† ⁴⁷ Say to the Negev Forest, ‘Listen to the word of the LORD. This is what the Lord GOD said: Look, I am ready to start a fire in your forest. The fire will destroy every green tree and every dry tree. The flame that burns will not be put out. All the land from south to north will be burned by the fire. ⁴⁸ Then all people will see that I, the LORD, have started the fire. The fire will not be put out!’ ”

⁴⁹ Then I said, “Oh, Lord GOD! If I say this, the people will say that I am only telling them stories.”

Babylon, the Sword

¹ So the word of the LORD came to me again. He said, ² “Son of man,* look toward Jerusalem and speak against their holy places. Speak against the land of Israel for me. ³ Say to the land of Israel, ‘This is what the LORD said: I am against you! I will pull my sword from its sheath. I will remove all people from you—the good and the evil. ⁴ I will cut off both good people and evil people from you. I will pull my sword from its sheath and use it against all people from south to north. ⁵ Then everyone will know that I am the LORD. They will know that I have pulled my sword from its sheath. My sword will not go back into its sheath again until it is finished.’

⁶ “Son of man, make sad sounds like a sad person with a broken heart. Make these sad sounds in front of the people. ⁷ Then they will ask you, ‘Why are you making these sad sounds?’ Then you must say, ‘Because of the sad news that is coming. Every heart will melt with fear. All hands will become weak. Every spirit will become weak. All knees will be like water.’ Look, that bad news is coming. These things will happen!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

The Sword Is Ready

† 20:46 Negev Forest God is probably making fun of the people. The Negev is a desert area. There are no forests in the Negev. * 21:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 6, 9, 12, 14, 19, 28.

⁸ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ⁹ “Son of man, speak to the people for me. Say this, ‘This is what the Lord says:

“ ‘Look, a sword, a sharp sword, and it has been polished.

¹⁰ The sword was made sharp for killing.

It was polished to flash like lightning.

My son, you ran away from the stick I used to punish you.

You refused to be punished with that wooden stick.

¹¹ So the sword has been polished.

Now it can be used.

The sword was sharpened and polished.

Now it can be put in the hand of the killer.

¹² “ ‘Son of man, shout out and scream because the sword will be used against my people and all the rulers of Israel. They wanted war—so they will be with my people when the sword comes. So slap your thigh to show your sadness, ¹³ because it is not just a test. You refused to be punished with the wooden stick, so what else should I use to punish you? A sword? ” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁴ “ ‘Son of man, clap your hands to show your sadness, and speak to the people for me.

Let the sword come down twice, no, three times!

This sword is for killing the people.

This is the sword for the great killing.

This sword will cut into them.

¹⁵ Their hearts will melt with fear, and many people will fall.

The sword will kill many people by the city gates.

Yes, the sword will flash like lightning.

It was polished to kill the people!

¹⁶ Sword, be sharp!

Cut on the right side.

Cut straight ahead.

Cut on the left side.

Go wherever your edge was chosen to go.

¹⁷ “ ‘Then I, too, will clap my hands and stop showing my anger.

I, the LORD, have spoken!”

Jerusalem Punished

¹⁸ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁹ “ ‘Son of man, draw two roads that the sword of the king of Babylon can use to come to Israel. Both roads will come from the same country. Then draw a sign at the head of the road to the city. ²⁰ Use the sign to show which road the sword will use. One road leads to the Ammonite city of Rabbah. The other road leads to Judah, to the protected city, Jerusalem. ²¹ The king of Babylon has come to where the two roads separate. He uses magic to learn which way to go: He shakes his arrows, he asks his family idols, and he looks at the liver[†] from an animal he has killed.

[†] 21:21 arrows, idols, liver People who believed in false gods used these things to try to learn the future.

²² “The signs tell him to take the road on his right, the road leading to Jerusalem, where he will use battering rams.[‡] The signs tell him to give the command for his soldiers to begin the killing. They will shout the battle cry and set the battering rams against the gates. They will build a wall of dirt around the city and a dirt road leading up to the walls. They will build wooden towers to attack the city. ²³ But the people in Jerusalem will think this is all a big mistake. They will not believe that this could happen, because they had made a peace agreement with Babylon’s king. But the king will remind them that they are guilty of breaking that agreement, and he will take them captive.”

²⁴ This is what the Lord GOD says: “You have done many evil things. Your sins are very clear. You forced me to remember that you are guilty, so the enemy will catch you in his hand. ²⁵ And you, evil leader of Israel, you will be killed. Your time of punishment has come! The end is here!”

²⁶ This is what the Lord GOD says: “Take off the turban! Take off the crown! The time has come to change. The important leaders will be brought low, and those who are not important now will become important leaders. ²⁷ I will completely destroy that city! But this will not happen until the right man becomes the new king. Then I will let him have this city.”

The Ammonites Punished

²⁸ “Son of man, speak to the people for me. Say this, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says to the people of Ammon and their shameful god:

“ ‘Look, a sword!
The sword is out of its sheath.
It has been polished.
The sword is ready to kill.
It was polished to flash like lightning!

²⁹ “ ‘Your visions are useless.
Your magic will not help you.
It is only a bunch of lies.
The sword is now at the throats of evil men.
They will soon be only dead bodies.
Their time has come.
The time has come for their evil to end.

Prophecy Against Babylon

³⁰ “ ‘Put the sword back in its sheath. Babylon, I will judge you in the place where you were created, in the land where you were born. ³¹ I will pour out my anger against you. My anger will burn you like a hot wind. I will hand you over to cruel men.[§] Those men are skilled at killing people. ³² You will be like fuel for the fire. Your blood will flow deep into the earth—people will never remember you again. I, the LORD, have spoken!’ ”

22

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,^{*} will you judge the city of murderers? Will you tell her about all the terrible things she has done? ³ You must say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says: The city is full of murderers, so her time of punishment will come. She made filthy idols for herself, and those idols made her filthy!

[‡] 21:22 battering rams Heavy logs that soldiers used to break holes into the gates or walls around a city. [§] 21:31 cruel men This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “to burn.” ^{*} 22:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 18, 24.

⁴ “People of Jerusalem, you killed many people. You made filthy idols. You are guilty, and the time has come to punish you. Your end has come. Other nations will make fun of you and laugh at you. ⁵ People far and near will make fun of you. You have ruined your name. You are filled with confusion.

⁶ “Look, all the leaders in Israel are using their strength just to kill other people. ⁷ And the people in Jerusalem don’t respect their parents. There in the city, they abuse the foreigners. They cheat orphans and widows in that place. ⁸ You hate all that I consider holy. You treat my special days of rest as if they are not important. ⁹ In Jerusalem, people tell lies in order to kill innocent people. They go to the mountains to worship false gods and then come back to Jerusalem to eat their fellowship meals.

“In Jerusalem, people commit many sexual sins. ¹⁰ There men commit sexual sins with their father’s wife. There the men rape women—even during their monthly time of bleeding. ¹¹ One man commits a terrible sin against his own neighbor’s wife. Another man has sex with his daughter-in-law and makes her unclean. Another man rapes his father’s daughter—his very own sister. ¹² There men accept bribes to kill people. You lend money and charge interest on the loans. You cheat your neighbors just to make a little money. You have even forgotten me.’ This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹³ “Now look! I will slam my hand down and stop you! I will punish you for cheating and killing people. ¹⁴ Will you be brave then? Will you be strong at the time I come to punish you? I am the LORD. I have spoken, and I will do what I said! ¹⁵ I will scatter you among the nations. I will force you to go to many countries. I will completely destroy the filthy things in this city. ¹⁶ But Jerusalem, you will become unclean. And the other nations will see all these things happen. Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Israel Is Like Worthless Waste

¹⁷ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁸ “Son of man, bronze, iron, lead, and tin are important metals, but when a worker melts silver to make it pure, those metals are poured off as waste. Israel has become like that waste to me. ¹⁹ So this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘All of you have become like worthless waste. So I will gather you into Jerusalem. ²⁰ Workers put silver, bronze, iron, lead, and tin into a fire. They blow on the fire to make it hotter. Then the metals begin to melt. In the same way I will put you in my fire and melt you. That fire is my hot anger. ²¹ I will put you in my fire of anger and blow on it, and you will begin to melt. ²² In that city, you will be like silver melting in a fire. Then you will know that I am the LORD, and that I poured out my anger on you.’ ”

Ezekiel Speaks Against Jerusalem

²³ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ²⁴ “Son of man, speak to Israel. Tell her that she is not pure.† I am angry at that country, so that country has not received its rain. ²⁵ The prophets in Jerusalem are making evil plans. They are like a lion—it roars when it begins to eat the animal it caught. They have destroyed many lives. They have taken many valuable things and made widows of many of the women in Jerusalem.

²⁷ “The leaders in Jerusalem are like a wolf eating the animal it has caught. They attack people and kill them just to get rich.

²⁸ “The prophets don’t warn the people—they cover up the truth. They are like workers who don’t really repair a wall—they only put plaster over the holes. They only see lies. They do their magic to learn the future, but they only tell lies. They say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD said.’ But they are only lying—the LORD did not speak to them!

† 22:24 not pure This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means “not rained on.”

³⁰ “I asked the people to change their lives and protect their country. I asked people to fix the walls. I wanted them to stand by those holes in the wall and fight to protect their city. But no one came to help! ³¹ So I will show them my anger—I will completely destroy them. I will punish them for the evil things they have done. It is all their fault.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁵ “Then Oholah became unfaithful to me—she began to live like a prostitute. She began to want her lovers. She saw the Assyrian soldiers ⁶ in their blue uniforms. They were all handsome young men riding horses. They were leaders and officers, ⁷ and Oholah gave herself to all those men. All of them were handpicked soldiers in the Assyrian army, and she wanted them all! She became filthy with their filthy idols. ⁸ Besides that, she never stopped her love affair with Egypt. Egypt made love to her when she was a young girl. Egypt was the first lover to touch her young breasts. Egypt poured his untrue love on her. ⁹ So I let her lovers have her. She wanted Assyria, so I gave her to them! ¹⁰ They raped[§] her. They took her children and killed her. They punished her, and women still talk about her.

¹¹ “Her younger sister Oholibah saw all these things happen. But Oholibah sinned more than her sister did! She was more unfaithful than Oholah. ¹² She wanted the Assyrian leaders and officers. She wanted those soldiers in blue uniforms riding their horses. They were all handsome young men. ¹³ I saw that both women were going to ruin their lives with the same mistakes.

¹⁸ “Oholibah let everyone see that she was unfaithful. She let so many men enjoy her naked body that I became disgusted with her—just as I had become disgusted with her sister. ¹⁹ But Oholibah thought about her time as a prostitute in Egypt when she was young, and she turned to even more prostitution. ²⁰ She remembered the lovers who excited her there, who were like animals in their sexual desires and abilities.

²¹ “Oholibah, you dreamed of those times when you were young, when your lovers touched and handled your young breasts. ²² So Oholibah, this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘You became disgusted with your lovers, but I will bring them here, and they will surround you. ²³ I will bring all the men from Babylon, especially the Chaldeans. I will bring the men from Pekod, Shoa, and Koa, and all the men from Assyria. I will bring all

Also in verse 36. † 23:4 Oholah This name means “Tent.” It probably refers to the Holy Tent where the people of Israel went to worship God. ‡ 23:4 Oholibah This name means “My Tent is in her country.” Also in verses 18, 21. § 23:10 raped Literally, “revealed her nakedness.” The Hebrew word meaning “revealed” is like the word meaning “carried away as a prisoner to a faraway country.”

the leaders and officers, all those desirable young men, chariot officers, and handpicked soldiers riding their horses. ²⁴ That crowd of men will come to you in large groups, riding on their horses and in their chariots. They will have their spears, shields, and helmets. They will gather around you, and I will tell them what you have done to me. Then they will punish you their own way. ²⁵ I will show you how jealous I am. They will become angry and hurt you. They will cut off your nose and ears. They will kill you with a sword. Then they will take your children and burn whatever is left of you. ²⁶ They will take your nice clothes and jewelry. ²⁷ So I will stop your dreams about your love affair with Egypt. You will never again look for them. You will never remember Egypt again!’ ”

²⁸ This is what the Lord GOD says: “I am giving you to the men you hate. I am giving you to the men you became disgusted with. ²⁹ And they will show how much they hate you! They will take everything you worked for, and they will leave you bare and naked! People will clearly see your sins. They will see that you acted like a prostitute and dreamed wicked dreams. ³⁰ You did those bad things when you left me to chase after the other nations. You did those bad things when you began to worship their filthy idols. ³¹ You followed your sister and lived as she did. You, yourself, took her cup of poison and held it in your hands.*” ³² This is what the Lord GOD says:

“You will drink your sister’s cup of poison.

It is a tall, wide cup of poison.

It holds much poison.

People will laugh at you and make fun of you.

³³ You will stagger like a drunk.

You will become very dizzy.

That is the cup of destruction and devastation.

It is like the cup of punishment that your sister drank.

³⁴ You will drink the poison in that cup.

You will drink it to the last drop.

You will throw down the glass and break it to pieces.

You will tear at your breasts from the pain.

This will happen because I am the Lord GOD,
and this is what I said.

³⁵ “So this is what the Lord GOD said: ‘Jerusalem, you forgot me. You threw me away and left me behind. So now you must suffer for leaving me and living like a prostitute. You must suffer for your wicked dreams.’ ”

Judgment Against Oholah and Oholibah

³⁶ The LORD said to me, “Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? Then tell them about the terrible things they have done. ³⁷ They committed the sin of adultery. They are guilty of murder. They acted like prostitutes—they left me to be with their filthy idols. They had my children, but they forced them to pass through fire. They did this to give food to their filthy idols. ³⁸ They also treated my special days of rest and my holy place as though they were not important. ³⁹ They killed their children for their idols, and then they went into my holy place and made it filthy too! They did this inside my Temple!

⁴⁰ “They have sent for men from faraway places. You sent a messenger to these men, and they came to see you. You bathed for them, painted your eyes, and put on your jewelry. ⁴¹ You sat on a fine bed with a table set before it. You put my incense[†] and my oil[‡] on this table.

⁴² “The noise in Jerusalem sounded like a crowd of people having a party.[§] Many people came to the party. People were already drinking as they came in from the desert. They gave bracelets and beautiful crowns to the women. ⁴³ Then I spoke to one of the women who was worn out from her sexual sins. I asked her, ‘Will they continue to do sexual sins with her, and she with them?’ ⁴⁴ But they kept going to her as they would go to a prostitute. Yes, they went again and again to Oholah and Oholibah, those wicked women.

⁴⁵ “But good men will judge them guilty of adultery and murder, because Oholah and Oholibah committed adultery and their hands are covered with blood!”

⁴⁶ This is what the Lord GOD said: “Gather the people together to punish and terrorize Oholah and Oholibah. ⁴⁷ They will throw stones at these women and kill them. They will cut the women to pieces with their swords. They will kill their children and burn their houses. ⁴⁸ In this way I will remove that shame from this country, and all the other women will be warned not to do the shameful things you have done. ⁴⁹ They will punish you for the wicked things you did. You will be punished for worshiping your filthy idols. Then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

The Pot and the Meat

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. This was on the tenth day of the tenth month in the ninth year of exile.* He said, ² “Son of man,[†] write today’s date and this note: ‘On this date the army of the king of Babylon surrounded Jerusalem.’ ³ The people there refuse to obey me. I have a story with a message for them. Tell them, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:

“ ‘Put the pot on the fire.

Put on the pot and pour in the water.

⁴ Put in the pieces of meat.

Put in every good piece, the thighs and the shoulders.

Fill the pot with the best bones.

⁵ Use the best animals in the flock.

Pile the wood under the pot, and boil the pieces of meat.

Boil the soup until even the bones are cooked.

⁶ “ ‘So this is what the Lord GOD says:

It will be bad for Jerusalem.

It will be bad for that city of murderers.

Jerusalem is like a pot with rust on it, and those spots of rust cannot be removed!

That pot is not clean, and the rust cannot be removed,

so the meat must be thrown out and not divided among the priests.

⁷ Jerusalem is like a pot with rust on it.

[†] 23:41 my incense A special blend of spices that were burned as a gift to God. This special incense was to be burned only in the Temple. See Exodus 30:34-38. [‡] 23:41 my oil The special oil that was used for anointing priests and things in the Temple to make them holy (special). See Exodus 30:22-33. [§] 23:42 party The Hebrew word is like the word for a fellowship offering, a time when people came to share a meal and enjoy themselves together with the Lord. Here, it seems this time of worship turned into a wild party. See Deuteronomy 14:22-29; 26:1-15. ^{*} 24:1 ninth year of exile This was Jan. 15, 588 B.C., the date that Nebuchadnezzar began his attack on Jerusalem. [†] 24:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 16, 25.

This is because the blood from the murders is still there!
She put the blood on the bare rock.

She did not pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt.‡

⁸ I put her blood on the bare rock so that it would not be covered.
I did this so that people would become angry and punish her for killing innocent people.

⁹ “So this is what the Lord GOD says:
It will be bad for that city of murderers!
I will pile up plenty of wood for the fire.

¹⁰ Put plenty of wood under the pot.
Light the fire.

Cook the meat until it is well done.
Mix in the spices,[§]
and let the bones be burned up.

¹¹ Then let the pot stand empty on the coals.
Let it become so hot that its stains* begin to glow.
Those stains will be melted away.
The rust will be destroyed.

¹² “Jerusalem might work hard to scrub away her stains.
But that ‘rust’ will not go away!
Only the fire of punishment will remove it.

¹³ “You sinned against me and became stained with sin.
I wanted to wash you and make you clean,
but the stains would not come out.
I will not try washing you again until my hot anger is finished with you!

¹⁴ “I am the LORD. I said your punishment would come, and I will make it happen.
I will not hold back the punishment or feel sorry for you. I will punish you for the evil things you did. This is what the Lord GOD said.’”

The Death of Ezekiel’s Wife

¹⁵ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁶ “Son of man, you love your wife very much, but I am going to take her away from you. Your wife will die suddenly, but you must not show your sadness. You must not cry loudly. You will cry and your tears will fall, ¹⁷ but you must mourn quietly. Dress as you normally do; wear your turban and sandals; don’t cover your mustache, and don’t eat the food people normally eat when someone dies.”

¹⁸ The next morning I told the people what God had said. That evening, my wife died.
The next morning I did what God commanded. ¹⁹ Then the people said to me, “Why are you doing this? What does it mean?”

²⁰ Then I said to them, “The word of the LORD came to me. He told me ²¹ to speak to the family of Israel. The Lord GOD said, ‘Look, I will destroy my holy place. You are ‡ 24:7 blood ... dirt The Law of Moses teaches that whoever killed an animal for food must pour the blood on the ground and cover it with dirt. This showed that they were giving the life of that animal back to God. See Leviticus 17:1-16 and Deuteronomy 12:1-25. If the blood was not covered with dirt, it was a witness against the killer. See Genesis 4:10, Job 15:18, and Isaiah 26:21. § 24:10 Mix in the spices The meaning of this sentence is uncertain.

proud of that place and sing songs of praise about it. You love to see it. You really love that place. But I will destroy it, and your children that you left behind will be killed in battle. ²² But you will do the same things that I have done about my dead wife. You will not cover your mustache or eat the food people normally eat when someone dies. ²³ You will wear your turbans and your sandals. You will not show your sadness publicly or cry publicly, but you will waste away with guilt and talk to each other quietly about your grief. ²⁴ So Ezekiel is an example for you. You will do all the same things he did. That time of punishment will come, and then you will know that I am the Lord GOD.’ ”

²⁵⁻²⁶ The Lord said, “Son of man, I will take away the place that makes the people feel safe—Jerusalem, that beautiful city that makes them so happy. They really love that place. They love to look at it. But I will take it away from them, and I will also take their children. On that day one of the survivors will come to you with the bad news about Jerusalem. ²⁷ That same day you will be able to talk to the messenger. You will not be silent anymore. This will be a sign to the people, and they will know that I am the LORD.”

Prophecy Against Ammon

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* look toward the people of Ammon and speak against them for me. ³ Say to them: ‘Listen to the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says: You were happy when my holy place was destroyed. You were against the land of Israel when it was polluted. You were against the family of Judah when the people were carried away as prisoners. ⁴ So I will give you to the people from the east. They will get your land. Their armies will set up their camps in your country and will live among you. They will eat your fruit and drink your milk.

⁵ “I will make the city Rabbah a pasture for camels and the country of Ammon a sheep pen. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ⁶ This is what the Lord GOD says: You were happy that Jerusalem was destroyed. You clapped your hands and stamped your feet. You had fun insulting the land of Israel, ⁷ so I will punish you. You will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. You will lose your inheritance and die in faraway lands. I will destroy your country! Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

Prophecy Against Moab and Seir

⁸ This is what the Lord GOD says: “Moab and Seir† say, ‘The family of Judah is just like any other nation.’ ⁹ I will cut into Moab’s shoulder—I will take away the cities that are on its borders—the glory of the land, Beth Jeshimoth, Baal Meon, and Kiriathaim. ¹⁰ Then I will give these cities to the people of the east. They will get your land. I will also let those people from the east destroy the Ammonites, and people will forget they were ever a nation. ¹¹ So I will punish Moab, and then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Prophecy Against Edom

¹² This is what the Lord GOD says: “The people of Edom turned against the family of Judah and tried to get even. The people of Edom are guilty.” ¹³ So the Lord GOD says: “I will punish Edom. I will destroy the people and the animals in Edom. I will destroy the whole country of Edom, all the way from Teman to Dedan. The Edomites will be killed in battle. ¹⁴ I will use my people Israel and get even against Edom. In this way the people of Israel will show my anger against Edom. Then the people of Edom will know that I punished them.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Prophecy Against the Philistines

¹⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says: “The Philistines tried to get even. They were very cruel. They let their anger burn inside them too long.” ¹⁶ So the Lord GOD said, “I will punish the Philistines. Yes, I will destroy those people from Crete. I will completely destroy those people who live on the seacoast. ¹⁷ I will punish them—I will get even. I will let my anger teach them a lesson. Then they will know that I am the LORD!”

The Sad Message About Tyre

¹ In the eleventh year of exile,* on the first day of the month, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,† Tyre said bad things about Jerusalem: ‘Hurray! The city gate protecting the people is destroyed! The city gate is open for me. The city of Jerusalem is ruined, so I can get plenty of valuable things out of it!’ ”

³ So the Lord GOD says: “I am against you, Tyre! I will bring many nations to fight against you. They will come again and again, like waves on the beach.

⁴ “The enemy soldiers will destroy the walls of Tyre and pull down her towers. I will also scrape the topsoil from her land. I will make Tyre a bare rock. ⁵ Tyre will become a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets. I have spoken!” The Lord GOD says, “Tyre will be like the valuable things soldiers take in war. ⁶ Her daughters on the mainland will be killed in battle. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

Nebuchadnezzar Will Attack Tyre

⁷ This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will bring an enemy from the north against Tyre. That enemy is Nebuchadnezzar, the great king of Babylon! He will bring a very large army. There will be horses, chariots, horse soldiers and many other soldiers. They will be from many different nations. ⁸ Nebuchadnezzar will kill your daughters on the mainland. He will build towers to attack your city. He will build a dirt road around your city and a dirt road leading up to the walls. ⁹ He will bring the logs to break down your walls. He will use picks and break down your towers. ¹⁰ There will be so many of his horses that the dust from them will cover you. Your walls will shake at the noise of horse soldiers, wagons, and chariots when the king of Babylon enters the city through your city gates. Yes, they will come into your city because its walls will be pulled down. ¹¹ The king of Babylon will come riding through your city. His horses’ hoofs‡ will come pounding over your streets. He will kill your people with swords. The strong columns in your city will fall to the ground. ¹² Nebuchadnezzar’s men will take away your riches. They will take the things you wanted to sell. They will break down your walls and destroy your pleasant houses. They will throw the wood and stones into the sea like garbage. ¹³ So I will stop the sound of your happy songs. People will not hear your harps anymore. ¹⁴ I will make you a bare rock. You will be a place by the sea for spreading fishing nets! You will not be rebuilt, because I, the LORD, have spoken!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Other Nations Will Cry for Tyre

¹⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says to Tyre: “The countries along the Mediterranean coast will shake at the sound of your fall. That will happen when your people are hurt and killed. ¹⁶ Then all the leaders of the countries by the sea will step down from their thrones and show their sadness. They will take off their special robes and their beautiful clothes. Then they will put on their ‘clothes of shaking.’ They will sit on the ground and shake with fear. They will be shocked at how quickly you were destroyed. ¹⁷ They will sing this sad song about you:

“Tyre, you were a famous city.§

* 26:1 eleventh year of exile This was probably the summer of 587 B.C. See 2 Kings 25:3. † 26:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. ‡ 26:11 hoofs The hard part of a horse’s foot. § 26:17 you were a famous city This can also mean “People have cried for you.”

People came from across the sea to live in you.*
 You were famous,
 but now you are gone!
 You were strong on the sea,
 and so were the people who lived in you.
 You made all who live on the mainland afraid of you.
¹⁸ Now, on the day you fall,
 the countries along the coast will shake with fear.
 You started many colonies along the coast.
 Now those people will be afraid when you are gone!’ ”

¹⁹ This is what the Lord GOD says: “Tyre, you will become an old, empty city. No one will live there. I will cause the sea to flow over you. The great sea will cover you. ²⁰ I will send you down into that deep hole—to the place of death. You will join those who died long ago. I will send you to the world below, like all the other old, empty cities. You will be with all the others who go down to the grave. No one will live in you then. You will never again be in the land of the living! ²¹ Other people will be afraid about what happened to you. You will be finished. People will look for you, but they will never find you again.” That is what the Lord GOD says.

Tyre, the Door to the Seas

¹ The word of the LORD came to me again. He said, ² “Son of man,* sing this sad song about Tyre. ³ Say this about Tyre: ‘Tyre, you are the door to the seas. You are the merchant for many nations. You travel to many countries along the coast. This is what the Lord GOD says:

“Tyre, you think that you are so beautiful.
 You think you are perfectly beautiful!
⁴ The Mediterranean Sea is the border around your city.
 Your builders made you perfectly beautiful,
 like the ships that sail from you.
⁵ Your builders used cypress trees from the mountains of Senir to make your planks.
 They used cedar trees from Lebanon to make your mast.
⁶ They used oak trees from Bashan to make your oars.
 They used pine trees from Cyprus to make the cabin on your deck.†
 They decorated that shelter with ivory.
⁷ For your sail, they used colorful linen made in Egypt.
 That sail was your flag.
 The coverings over your cabin were blue and purple.
 They came from the coast of Cyprus.‡
⁸ Men from Sidon and Arvad rowed your boats for you.
 Tyre, your wise men were the pilots on your ships.

⁹ The elders and wise men from Byblos[§] were on board to help put caulking* between the boards on your ship.
 All the ships of the sea and their sailors came to trade and do business with you.

¹⁰ “Men from Persia, Lud, and Put were in your army. They were your men of war who hung their shields and helmets on your walls. They brought honor and glory to your city. ¹¹ Men from Arvad and Cilicia were guards standing on the wall around your city. Men from Gammad were in your towers. They hung their shields on the walls around your city and made your beauty complete.

¹⁷ “The people in Judah and Israel traded with you. They paid for the things you sold with the wheat, olives, early figs, honey, oil, and balm.[§] ¹⁸ Damascus was a good customer. They traded with you for the many wonderful things you had. They traded wine from Helbon and white wool for those things. ¹⁹ Damascus traded wine from Uzal for the things you sold. They paid with wrought iron, cassia, and sugar cane. ²⁰ Dedan provided good business and traded with you for saddle blankets and riding horses. ²¹ Arabia and all the leaders of Kedar traded lambs, rams, and goats for your goods. ²² The merchants of Sheba and Raamah traded with you. They traded all the best spices and every kind of precious stone and gold for your goods. ²³ Haran, Canneh, Eden, the merchants of Sheba, Asshur, and Kilmad traded with you. ²⁴ They paid with the finest clothing, blue cloth, cloth with fine needlework, rugs of many colors, and the strongest ropes. These were the things they traded with you. ²⁵ The ships from Tarshish carried the things you sold.

“Tyre, you are like one of those cargo ships.

You are on the sea, loaded with many riches.

²⁶ Your oarsmen rowed you far out to sea.

But a powerful east wind will destroy your ship at sea.

²⁷ All your wealth will spill into the sea.

Your wealth—the things you buy and sell—will spill into the sea.

Your whole crew—sailors, pilots, and the men who put caulking between the boards on your ship—will spill into the sea.

The merchants and soldiers in your city will all sink into the sea.

That will happen on the day that you are destroyed!

It is used as medicine.

Those places will shake with fear when they hear your pilots' cry!

 The sailors and pilots will jump ship and swim to the shore.
³⁰ They will be very sad about you.
 They will cry, throw dust on their heads, and roll in ashes.
³¹ They will shave their heads for you.
 They will put on sackcloth.
 They will cry for you like someone crying for someone who died.

³² “ ‘And in their loud crying they will sing this sad song about you:

“ ‘No one is like Tyre!
 Tyre is destroyed, in the middle of the sea!
³³ Your merchants sailed across the seas.
 You satisfied many people with your great wealth and the things you sold.
 You made the kings of the earth rich!
³⁴ But now you are broken by the seas and by the deep waters.
 All the things you sell and all your people have fallen.
³⁵ All the people living on the coast are shocked about you.
 Their kings are terrified.
 Their faces show their shock.
³⁶ The merchants in other nations whistle about you.
 What happened to you will frighten people, because you were destroyed.
 You are gone forever.’ ”

Tyre Thinks It Is Like a God

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* say to the ruler of Tyre,
 ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:

“ ‘You are very proud!
 And you say, “I am a god!
 I sit on the seat of gods
 in the middle of the seas.”

“ ‘But you are a man and not God!
 You only think you are a god.
³ You think you are wiser than Daniel† and no secret is hidden from you.
⁴ Through your wisdom and understanding you have gotten riches for yourself.
 And you put gold and silver in your treasuries.
⁵ Through your great wisdom and trade,

* 28:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 12, 21. † 28:3 Daniel A wise man from ancient times. This might be Daniel from the Bible, or the Danel mentioned in the writings from Ras Shamra.

you have made your riches grow.
And now you are proud because of those riches.

⁶ “So this is what the Lord GOD says:
Tyre, you thought you were like a god.

⁷ I will bring strangers to fight against you.
They are most terrible among the nations!

They will pull out their swords and use them against the beautiful things your wisdom brought you.
They will ruin your glory.

⁸ They will bring you down to the grave.
You will be like a sailor who died at sea.

⁹ That person will kill you.
Will you still say, “I am a god”?

No, he will have you in his power!
You will see that you are a man, not God!

¹⁰ Strangers will treat you like a foreigner[‡] and kill you, because I gave the command!”

This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹² “Son of man, sing this sad song about the king of Tyre. Say to him, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:

“ ‘You were the perfect man—so full of wisdom and perfectly handsome.

¹³ You were in Eden, the garden of God.

You had every precious stone—rubies, topaz, and diamonds, beryls, onyx, and jasper,
sapphires, turquoise, and emeralds.

And each of these stones was set in gold.
You were given this beauty on the day you were created.
God made you strong.

¹⁴ You were one of the chosen Cherubs who spread your wings over my throne.

I put you on the holy mountain of God.
You walked among the jewels that sparkled like fire.

¹⁵ You were good and honest when I created you,
but then you became evil.

¹⁶ Your business brought you many riches.
But they also put cruelty inside you, and you sinned.

So I treated you like something unclean and threw you off the mountain of God.

You were one of the chosen Cherubs
who spread your wings over my throne.

But I forced you to leave the jewels that sparkled like fire.

¹⁷ Your beauty made you proud.
Your glory ruined your wisdom.

[‡] 28:10 foreigner Literally, “uncircumcised.” This means a person who did not share in the agreement God made with Israel. See “circumcise, circumcision” in the Word List.

So I threw you down to the ground, and now other kings stare at you.
¹⁸ You did many wrong things.
 You were a very crooked merchant.
 In this way you made the holy places unclean.
 So I brought fire from inside you.
 It burned you!
 You burned to ashes on the ground.
 Now everyone can see your shame.

¹⁹ “All the people in other nations were shocked about what happened to you.
 What happened to you will make people very afraid.
 You are finished!”

The Message Against Sidon

²⁰ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ²¹ “Son of man, look toward Sidon and speak for me against that place. ²² Say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:

“ ‘I am against you, Sidon!
 Your people will learn to respect me.
 I will punish Sidon.
 Then people will know that I am the LORD.
 Then they will learn that I am holy,
 and they will treat me that way.
²³ I will send disease and death to Sidon, and many people inside the city will die.
 Soldiers outside the city will kill many people.
 Then people will know that I am the LORD!

The Nations Will Stop Laughing at Israel

²⁴ “ ‘Then the surrounding nations that hate Israel will no longer be like stinging nettles[§] and painful thorns. And they will know that I am the Lord GOD.’ ”

²⁵ This is what the Lord GOD said: “I scattered the people of Israel among other nations, but I will gather the family of Israel together again. Then the nations will know that I am holy, and they will treat me that way. At that time the people of Israel will live in their land—I gave that land to my servant Jacob. ²⁶ They will live safely in the land. They will build houses and plant vineyards. I will punish the nations around them that hated them. Then the people of Israel will live in safety, and they will know that I am the LORD their God.”

The Message Against Egypt

¹ On the twelfth day of the tenth month of the tenth year of exile,^{*} the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,[†] look toward Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Speak for me against him and Egypt. ³ Say, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:

“ ‘I am against you, Pharaoh, king of Egypt.

[§] 28:24 nettles Plants covered with stinging hairs. ^{*} 29:1 tenth year of exile This was the winter of 587 B.C.

You are the great monster[‡] lying beside the Nile River.
 You say, “This is my river!
 I made this river!”

4-5 “But I will put hooks in your jaws.
 The fish in the Nile River will stick to your scales.
 I will pull you and your fish up out of your rivers and onto the dry land.
 You will fall on the ground,
 and no one will pick you up or bury you.
 I will give you to the wild animals and birds.
 You will be their food.
 6 Then all the people living in Egypt will know that I am the LORD!

“Why will I do these things?
 Because the people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support, but Egypt was only a weak blade of grass.
 7 The people of Israel leaned on Egypt for support, but Egypt only pierced their hands and shoulder.
 They leaned on you for support,
 but you broke and twisted their back.’ ”

8 So this is what the Lord GOD says:
 “I will bring a sword against you.
 I will destroy all your people and animals.
 9 Egypt will be empty and destroyed.
 Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

God said, “Why will I do these things? Because you said, ‘This is my river. I made this river.’ 10 So I am against you. I am against the many branches of your Nile River. I will destroy Egypt completely. The cities will be empty from Migdol to Aswan and as far as the border of Ethiopia. 11 No person or animal will pass through Egypt. Nothing will pass through or settle there for 40 years. 12 I will destroy Egypt. The cities will be in ruins for 40 years! I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. I will make them strangers[§] in foreign lands.”

13 This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will scatter the people of Egypt among many nations. But at the end of 40 years, I will gather those people together again. 14 I will bring back the Egyptian captives. I will bring back the Egyptians to the land of Pathros, to the land where they were born. But their kingdom will not be important. 15 It will be the least important kingdom. It will never again lift itself above the other nations. I will make them so small that they will not rule over the nations. 16 And the family of Israel will never again depend on Egypt. The Israelites will remember their sin—they will remember that they turned to Egypt for help and not to God, and they will know that I am the Lord GOD.”

Babylon Will Get Egypt

17 On the first day of the first month in the twenty-seventh year of exile,^{*} the word of the LORD came to me. He said, 18 “Son of man, King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon made his army fight hard against Tyre. They shaved every soldier's head. Every shoulder was rubbed bare from carrying heavy loads. Nebuchadnezzar and his army worked hard to defeat Tyre, but they got nothing from all that hard work." ¹⁹ So this is what the Lord GOD says: "I will give Egypt to King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon, and he will carry away the people. He will take the many valuable things in Egypt to pay his army. ²⁰ I will give Egypt to Nebuchadnezzar as a reward for the hard work he did for me." This is what the Lord GOD said!

²¹ "On that day I will make the family of Israel strong. So Ezekiel, I will let you speak to them. Then they will know that I am the LORD."

The Army of Babylon Will Attack Egypt

¹ The word of the LORD came to me again. He said, ² "Son of man,* speak for me. Say, 'This is what the Lord GOD says:

"Cry and say,
"A terrible day is coming."

³ That day is near!
Yes, the LORD'S day for judging is near.

It will be a cloudy day,
the time for judging the nations.

⁴ A sword will come against Egypt!
People in Ethiopia will shake with fear, when Egypt falls.
The army of Babylon will take the Egyptians as prisoners.
Egypt's foundations will be torn down.

⁵ "Many people made peace agreements with Egypt. But all those people from Ethiopia, Put, Lud, all Arabia, Libya, and the people of Israel[†] will be destroyed!

⁶ "This is what the LORD says:
Those who support Egypt will fall!
The pride in her power will end.
The people in Egypt will be killed in battle,
all the way from Migdol to Aswan.
This is what the Lord GOD said!

⁷ Egypt will join the other countries that were destroyed.
Its cities will be among those that are in ruins.

⁸ I will start a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers will be destroyed.
Then they will know that I am the LORD!

⁹ "At that time I will send out messengers. They will go in ships to carry the bad news to Ethiopia. Ethiopia now feels safe, but the people of Ethiopia will shake with fear when Egypt is punished. That time is coming!"

¹⁰ This is what the Lord GOD says:
"I will use the king of Babylon.
I will use Nebuchadnezzar to destroy the people of Egypt.

* 30:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying "a person" or "a human being." Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 21. † 30:5 people of Israel Literally, "sons of the agreement." This might mean "all the people who made peace agreements with Egypt," or it might mean "Israel, the people who made the agreement with God."

¹¹ Nebuchadnezzar and his people are the most terrible of the nations, and I will bring them to destroy Egypt.
They will pull out their swords against Egypt.
They will fill the land with dead bodies.
¹² I will make the Nile River become dry land.
Then I will sell the dry land to evil people.
I will use strangers to make that land empty.
I, the LORD, have spoken!”

The Idols of Egypt Will Be Destroyed

¹³ This is what the Lord GOD says:
“I will also destroy the idols in Egypt.
I will take the statues away from Memphis.
There will no longer be a leader in the land of Egypt.
I will put fear there instead.
¹⁴ I will make Pathros empty.
I will start a fire in Zoan.
I will punish Thebes.
¹⁵ I will pour out my anger against Pelusium, the fortress of Egypt!
I will destroy the people of Thebes.
¹⁶ I will start a fire in Egypt;
the city of Pelusium will ache with fear.
The soldiers will break into the city of Thebes,
and Memphis will have new troubles every day.
¹⁷ The young men of Heliopolis and Bubastis[‡] will die in battle, and the women will be taken away as prisoners.
¹⁸ It will be a dark day in Tahpanhes when I break Egypt’s control.[§]
Her proud power will be finished!
A cloud will cover Egypt,
and her daughters will be taken away as prisoners.
¹⁹ So I will punish Egypt.
Then they will know that I am the LORD!”

Egypt Will Become Weak Forever

²⁰ On the seventh day of the first month of the eleventh year of exile,^{*} the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ²¹ “Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh, king of Egypt. No one will wrap his arm with a bandage. It will not heal, so his arm will not be strong enough to hold a sword.”

²² This is what the Lord GOD says: “I am against Pharaoh, king of Egypt. I will break both his arms, the strong arm and the arm that is already broken. I will make the sword fall from his hand. ²³ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. ²⁴ I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong. I will put my sword in his hand, but I will break the arms of Pharaoh. Then Pharaoh will cry out in pain, the kind of cry that a dying man makes. ²⁵ So I will make the arms of the king of Babylon strong, but the arms of Pharaoh will fall. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

“I will put my sword in the hand of the king of Babylon. Then he will stretch the sword out against the land of Egypt. ²⁶ I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations. Then they will know that I am the LORD!”

[‡] 30:17 Heliopolis and Bubastis Hebrew, “On and Pi Beseth,” cities in Egypt. [§] 30:18 control Literally, “yoke.”

Assyria Is Like a Cedar Tree

¹ On the first day of the third month in the eleventh year of exile, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* say this to Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and to his people:

“ ‘You are so great!

Who can I compare you to?

³ Assyria was a cedar tree in Lebanon with beautiful branches, with forest shade, and very tall.

Its top was among the clouds!

⁴ The water made the tree grow.

The deep river made the tree tall.

Rivers flowed around the place where the tree was planted.

Only small streams flowed from that tree to all the other trees of the field.

⁵ So that tree was taller than all the other trees of the field, and it grew many branches.

There was plenty of water,

so the tree branches spread out.

⁶ All the birds of the sky made their nests in the branches of that tree, and all the animals of the field gave birth under the branches of that tree.

All the great nations lived under the shade of that tree.

⁷ The tree was very beautiful.

It was so large!

It had such long branches.

Its roots had plenty of water.

⁸ Even the cedar trees in God’s garden were not as big as this tree.

Cypress trees did not have as many branches.

Plane trees did not have such branches.

No tree in God’s garden was as beautiful as this tree.

⁹ I gave it many branches and made it beautiful.

And all the trees in Eden, God’s garden, were jealous!’ ”

¹⁰ So this is what the Lord GOD says: “That tree grew tall. Its top reached up to the clouds. It grew so big that it became proud! ¹¹ So I let a powerful king have that tree. That ruler punished the tree for the bad things it did. I took that tree out of my garden. ¹² Strangers—the most terrible people in the world—cut it down and scattered its branches on the mountains and in the valleys. Its broken limbs drifted down the rivers flowing through that land. There was no more shadow under that tree, so all the people left. ¹³ Now birds live in that fallen tree. Wild animals walk over its fallen branches.

* 31:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

¹⁴ “Now, none of the trees by that water will be proud. They will not try to reach the clouds. None of the strong trees that drink that water will brag about being tall, because all of them must die. They will all go down into the world below, to Sheol, the place of death. They will join the other people who died and went down into that deep hole.”

¹⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says: “I made the people cry on the day that tree went down to Sheol. I covered him with the deep ocean. I stopped its rivers and all the water stopped flowing. I made Lebanon mourn for it. All the trees of the field became sick with sadness for that big tree. ¹⁶ I made the tree fall—and the nations shook with fear at the sound of the falling tree. I sent the tree down to the place of death to join the other people who had gone down into that deep hole. In the past, all the trees of Eden, the best of Lebanon, drank that water. The trees were comforted in the world below. ¹⁷ Yes, those trees also went down with the big tree to the place of death. They joined the people who were killed in battle. That big tree made the other trees strong. Those trees had lived under the big tree’s shadow among the nations.

¹⁸ “Egypt, there were many big and powerful trees in Eden. Which of those trees should I compare you to? They all went down into the world below! And you, too, will join those foreigners[†] in that place of death. You will lie there among the people killed in battle.

“Yes, that will happen to Pharaoh and to the crowds of people with him!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

32

Pharaoh: a Lion or a Dragon?

¹ On the first day of the twelfth month in the twelfth year of exile,^{*} the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,[†] sing this sad song about Pharaoh, king of Egypt. Say to him:

“ ‘You thought you were like a powerful young lion walking proud among the nations.

But really, you are like a dragon[‡] in the lakes.

You push your way through the streams.

You make the water muddy with your feet and stir up the rivers of Egypt.’ ”

³ This is what the Lord GOD says:

“I have gathered many people together.

Now I will throw my net over you.

Then those people will pull you in.

⁴ Then I will drop you on the dry ground.

I will throw you down in the field.

I will let all the birds come and eat you.

I will let wild animals from every place come and eat you until they are full.

⁵ I will scatter your body on the mountains.

I will fill the valleys with your dead body.

⁶ I will pour your blood on the mountains, and it will soak down into the ground.

[†] 31:18 foreigners Literally, “uncircumcised.” This means people who did not share in the agreement God made with Israel. See “circumcise, circumcision” in the Word List. ^{*} 32:1 twelfth year of exile This was early spring, 585 B.C. Also in verse 17. [†] 32:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 18. [‡] 32:2 dragon This might be a crocodile or a giant sea creature. The giant sea creature represented the power of the sea, and the Nile River made Egypt a powerful nation.

The rivers will be full of you.

⁷ I will make you disappear.

I will cover the sky and make the stars dark.

I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon will not shine.

⁸ I will darken the lights in the sky over you.

I will make your whole country dark.”

This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁹ “I will make many people sad and upset when I bring an enemy to destroy you. Nations you don’t even know will be upset. ¹⁰ I will make many people shocked about you. Their kings will be terrified of you, when I swing my sword before them. They will shake with fear on the day you fall. Each king will be afraid for his own life.”

¹¹ That will happen because of what the Lord GOD said: “The sword of the king of Babylon will come to fight against you. ¹² I will use those soldiers to kill your people in battle. They come from the most terrible of the nations. They will destroy the things Egypt is proud of. The people of Egypt will be destroyed. ¹³ There are many animals by the rivers in Egypt. I will also destroy all those animals. People will not make the waters muddy with their feet anymore. The hoofs of cattle will not make the water muddy anymore. ¹⁴ So I will make the water in Egypt calm. I will cause their rivers to run slowly—they will be slick like oil.” This is what the Lord GOD said. ¹⁵ “I will make the land of Egypt empty. That land will lose everything. I will punish all the people living in Egypt. Then they will know that I am the LORD!

¹⁶ “This is a sad song that people will sing for Egypt. The daughters in other nations will sing this sad song. They will sing it as a sad song about Egypt and all its people.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Egypt to Be Destroyed

¹⁷ On the fifteenth day of that month in the twelfth year of exile, the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁸ “Son of man, cry for the people of Egypt. Lead Egypt and the daughters from powerful nations to the grave. Lead them to the world below where they will be with the other people who went down into that deep hole.

¹⁹ “Egypt, you are no better than anyone else! Go down to the place of death. Go lie down with those foreigners. § ²⁰ “Egypt will go to be with all the other men who were killed in battle. The enemy has pulled her and all her people away.

²¹ “Strong and powerful men were killed in battle. Those foreigners went down to the place of death. And from that place, those who were killed will speak to Egypt and his helpers.

²²⁻²³ “Assyria and all its army are there in the place of death. Their graves are deep down in that deep hole. All the Assyrian soldiers were killed in battle, and their graves are all around his grave. When they were alive, they made people afraid, but they were all killed in battle.

²⁴ “Elam is there and all its army is around her grave. All of them were killed in battle. Those foreigners went deep down into the ground. When they were alive, they made people afraid. But they carried their shame with them down to that deep hole. ²⁵ They have made a bed for Elam and all its soldiers who were killed in battle. Elam’s army is all around its grave. All those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they scared people. But they carried their shame with them down into that deep hole. They were put with all the other people who were killed.

²⁶ “Meshech, Tubal, and all their armies are there. Their graves are around it. All those foreigners were killed in battle. When they were alive, they made people afraid.

§ 32:19 foreigners Literally, “uncircumcised.” This means people who did not share in the agreement God made with Israel. See “circumcise, circumcision” in the Word List.

²⁷ But now they are lying down by the powerful men who died long, long ago! They were buried with their weapons of war. Their swords will be laid under their heads. But their sins are on their bones, because when they were alive, they scared people.

²⁸ “Egypt, you also will be destroyed, and you will lie down by those foreigners. You will lie with the other soldiers who were killed in battle.

²⁹ “Edom is there also. His kings and other leaders are there with him. They were powerful soldiers, but now they lie with the other men who were killed in battle. They are lying there with those foreigners. They are there with the other people who went down into that deep hole.

³⁰ “The rulers from the north are there, all of them, and there are all the soldiers from Sidon. Their strength scared people, but they are embarrassed. Those foreigners lie there with the other men who were killed in battle. They carried their shame with them down into that deep hole.

³¹ “Yes, Pharaoh and all his army will be killed in battle. Pharaoh will be comforted when he sees his many men and all the others who went down into the place of death.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

³² “People were afraid of Pharaoh when he was alive, but he will lie down next to those foreigners. Pharaoh and his army will lie down with all the other soldiers who were killed in battle.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

God Chooses Ezekiel to Be a Watchman

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* speak to your people. Say to them, ‘Whenever I bring enemy soldiers to fight against a country, the people choose someone to be a watchman. ³ If this guard sees enemy soldiers coming, he blows the trumpet and warns the people. ⁴ If people hear the warning but ignore it, the enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. They will be responsible for their own death. ⁵ They heard the trumpet, but they ignored the warning. So they are responsible for their own deaths. If they had paid attention to the warning, they could have saved their own lives.

⁶ “‘But what if the guard sees the enemy soldiers coming, but does not blow the trumpet? Since he doesn’t warn the people, the enemy will capture them and take them away as prisoners. They will be taken away because they sinned, but the guard will also be responsible for their deaths.’

⁷ “Now, son of man, I am choosing you to be a watchman for the family of Israel. If you hear a message from my mouth, you must warn the people for me. ⁸ I might say to you, ‘These evil people will die.’ Then you must go warn them for me. If you don’t warn them and tell them to change their lives, those evil people will die because they sinned. But I will make you responsible for their deaths. ⁹ But if you do warn the evil people to change their lives and stop sinning, and if they refuse to stop, they will die because they sinned. But you have saved your life.

God Does Not Want to Destroy People

¹⁰ “So, son of man, speak to the family of Israel for me. They might say, ‘We have sinned and broken the law. Our sins are too heavy to bear. We rot away because of them. What can we do to live?’

¹¹ “You must say to them, ‘The Lord GOD says: By my life, I swear that I don’t enjoy seeing people die—not even evil people! I don’t want them to die. I want them to come back to me. I want them to change their lives so that they can really live. So come back to me! Stop doing bad things! Why must you die, family of Israel?’

* 33:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 7, 10, 12, 24, 30.

¹² “Son of man, tell your people: ‘The good things people did in the past will not save them if they become bad and begin to sin. In the same way the bad things people did in the past will not destroy them if they turn from their evil. So remember, the good things people did in the past will not save them if they begin to sin.’

¹³ “Maybe I will tell good people that they will live. But maybe those good people will begin to think that the good things they did in the past will save them. So they might begin to do bad things, but I will not remember the good things they did in the past! No, they will die because of the bad things they begin to do.

¹⁴ “Or maybe I will tell some evil people that they will die. But they might change their lives, stop sinning, and begin to live right. They might become good and fair. ¹⁵ They might give back the things they took when they loaned money. They might pay for the things they stole. They might begin to follow the laws that give life and stop doing bad things. Then they will surely live. They will not die. ¹⁶ I will not remember the bad things they did in the past, because now they live right and are fair. So they will live!

¹⁷ “But your people say, ‘That’s not fair! The Lord cannot be like that!’

“But they are the people who are not fair! They are the people who must change! ¹⁸ If good people stop doing good and begin to sin, they will die because of their sins. ¹⁹ And if evil people stop doing wrong and start living right and being fair, they will live. ²⁰ You still say that I am not fair, but I am telling you the truth. Family of Israel, everyone will be judged for what they do!”

Jerusalem Has Been Taken

²¹ On the fifth day of the tenth month in the twelfth year of exile,[†] a person who had escaped from the battle in Jerusalem came to me and said, “The city has been taken!”

²² The evening before that person came to me, the power of the LORD came on me. The Lord opened my mouth. So when that person came, I could speak again. ²³ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ²⁴ “Son of man, there are Israelites who live in the ruined cities in Israel. They are saying, ‘Abraham was only one man, and God gave him all this land. Now, we are many people, so surely this land belongs to us! It is our land!’

²⁵ “You must tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘You eat meat with the blood still in it. You look to your idols for help. You murder people, so why should I give you this land? ²⁶ You depend on your own sword. Each of you does terrible things. Each of you commits sexual sins with his neighbor’s wife, so you cannot have the land!’

²⁷ “ ‘You must tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: “By my life, I promise that the people living in the ruined cities will be killed with a sword! If any people are out in the country, I will let animals kill and eat them. If people are hiding in the fortresses and the caves, they will die from disease. ²⁸ I will make the land empty and a waste. That country will lose all the things it was proud of. The mountains of Israel will become empty. No one will pass through that place. ²⁹ The people have done many terrible things, so I will make that place an empty wasteland. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

³⁰ “ ‘And now about you, son of man. Your people lean against the walls and stand in their doorways talking about you. They tell each other, “Come on, let’s go hear what the LORD says.” ³¹ So they come to you as if they were my people. They sit in front of you as if they were my people. They hear your words, but they will not do the things you say. They only want to do what feels good. They only want to cheat people and make more money.

³² “ ‘You are nothing to these people but a singer singing love songs. You have a good voice. You play your instrument well. They listen to your words, but they will not do what you say. ³³ But the things you sing about really will happen, and then the people will know that there was a prophet living among them.’ ”

Israel Is Like a Flock of Sheep

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* speak against the shepherds of Israel for me. Speak to them for me. Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘You shepherds of Israel have only been feeding yourselves. It will be very bad for you! Why don’t you shepherds feed the flock? ³ You eat the fat sheep and use their wool to make clothes for yourselves. You kill the fat sheep, but you don’t feed the flock. ⁴ You have not made the weak strong. You have not cared for the sick sheep. You have not put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. Some of the sheep wandered away, and you did not go get them and bring them back. You did not go to look for the lost sheep. No, you were cruel and severe—that’s the way you tried to lead the sheep!

⁵ “And now the sheep are scattered because there was no shepherd. They became food for every wild animal, so they were scattered. ⁶ My flock wandered over all the mountains and on every high hill. My flock was scattered over all the face of the earth. There was no one to search or to look for them.’”

⁷ So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD. ⁸ The Lord GOD says, “I swear that wild animals will catch my sheep, and my people will become food for all those animals because they did not have any real shepherds. My shepherds did not look out for my flock. They did not feed my flock. No, they only killed the sheep and fed themselves!”

⁹ So, you shepherds, listen to the word of the LORD! ¹⁰ The Lord GOD says, “I am against the shepherds. I will demand my sheep from them. I will fire them. They will not be my shepherds anymore. Then the shepherds will not be able to feed themselves, and I will save my flock from their mouths. Then my sheep will not be food for them.”

¹¹ The Lord GOD says, “I myself will be their Shepherd. I will search for my sheep and take care of them. ¹² If a shepherd is with his sheep when they begin to wander away, he will go searching for them. In the same way I will search for my sheep. I will save them and bring them back from all the places where they were scattered on that dark and cloudy day. ¹³ I will bring them back from those nations. I will gather them from those countries and bring them back to their own land. I will feed them on the mountains of Israel, by the streams, and in all the places where people live. ¹⁴ I will lead them to grassy fields. They will go to the place high on the mountains of Israel and lie down on good ground and eat the grass. They will eat in rich grassland on the mountains of Israel. ¹⁵ Yes, I will feed my flock, and I will lead them to a place of rest.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁶ “I will search for the lost sheep. I will bring back the sheep that were scattered and put bandages on the sheep that were hurt. I will make the weak sheep strong, but I will destroy the fat and powerful shepherds. I will feed them the punishment they deserve.”

¹⁷ This is what the Lord GOD says: “And you, my flock, I will judge between one sheep and another. I will judge between the male sheep and the male goats. ¹⁸ You can eat the grass growing on the good land. So why do you also crush the grass that other sheep want to eat? You can drink plenty of clear water. So why do you also stir the water that other sheep want to drink? ¹⁹ My flock must eat the grass you crushed with your feet, and they must drink the water you stir with your feet!”

²⁰ So the Lord GOD says to them: “I myself will judge between the fat sheep and the thin sheep! ²¹ You push with your side and shoulder. You knock down all the weak sheep with your horns. You push until you have forced them away, ²² so I will save my flock. They will not be caught by wild animals anymore. I will judge between one sheep and another. ²³ Then I will put one shepherd over them, my servant David. He will feed them and be their shepherd. ²⁴ Then I, the LORD, will be their God, and my servant David will be the ruler living among them. I, the LORD, have spoken.

* 34:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

²⁵ “And I will make a peace agreement with my sheep. I will take harmful animals away from the land. Then the sheep can be safe in the desert and sleep in the woods. ²⁶ I will bless the sheep and the places around my hill. I will cause the rains to fall at the right time and will shower them with blessings. ²⁷ And the trees growing in the field will produce their fruit. The earth will give its harvest, so the sheep will be safe on their land. I will break the yokes on them and save them from the power of the people who made them slaves. Then they will know that I am the LORD. ²⁸ They will not be caught like an animal by the nations anymore. Those animals will not eat them anymore. No, they will live safely. No one will make them afraid. ²⁹ I will give them some land that will make a good garden. Then they will not suffer from hunger in that land or suffer the insults from the nations anymore. ³⁰ Then they will know that I am the LORD their God. The family of Israel will know that I am with them and that they are my people.” This is what the Lord GOD said!

³¹ “You are my sheep, the sheep of my grassland. You are only human beings, and I am your God.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

The Message Against Edom

¹ The word of the LORD came to me. He said, ² “Son of man,* look toward Mount Seir and speak against it for me. ³ Say to it, ‘This is what the Lord GOD says:

“ ‘I am against you, Mount Seir!
I will punish you and make you an empty wasteland.
⁴ I will destroy your cities,
and you will become empty.
Then you will know that I am the LORD.

⁵ “ ‘Why? Because you have always been against my people. You used your sword against Israel at the time of their trouble, at the time of their final punishment.’ ” ⁶ So the Lord GOD says, “But I promise by my own life that I will let death have you. Death will chase you. You did not hate killing people, so death will chase you. ⁷ I will make Mount Seir an empty ruin. I will kill everyone who enters or leaves that city. ⁸ I will cover its mountains with those who are killed. There will be dead bodies all over your hills, in your valleys, and in all your ravines. ⁹ I will make you empty forever. No one will live in your cities. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

¹⁰ You said, “These two nations and countries, Israel and Judah, will be mine. We will take them for our own.”

But the LORD is there! ¹¹ And the Lord GOD says, “You were jealous of my people. You were angry and hateful to them. So by my life, I swear that I will punish you the same way you hurt them! I will punish you and let my people know that I am with them. ¹² And then you, too, will know that I am the LORD.

“I have heard you making fun of Israel’s hill country. You said, ‘It is in ruins, just waiting for us to swallow it up.’ ¹³ Your proud boasting is really against me. Time after time you have insulted me, and I have heard every word.”

¹⁴ This is what the Lord GOD says: “All the earth will be happy when I destroy you. ¹⁵ You were happy when the country of Israel was destroyed. I will treat you the same way. Mount Seir and the whole country of Edom will be destroyed. Then you will know that I am the LORD.”

* 35:2 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

The Land of Israel Will Be Rebuilt

¹ “Son of man,* speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell them to listen to the word of the LORD! ² Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘The enemy said bad things against you. They said, Hurray! Now the ancient mountains† will be ours!’

³ “So speak to the mountains of Israel for me. Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘The enemy destroyed your cities and attacked you from every direction. They did this so that you would belong to the other nations. Then people talked and whispered about you.’”

⁴ So, mountains of Israel, listen to the word of the Lord GOD! This is what the Lord GOD says to the mountains, hills, streams, valleys, empty ruins, and abandoned cities that have been looted and laughed at by the other nations around them. ⁵ The Lord GOD says, “I swear, I will let my strong feelings speak for me! I will let Edom and the other nations feel my anger. They took my land for themselves. They really had a good time when they showed how much they hated this land. They took the land for themselves, just so they could destroy it.”

⁶ “So say these things about the land of Israel. Speak to the mountains and to the hills, to the streams, and to the valleys. Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I will let my strong feelings and anger speak for me, because you had to suffer the insults from those nations.’”

⁷ So this is what the Lord GOD says: “I am the one making this promise! I swear that the nations around you will have to suffer for those insults.

⁸ “But mountains of Israel, you will grow new trees and produce fruit for my people Israel. My people will soon come back. ⁹ I am with you, and I will help you. People will till your soil and plant seeds in you. ¹⁰ There will be many people living on you. The whole family of Israel—all of them—will live there. The cities will have people living in them. The destroyed places will be rebuilt. ¹¹ I will give you many people and animals, and they will grow and have many children. I will bring people to live on you as in the past. I will make it better for you than before. Then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹² Yes, I will lead many people—my people, Israel—to your land. You will be their property, and you will not take away their children again.”

¹³ This is what the Lord GOD says: “Land of Israel, people say bad things to you. They say you destroyed your people. They say you took the children away from your people. ¹⁴ But you will not destroy people anymore or take away their children again.” This is what the Lord GOD said. ¹⁵ “I will not let those other nations insult you anymore. You will not be hurt by them anymore. You will not take the children away from your people again.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

The Lord Will Protect His Name

¹⁶ Then the word of the LORD came to me. He said, ¹⁷ “Son of man, the family of Israel lived in their own country, but they made that land filthy by the bad things they did. To me, they were like a woman who becomes unclean because of her monthly time of bleeding. ¹⁸ They spilled blood on the ground when they murdered people in the land. They made the land filthy with their idols, so I showed them how angry I was. ¹⁹ I scattered them among the nations and spread them through all the lands. I gave them the punishment they deserved for the bad things they did. ²⁰ But even in those other nations, they ruined my good name. How? Those nations said, ‘These are the LORD’S people, but they left his land.’

²¹ “The people of Israel ruined my holy name wherever they went, and I felt sorry for my name. ²² So tell the family of Israel that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Family of Israel, you ruined my holy name in the places where you went. I am going to do something to stop this. I will not do it for your sake, Israel. I will do it for my holy name. ²³ I will show the nations how holy my great name really is. You ruined my good name in those nations! But I will show you that I am holy. I will make you respect my name, and then those nations will know that I am the LORD.’ ” This is what the Lord GOD said.

²⁴ “I will take you out of those nations, gather you together, and bring you back to your own land. ²⁵ Then I will sprinkle pure water on you and make you pure. I will wash away all your filth, the filth from those nasty idols, and I will make you pure. ²⁶ I will also put a new spirit in you to change your way of thinking. I will take out the heart of stone from your body and give you a tender, human heart. ²⁷ I will put my Spirit inside you[‡] and change you so that you will obey my laws. You will carefully obey my commands. ²⁸ Then you will live in the land that I gave to your ancestors. You will be my people, and I will be your God. ²⁹ Also, I will save you and keep you from becoming unclean. I will command the grain to grow. I will not bring a famine against you. ³⁰ I will give you large crops of fruit from your trees and the harvest from your fields so that you will never again feel the shame of being hungry in a foreign country. ³¹ You will remember the bad things you did. You will remember that those things were not good. Then you will hate yourselves because of your sins and the terrible things you did.”

³³ This is what the Lord GOD says: “On the day that I wash away your sins, I will bring people back to your cities. The ruined cities will be rebuilt. ³⁴ People will begin again to work the land so when other people pass by they will not see ruins anymore. ³⁵ They will say, ‘In the past, this land was ruined, but now it is like the Garden of Eden. The cities were destroyed. They were ruined and empty, but now they are protected, and there are people living in them.’

³⁶ “Then the nations that are still around you will know I am the LORD and that I rebuilt those places. I planted things in this land that was empty. I am the LORD. I said this, and I will make them happen!”

³⁷ This is what the Lord GOD says: “I will also let the family of Israel come to me and ask me to do these things for them. I will make them grow and become many people. They will be like flocks of sheep. ³⁸ During the special festivals, Jerusalem was filled with flocks of sheep and goats that had been made holy. In the same way the cities and ruined places will be filled with flocks of people. Then they will know that I am the LORD.”

The Vision of the Dry Bones

¹ The LORD’S power came on me. The Spirit* of the LORD carried me out of the city and put me down in the middle of the valley.[†] The valley was full of dead men’s bones. ² There were many bones lying on the ground in the valley. The Lord made me walk all around among the bones. I saw the bones were very dry.

³ Then the Lord said to me, “Son of man,[‡] can these bones come to life?”
I answered, “Lord GOD, only you know the answer to that question.”

[‡] 36:27 I will put my Spirit inside you Or “I will make my Spirit live among you.” * 37:1 Spirit Or “wind.” † 37:1 the valley Possibly, Jezreel Valley, a fertile area where many battles were fought. It is often called simply “The Valley.”

[‡] 37:3 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 9, 11, 16.

⁴ Then he said to me, “Speak to these bones for me. Tell them, ‘Dry bones, listen to the word of the LORD!’ ⁵ This is what the Lord GOD says to you: I will cause breath[§] to come into you, and you will come to life! ⁶ I will put sinew and muscles on you, and I will cover you with skin. Then I will put breath in you, and you will come back to life! Then you will know that I am the LORD.’ ”

⁷ So I spoke to the bones for the LORD, as he said. I was still speaking, when I heard the loud noise. The bones began to rattle, and bone joined together with bone! ⁸ There before my eyes, I saw sinew and muscles begin to cover the bones. Skin began to cover them, but there was no breath in them.

⁹ Then the Lord said to me, “Speak to the wind* for me. Son of man, speak to the wind for me. Tell the wind that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Wind, come from every direction and breathe air into these dead bodies! Breathe into them and they will come to life again!’ ”

¹⁰ So I spoke to the wind for the LORD, as he said, and the breath came into the dead bodies. They came to life and stood up. There were many men—a very large army!

¹¹ Then he said to me, “Son of man, these bones are like the whole family of Israel. The people of Israel say, ‘Our bones have dried up;† our hope is gone. We have been completely destroyed!’ ¹² So speak to them for me. Tell them this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of them! Then I will bring you to the land of Israel. ¹³ My people, I will open your graves and bring you up out of your graves, and then you will know that I am the LORD. ¹⁴ I will put my Spirit‡ in you, and you will come to life again. Then I will lead you back to your own land. Then you will know that I am the LORD. You will know that I said this and that I made it happen.’ ” This is what the LORD said.

Judah and Israel to Become One Again

¹⁵ The word of the LORD came to me again. He said, ¹⁶ “Son of man, get one stick and write this message on it: ‘This stick belongs to Judah and his friends,[§] the people of Israel.’ Then take another stick and write on it, ‘This stick of Ephraim belongs to Joseph and his friends, the people of Israel.’ ¹⁷ Then join the two sticks together. In your hand, they will be one stick.

¹⁸ “Your people will ask you to explain what that means. ¹⁹ Tell them that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim and his friends, the people of Israel. Then I will put that stick with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick. In my hand, they will become one stick!’

²⁰ “Take the sticks that you wrote on and hold them in front of you. ²¹ Tell the people that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘I will gather the people of Israel from among the nations. I will gather them from all around and bring them back to their own land. ²² I will make them one nation in their land among the mountains of Israel. There will be one king over them all. They will no longer be two nations. They will not be split into two kingdoms anymore. ²³ And they will no longer continue to make themselves filthy with their idols and horrible statues or with any of their other crimes. Instead, I will save them from all the places where they have sinned, and I will wash them and make them pure. They will be my people, and I will be their God.

²⁴ “ ‘And my servant David will be the king over them. There will be only one shepherd over all of them. They will live by my rules and obey my laws. They will do the things I tell them. ²⁵ They will live on the land that I gave to my servant Jacob. Your ancestors lived in that place, and my people will live there. They and their children and their grandchildren will live there forever. My servant David will be their leader forever.

§ 37:5 breath Or “wind” or “a spirit.” * 37:9 wind Or “breath” or “spirit.” Also in verse 10. † 37:11 bones ... dried up This is a way of saying, “We have lost our strength.” ‡ 37:14 Spirit Or “spirit” or “wind.” § 37:16 friends This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word is like the word meaning “joined together.”

²⁶ And I will make a peace agreement with them. This agreement will continue forever. I agree to give them their land. I agree to make them numerous and to put my holy place among them forever. ²⁷ My Holy Tent will be with them. Yes, I will be their God and they will be my people. ²⁸ The other nations will know that I am the LORD, and they will know that I make Israel my special people by putting my holy place there among them forever.’ ”

The Message Against Gog

⁷ “Be prepared. Yes, prepare yourself and the armies that have joined with you. You must watch and be ready. ⁸ After a long time you will be called for duty. In the later years you will come into the land that has been healed from war. The people in that land were gathered from many nations and brought back to the mountains of Israel. In the past, the mountains of Israel had been destroyed again and again. But these people will have come back from those other nations. They all will have lived in safety. ⁹ But you will come to attack them. You will come like a storm. You will come like a thundercloud covering the land. You and all your groups of soldiers from many nations will come to attack them.’ ”

¹⁰ This is what the Lord GOD says: “At that time an idea will come into your mind. You will begin to make an evil plan. ¹¹ You will say, ‘I will go attack the country that has towns without walls. The people there live in peace and think they are safe. There are no walls around the cities to protect them. They don’t have any locks on their gates—they don’t even have gates! ¹² I will defeat them and take all their valuable things away from them. I will fight against the places that were destroyed but now have people living in them. I will fight against the people who were gathered from the nations. Now they have cattle and property. They live at the crossroads of the world.‡’

¹³ “Sheba, Dedan, and merchants of Tarshish and all the cities they trade with will ask you, ‘Did you come to capture valuable things? Did you bring your groups of soldiers together to grab the good things and to carry away silver, gold, cattle, and property? Did you come to take all those valuable things?’

¹⁴ “Son of man, speak to Gog for me. Tell him that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘You will come to attack my people while they are living in peace and safety. ¹⁵ You will come from your place out of the far north, and you will bring many people with you. All of them will ride on horses. You will be a large and a powerful army. ¹⁶ You will come to fight against my people Israel. You will be like a thundercloud covering the land. When that time comes, I will bring you to fight against my land. Then, Gog, the nations will learn how powerful I am! They will learn to respect me and know that I am holy. They will see what I will do to you!’ ”

¹⁷ This is what the Lord GOD says: “At that time people will remember that I spoke about you in the past. They will remember that I used my servants, the prophets of Israel. They will remember that the prophets of Israel spoke for me in the past and said that I would bring you to fight against them.”

¹⁸ The Lord GOD said, “At that time Gog will come to fight against the land of Israel. I will show my anger. ¹⁹ In my anger and strong emotions, I make this promise: I promise that there will be a strong earthquake in the land of Israel. ²⁰ At that time all living things will shake with fear. The fish in the sea, the birds in the air, the wild animals in the fields, and all the little creatures crawling on the ground will shake with fear. The mountains will fall down and the cliffs will break apart. Every wall will fall to the ground!”

²¹ The Lord GOD says, “On the mountains of Israel, I will call for every kind of terror against[§] Gog. His soldiers will be so afraid that they will attack each other and kill each other with their swords. ²² I will punish Gog with diseases and death. I will cause hailstones, fire, and sulfur to rain down on Gog and his groups of soldiers from many nations. ²³ Then I will show how great I am. I will prove that I am holy. Many nations will see me do these things, and they will learn who I am. Then they will know that I am the LORD.

The Death of Gog and His Army

¹ “Son of man,^{*} speak against Gog for me. Tell him that this is what the Lord GOD says: ‘Gog, you are the most important leader of the countries Meshech and Tubal, but I am against you. ² I will capture you and bring you back. I will bring you from the far north. I will bring you to fight against the mountains of Israel. ³ But I will knock your bow from your left hand and your arrows from your right hand. ⁴ You will be killed on the mountains of Israel. You, your groups of soldiers, and all the other nations with you will be killed in the battle. I will give you as food to every kind of bird that eats meat and to all the wild animals. ⁵ You will not enter the city. You will be killed out in the open fields. I have spoken!’ ” This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁶ “I will send fire against Magog and those people living along the coast. They think they are safe, but they will know that I am the LORD. ⁷ And I will make my holy name known among my people Israel. I will not let people ruin my holy name anymore. The nations will know that I am the LORD. They will know that I am the Holy One in Israel. ⁸ That time is coming! It will happen!” This is what the Lord GOD said. “That is the day I am talking about.

⁹ “At that time people living in the cities of Israel will go out to the fields. They will collect the enemy’s weapons and burn them. They will burn all the shields, bows and arrows, clubs and spears. They will use the weapons as firewood for seven years. ¹⁰ They will not have to gather wood from the fields or chop firewood from the forests because they will use the weapons as firewood. They will take the valuable things from the soldiers who wanted to steal from them. They will take the good things from the soldiers who took good things from them.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹¹ “At that time I will choose a place in Israel to bury Gog. He will be buried in the Valley of the Travelers,[†] east of the Dead Sea. It will block the road for travelers, because Gog and all his army will be buried in that place. People will call it ‘The Valley of Gog’s Army.’ ¹² It will take seven months for the family of Israel to bury them. They must do [§] 38:21 every kind of terror against This is from the ancient Greek version. The standard Hebrew text has “a sword against.” ^{*} 39:1 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verse 17. this to make the land pure. ¹³ The common people will bury the enemy soldiers, and the people will become famous on the day that I bring honor to myself.” The Lord GOD said those things.

¹⁴ “Workers will be given a full-time job burying the dead soldiers to make the land pure. The workers will work for seven months. They will go around looking for dead bodies. ¹⁵ They will go around looking, and if anyone sees a bone, a marker will be put up by it. The sign will stay there until the gravediggers come and bury the bone in the Valley of Gog’s Army. ¹⁶ The city of the dead will be named Hamonah.‡ In this way they will make the country pure.”

¹⁷ This is what the Lord GOD said: “Son of man, speak to all the birds and wild animals for me. Tell them, ‘Come here! Come here! Gather around. Come eat this sacrifice I am preparing for you. There will be a very big sacrifice on the mountains of Israel. Come, eat the meat and drink the blood. ¹⁸ You will eat the meat from the bodies of powerful soldiers and drink the blood from world leaders. They will be like rams, lambs, goats, and fat bulls from Bashan. ¹⁹ You can eat all the fat you want and drink blood until you are full. You will eat and drink from my sacrifice, which I will kill for you. ²⁰ You will have plenty of meat to eat at my table. There will be horses and chariot drivers, powerful soldiers, and all the other fighting men.’ ” This is what the Lord GOD said.

²¹ “I will let the other nations see what I have done, and they will begin to respect me! They will see my power that I used against the enemy. ²² Then from that day on, the family of Israel will know that I am the LORD their God. ²³ And the nations will know why the family of Israel was carried away as prisoners to other countries. They will learn that my people turned against me, so I turned away from them. I let their enemies defeat them, so my people were killed in battle. ²⁴ They sinned and made themselves filthy, so I punished them for the things they did. I turned away from them and refused to help them.”

²⁵ So this is what the Lord GOD says: “Now I will bring the family of Jacob back from captivity. I will have mercy on the whole family of Israel. I will show my strong feelings for my holy name. ²⁶ The people will forget their shame and all the times they turned against me. They will live in safety on their own land. No one will make them afraid. ²⁷ I will bring my people back from other countries. I will gather them from the lands of their enemies. Then many nations will see how holy I am. ²⁸ They will know that I am the LORD their God. That is because I made them leave their homes and go as prisoners to other countries. But then I gathered them together again and brought them back to their own land. ²⁹ I will pour out my Spirit on the family of Israel, and I will never turn away from my people again.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

The New Temple

¹ In the twenty-fifth year after we were taken away into captivity, at the beginning of the year, on the tenth day of the month,* the LORD’S power came on me. This was fourteen years after the Babylonians took Jerusalem. On that day the Lord took me there in a vision.

² In a vision, God carried me to the land of Israel. He put me down near a very high mountain. On the mountain in front of me was a building that looked like a city.† ³ He took me to that place. There was a man there who looked like polished bronze. He had a cloth tape measure and a measuring rod in his hand. He was standing by the gate. ⁴ The man said to me, “Son of man,‡ use your eyes and ears. Look at these things and listen to ‡ 39:16 Hamonah This Hebrew word means “crowd.” * 40:1 tenth day of the month This was the Day of Atonement, 573 B.C. me. Pay attention to everything that I show you, because you have been brought here so that I can show you these things. You must tell the family of Israel all that you see.”

⁵ I saw a wall that went all the way around the outside of the Temple. In the man's hand there was a ruler for measuring things. It was 6 cubits[§] long using the long measurement,* so the man measured the thickness of the wall. It was one ruler[†] thick. He measured the height of the wall. It was one ruler tall.

⁶ Then the man went to the east gate. He walked up its steps and measured the opening for the gate. It was one ruler wide. ⁷ The guardrooms were one ruler long and one ruler wide. The walls between the rooms were 5 cubits[‡] thick. The opening by the porch at the end of the gateway that faced the Temple was also one ruler wide. ⁸ Then he measured the porch. ⁹ It was 8 cubits[§] long. He measured the walls on either side of the gate. Each side wall was 2 cubits* wide. The porch was at the end of the gateway that faced the Temple. ¹⁰ There were three little guardrooms on each side of the gateway. All these rooms and their side walls measured the same. ¹¹ The man measured the entrance to the gateway. It was 10 cubits[†] wide and 13 cubits[‡] long. ¹² There was a low wall in front of each room. That wall was 1 cubit[§] tall and 1 cubit thick. The rooms were square. Each wall was 6 cubits long.

¹³ The man measured the gateway from the outside edge of the roof of one room to the outside edge of the roof of the opposite room. It was 25 cubits.* Each door was directly opposite the other door. ¹⁴ [†] He measured the faces of all the side walls, including the side walls on either side of the porch at the courtyard. The total was 60 cubits.[‡] ¹⁵ From the inside edge of the outer gate to the far end of the porch was 50 cubits.[§] ¹⁶ There were small windows* above all the guardrooms, the side walls, and the porch. The wide part of the windows faced into the gateway. There were carvings of palm trees on the walls that were on either side of the gateway.

¹⁷ Then the man led me into the outer courtyard. I saw thirty rooms and a pavement that went all the way around the courtyard. The rooms were along the wall and faced in toward the pavement. ¹⁸ The pavement was as wide as the gates were long. The pavement reached to the inside end of the gateway. This was the lower pavement. ¹⁹ The man measured the distance from the inside of the lower gateway to the outside of the inner courtyard. It was 100 cubits[†] on the east side as well as on the north side.

²⁰ Then the man measured the length and width of the north gate that was in the wall surrounding the outer courtyard. ²¹ This gateway, its three rooms on each side, and its porch all measured the same as the first gate. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ²² Its windows, its porch, and its carvings of palm trees measured the same as the east gate. On the outside, there were seven steps leading up to the gate. Its porch was at the inside end of the gateway. ²³ Across the courtyard from the north gate, there was a gate to the inner courtyard. It was like the gate on the east. The man measured from the gate on the inner wall to the gate on the outer wall. It was 100 cubits from gate to gate.

²⁴ Then the man led me to the south wall. I saw a gate in the south wall. He measured its side walls and its porch. They measured the same as the other gates. ²⁵ The gateway and its porch had windows all around like the other gates. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ²⁶ There were seven steps going up to this gate. Its porch was at the inside end of the gateway. It had carvings of palm trees on the walls that were on either side of the gateway. ²⁷ A gate was on the south side of the inner courtyard. The man measured from the gate on the inner wall to the gate on the outer wall. It was 100 cubits from gate to gate.

The Inner Courtyard

²⁸ Then the man led me through the south gate into the inner courtyard. He measured this gate. This gateway measured the same as the other gates to the inner courtyard. ²⁹ Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁰ The porch was 25 cubits wide and 5 cubits long. ³¹ And its porch was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

³² Then the man led me into the inner courtyard on the east side. He measured the gate. It measured the same as the other gates. ³³ Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁴ And its porch was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

³⁵ Then the man led me to the north gate. He measured it, and it measured the same as the other gates. ³⁶ Its rooms, side walls, and porch also measured the same as the other gates. There were windows all around the gateway and its porch. The gateway was 50 cubits long and 25 cubits wide. ³⁷ And its porch[‡] was at the end of the gateway next to the outer courtyard. Carvings of palm trees were on the walls on either side of the gateway. There were eight steps leading up to the gate.

The Rooms for Preparing Sacrifices

³⁸ There was also a doorway in the side walls of the gates. That doorway led into a room where the priests washed the sacrifices. ³⁹ There were two tables on each side of the door of this porch. The animals for the burnt offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings were killed on these tables. ⁴⁰ There were also two tables on each side of the door on the outside wall of this porch. ⁴¹ So there were four tables on the inside wall and four tables on the outside wall—eight tables that the priests used when they killed the animals for sacrifices. ⁴² There were also four tables made from cut stone for the burnt offerings. These tables were 1 1/2 cubits[§] long, 1 1/2 cubits wide, and 1 cubit high. On these tables, the priests put their tools that they used to kill the animals for the burnt offerings and other sacrifices. ⁴³ There were meat hooks three inches long^{*} on all the walls in this area. The meat of the offerings was put on the tables.

The Priests' Rooms

⁴⁴ There were two rooms[†] in the inner courtyard. One was by the north gate facing south. The other room was by the south[‡] gate facing north. ⁴⁵ The man said to me, “The room that looks to the south is for the priests who are on duty and serving in the Temple area. ⁴⁶ But the room that looks to the north is for the priests who are on duty and serving at the altar. The priests are from the tribe of Levi. But the priests in this second group are the descendants of Zadok. They are the only people who can carry the sacrifices to the altar to serve the LORD.[§]”

⁴⁷ The man measured the inner courtyard. The courtyard was a perfect square. It was 100 cubits long and 100 cubits wide. The altar was in front of the Temple.

The Porch of the Temple

⁴⁸ Then the man led me to the porch of the Temple and measured the walls on either side of the porch. Each side wall was 5 cubits thick and 3 cubits* wide. The opening between them was 14 cubits.† ⁴⁹ The porch was 20 cubits‡ wide and 12 cubits§ long.* Ten steps went up to the porch. There were two columns for the walls on either side of the porch—one at each wall.

The Holy Place of the Temple

¹ Then the man led me into the Holy Place. He measured the walls on either side of the room. The side walls were 6 cubits* thick on each side. ² The door was 10 cubits† wide. The sides of the doorway were 5 cubits‡ on each side. He measured that room. It was 40 cubits§ long and 20 cubits wide.

The Most Holy Place in the Temple

³ Then the man went into the last room. He measured the walls on either side of the doorway. Each side wall was 2 cubits* thick and 7 cubits† wide. The doorway was 6 cubits wide. ⁴ Then he measured the length of the room. It was 20 cubits long and 20 cubits wide. He said to me, “This is the Most Holy Place.”

Other Rooms Around the Temple

⁵ Then the man measured the wall of the Temple. It was 6 cubits thick. There were side rooms all around the Temple. They were 4 cubits‡ wide. ⁶ The side rooms were on three different floors, one above the other. There were 30 rooms on each floor. The wall of the Temple was built with ledges. The side rooms rested on these ledges but were not connected to the Temple wall itself. ⁷ Each floor of the side rooms around the Temple was wider than the floor below. The walls of the rooms around the Temple became narrower the higher they went so that the rooms on the top floors were wider. A stairway went up from the lowest floor to the highest floor through the middle floor.

⁸ I also saw that the Temple had a raised base all the way around it. It was the foundation for the side rooms, and it was a full ruler§ high. ⁹ The outer wall of the side rooms was 5 cubits thick. There was an open area between the side rooms of the Temple ¹⁰ and the priests’ rooms. It was 20 cubits* wide and went all the way around the Temple. ¹¹ The doors of the side rooms opened onto the raised base. There was one entrance on the north side and one entrance on the south side. The raised base was 5 cubits wide all around.

¹² There was a building in this restricted area west of the Temple. The building was 70 cubits† wide and 90 cubits‡ long. The wall of the building was 5 cubits thick all around. ¹³ Then the man measured the Temple. The Temple was 100 cubits§ long. The restricted area, including the building and its walls, was also 100 cubits long. ¹⁴ The restricted area on the east side, in front of the Temple, was 100 cubits long.

¹⁵ The man measured the length of the building in the restricted area at the rear of the Temple. It was 100 cubits from one wall to the other wall.

The Most Holy Place, the Holy Place, and the porch by the courtyard ¹⁶ had wood paneling on all the walls. All the windows and doors had wood trim around them. By the doorway, the Temple had wood paneling from the floor up to the windows and up to the part of the wall ¹⁷ over the doorway.

On all the walls in the inner room and the outer room of the Temple were carvings ¹⁸ of Cherub angels and palm trees. A palm tree was between each Cherub angel. Every Cherub angel had two faces. ¹⁹ One face was a man's face looking toward the palm tree on one side. The other face was a lion's face looking toward the palm tree on the other side. They were carved all around on the Temple. ²⁰ From the floor to the area above the door, Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on all walls of the Holy Place.

²¹ The walls on either side of the Holy Place were square. In front of the Most Holy Place, there was something that looked like ²² an altar made from wood. It was 3 cubits* high and 2 cubits long. Its corners, its base, and its sides were wood. The man said to me, "This is the table that is before the LORD."

²³ Both the Holy Place and the Most Holy Place had a double door. ²⁴ Each of the doors was made from two smaller doors. Each door was really two swinging doors. ²⁵ Also Cherub angels and palm trees were carved on the doors of the Holy Place. They were like those carved on the walls. There was a wood roof over the front of the porch. ²⁶ There were windows with frames around them and palm trees on the walls on both sides of the porch, on the roof over the porch, and on the rooms around the Temple.

The Priests' Room

¹ Then the man led me through the north gate out into the outer courtyard. He led me to a building with many rooms that was west of the restricted area and the building on the north side. ² This building was 100 cubits* long and 50 cubits† wide. People entered it from the courtyard on the north side. ³ The building was three stories tall and had balconies. The 20-cubit‡ inner courtyard was between the building and the Temple. On the other side, the rooms faced the pavement of the outer courtyard. ⁴ There was a path 10 cubits§ wide and 100 cubits long running along the south side of the building, even though the entrance was on the north side. ⁵⁻⁶ Since this building was three stories tall and did not have columns like those columns of the outer courtyards, the top rooms were farther back than the rooms on the middle and bottom floors. The top floor was narrower than the middle floor, which was narrower than the bottom floor because the balconies used this space. ⁷ There was a wall outside that was parallel to the rooms and ran along the outer courtyard. It ran in front of the rooms for 50 cubits. ⁸ The row of rooms that ran along the outer courtyard was 50 cubits long, although the total length of the building, as on the Temple side, was 100 cubits long. ⁹ The entrance was below these rooms at the east end of the building so that people could enter from the outer courtyard. ¹⁰ The entrance was at the start of the wall beside the courtyard.

There were rooms on the south side, by the restricted area and the other building. These rooms had a ¹¹ path in front of them. They were like the rooms on the north side. They had the same length and width and the same kind of doors. ¹² The entrance to the lower rooms was at the east end of the building so that people could enter from the open end of the path by the wall.

* 41:22 3 cubits 5' 1 3/16" (1.55 m). * 42:2 100 cubits 170' 5/8" (51.83 m). † 42:2 50 cubits 85' 5/16" (25.92 m).
‡ 42:3 20-cubit 34' 1/8" (10.37 m). § 42:4 10 cubits 17' 1/16" (5.18 m).

¹³ The man said to me, “The north rooms and south rooms across from the restricted area are holy. These rooms are for the priests who offer the sacrifices to the LORD. That is where the priests will put the most holy offerings and eat them. That is because that place is holy. The most holy offerings are the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. ¹⁴ The priests who enter the holy area must leave their serving clothes in that holy place before they go out into the outer courtyard, because these clothes are holy. If a priest wants to go to the part of the Temple where the other people are, he must go to those rooms and put on other clothes.”

The Outer Courtyard

¹⁵ The man had finished measuring inside the Temple area. Then he brought me out through the east gate and measured all around that area. ¹⁶ He measured the east side with the ruler. It was 500 cubits* long. ¹⁷ He measured the north side. It was 500 cubits long. ¹⁸ He measured the south side. It was 500 cubits long. ¹⁹ He went around to the west side and measured it. It was 500 cubits long. ²⁰ He measured the four walls that went all the way around the Temple. The wall was 500 cubits long and 500 cubits wide. It separated the holy area from the area that is not holy.

The Lord Will Live Among His People

¹ The man led me to the east gate. ² There the Glory of the God of Israel came from the east. God’s voice was loud like the sound of the sea. The ground was bright with the light from the Glory of God. ³ The vision that I saw was like the vision I saw by the Kebar Canal. I bowed with my face to the ground. ⁴ The Glory of the LORD came into the Temple through the east gate.

⁵ Then the Spirit* picked me up and brought me into the inner courtyard. The Glory of the LORD filled the Temple. ⁶ I heard someone speaking to me from inside the Temple. The man was still standing beside me. ⁷ The voice from the Temple said to me, “Son of man,† this is the place with my throne and footstool. I will live in this place among the people of Israel forever. The family of Israel will not ruin my holy name again. The kings and their people will not bring shame to my name by committing sexual sins‡ or by burying the dead bodies of their kings in this place. ⁸ They will not bring shame to my name by putting their threshold next to my threshold, and their doorposts next to my doorposts. In the past, only a wall separated them from me. So they brought shame to my name every time they sinned and did those terrible things. That is why I became angry and destroyed them. ⁹ Now let them take their sexual sins and the dead bodies of their kings far away from me. Then I will live among them forever.

¹⁰ “Now, son of man, tell the family of Israel about the Temple. Then, when they learn about the plans for the Temple, they will be ashamed of their sins. ¹¹ And they will be ashamed of all the bad things they have done. Let them know the design of the Temple. Let them know how it should be built, where the entrances and exits are, and all the designs on it. Teach them about all its rules and all its laws. Write these things for everyone to see so that they can obey all the laws and rules for the Temple. ¹² This is the law of the Temple: The whole area surrounding it on the top of the mountain is most holy. This is the law of the Temple.

The Altar

* 42:16 500 cubits 850' 3 1/16" (259.16 m). * 43:5 Spirit Or “spirit” or “wind.” † 43:7 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel. Also in verses 10, 18. ‡ 43:7 sexual sins This might also mean “turning away from God and being unfaithful to him.”

²² “On the second day you will offer a male goat that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a sin offering. The priests will make the altar pure the same way they made it pure with the bull. ²³When you have finished making the altar pure, you will offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it and a ram from the flock that has nothing wrong with it. ²⁴Then you will offer them before the LORD. The priests will sprinkle salt on them. Then they will offer the bull and ram up as a burnt offering to the LORD. ²⁵You will prepare a goat every day for seven days for a sin offering. Also, you will prepare a young bull and a ram from the flock. These animals must have nothing wrong with them. ²⁶For seven days, the priests will make the altar pure and ready for use in worshiping God. ²⁷On the eighth day, and every day after that, the priests must offer your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar. Then I will accept you.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

The Outer Gate

¹ Then the man brought me back to the east gate of the Temple area. We were outside the gate and the gate was shut. ² The LORD said to me, “This gate will stay shut. It will not be opened. No one will enter through it, because the LORD of Israel has entered through it. So it must stay shut. ³ Only the ruler of the people may sit at this gate when he eats a meal with the LORD. He must enter through the porch of the gateway and go out the same way.”

The Holiness of the Temple

⁴ Then the man led me through the north gate to the front of the Temple. I looked and saw the Glory of the LORD filling the LORD’S Temple. I bowed with my face touching the ground. ⁵ The LORD said to me, “Son of man,* look very carefully! Use your eyes and ears. Look at these things, and listen very carefully to everything that I tell you about all the rules and laws about the LORD'S Temple. Look carefully at the entrances to the Temple and at all the exits from the holy place. ⁶ Then give this message to all the people of Israel who refused to obey me. Tell them, 'This is what the Lord GOD said: Family of Israel, I have had enough of the terrible things you have done! ⁷ You brought foreigners into my Temple who are not circumcised and have not given themselves to me.† In this way you made my Temple unclean. You broke our agreement and did terrible things, and then you gave me the offerings of bread, the fat, and the blood. But this only made my Temple unclean. ⁸ You did not take care of my holy things. No, you let foreigners have responsibility of my holy place!' "

⁹ This is what the Lord GOD says: "A foreigner who is not truly circumcised must not come into my Temple—not even a foreigner living permanently among the people of Israel. He must be circumcised, and he must give himself completely to me before he can come into my Temple. ¹⁰ In the past, the Levites left me when Israel turned away from me. Israel left me to follow their idols. The Levites will be punished for their sin. ¹¹ The Levites were chosen to serve in my holy place. They guarded the gates of the Temple. They served in the Temple. They killed the animals for the sacrifices and burnt offerings for the people. They were chosen to help the people and to serve them. ¹² But the Levites helped the people sin against me! They helped the people worship their idols! So I am making this promise against them: 'They will be punished for their sin.' " This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹³ "So the Levites will not bring offerings to me like the priests. They will not come near any of my holy things or the things that are most holy. They must carry their shame because of the terrible things that they did. ¹⁴ But I will let them take care of the Temple. They will work in the Temple and do the things that must be done in it.

¹⁵ "The priests are all from the tribe of Levi. But only priests from Zadok's family took care of my holy place when the people of Israel turned away from me. So only Zadok's descendants will bring offerings to me. They will stand before me to offer me the fat and the blood from the animals they sacrifice." This is what the Lord GOD said! ¹⁶ "They will enter my holy place and come near my table to serve me. They will take care of the things I gave them. ¹⁷ When they enter the gates of the inner courtyard, they will wear linen clothes. They will not wear wool while they serve at the gates of the inner courtyard and in the Temple. ¹⁸ They will wear linen turbans on their heads, and they will wear linen underwear. They will not wear anything that makes them sweat. ¹⁹ Before they go out into the outer courtyard to the people, they will take off the clothes they wear while serving me. They will put these clothes away in the holy rooms. Then they will put on other clothes. In this way they will not let people touch those holy clothes.

²³ "Also, the priests must teach my people the difference between things that are holy and things that are not holy. They must help my people know what is clean and what is unclean. ²⁴ The priests will be the judges in court. They will follow my laws when they judge people. They will obey my laws and my rules at all my special feasts. They will respect my special days of rest and keep them holy. ²⁵ They will not go near a dead person to make themselves unclean. But they may make themselves unclean if the dead person is their father, mother, son, daughter, brother, or a sister who is not married. ²⁶ After the priest has been made clean, he must wait seven days. ²⁷ Then he can go back into the holy place. But on the day he goes into the inner courtyard to serve in the holy place, he must offer a sin offering for himself.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

²⁸ “About the land that will belong to the Levites: I am their property. You will not give the Levites any land in Israel. I am their share in Israel. ²⁹ They will have the right to eat the grain offerings, the sin offerings, and the guilt offerings. Also, anything in Israel that is a special gift to God[§] will belong to them. ³⁰ And the first part of the harvest from every kind of crop will be for the priests. You will also give the priests the first part of your flour. This will bring blessings to your house. ³¹ The priests must not eat any bird or animal that has died a natural death or has been torn to pieces by a wild animal.

The Division of the Land for Holy Use

¹ “You will divide the land for the Israelite tribes by throwing lots. At that time you will separate out a part of the land. It will be a holy part for the LORD. The land will be 25,000 cubits* long and 20,000 cubits† wide.‡ All this land will be holy. ² A square area that is 500 cubits§ long on each side will be for the Temple. There will be an open space around the Temple that is 50 cubits* wide. ³ In the holy area you will measure 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits† wide. The Temple will be in this area. The Temple area will be the Most Holy Place.

⁴ “This holy part of the land will be for the priests, the servants of the Temple. This is where they approach the LORD to serve him. It will be a place for the priests’ houses and a place for the Temple. ⁵ Another area, 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide, will be for the Levites who serve in the Temple. This land will also become cities for the Levites.

⁶ “And you will give the city an area that is 5000 cubits‡ wide and 25,000 cubits long. It will be along the side of the holy area. It will be for all the family of Israel. ⁷ The ruler will have land on both sides of the holy area and the land belonging to the city. It will be next to the holy area and the area belonging to the city. It will be the same width as the land that belongs to a tribe. It will go all the way from the west border to the east border. ⁸ This land will be the ruler’s property in Israel. So he will not need to make life hard for my people anymore. But they will give the land to the Israelites for their tribes.”

⁹ This is what the Lord GOD said: “Enough, you rulers of Israel! Stop being cruel and stealing things from people! Be fair and do what is right! Stop forcing my people out from their homes!” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁰ “Stop cheating people. Use accurate scales and measures! ¹¹ The ephah and the bath must be the same size: A bath and an ephah must both equal 1/10 homer.§ Those measures will be based on the homer. ¹² A shekel* must equal 20 gerahs. A mina must equal 60 shekels. It must be equal to 20 shekels plus 25 shekels plus 15 shekels.

¹³ “This is a special offering that you must give:

from every watering hole in Israel.

“Those special offerings are for the grain offerings, for the burnt offerings, and for the fellowship offerings. These offerings are to remove the sins of the people.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

¹⁶ “Everyone in the country will give to this offering for the ruler of Israel. ¹⁷ But the ruler must give the things needed for the special holy days. The ruler must provide the burnt offerings, the grain offerings, and the drink offerings for the feast days, for the New Moon, for the Sabbaths, and for all the other special meeting days of the family of Israel. He must give all the sin offerings, grain offerings, burnt offerings, and fellowship offerings that are used to make the family of Israel pure.”

¹⁸ This is what the Lord GOD says: “In the first month, on the first day of the month, you will take a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. You must use that bull to make the Temple pure. ¹⁹ The priest will take some of the blood from the sin offering and put it on the doorposts of the Temple and on the four corners of the ledge of the altar and on the posts of the gate to the inner courtyard. ²⁰ You will do the same thing on the seventh day of that month for anyone who has sinned by mistake or without knowing it. So you will make the Temple pure.

Offerings During the Passover

²¹ “On the 14th day of the first month, you must celebrate the Passover. The Festival of Unleavened Bread begins at this time. It continues for seven days. ²² At that time the ruler will offer a bull for himself and for all the people of Israel. The bull will be for a sin offering. ²³ During the seven days of the festival, the ruler will offer seven bulls and seven rams that have nothing wrong with them. They will be burnt offerings to the LORD. The ruler will offer one bull on every day of the seven days of the festival, and he will offer a male goat every day for a sin offering. ²⁴ The ruler will give an ephah* of barley as a grain offering with each bull, and an ephah of barley with each ram. He must give a hin† of oil for each ephah of grain. ²⁵ He must do the same thing for the seven days of the Festival of Shelters. This festival begins on the 15th day of the seventh month. These offerings will be the sin offering, the burnt offering, the grain offering, and the oil offering.”

The Ruler and the Festivals

¹ This is what the Lord GOD says: “The east gate of the inner courtyard will be closed on the six working days. But it will be opened on the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon. ² The ruler will go into the porch of that gate and stand by the gatepost. Then the priests will offer the ruler’s burnt offering and fellowship offerings. The ruler will worship at the opening of that gate and then go out. But the gate will not be shut until evening. ³ On the Sabbath day and on the day of the New Moon, the common people will also worship the LORD at that gate.

⁴ “The ruler will offer burnt offerings to the LORD on the Sabbath. He must provide six lambs that have nothing wrong with them and a ram that has nothing wrong with it. ⁵ He must give an ephah of grain offering with the ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

* 45:24 ephah A dry measure (3/5 bushel or 22 l). Also in 46:5, 7, 11. † 45:24 hin A liquid measure (1 gallon or 3.2 l). Also in 46:5, 7, 11.

⁶ “On the day of the New Moon he must offer a young bull that has nothing wrong with it. He will also offer six lambs and a ram that have nothing wrong with them. ⁷ The ruler must give an ephah of grain as an offering with the bull and an ephah of grain as an offering with the ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, he can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

⁸ “When the ruler goes in, he must enter at the porch of the east gate—and he must leave that same way.

⁹ “When the common people come to meet with the LORD at the special festivals, whoever enters through the north gate to worship will go out through the south gate, and whoever enters through the south gate will go out through the north gate. People must not return the same way they entered. Each person must go out straight ahead. ¹⁰ The ruler should be there among the people. When the people go in, the ruler will go in with them, and when they go out, the ruler will too.

¹¹ “At the festivals and other special meetings, an ephah of grain as an offering must be offered with each young bull, and an ephah of grain as an offering must be offered with each ram. As for the grain offering with the lambs, the ruler can give as much as he wants. But he must give 1 hin of olive oil for each ephah of grain.

¹² “When the ruler gives a freewill offering to the LORD—it might be a burnt offering, a fellowship offering, or a freewill offering—the east gate will be opened for him. Then he will offer his burnt offering and his fellowship offerings as he does on the Sabbath day. After he leaves, the gate will be shut.

The Daily Offering

¹³ “Every day you will provide a year-old lamb that has nothing wrong with it. It will be for a burnt offering to the LORD. You will provide it every morning. ¹⁴ Also, you will offer a grain offering with the lamb every morning. You will give 1/6 ephah* of flour and 1/3 hin† of oil to make the fine flour moist. It will be the daily grain offering to the LORD. ¹⁵ So they will give the lamb, the grain offering, and the oil every morning for a burnt offering forever.”

Laws of Inheritance for the Ruler

¹⁶ This is what the Lord GOD says: “If the ruler gives a gift from part of his land to any of his sons, it will belong to his sons. It is their property. ¹⁷ But if the ruler gives a gift from part of his land to one of his slaves, the gift will belong to the slave only until the year of freedom.‡ Then the gift will go back to the ruler. Only the ruler’s sons will keep a gift of land from the ruler. ¹⁸ And the ruler will not take any of the people’s land or force them to leave their land. He must give some of his own land to his sons. In that way my people will not be forced to lose their land.”

The Special Kitchens

¹⁹ The man led me through the entrance at the side of the gate. He led me to the holy rooms for the priests on the north side. There I saw a place at the west end of the path. ²⁰ The man said to me, “This is where the priests will boil the guilt offering and the sin offering and will bake the grain offering. Why? So they will not need to bring these offerings out into the outer courtyard. So they will not bring those holy things out where the common people are.”

²¹ Then the man led me out to the outer courtyard. He led me to the four corners of the courtyard. I saw smaller courtyards in each corner of the large courtyard. ²² There was a small, enclosed area in each of the four corners of the courtyard. Each small courtyard was 40 cubits§ long and 30 cubits* wide. The four areas measured the same. ²³ There was a brick wall around each of the four small courtyards, and there were places built into the brick walls for cooking. ²⁴ The man said to me, “These are the kitchens where those who serve at the Temple cook the sacrifices for the people.”

The Water Flowing From the Temple

¹ The man led me back to the entrance of the Temple. I saw water coming out from under the east gate of the Temple. (The front of the Temple is on the east side.) The water flowed down from under the south end of the Temple and ran south of the altar.

² The man led me out through the north gate and then around the outside to the outer gate on the east side. The water was flowing out on the south side of the gate.

³ The man walked east with a tape measure in his hand. He measured 1000 cubits.* Then he told me to walk through the water at that place. The water was only ankle deep.

⁴ He measured another 1000 cubits. Then he told me to walk through the water at that place. There the water came up to my knees. Then he measured another 1000 cubits and told me to walk through the water at that place. There the water was waist deep. ⁵ He measured another 1000 cubits, but there the water was too deep to cross. It had become a river. The water was deep enough to swim in. It was a river that was too deep to cross.

⁶ Then the man said to me, “Son of man,[†] did you pay close attention to the things you saw?”

Then the man led me back along the side of the river. ⁷ As I walked back along the side of the river, I saw many trees on both sides of the water. ⁸ He said to me, “This water flows east, down to the Arabah Valley. ⁹ This water flows into the Dead Sea so that the water in that sea becomes fresh and clean. There are many fish in this water, and all kinds of animals live where this river goes. ¹⁰ You can see fishermen standing by the river all the way from En Gedi to En Eglaim. You can see them throwing their fishing nets and catching many kinds of fish. There are as many kinds of fish in the Dead Sea as there are in the Mediterranean Sea. ¹¹ But the swamps and small marshes will not become fresh. They will be left for salt. ¹² All kinds of fruit trees will grow on both sides of the river. Their leaves never will become dry and fall. The fruit will never stop growing on those trees. The trees will produce fruit every month, because the water for the trees comes from the Temple. The fruit from the trees will be for food, and their leaves will be for healing.”

Division of the Land for the Tribes

¹³ This is what the Lord GOD says: “These are the borders for dividing the land among the twelve tribes of Israel. Joseph will have two parts. ¹⁴ You will divide the land equally. I promised to give this land to your ancestors, so I am giving this land to you.

¹⁵ “These are the borders of the land: On the north side, it goes from the Mediterranean Sea by way of Hethlon where the road turns toward Hamath and on to Zedad, ¹⁶ Berothah, Sibram (which is on the border between Damascus and Hamath) and Hazer Hatticon, which is on the border of Hauran. ¹⁷ So the border will go from the sea to Hazar Enan on the northern border of Damascus and Hamath. This will be on the north side.

¹⁸ “On the east side, the border will go from Hazar Enan between Hauran and Damascus and continue along the Jordan River between Gilead and the land of Israel, to the eastern sea and all the way to Tamar. This will be the eastern border.

¹⁹ “On the south side, the border will go from Tamar all the way to the oasis at Meribah-kadesh. Then it will go along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. This will be the southern border.

* 47:3 1000 cubits 1/3 mile (518.32 m). † 47:6 Son of man This was usually just a way of saying “a person” or “a human being.” Here, it is a way of addressing Ezekiel.

²⁰ “On the west side, the Mediterranean Sea will be the border all the way to the area in front of Lebo Hamath. This will be your western border.

²¹ “So you will divide this land among you for the tribes of Israel. ²² You will divide it as a property for yourselves and for the foreigners who live among you and who have had children among you. These foreigners will be residents—they will be like natural born Israelites. You will divide some land for them among the tribes of Israel. ²³ The tribe where that resident lives must give him some land.” This is what the Lord GOD said!

48

The Land for the Tribes of Israel

¹⁻⁷ “The northern border goes east from the Mediterranean Sea to Hethlon to Hamath Pass and then all the way to Hazar Enan. This is on the border between Damascus and Hamath. The land for the tribes in this group will go from the east of these borders to the west. From north to south, the tribes in this area are Dan, Asher, Naphtali, Manasseh, Ephraim, Reuben, and Judah.

The Special Section of Land

⁸ “The next area of land will be for a special use. This land is south of Judah’s land. This area is 25,000 cubits* long from north to south. From east to west, it will be as wide as the land that belongs to the other tribes. The Temple will be in the middle of this section of land. ⁹ You will dedicate this land to the LORD. It will be 25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits† wide. ¹⁰ This special area of land will be divided among the priests and Levites.

“The priests will get one part of this area. The land will be 25,000 cubits long on the north side, 10,000 cubits‡ wide on the west side, 10,000 cubits wide on the east side, and 25,000 cubits long on the south side. The LORD’S Temple will be in the middle of this area of land. ¹¹ This land is for Zadok’s descendants. These men were chosen to be my holy priests, because they continued to serve me when the other people of Israel left me. Zadok’s family did not leave me like the other people from the tribe of Levi. ¹² This share from this holy part of the land will be especially for these priests. It will be next to the land of the Levites.

¹³ “Next to the land for the priests, the Levites will have a share of the land. It will be 25,000 cubits long and 10,000 cubits wide. They will get the full length and width of this land—25,000 cubits long and 20,000 cubits wide. ¹⁴ The Levites will not sell or trade any of this land. They will not be able to sell any of it. They must not cut up this part of the country, because this land belongs to the LORD—it is very special. It is the best part of the land.

The Shares for the City Property

¹⁵ “There will be an area of land 5000 cubits§ wide by 25,000 cubits long that is left over from the land given to the priests and Levites. This land can be for the city, for grasslands for animals, and for building houses. The common people may use this land. The city will be in the middle of it. ¹⁶ These are the city’s measurements: The north side will be 4500 cubits.* The south side will be 4500 cubits. The east side will be 4500 cubits. The west side will be 4500 cubits. ¹⁷ The city will have grasslands. These grasslands will be 250 cubits† on the north and 250 cubits on the south. They will be 250 cubits on the east and 250 cubits on the west. ¹⁸ What is left of the length along the side of the holy area will be 10,000 cubits on the east and 10,000 cubits on the west. This land will be along the side of the holy area. This land will grow food for the city workers. ¹⁹ The city workers from all the tribes of Israel will farm this land.

²⁰ “This special area of land will be square. It will be 25,000 cubits long by 25,000 cubits wide. You must set apart this area for its special purposes. One part is for the priests, one part is for the Levites, and one part is for the city.

²¹⁻²² “Part of that special land will be for the ruler of the country. That special area of land is square. It is 25,000 cubits long by 25,000 cubits wide. Part of this special land is for the priests, part of it is for the Levites, and part of it is for the Temple. The Temple is in the middle of this area of land. The rest of the land belongs to the ruler of the country. The ruler will get the area between the land of Benjamin and the land of Judah.

²⁸ “The southern border of Gad’s land will go from Tamar to the oasis at Meribah-kadesh, then along the Brook of Egypt to the Mediterranean Sea. ²⁹ This is the land that you will divide among the tribes of Israel. This is what each group will get.” This is what the Lord GOD said!

The Gates of the City

³⁰ “These are the gates of the city. The gates will be named for the tribes of Israel.

“The north side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. ³¹ There will be three gates: Reuben’s Gate, Judah’s Gate, and Levi’s Gate.

³² “The east side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. There will be three gates: Joseph’s Gate, Benjamin’s Gate, and Dan’s Gate.

³³ “The south side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. There will be three gates: Simeon’s Gate, Issachar’s Gate, and Zebulun’s Gate.

³⁴ “The west side of the city will be 4500 cubits long. There will be three gates: Gad’s Gate, Asher’s Gate, and Naphtali’s Gate.

Daniel

Daniel Taken to Babylon

³ Then King Nebuchadnezzar ordered Ashpenaz, the man in charge of his officials, to bring some of the boys into the palace to train them. He was to include boys from among the Israelites,† from important Judean families, and from the royal family of Judah. ⁴ King Nebuchadnezzar wanted only healthy boys who did not have any bruises, scars, or anything wrong with their bodies. He wanted handsome, smart young men who were able to learn things quickly and easily to serve in his palace. He told Ashpenaz to teach these young men the language and writings of the Chaldeans.

⁵ King Nebuchadnezzar gave the young men a certain amount of food and wine every day. This was the same kind of food that he ate. He wanted them to be trained for three years. After that they would become servants of the king of Babylon. ⁶ Among those young men were Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah from the tribe of Judah. ⁷ Ashpenaz gave them Babylonian names. Daniel's new name was Belteshazzar, Hananiah's was Shadrach, Mishael's was Meshach, and Azariah's was Abednego.

⁹ God caused Ashpenaz, the man in charge of the officials, to be kind and loyal to Daniel. ¹⁰ But Ashpenaz told Daniel, "I am afraid of my master, the king. He ordered me to give you this food and drink. If you don't eat this food, you will begin to look weak and sick. You will look worse than other young men your age. The king will see this, and he will become angry with me. He might cut off my head. And it would be your fault."

¹¹ Then Daniel talked to the guard who had been put in charge of Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah by Ashpenaz. ¹² He said, "Please give us this test for ten days: Don't give us anything but vegetables to eat and water to drink. ¹³ Then after ten days, compare us with the other young men who eat the king's food. See for yourself who looks healthier, and then decide how you want to treat us, your servants."

* 1:1 the third year ... Jehoiakim This was about 605 B.C. † 1:3 Israelites Here, this probably means "ordinary citizens of Judah and Israel." But it could mean "people from the northern tribes of Israel." ‡ 1:21 the first year ... Cyrus This was about 539-538 B.C.

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream

¹ During Nebuchadnezzar's second year as king, he had dreams. They bothered him, and he could not sleep. ² So the king called his wise men to come to him. They used magic and watched the stars. They did this to try to interpret dreams and to learn what would happen in the future. The king wanted them to tell him what he had dreamed, so they came in and stood in front of him.

³ Then the king said to them, "I had a dream that bothers me. I want to know what it means."

⁴ Then the Chaldeans answered the king. They spoke Aramaic* and said, "King, live forever! Please tell your dream to us, your servants, and then we will tell you what it means."

⁵ Then King Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "No, you must tell me the dream, and then you must tell me what it means. If you don't, I will give an order for you to be cut into pieces. And I will order your houses to be destroyed until they are nothing but piles of dust and ashes. ⁶ But if you tell me my dream and explain its meaning, I will give you gifts, rewards, and great honor. So tell me about my dream and what it means."

⁷ Again the wise men said to the king, "Please, Sir, tell us about the dream, and we will tell you what it means."

⁸ Then King Nebuchadnezzar answered, "I know that you are trying to get more time. You know that I meant what I said. ⁹ You know that you will be punished if you don't tell me about my dream. So you have all agreed to lie to me. You are hoping for more time so that I will forget what I want you to do. Now tell me the dream. If you can tell me the dream, I will know that you can tell me what it really means."

¹⁰ The Chaldeans answered the king. They said, "There is not a man on earth who can do what the king is asking! No king has ever asked the wise men, the men who do magic, or the Chaldeans to do something like this. Not even the greatest and most powerful king has ever asked his wise men to do such a thing. ¹¹ The king is asking something that is too hard to do. Only the gods could tell the king his dream and what it means. But the gods don't live with people."

¹² When the king heard that, he became very angry. So he gave an order for all the wise men of Babylon to be killed. ¹³ King Nebuchadnezzar's order to kill all the wise men was announced. The king's men were sent to look for Daniel and his friends to kill them.

¹⁴ Arioch was the commander of the king's guards. He was going to kill the wise men of Babylon, but Daniel talked to him. Daniel spoke politely to Arioch ¹⁵ and said, "Why did the king order such a severe punishment?"

Then Arioch explained the whole story about the king's dreams, and Daniel understood. ¹⁶ When Daniel heard the story, he went to King Nebuchadnezzar. Daniel asked the king to give him some more time. Then he would tell the king what the dream meant.

¹⁷ So Daniel went to his house. He explained the whole story to his friends Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah. ¹⁸ Daniel asked his friends to pray to the God of heaven that God would be kind to them and help them understand this secret. Then Daniel and his friends would not be killed with the other wise men of Babylon.

¹⁹ During the night, God explained the secret to Daniel in a vision. Then Daniel praised the God of heaven. ²⁰ He said,

"Praise God's name forever and ever!
Power and wisdom belong to him.

²¹ He changes the times and seasons.
He gives power to kings,
and he takes their power away.

* 2:4 Aramaic The text of Daniel from here to 7:28 is written in Aramaic. See "Aramaic" in the Word List.

He gives wisdom to people, so they become wise.

He lets people learn things and become wise.

²² He knows hidden secrets that are hard to understand.

Light lives with him,

so he knows what is in the dark and secret places.

²³ God of my ancestors, I thank you and praise you.

You gave me wisdom and power.

You told us what we asked for.

You told us about the king's dream.”

Daniel Tells What the Dream Means

²⁴ Then Daniel went to Arioch, the man who King Nebuchadnezzar had chosen to kill the wise men of Babylon. Daniel said to Arioch, “Don't kill the wise men of Babylon. Take me to the king. I will tell him what his dream means.”

²⁵ So very quickly, Arioch took Daniel to the king. Arioch said to the king, “I have found a man among the captives[†] from Judah who can tell the king what his dream means.”

²⁶ The king asked Daniel (Belteshazzar) a question. He said, “Are you able to tell me about my dream, and what it means?”

³¹ “King, in your dream you saw a large statue in front of you that was very large and shiny. It was very impressive. ³² The head of the statue was made from pure gold. Its chest and the arms were made from silver. The belly and upper part of the legs were made from bronze. ³³ The lower part of the legs was made from iron. Its feet were made partly of iron and partly of clay. ³⁴ While you were looking at the statue, you saw a rock that was cut loose, but not by human hands. Then the rock hit the statue on its feet of iron and clay and smashed them. ³⁵ Then the iron, the clay, the bronze, the silver, and the gold broke to pieces all at the same time. And all the pieces became like chaff on a threshing floor in the summertime. The wind blew them away, and there was nothing left. No one could tell that a statue had ever been there. Then the rock that hit the statue became a very large mountain and filled up the whole earth.

³⁶ “That was your dream. Now we will tell the king what it means. ³⁷ King, you are the most important king. The God of heaven has given you a kingdom, power, strength, and glory. ³⁸ He has given you control, and you rule over people and the wild animals and the birds. Wherever they live, God has made you ruler over them all. King Nebuchadnezzar, you are that head of gold on the statue.

³⁹ “Another kingdom will come after you, but it will not be as great as your kingdom. Next, a third kingdom will rule over the earth—that is the bronze part. ⁴⁰ Then there will be a fourth kingdom. That kingdom will be strong like iron. Just as iron breaks things and smashes them to pieces, that fourth kingdom will break all the other kingdoms and smash them to pieces.

⁴¹ “You saw that the feet and toes of the statue were partly clay and partly iron. That means the fourth kingdom will be a divided kingdom. It will have some of the strength of iron in it just as you saw the iron mixed with clay. ⁴² The toes of the statue were partly iron and partly clay. So the fourth kingdom will be partly strong like iron and partly weak like clay. ⁴³ You saw the iron mixed with clay, but iron and clay don't completely mix together. In the same way the people of the fourth kingdom will be a mixture. They will not be united as one people.

⁴⁴ "During the time of the kings of the fourth kingdom, the God of heaven will set up another kingdom that will continue forever. It will never be destroyed. And it will be the kind of kingdom that cannot be passed on to another group of people. This kingdom will crush all the other kingdoms. It will bring them to an end, but that kingdom itself will continue forever.

⁴⁶ Then King Nebuchadnezzar bowed down in front of Daniel to honor him. The king praised him. He gave an order that an offering and incense be given to honor Daniel. ⁴⁷ Then the king said to Daniel, "I know for sure your God is the God over all gods and the Lord over all kings. He tells people about things they cannot know. I know this is true because you were able to tell these secret things to me."

⁴⁸ Then the king gave Daniel a very important job in his kingdom and gave him many expensive gifts. Nebuchadnezzar made Daniel ruler over the whole province of Babylon and put him in charge of all the wise men of Babylon. ⁴⁹ Daniel asked the king to make Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego important officials over the province of Babylon. The king did as Daniel asked. Daniel himself became one of the important officials who was always near the king.

The Idol of Gold and the Hot Furnace

¹ King Nebuchadnezzar had a gold idol made that was 60 cubits* high and 6 cubits† wide. Then he set the idol up on the plain of Dura in the province of Babylon. ² Then he called the satraps, prefects, governors, advisors, treasurers, judges, rulers, and all the other officials in his kingdom to come together. He wanted all of them to come to the dedication ceremony for the idol.

³ So all the men came and stood in front of the idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up. ⁴ Then the man who makes announcements for the king spoke in a loud voice, "All you people from many nations and language groups, listen to me. This is what you are commanded to do: ⁵ You must bow down as soon as you hear the sound of all the musical instruments. When you hear the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas,‡ harps, bagpipes,§ and all the other musical instruments, you must worship the gold idol. King Nebuchadnezzar has set this idol up. ⁶ Whoever does not bow down and worship this gold idol will immediately be thrown into a very hot furnace."

⁷ So as soon as they heard the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments, they bowed down and worshiped the gold idol. All the peoples, nations, and different language groups there worshiped the gold idol that King Nebuchadnezzar had set up.

sambucas, harps, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments must bow down and worship the gold idol. ¹¹ And you also said that whoever does not bow down and worship the gold idol will be thrown into a very hot furnace. ¹² There are some Judeans who you made important officials in the province of Babylon that ignored your order, King. Their names are Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. They don't worship your gods, and they didn't bow down to worship the gold idol you set up."

¹³ Nebuchadnezzar became very angry. He called for Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. So they were brought to him. ¹⁴ And Nebuchadnezzar said to them, "Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, is it true that you don't worship my gods? And is it true that you didn't bow down and worship the gold idol I have set up? ¹⁵ Now when you hear the sound of the horns, flutes, lyres, sambucas, harps, bagpipes, and all the other musical instruments, you must bow down and worship the gold idol. If you are ready to worship the idol I have made, that is good. But if you don't worship it, you will be thrown very quickly into the hot furnace. Then no god will be able to save you from my power!"

¹⁶ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego answered the king, "Nebuchadnezzar, we don't need to explain these things to you. ¹⁷ If you throw us into the hot furnace, the God we serve can save us. And if he wants to, he can save us from your power. ¹⁸ But even if God does not save us, we want you to know, King, that we refuse to serve your gods. We will not worship the gold idol you have set up."

¹⁹ Then Nebuchadnezzar became very angry with Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He gave an order for the oven to be heated seven times hotter than it usually was. ²⁰ Then he commanded some of the strongest soldiers in his army to tie up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. He told the soldiers to throw them into the hot furnace.

²¹ So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego were tied up and thrown into the hot furnace. They were wearing their robes, pants, cloth caps, and other clothes. ²² The king was very angry when he gave the command, so the soldiers quickly made the furnace very hot. The fire was so hot that the flames killed the strong soldiers. They were killed when they went close to the fire to throw in Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. ²³ Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego fell into the fire. They were tied up very tightly.

²⁴ Then King Nebuchadnezzar jumped to his feet. He was very surprised and he asked his advisors, "We tied only three men, and we threw only three men into the fire. Is that right?"

His advisors said, "Yes, King."

²⁵ The king said, "Look! I see four men walking around in the fire. They are not tied up and they are not burned. The fourth man looks like an angel.*"

So Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego came out of the fire. ²⁷ When they came out, the satraps, prefects, governors, and royal advisors crowded around them. They could see that the fire had not burned Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Their bodies were not burned at all. Their hair was not burned, and their robes were not burned. They didn't even smell as if they had been near fire.

²⁸ Then Nebuchadnezzar said, "Praise the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Their God has sent his angel and saved his servants from the fire! These three men trusted their God and refused to obey my command. They were willing to die instead of serving or worshiping any other god. ²⁹ So I now make this law: Anyone from any nation or language group who says anything against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego will be cut into pieces, and their house will be destroyed until it is a pile of dirt and ashes. No other god can save his people like this.”³⁰ Then the king gave Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego more important jobs in the province of Babylon.

* 3:25 angel Literally, "son of the god."

Nebuchadnezzar's Dream About a Tree

¹ King Nebuchadnezzar sent this letter to the many nations and language groups living around the world.

Greetings:

² I am very happy to tell you about the miracles and wonderful things that the Most High God did for me.

³ God has done amazing miracles!
 He has done powerful miracles!
 His kingdom continues forever;
 his rule will continue for all generations.

⁴ I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at my palace. I was happy and successful. ⁵ I had a dream that made me afraid. I was lying on my bed, and I saw pictures and visions in my mind. These things made me very afraid. ⁶ So I gave an order that all the wise men of Babylon be brought to me to tell me what my dream meant. ⁷ When the men of magic and the Chaldeans came, I told them about the dream, but they could not tell me what it meant. ⁸ Finally, Daniel came to me. (I gave Daniel the name, Belteshazzar, to honor my god. The spirit of the holy gods is in him.) I told him about my dream. ⁹ I said, “Belteshazzar, you are the most important of all the men of magic. I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you. I know there is no secret that is too hard for you to understand. This was what I dreamed. Tell me what it means. ¹⁰ These are the visions I saw while I was lying in my bed: I looked, and there in front of me was a tree standing in the middle of the earth. The tree was very tall. ¹¹ The tree grew large and strong. The top of the tree touched the sky.* It could be seen from anywhere on earth. ¹² The leaves of the tree were beautiful. It had much good fruit on it. And on the tree was plenty of food for everyone. The wild animals found shelter under the tree, and the birds lived in its branches. Every animal ate from the tree.

¹³ “I was looking at those things in the vision while lying on my bed. And then I saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. ¹⁴ He spoke very loud and said, ‘Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches. Strip off its leaves. Scatter its fruit around. The animals that are under the tree will run away. The birds that are in its branches will fly away. ¹⁵ But let the stump and roots stay in the ground. Put a band of iron and bronze around it. The stump and roots will stay in the field with the grass all around it. It will live among the wild animals and plants in the fields. It will become wet with dew. ¹⁶ He will not think like a man any longer. He will have the mind of an animal. Seven seasons will pass while he is like this.’

¹⁷ “Holy angels announced this punishment so that all the people on earth may know that God Most High rules over human kingdoms. God gives those kingdoms to whoever he wants, and he chooses humble people to rule them.

¹⁸ “That is what I, King Nebuchadnezzar, dreamed. Now, Belteshazzar,[†] tell me what it means. None of the wise men in my kingdom can tell me what that dream means. But Belteshazzar, you can interpret the dream because the spirit of the holy gods is in you.”

* 4:11 middle of the earth ... sky The Babylonians thought the earth was flat and round like a plate or a wheel. And they thought the sky was like a glass bowl turned upside down on the earth. † 4:18 Belteshazzar Another name for Daniel.

¹⁹ Then Daniel (also called Belteshazzar) became very quiet for a while. What he was thinking bothered him. So the king said, “Belteshazzar, don’t let the dream or its meaning make you afraid.”

Then Belteshazzar answered the king, “My lord, I wish the dream were about your enemies, and I wish the meaning of the dream were about those against you. ²⁰⁻²¹ You saw a tree in your dream. The tree grew large and strong. Its top touched the sky, and it could be seen from all over the earth. Its leaves were beautiful, and it had plenty of fruit. The fruit gave plenty of food for everyone. It was a home for the wild animals, and its branches were nesting places for the birds. You saw that tree. ²² King, you are that tree! You have become great and powerful. You are like the tall tree that touched the sky—your power reaches to the far parts of the earth.

²³ “King, you saw a holy angel coming down from heaven. He said, ‘Cut the tree down and destroy it. Put a band of iron and bronze around the stump and leave the stump and its roots in the ground. Leave it in the grass in the field. It will become wet with dew. He will live like a wild animal. Seven seasons will pass while he is like this.’

²⁴ “King, this is the meaning of the dream. God Most High has commanded these things to happen to my lord the king: ²⁵ King Nebuchadnezzar, you will be forced to go away from people. You will live among the wild animals. You will eat grass like cattle, and you will become wet with dew. Seven seasons will pass, and then you will learn this lesson. You will learn God Most High rules over human kingdoms and gives them to whoever he wants.

²⁶ “The command to leave the stump of the tree and its roots in the ground means this: Your kingdom will be given back to you. This will happen when you learn that Most High God rules your kingdom. ²⁷ So, King, please accept my advice. Stop sinning and do what is right. Stop doing bad things and be kind to poor people. Then you might continue to be successful.”

³¹ The words were still in his mouth when a voice came from heaven. The voice said, “King Nebuchadnezzar, these things will happen to you: Your power as king has been taken away from you. ³² You will be forced to go away from people. You will live with the wild animals and eat grass like an ox. Seven seasons will pass before you learn your lesson. Then you will learn that God Most High rules over human kingdoms and gives them to whoever he wants.”

³³ These things happened immediately. Nebuchadnezzar was forced to go away from people. He began eating grass like an ox. He became wet from dew. His hair grew long like the feathers of an eagle, and his nails grew long like the claws of a bird.

³⁴ Then at the end of that time, I, Nebuchadnezzar, looked up toward heaven, and I was in my right mind again. Then I gave praise to God Most High. I gave honor and glory to him who lives forever.

God rules forever!

His kingdom continues for all generations.

or question what he does.

³⁶ At that time God gave me my right mind again, and he gave back my great honor and power as king. My advisors and the royal people began to ask my advice again. I became the king again—even greater and more powerful than before. ³⁷ Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, give praise, honor, and glory to the King of Heaven. Everything he does is right. He is always fair, and he is able to make proud people humble!

The Writing on the Wall

⁵ Suddenly, a person's hand appeared and began writing on the wall. The fingers scratched words into the plaster on the wall, near the lampstand in the king's palace. The king was watching the hand as it wrote.

¹⁰ Then the king's mother came into the place where the party was. She had heard the voices of the king and his royal officials. She said, "King, may you live forever! Don't be afraid! Don't let your face be so white with fear! ¹¹ There is a man in your kingdom who has the spirit of the holy gods in him. In the days of your father, this man showed that he could understand secrets. He showed that he was very smart and very wise. He showed that he was like the gods in these things. Your grandfather, King Nebuchadnezzar, put this man in charge of all the wise men. He ruled over all the men of magic and the Chaldeans. ¹² The man I am talking about is named Daniel. The king gave him the name Belteshazzar. He is very smart and he knows many things. He could interpret dreams, explain secrets, and find the answer to very hard problems. Call for Daniel, he will tell you what the writing on the wall means."

¹³ So they brought Daniel to the king and he asked, "Is your name Daniel, one of the captives my father the king brought here from Judah? ¹⁴ I have heard that the spirit of the gods is in you and that you understand secrets and are very smart and very wise. ¹⁵ The wise men and the men of magic were brought to me to read this writing on the wall. I wanted them to explain to me what it means, but they could not explain it. ¹⁶ I have heard that you are able to explain what things mean, and that you can find the answer to very hard problems. If you can read this writing on the wall and explain to me what it means, this is what I will do for you: I will give you purple robes to wear and will put a gold chain around your neck. Then you will become the third highest ruler in the kingdom.”

* 5:2 grandfather Or "father." It is uncertain that Belshazzar was really Nebuchadnezzar's grandson. Here, the word "father" might only mean "the previous king." Also in verses 11, 18. † 5:7 purple robes These clothes showed that a person was rich and powerful, like a king. Also in verses 16, 29.

¹⁷ Then Daniel answered the king, “King Belshazzar, you can keep your gifts for yourself, or you can give them to someone else. But I will still read the writing on the wall for you and explain what it means.

¹⁸ “King, God Most High made your grandfather Nebuchadnezzar a very great and powerful king and gave him great wealth. ¹⁹ People from many nations and language groups were very afraid of Nebuchadnezzar because God made him a very powerful king. Nebuchadnezzar killed whoever he wanted and let those who pleased him live. If he wanted to make people important, he made them important. If he wanted to bring them down, he brought them down.

²² “But Belshazzar, you already knew this. You are Nebuchadnezzar’s grandson,[‡] but still you have not made yourself humble. ²³ No, you did not become humble. Instead, you have turned against the Lord of heaven. You ordered the drinking cups from his Temple to be brought to you. Then you and your royal officials, your wives, and your slave women drank wine from those cups. You gave praise to the gods of silver and gold, of bronze, iron, wood, and stone. They are not really gods; they cannot see or hear or understand anything. But you did not give honor to the God who has the power over your life and everything you do. ²⁴ So because of that, God sent the hand that wrote on the wall. ²⁵ These are the words that were written on the wall:

MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPARSIN.

²⁶ “This is what these words mean:

Mene[§]:

God has counted the days until your kingdom will end.

²⁷ Tekel^{*}:

You have been weighed on the scales and found not good enough.

²⁸ Uparsin[†]:

Your kingdom is being taken from you.

It will be divided among the Medes and Persians.”

²⁹ Then Belshazzar gave an order for Daniel to be dressed in purple clothes. A gold chain was put around his neck, and he was appointed the third highest ruler in the kingdom. ³⁰ That very same night, Belshazzar, king of the Babylonians, was killed. ³¹ A man named Darius the Mede became the new king. Darius was about 62 years old.

Daniel and the Lions

[‡] 5:22 grandson Or “son.” This does not necessarily mean they were from the same family. It might only mean that Belshazzar was one of the kings of Babylon after Nebuchadnezzar was king. [§] 5:26 Mene A weight, like the Hebrew word “mina.” This is like the word “to count.” ^{*} 5:27 Tekel A weight, like the Hebrew word “shekel.” This word is like the word meaning “to weigh.” [†] 5:28 Uparsin Literally, “peres,” a weight. This word is like the word meaning “to divide” or “to split.” It is also like the name of the country of Persia.

¹ Darius thought it would be a good idea to choose 120 satraps to rule throughout his kingdom. ² He chose three men to rule over the 120 satraps. Daniel was one of the three supervisors. The king put these men in this position to keep anyone from cheating him. ³ Daniel proved himself to be a better supervisor than any of the others. He did this by his good character and great ability. The king was so impressed with Daniel that he planned to make him ruler over the whole kingdom. ⁴ But when the other supervisors and the satraps heard about this, they were very jealous. They tried to find reasons to accuse Daniel. So they watched what Daniel did as he went about doing the business of the government. But they could not find anything wrong with him, so they could not accuse him of doing anything wrong. Daniel was a man people could trust. He did not cheat the king, and he worked very hard.

⁶ So the two supervisors and the satraps went as a group to the king. They said, "King Darius, live forever! ⁷ The supervisors, prefects, satraps, advisors, and governors have all agreed on something. We think that the king should make this law and that everyone must obey it: For the next 30 days, whoever prays to any god or man except you, King, will be thrown into the lions' den. ⁸ Now, King, make the law and sign the paper it is written on so that it cannot be changed, because the laws of the Medes and Persians cannot be canceled or changed." ⁹ So King Darius made the law and signed it.

¹⁰ Daniel always prayed to God three times every day. Three times every day, he bowed down on his knees to pray and praise God. Even though Daniel heard about the new law, he still went to his house to pray. He went up to the upper room of his house and opened the windows that faced toward Jerusalem. Then Daniel bowed down on his knees and prayed just as he always had done.

¹¹ Then the supervisors and satraps went as a group and found Daniel praying and asking God for help. ¹² So they went to the king and talked to him about the law he had made. They said, "King Darius, you signed a law that says, for the next 30 days anyone who prays to any god or man except you, the king, would be thrown into the lions' den. You did sign that law, didn't you?"

The king answered, "Yes, I signed that law, and the laws of the Medes and Persians cannot be canceled or changed."

¹³ Then they said to the king, "That man Daniel is not paying any attention to you. He is one of the captives* from Judah, and he is not paying attention to the law you signed. Daniel still prays to his God three times every day."

¹⁴ The king became very sad and upset when he heard this. He decided to save Daniel. He worked until sunset trying to think of a way to save him. ¹⁵ Then the men went as a group to the king and said to him, "Remember, King, that the law of the Medes and Persians says that no law or command signed by the king can ever be canceled or changed."

¹⁶ So King Darius gave the order. They brought Daniel and threw him into the lions' den. The king said to Daniel, "May the God you serve save you!" ¹⁷ A big rock was brought and put over the opening of the lions' den. Then the king used his ring and put his seal on the rock. He also used the rings of his officials and put their seals on the rock. This showed that no one could move that rock and bring Daniel out of the lion's den. ¹⁸ Then King Darius went back to his house. He did not eat that night. He did not want anyone to come and entertain him. He could not sleep all night.

¹⁹ The next morning, King Darius got up just as it was getting light and ran to the lions' den. ²⁰ He was very worried. When he got to the lions' den, he called to Daniel. He said,

* 6:13 captives People taken away as prisoners. Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylon.

“Daniel, servant of the living God, has your God been able to save you from the lions? You always serve your God.”

²¹ Daniel answered, “King, live forever! ²² My God sent his angel to save me. The angel closed the lions’ mouths. The lions have not hurt me because my God knows I am innocent. I never did anything wrong to you, King.”

²⁴ Then the king gave a command to bring the men who had accused Daniel to the lions’ den. The men and their wives and children were thrown into the lion’s den. The lions grabbed them before they hit the floor. The lions ate their bodies and then chewed on their bones.

²⁵ Then King Darius wrote this letter to all the people from other nations and language groups all around the world:

Greetings:

²⁶ I am making a new law. This law is for people in every part of my kingdom. All of you must fear and respect the God of Daniel.

Daniel’s God is the living God;
he lives forever.

His kingdom will never be destroyed.
His rule will never end.

²⁷ God helps and saves people.
He does amazing miracles in heaven and on earth.
He saved Daniel from the lions.

²⁸ So Daniel was successful during the time Darius was king and when Cyrus the Persian was king.

Daniel’s Dream About Four Animals

⁴ “The first animal looked like a lion, but it had wings like an eagle. As I watched, its wings were torn off. It was helped up from the ground, and it stood up on two feet like a human. Then it was given a human mind.

⁵ “Then I saw another animal there in front of me that looked like a bear. It was raised up on one of its sides, and it had three ribs in its mouth between its teeth. It was told, ‘Get up and eat all the meat you want!’

⁶ “After that I noticed another animal in front of me. It looked like a leopard, but it had four wings on its back. This animal had four heads. It was given authority to rule.

⁷ “After that, in my vision at night, I looked, and there in front of me was a fourth animal. It looked very cruel and terrifying. It looked very strong, with large iron teeth. This animal crushed and ate its victims and walked on whatever was left of them. This fourth animal was different from all the animals I saw before it. This animal had ten horns.

* 7:1 the first year ... Belshazzar This was about 553 B.C.

⁸ “While I was looking at the horns and thinking about them, another horn grew up among them. This was a little horn with eyes like a human. It also had a mouth that was bragging. Then the little horn pulled out three of the other horns.

Judgment of the Fourth Animal

⁹ “As I was looking, thrones were put in their places, and the Ancient King[†] sat on his throne.

His clothes were as white as snow.
His hair was as white as wool.

His throne was made from fire,[‡] and its wheels were made from flames.

¹⁰ A river of fire flowed out from in front of the Ancient King.

Millions of people were serving him.
Hundreds of millions of people stood in front of him.

Court was ready to begin,
and the books were opened.

¹¹ “I kept on looking because the little horn was bragging. I kept watching until finally the fourth animal was killed. Its body was destroyed, and it was thrown into the burning fire. ¹² The authority and rule of the other animals had been taken from them. But they were permitted to live for a certain period of time.

¹³ “In my vision at night I looked, and there in front of me was someone who looked like a human being.[§] He was coming on the clouds in the sky. He came up to the Ancient King, and the King’s servants brought him before the King.

¹⁴ “The one who looked like a human being was given authority, glory, and complete ruling power. People from every nation and language group will serve him. His rule will last forever. His kingdom will continue forever. It will never be destroyed.

The Meaning of Daniel’s Dream

¹⁵ “I, Daniel, was confused and worried. The visions that went through my mind bothered me. ¹⁶ I went to someone who was standing there and asked him what all this meant. So he explained it to me. ¹⁷ He said, ‘The four great animals are four kingdoms that will come from the earth. ¹⁸ But God’s holy people will receive the kingdom, and they will have the kingdom forever and ever.’

¹⁹ “Then I wanted to know what the fourth animal was and what it meant. The fourth animal was different from all the other animals. It was very terrible and had iron teeth and bronze claws. It was the animal that crushed and ate its victims and walked on whatever was left. ²⁰ I wanted to know about the ten horns that were on the fourth animal’s head and about the little horn that grew there. That little horn pulled out three of the other ten horns. That little horn had eyes and a mouth that kept on bragging, and it looked bigger than the other horns. ²¹ As I was watching, this little horn began attacking and making war against God’s holy people and killing them. ²² The little horn kept killing God’s holy people until the Ancient King came and judged him. The Ancient King announced his decision about the little horn. This judgment helped God’s holy people, and they received the kingdom.

²³ “And he explained this to me: ‘The fourth animal is a fourth kingdom that will come on the earth. It will be different from all the other kingdoms. That fourth kingdom will destroy people all around the world. It will walk on and crush nations all around the world. ²⁴ The ten horns are ten kings that will come from this fourth kingdom. After those ten kings are gone, another king will come. He will be different from the kings who ruled before him. He will defeat three of the other kings. ²⁵ This special king will say things against God Most High, and he will hurt and kill God's special people. That king will try to change the times and laws that have already been set. God's holy people will be under that king's power for three and one-half years.*

²⁶ “But the court will decide what should happen, and that king's power will be taken away. His kingdom will end completely. ²⁷ Then God's holy people will rule over the kingdom and all the people from all the kingdoms of earth.† This kingdom will last forever, and people from all the other kingdoms will respect and serve them.’

²⁸ “And that was the end of the dream. I, Daniel, was very afraid. My face became very white from fear, and I did not tell the other people what I saw and heard.”

Daniel's Vision of a Ram and a Goat

¹ After that vision,* I, Daniel, saw another vision during the third year that Belshazzar† was king. ² In the vision I saw that I was in the city of Susa.‡ Susa was the capital city in the province of Elam. I was standing by the Ulai River. ³ I looked up and saw a ram standing at the side of the river. The ram had two long horns. The horns were both long, but one horn was longer than the other horn. The long horn was farther back than the other horn. ⁴ I watched the ram run into things with its horns. I watched the ram run to the west, to the north, and to the south. No animal could stop the ram, and no one could save the other animals. That ram did whatever it wanted, and it became very powerful.

⁵ I thought about the ram. While I was watching, I saw a male goat come from the west. It had one large horn that was easy to see. It ran so fast its feet barely touched the ground.

⁶ The goat came to the ram with the two horns. (This was the ram I had seen standing by the Ulai River.) The goat was very angry and ran at the ram. ⁷ As I watched, the goat ran at the ram and broke both of the ram's horns. The ram could not stop the goat. The goat knocked it to the ground and walked all over it. There was no one to save the ram from the goat.

⁸ So the goat became very powerful. But after he became strong, his big horn broke off. Then four horns grew in place of the one big horn. Those four horns were easy to see. They pointed in four different directions.

⁹ Then a little horn grew from one of those four horns. It grew and became very big. It grew toward the southeast, toward the Beautiful Land. ¹⁰ The little horn became very big. It grew until it reached the sky. It even threw some of heaven's army§ to the ground and trampled them. ¹¹ That little horn became very strong, and it turned against God, the Ruler of heaven's army. It stopped the daily sacrifices that were offered to the Ruler. And the holy place where people worshiped the Ruler was pulled down. ¹² Because of this sin, the daily sacrifices were stopped. Truth was thrown down to the ground. The little horn did these things and was very successful.

¹³ Then I heard two holy ones* talking with each other. One of them asked the other one, who had been speaking, “How long will the things in this vision last—the stopping

¹⁴ The other holy one said, "This will last for 2300 days. Then the holy place will be repaired."

The Vision Is Explained to Daniel

¹⁷ So Gabriel, the angel who looked like a man, came to me. I was very afraid and fell down to the ground. But Gabriel said to me, "Human,[†] understand that this vision is about the time of the end."

¹⁸ While Gabriel was speaking, I fell to the ground and went to sleep. It was a very deep sleep. Then Gabriel touched me and lifted me to my feet. ¹⁹ He said, "Now, I will explain the vision to you. I will tell you what will happen in the future. Your vision was about the end times."

²⁰ "You saw a ram with two horns. The horns are the countries of Media and Persia. ²¹ The goat is the king of Greece. The big horn between its eyes is the first king. ²² That horn broke off and four horns grew in its place. The four horns are four kingdoms. Those four kingdoms will come from the nation of the first king, but they will not be as strong as the first king."

²³ "When the end is near for those kingdoms, there will be a very bold and cruel king who will be very tricky. This will happen when many people have turned against God."

²⁴ This king will be very powerful, but his power does not come from himself.[‡] This king will cause terrible destruction. He will be successful in everything he does. He will destroy powerful people—even God's holy people.

²⁵ "This king will be very smart and tricky. He will use his wisdom and lies to be successful. He will think that he is very important. He will destroy many people, when they least expect it. He will try to fight even the Prince of Princes. But that cruel king's power will be destroyed, and it will not be a human hand that destroys him."

²⁶ "What I said and the vision about those times are true. But seal up the vision, because those things will not happen for a long, long time."

²⁷ I, Daniel, became very weak. I was sick for several days after that vision. Then I got up and went back to work for the king, but I was very upset about the vision. I did not understand what it meant.

Daniel's Prayer

¹ These things happened during the first year that Darius son of Ahasuerus* was king. Darius was a Mede by birth, but he was appointed to be the king of Babylon. ² During his first year as king, I was studying the Scriptures[†] and noticed in the LORD'S message to Jeremiah that 70 years would pass before Jerusalem would be rebuilt.

³ Then I turned to the Lord God. I prayed to him and asked him for help. I did not eat any food. I put ashes on my head and put on the clothes that showed I was sad. ⁴ I prayed to the LORD my God and told him about all my sins. I said,

"Lord, you are a great and awesome God. You keep your agreement of love and kindness with people who love you. You keep your agreement with the people who obey your commands.

[†] 8:17 Human Literally, "Son of man." [‡] 8:24 but his power ... himself Some ancient versions don't have these words, so they may have been accidentally copied from verse 22. * 9:1 Ahasuerus Or "Xerxes." [†] 9:2 Scriptures Literally, "scrolls."

⁵ “But we have sinned. We have done wrong. We have done evil things. We turned against you. We turned away from your commands and good decisions. ⁶The prophets were your servants. They spoke for you to our kings, to our leaders, to our fathers, and to the common people in our country. But we did not listen to them.

⁷ “Lord, you are innocent, and the shame belongs to us, even now. Shame belongs to the people from Judah and Jerusalem, and to all the people of Israel, to those who are near and to those you scattered among many nations. They should be ashamed of all the evil things they did against you.

⁹ “But, Lord our God, you are kind and forgiving, even though we rebelled against you. ¹⁰We have not obeyed the LORD our God. He used his servants, the prophets, and gave us laws, but we have not obeyed his laws. ¹¹All the people of Israel disobeyed your teachings and turned away from you. They did not listen to you. We sinned, so you did what you promised to do. All the curses and promises[‡] in the Law of Moses, your servant, happened to us.

¹² “God said those things would happen to us and our leaders, and he made them happen. He made terrible things happen to us. No other city suffered the way Jerusalem suffered. ¹³All those terrible things happened to us. This happened just as it is written in the Law of Moses, but we still have not asked the LORD our God for help. We still have not stopped sinning. We still do not pay attention to your truth, Lord. ¹⁴The LORD kept the terrible things ready for us—he made them happen to us. The LORD our God did this because he is fair in everything he does. But we still have not listened to him.

¹⁵ “Lord our God, you used your power and brought us out of Egypt. We are your people. You are famous because of that, even today. We have sinned and done terrible things. ¹⁶Lord, we and our ancestors sinned against you, so your people and your city became a disgrace to everyone around us. You do so many good things, so stop being angry at Jerusalem, your city, your holy mountain.

¹⁷ “Now, our God, hear your servant’s prayer. Listen to my prayer for mercy. For your own sake, do good things for your holy place.[§] ¹⁸My God, listen to me! Open your eyes and see all the terrible things that have happened to us. See what has happened to the city that is called by your name. I am not saying we are good people. That is not why I am asking these things. I am asking these things because I know you are kind. ¹⁹Lord, listen to me! Forgive us! Lord, pay attention, and then do something! Don’t wait! Do something now! Do it for your own good! My God, do something now, for your city and your people who are called by your name.”

The Vision About the 70 Weeks

²⁰ I was praying to the LORD my God about his holy mountain and telling about my sins and the sins of the people of Israel. ²¹That was the time of the evening sacrifices. While I was still praying, Gabriel, the one I saw in the first vision, flew quickly to me and touched me. He came at the time of the evening sacrifice. ²²Gabriel helped me understand the things I wanted to know. He said, “Daniel, I have come to give you wisdom and to help you understand. ²³When you first started praying, the command was given to come speak to you. God loves you very much! You will understand this command, and you will understand the vision.

²⁴ “God has allowed 70 weeks* for your people and your holy city, Daniel. The 70 weeks are ordered for these reasons: to stop doing bad things, to stop sinning, to make people pure, to bring the goodness that continues forever, to put a seal on visions and prophets, and to dedicate a very holy place.

²⁵ “Learn and understand these things, Daniel. From the time that the message went out to go back and rebuild Jerusalem until the time for the chosen king[†] to come will be seven weeks. Then Jerusalem will be rebuilt. There will again be places for people to meet together in Jerusalem, and there will be a ditch around the city to protect it. Jerusalem will be built for 62 weeks, but there will be many troubles during that time.

²⁶ After the 62 weeks, the chosen one will be killed.[‡] He will be gone.[§] Then the people of the future leader will destroy the city and the holy place. That end will come like a flood. War will continue until the end. God has ordered that place to be completely destroyed.

²⁷ “Then the future ruler will make an agreement with many people. That agreement will continue for one week. The offerings and sacrifices will stop for a half of a week. And a destroyer will come. He will do terrible, destructive things,^{*} but God has ordered that destroyer to be completely destroyed.”

Daniel's Vision by the Tigris River

¹ During the third year that Cyrus was the king of Persia, these things were shown to Daniel. (Daniel's other name is Belteshazzar.) They are true, but very hard to understand. Daniel understood them because they were explained to him in a vision.

² At that time I, Daniel, was very sad for three weeks. ³ During those three weeks, I didn't eat any fancy food; I didn't eat any meat or drink any wine. I didn't put any oil on my head. I didn't do any of these things for three weeks.

⁷ I, Daniel, was the only one who saw the vision. The men with me didn't see the vision, but they were still afraid. They were so afraid that they ran away and hid. ⁸ So I was left alone. I was watching this vision, and it made me afraid. I lost my strength. My face turned white like a dead person's face, and I was helpless. ⁹ Then I heard the man in the vision talking. As I listened to his voice, I fell into a deep sleep, with my face on the ground.

¹⁰ Then a hand touched me. When that happened, I got on my hands and knees. I was so afraid that I was shaking. ¹¹ The man in the vision said to me, “Daniel, God loves you very much. Think very carefully about the words I will speak to you. Stand up; I have been sent to you.” And when he said this, I stood up. I was still shaking because I was afraid. ¹² Then the man in the vision started talking again. He said, “Daniel, do not be afraid. From the very first day you decided to get wisdom and to be humble in front of God, he has been listening to your prayers. I came to you because you have been praying. ¹³ But the prince[†] of Persia has been fighting against me for 21 days. Then Michael, one of the most important princes, came to help me because I was stuck there with the king of Persia. ¹⁴ Now I have come to you, Daniel, to explain to you what will happen to your people in the future. The vision is about a time in the future.”

[†] 9:25 chosen king Literally, “anointed one.” [‡] 9:26 killed Literally, “cut off.” [§] 9:26 He will be gone Or “He will have nothing.” ^{} 9:27 He will do ... things Or “He will come on the wings of terrible destruction.” ^{} 10:5 pure gold Literally, “gold from Uphaz.” [†] 10:13 prince This probably means an angel assigned to a country to protect it. Also in 10:20, 21; 11:1; 12:1.

¹⁵ While the man was talking to me, I bowed low with my face toward the ground. I could not speak. ¹⁶ Then the one who looked like a man touched my lips. I opened my mouth and started to speak. I said to the one standing in front of me, “Sir, I am upset and afraid because of what I saw in the vision. I feel helpless. ¹⁷ Sir, I am Daniel your servant. How can I talk with you? My strength is gone and it is hard for me to breathe.”

¹⁸ The one who looked like a man touched me again. When he touched me, I felt better. ¹⁹ Then he said, “Daniel, don’t be afraid. God loves you very much. Peace be with you. Be strong now, be strong.”

When he spoke to me, I became stronger. Then I said, “Sir, you have given me strength. Now you can speak.”

²⁰ So then he said, “Daniel, do you know why I have come to you? Soon I must go back to fight against the prince of Persia. When I go, the prince of Greece will come. ²¹ But Daniel, before I go, I must first tell you what is written in the Book of Truth. No one stands with me against those evil angels except Michael, the prince over your people.

² “Now then, Daniel, I tell you the truth: Three more kings will rule in Persia. Then a fourth king will come who will be much richer than all the other kings of Persia before him. He will use his riches to get power and turn everyone against the kingdom of Greece. ³ Then a very strong and powerful king will come who will rule with much power. He will do anything he wants. ⁴ Just as he comes to power, his kingdom will be broken up and scattered in all directions. It will not be divided among his descendants. And it will not be ruled in the same way because that kingdom will be pulled up and given to other people.

⁶ “Then after a few years, the southern king and that commander will make an agreement. The daughter of the southern king will marry the northern king. She will do this to bring peace, but she and the southern king will not be strong enough. People will turn against her and against the one who brought her to that country. And they will turn against her child and against the one who helped her.

⁷ “But someone from her family will come to take the southern king’s place. He will attack the armies of the northern king. He will go into that king’s strong fort. He will fight and win. ⁸ He will take their gods and their metal idols and their expensive things made from silver and gold. He will take those things away to Egypt. Then he will not bother the northern king for a few years. ⁹ The northern king will attack the southern kingdom. But he will lose, and then he will go back to his own country.

¹⁰ “The northern king’s sons will prepare for war. They will get a large army together. It will move through the land very quickly, like a powerful flood. That army will fight all the way to the strong fort of the southern king. ¹¹ Then the southern king will become very angry and march out to fight against the northern king. The northern king will have a large army, but he will lose the war. ¹² The northern army will be defeated, and those soldiers will be carried away. The southern king will be very proud, and he will kill thousands of soldiers from the northern army. But he will not continue to be successful. ¹³ The northern king will get another army that will be larger than the first one. After several years he will attack. His army will be ready for war. It will be very large and it will have many weapons.

* 11:1 the first ... Mede This was about 521 B.C. † 11:1 Michael See Dan. 10:13.

¹⁴ “In those times many people will be against the southern king. Some of your own people who love to fight will rebel against the southern king. They will not win, but they will make the vision come true. ¹⁵ Then the northern king will come. He will build ramps against the walls and will capture a strong city. The southern army will not have the power to fight back. Even the best soldiers from the southern army will not be strong enough to stop the northern army.

¹⁶ “The northern king will do whatever he wants. No one will be able to stop him. He will gain power and control in the Beautiful Land, and he will have the power to destroy it. ¹⁷ The northern king will decide to use all his power to fight against the southern king, and he will make an agreement with the southern king. The king of the north will let one of his daughters marry the southern king so that he can defeat the southern king. But those plans will not succeed. His plans will not help him.

¹⁸ “Then the northern king will turn his attention to the countries along the coast of the Mediterranean Sea. He will defeat many of those cities, but then a commander will put an end to the pride and rebellion of that northern king. The commander will make the northern king ashamed.

¹⁹ “After that happens, the northern king will go back to the strong forts of his own country. But he will be weak and will fall. He will be finished.

²⁰ “After the northern king, there will be a new ruler who sends out tax collectors so that he can live like a king. But after a few years, he will be destroyed, although he will not die in battle.

²¹ “That ruler will be followed by a very cruel and hated man, who will not have the honor of being from a king’s family.[‡] He will become a ruler by being tricky. He will attack the kingdom when the people feel safe. ²² He will defeat large and powerful armies. He will even defeat the leader with the agreement. ²³ Many nations will make agreements with that cruel and hated ruler, but he will lie and trick them. He will gain much power, but only a few people will support him.

²⁴ “When the richest countries feel safe, that cruel and hated ruler will attack them. He will attack at just the right time and will be successful where his ancestors were not successful. He will take things from the countries he defeated, and he will give them to his followers. He will plan to defeat and destroy strong cities. He will be successful—but only for a short time.

²⁵ “That very cruel and hated ruler will have a very large army. He will use that army to show his strength and courage and attack the southern king. The southern king will get a very large and powerful army and go to war. But the people who are against him will make secret plans, and the southern king will be defeated. ²⁶ People who were supposed to be good friends of the southern king will try to destroy him. His army will be defeated. Many of his soldiers will be killed in battle. ²⁷ Those two kings will want to make trouble. They will sit around the table planning their lies, but it will not do either one of them any good because God has set a time for their end to come.

²⁸ “The northern king will go back to his own country with much wealth. Then he will decide to do bad things against the holy agreement.[§] He will do the things he planned, and then he will go back to his own country.

²⁹ “At the right time, the northern king will attack the southern king again. But this time he will not be successful as he was before. ³⁰ Ships from Cyprus will come and fight against the northern king. He will see those ships coming and be afraid. Then he will turn back and take out his anger on the holy agreement. He will turn back and help those who stopped following the holy agreement. ³¹ The northern king will send his army to do terrible things to the Temple in Jerusalem. They will stop the people from offering the daily sacrifice. Then they will do something really terrible. They will set up that terrible thing that causes destruction.

³² “The northern king will use lies and smooth talking to trick those who quit following the holy agreement, so they will sin even worse. But those who know God and obey him will be strong. They will fight back.

³³ “Those wise teachers will help the other people understand what is happening. But even they will have to suffer persecution. Some of them will be killed with swords. Some of them will be burned or taken prisoner. Some of them will have their homes and things taken away. ³⁴ When those wise people are punished, they will receive some help, but many people who join them will be hypocrites. ³⁵ Some of the wise people will stumble and make mistakes. But the persecution must come so that they can be made stronger and purer until the time of the end. Then, at the right time, that time of the end will come.

The King Who Praises Himself

³⁶ “The northern king will do whatever he wants. He will brag about himself. He will praise himself and think that he is even better than a god. He will say things that no one has ever heard. He will say those things against the God of gods. He will be successful until all the evil things have happened. Then what God has planned to happen will happen.

³⁷ “That northern king will not care about the gods his ancestors worshiped. He will not care about the gods women worship. He will not care about any god. Instead, he will praise himself and make himself more important than any god. ³⁸ The northern king will not worship any god, but he will worship power. Power and strength will be his god. His ancestors didn’t love power as he does. He will honor the god of power with gold and silver, expensive jewels, and gifts.

³⁹ “That northern king will attack strong fortresses with the help of this foreign god. He will give much honor to the foreign rulers who join him. He will put many people under their rule. He will make the rulers pay him for the land they rule over.

⁴⁰ “At the time of the end, the southern king will fight a battle against the northern king. The northern king will attack him with chariots and soldiers on horses and many large ships. The northern king will rush through the land like a flood. ⁴¹ The northern king will attack the Beautiful Land. He will defeat many countries. But Edom, Moab, and the leaders of Ammon will be saved from him. ⁴² The northern king will show his power in many countries. Egypt will also learn how powerful he is. ⁴³ He will get treasures of gold and silver and all the riches of Egypt. The Libyans and Ethiopians will obey him. ⁴⁴ But that northern king will hear news from the east and the north that will make him afraid and angry. He will go to completely destroy many nations. ⁴⁵ He will set up his king’s tents between the sea and the beautiful holy mountain.* But finally, that bad king will die. There will be no one to help him when his end comes.

* 11:45 holy mountain The mountain Jerusalem is built on. * 12:2 are dead and buried Literally, “sleep in the dust.” † 12:3 Or “The wise and successful teachers will shine like the sun rays in the sky. Those who make others innocent will shine like the stars forever.” In Hebrew this is like Isaiah 52:13 and Isaiah 53:11.

⁴ “But you, Daniel, keep this message a secret. You must close the book and keep this secret until the time of the end. Many people will go here and there looking for true knowledge, and the true knowledge will increase.”

⁵ Then I, Daniel, noticed two other men. One man was standing on my side of the river, and the other was standing on the other side. ⁶ The man who was dressed in linen was standing over the water in the river. One of the two men said to him, “How long will it be before these amazing things come true?”

⁷ The man dressed in linen and standing over the water lifted his right and left hands toward heaven. And I heard him make a promise using the name of God who lives forever. He said, “It will be for three and one-half years.[‡] The power of the holy people will be broken, and then all these things will finally come true.”

⁸ I heard the answer, but I really didn’t understand. So I asked, “Sir, what will happen after all this comes true?”

⁹ He answered, “Go on about your life Daniel. The message is hidden. It will be a secret until the time of the end. ¹⁰ Many people will be made pure—they will make themselves clean. But evil people will continue to be evil. And those wicked people will not understand these things, but the wise people will understand them.

¹¹ “The daily sacrifice will be stopped. There will be 1290 days from that time until the time that the terrible thing that destroys is set up. ¹² The one who waits for and comes to the end of the 1335 days will be very happy.

¹³ “As for you, Daniel, go and live your life until the end. You will get your rest. At the end you will rise from death and receive your share of the promise.”

[‡] 12:7 three and one-half years Literally, “a time, times, and half a time.”

Hosea

The Lord God's Message Through Hosea

¹ This is the LORD'S message that came to Hosea son of Beeri during the time that Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, and Jeroboam son of Joash was king of Israel.

² This was the LORD'S first message to Hosea. The LORD said, "Go, marry a prostitute who has had children as a result of her prostitution. Do this because the people in this country have acted like prostitutes—they have been unfaithful to the LORD."

The Birth of Jezreel

³ So Hosea married Gomer daughter of Diblaim. She became pregnant and gave birth to a son for Hosea. ⁴ The LORD said to Hosea, "Name him Jezreel,* because soon I will punish the family of Jehu for the people he killed at Jezreel Valley.† Then I will put an end to the kingdom of the nation‡ of Israel. ⁵ And at that time I will break Israel's bow at Jezreel Valley."

The Birth of Lo-Ruhamah

⁶ Then Gomer became pregnant again and gave birth to a daughter. The LORD said to Hosea, "Name her Lo-Ruhamah,§ because I will not show mercy to the nation of Israel anymore, nor will I forgive them. ⁷ But I will show mercy to the nation of Judah. I will save them, but I will not use bows or swords or war horses and soldiers to save them. I will save them by my own power.*"

The Birth of Lo-Ammi

⁸ After Gomer had finished nursing Lo-Ruhamah, she became pregnant again and gave birth to a son. ⁹ Then the Lord said, "Name him Lo-Ammi,† because you are not my people, and I am not your God."

The Lord Speaks to the Nation of Israel

¹⁰ "In the future the number of the people of Israel will be like the sand of the sea, which you cannot measure or count. In the same place that God told them, 'You are not my people,' he will call them 'children of the Living God.'

¹¹ "Then the people of Judah and the people of Israel will be gathered together. They will choose one ruler for themselves, and their nation will be too large for the land.‡ Jezreel's day will be great!"

¹ "Then you will say to your brothers, 'You are my people,' and you will say to your sisters, 'He has shown mercy to you.'"*

² "Argue with your mother.† Argue with her because she is no longer my wife, and I am no longer her husband! Tell her to stop being like a prostitute. Tell her to take away her lovers‡ from between her breasts. ³ If she refuses to stop her adultery, I will strip her naked and leave her like the day she was born. I will take away her people, and she will be like an empty, dry desert. I will kill her with thirst. ⁴ I will have no pity on her children because they are the children of prostitution. ⁵ Their mother has acted like a prostitute. She should be ashamed of what she did. She said, 'I will go to my lovers,[§] who give me food and water, wool and linen, wine and olive oil.'

⁶ "So I, the Lord, will block Israel's road with thorns, and I will build a wall. Then she will not be able to find her path. ⁷ She will run after her lovers, but she will not be able to catch up with them. She will look for her lovers, but she will not be able to find them. Then she will say, 'I will go back to my husband. Life was better for me when I was with him. Life was better then than it is now.'

⁸ "Israel didn't know that I, the Lord, was the one who gave her grain, wine, and oil. I kept giving her more and more silver and gold, but she used this silver and gold to make statues of Baal. ⁹ So I will return and take back my grain at the time it is ready to be harvested. I will take back my wine at the time the grapes are ready. I will take back my wool and linen. I gave those things to her so that she could cover her naked body. ¹⁰ Now I will strip her. She will be naked, so all her lovers can see her. No one will be able to save her from my power.* ¹¹ I will take away all her fun. I will stop her festivals, her New Moon celebrations, and her days of rest. I will stop all her special feasts. ¹² I will destroy her vines and fig trees. She said, 'My lovers gave these things to me.' But I will change her gardens—they will become like a wild forest. Wild animals will come and eat from those plants.

¹³ "Israel served false gods,[†] so I will punish her. She burned incense to those false gods. She dressed up—she put on her jewelry and nose ring. Then she went to her lovers and forgot me." This is what the LORD has said.

¹⁴ "So I, the Lord, will speak romantic words to her. I will lead her into the desert and speak tender words. ¹⁵ There I will give her vineyards. I will give her Achor Valley as a doorway of hope. Then she will answer as she did when she came out of the land of Egypt." ¹⁶ This is what the LORD says.

"At that time you will call me 'My husband.' You will not call me 'My Baal.'[‡] ¹⁷ I will take the names of those false gods out of her mouth. Then people will not use those names again.

¹⁸ "At that time I will make an agreement for the Israelites with the animals of the field, the birds of the sky, and the crawling things on the ground. I will break the bow, the sword, and the weapons of war in that land. I will make the land safe, so the people of Israel can lie down in peace. ¹⁹ And I will make you my bride forever. I will make you my bride with goodness and justice and with love and mercy. ²⁰ I will make you my faithful bride. Then you will really know the LORD. ²¹ And at that time I will answer." This is what the LORD says.

"I will speak to the skies, and they will give rain to the earth.

²² The earth will produce grain, wine, and oil, and they will meet Jezreel's needs.

²³ I will sow her many seeds[§] on her land.
To Lo-Ruhamah,* I will show mercy.

The name Jezreel means "God will plant seeds." But Jezreel is also the name of a large valley in Israel. This probably shows that God will bring his people back to Israel. * 2:23 Lo-Ruhamah This name in Hebrew means "She receives no mercy."

To Lo-Ammi,[†] I will say, ‘You are my people.’
And they will say to me, ‘You are our God.’”

Hosea Buys Gomer Back From Slavery

¹ Then the LORD said to me again, “Gomer* has many lovers, but you must continue loving her. Do this because it is an example of the LORD’S love for Israel. He continues to love them, but they continue to turn to other gods, and they love to eat those raisin cakes.[†]”

² So I bought Gomer back for 6 ounces[‡] of silver and 9 bushels[§] of barley. ³ Then I told her, “You must stay at home with me for many days. You will not be like a prostitute. You will not have sexual relations with another man. I will be your husband.”

⁴ In the same way the people of Israel will continue many days without a king or a leader. They will be without a sacrifice or a memorial stone. They will be without an ephod or a household god. ⁵ After this, the people of Israel will come back and look for the LORD their God and for David their king. In the last days they will come to honor the LORD and his goodness.

The Lord Is Angry Against Israel

¹ People of Israel, listen to the LORD’S message. The LORD has something to say against those who live in this land: “The people in this land are not honest or loyal. They don’t really know God. ² They are always cursing, lying, killing, stealing, and committing adultery. They murder one person after another. ³ So the country is like someone crying for the dead, and all of its people are weak. Even the animals of the field, the birds of the sky, and the fish in the sea are dying.* ⁴ No one should argue or blame another person. Priests, my argument is with you![†] ⁵ You priests will fall in the daytime. And at night the prophet will also fall with you. I will also destroy your mother.

⁶ “My people are destroyed because they have no knowledge. You priests have refused to learn, so I will refuse to let you be priests for me. You have forgotten the law of your God, so I will forget your children. ⁷ They became proud. They sinned more and more against me, so I will change their honor to shame.

⁸ “The priests fed on the people’s sins. They wanted more and more of their sin offerings.[‡] ⁹ So the priests are no different from the people. I will punish them for the things they did. I will pay them back for the wrong things they did. ¹⁰ They will eat, but they will not be satisfied. They will commit sexual sins, but they will not have babies.[§] This is because they left the LORD and became like prostitutes.

¹¹ “Sexual sins, strong drink, and new wine ruin a person’s ability to think straight. ¹² My people are asking pieces of wood for advice. They think those sticks will answer them! They have chased after those false gods like prostitutes and have left their own God. ¹³ They make sacrifices on the tops of the mountains and burn incense on the hills

[†] 2:23 Lo-Ammi This name in Hebrew means “not my people.” * 3:1 Gomer Literally, “a woman.” † 3:1 raisin cakes This food was used in the feasts that honored false gods such as the “Queen of Heaven.” ‡ 3:2 6 ounces Literally, “15 shekels” (172.5 g). § 3:2 9 bushels Literally, “1 homer and 1 letek” (231 l). * 4:3 dying Literally, “being taken away.” † 4:4 Or “The people cannot complain or blame someone else. The people are helpless, like arguing with a priest.” Many times the priests and Levites served as judges, and their decisions were final. ‡ 4:8 This is a wordplay. The word “sins” also means “sin offerings.” So instead of eating sacrifices, the priests became hungry for sin itself. § 4:10 They ... babies A part of worshiping the false gods was having sexual relations with temple prostitutes. The people thought this would make the gods happy. And then the gods would give the people large families and good crops.

under oak trees, poplar trees, and elm trees.* The shade under those trees looks nice. So your daughters lie under those trees like prostitutes, and your daughters-in-law commit sexual sins.

¹⁴ “I cannot blame your daughters or your daughters-in-law for doing this, because your men go and have sex with the temple prostitutes† and offer sacrifices with them. This is how foolish people destroy themselves.

The Shameful Sins of Israel

¹⁵ “Israel, just because you act like a prostitute doesn’t mean that Judah should feel guilty too. People, don’t go to Gilgal or Beth Aven.‡ Don’t use the Lord’s name to make promises. Don’t say, ‘As the LORD lives ...!’ ¹⁶ The LORD has given many things to Israel. He is like a shepherd who takes his sheep to a large field with plenty of grass. But Israel is stubborn like a young cow that runs away again and again.

¹⁷ “Ephraim has joined his idols, so leave him alone. ¹⁸ Ephraim has joined their drunkenness. Let them continue to be prostitutes. Let them be with their lovers.§ ¹⁹ They went to those gods for safety, and they have lost their ability to think.* Their altars will bring them shame.

5

The Leaders Cause Israel and Judah to Sin

¹ “Priests, nation* of Israel, and people in the king’s family, listen to me. You have been judged guilty!

“You were like a trap at Mizpah† and like a net spread on the ground at Tabor.‡ ² You have done many evil things,§ so I will punish you all. ³ I know Ephraim. I know what Israel has done. Ephraim, right now you act like a prostitute. Israel is dirty with sin. ⁴ The people of Israel have done many evil things, and these evil things keep them from coming back to their God. They are always thinking of ways to chase after other gods. They don’t know the LORD. ⁵ Israel’s pride is a witness against them,* so Israel and Ephraim will stumble in their sin. But Judah will also stumble with them.

⁶ “The leaders of the people went to look for the LORD. They took their sheep and cattle with them, but they did not find the LORD because he refused to accept them. ⁷ They have not been faithful to the LORD. Their children are from some stranger. And now, he will destroy them and their land again.†

A Prophecy of Israel’s Destruction

⁸ “Blow the horn in Gibeah.

Blow the trumpet in Ramah.‡

Give the warning at Beth Aven.

The enemy is behind you, Benjamin.

⁹ Ephraim will become empty at the time of punishment.

I, God, warn the families of Israel that this really will happen.
¹⁰ The leaders of Judah are like thieves trying to steal someone's property, so I will pour out my anger on them like water.
¹¹ Ephraim will be punished.
 He will be crushed and pressed like grapes,
 because he decided to follow filth.
¹² I will destroy Ephraim as a moth eats a piece of cloth.
 I will ruin Judah, like rot on a piece of wood.
¹³ Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, so they went to Assyria for help.
 They told their problems to the great king,
 but he cannot heal you or cure your wound.
¹⁴ I will be like a lion to Ephraim,
 like a young lion to the nation of Judah.
 I—yes, I myself—will rip them to pieces.
 I will carry them away,
 and no one can save them.
¹⁵ I will go back to my place, until the people admit they are guilty,
 until they come looking for me.
 Yes, in their trouble they will try very hard to find me.”

6

The Rewards of Coming Back to the Lord

¹ “Come, let's go back to the LORD.
 He hurt us, but he will heal us.
 He wounded us, but he will put bandages on us.
² After two days he will bring us back to life.
 He will raise us up on the third day.
 Then we can live near him.
³ Let's learn about the LORD.
 Let's try very hard to know him.
 We know he is coming,
 just as we know the dawn is coming.
 He will come to us like the rain,
 like the spring rain that waters the ground.”

The People Are Not Faithful

⁴ “Ephraim, what should I do with you?
 Judah, what should I do with you?
 Your faithfulness is like a morning mist.
 Your faithfulness is like the dew that goes away early in the morning.
⁵ I used the prophets and made laws for the people.
 The people were killed at my command,
 but good things will come from those decisions.*
⁶ This is because I want faithful love, not sacrifice.

* 6:5 but good things ... decisions Or “I cut them with the prophets. I killed them with the words from my mouth.
 Light will come from your decisions.”

- I want people to know God, not to bring burnt offerings.
- ⁷ But the people broke the agreement as Adam did.[†]
They were unfaithful to me in their country.
- ⁸ Gilead is a city of people who do evil—people who have tricked and killed others.
- ⁹ The priests are like gangs of robbers hiding and waiting on the road to attack someone.
They murder people before they reach safety in Shechem.
They do such evil things.
- ¹⁰ I have seen a terrible thing in the nation[‡] of Israel.
Ephraim was unfaithful to God.
Israel is dirty with sin.
- ¹¹ Judah, there is also a time of harvest for you.
It will happen when I bring my people back from captivity.[§]

7

- ¹ “I will heal Israel!
Then people will know that Ephraim sinned.
They will know about Samaria’s* lies.
They will know about the thieves who come and go in that town.
- ² They don’t believe that I will remember their crimes.
The bad things they did are all around.
I can see their sins clearly.
- ³ Their evil makes their king happy.
Their false gods please their leaders.
- ⁴ A baker presses dough to make bread.
He puts the bread in the oven.
He does not make the fire hotter
while the bread is rising.
But the people of Israel are not like that.
They are always making their fire hotter.
- ⁵ On Our King’s Day, the leaders get so drunk that they get sick.
They become crazy with wine and make agreements with people who laugh at God.
- ⁶ The people make their secret plans.
Their hearts burn with excitement like an oven.
Their excitement burns all night,
and in the morning it is like a hot fire.
- ⁷ They are all like hot ovens.
They destroyed their rulers.
All their kings fell.
Not one of them called to me for help.

Israel and the Nations

- ⁸ “Ephraim mixes with the nations.
Ephraim is like a cake that was not cooked on both sides.
- ⁹ Strangers destroy Ephraim’s strength,
but Ephraim does not know it.

[†] 6:7 as Adam did See Genesis 3. [‡] 6:10 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country. [§] 6:11 It will ... captivity Or “It will happen when I restore my people’s fortune.” * 7:1 Samaria The capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel.

Gray hairs[†] are also sprinkled on Ephraim,
 but Ephraim does not know it.
¹⁰ Ephraim's pride speaks against him.
 The people had many troubles,
 but they still didn't go back to the LORD their God.
 They didn't look to him for help.
¹¹ So Ephraim has become like a silly dove without understanding.
 The people called to Egypt for help.
 They went to Assyria for help.
¹² They go to those countries for help,
 but I will trap them.
 I will throw my net over them,
 and I will bring them down like the birds of the sky.
 I will punish them for their agreements.[‡]
¹³ It will be very bad for those who left me.
 They refused to obey me, so they will be destroyed.
 I saved them,
 but they speak lies against me.
¹⁴ They never call to me from their hearts.
 Yes, they cry on their beds.
 And they cut themselves when they ask for grain and new wine.
 But in their hearts, they have turned away from me.
¹⁵ I trained them and made their arms strong,
 but they made evil plans against me.
¹⁶ Like a boomerang, they changed directions,
 but they did not come back to me.[§]
 Their leaders bragged about their strength, but they will be killed with swords.
 And the people in Egypt
 will laugh at them.

Idol Worship Leads to Destruction

¹ “Put the trumpet to your lips and give the warning. Be like an eagle over the LORD’S house.* The Israelites have broken my agreement. They have not obeyed my law. ² They yell out at me, ‘My God, we in Israel know you!’ ³ But Israel refused the good things, so the enemy chases him. ⁴ The Israelites chose their kings, but they didn’t come to me for advice. They chose leaders, but they didn’t choose men I knew. The Israelites used their silver and gold to make idols for themselves, so they will be destroyed. ⁵⁻⁶ He has refused your calf, Samaria.[†] God says, ‘I am very angry with the Israelites.’ The people of Israel will be punished for their sin. Some worker made those statues. They are not God. Samaria’s calf will be broken into pieces. ⁷ The Israelites did a foolish thing—it was like trying to plant the wind. But they will get only troubles—they will harvest a whirlwind. The grain in the fields will grow, but it will give no food. Even if it grew something, strangers would eat it.

[†] 7:9 Gray hairs This word might describe something that was put on the food when people cooked, something that looked like gray hairs. [‡] 7:12 for their agreements Or “for the report of their treaties.” [§] 7:16 They changed ... to me Or “They turned, but not upward” or “They turned to the ‘no-gods.’” That is, the statues people worshiped as gods. * 8:1 Be like an eagle ... LORD’S house Or “Be like a guard over the LORD’S house.” [†] 8:5-6 calf, Samaria Samaria was the capital city of Israel. The people of Israel made statues of calves and put them in the temples at Dan and Bethel. It is not clear if these statues represented the Lord or some false god. But God didn’t want them to use these statues. See 1 Kings 12:26-30.

⁸ “Israel was destroyed;
its people are scattered among the nations,
like some dish that was thrown away because no one wanted it.

⁹ Ephraim went to his ‘lovers.’[‡]
Like a stubborn donkey, they led him off to Assyria.

¹⁰ Yes, Israel was taken to the nations, but I will bring them back.
But first, they must suffer a little by carrying the burden of that mighty king.

Israel Forgets God and Worships Idols

¹¹ “Ephraim built more and more altars, and that was a sin.
They have been altars of sin for Ephraim.

¹² Even if I wrote 10,000 laws for Ephraim,
he would treat them as if they were for some stranger.

¹³ The Israelites love sacrifices.[§]
They offer the meat and eat it.

The LORD does not accept their sacrifices.
He remembers their sins,
and he will punish them.
They will be carried away as prisoners to Egypt.

¹⁴ Israel has built palaces for their kings, and now Judah builds fortresses.
But they have forgotten their Maker!
So I will send a fire to destroy their cities and fortresses!”

9

The Sadness of Exile

¹ Israel, don’t celebrate like the nations do. Don’t be happy. You acted like a prostitute and left your God. You committed your sexual sin* on every threshing floor. ² But the grain from those threshing floors will not provide enough food for Israel. There will not be enough wine for Israel.

³ The Israelites will not stay in the LORD’S land. Ephraim will return to Egypt. In Assyria they will eat food that they should not eat. ⁴ They will not be able to give offerings of wine to the LORD. None of their sacrifices will please him. What they offer will be like food eaten at a funeral—whoever eats it will become unclean. They can eat that food for their own hunger, but it cannot be taken into the Lord’s Temple. ⁵ They will not be able to celebrate the LORD’S feasts or festivals.[†]

⁶ The people of Israel left because the enemy took everything from them. But Egypt will take the people themselves. Memphis[‡] will bury them. Weeds will grow over their silver treasures, and thorns will grow where the Israelites lived.

Israel Rejected the True Prophets

[‡] 8:9 lovers This means Israel’s false gods. [§] 8:13 The Israelites love sacrifices The meaning of the Hebrew text here is uncertain. ^{*} 9:1 You committed your sexual sin This means the people were not faithful to God. But it also means the people had sexual relations with temple prostitutes. They believed their false gods would give them many children and good crops. [†] 9:5 Literally, “What will you do for a day of solemn assembly, for the LORD’S festival day?” [‡] 9:6 Memphis An important city in Egypt.

⁷ The prophet says, “Israel, learn this: The time of punishment has come. The time has come for you to pay for the evil things you did.” But the people of Israel say, “The prophet is a fool. This man with God’s Spirit is crazy.” The prophet says, “You will be punished for your terrible sins. You will be punished for your hate.” ⁸ God and the prophet are like guards watching over Ephraim, but there are many traps along his way. And people hate the prophet, even in the house of his God.

⁹ The Israelites have gone deep into ruin as in the time of Gibeah. God will remember the Israelites’ sins, and he will punish them.

Israel Is Ruined by Its Worship of Idols

¹⁰ “At the time I, the Lord, found Israel, they were like fresh grapes in the desert. They were like the first figs on a fig tree at the beginning of the season. But when they came to Baal Peor,[§] they changed. So I had to cut them off like rotten fruit.* They became like the terrible things that they loved.

The Israelites Will Have No Children

¹¹ “Like a bird, Ephraim’s glory will fly away. There will be no more pregnancies, no more births, and no more babies. ¹² But even if the Israelites do raise their children, it will not help, because I will take the children away from them. I will leave them, and they will have nothing but troubles.”

¹³ I can see that Ephraim is leading his children into a trap. Ephraim will lead his children out to the killer. ¹⁴ LORD, give them what you will. Give them a womb that loses babies and breasts that cannot give milk.

¹⁵ All their evil is in Gilgal;
 I began hating them there.
 I will force them to leave my house because of the evil things they do.
 I will not love them anymore.
 Their leaders are rebels who turned against me.

¹⁶ Ephraim will be punished.
 Their root is dying.
 They will not have any more babies.
 They might give birth to babies,
 but I will kill the precious babies who come from their bodies.

¹⁷ Those people will not listen to my God,
 so he will refuse to listen to them.
 And they will wander among the nations without a home.

10

Israel’s Riches Led to Its Worship of Idols

¹ Israel is like a vine that grows plenty of fruit.
 But as Israel got more and more things,
 he built more and more altars to honor false gods.
 His land became better and better,
 so he put up better and better stones to honor false gods.

² The people of Israel tried to trick God, but now they must accept their guilt.

[§] 9:10 Baal Peor This happened when Moses was still leading the Israelites in the desert. Read Num. 25:1-5. * 9:10 they changed ... rotten fruit This is a wordplay that can also mean “they dedicated themselves to a shameful idol.”

He will break down their altars and destroy their memorial stones.

The Evil Decisions of the Israelites

³ Now the Israelites say, “We have no king. We don’t honor the LORD. And his king cannot do anything to us.”

⁴ They make promises, but they are only telling lies. They don’t keep their promises. They make agreements with other countries. God does not like those agreements. The judges are like poisonous weeds growing in a plowed field.

⁵ The people from Samaria worship the calves at Beth Aven.* They will cry. The priests will cry, because their beautiful idol is gone. It was carried away. ⁶ It was carried away as a gift to the great king of Assyria. He will keep Ephraim’s shameful idol. Israel will be ashamed of its idol.† ⁷ Samaria’s false god‡ will be destroyed. It will be like a piece of wood floating away on the water’s surface.

⁸ Israel sinned and built many high places. The high places of Aven§ will be destroyed. Thorns and weeds will grow on their altars. Then they will say to the mountains, “Cover us!” and to the hills, “Fall on us!”

Israel Will Pay for Sin

⁹ “Israel, you have sinned since the time of Gibeah. (And the people have continued to sin there.) Those evil people at Gibeah will be trapped by war. ¹⁰ I will come to punish them. Armies will come together against them and punish the Israelites for both of their sins.*

¹¹ “Ephraim is like a trained young cow that loves to walk on grain on the threshing floor. I will put a good yoke on her neck. I will put the ropes on Ephraim. Then Judah will begin plowing. Jacob will break the ground himself.”

¹² If you plant goodness, you will harvest faithful love. Plow your ground, and you will harvest with the LORD. He will come, and he will make goodness fall on you like rain.

¹³ But you planted evil, and you harvested trouble. You ate the fruit of your lies, because you had trusted in your power and your soldiers. ¹⁴ So your armies will hear the noise of battle, and all your fortresses will be destroyed. It will be like the time Shalman† destroyed Beth Arbel. At that time of war, mothers were killed with their children. ¹⁵ And this will happen to you at Bethel, because you did so many evil things. When that day begins, the king of Israel will be fully destroyed.

11

Israel Has Forgotten the Lord

¹ The Lord said, “I loved Israel when he was a child, and I called my son out of Egypt.

² But the more I* called the Israelites,
the more they left me.

The Israelites gave sacrifices to the false gods† and burned incense to the idols.

³ “But I was the one who taught Ephraim to walk.
I took the Israelites in my arms.
I healed them,

* 10:5 Beth Aven A name meaning “House of Evil.” It is a wordplay on the name “Bethel,” a name meaning “House of God.” There was a temple in this town. † 10:6 idol Or “advice.” ‡ 10:7 false god Or “king.” § 10:8 high places of Aven Aven means “evil” or “wickedness.” This probably means the temple and other places of worship at Bethel. * 10:10 This probably refers to worship at Gibeah and Beth Aven. † 10:14 Shalman This is probably Shalmaneser, king of Assyria. * 11:2 I This is from the ancient Greek version. The standard Hebrew text has “they.” † 11:2 false gods Literally, “Baals.”

but they don't know that.
⁴ I led them with ropes,[‡]
 but they were ropes of love.
 I was like a person who set them free.[§]
 I bent down and fed them.

⁵ “The Israelites will not go back to Egypt. The king of Assyria will become their king, because they refused to turn back to God. ⁶ The sword will swing against their cities and kill their strong men. It will destroy their leaders.

⁷ “My people expect me to come back. They will call to God above, but he will not help them.”*

The Lord Will Not Destroy Israel

⁸ “Ephraim, I don't want to give you up.
 Israel, I want to protect you.
 I don't want to make you like Admah.
 I don't want to make you like Zeboiim.[†]
 I am changing my mind.
 My love for you is too strong.
⁹ I will not let my terrible anger win.
 I will not destroy Ephraim again.
 I am God and not a human.
 I am the Holy One.
 I am with you.
 I will not show my anger.
¹⁰ I, the LORD, will roar like a lion, and my children will come and follow me.
 They will come from the west,
 shaking with fear.
¹¹ They will come from Egypt,
 shaking like birds.
 They will come shaking like doves from the land of Assyria, and I will take them back home.”
 This is what the LORD said.
¹² “Ephraim surrounded me with false gods.
 The people of Israel turned against me.[‡]
 But Judah still walks with God[§] and is true to the Holy One.*”

12

The Lord Is Against Israel

¹ Ephraim is wasting its time; Israel “chases the wind” all day long. The people tell more and more lies and steal more and more. They have made agreements with Assyria, and they are carrying their olive oil to Egypt.

[‡] 11:4 ropes The Hebrew says, “ropes of a man.” [§] 11:4 set them free Literally, “lifted the yoke from their jaws.”

* 11:7 Or “My people are hanging on poles around my dwelling place. They called up to him, but he didn't lift them up.” [†] 11:8 Admah, Zeboiim Two cities that were destroyed when God destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. See Genesis 19; Deuteronomy 29:23.

[‡] 11:12 Ephraim ... me Or “Ephraim surrounded me with lies. The house of Israel surrounded me with deception.” [§] 11:12 God Literally, “El.” This might be one of the names of God, or it might be El, the most important god of the Canaanites. It is not clear if this means Judah was being faithful to God or if Judah was worshiping the false gods. * 11:12 Holy One This is a plural form in the Hebrew text and may refer to God or to Canaanite false gods.

² The LORD says, “I have a complaint against Israel.* Jacob must be punished for the bad things he did. ³ While Jacob was still in his mother’s womb, he began to trick his brother.† Jacob was a strong young man, and at that time he fought with God. ⁴ Jacob wrestled with God’s angel and won.‡ He cried and asked for a favor. That happened at Bethel. There he spoke to us. ⁵ Yes, YAHWEH is the God of the armies.§ His name is YAHWEH. ⁶ So come back to your God. Be loyal to him. Do the right thing, and always trust in your God!

⁷ “Jacob is a tricky merchant.* He even cheats his friend! Even his scales† lie. ⁸ Ephraim said, ‘I am rich! I have found true riches! No one will learn about my crimes. No one will learn about my sins.’

⁹ “But I am still the LORD your God, as I was when you left the land of Egypt. I will make you live in tents, as you do during the Festival of Shelters.‡ ¹⁰ I spoke to the prophets and gave them many visions. I gave the prophets many ways to teach my lessons to you. ¹¹ But the people in Gilead have sinned. There are many terrible idols in that place. They offer sacrifices to bulls at Gilgal. They have many altars. There are rows and rows of altars—like the rows of dirt in a plowed field.

¹² “Jacob ran away to the land of Aram. There Israel worked for a wife. He kept sheep to get another wife. ¹³ But the LORD used a prophet and brought Israel out of Egypt. He used a prophet and kept Israel safe. ¹⁴ But Ephraim made the LORD very angry. Ephraim killed many people, so he will be punished for his crimes. His Lord will make him bear his shame.”

Israel Has Ruined Itself

¹ “The tribe of Ephraim made itself very important in Israel. Ephraim spoke and people shook with fear. But Ephraim sinned by worshiping Baal, so he must die. ² Now the Israelites sin more and more. They make idols for themselves. Workers make those fancy statues from silver, and then they talk to their statues. They offer sacrifices to them, and they kiss those calf idols. ³ That is why those people will soon disappear. They will be like a fog that comes early in the morning and then quickly disappears. The Israelites will be like chaff that is blown from the threshing floor. The Israelites will be like smoke that goes out a window and disappears.

⁴ “I have been the LORD your God since the time you were in the land of Egypt. You did not know any other god except me. I am the one who saved you. ⁵ I knew you in the desert—I knew you in that dry land. ⁶ I gave food to the Israelites, and they ate it. They became full and satisfied. They became proud, and then they forgot me.

⁷ “That is why I will be like a lion to them. I will be like a leopard waiting by the road. ⁸ I will attack them like a bear whose cubs were robbed from her. I will attack them and rip open their chests. I will be like a lion or other wild animal tearing and eating its prey.

Israel Cannot Be Saved From God’s Anger

⁹ “Israel, I helped you, but you turned against me. So now I will destroy you. ¹⁰ Where is your king? Can he save you in any of your cities? Where are your judges? You asked for them, saying, ‘Give me a king and leaders.’* ¹¹ I was angry, and I gave you a king. And when I became very angry, I took him away.

¹² “Ephraim tried to hide his guilt.

He thought his sins were a secret,
but he will be punished.

¹³ His punishment will be like the pain of a woman giving birth.

He will not be a wise son.
The time will come for his birth,
and he will not survive.

I will rescue them from death.
Death, where are your diseases?
Grave, where is your power?
I am not looking for revenge.

but a powerful east wind will come—the LORD’S wind will blow from the desert.
Then his well will dry up.
His spring of water will be dry.
The wind will take away anything of value.

¹⁶ Samaria must be punished

because she turned against her God.
The Israelites will be killed with swords.
Their children will be torn to pieces,
and their pregnant women will be ripped open.”

14

Return to the Lord

¹ Israel, you fell and sinned against God. So come back to the LORD your God. ² Think about what you will say, and come back to the LORD. Say to him, “Take away our sin,

and accept these words as our sacrifice.
We offer you the praise from our lips.*

³ Assyria will not save us.

We will not ride on war horses.
We will never again say, ‘Our God’
to something we made with our hands.
This is because you are the one who shows mercy to orphans.”

The Lord Will Forgive Israel

⁴ The Lord says,

“I will forgive them for leaving me.
I will show them my love without limits,
because I have stopped being angry.

⁵ I will be like the dew to Israel.
Israel will blossom like the lily.

He will grow like the cedar trees of Lebanon.

⁶ His branches will grow,

* 13:10 You asked for ... leaders See 1 Sam. 8:4-9. * 14:2 praise from our lips Literally, “the fruit of our lips.”

and he will be like a beautiful olive tree.
 He will be like the sweet smell from the cedar trees of Lebanon.
 7 The people of Israel will again live under my protection.
 They will grow like grain.
 They will bloom like a vine.
 They will be like the wine of Lebanon.

The Lord Warns Israel About Idols

8 “Ephraim, I will have nothing more to do with idols.
 I am the one who answers your prayers and watches over you.[†]
 I am like a fir tree that is always green.
 Your fruit comes from me.”

Final Advice

9 A wise person understands these things, and a smart person should learn them.
 The LORD’S ways are right.
 Good people will live by them.
 Sinners will die by them.[‡]

[†] 14:8 and watches over you This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word is like the name “Assyria.” God is saying that he, not some foreign country, protects Israel. [‡] 14:9 Good ... die by them Literally, “Good people will walk on them. Sinners will stumble on them.”

Joel

Locusts Will Destroy the Crops

¹ Joel son of Pethuel received this message from the LORD:

² Leaders, listen to this message!

Listen to me, all you people who live in the land.

Has anything like this ever happened in your life?

Did anything like this happen during your fathers' lifetime?

³ You will tell these things to your children, and your children will tell their children,
and your grandchildren will tell the people of the next generation.

⁴ What the cutting locust* has left,
the swarming locust has eaten.
And what the swarming locust has left,
the hopping locust has eaten.
And what the hopping locust has left,
the destroying locust has eaten!

The Locusts—A Powerful Army

⁵ Drunks, wake up and cry!
All of you who drink wine, cry because your sweet wine is finished.
You will not taste it again.

⁶ A powerful nation came to attack my land.
Its soldiers were too many to count.
Its weapons were as sharp as a lion's teeth and as powerful as a lion's jaw.

⁷ It destroyed my grapevine.
Its good vines withered and died.
It destroyed my fig tree,
stripped off the bark and threw it away.

The People Cry

⁸ Cry like a young woman crying because the man she was ready to marry has died.
⁹ Priests, servants of the LORD, cry because there will be no more grain and drink offerings in the LORD'S Temple.
¹⁰ The fields are ruined.
Even the ground is crying because the grain is destroyed;
the new wine is dried up,
and the olive oil is gone.
¹¹ Be sad, farmers!
Cry loudly for the grapes,
for the wheat, and for the barley,
because the harvest in the field is ruined.
¹² The vines have become dry,

* 1:4 locust See "locust" in the Word List. Here, Joel might be talking about an enemy army.

and the fig tree is dying.
 All the trees in the field—
 the pomegranate, the palm, and the apple—have withered.
 And happiness among the people has died.
¹³ Priests, put on sackcloth and cry loudly.
 Servants of the altar, cry loudly.
 Servants of my God, you will sleep in sackcloth, because there will be no more grain and drink offerings in God's Temple.

The Terrible Destruction of the Locusts

¹⁴ Tell the people that there will be a special time of fasting. Call them together for a special meeting. Bring the leaders and everyone living in the land together at the Temple of the LORD your God, and pray to the LORD.

¹⁵ Be sad because the LORD'S special day is near. At that time punishment will come like an attack from God All-Powerful. ¹⁶ Our food is gone. Joy and happiness are gone from the Temple of our God. ¹⁷ We planted seeds, but the seeds became dry and dead lying in the soil. Our plants are dry and dead. Our barns are empty and falling down.

¹⁸ The animals are hungry and groaning. The herds of cattle wander around confused because they have no grass to eat. The sheep are dying.† ¹⁹ LORD, I am calling to you for help. Fire has changed our green fields into a desert. Flames have burned all the trees in the field. ²⁰ Wild animals also need your help. The streams are dry—there is no water! Fire has changed our green fields into a desert.

The Coming Day of the Lord

 Shout a warning on my holy mountain.
 Let all the people who live in the land shake with fear.
 The LORD'S special day is coming;
 it is near.
² It will be a dark, gloomy day.
 It will be a dark and cloudy day.
 At sunrise you will see the army spread over the mountains.
 It will be a great and powerful army.
 There has never been anything like it before,
 and there will never be anything like it again.
³ The army will destroy the land like a burning fire.
 In front of them the land will be like the Garden of Eden.
 Behind them the land will be like an empty desert.
 Nothing will escape them.
⁴ They look like horses.
 They run like war horses.
⁵ Listen to them.
 It is like the noise of chariots riding over the mountains.
 It is like the noise of flames burning the chaff.
 They are a powerful people,
 who are ready for war.
⁶ Before this army, people shake with fear.
 Their faces become pale from fear.

† 1:18 dying Literally, "being punished."

7 The soldiers run fast.
 They climb over the walls.
 Each soldier marches straight ahead.
 They don't move from their path.
 8 They don't trip each other.
 Each soldier walks in his own path.
 If one of the soldiers is hit and falls down,
 the others keep right on marching.
 9 They run to the city.
 They quickly climb over the wall.
 They climb into the houses.
 They climb through the windows like thieves.
 10 Before them, earth and sky shake.
 The sun and the moon become dark, and the stars stop shining.
 11 The LORD calls loudly to his army.
 His camp is very large.
 The army obeys his commands.
 His army is very powerful.
 The LORD'S special day is a great and terrible day.
 No one can stop it.

The Lord Tells the People to Change

12 This is the LORD'S message:
 "Now come back to me with all your heart.
 Cry and mourn, and don't eat anything!
 Show that you are sad for doing wrong.
 13 Tear your hearts,
 not your clothes.*"
 Come back to the LORD your God.
 He is kind and merciful.
 He does not become angry quickly.
 He has great love.
 Maybe he will change his mind about the bad punishment he planned.
 14 Who knows, maybe he will change his mind and leave behind a blessing for you.
 Then you can give grain and drink offerings to the LORD your God.

Pray to the Lord

15 Blow the trumpet at Zion.
 Call for a special meeting.
 Call for a special time of fasting.
 16 Bring the people together.
 Call for a special meeting.
 Bring together the old men,
 the children, and the small babies still at their mother's breasts.
 Let the bride and her new husband come from their bedroom.
 17 Let the priests, the LORD'S servants, cry between the porch[†] and the altar.

* 2:13 Tear your hearts, not your clothes People tore their clothes to show sadness. Here, God wants the people to feel sad for the bad things they had done. † 2:17 porch An open area in front of the Temple.

All of them should say this: “LORD, have mercy on your people.
 Don’t let your people be put to shame.
 Don’t let other people tell jokes about your people.
 Don’t let the other nations laugh at us and say,
 ‘Where is their God?’ ”

The Lord Will Restore the Land

¹⁸ Then the LORD cared very much about his land.
 He felt sorry for his people.
¹⁹ The LORD spoke to his people.
 He said, “I will send you grain, wine, and oil.
 You will have plenty.
 I will not shame you among the nations anymore.
²⁰ No, I will force the people from the north[‡] to leave your land and make them go into a dry, empty land.
 Some of them will go to the eastern sea and some to the western sea.
 They did such terrible things,
 but they will be like a dead and rotting body.
 There will be such a terrible smell!”

The Land Will Be Made New Again

²¹ Land, don’t be afraid.
 Be happy and full of joy.
 The LORD will do great things.
²² Animals of the field, don’t be afraid.
 The desert pastures will grow grass.
 The trees will grow fruit.
 The fig trees and the vines will grow plenty of fruit.
²³ So be happy, people of Zion.
 Be joyful in the LORD your God.
 He is good and will give you rain.
 He will send the early rains and the late rains as before.
²⁴ The threshing floors will be filled with wheat, and the barrels will overflow with wine and olive oil.
²⁵ “I, the Lord, sent my army against you.
 The swarming locusts and the hopping locusts and the destroying locusts and the cutting locusts[§] ate everything you had.
 But I will pay you back for those years of trouble.
²⁶ Then you will have plenty to eat.
 You will be full.
 You will praise the name of the LORD your God.
 He has done wonderful things for you.
 My people will never again be ashamed.
²⁷ You will know that I am with Israel.
 You will know that I am the LORD your God.
 There is no other God.
 My people will never be ashamed again.”

God Will Give His Spirit to All People

[‡] 2:20 north The Babylonian army came from this direction to attack Judah. Armies from countries north and east of Israel often came this way to attack Judah and Israel. [§] 2:25 swarming locusts ... cutting locusts See Joel 1:4.

- 28 “After this,
I will pour out my Spirit on all kinds of people.
Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
your old men will have dreams,
and your young men will see visions.
- 29 In those days I will pour out my Spirit even on servants, both men and women.
- 30 I will work wonders in the sky and on the earth.
There will be blood, fire, and thick smoke.
- 31 The sun will be changed into darkness,
and the moon will be as red as blood.
Then the great and fearful day of the LORD will come!
- 32 And everyone who trusts in the LORD* will be saved.
There will be survivors on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem,
just as the LORD said.
- Yes, those left alive will be the ones
the LORD has called.

3

Judah's Enemies Will Be Punished

1 “Yes, at that time I will bring back the people of Judah and Jerusalem from captivity.
2 I will also gather all the nations together. I will bring all these nations down into Jehoshaphat Valley.* There I will judge them. Those nations scattered my people, Israel.
They forced them to live in other nations, so I will punish those nations. They divided up my land. 3 They threw lots for my people. They sold boys to buy a prostitute, and they sold girls to buy wine to drink.

4 “Tyre! Sidon! All of you areas of Philistia! You are not important to me!† Are you punishing me for something I did? You might think that you are punishing me, but I will soon punish you. 5 You took my silver and gold. You took my precious treasures and put them in your temples.‡

6 “You sold the people of Judah and Jerusalem to the Greeks. That way you could take them far from their land. 7 You sent my people to that faraway place, but I will bring them back. And I will punish you for what you did. 8 I will sell your sons and daughters to the people of Judah. Then they will sell them to the faraway Sabceans.§” This is what the LORD said.

Prepare for War

- 9 Announce this among the nations:
Prepare for war!
Wake up the strong men!
Let all the men of war come near.
Let them come up!
- 10 Beat your plows into swords.
Make spears from your pruning hooks.*
Let the weak man say,
“I am a strong soldier.”
- 11 All you nations, hurry!

* 2:32 who trusts in the LORD Literally, “who calls on the name of the LORD,” meaning to show faith in him by worshiping him or praying to him for help. * 3:2 Jehoshaphat Valley This name means “The LORD judges.”

† 3:4 You are not important to me Literally, “What are you to me?” ‡ 3:5 temples Here, the temples were used to worship idols. § 3:8 Sabceans A group of people from the Arabian Desert. * 3:10 pruning hooks These tools were used to prune (cut) branches of trees. Read Isaiah 2:4.

- Come together in that place.
LORD, bring your strong soldiers.
- ¹² Wake up, nations!
Come to Jehoshaphat Valley.
There I will sit to judge
all the surrounding nations.
- ¹³ Bring the sickle,
because the harvest is ripe.[†]
Come, walk on the grapes,
because the winepress is full.
The barrels will be full and spilling over,
because their evil is great.
- ¹⁴ There are many, many people in the Valley of Decision.[‡]
The LORD'S special day is near in the Valley of Decision.
- ¹⁵ The sun and the moon will become dark.
The stars will stop shining.
- ¹⁶ The LORD God will shout from Zion.
He will shout from Jerusalem,
and the sky and the earth will shake.
But the LORD God will be a safe place for his people.
He will be a place of safety for the people of Israel.
- ¹⁷ "Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.
I live on Zion, my holy mountain.
Jerusalem will become holy.
Strangers will never pass through that city again.
- A New Life for Judah Promised*
- ¹⁸ "On that day the mountains will drip with sweet wine.
The hills will flow with milk,
and water will flow through all the empty rivers of Judah.
A fountain will come from the LORD'S Temple.
It will give water to Acacia Valley.
- ¹⁹ Egypt will be empty.
Edom will be an empty wilderness,
because they were cruel to the people of Judah.
They killed innocent people[§] in their country.
- ²⁰ But there will always be people living in Judah.
People will live in Jerusalem through many generations.
- ²¹ Those people killed my people,
so I really will punish them!"

The LORD God will live in Zion!

[†] 3:13 harvest is ripe This time of judgment is compared to harvest time. [‡] 3:14 Valley of Decision This is like the name "Jehoshaphat Valley." [§] 3:19 killed innocent people Literally, "shed innocent blood."

Amos

Introduction

¹ This is the message of Amos, one of the shepherds from the city Tekoa. He saw visions about Israel during the time that Uzziah was king of Judah and Jeroboam son of Joash was king of Israel. This was two years before the earthquake.

Punishment for Aram

² Amos said,

“The LORD will shout like a lion in Zion.

His loud voice will roar from Jerusalem.

The green pastures of the shepherds will turn brown and die.

Even Mount Carmel* will become dry.”

³ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the people of Damascus for the many crimes they did.† They crushed the people of Gilead with iron threshing tools. ⁴ So I will start a fire at Hazael’s‡ house that will destroy the great palaces of Ben-Hadad.§

⁵ “I will also break open the gates of Damascus* and remove the one who sits on the throne in the Valley of Aven.† I will remove the symbol of power from Beth Eden,‡ and the Arameans will be defeated and taken back to Kir.§” This is what the LORD said.

Punishment for the Philistines

⁶ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the people of Gaza* for the many crimes they did. They took an entire nation of people and sent them as slaves to Edom.

⁷ So I will start a fire at the wall of Gaza that will destroy the high towers in Gaza. ⁸ And I will destroy the one who sits on the throne in Ashdod. I will destroy the king who holds the scepter in Ashkelon. I will punish the people of Ekron.† Then the Philistines who are still left alive will die.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

Punishment for Phoenicia

⁹ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the people of Tyre‡ for the many crimes they did. They took an entire nation and sent them as slaves to Edom. They did not remember the agreement they had made with their brothers.§ ¹⁰ So I will start a fire at the walls of Tyre that will destroy the high towers in Tyre.”

Punishment for the Edomites

¹¹ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the people of Edom for their many crimes. Edom chased his brother with the sword, and he showed no mercy. His anger never stopped. He kept tearing and tearing at Israel like a wild animal. ¹² So I will start a fire at Teman that will destroy the high towers of Bozrah.”

Punishment for the Ammonites

* 1:2 Mount Carmel A mountain in northern Israel. The name means “God’s vineyard.” This shows that it was a very fertile hill. † 1:3 for the many crimes they did Literally, “for three crimes ... and for four” This shows that these people were very sinful—and it was time to punish them. Also in verses 6, 9, 11, 13; 2:1, 4, 6. ‡ 1:4 Hazael Hazael was the king of Aram (Syria). He murdered Ben-Hadad I so that he could become king. See 2 Kings 8:7. § 1:4 Ben-Hadad Ben-Hadad II, the son of Hazael, king of Aram (Syria). See 2 Kings 13:3. * 1:5 Damascus The capital city of Aram (Syria). † 1:5 the Valley of Aven A name that can mean “Restful Valley” or “Empty Valley of Misfortune.” ‡ 1:5 Beth Eden The royal city of Aram (Syria) on Mount Lebanon. This name means “House of Pleasure” or “Paradise.” § 1:5 Kir Or “Kur,” an area controlled by the Assyrians. See Amos 9:7. * 1:6 Gaza An important city of the Philistines. † 1:8 Ashdod, Ashkelon, Ekron Important cities of the Philistines. ‡ 1:9 Tyre The capital city of Phoenicia. § 1:9 brothers The people of Israel.

¹³ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the Ammonites* for the many crimes they did. They killed the pregnant women in Gilead. The Ammonites did this so that they could take that land and make their country larger. ¹⁴ So I will start a fire at the wall of Rabbah† that will destroy the high towers of Rabbah. Troubles will come to them like a whirlwind‡ into their country. ¹⁵ Then their kings and leaders will be captured. They will all be taken together.” This is what the LORD said.

Punishment for Moab

¹ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish the people of Moab for the many crimes they did. Moab burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime. ² So I will start a fire in Moab that will destroy the high towers of Kerioth.* There will be terrible shouting and the sounds of a trumpet, and Moab will die. ³ So I will bring an end to the kings† of Moab, and I will kill all the leaders of Moab.” This is what the LORD said.

Punishment for Judah

⁴ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish Judah for the many crimes they did. They refused to obey the LORD’S teachings and they did not keep his commands. Their ancestors believed lies, and those same lies caused the people of Judah to stop following God. ⁵ So I will start a fire in Judah that will destroy the high towers of Jerusalem.”

Punishment for Israel

⁶ This is what the LORD says: “I will definitely punish Israel for the many crimes they have done. They sold honest people for a little silver. They sold the poor for the price of a pair of sandals. ⁷ They pushed their faces into the ground and walked on them. They stopped listening to suffering people. Fathers and sons had sexual relations with the same woman. They ruined my holy name. ⁸ They took clothes from the poor, and then they sat on those clothes while worshiping at their altars. They loaned money to the poor, and then they took their clothes as a promise for payment.‡ They made people pay fines and used the money to buy wine for themselves to drink in the temple of their god.

¹⁰ “I was the one who brought you from the land of Egypt. For 40 years I led you through the desert. I helped you take the Amorites’ land. ¹¹ I made some of your sons to be prophets and some of your young men to be Nazirites. People of Israel, it is true.” This is what the LORD said. ¹² “But you made the Nazirites drink wine. You told the prophets not to prophesy. ¹³ You have become more than I can bear. I am bent low like a wagon loaded with grain. ¹⁴ No one will escape, not even the fastest runner. Strong men will not be strong enough. Soldiers will not be able to save themselves. ¹⁵ People with bows and arrows will not survive. Fast runners will not escape. People on horses will not escape alive. ¹⁶ At that time even very brave soldiers will run away. They will not take the time to put their clothes on.” This is what the LORD said.

* 1:13 Ammonites The Ammonites were the descendants of Ben-Ammi, son of Lot. Read Genesis 19:38. † 1:14 Rabbah The capital city of the Ammonites. ‡ 1:14 whirlwind A strong wind that blows in a circle. * 2:2 Kerioth A city in Moab. This might be Ar, the capital city of Moab. † 2:3 kings Literally, “judges.” ‡ 2:8 as a promise for payment. See Deuteronomy 24:12-13 for the rules about making loans to the poor. § 2:9 Amorites One of the nations who lived in Canaan before the Israelites came. They were the people who scared the Israelites while Moses was leading them in the desert. See Num. 13:33. * 2:9 fruit above ... below This means the parents and their children.

Warning to Israel

¹ People of Israel, listen to this message! This is what the LORD said about you, Israel. This message is about all the families that I brought from the land of Egypt. ² “There are many families on earth, but you are the only family I chose to know in a special way. And you turned against me, so I will punish you for all your sins.”

The Cause of Israel's Punishment

³ Two people will not walk together unless they have agreed to do so.
⁴ A lion will roar in the forest only if it catches its prey.
A young lion roaring in his cave means he has caught something to eat.
⁵ A bird doesn't fly into a trap
unless there is food in it.
If a trap closes,
it will catch the bird.
⁶ If people hear the warning blast of a trumpet, they shake with fear.
If trouble comes to a city,
the LORD caused it to happen.

⁷ When the Lord GOD decides to do something, he will first tell his servants, the prophets. ⁸ When a lion roars, people are frightened. When the Lord GOD speaks, a prophet must prophesy.

⁹⁻¹⁰ Go to the high towers in Ashdod* and in Egypt and announce this message from the LORD: “Come together on the mountains of Samaria. See the great confusion there because the people don't know how to live right. See how cruel they are to others. They take things from people to hide in their high towers. Their treasuries are filled with the things they have taken in war.”

¹¹ So the Lord GOD says, “An enemy will surround your land. They will break down your strong walls and take the things you have hidden in your high towers.”

¹² The LORD says,

“A lion might attack a lamb,
and a shepherd might try to save the lamb.
But the shepherd will save only a part of that lamb.
He might pull two legs
or a part of an ear from the lion's mouth.
In the same way, most of the people of Israel will not be saved.
Those who live in Samaria will save only a corner from a bed, or a piece of cloth from a couch.”

¹³ This is what the Lord GOD All-Powerful says: “Warn the family of Jacob about these things. ¹⁴ Israel sinned, and I will punish them for their sins. And when I do, I will also destroy the altars at Bethel.† The horns of the altar will be cut off and fall to the ground. ¹⁵ I will destroy the winter house with the summer house. The houses of ivory will be destroyed. Many houses will be destroyed.” This is what the LORD said.

* 3:9-10 Ashdod An important city of the Philistines. † 3:14 Bethel A town in Israel. This name means “God's house.”

The Women Who Love Pleasure

¹ Listen to me, you cows of Bashan* on Samaria's mountain. You hurt the poor and crush those in need. You tell your husbands,† “Bring us something to drink!”

² The Lord GOD made a promise. He promised by his holiness that troubles will come to you. People will use hooks and take you away as prisoners. They will use fishhooks to take away your children. ³ Your city will be destroyed. The women will rush out through cracks in the wall and throw themselves onto the pile of dead bodies.‡

This is what the LORD says: ⁴ “Go to Bethel and sin. Go to Gilgal§ and sin even more. Offer your sacrifices in the morning. Bring a tenth of your crops for the three-day festival. ⁵ And offer a thank offering made with yeast. Tell everyone about the freewill offerings.* Israel, you love to do those things. So go and do them.” This is what the Lord GOD said.

⁶ “I didn't give you any food to eat.† There was no food in any of your cities, but you didn't come back to me.” This is what the LORD said.

⁷ “I also stopped the rain, and it was three months before harvest time. So no crops grew. Then I let it rain on one city, but not on another city. Rain fell on one part of the country, but on the other part of the country, the land became very dry. ⁸ So the people from two or three cities staggered to another city to get water, but there was not enough water for everyone. Still you didn't come to me for help.” This is what the LORD said.

⁹ “I made your crops die from heat and disease. I destroyed your gardens and your vineyards. Locusts ate your fig trees and olive trees. But you still didn't come to me for help.” This is what the LORD said.

¹⁰ “I sent diseases against you, as I did to Egypt. I killed your young men with swords. I took away your horses. I made your camp smell very bad from all the dead bodies, but still you didn't come back to me for help.” This is what the LORD said.

¹¹ “I destroyed you as I destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah. And those cities were completely destroyed. You were like a burned stick pulled from a fire, but still you didn't come back to me for help.” This is what the LORD says.

¹² “So, Israel, this is what I will do to you. You people of Israel, prepare to meet your God.”

¹³ He is the one who made the mountains.

He created the wind.‡

He lets people know his thoughts.

He changes the darkness into dawn.

He walks over the mountains of the earth.

His name is YAHWEH, LORD God All-Powerful.

5

A Sad Song for Israel

¹ People of Israel, listen to this song. This funeral song is about you.

* 4:1 cows of Bashan This means the wealthy women in Samaria. Bashan, an area east of the Jordan River, was famous for its big bulls and cows. † 4:1 your husbands Literally, “their masters.” ‡ 4:3 throw ... dead bodies Or “You will be thrown away. People will take you to Mount Hermon.” The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. It is not clear if the women will be “thrown away” or if the women will be “throwing something away.” § 4:4 Bethel ... Gilgal Places of worship for the people of Israel. God wanted the people of Israel and the people of Judah to worship him only in the Temple at Jerusalem. * 4:5 Offer your sacrifices ... freewill offerings All these things were against the Law of Moses. The leaders and false priests started these new festivals and different ways of worshipping God. † 4:6 I didn't give you any food to eat Literally, “I gave you clean teeth.” ‡ 4:13 the wind Or “your minds.”

² The virgin* of Israel has fallen.
 She will not get up anymore.
 She was left alone, lying in the dirt.
 There is no one to lift her up.

³ This is what the Lord GOD says:

“Officers leaving the city with 1000 men will return with only 100 men.
 Officers leaving the city with 100 men will return with only ten men.”

*The Lord Encourages Israel
 to Come Back*

⁴ The LORD says this to the nation[†] of Israel:

“Come looking for me and live.

⁵ But don't look in Bethel.
 Don't go to Gilgal.

Don't cross the border and go down to Beersheba.‡
 The people of Gilgal will be taken away as prisoners,§ and Bethel will be destroyed.*

⁶ Come to the LORD and live.

If you don't go to him, a fire will start at Joseph's house,[†] and no one in Bethel‡ can stop it.

⁷⁻⁹ You should go to the Lord for help.

He is the one who made the Pleiades and Orion.§
 He changes darkness into the morning light.

He changes the day into the dark night.

He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out on the earth.

His name is YAHWEH!

He keeps one strong city safe,
 and he lets another strong city be destroyed.”

The Evil Things That the Israelites Did

You change justice to poison.*

You throw away fairness like trash.

¹⁰ You hate those prophets, who go to public places and speak against evil, even though they teach good, simple truths.

¹¹ You take unfair taxes[†] from the poor.

You take loads of wheat from them.

You build fancy houses with cut stone,
 but you will not live in them.

* 5:2 virgin The Hebrew word can mean “a woman who has not had sexual relations with anyone,” but here, it means the city of Samaria. † 5:4 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country. ‡ 5:5 Bethel, Gilgal, Beersheba Ancient places of worship. Abraham and Jacob built altars in these places, but God had told the Israelites that they should go to the Temple in Jerusalem to worship him. § 5:5 taken away as prisoners In Hebrew this sounds like the name “Gilgal.” * 5:5 destroyed The Hebrew word is like the name “Beth Aven.” This name means “House of Wickedness.” The prophets often used this name for Bethel. † 5:6 Joseph's house Here, this means the ten-tribe nation of Israel. Joseph was the ancestor of the tribes of Ephraim and Manasseh in Israel. ‡ 5:6 Bethel This name means “El's house” or “the house of God.” There was a temple here where the people from the northern tribes worshiped. § 5:7-9 Pleiades and Orion Two well-known groups of stars (constellations). * 5:7-9 poison Literally, “wormwood,” a type of plant with bitter leaves. It could be used as a medicine, or if strong enough, as a poison. † 5:11 take unfair taxes The meaning of the Hebrew word here is uncertain.

You plant beautiful vineyards,
 but you will not drink the wine from them.
 12 This is because I know about your many sins.
 You have done some very bad things:
 You hurt people who do right,
 you accept money to do wrong,
 and you keep the poor from receiving justice in court.
 13 At that time wise teachers will be quiet,
 because it is a bad time.
 14 You say that God is with you,
 so you should do good things, not evil.
 Then you will live,
 and the LORD God All-Powerful will be with you.
 15 Hate evil and love goodness.
 Bring justice back into the courts.
 Maybe then the LORD God All-Powerful will be kind to the survivors from Joseph's family.

A Time of Great Sadness Is Coming

16 The Lord, the LORD God All-Powerful says,
 "People will be crying in the public places.
 They will be crying in the streets.
 They will hire the professional criers.‡
 17 People will be crying in the vineyards, because I will pass through and punish you."
 This is what the LORD said.
 18 Some of you want to see the LORD'S special day of judgment.
 Why do you want to see that day of the LORD?
 His special day will bring darkness, not light.
 19 You will be like someone who escapes from a lion only to be attacked by a bear, or like someone who goes into the safety of his house,
 leans against the wall,
 and is bitten by a snake.
 20 The LORD'S special day will be a day of darkness, not light—a day of gloom, without a ray of light.

The Lord Rejects Israel's Worship

21 "I hate your festivals;
 I will not accept them.
 I don't enjoy your religious meetings.
 22 Even if you offer me burnt offerings and grain offerings,
 I will not accept them.
 I will not even look at the fat animals
 you give as fellowship offerings.
 23 Take your noisy songs away from here.
 I will not listen to the music from your harps.
 24 But let justice flow like a river, and let goodness flow like a stream that never becomes dry.
 25 Israel, you offered me sacrifices

‡ 5:16 professional criers People who went to funerals and cried loudly for the dead. Families and friends of the dead person often gave food or money to these people.

and offerings in the desert for 40 years.[§]

²⁶ But you also carried statues of Sakkuth, your king, and Kaiwan.*

There was also that star god[†] that you made for yourselves.

²⁷ So I will send you as captives, far beyond Damascus.”

This is what the LORD says.

His name is God All-Powerful.

6

Israel's Good Times Will Be Taken Away

and those on Mount Samaria who feel so safe.
They are such important leaders of a most important nation.
The “House of Israel” comes to you for advice.

² Go look at Calneh.
From there, go to the large city Hamath.
Go to the Philistine city of Gath.*

Are you better than these kingdoms?
Their countries are larger than yours.

³ You people are rushing toward the day of punishment.
You bring near the rule of violence.

⁴ But now you lie on ivory beds and stretch out on your couches.
You eat tender young lambs from the flock and young calves from the stable.

⁵ You play your harps,
and like David, you practice on[†] your musical instruments.

⁶ You drink wine in fancy cups.[‡]
You use the best perfumes.
And it doesn't even bother you that Joseph's family is being destroyed.

⁷ You people are stretched out on your couches now, but your good times will end.
You will be taken away as prisoners to a foreign country, and you will be some of the first people taken. ⁸ The Lord GOD used his own name and made an oath. The LORD God
All-Powerful said,

“I hate what Jacob is proud of.
I hate his strong towers.
So I will let an enemy take the city
and everything in it.”

There Will Be Few Israelites Left Alive

⁹ At that time ten people in one house might survive, but they too will die. ¹⁰ And when someone dies, a relative will come to get the body so that it can be taken out and a special god or all the stars in the sky. Many people thought the sun, moon, stars, and planets were gods or angels.

This verse might also be translated, “You carried the shelter for your king and the footstool for your idols—the star of your gods that you made for yourselves.” The ancient Greek version adds the names of these gods: Moloch and Raphan. * 6:2 Calneh, Hamath, Gath Powerful Babylonian, Syrian, and Philistine cities that were all captured by the Assyrians. † 6:5 practice on Or “invent.” The Hebrew word means to “think,” “become skilled,” or “design.”

burned.[§] Relatives will come to take away the bones. They will call to anyone who might be hiding back in the house, “Are there any other dead bodies in there with you?”

That person will answer, “No,”^{*}

But the relative will interrupt and say, “Hush! We must not mention the name of the LORD.”

¹¹ Look, the LORD will give the command, and the large houses will be broken to pieces,
and the small houses will be broken to small pieces.

¹² Do horses run over loose rocks?
No, and people don’t use cows for plowing.

But you turned everything upside down.

You changed justice and goodness to bitter poison.

¹³ You are so excited about defeating Lo Debar.[†]

And you boast, “We have taken Karnaim[‡] by our own strength.”

¹⁴ “But Israel, I will bring a nation against you that will bring troubles to your whole country from Lebo Hamath to Arabah Brook.” This is what the LORD God All-Powerful said.

7

The Vision of the Locusts

¹ This is what the Lord GOD showed me: He was making locusts. This was at the time the second crop began to grow, after the king’s people had cut the first crop. ² Before the locusts could eat all the grass in the country, I said, “Lord GOD, I beg you, forgive us! Jacob cannot survive! He is too small!”

³ Then the LORD changed his mind about this. The LORD said, “It will not happen.”

The Vision of the Fire

⁴ This is what the Lord GOD showed me: I saw the Lord GOD calling for judgment by fire. The fire destroyed the ocean and was beginning to eat up the land. ⁵ But I said, “Lord GOD, stop, I beg you! Jacob cannot survive! He is too small!”

⁶ Then the LORD changed his mind about this. The Lord GOD said, “It will not happen either.”

The Vision of the Plumb Line

⁷ This is what the Lord showed me: He stood by a wall with a plumb line^{*} in his hand. (The wall had been marked with a plumb line.) ⁸ The LORD said to me, “Amos, what do you see?”

I said, “A plumb line.”

Then the Lord said to me, “See, I will put a plumb line among my people Israel. I will not let their ‘crooked ways’ pass inspection anymore. ⁹ Isaac’s high places will be destroyed. Israel’s holy places will be made into a pile of rocks. I will attack and kill Jeroboam’s[†] family with swords.”

Amaziah Tries to Stop Amos

¹⁰ Amaziah, a priest at Bethel,[‡] sent this message to Jeroboam, the king of Israel: “Amos is making plans against you. He is trying to make the people of Israel fight against you. He has been speaking so much that this country cannot hold all his words.

¹¹ Amos has said, 'Jeroboam will die by the sword, and the people of Israel will be taken as prisoners out of their country.' "

¹⁴ Then Amos answered Amaziah, "I am not a professional prophet, and I am not from a prophet's family. I raise cattle and take care of sycamore trees. ¹⁵ I was a shepherd and the LORD took me from following the sheep. The LORD said to me, 'Go, prophesy to my people Israel.' ¹⁶ So listen to the LORD'S message. You tell me, 'Don't prophesy against Israel. Don't speak against Isaac's family.' ¹⁷ But the LORD says, 'Your wife will become a prostitute in the city. Your sons and daughters will be killed with swords. Other people will take your land and divide it among themselves, and you will die in a foreign* country. The people of Israel will definitely be taken from this country as prisoners.' "

The Vision of the Ripe Fruit

¹ This is what the Lord GOD showed me: I saw a basket of summer fruit. ² He said to me, "Amos, what do you see?"

I said, "A basket of summer fruit."

Then the LORD said to me, "The end* has come to my people Israel. I will not ignore their sins anymore. ³ Their temple songs will become funeral songs." This is what the Lord GOD said. "There will be dead bodies everywhere. In silence, people will take out the dead bodies and throw them onto the pile. †"

Merchants Only Want to Make Money

⁴ Listen to me, you who trample on helpless people.

You are trying to destroy the poor of this country.

⁵ You merchants say,

"When will the New Moon be over so that we can sell grain?

When will the Sabbath be over so that we can bring out more wheat to sell?

We can raise the price and make the measure smaller. ‡

We can fix the scales

and cheat the people. §

⁶ The poor cannot pay their loans,

so we will buy them as slaves.

We will buy those helpless people for the price of a pair of sandals.

Oh, and we can sell the wheat that was spilled on the floor."

⁷ The LORD made a promise. He used his name, "Pride of Jacob," and made this promise:

"I will never forget what those people did.

⁸ There will be an earthquake

§ 7:12 eat there This shows that Amaziah thought that Amos was a professional prophet who prophesied to receive food or money. * 7:17 foreign Literally, "unclean." that will shake the whole land because of what they did.
Everyone living there will cry for those who died.

The land will be tossed around.
The whole land will rise and fall like the Nile River in Egypt.”

⁹ The Lord GOD also said,

“At that time I will make the sun set at noon and make the land dark on a clear day.

¹⁰ I will change your festivals into days of crying for the dead.
All your songs will be songs of sadness for those who are dead.

I will put mourning clothes on every body and baldness on every head.*

I will cause mourning everywhere,
like that for an only son who has died.

It will be a very bitter end.”

A Famine of God's Word

¹¹ The Lord GOD says,

“Look, the days are coming when I will cause a famine in the land.
The people will not be hungry for bread.

They will not be thirsty for water.

No, they will be hungry for words from the LORD.

¹² The people will wander around the country, from the Dead Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the north part of the country to the east.

They will go back and forth looking for a message from the LORD,
but they will not find it.

¹³ At that time the beautiful young men and women will become weak from thirst.

¹⁴ They made promises by the sin of Samaria,†

They said, ‘Dan,‡ as surely as your god lives, we promise’

And they said, ‘As surely as the god of Beersheba§ lives, we promise’

But they will fall and never get up again.”

9

Vision of the Lord Standing by the Altar

¹ I saw the Lord standing by the altar, and he said,

“Hit the top of the columns, and shake them to the ground.

Push them and they will fall on everyone's head.

As for those who survive,
I will kill them with a sword.

None of them will run away.

None of them will escape.

 I will pull them from there.
 If they go up into the skies,†
 I will bring them down from there.
³ If they hide at the top of Mount Carmel,‡
 I will find them there and take them from that place.
 If they try to hide from me at the bottom of the sea,
 I will command the snake, and it will bite them.
⁴ If they are captured and taken away by their enemies,
 I will command the sword,
 and it will kill them there.
 Yes, I will watch over them,
 but I will watch for ways to give them troubles,
 not for ways to do good things.”

Punishment Will Destroy the People

⁵ The Lord GOD All-Powerful will touch the land, and the land will melt.
 Then all the people who live in the land will cry for the dead.
 The land will rise and fall like the Nile River in Egypt.
⁶ He built his upper rooms above the skies.
 He put his skies§ over the earth.
 He calls for the waters of the sea and pours them out as rain on the land.
 YAHWEH is his name.

The Lord Promises Destruction for Israel

⁷ This is what the LORD says:

“Israel, you are like the Ethiopians to me.
 I brought Israel out of the land of Egypt,
 the Philistines from Caphtor,*
 and the Arameans from Kir.†”

⁸ The Lord GOD is watching this sinful kingdom.
 The LORD says,
 “I will wipe Israel off the face of the earth,
 but I will never completely destroy Jacob’s family.
⁹ I am giving the command to scatter the people of Israel among all nations.
 But it will be like someone sifting flour.
 A person shakes flour through a sifter.‡
 The good flour falls through, but the bad lumps are caught.

 ‘Nothing bad will happen to us.’
 But all of them will be killed with swords.”

God Promises to Restore the Kingdom

- ¹¹ “David’s tent[§] has fallen,
but at that time I will set it up again.
I will fix its holes and repair its ruined parts.
I will set it up as it was before.
- ¹² Then the people left alive in Edom, and all the people called by my name, will look to me for help.”
This is what the LORD said,
and he will make it happen.
- ¹³ The LORD says, “A time of great blessing is coming.
Workers will still be harvesting
when it is time to plow the fields again.
They will still be trampling the grapes
when it is time for a new crop.
Sweet wine will drip from the mountains and pour from the hills.
- ¹⁴ I will bring my people, Israel, back from captivity.
They will rebuild the ruined cities,
and they will live in them.
They will plant vineyards and drink the wine they produce.
They will plant gardens and eat the crops they produce.
- ¹⁵ I will plant my people on their land, and never again will they be pulled up out of the land that I gave them.”
This is what the LORD your God said.

§ 9:11 David’s tent This probably means the city of Jerusalem or the country of Judah.

Obadiah

Edom Will Be Punished

¹ This is the vision of Obadiah. This is what the Lord GOD says about Edom:

We heard a report from the LORD.

A messenger was sent to the nations.

He said, "Let's go fight against Edom."

The Lord Speaks to Edom

² "Edom, I will make you the smallest nation.

Everyone will hate you very much.

³ Your pride has fooled you.

You live in those caves high on the cliff.

Your home is high in the hills.

So you say to yourself,

'No one can bring me to the ground.' "

Edom Will Be Brought Low

⁴ This is what the LORD says:

"Even though you fly high like the eagle and put your nest among the stars,

I will bring you down from there.

⁵ You really will be ruined!

Thieves will come to you.

Robbers will come in the night, and they will take all they want.

When workers gather grapes in your vineyards,

they will leave a few grapes behind.

⁶ But the enemy will search hard for Esau's hidden treasures, and they will find them all.

⁷ All those who are your friends will force you out of the land.

Those who were at peace with you will trick you,

and they will defeat you.

The soldiers who fought by your side are planning a trap for you.

They say, 'He doesn't expect a thing!'

⁸ The LORD says, "On that day

I will destroy the wise people from Edom.

I will destroy the intelligent people from the mountain of Esau.*

⁹ Teman, your brave soldiers will be afraid.

Everyone will be destroyed from the mountain of Esau.

Many people will be killed.

¹⁰ You will be covered with shame

because you were very cruel to your brother Jacob.

So you will be destroyed completely.

¹¹ You joined the enemies of Israel.

Strangers carried Israel's treasures away.

* 1:8 mountain of Esau That is, Mount Seir.

Foreigners entered Israel's city gate.

They threw lots to decide what part of Jerusalem they would get.

And you were right there with them, waiting to get your share.

¹² You should not have laughed[†] at your brother's trouble.

You should not have been happy when they destroyed Judah.

You should not have bragged[‡]
at the time of their trouble.

¹³ You should not have entered the city gate of my people and laughed at their problems.

You should not have taken their treasures in the time of their trouble.

¹⁴ You should not have stood where the roads cross and destroyed those who were trying to escape.

You should not have captured those who escaped alive.

¹⁵ The Day of the LORD is coming soon to all the nations.

And the evil you did to others will happen to you.

The same bad things will fall down on your own head.

¹⁶ You spilled[§] blood on my holy mountain,^{*} so other nations will spill your blood.[†]

You will be finished.

It will be as if you never existed.

¹⁷ But there will be survivors on Mount Zion.
They will be my special people.

The nation of Jacob[‡] will take back what belongs to it.

¹⁸ The family of Jacob will be like a fire.

The nation of Joseph will be like a flame.

But the nation of Esau[§] will be like ashes.

The people of Judah will burn Edom, and they will destroy it.

Then there will be no survivors in the nation of Esau.”

This will happen because the LORD said it would.

¹⁹ Then people from the Negev will live on the mountain of Esau.

And people from the foothills will take the Philistine lands.

They will live in the land of Ephraim and Samaria.

Gilead will belong to Benjamin.

²⁰ People from Israel were forced to leave their homes, but they will take back the land of Canaan, all the way to Zarephath.

People from Judah were forced to leave Jerusalem and live in Sepharad.^{*}

But they will take back the cities of the Negev.

²¹ The winners[†] will go up on Mount Zion to rule the people who live on Esau's mountain.

And the kingdom will belong to the LORD.

Jonah

God Calls and Jonah Runs

¹ The LORD spoke to Jonah* son of Amittai: ² “Nineveh† is a big city. I have heard about the many evil things the people are doing there. So go there and tell them to stop doing such evil things.”

³ But Jonah tried to run away from the LORD. He went to Joppa‡ and found a boat that was going to the faraway city of Tarshish. Jonah paid money for the trip and went on the boat. He wanted to travel with the people on this boat to Tarshish and run away from the LORD.

The Great Storm

⁴ But the LORD brought a great storm on the sea. The wind made the sea very rough. The storm was very strong, and the boat was ready to break apart. ⁵ The men wanted to make the boat lighter to stop it from sinking, so they began throwing the cargo§ into the sea. The sailors were very afraid. Each man began praying to his god.

Jonah had gone down into the boat to lie down, and he went to sleep. ⁶ The captain of the boat saw Jonah and said, “Wake up! Why are you sleeping? Pray to your god! Maybe your god will hear your prayer and save us!”

What Caused This Storm?

⁷ Then the men said to each other, “We should throw lots to find out why this is happening to us.”

So the men threw lots. The lots showed that the troubles came to them because of Jonah. ⁸ Then the men said to Jonah, “It is your fault that this terrible thing is happening to us. Tell us, what have you done? What is your job? Where do you come from? What is your country? Who are your people?”

⁹ Jonah said to them, “I am a Hebrew. I worship the LORD, the God of heaven, who made the land and the sea.”

¹⁰ Jonah told the men he was running away from the LORD. The men became very afraid when they learned this. They asked Jonah, “What terrible thing did you do against your God?”

¹¹ The wind and the waves of the sea were becoming stronger and stronger. So the men said to Jonah, “What should we do to save ourselves? What should we do to you to make the sea calm?”

¹² Jonah said to the men, “I know I did wrong—that is why the storm came on the sea. So throw me into the sea, and the sea will become calm.”

¹³ Instead, the men tried to row the ship back to the shore, but they couldn’t do it. The wind and the waves of the sea were too strong—and they were becoming stronger and stronger.

Jonah’s Punishment

¹⁴ So the men cried to the LORD, “LORD, please don’t say we are guilty of killing an innocent man. Please don’t make us die for killing him. We know you are the LORD, and you will do whatever you want.”

* 1:1 Jonah This is probably the same prophet mentioned in 2 Kings 14:25. † 1:2 Nineveh The capital city of the country of Assyria. Assyria destroyed Israel in 722–721 B.C. ‡ 1:3 Joppa A town on the coast of Israel by the Mediterranean Sea. § 1:5 cargo The Hebrew word can mean “dishes,” “jars,” or “tools.” Here, this could mean all the jars and boxes the boat carried on its way to Tarshish or the rigging and other heavy tools on the boat.

¹⁵ So the men threw Jonah into the sea. The storm stopped, and the sea became calm.
¹⁶ When the men saw this, they began to fear and respect the LORD. They offered a sacrifice and made special promises to the LORD.

¹⁷ When Jonah fell into the sea, the LORD chose a very big fish to swallow Jonah. He was in the stomach of the fish for three days and three nights.

2

Jonah's Prayer

¹ While Jonah was in the stomach of the fish, he prayed to the LORD his God. He said, ² "I was in very bad trouble.

I called to the LORD for help,
and he answered me.

I was deep in the grave.

I cried to you,
and you heard my voice.

³ "You threw me into the sea.

Your powerful waves splashed over me.

I went down, down into the deep sea.

The water was all around me.

⁴ Then I thought, 'Now I must go where you cannot see me,' but I continued looking to your holy Temple for help.

⁵ "The seawater closed over me.

The water covered my mouth,
and I could not breathe.*

I went down, down into the deep sea.

Seaweed wrapped around my head.

⁶ I was at the bottom of the sea,
the place where the mountains begin.

I thought I was locked in this prison forever, but the LORD my God took me out of my grave.
God, you gave me life again!

⁷ "My soul gave up all hope,

but then I remembered the LORD.

I prayed to you,

and you heard my prayers in your holy Temple.

⁸ "Some people worship useless idols, but those statues never help them.†

⁹ I will give sacrifices to you, and I will praise and thank you.

I will make special promises to you, and I will do what I promise."

Salvation only comes from the LORD!

¹⁰ Then the LORD spoke to the fish, and it vomited Jonah out of its stomach onto the dry land.

* 2:5 mouth, and I could not breathe Or "The water surrounded me to my soul." The Hebrew word for soul also means "life," "self," or "appetite," and "throat" or "mouth." † 2:8 Or "People who worship useless things have left the one who is kind to them."

3

God Calls and Jonah Obeys

¹ Then the LORD spoke to Jonah again and said, ² “Go to that big city Nineveh, and say what I tell you.”

³ So Jonah obeyed the LORD and went to Nineveh. It was a very large city. A person had to walk for three days to travel through it.

⁴ Jonah went to the center of the city and began speaking to the people. He said, “After 40 days, Nineveh will be destroyed!”

⁵ The people of Nineveh believed God. They decided to stop eating for a time to think about their sins. They put on special clothes to show they were sorry. All the people in the city did this, from the most important to the least important.

⁶ When the king of Nineveh heard about this, he left his throne, removed his robe, put on special clothes to show that he was sorry, and sat in ashes.* ⁷ The king wrote a special message and sent it throughout the city:

A command from the king and his great rulers:

For a short time no person or animal should eat anything. No herd or flock will be allowed in the fields. Nothing living in Nineveh will eat or drink water. ⁸ But every person and every animal must be covered with a special cloth to show they are sad. People must cry loudly to God. Everyone must change their life and stop doing bad things. ⁹ Who knows? Maybe God will stop being angry and change his mind, and we will not be punished.

¹⁰ God saw what the people did. He saw that they stopped doing evil. So God changed his mind and did not do what he planned. He did not punish the people.

God’s Mercy Makes Jonah Angry

¹ Jonah was not happy that God saved the city. Jonah became angry. ² He complained to the LORD and said, “LORD, I knew this would happen! I was in my own country, and you told me to come here. At that time I knew that you would forgive the people of this evil city, so I decided to run away to Tarshish. I knew that you are a kind God. I knew that you show mercy and don’t want to punish people. I knew that you are kind, and if these people stopped sinning, you would change your plans to destroy them. ³ So now, LORD, just kill me. It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁴ Then the LORD said, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry?”

⁵ Jonah went out of the city to a place near the city on the east side. He made a shelter for himself and sat there in the shade, waiting to see what would happen to the city.

The Gourd Plant and the Worm

⁶ The LORD made a gourd plant grow quickly over Jonah. This made a cool place for Jonah to sit and helped him to be more comfortable. He was very happy because of this plant.

⁷ The next morning, God sent a worm to eat part of the plant. The worm began eating the plant, and the plant died.

⁸ After the sun was high in the sky, God caused a hot east wind to blow. The sun became very hot on Jonah’s head, and he became very weak. He asked God to let him die. He said, “It is better for me to die than to live.”

⁹ But God said to Jonah, “Do you think it is right for you to be angry just because this plant died?”

Jonah answered, “Yes, it is right for me to be angry! I am angry enough to die!”

* 3:6 sat in ashes People did this to show that they were sad.

¹⁰ And the LORD said, “You did nothing for that plant. You did not make it grow. It grew up in the night, and the next day it died. And now you are sad about it. ¹¹ If you can get upset over a plant, surely I can feel sorry for a big city like Nineveh. There are many people and animals in that city. There are more than 120,000 people there who did not know they were doing wrong.”*

* 4:11 people ... wrong Literally, “people who do not know their right from their left.” This might mean “innocent children.”

Micah

Samaria and Israel to Be Punished

¹ During the time that Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah were kings of Judah, the word of the LORD came to Micah. Micah was from Moresheth. He saw these visions about Samaria and Jerusalem.

² Listen, all you people!

Earth and everyone on it,* listen!

The Lord GOD will be a witness against you.

The Lord will come from his holy temple.

³ See, the LORD is leaving his place to come down and walk on the high places[†] of the earth.

⁴ The mountains will melt under him like wax in a fire.

The valleys will break apart and slide like water rushing down a hill.

⁵ This will happen because of Jacob's sin, because of the sins of the nation[‡] of Israel.

Samaria, the Cause of Sin

What caused Jacob to sin?

It was Samaria.

Where is the high place in Judah?

It is Jerusalem.

⁶ So I will change Samaria into a pile of rocks in the field, a place ready for planting grapes.

I will push Samaria's stones down into the valley, leaving nothing but the foundations.

⁷ All her idols will be broken to pieces.

And the offerings to her idols will be burned.

I will destroy all her statues of false gods,

because she got them as pay for being a prostitute.

So those things will be taken away to be used again for paying prostitutes.

Micah's Great Sadness

⁸ I will be very sad about what will happen.

I will go without sandals and clothes.

I will cry like a dog.[§]

I will mourn like a bird.*

⁹ Samaria's[†] wound cannot be healed.

Her disease has spread to Judah.

It has reached the city gate of my people;

it has spread all the way to Jerusalem.

¹⁰ Don't tell it in Gath.[‡]

Don't cry in Acco.[§]

* 1:2 everyone on it Literally, "its fullness." † 1:3 high places Here, this might mean simply "hills," or it might mean places of worship (see "high place" in the Word List). ‡ 1:5 nation Literally, "house." This might mean the royal family of that country. § 1:8 dog Literally, "jackal," a kind of wild dog. * 1:8 bird Literally, "ostrich," a large bird. † 1:9 Samaria The capital city of the northern kingdom of Israel. ‡ 1:10 Gath This is a wordplay. This name means "tell." § 1:10 Acco This name means "cry."

Roll yourself in the dust at Beth Ophrah.*

¹¹ You people living in Shaphir,† pass on your way, naked and ashamed.

The people living in Zaanan‡ will not come out.

The people in Beth Ezel§ will cry and take their support from you.

¹² The people living in Maroth* wait for something good to happen, even though trouble has come down from the LORD and has reached the city gate of Jerusalem.

¹³ You people living in Lachish,† get the horses ready for your chariots.
You are guilty of the same sins Israel‡ committed, and you brought those sins to Jerusalem.§

¹⁴ So you must give goodbye gifts to Moresheth* in Gath.

The houses in Aczib† will trick
the kings of Israel.

¹⁵ You people who live in Mareshah,‡
I will bring someone against you who will take the things you own.
The Glory of Israel will come into Adullam.§

¹⁶ So cut off your hair, make yourself bald,*
because you will cry for the children you love.
Make yourself bald like an eagle† and show your sadness, because your children will be taken away from you.

2

The Evil Plans of People

¹ Trouble will come to those who make plans to sin.
They lie on their beds making their evil plans.
Then when the morning light comes, they do what they planned, because they have the power to do what they want.

² They want fields, so they take them.
They want houses, so they take them.
They cheat a man
and take his house and his land.

The Lord's Plans to Punish the People

³ That is why the LORD says:

* 1:10 Beth Ophrah This name means "house of dust." † 1:11 Shaphir This name means "beautiful." ‡ 1:11 Zaanan This name means "come out." § 1:11 Beth Ezel This name means "house of support." * 1:12 Maroth This name means "bitter," "angry," or "sad." † 1:13 Lachish This name is like the Hebrew word meaning "horse." ‡ 1:13 Israel Here, probably the northern kingdom of Israel centered in Samaria. § 1:13 Jerusalem Literally, "Daughter Zion." See "Zion" in the Word List. * 1:14 Moresheth Micah's hometown. † 1:14 Aczib This name means "lie" or "trick." ‡ 1:15 Mareshah The name means "a person who takes things." § 1:15 Adullam A cave that David hid in when he ran away from Saul. See 1 Sam. 22:1. * 1:16 cut ... bald This showed that a person made a special agreement with God or that a person was very sad. † 1:16 eagle Or "vulture." See "vulture" in the Word List.

“Look, I am planning trouble against this family.

You will not be able to save yourselves.*

You will stop being proud,
because bad times are coming.

⁴ Then people will sing songs about you.

They will sing this sad song:

‘We are ruined!

The LORD took away our land and gave it to other people.

Yes, he took my land away from me.

He has divided our fields among our enemies.

⁵ So we will not be able to measure the land and divide it among the LORD’S people.’ ”

Micah Is Asked Not to Prophesy

⁶ The people say, “Don’t prophesy to us.

Don’t say those bad things about us.

Nothing bad will happen to us.”

⁷ But people of Jacob,

I must say these things.

The LORD is losing his patience because of the bad things you did.

If you lived right,

I could say nice words to you.

⁸ But you attack my people like enemies.

You steal the clothes off the backs of people walking by.

They think they are safe, but you are there to treat them like prisoners of war.†

⁹ You have taken nice houses away from the women of my people.

You have taken my wealth away from their small children forever.

¹⁰ Get up and leave!

This will not be your place of rest, because you ruined it.

You made it unclean, so it will be destroyed!

It will be a terrible destruction!

¹¹ These people don’t want to listen to me.

But if a man comes telling lies, they will accept him.

They would accept a false prophet if he comes and says,

“There will be good times in the future, with plenty of wine and beer.”

The Lord Will Bring His People Together

¹² Yes, people of Jacob, I will bring all of you together.

I will bring together all those in Israel who are still living.

I will put them together like sheep in the sheep pen, like a flock in its pasture.

Then the place will be filled with the noise of many people.

¹³ The “One Who Breaks Through Walls” will push through and walk to the front of his people.

* 2:3 save yourselves Literally, “take your necks off it.” † 2:8 They think ... war Or “Returning from war, they think they are safe.”

They will break through the gates and leave that city.
They will leave with their king marching before them—with the LORD at the front of his people.

3

The Leaders of Israel Are Guilty of Evil

- ¹ Then I said, “Listen, leaders of Jacob and officers of the nation* of Israel!
You should know what justice is.
² But you hate good and love evil.
You tear the skin off the people and tear the flesh off their bones.
³ You are destroying my people.†
You take their skin off them and break their bones.
You chop their bones up like meat to put in the pot!
⁴ Then you will pray to the LORD,
but he will not answer you.
No, he will hide his face from you, because what you do is evil.”

False Prophets

⁵ Some false prophets are telling lies to the Lord’s people. This is what the LORD says about them:

“These prophets are led by their stomachs.
They promise peace for those who give them food, but they promise war to those who do not give them food.

- ⁶ “This is why it is like night for you and you don’t have visions.
You cannot see what will happen in the future,
so it is like darkness to you.
The sun has gone down on the prophets.
They cannot see what will happen in the future,
so it is like darkness to them.
⁷ The seers are ashamed.
The fortunetellers are embarrassed.
None of them will say anything,
because God will not speak to them.”

Micah Is an Honest Prophet of God

- ⁸ But the LORD’S Spirit has filled me with power, goodness, and strength.
So I can tell Jacob about his crimes,
and so I can tell Israel about his sins!

The Leaders of Israel Are to Blame

- ⁹ Leaders of Jacob and rulers of Israel, listen to me!
You hate the right way of living!
If something is straight,
then you make it crooked!
¹⁰ You build Zion by murdering people.‡

* 3:1 nation Literally, “house.” This might mean the royal family of that country. † 3:3 You are destroying my people Literally, “You who eat the flesh of my people.” ‡ 3:10 murdering people Literally, “bloodshed.”

You build Jerusalem by cheating people!
¹¹ The judges in Jerusalem accept bribes to help them decide who wins in court.
 The priests in Jerusalem must be paid before they will teach the people.
 People must pay the prophets before they will look into the future.
 Then those leaders expect the LORD to help them.
 They say, "The LORD lives here with us,
 so nothing bad will happen to us."

¹² Leaders, because of you, Zion will be destroyed.
 It will become a plowed field.
 Jerusalem will become a pile of rocks.
 Temple Mount will be an empty hill[§] overgrown with bushes.

4

The Law Will Come From Jerusalem

¹ In the last days the mountain of the LORD'S Temple will be on the highest of all mountains.
 It will be raised higher than the hills.
 There will be a steady stream of people going there.
² People from many nations will go there and say,
 "Come, let's go up to the mountain of the LORD,
 to the Temple of the God of Jacob.
 Then God will teach us his way of living,
 and we will follow him."

His teaching, the LORD'S message, will begin in Jerusalem on Mount Zion and will go out to all the world.

³ Then God will act as judge to end arguments between people in many places.
 He will decide what is right for great nations far and near.
 They will stop using their weapons for war.
 They will hammer their swords into plows
 and use their spears to make tools for harvesting.

All fighting between nations will end.
 They will never again train for war.

⁴ They will sit under their own grapevine and fig tree.
 No one will make them afraid.
 That is because the LORD All-Powerful said it would happen like that.

⁵ All the people from other nations follow their own gods, but we will follow the LORD our God forever and ever!*

The Kingdom to Be Brought Back

⁶ The LORD says,
 "Jerusalem was hurt and crippled.
 She was thrown away.

[§] 3:12 empty hill Or "high place," a term usually used for local shrines (places for worship) where people often worshiped idols. * 4:5 Or "All the nations will walk in the name of their gods, but we will walk in the name of the LORD our God, forever and ever!"

She was hurt and punished,
but I will bring her back to me.

⁷ “The people of that ‘crippled’ city will be the only ones left alive.
They were forced to leave,
but I will make them into a strong nation.”

The LORD will be their king.
He will rule from Mount Zion forever.

⁸ And you, Tower of Flocks,[†] your time will come.
Ophel, hill of Zion,
you will again have the right to rule.
Yes, the kingdom will be in Jerusalem
as it was in the past.

Why Must the Israelites Go to Babylon?

⁹ Now, why are you crying so loudly?
Is your king gone?
Have you lost your wise leader?
Is that why you are suffering like a woman in labor?

¹⁰ Cry out, you people of Jerusalem,[‡] and feel the pain, as if you were giving birth.

You must go out of the city and live in the fields.
You will go away to Babylon,
but you will also be saved from that place.
The LORD will come and rescue you there.
He will take you away from your enemies.

The Lord Will Destroy the Other Nations

¹¹ Many nations have come to fight against you.
They say, “Look, there is Zion!
Let’s attack her!”

¹² They have their plans,
but they don’t know what the LORD is planning.
He brought them here for a special purpose.
They will be crushed like grain on a threshing floor.

Israel Will Defeat Its Enemies

¹³ “People of Jerusalem, get up and crush them!
I will make you very strong.
It will be as if you have horns of iron and hooves of bronze.
You will beat many people into small pieces.
You will give their wealth to the LORD.
You will give their treasure to the Lord of all the earth.”

[†] 4:8 Tower of Flocks Or “Migdal Eder.” This probably means a part of Jerusalem. The leaders would be like shepherds in a tower watching their sheep. [‡] 4:10 people of Jerusalem Literally, “daughter Zion,” a name for Jerusalem. Also in verse 13. See “Zion” in the Word List. ^{*} 5:1 strong city Literally, “daughter of troops.”

They are surrounding us for the attack!
They will hit the Judge of Israel on the cheek with a stick.

The Messiah to Be Born in Bethlehem

- ² But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, are the smallest town in Judah.
Your family is almost too small to count,
but the “Ruler of Israel” will come from you to rule for me.
His beginnings[†] are from ancient times,
from long, long ago.
- ³ The Lord will let his people be defeated until the woman gives birth to her child, the promised king.
Then the rest of his brothers will come back to join the people of Israel.
- ⁴ He will begin to rule Israel in the power of the LORD.
Like a shepherd, he will lead his people in the wonderful name of the LORD his God.
And they will live in safety because then his greatness will be known all over the world.
- ⁵ He will bring a time of peace.

Yes, the Assyrian army will come into our country and march through our land.[‡]

But we have plenty of leaders[§]
we can send against them.

⁶ With swords in hand our leaders will defeat the Assyrians and rule the land of Nimrod.*

They[†] will save us from the Assyrians when they come into our land and march through our territory.

⁷ But those from Jacob who are still living and scattered among the nations will be like dew from the LORD that does not depend on anyone.

They will be like rain on the grass that does not wait for anyone.

⁸ Those from Jacob who are still living are scattered among the nations.

But they will be like a lion among the animals in the forest.
They will be like a young lion among flocks of sheep.

If the lion passes through,
he goes where he wants to go.

If he attacks an animal,
no one can save it.
The survivors will be like that.

⁹ You will lift your hand against your enemies, and you will destroy them.

People Will Depend on God

¹⁰ The LORD says,
“At that time I will take away your horses,
and I will destroy your chariots.

¹¹ I will destroy the cities in your country.
I will pull down all your fortresses.

[†] 5:2 beginnings Or “family origins.” [‡] 5:5 march ... land Or “trample our palaces.” [§] 5:5 plenty of leaders
Literally, “seven shepherds, no eight leaders.” * 5:6 land of Nimrod Another name for Assyria. [†] 5:6 They Literally, “He.”

- ¹² You will no longer try to do magic.
 You will have no more fortunetellers.
- ¹³ I will destroy your statues of false gods.
 I will pull down your memorial stones.
 You will not worship what your hands have made.
- ¹⁴ I will destroy the Asherah poles and your false gods.[‡]
- ¹⁵ Some nations will not listen to me, but I will show my anger and get my revenge.”

6

The Lord's Complaint

- ¹ Now hear what the LORD says:
 “Present your argument to the mountains.
 Let the hills hear your story.*
- ² The LORD has a complaint against his people.
 Mountains, listen to the LORD'S complaint.
 Foundations of the earth, hear the Lord.
 He will prove that Israel is wrong!”
- ³ He says, “My people, tell me what I did!
 Did I do something wrong against you?
 Did I make life too hard for you?
- ⁴ I will tell you what I did.
 I sent Moses, Aaron, and Miriam to you.
 I brought you from the land of Egypt.
 I freed you from slavery.
- ⁵ My people, remember the evil plans of Balak king of Moab.
 Remember what Balaam son of Beor said to Balak.
 Remember what happened from Acacia to Gilgal,[†] and you will know the LORD is right!”

What Does God Want From Us?

- ⁶ What must I bring when I come to meet with the LORD?
 What must I do when I bow down to God above?
 Should I come to him with burnt offerings and a year-old calf?
- ⁷ Will the LORD be pleased with a thousand rams or with ten thousand rivers of oil?
 Should I offer him my first child to pay for my wrongs?
 Should I sacrifice my very own child for my sins?
- ⁸ Human, the LORD has told you what goodness is.
 This is what he wants from you:
 Be fair to other people.
 Love kindness and loyalty,
 and humbly obey your God.

What Were the Israelites Doing?

- ⁹ The LORD shouts to the city:

[‡] 5:14 false gods Or “cities.” * 6:1 This is like a court case. The mountains and hills are the judge and jury.

[†] 6:5 Acacia to Gilgal This story is found in Num. 22-25.

“A wise person respects the Lord’s name.[‡]
 So pay attention to the punishing rod and to the one who uses it![§]
¹⁰ Do the wicked still hide treasures that they have stolen?
 Do they still cheat people with baskets that are too small?^{*}
 Yes, all of this is still happening!
¹¹ Some people carry special weights that they use to cheat people when they weigh their goods.
 Should I pardon them?
¹² The rich in that city are still cruel.
 The people there still tell lies.
 Yes, they tell their lies.
¹³ So I have begun to punish you.
 I will destroy you because of your sins.
¹⁴ You will eat, but you will not become full.
 You will still be hungry and empty.[†]
 You will try to bring people to safety, but people with swords will kill the people you rescued.
¹⁵ You will plant your seeds,
 but you will not gather food.
 You will try to squeeze oil from your olives,
 but you will not get any oil.
 You will crush your grapes,
 but you will not get enough juice to have wine to drink.
¹⁶ This is because you obey the laws of Omri.[‡]
 You do all the evil things that Ahab’s family does.
 You follow their teachings,
 so I will let you be destroyed.
 People will whistle in amazement
 when they see your destroyed city.
 Then you will bear the shame that the other nations bring to you.”[§]

7

Micah Is Upset at the Evil People Do

¹ I am upset because I am like fruit that has been gathered, like grapes that have already been picked.
 There are no grapes left to eat.
 There are none of the early figs that I love.
² By this I mean that all the faithful people are gone.
 There are no good people left.
 Everyone is planning to kill someone.
 Everyone is trying to trap their brother.
³ People are good at doing bad things with both hands.
 Officials ask for bribes.

[‡] 6:9 the Lord’s name Literally, “your name.” [§] 6:9 So pay attention ... uses it The Hebrew text here is hard to understand. ^{*} 6:10 baskets ... too small Literally, “short ephahs.” An ephah is about 1/2 bushel. [†] 6:14 You ... empty The Hebrew text here is unclear. [‡] 6:16 Omri A king of Israel who led his nation to worship false gods. See 1 Kings 16:21-26. [§] 6:16 Then ... you Or “My people’s shame will be taken away.”

Judges take money to change their decisions in court.
 “Important leaders” do whatever they want to do.
 4 Even the best of them is as crooked as a tangled thornbush.

The Day of Punishment Is Coming

Your prophets said this day would come,
 and the day of your watchmen* has come.
 Now you will be punished.
 Now you will be confused!
 5 Don't trust your neighbor or trust a friend!
 Don't even speak freely
 with your wife.
 6 Your enemies will be the people in your own house.
 A son will not honor his father.
 A daughter will turn against her mother.
 A daughter-in-law will turn against her mother-in-law.

The Lord Is the Savior

7 So I will look to the LORD for help.
 I will wait for God to save me.
 My God will hear me.
 8 I have fallen, but enemy, don't laugh at me!
 I will get up again.
 I sit in darkness now,
 but the LORD will be a light for me.

The Lord Forgives

9 I sinned against the LORD,
 so he was angry with me.
 But he will argue my case for me in court.
 He will do what is right for me.
 Then he will bring me out into the light,
 and I will see that he is right.
 10 My enemy said to me,
 “Where is the LORD your God?”
 But my enemy will see this,
 and she will be ashamed.
 At that time I will laugh at her.†
 People will walk over her,‡ like mud in the streets.

The Jews to Return

11 The time will come when your walls will be rebuilt.
 At that time the country will grow.
 12 Your people will come back to your land.
 They will come back from Assyria and from the cities of Egypt.
 They will come from Egypt and from the other side of the Euphrates River.
 They will come from the sea in the west and from the mountains in the east.

* 7:4 watchmen Another name for prophets. This shows that the prophets were like guards who stood on a city's wall and watched for trouble coming from far away. † 7:10 laugh at her Literally, “my eyes will stare at her.”

‡ 7:10 enemy, don't laugh ... walk over her This probably refers to an enemy city, such as the capital of Edom.

13 The land was ruined by the people who lived there and by what they did.
 14 So rule your people with your rod.
 Rule the flock of people who belong to you.
 That flock lives alone in the woods and up on Mount Carmel.
 That flock lives in Bashan and Gilead
 as they did in the past.

Israel Will Defeat Its Enemies

15 I did many miracles when I took you out of Egypt.
 I will let you see more miracles like that.
 16 The nations will see those miracles,
 and they will be ashamed.
 They will see that their “power”
 is nothing compared to mine.
 They will be amazed
 and put their hands over their mouths.
 They will cover their ears and refuse to listen.
 17 They will crawl in the dust like a snake.
 They will shake with fear.
 They will be like insects crawling from their holes in the ground and coming to the LORD our God.
 God, they will fear and respect you!

Praise for the Lord

18 There is no God like you.
 You take away people’s guilt.
 God will forgive his people who survive.
 He will not stay angry with them forever,
 because he enjoys being kind.
 19 He will come back and comfort us again.
 He will throw all our sins into the deep sea.
 20 God, please be true to Jacob.
 Be kind and loyal to Abraham,[§] as you promised our ancestors long ago.

§ 7:20 Abraham Here, Abraham is used to mean all the people of Israel. See “Abraham” in the Word List.

Nahum

¹ This book is the vision of Nahum from Elkosh. This is the sad message about the city of Nineveh.*

The Lord Is Angry at Nineveh

² The LORD is a jealous God.

The LORD punishes the guilty, and he is very angry.

The LORD punishes his enemies, and he stays angry with them.

³ The LORD is patient,
but he is also very powerful!

The LORD will punish the guilty;
he will not let them go free.

He will use whirlwinds and storms to show his power.
People walk on the dusty ground, but he walks on the clouds.

⁴ He will speak harshly to the sea, and it will become dry.
He will dry up all the rivers.

The rich lands of Bashan and Carmel become dry and dead.
The flowers in Lebanon fade away.

⁵ The Lord will come,
and the mountains will shake and the hills will melt away.

He will come,
and the earth will shake with fear.

The earth and everyone on it will shake with fear.

⁶ No one can stand against his great anger.
No one can endure his terrible anger.

His anger will burn like fire.
The rocks will shatter when he comes.

⁷ The LORD is good.
He is a safe place to go to in times of trouble.

He takes care of those who trust him.

⁸ But he will completely destroy his enemies.
He will wash them away like a flood and chase them into the darkness.

⁹ Why are you making plans against the LORD?
He will bring complete destruction,
so you will not cause trouble again.

¹⁰ You will be destroyed completely like thornbushes burning under a pot.

You will be destroyed
like dry weeds that burn quickly.

¹¹ Someone from Nineveh is making evil plans against the LORD.
That advisor is a worthless troublemaker.

¹² This is what the LORD said:
“The people of Assyria are at full strength.
They have many soldiers, but they will all be cut down.”

* 1:1 Nineveh The capital city of the country of Assyria. Assyria destroyed Israel in 722–721 B.C.

They will all be finished.
 My people, I made you suffer,
 but I will make you suffer no more.
¹³ Now I will set you free from the power of Assyria.
 I will take the yoke off your neck and tear away the chains holding you.”

¹⁴ King of Assyria, the LORD gave this command about you:
 “You will not have any descendants to wear your name.
 I will destroy your carved idols and metal statues that are in the temple of your gods.
 I am preparing your grave,
 because your end is coming soon![†]”

¹⁵ Judah, look!
 There, coming over the mountains, is a messenger bringing good news!
 He says there is peace.
 Judah, celebrate your special festivals and do what you promised.
 Those worthless troublemakers will not come through and attack you again.
 They have all been destroyed.

2

Nineveh Will Be Destroyed

¹ An enemy is coming to attack you, so guard the strong places of your city.
 Watch the road.
 Get ready for war.
 Prepare for battle!
² Yes, the LORD changed Jacob’s pride.
 He made it like Israel’s pride.
 The enemy destroyed them and ruined their grapevines.
³ The shields of his soldiers are red.
 Their uniforms are bright red.
 Their chariots are shining like flames of fire and are lined up for battle.
 Their horses are ready to go.
⁴ The chariots race wildly through the streets and rush back and forth through the square.
 They look like burning torches,
 like lightning flashing from place to place!
⁵ The enemy calls for his best soldiers.
 They stumble as they rush ahead.
 They run to the wall
 and set up their shield over the battering ram.
⁶ But the gates by the rivers are open, and the enemy comes flooding in and destroys the king’s palace.

[†] 1:14 because your end is coming soon Or “you are not important” or “you are so hated.”

⁷ The enemy takes away the queen, and her slave girls moan sadly like doves.
They beat their breasts to show their sadness.

⁸ Nineveh is like a pool whose water is draining away.
People yell, "Stop! Stop running away!"
But it does not do any good.

⁹ Take the silver!
Take the gold!
There are many things to take.
There are many treasures.

¹⁰ Now Nineveh is empty.
Everything is stolen.
The city is ruined.
People have lost their courage,
their hearts melt with fear,
their knees knock together,
their bodies shake,
and their faces turn pale.

¹¹ Where is that great city now?
It was like a den where the lions feed their young.
It was a place where people felt safe,
like lions in a cave with no one there to harm them.

¹² The lion was able to catch plenty of food to feed his cubs and his mate.
He filled his cave with the animals he killed.
He filled his den with the meat he gathered.

¹³ The LORD All-Powerful says,
"I am against you, Nineveh.
I will burn your chariots and kill your 'young lions' in battle.
You will not hunt anyone on earth again.
People will never again hear bad news from your messengers."

3

Bad News for Nineveh

¹ It will be very bad for that city of murderers.
Nineveh is a city full of lies.
It is filled with things taken from other countries.
It is filled with plenty of people that it hunted and killed.

² You can hear the sounds of whips and the noise of wheels.
You can hear horses galloping and chariots bouncing along!

³ Soldiers on horses are attacking, their swords are shining,
their spears are gleaming!

There are many dead people.

Dead bodies are piled up—too many bodies to count.

People are tripping over the dead bodies.

⁴ All this happened because of Nineveh.

Nineveh is like a prostitute who could never get enough.

She wanted more and more.

She sold herself to many nations, and she used her magic to make them her slaves.

⁵ The LORD All-Powerful says,

“I am against you, Nineveh.

I will pull your dress* up over your face.

I will let the nations see your naked body.

The kingdoms will see your shame.

⁶ I will throw dirty things on you and treat you in a hateful way.

People will look at you and laugh.

⁷ Everyone who sees you will be shocked.

They will say, ‘Nineveh is destroyed.

Who will cry for her?’

I know I cannot find anyone to comfort you, Nineveh.”

⁸ Nineveh, are you better than Thebes[†] on the Nile River? Thebes also had water all around her to protect herself from enemies. She used that water like a wall too. ⁹ Ethiopia and Egypt made Thebes strong. Libya and the Sudan supported her, ¹⁰ but Thebes was defeated. Her people were taken away as prisoners to a foreign country. Soldiers beat her small children to death at every street corner. They threw lots to see who got to keep the important people as slaves. They put chains on all the important men of Thebes.

¹¹ So, Nineveh, you will also fall like a drunk. You will try to hide. You will look for a safe place away from the enemy. ¹² But Nineveh, all your strong places will be like fig trees. When new figs become ripe, people come and shake the tree. The figs fall into their mouths. They eat them, and the figs are gone.

¹⁴ Get water and store it inside your city, because the enemy soldiers will surround your city. Make your defenses strong! Get clay to make more bricks and mix the mortar. Get the molds for making bricks. ¹⁵ You can do all these things, but the fire will still destroy you completely. And the sword will kill you. Your land will look like a swarm of grasshoppers came and ate everything.

Nineveh, you grew and grew. You became like a swarm of grasshoppers. You were like a swarm of locusts. ¹⁶ You have many traders who go places and buy things. They are as many as the stars in the sky. They are like locusts that come and eat until everything is gone and then leave. ¹⁷ And your government officials are also like locusts that settle on a stone wall on a cold day. But when the sun comes up, the rocks become warm, and the locusts all fly away. And no one knows where.

¹⁸ King of Assyria, your shepherds fell asleep. These powerful men are sleeping. And now your sheep have wandered away on the mountains. There is no one to bring them back. ¹⁹ Nineveh, you have been hurt badly, and nothing can heal your wound. Everyone who hears the news of your destruction claps their hands. They are all happy, because they all felt the pain you caused again and again.

* 3:5 pull your dress This is a wordplay in Hebrew. The Hebrew word also means “to destroy a country and take its people away as prisoners to other nations.” † 3:8 Thebes A great city in Egypt. It was destroyed in 663 B.C. by the Assyrian army.

Habakkuk

Habakkuk Complains to God

¹ This is the message that was given to Habakkuk the prophet.

² LORD, I continue to ask for help. When will you listen to me? I cried to you about the violence, but you did nothing! ³ People are stealing things and hurting others. They are arguing and fighting. Why do you make me look at these terrible things? ⁴ The law is weak and not fair to people. Evil people win their fights against good people. So the law is no longer fair, and justice does not win anymore.

The Lord Answers Habakkuk

⁵ “Look at the other nations! Watch them, and you will be amazed. I will do something in your lifetime that will amaze you. You would not believe it even if you were told about it. ⁶ I will make the Babylonians* a strong nation. They are cruel and powerful fighters. They will march across the earth. They will take houses and cities that don’t belong to them. ⁷ The Babylonians will scare the other people. They will do what they want to do and go where they want to go. ⁸ Their horses will be faster than leopards and more dangerous than wolves at sunset. Their horse soldiers will come from faraway places. They will attack their enemies quickly, like a hungry eagle swooping down from the sky. ⁹ The one thing they all want to do is fight. Their armies will march fast like the wind in the desert. And the Babylonian soldiers will take many prisoners—as many as the grains of sand.

¹⁰ “The Babylonian soldiers will laugh at the kings of other nations. Foreign rulers will be like jokes to them. The Babylonian soldiers will laugh at the cities with tall, strong walls. They will simply build dirt roads up to the top of the walls and easily defeat the cities. ¹¹ Then they will leave like the wind and go on to fight against other places. The only thing the Babylonians worship is their own strength.”

Habakkuk’s Second Complaint

¹² LORD, you are the one who lives forever!

You are my holy God who never dies!†

LORD, you created the Babylonians to do what must be done.

Our Rock, you created them to punish people.

¹³ Your eyes are too good to look at evil.

You cannot stand to see people doing wrong.

So why do you permit such evil?

How can you watch while the wicked destroy people who are so much better?

¹⁴ You made people like fish in the sea.

They are like little sea animals without a leader.

¹⁵ The enemy catches all of them with hooks and nets.

The enemy catches them in his net and drags them in,
and the enemy is very happy with what he caught.

¹⁶ His net helps him live like the rich and enjoy the best food.

So the enemy worships his net.

He makes sacrifices and burns incense to honor his net.

¹⁷ Will he continue to take riches with his net?

* 1:6 Babylonians Literally, “Chaldeans,” a tribe of Arameans who gained control in Babylon. King Nebuchadnezzar was from this tribe. † 1:12 LORD, you are ... never dies Or “LORD, you have been my holy God forever! Surely we will not die.”

Will he continue destroying people without showing mercy?

¹ I will stand like a guard and watch.

I will wait to see what the LORD will say to me.

I will wait and learn how he answers my questions.

God Answers Habakkuk

² The LORD answered me, “Write down what I show you. Write it clearly on a sign so that the message will be easy to read.* ³ This message is about a special time in the future. This message is about the end, and it will come true. Just be patient and wait for it. That time will come; it will not be late. ⁴ This message cannot help those who refuse to listen to it, but those who are good will live because they believe it.

⁵ “Wine can trick a person. In the same way a strong man’s pride can fool him, but he will not find peace. He is like death—he always wants more and more. And, like death, he will never be satisfied. He will continue to defeat other nations and to make those people his prisoners. ⁶ But soon enough, all those people will laugh at him and tell stories about his defeat. They will laugh and say, ‘It’s too bad that the man who took so many things will not get to keep them! He made himself rich by collecting debts.’

⁷ “Strong man, you have taken money from people. One day they will wake up and realize what is happening, and they will stand against you. Then they will take things from you, and you will be very afraid. ⁸ You have stolen things from many nations, so they will take much from you. You have killed many people and destroyed lands and cities. You have killed all the people there.

⁹ “Look at you people! You get rich by cheating people, and it hurts your own family! You build your houses high on the cliffs to protect yourself from danger. ¹⁰ You planned shameful things, and that will bring shame to your own family. You have done wrong, and it will cost you your life. ¹¹ The stones of the walls will cry out against you. Even the wooden rafters[†] in your own house will prove that you are wrong.

¹² “Look at them! They kill people to build their city and do wicked things to make their walled city strong. ¹³ But the LORD All-Powerful has decided that a fire will destroy everything that those people worked to build. All their work will be for nothing. ¹⁴ Then people everywhere will know about the Glory of the LORD. This news will spread just as water spreads out into the sea. ¹⁵ It will be very bad for those who become angry and make other people suffer. Like an angry drunk, they knock others to the ground and strip them naked, just to see their naked bodies.[‡]

¹⁶ “But they will know the Lord’s anger. It will be like a cup of poison in the LORD’S right hand. They will taste that anger, and then they will fall to the ground like drunks.

“Evil ruler, you will drink from that cup. You will get shame, not honor. ¹⁷ You hurt many people in Lebanon and stole many animals there. So you will be afraid because of the people who died and because of the bad things you did to that country. You will be afraid because of what you did to those cities and to the people who lived there.”

The Message About Idols

¹⁸ Their false god will not help them, because it is only a statue that someone covered with metal. It is only a statue, so whoever made it cannot expect it to help. That statue cannot even speak! ¹⁹ Look at them! They speak to a wooden statue and tell it, “Get up! Rescue me.” They talk to a stone that cannot speak and say, “Wake up!” Don’t you know those things cannot help you? That statue may be covered with gold and silver, but there is no life in it.

²⁰ But the LORD is in his holy temple, so the whole earth should be silent in his presence and show him respect.

Habakkuk's Prayer

² LORD, I have heard the news about you.

I am amazed, LORD, at the powerful things you did in the past.

Now I pray that you will do great things in our time.

Please make these things happen in our own days.

But in your anger,

remember to show mercy to us.

Selah

and his praise fills the earth!

and the destroyer followed behind him.†

⁶ He stood and judged the earth.
He looked at the people of all the nations,
and they shook with fear.

For many years the mountains stood strong,
but those mountains fell to pieces.

Those old, old hills fell down.
God has always been able to do that.

⁷ I saw that the cities of Cushan were in trouble and that the houses of Midian trembled with fear.

⁸ LORD, were you angry at the rivers?

Were you angry at the streams?

Were you angry at the sea?

Were you angry when you rode your horses and chariots to victory?

It was proof of your agreement with the families of the earth.‡

as it lost its power over the land.

¹¹ The sun and the moon lost their brightness.

They stopped shining when they saw your bright flashes of lightning.
That lightning was like spears and arrows shooting through the air.

¹² In anger you walked on the earth and punished the nations.

¹³ You came to save your people and to lead your chosen king[§] to victory.
You killed the leader in every evil family,

Those soldiers came through the deep water, stirring up the mud.

My lips trembled.

I felt weak deep down in my bones and stood there shaking.

But I will wait patiently for destruction to come to those who attack us.

Zephaniah

¹ This is the message that the LORD gave to Zephaniah. He received this message during the time that Josiah son of Amon was king of Judah. Zephaniah was the son of Cush, who was the son of Gedaliah. Gedaliah was the son of Amariah, who was the son of Hezekiah.

The Lord's Day for Judging the People

² The LORD says, "I will destroy everything on earth.* ³ I will destroy all the people and all the animals. I will destroy the birds in the air and the fish in the sea. I will destroy the evil people and everything that makes them sin. I will remove all people from the earth." This is what the LORD said.

⁴ "I will punish Judah and the people living in Jerusalem. I will remove from this place any signs of Baal worship. No one will remember the priests who serve the idols there. ⁵ And those who go up on their roofs to worship the stars† will be forgotten. They worship me, the LORD, but they also use the name of the false god Milcom to make promises. ⁶ They have turned away from me, the LORD. They have stopped following me. They no longer ask me, the LORD, for help."

⁷ Be silent before the Lord GOD, because the LORD'S day for judging the people is coming soon. The LORD has prepared his sacrifice, and he has told his invited guests to get ready.‡

⁸ The Lord said, "On the LORD'S day of sacrifice, I will punish the king's sons and other leaders. I will punish all the people wearing clothes from other countries. ⁹ At that time I will punish all the people who jump over the threshold§ and those who fill their master's house* with lies and violence."

¹⁰ The LORD also said, "At that time people will be calling for help at Fish Gate in Jerusalem and mourning in the new part of town. They will hear the sound of destruction in the hills around the city. ¹¹ You people living in the lower part of town will cry, because all the traders and rich merchants will be destroyed.

¹² "At that time I will take a lamp and search through Jerusalem. I will find all those who are satisfied to live their own way. They say, 'The LORD does nothing. He does not help, and he does not hurt!' I will find them, and I will punish them. ¹³ Then others will take their wealth and destroy their houses. Those who built houses will not live in them, and those who planted vineyards will not drink the wine from the grapes."

¹⁴ The LORD'S special day for judging is coming soon! It is near and coming fast. People will hear very sad sounds on the LORD'S special day of judgment. Even strong soldiers will cry. ¹⁵ The Lord will show his anger at that time. It will be a time of terrible troubles and a time of destruction. It will be a time of darkness—a black, cloudy, and stormy day. ¹⁶ It will be like a time of war when people hear horns and trumpets in the defense towers and protected cities.

¹⁷ The Lord said, "I will make life very hard on the people. They will walk around like the blind who don't know where they are going. That will happen because they sinned against the LORD. Their blood will be spilled on the ground. Their dead bodies will lie like dung on the ground. ¹⁸ Their gold and silver will not help them! At that time the

God Asks People to Change Their Lives

¹ Shameless people, change your lives ² before you become like a dry and dying flower. In the heat of day, a flower will wilt and die. You will be like that when the LORD shows his terrible anger. So change your lives before the LORD shows his anger against you! ³ All you humble people, come to the LORD! Obey his laws. Learn to do good things. Learn to be humble. Maybe then you will be safe when the LORD shows his anger.

The Lord Will Punish Israel's Neighbors

⁴ No one will be left in Gaza. Ashkelon will be destroyed. By noon, the people will be forced to leave Ashdod. Ekron* will be empty.† ⁵ You Cretans‡ living by the sea, this message from the LORD is about you. Canaan, land of the Philistines, you will be destroyed—no one will live there! ⁶ Your land by the sea will become empty fields for shepherds and their sheep. ⁷ Then the land will belong to the survivors from Judah. The LORD their God will remember the people from Judah and restore their fortunes. Then they will let their sheep eat the grass in those fields. In the evenings they will lie down in the empty houses of Ashkelon.

⁸ The Lord says, “I know what the people of Moab and Ammon did. They embarrassed my people. They took their land to make their own countries larger. ⁹ So, as surely as I am alive, Moab and the people of Ammon will be destroyed like Sodom and Gomorrah. I am the LORD All-Powerful, the God of Israel, and I promise those countries will be destroyed completely forever. Their land will be overgrown with weeds. It will be like the land covered with salt by the Dead Sea. The survivors of my people will take that land and everything left in it.”

¹⁰ This will happen to the people of Moab and Ammon because they were so proud and cruel and humiliated the people of the LORD All-Powerful. ¹¹ They will be afraid of the LORD, because he will destroy their gods. Then everyone in all the faraway lands will worship the Lord. ¹² People of Ethiopia, this even means you! The Lord's sword will kill your people. ¹³ Then the Lord will turn north and punish Assyria. He will destroy Nineveh—that city will be like an empty, dry desert. ¹⁴ Only sheep and wild animals will live in those ruins. Owls and crows will sit on the columns that are left standing. Their calls will be heard coming through the windows. Crows will sit on the doorsteps. Black birds§ will make their homes in those empty houses. ¹⁵ Nineveh is so proud now. It is such a happy city. The people think they are safe. They think Nineveh is the greatest place in the world, but it will be destroyed! It will be an empty place where only wild animals go to rest. People who pass by will whistle and shake their heads when they see how badly the city was destroyed.

The Future of Jerusalem

¹ Jerusalem, your people fought against God. They hurt other people, and you have been stained with sin. ² They didn't listen to me or accept my teachings. Jerusalem didn't trust the LORD. Jerusalem didn't go to her God. ³ Jerusalem's leaders are like roaring lions. Her judges are like hungry wolves that come in the evening to attack the sheep—and in the morning nothing is left. ⁴ Her prophets are always making secret plans to get more and more. Her priests have treated holy things as if they were not holy. They have done bad things to God's teachings. ⁵ But the LORD is still in that city, and he continues to be good. He does not do anything wrong. He continues to help his people. Morning after morning he makes good decisions for them. Not a day passes without his justice. He never gives a decision that is crooked or is something to be ashamed of.

⁶ The Lord says, "I have destroyed whole nations and their defense towers. I destroyed their streets and now no one goes there anymore. Their cities are empty—no one lives there anymore. ⁷ I tell you this so that you will learn a lesson. I want you to fear and respect me. If you do this, your home will not be destroyed, and I will not have to punish you the way I planned." But those evil people only wanted to do more of the same evil things they had already done!

⁸ The LORD said, "So just wait! Wait for me to stand and judge you. I have the right to bring people from many nations and use them to punish you. I will use them to show my anger against you. I will use them to show how upset I am—and the whole country will be destroyed. ⁹ Then I will change people from other nations so that they can speak the language clearly and call out the name of the LORD. They will all worship me together, shoulder to shoulder, as one people. ¹⁰ People will come all the way from the other side of the river in Ethiopia. My scattered people will come to me. My worshipers will come and bring their gifts to me.

¹¹ "Then, Jerusalem, you will no longer be ashamed of the wrong things your people do against me. That is because I will remove all the bad people from Jerusalem. I will take away all the proud people. There will not be any of them on my holy mountain.*

¹² I will let only meek and humble people stay in my city, and they will trust the LORD'S name. ¹³ The survivors of Israel will not do bad things or tell lies. They will not try to trick people with lies. They will be like sheep that eat and lie down in peace—and no one will bother them."

A Happy Song

¹⁴ Jerusalem, sing and be happy!

Israel, shout for joy!

Jerusalem, be happy and have fun!

¹⁵ The LORD stopped your punishment.

He destroyed your enemies' strong towers.

King of Israel, the LORD is with you.

You don't need to worry about anything bad happening.

¹⁶ At that time Jerusalem will be told,

"Be strong, don't be afraid!

¹⁷ The LORD your God is with you.

He is like a powerful soldier.

He will save you.

He will show how much he loves you and how happy he is with you.

He will laugh and be happy about you,

¹⁸ like people at a party.

I will take away your shame.

I will make them stop hurting you.†

¹⁹ At that time I will punish those who hurt you.

I will save my hurt people and bring back those who were forced to leave.

I will give them praise and honor everywhere,

even in places where they suffered shame.

²⁰ At that time I will lead you back home.

I will bring your people back together.

I will cause people everywhere to honor and praise you.

You will see me bring back all the blessings you once had.”

This is what the LORD said.

Haggai

It Is Time to Build the Temple

³ Again Haggai received a message from the LORD. Haggai spoke this message: ⁴ “You people think the right time has come for you to live in nice houses. You live in houses with beautiful wooden paneling on the walls, but the Lord’s house is still in ruins. ⁵ Now the LORD All-Powerful says, ‘Think about what is happening. ⁶ You have planted many seeds, but you have gathered only a few crops. You have food to eat, but not enough to get full. You have something to drink, but not enough to get drunk. You have some clothes to wear, but not enough to keep warm. You earn a little money, but you don’t know where it all goes. It’s as though there is a hole in your pocket!’*”

⁷ The LORD All-Powerful said, “Think about what you are doing. ⁸ Go up to the mountains, get the wood, and build the Temple. Then I will be pleased with the Temple, and I will be honored.” This is what the LORD said.

⁹ The LORD All-Powerful said, “You people look for a big harvest, but when you go to gather the crop, there is only a little grain. So you bring that grain home, and then I send a wind that blows it all away. Why is this happening? Because my house is still in ruins while each of you runs home to take care of your own house. ¹⁰ That is why the sky holds back its dew and why the earth holds back its crops.

¹¹ “I gave the command for the land and the mountains to be dry. The grain, the new wine, the olive oil, and everything the earth produces will be ruined.† All the people and all the animals will become weak.”

Work Begins on the New Temple

¹² The LORD God had sent Haggai to speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel and to the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak. So these men and all the people listened to the voice of the LORD their God and to the words of Haggai the prophet. And the people showed their fear and respect for the LORD their God.

¹³ Then Haggai, the LORD’S messenger, delivered this message to the people: “The LORD says, ‘I am with you!’ ”

¹⁴ Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel was the governor of Judah. Joshua son of Jehozadak was the high priest. The LORD made them and the rest of the people excited about working on the Temple of their God, the LORD All-Powerful. ¹⁵ So they began this work on the 24th day of the sixth month in the second year Darius was the king.

The Lord Encourages the People

¹ On the 21st day of the seventh month, this message from the LORD came to Haggai: ² “Speak to Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, the governor of Judah, and to Joshua son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to all the people. Say this: ³ ‘How many of you people look at this Temple and try to compare it to the beautiful Temple that was destroyed? What do you think? Does this Temple seem like nothing when you compare it with the first Temple? ⁴ But the LORD says, “Zerubbabel, don’t be discouraged!” And the LORD says, “Joshua son of Jehozadak, you are the high priest. Don’t be discouraged! And all you people who live in the land, don’t be discouraged! Continue this work, because I am with you.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁵ “I made an agreement with you when you left Egypt, and I have kept my promise. My Spirit is with you, so don’t be afraid!” ⁶ This is what the LORD All-Powerful said, ‘In just a little while, I will once again shake things up. I will shake heaven and earth, and I will shake the sea and the dry land. ⁷ I will shake up the nations, and they will come to you with wealth from every nation. And then I will fill this Temple with glory.’ That is what the LORD All-Powerful said! ⁸ ‘All their silver really belongs to me! And all the gold is mine!’ This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. ⁹ And the LORD All-Powerful said ‘This last Temple will be more beautiful than the first one, and I will bring peace to this place.’ Remember, this is what the LORD All-Powerful said.”

Today Begins a Time of Blessing

¹⁰ On the 24th day of the ninth month in the second year Darius was king of Persia, this message from the LORD came to Haggai the prophet: ¹¹ “The LORD All-Powerful commands you to ask the priests what the law says about these things: ¹² ‘Suppose a man carries some meat in the fold of his clothes. This meat is part of a sacrifice, so it is holy. If his clothes touch some bread, cooked food, wine, oil, or some other food, will the thing the clothes touch become holy?’ ”

The priests answered, “No.”

¹³ Then Haggai said, “Whoever touches a dead body will become unclean. Now if they touch anything else, will it also become unclean?”

The priests answered, “Yes, it will become unclean.”

¹⁴ Then Haggai said, “This is what the LORD God said: ‘This is also true for the people of this nation. They were not pure and holy before me. So anything they did with their hands and anything they offered at the altar became unclean.

¹⁵ “ ‘Think about what has happened to you. Think about how things were before you began working on the LORD’S Temple. ¹⁶ People wanted 20 measures of grain, but there were only 10 measures in the pile. People wanted to get 50 jars of wine from the wine vat, but there were only 20. ¹⁷ That was because I punished you. I sent the diseases that killed your plants and the hail that destroyed the things you made with your hands. I did this, but still you did not come to me.’ This is what the LORD said.

¹⁸ “The Lord said, ‘Today is the 24th day of the ninth month. You have finished laying the foundation of the LORD’S Temple. So notice what happens from this day forward: ¹⁹ Your seed for planting is still in the barn. And look at the vines, the fig trees, and the pomegranate and olive trees. They have not yet produced any fruit. But beginning today, I will bless you.’ ”

²⁰ Another message from the LORD came to Haggai on the 24th day of the month. This is the message: ²¹ “Go to Zerubbabel, the governor of Judah and tell him that I will shake heaven and earth. ²² And I will overthrow many kings and kingdoms and destroy the power of the kingdoms of those other people. I will destroy their chariots and their riders. I will defeat their war horses and riders. These armies are friends now, but they will turn against each other and kill each other with swords.” ²³ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says: “Zerubbabel son of Shealtiel, my servant, I have chosen you. I, the LORD, tell you that at that time I will use you like a signet ring to represent my authority!”

This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

Zechariah

The Lord Wants His People to Return

¹ Zechariah son of Berekiah received a message from the LORD. This was in the eighth month of the second year that Darius* was king in Persia. (Zechariah was the son of Berekiah, who was the son of Iddo the prophet.) This is that message:

² The LORD became very angry with your ancestors. ³ So you must tell the people what the LORD All-Powerful says, “Come back to me, says the LORD All-Powerful, and I will come back to you.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁴ “Don’t be like your ancestors. In the past the prophets spoke to them and said, ‘The LORD All-Powerful wants you to change your evil way of living. Stop doing evil things!’ But your ancestors did not listen to me.” This is what the LORD said.

⁵ “Your ancestors are gone, and those prophets did not live forever. ⁶ The prophets were my servants. I used them to tell your ancestors about my laws and teachings. Your ancestors finally learned their lesson and said, ‘The LORD All-Powerful did what he said he would do. He punished us for the way we lived and for all the evil things we did.’ So they came back to God.”

The Four Horses

⁷ On the 24th day of the eleventh month (Shebat) of the second year that Darius was king of Persia, Zechariah received another message from the LORD. (This was Zechariah son of Berekiah, son of Iddo.) This is the message:

⁸ At night I saw a man riding a red horse. He was standing among some myrtle bushes in the valley. Behind him, there were red, brown, and white horses. ⁹ I said, “Sir, what are these horses for?”

Then the angel speaking to me said, “I will show you what these horses are for.”

¹⁰ Then the man standing among the myrtle bushes said, “The LORD sent these horses to go here and there on earth.”

¹¹ Then the horses spoke to the LORD’S angel standing among the myrtle bushes and said, “We have walked here and there on the earth, and everything is calm and quiet.”

¹² Then the LORD’S angel said, “LORD All-Powerful, how long before you comfort Jerusalem and the cities of Judah? You have shown your anger at these cities for 70 years now.”

¹³ Then the LORD answered the angel who was talking with me. He spoke good, comforting words.

¹⁴ Then the angel told me to tell the people this: The Lord All-Powerful says:

“I have a strong love for Jerusalem and Zion.

¹⁵ And I am very angry at the nations that feel so safe.
I was only a little angry,
and I used them to punish my people.
But they caused too much damage.”

¹⁶ So the LORD says, “I will come back to Jerusalem and comfort her.”
The LORD All-Powerful says, “Jerusalem will be rebuilt, and my house will be built there.”

¹⁷ The angel also said, “The LORD All-Powerful says,
‘My towns will be rich again.
I will comfort Zion.

* 1:1 the second year ... Darius That is, about 520 B.C. Also in verse 7.

I will again choose Jerusalem to be my special city.’ ”

The Four Horns and Four Workers

¹⁸ Then I looked up and I saw four horns. ¹⁹ So I asked the angel who was talking with me, “What do these horns mean?”

He said, “These are the horns that forced the people of Israel, Judah, and Jerusalem to go to foreign countries.”

²⁰ The LORD showed me four workers. ²¹ I asked him, “What are these four workers coming to do?”

He said, “The horns represent the nations that attacked the people of Judah and forced them to go to foreign countries. The horns ‘threw’ the people of Judah to the foreign countries. The horns didn’t show mercy to anyone. But these four workers have come to frighten the horns and throw them away.”

2

Measuring Jerusalem

¹ Then I looked up and saw a man holding a rope for measuring things. ² I asked him, “Where are you going?”

He said to me, “I am going to measure Jerusalem, to see how wide and how long it is.”

³ Then the angel who was speaking to me left, and another angel went out to talk to him. ⁴ He said to him, “Run and tell that young man this:

‘Jerusalem will be a city without walls, because there will be too many people and animals living there.’

⁵ The LORD says,
‘I will be a wall of fire around her, to protect her,
and to bring glory to that city, I will live there.’ ”

God Calls His People Home

The LORD says,

⁶ “Hurry! Leave the land in the North in a hurry.
Yes, it is true that I scattered your people in every direction.

⁷ You people from Zion now live in Babylon.
Escape! Run away from that city!”

⁸ The Lord sent me to the nations that took away your wealth.
He sent me to bring you honor.

And this is what the LORD All-Powerful said:
“If anyone even touches you,
it is as if they did it to the pupil of my eye.

⁹ Watch and see how I will punish them:
Their own slaves will become their masters and take all their wealth.”
Then you will know it was the LORD All-Powerful who sent me to tell you these things.

¹⁰ The LORD says,
“Zion, be happy, because I am coming,
and I will live in your city.

¹¹ At that time people from many nations will come to me.
They will become my people,
and I will live in your city.”

Then you will know it was the LORD All-Powerful who sent me to tell you these things.

¹² The LORD will again choose Jerusalem to be his special city.
Judah will be his share of the holy land.

¹³ Everyone, be quiet!
The LORD is coming out of his holy house.

The High Priest

¹ The angel showed me Joshua the high priest, standing in front of the angel of the LORD and Satan was standing by Joshua's right side. Satan was there to accuse Joshua of doing wrong. ² Then the angel of the LORD said, "The LORD says that you are wrong, and he will continue to correct you! The LORD has chosen Jerusalem to be his special city. He saved that city—it was like a burning stick pulled from the fire."

³ Joshua was wearing a dirty robe as he stood in front of the angel. ⁴ Then the angel said to the other angels standing near him, "Take those dirty clothes off Joshua." Then the angel spoke to Joshua. He said, "Now, I have taken away your guilt, and I am giving you a new change of clothes."

⁵ Then I said, "Put a clean turban on his head." So they put the clean turban on him and also put clean clothes on him while the LORD'S angel stood there. ⁶ Then the LORD'S angel said this to Joshua:

⁷ This is what the LORD All-Powerful said:

"Live the way I tell you,

and do everything I say.

And you will be in charge of my Temple.

You will take care of its courtyard.

You will be free to go anywhere in my Temple,
just as these angels standing here.

⁸ Listen, Joshua, you who are the high priest, and listen, you fellow priests seated before him.

You are all examples to show what will happen when I bring my special servant.

He is called, the Branch.

⁹ Look, I put a special stone in front of Joshua.

There are seven sides* on that stone.

I will carve a special message on it.

This will show that in one day, I will remove the guilt from this land."

¹⁰ The LORD All-Powerful says,

"At that time people will sit and talk with their friends and neighbors.

They will invite each other to sit under the fig trees and grapevines."

4

The Lampstand and the Two Olive Trees

¹ Then the angel who was talking to me returned and woke me up. I was like a person waking up from sleep. ² Then the angel asked me, "What do you see?"

I said, "I see a solid gold lampstand. There are seven lamps* on the lampstand, and there is a bowl on top of it. There are seven tubes coming from the bowl. One tube goes

* 3:9 sides Literally, "eyes." * 4:2 lamps These lamps made light by burning olive oil.

to each lamp. The tubes bring the oil in the bowl to each of the lamps. ³ There are two olive trees by the bowl, one on the right side and one on the left side. These trees produce the oil for the lamps. ⁴ Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “Sir, what do these things mean?”

⁵ The angel speaking with me said, “Don’t you know what these things are?”

“No sir,” I said.

⁶ He said, “This is the message from the LORD to Zerubbabel: ‘Your help will not come from your own strength and power. No, your help will come from my Spirit.’ This is what the LORD All-Powerful says. ⁷ That tall mountain will be like a flat place for Zerubbabel. He will build the Temple, and when the most important stone is put in place, the people will shout, ‘Beautiful! Beautiful!’ ”

⁸ The LORD’S message to me also said, ⁹ “Zerubbabel will lay the foundations for my Temple, and he will finish building it. Then you will know that the LORD All-Powerful sent me to you people. ¹⁰ People will not be ashamed of the small beginnings, and they will be very happy when they see Zerubbabel with the plumb line,[†] measuring and checking the finished building. Now the seven sides[‡] of the stone you saw represent the eyes of the LORD looking in every direction. They see everything on earth.”

¹¹ Then I said to him, “I saw one olive tree on the right side of the lampstand and one on the left side. What do those two olive trees mean?” ¹² I also said to him, “I saw two olive branches by the gold tubes with gold colored oil flowing from them. What do these things mean?”

¹³ Then the angel said to me, “Don’t you know what these things mean?”

I said, “No, sir.”

¹⁴ So he said, “They represent the two men chosen[§] to serve the Lord of the whole world.”

5

The Flying Scroll

¹ I looked up again, and I saw a flying scroll. ² The angel asked me, “What do you see?” I said, “I see a flying scroll that is 30 feet* long and 15 feet[†] wide.”

³ Then the angel told me, “There is a curse written on that scroll. On one side of the scroll, there is a curse against thieves and on the other side is a curse against people who lie when they make promises. ⁴ The LORD All-Powerful says, ‘I will send that scroll to the houses of thieves and people who lie when they use my name to make promises. That scroll will settle there and destroy even the stones and wooden posts of their houses.’ ”

The Woman and the Bucket

⁵ The angel who was talking to me went outside and said, “Look! What do you see coming?”

⁶ I said, “I don’t know. What is it?”

He said, “That is a measuring bucket.” He also said, “That bucket is for measuring the sins[‡] of the people in this country.”

⁷ A lid made of lead was lifted off the bucket, and there was a woman in the bucket. ⁸ The angel said, “The woman represents evil.” Then the angel pushed the woman down into the bucket and put the lead lid back on it. ⁹ Then I looked up and saw two women with wings like a stork. They flew out, and with the wind in their wings, they picked up the bucket. They flew through the air carrying the bucket. ¹⁰ Then I asked the angel who was speaking with me, “Where are they carrying the bucket?”

[†] 4:10 plumb line A string with a weight on one end used to show how straight the walls of a building were. Sometimes the line was coated with paint or chalk to mark a straight line. [‡] 4:10 sides This is a wordplay. The Hebrew word also means “eyes.” [§] 4:14 men chosen Literally, “sons of extra pure olive oil.” Often a special oil was poured over new kings, priests, and prophets. This showed that these people were chosen by God. ^{*} 5:2 30 feet Literally, “20 cubits” (8.88 m). [†] 5:2 15 feet Literally, “10 cubits” (4.44 m). [‡] 5:6 sins The Hebrew text has “their eye,” but with a minor change of one character it becomes “their guilt.”

¹¹ The angel told me, “They are going to build a house for it in Babylonia. After they build that house, they will put the bucket there.”

The Four Chariots

¹ Then I turned around. I looked up and saw four chariots going between two bronze mountains. ² Red horses were pulling the first chariot. Black horses were pulling the second chariot. ³ White horses were pulling the third chariot, and horses with red spots were pulling the fourth chariot. ⁴ I asked the angel who was talking with me, “Sir, what does this mean?”

⁵ The angel said, “These are the four winds.* They have just come from the Lord of the whole world. ⁶ The black horses will go north, the red horses will go east, the white horses will go west, and the horses with red spots will go south.”

⁷ The red spotted horses were anxious to go look at their part of the earth, so the angel told them, “Go walk through the earth.” So they went walking through their part of the earth.

⁸ Then he shouted at me and said, “Look, those horses that were going north finished their job in Babylon. They have calmed my spirit; I am not angry now!”

Joshua the Priest Gets a Crown

⁹ Then I received another message from the LORD. He said, ¹⁰ “Heldai, Tobijah, and Jedaiah have come from the captives† in Babylonia. Get silver and gold from these men and then go to the house of Josiah son of Zephaniah. ¹¹ Use the silver and gold to make a crown. Put it on the head of the high priest, Joshua son of Jehozadak. ¹² Then tell him this is what the LORD All-Powerful says:

‘There is a man called the Branch.

He will grow strong,
and he will build the LORD’S Temple.

¹³ He will build the LORD’S Temple, and he will receive the honor.

He will sit on his throne and be the ruler,
and a priest will stand by his throne.

These two men will work together in peace.’

¹⁴ The crown will be kept in my Temple,‡ so that when people see it, they will remember Heldai, Tobijah, Jedaiah, and the kindness of Zephaniah’s son Josiah.”

¹⁵ People living far away will come and build the LORD’S Temple. Then you will know for sure that the LORD All-Powerful sent me to you people. All these things will happen if you do what the LORD your God says.

The Lord Wants Kindness and Mercy

¹ Zechariah received a message from the LORD in the fourth year that Darius* was the king of Persia. This was on the fourth day of the ninth month (Kislev). ² The people of Bethel sent Sharezer, Regem-Melech, and his men to ask the LORD a question. ³ They went to the prophets and to the priests at the Temple of the LORD All-Powerful.

* 6:5 four winds Or “four spirits.” Four winds often means “winds that blow from every direction: north, south, east, and west.” † 6:10 captives People taken away as prisoners. Here, it means the Jewish people who were taken to Babylonia. ‡ 6:14 my Temple Literally, “the Temple of the LORD.” * 7:1 the fourth year ... Darius This was about 518 B.C.

They asked them this question: “For many years we have shown our sadness for the destruction of the Temple. In the fifth month of each year, we have had a special time of crying and fasting. Should we continue to do this?”

⁴ I received this message from the LORD All-Powerful: ⁵ “Tell the priests and the other people in this country this: ‘For seventy years you fasted and showed your sadness in the fifth month and in the seventh month. But was that fasting really for me? ⁶ And when you ate and drank, was that for me? No, it was for your own good. ⁷ The LORD used the earlier prophets to say the same thing long ago. That was when Jerusalem was still a rich city filled with people and there were still people living in the surrounding towns, in the Negev, and in the western foothills.’ ”

⁸ This is the LORD’S message to Zechariah:

⁹ “This is what the LORD All-Powerful said:
‘You must do what is right and fair.

You must be kind and show mercy to each other.

¹⁰ Don’t hurt widows and orphans, strangers, or poor people.

Don’t even think of doing bad things to each other!’ ”

¹¹ But they refused to listen and refused to do what he wanted.
They closed their ears so that they could not hear what God said.

¹² They were very stubborn and would not obey the law.

The LORD All-Powerful used his Spirit and sent messages to his people through the prophets.

But the people would not listen,
so the LORD All-Powerful became very angry.

¹³ So the LORD All-Powerful said,
“I called to them,
and they did not answer.

So now, if they call to me,
I will not answer.

¹⁴ I will bring the other nations against them like a storm.
They didn’t know those nations,

but the country will be destroyed after those nations pass through.

This pleasant country will be destroyed.”

8

The Lord Promises to Bless Jerusalem

¹ This is a message from the LORD All-Powerful. ² The LORD All-Powerful says, “I have a very strong love for Mount Zion. I love her so much that I became angry when she was not faithful to me.” ³ The LORD says, “I have come back to Zion, and I am living in Jerusalem. Jerusalem will be called Faithful City. The mountain of the LORD All-Powerful will be called Holy Mountain.”

⁴ The LORD All-Powerful says, “Old men and women will again be seen in the public places in Jerusalem. People will live so long that they will need their walking sticks. ⁵ And the city will be filled with children playing in the streets.” ⁶ The LORD All-Powerful says, “The survivors will think it is wonderful, and so will I!”

⁷ The LORD All-Powerful says, “Look, I am rescuing my people from countries in the east and west. ⁸ I will bring them back here, and they will live in Jerusalem. They will be my people, and I will be their good and faithful God.”

⁹ The LORD All-Powerful says, “Be strong! You people are hearing the same message today that the prophets gave when the LORD All-Powerful first laid the foundations to rebuild his Temple. ¹⁰ Before that time, people didn’t have the money to hire workers or to rent animals. And it was not safe for people to come and go. There was no relief from all the troubles. I had turned everyone against their neighbor. ¹¹ But it is not like that now. It will not be like that for the survivors.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹² “These people will plant in peace. Their grapevines will produce grapes. The land will give good crops, and the skies will give rain. I will give all these things to my people. ¹³ People began using the names Israel and Judah in their curses. But I will save Israel and Judah, and their names will become a blessing. So don’t be afraid. Be strong!”

¹⁴ The LORD All-Powerful says, “Your ancestors made me angry, so I decided to destroy them. I decided not to change my mind.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹⁵ “But now I have changed my mind. And in the same way I have decided to be good to Jerusalem and to the people of Judah. So don’t be afraid! ¹⁶ But you must do this: Tell the truth to your neighbors. When you make decisions in your cities, be fair and do what is right. Do what brings peace. ¹⁷ Don’t make secret plans to hurt your neighbors. Don’t make false promises. You must not enjoy doing these things, because I hate them!” This is what the LORD said.

¹⁸ I received this message from the LORD All-Powerful. ¹⁹ The LORD All-Powerful says, “You have special days of sadness and fasting in the fourth month, the fifth month, the seventh month, and the tenth month.* These days of sadness must be changed into days of happiness. They will be good and happy festivals. And you must love truth and peace.”

²⁰ The LORD All-Powerful says,

“In the future, people from many cities will come to Jerusalem.

²¹ People from different cities will greet each other and say,

‘We are going to worship the LORD All-Powerful.’

And the other person will say,

‘I would like to go with you!’ ”

²² Many people and many powerful nations will come to Jerusalem to find the LORD All-Powerful and to worship him. ²³ The LORD All-Powerful says, “At that time many foreigners speaking different languages will come to a Jewish man, take hold of the hem of his robe, and ask, ‘We heard that God is with you. Can we come with you to worship him?’ ”

9

Judgment Against Other Nations

¹ This is the LORD’S message against the land of Hadrach and against the city of Damascus. The tribes of Israel are not the only people who know about the LORD. Everyone looks to him for help.* ² This message is also against the city of Hamath near Damascus. And this message is against Tyre and Sidon, even though those people have been so wise and skillful. ³ Tyre is built like a fort. The people there have collected so much silver that it is like dust, and gold is as common as clay. ⁴ But the Lord will take it all. He will destroy her powerful navy and that city will be destroyed by fire!

* 8:19 days ... month These were days when the people remembered the destruction of Jerusalem and the Temple. See 2 Kings 25:1-25 and Jeremiah 41:1-17; 52:1-12. * 9:1 The Hebrew text here is hard to understand.

⁵ The people in Ashkelon will see this and they will be afraid. The people of Gaza will shake with fear, and the people of Ekron will lose all hope when they see this happen. There will be no king left in Gaza. No one will live in Ashkelon anymore. ⁶ The people in Ashdod will not even know who their real fathers are. The Lord says, “I will completely destroy the proud Philistines. ⁷ They will no longer eat meat with the blood still in it or any other forbidden food. Any Philistine left alive will become a part of my people; they will be just one more tribe in Judah. The people of Ekron will become a part of my people, as the Jebusites did. ⁸ I will protect my country. I will not let enemy armies pass through it. I will not let them hurt my people anymore. With my own eyes I have seen how much my people have suffered.”

The Future King

⁹ People of Zion,[†] rejoice!

People of Jerusalem, shout with joy!

Look, your king is coming to you!

He is the good king who won the victory, but he is humble.

He is riding on a donkey, on a young donkey born from a work animal.

¹⁰ I will take the war chariots away from Ephraim and the horse soldiers from Jerusalem.

I will destroy the bows used in war.

Your king will bring news of peace to the nations.

He will rule from sea to sea,

from the Euphrates River to the ends of the earth.

The Lord Will Save His People

¹¹ Jerusalem, we used blood to seal your agreement, so I am setting your people free from that empty hole in the ground.[‡]

¹² Prisoners, go home!

Now you have something to hope for.

I am telling you now,

I am coming back to you.

¹³ Judah, I will use you like a bow.

Ephraim, I will use you like arrows.

Israel, I will use you like a sword to fight against the men of Greece.

¹⁴ The LORD will appear to them, and he will shoot his arrows like lightning.

The Lord GOD will blow the trumpet, and the army will rush forward like a desert dust storm.

¹⁵ The LORD All-Powerful will protect them.

The soldiers will use rocks and slings to defeat the enemy.

They will spill the blood of their enemies.

It will flow like wine.

It will be like the blood that is thrown on the corners of the altar!

¹⁶ At that time the LORD their God will save his people like a shepherd saves his sheep.

They will be very precious to him.

They will be like sparkling jewels in his land.

¹⁷ Everything will be good and beautiful!

[†] 9:9 People of Zion Literally, “Daughter Zion,” meaning the city of Jerusalem. See “Zion” in the Word List. [‡] 9:11 empty hole in the ground People stored water in large holes in the ground. People sometimes used those holes as prisons.

There will be a wonderful crop,
but it will not be just the food and wine.
It will be all the young men and women!

10

The Lord's Promises

¹ Pray to the LORD for rain in the springtime. The LORD will send the lightning and the rain will fall, and he will make the plants grow in each person's field.

² People use their little statues and magic to learn what will happen in the future, but that is useless. They see visions and tell about their dreams, but it is nothing but worthless lies. So the people are like sheep wandering here and there crying for help, but there is no shepherd to lead them.

⁴ "The cornerstone, the tent peg, the war bow, and the advancing soldiers will all come from Judah together. ⁵ They will defeat their enemy—it will be like soldiers marching through mud in the streets. They will fight, and since the LORD is with them, they will defeat even the enemy soldiers riding horses. ⁶ I will make Judah's family strong. I will help Joseph's family win the war. I will bring them back safely and comfort them. It will be as if I never left them. I am the LORD their God, and I will help them. ⁷ The people of Ephraim will be as happy as soldiers who have too much to drink. Their children will be rejoicing and they, too, will be happy. They will all have a happy time together with the LORD.

⁸ "I will whistle for them and call them all together. I really will save them. There will be many people. ⁹ Yes, I have been scattering my people throughout the nations. But in those faraway places, they will remember me. They and their children will survive, and they will come back. ¹⁰ I will bring them back from Egypt and Assyria. I will bring them to the area of Gilead. And since there will not be enough room, I will also let them live in nearby Lebanon. ¹¹ They will go through a sea of troubles, but the waves will be stopped. Even the deepest waters of the Nile River will dry up. I will destroy Assyria's pride and take away Egypt's power. ¹² I, the LORD, will make my people strong, and they will live for me." This is what the LORD said.

God Will Punish the Other Nations

¹ Lebanon, open your gates so that the fire will come and burn your cedar trees.*

² The cypress trees will cry because the cedar trees have fallen.
Those powerful trees will be taken away.

Oak trees in Bashan will cry for the forest that was cut down.

³ Listen to the crying shepherds.
Their powerful leaders were taken away.

Listen to the roaring of the young lions.

Their thick bushes near the Jordan River have all been taken away.

⁴ The LORD my God says, "Care for the sheep that have been raised to be killed. ⁵ Buyers kill their sheep and are not punished. Those who sell the sheep say, 'Praise the LORD, I am rich!' The shepherds don't feel sorry for their sheep. ⁶ And I don't feel sorry for the people who live in this country." This is what the LORD said: "Look, I will let everyone be under the control of their neighbor and king. I will let them destroy the country—I will not stop them!"

* 11:1 cedar trees In this poem, the trees, bushes, and animals are symbols for the leaders of the countries around Judah.

⁷ So I took care of the sheep that had been raised to be killed—those poor sheep. I found two sticks. I called one stick Favor, and I called the other stick Union. Then I began caring for the sheep. ⁸ I fired the three shepherds all in one month. I got angry at the sheep, and they began to hate me. ⁹ Then I said, "I quit! I will not take care of you! I will let those who want to die, die. I will let those who want to be destroyed, be destroyed, and those who are left will destroy each other." ¹⁰ Then I took the stick named Favor, and I broke it. I did this to show that God's agreement with his people was broken. ¹¹ So that day the agreement was finished, and those poor sheep watching me knew that this message was from the LORD.

¹² Then I said, "If you want to pay me, pay me. If not, don't!" So they paid me 30 pieces of silver. ¹³ Then the LORD told me, "So that's how much they think I'm worth. Throw that large amount of money† into the Temple treasury." So I took the 30 pieces of silver and threw them into the treasury at the LORD'S Temple. ¹⁴ Then I cut the stick named Union into two pieces. I did this to show that the union between Judah and Israel had been broken.

¹⁵ Then the LORD said to me, "Now, get the things a foolish shepherd might use. ¹⁶ This will show that I will get a new shepherd for this country. But this young man will not be able to take care of the sheep that are being destroyed. He will not be able to heal the hurt sheep or feed those that are left alive. And the healthy ones will be eaten completely—only their hoofs will be left."

¹⁷ Too bad for you, you worthless shepherd!

You abandoned my sheep.

Punish him!

Strike his arm and right eye with a sword.

His arm will be useless.

His right eye will be blind.

Visions About the Nations Around Judah

¹ This is a message from the LORD about Israel. The Lord is the one who made the earth and the sky, and he put the human spirit in people. And this is what the LORD said: ² "Look, I will make Jerusalem like a cup of poison to the nations around her. The nations will come and attack that city, and all of Judah will be caught in the trap. ³ But I will make Jerusalem like a heavy rock—those who try to take it will hurt themselves. They will be cut and scratched. All the nations on earth will come together to fight against Jerusalem. ⁴ But at that time I will scare the horse, and the soldier riding it will panic. I will make all the enemy horses blind, but my eyes will be open—and I will be watching over Judah's family. ⁵ The leaders of Judah will encourage the people and say, 'The LORD All-Powerful is your God. He makes us strong.' ⁶ At that time I will make the leaders of Judah like a fire burning in a forest. They will destroy their enemies like fire burning straw. They will destroy the enemy all around them, and the people in Jerusalem will again be able to sit back and relax."

⁷ The LORD will save the people of Judah first, so the people in Jerusalem will not be able to brag too much. David's family and the other people who live in Jerusalem will not be able to brag that they are better than the other people in Judah. ⁸ But the LORD will protect the people in Jerusalem. Even the man who trips and falls will become a great soldier like David. And the men from David's family will be like gods—like the LORD'S own angel leading the people.

⁹ The Lord says, "At that time I will destroy the nations that came to fight against Jerusalem. ¹⁰ I will fill David's family and the people living in Jerusalem with a spirit of kindness and mercy. They will look to me, the one they stabbed, and they will be very sad. They will be as sad as someone crying over the death of their only son, as sad as someone crying over the death of their firstborn son. ¹¹ There will be a time of great sadness and crying in Jerusalem. It will be like the time people cry over the death of Hadad Rimmon* in Megiddo Valley. ¹² Each and every family will cry by itself. The men in David's family will cry by themselves, and their wives will cry by themselves. The men in Nathan's family will cry by themselves, and their wives will cry by themselves. ¹³ The men in Levi's family will cry by themselves, and their wives will cry by themselves. The men in Simeon's family will cry by themselves, and their wives will cry by themselves. ¹⁴ And the same thing will happen in all the other tribes. The men and women will cry by themselves."

¹ But at that time a new spring of water will be opened for David's family and for the other people living in Jerusalem. That fountain will be to wash away their sins and to make the people pure.

No More False Prophets

² The LORD All-Powerful says, "At that time I will remove all the idols from the earth. People will not even remember their names, and I will remove the false prophets and unclean spirits from the earth. ³ Whoever continues to prophesy will be punished. Even their parents, their own mother and father, will say to them, 'You have spoken lies in the name of the LORD, so you must die!' Their own mother and father will stab them for prophesying. ⁴ At that time the prophets will be ashamed of their visions and prophecies. They will not wear the rough cloth that shows a person is a prophet. They will not wear those clothes to trick people with the lies they call prophecies. ⁵ They will say, 'I am not a prophet. I am a farmer. I have worked as a farmer since I was a little child.' ⁶ But other people will say, 'Then what are these wounds in your hands?' He will say, 'I was beaten in the house of my friends.' "

⁷ The LORD All-Powerful says, "Sword, wake up and strike the shepherd, my friend! Strike the shepherd, and the sheep will run away. And I will punish those little ones. ⁸ Two-thirds of the people in the land will be struck down and die," says the LORD, "but one-third will survive. ⁹ Then I will test those survivors by giving them many troubles. The troubles will be like the fire a person uses to prove silver is pure. I will test them the way a person tests gold. Then they will call to me for help, and I will answer them. I will say, 'You are my people.' And they will say, 'The LORD is my God.' "

The Day of Judgment

¹ Look, the LORD has a special day of judgment coming, when the riches you have taken will be divided in your city. ² I will bring all the nations together to fight against Jerusalem. They will capture the city and destroy the houses. The women will be raped, and half of the people will be taken away as prisoners. But the rest of the people will not be taken from the city. ³ Then the LORD will go to war with those nations. It will be a real battle. ⁴ At that time he will stand on the Mount of Olives, the hill east of Jerusalem.

* 12:11 Hadad Rimmon Possibly a name for the Syrian fertility god.

The Mount of Olives will split in half. Part of the mountain will move to the north, and part to the south. A deep valley will open up, from the east to the west. ⁵ You will try to run away as that mountain valley comes closer and closer to you. You will run away like the time you ran from the earthquake during the time of King Uzziah of Judah. But the LORD my God will come, and all his holy ones* will be with him.

⁶⁻⁷ That will be a very special day. There will not be any light, cold, or frost. Only the LORD knows how, but there will not be any day or night. Then, when darkness usually comes, there will still be light. ⁸ At that time water will flow continually from Jerusalem.† That stream will split and part of it will flow east, and part of it will flow west to the Mediterranean Sea. And it will flow all year long, in the summer as well as in the winter. ⁹ And the LORD will be the King of the whole world. At that time all people will worship him as the only LORD with only one name. ¹⁰ And the whole land from Geba in the north to Rimmon in the south past Jerusalem will become a flat plain. The city of Jerusalem will stay in the same place, but it will be built high above the land around it. It will reach from the Benjamin Gate to the First Gate (that is, the Corner Gate) and from the Tower of Hananel to the king's winepresses. ¹¹ People will move to Jerusalem because it will be a safe place to live. It will never again be destroyed.

¹² But the LORD will punish the nations that fought against Jerusalem. He will send a terrible disease against them. Their skin will begin to rot while the people are still alive. Their eyes will rot in their sockets, and their tongues will rot in their mouths. ¹³⁻¹⁵ That terrible disease will be in the enemy camp, and all their horses, mules, camels, and donkeys will catch that terrible disease.

At that time they will be afraid of the LORD. Each man will grab his neighbor's hand, and they will fight each other. Even Judah will fight against Jerusalem. This will happen even while armies from all the nations are surrounding the city. There will be much gold, silver, and clothing. ¹⁶ Some of the people who came to fight Jerusalem will survive. And every year they will come to worship the king, the LORD All-Powerful. They will come to celebrate the Festival of Shelters. ¹⁷ And if people from any of the families on earth don't go to Jerusalem to worship the King, the LORD All-Powerful, no rain will fall on their land. ¹⁸ If any of the families in Egypt don't come to celebrate the Festival of Shelters, they will get that terrible disease that the LORD caused the enemy nations to get. ¹⁹ That will be the punishment for Egypt, and for any other nation that does not come to celebrate the Festival of Shelters.

²⁰ At that time even the harnesses on the horses will have the label, HOLY TO THE LORD.‡ And all the pots used in the LORD'S Temple will be just as important as the bowls used at the altar. ²¹ In fact, every dish in Jerusalem and Judah will have the label, HOLY TO THE LORD ALL-POWERFUL. All the people offering sacrifices will come, take those dishes, and cook their special meals in them.

At that time there will not be any merchants buying and selling things§ in the Temple of the LORD All-Powerful.

* 14:5 holy ones Here, this probably means angels. † 14:8 water ... Jerusalem Literally, "living water will flow from Jerusalem." Jerusalem's main water supply, the Gihon spring, did not flow continuously. ‡ 14:20 Holy to the LORD These words were written on everything that was used in the Temple. This showed that these things belonged to the Lord, and that they could be used only for special purposes. Dishes with this labels could be used only by the priests in a holy place. § 14:21 merchants ... selling things Literally, "Canaanites."

Malachi

¹ This is a message from the LORD to Israel. God used Malachi to tell this message to the people.

God Loves Israel

² The LORD said, “I love you people.”

But you said, “What shows you love us?”

The LORD said, “Esau was Jacob’s brother, but I chose* Jacob. ³ And I did not accept† Esau. I destroyed his hill country.‡ His country was destroyed, and now only wild dogs§ live there.”

⁴ The people of Edom might say, “We were destroyed, but we will go back and rebuild our cities.”

But the LORD All-Powerful says, “If they rebuild their cities, I will destroy them again.” That is why people say Edom is an evil country—a nation the LORD hates forever.

⁵ You people saw these things, and you said, “The LORD is great, even outside of Israel!”

The People Don’t Respect God

⁶ The LORD All-Powerful said, “Children honor their fathers. Servants honor their masters. I am your Father, so why don’t you honor me? I am your master, so why don’t you respect me? You priests don’t respect my name.

“But you say, ‘What have we done that shows we don’t respect your name?’

⁷ “You bring unclean bread to my altar.

“But you ask, ‘What makes that bread unclean?’

“It is unclean because you show no respect for the altar of the LORD. ⁸ You bring blind animals as sacrifices, and that is wrong. You bring sick and crippled animals for sacrifices, and that is wrong. Try giving those sick animals as a gift to your governor. Would he accept those sick animals? No, he would not accept them.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁹ “Now try asking God to be good to you. But he will not listen to you, and it is all your fault.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹⁰ “I wish one of you would close the Temple doors to stop the lighting of useless fires on my altar. I am not pleased with you. I will not accept your gifts.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹¹ “People all around the world respect my name. All around the world they bring good gifts to me and burn good incense as a gift to me, because my name is important to all of them.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹² “But you people show that you don’t respect my name. You say that the Lord’s altar is unclean. And you don’t like the food from that altar. ¹³ You smell the food and refuse to eat it. You say it is bad. Then you bring sick, crippled, and hurt animals to me. You try to give sick animals to me as sacrifices, but I will not accept them.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. ¹⁴ “Some people have good, male animals that they could give as sacrifices, but don’t. Some people bring good animals and promise to give those healthy animals to me. But then they secretly exchange those good animals and give me sick animals instead. Bad things will happen to those people. I am the Great King and people all around the world respect me!” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

Rules for Priests

* 1:2 chose Or “loved.” † 1:3 did not accept Or “hated.” ‡ 1:3 his hill country This means the country of Edom. Edom was another name for Esau. § 1:3 wild dogs Literally, “jackals.”

¹ “Priests, this rule is for you. ² Listen to me! Pay attention to what I say. Show honor to my name. If you don’t respect my name, bad things will happen to you. You will say blessings,* but they will become curses. I will make bad things happen because you don’t show respect for my name.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

³ “Look, I will punish your descendants. During the festivals, you priests offer sacrifices to me. You take the dung and inside parts from the dead animals and throw them away. But I will smear the dung on your faces, and you will be thrown away with it! ⁴ Then you will learn why I am giving you this command. I am telling you these things so that my agreement with Levi will continue.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁵ The Lord said, “I made that agreement with Levi. I promised to give him life and peace—and I gave him those things. Levi respected me and showed honor to my name. ⁶ He taught the true teachings and didn’t teach lies. Levi was honest, and he loved peace. He followed me and saved many people from being punished for the evil things they did. ⁷ A priest should know God’s teachings. People should be able to go to a priest and learn God’s teachings. A priest should be the LORD’S messenger to the people.

⁸ “But you priests stopped following me! You used the teachings to make people do wrong. You ruined the agreement with Levi.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said. ⁹ “You don’t live the way I told you. You have not accepted my teachings. So I will cause people to hate you and think you are worth nothing.”

Judah Was Not True to God

¹⁰ We all have the same father. The same God made every one of us. So why do people cheat one another? They show that they don’t respect the agreement. They don’t respect the agreement that our ancestors made with God. ¹¹ The people of Judah cheated other people. People in Jerusalem and Israel did terrible things. God loves the Temple, but the people in Judah didn’t respect the LORD’S holy Temple. The people of Judah began to worship a foreign goddess. ¹² The LORD will remove them from Judah’s family. They might bring gifts to the LORD All-Powerful—but it will not help. ¹³ You can cry and cover the LORD’S altar with tears, but the Lord will not accept your gifts. He will not be pleased with the things you bring to him.

¹⁴ You ask, “Why are our gifts not accepted?” It is because the LORD saw the evil things you did—he is a witness against you. He saw you cheat on your wife. You have been married to her since you were young. She was your girlfriend. Then you made your vows to each other—and she became your wife. ¹⁵ God wants husbands and wives to become one body and one spirit. Why? So that they would have holy children and protect that spiritual unity. Don’t cheat on your wife. She has been your wife from the time you were young.

¹⁶ The LORD, the God of Israel, says, “I hate divorce, and I hate the cruel things that men do. So protect your spiritual unity. Don’t cheat on your wife.”

The Special Time of Judgment

¹⁷ You have taught wrong things, and it makes the LORD very sad. People were doing evil things, but you said that this pleased the LORD and that he accepted those things. And you taught that God does not punish people for the evil they do.

3

¹ The LORD All-Powerful says, “I am sending my messenger to prepare the way for me. Then suddenly, the Lord you are looking for will come to his temple.* Yes, the messenger you are waiting for, the one who will tell about my agreement, is really coming!

² “No one can prepare for that time or stand against him when he comes. He will be like a burning fire. He will be like the strong soap people use to make things clean.

* 2:2 blessings Words asking for good things to happen to a person who tries to obey God’s law. * 3:1 temple Or “palace.”

³ He will make the Levites clean. He will make them pure, like silver is made pure with fire! He will make them pure like gold and silver. Then they will bring gifts to the LORD, and they will do things the right way. ⁴ Then the LORD will accept the gifts from Judah and Jerusalem. It will be as it was in the past—as the time long ago. ⁵ Then I will bring you to justice. I will be an expert witness and testify about the evil things people do. I will speak out against those who do evil magic or commit adultery. I will speak out against those who make false promises and cheat their workers and don't pay them the money they promised. I will testify against those who don't help strangers, or widows and orphans. And I will testify against those who don't respect me." This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

Stealing From God

⁶ "I am the LORD, and I don't change. You are Jacob's children, and you have not been completely destroyed. ⁷ But you never obeyed my laws. Even your ancestors stopped following me. Come back to me, and I will come back to you." This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

"You say, 'How can we come back?'"

⁸ "People should not steal things from God, but you stole things from me.

"You say, 'What did we steal from you?'"

"You should have given me one-tenth of your things. You should have given me special gifts. ⁹ In this way your whole nation has stolen things from me, so bad things are happening to you."

¹⁰ The LORD All-Powerful says, "Try this test. Bring one-tenth of your things to me. Put them in the treasury. Bring food to my house. Test me! If you do these things, I will surely bless you. Good things will come to you like rain falling from the sky. You will have more than enough of everything. ¹¹ I will not let pests destroy your crops. All your grapevines will produce grapes." This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

¹² "People from other nations will be good to you. You will have a wonderful country." This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

The Special Time of Judgment

¹³ The LORD says, "You said cruel things to me."

But you ask, "What did we say about you?"

¹⁴ You said, "It is useless to worship God. We did what the LORD All-Powerful told us, but we didn't gain anything. We cried like people at a funeral to show we were sorry for our sins, but it didn't help. ¹⁵ We think proud people are happy. Evil people succeed. They do evil things to test God's patience, and God does not punish them."

¹⁶ Then the LORD'S followers spoke with each other, and the LORD listened to them. There is a book in front of him. In that book are the names of his followers. They are the people who honor the LORD'S name.

¹⁷ The LORD said, "They belong to me. I will be kind to them. Parents are very kind to their children who obey them. In the same way I will be kind to my followers. ¹⁸ You people will come back to me, and you will learn the difference between good and evil. You will learn the difference between someone who follows God and someone who does not.

¹ "That time of judgment is coming. It will be like a hot furnace. All the proud people will be punished. All the evil people will burn like straw. At that time they will be like a bush burning in the fire, and there will not be a branch or root left." This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

² "But, for my followers, goodness will shine on you like the rising sun. And it will bring healing power like the sun's rays. You will be free and happy, like calves freed from their stalls.* ³ Then you will walk on the evil people—they will be like ashes under your feet. I will make this happen at the time of judgment.” This is what the LORD All-Powerful said.

⁴ “Remember and obey the law of my servant Moses. I gave those laws and rules to him at Mount Horeb. They are for all the people of Israel.

⁵ “Look, I will send Elijah the prophet to you. He will come before that great and terrible time of judgment from the LORD. ⁶ Elijah will help the parents become close to their children, and he will help the children become close to their parents. This must happen, or I will come and completely destroy your country.”

* 4:2 stalls Small rooms or areas surrounded by a fence where people keep their animals.

Matthew

The Family History of Jesus the Messiah (Luke 3:23b-38)

¹ This is the family history of Jesus the Messiah. He came from the family of David, who was from the family of Abraham.

² Abraham was the father of Isaac.
Isaac was the father of Jacob.

Jacob was the father of Judah and his brothers.

³ Judah was the father of Perez and Zerah. (Their mother was Tamar.)

Perez was the father of Hezron.

Hezron was the father of Ram.

⁴ Ram was the father of Amminadab.

Amminadab was the father of Nahshon.

Nahshon was the father of Salmon.

⁵ Salmon was the father of Boaz. (His mother was Rahab.)

Boaz was the father of Obed. (His mother was Ruth.)

Obed was the father of Jesse.

⁶ Jesse was the father of King David.

David was the father of Solomon. (His mother had been Uriah's wife.)

⁷ Solomon was the father of Rehoboam.

Rehoboam was the father of Abijah.

Abijah was the father of Asa.

⁸ Asa was the father of Jehoshaphat.

Jehoshaphat was the father of Jehoram.

Jehoram was the father of Uzziah.

⁹ Uzziah was the father of Jotham.

Jotham was the father of Ahaz.

Ahaz was the father of Hezekiah.

¹⁰ Hezekiah was the father of Manasseh.

Manasseh was the father of Amon.

Amon was the father of Josiah.

¹¹ Josiah was the grandfather of Jehoiachin* and his brothers, who lived during the time that the people were taken away to Babylon.

¹² After they were taken to Babylon:

Jehoiachin was the father of Shealtiel.

Shealtiel was the grandfather of Zerubbabel.

¹³ Zerubbabel was the father of Abiud.

Abiud was the father of Eliakim.

Eliakim was the father of Azor.

¹⁴ Azor was the father of Zadok.

Zadok was the father of Achim.

Achim was the father of Eliud.

¹⁵ Eliud was the father of Eleazar.

Eleazar was the father of Matthan.

Matthan was the father of Jacob.

¹⁶ Jacob was the father of Joseph.

Joseph was the husband of Mary, and Mary was the mother of Jesus, who is called the Messiah.

* 1:11 Jehoiachin Literally, "Jechoniah," another name for Jehoiachin.

¹⁷ So there were fourteen generations from Abraham to David. There were also fourteen generations from David until the people were taken away to Babylon. And there were fourteen more from the time the people were taken to Babylon until the Messiah was born.

The Birth of Jesus the Messiah
(Luke 2:1-7)

¹⁸ This is how the birth of Jesus the Messiah happened. His mother Mary was engaged to marry Joseph. But before they married, he learned that she was expecting a baby. (She was pregnant by the power of the Holy Spirit.) ¹⁹ Mary's husband, Joseph, was a good man. He did not want to cause her public disgrace, so he planned to divorce her secretly.

²⁰ But after Joseph thought about this, an angel from the Lord came to him in a dream. The angel said, "Joseph, son of David, don't be afraid to accept Mary to be your wife. The baby inside her is from the Holy Spirit. ²¹ She will give birth to a son. You will name him Jesus.† Give him that name because he will save his people from their sins."

²² All this happened to make clear the full meaning of what the Lord said through the prophet: ²³ "The virgin will be pregnant and will give birth to a son. They will name him Immanuel."☆ (Immanuel means "God with us.")

²⁴ When Joseph woke up, he did what the Lord's angel told him to do. He married Mary. ²⁵ But Joseph did not have sexual relations with her until her son was born. And he named him Jesus.

Wise Men Come to Visit Jesus

¹ Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem in Judea during the time when Herod was king. After Jesus was born, some wise men from the east came to Jerusalem. ² They asked people, "Where is the child who has been born to be the king of the Jews? We saw the star that shows he was born. We saw it rise in the sky in the east and have come to worship him."

³ When King Herod heard about this, it upset him as well as everyone else in Jerusalem. ⁴ Herod called a meeting of all the leading Jewish priests and teachers of the law. He asked them where the Messiah would be born. ⁵ They answered, "In the town of Bethlehem in Judea, just as the prophet wrote:

⁶ 'Bethlehem, in the land of Judah,
you are important among the rulers of Judah.
Yes, a ruler will come from you,
and that ruler will lead Israel, my people.' "

Micah 5:2

⁷ Then Herod had a private meeting with the wise men from the east. He learned from them the exact time they first saw the star. ⁸ Then he sent them to Bethlehem. He said, "Go and look carefully for the child. When you find him, come tell me. Then I can go worship him too."

⁹ After the wise men heard the king, they left. They saw the same star they had seen in the east, and they followed it. The star went before them until it stopped above the place where the child was. ¹⁰ They were very happy and excited to see the star.

¹¹ The wise men came to the house where the child was with his mother Mary. They bowed down and worshiped him. Then they opened the boxes of gifts they had brought for him. They gave him treasures of gold, frankincense, and myrrh. ¹² But God warned the wise men in a dream not to go back to Herod. So they went home to their own country a different way.

† 1:21 Jesus The name Jesus means "the LORD (YAHWEH) saves." ☆ 1:23 Quote from Isaiah 7:14.

Jesus' Parents Take Him to Egypt

¹³ After the wise men left, an angel from the Lord came to Joseph in a dream. The angel said, "Get up! Take the child with his mother and escape to Egypt. Herod wants to kill the child and will soon start looking for him. Stay in Egypt until I tell you to come back."

¹⁴ So Joseph got ready and left for Egypt with the child and the mother. They left during the night. ¹⁵ Joseph stayed in Egypt until Herod died. This gave full meaning to what the Lord said through the prophet: "I called my son to come out of Egypt."[☆]

Herod Kills the Baby Boys in Bethlehem

¹⁶ Herod saw that the wise men had fooled him, and he was very angry. So he gave an order to kill all the baby boys in Bethlehem and the whole area around Bethlehem. Herod had learned from the wise men the time the baby was born. It was now two years from that time. So he said to kill all the boys who were two years old and younger. ¹⁷ This gave full meaning to what God said through the prophet Jeremiah:

¹⁸ "A sound was heard in Ramah—
bitter crying and great sadness.
Rachel cries for her children,
and she cannot be comforted,
because her children are gone."

Jeremiah 31:15

Joseph and Mary Return From Egypt

¹⁹ While Joseph was in Egypt, Herod died. An angel from the Lord came to Joseph in a dream ²⁰ and said, "Get up! Take the child with his mother and go to Israel. Those who were trying to kill the child are now dead."

²¹ So Joseph took the child and the mother and went to Israel. ²² But he heard that Archelaus was now king in Judea. Archelaus became king when his father Herod died. So Joseph was afraid to go there. Then, after being warned in a dream, he went away to the area of Galilee. ²³ He went to a town called Nazareth and lived there. This gave full meaning to what God said through the prophets. God said the Messiah* would be called a Nazarene.[†]

John Prepares the Way for Jesus

(Mark 1:1-8; Luke 3:1-9, 15-17; John 1:19-28)

¹ When it was the right time, John the Baptizer began telling people a message from God. This was out in the desert area of Judea. ² John said, "Change your hearts and lives, because God's kingdom is now very near.*" ³ John is the one Isaiah the prophet was talking about when he said,

"There is someone shouting in the desert:
'Prepare the way for the Lord.
Make the road straight for him.' "

Isaiah 40:3

⁴ John's clothes were made from camel's hair, and he had a leather belt around his waist. For food, he ate locusts and wild honey. ⁵ People came to John from Jerusalem

[☆] 2:15 Quote from Hosea 11:1. ^{} 2:23 the Messiah Literally, "he." See "Messiah" in the Word List. [†] 2:23 Nazarene A person from the city of Nazareth. This name sounds like the Hebrew word for "branch." So Matthew may be referring to the promise of a "branch" of David's family. See Isaiah 11:1. ^{} 3:2 is now very near Or "is coming soon" or "has come."

and the rest of Judea and from all the areas along the Jordan River. ⁶ They confessed the bad things they had done, and John baptized them in the Jordan.

⁷ Many Pharisees and Sadducees came to where John was baptizing people. When John saw them, he said, “You are all snakes! Who warned you to run from God’s judgment that is coming? ⁸ Change your hearts! And show by the way you live that you have changed. ⁹ I know what you are thinking. You want to say, ‘but Abraham is our father!’ That means nothing. I tell you, God could make children for Abraham from these rocks. ¹⁰ The ax is now ready to cut down the trees.† Every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

¹¹ “I baptize you with water to show that you have changed your hearts and lives. But there is someone coming later who is able to do more than I can. I am not good enough to be the slave who takes off his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹² He will come ready to clean the grain.‡ He will separate the good grain from the straw, and he will put the good part into his barn. Then he will burn the useless part with a fire that cannot be stopped.”

Jesus Is Baptized by John
(Mark 1:9-11; Luke 3:21-22)

¹³ Then Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan River. He came to John, wanting John to baptize him. ¹⁴ But John tried to stop him. John said, “Why do you come to me to be baptized? I should be baptized by you!”

¹⁵ Jesus answered, “Let it be this way for now. We should do whatever God says is right.” Then John agreed.

¹⁶ So Jesus was baptized. As soon as he came up out of the water, the sky opened, and he saw God’s Spirit coming down on him like a dove. ¹⁷ A voice from heaven said, “This is my Son, the one I love. I am very pleased with him.”

4

The Temptation of Jesus
(Mark 1:12-13; Luke 4:1-13)

¹ Then the Spirit led Jesus into the desert. He was taken there to be tempted by the devil. ² Jesus ate nothing for 40 days and nights. After this, he was very hungry. ³ The devil* came to tempt him and said, “If you are the Son of God, tell these rocks to become bread.”

⁴ Jesus answered him, “The Scriptures say,

‘It is not just bread that keeps people alive.

Their lives depend on what God says.’ ”

Deuteronomy 8:3

⁵ Then the devil led Jesus to the holy city of Jerusalem and put him on a high place at the edge of the Temple area. ⁶ He said to Jesus, “If you are the Son of God, jump off, because the Scriptures say,

‘God will command his angels to help you,
and their hands will catch you,
so that you will not hit your foot on a rock.’ ”

Psalms 91:11-12

⁷ Jesus answered, “The Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the Lord your God.’ ”☆

† 3:10 trees The people who don’t obey God. They are like “trees” that will be cut down. ‡ 3:12 clean the grain Meaning that Jesus will separate the good people from those who are bad. * 4:3 The devil Literally, “The tempter.”

☆ 4:7 Quote from Deuteronomy 6:16.

⁸ Then the devil led Jesus to the top of a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and all the wonderful things in them. ⁹ The devil said, “If you will bow down and worship me, I will give you all these things.”

¹⁰ Jesus said to him, “Get away from me, Satan! The Scriptures say,

‘You must worship the Lord your God.
Serve only him!’ ”

Deuteronomy 6:13

¹¹ So the devil left him. Then some angels came to Jesus and helped him.

Jesus Begins His Work in Galilee

(Mark 1:14-15; Luke 4:14-15)

¹² Jesus heard that John was put in prison, so he went back to Galilee. ¹³ But he did not stay in Nazareth. He went to live in Capernaum, a town near Lake Galilee in the area near Zebulun and Naphtali. ¹⁴ He did this to give full meaning to what the prophet Isaiah said:

¹⁵ “Listen, land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, lands by the road that goes to the sea, the area past the Jordan River—
Galilee, where those from other nations live.

¹⁶ The people who live in spiritual darkness have seen a great light.

The light has shined for those who live in the land that is as dark as a grave.”

Isaiah 9:1-2

¹⁷ From that time Jesus began to tell people his message: “Change your hearts and lives, because God’s kingdom is now very near.†”

Jesus Chooses Some Followers

¹⁸ As Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon (called Peter) and Simon’s brother Andrew. These brothers were fishermen, and they were fishing in the lake with a net. ¹⁹ Jesus said to them, “Come, follow me, and I will make you a different kind of fishermen. You will bring in people, not fish.” ²⁰ Simon and Andrew immediately left their nets and followed him.

²¹ Jesus continued walking by Lake Galilee. He saw two other brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in a boat with their father Zebedee. They were preparing their nets to catch fish. Jesus told the brothers to come with him. ²² So they immediately left the boat and their father, and they followed Jesus.

Jesus Teaches and Heals the People

(Luke 6:17-19)

²³ Jesus went everywhere in the country of Galilee. He taught in the synagogues and told the Good News about God’s kingdom. And he healed all the people’s diseases and sicknesses. ²⁴ The news about Jesus spread all over Syria, and people brought to him all those who were sick. They were suffering from different kinds of diseases and pain. Some had demons inside them, some suffered from seizures, and some were paralyzed. Jesus healed them all. ²⁵ Large crowds followed him—people from Galilee, the Ten Towns, Jerusalem, Judea, and the area across the Jordan River.

Jesus Teaches the People

(Luke 6:20-23)

† 4:17 is now very near Or “is coming soon” or “has come.”

¹ When Jesus saw the crowds of people there, he went up on a hill and sat down. His followers came and sat next to him. ² Then Jesus began teaching the people. He said,

- ³ “Great blessings belong to those who know they are spiritually in need.*
God’s kingdom belongs to them.
- ⁴ Great blessings belong to those who are sad now.
God will comfort them.
- ⁵ Great blessings belong to those who are humble.
They will be given the land God promised.†
- ⁶ Great blessings belong to those who want to do right more than anything else.‡
God will fully satisfy them.
- ⁷ Great blessings belong to those who show mercy to others.
Mercy will be given to them.
- ⁸ Great blessings belong to those whose thoughts are pure.
They will be with God.
- ⁹ Great blessings belong to those who work to bring peace.
God will call them his sons and daughters.
- ¹⁰ Great blessings belong to those who suffer persecution for doing what is right.
God’s kingdom belongs to them.

¹¹ “People will insult you and hurt you. They will lie and say all kinds of evil things about you because you follow me. But when they do that, know that great blessings belong to you. ¹² Be happy about it. Be very glad because you have a great reward waiting for you in heaven. People did these same bad things to the prophets who lived before you.

You Are Like Salt and Light
(Mark 9:50; 4:21; Luke 14:34-35; 8:16)

¹³ “You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its taste, it cannot be made salty again. Salt is useless if it loses its salty taste. It will be thrown out where people will just walk on it.

¹⁴ “You are the light that shines for the world to see. You are like a city built on a hill that cannot be hidden. ¹⁵ People don’t hide a lamp under a bowl. They put it on a lampstand. Then the light shines for everyone in the house. ¹⁶ In the same way, you should be a light for other people. Live so that they will see the good things you do and praise your Father in heaven.

Jesus and the Old Testament Writings

¹⁷ “Don’t think that I have come to destroy the Law of Moses or the teaching of the prophets. I have come not to destroy their teachings but to give full meaning to them. ¹⁸ I assure you that nothing will disappear from the law until heaven and earth are gone. The law will not lose even the smallest letter or the smallest part of a letter until it has all been done.

¹⁹ “A person should obey every command in the law, even one that does not seem important. Whoever refuses to obey any command and teaches others not to obey it will be the least important in God’s kingdom. But whoever obeys the law and teaches others to obey it will be great in God’s kingdom. ²⁰ I tell you that you must do better than the teachers of the law and the Pharisees. If you are not more pleasing to God than they are, you will never enter God’s kingdom.

* 5:3 those ... in need Literally, “the poor in spirit.” † 5:5 They will ... promised This is the meaning of these words in Psalm 37:11. Here, they probably refer to a spiritual “promised land,” but they can also mean “The earth will belong to them.” ‡ 5:6 want ... more than anything else Literally, “hunger and thirst for righteousness.”

Jesus Teaches About Anger

²¹ “You have heard that it was said to our people long ago, ‘You must not murder anyone.’[☆] Any person who commits murder will be judged.’²² But I tell you, don’t be angry with anyone. If you are angry with others, you will be judged. And if you insult someone, you will be judged by the high court. And if you call someone a fool, you will be in danger of the fire of hell.

²³ “So, what if you are offering your gift at the altar and remember that someone has something against you? ²⁴ Leave your gift there and go make peace with that person. Then come and offer your gift.

²⁵ “If anyone wants to take you to court, make friends with them quickly. Try to do that before you get to the court. If you don’t, they might hand you over to the judge. And the judge will hand you over to a guard, who will throw you into jail. ²⁶ I assure you that you will not leave there until you have paid everything you owe.

Jesus Teaches About Sexual Sin

²⁷ “You have heard that it was said, ‘You must not commit adultery.’[☆] ²⁸ But I tell you that if a man looks at a woman and wants to sin sexually with her, he has already committed that sin with her in his mind. ²⁹ If your right eye makes you sin, take it out and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body than to have your whole body thrown into hell. ³⁰ If your right hand makes you sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better to lose one part of your body than for your whole body to go into hell.

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

(Matthew 19:9; Mark 10:11-12; Luke 16:18)

³¹ “It was also said, ‘Any man who divorces his wife must give her a written notice of divorce.’[☆] ³² But I tell you that any man who divorces his wife, except for the problem of sexual sin, is causing his wife to be guilty of adultery. And whoever marries a divorced woman is guilty of adultery.

Jesus Teaches About Making Promises

³³ “You have heard that it was said to our people long ago, ‘When you make a vow, you must not break your promise. Keep the vows that you make to the Lord.’[§] ³⁴ But I tell you, when you make a promise, don’t try to make it stronger with a vow. Don’t make a vow using the name of heaven, because heaven is God’s throne. ³⁵ Don’t make a vow using the name of the earth, because the earth belongs to him.* Don’t make a vow using the name of Jerusalem, because it also belongs to him, the great King. ³⁶ And don’t even say that your own head is proof that you will keep your promise. You cannot make one hair on your head white or black. ³⁷ Say only ‘yes’ if you mean ‘yes,’ and say only ‘no’ if you mean ‘no.’ If you say more than that, it is from the Evil One.

Jesus Teaches About Fighting Back

(Luke 6:29-30)

³⁸ “You have heard that it was said, ‘An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.’[☆] ³⁹ But I tell you, don’t fight back against someone who wants to do harm to you. If they hit you on the right cheek, let them hit the other cheek too. ⁴⁰ If anyone wants to sue you in court and take your shirt, let them have your coat too. ⁴¹ If a soldier forces you to walk with him one mile,[†] go with him two. ⁴² Give to anyone who asks you for something. Don’t refuse to give to anyone who wants to borrow from you.

[☆] 5:31 Quote from Deuteronomy 24:1. [§] 5:33 See Leviticus 19:12; Num. 30:2; Deuteronomy 23:21. ^{*} 5:35 the earth ... him Literally, “it is the footstool of his feet.” [☆] 5:38 Quote from Exodus 21:24; Leviticus 24:20. [†] 5:41 one mile Literally, “one milion,” about 1.5 km.

Love Your Enemies
(Luke 6:27-28, 32-36)

⁴³ “You have heard that it was said, ‘Love your neighbor[☆] and hate your enemy.’ ⁴⁴ But I tell you, love your enemies. Pray for those who treat you badly. ⁴⁵ If you do this, you will be children who are truly like your Father in heaven. He lets the sun rise for all people, whether they are good or bad. He sends rain to those who do right and to those who do wrong. ⁴⁶ If you love only those who love you, why should you get a reward for that? Even the tax collectors do that. ⁴⁷ And if you are nice only to your friends, you are no better than anyone else. Even the people who don’t know God are nice to their friends. ⁴⁸ What I am saying is that you must be perfect, just as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Jesus Teaches About Giving

¹ “Be careful! When you do something good, don’t do it in front of others so that they will see you. If you do that, you will have no reward from your Father in heaven.

² “When you give to those who are poor, don’t announce that you are giving. Don’t be like the hypocrites. When they are in the synagogues and on the streets, they blow trumpets before they give so that people will see them. They want everyone to praise them. The truth is, that’s all the reward they will get. ³ So when you give to the poor, don’t let anyone know what you are doing.* ⁴ Your giving should be done in private. Your Father can see what is done in private, and he will reward you.

Jesus Teaches About Prayer
(Luke 11:2-4)

⁵ “When you pray, don’t be like the hypocrites. They love to stand in the synagogues and on the street corners and pray loudly. They want people to see them. The truth is, that’s all the reward they will get. ⁶ But when you pray, you should go into your room and close the door. Then pray to your Father. He is there in that private place. He can see what is done in private, and he will reward you.

⁷ “And when you pray, don’t be like the people who don’t know God. They say the same things again and again. They think that if they say it enough, their god will hear them. ⁸ Don’t be like them. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him. ⁹ So this is how you should pray:

‘Our Father in heaven,
we pray that your name will always be kept holy.
¹⁰ We pray that your kingdom will come—that what you want will be done here on earth, the same as in heaven.
¹¹ Give us the food we need for today.
¹² Forgive our sins,
just as we have forgiven those who did wrong to us.
¹³ Don’t let us be tempted, but save us from the Evil One.’†

¹⁴ Yes, if you forgive others for the wrongs they do to you, then your Father in heaven will also forgive your wrongs. ¹⁵ But if you don’t forgive others, then your Father in heaven will not forgive the wrongs you do.

Jesus Teaches About Fasting

[☆] 5:43 Quote from Leviticus 19:18. ^{*} 6:3 don’t ... doing Literally, “don’t let your left hand know what your right hand is doing.” † 6:13 Some Greek copies add: “For the kingdom and the power and the glory belong to you forever and ever. Amen.”

¹⁶ “When you fast, don’t make yourselves look sad like the hypocrites. They put a look of suffering on their faces so that people will see they are fasting. The truth is, that’s all the reward they will get. ¹⁷ So when you fast, wash your face and make yourself look nice. ¹⁸ Then no one will know you are fasting, except your Father, who is with you even in private. He can see what is done in private, and he will reward you.

You Cannot Serve Two Masters
(Luke 12:33-34; 11:34-36; 16:13)

¹⁹ “Don’t save treasures for yourselves here on earth. Moths and rust will destroy them. And thieves can break into your house and steal them. ²⁰ Instead, save your treasures in heaven, where they cannot be destroyed by moths or rust and where thieves cannot break in and steal them. ²¹ Your heart will be where your treasure is.

²² “The only source of light for the body is the eye. If you look at people and want to help them, you will be full of light. ²³ But if you look at people in a selfish way, you will be full of darkness. And if the only light you have is really darkness, you have the worst kind of darkness.‡

²⁴ “You cannot serve two masters at the same time. You will hate one and love the other, or you will be loyal to one and not care about the other. You cannot serve God and Money§ at the same time.

Put God’s Kingdom First

²⁵ “So I tell you, don’t worry about the things you need to live—what you will eat, drink, or wear. Life is more important than food, and the body is more important than what you put on it. ²⁶ Look at the birds. They don’t plant, harvest, or save food in barns, but your heavenly Father feeds them. Don’t you know you are worth much more than they are? ²⁷ You cannot add any time to your life by worrying about it.

³¹ “Don’t worry and say, ‘What will we eat?’ or ‘What will we drink?’ or ‘What will we wear?’ ³² That’s what those people who don’t know God are always thinking about. Don’t worry, because your Father in heaven knows that you need all these things. ³³ What you should want most is God’s kingdom and doing what he wants you to do. Then he will give you all these other things you need. ³⁴ So don’t worry about tomorrow. Each day has enough trouble of its own. Tomorrow will have its own worries.

Be Careful About Criticizing Others
(Luke 6:37-38, 41-42)

¹ “Don’t judge others, and God will not judge you. ² If you judge others, you will be judged the same way you judge them. God will treat you the same way you treat others.

³ “Why do you notice the small piece of dust that is in your friend’s eye, but you don’t notice the big piece of wood that is in your own? ⁴ Why do you say to your friend, ‘Let me take that piece of dust out of your eye?’ Look at yourself first! You still have that big

‡ 6:23 Literally, “22 The lamp of the body is the eye. So, if your eye is pure, your whole body will be full of light. 23 But if your eye is evil, your whole body will be dark. So, if the light in you is darkness, how much is the darkness.”

piece of wood in your own eye. ⁵ You are a hypocrite! First, take the wood out of your own eye. Then you will see clearly to get the dust out of your friend's eye.

⁶ "Don't give something that is holy to dogs. They will only turn and hurt you. And don't throw your pearls to pigs. They will only step on them.

Ask God for What You Need

(Luke 11:9-13)

⁷ "Continue to ask, and God will give to you. Continue to search, and you will find. Continue to knock, and the door will open for you. ⁸ Yes, whoever continues to ask will receive. Whoever continues to look will find. And whoever continues to knock will have the door opened for them.

⁹ "Do any of you have a son? If he asked for bread, would you give him a rock? ¹⁰ Or if he asked for a fish, would you give him a snake? Of course not! ¹¹ You people are so bad, but you still know how to give good things to your children. So surely your heavenly Father will give good things to those who ask him.

A Very Important Rule

¹² "Do for others what you would want them to do for you. This is the meaning of the Law of Moses and the teaching of the prophets.

The Way to Heaven and the Way to Hell

(Luke 13:24)

¹³ "You can enter true life only through the narrow gate. The gate to hell is very wide, and there is plenty of room on the road that leads there. Many people go that way. ¹⁴ But the gate that opens the way to true life is narrow. And the road that leads there is hard to follow. Only a few people find it.

What People Do Shows What They Are

²¹ "Not everyone who calls me Lord will enter God's kingdom. The only people who will enter are those who do what my Father in heaven wants. ²² On that last Day many will call me Lord. They will say, 'Lord, Lord, by the power of your name we spoke for God. And by your name we forced out demons and did many miracles.' ²³ Then I will tell those people clearly, 'Get away from me, you people who do wrong. I never knew you.'

Two Kinds of People

²⁴ "Whoever hears these teachings of mine and obeys them is like a wise man who built his house on rock. ²⁵ It rained hard, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house. But it did not fall because it was built on rock.

²⁶ "Whoever hears these teachings of mine and does not obey them is like a foolish man who built his house on sand. ²⁷ It rained hard, the floods came, and the winds blew and beat against that house. And it fell with a loud crash."

²⁸ When Jesus finished speaking, the people were amazed at his teaching. ²⁹ He did not teach like their teachers of the law. He taught like someone who has authority.

* ^{7:20} by what they do Literally, "by their fruits."

Jesus Heals a Sick Man(Mark 1:40-45; Luke 5:12-16)

¹ Jesus came down from the hill, and a large crowd followed him. ² Then a man sick with leprosy came to him. The man bowed down before Jesus and said, “Lord, you have the power to heal me if you want.”

³ Jesus touched the man. He said, “I want to heal you. Be healed!” Immediately the man was healed from his leprosy. ⁴ Then Jesus said to him, “Don’t tell anyone about what happened. But go and let the priest look at you.* And offer the gift that Moses commanded for people who are made well. This will show everyone that you are healed.”

Jesus Heals an Officer’s Servant(Luke 7:1-10; John 4:43-54)

⁵ Jesus went to the city of Capernaum. When he entered the city, an army officer came to him and begged for help. ⁶ The officer said, “Lord, my servant is very sick at home in bed. He can’t move his body and has much pain.”

⁷ Jesus said to the officer, “I will go and heal him.”

⁸ The officer answered, “Lord, I am not good enough for you to come into my house. You need only to give the order, and my servant will be healed. ⁹ I know this, because I understand authority. There are people who have authority over me, and I have soldiers under my authority. I tell one soldier, ‘Go,’ and he goes. I tell another soldier, ‘Come,’ and he comes. I say to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and my servant obeys me.”

¹⁰ When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. He said to those who were with him, “The truth is, this man has more faith than anyone I have found, even in Israel. ¹¹ Many people will come from the east and from the west. These people will sit and eat with Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob in God’s kingdom. ¹² And those who should have the kingdom will be thrown out. They will be thrown outside into the darkness, where people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.”

¹³ Then Jesus said to the officer, “Go home. Your servant will be healed the way you believed he would.” Right then his servant was healed.

Jesus Heals Many People(Mark 1:29-34; Luke 4:38-41)

¹⁴ Jesus went to Peter’s house. He saw that Peter’s mother-in-law was in bed with a high fever. ¹⁵ He touched her hand, and the fever left her. Then she stood up and began to serve him.

¹⁶ That evening people brought to Jesus many people who had demons inside them. He spoke and the demons left the people. He healed all those who were sick. ¹⁷ So Jesus made clear the full meaning of what Isaiah the prophet said:

“He took away our diseases and carried away our sicknesses.”

Isaiah 53:4Following Jesus(Luke 9:57-62)

¹⁸ When Jesus saw the crowd around him, he told his followers to go to the other side of the lake. ¹⁹ Then a teacher of the law came to him and said, “Teacher, I will follow you any place you go.”

²⁰ Jesus said to him, “The foxes have holes to live in. The birds have nests. But the Son of Man has no place to rest.”

²¹ Another of Jesus’ followers said to him, “Lord, I will follow you too, but let me go and bury my father first.”

* 8:4 let the priest look at you The Law of Moses said a priest must decide when a person with leprosy was well.

²² But Jesus said to him, “Follow me, and let those who are dead bury their own dead.”

Jesus' Followers See His Power

²³ Jesus got into a boat, and his followers went with him. ²⁴ After the boat left the shore, a very bad storm began on the lake. The waves covered the boat. But Jesus was sleeping. ²⁵ The followers went to him and woke him. They said, “Lord, save us! We will drown!”

²⁶ Jesus answered, “Why are you afraid? You don’t have enough faith.” Then he stood up and gave a command to the wind and the water. The wind stopped, and the lake became very calm.

²⁷ The men were amazed. They said, “What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the water obey him!”

Jesus Sends Demons Out of Two Men

(Mark 5:1-20; Luke 8:26-39)

²⁸ Jesus arrived at the other side of the lake in the country of the Gadarene[†] people. There, two men who had demons inside them came to him. They lived in the burial caves and were so dangerous that no one could use the road by those caves. ²⁹ They came to Jesus and shouted, “What do you want with us, Son of God? Did you come here to punish us before the right time?”

³² Jesus said to them, “Go!” So the demons left the men and went into the pigs. Then the whole herd of pigs ran down the hill into the lake, and all were drowned. ³³ The men who had the work of caring for the pigs ran away. They went into town and told the people everything that happened, especially about the men who had the demons. ³⁴ Then the whole town went out to see Jesus. When the people saw him, they begged him to leave their area.

9

Jesus Heals a Crippled Man

(Mark 2:1-12; Luke 5:17-26)

¹ Jesus got into a boat and went back across the lake to his own town. ² Some people brought to him a man who was paralyzed and was lying on a mat. Jesus saw that these people had much faith. So he said to the paralyzed man, “Young man, you will be glad to hear this. Your sins are forgiven.”

³ Some of the teachers of the law heard what Jesus said. They said to themselves, “What an insult to God for this man to say that!”

⁴ Jesus knew what they were thinking. So he said, “Why are you thinking such evil thoughts? ⁵⁻⁶ The Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins. But how can I prove this to you? Maybe you are thinking it was easy for me to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven.’ There’s no proof that it really happened. But what if I say to the man, ‘Stand up and walk’? Then you will be able to see that I really have this power.” So Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “Stand up. Take your mat and go home.”

⁷ The man stood up and went home. ⁸ The people saw this and they were amazed. They praised God for letting someone have such power.

Matthew (Levi) Follows Jesus

(Mark 2:13-17; Luke 5:27-32)

⁹ When Jesus was leaving, he saw a man named Matthew sitting at the place for collecting taxes. Jesus said to him, “Follow me.” So he got up and followed Jesus.

[†] 8:28 Gadarene From Gadara, an area southeast of Lake Galilee.

¹⁰ Jesus ate dinner at Matthew's house. Many tax collectors and others with bad reputations came and ate with him and his followers. ¹¹ The Pharisees saw that Jesus was eating with these people. They asked his followers, "Why does your teacher eat with tax collectors and other sinners?"

¹² Jesus heard them say this. So he said to them, "It is the sick people who need a doctor, not those who are healthy. ¹³ You need to go and learn what this Scripture means: 'I don't want animal sacrifices; I want you to show kindness to people.'[☆] I did not come to invite good people. I came to invite sinners."

*Jesus Is Not Like
Other Religious Leaders*

(Mark 2:18-22; Luke 5:33-39)

¹⁴ Then the followers of John came to Jesus and said, "We and the Pharisees fast often, but your followers don't ever fast. Why?"

¹⁵ Jesus answered, "At a wedding the friends of the bridegroom are not sad while he is with them. They cannot fast then. But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them. Then they will fast.

¹⁶ "When someone sews a patch over a hole in an old coat, they never use a piece of cloth that has not already been shrunk. If they do, the patch will shrink and pull away from the coat. Then the hole will be worse. ¹⁷ Also, people never pour new wine into old wineskins. They would break, the wine would spill out, and the wineskins would be ruined. People always put new wine into new wineskins, which won't break, and the wine stays good."

*Jesus Gives Life to a Dead Girl
and Heals a Sick Woman*

(Mark 5:21-43; Luke 8:40-56)

¹⁸ While Jesus was still talking, a leader of the synagogue came to him. The leader bowed down before him and said, "My daughter has just died. But if you will come and touch her with your hand, she will live again."

¹⁹ So Jesus and his followers went with the man.

²⁰ On the way, there was a woman who had been bleeding for twelve years. She came close behind Jesus and touched the bottom of his coat. ²¹ She was thinking, "If I can touch his coat, I will be healed."

²² Jesus turned and saw the woman. He said, "Be happy, dear woman. You are made well because you believed." Then the woman was healed.

²³ Jesus continued going with the Jewish leader and went into the leader's house. He saw people there who make music for funerals. And he saw a crowd of people crying loudly. ²⁴ Jesus said, "Go away. The girl is not dead. She is only sleeping." But the people laughed at him. ²⁵ After the people were put out of the house, Jesus went into the girl's room. He held the girl's hand, and the girl stood up. ²⁶ The news about this spread all around the area.

Jesus Heals More People

²⁷ As Jesus was going away from there, two blind men followed him. They said loudly, "Show kindness to us, Son of David."

²⁸ Jesus went inside, and the blind men went with him. He asked them, "Do you believe that I am able to make you see again?" They answered, "Yes, Lord, we believe."

²⁹ Then Jesus touched their eyes and said, "You believe that I can make you see again, so it will happen." ³⁰ Then the men were able to see. Jesus gave them a strong warning. He said, "Don't tell anyone about this." ³¹ But they left and spread the news about Jesus all around that area.

[☆] 9:13 Quote from Hosea 6:6.

³² As these two men were leaving, some people brought another man to Jesus. This man could not talk because he had a demon inside him. ³³ Jesus forced the demon out, and the man was able to talk. The people were amazed and said, “We have never seen anything like this in Israel.”

³⁴ But the Pharisees said, “The ruler of demons is the one that gives him power to force demons out.”

Jesus Feels Sorry for the People

³⁵ Jesus traveled through all the towns and villages. He taught in their synagogues and told people the Good News about God’s kingdom. He healed all kinds of diseases and sicknesses. ³⁶ Jesus saw the many people and felt sorry for them because they were worried and helpless—like sheep without a shepherd to lead them. ³⁷ Jesus said to his followers, “There is such a big harvest of people to bring in. But there are only a few workers to help harvest them. ³⁸ God owns the harvest. Ask him to send more workers to help gather his harvest.”

Jesus Sends His Apostles on a Mission

(Mark 3:13-19; 6:7-13; Luke 6:12-16; 9:1-6)

¹ Jesus called his twelve followers together. He gave them power over evil spirits and power to heal every kind of disease and sickness. ² These are the names of the twelve apostles:

Simon (also called Peter),
 Andrew, the brother of Peter,
 James, the son of Zebedee,
 John, the brother of James,
³ Philip,
 Bartholomew,
 Thomas,
 Matthew, the tax collector,
 James, the son of Alphaeus,
 Thaddaeus,
⁴ Simon, the Zealot,
 Judas Iscariot (the one who handed Jesus over to his enemies).

⁵ Jesus sent the twelve men out with these instructions: “Don’t go to the non-Jewish people. And don’t go into any town where the Samaritans live. ⁶ But go to the people of Israel. They are like sheep that are lost. ⁷ When you go, tell them this: ‘God’s kingdom is now very near.*’ ⁸ Heal the sick. Bring the dead back to life. Heal the people who have leprosy. And force demons out of people. I give you these powers freely, so help others freely. ⁹ Don’t carry any money with you—gold or silver or copper. ¹⁰ Don’t carry a bag. Take only the clothes and sandals you are wearing. And don’t take a walking stick. A worker should be given what he needs.

¹¹ “When you enter a city or town, find some worthy person there and stay in his home until you leave. ¹² When you enter that home, say, ‘Peace be with you.’ ¹³ If the people in that home welcome you, they are worthy of your peace. May they have the peace you wished for them. But if they don’t welcome you, they are not worthy of your peace. Take back the peace you wished for them. ¹⁴ And if the people in a home or a town refuse to welcome you or listen to you, then leave that place and shake the dust off your feet.[†] ¹⁵ I can assure you that on the judgment day it will be worse for that town than for the people of Sodom and Gomorrah.

Jesus Warns About Troubles

¹⁶ “Listen! I am sending you, and you will be like sheep among wolves. So be smart like snakes. But also be like doves and don’t hurt anyone. ¹⁷ Be careful! There are people who will arrest you and take you to be judged. They will whip you in their synagogues. ¹⁸ You will be taken to stand before governors and kings. People will do this to you because you follow me. You will tell about me to those kings and governors and to the non-Jewish people. ¹⁹ When you are arrested, don’t worry about what to say or how you should say it. At that time you will be given the words to say. ²⁰ It will not really be you speaking; the Spirit of your Father will be speaking through you.

²¹ “Brothers will turn against their own brothers and hand them over to be killed. Fathers will hand over their own children to be killed. Children will fight against their own parents and will have them killed. ²² Everyone will hate you because you follow me. But the one who remains faithful to the end will be saved. ²³ When you are treated badly in one city, go to another city. I promise you that you will not finish going to all the cities of Israel before the Son of Man comes again.

²⁴ “Students are not better than their teacher. Servants are not better than their master. ²⁵ Students should be happy to be treated the same as their teacher. And servants should be happy to be treated the same as their master. If those people call me ‘the ruler of demons,’ and I am the head of the family,[‡] then it is even more certain that they will insult you, the members of the family!

Fear God, Not People
(Luke 12:2-7)

²⁶ “So don’t be afraid of those people. Everything that is hidden will be shown. Everything that is secret will be made known. ²⁷ I tell you all this secretly,[§] but I want you to tell it publicly.* Whatever I tell you privately,[†] you should shout for everyone to hear.[‡]

²⁸ “Don’t be afraid of people. They can kill the body, but they cannot kill the soul. The only one you should fear is God, the one who can send the body and the soul to be destroyed in hell. ²⁹ When birds are sold, two small birds cost only a penny. But not even one of those little birds can die without your Father knowing it. ³⁰ God even knows how many hairs are on your head. ³¹ So don’t be afraid. You are worth more than a whole flock of birds.

Don’t Be Ashamed of Your Faith
(Luke 12:8-9)

³² “If you stand before others and are willing to say you believe in me, then I will tell my Father in heaven that you belong to me. ³³ But if you stand before others and say you do not believe in me, then I will tell my Father in heaven that you do not belong to me.

Following Jesus May Bring You Trouble
(Luke 12:51-53; 14:26-27)

³⁴ “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I did not come to bring peace. I came to bring trouble.[§] ³⁵ I have come to make this happen:

‘A son will turn against his father.

[†] 10:14 shake the dust off your feet A warning. It would show that they were finished talking to these people.

[‡] 10:25 call me ... family Literally, “call the head of the household Beelzebul.” See verse 9:34. [§] 10:27 secretly Literally, “in the dark.” * 10:27 publicly Literally, “in the light.” [†] 10:27 privately Literally, “in the ear.”

[‡] 10:27 for everyone to hear Literally, “on the housetops.” [§] 10:34 trouble Literally, “a sword.”

A daughter will turn against her mother.
A daughter-in-law will turn against her mother-in-law.

³⁶ Even members of your own family will be your enemies.'

Micah 7:6

³⁷ "Those who love their father or mother more than they love me are not worthy of me. And those who love their son or daughter more than they love me are not worthy of me. ³⁸ Those who will not accept the cross that is given to them when they follow me are not worthy of me. ³⁹ Those who try to keep the life they have will lose it. But those who give up their life for me will find true life.

God Will Bless Those Who Welcome You
(Mark 9:41)

⁴⁰ "Whoever accepts you also accepts me. And whoever accepts me accepts the one who sent me. ⁴¹ Whoever accepts a prophet because he is a prophet will get the same reward a prophet gets. And whoever accepts a godly person just because that person is godly will get the same reward a godly person gets. ⁴² Whoever helps any of these little ones because they are my followers will definitely get a reward, even if they only give them a cup of cold water."

John Sends Men to Ask Jesus a Question
(Luke 7:18-35)

¹ When Jesus finished these instructions for his twelve followers, he left there. He went to the towns in Galilee to teach the people and tell them God's message.

² When John was in prison, he heard about the things that were happening—things the Messiah would do. So he sent some of his followers to Jesus. ³ They asked him, "Are you the one we have been expecting, or should we wait for someone else?"

⁴ Jesus answered, "Go tell John what you have heard and seen: ⁵ The blind can see. The crippled can walk. People with leprosy are healed. The deaf can hear. The dead are brought back to life. And the Good News is being told to the poor. ⁶ Great blessings belong to those who don't have a problem accepting me."

⁷ When John's followers left, Jesus began talking to the people about John. He said, "What did you people go out to the desert to see? Someone who is weak, like a stem of grass* blowing in the wind? ⁸ Really, what did you expect to see? Someone dressed in fine clothes? Of course not. People who wear fine clothes are all in kings' palaces. ⁹ So what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, John is a prophet. But I tell you, he is more than that. ¹⁰ This Scripture was written about him:

'Listen! I will send my messenger ahead of you.
He will prepare the way for you.'

Malachi 3:1

¹¹ "The truth is that John the Baptizer is greater than anyone who has ever come into this world. But even the least important person in God's kingdom is greater than John. ¹² Since the time John the Baptizer came until now, God's kingdom has been going forward strongly.† And people have been trying to take control of it by force. ¹³ Before John came, the Law of Moses and all the prophets told about the things that would happen. ¹⁴ And if you believe what they said, then John is Elijah.‡ He is the one they said would come. ¹⁵ You people who hear me, listen!

* 11:7 stem of grass Literally, "reed." † 11:12 has been ... strongly Or "has suffered violence." ‡ 11:14 Elijah See Mal. 4:5-6.

¹⁶ “What can I say about the people who live today? What are they like? The people today are like children sitting in the marketplace. One group of children calls to the other group,

¹⁷ ‘We played flute music for you,
but you did not dance;
we sang a funeral song,
but you were not sad.’

¹⁸ Why do I say people are like that? Because John came, not eating like other people or drinking wine, and people say, ‘He has a demon inside him.’ ¹⁹ The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and people say, ‘Look at him! He eats too much and drinks too much wine. He’s a friend of tax collectors and other sinners.’ But wisdom is shown to be right by what it does.”

*Jesus Warns People Who Refuse to Believe
(Luke 10:13-15)*

²⁰ Then Jesus criticized the cities where he did most of his miracles. He criticized these cities because the people there did not change their lives and stop sinning. ²¹ Jesus said, “It will be bad for you Chorazin! It will be bad for you Bethsaida! I did many miracles in you. If these same miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon, the people there would have changed their lives a long time ago. They would have worn sackcloth and put ashes on themselves to show that they were sorry for their sins. ²² But I tell you, on the day of judgment it will be worse for you than for Tyre and Sidon.

²³ “And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to heaven? No! You will be thrown down to the place of death. I did many miracles in you. If these same miracles had happened in Sodom, the people there would have stopped sinning, and it would still be a city today. ²⁴ But I tell you, it will be worse for you in the day of judgment than for Sodom.”

*Jesus Offers Rest to His People
(Luke 10:21-22)*

²⁵ Then Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. I am thankful that you have hidden these things from those who are so wise and so smart. But you have shown them to people who are like little children. ²⁶ Yes, Father, you did this because it’s what you really wanted to do.

²⁷ “My Father has given me everything. No one knows the Son—only the Father knows the Son. And no one knows the Father—only the Son knows the Father. And the only people who will know about the Father are those the Son chooses to tell.

²⁸ “Come to me all of you who are tired from the heavy burden you have been forced to carry. I will give you rest. ²⁹ Accept my teaching. § Learn from me. I am gentle and humble in spirit. And you will be able to get some rest. ³⁰ Yes, the teaching that I ask you to accept is easy. The load I give you to carry is light.”

*Jesus Is Lord Over the Sabbath Day
(Mark 2:23-28; Luke 6:1-5)*

§ 11:29 Accept my teaching Literally, “Take my yoke upon you.” A yoke was put on the neck of a work animal for pulling a load. It was a Jewish symbol for the law. See Acts 15:10; Gal. 5:1.

³ Jesus said to them, “You have read what David did when he and those with him were hungry. ⁴ David went into God’s house. He and those with him ate the bread that was offered to God. It was against the law for David or those with him to eat that bread. Only the priests were allowed to eat it. ⁵ And you have read in the Law of Moses that on every Sabbath day the priests at the Temple break the law about the Sabbath day. But they are not wrong for doing that. ⁶ I tell you that there is something here that is greater than the Temple. ⁷ The Scriptures say, ‘I don’t want animal sacrifices; I want you to show kindness to people.’[☆] You don’t really know what that means. If you understood it, you would not judge those who have done nothing wrong.

⁸ “The Son of Man is Lord over the Sabbath day.”

Jesus Heals a Man on the Sabbath Day

(Mark 3:1-6; Luke 6:6-11)

⁹ Jesus went from there to their synagogue. ¹⁰ In the synagogue there was a man with a crippled hand. Some Jews there were looking for a reason to accuse Jesus of doing wrong. So they asked him, “Is it right to heal on the Sabbath day?”*

¹¹ Jesus answered, “If any of you has a sheep and it falls into a ditch on the Sabbath day, you will take the sheep and help it out of the ditch. ¹² Surely a man is more important than a sheep. So it is right to do good on the Sabbath day.”

¹³ Then Jesus said to the man with the crippled hand, “Hold out your hand.” The man held out his hand, and it became well again, the same as the other hand. ¹⁴ But the Pharisees left and made plans to kill Jesus.

Jesus Is God’s Chosen Servant

¹⁵ Jesus knew what the Pharisees were planning. So he left that place, and many people followed him. He healed all who were sick, ¹⁶ but he warned them not to tell others who he was. ¹⁷ This was to give full meaning to what Isaiah the prophet said when he spoke for God:

¹⁸ “Here is my servant,
the one I have chosen.

He is the one I love,
and I am very pleased with him.

I will fill him with my Spirit,
and he will bring justice to the nations.

¹⁹ He will not argue or shout;
no one will hear his voice in the streets.

²⁰ He will not break off even a bent stem of grass.†
He will not put out even the weakest flame.

He will not give up until he has made justice victorious.

²¹ All people will hope in him.”

Isaiah 42:1-4

Jesus’ Power Is From God

(Mark 3:20-30; Luke 11:14-23; 12:10)

²² Then some people brought a man to Jesus. This man was blind and could not talk, because he had a demon inside him. Jesus healed the man, and he could talk and see. ²³ All the people were amazed at what Jesus did. They said, “Maybe he is the promised Son of David!”

²⁴ When the Pharisees heard this, they said, “This man uses the power of Satan‡ to force demons out of people. Satan is the ruler of demons.”

☆ 12:7 Quote from Hosea 6:6. * 12:10 “Is it right ... day” It was against Jewish law to work on the Sabbath day.

† 12:20 stem of grass Literally, “reed.” ‡ 12:24 Satan Literally, “Beelzebul” (the devil). Also in verse 27.

²⁵ Jesus knew what the Pharisees were thinking. So he said to them, “Every kingdom that fights against itself will be destroyed. And every city or family that is divided against itself will not survive. ²⁶ So if Satan forces out his own demons,[§] then he is fighting against himself, and his kingdom will not survive. ²⁷ You say that I use the power of Satan to force out demons. If that is true, then what power do your people use when they force out demons? So your own people will prove that you are wrong. ²⁸ But I use the power of God’s Spirit to force out demons, and this shows that God’s kingdom has come to you. ²⁹ Whoever wants to enter a strong man’s house and steal his things must first tie him up. Then they can steal the things from his house. ³⁰ Whoever is not with me is against me. And anyone who does not work with me is working against me.

³¹ “So I tell you, people can be forgiven for every sinful thing they do and for every bad thing they say against God. But anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven. ³² You can even speak against the Son of Man and be forgiven. But anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven—not now or in the future.

What You Do Shows What You Are
(Luke 6:43-45)

³³ “If you want good fruit, you must make the tree good. If your tree is not good, it will have bad fruit. A tree is known by the kind of fruit it produces. ³⁴ You snakes! You are so evil. How can you say anything good? What people say with their mouths comes from what fills their hearts. ³⁵ Those who are good have good things saved in their hearts. That’s why they say good things. But those who are evil have hearts full of evil, and that’s why they say things that are evil. ³⁶ I tell you that everyone will have to answer for all the careless things they have said. This will happen on the day of judgment. ³⁷ Your words will be used to judge you. What you have said will show whether you are right or whether you are guilty.”

Some People Doubt Jesus’ Authority
(Mark 8:11-12; Luke 11:29-32)

³⁸ Then some of the Pharisees and teachers of the law answered Jesus. They said, “Teacher, we want to see you do a miracle as a sign from God.”

³⁹ Jesus answered, “Evil and sinful people are the ones who want to see a miracle as a sign. But no miracle will be done to prove anything to them. The only sign will be the miracle that happened to the prophet Jonah.* ⁴⁰ Jonah was in the stomach of the big fish for three days and three nights. In the same way, the Son of Man will be in the grave three days and three nights. ⁴¹ On the judgment day, you people who live now will be compared with the people from Nineveh,[†] and they will be witnesses who show how guilty you are. Why do I say this? Because when Jonah preached to those people, they changed their lives. And you are listening to someone greater than Jonah, but you refuse to change!

⁴² “On the judgment day, you people who live now will also be compared with the Queen of the South,[‡] and she will be a witness who shows how guilty you are. I say this because she traveled from far, far away to listen to Solomon’s wise teaching. And I tell you that someone greater than Solomon is right here, but you won’t listen!

The Danger of Emptiness

⁴³ “When an evil spirit comes out of a person, it travels through dry places looking for a place to rest, but it finds none. ⁴⁴ So it says, ‘I will go back to the home I left.’ When it comes back, it finds that home still empty. It is all neat and clean. ⁴⁵ Then the evil spirit goes out and brings seven other spirits more evil than itself. They all go and live there, and that person has even more trouble than before. It is the same way with the evil people who live today.”

§ 12:26 if Satan ... demons Literally, “if Satan forces out Satan.” * 12:39 Jonah The story of Jonah is found in the Old Testament book of Jonah. † 12:41 Nineveh City where Jonah preached. See Jonah 3. ‡ 12:42 Queen of the South Or “Queen of Sheba.” She traveled about 1000 miles (1600 km) to learn God’s wisdom from Solomon. See 1 Kings 10:1-13.

Jesus' Followers Are His True Family

(Mark 3:31-35; Luke 8:19-21)

⁴⁶ While Jesus was talking to the people, his mother and brothers stood outside. They wanted to talk to him. ⁴⁷ Someone told him, “Your mother and brothers are waiting for you outside. They want to talk to you.”

⁴⁸ Jesus answered, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” ⁴⁹ Then he pointed to his followers and said, “See! These people are my mother and my brothers. ⁵⁰ Yes, anyone who does what my Father in heaven wants is my true brother and sister and mother.”

A Story About a Farmer Sowing Seed

(Mark 4:1-9; Luke 8:4-8)

¹ That same day Jesus went out of the house and sat by the lake. ² A large crowd gathered around him. So he got into a boat and sat down. All the people stayed on the shore. ³ Then Jesus used stories to teach them many things. He told them this story:

“A farmer went out to sow seed. ⁴ While he was scattering the seed, some of it fell by the road. The birds came and ate all that seed. ⁵ Other seed fell on rocky ground, where there was not enough dirt. It grew very fast there, because the soil was not deep. ⁶ But when the sun rose, it burned the plants. The plants died because they did not have deep roots. ⁷ Some other seed fell among thorny weeds. The weeds grew and stopped the good plants from growing. ⁸ But some of the seed fell on good ground. There it grew and made grain. Some plants made 100 times more grain, some 60 times more, and some 30 times more. ⁹ You people who hear me, listen!”

Why Jesus Used Stories to Teach

(Mark 4:10-12; Luke 8:9-10)

¹⁰ The followers came to Jesus and asked, “Why do you use these stories to teach the people?”

¹¹ Jesus answered, “Only you can know the secret truths about God’s kingdom. Those other people cannot know these secret truths. ¹² The people who have some understanding will be given more. And they will have even more than they need. But those who do not have much understanding will lose even the little understanding that they have. ¹³ This is why I use these stories to teach the people: They see, but they don’t really see. They hear, but they don’t really hear or understand. ¹⁴ So they show that what Isaiah said about them is true:

‘You people will listen and listen,
but you will not understand.

You will look and look,
but you will not really see.

¹⁵ Yes, the minds of these people are now closed.
They have ears, but they don’t listen.
They have eyes, but they refuse to see.

If their minds were not closed,
they might see with their eyes;
they might hear with their ears;

they might understand with their minds.

Then they might turn back to me and be healed.’

Isaiah 6:9-10

¹⁶ But God has blessed you. You understand what you see with your eyes. And you understand what you hear with your ears. ¹⁷ I can assure you, many prophets and godly people wanted to see what you now see. But they did not see it. And many prophets and godly people wanted to hear what you now hear. But they did not hear it.

Jesus Explains the Story About Seed
(Mark 4:13-20; Luke 8:11-15)

¹⁸ “So listen to the meaning of that story about the farmer:

¹⁹ “What about the seed that fell by the path? That is like the people who hear the teaching about God’s kingdom but do not understand it. The Evil One comes and takes away what was planted in their hearts.

²⁰ “And what about the seed that fell on rocky ground? That is like the people who hear the teaching and quickly and gladly accept it. ²¹ But they do not let the teaching go deep into their lives. They keep it only a short time. As soon as trouble or persecution comes because of the teaching they accepted, they give up.

²² “And what about the seed that fell among the thorny weeds? That is like the people who hear the teaching but let worries about this life and love for money stop it from growing. So it does not produce a crop in their lives.

²³ “But what about the seed that fell on the good ground? That is like the people who hear the teaching and understand it. They grow and produce a good crop, sometimes 100 times more, sometimes 60 times more, and sometimes 30 times more.”

A Story About Wheat and Weeds

²⁴ Then Jesus used another story to teach them. Jesus said, “God’s kingdom is like a man who planted good seed in his field. ²⁵ That night, while everyone was asleep, the man’s enemy came and planted weeds among the wheat and then left. ²⁶ Later, the wheat grew, and heads of grain grew on the plants. But at the same time the weeds also grew. ²⁷ Then the man’s servants came to him and said, ‘You planted good seed in your field. Where did the weeds come from?’

²⁸ “The man answered, ‘An enemy planted weeds.’

“The servants asked, ‘Do you want us to go and pull up the weeds?’

²⁹ “He answered, ‘No, because when you pull up the weeds, you might also pull up the wheat. ³⁰ Let the weeds and the wheat grow together until the harvest time. At the harvest time I will tell the workers this: First, gather the weeds and tie them together to be burned. Then gather the wheat and bring it to my barn.’ ”

What Is God’s Kingdom Like?
(Mark 4:30-34; Luke 13:18-21)

³¹ Then Jesus told the people another story: “God’s kingdom is like a mustard seed that a man plants in his field. ³² It is the smallest of all seeds. But when it grows, it is the largest of all garden plants. It becomes a tree big enough for the birds to come and make nests in its branches.”

³³ Then Jesus told them another story: “God’s kingdom is like yeast that a woman mixes into a big bowl of flour to make bread. The yeast makes all the dough rise.”

³⁴ Jesus used stories to tell all these things to the people. He always used stories to teach them. ³⁵ This was to make clear the full meaning of what the prophet said:

“I will speak using stories;

I will tell things that have been secrets since the world was made.” Psalms 78:2

Jesus Explains a Hard Story

³⁶ Then Jesus left the people and went into the house. His followers came to him and said, “Explain to us the meaning of the story about the weeds in the field.”

³⁷ He answered, “The man who planted the good seed in the field is the Son of Man. ³⁸ The field is the world. The good seed are the people in God’s kingdom. The weeds are the people who belong to the Evil One. ³⁹ And the enemy who planted the bad seed is the devil. The harvest is the end of time. And the workers who gather are God's angels.

⁴⁰ "The weeds are pulled up and burned in the fire. It will be the same at the end of time. ⁴¹ The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will find the people who cause sin and all those who do evil. The angels will take those people out of his kingdom. ⁴² They will throw them into the place of fire. There the people will be crying and grinding their teeth with pain. ⁴³ Then the godly people will shine like the sun. They will be in the kingdom of their Father. You people who hear me, listen!

Stories About a Treasure and a Pearl

⁴⁴ "God's kingdom is like a treasure hidden in a field. One day a man found the treasure. He hid it again and was so happy that he went and sold everything he owned and bought the field.

⁴⁵ "Also, God's kingdom is like a merchant looking for fine pearls. ⁴⁶ One day he found a very fine pearl. He went and sold everything he had to buy it.

A Story About a Fishing Net

⁴⁷ "Also, God's kingdom is like a net that was put into the lake. The net caught many different kinds of fish. ⁴⁸ It was full, so the fishermen pulled it to the shore. They sat down and put all the good fish in baskets. Then they threw away the bad fish. ⁴⁹ It will be the same at the end of time. The angels will come and separate the evil people from the godly people. ⁵⁰ They will throw the evil people into the place of fire. There the people will cry and grind their teeth with pain."

⁵¹ Then Jesus asked his followers, "Do you understand all these things?"

They said, "Yes, we understand."

⁵² Then Jesus said to the followers, "So every teacher of the law who has learned about God's kingdom has some new things to teach. He is like the owner of a house. He has new things and old things saved in that house. And he brings out the new with the old."

Jesus Goes to His Hometown (Mark 6:1-6; Luke 4:16-30)

⁵³ When Jesus finished teaching with these stories, he left there. ⁵⁴ He went to the town where he grew up. He taught the people in the synagogue, and they were amazed. They said, "Where did this man get such wisdom and this power to do miracles? ⁵⁵ Isn't he just the son of the carpenter we know? Isn't his mother's name Mary, and aren't his brothers James, Joseph, Simon, and Judas? ⁵⁶ And don't all his sisters still live here in town? How is he able to do these things?" ⁵⁷ So they had a problem accepting him.

But Jesus said to them, "People everywhere give honor to a prophet, but in his own town or in his own home a prophet does not get any honor." ⁵⁸ Jesus did not do many miracles there, because the people did not believe in him.

Herod Thinks Jesus Is John the Baptizer (Mark 6:14-29; Luke 9:7-9)

¹ About that time, Herod, the ruler of Galilee, heard what the people were saying about Jesus. ² So he said to his servants, "This man is really John the Baptizer. He must have risen from death, and that is why he can do these miracles."

How John the Baptizer Was Killed

³ Before this time, Herod had arrested John. He had him chained and put in prison. He arrested John because of Herodias, the wife of Philip, Herod's brother. ⁴ John had told him, "It is not right for you to be married to Herodias." ⁵ Herod wanted to kill him, but he was afraid of the people. They believed that John was a prophet.

⁹ King Herod was very sad. But he had promised to give the daughter anything she wanted. And the people eating with Herod had heard his promise. So he ordered what she asked to be done. ¹⁰ He sent men to the prison, where they cut off John's head. ¹¹ And the men brought John's head on a plate and gave it to the girl. Then she took the head to her mother, Herodias. ¹² John's followers came and got his body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus what happened.

Jesus Feeds More Than 5000

(Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-14)

¹³ When Jesus heard what happened to John, he left in a boat. He went alone to a place where no one lived. But the people heard that Jesus had left. So they left their towns and followed him. They went by land to the same place he went. ¹⁴ When Jesus got out of the boat, he saw a large crowd of people. He felt sorry for them, and he healed the ones who were sick.

¹⁵ Late that afternoon, the followers came to Jesus and said, "No one lives in this place. And it is already late. Send the people away so they can go to the towns and buy food for themselves."

¹⁷ The followers answered, "But we have only five loaves of bread and two fish."

¹⁸ Jesus said, "Bring the bread and the fish to me." ¹⁹ Then he told the people to sit down on the grass. He took the five loaves of bread and the two fish. He looked into the sky and thanked God for the food. Then he broke the bread into pieces, which he gave to the followers, and they gave the food to the people. ²⁰ Everyone ate until they were full. When they finished eating, the followers filled twelve baskets with the pieces of food that were not eaten. ²¹ There were about 5000 men there who ate. There were also women and children who ate.

Jesus Walks on Water

(Mark 6:45-52; John 6:16-21)

²² Then Jesus made the followers get into the boat. He told them to go to the other side of the lake. He said he would come later. He stayed there to tell everyone they could go home. ²³ After Jesus said goodbye to the people, he went up into the hills by himself to pray. It was late, and he was there alone. ²⁴ By this time the boat was already a long way from shore. Since the wind was blowing against it, the boat was having trouble because of the waves.

²⁵ Between three and six o'clock in the morning, Jesus' followers were still in the boat. Jesus came to them. He was walking on the water. ²⁶ When they saw him walking on the water, it scared them. "It's a ghost!" they said, screaming in fear.

²⁷ But Jesus quickly spoke to them. He said, "Don't worry! It's me! Don't be afraid."

²⁸ Peter said, "Lord, if that is really you, tell me to come to you on the water."

²⁹ Jesus said, "Come, Peter."

Then Peter left the boat and walked on the water to Jesus. ³⁰ But while Peter was walking on the water, he saw the wind and the waves. He was afraid and began sinking into the water. He shouted, "Lord, save me!"

³¹ Then Jesus caught Peter with his hand. He said, "Your faith is small. Why did you doubt?"

³² After Peter and Jesus were in the boat, the wind stopped. ³³ Then the followers in the boat worshiped Jesus and said, "You really are the Son of God."

Jesus Heals Many Sick People

(Mark 6:53-56)

³⁴ After they crossed the lake, they came to the shore at Gennesaret. ³⁵ Some men there saw Jesus and knew who he was. So they sent word to the other people throughout that area that Jesus had come. The people brought all their sick people to him. ³⁶ They begged Jesus to let them only touch the edge of his coat to be healed. And all the sick people who touched his coat were healed.

God's Law and Human Traditions (Mark 7:1-23)

¹ Then some Pharisees and teachers of the law came to Jesus. They came from Jerusalem and asked him, ² “Why do your followers not obey the traditions we have from our great leaders who lived long ago? Your followers don’t wash their hands before they eat!”

³ Jesus answered, “And why do you refuse to obey God’s command so that you can follow those traditions you have? ⁴ God said, ‘You must respect your father and mother.’[☆] And God also said, ‘Whoever says anything bad to their father or mother must be killed.’[☆] ⁵ But you teach that a person can say to their father or mother, ‘I have something I could use to help you. But I will not use it for you. I will give it to God.’ ⁶ You are teaching them not to respect their father. So you are teaching that it is not important to do what God said. You think it is more important to follow those traditions you have. ⁷ You are hypocrites! Isaiah was right when he spoke for God about you:

⁸ “These people honor me with their words,
but I am not really important to them.

⁹ Their worship of me is worthless.

The things they teach are only human rules.’ ”

Isaiah 29:13

¹⁰ Jesus called the people to him. He said, “Listen and understand what I am saying. ¹¹ It is not what people put in their mouth that makes them wrong.* It is what comes out of their mouth that makes them wrong.”

¹² Then the followers came to Jesus and asked, “Do you know that the Pharisees are upset about what you said?”

¹³ Jesus answered, “Every plant that my Father in heaven has not planted will be pulled up by the roots. ¹⁴ Stay away from the Pharisees. They lead the people, but they are like blind men leading other blind men. And if a blind man leads another blind man, both of them will fall into a ditch.”

¹⁵ Peter said, “Explain to us what you said earlier to the people.”

¹⁶ Jesus said, “Do you still have trouble understanding? ¹⁷ Surely you know that all the food that enters the mouth goes into the stomach. Then it goes out of the body. ¹⁸ But the bad things people say with their mouth come from the way they think. And that’s what can make people wrong. ¹⁹ All these bad things begin in the mind: evil thoughts, murder, adultery, sexual sins, stealing, lying, and insulting people. ²⁰ These are the things that make people wrong. Eating without washing their hands will never make people unacceptable to God.”

Jesus Helps a Non-Jewish Woman (Mark 7:24-30)

²¹ Jesus went from there to the area of Tyre and Sidon. ²² A Canaanite woman from that area came out and began shouting, “Lord, Son of David, please help me! My daughter has a demon inside her, and she is suffering very much.”

[☆] 15:4 Quote from Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16. [☆] 15:4 Quote from Exodus 21:17. ^{*} 15:11 wrong Literally, “unclean” or “not pure,” meaning unacceptable to God. Also in verse 18.

²³ But Jesus did not answer her. So the followers came to him and said, “Tell her to go away. She keeps crying out and will not leave us alone.”

²⁴ Jesus answered, “God sent me only to the lost people[†] of Israel.”

²⁵ Then the woman came over to Jesus and bowed before him. She said, “Lord, help me!”

²⁶ He answered her with this saying: “It is not right to take the children’s bread and give it to the dogs.”

²⁷ The woman said, “Yes, Lord, but even the dogs eat the pieces of food that fall from their master’s table.”

²⁸ Then Jesus answered, “Woman, you have great faith! You will get what you asked for.” And right then the woman’s daughter was healed.

Jesus Heals Many People

²⁹ Then Jesus went from there to the shore of Lake Galilee. He went up on a hill and sat down.

³⁰ A large crowd of people came to him. They brought many other sick people and put them before him. There were people who could not walk, people who were blind, crippled, or deaf, and many others. Jesus healed them all. ³¹ People were amazed when they saw that those who could not speak were now able to speak. Crippled people were made strong. Those who could not walk were now able to walk. The blind were able to see. Everyone thanked the God of Israel for this.

Jesus Feeds More Than 4000 (Mark 8:1-10)

³² Jesus called his followers to him and said, “I feel sorry for these people. They have been with me three days, and now they have nothing to eat. I don’t want to send them away hungry. They might faint while going home.”

³³ The followers asked Jesus, “Where can we get enough bread to feed all these people? We are a long way from any town.”

³⁴ Jesus asked, “How many loaves of bread do you have?”

They answered, “We have seven loaves of bread and a few small fish.”

³⁵ Jesus told the people to sit on the ground. ³⁶ He took the seven loaves of bread and the fish. Then he gave thanks to God for the food. He broke the bread into pieces, which he gave to the followers, and they gave the food to the people. ³⁷ All the people ate until they were full. After this, the followers filled seven baskets with the pieces of food that were not eaten. ³⁸ There were about 4000 men there who ate. There were also some women and children. ³⁹ After they all ate, Jesus told the people they could go home. He got into the boat and went to the area of Magadan.

Some People Doubt Jesus’ Authority (Mark 8:11-13; Luke 12:54-56)

¹ The Pharisees and Sadducees came to Jesus. They wanted to test him. So they asked him to show them a miracle as a sign from God.

² Jesus answered, “When you people see the sunset, you know what the weather will be. If the sky is red, you say we will have good weather. ³ And in the morning, if the sky is dark and red, you say that it will be a rainy day. These are signs of the weather. You see these signs in the sky and know what they mean. In the same way, you see the things that are happening now. These are also signs, but you don’t know their meaning. ⁴ It is the evil and sinful people who want to see a miracle as a sign from God. But no miracle will be done to prove anything to them. The only sign will be the miracle that happened to Jonah.*” Then Jesus went away from there.

Jesus' Followers Misunderstand Him

(Mark 8:14-21)

⁵ Jesus and his followers went across the lake. But the followers forgot to bring bread. ⁶ Jesus said to the followers, “Be careful! Guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.”

⁷ The followers discussed the meaning of this. They said, “Did Jesus say this because we forgot to bring bread?”

⁸ Jesus knew that they were talking about this. So he asked them, “Why are you talking about not having bread? Your faith is small. ⁹ Do you still not understand? Remember the five loaves of bread that fed the 5000 people and the many baskets you filled with the bread that was left? ¹⁰ And remember the seven loaves of bread that fed the 4000 people and the many baskets you filled that time? ¹¹ So how could you think that I am concerned about bread? I am telling you to be careful and guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.”

¹² Then the followers understood what Jesus meant. He was not telling them to guard against the yeast used in bread. He was telling them to guard against the teaching of the Pharisees and the Sadducees.

Peter Says Jesus Is the Messiah

(Mark 8:27-30; Luke 9:18-21)

¹³ Jesus went to the area of Caesarea Philippi. He said to his followers, “Who do people say I am[†]?”

¹⁴ They answered, “Some people say you are John the Baptizer. Others say you are Elijah. And some say you are Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

¹⁵ Then Jesus said to his followers, “And who do you say I am?”

¹⁶ Simon Peter answered, “You are the Messiah, the Son of the living God.”

¹⁷ Jesus answered, “You are blessed, Simon son of Jonah. No one taught you that. My Father in heaven showed you who I am. ¹⁸ So I tell you, you are Peter.[‡] And I will build my church on this rock. The power of death[§] will not be able to defeat my church. ¹⁹ I will give you the keys to God’s kingdom. When you speak judgment here on earth, that judgment will be God’s judgment. When you promise forgiveness here on earth, that forgiveness will be God’s forgiveness.”*

²⁰ Then Jesus warned his followers not to tell anyone he was the Messiah.

Jesus Says He Must Die

(Mark 8:31–9:1; Luke 9:22-27)

²¹ From that time Jesus began telling his followers that he must go to Jerusalem. He explained that the older Jewish leaders, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law would make him suffer many things. And he told his followers that he must be killed. Then, on the third day, he would be raised from death.

²² Peter took Jesus away from the other followers to talk to him alone. He began to criticize him. He said, “God save you from those sufferings, Lord! That will never happen to you!”

* 16:4 Jonah A prophet in the Old Testament. After three days in a big fish he came out alive, just as Jesus would come out from the tomb on the third day. † 16:13 I am Literally, “the Son of Man is.” ‡ 16:18 Peter The Greek name “Peter,” like the Aramaic name “Cephas,” means “rock.” § 16:18 power of death Literally, “gates of Hades.”

* 16:19 When you speak ... God’s forgiveness Literally, “Whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven.”

²³ Then Jesus said to Peter, “Get away from me, Satan[†]! You are not helping me! You don’t care about the same things God does. You care only about things that people think are important.”

²⁴ Then Jesus said to his followers, “If any of you want to be my follower, you must stop thinking about yourself and what you want. You must be willing to carry the cross that is given to you for following me. ²⁵ Any of you who try to save the life you have will lose it. But you who give up your life for me will find true life. ²⁶ It is worth nothing for you to have the whole world if you yourself are lost. You could never pay enough to buy back your life. ²⁷ The Son of Man will come again with his Father’s glory and with his angels. And he will reward everyone for what they have done. ²⁸ Believe me when I say that there are some people standing here who will see the Son of Man coming with his kingdom before they die.”

Jesus Is Seen With Moses and Elijah

(Mark 9:2-13; Luke 9:28-36)

¹ Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John the brother of James and went up on a high mountain. They were all alone there. ² While these followers watched him, Jesus was changed. His face became bright like the sun, and his clothes became white as light. ³ Then two men were there, talking with him. They were Moses and Elijah.

⁴ Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good that we are here. If you want, I will put three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

⁵ While Peter was talking, a bright cloud came over them. A voice came from the cloud and said, “This is my Son, the one I love. I am very pleased with him. Obey him!”

⁶ The followers with Jesus heard this voice. They were very afraid, so they fell to the ground. ⁷ But Jesus came to them and touched them. He said, “Stand up. Don’t be afraid.”

⁸ The followers looked up, and they saw that Jesus was now alone.

⁹ As Jesus and the followers were coming down the mountain, he gave them this command: “Don’t tell anyone about what you saw on the mountain. Wait until the Son of Man has been raised from death. Then you can tell people about what you saw.”

¹⁰ The followers asked Jesus, “Why do the teachers of the law say that Elijah must come* before the Messiah comes?”

¹¹ Jesus answered, “They are right to say Elijah is coming. And it is true that Elijah will make all things the way they should be. ¹² But I tell you, Elijah has already come. People did not know who he was, and they treated him badly, doing whatever they wanted to do. It is the same with the Son of Man. Those same people will make the Son of Man suffer.”

¹³ Then the followers understood that when Jesus said Elijah, he was really talking about John the Baptizer.

Jesus Frees a Boy From an Evil Spirit

(Mark 9:14-29; Luke 9:37-43a)

¹⁴ Jesus and the followers went back to the people. A man came to Jesus and bowed before him. ¹⁵ The man said, “Lord, be kind to my son. He suffers so much from the seizures he has. He often falls into the fire or into the water. ¹⁶ I brought him to your followers, but they could not heal him.”

¹⁷ Jesus answered, “You people today have no faith. Your lives are so wrong! How long must I stay with you? How long must I continue to be patient with you? Bring the boy here.” ¹⁸ Jesus gave a strong command to the demon inside the boy. The demon came out of the boy, and the boy was healed.

[†] 16:23 Satan Name for the devil meaning “the enemy.” Jesus means that Peter was talking like Satan. * 17:10 Elijah must come See Mal. 4:5-6.

¹⁹ Then the followers came to Jesus alone. They said, “We tried to force the demon out of the boy, but we could not. Why were we not able to make the demon go out?”

²⁰ Jesus answered, “You were not able to make the demon go out, because your faith is too small. Believe me when I tell you, if your faith is only as big as a mustard seed you can say to this mountain, ‘Move from here to there,’ and it will move. You will be able to do anything.” ²¹ †

Jesus Talks About His Death
(Mark 9:30-32; Luke 9:43b-45)

²² Later, the followers met together in Galilee. Jesus said to them, “The Son of Man will be handed over to the control of other men, ²³ who will kill him. But on the third day he will be raised from death.” The followers were very sad to hear that Jesus would be killed.

Jesus Teaches About Paying Taxes

²⁴ Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum. There the men who collect the two-drachma Temple tax came to Peter and asked, “Does your teacher pay the Temple tax?”

²⁵ Peter answered, “Yes, he does.”

Peter went into the house where Jesus was. Before Peter could speak, Jesus said to him, “The kings on the earth get different kinds of taxes from people. But who are those who pay the taxes? Are they the king’s children? Or do other people pay the taxes? What do you think?”

²⁶ Peter answered, “The other people pay the taxes.”

Jesus said, “Then the children of the king don’t have to pay taxes. ²⁷ But we don’t want to upset these tax collectors. So do this: Go to the lake and fish. After you catch the first fish, open its mouth. Inside its mouth you will find a four-drachma coin. Take that coin and give it to the tax collectors. That will pay the tax for you and me.”

Who Is the Greatest?
(Mark 9:33-37; Luke 9:46-48)

¹ About that time the followers came to Jesus and asked, “Who is the greatest in God’s kingdom?”

² Jesus called a little child to come to him. He stood the child in front of the followers. ³ Then he said, “The truth is, you must change your thinking and become like little children. If you don’t do this, you will never enter God’s kingdom. ⁴ The greatest person in God’s kingdom is the one who makes himself humble like this child.

⁵ “Whoever accepts a little child like this in my name is accepting me.

Jesus Warns About Causes of Sin
(Mark 9:42-48; Luke 17:1-2)

⁶ “If one of these little children believes in me, and someone causes that child to sin, it will be very bad for that person. It would be better for them to have a millstone tied around their neck and be drowned in the deep sea. ⁷ I feel sorry for the people in the world because of the things that make people sin. These things must happen, but it will be very bad for anyone who causes them to happen.

⁸ “If your hand or your foot makes you sin, cut it off and throw it away. It is better for you to lose part of your body and have eternal life than to have two hands and two feet and be thrown into the fire that burns forever. ⁹ If your eye makes you sin, take it out and throw it away. It is better for you to have only one eye and have eternal life than to have two eyes and be thrown into the fire of hell.

† 17:21 Some Greek copies add verse 21: “But that kind of spirit comes out only with prayer and fasting.”

Jesus Uses a Story About a Lost Sheep(Luke 15:3-7)

¹⁰ “Be careful. Don’t think these little children are not important. I tell you that these children have angels in heaven. And those angels are always with my Father in heaven.
¹¹ *

¹² “If a man has 100 sheep, but one of the sheep is lost, what will he do? He will leave the other 99 sheep on the hill and go look for the lost sheep. Right? ¹³ And if he finds the lost sheep, he is happier about that one sheep than about the 99 sheep that were never lost. I can assure you, ¹⁴ in the same way your Father in heaven does not want any of these little children to be lost.

When Someone Hurts You(Luke 17:3)

¹⁵ “If your brother or sister in God’s family does something wrong, go and tell them what they did wrong. Do this when you are alone with them. If they listen to you, then you have helped them to be your brother or sister again. ¹⁶ But if they refuse to listen, go to them again and take one or two people with you. Then there will be two or three people who will be able to tell all that happened.† ¹⁷ If they refuse to listen to them, tell the church. And if they refuse to listen to the church, treat them as you would treat someone who does not know God or who is a tax collector.

¹⁸ “I can assure you that when you speak judgment here on earth, it will be God’s judgment. And when you promise forgiveness here on earth, it will be God’s forgiveness.‡ ¹⁹ To say it another way, if two of you on earth agree on anything you pray for, my Father in heaven will do what you ask. ²⁰ Yes, if two or three people are together believing in me, I am there with them.”

A Story About Forgiveness

²¹ Then Peter came to Jesus and asked, “Lord, when someone§ won’t stop doing wrong to me, how many times must I forgive them? Seven times?”

²² Jesus answered, “I tell you, you must forgive them more than seven times. You must continue to forgive them even if they do wrong to you seventy-seven times.*

²⁶ “But the servant fell on his knees and begged, ‘Be patient with me. I will pay you everything I owe.’ ²⁷ The master felt sorry for him. So he told the servant he did not have to pay. He let him go free.

²⁸ “Later, that same servant found another servant who owed him a hundred silver coins. He grabbed him around the neck and said, ‘Pay me the money you owe me!’

²⁹ “The other servant fell on his knees and begged him, ‘Be patient with me. I will pay you everything I owe.’

³⁰ “But the first servant refused to be patient. He told the judge that the other servant owed him money, and that servant was put in jail until he could pay everything he owed.

³¹ All the other servants saw what happened. They felt very sorry for the man. So they went and told their master everything that happened.

* 18:11 Some Greek copies add verse 11: “The Son of Man came to save lost people.” See Luke 19:10. † 18:16 Then ... happened See Deuteronomy 19:15. ‡ 18:18 when you speak ... God’s forgiveness Literally, “whatever you bind on earth will have been bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will have been loosed in heaven.” § 18:21 someone Literally, “my brother.” * 18:22 seventy-seven times Or “seventy times seven,” a very large number, meaning there should be no limit to forgiveness. † 18:24 several thousand pounds Literally, “10,000 talanta” or “talents.” A talent was about 27 to 36 kg (60 to 80 pounds) of gold, silver, or copper coins.

³² “Then the master called his servant in and said, ‘You evil servant. You begged me to forgive your debt, and I said you did not have to pay anything!’ ³³ So you should have given that other man who serves with you the same mercy I gave you.’ ³⁴ The master was very angry, so he put the servant in jail to be punished. And he had to stay in jail until he could pay everything he owed.

³⁵ “This king did the same as my heavenly Father will do to you. You must forgive your brother or sister with all your heart, or my heavenly Father will not forgive you.”

Jesus Teaches About Divorce

(Mark 10:1-12)

¹ After Jesus said all these things, he left Galilee. He went into the area of Judea on the other side of the Jordan River. ² Many people followed him. Jesus healed the sick people there.

³ Some Pharisees came to Jesus. They tried to make him say something wrong. They asked him, “Is it right for a man to divorce his wife for any reason he chooses?”

⁴ Jesus answered, “Surely you have read this in the Scriptures: When God made the world, ‘he made people male and female.’[☆] ⁵ And God said, ‘That is why a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife. And the two people will become one.’[☆] ⁶ So they are no longer two, but one. God has joined them together, so no one should separate them.”

⁷ The Pharisees asked, “Then why did Moses give a command allowing a man to divorce his wife by writing a certificate of divorce^{*?}”

⁸ Jesus answered, “Moses allowed you to divorce your wives because you refused to accept God’s teaching. But divorce was not allowed in the beginning. ⁹ I tell you that whoever divorces his wife, except for the problem of sexual sin, and marries another woman is guilty of adultery.”

¹⁰ The followers said to Jesus, “If that is the only reason a man can divorce his wife, it is better not to marry.”

¹¹ He answered, “This statement is true for some, but not for everyone—only for those who have been given this gift. ¹² There are different reasons why some men don’t marry.[†] Some were born without the ability to produce children. Others were made that way later in life. And others have given up marriage because of God’s kingdom. This is for anyone who is able to accept it.”

Jesus Welcomes Children

(Mark 10:13-16; Luke 18:15-17)

¹³ Then the people brought their little children to Jesus so that he could lay his hands on them to bless them and pray for them. When the followers saw this, they told the people to stop bringing their children to him. ¹⁴ But Jesus said, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t stop them, because God’s kingdom belongs to people who are like these children.” ¹⁵ After Jesus blessed the children, he left there.

A Rich Man Refuses to Follow Jesus

(Mark 10:17-31; Luke 18:18-30)

¹⁶ A man came to Jesus and asked, “Teacher, what good thing must I do to have eternal life?”

¹⁷ Jesus answered, “Why do you ask me about what is good? Only God is good. But if you want to have eternal life, obey the law’s commands.”

¹⁸ The man asked, “Which ones?”

☆ 19:4 Quote from Genesis 1:27; 5:2. ☆ 19:5 Quote from Genesis 2:24. * 19:7 a command ... certificate of divorce See Deuteronomy 24:1. † 19:12 some men don’t marry Literally, “there are eunuchs.”

Jesus answered, “ ‘You must not murder anyone, you must not commit adultery, you must not steal, you must not tell lies about others,¹⁹ you must respect your father and mother,[⚠] and ‘love your neighbor[‡] the same as you love yourself.’[⚠]”

²⁰ The young man said, “I have obeyed all these commands. What else do I need?”

²¹ Jesus answered, “If you want to be perfect, then go and sell all that you own. Give the money to the poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come and follow me!”

²² But when the young man heard Jesus tell him to give away his money, he was sad. He didn’t want to do this, because he was very rich. So he left.

²³ Then Jesus said to his followers, “The truth is, it will be very hard for a rich person to enter God’s kingdom. ²⁴ Yes, I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter God’s kingdom.”

²⁵ The followers were amazed to hear this. They asked, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁶ Jesus looked at them and said, “This is something that people cannot do. But God can do anything.”

²⁷ Peter said to him, “We left everything we had and followed you. So what will we have?”

²⁸ Jesus said to them, “When the time of the new world comes, the Son of Man will sit on his great and glorious throne. And I can promise that you who followed me will sit on twelve thrones, and you will judge the twelve tribes of Israel. ²⁹ Everyone who has left houses, brothers, sisters, father, mother, children, or farms to follow me will get much more than they left. And they will have eternal life. ³⁰ Many people who are first now will be last in the future. And many who are last now will be first in the future.

Jesus Uses a Story About Farm Workers

¹ “God’s kingdom is like a man who owned some land. One morning, the man went out very early to hire some people to work in his vineyard. ² He agreed to pay the workers one silver coin for working that day. Then he sent them into the vineyard to work.

³ “About nine o’clock the man went to the marketplace and saw some other people standing there. They were doing nothing. ⁴ So he said to them, ‘If you go and work in my field, I will pay you what your work is worth.’ ⁵ So they went to work in the vineyard.

“The man went out again about twelve o’clock and again at three o’clock. Both times he hired some others to work in his vineyard. ⁶ About five o’clock the man went to the marketplace again. He saw some other people standing there. He asked them, ‘Why did you stand here all day doing nothing?’

⁷ “They said, ‘No one gave us a job.’

“The man said to them, ‘Then you can go and work in my vineyard.’

⁸ “At the end of the day, the owner of the field said to the boss of all the workers, ‘Call the workers and pay them all. Start by paying the last people I hired. Then pay all of them, ending with the ones I hired first.’

⁹ “The workers who were hired at five o’clock came to get their pay. Each worker got one silver coin. ¹⁰ Then the workers who were hired first came to get their pay. They thought they would be paid more than the others. But each one of them also received one silver coin. ¹¹ When they got their silver coin, they complained to the man who owned the land. ¹² They said, ‘Those people were hired last and worked only one hour. But you paid them the same as us. And we worked hard all day in the hot sun.’

¹³ “But the man who owned the field said to one of them, ‘Friend, I am being fair with you. You agreed to work for one silver coin. Right? ¹⁴ So take your pay and go. I want to give the man who was hired last the same pay I gave you. ¹⁵ I can do what I want with my own money. Why would you be jealous because I am generous?"

⚠ 19:19 Quote from Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20. ‡ 19:19 your neighbor Or “others.” Jesus’ teaching in Luke 10:25-37 makes clear that this includes anyone in need. ⚠ 19:19 Quote from Leviticus 19:18.

¹⁶ "So those who are last now will be first in the future. And those who are first now will be last in the future."

Jesus Talks Again About His Death

(Mark 10:32-34; Luke 18:31-34)

¹⁷ Jesus was going to Jerusalem. His twelve followers were with him. While they were walking, he gathered the followers together and spoke to them privately. He said to them, ¹⁸ "We are going to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the leading priests and the teachers of the law, and they will say he must die. ¹⁹ They will hand him over to the foreigners, who will laugh at him and beat him with whips, and then they will kill him on a cross. But on the third day after his death, he will be raised to life again."

A Mother Asks a Special Favor

(Mark 10:35-45)

²⁰ Then Zebedee's wife came to Jesus and brought her sons. She bowed before Jesus and asked him to do something for her.

²¹ Jesus said, "What do you want?"

She said, "Promise that one of my sons will sit at your right side in your kingdom and the other at your left."

²² So Jesus said to the sons, "You don't understand what you are asking. Can you drink from the cup* that I must drink from?"

The sons answered, "Yes, we can!"

²³ Jesus said to them, "It is true that you will drink from the cup that I drink from. But it is not for me to say who will sit at my right or my left. My Father has decided who will do that. He has prepared those places for them."

²⁴ The other ten followers heard this and were angry with the two brothers. ²⁵ So Jesus called the followers together. He said, "You know that the rulers of the non-Jewish people love to show their power over the people. And their important leaders love to use all their authority over the people. ²⁶ But it should not be that way with you. Whoever wants to be your leader must be your servant. ²⁷ Whoever wants to be first must serve the rest of you like a slave. ²⁸ Do as I did: The Son of Man did not come for people to serve him. He came to serve others and to give his life to save many people."

Jesus Heals Two Blind Men

(Mark 10:46-52; Luke 18:35-43)

²⁹ When Jesus and his followers were leaving Jericho, a large crowd followed him.

³⁰ There were two blind men sitting by the road. They heard that Jesus was coming by. So they shouted, "Lord, Son of David, please help us!"

³¹ The people there criticized the blind men and told them to be quiet. But they shouted more and more, "Lord, Son of David, please help us!"

³² Jesus stopped and said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

³³ They answered, "Lord, we want to be able to see."

³⁴ Jesus felt sorry for the blind men. He touched their eyes, and immediately they were able to see. Then they became followers of Jesus.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem Like a King

(Mark 11:1-11; Luke 19:28-38; John 12:12-19)

* 20:22 cup A symbol of suffering. Jesus used the idea of drinking from a cup to mean accepting the suffering he would face in the terrible events that were soon to come. Also in verse 23.

¹ Jesus and his followers were coming closer to Jerusalem. But first they stopped at Bethphage at the hill called the Mount of Olives. From there Jesus sent two of his followers into town. ² He said to them, “Go to the town you can see there. When you enter it, you will find a donkey with her colt. Untie them both, and bring them to me. ³ If anyone asks you why you are taking the donkeys, tell them, ‘The Master needs them. He will send them back soon.’”

⁴ This showed the full meaning of what the prophet said:

⁵ “Tell the people of Zion,*

‘Now your king is coming to you.

He is humble and riding on a donkey.

He is riding on a young donkey, born from a work animal.’”

Zechariah 9:9

⁶ The followers went and did what Jesus told them to do. ⁷ They brought the mother donkey and the young donkey to him. They covered the donkeys with their coats, and Jesus sat on them. ⁸ On the way to Jerusalem, many people spread their coats on the road for Jesus. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ Some of the people were walking ahead of Jesus. Others were walking behind him. They all shouted, “Praise[†] to the Son of David!

‘Welcome! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord!’ Psalms 118:25-26

Praise to God in heaven!”

¹⁰ Then Jesus went into Jerusalem. All the people in the city were confused. They asked, “Who is this man?”

¹¹ The crowds following Jesus answered, “This is Jesus. He is the prophet from the town of Nazareth in Galilee.”

Jesus Goes to the Temple

(Mark 11:15-19; Luke 19:45-48; John 2:13-22)

¹² Jesus went into the Temple area. He threw out all those who were selling and buying things there. He turned over the tables that belonged to those who were exchanging different kinds of money. And he turned over the benches of those who were selling doves. ¹³ Jesus said to them, “The Scriptures say, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer.’[☆] But you are changing it into a ‘hiding place for thieves.’[☆]”

¹⁴ Some blind people and some who were crippled came to Jesus in the Temple area. Jesus healed them. ¹⁵ The leading priests and the teachers of the law saw the wonderful things he was doing. And they saw the children praising him in the Temple area. The children were shouting, “Praise to the Son of David.” All this made the priests and the teachers of the law angry.

¹⁶ They asked Jesus, “Do you hear what these children are saying?”

He answered, “Yes. The Scriptures say, ‘You have taught children and babies to give praise.’[‡] Have you not read that Scripture?”

¹⁷ Then Jesus left them and went out of the city to Bethany, where he spent the night.

Jesus Shows the Power of Faith

(Mark 11:12-14, 20-24)

* 21:5 people of Zion Literally, “daughter of Zion,” meaning the city of Jerusalem. † 21:9 Praise Literally, “Hosanna,” a Hebrew word used in praying to God for help. Here, it was probably a shout of celebration used in praising God or his Messiah. Also in the last line of this verse and in verse 15. ☆ 21:13 Quote from Isaiah 56:7.

☆ 21:13 Quote from Jeremiah 7:11. ‡ 21:16 Quote from Psalm 8:2 (Greek version).

¹⁸ Early the next morning, Jesus was going back to the city. He was very hungry. ¹⁹ He saw a fig tree beside the road and went to get a fig from it. But there were no figs on the tree. There were only leaves. So Jesus said to the tree, “You will never again produce fruit!” The tree immediately dried up and died.

²⁰ When the followers saw this, they were very surprised. They asked, “How did the fig tree dry up and die so quickly?”

²¹ Jesus answered, “The truth is, if you have faith and no doubts, you will be able to do the same as I did to this tree. And you will be able to do more. You will be able to say to this mountain, ‘Go, mountain, fall into the sea.’ And if you have faith, it will happen.

²² If you believe, you will get anything you ask for in prayer.”

Jewish Leaders Doubt Jesus’ Authority

²³ Jesus went into the Temple area. While Jesus was teaching there, the leading priests and the older leaders of the people came to him. They said, “Tell us! What authority do you have to do these things you are doing? Who gave you this authority?”

²⁴ Jesus answered, “I will ask you a question too. If you answer me, then I will tell you what authority I have to do these things. ²⁵ Tell me: When John baptized people, did his authority come from God, or was it only from other people?”

The priests and the Jewish leaders talked about Jesus’ question. They said to each other, “If we answer, ‘John’s baptism was from God,’ then he will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe John?’ ²⁶ But we can’t say John’s baptism was from someone else. We are afraid of the people, because they all believe John was a prophet.”

²⁷ So they told Jesus, “We don’t know the answer.”

Jesus said, “Then I will not tell you who gave me the authority to do these things.

Jesus Uses a Story About Two Sons

²⁸ “Tell me what you think about this: There was a man who had two sons. He went to the first son and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’

²⁹ “The son answered, ‘I will not go.’ But later he decided he should go, and he went.

³⁰ “Then the father went to the other son and said, ‘Son, go and work today in the vineyard.’ He answered, ‘Yes, sir, I will go and work.’ But he did not go.

³¹ “Which of the two sons obeyed his father?”

The Jewish leaders answered, “The first son.”

Jesus said to them, “The truth is, you are worse than the tax collectors and the prostitutes. In fact, they will enter God’s kingdom before you enter. ³² John came showing you the right way to live, and you did not believe him. But the tax collectors and prostitutes believed John. You saw that happening, but you would not change. You still refused to believe him.

God Sends His Son

(Mark 12:1-12; Luke 20:9-19)

³⁵ “But the farmers grabbed the servants and beat one. They killed another one and then stoned to death a third servant. ³⁶ So the man sent some other servants to the farmers. He sent more servants than he sent the first time. But the farmers did the same thing to them that they did the first time. ³⁷ So the man decided to send his son to the farmers. He said, ‘The farmers will respect my son.’

³⁸ “But when the farmers saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the owner’s son. This vineyard will be his. If we kill him, it will be ours.’ ³⁹ So the farmers took the son, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

⁴⁰ “So what will the owner of the vineyard do to these farmers when he comes?”

⁴¹ The Jewish priests and leaders said, “He will surely kill those evil men. Then he will lease the land to other farmers, who will give him his share of the crop at harvest time.”

⁴² Jesus said to them, “Surely you have read this in the Scriptures:

‘The stone that the builders refused to accept
became the cornerstone.
The Lord did this,
and it is wonderful to us.’

Psalm 118:22-23

⁴³ “So I tell you that God’s kingdom will be taken away from you. It will be given to people who do what God wants in his kingdom. ⁴⁴ Whoever falls on this stone will be broken. And it will crush anyone it falls on.”[§]

⁴⁵ When the leading priests and the Pharisees heard these stories, they knew that Jesus was talking about them. ⁴⁶ They wanted to find a way to arrest Jesus. But they were afraid to do anything, because the people believed that Jesus was a prophet.

A Story About People Invited to a Dinner (Luke 14:15-24)

¹ Jesus used some more stories to teach the people. He said, ² “God’s kingdom is like a king who prepared a wedding feast for his son. ³ He invited some people to the feast. When it was ready, the king sent his servants to tell the people to come. But they refused to come to the king’s feast.

⁴ “Then the king sent some more servants. He said to them, ‘I have already invited the people. So tell them that my feast is ready. I have killed my best bulls and calves to be eaten. Everything is ready. Come to the wedding feast.’

⁵ “But when the servants told the people to come, they refused to listen. They all went to do other things. One went to work in his field, and another went to his business. ⁶ Some of the other people grabbed the servants, beat them, and killed them. ⁷ The king was very angry. He sent his army to kill those who murdered his servants. And the army burned their city.

⁸ “After that the king said to his servants, ‘The wedding feast is ready. I invited those people, but they were not good enough to come to my feast. ⁹ So go to the street corners and invite everyone you see. Tell them to come to my feast.’ ¹⁰ So the servants went into the streets. They gathered all the people they could find, good and bad alike, and brought them to where the wedding feast was ready. And the place was filled with guests.

¹¹ “When the king came in to meet the guests, he saw a man there who was not dressed in the right clothes for a wedding. ¹² The king said, ‘Friend, how were you allowed to come in here? You are not wearing the right clothes.’ But the man said nothing. ¹³ So the king told some servants, ‘Tie this man’s hands and feet. Throw him out into the darkness, where people are crying and grinding their teeth with pain.’

¹⁴ “Yes, many people are invited. But only a few are chosen.”

The Jewish Leaders Try to Trick Jesus (Mark 12:13-17; Luke 20:20-26)

¹⁵ Then the Pharisees left the place where Jesus was teaching. They made plans to catch him saying something wrong. ¹⁶ They sent some men to Jesus. They were some of their own followers and some from the group called Herodians. They said, “Teacher, we know you are an honest man. We know you teach the truth about God’s way. You are not afraid of what others think about you. All people are the same to you. ¹⁷ So tell us what you think. Is it right to pay taxes to Caesar or not?"

¹⁸ But Jesus knew that these men were trying to trick him. So he said, "You hypocrites! Why are you trying to catch me saying something wrong? ¹⁹ Show me a coin used for paying the tax." They showed Jesus a silver coin. ²⁰ Then he asked, "Whose picture is on the coin? And whose name is written on the coin?"

²¹ They answered, "It is Caesar's picture and Caesar's name."

Then Jesus said to them, "Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God."

²² When they heard what Jesus said, they were amazed. They left him and went away.

Some Sadducees Try to Trick Jesus

²³ That same day some Sadducees came to Jesus. (Sadducees believe that no one will rise from death.) The Sadducees asked Jesus a question. ²⁴ They said, "Teacher, Moses told us that if a married man dies and had no children, his brother must marry the woman. Then they will have children for the dead brother.* ²⁵ There were seven brothers among us. The first brother married but died. He had no children. So his brother married the woman. ²⁶ Then the second brother also died. The same thing happened to the third brother and all the other brothers. ²⁷ The woman was the last to die. ²⁸ But all seven men had married her. So when people rise from death, whose wife will she be?"

²⁹ Jesus answered, "You are so wrong! You don't know what the Scriptures say. And you don't know anything about God's power. ³⁰ At the time when people rise from death, there will be no marriage. People will not be married to each other. Everyone will be like the angels in heaven. ³¹ Surely you have read what God said to you about people rising from death. ³² God said, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.'[†] So they were not still dead, because he is the God only of living people."

³³ When the people heard this, they were amazed at Jesus' teaching.

Which Command Is the Most Important?

(Mark 12:28-34; Luke 10:25-28)

³⁴ The Pharisees learned that Jesus had made the Sadducees look so foolish that they stopped trying to argue with him. So the Pharisees had a meeting. ³⁵ Then one of them, an expert in the Law of Moses, asked Jesus a question to test him. ³⁶ He said, "Teacher, which command in the law is the most important?"

³⁷ Jesus answered, " 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind.'[‡] ³⁸ This is the first and most important command. ³⁹ And the second command is like the first: 'Love your neighbor[†] the same as you love yourself.'[‡] ⁴⁰ All of the law and the writings of the prophets take their meaning from these two commands."

Is the Messiah David's Son or David's Lord?

(Mark 12:35-37; Luke 20:41-44)

⁴¹ So while the Pharisees were together, Jesus asked them a question. ⁴² He said, "What do you think about the Messiah? Whose son is he?"

The Pharisees answered, "The Messiah is the Son of David."

⁴³ Jesus said to them, "Then why did David call him 'Lord'? David was speaking by the power of the Spirit. He said,

* 22:24 if ... dead brother See Deuteronomy 25:5, 6. † 22:32 Quote from Exodus 3:6. ‡ 22:37 Quote from Deuteronomy 6:5. † 22:39 your neighbor Or "others." Jesus' teaching in Luke 10:25-37 makes clear that this includes anyone in need. ‡ 22:39 Quote from Leviticus 19:18.

⁴⁴ ‘The Lord God said to my Lord:
Sit by me at my right side,

and I will put your enemies under your control. ‡’

Psalm 110:1

⁴⁵ David calls the Messiah ‘Lord.’ So how can he be David’s son?”

⁴⁶ None of the Pharisees could answer Jesus’ question. And after that day, no one was brave enough to ask him any more questions.

23

Jesus Criticizes the Religious Leaders

¹ Then Jesus spoke to the people and to his followers. He said, ² “The teachers of the law and the Pharisees have the authority to tell you what the Law of Moses says. ³ So you should obey them. Do everything they tell you to do. But their lives are not good examples for you to follow. They tell you to do things, but they don’t do those things themselves. ⁴ They make strict rules that are hard for people to obey. They try to force others to obey all their rules. But they themselves will not try to follow any of those rules.

⁵ “The only reason they do what they do is for other people to see them. They make the little Scripture boxes* they wear bigger and bigger. And they make the tassels† on their prayer clothes long enough for people to notice them. ⁶ These men love to have the places of honor at banquets and the most important seats in the synagogues. ⁷ They love for people to show respect to them in the marketplaces and to call them ‘Teacher.’

⁸ “But you must not be called ‘Teacher.’ You are all equal as brothers and sisters. You have only one Teacher. ⁹ And don’t call anyone on earth ‘Father.’ You have one Father. He is in heaven. ¹⁰ And you should not be called ‘Master.’ You have only one Master, the Messiah. ¹¹ Whoever serves you like a servant is the greatest among you. ¹² People who think they are better than others will be made humble. But people who humble themselves will be made great.

¹³ “It will be bad for you teachers of the law and you Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You close the way for people to enter God’s kingdom. You yourselves don’t enter, and you stop those who are trying to enter. ¹⁴ ‡

¹⁵ “It will be bad for you teachers of the law and you Pharisees! You are hypocrites. You travel across the seas and across different countries to find one person who will follow your ways. When you find that person, you make him worse than you are. And you are so bad that you belong in hell!

¹⁶ “It will be bad for you teachers of the law and you Pharisees! You guide the people, but you are blind. You say, ‘If anyone uses the name of the Temple to make a promise, that means nothing. But anyone who uses the gold that is in the Temple to make a promise must keep that promise.’ ¹⁷ You are blind fools! Can’t you see that the Temple is greater than the gold on it? It’s the Temple that makes the gold holy!

¹⁸ “And you say, ‘If anyone uses the altar to make a promise, that means nothing. But anyone who uses the gift on the altar to make a promise must keep that promise.’ ¹⁹ You are blind! Can’t you see that the altar is greater than any gift on it? It’s the altar that makes the gift holy! ²⁰ Whoever uses the altar to make a promise is really using the altar and everything on the altar. ²¹ And anyone who uses the Temple to make a promise is really using the Temple and God, who lives in it. ²² Whoever uses heaven to make a promise is using God's throne and the one who is seated on it.

‡ 22:44 control Literally, “feet.” * 23:5 Scripture boxes Small leather boxes containing four important Scriptures. Some Jews tied these to the forehead and left arm to show their devotion to God and his word. Many Pharisees made these bigger to show that they were more religious than others. † 23:5 tassels Decorations made from wool threads that hung down from the four corners of the clothing or prayer shawls worn by Jews. They were supposed to be reminders of God’s commands (see Num. 15:38-41). ‡ 23:14 Some Greek copies add verse 14: “It will be bad for you, teachers of the law and you Pharisees. You are hypocrites. You cheat widows and take their homes. Then you make long prayers so that people can see you. So you will have a worse punishment.” See Mark 12:40; Luke 20:47.

²³ “It will be bad for you teachers of the law and you Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You give God a tenth of the food you get, even your mint, dill, and cumin.[§] But you don't obey the really important teachings of the law—being fair, showing mercy, and being faithful. These are the things you should do. And you should also continue to do those other things. ²⁴ You guide the people, but you are blind! Think about a man picking a little fly out of his drink and then swallowing a camel! You are like that.*

²⁵ “It will be bad for you teachers of the law and you Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You wash clean the outside of your cups and dishes. But inside they are full of what you got by cheating others and pleasing yourselves. ²⁶ Pharisees, you are blind! First make the inside of the cup clean and good. Then the outside of the cup will also be clean.

²⁷ “It will be bad for you teachers of the law and you Pharisees! You are hypocrites! You are like tombs that are painted white. Outside they look fine, but inside they are full of dead people's bones and all kinds of filth. ²⁸ It is the same with you. People look at you and think you are godly. But on the inside you are full of hypocrisy and evil.

³³ “You are snakes! You are from a family of poisonous snakes! You will not escape God. You will all be judged guilty and go to hell! ³⁴ So I tell you this: I send to you prophets and teachers who are wise and know the Scriptures. You will kill some of them. You will hang some of them on crosses. You will beat some of them in your synagogues. You will chase them from town to town.

³⁵ “So you will be guilty for the death of all the good people who have been killed on earth. You will be guilty for the killing of that godly man Abel. And you will be guilty for the killing of Zechariah[†] son of Berachiah. He was killed between the Temple and the altar. You will be guilty for the killing of all the good people who lived between the time of Abel and the time of Zechariah. ³⁶ Believe me when I say that all these things will happen to you people who are living now.

Jesus Warns the People of Jerusalem
(Luke 13:34-35)

³⁷ “O Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You kill the prophets. You stone to death those that God has sent to you. Many, many times I wanted to help your people. I wanted to gather them together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you did not let me. ³⁸ Now your house will be left completely empty. ³⁹ I tell you, you will not see me again until that time when you will say, ‘Welcome! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’[✠]”

[§] 23:23 You give ... cumin Literally, “You tithe mint, dill, and cumin.” The Law of Moses required Israelites to share their food supply by dedicating a tenth of their field crops and livestock to God (see Leviticus 27:30-32; Deuteronomy 26:12). This did not include such small garden plants as those mentioned here. So these Pharisees were giving more than required to be sure they were not breaking the Law. * 23:24 You are like that Meaning “You worry about the smallest mistakes but commit the biggest sin.” † 23:35 Abel, Zechariah In the Hebrew Old Testament, these are the first and last persons murdered. ✠ 23:39 Quote from Psalm 118:26.

Jesus Warns About the Future
(Mark 13:1-31; Luke 21:5-33)

¹ Jesus left the Temple area and was walking away. But his followers came to him to show him the Temple's buildings. ² He asked them, "Are you looking at these buildings? The fact is, they will be destroyed. Every stone will be thrown down to the ground. Not one stone will be left on another."

⁴ Jesus answered, "Be careful! Don't let anyone fool you. ⁵ Many people will come and use my name. They will say, 'I am the Messiah.' And they will fool many people. ⁶ You will hear about wars that are being fought. And you will hear stories about other wars beginning. But don't be afraid. These things must happen before the end comes. ⁷ Nations will fight against other nations. Kingdoms will fight against other kingdoms. There will be times when there is no food for people to eat. And there will be earthquakes in different places. ⁸ These things are only the beginning of troubles, like the first pains of a woman giving birth.

⁹ "Then you will be arrested and handed over to be punished and killed. People all over the world will hate you because you believe in me. ¹⁰ During that time many believers will lose their faith. They will turn against each other and hate each other. ¹¹ Many false prophets will come and cause many people to believe things that are wrong. ¹² There will be so much more evil in the world that the love of most believers will grow cold. ¹³ But the one who remains faithful to the end will be saved. ¹⁴ And the Good News I have shared about God's kingdom will be told throughout the world. It will be spread to every nation. Then the end will come.

¹⁵ "Daniel the prophet spoke about 'the terrible thing that causes destruction.'* You will see this terrible thing standing in the holy place." (You who read this should understand what it means.) ¹⁶ "The people in Judea at that time should run away to the mountains. ¹⁷ They should run away without wasting time to stop for anything. If they are on the roof of their house, they must not go down to get anything out of the house. ¹⁸ If they are in the field, they must not go back to get a coat.

¹⁹ "During that time it will be hard for women who are pregnant or have small babies! ²⁰ Pray that it will not be winter or a Sabbath day when these things happen and you have to run away, ²¹ because it will be a time of great trouble. There will be more trouble than has ever happened since the beginning of the world. And nothing as bad as that will ever happen again.

²² "But God has decided to make that terrible time short. If it were not made short, no one would continue living. But God will make that time short to help the people he has chosen.

²³ "Someone might say to you at that time, 'Look, there is the Messiah!' Or someone else might say, 'There he is!' But don't believe them. ²⁴ False messiahs and false prophets will come and do great miracles and wonders,† trying to fool the people God has chosen, if that is possible. ²⁵ Now I have warned you about this before it happens.

²⁶ "Someone might tell you, 'The Messiah is there in the desert!' But don't go into the desert to look for him. Someone else might say, 'There is the Messiah in that room!' But don't believe it. ²⁷ When the Son of Man comes, everyone will see him. It will be like lightning flashing in the sky that can be seen everywhere. ²⁸ It's like looking for a dead body: You will find it where the vultures are gathering above.

²⁹ "Right after the trouble of those days, this will happen:

* 24:15 'the terrible thing ... destruction' See Dan. 9:27; 11:31; 12:11. † 24:24 miracles and wonders Here, amazing acts done by Satan's power.

‘The sun will become dark,
and the moon will not give light.
The stars will fall from the sky, and everything in the sky will be changed.’[‡]

³⁰ “Then there will be something in the sky that shows the Son of Man is coming. All the people of the world will cry. Everyone will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds in the sky. He will come with power and great glory. ³¹ He will use a loud trumpet to send his angels all around the earth. They will gather his chosen people from every part of the earth.

³² “The fig tree teaches us a lesson: When its branches become green and soft, and new leaves begin to grow, then you know that summer is very near. ³³ In the same way, when you see all these things happening, you will know that the time[§] is very near, already present. ³⁴ I assure you that all these things will happen while some of the people of this time are still living. ³⁵ The whole world, earth and sky, will be destroyed, but my words will last forever.

Only God Knows When the Time Will Be
(Mark 13:32-37; Luke 17:26-30, 34-36)

³⁶ “No one knows when that day or time will be. The Son and the angels in heaven don’t know when it will be. Only the Father knows.

³⁷ “When the Son of Man comes, it will be the same as what happened during Noah’s time. ³⁸ In those days before the flood, people were eating and drinking, marrying and giving their children to be married right up to the day Noah entered the boat. ³⁹ They knew nothing about what was happening until the flood came and destroyed them all.

“It will be the same when the Son of Man comes. ⁴⁰ Two men will be working together in the field. One will be taken and the other will be left. ⁴¹ Two women will be grinding grain with a mill. One will be taken and the other will be left.

⁴² “So always be ready. You don’t know the day your Lord will come. ⁴³ What would a homeowner do if he knew when a thief was coming? You know he would be ready and not let the thief break in. ⁴⁴ So you also must be ready. The Son of Man will come at a time when you don’t expect him.

Good Servants and Bad Servants
(Luke 12:41-48)

⁴⁵ “Who is the wise and trusted servant? The master trusts one servant to give the other servants their food at the right time. Who is the one the master trusts to do that work? ⁴⁶ When the master comes and finds that servant doing the work he gave him, it will be a day of blessing for that servant. ⁴⁷ I can tell you without a doubt, the master will choose that servant to take care of everything he owns.

⁴⁸ “But what will happen if that servant is evil and thinks his master will not come back soon? ⁴⁹ He will begin to beat the other servants. He will eat and drink with others who are drunk. ⁵⁰ Then the master will come when the servant is not ready, at a time when the servant is not expecting him. ⁵¹ Then the master will punish that servant. He will send him away to be with the hypocrites, where people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.

A Story About Ten Girls

¹ “At that time God’s kingdom will be like ten girls who went to wait for the bridegroom. They took their lamps with them. ² Five of the girls were foolish, and [‡] 24:29 See Isaiah 13:10, 34:4. [§] 24:33 time The time Jesus has been talking about when something important will happen. See Luke 21:31, where Jesus says that this is the time for God’s kingdom to come.

five were wise. ³ The foolish girls took their lamps with them, but they did not take extra oil for the lamps. ⁴ The wise girls took their lamps and more oil in jars. ⁵ When the bridegroom was very late, the girls could not keep their eyes open, and they all fell asleep.

⁶ “At midnight someone announced, ‘The bridegroom is coming! Come and meet him!’

⁷ “Then all the girls woke up. They made their lamps ready. ⁸ But the foolish girls said to the wise girls, ‘Give us some of your oil. The oil in our lamps is all gone.’

⁹ “The wise girls answered, ‘No! The oil we have might not be enough for all of us. But go to those who sell oil and buy some for yourselves.’

¹⁰ “So the foolish girls went to buy oil. While they were gone, the bridegroom came. The girls who were ready went in with the bridegroom to the wedding feast. Then the door was closed and locked.

¹¹ “Later, the other girls came. They said, ‘Sir, sir! Open the door to let us in.’

¹² “But the bridegroom answered, ‘Certainly not! I don’t even know you.’

¹³ “So always be ready. You don’t know the day or the time when the Son of Man will come.

A Story About Three Servants

(Luke 19:11-27)

¹⁴ “At that time God’s kingdom will also be like a man leaving home to travel to another place for a visit. Before he left, he talked with his servants. He told his servants to take care of his things while he was gone. ¹⁵ He decided how much each servant would be able to care for. The man gave one servant five bags of money.* He gave another servant two bags. And he gave a third servant one bag. Then he left. ¹⁶ The servant who got five bags went quickly to invest the money. Those five bags of money earned five more. ¹⁷ It was the same with the servant who had two bags. That servant invested the money and earned two more. ¹⁸ But the servant who got one bag of money went away and dug a hole in the ground. Then he hid his master’s money in the hole.

¹⁹ “After a long time the master came home. He asked the servants what they did with his money. ²⁰ The servant who got five bags brought that amount and five more bags of money to the master. The servant said, ‘Master, you trusted me to care for five bags of money. So I used them to earn five more.’

²¹ “The master answered, ‘You did right. You are a good servant who can be trusted. You did well with that small amount of money. So I will let you care for much greater things. Come and share my happiness with me.’

²² “Then the servant who got two bags of money came to the master. The servant said, ‘Master, you gave me two bags of money to care for. So I used your two bags to earn two more.’

²³ “The master answered, ‘You did right. You are a good servant who can be trusted. You did well with a small amount of money. So I will let you care for much greater things. Come and share my happiness with me.’

²⁴ “Then the servant who got one bag of money came to the master. The servant said, ‘Master, I knew you were a very hard man. You harvest what you did not plant. You gather crops where you did not put any seed. ²⁵ So I was afraid. I went and hid your money in the ground. Here is the one bag of money you gave me.’

²⁶ “The master answered, ‘You are a bad and lazy servant! You say you knew that I harvest what I did not plant and that I gather crops where I did not put any seed. ²⁷ So you should have put my money in the bank. Then, when I came home, I would get my money back. And I would also get the interest that my money earned.’

²⁸ “So the master told his other servants, ‘Take the one bag of money from that servant and give it to the servant who has ten bags. ²⁹ Everyone who uses what they have will get more. They will have much more than they need. But people who do not use what they have will have everything taken away from them.’ ³⁰ Then the master said, ‘Throw that useless servant outside into the darkness, where people will cry and grind their teeth with pain.’

* 25:15 bags of money Literally, “talanta” or “talents.” A talent was about 27 to 36 kg (60 to 80 pounds) of gold, silver, or copper coins. Also in verses 20, 22, 24, 28.

The Son of Man Will Judge All People

³¹ “The Son of Man will come again with divine greatness, and all his angels will come with him. He will sit as king on his great and glorious throne. ³² All the people of the world will be gathered before him. Then he will separate everyone into two groups. It will be like a shepherd separating his sheep from his goats. ³³ He will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

³⁴ “Then the king will say to the godly people on his right, ‘Come, my Father has great blessings for you. The kingdom he promised is now yours. It has been prepared for you since the world was made. ³⁵ It is yours because when I was hungry, you gave me food to eat. When I was thirsty, you gave me something to drink. When I had no place to stay, you welcomed me into your home. ³⁶ When I was without clothes, you gave me something to wear. When I was sick, you cared for me. When I was in prison, you came to visit me.’

³⁷ “Then the godly people will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry and give you food? When did we see you thirsty and give you something to drink? ³⁸ When did we see you with no place to stay and welcome you into our home? When did we see you without clothes and give you something to wear? ³⁹ When did we see you sick or in prison and care for you?’

⁴⁰ “Then the king will answer, ‘The truth is, anything you did for any of my people here,† you also did for me.’

⁴¹ “Then the king will say to the evil people on his left, ‘Get away from me. God has already decided that you will be punished. Go into the fire that burns forever—the fire that was prepared for the devil and his angels. ⁴² You must go away because when I was hungry, you gave me nothing to eat. When I was thirsty, you gave me nothing to drink. ⁴³ When I had no place to stay, you did not welcome me into your home. When I was without clothes, you gave me nothing to wear. When I was sick and in prison, you did not care for me.’

⁴⁴ “Then those people will answer, ‘Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty? When did we see you without a place to stay? Or when did we see you without clothes or sick or in prison? When did we see any of this and not help you?’

⁴⁵ “The king will answer, ‘The truth is, anything you refused to do for any of my people here, you refused to do for me.’

⁴⁶ “Then these evil people will go away to be punished forever. But the godly people will go and enjoy eternal life.”

The Jewish Leaders Plan to Kill Jesus

(Mark 14:1-2; Luke 22:1-2; John 11:45-53)

³ Then the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders had a meeting at the palace where the high priest lived. The high priest’s name was Caiaphas. ⁴ In the meeting they tried to find a way to arrest and kill Jesus without anyone knowing what they were doing. They planned to arrest Jesus and kill him. ⁵ They said, “We cannot arrest Jesus during Passover. We don’t want the people to become angry and cause a riot.”

† 25:40 any of my people here Literally, “one of the least of these brothers of mine.” Also in verse 45.

A Woman Does Something Special
(Mark 14:3-9; John 12:1-8)

⁶ Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper. ⁷ While he was there, a woman came to him. She had an alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume. She poured the perfume on Jesus' head while he was eating.

¹⁰ But Jesus knew what happened. He said, "Why are you bothering this woman? She did a very good thing for me. ¹¹ You will always have the poor with you.* But you will not always have me. ¹² This woman poured perfume on my body. She did this to prepare me for burial after I die. ¹³ The Good News will be told to people all over the world. And I can assure you that everywhere the Good News is told, the story of what this woman did will also be told, and people will remember her."

Judas Agrees to Help Jesus' Enemies
(Mark 14:10-11; Luke 22:3-6)

¹⁴ Then one of the twelve followers went to talk to the leading priests. This was the follower named Judas Iscariot. ¹⁵ He said, "I will hand Jesus over to you. What will you pay me for doing this?" The priests gave him 30 silver coins. ¹⁶ After that Judas waited for the best time to hand Jesus over to them.

The Passover Meal
(Mark 14:12-21; Luke 22:7-14, 21-23; John 13:21-30)

¹⁷ On the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread, the followers came to Jesus. They said, "We will prepare everything for you to eat the Passover meal. Where do you want us to have the meal?"

¹⁸ Jesus answered, "Go into the city. Go to a man I know. Tell him that the Teacher says, 'The chosen time is near. I will have the Passover meal with my followers at your house.'" ¹⁹ They obeyed and did what Jesus told them to do. They prepared the Passover meal.

²⁰ In the evening Jesus was at the table with the twelve followers. ²¹ They were all eating. Then Jesus said, "Believe me when I say that one of you twelve here will hand me over to my enemies."

²² The followers were very sad to hear this. Each one said, "Lord, surely I am not the one!"

²³ Jesus answered, "One who has dipped his bread in the same bowl with me will be the one to hand me over. ²⁴ The Son of Man will suffer what the Scriptures say will happen to him. But it will be very bad for the one who hands over the Son of Man to be killed. It would be better for him if he had never been born."

²⁵ Then Judas, the very one who would hand him over, said to Jesus, "Teacher, surely I am not the one you are talking about, am I?"

Jesus answered, "Yes, it is you."

The Lord's Supper
(Mark 14:22-26; Luke 22:15-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-25)

²⁶ While they were eating, Jesus took some bread and thanked God for it. He broke off some pieces, gave them to his followers and said, "Take this bread and eat it. It is my body."

²⁷ Then he took a cup of wine, thanked God for it, and gave it to them. He said, "Each one of you drink some of it. ²⁸ This wine is my blood, which will be poured out to forgive the sins of many and begin the new agreement from God to his people. ²⁹ I want you to know, I will not drink this wine again until that day when we are together in my Father's kingdom and the wine is new. Then I will drink it again with you."

* 26:11 You will ... with you See Deuteronomy 15:11.

³⁰ They all sang a song and then went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Says His Followers Will Leave Him

(Mark 14:27-31; Luke 22:31-34; John 13:36-38)

³¹ Jesus told the followers, "Tonight you will all lose your faith in me. The Scriptures say,

'I will kill the shepherd,
and the sheep will run away.'

Zechariah 13:7

³² But after I am killed, I will rise from death. Then I will go into Galilee. I will be there before you go there."

³³ Peter answered, "All the other followers may lose their faith in you. But my faith will never be shaken."

³⁴ Jesus answered, "The truth is, tonight you will say you don't know me. You will deny me three times before the rooster crows."

³⁵ But Peter answered, "I will never say I don't know you! I will even die with you!" And all the other followers said the same thing.

Jesus Prays Alone

³⁶ Then Jesus went with his followers to a place called Gethsemane. He said to them, "Sit here while I go there and pray." ³⁷ He told Peter and the two sons of Zebedee to come with him. Then he began to be very sad and troubled. ³⁸ Jesus said to Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, "My heart is so heavy with grief, I feel as if I am dying. Wait here and stay awake with me."

³⁹ Then Jesus went on a little farther away from them. He fell to the ground and prayed, "My Father, if it is possible, don't make me drink from this cup.† But do what you want, not what I want." ⁴⁰ Then he went back to his followers and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, "Could you men not stay awake with me for one hour? ⁴¹ Stay awake and pray for strength against temptation. Your spirit wants to do what is right, but your body is weak."

⁴² Then Jesus went away a second time and prayed, "My Father, if I must do this‡ and it is not possible for me to escape it, then I pray that what you want will be done."

⁴³ Then he went back to the followers. Again he found them sleeping. They could not stay awake. ⁴⁴ So he left them and went away one more time and prayed. This third time he prayed, he said the same thing.

⁴⁵ Then Jesus went back to the followers and said, "Are you still sleeping and resting? The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to the control of sinful men. ⁴⁶ Stand up! We must go. Here comes the one who will hand me over."

Jesus Is Arrested

⁴⁷ While Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve apostles came there. He had a big crowd of people with him, all carrying swords and clubs. They had been sent from the leading priests and the older leaders of the people. ⁴⁸ Judas§ planned to do something to show them which one was Jesus. He said, "The one I kiss will be Jesus. Arrest him." ⁴⁹ So he went to Jesus and said, "Hello, Teacher!" Then Judas kissed him.

† 26:39 cup A symbol of suffering. Jesus used the idea of drinking from a cup to mean accepting the suffering he would face in the terrible events that were soon to come. ‡ 26:42 do this Literally, "drink this," referring to the "cup," the symbol of suffering in verse 39. § 26:48 Judas Literally, "the one who handed him over."

⁵⁰ Jesus answered, “Friend, do the thing you came to do.”

Then the men came and grabbed Jesus and arrested him. ⁵¹ When that happened, one of the followers with Jesus grabbed his sword and pulled it out. He swung it at the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

⁵² Jesus said to the man, “Put your sword back in its place. People who use swords will be killed with swords. ⁵³ Surely you know I could ask my Father and he would give me more than twelve armies of angels. ⁵⁴ But it must happen this way to show the truth of what the Scriptures said.”

⁵⁵ Then Jesus said to the crowd, “Why do you come to get me with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal. Every day I sat in the Temple area teaching. You did not arrest me there. ⁵⁶ But all these things have happened to show the full meaning of what the prophets wrote.” Then all of Jesus’ followers left him and ran away.

Jesus Before the Jewish Leaders

⁵⁷ The men who arrested Jesus led him to the house of Caiaphas the high priest. The teachers of the law and the older Jewish leaders were gathered there. ⁵⁸ Peter followed Jesus but stayed back at a distance. He followed him to the yard of the high priest’s house. Peter went in and sat with the guards. He wanted to see what would happen to Jesus.

⁵⁹ The leading priests and the high council tried to find something against Jesus so that they could kill him. They tried to find people to lie and say that Jesus had done wrong. ⁶⁰ Many people came and told lies about him. But the council could find no real reason to kill him. Then two people came ⁶¹ and said, “This man* said, ‘I can destroy the Temple of God and build it again in three days.’”

⁶² Then the high priest stood up and said to Jesus, “Don’t you have anything to say about these charges against you? Are they telling the truth?” ⁶³ But Jesus said nothing.

Again the high priest said to Jesus, “You are now under oath. I command you by the power of the living God to tell us the truth. Tell us, are you the Messiah, the Son of God?”

⁶⁴ Jesus answered, “Yes, that’s right. But I tell you, in the future you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right side of God. And you will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven.”

⁶⁵ When the high priest heard this, he tore his clothes in anger. He said, “This man has said things that insult God! We don’t need any more witnesses. You all heard his insulting words. ⁶⁶ What do you think?”

The Jewish leaders answered, “He is guilty, and he must die.”

⁶⁷ Then some there spit in Jesus’ face, and they hit him with their fists. Others slapped him. ⁶⁸ They said, “Show us that you are a prophet,† Messiah! Tell us who hit you!”

Peter Is Afraid to Say He Knows Jesus

(Mark 14:66-72; Luke 22:56-62; John 18:15-18, 25-27)

⁶⁹ While Peter was sitting outside in the yard, a servant girl came up to him. She said, “You were with Jesus, that man from Galilee.”

⁷⁰ But Peter told everyone there that this was not true. “I don’t know what you are talking about,” he said.

⁷¹ Then he left the yard. At the gate another girl saw him and said to the people there, “This man was with Jesus of Nazareth.”

⁷² Again, Peter said he was never with Jesus. He said, “I swear to God I don’t know the man!”

⁷³ A short time later those standing there went to Peter and said, “We know you are one of them. It’s clear from the way you talk.”

* 26:61 This man That is, Jesus. His enemies avoided saying his name. † 26:68 prophet A prophet often knows things that are hidden to other people.

⁷⁴ Then Peter began to curse. He said, “I swear to God, I don’t know the man!” As soon as he said this, a rooster crowed. ⁷⁵ Then he remembered what Jesus had told him: “Before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” Then Peter went outside and cried bitterly.

Jesus Is Taken to Governor Pilate

(Mark 15:1; Luke 23:1-2; John 18:28-32)

¹ Early the next morning, all the leading priests and older leaders of the people met and decided to kill Jesus. ² They tied him, led him away, and handed him over to Pilate, the governor.

Judas Kills Himself

(Acts 1:18-19)

³ Judas saw that they had decided to kill Jesus. He was the one who had handed him over. When he saw what happened, he was very sorry for what he had done. So he took the 30 silver coins back to the priests and the older leaders. ⁴ Judas said, “I sinned. I handed over to you an innocent man to be killed.”

The Jewish leaders answered, “We don’t care! That’s a problem for you, not us.”

⁵ So Judas threw the money into the Temple. Then he went out from there and hanged himself.

⁶ The leading priests picked up the silver coins in the Temple. They said, “Our law does not allow us to keep this money with the Temple money, because this money has paid for a man’s death.” ⁷ So they decided to use the money to buy a field called Potter’s Field. This field would be a place to bury people who died while visiting in Jerusalem. ⁸ That is why that field is still called the Field of Blood. ⁹ This showed the full meaning of what Jeremiah the prophet said:

“They took 30 silver coins. That was how much the people of Israel decided to pay for his life. ¹⁰ They used those 30 silver coins to buy the potter’s field, as the Lord commanded me.”*

Governor Pilate Questions Jesus

(Mark 15:2-5; Luke 23:3-5; John 18:33-38)

¹¹ Jesus stood before Pilate, the governor, who asked him, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus answered, “Yes, that’s right.”

¹² Then, when the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders made their accusations against Jesus, he said nothing.

¹³ So Pilate said to him, “Don’t you hear all these charges they are making against you? Why don’t you answer?”

¹⁴ But Jesus did not say anything, and this really surprised the governor.

Pilate Tries but Fails to Free Jesus

(Mark 15:6-15; Luke 23:13-25; John 18:39–19:16)

¹⁵ Every year at Passover time the governor would free one prisoner—whichever one the people wanted him to free. ¹⁶ At that time there was a man in prison who was known to be very bad. His name was Barabbas.†

¹⁷ When a crowd gathered, Pilate said to them, “I will free one man for you. Which one do you want me to free: Barabbas or Jesus who is called the Messiah?” ¹⁸ Pilate knew that they had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous of him.

* 27:10 “They took ... me” See Zechariah 11:12-13; Jeremiah 32:6-9. † 27:16 Barabbas In some Greek copies the name is Jesus Barabbas.

¹⁹ While Pilate was sitting there in the place for judging, his wife sent a message to him. It said, “Don’t do anything with that man. He is not guilty. Last night I had a dream about him, and it troubled me very much.”

²⁰ But the leading priests and older Jewish leaders told the people to ask for Barabbas to be set free and for Jesus to be killed.

²¹ Pilate said, “I have Barabbas and Jesus. Which one do you want me to set free for you?”

The people answered, “Barabbas!”

²² Pilate asked, “So what should I do with Jesus, the one called the Messiah?”

All the people said, “Kill him on a cross!”

²³ Pilate asked, “Why do you want me to kill him? What wrong has he done?”

But they shouted louder, “Kill him on a cross!”

²⁴ Pilate saw that there was nothing he could do to make the people change. In fact, it looked as if there would be a riot. So he took some water and washed his hands[‡] in front of them all. He said, “I am not guilty of this man’s death. You are the ones who are doing it!”

²⁵ The people answered, “We will take full responsibility for his death. You can blame us and even our children!”

²⁶ Then Pilate set Barabbas free. And he told some soldiers to beat Jesus with whips. Then he handed him over to the soldiers to be killed on a cross.

Pilate’s Soldiers Make Fun of Jesus
(Mark 15:16-20; John 19:2-3)

²⁷ Then Pilate’s soldiers took Jesus into the governor’s palace. All the soldiers gathered around him. ²⁸ They took off Jesus’ clothes and put a red robe on him. ²⁹ Then they made a crown from thorny branches and put it on his head, and they put a stick in his right hand. Then they bowed before him, making fun of him. They said, “We salute you, king of the Jews!” ³⁰ They spit on him. Then they took his stick and kept hitting him on the head with it. ³¹ After they finished making fun of him, the soldiers took off the robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him away to be killed on a cross.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

³² The soldiers were going out of the city with Jesus. They saw a man from Cyrene named Simon, and they forced him to carry Jesus’ cross. ³³ They came to the place called Golgotha. (Golgotha means “The Place of the Skull.”) ³⁴ There the soldiers gave Jesus some wine mixed with gall.[§] But when he tasted it, he refused to drink it.

³⁸ Two criminals were nailed to crosses beside Jesus—one on the right and the other on the left. ³⁹ People walked by and shouted insults at Jesus. They shook their heads ⁴⁰ and said, “You said you could destroy the Temple and build it again in three days. So save yourself! Come down from that cross if you really are the Son of God!”

⁴¹ The leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the older Jewish leaders were also there. They made fun of Jesus the same as the other people did. ⁴² They said, “He saved others, but he can’t save himself! People say he is the king of Israel. If he is the king, he should come down now from the cross. Then we will believe in him. ⁴³ He trusted God. So let God save him now, if God really wants him. He himself said, ‘I am the Son of God.’”

⁴⁴ And in the same way, the criminals on the crosses beside Jesus also insulted him.

[‡] 27:24 washed his hands Pilate did this as a sign to show that he wanted no part in what the people did. [§] 27:34 gall Probably used as a drug to relieve pain.

Jesus Dies(Mark 15:33-41; Luke 23:44-49; John 19:28-30)

⁴⁵ At noon the whole country became dark. The darkness continued for three hours.
⁴⁶ About three o'clock Jesus cried out loudly, "Eli, Eli, lema sabachthani?" This means "My God, my God, why have you left me alone?"[☆]

⁴⁷ Some of the people standing there heard this. They said, "He is calling Elijah."^{*}

⁴⁸ Quickly, one of them ran and got a sponge. He filled the sponge with sour wine and tied the sponge to a stick. Then he used the stick to give the sponge to Jesus to get a drink from it. ⁴⁹ But the others said, "Don't bother him. We want to see if Elijah will come to save him."

⁵⁰ Again Jesus cried out loudly and then died.[†]

⁵¹ When Jesus died, the curtain in the Temple was torn into two pieces. The tear started at the top and tore all the way to the bottom. Also, the earth shook and rocks were broken. ⁵² The graves opened, and many of God's people who had died were raised from death. ⁵³ They came out of the graves. And after Jesus was raised from death, they went into the holy city, and many people saw them.

⁵⁴ The army officer and the soldiers guarding Jesus saw this earthquake and everything that happened. They were very afraid and said, "He really was the Son of God!"

⁵⁵ Many women were standing away from the cross, watching. These were the women who had followed Jesus from Galilee to care for him. ⁵⁶ Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James and Joseph, and the mother of James and John[‡] were there.

Jesus Is Buried(Mark 15:42-47; Luke 23:50-56; John 19:38-42)

⁵⁷ That evening a rich man named Joseph came to Jerusalem. He was a follower of Jesus from the town of Arimathea. ⁵⁸ He went to Pilate and asked to have Jesus' body. Pilate gave orders for the soldiers to give Jesus' body to him. ⁵⁹ Then Joseph took the body and wrapped it in a new linen cloth. ⁶⁰ He put Jesus' body in a new tomb that he had dug in a wall of rock. Then he closed the tomb by rolling a very large stone to cover the entrance. After he did this, he went away. ⁶¹ Mary Magdalene and the other woman named Mary were sitting near the tomb.

The Tomb of Jesus Is Guarded

⁶² That day was the day called Preparation day. The next day, the leading priests and the Pharisees went to Pilate. ⁶³ They said, "Sir, we remember that while that liar was still alive he said, 'I will rise from death in three days.'" ⁶⁴ So give the order for the tomb to be guarded well for three days. His followers might come and try to steal the body. Then they could tell everyone that he has risen from death. That lie will be even worse than what they said about him before."

⁶⁵ Pilate said, "Take some soldiers and go guard the tomb the best way you know."
⁶⁶ So they all went to the tomb and made it safe from thieves. They did this by sealing the stone in the entrance and putting soldiers there to guard it.

News That Jesus Has Risen From Death(Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-12; John 20:1-10)

¹ The day after the Sabbath day was the first day of the week. That day at dawn Mary Magdalene and the other woman named Mary went to look at the tomb.

² Suddenly an angel of the Lord came from the sky, and there was a huge earthquake. The angel went to the tomb and rolled the stone away from the entrance. Then he sat on top of the stone. ³ The angel was shining as bright as lightning. His clothes were as white as snow. ⁴ The soldiers guarding the tomb were very afraid of the angel. They shook with fear and then became like dead men.

⁵ The angel said to the women, “Don’t be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus, the one who was killed on the cross. ⁶ But he is not here. He has risen from death, as he said he would. Come and see the place where his body was. ⁷ And go quickly and tell his followers, ‘Jesus has risen from death. He is going into Galilee and will be there before you. You will see him there.’ ” Then the angel said, “Now I have told you.”

⁸ So the women left the tomb quickly. They were afraid, but they were also very happy. They ran to tell his followers what happened. ⁹ Suddenly, Jesus was there in front of them. He said, “Hello!” The women went to him and, holding on to his feet, worshiped him. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Go tell my followers* to go to Galilee. They will see me there.”

Report to the Jewish Leaders

¹¹ The women went to tell the followers. At the same time, some of the soldiers who were guarding the tomb went into the city. They went to tell the leading priests everything that happened. ¹² Then the priests met with the older Jewish leaders and made a plan. They paid the soldiers a lot of money ¹³ and said to them, “Tell the people that Jesus’ followers came during the night and stole the body while you were sleeping. ¹⁴ If the governor hears about this, we will talk to him and keep you out of trouble.” ¹⁵ So the soldiers kept the money and obeyed the priests. And that story is still spread among the Jews even today.

Jesus Talks to His Followers

¹⁶ The eleven followers went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus told them to go. ¹⁷ On the mountain the followers saw Jesus. They worshiped him. But some of the followers did not believe that it was really Jesus. ¹⁸ So he came to them and said, “All authority in heaven and on earth is given to me. ¹⁹ So go and make followers of all people in the world. Baptize them in the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. ²⁰ Teach them to obey everything that I have told you to do. You can be sure that I will be with you always. I will continue with you until the end of time.”

John Prepares the Way for Jesus

(Matthew 3:1-12; Luke 3:1-9, 15-17; John 1:19-28)

¹ The Good News about Jesus the Messiah, the Son of God,* begins ² with what the prophet Isaiah said would happen. He wrote:

“Listen! I will send my messenger ahead of you.
He will prepare the way for you.”

Malachi 3:1

³ “There is someone shouting in the desert:
‘Prepare the way for the Lord.

Make the road straight for him.’ ”

Isaiah 40:3

⁴ So John the Baptizer came and was baptizing people in the desert area. He told them to be baptized to show that they wanted to change their lives, and then their sins would be forgiven. ⁵ All the people from Judea, including everyone from Jerusalem, came out to John. They confessed the bad things they had done, and he baptized them in the Jordan River.

⁶ John wore clothes made from camel’s hair and a leather belt around his waist. He ate locusts and wild honey.

⁷ This is what John told the people: “There is someone coming later who is able to do more than I can. I am not good enough to be the slave who stoops down to untie his sandals. ⁸ I baptize you with water, but the one who is coming will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

Jesus Is Baptized by John

(Matthew 3:13-17; Luke 3:21-22)

⁹ About that time Jesus came from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to the place where John was. John baptized Jesus in the Jordan River. ¹⁰ As Jesus was coming up out of the water, he saw the sky torn open. The Spirit came down on him like a dove. ¹¹ A voice came from heaven and said, “You are my Son, the one I love. I am very pleased with you.”

Jesus Goes Away to Be Tempted

(Matthew 4:1-11; Luke 4:1-13)

¹² Then the Spirit sent Jesus into the desert alone. ¹³ He was there for 40 days, being tempted by Satan. During this time he was out among the wild animals. Then angels came and helped him.

Jesus Begins His Work in Galilee

(Matthew 4:12-17; Luke 4:14-15)

¹⁴ After John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee and told people the Good News from God. ¹⁵ He said, “The right time is now here. God’s kingdom is very near.† Change your hearts and lives, and believe the Good News!”

Jesus Chooses Some Followers

(Matthew 4:18-22; Luke 5:1-11)

¹⁶ Jesus was walking by Lake Galilee. He saw Simon‡ and his brother Andrew. These two men were fishermen, and they were throwing a net into the lake to catch fish.

* 1:1 the Son of God Some Greek copies do not have these words. † 1:15 is very near Or “is coming soon” or “has come.” ‡ 1:16 Simon Simon’s other name was Peter. Also in verses 29, 30, 36.

¹⁷ Jesus said to them, “Come, follow me, and I will make you a different kind of fishermen. You will bring in people, not fish.” ¹⁸ So they immediately left their nets and followed Jesus.

¹⁹ Jesus continued walking by Lake Galilee. He saw two more brothers, James and John, the sons of Zebedee. They were in their boat, preparing their nets to catch fish. ²⁰ Their father Zebedee and the men who worked for him were in the boat with the brothers. When Jesus saw the brothers, he told them to come. They left their father and followed Jesus.

Jesus Frees a Man From an Evil Spirit
(Luke 4:31-37)

²¹ Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum. On the Sabbath day, Jesus went into the synagogue and taught the people. ²² They were amazed at his teaching. He did not teach like their teachers of the law. He taught like someone with authority. ²³ While Jesus was in the synagogue, a man was there who had an evil spirit inside him. The man shouted, ²⁴ “Jesus of Nazareth! What do you want with us? Did you come to destroy us? I know who you are—God’s Holy One!”

²⁵ Jesus, his voice full of warning, said, “Be quiet, and come out of him!” ²⁶ The evil spirit made the man shake. Then the spirit made a loud noise and came out of him.

²⁷ The people were amazed. They asked each other, “What is happening here? This man is teaching something new, and he teaches with authority! He even commands evil spirits, and they obey him.” ²⁸ So the news about Jesus spread quickly everywhere in the area of Galilee.

Jesus Heals Many People
(Matthew 8:14-17; Luke 4:38-41)

²⁹ Jesus and the followers left the synagogue. They all went with James and John to the home of Simon and Andrew. ³⁰ Simon’s mother-in-law was very sick. She was in bed and had a fever. The people there told Jesus about her. ³¹ So he went to her bed. Jesus held her hand and helped her stand up. The fever left her, and she was healed. Then she began serving them.

³² That night, after the sun went down, the people brought to Jesus many who were sick. They also brought those who had demons inside them. ³³ Everyone in the town gathered at the door of that house. ³⁴ Jesus healed many of those who had different kinds of sicknesses. He also forced many demons out of people. But he would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew who he was. §

Jesus Goes to Other Towns
(Luke 4:42-44)

³⁵ The next morning Jesus woke up very early. He left the house while it was still dark and went to a place where he could be alone and pray. ³⁶ Later, Simon and his friends went to look for Jesus. ³⁷ They found him and said, “Everyone is looking for you!”

³⁸ Jesus answered, “We should go to another place. We can go to other towns around here, and I can tell God’s message to those people too. That is why I came.” ³⁹ So Jesus traveled everywhere in Galilee. He spoke in the synagogues, and he forced demons out of people.

Jesus Heals a Sick Man
(Matthew 8:1-4; Luke 5:12-16)

⁴⁰ A man who had leprosy came to Jesus. The man bowed on his knees and begged him, “You have the power to heal me if you want.”

§ 1:34 who he was Meaning that the demons knew that Jesus was the Messiah, the Son of God.

⁴¹ These last words made Jesus angry.* But he touched him and said, “I want to heal you. Be healed!” ⁴² Immediately the leprosy disappeared, and the man was healed.

⁴³ Jesus told the man to go, but he gave him a strong warning: ⁴⁴ “Don’t tell anyone about what I did for you. But go and let the priest look at you.† And offer a gift to God because you have been healed. Offer the gift that Moses commanded.‡ This will show everyone that you are healed.” ⁴⁵ The man left there and told everyone he saw that Jesus had healed him. So the news about Jesus spread. And that is why he could not enter a town if people saw him. He stayed in places where people did not live. But people came from all the towns to the places where he was.

Jesus Heals a Crippled Man

(Matthew 9:1-8; Luke 5:17-26)

¹ A few days later, Jesus came back to Capernaum. The news spread that he was back home. ² A large crowd gathered to hear him speak. The house was so full that there was no place to stand, not even outside the door. While Jesus was teaching, ³ some people brought a paralyzed man to see him. He was being carried by four of them. ⁴ But they could not get the man inside to Jesus because the house was so full of people. So they went to the roof above Jesus and made a hole in it. Then they lowered the mat with the paralyzed man on it. ⁵ When Jesus saw how much faith they had, he said to the paralyzed man, “Young man, your sins are forgiven.”

⁶ Some of the teachers of the law were sitting there. They saw what Jesus did, and they said to themselves, ⁷ “Why does this man say things like that? What an insult to God! No one but God can forgive sins.”

⁸ Jesus knew immediately what these teachers of the law were thinking. So he said to them, “Why do you have these questions in your minds? ⁹⁻¹⁰ The Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins. But how can I prove this to you? Maybe you are thinking it was easy for me to say to the crippled man, ‘Your sins are forgiven.’ There’s no proof it really happened. But what if I say to the man, ‘Stand up. Take your mat and walk’? Then you will be able to see if I really have this power or not.” So Jesus said to the paralyzed man, ¹¹ “I tell you, stand up. Take your mat and go home.”

¹² Immediately the paralyzed man stood up. He picked up his mat and walked out of the room. Everyone could see him. They were amazed and praised God. They said, “This is the most amazing thing we have ever seen!”

Levi (Matthew) Follows Jesus

(Matthew 9:9-13; Luke 5:27-32)

¹³ Jesus went to the lake again, and many people followed him there. So Jesus taught them. ¹⁴ He was walking beside the lake, and he saw a man named Levi, son of Alphaeus. Levi was sitting at his place for collecting taxes. Jesus said to him, “Follow me.” Then Levi stood up and followed Jesus.

¹⁵ Later that day, Jesus and his followers ate at Levi’s house. There were also many tax collectors and others with bad reputations eating with them. (There were many of these people who followed Jesus.) ¹⁶ When some teachers of the law who were Pharisees saw Jesus eating with such bad people, they asked his followers, “Why does he eat with tax collectors and sinners?”

¹⁷ When Jesus heard this, he said to them, “It is the sick people who need a doctor, not those who are healthy. I did not come to invite good people. I came to invite sinners.”

* 1:41 These ... angry Most Greek copies have “Moved with pity ...” But it is hard to explain why some good Greek copies and Latin versions have “Filled with anger ...,” so many scholars now consider it to be the original reading.

† 1:44 let the priest look at you The Law of Moses said a priest must decide when a person with leprosy was well.

*Jesus Is Not Like
Other Religious Leaders*

(Matthew 9:14-17; Luke 5:33-39)

¹⁸ The followers of John and the Pharisees were fasting. Some people came to Jesus and said, “John’s followers fast, and the followers of the Pharisees fast. But your followers don’t fast. Why?”

¹⁹ Jesus answered, “At a wedding the friends of the bridegroom are not sad while he is with them. They cannot fast while the bridegroom is still there. ²⁰ But the time will come when the bridegroom will be taken from them. Then they will fast.

²¹ “When someone sews a patch over a hole in an old coat, they never use a piece of cloth that is not yet shrunk. If they do, the patch will shrink and pull away from the coat. Then the hole will be worse. ²² Also, no one ever pours new wine into old wineskins. The wine would break them, and the wine would be ruined along with the wineskins. You always put new wine into new wineskins.”

Jesus Is Lord Over the Sabbath Day

(Matthew 12:1-8; Luke 6:1-5)

²³ On the Sabbath day, Jesus and his followers were walking through some grain fields. The followers picked some grain to eat. ²⁴ Some Pharisees said to Jesus, “Why are your followers doing this? It is against the law to pick grain on the Sabbath.”

²⁵ Jesus answered, “You have read what David did when he and the people with him were hungry and needed food. ²⁶ It was during the time of Abiathar the high priest. David went into God’s house and ate the bread that was offered to God. And the Law of Moses says that only priests can eat that bread. David also gave some of the bread to the people with him.”

²⁷ Then Jesus said to the Pharisees, “The Sabbath day was made to help people. People were not made to be ruled by the Sabbath. ²⁸ So the Son of Man is Lord of every day, even the Sabbath.”

3

(Matthew 12:9-14; Luke 6:6-11)

¹ Another time Jesus went into the synagogue. In the synagogue there was a man with a crippled hand. ² Some Jews there were watching Jesus closely. They were waiting to see if he would heal the man on a Sabbath day. They wanted to see Jesus do something wrong so that they could accuse him. ³ Jesus said to the man with the crippled hand, “Stand up here so that everyone can see you.”

⁴ Then Jesus asked the people, “Which is the right thing to do on the Sabbath day: to do good or to do evil? Is it right to save a life or to destroy one?” The people said nothing to answer him.

⁵ Jesus looked at the people. He was angry, but he felt very sad because they were so stubborn. He said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” The man held out his hand, and it was healed. ⁶ Then the Pharisees left and made plans with the Herodians about a way to kill Jesus.

Many Follow Jesus

⁹ Jesus saw how many people there were, so he told his followers to get a small boat and make it ready for him. He wanted the boat so that the crowds of people could not push against him. ¹⁰ He had healed many of them, so all the sick people were pushing toward him to touch him. ¹¹ Some people had evil spirits inside them. When the evil spirits saw Jesus, they bowed before him and shouted, “You are the Son of God!” ¹² But Jesus gave the spirits a strong warning not to tell anyone who he was.

Jesus Chooses His Twelve Apostles
(Matthew 10:1-4; Luke 6:12-16)

¹³ Then Jesus went up on a hill and invited those he wanted to go with him. So they joined him there. ¹⁴ And he chose twelve men and called them apostles. He wanted these twelve men to be with him, and he wanted to send them to other places to tell people God’s message. ¹⁵ He also wanted them to have the power to force demons out of people. ¹⁶ These are the names of the twelve men Jesus chose:

Simon (the one Jesus named Peter),

¹⁷ James and his brother John, the sons of Zebedee (the ones Jesus named Boanerges, which means “Sons of Thunder”),

¹⁸ Andrew,

Philip,

Bartholomew,

Matthew,

Thomas,

James, the son of Alphaeus,

Thaddaeus,

Simon, the Zealot,

¹⁹ Judas Iscariot (the one who handed Jesus over to his enemies).

Jesus’ Power Is From God
(Matthew 12:22-32; Luke 11:14-23; 12:10)

²⁰ Then Jesus went home, but again a large crowd gathered there. There were so many people that he and his followers could not eat. ²¹ His family heard about all these things. They went to get him because people said he was crazy.

²² And the teachers of the law from Jerusalem said, “Satan* is living inside him! He uses power from the ruler of demons to force demons out of people.”

²³ So Jesus called them together and talked to them using some stories. He said, “Satan will not force his own demons out of people. ²⁴ A kingdom that fights against itself will not survive. ²⁵ And a family that is divided will not survive. ²⁶ If Satan is against himself and is fighting against his own people, he will not survive. That would be the end of Satan.

²⁷ “Whoever wants to enter a strong man’s house and steal his things must first tie him up. Then they can steal the things from his house.

²⁸ “I want you to know that people can be forgiven for all the sinful things they do. They can even be forgiven for the bad things they say against God. ²⁹ But anyone who speaks against the Holy Spirit will never be forgiven. They will always be guilty of that sin.”

³⁰ Jesus said this because the teachers of the law had accused him of having an evil spirit inside him.

Jesus’ Followers Are His True Family
(Matthew 12:46-50; Luke 8:19-21)

³¹ Then Jesus’ mother and brothers came. They stood outside and sent someone in to tell him to come out. ³² Many people were sitting around Jesus. They said to him, “Your mother and brothers are waiting for you outside.”

³³ Jesus asked, “Who is my mother? Who are my brothers?” ³⁴ Then he looked at the people sitting around him and said, “These people are my mother and my brothers! ³⁵ My true brother and sister and mother are those who do what God wants.”

A Story About a Farmer Sowing Seed(Matthew 13:1-9; Luke 8:4-8)

¹ Another time Jesus began teaching by the lake, and a large crowd gathered around him. He got into a boat so that he could sit and teach from the lake. All the people stayed on the shore near the water. ² Jesus used stories to teach them many things. One of his lessons included this story:

³ “Listen! A farmer went out to sow seed. ⁴ While he was scattering the seed, some of it fell by the road. The birds came and ate all that seed. ⁵ Other seed fell on rocky ground, where there was not enough dirt. It grew quickly there because the soil was not deep. ⁶ But then the sun rose and the plants were burned. They died because they did not have deep roots. ⁷ Some other seed fell among thorny weeds. The weeds grew and stopped the good plants from growing. So they did not make grain. ⁸ But some of the seed fell on good ground. There it began to grow, and it made grain. Some plants made 30 times more grain, some 60 times more, and some 100 times more.”

⁹ Then Jesus said, “You people who hear me, listen!”

Why Jesus Used Stories to Teach(Matthew 13:10-17; Luke 8:9-10)

¹⁰ Later, Jesus was away from the people. The twelve apostles and his other followers asked him about the stories.

¹¹ Jesus said, “Only you can know the secret truth about God’s kingdom. But to those other people I tell everything by using stories. ¹² I do this so that

‘They will look and look but never really see; they will listen and listen but never understand.
If they saw and understood,
they might change and be forgiven.’ ”

Isaiah 6:9-10Jesus Explains the Story About Seed(Matthew 13:18-23; Luke 8:11-15)

¹³ Then Jesus said to the followers, “Do you understand this story? If you don’t, how will you understand any story? ¹⁴ The farmer is like someone who plants God’s teaching in people. ¹⁵ Sometimes the teaching falls on the path. That is like some people who hear the teaching of God. As soon as they hear it, Satan comes and takes away the teaching that was planted in them.

¹⁶ “Other people are like the seed planted on rocky ground. They hear the teaching, and they quickly and gladly accept it. ¹⁷ But they don’t allow it to go deep into their lives. They keep it only a short time. As soon as trouble or persecution comes because of the teaching they accepted, they give up.

²⁰ “And others are like the seed planted on the good ground. They hear the teaching and accept it. Then they grow and produce a good crop—sometimes 30 times more, sometimes 60 times more, and sometimes 100 times more.”

Use the Understanding You Have(Luke 8:16-18)

²¹ Then Jesus said to them, “You don’t take a lamp and hide it under a bowl or a bed, do you? Of course not. You put it on a lampstand. ²² Everything that is hidden will be made clear. Every secret thing will be made known. ²³ You people who hear me, listen! ²⁴ Think carefully about what you are hearing. God will know how much to give you by how much you understand now. But he will give you more than you deserve. ²⁵ The people who have some understanding will receive more. But those who do not have much will lose even the small amount they have.”

* 4:19 produce a crop Meaning to do the good things God wants his people to do.

Jesus Uses a Story About Seed

²⁶ Then Jesus said, “God’s kingdom is like a man who plants seed in the ground. ²⁷ The seed begins to grow. It grows night and day. It doesn’t matter whether the man is sleeping or awake, the seed still grows. He doesn’t know how it happens. ²⁸ Without any help the ground produces grain. First the plant grows, then the head, and then all the grain in the head. ²⁹ When the grain is ready, the man cuts it. This is the harvest time.”

What Is God’s Kingdom Like?

(Matthew 13:31-32, 34-35; Luke 13:18-19)

³⁰ Then Jesus said, “What can I use to show you what God’s kingdom is like? What story can I use to explain it? ³¹ God’s kingdom is like a mustard seed, which is smaller than any other seed on earth that you can plant. ³² But when you plant it, it grows and becomes the largest of all the plants in your garden. It has branches that are very big. The wild birds can come and make nests there and be protected from the sun.”

³³ Jesus used many stories like these to teach the people. He taught them all they could understand. ³⁴ He always used stories to teach them. But when he was alone with his followers, Jesus explained everything to them.

Jesus’ Followers See His Power

³⁵ That day, at evening, Jesus said to his followers, “Come with me across the lake.” ³⁶ So they left the crowd behind and went with Jesus in the boat he was already in. There were also other boats that went with them. ³⁷ A very bad wind came up on the lake. The waves were coming over the sides and into the boat, and it was almost full of water. ³⁸ Jesus was inside the boat, sleeping with his head on a pillow. The followers went and woke him. They said, “Teacher, don’t you care about us? We are going to drown!”

³⁹ Jesus stood up and gave a command to the wind and the water. He said, “Quiet! Be still!” Then the wind stopped, and the lake became calm.

⁴⁰ He said to his followers, “Why are you afraid? Do you still have no faith?”

⁴¹ They were very afraid and asked each other, “What kind of man is this? Even the wind and the water obey him!”

5

Jesus Frees a Man From Evil Spirits

(Matthew 8:28-34; Luke 8:26-39)

¹ Jesus and his followers went across the lake to the area where the Gerasene people lived. ² When Jesus got out of the boat, a man came to him from the caves where the dead are buried. This man had an evil spirit living inside him. ³ He lived in the burial caves. No one could keep him tied up, even with chains. ⁴ Many times people had put chains on his hands and feet, but he broke the chains. No one was strong enough to control him. ⁵ Day and night he stayed around the burial caves and on the hills. He would scream and cut himself with rocks.

⁶ While Jesus was still far away, the man saw him. He ran to Jesus and bowed down before him. ⁷⁻⁸ As Jesus was saying, “You evil spirit, come out of this man,” the man shouted loudly, “What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you in God’s name not to punish me!”

⁹ Then Jesus asked the man, “What is your name?”

The man answered, “My name is Legion,* because there are many spirits inside me.”
¹⁰ The spirits inside the man begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of that area.

¹⁴ The men who had the work of caring for the pigs ran away. They ran to the town and to the farms and told everyone what happened. The people went out to see. ¹⁵ They came to Jesus, and they saw the man who had the many evil spirits. He was sitting down and was wearing clothes. He was in his right mind again. When they saw this, they were afraid. ¹⁶ Those who had seen what Jesus did told the others what happened to the man who had the demons living in him. And they also told about the pigs. ¹⁷ Then the people began to beg Jesus to leave their area.

¹⁸ Jesus was preparing to leave in the boat. The man who was now free from the demons begged to go with him. ¹⁹ But Jesus did not allow the man to go. He said, “Go home to your family and friends. Tell them about all that the Lord did for you. Tell them how the Lord was good to you.”

²⁰ So the man left and told the people in the Ten Towns about the great things Jesus did for him. Everyone was amazed.

*Jesus Gives Life to a Dead Girl
 and Heals a Sick Woman
 (Matthew 9:18-26; Luke 8:40-56)*

²¹ Jesus went back to the other side of the lake in the boat. There, a large crowd of people gathered around him on the shore. ²² A leader of the synagogue came. His name was Jairus. He saw Jesus and bowed down before him. ²³ He begged Jesus again and again, saying, “My little daughter is dying. Please come and lay your hands on her. Then she will be healed and will live.”

²⁴ So Jesus went with Jairus. Many people followed Jesus. They were pushing very close around him.

²⁵ There among the people was a woman who had been bleeding for the past twelve years. ²⁶ She had suffered very much. Many doctors had tried to help her, and all the money she had was spent, but she was not improving. In fact, her sickness was getting worse.

²⁷ The woman heard about Jesus, so she followed him with the other people and touched his coat. ²⁸ She thought, “If I can just touch his clothes, that will be enough to heal me.” ²⁹ As soon as she touched his coat, her bleeding stopped. She felt that her body was healed from all the suffering. ³⁰ Jesus immediately felt power go out from him, so he stopped and turned around. “Who touched my clothes?” he asked.

³¹ The followers said to Jesus, “There are so many people pushing against you. But you ask, ‘Who touched me?’ ”

³² But Jesus continued looking for the one who touched him. ³³ The woman knew that she was healed, so she came and bowed at Jesus’ feet. She was shaking with fear. She told Jesus the whole story. ³⁴ He said to her, “Dear woman, you are made well because you believed. Go in peace. You will not suffer anymore.”

³⁵ While Jesus was still there speaking, some men came from the house of Jairus, the synagogue leader. They said, “Your daughter is dead. There is no need to bother the Teacher.”

³⁶ But Jesus did not care what the men said. He said to the synagogue leader, “Don’t be afraid; just believe.”

* 5:9 Legion This name means very many. A legion was about 6000 men in the Roman army.

³⁷ Jesus let only Peter, James, and John the brother of James go with him. ³⁸ They went to the synagogue leader's house, where Jesus saw many people crying loudly. There was a lot of confusion. ³⁹ He entered the house and said, "Why are you people crying and making so much noise? This child is not dead. She is only sleeping." ⁴⁰ But everyone laughed at him.

Jesus told the people to leave the house. Then he went into the room where the child was. He brought the child's father and mother and his three followers into the room with him. ⁴¹ Then Jesus held the girl's hand and said to her, "Talitha, koum!" (This means "Little girl, I tell you to stand up!") ⁴² The girl immediately stood up and began walking. (She was twelve years old.) The father and mother and the followers were amazed. ⁴³ Jesus gave the father and mother very strict orders not to tell people about this. Then he told them to give the girl some food to eat.

Jesus Goes to His Hometown (Matthew 13:53-58; Luke 4:16-30)

¹ Jesus left and went back to his hometown. His followers went with him. ² On the Sabbath day Jesus taught in the synagogue, and many people heard him. They were amazed and said, "Where did this man get this teaching? How did he get such wisdom? Who gave it to him? And where did he get the power to do miracles? ³ Isn't he just the carpenter we know—Mary's son, the brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? And don't his sisters still live here in town?" So they had a problem accepting him.

⁴ Then Jesus said to them, "People everywhere give honor to a prophet, except in his own town, with his own people, or in his home." ⁵ Jesus was not able to do any miracles there except the healing of some sick people by laying his hands on them. ⁶ He was surprised that the people there had no faith. Then he went to other villages in that area and taught.

Jesus Sends His Apostles on a Mission (Matthew 10:1, 5-15; Luke 9:1-6)

⁷ Jesus called his twelve apostles together. He sent them out in groups of two and gave them power over evil spirits. ⁸ This is what he told them: "Take nothing for your trip except a stick for walking. Take no bread, no bag, and no money. ⁹ You can wear sandals, but don't take extra clothes. ¹⁰ When you enter a house, stay there until you leave that town. ¹¹ If any town refuses to accept you or refuses to listen to you, then leave that town and shake the dust off your feet* as a warning to them."

¹² The apostles left and went to other places. They talked to the people and told them to change their hearts and lives. ¹³ They forced many demons out of people and put olive oil on† many who were sick and healed them.

Herod Thinks Jesus Is John the Baptizer (Matthew 14:1-12; Luke 9:7-9)

¹⁴ King Herod heard about Jesus, because Jesus was now famous. Some people said, "He is John the Baptizer. He must have risen from death, and that is why he can do these miracles."

¹⁵ Other people said, "He is Elijah."

And others said, "He is a prophet. He is like the prophets who lived long ago."

¹⁶ Herod heard these things about Jesus. He said, "I killed John by cutting off his head. Now he has been raised from death!"

How John the Baptizer Was Killed

¹⁷ Herod himself had ordered his soldiers to arrest John and put him in prison. Herod did this to please his wife Herodias. She had been married to Herod's brother Philip, but then Herod married her. ¹⁸ John told Herod, "It is not right for you to be married to your brother's wife." ¹⁹ So Herodias hated John. She wanted him dead, but she was not able to persuade Herod to kill him. ²⁰ Herod was afraid to kill John, because he knew that he was a good and holy man. So he protected him. He liked listening to John, although what John said left him with so many questions.

So King Herod said to the girl, "I will give you anything you want." ²³ He promised her, "Anything you ask for I will give to you—even half of my kingdom."

²⁴ The girl went to her mother and asked, "What should I ask King Herod to give me?" Her mother answered, "Ask for the head of John the Baptizer."

²⁵ So right then the girl went back in to the king. She said to him, "Please give me the head of John the Baptizer. Bring it to me now on a plate."

²⁶ King Herod was very sad, but he didn't want to break the promise he had made to her in front of his guests. ²⁷ So he sent a soldier to cut off John's head and bring it to him. The soldier went and cut off John's head in the prison. ²⁸ He brought the head back on a plate and gave it to the girl, and the girl gave it to her mother. ²⁹ John's followers heard about what happened, so they came and got John's body and put it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds More Than 5000

(Matthew 14:13-21; Luke 9:10-17; John 6:1-14)

³⁰ The apostles Jesus had sent out came back to him. They gathered around him and told him about all they had done and taught. ³¹ Jesus and his followers were in a very busy place. There were so many people that he and his followers did not even have time to eat. He said to them, "Come with me. We will go to a quiet place to be alone. There we will get some rest."

³² So Jesus and his followers went away alone. They went in a boat to a place where no one lived. ³³ But many people saw them leave and knew who they were. So people from every town ran to the place where they were going and got there before Jesus. ³⁴ As Jesus stepped out of the boat, he saw a large crowd waiting. He felt sorry for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd to care for them. So he taught the people many things.

³⁵ It was now very late in the day. Jesus' followers came to him and said, "No one lives around here, and it is already very late. ³⁶ So send the people away. They need to go to the farms and towns around here to buy some food to eat."

³⁷ But Jesus answered, "You give them some food to eat."

They said to Jesus, "We can't buy enough bread to feed all these people. We would all have to work a month to earn enough to buy that much bread!"

³⁸ Jesus asked them, "How many loaves of bread do you have now? Go and see."

They counted their loaves of bread. They came to Jesus and said, "We have five loaves of bread and two fish."

³⁹ Then Jesus said to them, "Tell everyone to sit in groups on the green grass." ⁴⁰ So all the people sat in groups. There were about 50 or 100 people in each group.

⁴¹ Jesus took the five loaves and two fish. He looked up to the sky and thanked God for the food. Then he broke the bread into pieces, which he gave to his followers to distribute to the people. Then he divided the two fish among everyone there.

⁴² They all ate until they were full. ⁴³ After they finished eating, the followers filled twelve baskets with the pieces of bread and fish that were left. ⁴⁴ There were about 5000 men there who ate.

Jesus Walks on Water

(Matthew 14:22-33; John 6:16-21)

⁴⁵ Then Jesus told the followers to get into the boat. He told them to go to the other side of the lake to Bethsaida. He said he would come later. He stayed there to tell everyone they could go home. ⁴⁶ After he said goodbye to them, he went up into the hills to pray.

⁴⁷ That night, the boat was still in the middle of the lake. Jesus was alone on the land. ⁴⁸ He saw the boat far away on the lake. And he saw the followers working hard to row the boat. The wind was blowing against them. Sometime between three and six o'clock in the morning, Jesus went out to the boat, walking on the water. He continued walking until he was almost past the boat. ⁴⁹ But the followers saw Jesus walking on the water. They thought he was a ghost, and they started screaming. ⁵⁰ It scared them all to see him. But he spoke to them and said, "Don't worry! It's me! Don't be afraid." ⁵¹ When he got into the boat with the followers, the wind stopped. The followers were completely amazed. ⁵² They could not believe what happened. It was like the miracle he did with the bread. They still didn't understand what that meant.

Jesus Heals Many Sick People

⁵³ Jesus and his followers went across the lake and came to shore at Gennesaret. They tied the boat there. ⁵⁴ When they were out of the boat, the people there saw Jesus. They knew who he was, ⁵⁵ so they ran to tell others throughout that area. They brought sick people on mats to every place Jesus went. ⁵⁶ Jesus went into towns, cities, and farms around that area. And every place he went, the people brought sick people to the marketplaces. They begged him to let them touch any part of his coat. And all those who touched him were healed.

God's Law and Human Traditions

(Matthew 15:1-20)

¹ Some Pharisees and some teachers of the law came from Jerusalem and gathered around Jesus. ² They saw that some of his followers ate food with hands that were not clean, meaning that they did not wash their hands in a special way. ³ The Pharisees and all the other Jews never eat before washing their hands in this special way. They do this to follow the traditions they have from their great leaders who lived long ago. ⁴ And when these Jews buy something in the market, they never eat it until they wash it in a special way. They also follow other rules from their people who lived before them. They follow rules like the washing of cups, pitchers, and pots.*

⁵ The Pharisees and teachers of the law said to Jesus, "Your followers don't follow the traditions we have from our great leaders who lived long ago. They eat their food with hands that are not clean. Why do they do this?"

⁶ Jesus answered, "You are all hypocrites. Isaiah was right when he wrote these words from God about you:

'These people honor me with their words,
but I am not really important to them.

⁷ Their worship of me is worthless.
The things they teach are only human rules.'

Isaiah 29:13

* ^{7:4} pots Some Greek copies add "and couches."

⁸ You have stopped following God's commands, preferring instead the man-made rules you got from others."

⁹ Then he said, "You show great skill in avoiding the commands of God so that you can follow your own teachings! ¹⁰ Moses said, 'You must respect your father and mother.'[☆] He also said, 'Whoever says anything bad to their father or mother must be killed.'[☆] ¹¹ But you teach that people can say to their father or mother, 'I have something I could use to help you, but I will not use it for you. I will give it to God.'[†] ¹² You are telling people that they do not have to do anything for their father or mother. ¹³ So you are teaching that it is not important to do what God said. You think it is more important to follow those traditions you have, which you pass on to others. And you do many things like that."

¹⁴ Jesus called the people to him again. He said, "Everyone should listen to me and understand what I am saying. ¹⁵ There is nothing people can put in their mouth that will make them wrong.[†] People are made wrong by what comes from inside them." ¹⁶ ‡

¹⁷ Then Jesus left the people and went into the house. The followers asked Jesus about what he had told the people. ¹⁸ He said, "Do you still have trouble understanding? Surely you know that nothing that enters the mouth from the outside can make people unacceptable to God. ¹⁹ Food does not go into a person's mind. It goes into the stomach. Then it goes out of the body." (When Jesus said this, he meant there is no food that is wrong for people to eat.)

²⁰ And Jesus said, "The things that make people wrong are the things that come from the inside. ²¹ All these bad things begin inside a person, in the mind: bad thoughts, sexual sins, stealing, murder, ²² adultery, greed, doing bad things to people, lying, doing things that are morally wrong, jealousy, insulting people, proud talking, and foolish living. ²³ These evil things come from inside a person. And these are the things that make people unacceptable to God."

Jesus Helps a Non-Jewish Woman (Matthew 15:21-28)

²⁴ Jesus went from there to the area around Tyre. He did not want the people in that area to know he was there, so he went into a house. But he could not stay hidden. ²⁵ A woman heard that he was there. Her little daughter had an evil spirit inside her. So the woman came to Jesus and bowed down near his feet. ²⁶ She was not a Jew. She was born in Phoenicia, an area in Syria. She begged Jesus to force the demon out of her daughter.

²⁷ Jesus told the woman, "It is not right to take the children's bread and give it to the dogs. First let the children eat all they want."

²⁸ She answered, "That is true, Lord. But the dogs under the table can eat the pieces of food that the children don't eat."

²⁹ Then he told her, "That is a very good answer. You may go. The demon has left your daughter."

³⁰ The woman went home and found her daughter lying on the bed. The demon was gone.

Jesus Heals a Deaf Man

³¹ Then Jesus left the area around Tyre and went through Sidon. On his way to Lake Galilee he went through the area of the Ten Towns. ³² While he was there, some people brought a man to him who was deaf and could not talk clearly. The people begged Jesus to put his hand on the man to heal him.

³³ Jesus led the man away from the people to be alone with him. He put his fingers in the man's ears. Then he spit on a finger and put it on the man's tongue. ³⁴ Jesus looked up to the sky and with a loud sigh he said, “Ephphatha!” (This means “Open!”) ³⁵ As soon as Jesus did this, the man was able to hear. He was able to use his tongue, and he began to speak clearly.

³⁶ Jesus told the people not to tell anyone about this. But the more he told them not to say anything, the more people they told. ³⁷ They were all completely amazed. They said, “Look at what he has done. It’s all good. He makes deaf people able to hear and gives a new voice to people who could not talk.”

Jesus Feeds More Than 4000 (Matthew 15:32-39)

¹ Another time there were many people with Jesus. The people had nothing to eat. So he called his followers to him and said, ² “I feel sorry for these people. They have been with me for three days, and now they have nothing to eat. ³ I should not send them home hungry. If they leave without eating, they will faint on the way home. Some of them live a long way from here.”

⁴ Jesus’ followers answered, “But we are far away from any towns. Where can we get enough bread to feed all these people?”

⁵ Then Jesus asked them, “How many loaves of bread do you have?”

They answered, “We have seven loaves of bread.”

⁶ Jesus told the people to sit on the ground. Then he took the seven loaves and gave thanks to God. He broke the bread into pieces and gave them to his followers. He told them to give the bread to the people, and they did as he said. ⁷ The followers also had a few small fish. Jesus gave thanks for the fish and told them to give the fish to the people.

Some People Doubt Jesus’ Authority (Matthew 16:1-4; Luke 11:16, 29)

¹¹ The Pharisees came to Jesus and asked him questions. They wanted to test him. So they asked him to do a miracle as a sign from God. ¹² Jesus sighed deeply and said, “Why do you people ask to see a miracle as a sign? I want you to know that no miracle will be done to prove anything to you.” ¹³ Then Jesus left them and went in the boat to the other side of the lake.

Jesus’ Followers Misunderstand Him (Matthew 16:5-12)

¹⁶ The followers discussed the meaning of this. They said, “He said this because we have no bread.”

¹⁷ Jesus knew that the followers were talking about this. So he asked them, “Why are you talking about having no bread? Do you still not see or understand? Are you not able to understand? ¹⁸ Do you have eyes that can’t see? Do you have ears that can’t hear? Remember what I did before, when we did not have enough bread? ¹⁹ I divided five loaves of bread for 5000 people. Remember how many baskets you filled with pieces of food that were not eaten?”

The followers answered, “We filled twelve baskets.”

²⁰ “And when I divided seven loaves of bread for 4000 people, how many baskets did you fill with the leftover pieces?”

They answered, “We filled seven baskets.”

²¹ Then he said to them, “You remember these things I did, but you still don’t understand?”

Jesus Heals a Blind Man in Bethsaida

²² Jesus and his followers came to Bethsaida. Some people brought a blind man to him and begged him to touch the man. ²³ So Jesus held the blind man’s hand and led him out of the village. Then he spit on the man’s eyes. He laid his hands on him and asked, “Can you see now?”

²⁴ The man looked up and said, “Yes, I see people. They look like trees walking around.”

²⁵ Again Jesus laid his hands on the man’s eyes, and the man opened them wide. His eyes were healed, and he was able to see everything clearly. ²⁶ Jesus told him to go home. He said, “Don’t go into the town.”

Peter Says Jesus Is the Messiah

(Matthew 16:13-20; Luke 9:18-21)

²⁷ Jesus and his followers went to the towns in the area of Caesarea Philippi. While they were traveling, Jesus asked the followers, “Who do people say I am?”

²⁸ They answered, “Some people say you are John the Baptizer. Others say you are Elijah. And others say you are one of the prophets.”

²⁹ Then Jesus asked, “Who do you say I am?”

Peter answered, “You are the Messiah.”

³⁰ Jesus told the followers, “Don’t tell anyone who I am.”

Jesus Says He Must Die

(Matthew 16:21-28; Luke 9:22-27)

³¹ Then Jesus began to teach his followers that the Son of Man must suffer many things. He taught that the Son of Man would not be accepted by the older Jewish leaders, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law. He said that the Son of Man must be killed and then rise from death after three days. ³² Jesus told them everything that would happen. He did not keep anything secret.

Peter took Jesus away from the other followers to talk to him alone. Peter criticized him for saying these things. ³³ But Jesus turned and looked at his followers. Then he criticized Peter. He said to Peter, “Get away from me, Satan*! You don’t care about the same things God does. You care only about things that people think are important.”

³⁴ Then Jesus called the crowd and his followers to him. He said, “Any of you who want to be my follower must stop thinking about yourself and what you want. You must be willing to carry the cross that is given to you for following me. ³⁵ Any of you who try to save the life you have will lose it. But you who give up your life for me and for the Good News will save it. ³⁶ It is worth nothing for you to have the whole world if you yourself are lost. ³⁷ You could never pay enough to buy back your life. ³⁸ People today are so sinful. They have not been faithful to God. As you live among them, don’t be ashamed of me and my teaching. If that happens, I† will be ashamed of you when I come with the glory of my Father and the holy angels.”

¹ Then Jesus said, “Believe me when I say that some of you people standing here will see God’s kingdom come with power before you die.”

Jesus Is Seen With Moses and Elijah

(Matthew 17:1-13; Luke 9:28-36)

² Six days later, Jesus took Peter, James, and John and went up on a high mountain. They were all alone there. While these followers watched him, Jesus was changed. ³ His clothes became shining white—whiter than anyone on earth could make them. ⁴ Then two men were there talking with Jesus. They were Elijah and Moses.

⁵ Peter said to Jesus, “Teacher, it is good that we are here. We will put three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” ⁶ Peter did not know what to say, because he and the other two followers were so afraid.

⁷ Then a cloud came and covered them. A voice came from the cloud and said, “This is my Son, the one I love. Obey him!”

⁸ The followers looked, but they saw only Jesus there alone with them.

⁹ As Jesus and the followers were walking back down the mountain, he gave them these instructions: “Don’t tell anyone about what you saw on the mountain. Wait until after the Son of Man rises from death. Then you can tell people what you saw.”

¹² Jesus answered, “They are right to say that Elijah must come first. Elijah makes all things the way they should be. But why do the Scriptures say that the Son of Man will suffer much and that people will think he is worth nothing? ¹³ I tell you that Elijah has already come. And people did to him all the bad things they wanted to do. The Scriptures said this would happen to him.”

Jesus Frees a Boy From an Evil Spirit
(Matthew 17:14-20; Luke 9:37-43a)

¹⁴ Then Jesus, Peter, James, and John went to the other followers. They saw many people around them. The teachers of the law were arguing with the followers. ¹⁵ When the people saw Jesus, they were very surprised and ran to welcome him.

¹⁶ Jesus asked, “What are you arguing about with the teachers of the law?”

¹⁷ A man answered, “Teacher, I brought my son to you. He is controlled by an evil spirit that keeps him from talking. ¹⁸ The spirit attacks him and throws him on the ground. He foams at the mouth, grinds his teeth, and becomes very stiff. I asked your followers to force the evil spirit out, but they could not.”

¹⁹ Jesus answered, “You people today don’t believe! How long must I stay with you? How long must I be patient with you? Bring the boy to me!”

²⁰ So the followers brought the boy to Jesus. When the evil spirit saw Jesus, it attacked the boy. The boy fell down and rolled on the ground. He was foaming at the mouth.

²¹ Jesus asked the boy’s father, “How long has this been happening to him?”

The father answered, “Since he was very young. ²² The spirit often throws him into a fire or into water to kill him. If you can do anything, please have pity on us and help us.”

²³ Jesus said to the father, “Why did you say ‘if you can’? All things are possible for the one who believes.”

²⁴ Immediately the father shouted, “I do believe. Help me to believe more!”

²⁵ Jesus saw that all the people were running there to see what was happening. So he spoke to the evil spirit. He said, “You evil spirit that makes this boy deaf and stops him from talking—I command you to come out of him and never enter him again!”

²⁶ The evil spirit screamed. It caused the boy to fall on the ground again, and then it came out. The boy looked as if he was dead. Many people said, “He is dead!” ²⁷ But Jesus took hold of his hand and helped him stand up.

²⁸ Then Jesus went into the house. His followers were alone with him there. They said, “Why weren’t we able to force that evil spirit out?”

²⁹ Jesus answered, “That kind of spirit can be forced out only with prayer.†”

Jesus Talks About His Death(Matthew 17:22-23; Luke 9:43b-45)

³⁰ Then Jesus and his followers left there and went through Galilee. Jesus did not want the people to know where they were. ³¹ He wanted to teach his followers alone. He said to them, “The Son of Man will be handed over to the control of other men, who will kill him. After three days, he will rise from death.” ³² But the followers did not understand what he meant, and they were afraid to ask him.

Who Is the Greatest?(Matthew 18:1-5; Luke 9:46-48)

³³ Jesus and his followers went to Capernaum. They went into a house, and Jesus said to them, “I heard you arguing on the way here today. What were you arguing about?” ³⁴ But the followers did not answer, because their argument on the road was about which one of them was the greatest.

³⁵ Jesus sat down and called the twelve apostles to him. He said, “Whoever wants to be the most important must make others more important than themselves. They must serve everyone else.”

³⁶ Then Jesus took a small child and stood the child in front of the followers. He held the child in his arms and said, ³⁷ “Whoever accepts children like these in my name is accepting me. And anyone who accepts me is also accepting the one who sent me.”

Whoever Is Not Against Us Is For Us(Luke 9:49-50)

³⁸ Then John said, “Teacher, we saw a man using your name to force demons out of someone. He is not one of us. So we told him to stop, because he does not belong to our group.”

³⁹ Jesus said, “Don’t stop him. Whoever uses my name to do powerful things will not soon say bad things about me. ⁴⁰ Whoever is not against us is with us. ⁴¹ I can assure you that anyone who helps you by giving you a drink of water because you belong to the Messiah will definitely get a reward.

Jesus Warns About Causes of Sin(Matthew 18:6-9; Luke 17:1-2)

⁴² “If one of these little children believes in me, and someone causes that child to sin, it will be very bad for that person. It would be better for them to have a millstone tied around their neck and be drowned in the sea. ⁴³ If your hand makes you sin, cut it off. It is better for you to lose part of your body and have eternal life than to have two hands and go to hell. There the fire never stops. ⁴⁴ † ⁴⁵ If your foot makes you sin, cut it off. It is better for you to lose part of your body and have eternal life than to have two feet and be thrown into hell. ⁴⁶ § ⁴⁷ If your eye makes you sin, take it out. It is better for you to have only one eye and enter God’s kingdom than to have two eyes and be thrown into hell. ⁴⁸ The worms that eat the people in hell never die. The fire there is never stopped.

⁴⁹ “Everyone will be salted with fire.*

⁵⁰ “Salt is good. But if it loses its salty taste, you can’t make it good again. So, don’t lose that good quality of salt you have. And live in peace with each other.”

Jesus Teaches About Divorce(Matthew 19:1-12)

† 9:44 Some Greek copies add verse 44, which is the same as verse 48. § 9:46 Some Greek copies add verse 46, which is the same as verse 48. * 9:49 Some Greek copies add, “and every sacrifice will be salted with salt.” In the Old Testament salt was put on sacrifices. This verse could mean that Jesus’ followers will be tested by suffering and that they must offer themselves to God as sacrifices.

¹ Then Jesus left there and went into the area of Judea and across the Jordan River. Again, many people came to him, and Jesus taught them as he always did.

² Some Pharisees came to Jesus and tried to make him say something wrong. They asked him, “Is it right for a man to divorce his wife?”

³ Jesus answered, “What did Moses command you to do?”

⁴ The Pharisees said, “Moses allowed a man to divorce his wife by writing a certificate of divorce.”*

⁵ Jesus said, “Moses wrote that command for you because you refused to accept God’s teaching. ⁶ But when God made the world, ‘he made people male and female.’[☆] ⁷ ‘That is why a man will leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife. ⁸ And the two people will become one.’[☆] So they are no longer two, but one. ⁹ God has joined them together, so no one should separate them.”

¹⁰ Later, when the followers and Jesus were in the house, they asked him again about the question of divorce. ¹¹ He said, “Whoever divorces his wife and marries another woman has sinned against his wife. He is guilty of adultery. ¹² And the woman who divorces her husband and marries another man is also guilty of adultery.”

Jesus Welcomes Children

(Matthew 19:13-15; Luke 18:15-17)

¹³ People brought their small children to Jesus so that he could lay his hands on them to bless them. But the followers told the people to stop bringing their children to him.

¹⁴ Jesus saw what happened. He did not like his followers telling the children not to come. So he said to them, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t stop them, because God’s kingdom belongs to people who are like these little children. ¹⁵ The truth is, you must accept God’s kingdom like a little child accepts things, or you will never enter it.”

¹⁶ Then Jesus held the children in his arms. He laid his hands on them and blessed them.

A Rich Man Refuses to Follow Jesus

(Matthew 19:16-30; Luke 18:18-30)

¹⁷ Jesus started to leave, but a man ran to him and bowed down on his knees before him. The man asked, “Good Teacher, what must I do to get the life that never ends?”

¹⁸ Jesus answered, “Why do you call me good? Only God is good. ¹⁹ And you know his commands: ‘You must not murder anyone, you must not commit adultery, you must not steal, you must not lie, you must not cheat, you must respect your father and mother’[☆]”

²⁰ The man said, “Teacher, I have obeyed all these commands since I was a boy.”

²¹ Jesus looked at the man in a way that showed how much he cared for him. He said, “There is still one thing you need to do. Go and sell everything you have. Give the money to those who are poor, and you will have riches in heaven. Then come and follow me.”

²² The man was upset when Jesus told him to give away his money. He didn’t want to do this, because he was very rich. So he went away sad.

²³ Then Jesus looked at his followers and said to them, “It will be very hard for a rich person to enter God’s kingdom!”

²⁴ The followers were amazed at what Jesus said. But he said again, “My children, it is very hard to enter God’s kingdom! ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter God’s kingdom!”

²⁶ The followers were even more amazed and said to each other, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁷ Jesus looked at them and said, “That is something people cannot do, but God can. He can do anything.”

²⁸ Peter said to Jesus, “We left everything to follow you!”

Here in this world they will get more homes, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and farms. And with these things they will have persecutions. But in the world that is coming they will also get the reward of eternal life. ³¹ Many people who have the highest place now will have the lowest place in the future. And the people who have the lowest place now will have the highest place then.”

Jesus Talks Again About His Death

³² Jesus and those with him were on their way to Jerusalem. He was at the front of the group. His followers were wondering what was happening, and the people who followed behind them were feeling afraid. Jesus gathered the twelve apostles again and talked with them alone. He told them what would happen in Jerusalem. ³³ He said, “We are going to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the leading priests and teachers of the law. They will say that he must die and will hand him over to the foreigners, ³⁴ who will laugh at him and spit on him. They will beat him with whips and kill him. But on the third day after his death, he will rise to life again.”

James and John Ask for a Favor

(Matthew 20:20-28)

³⁵ Then James and John, sons of Zebedee, came to Jesus and said, “Teacher, we want to ask you to do something for us.”

³⁶ Jesus asked, “What do you want me to do for you?”

³⁷ The sons answered, “Let us share the great honor you will have as king. Let one of us sit at your right side and the other at your left.”

³⁸ Jesus said, “You don’t understand what you are asking. Can you drink from the cup[†] that I must drink from? Can you be baptized with the same baptism[‡] that I must go through?”

³⁹ The sons answered, “Yes, we can!”

Jesus said to the sons, “It is true that you will drink from the cup that I drink from. And you will be baptized with the same baptism that I must go through. ⁴⁰ But it is not for me to say who will sit at my right or my left. God has prepared those places for the ones he chooses.”

⁴¹ When the other ten followers heard this, they were angry with James and John.

⁴² Jesus called all the followers together. He said, “The non-Jewish people have men they call rulers. You know that those rulers love to show their power over the people. And their important leaders love to use all their authority over the people. ⁴³ But it should not be that way with you. Whoever wants to be your leader must be your servant.

⁴⁴ Whoever wants to be first must serve the rest of you like a slave. ⁴⁵ Follow my example: Even the Son of Man did not come for people to serve him. He came to serve others and to give his life to save many people.”

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

⁴⁶ Then they came to the town of Jericho. When Jesus left there with his followers, a large crowd was with them. A blind man named Bartimaeus (meaning “son of Timaeus”) was sitting by the road. He was always begging for money. ⁴⁷ He heard that Jesus from Nazareth was walking by. So he began shouting, “Jesus, Son of David, please help me!”

[†] 10:38 cup A symbol of suffering. Jesus used the idea of drinking from a cup to mean accepting the suffering he would face in the terrible events that were soon to come. Also in verse 39. [‡] 10:38 baptized with the same baptism Baptism, which usually means to be immersed in water, has a special meaning here—being covered or “buried” in troubles. Also in verse 39.

⁴⁸ Many people criticized the blind man and told him to be quiet. But he shouted more and more, “Son of David, please help me!”

⁴⁹ Jesus stopped and said, “Tell him to come here.”

So they called the blind man and said, “You can be happy now. Stand up! Jesus is calling you.” ⁵⁰ The blind man stood up quickly. He left his coat there and went to Jesus.

⁵¹ Jesus asked the man, “What do you want me to do for you?”

He answered, “Teacher, I want to see again.”

⁵² Jesus said, “Go. You are healed because you believed.” Immediately the man was able to see again. He followed Jesus down the road.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem Like a King

(Matthew 21:1-11; Luke 19:28-40; John 12:12-19)

¹ Jesus and his followers were coming closer to Jerusalem. They came to the towns of Bethphage and Bethany at the Mount of Olives. There Jesus sent two of his followers to do something. ² He said to them, “Go to the town you can see there. When you enter it, you will find a young donkey that no one has ever ridden. Untie it and bring it here to me. ³ If anyone asks you why you are taking the donkey, tell them, ‘The Master needs it. He will send it back soon.’”

⁴ The followers went into the town. They found a young donkey tied in the street near the door of a house, and they untied it. ⁵ Some people were standing there and saw this. They asked, “What are you doing? Why are you untying that donkey?” ⁶ The followers answered the way Jesus told them, and the people let them take the donkey.

⁷ The followers brought the donkey to Jesus. They put their coats on it, and Jesus sat on it. ⁸ Many people spread their coats on the road for Jesus. Others cut branches in the fields and spread the branches on the road. ⁹ Some of them were walking ahead of Jesus. Others were walking behind him. Everyone shouted,

“ ‘Praise* Him!’

‘Welcome! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord!’ Psalm 118:25-26

¹⁰ “God bless the kingdom of our father David.

That kingdom is coming!

Praise to God in heaven!”

¹¹ Jesus entered Jerusalem and went to the Temple. He looked at everything in the Temple area, but it was already late. So he went to Bethany with the twelve apostles.

Jesus Says a Fig Tree Will Die

(Matthew 21:18-19)

¹² The next day, Jesus was leaving Bethany. He was hungry. ¹³ He saw a fig tree with leaves. So he went to the tree to see if it had any figs growing on it. But he found no figs on the tree. There were only leaves, because it was not the right time for figs to grow.

¹⁴ So Jesus said to the tree, “People will never eat fruit from you again.” His followers heard him say this.

Jesus Goes to the Temple

(Matthew 21:12-17; Luke 19:45-48; John 2:13-22)

¹⁵ Jesus went to Jerusalem and entered the Temple area. He began driving out the people who were buying and selling things there. He turned over the tables that belonged to those who were exchanging different kinds of money. And he turned over the benches of those who were selling doves. ¹⁶ He refused to allow anyone to carry things through the Temple area. ¹⁷ Then Jesus began teaching the people and said, “It is written in the Scriptures, ‘My Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations.’[☆] But you have changed it into a ‘hiding place for thieves.’[☆]”

* 11:9 Praise Literally, “Hosanna,” a Hebrew word used in praying to God for help. Here, it was probably a shout of celebration used in praising God or his Messiah. Also in verse 10.

¹⁸ When the leading priests and the teachers of the law heard what Jesus said, they began trying to find a way to kill him. They were afraid of him because all the people were amazed at his teaching. ¹⁹ That night Jesus and his followers left the city.

Jesus Shows the Power of Faith

²⁰ The next morning Jesus was walking with his followers. They saw the fig tree that he spoke to the day before. The tree was dry and dead, even the roots. ²¹ Peter remembered the tree and said to Jesus, “Teacher, look! Yesterday, you told that fig tree to die. Now it is dry and dead!”

²² Jesus answered, “Have faith in God. ²³ The truth is, you can say to this mountain, ‘Go, mountain, fall into the sea.’ And if you have no doubts in your mind and believe that what you say will happen, then God will do it for you. ²⁴ So I tell you to ask for what you want in prayer. And if you believe that you have received those things, then they will be yours. ²⁵ When you are praying and you remember that you are angry with another person about something, forgive that person. Forgive them so that your Father in heaven will also forgive your sins.” ²⁶ †

Jewish Leaders Doubt Jesus’ Authority
(Matthew 21:23-27; Luke 20:1-8)

²⁷ Jesus and his followers went again to Jerusalem. Jesus was walking in the Temple area. The leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the older Jewish leaders came to him. ²⁸ They said, “Tell us! What authority do you have to do these things? Who gave you this authority?”

²⁹ Jesus answered, “I will ask you a question. You answer my question. Then I will tell you whose authority I use to do these things. ³⁰ Tell me: When John baptized people, did his authority come from God or was it only from other people? Answer me.”

³¹ These Jewish leaders talked about Jesus’ question. They said to each other, “If we answer, ‘John’s baptism was from God,’ then he will say, ‘Then why didn’t you believe John?’ ³² But we can’t say that John’s baptism was from someone else.” (These leaders were afraid of the people, because the people believed that John was a prophet.)

³³ So the leaders answered Jesus, “We don’t know the answer.”

Jesus said, “Then I will not tell you who gave me the authority to do these things.”

God Sends His Son
(Matthew 21:33-46; Luke 20:9-19)

¹ Jesus used stories to teach the people. He said, “A man planted a vineyard. He put a wall around the field and dug a hole for a winepress. Then he built a tower. He leased the land to some farmers and left for a trip.

² “Later, it was time for the grapes to be picked. So the man sent a servant to the farmers to get his share of the grapes. ³ But the farmers grabbed the servant and beat him. They sent him away with nothing. ⁴ Then the man sent another servant to the farmers. They hit this servant on the head, showing no respect for him. ⁵ So the man sent another servant. The farmers killed this servant. The man sent many other servants to the farmers. The farmers beat some of them and killed the others.

☆ 11:17 Quote from Isaiah 56:7. ☆ 11:17 Quote from Jeremiah 7:11. † 11:26 Some early Greek copies add verse 26: “But if you don’t forgive others, then your Father in heaven will not forgive your sins.”

⁶ “The man had only one person left to send to the farmers. It was his son. He loved his son, but he decided to send him. He said, ‘The farmers will respect my son.’

⁷ “But the farmers said to each other, ‘This is the owner’s son, and this vineyard will be his. If we kill him, it will be ours.’ ⁸ So they took the son, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him.

⁹ “So what will the man who owns the vineyard do? He will go and kill those farmers. Then he will lease the land to others. ¹⁰ Surely you have read this in the Scriptures:

‘The stone that the builders refused to accept
became the cornerstone.

¹¹ The Lord did this,
and it is wonderful to us.’ ”

Psalms 118:22-23

¹² When these Jewish leaders heard this story, they knew it was about them. They wanted to find a way to arrest Jesus, but they were afraid of what the crowd would do. So they left him and went away.

The Jewish Leaders Try to Trick Jesus

(Matthew 22:15-22; Luke 20:20-26)

¹³ Later, the Jewish leaders sent some Pharisees and some men from the group called Herodians to Jesus. They wanted to catch him saying something wrong. ¹⁴ They went to Jesus and said, “Teacher, we know that you are an honest man. You are not afraid of what others think about you. All people are the same to you. And you teach the truth about God’s way. Tell us, is it right to pay taxes to Caesar? Should we pay them or not?”

¹⁵ But Jesus knew that these men were really trying to trick him. He said, “Why are you trying to catch me saying something wrong? Bring me a silver coin. Let me see it.”

¹⁶ They gave Jesus a coin and he asked, “Whose picture is on the coin? And whose name is written on it?” They answered, “It is Caesar’s picture and Caesar’s name.”

¹⁷ Then Jesus said to them, “Give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.” The men were amazed at what Jesus said.

Some Sadducees Try to Trick Jesus

¹⁸ Then some Sadducees came to Jesus. (Sadducees believe that no one will rise from death.) They asked him a question: ¹⁹ “Teacher, Moses wrote that if a married man dies and had no children, his brother must marry the woman. Then they will have children for the dead brother.* ²⁰ There were seven brothers. The first brother married but died. He had no children. ²¹ So the second brother married the woman. But he also died and had no children. The same thing happened with the third brother. ²² All seven brothers married the woman and died. None of the brothers had any children with her. And she was the last to die. ²³ But all seven brothers had married her. So at the time when people rise from death, whose wife will she be?”

²⁴ Jesus answered, “How could you be so wrong? It’s because you don’t know what the Scriptures say. And you don’t know anything about God’s power. ²⁵ When people rise from death, there will be no marriage. People will not be married to each other. All people will be like angels in heaven. ²⁶ Surely you have read what God said about people rising from death. In the book where Moses wrote about the burning bush,† it says that God told Moses this: ‘I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’‡²⁷ So they were not still dead, because he is the God only of living people. You Sadducees are so wrong!”

Which Command Is the Most Important?

(Matthew 22:34-40; Luke 10:25-28)

²⁸ One of the teachers of the law came to Jesus. He heard Jesus arguing with the Sadducees and the Pharisees. He saw that Jesus gave good answers to their questions. So he asked him, “Which of the commands is the most important?”

²⁹ Jesus answered, “The most important command is this: ‘People of Israel, listen! The Lord our God is the only Lord. ³⁰ Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength.’[✠] ³¹ The second most important command is this: ‘Love your neighbor[‡] the same as you love yourself.’[✠] These two commands are the most important.”

³² The man answered, “That was a good answer, Teacher. You are right in saying that God is the only Lord and that there is no other God. ³³ And you must love God with all your heart, all your mind, and all your strength. And you must love others the same as you love yourself. These commands are more important than all the animals and sacrifices we offer to God.”

³⁴ Jesus saw that the man answered him wisely. So he said to him, “You are close to God’s kingdom.” And after that time, no one was brave enough to ask Jesus any more questions.

*Is the Messiah David’s Son
or David’s Lord?*

(Matthew 22:41-46; Luke 20:41-44)

³⁵ Jesus was teaching in the Temple area. He asked, “Why do the teachers of the law say that the Messiah is the son of David? ³⁶ With the help of the Holy Spirit, David himself says,

‘The Lord God said to my Lord:

Sit by me at my right side,

and I will put your enemies under your control.’[§]

Psalm 110:1

³⁷ David himself calls the Messiah ‘Lord.’ So how can the Messiah be David’s son?” Many people listened to Jesus and were very pleased.

Jesus Criticizes the Teachers of the Law

(Matthew 23:1-36; Luke 20:45-47)

³⁸ Jesus continued teaching. He said, “Be careful of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around wearing clothes that look important. And they love for people to show respect to them in the marketplaces. ³⁹ They love to have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. ⁴⁰ But they cheat widows and take their homes. Then they try to make themselves look good by saying long prayers. God will punish them very much.”

True Giving

(Luke 21:1-4)

⁴¹ Jesus sat near the Temple collection box* and watched as people put money into it. Many rich people put in a lot of money. ⁴² Then a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth less than a penny.

⁴³ Jesus called his followers to him and said, “This poor widow put in only two small coins. But the truth is, she gave more than all those rich people. ⁴⁴ They have plenty, and they gave only what they did not need. This woman is very poor, but she gave all she had. It was money she needed to live on.”

Jesus Warns About the Future (Matthew 24:1-44; Luke 21:5-33)

¹ Jesus was leaving the Temple area. One of his followers said to him, “Teacher, look how big those stones are! What beautiful buildings!”

² Jesus said, “Do you see these great buildings? They will all be destroyed. Every stone will be thrown down to the ground. Not one stone will be left on another.”

³ Later, Jesus was sitting at a place on the Mount of Olives. He was alone with Peter, James, John, and Andrew. They could all see the Temple, and they said to Jesus, ⁴ “Tell us when these things will happen. And what will show us it is time for them to happen?”

⁵ Jesus said to them, “Be careful! Don’t let anyone fool you. ⁶ Many people will come and use my name. They will say, ‘I am the Messiah,*’ and they will fool many people. ⁷ You will hear about wars that are being fought. And you will hear stories about other wars beginning. But don’t be afraid. These things must happen before the end comes. ⁸ Nations will fight against other nations. Kingdoms will fight against other kingdoms. There will be times when there is no food for people to eat. And there will be earthquakes in different places. These things are only the beginning of troubles, like the first pains of a woman giving birth.

⁹ “You must be careful! There are people who will arrest you and take you to be judged for being my followers. They will beat you in their synagogues. You will be forced to stand before kings and governors. You will tell them about me. ¹⁰ Before the end comes, the Good News must be told to all nations. ¹¹ Even when you are arrested and put on trial, don’t worry about what you will say. Say whatever God tells you at the time. It will not really be you speaking. It will be the Holy Spirit.

¹² “Brothers will turn against their own brothers and hand them over to be killed. Fathers will hand over their own children to be killed. Children will fight against their own parents and have them killed. ¹³ All people will hate you because you follow me. But those who remain faithful to the end will be saved.

¹⁴ “You will see ‘the terrible thing that causes destruction.’† You will see this thing standing in the place where it should not be.” (Reader, I trust you understand what this means.) “Everyone in Judea at that time should run away to the mountains. ¹⁵ They should run away without wasting time to stop for anything. If someone is on the roof of their house, they must not go down to take things out of the house. ¹⁶ If someone is in the field, they must not go back to get a coat.

¹⁷ “During that time it will be hard for women who are pregnant or have small babies. ¹⁸ Pray that these things will not happen in winter, ¹⁹ because those days will be full of trouble. There will be more trouble than has ever happened since the beginning, when God made the world. And nothing that bad will ever happen again. ²⁰ But the Lord has decided to make that terrible time short. If it were not made short, no one could survive. But the Lord will make that time short to help the special people he has chosen.

²¹ “Someone might say to you at that time, ‘Look, there is the Messiah!’ Or another person might say, ‘There he is!’ But don’t believe them. ²² False messiahs and false prophets will come and do miracles and wonders,‡ trying to fool the people God has chosen, if that is possible. ²³ So be careful. Now I have warned you about all this before it happens.

²⁴ “During the days following that time of trouble,

and the moon will not give light.

²⁸ "The fig tree teaches us a lesson: When its branches become green and soft, and new leaves begin to grow, then you know that summer is very near. ²⁹ In the same way, when you see all these things happening, you will know that the time* is very near, already present. ³⁰ I assure you that all these things will happen while some of the people of this time are still living. ³¹ The whole world, earth and sky, will be destroyed, but my words will last forever.

³² "No one knows when that day or time will be. The Son and the angels in heaven don't know when that day or time will be. Only the Father knows. ³³ Be careful! Always be ready. You don't know when that time will be.

³⁴ "It's like a man who goes on a trip and leaves his house in the care of his servants. He gives each one a special job to do. He tells the servant guarding the door to always be ready. And this is what I am telling you now. ³⁵ You must always be ready. You don't know when the owner of the house will come back. He might come in the afternoon, or at midnight, or in the early morning, or when the sun rises. ³⁶ If you are always ready, he will not find you sleeping, even if he comes back earlier than expected. ³⁷ I tell you this, and I say it to everyone: 'Be ready!' The Jewish Leaders Plan to Kill Jesus (Matthew 26:1-5; Luke 22:1-2; John 11:45-53)

¹ It was now only two days before the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread. The leading priests and teachers of the law were trying to find a way to arrest Jesus without the people seeing it. Then they could kill him. ² They said, "But we cannot arrest Jesus during the festival. We don't want the people to be angry and cause a riot."

A Woman Does Something Special (Matthew 26:6-13; John 12:1-8)

³ Jesus was in Bethany at the house of Simon the leper. While he was eating there, a woman came to him. She had an alabaster jar filled with expensive perfume made of pure nard. She opened the jar and poured the perfume on Jesus' head.

⁴ Some of the followers there saw this. They were upset and complained to each other. They said, "Why waste that perfume? ⁵ It was worth a full year's pay.* It could have been sold and the money given to those who are poor." And they told the woman what a bad thing she had done.

⁶ Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why are you giving her such trouble? She did a very good thing for me. ⁷ You will always have the poor with you,† and you can help them any time you want. But you will not always have me. ⁸ This woman did the only thing she could do for me. She poured perfume on my body before I die to prepare it for burial. ⁹ The Good News will be told to people all over the world. And I can assure you that everywhere the Good News is told, the story of what this woman did will also be told, and people will remember her.”

Judas Agrees to Help Jesus' Enemies
(Matthew 26:14-16; Luke 22:3-6)

¹⁰ Then Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve apostles, went to talk to the leading priests about handing Jesus over to them. ¹¹ They were very happy about this, and they promised to pay him. So he waited for the best time to hand Jesus over to them.

The Passover Meal
(Matthew 26:17-25; Luke 22:7-14, 21-23; John 13:21-30)

¹² It was now the first day of the Festival of Unleavened Bread—the day the lambs were killed for the Passover. Jesus' followers came to him and said, “We will go and prepare everything for you to eat the Passover meal. Where do you want us to have the meal?”

¹³ Jesus sent two of his followers into the city. He said to them, “Go into the city. You will see a man carrying a jar of water. He will come to you. Follow him. ¹⁴ He will go into a house. Tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks that you show us the room where he and his followers can eat the Passover meal.’ ¹⁵ The owner will show you a large room upstairs that is ready for us. Prepare the meal for us there.”

¹⁶ So the followers left and went into the city. Everything happened the way Jesus said. So the followers prepared the Passover meal.

¹⁷ In the evening Jesus went to that house with the twelve apostles. ¹⁸ While they were all at the table eating, he said, “Believe me when I say that one of you will hand me over to my enemies—one of you eating with me now.”

¹⁹ The followers were very sad to hear this. Each one said to Jesus, “Surely I am not the one!”

²⁰ Jesus answered, “It is one of you twelve—the one who is dipping his bread in the same bowl with me. ²¹ The Son of Man will suffer what the Scriptures say will happen to him. But it will be very bad for the one who hands over the Son of Man to be killed. It would be better for him if he had never been born.”

The Lord's Supper
(Matthew 26:26-30; Luke 22:15-20; 1 Corinthians 11:23-25)

²² While they were eating, Jesus took some bread and thanked God for it. He broke off some pieces, gave them to his followers and said, “Take and eat this bread. It is my body.”

²³ Then he took a cup of wine, thanked God for it, and gave it to them. They all drank from the cup. ²⁴ Then he said, “This wine is my blood, which will be poured out for many to begin the new agreement from God to his people. ²⁵ I want you to know, I will not drink this wine again until that day when I drink it in God's kingdom and the wine is new.”

²⁶ They all sang a song and then went out to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Says His Followers Will Leave Him
(Matthew 26:31-35; Luke 22:31-34; John 13:36-38)

²⁷ Then Jesus told the followers, “You will all lose your faith. The Scriptures say,

‘I will kill the shepherd,
and the sheep will run away.’

Zechariah 13:7

²⁸ But after I am killed, I will rise from death. Then I will go to Galilee. I will be there before you come.”

²⁹ Peter said, “All the other followers may lose their faith. But my faith will never be shaken.”

³⁰ Jesus answered, “The truth is, tonight you will say you don’t know me. You will say it three times before the rooster crows twice.”

³¹ But Peter strongly protested, “I will never say I don’t know you! I will even die with you!” And all the other followers said the same thing.

Jesus Prays Alone

(Matthew 26:36-46; Luke 22:39-46)

³² Jesus and his followers went to a place named Gethsemane. He said to them, “Sit here while I pray.” ³³ But he told Peter, James, and John to come with him. He began to be very distressed and troubled, ³⁴ and he said to them, “My heart is so heavy with grief, I feel as if I am dying. Wait here and stay awake.”

³⁵ Jesus went on a little farther away from them, fell to the ground, and prayed. He asked that, if possible, he would not have this time of suffering. ³⁶ He said, “Abba,[‡] Father! You can do all things. Don’t make me drink from this cup.[§] But do what you want, not what I want.”

³⁷ Then he went back to his followers and found them sleeping. He said to Peter, “Simon, why are you sleeping? Could you not stay awake with me for one hour? ³⁸ Stay awake and pray for strength against temptation. Your spirit wants to do what is right, but your body is weak.”

³⁹ Again Jesus went away and prayed the same thing. ⁴⁰ Then he went back to the followers and again found them sleeping. They could not stay awake. They did not know what they should say to him.

⁴¹ After Jesus prayed a third time, he went back to his followers. He said to them, “Are you still sleeping and resting? That’s enough! The time has come for the Son of Man to be handed over to the control of sinful men. ⁴² Stand up! We must go. Here comes the man who is handing me over to them.”

Jesus Is Arrested

⁴³ While Jesus was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve apostles, came there. He had a big crowd of people with him, all carrying swords and clubs. They had been sent from the leading priests, the teachers of the law, and the older Jewish leaders.

⁴⁴ Judas^{*} planned to do something to show them which one was Jesus. He said, “The one I kiss will be Jesus. Arrest him and guard him while you lead him away.” ⁴⁵ So Judas went over to Jesus and said, “Teacher!” Then he kissed him. ⁴⁶ The men grabbed Jesus and arrested him. ⁴⁷ One of the followers standing near Jesus grabbed his sword and pulled it out. He swung it at the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

⁴⁸ Then Jesus said, “Why do you come to get me with swords and clubs as if I were a criminal? ⁴⁹ Every day I was with you teaching in the Temple area. You did not arrest me there. But all these things have happened to show the full meaning of what the Scriptures said.” ⁵⁰ Then all of Jesus’ followers left him and ran away.

⁵¹ One of those following Jesus was a young man wearing only a linen cloth. When the people tried to grab him, ⁵² he left the cloth in their hands and ran away naked.

Jesus Before the Jewish Leaders

(Matthew 26:57-68; Luke 22:54-55, 63-71; John 18:13-14, 19-24)

⁵³ Those who arrested Jesus led him to the house of the high priest. All the leading priests, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law were gathered there.

⁵⁴ Peter followed Jesus but stayed back at a distance. He followed him to the yard of [‡] 14:36 Abba An Aramaic word that was used by Jewish children as a name for their fathers. [§] 14:36 cup A symbol of suffering. the high priest's house. He went into the yard and sat there with the guards, warming himself by their fire.

⁵⁵ The leading priests and the whole high council tried to find something that Jesus had done wrong so they could kill him. But the council could find no proof that would allow them to kill Jesus. ⁵⁶ Many people came and told lies against Jesus, but they all said different things. None of them agreed.

⁵⁷ Then some others stood up and told more lies against Jesus. They said, ⁵⁸ “We heard this man[†] say, ‘I will destroy this Temple built by human hands. And three days later, I will build another Temple not made by human hands.’” ⁵⁹ But also what these people said did not agree.

⁶⁰ Then the high priest stood up before everyone and said to Jesus, “These people said things against you. Do you have something to say about their charges? Are they telling the truth?” ⁶¹ But Jesus said nothing to answer him.

The high priest asked Jesus another question: “Are you the Messiah, the Son of the blessed God?”

⁶² Jesus answered, “Yes, I am the Son of God. And in the future you will see the Son of Man sitting at the right side of God All-Powerful. And you will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven.”

⁶³ When the high priest heard this, he tore his clothes in anger. He said, “We don’t need any more witnesses! ⁶⁴ You all heard these insults to God. What do you think?”

Everyone agreed that Jesus was guilty and must be killed. ⁶⁵ Some of the people there spit at him. They covered his eyes and hit him with their fists. They said, “Be a prophet[‡] and tell us who hit you!” Then the guards led Jesus away and beat him.

Peter Is Afraid to Say He Knows Jesus

(Matthew 26:69-75; Luke 22:56-62; John 18:15-18, 25-27)

⁶⁶ While Peter was still in the yard, a servant girl of the high priest came there. ⁶⁷ She saw him warming himself by the fire. She looked closely at him and said, “You were with Jesus, that man from Nazareth.”

⁶⁸ But Peter said this was not true. “That makes no sense,” he said. “I don’t know what you are talking about!” Then he left and went to the entrance of the yard, and a rooster crowed.[§]

⁶⁹ When the servant girl saw him there, she began saying again to the people standing around, “This man is one of them.” ⁷⁰ Again Peter said it was not true.

A short time later, the people standing there said, “We know you are one of them, because you are from Galilee.”

⁷¹ Then Peter began to curse. He said, “I swear to God, I don’t know this man you are talking about!”

⁷² As soon as Peter said this, the rooster crowed the second time. Then he remembered what Jesus had told him: “Before the rooster crows twice, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” Then Peter began to cry.

Governor Pilate Questions Jesus

(Matthew 27:1-2, 11-14; Luke 23:1-5; John 18:28-38)

¹ Very early in the morning, the leading priests, the older Jewish leaders, the teachers of the law, and the whole high council decided what to do with Jesus. They tied him, led him away, and handed him over to Governor Pilate.

² Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus answered, “Yes, that is right.”

[†] 14:58 this man That is, Jesus. His enemies avoided saying his name. [‡] 14:65 prophet A prophet often knows things that are hidden to other people. [§] 14:68 Some Greek copies do not have “and a rooster crowed.”

³ The leading priests accused Jesus of many things. ⁴ So Pilate asked Jesus another question. He said, “You can see that these people are accusing you of many things. Why don’t you answer?”

⁵ But Jesus still did not answer, and this really surprised Pilate.

Pilate Tries but Fails to Free Jesus

(Matthew 27:15-31; Luke 23:13-25; John 18:39—19:16)

⁶ Every year at the Passover time the governor would free one prisoner—whichever one the people wanted. ⁷ There was a man in prison at that time named Barabbas. He and the rebels with him had been put in prison for committing murder during a riot.

⁸ The people came to Pilate and asked him to free a prisoner as he always did. ⁹ Pilate asked them, “Do you want me to free the king of the Jews?” ¹⁰ Pilate knew that the leading priests had handed Jesus over to him because they were jealous of him. ¹¹ But the leading priests persuaded the people to ask Pilate to free Barabbas, not Jesus.

¹² Pilate asked the people again, “So what should I do with this man you call the king of the Jews?”

¹³ The people shouted, “Kill him on a cross!”

¹⁴ Pilate asked, “Why? What wrong has he done?”

But the people shouted louder and louder, “Kill him on a cross!”

¹⁵ Pilate wanted to please the people, so he set Barabbas free for them. And he told the soldiers to beat Jesus with whips. Then he handed him over to the soldiers to be killed on a cross.

¹⁶ Pilate’s soldiers took Jesus into the governor’s palace (called the Praetorium). They called all the other soldiers together. ¹⁷ They put a purple robe on Jesus, made a crown from thorny branches, and put it on his head. ¹⁸ Then they began shouting, “Welcome, king of the Jews!” ¹⁹ They kept on beating his head with a stick and spitting on him. Then they bowed down on their knees and pretended to honor him as a king. ²⁰ After they finished making fun of him, they took off the purple robe and put his own clothes on him again. Then they led him out of the palace to be killed on a cross.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

²¹ There was a man from Cyrene named Simon walking into the city from the fields. He was the father of Alexander and Rufus. The soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross. ²² They led Jesus to the place called Golgotha. (Golgotha means “The Place of the Skull.”) ²³ There they gave him some wine mixed with myrrh, but he refused to drink it. ²⁴ The soldiers nailed Jesus to a cross. Then they divided his clothes among themselves, throwing dice to see who would get what.

²⁵ It was nine o’clock in the morning when they nailed Jesus to the cross. ²⁶ There was a sign with the charge against him written on it. It said, “THE KING OF THE JEWS.” ²⁷ They also nailed two criminals to crosses beside Jesus—one on the right and the other on the left. ²⁸ *

³¹ The leading priests and the teachers of the law were also there. They made fun of Jesus the same as the other people did. They said to each other, “He saved others, but he can’t save himself! ³² If he is really the Messiah, the king of Israel, he should come down from the cross now. When we see this, then we will believe in him.” The criminals on the crosses beside Jesus also said bad things to him.

Jesus Dies

(Matthew 27:45-56; Luke 23:44-49; John 19:28-30)

* 15:28 Some Greek copies add verse 28: “And this showed the full meaning of the Scripture that says, ‘They put him with criminals.’”

³⁵ Some of the people standing there heard this. They said, "Listen! He is calling Elijah."[†]

³⁶ One man there ran and got a sponge. He filled the sponge with sour wine and tied it to a stick. Then he used the stick to give the sponge to Jesus to get a drink from it. The man said, "We should wait now and see if Elijah will come to take him down from the cross."

³⁷ Then Jesus cried out loudly and died.

³⁸ When Jesus died, the curtain in the Temple was torn into two pieces. The tear started at the top and tore all the way to the bottom. ³⁹ The army officer who was standing there in front of the cross saw what happened when Jesus died. The officer said, "This man really was the Son of God!"

⁴⁰ Some women were standing away from the cross, watching. Among these women were Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary the mother of James and Joses. (James was her youngest son.) ⁴¹ These were the women who had followed Jesus in Galilee and cared for him. Many other women who had come with Jesus to Jerusalem were also there.

Jesus Is Buried

(Matthew 27:57-61; Luke 23:50-56; John 19:38-42)

⁴² This day was called Preparation day. (That means the day before the Sabbath day.) It was becoming dark. ⁴³ A man named Joseph from Arimathea was brave enough to go to Pilate and ask for Jesus' body. Joseph was an important member of the high council. He was one of the people who wanted God's kingdom to come.

⁴⁴ Pilate was surprised to hear that Jesus was already dead. So he called for the army officer in charge and asked him if Jesus was already dead. ⁴⁵ When Pilate heard it from the officer, he told Joseph he could have the body.

⁴⁶ Joseph bought some linen cloth. He took the body from the cross, wrapped it in the linen, and put the body in a tomb that was dug in a wall of rock. Then he closed the tomb by rolling a large stone to cover the entrance. ⁴⁷ Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses saw the place where Jesus was put.

News That Jesus Has Risen From Death

(Matthew 28:1-8; Luke 24:1-12; John 20:1-10)

¹ The next day after the Sabbath day, Mary Magdalene, Salome, and Mary the mother of James bought some sweet-smelling spices to put on Jesus' body. ² Very early on that day, the first day of the week, the women were going to the tomb. It was very early after sunrise. ³ The women said to each other, "There is a large stone covering the entrance of the tomb. Who will move the stone for us?"

⁴ Then the women looked and saw that the stone was moved. The stone was very large, but it was moved away from the entrance. ⁵ The women walked into the tomb and saw a young man there wearing a white robe. He was sitting on the right side of the tomb. The women were afraid.

⁶ But the man said, "Don't be afraid. You are looking for Jesus from Nazareth, the one who was killed on a cross. He has risen from death! He is not here. Look, here is the place they put him when he was dead. ⁷ Now go and tell his followers. And be sure to tell Peter. Tell them, 'Jesus is going into Galilee and will be there before you come. You will see him there, as he told you before.' "

[☆] 15:34 Quote from Psalm 22:1. [†] 15:35 He is calling Elijah" The word for "My God" (Eli in Hebrew or Eloi in Aramaic) sounded to the people like the name of Elijah, a famous man who spoke for God about 850 B.C.

⁸ The women were very afraid and confused. They left the tomb and ran away. They did not tell about what happened, because they were afraid.*

Some Followers See Jesus

(Matthew 28:9-10; John 20:11-18; Luke 24:13-35)

⁹ Jesus rose from death early on the first day of the week. He appeared first to Mary Magdalene. One time in the past Jesus had forced seven demons out of Mary. ¹⁰ After Mary saw Jesus, she went and told his followers. They were very sad and were crying. ¹¹ But Mary told them that Jesus was alive. She said that she had seen Jesus, but they did not believe her.

¹² Later, Jesus appeared to two followers while they were walking in the country. But Jesus did not look the same as before he was killed. ¹³ These followers went back to the other followers and told them what happened. Again, the followers did not believe them.

Jesus Talks to His Followers

¹⁴ Later, Jesus appeared to the eleven followers while they were eating. He criticized them because they had so little faith. They were stubborn and refused to believe the people who said Jesus had risen from death.

¹⁵ He said to them, “Go everywhere in the world. Tell the Good News to everyone. ¹⁶ Whoever believes and is baptized will be saved. But those who do not believe will be judged guilty. ¹⁷ And the people who believe will be able to do these things as proof: They will use my name to force demons out of people. They will speak in languages they never learned. ¹⁸ If they pick up snakes or drink any poison, they will not be hurt. They will lay their hands on sick people, and they will get well.”

Jesus Goes Back to Heaven

(Luke 24:50-53; Acts 1:9-11)

¹⁹ After the Lord Jesus said these things to his followers, he was carried up into heaven. There, Jesus sat at the right side of God. ²⁰ The followers went everywhere in the world telling people the Good News, and the Lord helped them. By giving them power to do miracles the Lord proved that their message was true.

* 16:8 Some of the oldest Greek copies end the book here. A few later copies have this shorter ending: “But they soon gave all the instructions to Peter and those with him. After that Jesus himself sent them out from east to west with the holy message that will never change—that people can be saved forever.”

Luke

Luke Writes About the Life of Jesus

Many others have tried to give a report of the things that happened among us to complete God's plan. ² What they have written agrees with what we learned from the people who saw those events from the beginning. They also served God by telling people his message. ³ I studied it all carefully from the beginning. Then I decided to write it down for you in an organized way. ⁴ I did this so that you can be sure that what you have been taught is true.

Zechariah and Elizabeth

⁵ During the time when Herod ruled Judea, there was a priest named Zechariah. He belonged to Abijah's group.* His wife came from the family of Aaron. Her name was Elizabeth. ⁶ Zechariah and Elizabeth were both good people who pleased God. They did everything the Lord commanded, always following his instructions completely. ⁷ But they had no children. Elizabeth could not have a baby, and both of them were very old.

⁸ Zechariah was serving as a priest before God for his group. It was his group's time to serve. ⁹ The priests always chose one priest to offer the incense, and Zechariah was the one chosen this time. So he went into the Temple of the Lord to offer the incense. ¹⁰ There was a large crowd outside praying at the time the incense was offered.

¹¹ Then, on the right side of the incense table, an angel of the Lord came and stood before Zechariah. ¹² When he saw the angel, Zechariah was upset and very afraid. ¹³ But the angel said to him, "Zechariah, don't be afraid. Your prayer has been heard by God. Your wife Elizabeth will give birth to a baby boy, and you will name him John. ¹⁴ You will be very happy, and many others will share your joy over his birth. ¹⁵ He will be a great man for the Lord. He will never drink wine or beer. Even before he is born, he will be filled with the Holy Spirit.

¹⁶ "John will help many people of Israel return to the Lord their God. ¹⁷ John himself will go ahead of the Lord and make people ready for his coming. He will be powerful like Elijah and will have the same spirit. He will make peace between fathers and their children. He will cause people who are not obeying God to change and start thinking the way they should."

¹⁸ Zechariah said to the angel, "How can I know that what you say is true? I am an old man, and my wife is also old."

¹⁹ The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, the one who always stands ready before God. He sent me to talk to you and to tell you this good news. ²⁰ Now, listen! You will not be able to talk until the day when these things happen. You will lose your speech because you did not believe what I told you. But everything I said will really happen."

²¹ Outside, the people were still waiting for Zechariah. They were surprised that he was staying so long in the Temple. ²² Then Zechariah came outside, but he could not speak to them. So the people knew that he had seen a vision inside the Temple. He was not able to speak, so he could only make signs to the people. ²³ When his time of service was finished, he went home.

²⁴ Later, Zechariah's wife Elizabeth became pregnant. So she did not go out of her house for five months. She said, ²⁵ "Look what the Lord has done for me! He decided to help me. Now people will stop thinking there is something wrong with me."

The Virgin Mary

* 1:5 Abijah's group Jewish priests were divided into 24 groups. See 1 Chron. 24.

²⁹ But Mary was very confused about what the angel said. She wondered, "What does this mean?"

³⁰ The angel said to her, "Don't be afraid, Mary, because God is very pleased with you. ³¹ Listen! You will become pregnant and have a baby boy. You will name him Jesus. ³² He will be great. People will call him the Son of the Most High God, and the Lord God will make him king like his ancestor David. ³³ He will rule over the people of Jacob forever; his kingdom will never end."

³⁴ Mary said to the angel, "How will this happen? I am still a virgin."

³⁵ The angel said to Mary, "The Holy Spirit will come to you, and the power of the Most High God will cover you. The baby will be holy and will be called the Son of God. ³⁶ And here's something else: Your relative Elizabeth is pregnant. She is very old, but she is going to have a son. Everyone thought she could not have a baby, but she has been pregnant now for six months. ³⁷ God can do anything!"

³⁸ Mary said, "I am the Lord's servant. Let this thing you have said happen to me!" Then the angel went away.

Mary Visits Zechariah and Elizabeth

³⁹ Mary got up and went quickly to a town in the hill country of Judea. ⁴⁰ She went into Zechariah's house and greeted Elizabeth. ⁴¹ When Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the unborn baby inside her jumped, and she was filled with the Holy Spirit.

⁴² In a loud voice she said to Mary, "God has blessed you more than any other woman. And God has blessed the baby you will have. ⁴³ You are the mother of my Lord, and you have come to me! Why has something so good happened to me? ⁴⁴ When I heard your voice, the baby inside me jumped with joy. ⁴⁵ Great blessings are yours because you believed what the Lord said to you! You believed this would happen."

Mary Praises God

⁴⁶ Then Mary said,

"I praise the Lord with all my heart.

⁴⁷ I am very happy because God is my Savior.

⁴⁸ I am not important,

but he has shown his care for me, his lowly servant.

From now until the end of time,

people will remember how much God blessed me.

⁴⁹ Yes, the Powerful One has done great things for me.

His name is very holy.

⁵⁰ He always gives mercy to those who worship him.

⁵¹ He reached out his arm and showed his power.

He scattered those who are proud and think great things about themselves.

⁵² He brought down rulers from their thrones and raised up the humble people.

⁵³ He filled the hungry with good things,

but he sent the rich away with nothing.

⁵⁴ God has helped Israel—the people he chose to serve him.

He did not forget his promise to give us his mercy.

⁵⁵ He has done what he promised to our ancestors, to Abraham and his children forever."

⁵⁶ Mary stayed with Elizabeth for about three months and then went home.

The Birth of John

⁵⁷ When it was time for Elizabeth to give birth, she had a boy. ⁵⁸ Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord was very good to her, and they were happy for her.

⁵⁹ When the baby was eight days old, they came to circumcise him. They wanted to name him Zechariah because this was his father's name. ⁶⁰ But his mother said, "No, he will be named John."

⁶¹ The people said to Elizabeth, "But no one in your family has that name." ⁶² Then they made signs to his father, "What would you like to name him?"

⁶³ Zechariah asked for something to write on. Then he wrote, "His name is John." Everyone was surprised. ⁶⁴ Then Zechariah could talk again, and he began praising God. ⁶⁵ And all their neighbors were afraid. In all the hill country of Judea, people continued talking about these things. ⁶⁶ Everyone who heard about these things wondered about them. They thought, "What will this child be?" They could see that the Lord was with him.

Zechariah Praises God

⁶⁷ Then Zechariah, John's father, was filled with the Holy Spirit and told the people a message from God:

⁶⁸ "Praise to the Lord God of Israel.
He has come to help his people and has given them freedom.

⁶⁹ He has given us a powerful Savior from the family of his servant David.

⁷⁰ This is what he promised through his holy prophets long ago.

⁷¹ He will save us from our enemies and from the power of all those who hate us.

⁷² God said he would show mercy to our fathers, and he remembered his holy agreement.

⁷³ This was the promise he made to our father Abraham, ⁷⁴ a promise to free us from the power of our enemies,
so that we could serve him without fear
⁷⁵ in a way that is holy and right for as long as we live.

⁷⁶ "Now you, little boy, will be called a prophet of the Most High God.
You will go first before the Lord to prepare the way for him.

⁷⁷ You will make his people understand that they will be saved by having their sins forgiven.

⁷⁸ "With the loving mercy of our God,
a new day[†] from heaven will shine on us.

⁷⁹ It will bring light to those who live in darkness, in the fear of death.
It will guide us into the way that brings peace."

⁸⁰ And so the little boy John grew up and became stronger in spirit. Then he lived in areas away from other people until the time when he came out to tell God's message to the people of Israel.

[†] 1:78 new day Literally, "dawn," used here as a symbol, probably meaning the Lord's Messiah.

The Birth of Jesus Christ
(Matthew 1:18-25)

¹ It was about that same time that Augustus Caesar sent out an order to all people in the countries that were under Roman rule. The order said that everyone's name must be put on a list. ² This was the first counting of all the people while Quirinius was governor of Syria. ³ Everyone traveled to their own hometowns to have their name put on the list.

⁴ So Joseph left Nazareth, a town in Galilee, and went to the town of Bethlehem in Judea. It was known as the town of David. Joseph went there because he was from the family of David. ⁵ Joseph registered with Mary because she was engaged to marry him. (She was now pregnant.) ⁶ While Joseph and Mary were in Bethlehem, the time came for her to have the baby. ⁷ She gave birth to her first son. She wrapped him up well and laid him in a box where cattle are fed. She put him there because the guest room was full.

Some Shepherds Hear About Jesus

⁸ That night, some shepherds were out in the fields near Bethlehem watching their sheep. ⁹ An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord was shining around them. The shepherds were very afraid. ¹⁰ The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid. I have some very good news for you—news that will make everyone happy. ¹¹ Today your Savior was born in David's town. He is the Messiah, the Lord. ¹² This is how you will know him: You will find a baby wrapped in pieces of cloth and lying in a feeding box."

¹³ Then a huge army of angels from heaven joined the first angel, and they were all praising God, saying,

¹⁴ "Praise God in heaven, and on earth let there be peace to the people who please him."

¹⁵ The angels left the shepherds and went back to heaven. The shepherds said to each other, "Let's go to Bethlehem and see this great event the Lord has told us about."

¹⁶ So they went running and found Mary and Joseph. And there was the baby, lying in the feeding box. ¹⁷ When they saw the baby, they told what the angels said about this child. ¹⁸ Everyone was surprised when they heard what the shepherds told them. ¹⁹ Mary continued to think about these things, trying to understand them. ²⁰ The shepherds went back to their sheep, praising God and thanking him for everything they had seen and heard. It was just as the angel had told them.

²¹ When the baby was eight days old, he was circumcised, and he was named Jesus. This name was given by the angel before the baby began to grow inside Mary.

Jesus Is Presented in the Temple

²² The time came for Mary and Joseph to do the things the Law of Moses taught about being made pure.* They brought Jesus to Jerusalem so that they could present him to the Lord. ²³ It is written in the law of the Lord: "When a mother's first baby is a boy, he shall be called 'special for the Lord.'"† ²⁴ The law of the Lord also says that people must give a sacrifice: "You must sacrifice two doves or two young pigeons."‡ So Joseph and Mary went to Jerusalem to do this.

Simeon Sees Jesus

²⁵ A man named Simeon lived in Jerusalem. He was a good man who was devoted to God. He was waiting for the time when God would come to help Israel. The Holy Spirit was with him. ²⁶ The Holy Spirit told him that he would not die before he saw the Messiah from the Lord. ²⁷ The Spirit led Simeon to the Temple. So he was there when Mary and Joseph brought the baby Jesus to do what the Jewish law said they must do. ²⁸ Simeon took the baby in his arms and thanked God:

* 2:22 pure The Law of Moses said that 40 days after a Jewish woman gave birth to a baby, she must be made ritually clean by a ceremony at the Temple. See Leviticus 12:2-8. † 2:23 "When ... 'special for the Lord'" See Exodus 13:2, 12. ‡ 2:24 Quote from Leviticus 12:8.

²⁹ “Now, Lord, you can let me, your servant, die in peace as you said.

³⁰ I have seen with my own eyes how you will save your people.

³¹ Now all people can see your plan.

³² He is a light to show your way to the other nations.

And he will bring honor to your people Israel.”

³³ Jesus’ father and mother were amazed at what Simeon said about him. ³⁴ Then Simeon blessed them and said to Mary, “Many Jews will fall and many will rise because of this boy. He will be a sign from God that some will not accept. ³⁵ So the secret thoughts of many will be made known. And the things that happen will be painful for you—like a sword cutting through your heart.”

Anna Sees Jesus

³⁶ Anna, a prophetess, was there at the Temple. She was from the family of Phanuel in the tribe of Asher. She was now very old. She had lived with her husband seven years ³⁷ before he died and left her alone. She was now 84 years old. Anna was always at the Temple; she never left. She worshiped God by fasting and praying day and night.

³⁸ Anna was there when Joseph and Mary came to the Temple. She praised God and talked about Jesus to all those who were waiting for God to free Jerusalem.

Joseph and Mary Return Home

³⁹ Joseph and Mary finished doing all the things that the law of the Lord commanded. Then they went home to Nazareth, their own town in Galilee. ⁴⁰ The little boy Jesus was developing into a mature young man, full of wisdom. God was blessing him.

Jesus as a Boy

⁴⁶ After three days they found him. Jesus was sitting in the Temple area with the religious teachers, listening and asking them questions. ⁴⁷ Everyone who heard him was amazed at his understanding and wise answers. ⁴⁸ When his parents saw him, they wondered how this was possible. And his mother said, “Son, why did you do this to us? Your father and I were very worried about you. We have been looking for you.”

⁴⁹ Jesus said to them, “Why did you have to look for me? You should have known that I must be where my Father’s work is.†” ⁵⁰ But they did not understand the meaning of what he said to them.

⁵¹ Jesus went with them to Nazareth and obeyed them. His mother was still thinking about all these things. ⁵² As Jesus grew taller, he continued to grow in wisdom. God was pleased with him and so were the people who knew him.

John Prepares the Way for Jesus

(Matthew 3:1-12; Mark 1:1-8; John 1:19-28)

¹ It was the 15th year of the rule of Tiberius Caesar. These men were under Caesar:

† 2:49 where ... work is Or “in my Father’s house.”

Pontius Pilate, the governor of Judea;
 Herod, the ruler of Galilee;
 Philip, Herod's brother, the ruler of Iturea and Trachonitis;
 Lysanias, the ruler of Abilene.

² Annas and Caiaphas were the high priests. During this time, John, the son of Zechariah, was living in the desert, and he received a message from God. ³ So he went through the whole area around the Jordan River and told the people God's message. He told them to be baptized to show that they wanted to change their lives, and then their sins would be forgiven. ⁴ This is like the words written in the book of Isaiah the prophet:

"There is someone shouting in the desert:

'Prepare the way for the Lord.

Make the road straight for him.

⁵ Every valley will be filled, and every mountain and hill will be made flat.

Crooked roads will be made straight, and rough roads will be made smooth.

⁶ Then everyone will see how God will save his people!' "

Isaiah 40:3-5

⁷ Crowds of people came to be baptized by John. But he said to them, "You are all snakes! Who warned you to run from God's judgment that is coming? ⁸ Change your hearts! And show by your lives that you have changed. I know what you are about to say —'but Abraham is our father!' That means nothing. I tell you that God can make children for Abraham from these rocks! ⁹ The ax is now ready to cut down the trees.* Every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

¹⁰ The people asked John, "What should we do?"

¹¹ He answered, "If you have two shirts, share with someone who does not have one. If you have food, share that too."

¹² Even the tax collectors came to John. They wanted to be baptized. They said to him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

¹³ He told them, "Don't take more taxes from people than you have been ordered to collect."

¹⁴ The soldiers asked him, "What about us? What should we do?"

He said to them, "Don't use force or lies to make people give you money. Be happy with the pay you get."

¹⁵ Everyone was hoping for the Messiah to come, and they wondered about John. They thought, "Maybe he is the Messiah."

¹⁶ John's answer to this was, "I baptize you in water, but there is someone coming later who is able to do more than I can. I am not good enough to be the slave who unties his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and with fire. ¹⁷ He will come ready to clean the grain.† He will separate the good grain from the straw, and he will put the good part into his barn. Then he will burn the useless part with a fire that cannot be stopped." ¹⁸ John said many other things like this to encourage the people to change, and he told them the Good News.

How John's Work Later Ended

¹⁹ John criticized Herod the ruler for what he had done with Herodias, the wife of Herod's brother, as well as for all the other bad things he had done. ²⁰ So Herod added another bad thing to all his other wrongs: He put John in jail.

* 3:9 trees Meaning the people who don't obey God. They are like "trees" that will be cut down. † 3:17 clean the grain Meaning that Jesus will separate the good people from those who are bad.

Jesus Is Baptized by John(Matthew 3:13-17; Mark 1:9-11)

²¹ When all the people were being baptized, Jesus came and was baptized too. And while he was praying, the sky opened, ²² and the Holy Spirit came down on him. The Spirit looked like a real dove. Then a voice came from heaven and said, “You are my Son, the one I love. I am very pleased with you.”

Jesus Is Tempted by the Devil
 (Matthew 4:1-11; Mark 1:12-13)

¹ Now filled with the Holy Spirit, Jesus returned from the Jordan River. And then the Spirit led him into the desert. ² There the devil tempted Jesus for 40 days. Jesus ate nothing during this time, and when it was finished, he was very hungry.

³ The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, tell this rock to become bread."

⁴ Jesus answered, "The Scriptures say,

'It is not just bread that keeps people alive.'

Deuteronomy 8:3

⁵ Then the devil took Jesus and in a moment of time showed him all the kingdoms of the world. ⁶ The devil said to him, "I will make you king over all these places. You will have power over them, and you will get all the glory. It has all been given to me. I can give it to anyone I want. ⁷ I will give it all to you, if you will only worship me."

⁸ Jesus answered, "The Scriptures say,

'You must worship the Lord your God.
 Serve only him.'

Deuteronomy 6:13

⁹ Then the devil led Jesus to Jerusalem and put him on a high place at the edge of the Temple area. He said to him, "If you are the Son of God, jump off! ¹⁰ The Scriptures say,

‘God will command his angels to take care of you.’

Psalm 91:11

¹¹ It is also written,

‘Their hands will catch you
so that you will not hit your foot on a rock.’ ”

Psalm 91:12

¹² Jesus answered, “But the Scriptures also say, ‘You must not test the Lord your God.’ ”[☆]

¹³ The devil finished tempting Jesus in every way and went away to wait until a better time.

Jesus Begins His Work in Galilee
(Matthew 4:12-17; Mark 1:14-15)

¹⁴ Jesus went back to Galilee with the power of the Spirit. Stories about him spread all over the area around Galilee. ¹⁵ He began to teach in the synagogues, and everyone praised him.

Jesus Goes to His Hometown
(Matthew 13:53-58; Mark 6:1-6)

¹⁶ Jesus traveled to Nazareth, the town where he grew up. On the Sabbath day he went to the synagogue as he always did. He stood up to read. ¹⁷ The book of Isaiah the prophet was given to him. He opened the book and found the place where this is written:

¹⁸ “The Spirit of the Lord is on me.
He has chosen me to tell good news to the poor.
He sent me to tell prisoners that they are free and to tell the blind that they can see again.
He sent me to free those who have been treated badly

¹⁹ and to announce that the time has come for the Lord to show his kindness.” Isaiah 61:1-2; 58:6

²⁰ Jesus closed the book, gave it back to the helper, and sat down. As everyone in the synagogue watched him closely, ²¹ he began to speak to them. He said, “While you heard me reading these words just now, they were coming true!”

²² Everyone there said good things about Jesus. They were amazed to hear him speak such wonderful words. They said, “How is this possible? Isn’t he Joseph’s son?”

²³ Jesus said to them, “I know you will tell me the old saying: ‘Doctor, heal yourself.’ You want to say, ‘We heard about the things you did in Capernaum. Do those same things here in your own hometown!’ ” ²⁴ Then he said, “The truth is, a prophet is not accepted in his own hometown.

²⁵⁻²⁶ “During the time of Elijah it did not rain in Israel for three and a half years. There was no food anywhere in the whole country. There were many widows in Israel during that time. But the fact is, Elijah was sent to none of those widows in Israel. He was sent only to a widow in Zarephath, a town in Sidon.

²⁷ “And there were many people with leprosy living in Israel during the time of the prophet Elisha. But none of them were healed; the only one was Naaman. And he was from the country of Syria, not Israel.”

²⁸ When the people in the synagogue heard this, they were very angry. ²⁹ They got up and forced Jesus to go out of town. Their town was built on a hill. They took Jesus to the edge of the hill to throw him off. ³⁰ But he walked through the middle of the crowd and went away.

Jesus Frees a Man From an Evil Spirit
(Mark 1:21-28)

³¹ Jesus went to Capernaum, a city in Galilee. On the Sabbath day he taught the people.
³² They were amazed at his teaching because he spoke with authority.

³³ In the synagogue there was a man who had an evil spirit from the devil inside him. The man shouted loudly, ³⁴ “Jesus of Nazareth! What do you want with us? Did you come here to destroy us? I know who you are—God’s Holy One!” ³⁵ But Jesus warned the evil spirit to stop. He said, “Be quiet! Come out of the man!” The evil spirit threw the man down on the ground in front of everyone. Then the evil spirit left the man and did not hurt him.

³⁶ The people were amazed. They said to each other, “What does this mean? With authority and power he commands evil spirits and they come out.” ³⁷ And so the news about Jesus spread to every place in the whole area.

Jesus Heals Peter’s Mother-in-Law
(Matthew 8:14-17; Mark 1:29-34)

³⁸ Jesus left the synagogue and went to Simon’s* house. Simon’s mother-in-law was very sick. She had a high fever. They asked Jesus to do something to help her. ³⁹ He stood very close to her and ordered the sickness to go away. The sickness left her, and she got up and began serving them.

Jesus Heals Many Others

⁴⁰ When the sun went down, the people brought their sick friends to Jesus. They had many different kinds of sicknesses. Jesus laid his hands on each sick person and healed them all. ⁴¹ Demons came out of many people. The demons shouted, “You are the Son of God.” But Jesus gave a strong command for the demons not to speak, because they knew he was the Messiah.

Jesus Goes to Other Towns
(Mark 1:35-39)

⁴² The next day Jesus went to a place to be alone. The people looked for him. When they found him, they tried to stop him from leaving. ⁴³ But he said to them, “I must tell the Good News about God’s kingdom to other towns too. This is why I was sent.”

⁴⁴ Then Jesus told the Good News in the synagogues in Judea.

Jesus Chooses Some Followers
(Matthew 4:18-22; Mark 1:16-20)

¹ As Jesus stood beside Lake Galilee,* a crowd of people pushed to get closer to him and to hear the teachings of God. ² Jesus saw two boats at the shore of the lake. The fishermen were washing their nets. ³ Jesus got into the boat that belonged to Simon. He asked Simon to push off a little from the shore. Then he sat down in the boat and taught the people on the shore.

⁴ When Jesus finished speaking, he said to Simon, “Take the boat into the deep water. If all of you will put your nets into the water, you will catch some fish.”

⁸⁻⁹ The fishermen were all amazed at the many fish they caught. When Simon Peter saw this, he bowed down before Jesus and said, “Go away from me, Lord. I am a sinful man!” ¹⁰ James and John, the sons of Zebedee, were amazed too. (James and John worked together with Simon.)

Jesus said to Simon, “Don’t be afraid. From now on your work will be to bring in people, not fish!”

¹¹ The men brought their boats to the shore. They left everything and followed Jesus.

Jesus Heals a Sick Man

(Matthew 8:1-4; Mark 1:40-45)

¹² One time Jesus was in a town where a very sick man lived. This man was covered with leprosy. When the man saw Jesus, he bowed before Jesus and begged him, “Lord, you have the power to heal me if you want.”

¹³ Jesus said, “I want to heal you. Be healed!” Then he touched the man, and immediately the leprosy disappeared. ¹⁴ Then Jesus said, “Don’t tell anyone about what happened. But go and let the priest look at you.[†] And offer a gift to God for your healing as Moses commanded. This will show people that you are healed.”

¹⁵ But the news about Jesus spread more and more. Many people came to hear him and to be healed of their sicknesses. ¹⁶ Jesus often went away to other places to be alone so that he could pray.

Jesus Heals a Crippled Man

(Matthew 9:1-8; Mark 2:1-12)

¹⁷ One day Jesus was teaching the people. The Pharisees and teachers of the law were sitting there too. They had come from every town in Galilee and Judea and from Jerusalem. The Lord was giving Jesus the power to heal people. ¹⁸ There was a man who was paralyzed, and some other men were carrying him on a mat. They tried to bring him and put him down before Jesus. ¹⁹ But there were so many people that they could not find a way to Jesus. So they went up on the roof and lowered the crippled man down through a hole in the ceiling. They lowered the mat into the room so that the crippled man was lying before Jesus. ²⁰ Jesus saw how much faith they had and said to the sick man, “Friend, your sins are forgiven.”

²² But Jesus knew what they were thinking and said, “Why do you have these questions in your minds? ²³⁻²⁴ The Son of Man has power on earth to forgive sins. But how can I prove this to you? Maybe you are thinking it was easy for me to say, ‘Your sins are forgiven.’ There’s no proof that it really happened. But what if I say to the man, ‘Stand up and walk’? Then you will be able to see that I really have this power.” So Jesus said to the paralyzed man, “I tell you, stand up! Take your mat and go home!”

²⁵ The man immediately stood up in front of everyone. He picked up his mat and walked home, praising God. ²⁶ Everyone was completely amazed and began to praise God. They were filled with great respect for God’s power. They said, “Today we saw amazing things!”

Levi (Matthew) Follows Jesus

(Matthew 9:9-13; Mark 2:13-17)

²⁷ After this Jesus went out and saw a tax collector sitting at his place for collecting taxes. His name was Levi. Jesus said to him, “Follow me!” ²⁸ Levi got up, left everything, and followed Jesus.

²⁹ Then Levi gave a big dinner at his house for Jesus. At the table there were many tax collectors and some other people too. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and those who taught the law for the Pharisees began to complain to the followers of Jesus, “Why do you eat and drink with tax collectors and other sinners?”

³¹ Jesus answered them, “It is the sick people who need a doctor, not those who are healthy. ³² I have not come to ask good people to change. I have come to ask sinners to change the way they live.”

*Jesus Is Not Like
Other Religious Leaders*

(Matthew 9:14-17; Mark 2:18-22)

³³ They said to Jesus, “John’s followers often fast and pray, the same as the followers of the Pharisees. But your followers eat and drink all the time.”

³⁴ Jesus said to them, “At a wedding you can’t ask the friends of the bridegroom to be sad and fast while he is still with them. ³⁵ But the time will come when the groom will be taken away from them. Then his friends will fast.”

³⁶ Jesus told them this story: “No one takes cloth off a new coat to cover a hole in an old coat. That would ruin the new coat, and the cloth from the new coat would not be the same as the old cloth. ³⁷ Also, no one ever pours new wine into old wineskins. The new wine would break them. The wine would spill out, and the wineskins would be ruined. ³⁸ You always put new wine into new wineskins. ³⁹ No one who drinks old wine wants new wine. They say, ‘The old wine is just fine.’”

Jesus Is Lord Over the Sabbath Day

¹ One time on a Sabbath day, Jesus was walking through some grain fields. His followers picked the grain, rubbed it in their hands, and ate it. ² Some Pharisees said, “Why are you doing that? It is against the Law of Moses to do that on the Sabbath day.”

³ Jesus answered, “You have read about what David did when he and the people with him were hungry. ⁴ David went into God’s house. He took the bread that was offered to God and ate it. And he gave some of the bread to the people with him. This was against the Law of Moses, which says that only the priests can eat that bread.” ⁵ Then Jesus said to the Pharisees, “The Son of Man is Lord over the Sabbath day.”

Jesus Heals a Man on the Sabbath Day

⁶ On another Sabbath day Jesus went into the synagogue and taught the people. A man with a crippled right hand was there. ⁷ The teachers of the law and the Pharisees were watching Jesus closely. They were waiting to see if he would heal on the Sabbath day. They wanted to see him do something wrong so that they could accuse him. ⁸ But Jesus knew what they were thinking. He said to the man with the crippled hand, “Get up and stand here where everyone can see.” The man got up and stood there. ⁹ Then Jesus said to them, “I ask you, which is the right thing to do on the Sabbath day: to do good or to do evil? Is it right to save a life or to destroy one?”

¹⁰ Jesus looked around at all of them and then said to the man, “Hold out your hand.” The man held out his hand, and it was healed. ¹¹ The Pharisees and the teachers of the law got so mad they couldn’t think straight. They talked to each other about what they could do to Jesus.

Jesus Chooses His Twelve Apostles

(Matthew 10:1-4; Mark 3:13-19)

¹² A few days later, Jesus went out to a mountain to pray. He stayed there all night praying to God. ¹³ The next morning he called his followers. He chose twelve of them and called them apostles. These are the ones he chose:

¹⁴ Simon (Jesus named him Peter),
 Andrew, brother of Peter,
 James,
 John,
 Philip,
 Bartholomew,
¹⁵ Matthew,
 Thomas,
 James, the son of Alphaeus,
 Simon, called the Zealot,
¹⁶ Judas, the son of James,
 Judas Iscariot (the one who turned against Jesus).

Jesus Teaches and Heals the People

(Matthew 4:23-25; 5:1-12)

¹⁷ Jesus and the apostles came down from the mountain. Jesus stood on a flat place. A large crowd of his followers was there. Also, there were many people from all around Judea, Jerusalem, and the seacoast cities of Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁸ They all came to hear Jesus teach and to be healed of their sicknesses. He healed the people who were troubled by evil spirits. ¹⁹ Everyone was trying to touch him, because power was coming out from him. Jesus healed them all.

²⁰ Jesus looked at his followers and said,

“Great blessings belong to you who are poor.

God’s kingdom belongs to you.

²¹ Great blessings belong to you who are hungry now.

You will be filled.

Great blessings belong to you who are crying now.

You will be happy and laughing.

²² “People will hate you because you belong to the Son of Man. They will make you leave their group. They will insult you. They will think it is wrong even to say your name. When these things happen, know that great blessings belong to you. ²³ You can be happy then and jump for joy, because you have a great reward in heaven. The ancestors of those people did the same things to the prophets.

²⁴ “But how bad it will be for you rich people, because you had your easy life.

²⁵ How bad it will be for you people who are full now, because you will be hungry.

How bad it will be for you people who are laughing now, because you will be sad and cry.

²⁶ “How bad it is when everyone says nothing but good about you. Just look at the false prophets. Their ancestors always said good things about them.

Love Your Enemies

(Matthew 5:38-48; 7:12a)

²⁷ “But I say to you people who are listening to me, love your enemies. Do good to those who hate you. ²⁸ Ask God to bless the people who ask for bad things to happen to you. Pray for the people who are mean to you. ²⁹ If someone hits you on the side of your face, let them hit the other side too. If someone takes your coat, don’t stop them from taking your shirt too. ³⁰ Give to everyone who asks you for something. When someone takes something that is yours, don’t ask for it back. ³¹ Do for others what you want them to do for you.

³² “If you love only those who love you, should you get any special praise for doing that? No, even sinners love those who love them! ³³ If you do good only to those who do good to you, should you get any special praise for doing that? No, even sinners do that! ³⁴ If you lend things to people, always expecting to get something back, should you get any special praise for that? No, even sinners lend to other sinners so that they can get back the same amount!

³⁵ “I’m telling you to love your enemies and do good to them. Lend to people without expecting to get anything back. If you do this, you will have a great reward. You will be children of the Most High God. Yes, because God is good even to the people who are full of sin and not thankful. ³⁶ Give love and mercy the same as your Father gives love and mercy.

Be Careful About Criticizing Others

(Matthew 7:1-5)

³⁷ “Don’t judge others, and God will not judge you. Don’t condemn others, and you will not be condemned. Forgive others, and you will be forgiven. ³⁸ Give to others, and you will receive. You will be given much. It will be poured into your hands—more than you can hold. You will be given so much that it will spill into your lap. The way you give to others is the way God will give to you.”

⁴¹ “Why do you notice the small piece of dust that is in your friend’s eye, but you don’t see the big piece of wood that is in your own eye? ⁴² You say to your friend, ‘Let me get that little piece of dust out of your eye.’ Why do you say this? Can’t you see that big piece of wood in your own eye? You are a hypocrite. First, take the wood out of your own eye. Then you will see clearly to get the dust out of your friend’s eye.

Only Good Trees Produce Good Fruit

(Matthew 7:17-20; 12:34b-35)

⁴³ “A good tree does not produce bad fruit. And a bad tree does not produce good fruit. ⁴⁴ Every tree is known by the kind of fruit it produces. You won’t find figs on thorny weeds. And you can’t pick grapes from thornbushes! ⁴⁵ Good people have good things saved in their hearts. That’s why they say good things. But those who are evil have hearts full of evil, and that’s why they say things that are evil. What people say with their mouths comes from what fills their hearts.

Two Kinds of People

⁴⁶ “Why do you call me, ‘Lord, Lord,’ but you don’t do what I say? ⁴⁷ The people who come to me, who listen to my teachings and obey them—I will show you what they are like: ⁴⁸ They are like a man building a house. He digs deep and builds his house on rock. The floods come, and the water crashes against the house. But the flood cannot move the house, because it was built well.

⁴⁹ “But the people who hear my words and do not obey are like a man who builds a house without preparing a foundation. When the floods come, the house falls down easily and is completely destroyed.”

Jesus Heals an Officer’s Servant

(Matthew 8:5-13; John 4:43-54)

¹ Jesus finished saying all these things to the people. Then he went into Capernaum. ² In Capernaum there was an army officer. He had a servant who was very sick; he was near death. The officer loved the servant very much. ³ When he heard about Jesus, he sent some older Jewish leaders to him. He wanted the men to ask Jesus to come and save the life of his servant. ⁴ The men went to Jesus. They begged Jesus to help the officer. They said, “This officer is worthy to have your help. ⁵ He loves our people and he built the synagogue for us.”

⁶ So Jesus went with them. He was coming near the officer’s house when the officer sent friends to say, “Lord, you don’t need to do anything special for me. I am not good enough for you to come into my house. ⁷ That is why I did not come to you myself. You need only to give the order, and my servant will be healed. ⁸ I know this because I am a man under the authority of other men. And I have soldiers under my authority. I tell one soldier, ‘Go,’ and he goes. And I tell another soldier, ‘Come,’ and he comes. And I say to my servant, ‘Do this,’ and my servant obeys me.”

⁹ When Jesus heard this, he was amazed. He turned to the people following him and said, “I tell you, this is the most faith I have seen anywhere, even in Israel.”

¹⁰ The group that was sent to Jesus went back to the house. There they found that the servant was healed.

Jesus Brings a Woman’s Son Back to Life

¹¹ The next day Jesus and his followers went to a town called Nain. A big crowd was traveling with them. ¹² When Jesus came near the town gate, he saw some people carrying a dead body. It was the only son of a woman who was a widow. Walking with her were many other people from the town. ¹³ When the Lord saw the woman, he felt very sorry for her and said, “Don’t cry.” ¹⁴ He walked to the open coffin and touched it. The men who were carrying the coffin stopped. Jesus spoke to the dead son: “Young man, I tell you, get up!” ¹⁵ Then the boy sat up and began to talk, and Jesus gave him back to his mother.

¹⁶ Everyone was filled with fear. They began praising God and said, “A great prophet is here with us!” and “God is taking care of his people.”

¹⁷ This news about Jesus spread all over Judea and to all the other places around there.

John Sends Men to Ask Jesus a Question (Matthew 11:2-19)

¹⁸ John’s followers told him about all these things. John called for two of his followers. ¹⁹ He sent them to the Lord to ask, “Are you the one we heard was coming, or should we wait for someone else?”

²⁰ So the men came to Jesus. They said, “John the Baptizer sent us to you with this question: ‘Are you the one who is coming, or should we wait for someone else?’ ”

²¹ Right then Jesus healed many people of their sicknesses and diseases. He healed those who had evil spirits and made many who were blind able to see again. ²² Then he said to John’s followers, “Go tell John what you have seen and heard: The blind can see. The crippled can walk. People with leprosy are healed. The deaf can hear. The dead are brought back to life. And the Good News is being told to the poor. ²³ Great blessings belong to those who don’t have a problem accepting me.”

²⁴ When John’s followers left, Jesus began talking to the people about John: “What did you people go out into the desert to see? Someone who is weak, like a stem of grass* blowing in the wind? ²⁵ Really, what did you expect to see? Someone dressed in fine clothes? Of course not. People who wear fancy clothes and live in luxury are all in kings’ palaces. ²⁶ So what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, John is a prophet. But I tell you, he is more than that. ²⁷ This Scripture was written about him:

‘Listen! I will send my messenger ahead of you.

* 7:24 stem of grass Literally, “reed.”

He will prepare the way for you.’

Malachi 3:1

²⁸ I tell you, no one ever born is greater than John. But even the least important person in God’s kingdom is greater than John.”

²⁹ (When the people heard this, they all agreed that God’s teaching was good. Even the tax collectors agreed. These were the people who were baptized by John. ³⁰ But the Pharisees and experts in the law refused to accept God’s plan for themselves; they did not let John baptize them.)

³¹ “What shall I say about the people of this time? What can I compare them to? What are they like? ³² They are like children sitting in the marketplace. One group of children calls to the other children and says,

‘We played flute music for you,
but you did not dance;
we sang a sad song,
but you did not cry.’

³³ John the Baptizer came and did not eat the usual food or drink wine. And you say, ‘He has a demon inside him.’ ³⁴ The Son of Man came eating and drinking. And you say, ‘Look at him! He eats too much and drinks too much wine! He is a friend of tax collectors and other sinners!’ ³⁵ But wisdom is shown to be right by those who accept it.”

Simon the Pharisee

³⁶ One of the Pharisees asked Jesus to eat with him. Jesus went into the Pharisee’s house and took a place at the table.

³⁷ There was a sinful woman in that town. She knew that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee’s house. So the woman brought some expensive perfume in an alabaster jar. ³⁸ She stood at Jesus’ feet, crying. Then she began to wash his feet with her tears. She dried his feet with her hair. She kissed his feet many times and rubbed them with the perfume.

³⁹ When the Pharisee who asked Jesus to come to his house saw this, he thought to himself, “If this man were a prophet,[†] he would know that the woman who is touching him is a sinner!”

⁴⁰ In response, Jesus said to the Pharisee, “Simon, I have something to say to you.”

Simon said, “Let me hear it, Teacher.”

⁴¹ Jesus said, “There were two men. Both men owed money to the same banker. One man owed him 500 silver coins. The other man owed him 50 silver coins. ⁴² The men had no money, so they could not pay their debt. But the banker told the men that they did not have to pay him. Which one of those two men will love him more?”

⁴³ Simon answered, “I think it would be the one who owed him the most money.”

Jesus said to him, “You are right.” ⁴⁴ Then he turned to the woman and said to Simon, “Do you see this woman? When I came into your house, you gave me no water for my feet. But she washed my feet with her tears and dried my feet with her hair. ⁴⁵ You did not greet me with a kiss, but she has been kissing my feet since I came in. ⁴⁶ You did not honor me with oil for my head, but she rubbed my feet with her sweet-smelling oil. ⁴⁷ I tell you that her many sins are forgiven. This is clear, because she showed great love. People who are forgiven only a little will love only a little.”

⁴⁸ Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

⁴⁹ The people sitting at the table began to think to themselves, “Who does this man think he is? How can he forgive sins?”

⁵⁰ Jesus said to the woman, “Because you believed, you are saved from your sins. Go in peace.”

The Group With Jesus

¹ The next day, Jesus traveled through some cities and small towns. Jesus told the people a message from God, the Good News about God's kingdom. The twelve apostles were with him. ² There were also some women with him. Jesus had healed these women of sicknesses and evil spirits. One of them was Mary, who was called Magdalene. Seven demons had come out of her. ³ Also with these women were Joanna, the wife of Chuza (the manager of Herod's property), Suzanna, and many other women. These women used their own money to help Jesus and his apostles.

A Story About a Farmer Sowing Seed
(Matthew 13:1-17; Mark 4:1-12)

⁴ A large crowd came together. People came to Jesus from every town, and he told them this story:

⁵ "A farmer went out to sow seed. While he was scattering the seed, some of it fell beside the road. People walked on the seed, and the birds ate it all. ⁶ Other seed fell on rock. It began to grow but then died because it had no water. ⁷ Some other seed fell among thorny weeds. This seed grew, but later the weeds stopped the plants from growing. ⁸ The rest of the seed fell on good ground. This seed grew and made 100 times more grain."

Jesus finished the story. Then he called out, "You people who hear me, listen!"

⁹ Jesus' followers asked him, "What does this story mean?"

¹⁰ He said, "You have been chosen to know the secret truths about God's kingdom. But I use stories to speak to other people. I do this so that 'They will look,

but they will not see,
and they will listen,
but they will not understand.'

Isaiah 6:9

Jesus Explains the Story About Seed
(Matthew 13:18-23; Mark 4:13-20)

¹¹ "This is what the story means: The seed is God's teaching. ¹² Some people are like the seed that fell beside the path. They hear God's teaching, but then the devil comes and causes them to stop thinking about it. This keeps them from believing it and being saved. ¹³ Others are like the seed that fell on rock. That is like the people who hear God's teaching and gladly accept it. But they don't have deep roots. They believe for a while. But when trouble comes, they turn away from God.

¹⁴ "What about the seed that fell among the thorny weeds? That is like the people who hear God's teaching, but they let the worries, riches, and pleasures of this life stop them from growing. So they never produce a crop.* ¹⁵ And what about the seed that fell on the good ground? That is like the people who hear God's teaching with a good, honest heart. They obey it and patiently produce a good crop.

Use the Understanding You Have
(Mark 4:21-25)

¹⁶ "No one lights a lamp and then covers it with a bowl or hides it under a bed. Instead, they put the lamp on a lampstand so that the people who come in will have enough light to see. ¹⁷ Everything that is hidden will become clear. Every secret thing will be made known, and everyone will see it. ¹⁸ So think carefully about what you are hearing. The people who have some understanding will receive more. But those who do not have understanding will lose even what they think they have."

* 8:14 produce a crop Meaning to do the good things God wants his people to do.

Jesus' Followers Are His True Family
(Matthew 12:46-50; Mark 3:31-35)

¹⁹ Jesus' mother and brothers came to visit him. But they could not get close to him, because there were so many people. ²⁰ Someone said to Jesus, "Your mother and your brothers are standing outside. They want to see you."

²¹ Jesus answered them, "My mother and my brothers are those who listen to God's teaching and obey it."

Jesus' Followers See His Power
(Matthew 8:23-27; Mark 4:35-41)

²² One day Jesus and his followers got into a boat. He said to them, "Come with me across the lake." And so they started across. ²³ While they were sailing, Jesus slept. A big storm blew across the lake, and the boat began to fill with water. They were in danger. ²⁴ The followers went to Jesus and woke him. They said, "Master! Master! We will drown!"

Jesus got up. He gave a command to the wind and the waves. The wind stopped, and the lake became calm. ²⁵ He said to his followers, "Where is your faith?"

They were afraid and amazed. They said to each other, "What kind of man is this? He commands the wind and the water, and they obey him."

Jesus Frees a Man From Evil Spirits
(Matthew 8:28-34; Mark 5:1-20)

²⁶ Jesus and his followers sailed on across the lake. They sailed to the area where the Gerasene people live, across from Galilee. ²⁷ When Jesus got out of the boat, a man from that town came to him. This man had demons inside him. For a long time he had worn no clothes. He did not live in a house but in the caves where the dead are buried.

²⁸⁻²⁹ The demon inside the man had often seized him, and he had been put in jail with his hands and feet in chains. But he would always break the chains. The demon inside him would force him to go out to the places where no one lived. Jesus commanded the evil spirit to come out of the man. When the man saw Jesus, he fell down before him, shouting loudly, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Please, don't punish me!"

³⁰ Jesus asked him, "What is your name?"

The man answered, "Legion."[†] (He said his name was "Legion" because many demons had gone into him.) ³¹ The demons begged Jesus not to send them into the bottomless pit.[‡] ³² On that hill there was a big herd of pigs eating. The demons begged Jesus to allow them to go into the pigs. So he allowed them to do this. ³³ Then the demons came out of the man and went into the pigs. The herd of pigs ran down the hill into the lake, and all were drowned.

³⁴ The men who were caring for the pigs ran away and told the story in the fields and in the town. ³⁵ People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus and found the man sitting there at the feet of Jesus. The man had clothes on and was in his right mind again; the demons were gone. This made the people afraid. ³⁶ The men who saw these things happen told the others all about how Jesus made the man well. ³⁷ All those who lived in the area around Gerasa asked Jesus to go away because they were afraid.

So Jesus got into the boat to go back to Galilee. ³⁸ The man he had healed begged to go with him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, ³⁹ "Go back home and tell people what God did for you."

So the man went all over town telling what Jesus had done for him.

[†] 8:30 "Legion" This name means very many. A legion was about 6000 men in the Roman army. [‡] 8:31 bottomless pit Literally, "the abyss," something like a deep hole where evil spirits are kept.

*Jesus Gives Life to a Dead Girl
and Heals a Sick Woman*
(Matthew 9:18-26; Mark 5:21-43)

⁴⁰ When Jesus went back to Galilee, the people welcomed him. Everyone was waiting for him. ⁴¹⁻⁴² A man named Jairus came to him. He was a leader of the synagogue. He had only one daughter. She was twelve years old, and she was dying. So Jairus bowed down at the feet of Jesus and begged him to come to his house.

While Jesus was going to Jairus' house, the people crowded all around him. ⁴³ A woman was there who had been bleeding for twelve years. She had spent all her money on doctors,[§] but no doctor was able to heal her. ⁴⁴ The woman came behind Jesus and touched the bottom of his coat. At that moment, her bleeding stopped. ⁴⁵ Then Jesus said, "Who touched me?"

They all said they had not touched him. And Peter said, "Master, people are all around you, pushing against you."

⁴⁶ But Jesus said, "Someone touched me. I felt power go out from me." ⁴⁷ When the woman saw that she could not hide, she came forward, shaking. She bowed down before Jesus. While everyone listened, she told why she touched him. Then she said that she was healed immediately when she touched him. ⁴⁸ Jesus said to her, "My daughter, you are made well because you believed. Go in peace."

⁴⁹ While Jesus was still speaking, someone came from the house of the synagogue leader and said, "Your daughter has died! Don't bother the Teacher anymore."

⁵⁰ Jesus heard this and said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid! Just believe and your daughter will be well."

⁵¹ Jesus went to the house. He let only Peter, John, James, and the girl's father and mother go inside with him. ⁵² Everyone was crying and feeling sad because the girl was dead. But Jesus said, "Don't cry. She is not dead. She is only sleeping."

⁵³ The people laughed at him, because they knew that the girl was dead. ⁵⁴ But Jesus held her hand and called to her, "Little girl, stand up!" ⁵⁵ Her spirit came back into her, and she stood up immediately. Jesus said, "Give her something to eat." ⁵⁶ The girl's parents were amazed. He told them not to tell anyone about what happened.

Jesus Sends His Apostles on a Mission
(Matthew 10:5-15; Mark 6:7-13)

¹ Jesus called his twelve apostles together. He gave them power to heal sicknesses and power to force demons out of people. ² He sent them to tell about God's kingdom and to heal the sick. ³ He said to them, "When you travel, don't take a walking stick. Also, don't carry a bag, food, or money. Take for your trip only the clothes you are wearing. ⁴ When you go into a house, stay there until it is time to leave. ⁵ If the people in the town will not welcome you, go outside the town and shake the dust off your feet as a warning to them."

⁶ So the apostles went out. They traveled through all the towns. They told the Good News and healed people everywhere.

Herod Is Confused About Jesus
(Matthew 14:1-12; Mark 6:14-29)

⁷ Herod the ruler heard about all these things that were happening. He was confused because some people said, "John the Baptizer has risen from death." ⁸ Others said, "Elijah has come to us." And some others said, "One of the prophets from long ago has risen from death." ⁹ Herod said, "I cut off John's head. So who is this man I hear these things about?" Herod continued trying to see Jesus.

[§] 8:43 She had spent ... doctors Some Greek copies do not have these words.

Jesus Feeds More Than 5000(Matthew 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; John 6:1-14)

¹⁰ When the apostles came back, they told Jesus what they had done on their trip. Then he took them away to a town called Bethsaida. There, he and his apostles could be alone together. ¹¹ But the people learned where Jesus went and followed him. He welcomed them and talked with them about God's kingdom. He healed the people who were sick.

¹² Late in the afternoon, the twelve apostles came to Jesus and said, "No one lives in this place. Send the people away. They need to find food and places to sleep in the farms and towns around here."

¹³ But Jesus said to the apostles, "You give them something to eat."

They said, "We have only five loaves of bread and two fish. Do you want us to go buy food for all these people?" There are too many! ¹⁴ (There were about 5000 men there.)

Jesus said to his followers, "Tell the people to sit in groups of about 50 people."

¹⁵ So the followers did this and everyone sat down. ¹⁶ Then Jesus took the five loaves of bread and two fish. He looked up into the sky and thanked God for the food. Then he broke it into pieces, which he gave to the followers to give to the people. ¹⁷ They all ate until they were full. And there was a lot of food left. Twelve baskets were filled with the pieces of food that were not eaten.

Peter Says Jesus Is the Messiah(Matthew 16:13-19; Mark 8:27-29)

¹⁸ One time Jesus was praying alone. His followers came together there, and he asked them, "Who do the people say I am?"

¹⁹ They answered, "Some people say you are John the Baptizer. Others say you are Elijah. And some people say you are one of the prophets from long ago that has come back to life."

²⁰ Then Jesus said to his followers, "And who do you say I am?"

Peter answered, "You are the Messiah from God."

²¹ Jesus warned them not to tell anyone.

Jesus Says He Must Die(Matthew 16:21-28; Mark 8:30—9:1)

²² Then Jesus said, "The Son of Man must suffer many things. He will be rejected by the older Jewish leaders, the leading priests, and teachers of the law. And he will be killed. But after three days he will be raised from death."

²³ Jesus continued to say to all of them, "Any of you who want to be my follower must stop thinking about yourself and what you want. You must be willing to carry the cross that is given to you every day for following me. ²⁴ Any of you who try to save the life you have will lose it. But you who give up your life for me will save it. ²⁵ It is worth nothing for you to have the whole world if you yourself are destroyed or lost. ²⁶ Don't be ashamed of me and my teaching. If that happens, I* will be ashamed of you when I come with my divine greatness and that of the Father and the holy angels. ²⁷ Believe me when I say that some of you people standing here will see God's kingdom before you die."

Jesus Is Seen With Moses and Elijah(Matthew 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-8)

²⁸ About eight days after Jesus said these things, he took Peter, John, and James and went up on a mountain to pray. ²⁹ While Jesus was praying, his face began to change. His clothes became shining white. ³⁰ Then two men were there, talking with him. They were Moses and Elijah. ³¹ They also looked bright and glorious. They were talking with Jesus about his death that would happen in Jerusalem. ³² Peter and the others were asleep. But they woke up and saw the glory of Jesus. They also saw the two men who were standing with him. ³³ When Moses and Elijah were leaving, Peter said, “Master, it is good that we are here. We will put three tents here—one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.” (He did not know what he was saying.)

³⁴ While Peter was saying these things, a cloud came all around them. Peter, John, and James were afraid when the cloud covered them. ³⁵ A voice came from the cloud and said, “This is my Son. He is the one I have chosen. Obey him.”

³⁶ When the voice stopped, only Jesus was there. Peter, John, and James said nothing. And for a long time after that, they told no one about what they had seen.

Jesus Frees a Boy From an Evil Spirit
(Matthew 17:14-18; Mark 9:14-27)

³⁷ The next day, Jesus, Peter, John, and James came down from the mountain. A large group of people met Jesus. ³⁸ A man in the group shouted to him, “Teacher, please come and look at my son. He is the only child I have. ³⁹ An evil spirit comes into him, and then he shouts. He loses control of himself and foams at the mouth. The evil spirit continues to hurt him and almost never leaves him. ⁴⁰ I begged your followers to make the evil spirit leave my son, but they could not do it.”

⁴¹ Jesus answered, “You people today have no faith. Your lives are all wrong. How long must I be with you and be patient with you?” Then Jesus said to the man, “Bring your son here.”

⁴² While the boy was coming, the demon threw the boy to the ground. The boy lost control of himself. But Jesus gave a strong command to the evil spirit. Then the boy was healed, and Jesus gave him back to his father. ⁴³ All the people were amazed at the great power of God.

Jesus Talks About His Death
(Matthew 17:22-23; Mark 9:30-32)

The people were still amazed about all the things Jesus did. He said to his followers, ⁴⁴ “Don’t forget what I will tell you now: The Son of Man will soon be handed over to the control of other men.” ⁴⁵ But the followers did not understand what he meant. The meaning was hidden from them so that they could not understand it. But they were afraid to ask Jesus about what he said.

Who Is the Greatest?
(Matthew 18:1-5; Mark 9:33-37)

⁴⁶ Jesus’ followers began to have an argument about which one of them was the greatest. ⁴⁷ Jesus knew what they were thinking, so he took a little child and stood the child beside him. ⁴⁸ Then he said to the followers, “Whoever accepts a little child like this in my name is accepting me. And anyone who accepts me is also accepting the one who sent me. The one among you who is the most humble—this is the one who is great.”

Whoever Is Not Against You Is for You
(Mark 9:38-40)

⁴⁹ John answered, “Master, we saw someone using your name to force demons out of people. We told him to stop because he does not belong to our group.”

⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, “Don’t stop him. Whoever is not against you is for you.”

A Samaritan Town

⁵¹ The time was coming near when Jesus would leave and go back to heaven. He decided to go to Jerusalem. ⁵² He sent some men ahead of him. They went into a town in Samaria to make everything ready for him. ⁵³ But the people there would not welcome Jesus because he was going toward Jerusalem. ⁵⁴ James and John, the followers of Jesus, saw this. They said, “Lord, do you want us to call fire down from heaven and destroy those people?”†

† 9:54 Some Greek copies add “as Elijah did?”

⁵⁵ But Jesus turned and criticized them for saying this. † ⁵⁶ Then he and his followers went to another town.

Following Jesus

(Matthew 8:19-22)

⁵⁷ They were all traveling along the road. Someone said to Jesus, “I will follow you anywhere you go.”

⁵⁸ He answered, “The foxes have holes to live in. The birds have nests. But the Son of Man has no place where he can rest his head.”

⁵⁹ Jesus said to another man, “Follow me!”

But the man said, “Lord, let me go and bury my father first.”

⁶⁰ But Jesus said to him, “Let the people who are dead bury their own dead. You must go and tell about God’s kingdom.”

⁶¹ Another man said, “I will follow you, Lord, but first let me go and say goodbye to my family.”

⁶² Jesus said, “Anyone who begins to plow a field but looks back is not prepared for God’s kingdom.”

Jesus Sends Out 72 of His Followers

¹ After this, the Lord chose 72* more followers. He sent them out in groups of two. He sent them ahead of him into every town and place where he planned to go. ² He said to them, “There is such a big harvest of people to bring in. But there are only a few workers to help harvest them. God owns the harvest. Ask him to send more workers to help bring in his harvest.

³ “You can go now. But listen! I am sending you, and you will be like sheep among wolves. ⁴ Don’t carry any money, a bag, or sandals. Don’t stop to talk with people on the road. ⁵ Before you go into a house, say, ‘Peace be with this home.’ ⁶ If the people living there love peace, your blessing of peace will stay with them. But if not, your blessing of peace will come back to you. ⁷ Stay in the peace-loving house. Eat and drink what the people there give you. A worker should be given his pay. Don’t leave that house to stay in another house.

⁸ “If you go into a town and the people welcome you, eat the food they give you. ⁹ Heal the sick people who live there, and tell them, ‘God’s kingdom is now very near you †!’

¹⁰ “But if you go into a town and the people don’t welcome you, then go out into the streets of that town and say, ¹¹ ‘Even the dirt from your town that sticks to our feet we wipe off against you. But remember that God’s kingdom is coming soon.’ ¹² I tell you, on the judgment day it will be worse for the people of that town than for the people of Sodom.

Jesus Warns People Who Refuse to Believe

(Matthew 11:20-24)

¹³ “It will be bad for you, Chorazin! It will be bad for you, Bethsaida! I did many miracles in you. If those same miracles had happened in Tyre and Sidon, then the people in those cities would have changed their lives and stopped sinning a long time ago. They would have worn sackcloth and sat in ashes to show that they were sorry for their sins. ¹⁴ But on the judgment day it will be worse for you than for Tyre and Sidon. ¹⁵ And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted up to heaven? No, you will be thrown down to the place of death!

† 9:55 Some Greek copies add “And he said, ‘You don’t know what kind of spirit you belong to. ⁵⁶ The Son of Man did not come to destroy people’s lives but to save them.’” * 10:1 ⁷² Some Greek copies say 70. Also in verse 17.

† 10:9 is now very near you Or “is coming to you soon” or “has come to you.”

¹⁶ “When anyone listens to you my followers, they are really listening to me. But when anyone refuses to accept you, they are really refusing to accept me. And when anyone refuses to accept me, they are refusing to accept the one who sent me.”

Satan Falls

¹⁷ When the 72 followers came back from their trip, they were very happy. They said, “Lord, even the demons obeyed us when we used your name!”

¹⁸ Jesus said to them, “I saw Satan falling like lightning from the sky. ¹⁹ He is the enemy, but know that I have given you more power than he has. I have given you power to crush his snakes and scorpions under your feet. Nothing will hurt you. ²⁰ Yes, even the spirits obey you. And you can be happy, not because you have this power, but because your names are written in heaven.”

Jesus Prays to the Father

(Matthew 11:25-27; 13:16-17)

²¹ Then the Holy Spirit made Jesus feel very happy. Jesus said, “I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth. I am thankful that you have hidden these things from those who are so wise and so smart. But you have shown them to people who are like little children. Yes, Father, you did this because it’s what you really wanted to do.

²² “My Father has given me all things. No one knows who the Son is—only the Father knows. And only the Son knows who the Father is. The only people who will know about the Father are those the Son chooses to tell.”

²³ Then Jesus turned to his followers. They were there alone with him. He said, “It is a great blessing for you to see what you now see! ²⁴ I tell you, many prophets and kings wanted to see what you now see, but they could not. And they wanted to hear what you now hear, but they could not.”

A Story About the Good Samaritan

²⁵ Then an expert in the law stood up to test Jesus. He said, “Teacher, what must I do to get eternal life?”

²⁶ Jesus said to him, “What is written in the law? What do you understand from it?”

²⁷ The man answered, “‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your strength, and all your mind.’[☆] Also, ‘Love your neighbor the same as you love yourself.’[☆]”

²⁸ Jesus said, “Your answer is right. Do this and you will have eternal life.”

²⁹ But the man wanted to show that the way he was living was right. So he said to Jesus, “But who is my neighbor?”

³⁰ To answer this question, Jesus said, “A man was going down the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Some robbers surrounded him, tore off his clothes, and beat him. Then they left him lying there on the ground almost dead.

³¹ “It happened that a Jewish priest was going down that road. When he saw the man, he did not stop to help him. He walked away. ³² Next, a Levite came near. He saw the hurt man, but he went around him. He would not stop to help him either. He just walked away.

³³ “Then a Samaritan man traveled down that road. He came to the place where the hurt man was lying. He saw the man and felt very sorry for him. ³⁴ The Samaritan went to him and poured olive oil and wine[‡] on his wounds. Then he covered the man’s wounds with cloth. The Samaritan had a donkey. He put the hurt man on his donkey, and he took him to an inn. There he cared for him. ³⁵ The next day, the Samaritan took out two silver coins and gave them to the man who worked at the inn. He said, ‘Take care of this hurt man. If you spend more money on him, I will pay it back to you when I come again.’”

[☆] 10:27 Quote from Deuteronomy 6:5. [☆] 10:27 Quote from Leviticus 19:18. [‡] 10:34 olive oil and wine These were used like medicine to soften and clean wounds.

³⁶ Then Jesus said, “Which one of these three men do you think was really a neighbor to the man who was hurt by the robbers?”

³⁷ The teacher of the law answered, “The one who helped him.”
Jesus said, “Then you go and do the same.”

Mary and Martha

³⁸ While Jesus and his followers were traveling, he went into a town, and a woman named Martha let him stay at her house. ³⁹ She had a sister named Mary. Mary was sitting at Jesus’ feet and listening to him teach. ⁴⁰ But her sister Martha was busy doing all the work that had to be done. Martha went in and said, “Lord, don’t you care that my sister has left me to do all the work by myself? Tell her to help me!”

⁴¹ But the Lord answered her, “Martha, Martha, you are getting worried and upset about too many things. ⁴² Only one thing is important. Mary has made the right choice, and it will never be taken away from her.”

Jesus Teaches About Prayer (Matthew 6:9-15)

¹ One time Jesus was out praying, and when he finished, one of his followers said to him, “John taught his followers how to pray. Lord, teach us how to pray too.”

² Jesus said to the followers, “This is how you should pray:

‘Father, we pray that your name will always be kept holy.

We pray that your kingdom will come.

³ Give us the food we need for each day.

⁴ Forgive our sins,

just as we forgive everyone who has done wrong to us.

And don’t let us be tempted.’ ”

Ask God for What You Need (Matthew 7:7-11)

⁵⁻⁶ Then Jesus said to them, “Suppose one of you went to your friend’s house very late at night and said to him, ‘A friend of mine has come into town to visit me. But I have nothing for him to eat. Please give me three loaves of bread.’ ⁷ Your friend inside the house answers, ‘Go away! Don’t bother me! The door is already locked. My children and I are in bed. I cannot get up and give you the bread now.’ ⁸ I tell you, maybe friendship is not enough to make him get up to give you the bread. But he will surely get up to give you what you need if you continue to ask. ⁹ So I tell you, continue to ask, and God will give to you. Continue to search, and you will find. Continue to knock, and the door will open for you. ¹⁰ Yes, whoever continues to ask will receive. Whoever continues to look will find. And whoever continues to knock will have the door opened for them. ¹¹ Do any of you have a son? What would you do if your son asked you for a fish? Would any father give him a snake? ¹² Or, if he asked for an egg, would you give him a scorpion? Of course not! ¹³ Even you who are bad know how to give good things to your children. So surely your heavenly Father knows how to give the Holy Spirit to the people who ask him.”

Jesus’ Power Is From God (Matthew 12:22-30; Mark 3:20-27)

¹⁴ One time Jesus was sending a demon out of a man who could not talk. When the demon came out, the man was able to speak. The crowds were amazed. ¹⁵ But some of the people said, “He uses the power of Satan* to force demons out of people. Satan is the ruler of demons.”

¹⁶ Some others there wanted to test Jesus. They asked him to do a miracle as a sign from God. ¹⁷ But he knew what they were thinking. So he said to them, “Every kingdom that fights against itself will be destroyed. And a family that fights against itself will break apart. ¹⁸ So if Satan is fighting against himself, how will his kingdom survive? You say that I use the power of Satan to force out demons. ¹⁹ But if I use Satan’s power to force out demons, then what power do your people use when they force out demons? So your own people will prove that you are wrong. ²⁰ But I use the power of God to force out demons. This shows that God’s kingdom has now come to you.

²¹ “When a strong man with many weapons guards his own house, the things in his house are safe. ²² But suppose a stronger man comes and defeats him. The stronger man will take away the weapons that the first man trusted to keep his house safe. Then the stronger man will do what he wants with the other man’s things.

²³ “Whoever is not with me is against me. And anyone who does not work with me is working against me.

The Danger of Emptiness

(Matthew 12:43-45)

²⁴ “When an evil spirit comes out of someone, it travels through dry places, looking for a place to rest. But it finds no place to rest. So it says, ‘I will go back to the home I left.’ ²⁵ When it comes back, it finds that home all neat and clean. ²⁶ Then the evil spirit goes out and brings back seven other spirits more evil than itself. They all go and live there, and that person has even more trouble than before.”

The People God Blesses

²⁷ As Jesus was saying these things, a woman with the people there called out to him, “Blessings from God belong to the woman who gave birth to you and fed you!”

²⁸ But Jesus said, “The people who hear the teaching of God and obey it—they are the ones who have God’s blessing.”

Some People Doubt Jesus’ Authority

(Matthew 12:38-42; Mark 8:12)

²⁹ The crowd grew larger and larger. Jesus said, “The people who live today are evil. They ask for a miracle as a sign from God. But no miracle will be done to prove anything to them. The only sign will be the miracle that happened to Jonah.† ³⁰ Jonah was a sign for those who lived in Nineveh.‡ It is the same with the Son of Man. He will be a sign for the people of this time.

³¹ “On the judgment day, you people who live now will be compared with the Queen of the South,§ and she will be a witness who shows how guilty you are. Why do I say this? Because she traveled from far, far away to listen to Solomon’s wise teaching. And I tell you that someone* greater than Solomon is right here, but you won’t listen!

³² “On the judgment day, you people who live now will also be compared with the people from Nineveh, and they will be witnesses who show how guilty you are. I say this because when Jonah preached to those people, they changed their hearts and lives. And you are listening to someone greater than Jonah, but you refuse to change!

Be a Light for the World

(Matthew 5:15; 6:22-23)

* 11:15 Satan Literally, “Beelzebul” (the devil). Also in verses 18, 19. † 11:29 Jonah A prophet in the Old Testament. After three days in a big fish he came out alive, just as Jesus would come out from the tomb on the third day. ‡ 11:30 Nineveh City where Jonah preached. See Jonah 3. § 11:31 Queen of the South Or “Queen of Sheba.” She traveled about 1000 miles (1600 km) to learn God’s wisdom from Solomon. See 1 Kings 10:1-13. * 11:31 someone Literally, “something.” Also in verse 32.

³³ “No one takes a light and puts it under a bowl or hides it. Instead, they put it on a lampstand so that the people who come in can see. ³⁴ The only source of light for the body is the eye. When you look at people and want to help them, you are full of light. But when you look at people in a selfish way, you are full of darkness.† ³⁵ So be careful! Don’t let the light in you become darkness. ³⁶ If you are full of light, and there is no part of you that is dark, then you will be all bright, as though you have the light of a lamp shining on you.”

Jesus Criticizes the Religious Leaders

³⁷ After Jesus had finished speaking, a Pharisee asked Jesus to eat with him. So he went and took a place at the table. ³⁸ But the Pharisee was surprised when he saw that Jesus did not wash his hands‡ first before the meal. ³⁹ The Lord said to him, “The washing you Pharisees do is like cleaning only the outside of a cup or a dish. But what is inside you? You want only to cheat and hurt people. ⁴⁰ You are foolish! The same one who made what is outside also made what is inside. ⁴¹ So pay attention to what is inside. Give to the people who need help. Then you will be fully clean.

⁴² “But it will be bad for you Pharisees! You give God a tenth of the food you get, even your mint, your rue, and every other little plant in your garden.§ But you forget to be fair to others and to love God. These are the things you should do. And you should also continue to do those other things.

⁴³ “It will be bad for you Pharisees because you love to have the most important seats in the synagogues. And you love for people to show respect to you in the marketplaces. ⁴⁴ It will be bad for you, because you are like hidden graves. People walk on them without knowing it.”

⁴⁵ One of the experts in the law said to Jesus, “Teacher, when you say these things about the Pharisees, you are criticizing our group too.”

⁴⁶ Jesus answered, “It will be bad for you, you experts in the law! You make strict rules that are very hard for people to obey.* You try to force others to obey your rules. But you yourselves don’t even try to follow any of those rules. ⁴⁷ It will be bad for you, because you build tombs for the prophets. But these are the same prophets your ancestors killed! ⁴⁸ And now you show all people that you agree with what your ancestors did. They killed the prophets, and you build tombs for the prophets! ⁴⁹ This is why God in his wisdom said, ‘I will send prophets and apostles† to them. Some of my prophets and apostles will be killed by evil men. Others will be treated badly.’

⁵⁰ “So you people who live now will be punished for the deaths of all the prophets who were killed since the beginning of the world. ⁵¹ You will be punished for the killing of Abel.‡ And you will be punished for the killing of Zechariah,§ who was killed between the altar and the Temple. Yes, I tell you that you people will be punished for them all.

⁵² “It will be bad for you, you experts in the law! You have taken away the key to learning about God. You yourselves would not learn, and you stopped others from learning too.”

† 11:34 Literally, “The lamp of the body is your eye. When your eye is pure, your whole body is full of light. But if it is evil, your body is dark.” ‡ 11:38 wash his hands Washing the hands was a Jewish religious custom that the Pharisees thought was very important. § 11:42 You give ... garden Literally, “You tithe mint, rue, and every herb.” The Law of Moses required Israelites to share their food supply by dedicating a tenth of their field crops and livestock to God (see Leviticus 27:30-32; Deuteronomy 26:12). This did not include such small garden plants as those mentioned here. So these Pharisees were giving more than required to be sure they were not breaking the Law. * 11:46 You make ... obey Literally, “You put heavy burdens on people that are hard for them to carry.” † 11:49 prophets and apostles People chosen by God to tell his Good News to the world. ‡ 11:51 Abel In the Hebrew Old Testament, the first person to be murdered. § 11:51 Zechariah In the Hebrew Old Testament, the last person to be murdered.

⁵³ When Jesus went out, the teachers of the law and the Pharisees began to give him much trouble. They tried to make him answer questions about many things. ⁵⁴ They were trying to find a way to catch Jesus saying something wrong.

Don't Be Like the Pharisees

¹ Many thousands of people came together. There were so many people that they were stepping on each other. Before Jesus spoke to the people, he said to his followers, "Be careful of the yeast of the Pharisees. I mean that they are hypocrites. ² Everything that is hidden will be shown, and everything that is secret will be made known. ³ What you say in the dark will be told in the light. And what you whisper in a private room will be shouted from the top of the house."

Fear Only God

(Matthew 10:28-31)

⁴ Then Jesus said to the people, "I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of people. They can kill the body, but after that they can do nothing more to hurt you. ⁵ I will show you the one to fear. You should fear God, who has the power to kill you and also to throw you into hell. Yes, he is the one you should fear.

⁶ "When birds are sold, five small birds cost only two pennies. But God does not forget any of them. ⁷ Yes, God even knows how many hairs you have on your head. Don't be afraid. You are worth much more than many birds.

Don't Be Ashamed of Your Faith

(Matthew 10:32-33; 12:32; 10:19-20)

⁸ "I tell you, if you stand before others and are willing to say you believe in me, then I* will say that you belong to me. I will say this in the presence of God's angels. ⁹ But if you stand before others and say you do not believe in me, then I will say that you do not belong to me. I will say this in the presence of God's angels.

¹⁰ "Whoever says something against the Son of Man can be forgiven. But whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.

¹¹ "When men bring you into the synagogues before the leaders and other important men, don't worry about what you will say. ¹² The Holy Spirit will teach you at that time what you should say."

Jesus Warns Against Selfishness

¹³ One of the men in the crowd said to Jesus, "Teacher, our father just died and left some things for us. Tell my brother to share them with me."

¹⁴ But Jesus said to him, "Who said I should be your judge or decide how to divide your father's things between you two?" ¹⁵ Then Jesus said to them, "Be careful and guard against all kinds of greed. People do not get life from the many things they own."

¹⁶ Then Jesus used this story: "There was a rich man who had some land. His land grew a very good crop of food. ¹⁷ He thought to himself, 'What will I do? I have no place to keep all my crops.'

¹⁸ "Then he said, 'I know what I will do. I will tear down my barns and build bigger barns! I will put all my wheat and good things together in my new barns. ¹⁹ Then I can say to myself, I have many good things stored. I have saved enough for many years. Rest, eat, drink, and enjoy life!'

²⁰ "But God said to that man, 'Foolish man! Tonight you will die. So what about the things you prepared for yourself? Who will get those things now?'

²¹ "This is how it will be for anyone who saves things only for himself. To God that person is not rich."

* 12:8 I Literally, "the Son of Man" (Jesus).

Put God's Kingdom First
(Matthew 6:25-34; 19-21)

²⁷ "Think about how the wildflowers grow. They don't work or make clothes for themselves. But I tell you that even Solomon, the great and rich king, was not dressed as beautifully as one of these flowers. ²⁸ If God makes what grows in the field so beautiful, what do you think he will do for you? That's just grass—one day it's alive, and the next day someone throws it into a fire. But God cares enough to make it beautiful. Surely he will do much more for you. Your faith is so small!

²⁹ "So don't always think about what you will eat or what you will drink. Don't worry about it. ³⁰ That's what all those people who don't know God are always thinking about. But your Father knows that you need these things. ³¹ What you should be thinking about is God's kingdom. Then he will give you all these other things you need.

Don't Trust in Money

³² "Don't fear, little flock. Your Father wants to share his kingdom with you. ³³ Sell the things you have and give that money to those who need it. This is the only way you can keep your riches from being lost. You will be storing treasure in heaven that lasts forever. Thieves can't steal that treasure, and moths can't destroy it. ³⁴ Your heart will be where your treasure is.

Always Be Ready
(Matthew 24:42-44)

³⁵ "Be ready! Be fully dressed and have your lights shining. ³⁶ Be like servants who are waiting for their master to come home from a wedding party. The master comes and knocks, and the servants immediately open the door for him. ³⁷ When their master sees that they are ready and waiting for him, it will be a great day for those servants. I can tell you without a doubt, the master will get himself ready to serve a meal and tell the servants to sit down. Then he will serve them. ³⁸ Those servants might have to wait until midnight or later for their master. But they will be glad they did when he comes in and finds them still waiting.

³⁹ "What would a homeowner do if he knew when a thief was coming? You know he would not let the thief break in. ⁴⁰ So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at a time when you don't expect him!"

Who Is the Trusted Servant?
(Matthew 24:45-51)

⁴¹ Peter said, "Lord, did you tell this story for us or for all people?"

⁴² The Lord said, "Who is the wise and trusted servant? The master trusts one servant to give the other servants their food at the right time. Who is the servant that the master trusts to do that work? ⁴³ When the master comes and finds him doing the work he gave him, it will be a day of blessing for that servant! ⁴⁴ I can tell you without a doubt, the master will choose that servant to take care of everything he owns.

⁴⁵ "But what will happen if that servant is evil and thinks his master will not come back soon? He will begin to beat the other servants, men and women. He will eat and drink until he has had too much. ⁴⁶ Then the master will come when the servant is not ready, at a time when the servant is not expecting him. Then the master will punish that servant and send him away to be with the other people who don't obey.

⁴⁷ “That servant knew what his master wanted him to do. But he did not make himself ready or try to do what his master wanted. So that servant will be punished very much!
⁴⁸ But what about the servant who does not know what his master wants? He also does things that deserve punishment. But he will get less punishment than the servant who knew what he should do. Whoever has been given much will be responsible for much. Much more will be expected from the one who has been given more.”

Following Jesus May Bring You Trouble
(Matthew 10:34-36)

⁴⁹ Jesus continued speaking: “I came to bring fire to the world. I wish it were already burning! ⁵⁰ There is a kind of baptism[†] that I must suffer through. I feel very troubled until it is finished. ⁵¹ Do you think I came to give peace to the world? No, I came to divide the world! ⁵² From now on, a family of five will be divided, three against two, and two against three.

⁵³ A father and son will be divided:
 The son will turn against his father.
 The father will turn against his son.
 A mother and her daughter will be divided:
 The daughter will turn against her mother.
 The mother will turn against her daughter.
 A mother-in-law and her daughter-in-law will be divided:
 The daughter-in-law will turn against her mother-in-law.
 The mother-in-law will turn against her daughter-in-law.”

Understanding the Times
(Matthew 16:2-3)

⁵⁴ Then Jesus said to the people, “When you see clouds growing bigger in the west, you say, ‘A rainstorm is coming.’ And soon it begins to rain. ⁵⁵ When you feel the wind begin to blow from the south, you say, ‘It will be a hot day.’ And you are right. ⁵⁶ You hypocrites! You can understand the weather. Why don’t you understand what is happening now?”

Settle Your Problems
(Matthew 5:25-26)

⁵⁷ “Why can’t you decide for yourselves what is right? ⁵⁸ Suppose someone is suing you, and you are both going to court. Try hard to settle it on the way. If you don’t settle it, you may have to go before the judge. And the judge will hand you over to the officer, who will throw you into jail. ⁵⁹ I tell you, you will not get out of there until you have paid every cent you owe.”

Change Your Hearts

¹ Some people there with Jesus at that time told him about what had happened to some worshipers from Galilee. Pilate had them killed. Their blood was mixed with the blood of the animals they had brought for sacrificing. ² Jesus answered, “Do you think this happened to those people because they were more sinful than all other people from Galilee? ³ No, they were not. But if you don’t decide now to change your lives, you will all be destroyed like those people! ⁴ And what about those 18 people who died when the tower of Siloam fell on them? Do you think they were more sinful than everyone else in Jerusalem? ⁵ They were not. But I tell you if you don’t decide now to change your lives, you will all be destroyed too!”

The Useless Tree

[†] 12:50 baptism This word, which usually means to be immersed in water, has a special meaning here—being covered or “buried” in troubles.

⁶ Jesus told this story: “A man had a fig tree. He planted it in his garden. He came looking for some fruit on it, but he found none. ⁷ He had a servant who took care of his garden. So he said to his servant, ‘I have been looking for fruit on this tree for three years, but I never find any. Cut it down! Why should it waste the ground?’ ⁸ But the servant answered, ‘Master, let the tree have one more year to produce fruit. Let me dig up the dirt around it and fertilize it. ⁹ Maybe the tree will have fruit on it next year. If it still does not produce, then you can cut it down.’”

Jesus Heals a Woman on the Sabbath

¹⁰ Jesus taught in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day. ¹¹ A woman was there who had an evil spirit inside her. It had made the woman crippled for 18 years. Her back was always bent; she could not stand up straight. ¹² When Jesus saw her, he called to her, “Woman, you have been made free from your sickness!” ¹³ He laid his hands on her, and immediately she was able to stand up straight. She began praising God.

¹⁴ The synagogue leader was angry because Jesus healed on the Sabbath day. He said to the people, “There are six days for work. So come to be healed on one of those days. Don’t come for healing on the Sabbath day.”

¹⁵ The Lord answered, “You people are hypocrites! All of you untie your work animals and lead them to drink water every day—even on the Sabbath day. ¹⁶ This woman that I healed is a true descendant of Abraham.* But Satan has held her for 18 years. Surely it is not wrong for her to be made free from her sickness on a Sabbath day!” ¹⁷ When Jesus said this, all those who were criticizing him felt ashamed of themselves. And all the people were happy for the wonderful things he was doing.

What Is God’s Kingdom Like?

(Matthew 13:31-33; Mark 4:30-32)

¹⁸ Then Jesus said, “What is God’s kingdom like? What can I compare it to? ¹⁹ God’s kingdom is like the seed of the mustard plant. Someone plants this seed in their garden. The seed grows and becomes a tree, and the birds build nests on its branches.”

²⁰ Jesus said again, “What can I compare God’s kingdom with? ²¹ It is like yeast that a woman mixes into a big bowl of flour to make bread. The yeast makes all the dough rise.”

The Narrow Door

(Matthew 7:13-14, 21-23)

²² Jesus was teaching in every town and village. He continued to travel toward Jerusalem. ²³ Someone said to him, “Lord, how many people will be saved? Only a few?”

Jesus said, ²⁴ “The door to heaven is narrow. Try hard to enter it. Many people will want to enter there, but they will not be able to go in. ²⁵ If a man locks the door of his house, you can stand outside and knock on the door, but he won’t open it. You can say, ‘Sir, open the door for us.’ But he will answer, ‘I don’t know you. Where did you come from?’ ²⁶ Then you will say, ‘We ate and drank with you. You taught in the streets of our town.’ ²⁷ Then he will say to you, ‘I don’t know you. Where did you come from? Get away from me! You are all people who do wrong!’

²⁸ “You will see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets in God’s kingdom. But you will be left outside. There you will cry and grind your teeth with pain. ²⁹ People will come from the east, west, north, and south. They will sit down at the table in God’s kingdom. ³⁰ People who have the lowest place in life now will have the highest place in God’s kingdom. And people who have the highest place now will have the lowest place in God’s kingdom.”

Jesus Will Die in Jerusalem

(Matthew 23:37-39)

* 13:16 true descendant of Abraham Literally, “daughter of Abraham.”

³¹ Just then some Pharisees came to Jesus and said, “Go away from here and hide. Herod wants to kill you!”

³² Jesus said to them, “Go tell that fox,[†] ‘Today and tomorrow I am forcing demons out of people and finishing my work of healing. Then, the next day, the work will be finished.’ ³³ After that I must go, because all prophets should die in Jerusalem.

³⁴ “Jerusalem, Jerusalem! You kill the prophets. You stone to death the people God has sent to you. How many times I wanted to help your people. I wanted to gather them together as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings. But you did not let me. ³⁵ Now your home will be left completely empty. I tell you, you will not see me again until that time when you will say, ‘Welcome! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord.’[☆]”

Is It Right to Heal on the Sabbath Day?

¹ On a Sabbath day, Jesus went to the home of a leading Pharisee to eat with him. The people there were all watching him very closely. ² A man with a bad disease^{*} was there in front of him. ³ Jesus said to the Pharisees and experts in the law, “Is it right or wrong to heal on the Sabbath day?” ⁴ But they would not answer his question. So he took the man and healed him. Then he sent the man away. ⁵ Jesus said to the Pharisees and teachers of the law, “If your son or work animal falls into a well on the Sabbath day, you know you would pull him out immediately.” ⁶ The Pharisees and teachers of the law could say nothing against what he said.

Don't Make Yourself Important

⁷ Then Jesus noticed that some of the guests were choosing the best places to sit. So he told this story: ⁸ “When someone invites you to a wedding, don't sit in the most important seat. They may have invited someone more important than you. ⁹ And if you are sitting in the most important seat, they will come to you and say, ‘Give this man your seat!’ Then you will have to move down to the last place and be embarrassed.

¹⁰ “So when someone invites you, go sit in the seat that is not important. Then they will come to you and say, ‘Friend, move up here to this better place!’ What an honor this will be for you in front of all the other guests. ¹¹ Everyone who makes themselves important will be made humble. But everyone who makes themselves humble will be made important.”

You Will Be Rewarded

¹² Then Jesus said to the Pharisee who had invited him, “When you give a lunch or a dinner, don't invite only your friends, brothers, relatives, and rich neighbors. At another time they will pay you back by inviting you to eat with them. ¹³ Instead, when you give a feast, invite the poor, the crippled, and the blind. ¹⁴ Then you will have great blessings, because these people cannot pay you back. They have nothing. But God will reward you at the time when all godly people rise from death.”

A Story About People

Invited to a Dinner

(Matthew 22:1-10)

¹⁵ One of the men sitting at the table with Jesus heard these things. The man said to him, “It will be a great blessing for anyone to eat a meal in God's kingdom!”

¹⁶ Jesus said to him, “A man gave a big dinner. He invited many people. ¹⁷ When it was time to eat, he sent his servant to tell the guests, ‘Come. The food is ready.’ ¹⁸ But all the guests said they could not come. Each one made an excuse. The first one said, ‘I have just bought a field, so I must go look at it. Please excuse me.’¹⁹ Another man said, ‘I have just bought five pairs of work animals; I must go and try them out. Please excuse me.’²⁰ A third man said, ‘I just got married; I can’t come.’

[†] 13:32 fox Jesus means that Herod is clever and sly like a fox. [☆] 13:35 Quote from Psalm 118:26. ^{*} 14:2 disease The man had dropsy, a sickness that causes the body to swell larger and larger.

²¹ “So the servant returned and told his master what happened. The master was angry. He said, ‘Hurry! Go into the streets and alleys of the town. Bring me the poor, the crippled, the blind, and the lame.’

²² “Later, the servant said to him, ‘Master, I did what you told me to do, but we still have places for more people.’²³ The master said to the servant, ‘Go out to the highways and country roads. Tell the people there to come. I want my house to be full!’²⁴ None of those people I invited first will get to eat any of this food.’”

Decide if You Can Follow Me

(Matthew 10:37-38)

²⁵ Many people were traveling with Jesus. He said to them, ²⁶ “If you come to me but will not leave your family, you cannot be my follower. You must love me more than your father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters—even more than your own life!²⁷ Whoever will not carry the cross that is given to them when they follow me cannot be my follower.

²⁸ “If you wanted to build a building, you would first sit down and decide how much it would cost. You must see if you have enough money to finish the job. ²⁹ If you don’t do that, you might begin the work, but you would not be able to finish. And if you could not finish it, everyone would laugh at you. ³⁰ They would say, ‘This man began to build, but he was not able to finish.’

³¹ “If a king is going to fight against another king, first he will sit down and plan. If he has only 10,000 men, he will try to decide if he is able to defeat the other king who has 20,000 men. ³² If he thinks he cannot defeat the other king, he will send some men to ask for peace while that king’s army is still far away.

³³ “It is the same for each of you. You must leave everything you have to follow me. If not, you cannot be my follower.

Don’t Lose Your Influence

(Matthew 5:13; Mark 9:50)

³⁴ “Salt is a good thing. But if the salt loses its salty taste, you can’t make it salty again.³⁵ It is worth nothing. You can’t even use it as dirt or dung. People just throw it away. “You people who hear me, listen!”

15

Joy in Heaven

(Matthew 18:12-14)

¹ Many tax collectors and sinners came to listen to Jesus. ² Then the Pharisees and the teachers of the law began to complain, “Look, this man* welcomes sinners and even eats with them!”

³ Then Jesus told them this story: ⁴ “Suppose one of you has 100 sheep, but one of them gets lost. What will you do? You will leave the other 99 sheep there in the field and go out and look for the lost sheep. You will continue to search for it until you find it. ⁵ And when you find it, you will be very happy. You will carry it ⁶ home, go to your friends and neighbors and say to them, ‘Be happy with me because I found my lost sheep!’ ⁷ In the same way, I tell you, heaven is a happy place when one sinner decides to change. There is more joy for that one sinner than for 99 good people who don’t need to change.

⁸ “Suppose a woman has ten silver coins,† but she loses one of them. She will take a light and clean the house. She will look carefully for the coin until she finds it. ⁹ And when she finds it, she will call her friends and neighbors and say to them, 'Be happy with me because I have found the coin that I lost!' ¹⁰ In the same way, it's a happy time for the angels of God when one sinner decides to change."

* 15:2 this man That is, Jesus. His enemies avoided saying his name. † 15:8 silver coins Each coin, a Greek drachma, was worth the average pay for one day’s work.

Story About Two Sons

¹¹ Then Jesus said, "There was a man who had two sons. ¹² The younger son said to his father, 'Give me now the part of your property that I am supposed to receive someday.' So the father divided his wealth between his two sons.

¹⁷ "The son realized that he had been very foolish. He thought, 'All my father's hired workers have plenty of food. But here I am, almost dead because I have nothing to eat. ¹⁸ I will leave and go to my father. I will say to him: Father, I have sinned against God and have done wrong to you. ¹⁹ I am no longer worthy to be called your son. But let me be like one of your hired workers.' ²⁰ So he left and went to his father.

The Younger Son Returns

"While the son was still a long way off, his father saw him coming and felt sorry for him. So he ran to him and hugged and kissed him. ²¹ The son said, 'Father, I have sinned against God and have done wrong to you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

²² "But the father said to his servants, 'Hurry! Bring the best clothes and put them on him. Also, put a ring on his finger and good sandals on his feet. ²³ And bring our best calf and kill it so that we can celebrate with plenty to eat. ²⁴ My son was dead, but now he is alive again! He was lost, but now he is found!' So they began to have a party.

The Older Son Complains

²⁵ "The older son had been out in the field. When he came near the house, he heard the sound of music and dancing. ²⁶ So he called to one of the servant boys and asked, 'What does all this mean?' ²⁷ The boy said, 'Your brother has come back, and your father killed the best calf to eat. He is happy because he has his son back safe and sound.'

²⁸ "The older son was angry and would not go in to the party. So his father went out and begged him to come in. ²⁹ But he said to his father, 'Look, for all these years I have worked like a slave for you. I have always done what you told me to do, and you never gave me even a young goat for a party with my friends. ³⁰ But then this son of yours comes home after wasting your money on prostitutes, and you kill the best calf for him!'

³¹ "His father said to him, 'Oh, my son, you are always with me, and everything I have is yours. ³² But this was a day to be happy and celebrate. Your brother was dead, but now he is alive. He was lost, but now he is found.' "

True Wealth

¹ Jesus said to his followers, "Once there was a rich man. He hired a manager to take care of his business. Later, he learned that his manager was cheating him. ² So he called the manager in and said to him, 'I have heard bad things about you. Give me a report of what you have done with my money. You can't be my manager anymore.'

³ "So, the manager thought to himself, 'What will I do? My master is taking my job away from me. I am not strong enough to dig ditches. I am too proud to beg. ⁴ I know what I will do! I will do something to make friends, so that when I lose my job, they will welcome me into their homes.'

⁵ “So the manager called in each person who owed the master some money. He asked the first one, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ ⁶ He answered, ‘I owe him 100 jars* of olive oil.’ The manager said to him, ‘Here is your bill. Hurry! Sit down and make the bill less. Write 50 jars.’

⁷ “Then the manager asked another one, ‘How much do you owe my master?’ He answered, ‘I owe him 100 measures† of wheat.’ Then the manager said to him, ‘Here is your bill; you can make it less. Write 80 measures.’

⁹ “I tell you, use the worldly things you have now to make ‘friends’ for later. Then, when those things are gone, you will be welcomed into a home that lasts forever. ¹⁰ Whoever can be trusted with small things can also be trusted with big things. Whoever is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in big things too. ¹¹ If you cannot be trusted with worldly riches, you will not be trusted with the true riches. ¹² And if you cannot be trusted with the things that belong to someone else, you will not be given anything of your own.

¹³ “You cannot serve two masters at the same time. You will hate one master and love the other. Or you will be loyal to one and not care about the other. You cannot serve God and Money‡ at the same time.”

God’s Law Cannot Be Changed (Matthew 11:12-13)

¹⁴ The Pharisees were listening to all these things. They criticized Jesus because they all loved money. ¹⁵ Jesus said to them, “You make yourselves look good in front of people. But God knows what is really in your hearts. What people think is important is worth nothing to God.

¹⁶ “Before John the Baptizer came, people were taught the Law of Moses and the writings of the prophets. But since the time of John, the Good News about God’s kingdom is being told. And everyone is trying hard to get into it. ¹⁷ But even the smallest part of a letter in the law cannot be changed. It would be easier for heaven and earth to pass away.

Divorce and Remarriage

¹⁸ “Any man who divorces his wife and marries another woman is guilty of adultery. And the man who marries a divorced woman is also guilty of adultery.”

The Rich Man and Lazarus

¹⁹ Jesus said, “There was a rich man who always dressed in the finest clothes. He was so rich that he was able to enjoy all the best things every day. ²⁰ There was also a very poor man named Lazarus. Lazarus’ body was covered with sores. He was often put by the rich man’s gate. ²¹ Lazarus wanted only to eat the scraps of food left on the floor under the rich man’s table. And the dogs came and licked his sores.

²² “Later, Lazarus died. The angels took him and placed him in the arms of Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. ²³ He was sent to the place of death§ and was in great pain. He saw Abraham far away with Lazarus in his arms. ²⁴ He called, ‘Father Abraham, have mercy on me! Send Lazarus to me so that he can dip his finger in water and cool my tongue. I am suffering in this fire!’

²⁵ “But Abraham said, ‘My child, remember when you lived? You had all the good things in life. But Lazarus had nothing but problems. Now he is comforted here, and you are suffering. ²⁶ Also, there is a big pit between you and us. No one can cross over to help you, and no one can come here from there.’

²⁹ “But Abraham said, ‘They have the Law of Moses and the writings of the prophets to read; let them learn from that.’

³⁰ “The rich man said, ‘No, father Abraham! But if someone came to them from the dead, then they would decide to change their lives.’

³¹ “But Abraham said to him, ‘If your brothers won’t listen to Moses and the prophets, they won’t listen to someone who comes back from the dead.’”

Sin and Forgiveness

(Matthew 18:6-7, 21-22; Mark 9:42)

¹ Jesus said to his followers, “Things will surely happen that will make people sin. But it will be very bad for anyone who makes this happen. ² It will be very bad for anyone who makes one of these little children sin. It would be better for them to have a millstone tied around their neck and be drowned in the sea. ³ So be careful!

“If your brother or sister in God’s family does something wrong, warn them. If they are sorry for what they did, forgive them. ⁴ Even if they do something wrong to you seven times in one day, but they say they are sorry each time, you should forgive them.”

How Big Is Your Faith?

⁵ The apostles said to the Lord, “Give us more faith!”

⁶ The Lord said, “If your faith is as big as a mustard seed, you can say to this mulberry tree, ‘Dig yourself up and plant yourself in the ocean!’ And the tree will obey you.

Be Good Servants

⁷ “Suppose one of you has a servant who has been working in the field, plowing or caring for the sheep. When he comes in from work, what would you say to him? Would you say, ‘Come in, sit down and eat?’ ⁸ Of course not! You would say to your servant, ‘Prepare something for me to eat. Then get ready and serve me. When I finish eating and drinking, then you can eat.’ ⁹ The servant should not get any special thanks for doing his job. He is only doing what his master told him to do. ¹⁰ It is the same with you. When you finish doing all that you are told to do, you should say, ‘We are not worthy of any special thanks. We have only done the work we should do.’”

Be Thankful

¹¹ Jesus was traveling to Jerusalem. He went from Galilee to Samaria. ¹² He came into a small town, and ten men met him there. They did not come close to him, because they all had leprosy. ¹³ But the men shouted, “Jesus! Master! Please help us!”

¹⁴ When Jesus saw the men, he said, “Go and show yourselves to the priests.”*

While the ten men were going to the priests, they were healed. ¹⁵ When one of them saw that he was healed, he went back to Jesus. He praised God loudly. ¹⁶ He bowed down at Jesus’ feet and thanked him. (He was a Samaritan.) ¹⁷ Jesus said, “Ten men were healed; where are the other nine? ¹⁸ This man is not even one of our people. Is he the only one who came back to give praise to God?” ¹⁹ Then Jesus said to the man, “Stand up! You can go. You were healed because you believed.”

The Coming of God’s Kingdom

(Matthew 24:23-28, 37-41)

²⁰ Some of the Pharisees asked Jesus, “When will God’s kingdom come?”

* 17:14 show yourselves to the priests The Law of Moses said a priest must decide when a person with leprosy was well.

Jesus answered, “God’s kingdom is coming, but not in a way that you can see it. ²¹ People will not say, ‘Look, God’s kingdom is here!’ or ‘There it is!’ No, God’s kingdom is here with you.†”

²² Then Jesus said to his followers, “The time will come when you will want very much to see one of the days of the Son of Man, but you will not be able to. ²³ People will say to you, ‘Look, there it is!’ or ‘Look, here it is!’ Stay where you are; don’t go away and search. ²⁴ “When the Son of Man comes again, you will know it. On that day he will shine like lightning flashes across the sky. ²⁵ But first, the Son of Man must suffer many things. The people of today will refuse to accept him.

²⁶ “When the Son of Man comes again, it will be the same as it was when Noah lived. ²⁷ People were eating, drinking, and getting married even on the day when Noah entered the boat. Then the flood came and killed them all.

²⁸ “It will be the same as during the time of Lot, when God destroyed Sodom. Those people were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, and building houses for themselves. ²⁹ They were doing these things even on the day when Lot left town. Then fire and sulfur rained down from the sky and killed them all. ³⁰ This is exactly how it will be when the Son of Man comes again.

³¹ “On that day if a man is on his roof, he will not have time to go inside and get his things. If a man is in the field, he cannot go back home. ³² Remember what happened to Lot’s wife‡!

³³ “Whoever tries to keep the life they have will lose it. But whoever gives up their life will save it. ³⁴ That night there may be two people sleeping in one room. One will be taken and the other will be left. ³⁵ There may be two women working together. One will be taken and the other will be left.” ³⁶ §

³⁷ The followers asked Jesus, “Where will this be, Lord?”

Jesus answered, “It’s like looking for a dead body—you will find it where the vultures are gathering above.”

God Will Answer His People

¹ Then Jesus taught the followers that they should always pray and never lose hope. He used this story to teach them: ² “Once there was a judge in a town. He did not care about God. He also did not care what people thought about him. ³ In that same town there was a woman whose husband had died. She came many times to this judge and said, ‘There is a man who is doing bad things to me. Give me my rights!’ ⁴ But the judge did not want to help the woman. After a long time, the judge thought to himself, ‘I don’t care about God. And I don’t care about what people think. ⁵ But this woman is bothering me. If I give her what she wants, then she will leave me alone. But if I don’t give her what she wants, she will bother me until I am sick.’ ”

⁶ The Lord said, “Listen, there is meaning in what the bad judge said. ⁷ God’s people shout to him night and day, and he will always give them what is right. He will not be slow to answer them. ⁸ I tell you, God will help his people quickly. But when the Son of Man comes again, will he find people on earth who believe in him?”

Being Right With God

⁹ There were some people who thought they were very good and looked down on everyone else. Jesus used this story to teach them: ¹⁰ “One time there was a Pharisee and a tax collector. One day they both went to the Temple to pray. ¹¹ The Pharisee stood alone, away from the tax collector. When the Pharisee prayed, he said, ‘O God, I thank you that I am not as bad as other people. I am not like men who steal, cheat, or commit adultery. I thank you that I am better than this tax collector. ¹² I fast twice a week, and I give a tenth of everything I get!

† 17:21 here with you Or “inside you.” ‡ 17:32 Lot’s wife The story about Lot’s wife is found in Genesis 19:15-17, 26. § 17:36 A few Greek copies add verse 36: “Two men will be in the same field. One man will be taken, but the other man will be left behind.”

¹³ “The tax collector stood alone too. But when he prayed, he would not even look up to heaven. He felt very humble before God. He said, ‘O God, have mercy on me. I am a sinner!’ ¹⁴ I tell you, when this man finished his prayer and went home, he was right with God. But the Pharisee, who felt that he was better than others, was not right with God. People who make themselves important will be made humble. But those who make themselves humble will be made important.”

Jesus Welcomes Children

(Matthew 19:13-15; Mark 10:13-16)

¹⁵ Some people brought their small children to Jesus so that he could lay his hands on them to bless them. But when the followers saw this, they told the people not to do this. ¹⁶ But Jesus called the little children to him and said to his followers, “Let the little children come to me. Don’t stop them, because God’s kingdom belongs to people who are like these little children. ¹⁷ The truth is, you must accept God’s kingdom like a little child accepts things, or you will never enter it.”

A Rich Man Refuses to Follow Jesus

(Matthew 19:16-30; Mark 10:17-31)

¹⁸ A religious leader asked Jesus, “Good Teacher, what must I do to get eternal life?”

¹⁹ Jesus said to him, “Why do you call me good? Only God is good. ²⁰ And you know his commands: ‘You must not commit adultery, you must not murder anyone, you must not steal, you must not tell lies about others, you must respect your father and mother ...’[☆]”

²¹ But the leader said, “I have obeyed all these commands since I was a boy.”

²² When Jesus heard this, he said to the leader, “But there is still one thing you need to do. Sell everything you have and give the money to those who are poor. You will have riches in heaven. Then come and follow me.” ²³ But when the man heard Jesus tell him to give away his money, he was sad. He didn’t want to do this, because he was very rich.

²⁴ When Jesus saw that the man was sad, he said, “It will be very hard for rich people to enter God’s kingdom. ²⁵ It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter God’s kingdom.”

Who Can Be Saved?

²⁶ When the people heard this, they said, “Then who can be saved?”

²⁷ Jesus answered, “God can do things that are not possible for people to do.”

²⁸ Peter said, “Look, we left everything we had and followed you.”

²⁹ Jesus said, “I can promise that everyone who has left their home, wife, brothers, parents, or children for God’s kingdom ³⁰ will get much more than they left. They will get many times more in this life. And in the world that is coming they will get the reward of eternal life.”

Jesus Talks Again About His Death

(Matthew 20:17-19; Mark 10:32-34)

³¹ Then Jesus talked to the twelve apostles alone. He said to them, “Listen, we are going to Jerusalem. Everything that God told the prophets to write about the Son of Man will happen. ³² He will be handed over to the foreigners, who will laugh at him, insult him, and spit on him. ³³ They will beat him with whips and then kill him. But on the third day after his death, he will rise to life again.” ³⁴ The apostles tried to understand this, but they could not; the meaning was hidden from them.

Jesus Heals a Blind Man

(Matthew 20:29-34; Mark 10:46-52)

[☆] 18:20 Quote from Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20.

³⁵ Jesus came near the city of Jericho. There was a blind man sitting beside the road. He was begging people for money. ³⁶ When he heard the people coming down the road, he asked, "What is happening?"

³⁷ They told him, "Jesus, the one from Nazareth, is coming here."

³⁸ The blind man was excited and said, "Jesus, Son of David, please help me!"

³⁹ The people who were in front leading the group criticized the blind man. They told him to be quiet. But he shouted more and more, "Son of David, please help me!"

⁴⁰ Jesus stopped there and said, "Bring that man to me!" When he came close, Jesus asked him, ⁴¹ "What do you want me to do for you?"

He said, "Lord, I want to see again."

⁴² Jesus said to him, "You can see now. You are healed because you believed."

⁴³ Then the man was able to see. He followed Jesus, thanking God. Everyone who saw this praised God for what happened.

Zacchaeus

¹ Jesus was going through the city of Jericho. ² In Jericho there was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a wealthy, very important tax collector. ³ He wanted to see who Jesus was. There were many others who wanted to see Jesus too. Zacchaeus was too short to see above the people. ⁴ So he ran to a place where he knew Jesus would come. Then he climbed a sycamore tree so he could see him.

⁵ When Jesus came to where Zacchaeus was, he looked up and saw him in the tree. Jesus said, "Zacchaeus, hurry! Come down! I must stay at your house today."

⁶ Zacchaeus hurried and came down. He was happy to have Jesus in his house. ⁷ Everyone saw this. They began to complain, "Look at the kind of man Jesus is staying with. Zacchaeus is a sinner!"

⁸ Zacchaeus said to the Lord, "I want to do good. I will give half of my money to the poor. If I have cheated anyone, I will pay them back four times more."

⁹ Jesus said, "Today is the day for this family to be saved from sin. Yes, even this tax collector is one of God's chosen people.* ¹⁰ The Son of Man came to find lost people and save them."

Use What God Gives You (Matthew 25:14-30)

¹¹ As the crowd listened to what he was saying, Jesus went on to tell a story. He was now near Jerusalem and knew that the people thought it was almost time for God's kingdom to come. ¹² So he said, "A very important man was preparing to go to a country far away to be made a king. Then he planned to return home and rule his people. ¹³ So he called ten of his servants together. He gave a bag of money† to each servant. He said, 'Do business with this money until I come back.' ¹⁴ But the people in the kingdom hated the man. They sent a group to follow him to the other country. There they said, 'We don't want this man to be our king.'

¹⁵ "But the man was made king. When he came home, he said, 'Call those servants who have my money. I want to know how much more money they earned with it.' ¹⁶ The first servant came and said, 'Sir, I earned ten bags of money with the one bag you gave me.' ¹⁷ The king said to him, 'That's great! You are a good servant. I see that I can trust you with small things. So now I will let you rule over ten of my cities.'

¹⁸ "The second servant said, 'Sir, with your one bag of money I earned five bags.' ¹⁹ The king said to this servant, 'You can rule over five cities.'

* 19:9 one of God's chosen people Literally, "a son of Abraham." † 19:13 bag of money One bag of money was a Greek mina, enough to pay a person for working three months. Also in verses 16, 18, 20, 24, 25.

²⁰ “Then another servant came in and said to the king, ‘Sir, here is your bag of money. I wrapped it in a piece of cloth and hid it. ²¹ I was afraid of you because you are a hard man. You even take money that you didn’t earn and gather food that you didn’t grow.’

²² “Then the king said to him, ‘What a bad servant you are! I will use your own words to condemn you. You said that I am a hard man. You said that I even take money that I didn’t earn and gather food that I didn’t grow. ²³ If that is true, you should have put my money in the bank. Then, when I came back, my money would have earned some interest.’ ²⁴ Then the king said to the men who were watching, ‘Take the bag of money away from this servant and give it to the servant who earned ten bags of money.’

²⁵ “The men said to the king, ‘But sir, that servant already has ten bags of money.’

²⁶ “The king said, ‘People who use what they have will get more. But those who do not use what they have will have everything taken away from them. ²⁷ Now where are my enemies? Where are the people who did not want me to be king? Bring my enemies here and kill them. I will watch them die.’ ”

Jesus Enters Jerusalem Like a King

(Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; John 12:12-19)

²⁸ After Jesus said these things, he continued traveling toward Jerusalem. ²⁹ He came near Bethphage and Bethany, towns near the hill called the Mount of Olives. He sent out two of his followers. ³⁰ He said, “Go into the town you can see there. When you enter the town, you will find a young donkey tied there that no one has ever ridden. Untie it, and bring it here to me. ³¹ If anyone asks you why you are taking the donkey, you should say, ‘The Master needs it.’ ”

³² The two followers went into town. They found the donkey exactly like Jesus told them. ³³ They untied it, but its owners came out. They said to the followers, “Why are you untying our donkey?”

³⁴ The followers answered, “The Master needs it.” ³⁵ So the followers brought the donkey to Jesus. They put their coats on its back. Then they put Jesus on the donkey. ³⁶ He rode along the road toward Jerusalem. The followers spread their coats on the road before him.

³⁷ Jesus was coming close to Jerusalem. He was already near the bottom of the Mount of Olives. The whole group of followers was happy. They were very excited and praised God. They thanked God for all the powerful things they had seen. ³⁸ They said, “ ‘Welcome! God bless the king who comes in the name of the Lord.’ Psalm 118:26

Peace in heaven and glory to God!”

³⁹ Some of the Pharisees said to Jesus, “Teacher, tell your followers not to say these things.”

⁴⁰ But Jesus answered, “I tell you, if my followers didn’t say them, these stones would shout them.”

Jesus Cries for Jerusalem

⁴¹ Jesus came near Jerusalem. Looking at the city, he began to cry for it ⁴² and said, “I wish you knew today what would bring you peace. But it is hidden from you now. ⁴³ A time is coming when your enemies will build a wall around you and hold you in on all sides. ⁴⁴ They will destroy you and all your people. Not one stone of your buildings will stay on top of another. All this will happen because you did not know the time when God came to save you.”

Jesus Goes to the Temple

(Matthew 21:12-17; Mark 11:15-19; John 2:13-22)

⁴⁵ Jesus went into the Temple area. He began to throw out the people who were selling things there. ⁴⁶ He said, “The Scriptures say, ‘My Temple will be a house of prayer.’[☆] But you have changed it into a ‘hiding place for thieves.’[☆]”

⁴⁷ Jesus taught the people in the Temple area every day. The leading priests, the teachers of the law, and some of the leaders of the people wanted to kill him. ⁴⁸ But they did not know how they could do it, because everyone was listening to him. The people were very interested in what Jesus said.

20

Jewish Leaders Doubt Jesus' Authority

(Matthew 21:23-27; Mark 11:27-33)

¹ One day Jesus was in the Temple area teaching the people. He was telling them the Good News. The leading priests, teachers of the law, and older Jewish leaders came to talk to Jesus. ² They said, “Tell us what authority you have to do these things. Who gave you this authority?”

³ Jesus answered, “I will ask you a question too. Tell me: ⁴ When John baptized people, did his authority come from God or was it only from other people?”

⁵ The priests, the teachers of the law, and the Jewish leaders all talked about this. They said to each other, “If we answer, ‘John’s baptism was from God,’ then he will say, ‘Then why did you not believe John?’ ⁶ But if we say that John’s baptism was from someone else, the people will stone us to death. They all believe that John was a prophet.” ⁷ So they answered, “We don’t know the answer.”

⁸ So Jesus said to them, “Then I will not tell you who gave me the authority to do these things.”

God Sends His Son

(Matthew 21:33-46; Mark 12:1-12)

⁹ Then Jesus told the people this story: “A man planted a vineyard. He leased the land to some farmers. Then he went away for a long time. ¹⁰ Later, it was time for the grapes to be picked. So the man sent a servant to those farmers so that they would give him his share of the grapes. But they beat the servant and sent him away with nothing. ¹¹ So the man sent another servant. They beat this servant too and showed no respect for him. They sent the servant away with nothing. ¹² So the man sent a third servant to the farmers. They hurt this servant badly and threw him out.

¹³ “The owner of the vineyard said, ‘What will I do now? I will send my son. I love my son very much. Maybe the farmers will respect my son.’ ¹⁴ When the farmers saw the son, they said to each other, ‘This is the owner’s son. This vineyard will be his. If we kill him, it will be ours.’ ¹⁵ So the farmers threw the son out of the vineyard and killed him.

“What will the owner of the vineyard do? ¹⁶ He will come and kill those farmers. Then he will lease the land to some other farmers.”

When the people heard this story, they said, “This should never happen!” ¹⁷ But Jesus looked into their eyes and said, “Then what does this verse mean:

‘The stone that the builders refused to accept
became the cornerstone’?

Psalms 118:22

¹⁸ Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken. If that stone falls on you, it will crush you!”

¹⁹ When the teachers of the law and the leading priests heard this story, they knew it was about them. So they wanted to arrest Jesus right then, but they were afraid of what the people would do.

[☆] 19:46 Quote from Isaiah 56:7. [☆] 19:46 Quote from Jeremiah 7:11.

The Jewish Leaders Try to Trick Jesus

(Matthew 22:15-22; Mark 12:13-17)

²⁰ So the Jewish leaders waited for the right time to get Jesus. They sent some men to him, who pretended to be sincere. They wanted to find something wrong with what Jesus said. (If they found something wrong, then they could hand him over to the governor, who had the authority to arrest him.) ²¹ So the men said to Jesus, “Teacher, we know that what you say and teach is true. It doesn’t matter who is listening—you teach the same to all people. You always teach the truth about God’s way. ²² Tell us, is it right for us to pay taxes to Caesar or not?”

²³ But Jesus knew that these men were trying to trick him. He said to them, ²⁴ “Show me a silver coin. Whose name and picture are on it?”

They said, “Caesar’s.”

²⁵ He said to them, “Then give to Caesar what belongs to Caesar, and give to God what belongs to God.”

²⁶ The men were amazed at his wise answer. They could say nothing. They were not able to trick Jesus there in front of the people. He said nothing they could use against him.

Some Sadducees Try to Trick Jesus

²⁷ Some Sadducees came to Jesus. (Sadducees believe that people will not rise from death.) They asked him, ²⁸ “Teacher, Moses wrote that if a married man dies and had no children, his brother must marry his widow. Then they will have children for the dead brother.* ²⁹ One time there were seven brothers. The first brother married a woman but died. He had no children. ³⁰ Then the second brother married the woman, and he died. ³¹ And the third brother married the woman, and he died. The same thing happened with all the other brothers. They all died and had no children. ³² The woman was the last to die. ³³ But all seven brothers married her. So when people rise from death, whose wife will this woman be?”

³⁴ Jesus said to the Sadducees, “On earth, people marry each other. ³⁵ Some people will be worthy to be raised from death and live again after this life. In that life they will not marry. ³⁶ In that life people are like angels and cannot die. They are children of God, because they have been raised from death. ³⁷ Moses clearly showed that people are raised from death. When Moses wrote about the burning bush,† he said that the Lord is ‘the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’‡ ³⁸ So they were not still dead, because he is the God only of living people. Yes, to God they are all still living.”

³⁹ Some of the teachers of the law said, “Teacher, your answer was very good.” ⁴⁰ No one was brave enough to ask him another question.

*Is the Messiah David’s Son
or David’s Lord?*

(Matthew 22:41-46; Mark 12:35-37)

⁴¹ Then Jesus said, “Why do people say that the Messiah is the Son of David? ⁴² In the book of Psalms, David himself says,

‘The Lord God said to my Lord:
Sit by me at my right side,

⁴³ and I will put your enemies under your power.§’

Psalm 110:1

⁴⁴ David calls the Messiah ‘Lord.’ So how can the Messiah also be David’s son?”

* 20:28 if ... dead brother See Deuteronomy 25:5, 6. † 20:37 burning bush See Exodus 3:1-12. ‡ 20:37 ‘the God of ... Jacob’ Words taken from Exodus 3:6. § 20:43 and I ... power Literally, “until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.”

Warning Against the Teachers of the Law

(Matthew 23:1-36; Mark 12:38-40; Luke 11:37-54)

⁴⁵ While all the people were listening to Jesus, he said to his followers, ⁴⁶ “Be careful of the teachers of the law. They like to walk around wearing clothes that look important. And they love for people to show respect to them in the marketplaces. They love to have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. ⁴⁷ But they cheat widows and take their homes. Then they try to make themselves look good by saying long prayers. God will punish them very much.”

21

True Giving

(Mark 12:41-44)

¹ Jesus looked up and saw some rich people putting their gifts to God into the Temple collection box. ² Then he saw a poor widow put two small copper coins into the box. ³ He said, “This poor widow gave only two small coins. But the truth is, she gave more than all those rich people. ⁴ They have plenty, and they gave only what they did not need. This woman is very poor, but she gave all she had to live on.”

Jesus Warns About the Future

(Matthew 24:1-14; Mark 13:1-13)

⁵ Some of the followers were talking about the Temple. They said, “This is a beautiful Temple, built with the best stones. Look at the many good gifts that have been offered to God.”

⁶ But Jesus said, “The time will come when all that you see here will be destroyed. Every stone of these buildings will be thrown down to the ground. Not one stone will be left on another.”

⁷ Some followers asked Jesus, “Teacher, when will these things happen? What will show us that it is time for these things to happen?”

⁸ Jesus said, “Be careful! Don’t be fooled. Many people will come using my name. They will say, ‘I am the Messiah*’ and ‘The right time has come!’ But don’t follow them. ⁹ When you hear about wars and riots, don’t be afraid. These things must happen first. Then the end will come later.”

¹⁰ Then Jesus said to them, “Nations will fight against other nations. Kingdoms will fight against other kingdoms. ¹¹ There will be great earthquakes, sicknesses, and other bad things in many places. In some places there will be no food for the people to eat. Terrible things will happen, and amazing things will come from heaven to warn people.

¹² “But before all these things happen, people will arrest you and do bad things to you. They will judge you in their synagogues and put you in jail. You will be forced to stand before kings and governors. They will do all these things to you because you follow me. ¹³ But this will give you an opportunity to tell about me. ¹⁴ Decide now not to worry about what you will say. ¹⁵ I will give you the wisdom to say things that none of your enemies can answer. ¹⁶ Even your parents, brothers, relatives, and friends will turn against you. They will have some of you killed. ¹⁷ Everyone will hate you because you follow me. ¹⁸ But none of these things can really harm you. ¹⁹ You will save yourselves by continuing strong in your faith through all these things.

The Destruction of Jerusalem

²⁰ “You will see armies all around Jerusalem. Then you will know that the time for its destruction has come. ²¹ The people in Judea at that time should run away to the mountains. The people in Jerusalem must leave quickly. If you are near the city, don't go in! ²² The prophets wrote many things about the time when God will punish his people. The time I am talking about is when all these things must happen. ²³ During that time it will be hard for women who are pregnant or have small babies, because very bad times will come to this land. God will be angry with these people. ²⁴ Some of the people will be killed by soldiers. Others will be made prisoners and taken to all the different countries. The holy city of Jerusalem will be under the control of foreigners until their time is completed.

Don't Fear

(Matthew 24:29-31; Mark 13:24-27)

²⁵ "Amazing things will happen to the sun, moon, and stars. And people all over the earth will be upset and confused by the noise of the sea and its crashing waves. ²⁶ They will be afraid and worried about what will happen to the world. Everything in the sky will be changed. ²⁷ Then people will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. ²⁸ When these things begin to happen, stand up tall and don't be afraid. Know that it is almost time for God to free you!"

My Words Will Live Forever

(Matthew 24:32-35; Mark 13:28-31)

²⁹ Then Jesus told this story: "Look at all the trees. The fig tree is a good example. ³⁰ When it turns green, you know that summer is very near. ³¹ In the same way, when you see all these things happening, you will know that God's kingdom is very near.

³² "I assure you that all these things will happen while some of the people of this time are still living. ³³ The whole world, earth and sky, will be destroyed, but my words will last forever.

Be Ready All the Time

³⁴ "Be careful not to spend your time having parties and getting drunk or worrying about this life. If you do that, you won't be able to think straight, and the end might come when you are not ready. ³⁵ It will come as a surprise to everyone on earth. ³⁶ So be ready all the time. Pray that you will be able to get through all these things that will happen and stand safe before the Son of Man."

³⁷ During the day Jesus taught the people in the Temple area. At night he went out of the city and stayed all night on the Mount of Olives. ³⁸ Every morning all the people got up early to go listen to Jesus at the Temple.

The Jewish Leaders Plan to Kill Jesus

(Matthew 26:1-5, 14-16; Mark 14:1-2, 10-11; John 11:45-53)

¹ It was almost time for the Jewish Festival of Unleavened Bread, called the Passover. ² The leading priests and teachers of the law wanted to kill Jesus. But they were trying to find a quiet way to do it, because they were afraid of what the people would do.

Judas Agrees to Help Jesus' Enemies

(Matthew 26:14-16; Mark 14:10-11)

³ One of Jesus' twelve apostles was named Judas Iscariot. Satan entered him, ⁴ and he went and talked with the leading priests and some of the soldiers who guarded the Temple. He talked to them about a way to hand Jesus over to them. ⁵ The priests were very happy about this. They promised to give Judas money for doing this. ⁶ He agreed. Then he waited for the best time to hand him over to them. He wanted to do it when no one was around to see it.

The Passover Meal

(Matthew 26:17-25; Mark 14:12-21; John 13:21-30)

⁷ The Day of Unleavened Bread* came. This was the day when the Jews always killed the lambs for the Passover. ⁸ Jesus said to Peter and John, “Go and prepare the Passover meal for us to eat.”

⁹ They said to him, “Where do you want us to prepare the meal?”

He said to them, ¹⁰ “When you go into the city, you will see a man carrying a jar of water. Follow him. He will go into a house. ¹¹ Tell the owner of the house, ‘The Teacher asks that you please show us the room where he and his followers can eat the Passover meal.’ ¹² Then the owner will show you a large room upstairs that is ready for us. Prepare the meal there.”

¹³ So Peter and John left. Everything happened the way Jesus said. So they prepared the Passover meal.

The Lord’s Supper

(Matthew 26:26-30; Mark 14:22-26; 1 Corinthians 11:23-25)

¹⁴ The time came for them to eat the Passover meal. Jesus and the apostles were together at the table. ¹⁵ Jesus said to them, “I wanted very much to eat this Passover meal with you before I die. ¹⁶ I will never eat another Passover meal until it is given its full meaning in God’s kingdom.”

¹⁷ Then Jesus took a cup of wine. He gave thanks to God for it and said, “Take this cup and give it to everyone here. ¹⁸ I will never drink wine again until God’s kingdom comes.”

¹⁹ Then he took some bread and thanked God for it. He broke off some pieces, gave them to the apostles and said, “This bread is my body that I am giving for you. Eat this to remember me.” ²⁰ In the same way, after supper, Jesus took the cup of wine and said, “This wine represents the new agreement from God to his people. It will begin when my blood is poured out for you.”†

Who Will Turn Against Jesus?

²¹ Jesus said, “But here on this table is the hand of the one who will hand me over to my enemies. ²² The Son of Man will do what God has planned. But it will be very bad for the one who hands over the Son of Man to be killed.”

²³ Then the apostles asked each other, “Which one of us would do that?”

Be Like a Servant

²⁴ Later, the apostles began to argue about which one of them was the most important. ²⁵ But Jesus said to them, “The kings of the world rule over their people, and those who have authority over others want to be called ‘the great providers for the people.’ ²⁶ But you must not be like that. The one with the most authority among you should act as if he is the least important. The one who leads should be like one who serves. ²⁷ Who is more important: the one serving or the one sitting at the table being served? Everyone thinks it’s the one being served, right? But I have been with you as the one who serves.

²⁸ “You men have stayed with me through many struggles. ²⁹ So I give you authority to rule with me in the kingdom the Father has given me. ³⁰ You will eat and drink at my table in that kingdom. You will sit on thrones and judge the twelve tribes of Israel.

Peter Will Be Tested and Fail

(Matthew 26:31-35; Mark 14:27-31; John 13:36-38)

³¹ “Satan has asked to test you men like a farmer tests his wheat. O Simon, Simon,‡ ³² I have prayed that you will not lose your faith! Help your brothers be stronger when you come back to me.”

³³ But Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, I am ready to go to jail with you. I will even die with you!”

* 22:7 Day of Unleavened Bread Same as Passover. † 22:20 A few Greek copies do not have Jesus’ words in the last part of verse 19 and all of verse 20. ‡ 22:31 Simon Simon’s other name was Peter.

³⁴ But Jesus said, “Peter, before the rooster crows tomorrow morning, you will say you don’t know me. You will say this three times.”

Be Ready for Trouble

³⁵ Then Jesus said to the apostles, “Remember when I sent you out without money, a bag, or sandals? Did you need anything?”

The apostles said, “No.”

³⁶ Jesus said to them, “But now if you have money or a bag, carry that with you. If you don’t have a sword, sell your coat and buy one. ³⁷ The Scriptures say,

‘He was considered a criminal.’

Isaiah 53:12

This Scripture must happen. It was written about me, and it is happening now.”

³⁸ The followers said, “Look, Lord, here are two swords.”

Jesus said to them, “That’s enough.”[§]

Jesus Prays Alone

(Matthew 26:36-46; Mark 14:32-42)

³⁹⁻⁴⁰ Jesus left the city and went to the Mount of Olives. His followers went with him. (He went there often.) He said to his followers, “Pray for strength against temptation.”

⁴¹ Then Jesus went about 50 steps away from them. He knelt down and prayed,

⁴² “Father, if you are willing, please don’t make me drink from this cup.* But do what you want, not what I want.” ⁴³ Then an angel from heaven came to help him. ⁴⁴ Jesus was full of pain; he struggled hard in prayer. Sweat dripped from his face like drops of blood falling to the ground.† ⁴⁵ When he finished praying, he went to his followers. He found them asleep, worn out from their grieving. ⁴⁶ Jesus said to them, “Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray for strength against temptation.”

Jesus Is Arrested

(Matthew 26:47-56; Mark 14:43-50; John 18:3-11)

⁴⁷ While Jesus was speaking, a crowd came up. It was led by Judas, one of the twelve apostles. He came over to Jesus to kiss him.

⁴⁸ But Jesus said to him, “Judas, are you using the kiss of friendship to hand over the Son of Man to his enemies?” ⁴⁹ The followers of Jesus were standing there too. They saw what was happening and said to Jesus, “Lord, should we use our swords?” ⁵⁰ And one of them did use his sword. He cut off the right ear of the servant of the high priest.

⁵¹ Jesus said, “Stop!” Then he touched the servant’s ear and healed him.

⁵² Jesus spoke to the group that came to arrest him. They were the leading priests, the older Jewish leaders, and the Jewish soldiers. He said to them, “Why did you come out here with swords and clubs? Do you think I am a criminal? ⁵³ I was with you every day in the Temple area. Why didn’t you try to arrest me there? But this is your time—the time when darkness rules.”

Peter Is Afraid to Say He Knows Jesus

(Matthew 26:57-58, 69-75; Mark 14:53-54, 66-72; John 18:12-18, 25-27)

⁵⁴ They arrested Jesus and took him away to the house of the high priest. Peter followed Jesus but stayed back at a distance. ⁵⁵ The soldiers started a fire in the middle of the yard and sat together. Peter sat with them. ⁵⁶ A servant girl saw him sitting there. She could see because of the light from the fire. She looked closely at Peter’s face. Then she said, “This man was also with Jesus.”

§ 22:38 “That’s enough” Or “Enough of that!” meaning “Don’t talk anymore about such things.” * 22:42 cup A symbol of suffering. Jesus used the idea of drinking from a cup to mean accepting the suffering he would face in the terrible events that were soon to come. † 22:44 Some Greek copies do not have verses 43 and 44.

⁵⁷ But Peter said this was not true. He said, “Lady, I don’t know him.” ⁵⁸ A short time later, someone else saw Peter and said, “You are also one of them.”

But Peter said, “Man, I am not!”

⁵⁹ About an hour later, another man said, “It’s true. I’m sure this man was with him, because he is from Galilee.”

⁶⁰ But Peter said, “Man, I don’t know what you are talking about!”

Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed. ⁶¹ Then the Lord turned and looked into Peter’s eyes. And Peter remembered what the Lord had said, “Before the rooster crows in the morning, you will say three times that you don’t know me.” ⁶² Then Peter went outside and cried bitterly.

The Guards Treat Jesus Badly

(Matthew 26:67-68; Mark 14:65)

⁶³ The men guarding Jesus made fun of him and beat him. ⁶⁴ They covered his eyes so that he could not see them. Then they hit him and said, “Be a prophet[‡] and tell us who hit you!” ⁶⁵ And they shouted all kinds of insults at him.

Jesus Before the Jewish Leaders

(Matthew 26:59-66; Mark 14:55-64; John 18:19-24)

⁶⁶ The next morning, the older leaders of the people, the leading priests, and the teachers of the law came together. They led Jesus away to their high council. ⁶⁷ They said, “If you are the Messiah, then tell us that you are.”

Jesus said to them, “If I tell you I am the Messiah, you will not believe me. ⁶⁸ And if I ask you, you will not answer. ⁶⁹ But beginning now, the Son of Man will sit at the right side of God All-Powerful.”

⁷⁰ They all said, “Then are you the Son of God?” Jesus said to them, “You are right in saying that I am.”

⁷¹ They said, “Why do we need witnesses now? We all heard what he said!”

23

Governor Pilate Questions Jesus

(Matthew 27:1-2, 11-14; Mark 15:1-5; John 18:28-38)

¹ Then the whole group stood up and led Jesus away to Pilate. ² They began to accuse Jesus and said to Pilate, “We caught this man trying to change the thinking of our people. He says we should not pay taxes to Caesar. He calls himself the Messiah, a king.”

³ Pilate asked Jesus, “Are you the king of the Jews?”

Jesus answered, “Yes, what you say is true.”

⁴ Pilate said to the leading priests and the people, “I find nothing wrong with this man.”

⁵ But they kept on saying, “His teaching is causing trouble all over Judea. He began in Galilee, and now he is here!”

Pilate Sends Jesus to Herod

⁶ Pilate heard this and asked if Jesus was from Galilee. ⁷ He learned that Jesus was under Herod’s authority. Herod was in Jerusalem at that time, so Pilate sent Jesus to him.

⁸ When Herod saw Jesus, he was very happy. He had heard all about him and had wanted to meet him for a long time. Herod wanted to see a miracle, so he was hoping that Jesus would do one. ⁹ He asked him many questions, but Jesus said nothing. ¹⁰ The leading priests and teachers of the law were standing there shouting things against Jesus.

¹¹ Then Herod and his soldiers laughed at him. They made fun of him by dressing him in clothes like kings wear. Then Herod sent him back to Pilate. ¹² In the past Pilate and Herod had always been enemies. But on that day they became friends.

[‡] 22:64 prophet A prophet often knows things that are hidden to other people.

Pilate Tries but Fails to Free Jesus(Matthew 27:15-26; Mark 15:6-15; John 18:39—19:16)

¹³ Pilate called all the people together with the leading priests and the Jewish leaders. ¹⁴ He said to them, “You brought this man to me. You said he was trying to change the people. But I judged him before you all and have not found him guilty of the things you say he has done. ¹⁵ Herod didn’t find him guilty either. He sent him back to us. Look, he has done nothing bad enough for the death penalty. ¹⁶ So, after I punish him a little, I will let him go free.” ¹⁷ *

¹⁸ But they all shouted, “Kill him! Let Barabbas go free!” ¹⁹ (Barabbas was a man who was in jail for starting a riot in the city and for murder.)

²⁰ Pilate wanted to let Jesus go free. So again Pilate told them that he would let him go. ²¹ But they shouted again, “Kill him! Kill him on a cross!”

²² A third time Pilate said to the people, “Why? What wrong has he done? He is not guilty. I can find no reason to kill him. So I will let him go free after I punish him a little.”

²³ But the people continued to shout. They demanded that Jesus be killed on a cross. Their shouting got so loud that ²⁴ Pilate decided to give them what they wanted. ²⁵ They wanted Barabbas to go free—the one who was in jail for starting a riot and for murder. Pilate let Barabbas go free. And he handed Jesus over to be killed. This is what the people wanted.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross(Matthew 27:32-44; Mark 15:21-32; John 19:17-19)

²⁶ The soldiers led Jesus away. At that same time there was a man from Cyrene named Simon coming into the city from the fields. The soldiers forced him to carry Jesus’ cross and walk behind him.

²⁷ A large crowd followed Jesus. Some of the women were sad and crying. They felt sorry for him. ²⁸ But Jesus turned and said to the women, “Women of Jerusalem, don’t cry for me. Cry for yourselves and for your children too. ²⁹ The time is coming when people will say, ‘The women who cannot have babies are the ones God has blessed. It’s really a blessing that they have no children to care for.’ ³⁰ Then the people will say to the mountains, ‘Fall on us!’ They will say to the hills, ‘Cover us!’[☆] ³¹ If this can happen to someone who is good, what will happen to those who are guilty?[†]”

³² There were also two criminals led out with Jesus to be killed. ³³ They were led to a place called “The Skull.” There the soldiers nailed Jesus to the cross. They also nailed the criminals to crosses beside Jesus—one on the right and the other on the left.

³⁴ Jesus said, “Father, forgive them. They don’t know what they are doing.”[‡]

The soldiers threw dice to divide Jesus’ clothes between them. ³⁵ The people stood there watching everything. The Jewish leaders laughed at Jesus. They said, “If he is God’s Chosen One, the Messiah, then let him save himself. He saved others, didn’t he?”

³⁹ One of the criminals hanging there began to shout insults at Jesus: “Aren’t you the Messiah? Then save yourself, and save us too!”

⁴⁰ But the other criminal stopped him. He said, “You should fear God. All of us will die soon. ⁴¹ You and I are guilty. We deserve to die because we did wrong. But this man has done nothing wrong.” ⁴² Then he said, “Jesus, remember me when you begin ruling as king!”

⁴³ Then Jesus said to him, “I promise you, today you will be with me in paradise.”

* 23:17 A few Greek copies add verse 17: “Every year at the Passover festival, Pilate had to release one prisoner to the people.” ☆ 23:30 Quote from Hosea 10:8. † 23:31 If this can happen ... guilty Literally, “If they do these things in the green tree, what will happen in the dry?” ‡ 23:34 Jesus said, “Father ... doing” Some early copies of Luke do not have these words.

Jesus Dies(Matthew 27:45-56; Mark 15:33-41; John 19:28-30)

⁴⁴ It was about noon, but it turned dark throughout the land until three o'clock in the afternoon, ⁴⁵ because the sun stopped shining. The curtain in the Temple was torn into two pieces. ⁴⁶ Jesus shouted, "Father, I put my life in your hands!"[§] After Jesus said this, he died.

⁴⁷ The army officer there saw what happened. He praised God, saying, "I know this man was a good man!"

⁴⁸ Many people had come out of the city to see all this. When they saw it, they felt very sorry and left. ⁴⁹ The people who were close friends of Jesus were there. Also, there were some women who had followed Jesus from Galilee. They all stood far away from the cross and watched these things.

Jesus Is Buried(Matthew 27:57-61; Mark 15:42-47; John 19:38-42)

⁵⁰⁻⁵¹ A man named Joseph was there from the Jewish town of Arimathea. He was a good man, who lived the way God wanted. He was waiting for God's kingdom to come. Joseph was a member of the Jewish council. But he did not agree when the other Jewish leaders decided to kill Jesus. ⁵² He went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. ⁵³ He took the body down from the cross and wrapped it in cloth. Then he put it in a tomb that was dug in a wall of rock. This tomb had never been used before. ⁵⁴ It was late on Preparation day. When the sun went down, the Sabbath day would begin.

⁵⁵ The women who had come from Galilee with Jesus followed Joseph. They saw the tomb. Inside they saw where he put Jesus' body. ⁵⁶ Then they left to prepare some sweet-smelling spices to put on the body.

On the Sabbath day they rested, as commanded in the Law of Moses.

News That Jesus Has Risen From Death(Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-8; John 20:1-10)

¹ Very early Sunday morning, the women came to the tomb where Jesus' body was laid. They brought the sweet-smelling spices they had prepared. ² They saw that the heavy stone that covered the entrance had been rolled away. ³ They went in, but they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. ⁴ They did not understand this. While they were wondering about it, two men in shining clothes stood beside them. ⁵ The women were very afraid. They bowed down with their faces to the ground. The men said to them, "Why are you looking for a living person here? This is a place for dead people. ⁶ Jesus is not here. He has risen from death. Do you remember what he said in Galilee? ⁷ He said the Son of Man must be handed over to the control of sinful men, be killed on a cross, and rise from death on the third day." ⁸ Then the women remembered what Jesus had said.

⁹ The women left the tomb and went to the eleven apostles and the other followers. They told them everything that happened at the tomb. ¹⁰ These women were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary, the mother of James, and some others. They told the apostles everything that happened. ¹¹ But the apostles did not believe what they said. It sounded like nonsense. ¹² But Peter got up and ran to the tomb to see. He looked in, but he saw only the cloth that Jesus' body had been wrapped in. It was just lying there. Peter went away to be alone, wondering what had happened.*

On The Road to Emmaus(Mark 16:12-13)

[§] 23:46 "I put ... hands" Literally, "I put my spirit in your hands." Quote from Psalm 31:5. ^{*} 24:12 A few Greek copies do not have this verse.

¹³ That same day two of Jesus' followers were going to a town named Emmaus. It is about seven miles[†] from Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They were talking about everything that had happened. ¹⁵ While they were talking, discussing these things, Jesus himself came near and walked with them. ¹⁶ (But the two men were not allowed to recognize Jesus.) ¹⁷ He asked them, "What's this I hear you discussing with each other as you walk?"

The two men stopped, their faces looking very sad. ¹⁸ The one named Cleopas said, "You must be the only person in Jerusalem who doesn't know what has just happened there."

¹⁹ Jesus said, "What are you talking about?"

They said, "It's about Jesus, the one from Nazareth. To God and to all the people he was a great prophet. He said and did many powerful things. ²⁰ But our leaders and the leading priests handed him over to be judged and killed. They nailed him to a cross. ²¹ We were hoping that he would be the one to free Israel. But then all this happened.

"And now something else: It has been three days since he was killed, ²² but today some of our women told us an amazing thing. Early this morning they went to the tomb where the body of Jesus was laid. ²³ But they did not find his body there. They came and told us they had seen some angels in a vision. The angels told them Jesus was alive! ²⁴ So some of our group went to the tomb too. It was just as the women said. They saw the tomb, but they did not see Jesus."

²⁵ Then Jesus said to the two men, "You are foolish and slow to realize what is true. You should believe everything the prophets said. ²⁶ The prophets said the Messiah must suffer these things before he begins his time of glory." ²⁷ Then he began to explain everything that had been written about himself in the Scriptures. He started with the books of Moses and then he talked about what the prophets had said about him.

²⁸ They came near the town of Emmaus, and Jesus acted as if he did not plan to stop there. ²⁹ But they wanted him to stay. They begged him, "Stay with us. It's almost night. There's hardly any daylight left." So he went in to stay with them.

³⁰ Joining them at the supper table, Jesus took some bread and gave thanks. Then he broke some off and gave it to them. ³¹ Just then the men were allowed to recognize him. But when they saw who he was, he disappeared. ³² They said to each other, "When he talked to us on the road, it felt like a fire burning in us. How exciting it was when he explained to us the true meaning of the Scriptures!"

³³ So the two men got up then and went back to Jerusalem. There they found the followers of Jesus meeting together. The eleven apostles and the people with them ³⁴ said, "The Lord really has risen from death! He appeared to Simon."

³⁵ Then the two men told what had happened on the road. They talked about how they recognized Jesus when he shared the bread with them.

Jesus Appears to His Followers

(Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 16:14-18; John 20:19-23; Acts 1:6-8)

³⁶ While the two men were saying these things to the other followers, Jesus himself came and stood among them. He said to them, "Peace be with you."

³⁷ This surprised the followers. They were afraid. They thought they were seeing a ghost. ³⁸ But Jesus said, "Why are you troubled? Why do you doubt what you see? ³⁹ Look at my hands and my feet. It's really me. Touch me. You can see that I have a living body; a ghost does not have a body like this."

⁴⁰ After Jesus told them this, he showed them his hands and his feet. ⁴¹ The followers were amazed and very, very happy to see that Jesus was alive. They still could not believe what they saw. He said to them, "Do you have any food here?" ⁴² They gave him a piece of cooked fish. ⁴³ While the followers watched, he took the fish and ate it.

[†] 24:13 seven miles Literally, "seven stadiou," almost 12 km.

⁴⁴ Jesus said to them, “Remember when I was with you before? I said that everything written about me must happen—everything written in the Law of Moses, the books of the prophets, and the Psalms.”

⁴⁵ Then Jesus helped the followers understand these Scriptures about him. ⁴⁶ Jesus said to them, “It is written that the Messiah would be killed and rise from death on the third day. ⁴⁷⁻⁴⁸ You saw these things happen—you are witnesses. You must go and tell people that they must change and turn to God, which will bring them his forgiveness. You must start from Jerusalem and tell this message in my name to the people of all nations. ⁴⁹ Remember that I will send you the one my Father promised. Stay in the city until you are given that power from heaven.”

Jesus Goes Back to Heaven
(Mark 16:19-20; Acts 1:9-11)

⁵⁰ Jesus led his followers out of Jerusalem almost to Bethany. He raised his hands and blessed his followers. ⁵¹ While he was blessing them, he was separated from them and carried into heaven. ⁵² They worshiped him and went back to Jerusalem very happy. ⁵³ They stayed at the Temple all the time, praising God.

John

Christ Comes to the World

¹ Before the world began, the Word* was there. The Word was with God, and the Word was God. ² He was there with God in the beginning. ³ Everything was made through him, and nothing was made without him. ⁴ In him there was life, and that life was a light for the people of the world. ⁵ The light† shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not defeated‡ it.

⁶ There was a man named John, who was sent by God. ⁷ He came to tell people about the light. Through him all people could hear about the light and believe. ⁸ John was not the light. But he came to tell people about the light. ⁹ The true light was coming into the world. This is the true light that gives light to all people.

¹⁰ The Word was already in the world. The world was made through him, but the world did not know him. ¹¹ He came to the world that was his own. And his own people did not accept him. ¹² But some people did accept him. They believed in him, and he gave them the right to become children of God. ¹³ They became God's children, but not in the way babies are usually born. It was not because of any human desire or plan. They were born from God himself.

¹⁴ The Word became a man and lived among us. We saw his divine greatness—the greatness that belongs to the only Son of the Father. The Word was full of grace and truth. ¹⁵ John told people about him. He said loudly, “This is the one I was talking about when I said, ‘The one who is coming after me is greater than I am, because he was living before I was even born.’”

¹⁶ Yes, the Word was full of grace and truth, and from him we all received one blessing after another.§ ¹⁷ That is, the law was given to us through Moses, but grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one has ever seen God. The only Son is the one who has shown us what God is like. He is himself God and is very close to the Father.*

John Tells About the Messiah

(Matthew 3:1-12; Mark 1:1-8; Luke 3:1-9, 15-17)

¹⁹ The Jewish leaders in Jerusalem sent some priests and Levites to John to ask him, “Who are you?” He told them the truth. ²⁰ Without any hesitation he said openly and plainly, “I am not the Messiah.”

²¹ They asked him, “Then who are you? Are you Elijah?”

He answered, “No, I am not Elijah.”

They asked, “Are you the Prophet†?”

He answered, “No, I am not the Prophet.”

²² Then they said, “Who are you? Tell us about yourself. Give us an answer to tell the people who sent us. What do you say about yourself?”

²³ John told them the words of the prophet Isaiah:

“I am the voice of someone shouting in the desert:

* 1:1 Word The Greek word is “logos,” meaning any kind of communication. It could be translated “message.” Here, it describes Jesus Christ before he was sent to earth as a human being, which is the way God chose to tell the world about himself. Also in verses 10, 14, 16. † 1:5 light Meaning Christ, the Word, who brought to the world understanding about God. Also in verse 7. ‡ 1:5 defeated Or “understood.” § 1:16 one blessing after another Literally, “grace in place of grace.” * 1:18 The only Son ... Father Or more literally, “The only God, who is very close to the Father, has shown us what he is like.” Some other Greek copies say, “The only Son is very close to the Father and has shown us what he is like.” † 1:21 Prophet They probably meant the prophet that God told Moses he would send. See Deuteronomy 18:15-19. Also in verse 24.

‘Make a straight road ready for the Lord.’ ”

Isaiah 40:3

²⁴ These Jews were sent from the Pharisees. ²⁵ They said to John, “You say you are not the Messiah. You say you are not Elijah or the Prophet. Then why do you baptize people?”

²⁶ John answered, “I baptize people with water. But there is someone here with you that you don’t know. ²⁷ He is the one who is coming later. I am not good enough to be the slave who unties the strings on his sandals.”

²⁸ These things all happened at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan River. This is where John was baptizing people.

Jesus, the Lamb of God

²⁹ The next day John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Look, the Lamb of God. He takes away the sins of the world! ³⁰ This is the one I was talking about when I said, ‘There is a man coming after me who is greater than I am, because he was living even before I was born.’ ³¹ I did not know who he was. But I came baptizing people with water so that Israel could know that he is the Messiah.†”

³²⁻³⁴ Then John said this for everyone to hear: “I also did not know who the Messiah was. But the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, ‘You will see the Spirit come down and rest on a man. He is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.’ I have seen this happen. I saw the Spirit come down from heaven like a dove and rest on this man. So this is what I tell people: ‘He is the Son of God.’§”

The First Followers of Jesus

³⁵ The next day John was there again and had two of his followers with him. ³⁶ He saw Jesus walking by and said, “Look, the Lamb of God!”

³⁷ The two followers heard him say this, so they followed Jesus. ³⁸ Jesus turned and saw the two men following him. He asked, “What do you want?”

They said, “Rabbi, where are you staying?” (“Rabbi” means “Teacher.”)

³⁹ He answered, “Come with me and you will see.” So the two men went with him. They saw the place where he was staying, and they stayed there with him that day. It was about four o’clock.

⁴⁰ These men followed Jesus after they had heard about him from John. One of them was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. ⁴¹ The first thing Andrew did was to go and find his brother Simon. Andrew said to him, “We have found the Messiah.” (“Messiah” means “Christ.”)

⁴² Then Andrew brought Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked at him and said, “You are Simon, the son of John. You will be called Cephas.” (“Cephas” means “Peter.”*)

⁴³ The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He met Philip and said to him, “Follow me.” ⁴⁴ Philip was from the town of Bethsaida, the same as Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and told him, “We have found the man that Moses wrote about in the law. The prophets wrote about him too. He is Jesus, the son of Joseph. He is from Nazareth.”

⁴⁶ But Nathanael said to Philip, “Nazareth! Can anything good come from Nazareth?” Philip answered, “Come and see.”

⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said, “This man coming is a true Israelite, one you can trust.†”

⁴⁸ Nathanael asked, “How do you know me?”

† 1:31 so that ... the Messiah Literally, “so that he might be revealed as the Messiah to Israel.” See “Messiah” in the Word List. § 1:32-34 He is the Son of God Some very early Greek copies have “He is the chosen one of God.”

See Genesis 27:35, 36.

Jesus answered, “I saw you when you were under the fig tree, before Philip told you about me.”

⁴⁹ Then Nathanael said, “Teacher, you are the Son of God. You are the King of Israel.”

⁵⁰ Jesus said to him, “Do you believe this just because I said I saw you under the fig tree? You will see much greater things than that!” ⁵¹ Then he said, “Believe me when I say that you will all see heaven open. You will see ‘angels of God going up and coming down’[☆] on the Son of Man.”

The Wedding at Cana

¹ Two days later there was a wedding in the town of Cana in Galilee, and Jesus’ mother was there. ² Jesus and his followers were also invited. ³ At the wedding there was not enough wine, so Jesus’ mother said to him, “They have no more wine.”

⁴ Jesus answered, “Dear woman, why are you telling me this? It is not yet time for me to begin my work.”

⁵ His mother said to the servants, “Do what he tells you.”

⁶ There were six large stone waterpots there that were used by the Jews in their washing ceremonies. * Each one held about 20 or 30 gallons.†

⁷ Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the waterpots with water.” So they filled them to the top.

⁸ Then he said to them, “Now dip out some water and take it to the man in charge of the feast.”

So they did what he said. ⁹ Then the man in charge tasted it, but the water had become wine. He did not know where the wine had come from, but the servants who brought the water knew. He called the bridegroom ¹⁰ and said to him, “People always serve the best wine first. Later, when the guests are drunk, they serve the cheaper wine. But you have saved the best wine until now.”

¹¹ This was the first of all the miraculous signs Jesus did. He did it in the town of Cana in Galilee. By this he showed his divine greatness, and his followers believed in him.

¹² Then Jesus went to the town of Capernaum. His mother and brothers and his followers went with him. They all stayed there a few days.

Jesus at the Temple

(Matthew 21:12-13; Mark 11:15-17; Luke 19:45-46)

¹³ It was almost time for the Jewish Passover, so Jesus went to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ There in the Temple area he saw men selling cattle, sheep, and doves. He saw others sitting at tables, exchanging and trading people’s money. ¹⁵ Jesus made a whip with some pieces of rope. Then he forced all these men and the sheep and cattle to leave the Temple area. He turned over the tables of the money traders and scattered their money. ¹⁶ Then he said to those who were selling pigeons, “Take these things out of here! Don’t make my Father’s house a place for buying and selling!”

¹⁷ When this happened, his followers remembered what was written in the Scriptures:

“My strong devotion to your Temple will destroy me.”

Psalm 69:9

¹⁸ Some Jews said to Jesus, “Show us a miracle as a sign from God. Prove that you have the right to do these things.”

¹⁹ Jesus answered, “Destroy this temple and I will build it again in three days.”

²⁰ They answered, “People worked 46 years to build this Temple! Do you really believe you can build it again in three days?”

☆ 1:51 Quote from Genesis 28:12. * 2:6 washing ceremonies The Jews had religious rules about washing in special ways before eating, before worshiping in the Temple, and at other special times. † 2:6 20 or 30 gallons Literally, “2 or 3 metretas,” about 80 to 120 liters.

²¹ But the temple Jesus meant was his own body. ²² After he was raised from death, his followers remembered that he had said this. So they believed the Scriptures, and they believed the words Jesus said.

²³ Jesus was in Jerusalem for the Passover festival. Many people believed in him because they saw the miraculous signs he did. ²⁴ But Jesus did not trust them, because he knew how all people think. ²⁵ He did not need anyone to tell him what a person was like. He already knew.

Jesus and Nicodemus

³ Jesus answered, “I assure you, everyone must be born again. Anyone who is not born again cannot be in God’s kingdom.”

⁴ Nicodemus said, “How can a man who is already old be born again? Can he go back into his mother’s womb and be born a second time?”

⁵ Jesus answered, “Believe me when I say that everyone must be born from water and the Spirit. Anyone who is not born from water and the Spirit cannot enter God’s kingdom. ⁶ The only life people get from their human parents is physical. But the new life that the Spirit gives a person is spiritual. ⁷ Don’t be surprised that I told you, ‘You must be born again.’ ⁸ The wind blows wherever it wants to. You hear it, but you don’t know where it is coming from or where it is going. It is the same with everyone who is born from the Spirit.”

⁹ Nicodemus asked, “How is all this possible?”

¹⁰ Jesus said, “You are an important teacher of Israel, and you still don’t understand these things? ¹¹ The truth is, we talk about what we know. We tell about what we have seen. But you people don’t accept what we tell you. ¹² I have told you about things here on earth, but you do not believe me. So I’m sure you will not believe me if I tell you about heavenly things! ¹³ The only one who has ever gone up to heaven is the one who came down from heaven—the Son of Man.

¹⁴ “Moses lifted up the snake in the desert.* It is the same with the Son of Man. He must be lifted up too. ¹⁵ Then everyone who believes in him can have eternal life.”†

¹⁶ Yes, God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him would not be lost but have eternal life. ¹⁷ God sent his Son into the world. He did not send him to judge the world guilty, but to save the world through him. ¹⁸ People who believe in God’s Son are not judged guilty. But people who do not believe are already judged, because they have not believed in God’s only Son. ¹⁹ They are judged by this fact: The light‡ has come into the world. But they did not want light. They wanted darkness, because they were doing evil things. ²⁰ Everyone who does evil hates the light. They will not come to the light, because the light will show all the bad things they have done. ²¹ But anyone who follows the true way comes to the light. Then the light will show that whatever they have done was done through God.

Jesus and John the Baptizer

²² After this, Jesus and his followers went into the area of Judea. There he stayed with his followers and baptized people. ²³ John was also baptizing people in Aenon, a place

* 3:14 Moses lifted ... desert When God’s people were dying from snake bites, God told Moses to put a brass snake on a pole for them to look at and be healed. near Salim with plenty of water. People were going there to be baptized. ²⁴ This was before John was put in prison.

²⁵ Some of John's followers had an argument with another Jew about religious washing. ²⁶ Then they came to John and said, "Teacher, remember the man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan River? He is the one you were telling everyone about. He is also baptizing people, and many are going to him."

²⁷ John answered, "A person can receive only what God gives. ²⁸ You yourselves heard me say, 'I am not the Messiah. I am only the one God sent to prepare the way for him.' ²⁹ The bride always belongs to the bridegroom. The friend who helps the bridegroom just waits and listens. He is happy just to hear the bridegroom talk. That's how I feel now. I am so happy that he is here. ³⁰ He must become more and more important, and I must become less important."

The One Who Comes From Heaven

³¹ "The one who comes from above is greater than all others. The one who is from the earth belongs to the earth. He talks about things that are on the earth. But the one who comes from heaven is greater than all others. ³² He tells what he has seen and heard, but people don't accept what he says. ³³ Whoever accepts what he says has given proof that God speaks the truth. ³⁴ God sent him, and he tells people what God says. God gives him the Spirit fully. ³⁵ The Father loves the Son and has given him power over everything. ³⁶ Whoever believes in the Son has eternal life. But those who do not obey the Son will never have that life. They cannot get away from God's anger."

Jesus Talks to a Woman in Samaria

⁵ In Samaria Jesus came to the town called Sychar, which is near the field that Jacob gave to his son Joseph. ⁶ Jacob's well was there. Jesus was tired from his long trip, so he sat down beside the well. It was about noon. ⁷ A Samaritan woman came to the well to get some water, and Jesus said to her, "Please give me a drink." ⁸ This happened while his followers were in town buying some food.

⁹ The woman answered, "I am surprised that you ask me for a drink! You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman!" (Jews have nothing to do with Samaritans. ^{*})

¹⁰ Jesus answered, "You don't know what God can give you. And you don't know who I am, the one who asked you for a drink. If you knew, you would have asked me, and I would have given you living water."

¹¹ The woman said, "Sir, where will you get that living water? The well is very deep, and you have nothing to get water with. ¹² Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob? He is the one who gave us this well. He drank from it himself, and his sons and all his animals drank from it too."

¹³ Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again. ¹⁴ But anyone who drinks the water I give will never be thirsty again. The water I give people will be like a spring flowing inside them. It will bring them eternal life."

¹⁵ The woman said to Jesus, "Sir, give me this water. Then I will never be thirsty again and won't have to come back here to get more water."

¹⁶ Jesus told her, "Go get your husband and come back."

§ 3:25 religious washing The Jews had religious rules about washing in special ways before eating, before worshiping in the Temple, and at other special times. ^{*} 4:9 Jews have nothing to do with Samaritans Or "Jews don't use things that Samaritans have used."

¹⁷ The woman answered, “But I have no husband.”

Jesus said to her, “You are right to say you have no husband. ¹⁸ That’s because, although you have had five husbands, the man you live with now is not your husband. That much was the truth.”

¹⁹ The woman said, “Sir, I can see that you are a prophet.† ²⁰ Our fathers worshiped on this mountain. But you Jews say that Jerusalem is the place where people must worship.”

²¹ Jesus said, “Believe me, woman! The time is coming when you will not have to be in Jerusalem or on this mountain to worship the Father. ²² You Samaritans worship something you don’t understand. We Jews understand what we worship, since salvation comes from the Jews. ²³ But the time is coming when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth. In fact, that time is now here. And these are the kind of people the Father wants to be his worshipers. ²⁴ God is spirit. So the people who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.”

²⁵ The woman said, “I know that the Messiah is coming.” (He is the one called Christ.) “When he comes, he will explain everything to us.”

²⁶ Then Jesus said, “He is talking to you now—I am the Messiah.”

²⁷ Just then Jesus’ followers came back from town. They were surprised because they saw Jesus talking with a woman. But none of them asked, “What do you want?” or “Why are you talking with her?”

²⁸ Then the woman left her water jar and went back to town. She told the people there, ²⁹ “A man told me everything I have ever done. Come see him. Maybe he is the Messiah.” ³⁰ So the people left the town and went to see Jesus.

³¹ While the woman was in town, Jesus’ followers were begging him, “Teacher, eat something!”

³² But Jesus answered, “I have food to eat that you know nothing about.”

³⁴ Jesus said, “My food is to do what the one who sent me wants me to do. My food is to finish the work that he gave me to do. ³⁵ When you plant, you always say, ‘Four more months to wait before we gather the grain.’ But I tell you, open your eyes, and look at the fields. They are ready for harvesting now. ³⁶ Even now, the people who harvest the crop are being paid. They are gathering crops for eternal life. So now the people who plant can be happy together with those who harvest. ³⁷ It is true when we say, ‘One person plants, but another person harvests the crop.’ ³⁸ I sent you to harvest a crop that you did not work for. Others did the work, and you get the profit from their work.”

³⁹ Many of the Samaritan people in that town believed in Jesus. They believed because of what the woman had told them about him. She had told them, “He told me everything I have ever done.” ⁴⁰ The Samaritans went to Jesus. They begged him to stay with them. So he stayed there two days. ⁴¹ Many more people became believers because of the things he said.

⁴² The people said to the woman, “First we believed in Jesus because of what you told us. But now we believe because we heard him ourselves. We know now that he really is the one who will save the world.”

Jesus Heals an Official’s Son
(Matthew 8:5-13; Luke 7:1-10)

⁴³ Two days later Jesus left and went to Galilee. ⁴⁴ (Jesus had said before that a prophet is not respected in his own country.) ⁴⁵ When he arrived in Galilee, the people there welcomed him. They had been at the Passover festival in Jerusalem and had seen everything he did there.

⁴⁶ Jesus went to visit Cana in Galilee again. Cana is where he had changed the water into wine. One of the king’s important officials lived in the city of Capernaum. This man's son was sick. ⁴⁷ The man heard that Jesus had come from Judea and was now in Galilee. So he went to Jesus and begged him to come to Capernaum and heal his son, who was almost dead. ⁴⁸ Jesus said to him, "You people must see miraculous signs and wonders before you will believe in me."

⁴⁹ The king's official said, "Sir, come before my little son dies."

⁵⁰ Jesus answered, "Go. Your son will live."

The man believed what Jesus told him and went home. ⁵¹ On the way home, the man's servants came and met him. They said, "Your son is well."

⁵² The man asked, "What time did my son begin to get well?"

They answered, "It was about one o'clock yesterday when the fever left him."

⁵³ The father knew that one o'clock was the same time that Jesus had said, "Your son will live." So the man and everyone in his house believed in Jesus.

⁵⁴ That was the second miraculous sign that Jesus did after coming from Judea to Galilee.

Jesus Heals a Man at a Pool

¹ Later, Jesus went to Jerusalem for a special Jewish festival. ² In Jerusalem there is a pool with five covered porches. In Aramaic it is called Bethzatha.* This pool is near the Sheep Gate. ³ Many sick people were lying on the porches beside the pool. Some of them were blind, some were crippled, and some were paralyzed.† ⁴ ‡ ⁵ One of the men lying there had been sick for 38 years. ⁶ Jesus saw him lying there and knew that he had been sick for a very long time. So he asked him, "Do you want to be well?"

⁷ The sick man answered, "Sir, there is no one to help me get into the water when it starts moving. I try to be the first one into the water. But when I try, someone else always goes in before I can."

⁸ Then Jesus said, "Stand up! Pick up your mat and walk." ⁹ Immediately the man was well. He picked up his mat and started walking.

The day all this happened was a Sabbath day. ¹⁰ So some Jews said to the man who had been healed, "Today is the Sabbath. It is against our law for you to carry your mat on the Sabbath day."

¹¹ But he answered, "The man who made me well told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.'"

¹² They asked him, "Who is the man who told you to pick up your mat and walk?"

¹³ But the man who had been healed did not know who it was. There were many people there, and Jesus had left.

¹⁴ Later, Jesus found the man at the Temple and said to him, "See, you are well now. But stop sinning or something worse may happen to you!"

¹⁵ Then the man left and went back to the Jews who questioned him. He told them that Jesus was the one who made him well.

¹⁶ Jesus was doing all this on the Sabbath day. So these Jews began trying to make him stop. ¹⁷ But he said to them, "My Father never stops working, and so I work too."

¹⁸ This made them try harder to kill him. They said, "First this man was breaking the law about the Sabbath day. Then he said that God is his Father! He is making himself equal with God!"

Jesus Has God's Authority

¹⁹ But Jesus answered, "I assure you that the Son can do nothing alone. He does only what he sees his Father doing. The Son does the same things that the Father does. ²⁰ The

* 5:2 Bethzatha Also called Bethesda or Bethesda, a pool of water north of the Temple in Jerusalem. † 5:3 At the end of verse 3, some Greek copies add "and they waited for the water to move." ‡ 5:4 A few later copies add verse 4: "Sometimes an angel of the Lord came down to the pool and shook the water. After this, the first person to go into the pool was healed from any sickness he had."

Father loves the Son and shows him everything he does. This man was healed. But the Father will show the Son greater things than this to do. Then you will all be amazed. ²¹ The Father raises the dead and gives them life. In the same way, the Son gives life to those he wants to.

²² “Also, the Father judges no one. He has given the Son power to do all the judging.

²³ God did this so that all people will respect the Son the same as they respect the Father. Anyone who does not respect the Son does not respect the Father. He is the one who sent the Son.

²⁴ “I assure you, anyone who hears what I say and believes in the one who sent me has eternal life. They will not be judged guilty. They have already left death and have entered into life. ²⁵ Believe me, an important time is coming. That time is already here. People who are dead will hear the voice of the Son of God. And those who listen will live. ²⁶ Life comes from the Father himself. So the Father has also allowed the Son to give life. ²⁷ And the Father has given him the power to judge all people because he is the Son of Man.

²⁸ “Don’t be surprised at this. A time is coming when all people who are dead and in their graves will hear his voice. ²⁹ Then they will come out of their graves. Those who did good in this life will rise and have eternal life. But those who did evil will rise to be judged guilty.

³⁰ “I can do nothing alone. I judge only the way I am told. And my judgment is right, because I am not trying to please myself. I want only to please the one who sent me.

Jesus Says More to the Jewish Leaders

³¹ “If I tell people about myself, they cannot be sure that what I say is true. ³² But there is someone else who tells people about me, and I know that what he says about me is true.

³³ “You sent men to John, and he told you what is true. ³⁴ I don’t need anyone to tell people about me, but I remind you of what John said so that you can be saved. ³⁵ John was like a lamp that burned and gave light, and you were happy to enjoy his light for a while.

³⁶ “But I have a proof about myself that is greater than anything John said. The things I do are my proof. These are what my Father gave me to do. They show that the Father sent me. ³⁷ And the Father who sent me has given proof about me himself. But you have never heard his voice. You have never seen what he looks like. ³⁸ The Father’s teaching does not live in you, because you don’t believe in the one the Father sent. ³⁹ You carefully study the Scriptures. You think that they give you eternal life. These same Scriptures tell about me! ⁴⁰ But you refuse to come to me to have that life.

⁴¹ “I don’t want praise from you or any other human. ⁴² But I know you—I know that you have no love for God. ⁴³ I have come from my Father and speak for him, but you don’t accept me. But when other people come speaking only for themselves, you accept them. ⁴⁴ You like to have praise from each other. But you never try to get the praise that comes from the only God. So how can you believe? ⁴⁵ Don’t think that I will be the one to stand before the Father and accuse you. Moses is the one to accuse you. And he is the one you hoped would save you. ⁴⁶ If you really believed Moses, you would believe me, because he wrote about me. ⁴⁷ But you don’t believe what he wrote, so you can’t believe what I say.”

Jesus Feeds More Than 5000

(Matthew 14:13-21; Mark 6:30-44; Luke 9:10-17)

¹ Later, Jesus went across Lake Galilee (also known as Lake Tiberias). ² A great crowd of people followed him because they saw the miraculous signs he did in healing the sick.

³ Jesus went up on the side of the hill and sat there with his followers. ⁴ It was almost the time for the Jewish Passover festival.

⁵ Jesus looked up and saw a crowd of people coming toward him. He said to Philip, “Where can we buy enough bread for all these people to eat?” ⁶ He asked Philip this question to test him. Jesus already knew what he planned to do.

⁷ Philip answered, “We would all have to work a month to buy enough bread for each person here to have only a little piece!”

⁸ Another follower there was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. Andrew said, ⁹ “Here is a boy with five loaves of barley bread and two little fish. But that is not enough for so many people.”

¹⁰ Jesus said, “Tell everyone to sit down.” This was a place with a lot of grass, and about 5000 men sat down there. ¹¹ Jesus took the loaves of bread and gave thanks for them. Then he gave them to the people who were waiting to eat. He did the same with the fish. He gave them as much as they wanted.

¹² They all had plenty to eat. When they finished, Jesus said to his followers, “Gather the pieces of fish and bread that were not eaten. Don’t waste anything.” ¹³ So they gathered up the pieces that were left. The people had started eating with only five loaves of barley bread. But the followers filled twelve large baskets with the pieces of food that were left.

¹⁴ The people saw this miraculous sign that Jesus did and said, “He must be the Prophet* who is coming into the world.”

¹⁵ Jesus knew that the people planned to come get him and make him their king. So he left and went into the hills alone.

Jesus Walks on Water

(Matthew 14:22-27; Mark 6:45-52)

¹⁶ That evening Jesus’ followers went down to the lake. ¹⁷ It was dark now, and Jesus had not yet come back to them. They got into a boat and started going across the lake to Capernaum. ¹⁸ The wind was blowing very hard. The waves on the lake were becoming bigger. ¹⁹ They rowed the boat about three or four miles.† Then they saw Jesus. He was walking on the water, coming to the boat. They were afraid. ²⁰ But he said to them, “Don’t be afraid. It’s me.” ²¹ When he said this, they were glad to take him into the boat. And then the boat reached the shore at the place they wanted to go.

The People Look for Jesus

²² The next day came. Some people had stayed on the other side of the lake. They knew that Jesus did not go with his followers in the boat. They knew that the followers had left in the boat alone. And they knew it was the only boat that was there. ²³ But then some boats from Tiberias came and landed near the place where the people had eaten the day before. This was where they had eaten the bread after the Lord gave thanks. ²⁴ The people saw that Jesus and his followers were not there now. So they got into the boats and went to Capernaum to find Jesus.

Jesus, the Bread of Life

²⁵ The people found Jesus on the other side of the lake. They asked him, “Teacher, when did you come here?”

²⁶ He answered, “Why are you looking for me? Is it because you saw miraculous signs? The truth is, you are looking for me because you ate the bread and were satisfied. ²⁷ But earthly food spoils and ruins. So don’t work to get that kind of food. But work to get the food that stays good and gives you eternal life. The Son of Man will give you that food. He is the only one qualified by God the Father to give it to you.”

* 6:14 Prophet They probably meant the prophet that God told Moses he would send. See Deuteronomy 18:15-19.

† 6:19 three or four miles Literally, “25 or 30 stadia,” about 5 or 6 km.

²⁸ The people asked Jesus, “What does God want us to do?”

²⁹ Jesus answered, “The work God wants you to do is this: to believe in the one he sent.”

³⁰ So the people asked, “What miraculous sign will you do for us? If we can see you do a miracle, then we will believe you. What will you do? ³¹ Our ancestors were given manna to eat in the desert. As the Scriptures say, ‘He gave them bread from heaven to eat.’[☆]”

³² Jesus said, “I can assure you that Moses was not the one who gave your people bread from heaven. But my Father gives you the true bread from heaven. ³³ God’s bread is the one who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world.”

³⁴ The people said, “Sir, from now on give us bread like that.”

⁴¹ Some Jews began to complain about Jesus because he said, “I am the bread that comes down from heaven.” ⁴² They said, “This is Jesus. We know his father and mother. He is only Joseph’s son. How can he say, ‘I came down from heaven?’”

⁴³ But Jesus said, “Stop complaining to each other. ⁴⁴ The Father is the one who sent me, and he is the one who brings people to me. I will raise them up on the last day. Anyone the Father does not bring to me cannot come to me. ⁴⁵ It is written in the prophets: ‘God will teach them all.’[☆] People listen to the Father and learn from him. They are the ones who come to me. ⁴⁶ I don’t mean that there is anyone who has seen the Father. The only one who has ever seen the Father is the one who came from God. He has seen the Father.

⁴⁷ “I can assure you that anyone who believes has eternal life. ⁴⁸ I am the bread that gives life. ⁴⁹ Your ancestors ate the manna God gave them in the desert, but it didn’t keep them from dying. ⁵⁰ Here is the bread that comes down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will never die. ⁵¹ I am the living bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever. This bread is my body. I will give my body so that the people in the world can have life.”

⁵² Then the Jews began to argue among themselves. They said, “How can this man give us his body to eat?”

⁵³ Jesus said, “Believe me when I say that you must eat the body of the Son of Man, and you must drink his blood. If you don’t do this, you have no real life. ⁵⁴ Those who eat my body and drink my blood have eternal life. I will raise them up on the last day. ⁵⁵ My body is true food, and my blood is true drink. ⁵⁶ Those who eat my body and drink my blood live in me, and I live in them.

⁵⁷ “The Father sent me. He lives, and I live because of him. So everyone who eats me will live because of me. ⁵⁸ I am not like the bread that your ancestors ate. They ate that bread, but they still died. I am the bread that came down from heaven. Whoever eats this bread will live forever.”

⁵⁹ Jesus said all this while he was teaching in the synagogue in the city of Capernaum.

Many Followers Leave Jesus

⁶⁰ When Jesus’ followers heard this, many of them said, “This teaching is hard. Who can accept it?”

[☆] 6:31 Quote from Psalm 78:24. [☆] 6:45 Quote from Isaiah 54:13.

⁶¹ Jesus already knew that his followers were complaining about this. So he said, “Is this teaching a problem for you? ⁶² Then what will you think when you see the Son of Man going up to where he came from? ⁶³ It is the Spirit that gives life. The body is of no value for that. But the things I have told you are from the Spirit, so they give life. ⁶⁴ But some of you don’t believe.” (Jesus knew the people who did not believe. He knew this from the beginning. And he knew the one who would hand him over to his enemies.) ⁶⁵ Jesus said, “That is why I said, ‘Anyone the Father does not help to come to me cannot come.’”

⁶⁶ After Jesus said these things, many of his followers left and stopped following him.

⁶⁷ Jesus asked the twelve apostles, “Do you want to leave too?”

⁶⁸ Simon Peter answered him, “Lord, where would we go? You have the words that give eternal life. ⁶⁹ We believe in you. We know that you are the Holy One from God.”

⁷⁰ Then Jesus answered, “I chose all twelve of you. But one of you is a devil.” ⁷¹ He was talking about Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. Judas was one of the twelve apostles, but later he would hand Jesus over to his enemies.

Jesus and His Brothers

¹ After this, Jesus traveled around the country of Galilee. He did not want to travel in Judea, because the Jewish leaders there wanted to kill him. ² It was time for the Jewish Festival of Shelters. ³ So his brothers said to him, “You should leave here and go to the festival in Judea. Then your followers there can see the miracles you do. ⁴ If you want to be well known, you must not hide what you do. So, if you can do such amazing things, let the whole world see you do them.” ⁵ Jesus’ brothers said this because even they did not believe in him.

⁶ Jesus said to them, “The right time for me has not yet come, but any time is right for you to go. ⁷ The world cannot hate you. But the world hates me, because I tell the people in the world that they do evil things. ⁸ So you go to the festival. I will not go now, because the right time for me has not yet come.” ⁹ After Jesus said this, he stayed in Galilee.

¹⁰ So his brothers left to go to the festival. After they left, Jesus went too, but he did not let people see him. ¹¹ At the festival the Jewish leaders were looking for him. They said, “Where is that man?”

¹² There was a large group of people there. Many of them were talking secretly to each other about Jesus. Some people said, “He is a good man.” But others said, “No, he fools the people.” ¹³ But no one was brave enough to talk about him openly. They were afraid of the Jewish leaders.

Jesus Teaches in Jerusalem

¹⁴ When the festival was about half finished, Jesus went to the Temple area and began to teach. ¹⁵ The Jewish leaders were amazed and said, “How did this man learn so much? He never had the kind of teaching we had!”

¹⁶ Jesus answered, “What I teach is not my own. My teaching comes from the one who sent me. ¹⁷ People who really want to do what God wants will know that my teaching comes from God. They will know that this teaching is not my own. ¹⁸ If I taught my own ideas, I would just be trying to get honor for myself. But if I am trying to bring honor to the one who sent me, I can be trusted. Anyone doing that is not going to lie. ¹⁹ Moses gave you the law, right? But you don’t obey that law. If you do, then why are you trying to kill me?”

²⁰ The people answered, “A demon is making you crazy! We are not trying to kill you.”

²¹ Jesus said to them, “I did one miracle on a Sabbath day, and you were all surprised. ²² But you obey the law Moses gave you about circumcision—and sometimes you do it on a Sabbath day. (Really, Moses is not the one who gave you circumcision. It came from our ancestors who lived before Moses.) Yes, you often circumcise baby boys on a Sabbath day. ²³ This shows that someone can be circumcised on a Sabbath day to obey the Law of Moses. So why are you angry with me for healing a person's whole body on the Sabbath day? ²⁴ Stop judging by the way things look. Be fair and judge by what is really right."

People Wonder if Jesus Is the Messiah

²⁵ Then some of the people who lived in Jerusalem said, "This is the man they are trying to kill. ²⁶ But he is teaching where everyone can see and hear him. And no one is trying to stop him from teaching. Maybe the leaders have decided that he really is the Messiah. ²⁷ But when the real Messiah comes, no one will know where he comes from. And we know where this man's home is."

²⁸ Jesus was still teaching in the Temple area when he said loudly, "Do you really know me and where I am from? I am here, but not by my own decision. I was sent by one who is very real. But you don't know him. ²⁹ I know him because I am from him. He is the one who sent me."

³⁰ When Jesus said this, the people tried to grab him. But no one was able even to touch him, because the right time for him had not yet come. ³¹ But many of the people believed in Jesus. They said, "We are waiting for the Messiah to come. When he comes, will he do more miraculous signs than this man has done?"

The Jewish Leaders Try to Arrest Jesus

³² The Pharisees heard what the people were saying about Jesus. So the leading priests and the Pharisees sent some Temple police to arrest him. ³³ Then Jesus said, "I will be with you a little while longer. Then I will go back to the one who sent me. ³⁴ You will look for me, but you will not find me. And you cannot come where I am."

³⁵ These Jews said to each other, "Where will this man go that we cannot find him? Will he go to the Greek cities where our people live? Will he teach the Greek people there? ³⁶ He says, 'You will look for me, but you will not find me.' He also says, 'You cannot come where I am.' What does this mean?"

Jesus Talks About the Holy Spirit

³⁷ The last day of the festival came. It was the most important day. On that day Jesus stood up and said loudly, "Whoever is thirsty may come to me and drink. ³⁸ If anyone believes in me, rivers of living water will flow out from their heart. That is what the Scriptures say." ³⁹ Jesus was talking about the Spirit. The Spirit had not yet been given to people, because Jesus had not yet been raised to glory. But later, those who believed in Jesus would receive the Spirit.

The People Argue About Jesus

⁴⁰ When the people heard the things that Jesus said, some of them said, "This man really is the Prophet. ^{*}"

⁴¹ Other people said, "He is the Messiah."

And others said, "The Messiah will not come from Galilee. ⁴² The Scriptures say that the Messiah will come from the family of David. And they say that he will come from Bethlehem, the town where David lived." ⁴³ So the people did not agree with each other about Jesus. ⁴⁴ Some of the people wanted to arrest him. But no one tried to do it.

The Jewish Leaders Refuse to Believe

⁴⁵ The Temple police went back to the leading priests and the Pharisees. The priests and the Pharisees asked, "Why didn't you bring Jesus?"

⁴⁶ The Temple police answered, "We have never heard anyone say such amazing things!"

* 7:40 Prophet They probably meant the prophet that God told Moses he would send. See Deuteronomy 18:15-19.

⁴⁷ The Pharisees answered, “So he has fooled you too! ⁴⁸ You don’t see any of the leaders or any of us Pharisees believing in him, do you? ⁴⁹ But those people out there know nothing about the law. They are under God’s curse!”

⁵⁰ But Nicodemus was there in that group. He was the one who had gone to see Jesus before.† He said, ⁵¹ “Our law will not let us judge anyone without first hearing them and finding out what they have done.”

⁵² The Jewish leaders answered, “You must be from Galilee too! Study the Scriptures. You will find nothing about a prophet‡ coming from Galilee.”

A Woman Caught in Adultery

⁵³ Then they all left and went home.

¹ Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. ² Early in the morning he went back to the Temple area. The people all came to him, and he sat and taught them.

⁶ They were saying this to trick Jesus. They wanted to catch him saying something wrong so that they could have a charge against him. But Jesus stooped down and started writing on the ground with his finger. ⁷ The Jewish leaders continued to ask him their question. So he stood up and said, “Anyone here who has never sinned should throw the first stone at her.” ⁸ Then Jesus stooped down again and wrote on the ground.

⁹ When they heard this, they began to leave one by one. The older men left first, and then the others. Jesus was left alone with the woman standing there in front of him. ¹⁰ He looked up again and said to her, “Where did they all go? Did no one judge you guilty?”

¹¹ She answered, “No one, sir.”

Then Jesus said, “I don’t judge you either. You can go now, but don’t sin again.”*

Jesus Is the Light of the World

¹² Later, Jesus talked to the people again. He said, “I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never live in darkness. They will have the light that gives life.”

¹³ But the Pharisees said to Jesus, “When you talk about yourself, you are the only one to say that these things are true. So we cannot accept what you say.”

¹⁴ Jesus answered, “Yes, I am saying these things about myself. But people can believe what I say, because I know where I came from. And I know where I am going. But you don’t know where I came from or where I am going. ¹⁵ You judge me the way people judge other people. I don’t judge anyone. ¹⁶ But if I judge, my judging is true, because when I judge I am not alone. The Father who sent me is with me. ¹⁷ Your own law says that when two witnesses say the same thing, you must accept what they say. ¹⁸ I am one of the witnesses who speaks about myself. And the Father who sent me is my other witness.”

¹⁹ The people asked, “Where is your father?”

Jesus answered, “You don’t know me or my Father. But if you knew me, you would know my Father too.” ²⁰ Jesus said these things while he was teaching in the Temple

† 7:50 He was the one ... before The story about Nicodemus going and talking to Jesus is in John 3:1-21. ‡ 7:52 a prophet Two early Greek copies have “the Prophet,” which would mean the “prophet like Moses” mentioned in Deuteronomy 18:15. In Acts 3:22 and 7:37 this is understood to be the Messiah, as in verse 40 above. * 8:11 The oldest and best Greek copies do not have verses 7:53-8:11. Other copies have this section in different places.

area, near the room where the Temple offerings were kept. But no one arrested him, because the right time for him had not yet come.

Some Jews Don't Understand Jesus

²¹ Again, Jesus said to the people, "I will leave you. You will look for me, but you will die in your sin. You cannot come where I am going."

²² So the Jewish leaders asked themselves, "Will he kill himself? Is that why he said, 'You cannot come where I am going'?"

²³ But Jesus said to them, "You people are from here below, but I am from above. You belong to this world, but I don't belong to this world. ²⁴ I told you that you would die in your sins. Yes, if you don't believe that I AM,[†] you will die in your sins."

²⁵ They asked, "Then who are you?"

Jesus answered, "I am what I have told you from the beginning. ²⁶ I have much more I could say to judge you. But I tell people only what I have heard from the one who sent me, and he speaks the truth."

²⁷ They did not understand who he was talking about. He was telling them about the Father. ²⁸ So he said to them, "You will lift up[‡] the Son of Man. Then you will know that I AM. You will know that whatever I do is not by my own authority. You will know that I say only what the Father has taught me. ²⁹ The one who sent me is with me. I always do what pleases him. So he has not left me alone." ³⁰ While he was saying these things, many people believed in him.

Jesus Talks About Freedom From Sin

³¹ So Jesus said to the Jews who believed in him, "If you continue to accept and obey my teaching, you are really my followers. ³² You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

³³ They answered, "We are Abraham's descendants. And we have never been slaves. So why do you say that we will be free?"

³⁴ Jesus said, "The truth is, everyone who sins is a slave—a slave to sin. ³⁵ A slave does not stay with a family forever. But a son belongs to the family forever. ³⁶ So if the Son makes you free, you are really free. ³⁷ I know you are Abraham's descendants. But you want to kill me, because you don't want to accept my teaching. ³⁸ I am telling you what my Father has shown me. But you do what your father has told you."

³⁹ They said, "Our father is Abraham."

Jesus said, "If you were really Abraham's descendants, you would do what Abraham did. ⁴⁰ I am someone who has told you the truth I heard from God. But you are trying to kill me. Abraham did nothing like that. ⁴¹ So you are doing what your own father did."

But they said, "We are not like children who never knew who their father was. God is our Father. He is the only Father we have."

⁴² Jesus said to them, "If God were really your Father, you would love me. I came from God, and now I am here. I did not come by my own authority. God sent me. ⁴³ You don't understand the things I say, because you cannot accept my teaching. ⁴⁴ Your father is the devil. You belong to him. You want to do what he wants. He was a murderer from the beginning. He was always against the truth. There is no truth in him. He is like the lies he tells. Yes, the devil is a liar. He is the father of lies.

⁴⁵ "I am telling you the truth, and that's why you don't believe me. ⁴⁶ Can any of you prove that I am guilty of sin? If I tell the truth, why don't you believe me? ⁴⁷ Whoever belongs to God accepts what he says. But you don't accept what God says, because you don't belong to God."

[†] 8:24 I AM This is like the name of God used in the Old Testament. See Isaiah 41:4; 43:10; Exodus 3:14. However, it can also mean "I am he," meaning "I am the Messiah." Also in verses 28, 58. [‡] 8:28 lift up Meaning to be nailed to a cross and "lifted up" on it to die. It may also have a second meaning: to be "lifted up" from death to heaven.

Jesus Talks About Himself and Abraham

⁴⁸ The Jews there answered, “We say you are a Samaritan. We say a demon is making you crazy! Are we not right when we say this?”

⁴⁹ Jesus answered, “I have no demon in me. I give honor to my Father, but you give no honor to me. ⁵⁰ I am not trying to get honor for myself. There is one who wants this honor for me. He is the judge. ⁵¹ I promise you, whoever continues to obey my teaching will never die.”

⁵² The Jews said to Jesus, “Now we know that you have a demon in you! Even Abraham and the prophets died. But you say, ‘Whoever obeys my teaching will never die.’ ⁵³ Do you think you are greater than our father Abraham? He died, and so did the prophets. Who do you think you are?”

⁵⁴ Jesus answered, “If I give honor to myself, that honor is worth nothing. The one who gives me honor is my Father. And you say that he is your God. ⁵⁵ But you don’t really know him. I know him. If I said I did not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him, and I obey what he says. ⁵⁶ Your father Abraham was very happy that he would see the day when I came. He saw that day and was happy.”

⁵⁷ The Jews said to Jesus, “What? How can you say you have seen Abraham? You are not even 50 years old!”

⁵⁸ Jesus answered, “The fact is, before Abraham was born, I AM.” ⁵⁹ When he said this, they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus hid, and then he left the Temple area.

9

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

¹ While Jesus was walking, he saw a man who had been blind since the time he was born. ² Jesus’ followers asked him, “Teacher, why was this man born blind? Whose sin made it happen? Was it his own sin or that of his parents?”

³ Jesus answered, “It was not any sin of this man or his parents that caused him to be blind. He was born blind so that he could be used to show what great things God can do. ⁴ While it is daytime, we must continue doing the work of the one who sent me. The night is coming, and no one can work at night. ⁵ While I am in the world, I am the light of the world.”

⁶ After Jesus said this, he spit on the dirt, made some mud and put it on the man’s eyes. ⁷ Jesus told him, “Go and wash in Siloam pool.” (Siloam means “Sent.”) So the man went to the pool, washed and came back. He was now able to see.

⁸ His neighbors and some others who had seen him begging said, “Look! Is this the same man who always sits and begs?”

⁹ Some people said, “Yes! He is the one.” But others said, “No, he can’t be the same man. He only looks like him.”

So the man himself said, “I am that same man.”

¹⁰ They asked, “What happened? How did you get your sight?”

¹¹ He answered, “The man they call Jesus made some mud and put it on my eyes. Then he told me to go to Siloam and wash. So I went there and washed. And then I could see.”

¹² They asked him, “Where is this man?”

He answered, “I don’t know.”

Some Pharisees Have Questions

¹³ Then the people brought the man to the Pharisees. ¹⁴ The day Jesus had made mud and healed the man’s eyes was a Sabbath day. ¹⁵ So the Pharisees asked the man, “How did you get your sight?”

He answered, “He put mud on my eyes. I washed, and now I can see.”

¹⁶ Some of the Pharisees said, “That man does not obey the law about the Sabbath day. So he is not from God.”

Others said, “But someone who is a sinner cannot do these miraculous signs.” So they could not agree with each other.

¹⁷ They asked the man again, “Since it was your eyes he healed, what do you say about him?”

He answered, “He is a prophet.”

¹⁸ The Jewish leaders still did not believe that this really happened to the man—that he was blind and was now healed. But later they sent for his parents. ¹⁹ They asked them, “Is this your son? You say he was born blind. So how can he see?”

²⁰ His parents answered, “We know that this man is our son. And we know that he was born blind. ²¹ But we don’t know why he can see now. We don’t know who healed his eyes. Ask him. He is old enough to answer for himself.” ²² They said this because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. The leaders had already decided that they would punish anyone who said Jesus was the Messiah. They would stop them from coming to the synagogue. ²³ That is why his parents said, “He is old enough. Ask him.”

²⁴ So the Jewish leaders called the man who had been blind. They told him to come in again. They said, “You should honor God by telling the truth. We know that this man is a sinner.”

²⁵ The man answered, “I don’t know if he is a sinner. But I do know this: I was blind, and now I can see.”

²⁶ They asked, “What did he do to you? How did he heal your eyes?”

²⁷ He answered, “I have already told you that. But you would not listen to me. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to be his followers too?”

²⁸ At this they shouted insults at him and said, “You are his follower, not us! We are followers of Moses. ²⁹ We know that God spoke to Moses. But we don’t even know where this man comes from!”

³⁰ The man answered, “This is really strange! You don’t know where he comes from, but he healed my eyes. ³¹ We all know that God does not listen to sinners, but he will listen to anyone who worships and obeys him. ³² This is the first time we have ever heard of anyone healing the eyes of someone born blind. ³³ This man must be from God. If he were not from God, he could not do anything like this.”

³⁴ The Jewish leaders answered, “You were born full of sin! Are you trying to teach us?” And they told the man to get out of the synagogue and to stay out.

Spiritual Blindness

³⁵ When Jesus heard that they had forced the man to leave, he found him and asked him, “Do you believe in the Son of Man?”

³⁶ The man said, “Tell me who he is, sir, so I can believe in him.”

³⁷ Jesus said to him, “You have already seen him. The Son of Man is the one talking with you now.”

³⁸ The man answered, “Yes, I believe, Lord!” Then he bowed and worshiped Jesus.

³⁹ Jesus said, “I came into this world so that the world could be judged. I came so that people who are blind* could see. And I came so that people who think they see would become blind.”

⁴⁰ Some of the Pharisees were near Jesus. They heard him say this. They asked, “What? Are you saying that we are blind too?”

⁴¹ Jesus said, “If you were really blind, you would not be guilty of sin. But you say that you see, so you are still guilty.”

* 9:39 people who are blind Jesus is talking about people who are spiritually blind (without understanding), not physically blind.

¹ Jesus said, “It is certainly true that when a man enters the sheep pen, he should use the gate. If he climbs in some other way, he is a robber. He is trying to steal the sheep. ² But the man who takes care of the sheep enters through the gate. He is the shepherd. ³ The man who guards the gate opens the gate for the shepherd. And the sheep listen to the voice of the shepherd. He calls his own sheep, using their names, and he leads them out. ⁴ He brings all of his sheep out. Then he goes ahead of them and leads them. The sheep follow him, because they know his voice. ⁵ But sheep will never follow someone they don’t know. They will run away from him, because they don’t know his voice.”

⁶ Jesus told the people this story, but they did not understand what it meant.

Jesus Is the Good Shepherd

⁷ So Jesus said again, “I assure you, I am the gate for the sheep. ⁸ All those who came before me were thieves and robbers. The sheep did not listen to them. ⁹ I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved. They will be able to come in and go out. They will find everything they need. ¹⁰ A thief comes to steal, kill, and destroy. But I came to give life—life that is full and good.

¹¹ “I am the good shepherd, and the good shepherd gives his life for the sheep. ¹² The worker who is paid to keep the sheep is different from the shepherd. The paid worker does not own the sheep. So when he sees a wolf coming, he runs away and leaves the sheep alone. Then the wolf attacks the sheep and scatters them. ¹³ The man runs away because he is only a paid worker. He does not really care for the sheep.

¹⁴⁻¹⁵ “I am the shepherd who cares for the sheep. I know my sheep just as the Father knows me. And my sheep know me just as I know the Father. I give my life for these sheep. ¹⁶ I have other sheep too. They are not in this flock here. I must lead them also. They will listen to my voice. In the future there will be one flock and one shepherd.* ¹⁷ The Father loves me because I give my life. I give my life so that I can get it back again. ¹⁸ No one takes my life away from me. I give my own life freely. I have the right to give my life, and I have the right to get it back again. This is what the Father told me.”

¹⁹ Again the Jews were divided over what Jesus was saying. ²⁰ Many of them said, “A demon has come into him and made him crazy. Why listen to him?”

²¹ But others said, “These aren’t the words of someone controlled by a demon. A demon cannot heal the eyes of a blind man.”

The Jewish Leaders Against Jesus

²² It was winter, and the time came for the Festival of Dedication[†] at Jerusalem. ²³ Jesus was in the Temple area at Solomon’s Porch. ²⁴ The Jewish leaders gathered around him. They said, “How long will you make us wonder about you? If you are the Messiah, then tell us clearly.”

²⁵ Jesus answered, “I told you already, but you did not believe. I do miracles in my Father’s name. These miracles show who I am. ²⁶ But you do not believe, because you are not my sheep. ²⁷ My sheep listen to my voice. I know them, and they follow me. ²⁸ I give my sheep eternal life. They will never die, and no one can take them out of my hand. ²⁹ My Father is the one who gave them to me, and he is greater than all.‡ No one can steal my sheep out of his hand. ³⁰ The Father and I are one.”

³¹ Again the Jews there picked up stones to kill Jesus. ³² But he said to them, “The many wonderful things you have seen me do are from the Father. Which of these good things are you killing me for?”

* 10:16 I have other sheep ... shepherd Jesus means he has followers who are not Jews. See John 11:52. † 10:22 Festival of Dedication Hanukkah, or “Festival of Lights,” a special week in December celebrating the time in 165 B.C. when the Jerusalem Temple was made pure and ready again for Jewish worship. Before then it had been under the control of a foreign (Greek) army and used for pagan worship. ‡ 10:29 he ... than all Some Greek copies have “they are greater than all.”

³³ They answered, “We are not killing you for any good thing you did. But you say things that insult God. You are only a man, but you say you are the same as God! That is why we are trying to kill you!”

³⁴ Jesus answered, “It is written in your law that God said, ‘I said you are gods.’[☆]
³⁵ This Scripture called those people gods—the people who received God’s message. And Scripture is always true. ³⁶ So why do you accuse me of insulting God for saying, ‘I am God’s Son’? I am the one God chose and sent into the world. ³⁷ If I don’t do what my Father does, then don’t believe what I say. ³⁸ But if I do what my Father does, you should believe in what I do. You might not believe in me, but you should believe in the things I do. Then you will know and understand that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.”

³⁹ They tried to get Jesus again, but he escaped from them.

⁴⁰ Then he went back across the Jordan River to the place where John began his work of baptizing people. Jesus stayed there, ⁴¹ and many people came to him. They said, “John never did any miraculous signs, but everything John said about this man is true.”

⁴² And many people there believed in Jesus.

The Death of Lazarus

¹ There was a man named Lazarus who was sick. He lived in the town of Bethany, where Mary and her sister Martha lived. ² (Mary is the same woman who put perfume on the Lord and wiped his feet with her hair.) Mary’s brother was Lazarus, the man who was now sick. ³ So Mary and Martha sent someone to tell Jesus, “Lord, your dear friend Lazarus is sick.”

⁴ When Jesus heard this he said, “The end of this sickness will not be death. No, this sickness is for the glory of God. This has happened to bring glory to the Son of God.”

⁵ Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. ⁶ So when he heard that Lazarus was sick, he stayed where he was two more days ⁷ and then said to his followers, “We should go back to Judea.”

⁸ They answered, “But Teacher, those Jews there tried to stone you to death. That was only a short time ago. Now you want to go back there?”

⁹ Jesus answered, “There are twelve hours of light in the day. Whoever walks in the day will not stumble and fall because they can see with the light from the sun.* ¹⁰ But whoever walks at night will stumble because there is no light.”

¹¹ Then Jesus said, “Our friend Lazarus is now sleeping, but I am going there to wake him.”

¹² The followers answered, “But, Lord, if he can sleep, he will get well.” ¹³ They thought Jesus meant that Lazarus was literally sleeping, but he really meant that Lazarus was dead.

¹⁴ So then Jesus said plainly, “Lazarus is dead. ¹⁵ And I am glad I was not there. I am happy for you because now you will believe in me. We will go to him now.”

¹⁶ Then Thomas, the one called “Twin,” said to the other followers, “We will go too. We will die there with Jesus.”

Jesus in Bethany

¹⁷ Jesus arrived in Bethany and found that Lazarus had already been dead and in the tomb for four days. ¹⁸ Bethany was about two miles[†] from Jerusalem. ¹⁹ Many Jews had come to see Martha and Mary. They came to comfort them about their brother Lazarus.

²⁰ When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to greet him. But Mary stayed home. ²¹ Martha said to Jesus, “Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. ²² But I know that even now God will give you anything you ask.”

[☆] 10:34 Quote from Psalm 82:6. * 11:9 from the sun Literally, “of this world.” † 11:18 two miles Literally, “15 stadia,” almost 3 km.

²³ Jesus said, "Your brother will rise and be alive again."

²⁴ Martha answered, "I know that he will rise to live again at the time of the resurrection on the last day."

²⁵ Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection. I am life. Everyone who believes in me will have life, even if they die. ²⁶ And everyone who lives and believes in me will never really die. Martha, do you believe this?"

²⁷ Martha answered, "Yes, Lord. I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God. You are the one who was coming to the world."

Jesus Cries

²⁸ After Martha said these things, she went back to her sister Mary. She talked to Mary alone and said, "The Teacher is here. He is asking for you." ²⁹ When Mary heard this, she stood up and went quickly to Jesus. ³⁰ He had not yet come into the village. He was still at the place where Martha met him. ³¹ The Jews who were in the house comforting Mary saw her get up and leave quickly. They thought she was going to the tomb to cry there. So they followed her. ³² Mary went to the place where Jesus was. When she saw him, she bowed at his feet and said, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

³³ When Jesus saw Mary crying and the people with her crying too, he was very upset and deeply troubled. ³⁴ He asked, "Where did you put him?"

They said, "Lord, come and see."

³⁵ Jesus cried.

³⁶ And the Jews said, "Look! He loved Lazarus very much!"

³⁷ But some of them said, "Jesus healed the eyes of the blind man. Why didn't he help Lazarus and stop him from dying?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus From Death

³⁸ Again feeling very upset, Jesus came to the tomb. It was a cave with a large stone covering the entrance. ³⁹ He said, "Move the stone away."

Martha said, "But, Lord, it has been four days since Lazarus died. There will be a bad smell." Martha was the sister of the dead man.

⁴⁰ Then Jesus said to her, "Remember what I told you? I said that if you believed, you would see God's divine greatness."

⁴¹ So they moved the stone away from the entrance. Then Jesus looked up and said, "Father, I thank you that you heard me. ⁴² I know that you always hear me. But I said these things because of the people here around me. I want them to believe that you sent me." ⁴³ After Jesus said this he called in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" ⁴⁴ The dead man came out. His hands and feet were wrapped with pieces of cloth. He had a handkerchief covering his face.

Jesus said to the people, "Take off the cloth and let him go."

The Jewish Leaders Plan to Kill Jesus

(Matthew 26:1-5; Mark 14:1-2; Luke 22:1-2)

⁴⁵ There were many Jews who came to visit Mary. When they saw what Jesus did, many of them believed in him. ⁴⁶ But some of them went to the Pharisees and told them what Jesus did. ⁴⁷ Then the leading priests and Pharisees called a meeting of the high council. They said, "What should we do? This man is doing many miraculous signs. ⁴⁸ If we let him continue doing these things, everyone will believe in him. Then the Romans will come and take away our Temple and our nation."

⁴⁹ One of the men there was Caiaphas. He was the high priest that year. He said, "You people know nothing! ⁵⁰ It is better for one man to die for the people than for the whole nation to be destroyed. But you don't realize this."

⁵¹ Caiaphas did not think of this himself. As that year's high priest, he was really prophesying that Jesus would die for the Jewish people. ⁵² Yes, he would die for the Jewish people. But he would also die for God's other children scattered all over the world. He would die to bring them all together and make them one people.

⁵³ That day the Jewish leaders began planning to kill Jesus. ⁵⁴ So Jesus stopped traveling around openly among the Jews. He went away to a town called Ephraim in an area near the desert. He stayed there with his followers.

⁵⁵ It was almost time for the Jewish Passover festival. Many people from the country went to Jerusalem before the Passover. They went to do the special things to make themselves pure for the festival. ⁵⁶ The people looked for Jesus. They stood in the Temple area and asked each other, "Is he coming to the festival? What do you think?" ⁵⁷ But the leading priests and the Pharisees had given a special order about Jesus. They said that anyone who knew where he was must tell them so that they could arrest him.

Jesus in Bethany With His Friends (Matthew 26:6-13; Mark 14:3-9)

⁴ Judas Iscariot, one of Jesus' followers, was there—the one who would later hand Jesus over to his enemies. Judas said, ⁵ "That perfume was worth a full year's pay.† It should have been sold, and the money should have been given to the poor people." ⁶ But Judas did not really care about the poor. He said this because he was a thief. He was the one who kept the moneybag for the group of followers. And he often stole money from the bag.

⁷ Jesus answered, "Don't stop her. It was right for her to save this perfume for today—the day for me to be prepared for burial. ⁸ You will always have those who are poor with you.‡ But you will not always have me."

The Plot Against Lazarus

⁹ Many of the Jews heard that Jesus was in Bethany, so they went there to see him. They also went there to see Lazarus, the one Jesus raised from death. ¹⁰ So the leading priests made plans to kill Lazarus too. ¹¹ Because of him, many Jews were leaving them and believing in Jesus. That is why they wanted to kill Lazarus too.

Jesus Enters Jerusalem Like a King (Matthew 21:1-11; Mark 11:1-11; Luke 19:28-40)

¹² The next day the people in Jerusalem heard that Jesus was coming there. These were the crowds of people who had come to the Passover festival. ¹³ They took branches of palm trees and went out to meet Jesus. They shouted,

" 'Praise§ Him!

'Welcome! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord!' Psalm 118:25-26

God bless the King of Israel!"

¹⁴ Jesus found a donkey and rode on it, as the Scriptures say,

* 12:3 pint Literally, "litra," a Roman pound, equal to 327 grams (11.5 ounces). † 12:5 a full year's pay Literally, "300 denarii." One Roman denarius, a silver coin, was the average pay for one day's work. ‡ 12:8 You will ... with you See Deuteronomy 15:11. § 12:13 Praise Literally, "Hosanna," a Hebrew word used in praying to God for help. Here, it was probably a shout of celebration used in praising God or his Messiah.

¹⁵ “Do not be afraid, people of Zion*!
Look! Your king is coming.
He is riding on a young donkey.”

Zechariah 9:9

¹⁶ The followers of Jesus did not understand at that time what was happening. But after he was raised to glory, they understood that this was written about him. Then they remembered that they had done these things for him.

¹⁷ There were many people with Jesus when he raised Lazarus from death and told him to come out of the tomb. Now they were telling others about what Jesus did.

¹⁸ That’s why so many people went out to meet him—because they had heard about this miraculous sign he did. ¹⁹ So the Pharisees said to each other, “Look! Our plan is not working. The people are all following him!”

Jesus Talks About Life and Death

²⁰ There were some Greeks there too. These were some of the people who went to Jerusalem to worship at the Passover festival. ²¹ They went to Philip, who was from Bethsaida in Galilee. They said, “Sir, we want to meet Jesus.” ²² Philip went and told Andrew. Then Andrew and Philip went and told Jesus.

²³ Jesus said to them, “The time has come for the Son of Man to receive his glory. ²⁴ It is a fact that a grain of wheat must fall to the ground and die before it can grow and produce much more wheat. If it never dies, it will never be more than a single seed.

²⁵ Whoever loves the life they have now will lose it. But whoever is willing to give up their life in this world will keep it. They will have eternal life. ²⁶ Whoever serves me must follow me. My servants must be with me everywhere I am. My Father will give honor to anyone who serves me.

Jesus Talks About His Death

²⁷ “Now I am very troubled. What should I say? Should I say, ‘Father save me from this time of suffering’? No, I came to this time so that I could suffer. ²⁸ Father, do what will bring you glory!”

Then a voice came from heaven, “I have already brought glory to myself. I will do it again.”

²⁹ The people standing there heard the voice. They said it was thunder.

But others said, “An angel spoke to him!”

³⁰ Jesus said, “That voice was for you and not for me. ³¹ Now is the time for the world to be judged. Now the ruler of this world will be thrown out. ³² I will be lifted up[†] from the earth. When that happens, I will draw all people to myself.” ³³ Jesus said this to show how he would die.

³⁴ The people said, “But our law says that the Messiah will live forever. So why do you say, ‘The Son of Man must be lifted up’? Who is this ‘Son of Man’?”

³⁵ Then Jesus said, “The light[‡] will be with you for only a short time more. So walk while you have the light. Then the darkness will not catch you. People who walk in the darkness don’t know where they are going. ³⁶ So put your trust in the light while you still have it. Then you will be children of light.” When Jesus finished saying these things, he went away to a place where the people could not find him.

Some Jews Refuse to Believe in Jesus

³⁷ The people saw all these miraculous signs Jesus did, but they still did not believe in him. ³⁸ This was to give full meaning to what Isaiah the prophet said:

* 12:15 people of Zion Literally, “daughter of Zion,” meaning the city of Jerusalem. See “Zion” in the Word List.

† 12:32 lifted up Meaning to be nailed to a cross and “lifted up” on it to die. It may also have a second meaning: to be “lifted up” from death to heaven. Also in verse 34. ‡ 12:35 light This means Christ, as in John 1:5-9. Also, it is a symbol of goodness and truth, qualities associated with Christ and his kingdom.

“Lord, who believed what we told them?
Who has seen the Lord’s power?”

Isaiah 53:1

³⁹ This is why the people could not believe. Because Isaiah also said, ⁴⁰ “God made the people blind.

He closed their minds.
He did this so that they would not see with their eyes and understand with their minds.
He did it so that they would not turn and be healed.”

Isaiah 6:10

⁴¹ Isaiah said this because he saw Jesus’ divine greatness. So he spoke about him.

⁴² But many people believed in Jesus. Even many of the Jewish leaders believed in him, but they were afraid of the Pharisees, so they did not say openly that they believed. They were afraid they would be ordered to stay out of the synagogue. ⁴³ They loved praise from people more than praise from God.

Jesus’ Teaching Will Judge People

⁴⁴ Then Jesus said loudly, “Everyone who believes in me is really believing in the one who sent me. ⁴⁵ Everyone who sees me is really seeing the one who sent me. ⁴⁶ I came into this world as a light. I came so that everyone who believes in me will not stay in darkness.

⁴⁷ “I did not come into the world to judge people. I came to save the people in the world. So I am not the one who judges those who hear my teaching and do not obey. ⁴⁸ But there is a judge for all those who refuse to believe in me and do not accept what I say. The message I have spoken will judge them on the last day. ⁴⁹ That is because what I taught was not from myself. The Father who sent me told me what to say and what to teach. ⁵⁰ And I know that whatever he says to do will bring eternal life. So the things I say are exactly what the Father told me to say.”

Jesus Washes His Followers’ Feet

¹ It was almost time for the Jewish Passover festival. Jesus knew that the time had come for him to leave this world and go back to the Father. Jesus had always loved the people in the world who were his. Now was the time he showed them his love the most.

² Jesus and his followers were at the evening meal. The devil had already persuaded Judas Iscariot to hand Jesus over to his enemies. (Judas was the son of Simon.) ³ The Father had given Jesus power over everything. Jesus knew this. He also knew that he had come from God. And he knew that he was going back to God. ⁴ So while they were eating, Jesus stood up and took off his robe. He got a towel and wrapped it around his waist. ⁵ Then he poured water into a bowl and began to wash the followers’ feet.* He dried their feet with the towel that was wrapped around his waist.

⁶ He came to Simon Peter. But Peter said to him, “Lord, you should not wash my feet.”

⁷ Jesus answered, “You don’t know what I am doing now. But later you will understand.”

⁸ Peter said, “No! You will never wash my feet.”

Jesus answered, “If I don’t wash your feet, you are not one of my people.”

⁹ Simon Peter said, “Lord, after you wash my feet, wash my hands and my head too!”

* ^{13:5} wash ... feet A social custom of the first century, because people wore open sandals on very dusty roads. It was a humble duty, usually done by a servant. Also in verses 6-14.

¹⁰ Jesus said, “After a person has a bath, his whole body is clean. He needs only to wash his feet. And you are clean, but not all of you.” ¹¹ Jesus knew who would hand him over to his enemies. That is why he said, “Not all of you are clean.”

¹² When Jesus finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and went back to the table. He asked, “Do you understand what I did for you?” ¹³ You call me ‘Teacher.’ And you call me ‘Lord.’ And this is right, because that is what I am. ¹⁴ I am your Lord and Teacher. But I washed your feet. So you also should wash each other’s feet. ¹⁵ I did this as an example for you. So you should serve each other just as I served you. ¹⁶ Believe me, servants are not greater than their master. Those who are sent to do something are not greater than the one who sent them. ¹⁷ If you know these things, great blessings will be yours if you do them.

¹⁸ “I am not talking about all of you. I know the people I have chosen. But what the Scriptures say must happen: ‘The man who shared my food has turned against me.’[†] ¹⁹ I am telling you this now before it happens. Then when it happens, you will believe that I AM.[‡] ²⁰ I assure you, whoever accepts the person I send also accepts me. And whoever accepts me also accepts the one who sent me.”

Jesus Tells Who Will Turn Against Him

(Matthew 26:20-25; Mark 14:17-21; Luke 22:21-23)

²¹ After Jesus said these things, he felt very troubled. He said openly, “Believe me when I say that one of you will hand me over to my enemies.”

²² His followers all looked at each other. They did not understand who Jesus was talking about. ²³ One of the followers was next to Jesus and was leaning close to him. This was the one Jesus loved very much. ²⁴ Simon Peter made signs to this follower to ask Jesus who he was talking about.

²⁵ That follower leaned closer to Jesus and asked, “Lord, who is it?”

²⁶ Jesus answered him, “I will dip this bread into the dish. The man I give it to is the one.” So Jesus took a piece of bread, dipped it, and gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. ²⁷ When Judas took the bread, Satan entered him. Jesus said to Judas, “What you will do—do it quickly!” ²⁸ No one at the table understood why Jesus said this to Judas. ²⁹ Since Judas was the one in charge of the money, some of them thought that Jesus meant for him to go and buy some things they needed for the feast. Or they thought that Jesus wanted him to go give something to the poor.

³⁰ Judas ate the bread Jesus gave him. Then he immediately went out. It was night.

Jesus Talks About His Death

³¹ When Judas was gone, Jesus said, “Now is the time for the Son of Man to receive his glory. And God will receive glory through him. ³² If God receives glory through him, he will give glory to the Son through himself. And that will happen very soon.”

³³ Jesus said, “My children, I will be with you only a short time more. You will look for me, but I tell you now what I told the Jewish leaders: Where I am going you cannot come.

³⁴ “I give you a new command: Love each other. You must love each other just as I loved you. ³⁵ All people will know that you are my followers if you love each other.”

Jesus Says Peter Will Deny Him

(Matthew 26:31-35; Mark 14:27-31; Luke 22:31-34)

³⁶ Simon Peter asked Jesus, “Lord, where are you going?”

Jesus answered, “Where I am going you cannot follow now. But you will follow later.”

³⁷ Peter asked, “Lord, why can’t I follow you now? I am ready to die for you!”

[†] 13:18 has turned against me Literally, “has lifted up his heel against me.” Quote from Psalm 41:9. [‡] 13:19 I AM This is like the name of God used in the Old Testament. See Isaiah 41:4; 43:10; Exodus 3:14. However, it can also mean “I am he,” meaning “I am the Messiah.”

³⁸ Jesus answered, “Will you really give your life for me? The truth is, before the rooster crows, you will say three times that you don’t know me.”

Jesus Comforts His Followers

¹ Jesus said, “Don’t be troubled. Trust in God, and trust in me. ² There are many rooms in my Father’s house. I would not tell you this if it were not true. I am going there to prepare a place for you. ³ After I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back. Then I will take you with me, so that you can be where I am. ⁴ You know the way to the place where I am going.”

⁵ Thomas said, “Lord, we don’t know where you are going, so how can we know the way?”

⁶ Jesus answered, “I am the way, the truth, and the life. The only way to the Father is through me. ⁷ If you really knew me, you would know my Father too. But now you know the Father. You have seen him.”

⁸ Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father. That is all we need.”

⁹ Jesus answered, “Philip, I have been with you for a long time. So you should know me. Anyone who has seen me has seen the Father too. So why do you say, ‘Show us the Father’? ¹⁰ Don’t you believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The things I have told you don’t come from me. The Father lives in me, and he is doing his own work. ¹¹ Believe me when I say that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. Or believe because of the miracles I have done.

¹² “I can assure you that whoever believes in me will do the same things I have done. And they will do even greater things than I have done, because I am going to the Father. ¹³ And if you ask for anything in my name, I will do it for you. Then the Father’s glory will be shown through the Son. ¹⁴ If you ask me for anything in my name, I will do it.

The Promise of the Holy Spirit

¹⁵ “If you love me, you will do what I command. ¹⁶ I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Helper* to be with you forever. ¹⁷ The Helper is the Spirit of truth.† The people of the world cannot accept him, because they don’t see him or know him. But you know him. He lives with you, and he will be in you.

¹⁸ “I will not leave you all alone like orphans. I will come back to you. ¹⁹ In a very short time the people in the world will not see me anymore. But you will see me. You will live because I live. ²⁰ On that day you will know that I am in the Father. You will know that you are in me and I am in you. ²¹ Those who really love me are the ones who not only know my commands but also obey them. My Father will love such people, and I will love them. I will make myself known to them.”

²² Then Judas (not Judas Iscariot) said, “Lord, how will you make yourself known to us, but not to the world?”

²³ Jesus answered, “All who love me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them. My Father and I will come to them and live with them. ²⁴ But anyone who does not love me does not obey my teaching. This teaching that you hear is not really mine. It is from my Father who sent me.

²⁵ “I have told you all these things while I am with you. ²⁶ But the Helper will teach you everything and cause you to remember all that I told you. This Helper is the Holy Spirit that the Father will send in my name.

²⁷ “I leave you peace. It is my own peace I give you. I give you peace in a different way than the world does. So don’t be troubled. Don’t be afraid. ²⁸ You heard me say to you, ‘I am leaving, but I will come back to you.’ If you loved me, you would be happy that I am going back to the Father, because the Father is greater than I am. ²⁹ I have told you this now, before it happens. Then when it happens, you will believe.

* 14:16 Helper Or “Comforter,” the Holy Spirit (see “Holy Spirit” in the Word List). Also in verse 26. † 14:17 Spirit of truth The Holy Spirit (see “Holy Spirit” in the Word List). It was his work to help Jesus’ followers understand God’s truth. See John 16:13.

³⁰ “I will not talk with you much longer. The ruler of this world is coming. He has no power over me. ³¹ But the world must know that I love the Father. So I do exactly what the Father told me to do.

Jesus Is Like a Vine

⁵ “I am the vine, and you are the branches. If you stay joined to me, and I to you, you will produce plenty of fruit. But separated from me you won’t be able to do anything. ⁶ If you don’t stay joined to me, you will be like a branch that has been thrown out and has dried up. All the dead branches like that are gathered up, thrown into the fire and burned. ⁷ Stay joined together with me, and follow my teachings. If you do this, you can ask for anything you want, and it will be given to you. ⁸ Show that you are my followers by producing much fruit. This will bring honor‡ to my Father.

⁹ “I have loved you as the Father has loved me. Now continue in my love. ¹⁰ I have obeyed my Father’s commands, and he continues to love me. In the same way, if you obey my commands, I will continue to love you. ¹¹ I have told you these things so that you can have the true happiness that I have. I want you to be completely happy. ¹² This is what I command you: Love each other as I have loved you. ¹³ The greatest love people can show is to die for their friends. ¹⁴ You are my friends if you do what I tell you to do. ¹⁵ I no longer call you servants, because servants don’t know what their master is doing. But now I call you friends, because I have told you everything that my Father told me.

¹⁶ “You did not choose me. I chose you. And I gave you this work: to go and produce fruit—fruit that will last. Then the Father will give you anything you ask for in my name. ¹⁷ This is my command: Love each other.

Jesus Warns His Followers

¹⁸ “If the world hates you, remember that they hated me first. ¹⁹ If you belonged to the world, the world would love you as it loves its own people. But I have chosen you to be different from those in the world. So you don’t belong to the world, and that is why the world hates you.

²⁰ “Remember the lesson I told you: Servants are not greater than their master. If people treated me badly, they will treat you badly too. And if they obeyed my teaching, they will obey yours too. ²¹ They will do to you whatever they did to me, because you belong to me. They don’t know the one who sent me. ²² If I had not come and spoken to the people of the world, they would not be guilty of sin. But now I have spoken to them. So they have no excuse for their sin.

²³ “Whoever hates me also hates my Father. ²⁴ I did things among the people of the world that no one else has ever done. If I had not done those things, they would not be guilty of sin. But they have seen what I did, and still they hate me and my Father. ²⁵ But this happened to make clear the full meaning of what is written in their law: ‘They hated me for no reason.’[§] ²⁶ “I will send you the Helper* from the Father. The Helper is the Spirit of truth† who comes from the Father. When he comes, he will tell about me. ²⁷ And you will tell people about me too, because you have been with me from the beginning.

* 15:2 branch The “branches” are Jesus’ followers. See verse 5. † 15:2 produce fruit Meaning the way Jesus’ followers must live to show they belong to him. See verses 7-10. ‡ 15:8 honor Or “glory.” See “glory” in the Word List.

¹ “I have told you all this so that you won’t lose your faith when you face troubles. ² People will tell you to leave their synagogues and never come back. In fact, the time will come when they will think that killing you would be doing service for God. ³ They will do this because they have not known the Father, and they have not known me. ⁴ I have told you all this now to prepare you. So when the time comes for these things to happen, you will remember that I warned you.

The Work of the Holy Spirit

“I did not tell you these things at the beginning, because I was with you then. ⁵ Now I am going back to the one who sent me. And none of you asks me, ‘Where are you going?’ ⁶ But you are filled with sadness because I have told you all this. ⁷ Let me assure you, it is better for you that I go away. I say this because when I go away I will send the Helper to you. But if I did not go, the Helper would not come.

⁸ “When the Helper comes, he will show the people of the world how wrong they are about sin, about being right with God, and about judgment. ⁹ He will prove that they are guilty of sin, because they don’t believe in me. ¹⁰ He will show them how wrong they are about how to be right with God. The Helper will do this, because I am going to the Father. You will not see me then. ¹¹ And he will show them how wrong their judgment is, because their leader* has already been condemned.

¹² “I have so much more to tell you, but it is too much for you to accept now. ¹³ But when the Spirit of truth comes, he will lead you into all truth. He will not speak his own words. He will speak only what he hears and will tell you what will happen in the future. ¹⁴ The Spirit of truth will bring glory to me by telling you what he receives from me. ¹⁵ All that the Father has is mine. That is why I said that the Spirit will tell you what he receives from me.

Sadness Will Turn Into Happiness

¹⁶ “After a short time you won’t see me. Then after another short time you will see me again.”

¹⁷ Some of the followers said to each other, “What does he mean when he says, ‘After a short time you won’t see me. Then after another short time you will see me again?’ And what does he mean when he says, ‘Because I am going to the Father?’” ¹⁸ They also asked, “What does he mean by ‘a short time’? We don’t understand what he is saying.”

¹⁹ Jesus saw that the followers wanted to ask him about this. So he said to them, “Are you asking each other what I meant when I said, ‘After a short time you won’t see me. Then after another short time you will see me again?’” ²⁰ The truth is, you will cry and be sad, but the world will be happy. You will be sad, but then your sadness will change to happiness.

²¹ “When a woman gives birth to a baby, she has pain, because her time has come. But when her baby is born, she forgets the pain. She forgets because she is so happy that a child has been born into the world. ²² It is the same with you. Now you are sad, but I will see you again, and you will be happy. You will have a joy that no one can take away. ²³ In § 15:25 ‘They hated me for no reason’ These words could be from Psalm 35:19 or Psalm 69:4. * 15:26 Helper Or “Comforter.” Also in 16:7, 8. † 15:26 Spirit of truth The Holy Spirit (see “Holy Spirit” in the Word List). that day you will not have to ask me about anything. And I assure you, my Father will give you anything you ask him for in my name. ²⁴ You have never asked for anything in this way before. But ask in my name, and you will receive. And you will have the fullest joy possible.

Victory Over the World

²⁵ “I have told you these things, using words that hide the meaning. But the time will come when I will not use words like that to tell you things. I will speak to you in plain words about the Father. ²⁶ Then you will be able to ask the Father for things in my name. I’m not saying that I will have to ask the Father for you. ²⁷ The Father himself loves you because you have loved me. And he loves you because you have believed that I came from God. ²⁸ I came from the Father into the world. Now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.”

²⁹ Then his followers said, “You are already speaking plainly to us. You are not using words that hide the meaning. ³⁰ We can see now that you know all things. You answer our questions even before we ask them. This makes us believe that you came from God.”

³¹ Jesus said, “So now you believe? ³² Listen to me. A time is coming when you will be scattered, each to his own home. In fact, that time is already here. You will leave me, and I will be alone. But I am never really alone, because the Father is with me.

³³ “I have told you these things so that you can have peace in me. In this world you will have troubles. But be brave! I have defeated the world!”

Jesus Prays for Himself and His Followers

¹ After Jesus said these things, he looked toward heaven and prayed, “Father, the time has come. Give glory to your Son so that the Son can give glory to you. ² You gave the Son power over all people so that he could give eternal life to all those you have given to him. ³ And this is eternal life: that people can know you, the only true God, and that they can know Jesus Christ, the one you sent. ⁴ I finished the work you gave me to do. I brought you glory on earth. ⁵ And now, Father, give me glory with you. Give me the glory I had with you before the world was made.

⁶ “You gave me some people from the world. I have shown them what you are like. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me. They have obeyed your teaching. ⁷ Now they know that everything I have come from you. ⁸ I told them the words you gave me, and they accepted them. They realized the fact that I came from you and believed that you sent me. ⁹ I pray for them now. I am not praying for the people in the world. But I am praying for these people you gave me, because they are yours. ¹⁰ All I have is yours, and all you have is mine. And my glory is seen in them.

¹¹ “Now I am coming to you. I will not stay in the world, but these followers of mine are still in the world. Holy Father, keep them safe by the power of your name—the name you gave me. Then they will be one, just as you and I are one. ¹² While I was with them, I kept them safe by the power of your name—the name you gave me. I protected them. And only one of them was lost—the one who was sure to be lost. This was to show the truth of what the Scriptures said would happen.

¹³ “I am coming to you now. But I pray these things while I am still in the world. I say all this so that these followers can have the true happiness that I have. I want them to be completely happy. ¹⁴ I have given them your teaching. And the world has hated them, because they don’t belong to the world, just as I don’t belong to the world.

¹⁵ “I am not asking you to take them out of the world. But I am asking that you keep them safe from the Evil One. ¹⁶ They don’t belong to the world, just as I don’t belong to the world. ¹⁷ Make them ready for your service through your truth. Your teaching is truth. ¹⁸ I have sent them into the world, just as you sent me into the world. ¹⁹ I am making myself completely ready to serve you. I do this for them, so that they also might be fully qualified for your service.

²⁰ “I pray not only for these followers but also for those who will believe in me because of their teaching. ²¹ Father, I pray that all who believe in me can be one. You are in me and I am in you. I pray that they can also be one in us. Then the world will believe that you sent me. ²² I have given them the glory that you gave me. I gave them this glory so that they can be one, just as you and I are one. ²³ I will be in them, and you will be in me. So they will be completely one. Then the world will know that you sent me and that you loved them just as you loved me.

²⁴ “Father, I want these people you have given me to be with me in every place I am. I want them to see my glory—the glory you gave me because you loved me before the world was made. ²⁵ Father, you are the one who always does what is right. The world does not know you, but I know you, and these followers of mine know that you sent me. ²⁶ I showed them what you are like, and I will show them again. Then they will have the same love that you have for me, and I will live in them.”

Jesus Is Arrested

(Matthew 26:47-56; Mark 14:43-50; Luke 22:47-53)

¹ When Jesus finished praying, he left with his followers and went across the Kidron Valley. He went into a garden there, his followers still with him.

² Judas, the one responsible for handing Jesus over, knew where this place was. He knew because Jesus often met there with his followers. ³ So Judas led a group of soldiers to the garden, along with some guards from the leading priests and the Pharisees. They were carrying torches, lanterns, and weapons.

⁴ Jesus already knew everything that would happen to him. So he went out and asked them, “Who are you looking for?”

⁵ They answered, “Jesus from Nazareth.”

He said, “I am Jesus.”* (Judas, the one responsible for handing Jesus over, was standing there with them.) ⁶ When Jesus said, “I am Jesus,” the men moved back and fell to the ground.

⁷ He asked them again, “Who are you looking for?”

They said, “Jesus from Nazareth.”

⁸ Jesus said, “I told you that I am Jesus. So if you are looking for me, let these other men go free.” ⁹ This was to show the truth of what Jesus said earlier: “I have not lost anyone you gave me.”

¹⁰ Simon Peter had a sword, which he pulled out. He struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his right ear. (The servant’s name was Malchus.) ¹¹ Jesus said to Peter, “Put your sword back in its place! I must drink from the cup† the Father has given me.”

Jesus Is Brought Before Annas

(Matthew 26:57-58; Mark 14:53-54; Luke 22:54)

¹² Then the soldiers with their commander and the Jewish guards arrested Jesus. They tied him ¹³ and brought him to Annas, the father-in-law of Caiaphas. Caiaphas was the high priest that year. ¹⁴ He was also the one who had told the other Jewish leaders that it would be better if one man died for all the people.

Peter Lies About Knowing Jesus

(Matthew 26:69-70; Mark 14:66-68; Luke 22:55-57)

* 18:5 “I am Jesus” Literally, “I am,” which could have the same meaning here that it has in 8:24, 28, 58; 13:19. Also in verse 8. † 18:11 cup A symbol of suffering. Jesus used the idea of drinking from a cup to mean accepting the suffering he would face in the terrible events that were soon to come.

¹⁵ Simon Peter and another one of Jesus' followers went with Jesus. This follower knew the high priest. So he went with Jesus into the yard of the high priest's house.

¹⁶ But Peter waited outside near the door. The follower who knew the high priest came back outside and spoke to the gatekeeper. Then he brought Peter inside. ¹⁷ The girl at the gate said to Peter, "Are you also one of the followers of that man?"

Peter answered, "No, I am not!"

¹⁸ It was cold, so the servants and guards had built a fire. They were standing around it, warming themselves, and Peter was standing with them.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

(Matthew 26:59-66; Mark 14:55-64; Luke 22:66-71)

¹⁹ The high priest asked Jesus questions about his followers and what he taught them. ²⁰ Jesus answered, "I have always spoken openly to all people. I always taught in the synagogues and in the Temple area. All the Jews come together there. I never said anything in secret. ²¹ So why do you question me? Ask the people who heard my teaching. They know what I said."

²² When Jesus said this, one of the guards standing there hit him. The guard said, "You should not talk to the high priest like that!"

²³ Jesus answered, "If I said something wrong, tell everyone here what was wrong. But if what I said is right, then why do you hit me?"

²⁴ So Annas sent Jesus to Caiaphas the high priest. He was still tied.

Peter Lies Again

(Matthew 26:71-75; Mark 14:69-72; Luke 22:58-62)

²⁵ Simon Peter was standing at the fire, keeping himself warm. The other people said to Peter, "Aren't you one of the followers of that man?"

Peter denied it. He said, "No, I am not."

²⁶ One of the servants of the high priest was there. He was a relative of the man whose ear Peter had cut off. The servant said, "I think I saw you with him in the garden!"

²⁷ But again Peter said, "No, I was not with him!" As soon as he said this, a rooster crowed.

Jesus Is Brought Before Pilate

(Matthew 27:1-2, 11-31; Mark 15:1-20; Luke 23:1-25)

²⁸ Then the guards took Jesus from Caiaphas' house to the Roman governor's palace. It was early in the morning. The Jews there would not go inside the palace. They did not want to make themselves unclean,[‡] because they wanted to eat the Passover meal. ²⁹ So Pilate went outside to them and asked, "What do you say this man has done wrong?"

³⁰ They answered, "He is a bad man. That is why we brought him to you."

³¹ Pilate said to them, "You take him yourselves and judge him by your own law."

The Jewish leaders answered, "But your law does not allow us to punish anyone by killing them." ³² (This was to show the truth of what Jesus said about how he would die.)

³³ Then Pilate went back inside the palace. He called for Jesus and asked him, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

³⁴ Jesus said, "Is that your own question, or did other people tell you about me?"

³⁵ Pilate said, "I'm not a Jew! It was your own people and their leading priests who brought you before me. What have you done wrong?"

³⁶ Jesus said, "My kingdom does not belong to this world. If it did, my servants would fight so that I would not be handed over to the Jewish leaders. No, my kingdom is not an earthly one."

³⁷ Pilate said, "So you are a king."

[‡] 18:28 unclean Going into a non-Jewish place would ruin the special cleansing the Jews did to make themselves fit for worship. See John 11:55.

Jesus answered, “You are right to say that I am a king. I was born for this: to tell people about the truth. That is why I came into the world. And everyone who belongs to the truth listens to me.”

³⁸ Pilate said, “What is truth?” Then he went out to the Jewish leaders again and said to them, “I can find nothing against this man. ³⁹ But it is one of your customs for me to free one prisoner to you at the time of the Passover. Do you want me to free this ‘king of the Jews?’”

⁴⁰ They shouted back, “No, not him! Let Barabbas go free!” (Barabbas was a rebel.)

¹ Then Pilate ordered that Jesus be taken away and whipped. ² The soldiers made a crown from thorny branches and put it on his head. Then they put a purple robe around him. ³ They kept coming up to him and saying, “Hail to the king of the Jews!” And they hit him in the face.

⁴ Again Pilate came out and said to the Jewish leaders, “Look! I am bringing Jesus out to you. I want you to know that I find nothing I can charge him with.” ⁵ Then Jesus came out wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. Pilate said to the Jews, “Here is the man!”

⁶ When the leading priests and the Jewish guards saw Jesus they shouted, “Kill him on a cross! Kill him on a cross!”

But Pilate answered, “You take him and nail him to a cross yourselves. I find nothing I can charge him with.”

⁷ The Jewish leaders answered, “We have a law that says he must die, because he said he is the Son of God.”

⁸ When Pilate heard this, he was more afraid. ⁹ So he went back inside the palace and asked Jesus, “Where are you from?” But Jesus did not answer him. ¹⁰ Pilate said, “You refuse to speak to me? Remember, I have the power to make you free or to kill you on a cross.”

¹¹ Jesus answered, “The only power you have over me is the power given to you by God. So the one who handed me over to you is guilty of a greater sin.”

¹² After this, Pilate tried to let Jesus go free. But the Jewish leaders shouted, “Anyone who makes himself a king is against Caesar. So if you let this man go free, that means you are not Caesar’s friend.”

¹³ When Pilate heard this, he brought Jesus out to the place called “The Stone Pavement.” (In Aramaic the name is Gabbatha.) Pilate sat down on the judge’s seat there.

¹⁴ It was now almost noon on Preparation day of Passover week. Pilate said to the Jews, “Here is your king!”

¹⁵ They shouted, “Take him away! Take him away! Kill him on a cross!”

Pilate asked them, “Do you want me to kill your king on a cross?”

The leading priests answered, “The only king we have is Caesar!”

¹⁶ So Pilate handed Jesus over to them to be killed on a cross.

Jesus Is Nailed to a Cross

(Matthew 27:32-44; Mark 15:21-32; Luke 23:26-39)

The soldiers took Jesus. ¹⁷ He carried his own cross to a place called “The Place of the Skull.” (In Aramaic the name of this place is “Golgotha.”) ¹⁸ There they nailed Jesus to the cross. They also nailed two other men to crosses. They put them on each side of Jesus with him in the middle.

¹⁹ Pilate told them to write a sign and put it on the cross. The sign said, “JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS.” ²⁰ The sign was written in Aramaic, in Latin, and in Greek. Many of the Jews read this sign, because the place where Jesus was nailed to the cross was near the city.

²¹ The leading Jewish priests said to Pilate, “Don’t write, ‘The King of the Jews.’ But write, ‘This man said, I am the King of the Jews.’”

²² Pilate answered, “I will not change what I have written.”

²³ After the soldiers nailed Jesus to the cross, they took his clothes and divided them into four parts. Each soldier got one part. They also took his tunic. It was all one piece of cloth woven from top to bottom. ²⁴ So the soldiers said to each other, “We should not tear this into parts. Let’s throw lots to see who will get it.” This happened to make clear the full meaning of what the Scriptures say:

“They divided my clothes among them, and they threw lots for what I was wearing.”

Psalms 22:18

So the soldiers did this.

²⁵ Jesus’ mother stood near his cross. Her sister was also standing there with Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene. ²⁶ Jesus saw his mother. He also saw the follower he loved very much standing there. He said to his mother, “Dear woman, here is your son.” ²⁷ Then he said to the follower, “Here is your mother.” So after that, this follower took Jesus’ mother to live in his home.

Jesus Dies

(Matthew 27:45-56; Mark 15:33-41; Luke 23:44-49)

²⁸ Later, Jesus knew that everything had been done. To make the Scriptures come true he said, “I am thirsty.”* ²⁹ There was a jar full of sour wine there, so the soldiers soaked a sponge in it. They put the sponge on a branch of a hyssop plant and lifted it to Jesus’ mouth. ³⁰ When he tasted the wine, he said, “It is finished.” Then he bowed his head and died.

³¹ This day was Preparation day. The next day was a special Sabbath day. The Jewish leaders did not want the bodies to stay on the cross on the Sabbath day. So they asked Pilate to order that the legs of the men be broken. And they asked that the bodies be taken down from the crosses. ³² So the soldiers came and broke the legs† of the two men on the crosses beside Jesus. ³³ But when the soldiers came close to Jesus, they saw that he was already dead. So they did not break his legs.

³⁴ But one of the soldiers stuck his spear into Jesus’ side. Immediately blood and water came out. ³⁵ (The one who saw this happen has told about it. He told about it so that you also can believe. The things he says are true. He knows that he tells the truth.) ³⁶ These things happened to give full meaning to the Scriptures that said, “None of his bones will be broken”‡ ³⁷ and “People will look at the one they stabbed.”☆

(Matthew 27:57-61; Mark 15:42-47; Luke 23:50-56)

³⁸ Later, a man named Joseph from Arimathea asked Pilate for the body of Jesus. (Joseph was a follower of Jesus, but he did not tell anyone, because he was afraid of the Jewish leaders.) Pilate said Joseph could take Jesus’ body, so he came and took it away.

³⁹ Nicodemus went with Joseph. He was the man who had come to Jesus before and talked to him at night. He brought about 100 pounds§ of spices—a mixture of myrrh and aloes. ⁴⁰ These two men took Jesus’ body and wrapped it in pieces of linen cloth with the spices. (This is how the Jews bury people.) ⁴¹ In the place where Jesus was killed on the cross, there was a garden. In the garden there was a new tomb. No one had ever been buried there before. ⁴² The men put Jesus in that tomb because it was near, and the Jews were preparing to start their Sabbath day.

* 19:28 “I am thirsty” See Psalm 22:15; 69:21. † 19:32 broke the legs The legs were broken to make those on the crosses die more quickly. ‡ 19:36 Quote from Psalm 34:20. News That Jesus Has Risen From Death(Matthew 28:1-10; Mark 16:1-8; Luke 24:1-12)

¹ Early on Sunday morning, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene went to the tomb. She saw that the large stone was moved away from the entrance. ² So she ran to Simon Peter and the other follower (the one Jesus loved very much). She said, “They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we don’t know where they put him.”

³ So Peter and the other follower started going to the tomb. ⁴ They were both running, but the other follower ran faster than Peter and reached the tomb first. ⁵ He bent down and looked in. He saw the pieces of linen cloth lying there, but he did not go in.

⁶ Then Simon Peter finally reached the tomb and went in. He saw the pieces of linen lying there. ⁷ He also saw the cloth that had been around Jesus’ head. It was folded up and laid in a different place from the pieces of linen. ⁸ Then the other follower went in—the one who had reached the tomb first. He saw what had happened and believed. ⁹ (These followers did not yet understand from the Scriptures that Jesus must rise from death.)

Jesus Appears to Mary Magdalene(Mark 16:9-11)

¹⁰ Then the followers went back home. ¹¹ But Mary stood outside the tomb, crying. While she was crying, she bent down and looked inside the tomb. ¹² She saw two angels dressed in white sitting where Jesus’ body had been. One was sitting where the head had been; the other was sitting where the feet had been.

¹³ The angels asked Mary, “Woman, why are you crying?”

Mary answered, “They took away the body of my Lord, and I don’t know where they put him.” ¹⁴ When Mary said this, she turned around and saw Jesus standing there. But she did not know that it was Jesus.

¹⁵ He asked her, “Woman, why are you crying? Who are you looking for?”

She thought he was the man in charge of the garden. So she said to him, “Did you take him away, sir? Tell me where you put him. I will go and get him.”

¹⁶ Jesus said to her, “Mary.”

She turned toward him and said in Aramaic, “Rabboni,” which means “Teacher.”

¹⁷ Jesus said to her, “You don’t need to hold on to me! I have not yet gone back up to the Father. But go to my followers* and tell them this: ‘I am going back to my Father and your Father. I am going back to my God and your God.’”

¹⁸ Mary Magdalene went to the followers and told them, “I saw the Lord!” And she told them what he had said to her.

Jesus Appears to His Followers(Matthew 28:16-20; Mark 16:14-18; Luke 24:36-49)

¹⁹ The day was Sunday, and that same evening the followers were together. They had the doors locked because they were afraid of the Jewish leaders. Suddenly, Jesus was standing there among them. He said, “Peace be with you!” ²⁰ As soon as he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. When the followers saw the Lord, they were very happy.

²¹ Then Jesus said again, “Peace be with you. It was the Father who sent me, and I am now sending you in the same way.” ²² Then he breathed on them and said, “Receive the Holy Spirit. ²³ If you forgive the sins of anyone, their sins are forgiven. If there is anyone whose sins you don’t forgive, their sins are not forgiven.”

Jesus Appears to Thomas

²⁴ Thomas (called Didymus) was one of the twelve, but he was not with the other followers when Jesus came. ²⁵ They told him, “We saw the Lord.” Thomas said, “That’s hard to believe. I will have to see the nail holes in his hands, put my finger where the nails were, and put my hand into his side. Only then will I believe it.”

* 20:17 followers Literally, “brothers.”

²⁶ A week later the followers were in the house again, and Thomas was with them. The doors were locked, but Jesus came and stood among them. He said, “Peace be with you!”

²⁷ Then he said to Thomas, “Put your finger here. Look at my hands. Put your hand here in my side. Stop doubting and believe.”

²⁸ Thomas said to Jesus, “My Lord and my God!”

²⁹ Jesus said to him, “You believe because you see me. Great blessings belong to the people who believe without seeing me!”

Why John Wrote This Book

³⁰ Jesus did many other miraculous signs that his followers saw, which are not written in this book. ³¹ But these are written so that you can believe that Jesus is the Messiah, the Son of God. Then, by believing, you can have life through his name.

21

Jesus Appears to Seven Followers

¹ Later, Jesus appeared again to his followers by Lake Galilee.* This is how it happened: ² Some of the followers were together—Simon Peter, Thomas (called Didymus), Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the two sons of Zebedee, and two other followers. ³ Simon Peter said, “I am going out to fish.”

The other followers said, “We will go with you.” So all of them went out and got into the boat. They fished that night but caught nothing.

⁴ Early the next morning Jesus stood on the shore. But the followers did not know it was Jesus. ⁵ Then he said to them, “Friends, have you caught any fish?”

They answered, “No.”

⁶ He said, “Throw your net into the water on the right side of your boat. You will find some fish there.” So they did this. They caught so many fish that they could not pull the net back into the boat.

⁷ The follower Jesus loved very much said to Peter, “That man is the Lord!” When Peter heard him say it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around himself. (He had taken his clothes off to work.) Then he jumped into the water. ⁸ The other followers went to shore in the boat. They pulled the net full of fish. They were not very far from shore, only about 100 yards.† ⁹ When they stepped out of the boat and onto the shore, they saw a fire of hot coals. There were fish on the fire and some bread there too. ¹⁰ Then Jesus said, “Bring some of the fish that you caught.”

¹¹ Simon Peter got into the boat and pulled the net to the shore. It was full of big fish—153 of them! But even with that many fish, the net did not tear. ¹² Jesus said to them, “Come and eat.” None of the followers would ask him, “Who are you?” They knew he was the Lord. ¹³ Jesus walked over to get the bread and gave it to them. He also gave them the fish.

¹⁴ This was now the third time Jesus appeared to his followers after he was raised from death.

Jesus Talks to Peter

¹⁵ When they finished eating, Jesus said to Simon Peter, “Simon, son of John, do you love me more than these other men love me?”

Peter answered, “Yes, Lord, you know that I love you.”

Then Jesus said to him, “Take care of my lambs.‡”

¹⁶ Again Jesus said to him, “Simon, son of John, do you love me?”

* 21:1 Lake Galilee Literally, “Lake of Tiberias,” another name for Lake Galilee. See John 6:1. † 21:8 100 yards Literally, “200 cubits.” ‡ 21:15 lambs Jesus uses this word and the word “sheep” in verses 16 and 17 to mean his followers, as in John 10.

Peter answered, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

Then Jesus said, "Take care of my sheep."

¹⁷ A third time Jesus said, "Simon, son of John, do you love me?"

Peter was sad because Jesus asked him three times, "Do you love me?" He said, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I love you!"

Jesus said to him, "Take care of my sheep. ¹⁸ The truth is, when you were young, you tied your own belt and went where you wanted. But when you are old, you will put out your hands, and someone else will tie your belt. They will lead you where you don't want to go." ¹⁹ (Jesus said this to show how Peter would die to give glory to God.) Then he said to Peter, "Follow me!"

²⁰ Peter turned and saw the follower Jesus loved very much walking behind them. (This was the follower who had leaned against Jesus at the supper and said, "Lord, who is it that will hand you over?") ²¹ When Peter saw him behind them, he asked Jesus, "Lord, what about him?"

²² Jesus answered, "Maybe I want him to live until I come. That should not matter to you. You follow me!"

²³ So a story spread among the followers of Jesus. They were saying that this follower would not die. But Jesus did not say he would not die. He only said, "Maybe I want him to live until I come. That should not matter to you."

²⁴ That follower is the one who is telling these things. He is the one who has now written them all down. We know that what he says is true.

²⁵ There are many other things that Jesus did. If every one of them were written down, I think the whole world would not be big enough for all the books that would be written.

Acts

Luke Writes Another Book

¹ Dear Theophilus,

The first book I wrote was about everything Jesus did and taught from the beginning ² until the day he was carried up into heaven. Before he went, he talked to the apostles he had chosen. With the help of the Holy Spirit, he told them what they should do. ³ This was after his death, but he showed them that he was alive, proving it to them in many ways. The apostles saw Jesus many times during the 40 days after he was raised from death. He spoke to them about God's kingdom. ⁴ One time when Jesus was eating with them, he told them not to leave Jerusalem. He said, "Wait here until you receive what the Father promised to send. Remember, I told you about it before. ⁵ John baptized people with water, but in a few days you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit."

Jesus Is Carried Up Into Heaven

⁶ The apostles were all together. They asked Jesus, "Lord, is this the time for you to give the people of Israel their kingdom again?"

⁷ Jesus said to them, "The Father is the only one who has the authority to decide dates and times. They are not for you to know. ⁸ But the Holy Spirit will come on you and give you power. You will be my witnesses. You will tell people everywhere about me—in Jerusalem, in the rest of Judea, in Samaria, and in every part of the world."

⁹ After Jesus said this, he was lifted up into the sky. While they were watching, he went into a cloud, and they could not see him. ¹⁰ They were staring into the sky where he had gone. Suddenly two men wearing white clothes were standing beside them. ¹¹ They said, "Men from Galilee, why are you standing here looking into the sky? You saw Jesus carried away from you into heaven. He will come back in the same way you saw him go."

A New Apostle Is Chosen

¹² Then the apostles went back to Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives. This mountain is about a half mile* from Jerusalem. ¹³ When they entered the city, they went to the upstairs room where they were staying. These are the ones who were there: Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James (the son of Alphaeus), Simon, the Zealot, and Judas (the son of James).

¹⁴ The apostles were all together. They were constantly praying with the same purpose. Some women, Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers were there with the apostles.

¹⁵ After a few days there was a meeting of the believers. There were about 120 of them. Peter stood up and said, ¹⁶⁻¹⁷ "Brothers and sisters, in the Scriptures the Holy Spirit said through David that something must happen. He was talking about Judas, one of our own group. Judas served together with us. The Spirit said that Judas would lead men to arrest Jesus."

¹⁸ (Judas was paid money for doing this. His money was used to buy him a field. But he fell on his head, his body broke open, and all his intestines poured out. ¹⁹ And all the people of Jerusalem learned about this. That is why they named that field Akeldama, which in their language means "field of blood.")

²⁰ Peter said, "In the book of Psalms, this is written about Judas:

'People should not go near his land;
no one should live there.'

Psalm 69:25

* ^{1:12} half a mile Literally, "a Sabbath day's journey."

And it is also written:

‘Let another man have his work.’

Psalm 109:8

²¹⁻²² “So now another man must join us and be a witness of Jesus’ resurrection. He must be one of those men who were part of our group during all the time the Lord Jesus was with us. He must have been with us from the time John was baptizing people until the day when Jesus was carried up from us into heaven.”

²³ They put two men before the group. One was Joseph Barsabbas. He was also called Justus. The other man was Matthias. ²⁴⁻²⁵ They prayed, “Lord, you know the minds of all people. Show us which one of these two men you choose to do this work. Judas turned away from it and went where he belongs. Lord, show us which man should take his place as an apostle!” ²⁶ Then they used lots to choose one of the two men. The lots showed that Matthias was the one the Lord wanted. So he became an apostle with the other eleven.

The Coming of the Holy Spirit

¹ When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a noise came from heaven. It sounded like a strong wind blowing. This noise filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ They saw something that looked like flames of fire. The flames were separated and stood over each person there. ⁴ They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak different languages. The Holy Spirit was giving them the power to do this.

⁵ There were some godly Jews in Jerusalem at this time. They were from every country in the world. ⁶ A large crowd came together because they heard the noise. They were surprised because, as the apostles were speaking, everyone heard in their own language.

⁷ They were all amazed at this. They did not understand how the apostles could do this. They said, “Look! These men we hear speaking are all from Galilee.* ⁸ But we hear them in our own languages. How is this possible? We are from all these different places: ⁹ Parthia, Media, Elam, Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, ¹⁰ Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the areas of Libya near the city of Cyrene, Rome, ¹¹ Crete, and Arabia. Some of us were born Jews, and others have changed their religion to worship God like Jews. We are from these different countries, but we can hear these men in our own languages! We can all understand the great things they are saying about God.”

¹² The people were all amazed and confused. They asked each other, “What is happening?” ¹³ But others were laughing at the apostles, saying they were drunk from too much wine.

Peter Speaks to the People

¹⁴ Then Peter stood up with the other eleven apostles. He spoke loudly so that all the people could hear. He said, “My Jewish brothers and all of you who live in Jerusalem, listen to me. I will tell you something you need to know. Listen carefully. ¹⁵ These men are not drunk as you think; it’s only nine o’clock in the morning. ¹⁶ But Joel the prophet wrote about what you see happening here today. This is what he wrote:

¹⁷ ‘God says: In the last days

I will pour out my Spirit on all people.

Your sons and daughters will prophesy.

Your young men will see visions.

Your old men will have special dreams.

¹⁸ In those days I will pour out my Spirit

* ^{2:7} from Galilee The people thought men from Galilee could speak only their own language.

on my servants, men and women,
and they will prophesy.

¹⁹ I will work wonders in the sky above.

I will cause miraculous signs on the earth below.
There will be blood, fire, and thick smoke.

²⁰ The sun will be changed into darkness,
and the moon will be as red as blood.

Then the great and glorious day of the Lord will come.

²¹ And everyone who trusts in the Lord[†] will be saved.’

Joel 2:28-32

²² “My fellow Israelites, listen to these words: Jesus from Nazareth was a very special man. God clearly showed this to you. He proved it by the miracles, wonders, and miraculous signs he did through Jesus. You all saw these things, so you know this is true. ²³ Jesus was handed over to you, and you killed him. With the help of evil men, you nailed him to a cross. But God knew all this would happen. It was his plan—a plan he made long ago. ²⁴ Jesus suffered the pain of death, but God made him free. He raised him from death. There was no way for death to hold him. ²⁵ David said this about him:

‘I saw the Lord before me always;
he is at my right side to keep me safe.

²⁶ So my heart is happy, and the words I speak are words of joy.
Yes, even my body will live with hope,

²⁷ because you will not leave me in the place of death.[‡]
You will not let the body of your Holy One rot in the grave.

²⁸ You taught me how to live.
You will come close to me and give me great joy.’

Psalms 16:8-11

²⁹ “My brothers, I can tell you for sure about David, our great ancestor. He died, was buried, and his tomb is still here with us today. ³⁰ He was a prophet and knew something that God had said. God had promised David that someone from his own family would sit on David’s throne as king.[§] ³¹ David knew this before it happened. That is why he said this about that future king:

‘He was not left in the place of death.
His body did not rot in the grave.’

David was talking about the Messiah rising from death. ³² So Jesus is the one God raised from death. We are all witnesses of this. We saw him. ³³ Jesus was lifted up to heaven. Now he is with God, at God’s right side. The Father has given the Holy Spirit to him, as he promised. So Jesus has now poured out that Spirit. This is what you see and hear. ³⁴ David was not the one who was lifted up to heaven. David himself said,

‘The Lord God said to my Lord:
Sit at my right side,

³⁵ until I put your enemies under your power.*’

Psalms 110:1

³⁶ “So, all the people of Israel should know this for certain: God has made Jesus to be Lord and Messiah. He is the man you nailed to the cross!”

³⁷ When the people heard this, they felt very, very sorry. They asked Peter and the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?”

³⁸ Peter said to them, “Change your hearts and lives and be baptized, each one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ. Then God will forgive your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. ³⁹ This promise is for you. It is also for your children and for the people who are far away. It is for everyone the Lord our God calls to himself.”

⁴⁰ Peter warned them with many other words; he begged them, “Save yourselves from the evil of the people who live now!” ⁴¹ Then those who accepted what Peter said were baptized. On that day about 3000 people were added to the group of believers.

The Believers Share

⁴² The believers spent their time listening to the teaching of the apostles. They shared everything with each other. They ate[†] together and prayed together. ⁴³ Many wonders and miraculous signs were happening through the apostles, and everyone felt great respect for God. ⁴⁴ All the believers stayed together and shared everything. ⁴⁵ They sold their land and the things they owned. Then they divided the money and gave it to those who needed it. ⁴⁶ The believers shared a common purpose, and every day they spent much of their time together in the Temple area. They also ate together in their homes. They were happy to share their food and ate with joyful hearts. ⁴⁷ The believers praised God and were respected by all the people. More and more people were being saved every day, and the Lord was adding them to their group.

Peter Heals a Crippled Man

¹ One day Peter and John went to the Temple area. It was three o'clock in the afternoon, which was the time for the daily Temple prayer service. ² As they were entering the Temple area, a man was there who had been crippled all his life. He was being carried by some friends who brought him to the Temple every day. They put him by one of the gates outside the Temple. It was called Beautiful Gate. There he begged for money from the people going to the Temple. ³ That day he saw Peter and John going into the Temple area. He asked them for money.

⁴ Peter and John looked at the crippled man and said, “Look at us!” ⁵ He looked at them; he thought they would give him some money. ⁶ But Peter said, “I don't have any silver or gold, but I do have something else I can give you. By the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth—stand up and walk!”

⁷ Then Peter took the man's right hand and lifted him up. Immediately his feet and legs became strong. ⁸ He jumped up, stood on his feet, and began to walk. He went into the Temple area with them. He was walking and jumping and praising God. ⁹⁻¹⁰ All the people recognized him. They knew he was the crippled man who always sat by the Beautiful Gate to beg for money. Now they saw this same man walking and praising God. They were amazed. They did not understand how this could happen.

Peter Speaks to the People

¹¹ The man was holding on to Peter and John. All the people were amazed. They ran to Peter and John at Solomon's Porch.

¹² When Peter saw this, he said to the people, “My Jewish brothers, why are you surprised at this? You are looking at us as if it was our power that made this man walk. Do you think this was done because we are good? ¹³ No, God did it! He is the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. He is the God of all our fathers. He gave glory to Jesus, his special servant. But you handed him over to be killed. Pilate decided to let him go free. But you told Pilate you did not want him. ¹⁴ Jesus was holy and good, but you said you did not want him. You told Pilate to give you a murderer* instead of Jesus. ¹⁵ And so you killed the one who gives life! But God raised him from death. We are witnesses of this—we saw it with our own eyes.

¹⁶ “This crippled man was healed because we trusted in Jesus. It was Jesus’ power that made him well. You can see this man, and you know him. He was made completely well because of faith in Jesus. You all saw it happen!

¹⁷ “My brothers, I know that what you did to Jesus was done because you did not understand what you were doing. And your leaders did not understand any more than you did. ¹⁸ But God said these things would happen. Through the prophets he said that his Messiah would suffer and die. I have told you how God made this happen. ¹⁹ So you must change your hearts and lives. Come back to God, and he will forgive your sins. ²⁰ Then the Lord will give you times of spiritual rest. He will send you Jesus, the one he chose to be the Messiah.

²¹ “But Jesus must stay in heaven until the time when all things will be made right again. God told about this time when he spoke long ago through his holy prophets.

²² Moses said, ‘The Lord your God will give you a prophet. That prophet will come from among your own people. He will be like me. You must obey everything he tells you.

²³ And anyone who refuses to obey that prophet will die, separated from God’s people.’[☆]

²⁴ “Samuel, and all the other prophets who spoke for God after Samuel, said that this time would come. ²⁵ And what those prophets talked about is for you, their descendants. You have received the agreement that God made with your fathers. God said to your father Abraham, ‘Every nation on earth will be blessed through your descendants.’[☆]

²⁶ God has sent his special servant Jesus. He sent him to you first. He sent him to bless you by causing each of you to turn away from your evil ways.”

The Apostles and the Jewish High Council

¹ While Peter and John were speaking to the people, some Jewish leaders came up to them. There were some priests, the captain of the soldiers that guarded the Temple, and some Sadducees. ² They were upset because of what Peter and John were teaching the people. By telling people about Jesus, the apostles were teaching that people will rise from death. ³ The Jewish leaders arrested Peter and John and put them in jail. It was already night, so they kept them in jail until the next day. ⁴ But many of the people who heard the apostles believed what they said. There were now about 5000 men in the group of believers.

⁵ The next day the Jewish rulers, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law met in Jerusalem. ⁶ Annas the high priest, Caiaphas, John, and Alexander were there. Everyone from the high priest’s family was there. ⁷ They made Peter and John stand before all the people. They asked them over and over, “How did you make this crippled man well? What power did you use? By whose authority did you do this?”

⁸ Then Peter was filled with the Holy Spirit and said to them, “Rulers of the people and you older leaders, ⁹ are you questioning us today about what we did to help this crippled man? Are you asking us what made him well? ¹⁰ We want all of you and all the people of Israel to know that this man was made well by the power of Jesus Christ from Nazareth. You nailed Jesus to a cross, but God raised him from death. This man was crippled, but he is now well. He is able to stand here before you because of the power of Jesus! ¹¹ Jesus is ‘the stone* that you builders thought was not important.

But this stone has become the cornerstone.’

Psalm 118:22

¹² Jesus is the only one who can save people. His name is the only power in the world that has been given to save anyone. We must be saved through him!”

¹³ The Jewish leaders understood that Peter and John had no special training or education. But they also saw that they were not afraid to speak. So the leaders were amazed. They also realized that Peter and John had been with Jesus. ¹⁴ They saw the crippled man standing there beside the apostles. They saw that he was healed, so they could say nothing against the apostles.

¹⁵ The Jewish leaders told them to leave the council meeting. Then the leaders talked to each other about what they should do. ¹⁶ They said, “What shall we do with these men? Everyone in Jerusalem knows about the miracle they did as a sign from God. It’s too obvious. We can’t say it didn’t happen. ¹⁷ But we must make them afraid to talk to anyone again using that name.† Then this problem will not spread among the people.”

¹⁸ So the Jewish leaders called Peter and John in again. They told the apostles not to say anything or to teach anything in the name of Jesus. ¹⁹ But Peter and John answered them, “What do you think is right? What would God want? Should we obey you or God? ²⁰ We cannot be quiet. We must tell people about what we have seen and heard.”

²¹⁻²² The Jewish leaders could not find a way to punish the apostles, because all the people were praising God for what had been done. This miracle was a sign from God. The man who was healed was more than 40 years old. So the Jewish leaders warned the apostles again and let them go free.

Peter and John Return to the Believers

²³ Peter and John left the meeting of Jewish leaders and went to their own group. They told the group everything that the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders had said to them. ²⁴ When the believers heard this, they all prayed to God with one purpose. They said, “Master, you are the one who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything in the world. ²⁵ Our ancestor David was your servant. With the help of the Holy Spirit he wrote these words:

‘Why are the nations shouting?
Why are the people planning such useless things?’

²⁶ ‘The kings of the earth prepare themselves to fight, and the rulers all come together against the Lord and against his Messiah.’ Psalm 2:1-2

²⁷ That’s what actually happened when Herod, Pontius Pilate, the other nations, and the people of Israel all came together against Jesus here in Jerusalem. He is your holy Servant, the one you made to be the Messiah. ²⁸ These people who came together against Jesus made your plan happen. It was done because of your power and your will. ²⁹ And now, Lord, listen to what they are saying. They are trying to make us afraid. We are your servants. Help us to say what you want us to say without fear. ³⁰ Help us to be brave by showing us your power. Make sick people well. Cause miraculous signs and wonders to happen by the authority‡ of Jesus, your holy servant.”

* 4:11 stone A picture or symbol meaning Jesus. † 4:17 that name That is, Jesus’ name. The Jewish leaders avoided saying his name. See Luke 15:2. ‡ 4:30 authority Literally, “name.”

³¹ After the believers prayed, the place where they were meeting shook. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they continued to speak God's message without fear.

The Believers Share

³² The whole group of believers was united in their thinking and in what they wanted. None of them said that the things they had were their own. Instead, they shared everything. ³³ With great power the apostles were making it known to everyone that the Lord Jesus was raised from death. And God blessed all the believers very much. ³⁴ None of them could say they needed anything. Everyone who owned fields or houses sold them. They brought the money they got ³⁵ and gave it to the apostles. Then everyone was given whatever they needed.

³⁶ One of the believers was named Joseph. The apostles called him Barnabas, a name that means "one who encourages others." He was a Levite born in Cyprus. ³⁷ Joseph sold a field he owned. He brought the money and gave it to the apostles.

Ananias and Sapphira

¹ There was a man named Ananias. His wife's name was Sapphira. Ananias sold some land he had, ² but he gave only part of the money to the apostles. He secretly kept some of the money for himself. His wife knew this, and she agreed with it.

⁵⁻⁶ When Ananias heard this, he fell down and died. Some young men came and wrapped his body. They carried it out and buried it. And everyone who heard about this was filled with fear.

⁷ About three hours later his wife came in. Sapphira did not know about what had happened to her husband. ⁸ Peter said to her, "Tell me how much money you got for your field. Was it this much?"

Sapphira answered, "Yes, that was all we got for the field."

⁹ Peter said to her, "Why did you and your husband agree to test the Spirit of the Lord? Listen! Do you hear those footsteps? The men who buried your husband are at the door. They will carry you out in the same way." ¹⁰ At that moment Sapphira fell down by his feet and died. The young men came in and saw that she was dead. They carried her out and buried her beside her husband. ¹¹ The whole church and all the other people who heard about this were filled with fear.

Proofs From God

¹² The apostles were given the power to do many miraculous signs and wonders among the people. They were together in Solomon's Porch, and they all had the same purpose. ¹³ None of the other people dared to stand with the apostles, but everyone was saying wonderful things about them. ¹⁴ More and more people believed in the Lord, and many men and women were added to the group of believers. ¹⁵ So the people brought those who were sick into the streets and put them on little beds and mats. They were hoping that Peter's shadow might fall on them as he walked by. ¹⁶ People came from all the towns around Jerusalem. They brought those who were sick or troubled by evil spirits. All of them were healed.

The Apostles Are Arrested

¹⁷ The high priest and all his friends, a group called the Sadducees, became very jealous. ¹⁸ They grabbed the apostles and put them in jail. ¹⁹ But during the night, an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the jail. The angel led the apostles outside and said, ²⁰ “Go and stand in the Temple area. Tell the people everything about this new life.” ²¹ When the apostles heard this, they did what they were told. They went into the Temple area about sunrise and began to teach the people.

The high priest and his friends came together and called a meeting of the high council and all the older Jewish leaders. They sent some men to the jail to bring the apostles to them. ²² When the men went to the jail, they could not find the apostles there. So they went back and told the Jewish leaders about this. ²³ They said, “The jail was closed and locked. The guards were standing at the doors. But when we opened the doors, the jail was empty!” ²⁴ The captain of the Temple guards and the leading priests heard this. They were confused and wondered what it all meant.

²⁵ Then another man came and told them, “Listen! The men you put in jail are standing in the Temple area teaching the people.” ²⁶ The captain and his men went out and brought the apostles back. But the soldiers did not use force, because they were afraid of the people. They were afraid the people would stone them to death.

²⁷ The soldiers brought the apostles in and made them stand before the council. The high priest questioned them. ²⁸ He said, “We told you never again to teach using that name.* But look at what you have done! You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching. And you are trying to blame us for his death.”

²⁹ Peter and the other apostles answered, “We must obey God, not you! ³⁰ You killed Jesus by nailing him to a cross. But God, the same God our fathers had, raised Jesus up from death. ³¹ Jesus is the one God honored by giving him a place at his right side. He made him our Leader and Savior. God did this to give all the people of Israel the opportunity to change and turn to God to have their sins forgiven. ³² We saw all these things happen, and we can say that they are true. The Holy Spirit also shows that these things are true. God has given this Spirit to all those who obey him.”

³³ When the council members heard this, they became very angry. They began to plan a way to kill the apostles. ³⁴ But one member of the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, stood up. He was a teacher of the law, and all the people respected him. He told the men to make the apostles leave the meeting for a few minutes. ³⁵ Then he said to them, “Men of Israel, be careful of what you are planning to do to these men. ³⁶ Remember when Theudas appeared? He said he was an important man, and about 400 men joined him. But he was killed, and all who followed him were scattered and ran away. They were not able to do anything. ³⁷ Later, during the time of the census, a man named Judas came from Galilee. Many people joined his group, but he was also killed, and all his followers were scattered. ³⁸ And so now I tell you, stay away from these men. Leave them alone. If their plan is something they thought up, it will fail. ³⁹ But if it is from God, you will not be able to stop them. You might even be fighting against God himself!”

The Jewish leaders agreed with what Gamaliel said. ⁴⁰ They called the apostles in again. They beat them and told them not to speak anymore using the name of Jesus. Then they let them go free. ⁴¹ The apostles left the council meeting. They were happy because they were given the honor of suffering dishonor for Jesus. ⁴² The apostles did not stop teaching the people. They continued to tell the Good News—that Jesus is the Messiah. They did this every day in the Temple area and in people’s homes.

Seven Men Chosen for a Special Work

¹ More and more people were becoming followers of Jesus. But during this same time, the Greek-speaking followers began to complain against the other Jewish followers. They said that their widows were not getting their share of what the followers received every day. ² The twelve apostles called the whole group of followers together.

* ^{5:28} that name That is, Jesus’ name. The Jewish leaders avoided saying his name. See Acts 4:17, 18.

The apostles said to them, “It would not be right for us to give up our work of teaching God’s word in order to be in charge of getting food to people. ³ So, brothers and sisters, choose seven of your men who have a good reputation. They must be full of wisdom and the Spirit. We will give them this work to do. ⁴ Then we can use all our time to pray and to teach the word of God.”

⁵ The whole group liked the idea. So they chose these seven men: Stephen (a man with great faith and full of the Holy Spirit), Philip,* Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus (a man from Antioch who had become a Jew). ⁶ Then they put these men before the apostles, who prayed and laid their hands on them.

⁷ The word of God was reaching more and more people. The group of followers in Jerusalem became larger and larger. Even a big group of Jewish priests believed and obeyed.

Some Jews Against Stephen

⁸ Stephen received a great blessing. God gave him power to do great wonders and miraculous signs among the people. ⁹ But some of the Jews there were from the synagogue of Free Men, as it was called. The group included Jews from Cyrene, Alexandria, Cilicia, and Asia. They started arguing with Stephen. ¹⁰ But the Spirit was helping him speak with wisdom. His words were so strong that these Jews could not argue with him.

¹¹ So they told some men to say, “We heard Stephen say bad things against Moses and against God!” ¹² By doing this, these Jews upset the people, the older Jewish leaders, and the teachers of the law. They became so angry that they came and grabbed Stephen and took him to a meeting of the high council.

¹³ The Jews brought some men into the meeting to tell lies about Stephen. These men said, “This man is always saying things against this holy place and against the Law of Moses. ¹⁴ We heard him say that Jesus from Nazareth will destroy this place and change what Moses told us to do.” ¹⁵ Everyone there in the council meeting was staring at Stephen. They saw that his face looked like the face of an angel.

Stephen’s Speech

¹ The high priest said to Stephen, “Is all this true?” ² Stephen answered, “My Jewish fathers and brothers, listen to me. Our great and glorious God appeared to Abraham, our ancestor, when he was in Mesopotamia. This was before he lived in Haran. ³ God said to him, ‘Leave your country and your people, and go to the country I will show you.’[☆]

⁴ “So Abraham left the country of Chaldea.* He went to live in Haran. After his father died, God sent him to this place, where you live now. ⁵ But God did not give Abraham any of this land, not even a foot of it. But God promised that in the future he would give Abraham this land for himself and for his children. This was before Abraham had any children.

⁶ “This is what God said to him: ‘Your descendants will live in another country. They will be strangers. The people there will make them slaves and mistreat them for 400 years. ⁷ But I will punish the nation that made them slaves.’[☆] And God also said, ‘After those things happen, your people will come out of that country. Then they will worship me here in this place.’[☆]

⁸ “God made an agreement with Abraham; the sign for this agreement was circumcision. And so when Abraham had a son, he circumcised him when he was eight days old.

* 6:5 Philip Not the apostle named Philip. ☆ 7:3 Quote from Genesis 12:1. * 7:4 Chaldea Or “Babylonia,” a land in the southern part of Mesopotamia. See verse 2. ☆ 7:7 Quote from Genesis 15:13-14. ☆ 7:7 Quote from Genesis 15:14; Exodus 3:12.

His son's name was Isaac. Isaac also circumcised his son Jacob. And Jacob did the same for his sons, who became the twelve great ancestors of our people.

⁹ “These ancestors of ours became jealous of their brother Joseph and sold him to be a slave in Egypt. But God was with him ¹⁰ and saved him from all his troubles. Pharaoh was the king of Egypt then. He liked Joseph and respected him because of the wisdom God gave him. Pharaoh gave Joseph the job of being a governor of Egypt. He even let him rule over all the people in Pharaoh's house. ¹¹ But all the land of Egypt and of Canaan became dry. It became so dry that food could not grow, and the people suffered very much. Our people could not find anything to eat.

¹² “But Jacob heard that there was food in Egypt. So he sent our people there. This was their first trip to Egypt. ¹³ Then they went there a second time. This time Joseph told his brothers who he was. And Pharaoh learned about Joseph's family. ¹⁴ Then Joseph sent some men to tell Jacob, his father, to come to Egypt. He also invited all his relatives, a total of 75 people. ¹⁵ So Jacob went down to Egypt. He and our other ancestors lived there until they died. ¹⁶ Later, their bodies were moved to Shechem, where they were put in a tomb. It was the same tomb that Abraham had bought in Shechem from the sons of Hamor. He paid them with silver.

¹⁷ “The number of our people in Egypt grew. There were more and more of our people there. The promise that God made to Abraham was soon to come true. ¹⁸ Then a different king began to rule Egypt, one who knew nothing about Joseph. ¹⁹ This king tricked our people. He treated them badly, making them leave their children outside to die.

²⁰ “This was the time when Moses was born. He was a very beautiful child, and for three months his parents took care of him at home. ²¹ When they put him outside, Pharaoh's daughter took him. She raised him as her own son. ²² The Egyptians taught Moses everything they knew. He was powerful in all he said and did.

²³ “When Moses was about 40 years old, he decided to visit his own people, the people of Israel. ²⁴ He saw one of them being mistreated by an Egyptian, so he defended him. Moses hit the Egyptian to pay him back for hurting the man. He hit him so hard that it killed him. ²⁵ Moses thought that his people would understand that God was using him to save them. But they did not understand.

²⁶ “The next day, Moses saw two of his own people fighting. He tried to make peace between them. He said, ‘Men, you are brothers! Why are you trying to hurt each other?’ ²⁷ The man who was hurting the other one pushed Moses away and said to him, ‘Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge?’ ²⁸ Will you kill me just as you killed that Egyptian yesterday?’ ²⁹ When Moses heard him say this, he left Egypt. He went to live in the land of Midian, where he was a stranger. During the time he lived there, he had two sons.

³⁰ “Forty years later Moses was in the desert near Mount Sinai. An angel appeared to him in the flame of a burning bush. ³¹ When Moses saw this, he was amazed. He went near to look closer at it. He heard a voice; it was the Lord's. ³² The Lord said, ‘I am the same God your ancestors had—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.’ ³³ Moses began to shake with fear. He was afraid to look at the bush.

³³ “The Lord said to him, ‘Take off your sandals, because the place where you are now standing is holy ground. ³⁴ I have seen my people suffer much in Egypt. I have heard my people crying and have come down to save them. Come now, Moses, I am sending you back to Egypt.’

³⁵ “This Moses was the one his people said they did not want. They said, ‘Did anyone say you could be our ruler and judge?’ But he is the one God sent to be a ruler and savior. God sent him with the help of an angel, the one Moses saw in the burning bush.

☆ 7:28 Quote from Exodus 2:14. ☆ 7:32 Quote from Exodus 3:6. ☆ 7:34 Quote from Exodus 3:5-10. ☆ 7:35 Quote from Exodus 2:14.

³⁶ So Moses led the people out of Egypt. He worked wonders and miraculous signs in Egypt, at the Red Sea, and then in the desert for 40 years.

³⁷ “This is the same Moses who said these words to the people of Israel: ‘God will give you a prophet. That prophet will come from among your own people. He will be like me.’”[☆] ³⁸ This same Moses was with the gathering of God’s people in the desert. He was with the angel who spoke to him at Mount Sinai, and he was with our ancestors. He received life-giving words from God to give to us.

³⁹ “But our ancestors did not want to obey Moses. They rejected him. They wanted to go back to Egypt again. ⁴⁰ They said to Aaron, ‘Moses led us out of the country of Egypt. But we don’t know what has happened to him. So make some gods to go before us and lead us.’”[☆] ⁴¹ So the people made an idol that looked like a calf. Then they brought sacrifices to it. They were very happy with what they had made with their own hands. ⁴² But God turned against them and let them continue worshiping the army of false gods in the sky. This is what God says in the book that contains what the prophets wrote:

‘People of Israel, you did not bring me blood offerings and sacrifices in the desert for 40 years;

⁴³ You carried with you the tent for worshiping Moloch and the image of the star of your god Rephan.

These were the idols you made to worship.

So I will send you away beyond Babylon.’

Amos 5:25-27

⁴⁴ “The Holy Tent[†] was with our ancestors in the desert. God told Moses how to make this tent. He made it like the plan that God showed him. ⁴⁵ Later, Joshua led our ancestors to capture the lands of the other nations. Our people went in and God made the other people go out. When our people went into this new land, they took with them this same tent. Our people received this tent from their fathers, and our people kept it until the time of David. ⁴⁶ God was very pleased with David. He asked God to let him build a Temple for the people of Jacob.[‡] ⁴⁷ But Solomon was the one who built the Temple.

⁴⁸ “But the Most High God does not live in houses built by human hands. This is what the prophet[§] writes:

⁴⁹ ‘The Lord says, Heaven is my throne,
and the earth is where I rest my feet.

So do you think you can build a house for me?

Do I need a place to rest?

⁵⁰ Remember, I made all these things!’ ”

Isaiah 66:1-2

⁵¹ Then Stephen said, “You stubborn Jewish leaders! You refuse to give your hearts to God or even listen to him. You are always against what the Holy Spirit wants you to do. That’s how your ancestors were, and you are just like them! ⁵² They persecuted every prophet who ever lived. They even killed those who long ago said that the Righteous One would come. And now you have turned against that Righteous One and killed him. ⁵³ You are the people who received God’s law, which he gave you through his angels. But you don’t obey it!”

Stephen Is Killed

⁵⁴ When those in the council meeting heard this, they became very angry. They were so mad they were grinding their teeth at him. ⁵⁵ But Stephen was full of the Holy Spirit.

He looked up into heaven and saw the glory of God. And he saw Jesus standing at God's right side. ⁵⁶ Stephen said, "Look! I see heaven open. And I see the Son of Man standing at God's right side."

⁵⁷ Everyone there started shouting loudly, covering their ears with their hands. Together they all ran at Stephen. ⁵⁸ They took him out of the city and began throwing stones at him. The men who told lies against Stephen gave their coats to a young man named Saul. ⁵⁹ As they were throwing the stones at him, Stephen was praying. He said, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit!" ⁶⁰ He fell on his knees and shouted, "Lord, don't blame them for this sin!" These were his last words before he died.

¹⁻³ Saul agreed that the killing of Stephen was a good thing. Some godly men buried Stephen and cried loudly for him.

Trouble for the Believers

On that day the Jews began to persecute the church in Jerusalem, making them suffer very much. Saul was also trying to destroy the group. He went into their houses, dragged out men and women, and put them in jail. All the believers left Jerusalem. Only the apostles stayed. The believers went to different places in Judea and Samaria. ⁴ They were scattered everywhere, and in every place they went, they told people the Good News.

Philip Tells the Good News in Samaria

⁵ Philip* went to the city of Samaria and told people about the Messiah. ⁶ The people there heard Philip and saw the miraculous signs he was doing. They all listened carefully to what he said. ⁷ Many of these people had evil spirits inside them, but Philip made the evil spirits leave them. The spirits made a lot of noise as they came out. There were also many weak and crippled people there. Philip made these people well too. ⁸ What a happy day this was for that city!

⁹ Now there was a man named Simon who lived in that city. Before Philip came there, Simon had been doing magic and amazing all the people of Samaria. He bragged and called himself a great man. ¹⁰ All the people—the least important and the most important—believed what he said. They said, "This man has the power of God that is called 'the Great Power.'" ¹¹ Simon amazed the people with his magic for so long that the people became his followers. ¹² But Philip told the people the Good News about God's kingdom and the power of Jesus Christ. Men and women believed Philip and were baptized. ¹³ Simon himself also believed, and after he was baptized, he stayed close to Philip. When he saw the miraculous signs and powerful things Philip did, he was amazed.

¹⁴ The apostles in Jerusalem heard that the people of Samaria had accepted the word of God. So they sent Peter and John to the people in Samaria. ¹⁵ When Peter and John arrived, they prayed for the Samaritan believers to receive the Holy Spirit. ¹⁶ These people had been baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus, but the Holy Spirit had not yet come down on any of them. This is why Peter and John prayed. ¹⁷ When the two apostles laid their hands on the people, they received the Holy Spirit.

¹⁸ Simon saw that the Spirit was given to people when the apostles laid their hands on them. So he offered the apostles money. ¹⁹ He said, "Give me this power so that when I lay my hands on someone, they will receive the Holy Spirit."

²⁰ Peter said to Simon, "You and your money should both be destroyed because you thought you could buy God's gift with money. ²¹ You cannot share with us in this work. Your heart is not right before God. ²² Change your heart! Turn away from these evil thoughts and pray to the Lord. Maybe he will forgive you. ²³ I see that you are full of bitter jealousy and cannot stop yourself from doing wrong."

* 8:5 Philip Not the apostle named Philip.

²⁴ Simon answered, “Both of you pray to the Lord for me, so that what you have said will not happen to me.”

²⁵ Then the two apostles told the people what they had seen Jesus do. They told them the message of the Lord. Then they went back to Jerusalem. On the way, they went through many Samaritan towns and told people the Good News.

Philip Teaches a Man From Ethiopia

²⁶ An angel of the Lord spoke to Philip. The angel said, “Get ready and go south on the road that leads down to Gaza from Jerusalem—the road that goes through the desert.”

²⁷ So Philip got ready and went. On the road he saw a man from Ethiopia. He was a eunuch and an important official in the service of Candace, the queen of the Ethiopians. He was responsible for taking care of all her money. This man had gone to Jerusalem to worship. ²⁸ Now he was on his way home. He was sitting in his chariot reading from the book of Isaiah the prophet.

²⁹ The Spirit said to Philip, “Go to that chariot and stay near it.” ³⁰ So he went toward the chariot, and he heard the man reading from Isaiah the prophet. Philip asked him, “Do you understand what you are reading?”

³¹ The man answered, “How can I understand? I need someone to explain it to me.” Then he invited Philip to climb in and sit with him. ³² The part of the Scriptures that he was reading was this:

“He was like a sheep being led to the butcher.

He was like a lamb that makes no sound as its wool is being cut off.

He said nothing.

³³ He was shamed, and all his rights were taken away.

His life on earth has ended.

So there will be no story about his descendants.”

Isaiah 53:7-8

³⁴ The official[†] said to Philip, “Please, tell me, who is the prophet talking about? Is he talking about himself or about someone else?” ³⁵ Philip began to speak. He started with this same Scripture and told the man the Good News about Jesus.

³⁶ While they were traveling down the road, they came to some water. The official said, “Look, here is water! What is stopping me from being baptized?” ³⁷ † ³⁸ Then the official ordered the chariot to stop. Both Philip and the official went down into the water, and Philip baptized him. ³⁹ When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away; the official never saw him again. The official continued on his way home. He was very happy. ⁴⁰ But Philip appeared in a city called Azotus. He was going to the city of Caesarea. He told people the Good News in all the towns on the way from Azotus to Caesarea.

Saul Becomes a Follower of Jesus

¹ In Jerusalem Saul was still trying to scare the followers of the Lord, even saying he would kill them. He went to the high priest ² and asked him to write letters to the synagogues in the city of Damascus. Saul wanted the high priest to give him the authority to find people in Damascus who were followers of the Way. If he found any believers there, men or women, he would arrest them and bring them back to Jerusalem.

³ So Saul went to Damascus. When he came near the city, a very bright light from heaven suddenly shined around him. ⁴ He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, “Saul, Saul! Why are you persecuting me?”

† 8:34 official Literally, “eunuch.” Also in verses 36, 38, 39. † 8:37 Some late copies of Acts add verse 37: “Philip answered, ‘If you believe with all your heart, you can.’ The official said, ‘I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God.’”

⁵ Saul said, “Who are you, Lord?”

The voice answered, “I am Jesus, the one you are persecuting. ⁶ Get up now and go into the city. Someone there will tell you what you must do.”

⁷ The men traveling with Saul just stood there, unable to speak. They heard the voice, but they saw no one. ⁸ Saul got up from the ground and opened his eyes, but he could not see. So the men with him held his hand and led him into Damascus. ⁹ For three days, Saul could not see; he did not eat or drink.

¹⁰ There was a follower of Jesus in Damascus named Ananias. In a vision the Lord said to him, “Ananias!”

Ananias answered, “Here I am, Lord.”

¹¹ The Lord said to him, “Get up and go to the street called Straight Street. Find the house of Judas* and ask for a man named Saul from the city of Tarsus. He is there now, praying. ¹² He has seen a vision in which a man named Ananias came and laid his hands on him so that he could see again.”

¹³ But Ananias answered, “Lord, many people have told me about this man. They told me about the many bad things he did to your holy people in Jerusalem. ¹⁴ Now he has come here to Damascus. The leading priests have given him the power to arrest all people who trust in you.†”

¹⁵ But the Lord Jesus said to Ananias, “Go! I have chosen Saul for an important work. I want him to tell other nations, their rulers, and the people of Israel about me. ¹⁶ I will show him all that he must suffer for me.”

¹⁷ So Ananias left and went to the house of Judas. He laid his hands on Saul and said, “Saul, my brother, the Lord Jesus sent me. He is the one you saw on the road when you came here. He sent me so that you can see again and also be filled with the Holy Spirit.”

¹⁸ Immediately, something that looked like fish scales fell off Saul’s eyes. He was able to see! Then he got up and was baptized. ¹⁹ After he ate, he began to feel strong again.

Saul Begins to Tell About Jesus

Saul stayed with the followers of Jesus in Damascus for a few days. ²⁰ Soon he began to go to the synagogues and tell people about Jesus. He told the people, “Jesus is the Son of God!”

²¹ All the people who heard Saul were amazed. They said, “This is the same man who was in Jerusalem trying to destroy the people who trust in Jesus‡! And that’s why he has come here—to arrest the followers of Jesus and take them back to the leading priests.”

²² But Saul became more and more powerful in proving that Jesus is the Messiah. His proofs were so strong that the Jews who lived in Damascus could not argue with him.

Saul Escapes From Some Jews

²³ After many days, some Jews made plans to kill Saul. ²⁴ They were watching the city gates day and night. They wanted to kill Saul, but he learned about their plan. ²⁵ One night some followers that Saul had taught helped him leave the city. They put him in a basket and lowered it down through a hole in the city wall.

Saul in Jerusalem

²⁶ Then Saul went to Jerusalem. He tried to join the group of followers, but they were all afraid of him. They did not believe that he was really a follower of Jesus. ²⁷ But Barnabas accepted Saul and took him to the apostles. He told them how Saul had seen the Lord on the road and how the Lord had spoken to Saul. Then he told them how boldly Saul had spoken for the Lord in Damascus.

²⁸ And so Saul stayed with the followers and went all around Jerusalem speaking boldly for the Lord. ²⁹ He often had arguments with the Greek-speaking Jews, who began

* 9:11 Judas This is not either of the apostles named Judas. † 9:14 who trust in you Literally, “who call on your name,” meaning to show faith in Jesus by worshiping him or praying to him for help. ‡ 9:21 who trust in Jesus Literally, “who call on this name.”

making plans to kill him. ³⁰ When the believers learned about this, they took Saul to Caesarea, and from there they sent him to the city of Tarsus.

³¹ The church in Judea, Galilee, and Samaria had a time of peace. And with the help of the Holy Spirit, these groups of believers became stronger in faith and showed their respect for the Lord by the way they lived. So the church everywhere grew in numbers.

Peter in Lydda and Joppa

³² Peter was traveling through all the areas around Jerusalem, and he stopped to visit the believers[§] who lived in Lydda. ³³ There he met a man named Aeneas, who was paralyzed and had not been able to get out of bed for the past eight years. ³⁴ Peter said to him, “Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!” He stood up immediately. ³⁵ All the people living in Lydda and on the plain of Sharon saw him, and they decided to follow the Lord.

³⁶ In the city of Joppa there was a follower of Jesus named Tabitha. Her Greek name, Dorcas, means “a deer.” She was always doing good things for people and giving money to those in need. ³⁷ While Peter was in Lydda, Tabitha became sick and died. They washed her body and put it in an upstairs room. ³⁸ The followers in Joppa heard that Peter was in Lydda, which was not far away. So they sent two men, who begged him, “Hurry, please come quickly!”

³⁹ Peter got ready and went with them. When he arrived, they took him to the upstairs room. All the widows stood around him. They were crying and showing him the coats and other clothes that Tabitha had made during her time with them. ⁴⁰ Peter sent all the people out of the room. He knelt down and prayed. Then he turned to Tabitha’s body and said, “Tabitha, stand up!” She opened her eyes. When she saw Peter, she sat up. ⁴¹ He gave her his hand and helped her stand up. Then he called the believers and the widows into the room. He showed them Tabitha; she was alive!

⁴² People everywhere in Joppa learned about this, and many believed in the Lord. ⁴³ Peter stayed in Joppa for many days at the home of a man named Simon, who was a leatherworker.

Peter and Cornelius

¹ In the city of Caesarea there was a man named Cornelius, a Roman army officer in what was called the Italian Unit. ² He was a religious man. He and all the others who lived in his house were worshipers of the true God. He gave much of his money to help the poor people and always prayed to God. ³ One afternoon about three o’clock, Cornelius had a vision. He clearly saw an angel from God coming to him and saying, “Cornelius!”

⁴ Staring at the angel and feeling afraid, Cornelius said, “What do you want, sir?”

The angel said to him, “God has heard your prayers and has seen your gifts to the poor. He remembers you and all you have done. ⁵ Send some men now to the city of Joppa to get a man named Simon, who is also called Peter. ⁶ He is staying with someone also named Simon, a leatherworker who has a house beside the sea.” ⁷ The angel who spoke to Cornelius left. Then Cornelius called two of his servants and a soldier. The soldier was a religious man, one of his close helpers. ⁸ Cornelius explained everything to these three men and sent them to Joppa.

⁹ The next day they were coming near Joppa about noon, when Peter was going up to the roof to pray. ¹⁰ He was hungry and wanted to eat. But while they were preparing the food for Peter to eat, he had a vision. ¹¹ He saw something coming down through the open sky. It looked like a big sheet being lowered to the ground by its four corners. ¹² In it were all kinds of animals, reptiles, and birds. ¹³ Then a voice said to him, “Get up, Peter; kill anything here and eat it.”

[§] 9:32 believers Literally, “holy ones,” a name for people who believe in Jesus. Also in verse 41.

¹⁴ But Peter said, “I can’t do that, Lord! I have never eaten anything that is not pure or fit to be used for food.”

¹⁵ But the voice said to him again, “God has made these things pure. Don’t say they are unfit to eat.” ¹⁶ This happened three times. Then the whole thing was taken back up into heaven. ¹⁷ Peter wondered what this vision meant.

The men Cornelius sent had found Simon’s house. They were standing at the door. ¹⁸ They asked, “Is Simon Peter staying here?”

¹⁹ While Peter was still thinking about the vision, the Spirit said to him, “Listen, three men are looking for you. ²⁰ Get up and go downstairs. Go with these men without wondering if it’s all right, because I sent them.” ²¹ So Peter went downstairs and said to them, “I think I’m the man you are looking for. Why did you come here?”

²² The men said, “A holy angel told Cornelius to invite you to his house. He is an army officer. He is a good man, one who worships God, and all the Jewish people respect him. The angel told him to invite you to his house so that he can listen to what you have to say.” ²³ Peter asked the men to come in and stay for the night.

The next day Peter got ready and went away with the three men. Some of the believers from Joppa went with him. ²⁴ The next day they came to the city of Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them and had already gathered his relatives and close friends at his house.

²⁸ Peter said to the people, “You understand that it is against our law for a Jew to associate with or visit anyone who is not a Jew. But God has shown me that I should not consider anyone unfit or say they are not pure. ²⁹ That’s why I didn’t argue when your men asked me to come here. Now, please tell me why you sent for me.”

³⁰ Cornelius said, “Four days ago, I was praying in my house. It was at this same time—three o’clock in the afternoon. Suddenly there was someone standing before me wearing bright, shiny clothes. ³¹ He said, ‘Cornelius, God has heard your prayer and has seen your gifts to the poor. He remembers you and all you have done. ³² So send some men to the city of Joppa and tell Simon Peter to come. He is staying with another man named Simon, a leatherworker who has a house beside the sea.’ ³³ So I sent for you immediately. It was very good of you to come here. Now we are all here before God to hear everything the Lord has commanded you to tell us.”

Peter Speaks in the House of Cornelius

³⁴ Peter began to speak: “I really understand now that God does not consider some people to be better than others. ³⁵ He accepts anyone who worships him and does what is right. It is not important what nation they come from. ³⁶ God has spoken to the people of Israel. He sent them the Good News that peace has come through Jesus Christ, the Lord of all people.

³⁷ “You know what has happened all over Judea. It began in Galilee after John told the people they needed to be baptized. ³⁸ You know about Jesus from Nazareth. God made him the Messiah by giving him the Holy Spirit and power. Jesus went everywhere doing good for people. He healed those who were ruled by the devil, showing that God was with him.

³⁹ “We saw all that Jesus did in Judea and in Jerusalem. But he was killed. They put him on a cross made of wood. ⁴⁰ But on the third day after his death, God raised him to life and let him be seen openly. ⁴¹ He was not seen by everyone, but only by us, the ones God had already chosen to be witnesses. We ate and drank with him after he was raised from death.

⁴² “Jesus told us to go and speak to the people. He told us to tell them that he is the one God chose to be the Judge of all who are living and all who have died. ⁴³ Everyone who believes in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name. All the prophets agree that this is true.”

God Shows That He Accepts All People

⁴⁴ While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit came down on all those who were listening to his speech. ⁴⁵ The Jewish believers who came with Peter were amazed that the Holy Spirit had been poured out as a gift also to people who were not Jews. ⁴⁶ They heard them speaking different languages and praising God. Then Peter said, ⁴⁷ “How can anyone object to these people being baptized in water? They have received the Holy Spirit the same as we did!” ⁴⁸ So Peter told them to baptize Cornelius and his relatives and friends in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked Peter to stay with them for a few days.

Peter Returns to Jerusalem

¹ The apostles and the believers in Judea heard that non-Jewish people had accepted God’s teaching too. ² But when Peter came to Jerusalem, some Jewish believers* argued with him. ³ They said, “You went into the homes of people who are not Jews and are not circumcised, and you even ate with them!”

⁴ So Peter explained the whole story to them. ⁵ He said, “I was in the city of Joppa. While I was praying, I had a vision. I saw something coming down from heaven. It looked like a big sheet being lowered to the ground by its four corners. It came down close to me, ⁶ and I looked inside. I saw all kinds of animals, including wild ones, as well as reptiles and birds. ⁷ I heard a voice say to me, ‘Get up, Peter. Kill anything here and eat it!’

⁸ “But I said, ‘I can’t do that, Lord! I have never eaten anything that is not pure or fit to be used for food.’

⁹ “But the voice from heaven answered again, ‘God has made these things pure. Don’t say they are unfit to eat!’

¹⁰ “This happened three times. Then the whole thing was taken back into heaven. ¹¹ Suddenly there were three men standing outside the house where I was staying. They had been sent from Caesarea to get me. ¹² The Spirit told me to go with them without wondering if it was all right. These six brothers here also went with me, and we went to the house of Cornelius. ¹³ He told us about the angel he had seen standing in his house. The angel said, ‘Send some men to Joppa to get Simon, the one who is also called Peter. ¹⁴ He will speak to you, and what he tells you will save you and everyone living in your house.’

¹⁵ “After I began speaking, the Holy Spirit came on them just as he came on us at the beginning.† ¹⁶ Then I remembered the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘John baptized people in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.’ ¹⁷ God gave these people the same gift he gave us who believed in the Lord Jesus Christ. So how could I object to what God wanted to do?”

¹⁸ When the Jewish believers heard this, they stopped arguing. They praised God and said, “So God is also allowing even those who are not Jews to change their hearts so that they can have the life he gives!”

The Good News Comes to Antioch

* 11:2 Jewish believers Literally, “those of circumcision.” This may mean Jews who thought all followers of Christ must be circumcised and obey the Law of Moses. See Gal. 2:12. † 11:15 beginning The day of Pentecost described in Acts 2, when the Holy Spirit came on Jesus’ first followers to give them power to begin their work of telling the world the Good News of salvation through Jesus.

¹⁹ The believers were scattered by the persecution[‡] that began when Stephen was killed. Some of them went as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch. They told the Good News in these places, but only to Jews. ²⁰ Some of these believers were men from Cyprus and Cyrene. When these men came to Antioch, they began speaking to people who were not Jews.[§] They told them the Good News about the Lord Jesus. ²¹ The Lord was helping these men, and a large number of people believed and decided to follow the Lord.

²² When the church in Jerusalem heard about this, they sent Barnabas to Antioch. ²³⁻²⁴ Barnabas was a good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith. When he went to Antioch and saw how God had blessed the believers there, he was very happy. He encouraged them all, saying, “Always be faithful to the Lord. Serve him with all your heart.” Many more people became followers of the Lord.

²⁵ Then Barnabas went to the city of Tarsus to look for Saul. ²⁶ When he found him, he brought him to Antioch. They stayed there a whole year. Every time the church came together, Barnabas and Saul met with them and taught many people. It was in Antioch that the followers of the Lord Jesus were called “Christ-followers” for the first time.

²⁷ About that same time some prophets went from Jerusalem to Antioch. ²⁸ One of them, named Agabus, stood up and spoke with the help of the Spirit. He said, “A very bad time is coming to the whole world. There will be no food for people to eat.” (This time of famine happened when Claudius was emperor.) ²⁹ The Lord’s followers decided that they would each send as much as they could to help their brothers and sisters who lived in Judea. ³⁰ They gathered the money and gave it to Barnabas and Saul, who took it to the elders in Judea.

More Trouble for the Believers

¹ During this same time, King Herod began to do harm to some of those who were part of the church. ² He ordered James, the brother of John, to be killed with a sword. ³ Herod saw that many of the Jews liked this, so he decided to arrest Peter too. This happened during the Festival of Unleavened Bread. ⁴ He arrested Peter and put him in jail, where he was guarded by a group of 16 soldiers. Herod planned to bring Peter before the people, but he wanted to wait until after the Passover festival. ⁵ So Peter was kept in jail, but the church was constantly praying to God for him.

Peter Is Led Out of the Jail

⁶ One night, Peter, bound with two chains, was sleeping between two of the soldiers. More soldiers were guarding the door of the jail. Herod was planning to bring Peter out before the people the next day. ⁷ Suddenly an angel of the Lord was standing there, and the room was filled with light. The angel tapped Peter on the side and woke him up. The angel said, “Hurry, get up!” The chains fell off Peter’s hands. ⁸ The angel said, “Get dressed and put on your sandals.” Peter did as he was told. Then the angel said, “Put on your coat and follow me.”

⁹ So the angel went out and Peter followed. He did not know if the angel was really doing this. He thought he might be seeing a vision. ¹⁰ Peter and the angel went past the first guard and the second guard. Then they came to the iron gate that separated them from the city. The gate opened for them by itself. After they went through the gate and walked about a block, the angel suddenly left.

¹¹ Peter realized then what had happened. He thought, “Now I know that the Lord really sent his angel to me. He rescued me from Herod and from everything those Jews thought would happen to me.”

[‡] 11:19 persecution A time when the Jewish leaders in Jerusalem were punishing people who believed in Christ. See Acts 8:1-4. [§] 11:20 people who were not Jews Literally, “Hellenists,” meaning people who have been influenced by Greek culture. Some Greek copies have “Greeks.”

¹² When Peter realized this, he went to the home of Mary, the mother of John, who was also called Mark. Many people were gathered there and were praying. ¹³ Peter knocked on the outside door. A servant girl named Rhoda came to answer it. ¹⁴ She recognized Peter's voice, and she was very happy. She even forgot to open the door. She ran inside and told the group, "Peter is at the door!" ¹⁵ The believers said to her, "You are crazy!" But she continued to say that it was true. So they said, "It must be Peter's angel."

¹⁶ But Peter continued to knock. When the believers opened the door, they saw him. They were amazed. ¹⁷ Peter made a sign with his hand to tell them to be quiet. He explained to them how the Lord led him out of the jail. He said, "Tell James and the other brothers what happened." Then he left and went to another place.

¹⁸ The next day the soldiers were very upset. They wondered what happened to Peter. ¹⁹ Herod looked everywhere for him but could not find him. So he questioned the guards and then ordered that they be killed.

The Death of Herod Agrippa

Later, Herod moved from Judea. He went to the city of Caesarea and stayed there a while. ²⁰ Herod was very angry with the people from the cities of Tyre and Sidon. But these cities needed food from his country, so a group of them came to ask him for peace. They were able to get Blastus, the king's personal servant, on their side.

²¹ Herod decided on a day to meet with them. On that day he was wearing a beautiful royal robe. He sat on his throne and made a speech to the people. ²² The people shouted, "This is the voice of a god, not a man!" ²³ Herod did not give the glory to God. So an angel of the Lord caused him to get sick. He was eaten by worms inside him, and he died.

²⁴ The message of God was spreading, reaching more and more people.

²⁵ After Barnabas and Saul finished their work in Jerusalem, they returned to Antioch, taking John Mark with them.

Barnabas and Saul Given a Special Work

¹ In the church at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers. They were Barnabas, Simeon (also called Niger), Lucius (from the city of Cyrene), Manaen (who had grown up with King Herod*), and Saul. ² These men were all serving the Lord and fasting when the Holy Spirit said to them, "Appoint Barnabas and Saul to do a special work for me. They are the ones I have chosen to do it."

³ So the church fasted and prayed. They laid their hands on Barnabas and Saul and sent them out.

Barnabas and Saul in Cyprus

⁴ Barnabas and Saul were sent out by the Holy Spirit. They went to the city of Seleucia. Then they sailed from there to the island of Cyprus. ⁵ When Barnabas and Saul came to the city of Salamis, they told the message of God in the Jewish synagogues. John Mark was with them to help.

⁶ They went across the whole island to the city of Paphos. There they met a Jewish man named Barjesus who did magic. He was a false prophet. ⁷ He always stayed close to Sergius Paulus, who was the governor and a very smart man. He invited Barnabas and Saul to come visit him, because he wanted to hear the message of God. ⁸ But the magician Elymas (as Barjesus was called in Greek) spoke against them, trying to stop the governor from believing in Jesus. ⁹ But Saul (also known as Paul), filled with the Holy Spirit, looked hard at Elymas ¹⁰ and said, "You son of the devil, full of lies and all kinds of evil tricks! You are an enemy of everything that is right. Will you never stop trying to change the Lord's truths into lies? ¹¹ Now the Lord will touch you and you will be blind. For a time you will not be able to see anything—not even the light from the sun.”

* 13:1 King Herod Literally, "Herod the tetrarch." See "Herod Agrippa I" in the Word List.

Then everything became dark for Elymas. He walked around lost. He was trying to find someone to lead him by the hand. ¹² When the governor saw this, he believed. He was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

Paul and Barnabas Go to Antioch in Pisidia

¹³ Paul and the people with him sailed away from Paphos. They came to Perga, a city in Pamphylia. There John Mark left them and returned to Jerusalem. ¹⁴ They continued their trip from Perga and went to Antioch, a city near Pisidia.

On the Sabbath day they went into the Jewish synagogue and sat down. ¹⁵ The Law of Moses and the writings of the prophets were read. Then the leaders of the synagogue sent a message to Paul and Barnabas: “Brothers, if you have something to say that will help the people here, please speak.”

¹⁶ Paul stood up, raised his hand to get their attention, and said, “People of Israel and all you others who worship the true God, please listen to me! ¹⁷ The God of Israel chose our ancestors. And during the time our people lived in Egypt as foreigners, he made them great. Then he brought them out of that country with great power. ¹⁸ And he was patient with them for 40 years in the desert. ¹⁹ God destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan and gave their land to his people. ²⁰ All this happened in about 450 years.

“After this, God gave our people judges until the time of Samuel the prophet. ²¹ Then the people asked for a king. God gave them Saul, the son of Kish. Saul was from the tribe of Benjamin. He was king for 40 years. ²² After God took Saul away, God made David their king. This is what God said about David: ‘David, the son of Jesse, is the kind of person who does what pleases me. He will do everything I want him to do.’

²³ “As he promised, God has brought one of David’s descendants to Israel to be their Savior. That descendant is Jesus. ²⁴ Before he came, John told all the people of Israel what they should do. He told them to be baptized to show they wanted to change their lives. ²⁵ When John was finishing his work, he said, ‘Who do you think I am? I am not the Messiah.† He is coming later, and I am not worthy to be the slave who unties his sandals.’

²⁶ “My brothers, sons in the family of Abraham, and you other people who also worship the true God, listen! The news about this salvation has been sent to us. ²⁷ The Jews living in Jerusalem and their leaders did not realize that Jesus was the Savior. The words the prophets wrote about him were read every Sabbath day, but they did not understand. They condemned Jesus. When they did this, they made the words of the prophets come true. ²⁸ They could not find any real reason why Jesus should die, but they asked Pilate to kill him.

²⁹ “These Jews did all the bad things that the Scriptures said would happen to Jesus. Then they took Jesus down from the cross and put him in a tomb. ³⁰ But God raised him up from death! ³¹ After this, for many days, those who had gone with Jesus from Galilee to Jerusalem saw him. They are now his witnesses to our people.

³² “We tell you the Good News about the promise God made to our ancestors. ³³ We are their descendants, and God has made this promise come true for us. God did this by raising Jesus from death. We also read about this in Psalm 2:

‘You are my Son.

Today I have become your Father.’

Psalm 2:7

† 13:25 the Messiah Literally, “I” (that is, “he” or “the one”), meaning the chosen one sent by God. Compare John 1:20. See “Messiah” in the Word List.

³⁴ God raised Jesus from death. Jesus will never go back to the grave and become dust. So God said,

‘I will give you the true and holy promises that I made to David.’

Isaiah 55:3

³⁵ But in another Psalm it says,

‘You will not let your Holy One rot in the grave.’

Psalm 16:10

³⁶ “David did God’s will during the time he lived. Then he died and was buried like all his ancestors. And his body did rot in the grave! ³⁷ But the one God raised from death did not rot in the grave. ³⁸⁻³⁹ Brothers, understand what we are telling you. You can have forgiveness of your sins through this Jesus. The Law of Moses could not free you from your sins. But you can be made right with God if you believe in Jesus. ⁴⁰ So be careful! Don’t let what the prophets said happen to you:

⁴¹ ‘Listen, you people who doubt!
You can wonder, but then go away and die;
because during your time,
I will do something that you will not believe.
You will not believe it,
even if someone explains it to you!’ ”

Habakkuk 1:5

⁴² As Paul and Barnabas were leaving the synagogue, the people asked them to come again on the next Sabbath day and tell them more about these things. ⁴³ After the meeting, many of the people followed Paul and Barnabas, including many Jews and people who had changed their religion to be like Jews and worship the true God. Paul and Barnabas encouraged them to continue trusting in God’s grace.

⁴⁴ On the next Sabbath day, almost all the people in the city came together to hear the word of the Lord. ⁴⁵ When the Jews there saw all these people, they became very jealous. Shouting insults, they argued against everything Paul said. ⁴⁶ But Paul and Barnabas spoke very boldly. They said, “We had to tell God’s message to you Jews first, but you refuse to listen. You have made it clear that you are not worthy of having eternal life. So we will now go to those who are not Jews. ⁴⁷ This is what the Lord told us to do:

‘I have made you a light for the other nations, to show people all over the world the way to be saved.’ ”

Isaiah 49:6

⁴⁸ When the non-Jewish people heard Paul say this, they were happy. They gave honor to the message of the Lord, and many of them believed it. These were the ones chosen to have eternal life.

⁴⁹ And so the message of the Lord was being told throughout the whole country. ⁵⁰ But the Jews there caused some of the important religious women and the leaders of the city to be angry and turn against Paul and Barnabas and throw them out of town. ⁵¹ So Paul and Barnabas shook the dust off their feet. ‡ Then they went to the city of Iconium. ⁵² But the Lord’s followers in Antioch were happy and filled with the Holy Spirit.

‡ 13:51 shook the dust off their feet A warning. It showed they were finished talking to these people.

¹ Paul and Barnabas went to the city of Iconium. As they did in Antioch, they entered the Jewish synagogue. They spoke to the people there. They spoke so well that many Jews and Greeks believed what they said. ² But some of the Jews did not believe. They said things that caused the non-Jewish people to be angry and turn against the believers.

³ So Paul and Barnabas stayed in Iconium a long time, and they spoke bravely for the Lord. They told the people about God's grace. The Lord proved that what they said was true by causing miraculous signs and wonders to be done through them. ⁴ But some of the people in the city agreed with the Jews who did not believe Paul and Barnabas. Others followed the apostles. So the city was divided.

⁵ Some of the Jews there, as well as their leaders and some of the non-Jewish people, were determined to hurt Paul and Barnabas. They wanted to stone them to death. ⁶ When Paul and Barnabas learned about this, they left the city. They went to Lystra and Derbe, cities in Lycaonia, and to the surrounding areas. ⁷ They told the Good News there too.

Paul in Lystra and Derbe

⁸ In Lystra there was a man who had something wrong with his feet. He had been born crippled and had never walked. ⁹ He was sitting and listening to Paul speak. Paul looked straight at him and saw that the man believed God could heal him. ¹⁰ So Paul shouted, "Stand up on your feet!" The man jumped up and began walking around.

¹¹ When the people saw what Paul did, they shouted in their own Lycaonian language. They said, "The gods have come down to us in the form of humans!" ¹² The people began to call Barnabas "Zeus," and they called Paul "Hermes," because he was the main speaker. ¹³ The temple of Zeus was near the city. The priest of this temple brought some bulls and flowers to the city gates. The priest and the people wanted to offer a sacrifice to Paul and Barnabas.

¹⁴ But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, understood what the people were doing, they tore their own clothes.* Then they ran in among the people and shouted to them: ¹⁵ "Men, why are you doing this? We are not gods. We are human just like you. We came to tell you the Good News. We are telling you to turn away from these worthless things. Turn to the true living God, the one who made the sky, the earth, the sea, and everything that is in them.

¹⁸ Even after saying all this, Paul and Barnabas still could hardly stop the people from offering sacrifices to them.

¹⁹ Then some Jews came from Antioch and Iconium and persuaded the people to turn against Paul. So they threw stones at him and dragged him out of the town. They thought they had killed him. ²⁰ But when the followers of Jesus gathered around him, he got up and went back into the town. The next day he and Barnabas left and went to the city of Derbe.

The Return to Antioch in Syria

²¹ They also told the Good News in the city of Derbe, and many people became followers of Jesus. Then Paul and Barnabas returned to the cities of Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch. ²² In those cities they helped the followers grow stronger in their faith and encouraged them to continue trusting God. They told them, "We must suffer many things on our way into God's kingdom." ²³ They also chose elders for each church and stopped eating for a period of time to pray for them. These elders were men who had put their trust in the Lord Jesus, so Paul and Barnabas put them in his care.

* 14:14 tore ... clothes This showed they were very upset.

²⁴ Paul and Barnabas went through the country of Pisidia. Then they came to the country of Pamphylia. ²⁵ They told people the message of God in the city of Perga, and then they went down to the city of Attalia. ²⁶ And from there they sailed away to Antioch in Syria. This is the city where the believers had put them into God's care and sent them to do this work. Now they had finished it.

²⁷ When Paul and Barnabas arrived, they gathered the church together. They told them everything God had used them to do. They said, "God opened a door for the non-Jewish people to believe!" ²⁸ And they stayed there a long time with the Lord's followers.

The Meeting at Jerusalem

¹ Then some men came to Antioch from Judea and began teaching the non-Jewish believers: "You cannot be saved if you are not circumcised as Moses taught us." ² Paul and Barnabas were against this teaching and argued with these men about it. So the group decided to send Paul, Barnabas, and some others to Jerusalem to talk more about this with the apostles and elders.

³ The church helped them get ready to leave on their trip. The men went through the countries of Phoenicia and Samaria, where they told all about how the non-Jewish people had turned to the true God. This made all the believers very happy. ⁴ When the men arrived in Jerusalem, the apostles, the elders, and the whole church welcomed them. Paul, Barnabas, and the others told about all that God had done with them. ⁵ Some of the believers in Jerusalem had belonged to the Pharisees. They stood up and said, "The non-Jewish believers must be circumcised. We must tell them to obey the Law of Moses!"

⁶ Then the apostles and the elders gathered to study this problem. ⁷ After a long debate, Peter stood up and said to them, "My brothers, I am sure you remember what happened in the early days. God chose me from among you to tell the Good News to those who are not Jewish. It was from me that they heard the Good News and believed. ⁸ God knows everyone, even their thoughts, and he accepted these non-Jewish people. He showed this to us by giving them the Holy Spirit the same as he did to us. ⁹ To God, those people are not different from us. When they believed, God made their hearts pure. ¹⁰ So now, why are you putting a heavy burden* around the necks of the non-Jewish followers of Jesus? Are you trying to make God angry? We and our fathers were not able to carry that burden. ¹¹ No, we believe that we and these people will be saved the same way—by the grace of the Lord Jesus."

¹² Then the whole group became quiet. They listened while Paul and Barnabas told about all the miraculous signs and wonders that God had done through them among the non-Jewish people. ¹³ When they finished speaking, James said, "My brothers, listen to me. ¹⁴ Simon Peter has told us how God showed his love for the non-Jewish people. For the first time, God accepted them and made them his people. ¹⁵ The words of the prophets agree with this too:

¹⁶ 'I will return after this.

I will build David's house again.

It has fallen down.

I will build again the parts of his house that have been pulled down.

I will make his house new.

¹⁷ Then the rest of the world will look for the Lord God—all those of other nations who are my people too.

The Lord said this.

And he is the one who does all these things.'

Amos 9:11-12

* 15:10 burden The Jewish law. Some of the Jews tried to make the non-Jewish believers follow this law.

¹⁸ ‘All this has been known from the beginning of time.’†

¹⁹ “So I think we should not make things hard for those who have turned to God from among the non-Jewish people. ²⁰ Instead, we should send a letter telling them only the things they should not do:

Don’t eat food that has been given to idols. This makes the food unclean.

Don’t be involved in sexual sin.

Don’t eat meat from animals that have been strangled or any meat that still has the blood in it.

²¹ They should not do any of these things, because there are still men in every city who teach the Law of Moses. The words of Moses have been read in the synagogue every Sabbath day for many years.”

The Letter to the Non-Jewish Believers

²² The apostles, the elders, and the whole church wanted to send some men with Paul and Barnabas to Antioch. The group decided to choose some of their own men. They chose Judas (also called Barsabbas) and Silas, men who were respected by the believers.

²³ The group sent the letter with these men. The letter said:

From the apostles and elders, your brothers,

To all the non-Jewish brothers in the city of Antioch and in the countries of Syria and Cilicia.

Dear Brothers:

²⁴ We have heard that some men have come to you from our group. What they said troubled and upset you. But we did not tell them to do this. ²⁵ We have all agreed to choose some men and send them to you. They will be with our dear friends, Barnabas and Paul. ²⁶ Barnabas and Paul have given their lives to serve our Lord Jesus Christ. ²⁷ So we have sent Judas and Silas with them. They will tell you the same things. ²⁸ We agree with the Holy Spirit that you should have no more burdens, except for these necessary things:

²⁹ Don’t eat food that has been given to idols.

Don’t eat meat from animals that have been strangled or any meat that still has the blood in it.

Don’t be involved in sexual sin.

If you stay away from these, you will do well.

We say goodbye now.

³⁰ So Paul, Barnabas, Judas, and Silas left Jerusalem and went to Antioch. There they gathered the group of believers together and gave them the letter. ³¹ When the believers read it, they were happy. The letter comforted them. ³² Judas and Silas, who were also prophets, said many things to encourage the believers and make them stronger in their faith. ³³ After Judas and Silas stayed there for a while, they left. They received a blessing of peace from the believers. Then they went back to those who had sent them. ³⁴ ‡

³⁵ But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch. They and many others taught the believers and told other people the Good News about the Lord.

† 15:18 See Isaiah 45:21. ‡ 15:34 Some Greek copies add verse 34: “But Silas decided to remain there.”

Paul and Barnabas Separate

³⁶ A few days later, Paul said to Barnabas, “We should go back to all the towns where we told people the message of the Lord. We should visit the believers to see how they are doing.”

³⁷ Barnabas wanted to bring John Mark with them too. ³⁸ But on their first trip John Mark did not continue with them in the work. He had left them at Pamphylia. So Paul did not think it was a good idea to take him this time. ³⁹ Paul and Barnabas had a big argument about this. It was so bad that they separated and went different ways. Barnabas sailed to Cyprus and took Mark with him.

⁴⁰ Paul chose Silas to go with him. The believers in Antioch put Paul into the Lord’s care and sent him out. ⁴¹ Paul and Silas went through the countries of Syria and Cilicia, helping the churches grow stronger.

Timothy Goes With Paul and Silas

¹ Paul went to the city of Derbe and then to Lystra, where a follower of Jesus named Timothy lived. Timothy’s mother was a Jewish believer, but his father was a Greek. ² The believers in the cities of Lystra and Iconium had only good things to say about him. ³ Paul wanted Timothy to travel with him, but all the Jews living in that area knew that his father was a Greek. So Paul circumcised Timothy to please the Jews.

⁴ Then Paul and those with him traveled through other cities. They gave the believers the rules and decisions from the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. They told them to obey these rules. ⁵ So the churches were becoming stronger in their faith, and the number of believers was growing every day.

Paul Is Called to Macedonia

⁶ Paul and those with him went through the areas of Phrygia and Galatia because the Holy Spirit did not allow them to tell the Good News in the province of Asia. ⁷ When they reached the border of Mysia, they tried to go on into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not let them go there. ⁸ So they passed by Mysia and went to the city of Troas.

⁹ That night Paul saw a vision. In it, a man from Macedonia came to Paul. The man stood there and begged, “Come across to Macedonia and help us.” ¹⁰ After Paul had seen the vision, we* immediately prepared to leave for Macedonia. We understood that God had called us to tell the Good News to those people.

The Conversion of Lydia

¹¹ We left Troas in a ship and sailed to the island of Samothrace. The next day we sailed to the city of Neapolis. ¹² Then we went to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city in that part of Macedonia. We stayed there for a few days.

¹³ On the Sabbath day we went out the city gate to the river. There we thought we might find a special place for prayer. Some women had gathered there, so we sat down and talked with them. ¹⁴ There was a woman there named Lydia from the city of Thyatira. Her job was selling purple cloth. She was a worshiper of the true God. Lydia was listening to Paul, and the Lord opened her heart to accept what Paul was saying. ¹⁵ She and all the people living in her house were baptized. Then she invited us into her home. She said, “If you think I am a true believer in the Lord Jesus, come stay in my house.” She persuaded us to stay with her.

Paul and Silas in Jail

* 16:10 we Luke, the writer, apparently went with Paul to Macedonia but did not leave Philippi with him. (See verse 40.) The first person pronoun occurs again in 20:5-21:18 and 27:1-28.

¹⁶ One day we were going to the place for prayer, and a servant girl met us. She had a spirit[†] in her that gave her the power to tell what would happen in the future. By doing this she earned a lot of money for the men who owned her. ¹⁷ She started following Paul and the rest of us around. She kept shouting, “These men are servants of the Most High God! They are telling you how you can be saved!” ¹⁸ She continued doing this for many days. This bothered Paul, so he turned and said to the spirit, “By the power of Jesus Christ, I command you to come out of her!” Immediately, the spirit came out.

¹⁹ When the men who owned the servant girl saw this, they realized that they could no longer use her to make money. So they grabbed Paul and Silas and dragged them to the public square to meet with the authorities. ²⁰ They brought Paul and Silas before the Roman officials and said, “These men are Jews, and they are making trouble in our city. ²¹ They are telling people to do things that are not right for us as Romans to do.”

²² The whole crowd turned against Paul and Silas. The officials tore the clothes off both men and ordered that they be beaten with rods. ²³ They were beaten severely and thrown into jail. The officials told the jailer, “Guard them very carefully!” ²⁴ When the jailer heard this special order, he put Paul and Silas far inside the jail and bound their feet between large blocks of wood.

²⁵ About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing songs to God. The other prisoners were listening to them. ²⁶ Suddenly there was an earthquake so strong that it shook the foundation of the jail. All the doors of the jail opened, and the chains on all the prisoners fell off. ²⁷ The jailer woke up and saw that the jail doors were open. He thought that the prisoners had already escaped, so he got his sword and was ready to kill himself.[‡] ²⁸ But Paul shouted, “Don’t hurt yourself! We are all here!”

²⁹ The jailer told someone to bring a light. Then he ran inside and, shaking with fear, fell down in front of Paul and Silas. ³⁰ Then he brought them outside and said, “Men, what must I do to be saved?”

³¹ They said to him, “Believe in the Lord Jesus and you will be saved—you and all who live in your house.” ³² So Paul and Silas told the message of the Lord to the jailer and all the people who lived in his house. ³³ It was late at night, but the jailer took Paul and Silas and washed their wounds. Then the jailer and all his people were baptized. ³⁴ After this the jailer took Paul and Silas home and gave them some food. All the people were very happy because they now believed in God.

³⁵ The next morning the Roman officials sent some soldiers to tell the jailer, “Let these men go free.”

³⁶ The jailer said to Paul, “The officials have sent these soldiers to let you go free. You can leave now. Go in peace.”

³⁷ But Paul said to the soldiers, “Those officials did not prove that we did anything wrong, but they beat us in public and put us in jail. And we are Roman citizens.[§] Now they want us to go away quietly. No, they must come here themselves and lead us out!”

³⁸ The soldiers told the officials what Paul said. When they heard that Paul and Silas were Roman citizens, they were afraid. ³⁹ So they came and told them they were sorry. They led them out of the jail and asked them to leave the city. ⁴⁰ But when Paul and Silas came out of the jail, they went to Lydia’s house. They saw some of the believers there and encouraged them. Then they left.

Paul and Silas in Thessalonica

¹ Paul and Silas traveled through the cities of Amphipolis and Apollonia. They came to the city of Thessalonica, where there was a Jewish synagogue. ² Paul went into the synagogue to see the Jews as he always did. The next three weeks, on each Sabbath day, he discussed the Scriptures with them. ³ He explained the Scriptures to show them that the Messiah had to die and then rise from death. He said, “This Jesus that I am telling you about is the Messiah.” ⁴ Some of the Jews there believed Paul and Silas and decided to join them. Also, a large number of Greeks who were worshipers of the true God and many important women joined them.

⁵ But the Jews who did not believe became jealous, so they got some bad men from around the city center to make trouble. They formed a mob and caused a riot in the city. They went to Jason’s house, looking for Paul and Silas. They wanted to bring them out before the people. ⁶ When they did not find them, they dragged Jason and some of the other believers to the city leaders. The people shouted, “These men have made trouble everywhere in the world, and now they have come here too! ⁷ Jason is keeping them in his house. They all do things against the laws of Caesar. They say there is another king called Jesus.”

⁸ When the city leaders and the other people heard this, they became very upset. ⁹ They made Jason and the other believers deposit money to guarantee that there would be no more trouble. Then they let them go.

Paul and Silas Go to Berea

¹⁰ That same night the believers sent Paul and Silas to another city named Berea. When they arrived there, they went to the Jewish synagogue. ¹¹ The people in Berea were more open-minded than those in Thessalonica. They were so glad to hear the message Paul told them. They studied the Scriptures every day to make sure that what they heard was really true. ¹² The result was that many of them believed, including many important Greek women and men.

¹³ But when the Jews in Thessalonica learned that Paul was telling people God’s message in Berea, they came there too. They upset the people and made trouble. ¹⁴ So the believers immediately sent Paul away to the coast, but Silas and Timothy stayed in Berea. ¹⁵ Those who went with Paul took him to the city of Athens. They returned with a message for Silas and Timothy to come and join him as soon as they could.

Paul in Athens

¹⁶ While Paul was waiting for Silas and Timothy in Athens, he was upset because he saw that the city was full of idols. ¹⁷ In the synagogue he talked with the Jews and with the Greeks who were worshipers of the true God. He also went to the public square every day and talked with everyone who came by. ¹⁸ Some of the Epicurean and some of the Stoic philosophers argued with him.

Some of them said, “This man doesn’t really know what he is talking about. What is he trying to say?” Paul was telling them the Good News about Jesus and the resurrection. So they said, “He seems to be telling us about some other gods.”

¹⁹ They took Paul to a meeting of the Areopagus council. They said, “Please explain to us this new idea that you have been teaching. ²⁰ The things you are saying are new to us. We have never heard this teaching before, and we want to know what it means.” ²¹ (The people of Athens and the foreigners who lived there spent all their time either telling or listening to all the latest ideas.)

²² Then Paul stood up before the meeting of the Areopagus council and said, “Men of Athens, everything I see here tells me you are very religious. ²³ I was going through your city and I saw the things you worship. I found an altar that had these words written on it: ‘TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.’ You worship a god that you don’t know. This is the God I want to tell you about.

²⁴ “He is the God who made the whole world and everything in it. He is the Lord of the land and the sky. He does not live in temples built by human hands. ²⁵ He is the one who gives people life, breath, and everything else they need. He does not need any help from them. He has everything he needs. ²⁶ God began by making one man, and from him he made all the different people who live everywhere in the world. He decided exactly when and where they would live.

²⁷ “God wanted people to look for him, and perhaps in searching all around for him, they would find him. But he is not far from any of us. ²⁸ It is through him that we are able to live, to do what we do, and to be who we are. As your own poets have said, ‘We all come from him.’

²⁹ “That’s right. We all come from God. So you must not think that he is like something people imagine or make. He is not made of gold, silver, or stone. ³⁰ In the past people did not understand God, and he overlooked this. But now he is telling everyone in the world to change and turn to him. ³¹ He has decided on a day when he will judge all the people in the world in a way that is fair. To do this he will use a man he chose long ago. And he has proved to everyone that this is the man to do it. He proved it by raising him from death!”

³² When the people heard about Jesus being raised from death, some of them laughed. But others said, “We will hear more about this from you later.” ³³ So Paul left the council meeting. ³⁴ But some of the people joined with Paul and became believers. Among these were Dionysius, a member of the Areopagus council, a woman named Damaris, and some others.

Paul in Corinth

⁴ Every Sabbath day Paul went to the synagogue and talked with both Jews and Greeks, trying to persuade them to believe in Jesus. ⁵ But after Silas and Timothy came from Macedonia, Paul spent all his time telling God’s message to the Jews, trying to convince them that Jesus is the Messiah. ⁶ But they disagreed with what Paul was teaching and started insulting him. So Paul shook the dust from his clothes.* He said to them, “If you are not saved, it will be your own fault! I have done all I can do. After this I will go only to the non-Jewish people.”

⁷ Paul left the synagogue and moved into the home of Titius Justus, a man who was a worshiper of the true God. His house was next to the synagogue. ⁸ Crispus was the leader of that synagogue. He and all the people living in his house believed in the Lord Jesus. Many other people in Corinth also listened to Paul. They, too, believed and were baptized.

⁹ During the night, Paul had a vision. The Lord said to him, “Don’t be afraid, and don’t stop talking to people. ¹⁰ I am with you, and no one will be able to hurt you. Many of my people are in this city.” ¹¹ Paul stayed there for a year and a half teaching God’s message to the people.

Paul Is Brought Before Gallio

¹² During the time that Gallio was the governor of Achaia, some of the Jews came together against Paul. They took him to court. ¹³ They said to Gallio, “This man is teaching people to worship God in a way that is against our law!”

¹⁴ Paul was ready to say something, but Gallio spoke to the Jews. He said, “I would listen to you if your complaint was about a crime or other wrong. ¹⁵ But it is only about words and names—arguments about your own law. So you must solve this problem yourselves. I don't want to be a judge of these matters." ¹⁶ So Gallio made them leave the court.

* 18:6 shook the dust from his clothes A warning. It showed Paul was finished talking to these Jews.

¹⁷ Then they all grabbed Sosthenes, the leader of the synagogue. They beat him before the court. But this did not bother Gallio.

Paul Returns to Antioch

¹⁸ Paul stayed with the believers for many days. Then he left and sailed for Syria. Priscilla and Aquila were also with him. At Cenchrea Paul cut off his hair,[†] because he had made a promise to God. ¹⁹ Then they went to the city of Ephesus, where Paul left Priscilla and Aquila. While Paul was in Ephesus, he went into the synagogue and talked with the Jews. ²⁰ They asked him to stay longer, but he refused. ²¹ He left them and said, "I will come back to you again if God wants me to." And so he sailed away from Ephesus.

²² When Paul arrived at Caesarea, he went to Jerusalem and visited the church there. After that he went to Antioch. ²³ Paul stayed in Antioch for a while. Then he left there and went through the countries of Galatia and Phrygia. He traveled from town to town in these countries, helping all the followers of Jesus grow stronger in their faith.

Apollos in Ephesus and Corinth

²⁴ A Jew named Apollos came to Ephesus. Born in the city of Alexandria, he was an educated man who knew the Scriptures well. ²⁵ He had been taught about the Lord and was always excited[‡] to talk to people about Jesus. What he taught was right, but the only baptism he knew about was the baptism that John taught. ²⁶ Apollos began to speak very boldly in the synagogue. When Priscilla and Aquila heard him speak, they took him to their home and helped him understand the way of God better.

²⁷ Apollos wanted to go to Achaia. So the believers in Ephesus helped him. They wrote a letter to the Lord's followers in Achaia and asked them to accept Apollos. When he arrived there, he was a great help to those who had believed in Jesus because of God's grace. ²⁸ He argued very strongly against the Jews before all the people. He clearly proved that the Jews were wrong. He used the Scriptures and showed that Jesus is the Messiah.

Paul in Ephesus

¹ While Apollos was in the city of Corinth, Paul was visiting some places on his way to Ephesus. In Ephesus he found some other followers of the Lord. ² He asked them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?"

These followers said to him, "We have never even heard of a Holy Spirit!"

³ Paul asked them, "So what kind of baptism did you have?"

They said, "It was the baptism that John taught."

⁴ Paul said, "John told people to be baptized to show they wanted to change their lives. He told people to believe in the one who would come after him, and that one is Jesus."

⁵ When these followers heard this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. ⁶ Then Paul laid his hands on them, and the Holy Spirit came on them. They began speaking different languages and prophesying. ⁷ There were about twelve men in this group.

⁸ Paul went into the synagogue and spoke very boldly. He continued doing this for three months. He talked with the Jews, trying to persuade them to accept what he was telling them about God's kingdom. ⁹ But some of them became stubborn and refused to believe. In front of everyone, they said bad things about the Way. So Paul left these Jews and took the Lord's followers with him. He went to a place where a man named Tyrannus had a school. There Paul talked with people every day. ¹⁰ He did this for two years. Because of this work, everyone in Asia, Jews and Greeks, heard the word of the Lord.

[†] 18:18 cut off his hair This may show that Paul was ending a Nazirite vow, a time of special dedication and service promised to God. See "Nazirite" in the Word List. [‡] 18:25 excited Or "on fire with the Spirit."

The Sons of Sceva

¹¹ God used Paul to do some very special miracles. ¹² Some people carried away handkerchiefs and clothes that Paul had used and put them on those who were sick. The sick people were healed, and evil spirits left them.

¹³⁻¹⁴ Some Jews also were traveling around forcing evil spirits out of people. The seven sons of Sceva, one of the leading priests, were doing this. These Jews tried to use the name of the Lord Jesus to make the evil spirits go out of people. They all said, "By the same Jesus that Paul talks about, I order you to come out!"

¹⁵ But one time an evil spirit said to these Jews, "I know Jesus, and I know about Paul, but who are you?"

¹⁶ Then the man who had the evil spirit inside him jumped on these Jews. He was much stronger than all of them. He beat them up and tore their clothes off. They all ran away from that house.

¹⁷ All the people in Ephesus, Jews and Greeks, learned about this. They were all filled with fear and gave great honor to the Lord Jesus. ¹⁸ Many of the believers began to confess, telling about all the evil things they had done. ¹⁹ Some of them had used magic. These believers brought their magic books and burned them before everyone. These books were worth about 50,000 silver coins.* ²⁰ This is how the word of the Lord was spreading in a powerful way, causing more and more people to believe.

Paul Plans a Trip

²¹ After this, Paul made plans to go to Jerusalem. He planned to go through the regions of Macedonia and Achaia, and then go to Jerusalem. He thought, "After I visit Jerusalem, I must also visit Rome." ²² Timothy and Erastus were two of his helpers. Paul sent them ahead to Macedonia. But he stayed in Asia for a while.

Trouble in Ephesus

²³ But during that time there was some trouble in Ephesus about the Way. This is how it all happened: ²⁴ There was a man named Demetrius. He worked with silver. He made little silver models that looked like the temple of the goddess Artemis. The men who did this work made a lot of money.

²⁵ Demetrius had a meeting with these men and some others who did the same kind of work. He told them, "Men, you know that we make a lot of money from our business. ²⁶ But look at what this man Paul is doing. Listen to what he is saying. He has convinced many people in Ephesus and all over Asia to change their religion. He says the gods that people make by hand are not real. ²⁷ I'm afraid this is going to turn people against our business. But there is also another problem. People will begin to think that the temple of the great goddess Artemis is not important. Her greatness will be destroyed. And Artemis is the goddess that everyone in Asia and the whole world worships."

²⁸ When the men heard this, they became very angry. They shouted, "Great is Artemis, the goddess of Ephesus!" ²⁹ The whole city was thrown into confusion. The people grabbed Gaius and Aristarchus, men from Macedonia who were traveling with Paul, and rushed all together into the stadium. ³⁰ Paul wanted to go in and talk to the people, but the Lord's followers did not let him go. ³¹ Also, some leaders of the country who were friends of Paul sent him a message telling him not to go into the stadium.

³² Some people were shouting one thing and others were shouting something else. The meeting was very confused. Most of the people did not know why they had come there. ³³ Some Jews made a man named Alexander stand before the crowd, and they told him what to say. Alexander waved his hand, trying to explain things to the people. ³⁴ But when the people saw that Alexander was a Jew, they all began shouting the same thing. For two hours they continued shouting, “Great is Artemis of Ephesus! Great is Artemis of Ephesus! Great is Artemis ...!”

* 19:19 silver coins Probably Greek drachmas. One coin was worth the average pay for one day's work.

³⁵ Then the city clerk persuaded the people to be quiet. He said, “Men of Ephesus, everyone knows that Ephesus is the city that keeps the temple of the great goddess Artemis. Everyone knows that we also keep her holy rock.† ³⁶ No one can deny this, so you should be quiet. You must stop and think before you do anything else.

³⁷ “You brought these men‡ here, but they have not said anything bad against our goddess. They have not stolen anything from her temple. ³⁸ We have courts of law and there are judges. Do Demetrius and those men who work with him have a charge against anyone? They should go to the courts. Let them argue with each other there.

³⁹ “Is there something else you want to talk about? Then come to the regular town meeting of the people. It can be decided there. ⁴⁰ I say this because someone might see this trouble today and say we are rioting. We could not explain all this trouble, because there is no real reason for this meeting.” ⁴¹ After the city clerk said this, he told the people to go home.

Paul Goes to Macedonia and Greece

¹ When the trouble stopped, Paul invited the Lord’s followers to come visit him. After encouraging them, he told them goodbye and left for Macedonia. ² On his way through Macedonia he had many words of encouragement for the followers in various places. Then he went to Greece ³ and stayed there three months.

Paul was ready to sail for Syria, but some Jews were planning something against him. So he decided to go back through Macedonia to Syria. ⁴ These men were traveling with him: Sopater, the son of Pyrrhus, from the city of Berea; Aristarchus and Secundus, from the city of Thessalonica; Gaius, from the city of Derbe; Timothy; and two men from Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. ⁵ These men went first, ahead of Paul. They waited for us in the city of Troas. ⁶ We sailed from the city of Philippi after the Festival of Unleavened Bread. We met these men in Troas five days later and stayed there seven days.

Paul’s Last Visit to Troas

⁷ On Sunday* we all met together to eat the Lord’s Supper.† Paul talked to the group. Because he was planning to leave the next day, he continued talking until midnight. ⁸ We were all together in a room upstairs, and there were many lights in the room. ⁹ There was a young man named Eutychus sitting in the window. Paul continued talking, and Eutychus became very, very sleepy. Finally, he went to sleep and fell out of the window. He fell to the ground from the third floor. When the people went down and lifted him up, he was dead.

¹⁰ Paul went down to where Eutychus was, knelt down beside him, and put his arms around him. He said to the other believers, “Don’t worry. He is alive now.” ¹¹ Then Paul went upstairs again, broke off some pieces of bread and ate. He spoke to them a long time. It was early morning when he finished, and then he left. ¹² The Lord’s followers took Eutychus home alive, and they were all greatly comforted.

The Trip From Troas to Miletus

¹³ We went on ahead of Paul and sailed for the city of Assos, planning to meet him there. This is what he told us to do because he wanted to go by land. ¹⁴ When he caught up with us at Assos, we took him on board, and we all sailed to Mitylene. ¹⁵ The next day, we sailed away from there and came to a place near the island of Chios. Then the next day, we sailed to the island of Samos. A day later, we came to the city of Miletus. ¹⁶ Paul had already decided not to stop at Ephesus. He did not want to stay too long in Asia. He was hurrying because he wanted to be in Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost if possible.

Paul Speaks to the Elders From Ephesus

¹⁷ In Miletus Paul sent a message back to Ephesus, telling the elders of the church in Ephesus to come to him.

²² “But now I must obey the Spirit and go to Jerusalem. I don’t know what will happen to me there. ²³ I know only that in every city the Holy Spirit tells me that troubles and even jail wait for me. ²⁴ I don’t care about my own life. The most important thing is that I finish my work. I want to finish the work that the Lord Jesus gave me to do—to tell people the Good News about God’s grace.

²⁵ “And now listen to me. I know that none of you will ever see me again. All the time I was with you, I told you the Good News about God’s kingdom. ²⁶ So today I can tell you one thing that I am sure of: God will not blame me if some of you are not saved. ²⁷ I can say this because I know that I told you everything that God wants you to know. ²⁸ Be careful for yourselves and for all the people God has given you. The Holy Spirit gave you the work of caring for[‡] this flock.[§] You must be shepherds to the church of God,^{*} the people he bought with his own blood.[†] ²⁹ I know that after I leave, some men will come into your group. They will be like wild wolves and will try to destroy the flock. ³⁰ Also, men from your own group will begin to teach things that are wrong. They will lead some of the Lord’s followers away from the truth to follow them. ³¹ So be careful! And always remember what I did during the three years I was with you. I never stopped reminding each one of you how you should live, counseling you day and night and crying over you.

³² “Now I am putting you in God’s care. I am depending on the message about his grace to make you strong. That message is able to give you the blessings that God gives to all his holy people. ³³ When I was with you, I never wanted anyone’s money or fine clothes. ³⁴ You know that I always worked to take care of my own needs and the needs of the people who were with me. ³⁵ I always showed you that you should work just as I did and help people who are weak. I taught you to remember the words of the Lord Jesus: ‘You will have a greater blessing when you give than when you receive.’ ”

³⁶ When Paul finished speaking, he knelt down, and they all prayed together. ³⁷⁻³⁸ They cried and cried. They were especially sad because Paul had said they would never see him again. They hugged him and kissed him. Then they went with him to the ship to say goodbye.

Paul Goes to Jerusalem

[‡] 20:28 gave ... caring for Literally, “made you overseers of.” [§] 20:28 flock A flock is many sheep. Here, it means a group of God’s people who follow their leaders (elders) like sheep following a shepherd. ^{*} 20:28 of God Some Greek copies say, “of the Lord.” [†] 20:28 his own blood Or “the blood of his own Son.”

¹ After we said goodbye to the elders, we sailed away straight to Cos island. The next day we went to the island of Rhodes, and from there we went to Patara. ² There we found a ship that was going to the area of Phoenicia. We got on the ship and sailed away.

³ We sailed near the island of Cyprus. We could see it on the north side, but we did not stop. We sailed to the country of Syria. We stopped at Tyre because the ship needed to unload its cargo there. ⁴ We found the Lord's followers there and stayed with them for seven days. They warned Paul not to go to Jerusalem because of what the Spirit had told them. ⁵ But when our time there was up, we returned to the ship to continue our trip. All the followers, even the women and children, came with us to the seashore. We all knelt down on the beach, prayed, ⁶ and said goodbye. Then we got on the ship, and the followers went home.

⁷ We continued our trip from Tyre and went to the city of Ptolemais. We greeted the believers there and stayed with them one day. ⁸ The next day we left Ptolemais and went to the city of Caesarea. We went into the home of Philip and stayed with him. He had the work of telling the Good News. He was one of the seven helpers.* ⁹ He had four unmarried daughters who had the gift of prophesying.

¹⁰ After we had been there for several days, a prophet named Agabus came from Judea. ¹¹ He came to us and borrowed Paul's belt. He used it to tie his own hands and feet. He said, "The Holy Spirit tells me, 'This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man who wears this belt.† Then they will hand him over to people who don't know God.'"

¹² When we heard this, we and the other followers there begged Paul not to go to Jerusalem. ¹³ But he said, "Why are you crying and making me feel so sad? I am willing to be put in jail in Jerusalem. I am even ready to die for the name of the Lord Jesus!"

¹⁴ We could not persuade him to stay away from Jerusalem. So we stopped begging him and said, "We pray that what the Lord wants will be done."

¹⁵ After this, we got ready and left for Jerusalem. ¹⁶ Some of the followers of Jesus from Caesarea went with us. These followers took us to the home of Mnason, a man from Cyprus, who was one of the first people to be a follower of Jesus. They took us to his home so that we could stay with him.

Paul Visits James

¹⁷ The brothers and sisters in Jerusalem were very happy to see us. ¹⁸ The next day Paul went with us to visit James, and all the elders were there. ¹⁹ After greeting them, Paul told them point by point all that God had used him to do among the non-Jewish people.

²⁰ When the leaders heard this, they praised God. Then they said to Paul, "Brother, you can see that thousands of Jews have become believers, but they think it is very important to obey the Law of Moses. ²¹ They have been told that you teach the Jews who live in non-Jewish regions to stop following the Law of Moses. They have heard that you tell them not to circumcise their sons or follow our other customs.

²² "What should we do? The Jewish believers here will learn that you have come. ²³ So we will tell you what to do: Four of our men have made a vow‡ to God. ²⁴ Take these men with you and share in their cleansing ceremony.§ Pay their expenses so that they can shave their heads.* This will prove to everyone that the things they have heard about you are not true. They will see that you obey the Law of Moses in your own life.

²⁵ "In regard to the non-Jewish believers, we have already sent a letter to them saying what we think they should do:

* 21:8 seven helpers Men chosen for a special work. Paul Is Arrested

²⁶ So Paul took the four men with him. The next day he shared in their cleansing ceremony. Then he went to the Temple area and announced the time when the days of the cleansing ceremony would be finished. On the last day an offering would be given for each of the men.

²⁷ When the seven-day period was almost finished, some Jews from Asia saw Paul in the Temple area. They stirred up everyone into an angry mob. They grabbed Paul ²⁸ and shouted, “Men of Israel, help us! This is the man who is teaching things that are against the Law of Moses, against our people, and against this Temple of ours. This is what he teaches people everywhere. And now he has brought some Greeks into the Temple area and has made this holy place unclean!” ²⁹ (The Jews said this because they had seen Trophimus with Paul in Jerusalem. Trophimus was a man from Ephesus. The Jews thought that Paul had taken him into the holy area of the Temple.)

³⁰ An angry reaction spread throughout the city, and everyone came running to the Temple. They grabbed Paul and dragged him out of the holy area, and the gates were closed immediately. ³¹ While they were trying to kill Paul, the commander of the Roman army in Jerusalem got word that the whole city was in a state of riot. ³² Immediately the commander ran to where the crowd had gathered, taking with him some army officers and soldiers. When the people saw the commander and his soldiers, they stopped beating Paul.

³³ The commander went over to Paul and arrested him. He told his soldiers to tie him up with two chains. Then he asked, “Who is this man? What has he done wrong?”

³⁴ Some people there were shouting one thing, and others were shouting something else. Because of all this confusion and shouting, the commander could not learn the truth about what had happened. So he told the soldiers to take Paul to the army building. ³⁵⁻³⁶ The whole crowd was following them. When the soldiers came to the steps, they had to carry Paul. They did this to protect him, because the people were ready to hurt him. The people were shouting, “Kill him!”

³⁷ When the soldiers were ready to take Paul into the army building, he asked the commander, “Can I say something to you?”

The commander said, “Oh, you speak Greek? ³⁸ Then you are not the man I thought you were. I thought you were the Egyptian who started some trouble against the government not long ago and led four thousand terrorists out to the desert.”

³⁹ Paul said, “No, I am a Jew from Tarsus in the country of Cilicia. I am a citizen of that important city. Please, let me speak to the people.”

⁴⁰ The commander told Paul he could speak. So he stood on the steps and waved his hand so that the people would be quiet. The people became quiet and Paul spoke to them in Aramaic.

22

Paul Speaks to the People

¹ Paul said, “My brothers and fathers, listen to me! I will make my defense to you.”

² When the Jews heard Paul speaking Aramaic, they became very quiet. Then Paul said,

³ “I am a Jew, born in Tarsus in the country of Cilicia. I grew up in this city. I was a student of Gamaliel,* who carefully taught me everything about the law of our fathers. I was very serious about serving God, the same as all of you here today. ⁴ I persecuted the people who followed the Way. Some of them were killed because of me. I arrested men and women and put them in jail.

* 22:3 Gamaliel A very important teacher of the Pharisees, a Jewish religious group. See Acts 5:34.

⁵ “The high priest and the whole council of older Jewish leaders can tell you that this is true. One time these leaders gave me some letters. The letters were to the Jewish brothers in the city of Damascus. I was going there to arrest the followers of Jesus and bring them back to Jerusalem for punishment.

Paul Tells About His Conversion

⁶ “But something happened to me on my way to Damascus. It was about noon when I came close to Damascus. Suddenly a bright light from heaven shined all around me. ⁷ I fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to me, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me?’

⁸ “I asked, ‘Who are you, Lord?’ The voice said, ‘I am Jesus from Nazareth, the one you are persecuting.’ ⁹ The men who were with me did not understand the voice, but they saw the light.

¹⁰ “I said, ‘What shall I do, Lord?’ The Lord answered, ‘Get up and go into Damascus. There you will be told all that I have planned for you to do.’ ¹¹ I could not see, because the bright light had made me blind. So the men led me into Damascus.

¹² “In Damascus a man named Ananias[†] came to me. He was a man who was devoted to God and obeyed the Law of Moses. All the Jews who lived there respected him. ¹³ He came to me and said, ‘Saul, my brother, look up and see again!’ Immediately I was able to see him.

¹⁴ “Ananias told me, ‘The God of our fathers chose you long ago to know his plan. He chose you to see the Righteous One and to hear words from him. ¹⁵ You will be his witness to all people. You will tell them what you have seen and heard. ¹⁶ Now, don’t wait any longer. Get up, be baptized and wash away your sins, trusting in Jesus to save you.’[‡]

¹⁷ “Later, I came back to Jerusalem. I was praying in the Temple area, and I saw a vision. ¹⁸ I saw Jesus, and he said to me, ‘Hurry and leave Jerusalem now! The people here will not accept the truth you tell them about me.’

¹⁹ “I said, ‘But, Lord, the people know that I was the one who put the believers in jail and beat them. I went through all the synagogues to find and arrest the people who believe in you. ²⁰ The people also know that I was there when Stephen, your witness, was killed. I stood there and agreed that they should kill him. I even held the coats of the men who were killing him!’

²¹ “But Jesus said to me, ‘Leave now. I will send you far away to the non-Jewish people.’”

²² The people stopped listening when Paul said this last thing. They all shouted, “Get rid of this man! He doesn’t deserve to live.” ²³ They kept on shouting, ripping off their clothes and throwing dust into the air.[§] ²⁴ Then the commander told the soldiers to take Paul into the army building and beat him. He wanted to make Paul tell why the people were shouting against him like this. ²⁵ So the soldiers were tying Paul, preparing to beat him. But he said to an army officer there, “Do you have the right to beat a Roman citizen* who has not been proven guilty?”

²⁶ When the officer heard this, he went to the commander and told him about it. The officer said, “Do you know what you are doing? This man is a Roman citizen!”

²⁷ The commander came to Paul and said, “Tell me, are you really a Roman citizen?”

He answered, “Yes.”

²⁸ The commander said, “I paid a lot of money to become a Roman citizen.”

[†] 22:12 Ananias In Acts there are three men with this name. See Acts 5:1 and 23:2 for the other two. [‡] 22:16 trusting in Jesus to save you Literally, “calling on his name,” meaning to show faith in Jesus by worshiping him or praying to him for help. [§] 22:23 ripping ... air These actions were signs of very strong anger. ^{*} 22:25 Roman citizen Roman law said that Roman citizens must not be beaten before their trial. Also at 23:27.

But Paul said, “I was born a citizen.”

²⁹ The men who were preparing to question Paul moved away from him immediately. The commander was afraid because he had already put Paul in chains, and he was a Roman citizen.

Paul Speaks to the Jewish Leaders

³⁰ The next day the commander decided to learn why the Jews were accusing Paul. So he ordered the leading priests and the whole high council to meet together. He had Paul’s chains taken off and had him brought in to face the council.

23

¹ Paul looked at the council members and said, “Brothers, I have lived my life in a good way before God. I have always done what I thought was right.” ² Ananias,* the high priest, was there. When he heard this, he told the men who were standing near Paul to hit him in the mouth. ³ Paul said to Ananias, “God will hit you too! You are like a dirty wall that has been painted white. You sit there and judge me, using the Law of Moses. But you are telling them to hit me, and that is against the law.”

⁴ The men standing near Paul said to him, “Are you sure you want to insult God’s high priest like that?”

⁵ Paul said, “Brothers, I did not know this man was the high priest. The Scriptures say, ‘You must not say bad things about a leader of your people.’[☆]”

⁶ Paul knew that some of the men in the council meeting were Sadducees and some were Pharisees. So he shouted, “My brothers, I am a Pharisee and my father was a Pharisee! I am on trial here because I believe that people will rise from death.”

⁷ When Paul said this, a big argument started between the Pharisees and the Sadducees. The group was divided. ⁸ (The Sadducees believe that after people die, they will not live again as an angel or as a spirit. But the Pharisees believe in both.) ⁹ All these Jews began shouting louder and louder. Some of the teachers of the law, who were Pharisees, stood up and argued, “We find nothing wrong with this man. Maybe an angel or a spirit really did speak to him.”

¹⁰ The argument turned into a fight, and the commander was afraid that the Jews would tear Paul to pieces. So he told the soldiers to go down and take Paul away from these Jews and put him in the army building.

¹¹ The next night the Lord Jesus came and stood by Paul. He said, “Be brave! You have told people in Jerusalem about me. You must do the same in Rome.”

Some Jews Plan to Kill Paul

¹² The next morning some of the Jews made a plan to kill Paul. They made a promise to themselves that they would not eat or drink anything until they had killed him. ¹³ There were more than 40 of them who made this plan. ¹⁴ They went and talked to the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders. They said, “We have promised ourselves that we will not eat or drink until we have killed Paul. ¹⁵ So this is what we want you to do: Send a message to the commander from you and the high council. Tell him you want him to bring Paul out to you. Say that you want to ask him more questions. We will be waiting to kill him while he is on the way here.”

¹⁶ But Paul’s nephew heard about this plan. He went to the army building and told Paul. ¹⁷ Then Paul called one of the army officers and said to him, “Take this young man to the commander. He has a message for him.” ¹⁸ So the army officer brought Paul’s nephew to the commander. The officer said, “The prisoner Paul asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you.”

¹⁹ The commander led the young man to a place where they could be alone. The commander asked, “What do you want to tell me?”

* 23:2 Ananias Not the same man named Ananias in Acts 22:12. ☆ 23:5 Quote from Exodus 22:28.

²⁰ The young man said, “Some Jews have decided to ask you to bring Paul down to their council meeting tomorrow. They want you to think that they plan to ask Paul more questions. ²¹ But don’t believe them! More than 40 of them are hiding and waiting to kill him. They have all promised not to eat or drink until they have killed him. Now they are waiting for you to say yes.”

²² The commander sent the young man away, telling him, “Don’t tell anyone that you have told me about their plan.”

Paul Is Sent to Caesarea

²³ Then the commander called two army officers. He said to them, “I need some men to go to Caesarea. Get 200 soldiers ready. Also, get 70 soldiers on horses and 200 men to carry spears. Be ready to leave at nine o’clock tonight. ²⁴ Get some horses for Paul to ride so that he can be taken to Governor Felix safely.” ²⁵ The commander wrote a letter that said:

²⁶ From Claudius Lysias,

To the Most Honorable Governor Felix.

Greetings:

²⁷ Some Jews had taken this man and planned to kill him. But I learned that he is a Roman citizen, so I went with my soldiers and saved him. ²⁸ I wanted to know why they were accusing him. So I brought him before their council meeting. ²⁹ This is what I learned: The Jews said this man did some things that were wrong. But these charges were about their own Jewish laws, and there was nothing worthy of jail or death. ³⁰ I was told that some of the Jews were making a plan to kill him. So I decided to send him to you. I also told those Jews to tell you what they have against him.

³¹ The soldiers did what they were told. They got Paul and took him to the city of Antipatris that night. ³² The next day the soldiers on horses went with Paul to Caesarea, but the other soldiers and the spearmen went back to the army building in Jerusalem. ³³ The soldiers on horses entered Caesarea, gave the letter to Governor Felix, and then turned Paul over to him.

³⁴ The governor read the letter and asked Paul, “What country are you from?” The governor learned that Paul was from Cilicia. ³⁵ The governor said, “I will hear your case when the Jews who are accusing you come here too.” Then the governor gave orders for Paul to be kept in the palace built by Herod.

Some Jews Accuse Paul

¹ Five days later Ananias, the high priest, went to the city of Caesarea. He brought with him some of the older Jewish leaders and a lawyer named Tertullus. They went to Caesarea to make charges against Paul before the governor. ²⁻³ Paul was called into the meeting, and Tertullus began to make his accusations.

Tertullus said, “Most Honorable Felix, our people enjoy much peace because of you, and many wrong things in our country are being made right through your wise help. For this we all continue to be very thankful. ⁴ But I don’t want to take any more of your time. So I will say only a few words. Please be patient. ⁵ This man is a troublemaker. He causes trouble with the Jews everywhere in the world. He is a leader of the Nazarene group. ⁶⁻⁸ Also, he was trying to make the Temple unclean, but we stopped him.* You can decide if all this is true. Ask him some questions yourself.”⁹ The other Jews agreed and said it was all true.

* ^{24:6-8} Some Greek copies add 6b-8a: “And we wanted to judge him by our own law. ⁷ But the officer Lysias came and used great force to take him from us. ⁸ And Lysias ordered those who wanted to accuse him to come to you.”

Paul Defends Himself Before Felix

¹⁰ The governor made a sign for Paul to speak. So Paul answered, “Governor Felix, I know that you have been a judge over this nation for a long time. So I am happy to defend myself before you. ¹¹ I went to worship in Jerusalem only twelve days ago. You can learn for yourself that this is true. ¹² These Jews who are accusing me did not find me arguing with anyone at the Temple or making trouble with the people. And I was not making trouble or arguing in the synagogues or any other place in the city. ¹³ These men cannot prove the things they are saying against me now.

¹⁴ “But I will tell you this: I worship the God of our fathers as a follower of the Way, which these Jews say is not the right way, and I believe everything that is taught in the Law of Moses and all that is written in the books of the prophets. ¹⁵ I have the same hope in God that these Jews have—the hope that all people, good and bad, will be raised from death. ¹⁶ This is why I always try to do what I believe is right before God and before everyone.

¹⁷⁻¹⁸ “I was away from Jerusalem for many years. I went back there to take money to help my people. I also had some gifts to offer at the Temple. I was doing this when some Jews saw me there. I had finished the cleansing ceremony.[†] I had not made any trouble, and no one was gathering around me. ¹⁹ But some Jews from Asia were there. They should be here, standing before you. If I have really done anything wrong, they are the ones who should accuse me. They were there! ²⁰ Ask these men here if they found any wrong in me when I stood before the high council meeting in Jerusalem. ²¹ I did say one thing when I stood before them and shouted, ‘You are judging me today because I believe that people will rise from death!’ ”

²² Felix already understood a lot about the Way. He stopped the trial and said, “When commander Lysias comes here, I will decide what to do with you.” ²³ Felix told the army officer to keep Paul guarded but to give him some freedom and to let his friends bring whatever he needed.

Paul Speaks to Felix and His Wife

²⁴ After a few days Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jew. Felix asked for Paul to be brought to him. He listened to Paul talk about believing in Christ Jesus. ²⁵ But Felix became afraid when Paul spoke about things like doing right, self-control, and the judgment that will come in the future. He said, “Go away now. When I have more time, I will call for you.” ²⁶ But Felix had another reason for talking with Paul. He hoped Paul would pay him a bribe, so he sent for Paul often and talked with him.

²⁷ But after two years, Porcius Festus became governor. So Felix was no longer governor. But he left Paul in prison to please the Jews.

Paul Asks to See Caesar

¹ Festus became governor, and three days later he went from Caesarea to Jerusalem. ² The leading priests and the important Jewish leaders made charges against Paul before Festus. ³ They asked Festus to do them a favor. They wanted him to send Paul back to Jerusalem because they had a plan to kill Paul on the way. ⁴ But Festus answered, “No, Paul will be kept in Caesarea. I will be going there soon myself, ⁵ and your leaders can go with me. If this man has really done anything wrong, they can accuse him there.”

⁶ Festus stayed in Jerusalem another eight or ten days and then went back to Caesarea. The next day Festus told the soldiers to bring Paul before him. Festus was seated on the judgment seat. ⁷ Paul came into the room, and the Jews who had come from Jerusalem stood around him. They made many serious charges against him, but they could not prove anything. ⁸ Paul defended himself, saying, “I have done nothing wrong against the Jewish law, against the Temple, or against Caesar.”

⁹ But Festus wanted to please the Jews. So he asked Paul, “Do you want to go to Jerusalem for me to judge you there on these charges?”

¹⁰ Paul said, “I am standing at Caesar’s judgment seat now. This is where I should be judged. I have done nothing wrong to the Jews, and you know it. ¹¹ If I have done something wrong and the law says I must die, then I agree that I should die. I don’t ask to be saved from death. But if these charges are not true, then no one can hand me over to these people. No, I want Caesar to hear my case!”

¹² Festus talked about this with his advisors. Then he said, “You have asked to see Caesar, so you will go to Caesar!”

Festus Asks King Agrippa About Paul

¹³ A few days later King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea to visit Festus. ¹⁴ They stayed there many days, and Festus told the king about Paul’s case. Festus said, “There is a man that Felix left in prison. ¹⁵ When I went to Jerusalem, the leading priests and the older Jewish leaders there made charges against him. They wanted me to order his death. ¹⁶ But I told them, ‘When a man is accused of doing something wrong, Romans don’t hand him over for others to judge. First, he must face the people accusing him. And then he must be allowed to defend himself against their charges.’

¹⁷ “So when these Jews came here for the trial, I did not waste time. The next day I sat on the judgment seat and ordered Paul to be brought in. ¹⁸ The Jews stood up and accused him. But they did not accuse him of the kind of crimes I thought they would. ¹⁹ Their charges were all about their own religion and about a man named Jesus. Jesus died, but Paul said that he is still alive. ²⁰ I did not have any idea about how to judge these matters. So I asked Paul, ‘Do you want to go to Jerusalem and be judged there?’ ²¹ But Paul asked to be kept in Caesarea. He wants a decision from the emperor. So I ordered that he be held until I could send him to Caesar in Rome.”

²² Agrippa said to Festus, “I would like to hear this man too.”

Festus said, “Tomorrow you can hear him.”

²³ The next day Agrippa and Bernice came to the meeting with great show, acting like very important people. They entered the room with military leaders and important men of the city. Festus ordered the soldiers to bring Paul in.

²⁴ Festus said, “King Agrippa and all of you gathered here with us, you see this man. All the Jewish people, here and in Jerusalem, have complained to me about him. When they complain about him, they shout that he should be killed. ²⁵ When I judged him, I did not find him guilty of any crime worthy of death. But he asked to be judged by Caesar, so I decided to send him to Rome. ²⁶ However, I don’t really know what to tell Caesar that this man has done wrong. So I have brought him before all of you—especially you, King Agrippa. I hope that you can question him and give me something to write to Caesar. ²⁷ I think it is foolish to send a prisoner to Caesar without making some charges against him.”

Paul Before King Agrippa

¹ Agrippa said to Paul, “You may now speak to defend yourself.” Paul raised his hand to get their attention and began to speak. ² He said, “King Agrippa, I feel fortunate that I can stand here before you today and answer all the charges these Jews have made against me. ³ I am very happy to talk to you, because you know so much about all the Jewish customs and the things the Jews argue about. Please listen to me patiently.

⁴ “All the Jews know about my whole life. They know the way I lived from the beginning in my own country and later in Jerusalem. ⁵ These Jews have known me for a long time. If they want to, they can tell you that I was a good Pharisee. And the Pharisees obey the laws of the Jewish religion more carefully than any other group. ⁶ Now I am on trial because I hope for the promise that God made to our fathers. ⁷ This is the promise that all the twelve tribes of our people hope to receive. For this hope the Jews serve God day and night. My king, the Jews have accused me because I hope for this same promise. ⁸ Why do you people think it is impossible for God to raise people from death?

⁹ “I used to think that I should do everything I could against Jesus from Nazareth. ¹⁰ And that’s what I did, beginning in Jerusalem. The leading priests gave me the authority to put many of God’s people in jail. And when they were being killed, I agreed that it was a good thing. ¹¹ I visited all the synagogues and punished them, trying to make them curse* Jesus. My anger against these people was so strong that I went to other cities to find them and punish them.

Paul Tells About Seeing Jesus

¹² “One time the leading priests gave me permission and the authority to go to the city of Damascus. ¹³ On the way there, at noon, I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun. It shined all around me and those traveling with me. ¹⁴ We all fell to the ground. Then I heard a voice talking to me in Aramaic. The voice said, ‘Saul, Saul, why are you persecuting me? You are only hurting yourself by fighting me.’

¹⁵ “I said, ‘Who are you, Lord?’

“The Lord said, ‘I am Jesus. I am the one you are persecuting. ¹⁶ Stand up! I have chosen you to be my servant. You will tell people about me—what you have seen today and what I will show you. This is why I have come to you. ¹⁷ I will keep you safe from your own people and from the non-Jewish people, the ones I am sending you to. ¹⁸ You will make them able to understand the truth. They will turn away from darkness to the light. They will turn away from the power of Satan, and they will turn to God. Then their sins can be forgiven, and they can be given a place among God’s people—those who have been made holy by believing in me.’”

Paul Tells About His Work

¹⁹ Paul continued speaking: “King Agrippa, after I had this vision from heaven, I obeyed it. ²⁰ I began telling people to change their hearts and lives and turn back to God. And I told them to do what would show that they had really changed. I went first to people in Damascus. Then I went to Jerusalem and to every part of Judea and told the people there. I also went to the non-Jewish people.

²¹ “This is why the Jews grabbed me and were trying to kill me at the Temple. ²² But God helped me, and he is still helping me today. With God’s help I am standing here today and telling all people what I have seen. But I am saying nothing new. I am saying only what Moses and the prophets said would happen. ²³ They said that the Messiah would die and be the first to rise from death. They said that he would bring the light of God’s saving truth† to the Jewish people and to the non-Jewish people.”

Paul Tries to Persuade Agrippa

²⁴ While Paul was still defending himself, Festus shouted, “Paul, you are out of your mind! Too much study has made you crazy.”

²⁵ Paul said, “Most Honorable Festus, I am not crazy. What I am saying is true. It all makes perfect sense. ²⁶ King Agrippa knows about all this, and I can speak freely to him. I know that he has heard about these things, because they happened where everyone could see them. ²⁷ King Agrippa, do you believe what the prophets wrote? I know you believe!”

²⁸ King Agrippa said to Paul, “Do you think you can persuade me to become a ‘Christ-follower’ so easily?”

²⁹ Paul said, “It is not important if it is easy or if it is hard. I pray to God that not only you but that everyone listening to me today could be saved and be just like me—except for these chains I have!”

³⁰ King Agrippa, Governor Festus, Bernice, and all the people sitting with them stood up ³¹ and left the room. They were talking to each other. They said, “This man has done nothing worthy of being put to death or even put in jail.” ³² And Agrippa said to Festus, “We could let him go free, but he has asked to see Caesar.”

Paul Sails for Rome

¹ It was decided that we would sail for Italy. An army officer named Julius, who served in the emperor’s special army, was put in charge of guarding Paul and some other prisoners on the trip. ² We got on a ship from the city of Adramyttium that was ready to sail to different places in Asia. Aristarchus, a man from Thessalonica in Macedonia, went with us.

⁷ We sailed slowly for many days. It was hard for us to reach the city of Cnidus because the wind was blowing against us. We could not go any farther that way, so we sailed by the south side of the island of Crete near Salmone. ⁸ We sailed along the coast, but the sailing was hard. Then we came to a place called Safe Harbors, near the city of Lasea.

⁹ We had lost much time, and it was now dangerous to sail, because it was already after the Jewish day of fasting.* So Paul warned them, ¹⁰ “Men, I can see that there will be a lot of trouble on this trip. The ship, everything in it, and even our lives may be lost!” ¹¹ But the captain and the owner of the ship did not agree with Paul. So the army officer accepted what they said instead of believing Paul. ¹² Also, that harbor was not a good place for the ship to stay for the winter, so most of the men decided that we should leave there. They hoped we could reach Phoenix, where the ship could stay for the winter. Phoenix was a city on the island of Crete. It had a harbor that faced southwest and northwest.

The Storm

¹³ Then a good wind began to blow from the south. The men on the ship thought, “This is the wind we wanted, and now we have it!” So they pulled up the anchor. We sailed very close to the island of Crete. ¹⁴ But then a very strong wind called the “Northeaster” came from across the island. ¹⁵ This wind took the ship and carried it away. The ship could not sail against the wind, so we stopped trying and let the wind blow us.

¹⁶ We went below a small island named Cauda. With the island protecting us from the wind, we were able to bring in the lifeboat, but it was very hard to do. ¹⁷ After the men brought the lifeboat in, they tied ropes around the ship to hold it together. The men were afraid that the ship would hit the sandbanks of Syrtis. So they lowered the sail and let the wind carry the ship.

* 27:9 day of fasting The Day of Atonement, an important Jewish holy day in the fall of the year. This was the time of year that bad storms happened on the sea.

¹⁸ The next day the storm was blowing against us so hard that the men threw some things out of the ship.[†] ¹⁹ A day later they threw out the ship's equipment. ²⁰ For many days we could not see the sun or the stars. The storm was very bad. We lost all hope of staying alive—we thought we would die.

²¹ The men did not eat for a long time. Then one day Paul stood up before them and said, "Men, I told you not to leave Crete. You should have listened to me. Then you would not have all this trouble and loss. ²² But now I tell you to be happy. None of you will die, but the ship will be lost. ²³ Last night an angel came to me from God—the God I worship and belong to. ²⁴ The angel said, 'Paul, don't be afraid! You must stand before Caesar. And God has given you this promise: He will save the lives of all those sailing with you.' ²⁵ So men, there is nothing to worry about. I trust God, and I am sure everything will happen just as his angel told me. ²⁶ But we will crash on an island."

²⁷ On the fourteenth night we were still being blown around in the Adriatic Sea. The sailors thought we were close to land. ²⁸ They threw a rope into the water with a weight on the end of it. They found that the water was 120 feet[‡] deep. They went a little farther and threw the rope in again. It was 90 feet[§] deep. ²⁹ The sailors were afraid that we would hit the rocks, so they threw four anchors into the water. Then they prayed for daylight to come. ³⁰ Some of the sailors wanted to leave the ship, and they lowered the lifeboat to the water. They wanted the other men to think that they were throwing more anchors from the front of the ship. ³¹ But Paul told the army officer and the other soldiers, "If these men do not stay in the ship, you will lose all hope of survival." ³² So the soldiers cut the ropes and let the lifeboat fall into the water.

³³ Just before dawn Paul began persuading all the people to eat something. He said, "For the past two weeks you have been waiting and watching. You have not eaten for 14 days. ³⁴ Now I beg you to eat something. You need it to stay alive. None of you will lose even one hair off your heads." ³⁵ After he said this, Paul took some bread and thanked God for it before all of them. He broke off a piece and began eating. ³⁶ All the men felt better and started eating too. ³⁷ (There were 276 people on the ship.) ³⁸ We ate all we wanted. Then we began making the ship lighter by throwing the grain into the sea.

The Ship Is Destroyed

³⁹ When daylight came, the sailors saw land, but they did not know what land it was. They saw a bay with a beach and wanted to sail the ship to the beach if they could. ⁴⁰ So they cut the ropes to the anchors and left the anchors in the sea. At the same time, they untied the ropes that were holding the rudders. Then they raised the front sail into the wind and sailed toward the beach. ⁴¹ But the ship hit a sandbank. The front of the ship stuck there and could not move. Then the big waves began to break the back of the ship to pieces.

⁴² The soldiers decided to kill the prisoners so that none of the prisoners could swim away and escape. ⁴³ But Julius the army officer wanted to let Paul live. So he did not allow the soldiers to kill the prisoners. He told the people who could swim to jump into the water and swim to land. ⁴⁴ The others used wooden boards or pieces of the ship. And this is how all the people went safely to land.

Paul on the Island of Malta

¹ When we were safe on land, we learned that the island was called Malta. ² The people who lived there were very good to us. It was raining and very cold, so they built a fire and welcomed all of us. ³ Paul gathered a pile of sticks for the fire. He was putting the sticks on the fire, and a poisonous snake came out because of the heat and bit him on the hand. ⁴ When the people living on the island saw the snake hanging from his hand, they said, “This man must be a murderer! He did not die in the sea, but Justice* does not want him to live.”

⁵ But Paul shook the snake off into the fire and was not hurt. ⁶ The people thought he would swell up or fall down dead. They waited and watched him for a long time, but nothing bad happened to him. So they changed their opinion. They said, “He is a god!”

⁷ There were some fields around that same area. They were owned by a man named Publius, the most important Roman official on the island. He welcomed us into his home and was very good to us. We stayed in his house for three days. ⁸ Publius’ father was very sick. He had a fever and dysentery, but Paul went to him and prayed for him. He laid his hands on the man and healed him. ⁹ After this happened, all the other sick people on the island came to Paul, and he healed them too.

¹⁰⁻¹¹ The people on the island gave us many honors. And after we had been there three months and were ready to leave, they provided us everything we needed for our trip.

Paul Goes to Rome

We got on a ship from Alexandria that had stayed on the island of Malta during the winter. On the front of the ship was the sign for the twin gods.† ¹² We stopped at the city of Syracuse. We stayed there three days and then left. ¹³ We came to the city of Rhegium. The next day a wind began to blow from the southwest, so we were able to leave. A day later we came to the city of Puteoli. ¹⁴ We found some believers there, who asked us to stay with them a week. Finally, we came to Rome. ¹⁵ The brothers and sisters in Rome heard about us and came out to meet us at the Market of Appius‡ and at the Three Inns.§ When Paul saw these believers, he thanked God and felt encouraged.

Paul in Rome

¹⁶ When we came to Rome, Paul was allowed to live alone. But a soldier stayed with him to guard him.

¹⁷ Three days later Paul sent for some of the most important Jews. When they came together, he said, “My brothers, I have done nothing against our people or against the customs of our fathers. But I was arrested in Jerusalem and handed over to the Romans. ¹⁸ They asked me many questions, but they could not find any reason why I should be put to death. So they wanted to let me go free. ¹⁹ But the Jews there did not want that. So I had to ask to come to Rome to have my trial before Caesar. That doesn’t mean I am accusing my people of doing anything wrong. ²⁰ That is why I wanted to see you and talk with you. I am bound with this chain because I believe in the hope of Israel.”

²¹ The Jews answered Paul, “We have received no letters from Judea about you. None of our Jewish brothers who have traveled from there brought news about you or told us anything bad about you. ²² We want to hear your ideas. We know that people everywhere are speaking against this new group.”

²³ Paul and the Jews chose a day for a meeting. On that day many more of these Jews met with Paul at his house. He spoke to them all day long, explaining God’s kingdom to them. He used the Law of Moses and the writings of the prophets to persuade them to believe in Jesus. ²⁴ Some of the Jews believed what he said, but others did not believe. ²⁵ They had an argument among themselves and were ready to leave. But Paul said one more thing to them: “The Holy Spirit spoke the truth to your fathers through Isaiah the prophet. He said,

²⁶ ‘Go to this people and tell them:

* 28:4 Justice The people thought there was a goddess named Justice who would punish bad people. † 28:10-11 twin gods Statues of Castor and Pollux, Greek gods. ‡ 28:15 Market of Appius A town about 43 miles (69 km) from Rome. § 28:15 Three Inns A town about 30 miles (48 km) from Rome.

You will listen and you will hear,
but you will not understand.

You will look and you will see,
but you will not understand what you see.

²⁷ Yes, the minds of these people are now closed.
They have ears, but they don't listen.
They have eyes, but they refuse to see.

If their minds were not closed,
they might see with their eyes;
they might hear with their ears;
they might understand with their minds.

Then they might turn back to me and be healed.'

Isaiah 6:9-10

²⁸ "I want you Jews to know that God has sent his salvation to the non-Jewish people.
They will listen!" ²⁹ *

³⁰ Paul stayed two full years in his own rented house. He welcomed all the people who came and visited him. ³¹ He told them about God's kingdom and taught them about the Lord Jesus Christ. He was very bold, and no one tried to stop him from speaking.

* 28:29 Some late copies of Acts add verse 29: "After Paul said this, the Jews left, still having a big argument with each other."

Romans

¹ Greetings from Paul, a servant of Christ Jesus.

God chose me to be an apostle and gave me the work of telling his Good News. ² God promised long ago through his prophets in the Holy Scriptures to give this Good News to his people. ³⁻⁴ The Good News is about God's Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. As a human, he was born from the family of David, but through the Holy Spirit* he was shown to be God's powerful Son when he was raised from death.

⁵ Through Christ, God gave me the special work of an apostle—to lead people of all nations to believe and obey him. I do all this to honor Christ. ⁶ You are some of those who have been chosen to belong to Jesus Christ.

⁷ This letter is to all of you in Rome. God loves you, and he has chosen you to be his holy people.

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

A Prayer of Thanks

⁸ First I want to say that I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you. I thank him because people everywhere in the world are talking about your great faith. ⁹⁻¹⁰ Every time I pray, I always remember you. God knows this is true. He is the one I serve with all my heart by telling people the Good News about his Son. I pray that I will be allowed to come to you. It will happen if God wants it. ¹¹ I want very much to see you and give you some spiritual gift to make your faith stronger. ¹² I mean that I want us to help each other with the faith that we have. Your faith will help me, and my faith will help you.

¹³ Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that I have planned many times to come to you, but something always happens to change my plans. I would like to see the same good result among you that I have had from my work among the other non-Jewish people.

¹⁴ I must serve all people—those who share in Greek culture and those who are less civilized,† the educated as well as the ignorant. ¹⁵ That is why I want so much to tell the Good News to you there in Rome.

¹⁶ I am proud of the Good News, because it is the power God uses to save everyone who believes—to save the Jews first, and now to save those who are not Jews. ¹⁷ The Good News shows how God makes people right with himself. God's way of making people right begins and ends with faith. As the Scriptures say, "The one who is right with God by faith will live forever."✠

All People Have Done Wrong

¹⁸ God shows his anger from heaven against all the evil and wrong things that people do. Their evil lives hide the truth they have. ¹⁹ This makes God angry because they have been shown what he is like. Yes, God has made it clear to them.

²⁰ There are things about God that people cannot see—his eternal power and all that makes him God. But since the beginning of the world, those things have been easy for people to understand. They are made clear in what God has made. So people have no excuse for the evil they do.

²¹ People knew God, but they did not honor him as God, and they did not thank him. Their ideas were all useless. There was not one good thought left in their foolish minds. ²² They said they were wise, but they became fools. ²³ Instead of honoring the divine greatness of God, who lives forever, they traded it for the worship of idols—things made to look like humans, who get sick and die, or like birds, animals, and snakes.

* 1:3-4 Holy Spirit Literally, "spirit of holiness." † 1:14 those who share ... civilized Literally, "Greeks and barbarians." See "Greek" in the Word List. ✠ 1:17 Quote from Habakkuk 2:4.

²⁴ People wanted only to do evil. So God left them and let them go their sinful way. And so they became completely immoral and used their bodies in shameful ways with each other. ²⁵ They traded the truth of God for a lie. They bowed down and worshiped the things God made instead of worshiping the God who made those things. He is the one who should be praised forever. Amen.

²⁸ People did not think it was important to have a true knowledge of God. So God left them and allowed them to have their own worthless thinking. And so they do what they should not do. ²⁹ They are filled with every kind of sin, evil, greed, and hatred. They are full of jealousy, murder, fighting, lying, and thinking the worst things about each other. They gossip ³⁰ and say evil things about each other. They hate God. They are rude, proud, and brag about themselves. They invent ways of doing evil. They don't obey their parents, ³¹ they are foolish, they don't keep their promises, and they show no kindness or mercy to others. ³² They know God's law says that anyone who lives like that should die. But they not only continue to do these things themselves, but they also encourage others who do them.

Let God Be the Judge

¹ So do you think that you can judge those other people? You are wrong. You too are guilty of sin. You judge them, but you do the same things they do. So when you judge them, you are really condemning yourself. ² God judges all who do such things, and we know his judgment is right. ³ And since you do the same things as those people you judge, surely you understand that God will punish you too. How could you think you would be able to escape his judgment? ⁴ God has been kind to you. He has been very patient, waiting for you to change. But you think nothing of his kindness. Maybe you don't understand that God is kind to you so that you will decide to change your lives.

⁵ But you are so stubborn! You refuse to change. So you are making your own punishment greater and greater. You will be punished on the day when God will show his anger. On that day everyone will see how right God is to judge people. ⁶ He will reward or punish everyone for what they have done. ⁷ Some people live for God's glory, for honor, and for life that cannot be destroyed. They live for those things by always continuing to do good. God will give eternal life to them. ⁸ But others are selfish and refuse to follow truth. They follow evil. God will show his anger and punish them. ⁹ He will give trouble and suffering to everyone who does evil—to the Jews first and also to those who are not Jews. ¹⁰ But he will give glory, honor, and peace to everyone who does good—to the Jews first and also to those who are not Jews. ¹¹ God judges everyone the same. It doesn't matter who they are.

¹² People who have the law and those who have never heard of the law are all the same when they sin. People who don't have the law and are sinners will be lost. And, in the same way, those who have the law and are sinners will be judged by the law. ¹³ Hearing the law does not make people right with God. They will be right before him only if they always do what the law says.

¹⁴ Those who are not Jews don't have the law. But when they naturally do what the law commands without even knowing the law, then they are their own law. This is true even though they don't have the written law. ¹⁵ They show that in their hearts they know what is right and wrong, the same as the law commands, and their consciences agree. Sometimes their thoughts tell them that they have done wrong, and this makes them guilty. And sometimes their thoughts tell them that they have done right, and this makes them not guilty.

¹⁶ All this will happen on the day when God will judge people's secret thoughts through Jesus Christ. This is part of the Good News that I tell everyone.

The Jews and the Law

¹⁷ What about you? You say you are a Jew. You trust in the law and proudly claim to be close to God. ¹⁸ You know what God wants you to do. And you know what is important, because you have learned the law. ¹⁹ You think you are a guide for people who don't know the right way, a light for those who are in the dark. ²⁰ You think you can show foolish people what is right. And you think you are a teacher for those who are just beginning to learn. You have the law, and so you think you know everything and have all truth. ²¹ You teach others, so why don't you teach yourself? You tell them not to steal, but you yourself steal. ²² You say they must not commit adultery, but you yourself are guilty of that sin. You hate idols, but you steal them from their temples. ²³ You are so proud that you have God's law, but you bring shame to God by breaking his law. ²⁴ As the Scriptures say, "People in other nations insult God because of you."[☆]

²⁵ If you follow the law, then your circumcision has meaning. But if you break the law, then it is as if you were never circumcised. ²⁶ Those who are not Jews are not circumcised. But if they do what the law says, it is as if they were circumcised. ²⁷ You have the written law and circumcision, but you break the law. So those who are not circumcised in their bodies, but still obey the law, will show that you are guilty.

²⁸ You are not a true Jew if you are only a Jew in your physical body. True circumcision is not only on the outside of the body. ²⁹ A true Jew is one who is a Jew inside. True circumcision is done in the heart. It is done by the Spirit, not by the written law. And anyone who is circumcised in the heart by the Spirit gets praise from God, not from people.

¹ So, do Jews have anything that others don't have? Do they get any benefit from being circumcised? ² Yes, the Jews have many benefits. The most important one is this: God trusted the Jews with his teachings. ³ It is true that some Jews were not faithful to God. But will that stop God from doing what he promised? ⁴ No, even if everyone else is a liar, God will always do what he says. As the Scriptures say about him,

"You will be proved right in what you say, and you will win when people accuse you."

Psalms 51:4

⁵ When we do wrong, that shows more clearly that God is right. So can we say that God does wrong when he punishes us? (That's the way some people think.) ⁶ Of course not. If God could not punish us, how could he judge the world?

⁷ Someone might say, "When I lie, it really gives God glory, because my lie makes his truth easier to see. So why am I judged a sinner?" ⁸ It would be the same to say, "We should do evil so that good will come." Many people criticize us, saying that's what we teach. They are wrong, and they should be condemned for saying that.

All People Are Guilty

⁹ So are we Jews better than other people? No, we have already said that those who are Jews, as well as those who are not Jews, are the same. They are all guilty of sin. ¹⁰ As the Scriptures say,

"There is no one doing what is right,

[☆] 2:24 Quote from Isaiah 52:5. See also Ezekiel 36:20-23.

not even one.

¹¹ There is no one who understands.
There is no one who is trying to be with God.

¹² They have all turned away from him,
and now they are of no use to anyone.

There is no one who does good,
not even one.”

Psalm 14:1-3

¹³ “Their words come from mouths that are like open graves.
They use their lying tongues to deceive others.”

Psalm 5:9

“Their words are like the poison of snakes.”

Psalm 140:3

¹⁴ “Their mouths are full of cursing and angry words.”

Psalm 10:7

¹⁵ “They are always ready to kill someone.

¹⁶ Everywhere they go they cause trouble and ruin.

¹⁷ They don’t know how to live in peace.”

Isaiah 59:7-8

¹⁸ “They have no fear or respect for God.”

Psalm 36:1

¹⁹ What the law says is for those who are under the law. It stops anyone from making excuses. And it brings the whole world under God’s judgment, ²⁰ because no one can be made right with God by following the law. The law only shows us our sin.

How God Makes People Right

²¹ But God has a way to make people right, and it has nothing to do with the law. He has now shown us that new way, which the law and the prophets told us about. ²² God makes people right through their faith in* Jesus Christ. He does this for all who believe in Christ. Everyone is the same. ²³ All have sinned and are not good enough to share God’s divine greatness. ²⁴ They are made right with God by his grace. This is a free gift. They are made right with God by being made free from sin through Jesus Christ. ²⁵⁻²⁶ God gave Jesus as a way to forgive people’s sins through their faith in him. God can forgive them because the blood sacrifice of Jesus pays for their sins. God gave Jesus to show that he always does what is right and fair. He was right in the past when he was patient and did not punish people for their sins. And in our own time he still does what is right. God worked all this out in a way that allows him to judge people fairly and still make right any person who has faith in Jesus.

²⁷ So do we have any reason to boast about ourselves? No reason at all. And why not? Because we are depending on the way of faith, not on what we have done in following the law. ²⁸ I mean we are made right with God through faith, not through what we have done to follow the law. This is what we believe. ²⁹ God is not only the God of the Jews. He is also the God of those who are not Jews. ³⁰ There is only one God. He will make Jews† right with him by their faith, and he will also make non-Jews‡ right with him through their faith. ³¹ So do we destroy the law by following the way of faith? Not at all! In fact, faith causes us to be what the law actually wants.

The Example of Abraham

¹ So what can we say about Abraham, the father of our people? What did he learn about faith? ² If Abraham was made right by the things he did, he had a reason to boast about himself. But God knew different. ³ That's why the Scriptures say, "Abraham believed God, and because of this he was accepted as one who is right with God."[✠]

* 3:22 their faith in Or “the faithfulness of.” † 3:30 Jews Literally, “circumcision.” ‡ 3:30 non-Jews Literally, “uncircumcision.”

⁴ When people work, their pay is not given to them as a gift. They earn the pay they get. ⁵ But people cannot do any work that will make them right with God. So they must trust in him. Then he accepts their faith, and that makes them right with him. He is the one who makes even evil people right. ⁶ David said the same thing when he was talking about the blessing people have when God accepts them as good without looking at what they have done:

⁷ "It is a great blessing
when people are forgiven for the wrongs they have done,
when their sins are erased!

⁸ It is a great blessing when the Lord accepts people as if they are without sin!"

Psalm 32:1-2

⁹ Is this blessing only for those who are circumcised? Or is it also for those who are not circumcised? We have already said that it was because of Abraham's faith that he was accepted as one who is right with God. ¹⁰ So how did this happen? Did God accept Abraham before or after he was circumcised? God accepted him before his circumcision. ¹¹ Abraham was circumcised later to show that God accepted him. His circumcision was proof that he was right with God through faith before he was circumcised. So Abraham is the father of all those who believe but are not circumcised. They believe and are accepted as people who are right with God. ¹² And Abraham is also the father of those who have been circumcised. But it is not their circumcision that makes him their father. He is their father only if they live following the faith that our father Abraham had before he was circumcised.

God's Promise Received Through Faith

¹³ Abraham and his descendants received the promise that they would get the whole world. But Abraham did not receive that promise because he followed the law. He received that promise because he was right with God through his faith. ¹⁴ If people could get God's promise by following the law, then faith is worthless. And God's promise to Abraham is worthless, ¹⁵ because the law can only bring God's anger on those who disobey it. But if there is no law, then there is nothing to disobey.

¹⁶ So people get what God promised by having faith. This happens so that the promise can be a free gift. And if the promise is a free gift, then all of Abraham's people will get that promise. The promise is not just for those who live under the Law of Moses. It is for all who live with faith as Abraham did. He is the father of us all. ¹⁷ As the Scriptures say, "I have made you a father of many nations."[✠] This is true before God, the one Abraham believed—the God who gives life to the dead and speaks of things that don't yet exist as if they are real.

¹⁸ There was no hope that Abraham would have children, but Abraham believed God and continued to hope. And that is why he became the father of many nations. As God told him, "You will have many descendants."[✠] ¹⁹ Abraham was almost a hundred years old, so he was past the age for having children. Also, Sarah could not have children. Abraham was well aware of this, but his faith in God never became weak. ²⁰ He never doubted that God would do what he promised. He never stopped believing. In fact, he grew stronger in his faith and just praised God. ²¹ Abraham felt sure that God was able to do what he promised. ²² So that's why "he was accepted as one who is right with God."[✠] ²³ These words ("he was accepted") were written not only for Abraham. ²⁴ They were also written for us. God will also accept us because we believe. We believe in the one who raised Jesus our Lord from death. ²⁵ Jesus was handed over to die for our sins, and he was raised from death to make us right with God.

Right With God

¹ We have been made right with God because of our faith. So we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. ² Through our faith, Christ has brought us into that blessing of God's grace that we now enjoy. And we are very happy because of the hope we have of sharing God's glory. ³ And we are also happy with the troubles we have. Why are we happy with troubles? Because we know that these troubles make us more patient. ⁴ And this patience is proof that we are strong. And this proof gives us hope. ⁵ And this hope will never disappoint us. We know this because God has poured out his love to fill our hearts through the Holy Spirit he gave us.

⁶ Christ died for us when we were unable to help ourselves. We were living against God, but at just the right time Christ died for us. ⁷ Very few people will die to save the life of someone else, even if it is for a good person. Someone might be willing to die for an especially good person. ⁸ But Christ died for us while we were still sinners, and by this God showed how much he loves us.

⁹ We have been made right with God by the blood sacrifice of Christ. So through Christ we will surely be saved from God's anger. ¹⁰ I mean that while we were God's enemies, he made friends with us through his Son's death. And the fact that we are now God's friends makes it even more certain that he will save us through his Son's life. ¹¹ And not only will we be saved, but we also rejoice right now in what God has done for us through our Lord Jesus Christ. It is because of Jesus that we are now God's friends.

Adam and Christ

¹² Sin came into the world because of what one man did. And with sin came death. So this is why all people must die—because all people have sinned. ¹³ Sin was in the world before the Law of Moses. But God does not consider people guilty of sin if there is no law. ¹⁴ But from the time of Adam to the time of Moses, everyone had to die. Adam died because he sinned by not obeying God's command. But even those who did not sin that same way had to die.

That one man, Adam, can be compared to Christ, the one who was coming in the future. ¹⁵ But God's free gift is not like Adam's sin. Many people died because of the sin of that one man. But the grace that people received from God was much greater. Many received God's gift of life by the grace of this other man, Jesus Christ. ¹⁶ After Adam sinned once, he was judged guilty. But the gift of God is different. His free gift came after many sins, and it makes people right with him. ¹⁷ One man sinned, and so death ruled all people because of that one man. But now some people accept God's full grace and his great gift of being made right. Surely they will have true life and rule through the one man, Jesus Christ.

¹⁸ So that one sin of Adam brought the punishment of death to all people. But in the same way, Christ did something so good that it makes all people right with God. And that brings them true life. ¹⁹ One man disobeyed God and many became sinners. But in the same way, one man obeyed God and many will be made right. ²⁰ The law was brought in so that more people would sin the way Adam did. But where sin increased, there was even more of God's grace. ²¹ Sin once used death to rule us. But God gave us more of his grace so that grace could rule by making us right with him. And this brings us eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Dead to Sin but Alive in Christ

¹ So do you think we should continue sinning so that God will give us more and more grace? ² Of course not! Our old sinful life ended. It's dead. So how can we continue living in sin? ³ Did you forget that all of us became part of Christ Jesus when we were baptized? In our baptism we shared in his death. ⁴ So when we were baptized, we were buried with Christ and took part in his death. And just as Christ was raised from death by the wonderful power of the Father, so we can now live a new life.

⁵ Christ died, and we have been joined with him by dying too. So we will also be joined with him by rising from death as he did. ⁶ We know that our old life was put to death on the cross with Christ. This happened so that our sinful selves would have no power over us. Then we would not be slaves to sin. ⁷ Anyone who has died is made free from sin's control.

⁸ If we died with Christ, we know that we will also live with him. ⁹ Christ was raised from death. And we know that he cannot die again. Death has no power over him now. ¹⁰ Yes, when Christ died, he died to defeat the power of sin one time—enough for all time. He now has a new life, and his new life is with God. ¹¹ In the same way, you should see yourselves as being dead to the power of sin and alive for God through Christ Jesus.

¹² But don't let sin control your life here on earth. You must not be ruled by the things your sinful self makes you want to do. ¹³ Don't offer the parts of your body to serve sin. Don't use your bodies to do evil, but offer yourselves to God, as people who have died and now live. Offer the parts of your body to God to be used for doing good. ¹⁴ Sin will not be your master, because you are not under law. You now live under God's grace.

Slaves of Goodness

¹⁵ So what should we do? Should we sin because we are under grace and not under law? Certainly not! ¹⁶ Surely you know that you become the slaves of whatever you give yourselves to. Anything or anyone you follow will be your master. You can follow sin, or you can obey God. Following sin brings spiritual death, but obeying God makes you right with him. ¹⁷ In the past you were slaves to sin—sin controlled you. But thank God, you fully obeyed what you were taught. ¹⁸ You were made free from sin, and now you are slaves to what is right. ¹⁹ I use this example from everyday life because you need help in understanding spiritual truths. In the past you offered the parts of your body to be slaves to your immoral and sinful thoughts. The result was that you lived only for sin. In the same way, you must now offer yourselves to be slaves to what is right. Then you will live only for God.

²⁰ In the past you were slaves to sin, and you did not even think about doing right. ²¹ You did evil things, and now you are ashamed of what you did. Did those things help you? No, they only brought death. ²² But now you are free from sin. You have become slaves of God, and the result is that you live only for God. This will bring you eternal life. ²³ When people sin, they earn what sin pays—death. But God gives his people a free gift—eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.

An Example From Marriage

¹ Brothers and sisters, you all understand the Law of Moses. So surely you know that the law rules over people only while they are alive. ² It's like what the law says about marriage: A woman must stay married to her husband as long as he is alive. But if her husband dies, she is made free from the law of marriage. ³ But if she marries another man while her husband is still alive, the law says she is guilty of adultery. But if her husband dies, she is made free from the law of marriage. So if she marries another man after her husband dies, she is not guilty of adultery.

⁴ In the same way, my brothers and sisters, your old selves died and you became free from the law through the body of Christ. Now you belong to someone else. You belong to the one who was raised from death. We belong to Christ so that we can be used in service to God. ⁵ In the past we were ruled by our sinful selves. The law made us want to do sinful things. And those sinful desires controlled our bodies, so that what we did only brought us spiritual death. ⁶ In the past the law held us as prisoners, but our old selves died, and we were made free from the law. So now we serve God in a new way, not in the old way, with the written rules. Now we serve God in the new way, with the Spirit.

Our Fight Against Sin

⁷ You might think I am saying that sin and the law are the same. That is not true. But the law was the only way I could learn what sin means. I would never have known it is wrong to want something that is not mine. But the law said, “You must not want what belongs to someone else.”[☆] ⁸ And sin found a way to use that command and make me want all kinds of things that weren’t mine. So sin came to me because of the command. But without the law, sin has no power. ⁹ Before I knew the law, I was alive. But when I heard the law’s command, sin began to live, ¹⁰ and I died spiritually. The command was meant to bring life, but for me it brought death. ¹¹ Sin found a way to fool me by using the command to make me die.

The War Inside Us

¹⁴ We know that the law is spiritual, but I am not. I am so human. Sin rules me as if I were its slave. ¹⁵ I don’t understand why I act the way I do. I don’t do the good I want to do, and I do the evil I hate. ¹⁶ And if I don’t want to do what I do, that means I agree that the law is good. ¹⁷ But I am not really the one doing the evil. It is sin living in me that does it. ¹⁸ Yes, I know that nothing good lives in me—I mean nothing good lives in the part of me that is not spiritual. I want to do what is good, but I don’t do it. ¹⁹ I don’t do the good that I want to do. I do the evil that I don’t want to do. ²⁰ So if I do what I don’t want to do, then I am not really the one doing it. It is the sin living in me that does it.

²¹ So I have learned this rule: When I want to do good, evil is there with me. ²² In my mind I am happy with God’s law. ²³ But I see another law working in my body. That law makes war against the law that my mind accepts. That other law working in my body is the law of sin, and that law makes me its prisoner. ²⁴ What a miserable person I am! Who will save me from this body that brings me death? ²⁵ I thank God for his salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord!

So in my mind I am a slave to God’s law, but in my sinful self I am a slave to the law of sin.

8

Life in the Spirit

¹ So now anyone who is in Christ Jesus is not judged guilty. ² That is because in Christ Jesus the law of the Spirit that brings life made you* free. It made you free from the law that brings sin and death. ³ The law was without power because it was made weak by our sinful selves. But God did what the law could not do: He sent his own Son to earth with the same human life that everyone else uses for sin. God sent him to be an offering to pay for sin. So God used a human life to destroy sin. ⁴ He did this so that we could be right just as the law said we must be. Now we don’t live following our sinful selves. We live following the Spirit.

⁵ People who live following their sinful selves think only about what they want. But those who live following the Spirit are thinking about what the Spirit wants them to do.

☆ 7:7 Quote from Exodus 20:17; Deuteronomy 5:21.

* 8:2 you Some Greek copies have “me.” Also in the next sentence.

⁶ If your thinking is controlled by your sinful self, there is spiritual death. But if your thinking is controlled by the Spirit, there is life and peace. ⁷ Why is this true? Because anyone whose thinking is controlled by their sinful self is against God. They refuse to obey God's law. And really they are not able to obey it. ⁸ Those who are ruled by their sinful selves cannot please God.

⁹ But you are not ruled by your sinful selves. You are ruled by the Spirit, if that Spirit of God really lives in you. But whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to Christ. ¹⁰ Your body will always be dead because of sin. But if Christ is in you, then the Spirit gives you life, because Christ made you right with God. ¹¹ God raised Jesus from death. And if God's Spirit lives in you, he will also give life to your bodies that die. Yes, God is the one who raised Christ from death, and he will raise you to life through his Spirit living in you.

¹² So, my brothers and sisters, we must not be ruled by our sinful selves. We must not live the way our sinful selves want. ¹³ If you use your lives to do what your sinful selves want, you will die spiritually. But if you use the Spirit's help to stop doing the wrong things you do with your body, you will have true life.

¹⁴ The true children of God are those who let God's Spirit lead them. ¹⁵ The Spirit that we received is not a spirit that makes us slaves again and causes us to fear. The Spirit that we have makes us God's chosen children. And with that Spirit we cry out, "Abba,† Father." ¹⁶ And the Spirit himself speaks to our spirits and makes us sure that we are God's children. ¹⁷ If we are God's children, we will get the blessings God has for his people. He will give us all that he has given Christ. But we must suffer like Christ suffered. Then we will be able to share his glory.

We Will Have Glory in the Future

¹⁸ We have sufferings now, but these are nothing compared to the great glory that will be given to us. ¹⁹ Everything that God made is waiting with excitement for the time when he will show the world who his children are. The whole world wants very much for that to happen. ²⁰ Everything God made was allowed to become like something that cannot fulfill its purpose. That was not its choice, but God made it happen with this hope in view: ²¹ That the creation would be made free from ruin—that everything God made would have the same freedom and glory that belong to God's children.

²² We know that everything God made has been waiting until now in pain like a woman ready to give birth to a child. ²³ Not only the world, but we also have been waiting with pain inside us. We have the Spirit as the first part of God's promise. So we are waiting for God to finish making us his own children. I mean we are waiting for our bodies to be made free. ²⁴ We were saved to have this hope. If we can see what we are waiting for, that is not really hope. People don't hope for something they already have. ²⁵ But we are hoping for something we don't have yet, and we are waiting for it patiently.

²⁶ Also, the Spirit helps us. We are very weak, but the Spirit helps us with our weakness. We don't know how to pray as we should, but the Spirit himself speaks to God for us. He begs God for us, speaking to him with feelings too deep for words. ²⁷ God already knows our deepest thoughts. And he understands what the Spirit is saying, because the Spirit speaks for his people in the way that agrees with what God wants.

²⁸ We know that in everything God works for the good of those who love him. These are the people God chose, because that was his plan. ²⁹ God knew them before he made the world. And he decided that they would be like his Son. Then Jesus would be the firstborn of many brothers and sisters. ³⁰ God planned for them to be like his Son. He chose them and made them right with him. And after he made them right, he gave them his glory.

† 8:15 Abba An Aramaic word that was used by Jewish children as a name for their fathers.

God's Love in Christ Jesus

³¹ So what should we say about this? If God is for us, no one can stand against us. And God is with us. ³² He even let his own Son suffer for us. God gave his Son for all of us. So now with Jesus, God will surely give us all things. ³³ Who can accuse the people God has chosen? No one! God is the one who makes them right. ³⁴ Who can say that God's people are guilty? No one! Christ Jesus died for us, but that is not all. He was also raised from death. And now he is at God's right side, speaking to him for us. ³⁵ Can anything separate us from Christ's love? Can trouble or problems or persecution separate us from his love? If we have no food or clothes or face danger or even death, will that separate us from his love? ³⁶ As the Scriptures say,

"For you we are in danger of death all the time.

People think we are worth no more than sheep to be killed."

Psalms 44:22

³⁷ But in all these troubles we have complete victory through God, who has shown his love for us. ³⁸⁻³⁹ Yes, I am sure that nothing can separate us from God's love—no death, life, angels, or ruling spirits. I am sure that nothing now, nothing in the future, no powers, nothing above us or nothing below us—nothing in the whole created world—will ever be able to separate us from the love God has shown us in Christ Jesus our Lord.

God and the Jewish People

¹ I am in Christ and I am telling you the truth. I am not lying. And my conscience, ruled by the Holy Spirit, agrees that what I say now is true. ² I have great sorrow and always feel much sadness ³ for my own people. They are my brothers and sisters, my earthly family. I wish I could help them. I would even have a curse on me and cut myself off from Christ if that would help them. ⁴ They are the people of Israel, God's chosen children. They have the glory of God and the agreements he made between himself and his people. God gave them the Law of Moses, the Temple worship, and his promises. ⁵ They are the descendants of our great fathers, and they are the earthly family of the Messiah, who is God over all things. Praise him forever!* Amen.

¹⁰ And that is not all. Rebecca also had sons, and they had the same father. He is our father Isaac. ¹¹⁻¹² But before the two sons were born, God told Rebecca, "The older son will serve the younger."✠ This was before the boys had done anything good or bad. God said this before they were born so that the boy he wanted would be chosen because of God's own plan. He was chosen because he was the one God wanted to call, not because of anything the boys did. ¹³ As the Scriptures say, "I loved Jacob, but I hated Esau."✠

¹⁴ So what does this mean? That God is not fair? We cannot say that. ¹⁵ God said to Moses, "I will show mercy to anyone I want to show mercy to. I will show pity to anyone I choose."✠ ¹⁶ So God will choose anyone he decides to show mercy to, and his choice does

* 9:5 Messiah, who is ... forever! Or "Messiah. not depend on what people want or try to do. ¹⁷ In the Scriptures God says to Pharaoh: “I made you king so that you could do this for me. I wanted to show my power through you. I wanted my name to be announced throughout the world.”[☆] ¹⁸ So God shows mercy to those he wants to show mercy to and makes stubborn those he wants to make stubborn.

¹⁹ So one of you will ask me, “If God controls what we do, why does he blame us for our sins?” ²⁰ Don’t ask that. You are only human and have no right to question God. A clay jar does not question the one who made it. It does not say, “Why did you make me like this?” ²¹ The one who makes the jar can make anything he wants. He uses the same clay to make different things. He might make one thing for special purposes and another for daily use.

²² It is the same way with what God has done. He wanted to show his anger and to let people see his power. But he patiently endured those he was angry with—people who were ready to be destroyed. ²³ He waited with patience so that he could make known the riches of his glory to the people he has chosen to receive his mercy. God has already prepared them to share his glory. ²⁴ We are those people, the ones God chose not only from the Jews but also from those who are not Jews. ²⁵ As the Scriptures say in the book of Hosea,

“The people who are not mine—
I will say they are my people.
And the people I did not love—
I will say they are the people I love.”

Hosea 2:23

²⁶ And,

“Where God said in the past,
‘You are not my people’— there they will be called children of the living God.”

Hosea 1:10

²⁷ And Isaiah cries out about Israel:

“There are so many people of Israel,
they are like the grains of sand by the sea.
But only a few of them will be saved.

²⁸ Yes, the Lord will quickly finish judging the people on the earth.” Isaiah 10:22-23

²⁹ It is just as Isaiah said:

“The Lord All-Powerful allowed some of our people to live.
If he had not done that,
we would now be like Sodom,
and we would be like Gomorrah.”

Isaiah 1:9

³⁰ So what does all this mean? It means that people who are not Jews were made right with God because of their faith, even though they were not trying to make themselves right. ³¹ And the people of Israel, who tried to make themselves right with God by following the law, did not succeed. ³² They failed because they tried to make themselves right by the things they did. They did not trust in God to make them right. They fell over the stone that makes people fall. ³³ The Scriptures talk about that stone:

“Look, I put in Zion a stone that will make people stumble.

[☆] 9:17 Quote from Exodus 9:16.

It is a rock that will make people fall.
But anyone who trusts in him will never be disappointed.”

Isaiah 8:14; 28:16

¹ Brothers and sisters, what I want most is for all the people of Israel to be saved. That is my prayer to God. ² I can say this about them: They really try hard to follow God, but they don't know the right way. ³ They did not know the way that God makes people right with him. And they tried to make themselves right in their own way. So they did not accept God's way of making people right. ⁴ Christ ended the law so that everyone who believes in him is made right with God.

⁸ This is what the Scripture says: “God's teaching is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart.”[☆] It is the teaching of faith that we tell people. ⁹ If you openly say, “Jesus is Lord” and believe in your heart that God raised him from death, you will be saved. ¹⁰ Yes, we believe in Jesus deep in our hearts, and so we are made right with God. And we openly say that we believe in him, and so we are saved.

¹¹ Yes, the Scriptures say, “Anyone who trusts in him will never be disappointed.”[☆] ¹² It says this because there is no difference between those who are Jews and those who are not. The same Lord is the Lord of all people. And he richly blesses everyone who looks to him for help. ¹³ Yes, “everyone who trusts in the Lord* will be saved.”[☆]

¹⁴ But before people can pray to the Lord for help, they must believe in him. And before they can believe in the Lord, they must hear about him. And for anyone to hear about the Lord, someone must tell them. ¹⁵ And before anyone can go and tell them, they must be sent. As the Scriptures say, “How wonderful it is to see someone coming to tell good news!”[☆]

¹⁶ But not all the people accepted that good news. Isaiah said, “Lord, who believed what we told them?”[☆] ¹⁷ So faith comes from hearing the Good News. And people hear the Good News when someone tells them about Christ.

¹⁸ But I ask, “Did those people not hear the Good News?” Yes, they heard—as the Scriptures say,

“Their voices went out all around the world.
Their words went everywhere in the world.”

Psalm 19:4

¹⁹ Again I ask, “Did the people of Israel not understand?” Yes, they did understand. First, Moses says this for God:

“I will use those who are not really a nation to make you jealous.
I will use a nation that does not understand to make you angry.” Deuteronomy 32:21

²⁰ Then Isaiah is bold enough to say this for God:

[☆] 10:5 Quote from Leviticus 18:5. [☆] 10:8 Quotes from Deuteronomy 30:12-14. [☆] 10:11 Quote from Isaiah 28:16. * 10:13 who trusts in the Lord Literally, “who calls on the name of the Lord,” meaning to show faith in him by worshiping him or praying to him for help. [☆] 10:13 Quote from Joel 2:32. [☆] 10:15 Quote from Isaiah 52:7. [☆] 10:16 Quote from Isaiah 53:1.

“The people who were not looking for me—they are the ones who found me.
I made myself known to those who did not ask for me.”

Isaiah 65:1

²¹ But about the people of Israel God says,

“All day long I stood ready to accept those people, but they are stubborn and refuse to obey me.”

Isaiah 65:2

God Has Not Forgotten His People

¹ So I ask, “Did God force his people to leave him?” Of course not. I myself am an Israelite. I am from the family of Abraham, from the tribe of Benjamin. ² God chose the Israelites to be his people before they were born. And he did not force them to leave. Surely you know what the Scriptures say about Elijah. The Scriptures tell about Elijah praying to God against the people of Israel. He said, ³ “Lord, they have killed your prophets and destroyed your altars. I am the only prophet still living, and they are trying to kill me now.”[☆] ⁴ But what answer did God give to Elijah? God said, “I have kept for myself seven thousand men who have never given worship to Baal.”[☆]

⁵ It is the same now. God has chosen a few people by his grace. ⁶ And if he chose them by grace, then it is not what they have done that made them his people. If they could be made his people by what they did, his gift of grace would not really be a gift.

⁷ So this is what has happened: The people of Israel wanted God’s blessing, but they did not all get it. The people he chose did get his blessing, but the others became hard and refused to listen to him. ⁸ As the Scriptures say,

“God caused the people to fall asleep.”

Isaiah 29:10

“God closed their eyes so that they could not see,
and he closed their ears so that they could not hear.
This continues until now.”

Deuteronomy 29:4

⁹ And David says,

“Let those people be caught and trapped at their own feasts.
Let them fall and be punished.

¹⁰ Let their eyes be closed so that they cannot see.
And let them be troubled forever.”

Psalms 69:22-23

¹¹ So I ask: When the Jews fell, did that fall destroy them? No! But their mistake brought salvation to those who are not Jews. The purpose of this was to make the Jews jealous. ¹² Their mistake brought rich blessings to the world. And what they lost brought rich blessings to the non-Jewish people. So surely the world will get much richer blessings when enough Jews become the kind of people God wants.

¹³ Now I am speaking to you people who are not Jews. I am an apostle to the non-Jewish people. So while I have that work, I will do the best I can. ¹⁴ I hope I can make my own people jealous. That way, maybe I can help some of them to be saved. ¹⁵ God turned away from the Jews. When that happened, he became friends with the other people in the world. So when he accepts the Jews, it will be like bringing people to life after death.

[☆] 11:3 Quote from 1 Kings 19:10, 14. [☆] 11:4 Quote from 1 Kings 19:18.

¹⁶ If the first piece of bread is offered to God, then the whole loaf is made holy. If the roots of a tree are holy, the tree's branches are holy too.

¹⁷ It is as if some of the branches from an olive tree have been broken off, and the branch of a wild olive tree has been joined to that first tree. If you are not a Jew, you are the same as that wild branch, and you now share the strength and life of the first tree.

¹⁸ But don't act as if you are better than those branches that were broken off. You have no reason to be proud of yourself, because you don't give life to the root. The root gives life to you. ¹⁹ You might say, "Branches were broken off so that I could be joined to their tree." ²⁰ That is true. But those branches were broken off because they did not believe. And you continue to be part of the tree only because you believe. Don't be proud, but be afraid. ²¹ If God did not let the natural branches of that tree stay, he will not let you stay if you stop believing.

²² So you see that God is kind, but he can also be very strict. He punishes those who stop following him. But he is kind to you, if you continue trusting in his kindness. If you don't continue depending on him, you will be cut off from the tree. ²³ And if the Jews will believe in God again, he will accept them back. He is able to put them back where they were. ²⁴ It is not natural for a wild branch to become part of a good tree. But you non-Jewish people are like a branch cut from a wild olive tree. And you were joined to a good olive tree. But those Jews are like a branch that grew from the good tree. So surely they can be joined to their own tree again.

²⁵ I want you to understand this secret truth, brothers and sisters. This truth will help you understand that you don't know everything. The truth is this: Part of Israel has been made stubborn, but that will change when enough non-Jewish people have come to God.

²⁶ And that is how all Israel will be saved. The Scriptures say,

"The Savior will come from Zion;
he will take away all evil from the family of Jacob.

²⁷ And I will make this agreement with those people when I take away their sins."

Isaiah 59:20-21; 27:9

²⁸ The Jews refuse to accept the Good News, so they are God's enemies. This has happened to help you who are not Jews. But they are still God's chosen people, and he loves them because of the promises he made to their ancestors. ²⁹ God never changes his mind about the people he calls. He never decides to take back the blessings he has given them. ³⁰ At one time you refused to obey God. But now you have received mercy, because the Jews refused to obey. ³¹ And now they are the ones who refuse to obey, because God showed mercy to you. But this happened so that they can also receive mercy from him. ³² All people have refused to obey God. And he has put them all together as people who don't obey him so that he can show mercy to everyone.

Praise to God

³³ Yes, God's riches are very great! His wisdom and knowledge have no end! No one can explain what God decides. No one can understand his ways. ³⁴ As the Scriptures say,

"Who can know what is on the Lord's mind?
Who is able to give him advice?"

Isaiah 40:13

³⁵ "Who has ever given God anything?
God owes nothing to anyone."

Job 41:11

³⁶ Yes, God made all things. And everything continues through him and for him. To God be the glory forever! Amen.

Give Your Lives to God

¹ So I beg you, brothers and sisters, because of the great mercy God has shown us, offer your lives* as a living sacrifice to him—an offering that is only for God and pleasing to him. Considering what he has done, it is only right that you should worship him in this way. ² Don't change yourselves to be like the people of this world, but let God change you inside with a new way of thinking. Then you will be able to understand and accept what God wants for you. You will be able to know what is good and pleasing to him and what is perfect.

³ God has given me a special gift, and that is why I have something to say to each one of you. Don't think that you are better than you really are. You must see yourself just as you are. Decide what you are by the faith God has given each of us. ⁴ Each one of us has one body, and that body has many parts. These parts don't all do the same thing. ⁵ In the same way, we are many people, but in Christ we are all one body. We are the parts of that body, and each part belongs to all the others.

⁶ We all have different gifts. Each gift came because of the grace God gave us. Whoever has the gift of prophecy should use that gift in a way that fits the kind of faith they have. ⁷ Whoever has the gift of serving should serve. Whoever has the gift of teaching should teach. ⁸ Whoever has the gift of comforting others should do that. Whoever has the gift of giving to help others should give generously. Whoever has the gift of leading should work hard at it. Whoever has the gift of showing kindness to others should do it gladly.

⁹ Your love must be real. Hate what is evil. Do only what is good. ¹⁰ Love each other in a way that makes you feel close like brothers and sisters. And give each other more honor than you give yourself. ¹¹ As you serve the Lord, work hard and don't be lazy. Be excited about serving him! ¹² Be happy because of the hope you have. Be patient when you have troubles. Pray all the time. ¹³ Share with God's people who need help. Look for people who need help and welcome them into your homes.

¹⁴ Wish only good for those who treat you badly. Ask God to bless them, not curse them. ¹⁵ When others are happy, you should be happy with them. And when others are sad, you should be sad too. ¹⁶ Live together in peace with each other. Don't be proud, but be willing to be friends with people who are not important to others. Don't think of yourself as smarter than everyone else.

¹⁷ If someone does you wrong, don't try to pay them back by hurting them. Try to do what everyone thinks is right. ¹⁸ Do the best you can to live in peace with everyone. ¹⁹ My friends, don't try to punish anyone who does wrong to you. Wait for God to punish them with his anger. In the Scriptures the Lord says,

“I am the one who punishes;
I will pay people back.”

Deuteronomy 32:35

²⁰ But you should do this:

“If you have enemies who are hungry,
give them something to eat.

If you have enemies who are thirsty, give them something to drink.

In doing this you will make them feel ashamed.†”

Proverbs 25:21-22

* 12:1 lives Literally, “bodies.” Paul is using the language of Old Testament animal sacrifice to express the idea of a complete giving of oneself to God. † 12:20 you will make them feel ashamed Literally, “you will pour burning coals on their head.” People in Old Testament times often put ashes on their heads to show that they were sad or sorry.

²¹ Don't let evil defeat you, but defeat evil by doing good.

Obey Your Government Rulers

¹ All of you must obey the government rulers. Everyone who rules was given the power to rule by God. And all those who rule now were given that power by God. ² So anyone who is against the government is really against something God has commanded. Those who are against the government bring punishment on themselves. ³ People who do right don't have to fear the rulers. But those who do wrong must fear them. Do you want to be free from fearing them? Then do only what is right, and they will praise you.

⁴ Rulers are God's servants to help you. But if you do wrong, you have reason to be afraid. They have the power to punish, and they will use it. They are God's servants to punish those who do wrong. ⁵ So you must obey the government, not just because you might be punished, but because you know it is the right thing to do.

⁶ And this is why you pay taxes too. Those rulers are working for God, and they give all their time to the work of ruling. ⁷ Give everyone what you owe them. If you owe them any kind of tax, then pay it. Show respect to those you should respect. And show honor to those you should honor.

Loving Others Is the Only Law

⁸ You should owe nothing to anyone, except that you will always owe love to each other. The person who loves others has done all that the law commands. ⁹ The law says, "You must not commit adultery, you must not murder anyone, you must not steal, you must not want what belongs to someone else."[☆] All these commands and all other commands are really only one rule: "Love your neighbor* the same as you love yourself."[☆] ¹⁰ Love doesn't hurt others. So loving is the same as obeying all the law.

¹¹ I say this because you know that we live in an important time. Yes, it is now time for you to wake up from your sleep. Our salvation is nearer now than when we first believed. ¹² The night is almost finished. The day is almost here. So we should stop doing whatever belongs to darkness. We should prepare ourselves to fight evil with the weapons that belong to the light. ¹³ We should live in a right way, like people who belong to the day. We should not have wild parties or be drunk. We should not be involved in sexual sin or any kind of immoral behavior. We should not cause arguments and trouble or be jealous. ¹⁴ But be like the Lord Jesus Christ, so that when people see what you do, they will see Christ. Don't think about how to satisfy the desires of your sinful self.

Don't Criticize Others

¹ Be willing to accept those who still have doubts about what believers can do. And don't argue with them about their different ideas. ² Some people believe they can eat any kind of food,* but those who have doubts eat only vegetables. ³ Those who know they can eat any kind of food must not feel that they are better than those who eat only vegetables. And those who eat only vegetables must not decide that those who eat all foods are wrong. God has accepted them. ⁴ You cannot judge the servants of someone else. Their own master decides if they are doing right or wrong. And the Lord's servants will be right, because the Lord is able to make them right.

⁵ Some people might believe that one day is more important than another. And others might believe that every day is the same. Everyone should be sure about their beliefs in their own mind. ⁶ Those who think one day is more important than other days are doing that for the Lord. And those who eat all kinds of food are doing that for the Lord. Yes, they give thanks to God for that food. And those who refuse to eat some foods do that for the Lord. They also give thanks to God.

⁷ We don't live or die just for ourselves. ⁸ If we live, we are living for the Lord. And if we die, we are dying for the Lord. So living or dying, we belong to the Lord. ⁹ That is why Christ died and rose from death to live again—so that he could be Lord over those who have died and those who are living.

¹⁰ So why do you judge your brother or sister in Christ? Or why do you think that you are better than they are? We will all stand before God, and he will judge us all. ¹¹ Yes, the Scriptures say,

“ ‘As surely as I live,’ says the Lord,
 ‘Everyone will bow before me;
 everyone will say that I am God.’ ”

Isaiah 45:23

¹² So each of us will have to explain to God about the things we do.

Don't Cause Others to Sin

¹³ So we should stop judging each other. Let's decide not to do anything that will cause a problem for a brother or sister or hurt their faith. ¹⁴ I know that there is no food that is wrong to eat. The Lord Jesus is the one who convinced me of that. But if someone believes that something is wrong, then it is wrong for that person.

¹⁵ If you hurt the faith of your brother or sister because of something you eat, you are not really following the way of love. Don't destroy anyone's faith by eating something they think is wrong. Christ died for them. ¹⁶ Don't allow what is good for you to become something they say is evil. ¹⁷ In God's kingdom, what we eat and drink is not important. Here is what is important: a right way of life, peace, and joy—all from the Holy Spirit. ¹⁸ Whoever serves Christ by living this way is pleasing God, and they will be accepted by others.

¹⁹ So let's try as hard as we can to do what will bring peace. Let's do whatever will help each other grow stronger in faith. ²⁰ Don't let the eating of food destroy the work of God. All food is right to eat, but it is wrong for anyone to eat something that hurts the faith of another person. ²¹ It is better not to eat meat or drink wine or do anything else that hurts the faith of your brother or sister.

²² You should keep your beliefs about these things a secret between yourself and God. It is a blessing to be able to do what you think is right without feeling guilty. ²³ But anyone who eats something without being sure it is right is doing wrong. That is because they did not believe it was right. And if you do anything that you believe is not right, it is sin.

¹ Some of us have no problem with these things. So we should be patient with those who are not so strong and have doubts. We should not do what pleases us ² but do what pleases them and is for their good. We should do whatever helps everyone grow stronger in faith. ³ Even Christ did not live trying to please himself. As the Scriptures say about him, “Those people who insulted you have also insulted me.”[☆] ⁴ Everything that was written in the past was written to teach us. Those things were written so that we could have hope. That hope comes from the patience and encouragement that the Scriptures give us. ⁵ All patience and encouragement come from God. And I pray that God will help you all agree with each other, as Christ Jesus wants. ⁶ Then you will all be joined together. And all together you will give glory to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁷ Christ accepted you, so you should accept each other. This will bring honor* to God. ⁸ I tell you that Christ became a servant of the Jews to show that God has done what he promised their great ancestors. ⁹ Christ also did this so that the non-Jewish people could praise God for the mercy he gives to them. The Scriptures say,

“So I will give thanks to you among the people of other nations;
I will sing praise to your name.”

Psalm 18:49

¹⁰ And the Scriptures say,

“You people of other nations should be happy together with God’s people.” Deuteronomy 32:43

¹¹ The Scriptures also say,

“Praise the Lord all you people of other nations;
all people should praise the Lord.”

Psalm 117:1

¹² And Isaiah says,

“Someone will come from Jesse’s family.†
He will come to rule over the nations, and they will put their hope in him.”

Isaiah 11:10

¹³ I pray that the God who gives hope will fill you with much joy and peace as you trust in him. Then you will have more and more hope, and it will flow out of you by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Paul Talks About His Work

¹⁴ My brothers and sisters, I know without a doubt that you are full of goodness and have all the knowledge you need. So you are certainly able to counsel each other. ¹⁵ But I have written to you very openly about some things that I wanted you to remember. I did this because God gave me this special gift: ¹⁶ to be a servant of Christ Jesus for those who are not Jews. I serve like a priest whose duty it is to tell God’s Good News. He gave me this work so that you non-Jewish people could be an offering that he will accept—an offering made holy by the Holy Spirit.

¹⁷ That is why I feel so good about what I have done for God in my service to Christ Jesus. ¹⁸ I will not talk about anything I did myself. I will talk only about what Christ has done with me in leading the non-Jewish people to obey God. They have obeyed him because of what I have said and done. ¹⁹ And they obeyed him because of the power of the miraculous signs and wonders that happened—all because of the power of God’s Spirit. I have told people the Good News about Christ in every place from Jerusalem to Illyricum. And so I have finished that part of my work. ²⁰ I always want to tell the Good News in places where people have never heard of Christ. I do this because I don’t want to build on the work that someone else has already started. ²¹ But as the Scriptures say,

“Those who were not told about him will see,
and those who have not heard about him will understand.”

Isaiah 52:15

Paul’s Plan to Visit Rome

²² That’s what has kept me so busy and prevented my coming to see you even though I have wanted to come many times.

* 15:7 honor Or “glory.” See “glory” in the Word List. † 15:12 Jesse’s family Jesse was the father of David, king of Israel. Jesus was from their family.

²³ Now I have finished my work in these areas. And for many years I have wanted to visit you. ²⁴ So I will visit you when I go to Spain. Yes, I hope to visit you while I am traveling to Spain, and I will stay and enjoy being with you. Then you can help me continue on my trip.

²⁵ Now I am going to Jerusalem to help God's people there. ²⁶ Some of them are poor, and the believers in Macedonia and Achaia wanted to help them. So they gathered some money to send them. ²⁷ They were happy to do this. And it was like paying something they owed them, because as non-Jews they have been blessed spiritually by the Jews. So now they should use the material blessings they have to help the Jews. ²⁸ I am going to Jerusalem to make sure the poor get this money that has been given for them.

After I finish that, I will leave for Spain and stop to visit you on the way. ²⁹ And I know that when I visit you, I will bring you Christ's full blessing.

³⁰ Brothers and sisters, I beg you to help me in my work by praying to God for me. Do this because of our Lord Jesus and the love that the Spirit gives us. ³¹ Pray that I will be saved from those in Judea who refuse to accept our message. And pray that this help I am bringing to Jerusalem will please God's people there. ³² Then, if God wants me to, I will come to you. I will come with joy, and together you and I will have a time of rest. ³³ The God who gives peace be with you all. Amen.

Paul Has Some Final Things to Say

¹ I want you to know that you can trust our sister in Christ, Phoebe. She is a special servant of the church in Cenchrea. ² I ask you to accept her in the Lord. Accept her the way God's people should. Help her with anything she needs from you. She has helped me very much, and she has helped many others too.

³ Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila, who have worked together with me for Christ Jesus. ⁴ They risked their own lives to save mine. I am thankful to them, and all the non-Jewish churches are thankful to them.

⁵ Also, give greetings to the church that meets in their house.

Give greetings to my dear friend Epaenetus. He was the first person to follow Christ in Asia.

⁶ Greetings also to Mary. She worked very hard for you.

⁷ And greet Andronicus and Junia. They are my relatives, and they were in prison with me. They were followers of Christ before I was. And they are some of the most important of the ones Christ sent out to do his work.*

⁸ Give my greetings to Ampliatus, my dear friend in the Lord, ⁹ and to Urbanus. He has worked together with me for Christ.

Give greetings also to my dear friend Stachys ¹⁰ and to Apelles, who has proved himself to be a true follower of Christ.

Give greetings to everyone in the family of Aristobulus ¹¹ and to Herodion, my relative. Greetings to all those in the family of Narcissus who belong to the Lord ¹² and to Tryphaena and Tryphosa, women who work very hard for the Lord.

Greetings to my dear friend Persis. She has also worked very hard for the Lord.

¹³ Greetings also to Rufus, one of the Lord's chosen people, and to his mother, who has been a mother to me too.

¹⁴ Give my greetings to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and all the brothers in Christ who are with them.

¹⁵ Give greetings to Philologus and Julia, to Nereus and his sister, to Olympas, and to all of God's people with them.

* 16:7 most important ... work Literally, "important among (or to) the apostles."

¹⁶ Give each other the special greeting of God's people.[†]
All the churches that belong to Christ send their greetings to you.

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, I want you to be very careful of those who cause arguments and hurt people's faith by teaching things that are against what you learned. Stay away from them. ¹⁸ People like that are not serving our Lord Christ. They are only pleasing themselves. They use fancy talk and say nice things to fool those who don't know about evil. ¹⁹ Everyone has heard that you do what you were taught, and I am very happy about that. But I want you to be wise about what is good and to know nothing about what is evil.

²⁰ The God who brings peace will soon defeat Satan and give you power over him.

The grace of our Lord Jesus be with you.

²¹ Timothy, a worker together with me, sends you his greetings. Also Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater (these are my relatives) send their greetings.

²² I am Tertius, the one writing this letter for Paul. I send you my own greetings as one who belongs to the Lord.

²³ Gaius is letting me and the whole church here use his home. He sends his greetings to you. Erastus and our brother Quartus also send their greetings. Erastus is the city treasurer here. ²⁴ ‡

²⁵ Praise God! He is the one who can make you strong in faith. He can use the Good News that I teach to make you strong. It is the message about Jesus Christ that I tell people. That message is the secret truth that was hidden for ages and ages but has been made known. ²⁶ It has now been shown to us. It was made known by what the prophets wrote, as God commanded. And it has now been made known to all people so that they can believe and obey God, who lives forever. ²⁷ Glory forever to the only wise God through Jesus Christ. Amen.

[†] 16:16 the special greeting of God's people Literally, "a holy kiss." [‡] 16:24 Some Greek copies add verse 24: "The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen."

1 Corinthians

¹ Greetings from Paul. I was chosen to be an apostle of Christ Jesus. God chose me because that is what he wanted. Greetings also from Sosthenes, our brother in Christ.

² To God's church in Corinth, you who have been made holy because you belong to Christ Jesus. You were chosen to be God's holy people together with all people everywhere who trust in the Lord* Jesus Christ—their Lord and ours.

Paul Gives Thanks to God

⁴ I always thank my God for you because of the grace that he has given you through Christ Jesus. ⁵ In him you have been blessed in every way. You have been blessed in all your speaking and all your knowledge. ⁶ This proves that what we told you about Christ is true. ⁷ Now you have every gift from God while you wait for our Lord Jesus Christ to come again. ⁸ He will keep you strong until the end so that on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ comes, you will be free from all blame. ⁹ God is faithful. He is the one who has chosen you to share life with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Stop Arguing With Each Other

¹⁰ Brothers and sisters, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ, I beg all of you to agree with each other. You should not be divided into different groups. Be completely joined together again with the same kind of thinking and the same purpose.

¹¹ My brothers and sisters, some members of Chloe's family told me that there are arguments among you. ¹² This is what I mean: One of you says, "I follow Paul," and someone else says, "I follow Apollos." Another says, "I follow Peter," and someone else says, "I follow Christ." ¹³ Christ cannot be divided into different groups. It wasn't Paul who died on the cross for you, was it? Were you baptized in Paul's name? ¹⁴ I am thankful that I did not baptize any of you except Crispus and Gaius. ¹⁵ I am thankful because now no one can say that you were baptized in my name. ¹⁶ (I also baptized the family of Stephanas, but I don't remember that I myself baptized any others.) ¹⁷ Christ did not give me the work of baptizing people. He gave me the work of telling the Good News. But he sent me to tell the Good News without using clever speech, which would take away the power that is in the cross† of Christ.

God's Power and Wisdom in Christ Jesus

¹⁸ The teaching about the cross seems foolish to those who are lost. But to us who are being saved it is the power of God. ¹⁹ As the Scriptures say,

"I will destroy the wisdom of the wise.

I will confuse the understanding of the intelligent."

Isaiah 29:14

²⁰ So what does this say about the philosopher, the law expert, or anyone in this world who is skilled in making clever arguments? God has made the wisdom of the world look foolish. ²¹ This is what God in his wisdom decided: Since the world did not find him through its own wisdom, he used the message that sounds foolish to save those who believe it.

²² The Jews ask for miraculous signs, and the Greeks want wisdom. ²³ But this is the message we tell everyone: Christ was killed on a cross. This message is a problem for Jews, and to other people it is nonsense. ²⁴ But Christ is God's power and wisdom to the people God has chosen, both Jews and Greeks. ²⁵ Even the foolishness of God is wiser than human wisdom. Even the weakness of God is stronger than human strength.

²⁶ Brothers and sisters, God chose you to be his. Think about that! Not many of you were wise in the way the world judges wisdom. Not many of you had great influence, and not many of you came from important families. ²⁷ But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise. He chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. ²⁸ And God chose what the world thinks is not important—what the world hates and thinks is nothing. He chose these to destroy what the world thinks is important. ²⁹ God did this so that no one can stand before him and boast about anything. ³⁰ It is God who has made you part of Christ Jesus. And Christ has become for us wisdom from God. He is the reason we are right with God and pure enough to be in his presence. Christ is the one who set us free from sin. ³¹ So, as the Scriptures say, “Whoever boasts should boast only about the Lord.”[☆]

My Message: Jesus Christ on the Cross

¹ Dear brothers and sisters, when I came to you, I told you the secret truth of God. But I did not use fancy words or great wisdom. ² I decided that while I was with you I would forget about everything except Jesus Christ and his death on the cross. ³ When I came to you, I was weak and shook with fear. ⁴ My teaching and my speaking were not with wise words that persuade people. But the proof of my teaching was the power that the Spirit gives. ⁵ I did this so that your faith would be in God’s power, not in human wisdom.

God’s Wisdom

⁶ We teach wisdom to people who are mature, but the wisdom we teach is not from this world. It is not the wisdom of the rulers of this world, who are losing their power. ⁷ But we speak God’s secret wisdom that has been hidden from everyone until now. God planned this wisdom for our glory. He planned it before the world began. ⁸ None of the rulers of this world understood this wisdom. If they had understood it, they would not have killed our great and glorious Lord on a cross. ⁹ But as the Scriptures say,

“No one has ever seen,
no one has ever heard,
no one has ever imagined
what God has prepared for those who love him.”

Isaiah 64:4

¹⁰ But God has shown us these things through the Spirit.

The Spirit knows all things. The Spirit even knows the deep secrets of God. ¹¹ It is like this: No one knows the thoughts that another person has. Only the person’s spirit that lives inside knows those thoughts. It is the same with God. No one knows God’s thoughts except God’s Spirit. ¹² We received the Spirit that is from God, not the spirit of the world. We received God’s Spirit so that we can know all that God has given us.

¹³ When we say this, we don’t use words taught to us by human wisdom. We use words taught to us by the Spirit. We use the Spirit’s words to explain spiritual truths. ¹⁴ People who do not have God’s Spirit do not accept the things that come from his Spirit. They think these things are foolish. They cannot understand them, because they can only be understood with the Spirit’s help. ¹⁵ We who have the Spirit are able to make judgments about all these things. But anyone without the Spirit is not able to make proper judgments about us. ¹⁶ As the Scriptures say,

“Who can know what is on the Lord’s mind?
Who is able to give him advice?”

Isaiah 40:13

But we have been given Christ's way of thinking.

Teachers Are Only God's Servants

¹ Brothers and sisters, when I was there, I could not talk to you the way I talk to people who are led by the Spirit. I had to talk to you like ordinary people of the world. You were like babies in Christ. ² And the teaching I gave you was like milk, not solid food. I did this because you were not ready for solid food. And even now you are not ready. ³ You are still not following the Spirit. You are jealous of each other, and you are always arguing with each other. This shows that you are still following your own selfish desires. You are acting like ordinary people of the world. ⁴ One of you says, "I follow Paul," and someone else says, "I follow Apollos." When you say things like that, you are acting like people of the world.

⁵ Is Apollos so important? Is Paul so important? We are only servants of God who helped you believe. Each one of us did the work God gave us to do. ⁶ I planted the seed and Apollos watered it. But God is the one who made the seed grow. ⁷ So the one who plants is not important, and the one who waters is not important. Only God is important, because he is the one who makes things grow. ⁸ The one who plants and the one who waters have the same purpose. And each one will be rewarded for his own work. ⁹ We are workers together for God, and you are like a farm that belongs to God.

And you are a house that belongs to God. ¹⁰ Like an expert builder I built the foundation of that house. I used the gift that God gave me to do this. Other people are building on that foundation. But everyone should be careful how they build. ¹¹ The foundation that has already been built is Jesus Christ, and no one can build any other foundation. ¹² People can build on that foundation using gold, silver, jewels, wood, grass, or straw. ¹³ But the work that each person does will be clearly seen, because the Day will make it plain. That Day will appear with fire, and the fire will test everyone's work. ¹⁴ If the building they put on the foundation still stands, they will get their reward. ¹⁵ But if their building is burned up, they will suffer loss. They will be saved, but it will be like someone escaping from a fire.

¹⁶ You should know that you yourselves are God's temple.* God's Spirit lives in you. ¹⁷ If you destroy God's temple, God will destroy you, because God's temple is holy. You yourselves are God's temple.

¹⁸ Don't fool yourselves. Whoever thinks they are wise in this world should become a fool. That's the only way they can be wise. ¹⁹ I say this because the wisdom of this world is foolishness to God. As the Scriptures say, "He catches those who think they are wise in their own clever traps."† ²⁰ The Scriptures also say, "The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise. He knows that their thoughts are worth nothing."‡ ²¹ So there is not a person on earth that any of you should be boasting about. Everything is yours: ²² Paul, Apollos, Peter, the world, life, death, the present, and the future—all these are yours. ²³ And you belong to Christ, and Christ belongs to God.

Apostles of Christ Jesus

¹ You should think of us as servants of Christ, the ones God has trusted to do the work of making known his secret truths. ² Those who are trusted with such an important work must show that they are worthy of that trust. ³ But I don't consider your judgment on this point to be worth anything. Even an opinion from a court of law would mean nothing. I don't even trust my own judgment. ⁴ I don't know of any wrong I have done, but that does not make me right. The Lord is the one who must decide if I have done well or not. ⁵ So don't judge anyone now. The time for judging will be when the Lord comes. He will shine light on everything that is now hidden in darkness. He will make known the secret purposes of our hearts. Then the praise each person should get will come from God.

* 3:16 temple God's house—the place where God's people worship him. Here, it means that believers are the spiritual temple where God lives. † 3:19 Quote from Job 5:13. ‡ 3:20 Quote from Psalm 94:11.

⁶ Brothers and sisters, I have used Apollos and myself as examples for you. I did this so that you could learn from us the meaning of the words, "Follow what the Scriptures say." Then you will not brag about one person and criticize another. ⁷ Who do you think you are? Everything you have was given to you. So, if everything you have was given to you, why do you act as if you got it all by your own power?

⁸ You think you have everything you need. You think you are rich. You think you have become kings without us. I wish you really were kings. Then we could rule together with you. ⁹ But it seems to me that God has given me and the other apostles the last place. We are like prisoners condemned to die, led in a parade for the whole world to see—not just people but angels too. ¹⁰ We are fools for Christ, but you think you are so wise in Christ. We are weak, but you think you are so strong. People give you honor, but they don't honor us. ¹¹ Even now we still don't have enough to eat or drink, and we don't have enough clothes. We often get beatings. We have no homes. ¹² We work hard with our own hands to feed ourselves. When people insult us, we ask God to bless them. When people treat us badly, we accept it. ¹³ When people say bad things about us, we try to say something that will help them. But people still treat us like the world's garbage—everyone's trash.

¹⁴ I am not trying to make you feel ashamed, but I am writing this to counsel you as my own dear children. ¹⁵ You may have ten thousand teachers in Christ, but you don't have many fathers. Through the Good News I became your father in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ So I beg you to be like me. ¹⁷ That is why I am sending Timothy to you. He is my son in the Lord. I love him and trust him. He will help you remember the way I live in Christ Jesus—a way of life that I teach in every meeting of the church wherever I am.

¹⁸ Some of you are acting so proud, it seems as though you think I won't be coming there again. ¹⁹ But I will come to you very soon, the Lord willing. Then I will see if these proud talkers have the power to do anything more than talk. ²⁰ God's kingdom is not seen in talk but in power. ²¹ Which do you want: that I come to you with punishment, or that I come with love and gentleness?

Don't Let Your People Live in Sin

¹ I don't want to believe what I am hearing—that there is sexual sin among you. And it is such a bad kind of sexual sin that even those who have never known God don't allow it. People say that a man there has his father's wife. ² And still you are proud of yourselves! You should have been filled with sadness. And the man who committed that sin should be put out of your group. ³ I cannot be there with you in person, but I am with you in spirit. And I have already judged the man who did this. I judged him the same as I would if I were really there. ⁴ Come together in the name of our Lord Jesus. I will be with you in spirit, and you will have the power of our Lord Jesus with you. ⁵ Then turn this man over to Satan. His sinful self* has to be destroyed so that his spirit will be saved on the day when the Lord comes again.

⁶ Your proud talk is not good. You know the saying, "Just a little yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise." ⁷ Take out all the old yeast, so that you will be a new batch of dough. You really are bread without yeast—Passover bread.† Yes, Christ our Passover

* 5:5 sinful self Or "body." Literally, "flesh." † 5:7 Passover bread The special bread without yeast that the Jews ate at their Passover meal. Paul means that believers are free from sin, just as the Passover bread was free from yeast.

Lamb[‡] has already been killed. ⁸ So let us eat our Passover meal, but not with the bread that has the old yeast, the yeast of sin and wrongdoing. But let us eat the bread that has no yeast. This is the bread of goodness and truth.

⁹ I wrote to you in my letter that you should not associate with people who sin sexually. ¹⁰ But I did not mean the people of this world. You would have to leave the world to get away from all the people who sin sexually, or who are greedy and cheat each other, or who worship idols. ¹¹ I meant you must not associate with people who claim to be believers but continue to live in sin. Don't even eat with a brother or sister who sins sexually, is greedy, worships idols, abuses others with insults, gets drunk, or cheats people.

¹²⁻¹³ It is not my business to judge those who are not part of the group of believers. God will judge them, but you must judge those who are part of your group. The Scriptures say, "Make the evil person leave your group."[☆]

Judging Problems Between Believers

¹ When one of you has something against someone else in your group, why do you go to the judges in the law courts? The way they think and live is wrong. So why do you let them decide who is right? Why don't you let God's holy people decide who is right?

² Don't you know that God's people will judge the world? So if you will judge the world, then surely you can judge small arguments like this. ³ You know that in the future we will judge angels. So surely we can judge life's ordinary problems. ⁴ So if you have such matters to be judged, why do you take them to those who are not part of the church? They mean nothing to you. ⁵ I say this to shame you. Surely there is someone in your group wise enough to judge a complaint between two believers. ⁶ But now one believer goes to court against another, and you let people who are not believers judge their case!

⁷ The lawsuits that you have against each other show that you are already defeated. It would be better for you to let someone wrong you. It would be better to let someone cheat you. ⁸ But you are the ones doing wrong and cheating. And you do this to your own brothers and sisters in Christ!

⁹⁻¹⁰ Surely you know that people who do wrong will not get to enjoy God's kingdom. Don't be fooled. These are the people who will not get to enjoy his kingdom: those who sin sexually, those who worship idols, those who commit adultery, men who let other men use them for sex or who have sex with other men, those who steal, those who are greedy, those who drink too much, those who abuse others with insults, and those who cheat. ¹¹ In the past some of you were like that. But you were washed clean, you were made holy, and you were made right with God in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and by the Spirit of our God.

Use Your Bodies for God's Glory

¹² "I am allowed to do anything," you say. My answer to this is that not all things are good. Even if it is true that "I am allowed to do anything," I will not let anything control me like a slave. ¹³ Someone else says, "Food is for the stomach, and the stomach for food." Yes, and God will destroy them both. But the body is not for sexual sin. The body is for the Lord, and the Lord is for the body. ¹⁴ And God will raise our bodies from death with the same power he used to raise the Lord Jesus. ¹⁵ Surely you know that your bodies are parts of Christ himself. So I must never take what is part of Christ and join it to a prostitute! ¹⁶ The Scriptures say, "The two people will become one."[☆] So you should know that anyone who is joined with a prostitute becomes one with her in body. ¹⁷ But anyone who is joined with the Lord is one with him in spirit.

[‡] 5:7 Passover Lamb Jesus was a sacrifice for his people, like a lamb killed for the Jewish Passover Feast. [☆] 5:12-13
Quote from Deuteronomy 22:21, 24. [☆] 6:16 Quote from Genesis 2:24.

¹⁸ So run away from sexual sin. It involves the body in a way that no other sin does. So if you commit sexual sin, you are sinning against your own body. ¹⁹ You should know that your body is a temple* for the Holy Spirit that you received from God and that lives in you. You don't own yourselves. ²⁰ God paid a very high price to make you his. So honor God with your body.

About Marriage

¹ Now I will discuss the things you wrote me about. You asked if it is better for a man not to have any sexual relations at all. ² But sexual sin is a danger, so each man should enjoy his own wife, and each woman should enjoy her own husband. ³ The husband should give his wife what she deserves as his wife. And the wife should give her husband what he deserves as her husband. ⁴ The wife does not have power over her own body. Her husband has the power over her body. And the husband does not have power over his own body. His wife has the power over his body. ⁵ Don't refuse to give your bodies to each other. But you might both agree to stay away from sex for a while so that you can give your time to prayer. Then come together again so that Satan will not be able to tempt you in your weakness. ⁶ I say this only to give you permission to be separated for a time. It is not a rule. ⁷ I wish everyone could be like me. But God has given each person a different ability. He makes some able to live one way, others to live a different way.

⁸ Now for those who are not married and for the widows I say this: It is good for you to stay single like me. ⁹ But if you cannot control your body, then you should marry. It is better to marry than to burn with sexual desire.

¹² The advice I have for the others is from me. The Lord did not give us any teaching about this. If you have a wife who is not a believer, you should not divorce her if she will continue to live with you. ¹³ And if you have a husband who is not a believer, you should not divorce him if he will continue to live with you. ¹⁴ The husband who is not a believer is set apart for God through his believing wife. And the wife who is not a believer is set apart for God through her believing husband. If this were not true, your children would be unfit for God's use. But now they are set apart for him.

¹⁵ But if the husband or wife who is not a believer decides to leave, let them leave. When this happens, the brother or sister in Christ is free. God chose you to have a life of peace. ¹⁶ Wives, maybe you will save your husband; and husbands, maybe you will save your wife. You don't know now what will happen later.

Live as God Called You

¹⁷ But each one of you should continue to live the way the Lord God has given you to live—the way you were when God chose you. I tell people in all the churches to follow this rule. ¹⁸ If a man was already circumcised when he was chosen, he should not change his circumcision. If a man was without circumcision when he was chosen, he should not be circumcised. ¹⁹ It is not important if anyone is circumcised or not. What is important is obeying God's commands. ²⁰ Each one of you should stay the way you were when God chose you. ²¹ If you were a slave when God chose you, don't let that bother you. But if you can be free, then do it. ²² If you were a slave when the Lord chose you, you are now free in the Lord. You belong to the Lord. In the same way, if you were free when you were chosen, you are now Christ's slave. ²³ God paid a high price for you, so don't be slaves to anyone else. ²⁴ Brothers and sisters, in your new life with God, each one of you should continue the way you were when God chose you.

Questions About Getting Married

²⁵ Now I write about people who are not married.* I have no command from the Lord about this, but I give my opinion. And I can be trusted, because the Lord has given me mercy. ²⁶ This is a time of trouble. So I think it is good for you to stay the way you are. ²⁷ If you have a wife, don't try to get free from her. If you are not married, don't try to find a wife. ²⁸ But if you decide to marry, that is not a sin. And it is not a sin for a girl who has never married to get married. But those who marry will have trouble in this life, and I want you to be free from this trouble.

²⁹ Brothers and sisters, this is what I mean: We don't have much time left. So starting now, those who have wives should be the same as those who don't. ³⁰ It should not be important whether you are sad or whether you are happy. If you buy something, it should not matter to you that you own it. ³¹ You should use the things of the world without letting them become important to you. This is how you should live, because this world, the way it is now, will soon be gone.

³² I want you to be free from worry. A man who is not married is busy with the Lord's work. He is trying to please the Lord. ³³ But a man who is married is busy with things of the world. He is trying to please his wife. ³⁴ He must think about two things—pleasing his wife and pleasing the Lord. A woman who is not married or a girl who has never married is busy with the Lord's work. She wants to give herself fully—body and spirit—to the Lord. But a married woman is busy with things of the world. She is trying to please her husband. ³⁵ I am saying this to help you. I am not trying to limit you, but I want you to live in the right way. And I want you to give yourselves fully to the Lord without giving your time to other things.

³⁹ A woman should stay with her husband as long as he lives. But if the husband dies, the woman is free to marry any man she wants, but he should belong to the Lord. ⁴⁰ The woman is happier if she does not marry again. This is my opinion, and I believe that I have God's Spirit.

About Food Offered to Idols

¹ Now I will write about meat that is sacrificed* to idols. It is certainly true that “we all have knowledge,” as you say. But this knowledge only fills people with pride. It is love that helps the church grow stronger. ² Those who think they know something do not yet know anything as they should. ³ But whoever loves God is known by God.

⁴ So this is what I say about eating meat: We know that an idol is really nothing in the world, and we know that there is only one God. ⁵ It's really not important if there are things called gods in heaven or on earth—and there are many of these “gods” and “lords” out there. ⁶ For us there is only one God, and he is our Father. All things came from him, and we live for him. And there is only one Lord, Jesus Christ. All things were made through him, and we also have life through him.

* 7:25 people who are not married Literally, “virgins.” † 7:36 She ... to marry Or “He may have trouble controlling his desires.” * 8:1 sacrificed Killed and offered as a gift to show worship. Also in verse 10.

⁷ But not all people know this. Some have had the habit of worshiping idols. So now when they eat meat, they still feel as if it belongs to an idol. They are not sure that it is right to eat this meat. So when they eat it, they feel guilty. ⁸ But food will not bring us closer to God. Refusing to eat does not make us less pleasing to God, and eating does not make us closer to him.

⁹ But be careful with your freedom. Your freedom to eat anything may make those who have doubts about what they can eat fall into sin. ¹⁰ You understand that it's all right to eat anything, so you can eat even in an idol's temple. But someone who has doubts might see you eating there, and this might encourage them to eat meat sacrificed to idols too. But they really think it is wrong. ¹¹ So this weak brother or sister—someone Christ died for—is lost because of your better understanding. ¹² When you sin against your brothers and sisters in Christ in this way and you hurt them by causing them to do things they feel are wrong, you are also sinning against Christ. ¹³ So if the food I eat makes another believer fall into sin, I will never eat meat again. I will stop eating meat, so that I will not make my brother or sister sin.

Rights That Paul Has Not Used

¹ I am a free man. I am an apostle. I have seen Jesus our Lord. You people are an example of my work in the Lord. ² Others may not accept me as an apostle, but surely you do. You are proof that I am an apostle in the Lord.

³ Some people want to judge me. So this is the answer I give them: ⁴ We have the right to eat and drink, don't we? ⁵ We have the right to bring a believing wife with us when we travel, don't we? The other apostles and the Lord's brothers and Peter all do this. ⁶ And are Barnabas and I the only ones who must work to earn our living? ⁷ No soldier ever serves in the army and pays his own salary. No one ever plants a vineyard without eating some of the grapes himself. No one takes care of a flock of sheep without drinking some of the milk himself.

⁸ These aren't just my own thoughts. God's law says the same thing. ⁹ Yes, it is written in the Law of Moses: "When a work animal is being used to separate grain, don't keep it from eating the grain."[☆] When God said this, was he thinking only about work animals? No. ¹⁰ He was really talking about us. Yes, that was written for us. The one who plows and the one who separates the grain should both expect to get some of the grain for their work. ¹¹ We planted spiritual seed among you, so we should be able to harvest from you some things for this life. Surely that is not asking too much. ¹² Others have this right to get things from you. So surely we have this right too. But we don't use this right. No, we endure everything ourselves so that we will not stop anyone from obeying the Good News of Christ. ¹³ Surely you know that those who work at the Temple get their food from the Temple. And those who serve at the altar get part of what is offered at the altar. ¹⁴ It is the same with those who have the work of telling the Good News. The Lord has commanded that those who tell the Good News should get their living from this work.

¹⁵ But I have not used any of these rights, and I am not trying to get anything from you. That is not my purpose for writing this. I would rather die than to have someone take away what for me is a great source of pride. ¹⁶ It's not my work of telling the Good News that gives me any reason to boast. That is my duty—something I must do. If I don't tell people the Good News, I am in real trouble. ¹⁷ If I did it because it was my own choice, I would deserve to be paid. But I have no choice. I must tell the Good News. So I am only doing the duty that was given to me. ¹⁸ So what do I get for doing it? My reward is that when I tell people the Good News I can offer it to them for free and not use the rights that come with doing this work.

¹⁹ I am free. I belong to no other person, but I make myself a slave to everyone. I do this to help save as many people as I can. ²⁰ To the Jews I became like a Jew so that I could help save Jews. I myself am not ruled by the law, but to those who are ruled by the law I became like someone who is ruled by the law. I did this to help save those who are ruled by the law. ²¹ To those who are without the law I became like someone who is without the law. I did this to help save those who are without the law. (But really, I am not without God's law—I am ruled by the law of Christ.) ²² To those who are weak, I became weak so that I could help save them. I have become all things to all people. I did this so that I could save people in any way possible. ²³ I do all this to make the Good News known. I do it so that I can share in the blessings of the Good News.

²⁴ You know that in a race all the runners run, but only one runner gets the prize. So run like that. Run to win! ²⁵ All who compete in the games use strict training. They do this so that they can win a prize—one that doesn't last. But our prize is one that will last forever. ²⁶ So I run like someone who has a goal. I fight like a boxer who is hitting something, not just the air. ²⁷ It is my own body I fight to make it do what I want. I do this so that I won't miss getting the prize myself after telling others about it.

Warning From History

¹ Brothers and sisters, I want you to know what happened to our ancestors who were with Moses. They were all under the cloud,* and they all walked through the sea. ² They were all baptized† into Moses in the cloud and in the sea. ³ They all ate the same spiritual food, ⁴ and they all drank the same spiritual drink. They drank from that spiritual rock that was with them, and that rock was Christ. ⁵ But God was not pleased with most of those people, so they were killed in the desert.

⁶ And these things that happened are examples for us. These examples should stop us from wanting evil things like those people did. ⁷ Don't worship idols as some of them did. As the Scriptures say, "The people sat down to eat and drink and then got up to have a wild party."‡ ⁸ We should not commit sexual sins as some of them did. In one day 23,000 of them died because of their sin. ⁹ We should not test Christ‡ as some of them did. Because of that, they were killed by snakes. ¹⁰ And don't complain as some of them did. Because they complained, they were killed by the angel that destroys.

¹¹ The things that happened to those people are examples. They were written to be warnings for us. We live in the time that all those past histories were pointing to. ¹² So anyone who thinks they are standing strong should be careful that they don't fall. ¹³ The only temptations that you have are the same temptations that all people have. But you can trust God. He will not let you be tempted more than you can bear. But when you are tempted, God will also give you a way to escape that temptation. Then you will be able to endure it.

¹⁴ So, my dear friends, stay away from worshipping idols. ¹⁵ You are intelligent people. Judge for yourselves the truth of what I say now. ¹⁶ The cup of blessing§ that we give thanks for is a sharing in the blood sacrifice of Christ, isn't it? And the bread that we break is a sharing in the body of Christ, isn't it? ¹⁷ There is one loaf of bread, so we who are many are one body, because we all share in that one loaf.

* 10:1 cloud The cloud that led and protected the people of Israel on their journey out of Egypt, across the Red Sea, and through the wilderness. See Exodus 13:20-22; 14:19, 20. † 10:2 baptized See "baptize" in the Word List. Here, Paul seems to mean that what happened to the Jews with Moses can be compared to the baptism of a believer into Christ. ‡ 10:7 Quote from Exodus 32:6. ‡ 10:9 Christ Some Greek copies say, "the Lord." § 10:16 cup of blessing The cup of wine that believers in Christ thank God for and drink at the Lord's Supper.

¹⁸ And think about what the people of Israel do. When they eat the sacrifices,* they are united by sharing what was offered on the altar. ¹⁹ So, am I saying that sacrifices to idols are the same as those Jewish sacrifices? No, because an idol is nothing, and the things offered to idols are worth nothing. ²⁰ But I am saying that when food is sacrificed to idols, it is an offering to demons, not to God. And I don't want you to share anything with demons. ²¹ You cannot drink the cup of the Lord and then go drink a cup that honors demons. You cannot share a meal at the Lord's table and then go share a meal that honors demons. ²² Doing that would make the Lord jealous.† Do you really want to do that? Do you think we are stronger than he is?

Use Your Freedom for God's Glory

²⁵ Eat any meat that is sold in the meat market. Don't ask questions about it to see if it is something you think is wrong to eat. ²⁶ You can eat it, "because the earth and everything in it belong to the Lord."☆

²⁷ Someone who is not a believer might invite you to eat with them. If you want to go, then eat anything that is put before you. Don't ask questions to see if it is something you think is wrong to eat. ²⁸ But if someone tells you, "That food was offered to idols," then don't eat it. That's because some people think it is wrong, and it might cause a problem for the person who told you that. ²⁹ I don't mean that you think it is wrong. But the other person might think it is wrong. That's the only reason not to eat it. My own freedom should not be judged by what another person thinks. ³⁰ I eat the meal with thankfulness. So I don't want to be criticized because of something I thank God for.

³¹ So if you eat, or if you drink, or if you do anything, do it for the glory of God. ³² Never do anything that might make other people do wrong—Jews, non-Jews, or anyone in God's church. ³³ I do the same thing. I try to please everyone in every way. I am not trying to do what is good for me. I am trying to do what is good for the most people so that they can be saved.

¹ Follow my example, just as I follow the example of Christ.

Being Under Authority

² I praise you because you remember me in all things. You follow closely the teachings I gave you. ³ But I want you to understand this: The head of every man is Christ. And the head of a woman is the man.* And the head of Christ is God.

⁷ But a man should not cover his head, because he is made like God and is God's glory. But woman is man's glory. ⁸ Man did not come from woman. Woman came from man. ⁹ And man was not made for woman. Woman was made for man. ¹⁰ So that is why a woman should have her head covered with something that shows she is under authority.† Also, she should do this because of the angels.

* 10:18 sacrifices Animals killed and offered as gifts to God. † 10:22 make the Lord jealous See Deuteronomy 32:16, 17. ☆ 10:26 Quote from Psalm 24:1; 50:12; 89:11. * 11:3 the man This could also mean "her husband." † 11:10 have her head ... authority Literally, "have authority on her head." This could also be translated, "keep control of her head," meaning "do what will keep people from misunderstanding her uncovered head."

¹¹ But in the Lord the woman needs the man, and the man needs the woman. ¹² This is true because woman came from man, but also man is born from woman. Really, everything comes from God.

¹³ Decide this for yourselves: Is it right for a woman to pray to God without something on her head? ¹⁴ Even nature itself teaches you that wearing long hair is shameful for a man. ¹⁵ But wearing long hair is a woman's honor. Long hair is given to the woman to cover her head. ¹⁶ Some people may still want to argue about this. But we and the churches of God don't accept what those people are doing.

The Lord's Supper

¹⁷ In the things I tell you now I don't praise you. Your meetings hurt you more than they help you. ¹⁸ First, I hear that when you meet together as a church you are divided. And this is not hard to believe ¹⁹ because of your idea that you must have separate groups to show who the real believers are!

²³ The teaching I gave you is the same that I received from the Lord: On the night when the Lord Jesus was handed over to be killed, he took bread ²⁴ and gave thanks for it. Then he divided the bread and said, "This is my body; it is for you. Eat this to remember me." ²⁵ In the same way, after they ate, Jesus took the cup of wine. He said, "This cup represents the new agreement from God, which begins with my blood sacrifice. When you drink this, do it to remember me." ²⁶ This means that every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are telling others about the Lord's death until he comes again.

²⁷ So if you eat the bread or drink the cup of the Lord in a way that does not fit its meaning, you are sinning against the body and the blood of the Lord. ²⁸ Before you eat the bread and drink the cup, you should examine your own attitude. ²⁹ If you eat and drink without paying attention to those who are the Lord's body, your eating and drinking will cause you to be judged guilty. ³⁰ That is why many in your group are sick and weak, and many have died. ³¹ But if we judged ourselves in the right way, then God would not judge us. ³² But when the Lord judges us, he punishes us to show us the right way. He does this so that we will not be condemned with the world.

³³ So, my brothers and sisters, when you come together to eat, wait for each other. ³⁴ If some are too hungry to wait, they should eat at home. Do this so that your meeting together will not bring God's judgment on you. I will tell you what to do about the other things when I come.

Gifts From the Holy Spirit

¹ Now, brothers and sisters, I want you to understand about spiritual gifts. ² You remember the lives you lived before you were believers. You let yourselves be influenced and led away to worship idols—things that have no life. ³ So I tell you that no one who is speaking with the help of God's Spirit says, "Jesus be cursed." And no one can say, "Jesus is Lord," without the help of the Holy Spirit.

⁴ There are different kinds of spiritual gifts, but they are all from the same Spirit. ⁵ There are different ways to serve, but we serve the same Lord. ⁶ And there are different ways that God works in people, but it is the same God who works in all of us to do everything.

⁷ Something from the Spirit can be seen in each person. The Spirit gives this to each one to help others. ⁸ The Spirit gives one person the ability to speak with wisdom. And the same Spirit gives another person the ability to speak with knowledge. ⁹ The same Spirit gives faith to one person and to another he gives gifts of healing. ¹⁰ The Spirit gives to one person the power to do miracles, to another the ability to prophesy, and to another the ability to judge what is from the Spirit and what is not. The Spirit gives one person the ability to speak in different kinds of languages, and to another the ability to interpret those languages. ¹¹ One Spirit, the same Spirit, does all these things. The Spirit decides what to give each one.

The Body of Christ

¹² A person has only one body, but it has many parts. Yes, there are many parts, but all those parts are still just one body. Christ is like that too. ¹³ Some of us are Jews and some of us are not; some of us are slaves and some of us are free. But we were all baptized to become one body through one Spirit. And we were all given* the one Spirit.

¹⁴ And a person's body has more than one part. It has many parts. ¹⁵ The foot might say, "I am not a hand, so I don't belong to the body." But saying this would not stop the foot from being a part of the body. ¹⁶ The ear might say, "I am not an eye, so I don't belong to the body." But saying this would not make the ear stop being a part of the body. ¹⁷ If the whole body were an eye, it would not be able to hear. If the whole body were an ear, it would not be able to smell anything. ¹⁸⁻¹⁹ If each part of the body were the same part, there would be no body. But as it is, God put the parts in the body as he wanted them. He made a place for each one. ²⁰ So there are many parts, but only one body.

²¹ The eye cannot say to the hand, "I don't need you!" And the head cannot say to the foot, "I don't need you!" ²² No, those parts of the body that seem to be weaker are actually very important. ²³ And the parts that we think are not worth very much are the parts we give the most care to. And we give special care to the parts of the body that we don't want to show. ²⁴ The more beautiful parts don't need this special care. But God put the body together and gave more honor to the parts that need it. ²⁵ God did this so that our body would not be divided. God wanted the different parts to care the same for each other. ²⁶ If one part of the body suffers, then all the other parts suffer with it. Or if one part is honored, then all the other parts share its honor.

²⁷ All of you together are the body of Christ. Each one of you is a part of that body. ²⁸ And in the church God has given a place first to apostles, second to prophets, and third to teachers. Then God has given a place to those who do miracles, those who have gifts of healing, those who can help others, those who are able to lead, and those who can speak in different kinds of languages. ²⁹ Not all are apostles. Not all are prophets. Not all are teachers. Not all do miracles. ³⁰ Not all have gifts of healing. Not all speak in different kinds of languages. Not all interpret those languages. ³¹ Continue to give your attention to the spiritual gifts you consider to be the greatest. But now I want to point out a way of life that is even greater.

Let Love Be Your Guide

¹ I may speak in different languages, whether human or even of angels. But if I don't have love, I am only a noisy bell or a ringing cymbal. ² I may have the gift of prophecy, I may understand all secrets and know everything there is to know, and I may have faith so great that I can move mountains. But even with all this, if I don't have love, I am nothing. ³ I may give away everything I have to help others, and I may even give my body as an offering to be burned. But I gain nothing by doing all this if I don't have love.

* 12:13 given Literally, "given to drink."

⁴ Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous, it does not brag, and it is not proud.

⁸ Love will never end. But all those gifts will come to an end—even the gift of prophecy, the gift of speaking in different kinds of languages, and the gift of knowledge. ⁹ These will all end because this knowledge and these prophecies we have are not complete.

¹⁰ But when perfection comes, the things that are not complete will end.

¹¹ When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, and I made plans like a child. When I became a man, I stopped those childish ways. ¹² It is the same with us. Now we see God as if we are looking at a reflection in a mirror. But then, in the future, we will see him right before our eyes. Now I know only a part, but at that time I will know fully, as God has known me. ¹³ So these three things continue: faith, hope, and love. And the greatest of these is love.

Use Spiritual Gifts to Help the Church

¹ Love should be the goal of your life, but you should also want to have the gifts that come from the Spirit. And the gift you should want most is to be able to prophesy. ² I will explain why. Those who have the gift of speaking in a different language are not speaking to people. They are speaking to God. No one understands them—they are speaking secret things through the Spirit. ³ But those who prophesy are speaking to people. They help people grow stronger in faith, and they give encouragement and comfort. ⁴ Those who speak in a different language are helping only themselves. But those who prophesy are helping the whole church.

⁵ I would like all of you to have the gift of speaking in different languages. But what I want more is for you to prophesy. Anyone who prophesies is more important than those who can only speak in different languages. However, if they can also interpret those languages, they are as important as the one who prophesies. If they can interpret, then the church can be helped by what they say.

⁶ Brothers and sisters, will it help you if I come to you speaking in different languages? No, it will help you only if I bring you a new truth or some knowledge, prophecy, or teaching. ⁷ This is true even with lifeless things that make sounds—like a flute or a harp. If the different musical notes are not made clear, you can't understand what song is being played. Each note must be played clearly for you to be able to understand the tune. ⁸ And in a war, if the trumpet does not sound clearly, the soldiers will not know it is time to prepare for fighting.

⁹ It is the same with you. If you don't speak clearly in a language people know, they cannot understand what you are saying. You will be talking to the air! ¹⁰ It is true that there are many different languages in the world, and they all have meaning. ¹¹ But if I don't understand the meaning of what someone is saying, it will just be strange sounds to me, and I will sound just as strange to them. ¹² That's why you who want spiritual gifts so much should prefer those gifts that help the church grow stronger.

¹³ So those who have the gift of speaking in a different language should pray that they can also interpret what they say. ¹⁴ If I pray in a different language, my spirit is praying, but my mind does nothing. ¹⁵ So what should I do? I will pray with my spirit, but I will also pray with my mind. I will sing with my spirit, but I will also sing with my mind. ¹⁶ You might be praising God with your spirit. But someone there without understanding cannot say "Amen" to your prayer of thanks, because they don't know what you are saying. ¹⁷ You may be thanking God in a good way, but others are not helped.

¹⁸ I thank God that my gift of speaking in different kinds of languages is greater than any of yours. ¹⁹ But in the church meetings I would rather speak five words that I understand than thousands of words in a different language. I would rather speak with my understanding, so that I can teach others.

²⁰ Brothers and sisters, don't think like children. In evil things be like babies, but in your thinking you should be like full-grown adults. ²¹ As the Scriptures* say,

“Using those who speak a different language and using the lips of foreigners,
I will speak to these people.
But even then, they will not obey me.”

Isaiah 28:11-12

This is what the Lord says.

²² And from this we see that the use of different languages shows how God deals with those who don't believe, not with those who believe. And prophecy shows how God works through those who believe, not through unbelievers. ²³ Suppose the whole church meets together and you all speak in different languages. If some people come in who are without understanding or don't believe, they will say you are crazy. ²⁴ But suppose you are all prophesying and someone comes in who does not believe or who is without understanding. Their sin will be shown to them, and they will be judged by everything you say. ²⁵ The secret things in their heart will be made known. So they will bow down and worship God. They will say, “Without a doubt, God is here with you.”†

Your Meetings Should Be Helpful to All

²⁶ So, brothers and sisters, what should you do? When you meet together, one person has a song, another has a teaching, and another has a new truth from God. One person speaks in a different language, and another interprets that language. The purpose of whatever you do should be to help everyone grow stronger in faith. ²⁷ When you meet together, if anyone speaks to the group in a different language, it should be only two or no more than three people who do this. And they should speak one after the other. And someone else should interpret what they say. ²⁸ But if there is no interpreter, then anyone who speaks in a different language should be quiet in the church meeting. They should speak only to themselves and to God.

²⁹ And only two or three prophets should speak. The others should judge what they say. ³⁰ And if a message from God comes to someone who is sitting, the first speaker should be quiet. ³¹ You can all prophesy one after the other. This way everyone can be taught and encouraged. ³² The spirits of prophets are under the control of the prophets themselves. ³³ God is not a God of confusion but a God of peace. This is the rule for all the meetings of God's people.

³⁴ The women should keep quiet in these church meetings. They are not allowed to speak out but should be under authority, as the Law of Moses says. ³⁵ If there is something they want to know, they should ask their own husbands at home. It is shameful for a woman to speak up like that in the church meeting.

³⁶ God's teaching did not come from you, and you are not the only ones who have received it. ³⁷ If you think you are a prophet or that you have a spiritual gift, you should understand that what I am writing to you is the Lord's command. ³⁸ If you do not accept this, you will not be accepted.

* 14:21 Scriptures Literally, “law,” which sometimes means the Old Testament. † 14:25 See Isaiah 45:14 and Zechariah 8:23.

³⁹ So my brothers and sisters, continue to give your attention to prophesying. And don't stop anyone from using the gift of speaking in different languages. ⁴⁰ But everything should be done in a way that is right and orderly.

The Good News About Jesus Christ

¹ Now, brothers and sisters, I want you to remember the Good News I told you. You received that Good News message, and you continue to base your life on it. ² That Good News, the message you heard from me, is God's way to save you. But you must continue believing it. If you don't, you believed for nothing.

³ I gave you the message that I received. I told you the most important truths: that Christ died for our sins, as the Scriptures say; ⁴ that he was buried and was raised to life on the third day, as the Scriptures say; ⁵ and that he appeared to Peter and then to the twelve apostles. ⁶ After that Christ appeared to more than 500 other believers at the same time. Most of them are still living today, but some have died. ⁷ Then he appeared to James and later to all the apostles. ⁸ Last of all, he appeared to me. I was different, like a baby born before the normal time.

⁹ All the other apostles are greater than I am. I say this because I persecuted the church of God. That is why I am not even good enough to be called an apostle. ¹⁰ But, because of God's grace, that is what I am. And his grace that he gave me was not wasted. I worked harder than all the other apostles. (But I was not really the one working. It was God's grace that was with me.) ¹¹ So then it is not important if I told you God's message or if it was the other apostles who told you—we all tell people the same message, and this is what you believed.

We Will Be Raised From Death

¹² We tell everyone that Christ was raised from death. So why do some of you say that people will not be raised from death? ¹³ If no one will ever be raised from death, then Christ has never been raised. ¹⁴ And if Christ has never been raised, then the message we tell is worth nothing. And your faith is worth nothing. ¹⁵ And we will also be guilty of lying about God, because we have told people about him, saying that he raised Christ from death. And if no one is raised from death, then God never raised Christ from death. ¹⁶ If those who have died are not raised, then Christ has not been raised either. ¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised from death, then your faith is for nothing; you are still guilty of your sins. ¹⁸ And those in Christ who have already died are lost. ¹⁹ If our hope in Christ is only for this life here on earth, then people should feel more sorry for us than for anyone else.

²⁰ But Christ really has been raised from death—the first one of all those who will be raised. ²¹ Death comes to people because of what one man did. But now there is resurrection from death because of another man. ²² I mean that in Adam all of us die. And in the same way, in Christ all of us will be made alive again. ²³ But everyone will be raised to life in the right order. Christ was first to be raised. Then, when Christ comes again, those who belong to him will be raised to life. ²⁴ Then the end will come. Christ will destroy all rulers, authorities, and powers. Then he will give the kingdom to God the Father.

²⁵ Christ must rule until God puts all enemies under his control.* ²⁶ The last enemy to be destroyed will be death. ²⁷ As the Scriptures say, "God put everything under his control."☆ When it says that "everything" is put under him, it is clear that this does not include God himself. God is the one putting everything under Christ's control. ²⁸ After everything has been put under Christ, then the Son himself will be put under God. God is the one who put everything under Christ. And Christ will be put under God so that God will be the complete ruler over everything.

²⁹ If no one will ever be raised from death, then what will the people do who are baptized for those who have died? If the dead are never raised, then why are people baptized for them?

³⁰ And what about us? Why do we put ourselves in danger every hour? ³¹ I face death every day. That is true, brothers and sisters, just as it is true that I am proud of what you are because of Christ Jesus our Lord. ³² I fought wild animals in Ephesus. If I did that only for human reasons, then I have gained nothing. If we are not raised from death, “Let us eat and drink, because tomorrow we die.”[☆]

³³ Don’t be fooled: “Bad friends will ruin good habits.” ³⁴ Come back to your right way of thinking and stop sinning. Some of you don’t know God. I say this to shame you.

What Kind of Body Will We Have?

³⁵ But someone may ask, “How are the dead raised? What kind of body will they have?” ³⁶ These are stupid questions. When you plant something, it must die in the ground before it can live and grow. ³⁷ And when you plant something, what you plant does not have the same “body” that it will have later. What you plant is only a seed, maybe wheat or something else. ³⁸ But God gives it the body that he has planned for it, and he gives each kind of seed its own body. ³⁹ All things made of flesh are not the same: People have one kind of flesh, animals have another, birds have another, and fish have yet another kind. ⁴⁰ Also there are heavenly bodies and earthly bodies. But the beauty of the heavenly bodies is one kind, and the beauty of the earthly bodies is another. ⁴¹ The sun has one kind of beauty, the moon has another kind, and the stars have another. And each star is different in its beauty.

⁴² It will be the same when those who have died are raised to life. The body that is “planted” in the grave will ruin and decay, but it will be raised to a life that cannot be destroyed. ⁴³ When the body is “planted,” it is without honor. But when it is raised, it will be great and glorious. When the body is “planted,” it is weak. But when it is raised, it will be full of power. ⁴⁴ The body that is “planted” is a physical body. When it is raised, it will be a spiritual body.

There is a physical body. So there is also a spiritual body. ⁴⁵ As the Scriptures say, “The first man, Adam, became a living person.[†]”[☆] But the last Adam[‡] is a life-giving spirit. ⁴⁶ The spiritual man did not come first. It was the physical man that came first; then came the spiritual. ⁴⁷ The first man came from the dust of the earth. The second man came from heaven. ⁴⁸ All people belong to the earth. They are like that first man of earth. But those who belong to heaven are like that man of heaven. ⁴⁹ We were made like that man of earth, so we will also be made like that man of heaven.

⁵⁰ I tell you this, brothers and sisters: Our bodies of flesh and blood cannot have a part in God’s kingdom. Something that will ruin cannot have a part in something that never ruins. ⁵¹ But listen, I tell you this secret: We will not all die, but we will all be changed. ⁵² It will only take the time of a second. We will be changed as quickly as an eye blinks. This will happen when the last trumpet blows. The trumpet will blow and those who have died will be raised to live forever. And we will all be changed. ⁵³ This body that ruins must clothe itself with something that will never ruin. And this body that dies must clothe itself with something that will never die. ⁵⁴ So this body that ruins will clothe itself with that which never ruins. And this body that dies will clothe itself with that which never dies. When this happens, the Scriptures will be made true:

“Death is swallowed in victory.”

Isaiah 25:8

[☆] 15:32 Quote from Isaiah 22:13; 56:12. [†] 15:45 person Literally, “soul.” [☆] 15:45 Quote from Genesis 2:7.

[‡] 15:45 Adam The name Adam means “man.” Here, “the last Adam” refers to Christ, the “man of heaven.”

⁵⁵ “O death, where is your victory?
Where is your power to hurt?”

Hosea 13:14

⁵⁶ Death’s power to hurt is sin, and the power of sin is the law. ⁵⁷ But we thank God who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ!

⁵⁸ So, my dear brothers and sisters, stand strong. Don’t let anything change you. Always give yourselves fully to the work of the Lord. You know that your work in the Lord is never wasted.

The Collection for Believers in Judea

¹ Now, about the collection of money for God’s people: Do the same as I told the Galatian churches to do. ² On the first day of every week, each of you should take some of your money and put it in a special place. Save up as much as you can from what you are blessed with. Then you will not have to gather it all after I come. ³ When I arrive, I will send some men to take your gift to Jerusalem. These will be the ones you all agree should go. I will send them with letters of introduction. ⁴ If it seems good for me to go too, we can all travel together.

Paul’s Plans

⁵ I plan to go through Macedonia, so I will come to you after that. ⁶ Maybe I will stay with you for a time. I might even stay all winter. Then you can help me on my trip, wherever I go. ⁷ I don’t want to come see you now, because I would have to leave to go to other places. I hope to stay a longer time with you, if the Lord allows it. ⁸ But I will stay in Ephesus until Pentecost. ⁹ I will stay here, because a good opportunity for a great and growing work has been given to me now. And there are many people working against it.

¹⁰ Timothy might come to you. Try to make him feel comfortable with you. He is working for the Lord the same as I am. ¹¹ So none of you should refuse to accept Timothy. Help him continue on his trip in peace so that he can come back to me. I am expecting him to come back with the other brothers.

¹² Now about our brother Apollos: I strongly encouraged him to visit you with the other brothers. He prefers not to come now, but he will come when he has the opportunity.

Paul Ends His Letter

¹³ Be careful. Hold firmly to your faith. Have courage and be strong. ¹⁴ Do everything in love.

¹⁵ You know that Stephanas and his family were the first believers in Achaia. They have given themselves to the service of God’s people. I ask you, brothers and sisters, ¹⁶ to follow the leading of people like these and others who work hard and serve together with them.

¹⁷ I am happy that Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus have come. You are not here, but they have filled your place. ¹⁸ They have been a great encouragement to me and to you as well. You should recognize the value of such people.

¹⁹ The churches in Asia send you their greetings. Aquila and Priscilla greet you in the Lord. Also the church that meets in their house sends greetings. ²⁰ All the brothers and sisters here send their greetings. Give each other the special greeting of God’s people.*

²¹ Here’s my greeting in my own handwriting—PAUL.

²² If anyone does not love the Lord, let that person be separated from God—lost forever!

Come, O Lord!†

²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with you.

* 16:20 the special greeting of God’s people Literally, “a holy kiss.” † 16:22 Come, O Lord This is a translation of the Aramaic “marana tha.”

1 Corinthians 16:24

1 Corinthians 16:24

²⁴ My love be with all of you in Christ Jesus.

2 Corinthians

¹ Greetings from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because that is what God wanted. Greetings also from Timothy our brother in Christ.

To God's church in Corinth and to all of God's holy people throughout Achaia.

² Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul Gives Thanks to God

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. He is the Father who is full of mercy, the God of all comfort. ⁴ He comforts us every time we have trouble so that when others have trouble, we can comfort them with the same comfort God gives us. ⁵ We share in the many sufferings of Christ. In the same way, much comfort comes to us through Christ. ⁶ If we have troubles, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is so that we can comfort you. And this helps you patiently accept the same sufferings we have. ⁷ Our hope for you is strong. We know that you share in our sufferings. So we know that you also share in our comfort.

⁸ Brothers and sisters, we want you to know about the trouble we suffered in Asia. We had great burdens there, which were greater than our own strength. We even gave up hope for life. ⁹ In fact, it seems like God has been telling us we are going to die. But this is so that we will not trust in ourselves but in God, who raises people from death. ¹⁰ He saved us from these great dangers of death, and he will continue to save us. We feel sure he will always save us. ¹¹ And you can help us with your prayers. Then many people will give thanks for us—that God blessed us because of their many prayers.

The Change in Paul's Plans

¹² This is what we are proud of, and I can say with a clear conscience that it is true: In everything we have done in the world, we have done it with an honest and pure heart from God. And this is even truer in what we have done with you. We did this by God's grace, not by the kind of wisdom the world has. ¹³ We write to you only what you can read and understand. And I hope you will fully understand, ¹⁴ just as you already understand many things about us. I hope you will understand that you can be proud of us, just as we will be proud of you on the day when our Lord Jesus Christ comes again.

¹⁵ I was very sure of all this. That is why I made plans to visit you first. Then you could be blessed twice. ¹⁶ I planned to visit you on my way to Macedonia and again on my way back. I wanted to get help from you for my trip to Judea. ¹⁷ Do you think that I made these plans without really thinking? Or maybe you think I make plans as the world does, saying yes and no at the same time.

¹⁸ But if you can believe God, then you can believe that what we tell you is never both yes and no. ¹⁹ The Son of God, Jesus Christ, the one that Silas, Timothy, and I told you about was not yes and no. In Christ it has always been yes. ²⁰ The yes to all of God's promises is in Christ. And that is why we say "Amen" through Christ to the glory of God. ²¹ And God is the one who makes you and us strong in Christ. God is also the one who chose us for his work.* ²² He put his mark on us to show that we are his. Yes, he put his Spirit in our hearts as the first payment that guarantees all that he will give us.

²³ I tell you this, and I ask God to be my witness that this is true: The reason I did not come back to Corinth was that I did not want to punish or hurt you. ²⁴ I don't mean that we are trying to control your faith. You are strong in faith. But we are workers with you for your own happiness.

* 1:21 chose us for his work Literally, "anointed us." In Greek this word is related to the title "Christ," which means "anointed one." See "anoint" and "Christ" in the Word List.

¹ So I decided that my next visit to you would not be another visit to make you sad. ² If I make you sad, then who will make me happy? Only you can make me happy—you, the ones I made sad. ³ I wrote you a letter so that when I came to you I would not be made sad by those who should make me happy. I felt sure that all of you would share my joy. ⁴ When I wrote to you before, I was very troubled and my heart was full of sadness. I wrote with many tears. I did not write to make you sad, but to let you know how much I love you.

Forgive the Person Who Did Wrong

⁵ Someone in your group has caused sadness—not to me, but to all of you. I mean he has caused sadness to all in some way. (I don't want to make it sound worse than it really is.) ⁶ The punishment that most of your group gave him is enough for him. ⁷ But now you should forgive him and encourage him. This will keep him from having too much sadness and giving up completely. ⁸ So I beg you to show him that you love him. ⁹ This is why I wrote to you. I wanted to test you and see if you obey in everything. ¹⁰ If you forgive someone, then I also forgive them. And what I have forgiven—if I had anything to forgive—I forgave it for you, and Christ was with me. ¹¹ I did this so that Satan would not win anything from us. We know very well what his plans are.

God Gives Us Victory Over Troubles

¹² I went to Troas to tell people the Good News of Christ. The Lord gave me a good opportunity there. ¹³ But I had no peace because I did not find my brother Titus. So I said goodbye and went to Macedonia.

¹⁴ But thanks be to God, who always leads us in victory through Christ. God uses us to spread his knowledge everywhere like a sweet-smelling perfume. ¹⁵ Our offering to God is to be the perfume of Christ that goes out to those who are being saved and to those who are being lost. ¹⁶ To those who are being lost, this perfume smells like death, and it brings them death. But to those who are being saved, it has the sweet smell of life, and it brings them life. So who is good enough to do this work? ¹⁷ Certainly not those who are out there selling God's message for a profit! But we don't do that. With Christ's help we speak God's truth honestly, knowing that we must answer to him.

Servants of God's New Agreement

¹ Why are we beginning again to tell you all these good things about ourselves? Do we need letters of introduction to you or from you, like some other people? ² No, you yourselves are our letter, written on our hearts. It is known and read by all people. ³ You show that you are a letter from Christ that he sent through us. This letter is not written with ink but with the Spirit of the living God. It is not written on stone* tablets but on human hearts.

⁴ We can say this, because through Christ we feel sure before God. ⁵ I don't mean that we are able to do anything good ourselves. It is God who makes us able to do all that we do. ⁶ He made us able to be servants of a new agreement from himself to his people. It is not an agreement of written laws, but it is of the Spirit. The written law brings death, but the Spirit gives life.

An Agreement With Greater Glory

⁷ The old agreement† that brought death, written with words on stone, came with God's glory. In fact, the face of Moses was so bright with glory (a glory that was ending) that the people of Israel could not continue looking at his face. ⁸ So surely the new agreement that comes from the life-giving Spirit has even more glory. ⁹ This is what I mean: That old agreement judged people guilty of sin, but it had glory. So surely the new agreement that makes people right with God has much greater glory. ¹⁰ That old agreement had glory. But it really loses its glory when it is compared to the much greater glory of the new agreement. ¹¹ If the agreement that was brought to an end came with glory, then the agreement that never ends has much greater glory.

¹² We are so sure of this hope that we can speak very openly. ¹³ We are not like Moses, who put a covering over his face. He covered his face so that the people of Israel would not see it. The glory was disappearing, and Moses did not want them to see it end. ¹⁴ But their minds were closed. And even today, when those people read the writings of the old agreement,[‡] that same covering hides the meaning. That covering has not been removed for them. It is taken away only through Christ. ¹⁵ Yes, even today, when they read the Law of Moses, there is a covering over their minds. ¹⁶ But when someone changes and follows the Lord, that covering is taken away. ¹⁷ The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom. ¹⁸ And our faces are not covered. We all show the Lord's glory, and we are being changed to be like him. This change in us brings more and more glory, which comes from the Lord, who is the Spirit.

Spiritual Treasure in Clay Jars

¹ God, with his mercy, gave us this work to do, so we don't give up. ² But we have turned away from secret and shameful ways. We don't use trickery, and we don't change the teaching of God. We teach the truth plainly. This is how we show people who we are. And this is how they can know in their hearts what kind of people we are before God. ³ The Good News that we tell people may be hidden, but it is hidden only to those who are lost. ⁴ The ruler* of this world has blinded the minds of those who don't believe. They cannot see the light of the Good News—the message about the divine greatness of Christ. Christ is the one who is exactly like God. ⁵ We don't tell people about ourselves. But we tell people that Jesus Christ is Lord, and we tell them that we are your servants for Jesus. ⁶ God once said, "Let light shine out of the darkness!"[†] And this is the same God who made his light shine in our hearts to let us know that his own divine greatness is seen in the face of Christ.

⁷ We have this treasure from God, but we are only like clay jars that hold the treasure. This is to show that the amazing power we have is from God, not from us. ⁸ We have troubles all around us, but we are not defeated. We often don't know what to do, but we don't give up. ⁹ We are persecuted, but God does not leave us. We are hurt sometimes, but we are not destroyed. ¹⁰ So we constantly experience the death of Jesus in our own bodies, but this is so that the life of Jesus can also be seen in our bodies. ¹¹ We are alive, but for Jesus we are always in danger of death, so that the life of Jesus can be seen in our bodies that die. ¹² So death is working in us, but the result is that life is working in you.

¹³ The Scriptures say, "I believed, so I spoke."[☆] Our faith is like that too. We believe, and so we speak. ¹⁴ God raised the Lord Jesus from death, and we know that he will also raise us with Jesus. God will bring us together with you, and we will stand before him. ¹⁵ All these things are for you. And so the grace of God is being given to more and more people. This will bring more and more thanks to God for his glory.

Living by Faith

¹⁶ That is why we never give up. Our physical body is becoming older and weaker, but our spirit inside us is made new every day. ¹⁷ We have small troubles for a while now, but

[‡] 3:14 old agreement See "agreement" in the Word List. Here, "old agreement" is used to mean the Law of Moses on which that agreement was based. * 4:4 The ruler Literally, "The god." † 4:6 Let ... darkness See Genesis 1:3.

[☆] 4:13 Quote from Psalm 116:10.

these troubles are helping us gain an eternal glory. That eternal glory is much greater than our troubles. ¹⁸ So we think about what we cannot see, not what we see. What we see lasts only a short time, and what we cannot see will last forever.

¹ We know that our body—the tent we live in here on earth—will be destroyed. But when that happens, God will have a home for us to live in. It will not be the kind of home people build here. It will be a home in heaven that will continue forever. ² But now we are tired of this body. We want God to give us our heavenly home. ³ It will clothe us and we will not be naked. ⁴ While we live in this tent, we have burdens and so we complain. I don't mean that we want to remove this tent, but we want to be clothed with our heavenly home. Then this body that dies will be covered with life. ⁵ This is what God himself made us for. And he has given us the Spirit as the first payment to guarantee the life to come.

⁶ So we always have confidence. We know that while we live in this body, we are away from the Lord. ⁷ We live by what we believe will happen, not by what we can see. ⁸ So I say that we have confidence. And we really want to be away from this body and be at home with the Lord. ⁹ Our only goal is to always please the Lord, whether we are living here in this body or there with him. ¹⁰ We must all stand before Christ to be judged. Everyone will get what they should. They will be paid for whatever they did—good or bad—when they lived in this earthly body.

Helping People Become God's Friends

¹¹ We know what it means to fear the Lord, so we try to help people accept the truth. God knows what we really are, and I hope that in your hearts you know us too. ¹² We are not trying to prove ourselves to you again. But we are telling you about ourselves. We are giving you reasons to be proud of us. Then you will have an answer for those who are proud about what can be seen. They don't care about what is in a person's heart. ¹³ If we are crazy, it is for God. If we have our right mind, it is for you. ¹⁴ The love of Christ controls us, because we know that one person died for everyone. So all have died. ¹⁵ He died for all so that those who live would not continue to live for themselves. He died for them and was raised from death so that they would live for him.

¹⁶ From this time on we don't think of anyone as the world thinks of people. It is true that in the past we thought of Christ as the world thinks. But we don't think that way now. ¹⁷ When anyone is in Christ, it is a whole new world.* The old things are gone; suddenly, everything is new! ¹⁸ All this is from God. Through Christ, God made peace between himself and us. And God gave us the work of bringing people into peace with him. ¹⁹ I mean that God was in Christ, making peace between the world and himself. In Christ, God did not hold people guilty for their sins. And he gave us this message of peace to tell people. ²⁰ So we have been sent to speak for Christ. It is like God is calling to people through us. We speak for Christ when we beg you to be at peace with God. ²¹ Christ had no sin, but God made him become sin[†] so that in Christ we could be right with God.

¹ We are workers together with God. So we beg you: Don't let the grace that you received from God be for nothing. ² God says,

“I heard you at the right time, and I gave you help on the day of salvation.”

Isaiah 49:8

I tell you that the “right time” is now. The “day of salvation” is now.

* 5:17 When anyone ... world Or “Anyone who is in Christ is a new creation.” † 5:21 sin Or “an offering for sin.”

³ We don't want people to find anything wrong with our work. So we do nothing that will be a problem to others. ⁴ But in every way we show that we are servants of God. We never give up, even though we face troubles, difficulties, and problems of every kind. ⁵ We are beaten and thrown into prison. People get upset at us and fight against us. We work hard, and sometimes we get no sleep or food. ⁶ We show that we are God's servants by our pure lives, by our understanding, by our patience, and by our kindness. We show it by the Holy Spirit, by genuine love, ⁷ by speaking the truth, and by depending on God's power. This right way of living has prepared us to defend ourselves against every kind of attack.

⁸ Some people honor us, but others shame us. Some people say good things about us, but others say bad things. Some people say we are liars, but we speak the truth. ⁹ To some people we are not known, but we are well known. We seem to be dying, but look! We continue to live. We are punished, but we are not killed. ¹⁰ We have much sadness, but we are always rejoicing. We are poor, but we are making many people rich in faith. We have nothing, but really we have everything.

¹¹ We have spoken freely to you people in Corinth. We have opened our hearts to you. ¹² Our feelings of love for you have not stopped. It is you who have stopped your feelings of love for us. ¹³ I speak to you as if you were my children. Do the same as we have done—open your hearts also.

We Are God's Temple

¹⁴ You are not the same as those who don't believe. So don't join yourselves to them. Good and evil don't belong together. Light and darkness cannot share the same room. ¹⁵ How can there be any unity between Christ and the devil*? What does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? ¹⁶ God's temple† cannot have anything to do with idols, and we are the temple of the living God. As God said,

"I will live with them
and walk with them;
I will be their God,
and they will be my people."

Leviticus 26:11-12

¹⁷ "So come away from those people and separate yourselves from them, says the Lord.
Don't touch anything that is not clean,
and I will accept you."

Isaiah 52:11

¹⁸ "I will be your father, and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord All-Powerful."

2 Samuel 7:8, 14

7

¹ Dear friends, we have these promises from God. So we should make ourselves pure—free from anything that makes our body or our soul unclean. Our respect for God should make us try to be completely holy in the way we live.

Paul's Joy

² Open your hearts to us. We have not done wrong to anyone or caused harm to anyone. And we have not cheated anyone. ³ I do not say this to blame you. I told you before that we love you so much we would live or die with you. ⁴ I feel that I can tell you anything. I am very proud of you. Even with all the troubles we have had, I am greatly encouraged and feel very happy.

* ^{6:15} the devil Literally, "beliar," one form of the Hebrew word "belial," which means "worthlessness" and was used to refer to the devil or the enemy of Christ. † ^{6:16} God's temple God's house—the place where God's people worship him. Here, it means that believers are the spiritual temple where God lives.

⁵ When we came into Macedonia, we had no rest. We found trouble all around us. We had fighting on the outside and fear on the inside. ⁶ But God encourages those who are troubled, and he certainly encouraged us by bringing Titus to us. ⁷ It was so good to see him, but we were encouraged even more to hear about the encouragement you gave him. He told us that you really want to see me and that you are very sorry for what you did. And he told us how ready and willing you are to help me. When I heard this, I was so much happier.

⁸ Even if the letter I wrote you made you sad, I am not sorry I wrote it. I know that letter made you sad, and I was sorry for that. But it made you sad only for a short time. ⁹ Now I am happy, not because you were made sad, but because your sorrow made you decide to change. That is what God wanted, so you were not hurt by us in any way. ¹⁰ The kind of sorrow God wants makes people decide to change their lives. This leads them to salvation, and we cannot be sorry for that. But the kind of sorrow the world has will bring death. ¹¹ You had the kind of sorrow God wanted you to have. Now see what that sorrow has brought you: It has made you very serious. It made you want to prove that you were not wrong. It made you angry and afraid. It made you want to see me. It made you care. It made you want the right thing to be done. You proved that you were not guilty in any part of that problem. ¹² The main reason I wrote that letter was not because of the one who did the wrong or the one who was hurt. I wrote so that you would realize, before God, how very much you care for us. ¹³ And that is what was so encouraging to us.

We were greatly encouraged, but we were especially pleased to see how happy Titus was. You all made him feel so much better. ¹⁴ I had bragged about you to Titus, and you didn't embarrass me. We have always told you the truth, and now what we told Titus about you has been shown to be true. ¹⁵ And his love for you is stronger when he remembers that you were all ready to obey. You welcomed him with respect and fear. ¹⁶ I am so happy that I can trust you fully.

Help for God's People in Judea

¹ And now, brothers and sisters, we want to tell you what God's grace has done in the churches in Macedonia. ² These believers have been tested by great troubles, and they are very poor. But their great joy caused them to be very generous in their giving. ³ I can tell you that they gave as much as they were able and even more than they could afford. No one told them to do this. It was their idea. ⁴ But they asked us again and again—they begged us to let them share in this service for God's people. ⁵ And they gave in a way that we did not expect: They gave themselves to the Lord and to us before they gave their money. This is what God wants.

⁶ So we asked Titus to help you finish this special work of giving. He is the one who started this work. ⁷ You are rich in everything—in faith, in speaking ability, in knowledge, in the willingness to help, and in the love you learned from us. So now we want you to be rich in this work of giving too.

⁸ I am not ordering you to give, but I want to see how real your love is by comparing you with others who have been so ready and willing to help. ⁹ You know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ. You know that he gave up his heavenly riches for you. He gave up everything so that you could be richly blessed.

¹⁰ This is what I think you should do: Last year you were the first to want to give, and you were the first who gave. ¹¹ So now finish the work you started. Then your "doing" will be equal to your "wanting to do." Give from what you have. ¹² If you want to give, your gift will be accepted. Your gift will be judged by what you have, not by what you don't have. ¹³ We don't want you to have troubles while others are comforted. We want everything to be equal. ¹⁴ At this time you have plenty and can provide what they need. Then later, when they have plenty, they can provide what you need. Then everyone will have an equal share. ¹⁵ As the Scriptures say,

“Those who gathered much did not have too much,
and those who gathered little did not have too little.”

Exodus 16:18

Titus and His Companions

¹⁶ I thank God because he gave Titus the same love for you that I have. ¹⁷ Titus agreed to do what we asked. In fact, he himself wanted very much to come see you. ¹⁸ We are sending with Titus the brother who is praised by all the churches. He is praised because of his service to the Good News. ¹⁹ Also, he was chosen by the churches to go with us when we carry this gift. We are doing this service to bring honor* to the Lord and to show that we really want to help.

²⁰ We are being careful so that no one will criticize us about the way we are caring for this large gift. ²¹ We are trying to do what is right. We want to do what the Lord accepts as right and also what people think is right.

²² Also, we are sending with them our brother who is always ready to help. He has proved this to us in many ways. And he wants to help even more now because he has much faith in you.

²³ Now about Titus—he is my partner. He is working together with me to help you. And about the other brothers—they are sent from the churches, and they bring honor to Christ. ²⁴ So show these men that you really have love. Show them why we are proud of you. Then all the churches can see it.

Your Giving Is a Blessing

¹ I really don't need to write to you about this help for God's people. ² I know that you want to help. I have been bragging about you to the people in Macedonia. I told them that you people in Achaia have been ready to give since last year. And your desire to give has made most of the people here ready to give also. ³ But I am sending these brothers to you. I don't want our bragging about you in this to be for nothing. I want you to be ready just as I said you would be. ⁴ If any of those from Macedonia come with me, and they find that you are not ready, we will be ashamed. We will be ashamed that we were so sure of you. And you will be ashamed too! ⁵ So I thought that I should ask these brothers to come there before we do. They will help in getting together the generous gift you promised. Then it will be ready when we come, and it will be seen as a blessing you are giving, not as something you were forced to do.

⁶ Remember this: The one who plants few seeds will have a small harvest. But the one who plants a lot will have a big harvest. ⁷ Each one of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give. You should not give if it makes you unhappy or if you feel forced to give. God loves those who are happy to give. ⁸ And God can give you more blessings than you need, and you will always have plenty of everything. You will have enough to give to every good work. ⁹ As the Scriptures say,

“He gives generously to the poor;
his goodness will continue forever.”

Psalms 112:9

* ^{8:19} honor Or “glory.” See “glory” in the Word List.

¹⁰ God is the one who gives seed to those who plant, and he gives bread for food. And God will give you spiritual seed and make that seed grow. He will produce a great harvest from your goodness. ¹¹ God will make you rich in every way so that you can always give freely. And your giving through us will make people give thanks to God.

¹² The service you are offering helps God's people with their needs, but that is not all it does. It is also bringing more and more thanks to God. ¹³ This service is a proof of your faith, and people will praise God because of it. They will praise God that you freely share what you have with them and with all people. They will praise him to see you following the Good News about Christ that you openly accepted. They will praise God because you freely share with them and with all people. ¹⁴ And when they pray, they will wish they could be with you. They will feel this way because of the great grace that God gave you.

¹⁵ Thanks be to God for his gift that is too wonderful to describe.

10

Paul Defends His Ministry

¹ I, Paul, am begging you with the gentleness and the kindness of Christ. Some say that I am bold when I am writing you from a distance, but not when I am there with you.

² They think our motives for what we do are like those of the world. I plan to be very bold against those people when I come. I hope I will not need to use that same boldness with you. ³ We live in this world, but we don't fight our battles in the same way the world does. ⁴ The weapons we use are not human ones. Our weapons have power from God and can destroy the enemy's strong places. We destroy people's arguments, ⁵ and we tear down every proud idea that raises itself against the knowledge of God. We also capture every thought and make it give up and obey Christ. ⁶ We are ready to punish anyone there who does not obey, but first we want you to be fully obedient.

¹³ But we will not boast about anything outside the work that was given us to do. We will limit our boasting to the work God gave us, but this work includes our work with you. ¹⁴ We would be boasting too much only if we had not already come to you. But we have come to you with the Good News about Christ. ¹⁵ We limit our boasting to the work that is ours. We don't boast about the work other people have done. We hope that your faith will continue to grow. We hope that you will help our work to grow much larger. ¹⁶ We want to tell the Good News in the areas beyond your city. We don't want to boast about work that has already been done in someone else's area. ¹⁷ "Whoever boasts should boast only about the Lord." ¹⁸ What people say about themselves means nothing. What counts is whether the Lord says they have done well.

Paul and the False Apostles

☆ 10:17 Quote from Jeremiah 9:24.

¹ I wish you would be patient with me even when I am a little foolish. But you are already patient with me. ² I am jealous for you with a jealousy that comes from God. I promised to give you to Christ. He must be your only husband. I want to give you to Christ to be his pure bride.* ³ But I am afraid that your minds will be led away from your true and pure following of Christ. This could happen just as Eve was tricked by that snake with his clever lies. ⁴ You seem to be quite patient with anyone who comes to you and tells you about a Jesus that is different from the Jesus we told you about. You seem very willing to accept a spirit or a message that is different from the Spirit and message that you received from us.

⁵ I don't think that those "super apostles" are any better than I am. ⁶ It is true that I am not a trained speaker, but I do have knowledge. We have shown this to you clearly in every way.

⁷ I did the work of telling God's Good News to you without pay. I humbled myself to make you important. Do you think that was wrong? ⁸ I accepted pay from other churches. I took their money so that I could serve you. ⁹ If I needed something when I was with you, I did not trouble any of you. The brothers who came from Macedonia gave me all that I needed. I did not allow myself to be a burden to you in any way. And I will never be a burden to you. ¹⁰ No one there in Achaia will stop me from boasting about that. I say this with the truth of Christ in me. ¹¹ And why do I not burden you? Do you think it is because I don't love you? God knows that I love you.

¹² And I will continue doing what I am doing now, because I want to stop those people from having a reason to boast. They would like to say that the work they boast about is the same as ours. ¹³ They are false apostles, lying workers. They only pretend to be apostles of Christ. ¹⁴ That does not surprise us, because even Satan changes himself to look like an angel of light.† ¹⁵ So it does not surprise us if Satan's servants make themselves look like servants who work for what is right. But in the end those people will get the punishment they deserve.

Paul Tells About His Sufferings

¹⁶ I tell you again: No one should think that I am a fool. But if you think I am a fool, then accept me as you would accept a fool. Then I can boast a little too. ¹⁷ But I am not talking the way the Lord would talk. I am boasting like a fool. ¹⁸ Others are boasting about their lives in the world. So I will boast too. ¹⁹ You are wise, so you will gladly be patient with fools! ²⁰ I say this because you are even patient with someone who forces you to do things and uses you. You are patient with those who trick you, or think they are better than you, or hit you in the face! ²¹ I am ashamed to say it, but we were too "weak" to do such things to you.

But if anyone dares to boast, I will too. (I am talking like a fool.) ²² Are those people Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites‡? So am I. Are they from Abraham's family? So am I. ²³ Are they serving Christ? I am serving him more. (I am crazy to talk like this.) I have worked much harder than they have. I have been in prison more often. I have been hurt more in beatings. I have been near death many times.

²⁴ Five times the Jews have given me their punishment of 39 lashes with a whip. ²⁵ Three different times I was beaten with rods. One time I was almost killed with rocks. Three times I was in ships that were wrecked, and one of those times I spent the night and the next day in the sea. ²⁶ In my constant traveling I have been in danger from rivers, from thieves, from my own people, and from people who are not Jews. I have been in danger in cities, in places where no one lives, and on the sea. And I have been in danger from people who pretend to be believers but are not.

* 11:2 bride Literally, "virgin." † 11:14 angel of light Messenger from God. The devil fools people so that they think he is from God. ‡ 11:22 Hebrews ... Israelites Other names for the Jewish people.

²⁷ I have done hard and tiring work, and many times I did not sleep. I have been hungry and thirsty. Many times I have been without food. I have been cold and without clothes. ²⁸ And there are many other problems. One of these is the care I have for all the churches. I worry about each group of believers every day. ²⁹ I feel weak every time another person is weak. I feel deeply upset every time another person is led into sin.

³⁰ If I must boast, I will boast about the things that show I am weak. ³¹ God knows that I am not lying. He is the God and Father of the Lord Jesus, and he is to be praised forever. ³² When I was in Damascus, the governor under King Aretas wanted to arrest me, so he put guards around the city. ³³ But some friends put me in a basket. Then they put the basket through a hole in the wall and lowered me down. So I escaped from the governor.

A Special Blessing in Paul's Life

¹ There is more that I have to say about myself. It won't help, but I will talk now about visions and revelations from the Lord. ² I know a man* in Christ who was taken up to the third heaven. This happened 14 years ago. I don't know if the man was in his body or out of his body, but God knows. ³⁻⁴ And I know that this man was taken up to paradise. I don't know if he was in his body or away from his body, but he heard things that he is not able to explain. He heard things that no one is allowed to tell. ⁵ I will boast about a man like that, but I will not boast about myself. I will boast only about my weaknesses.

⁶ But if I wanted to say more about myself, I would not be a fool, because I would be telling the truth. But I won't say any more, because I don't want people to think more of me than what they see me do or hear me say.

⁷ But I must not be too proud of the wonderful things that were shown to me. So a painful problem† was given to me—an angel from Satan, sent to make me suffer, so that I would not think that I am better than anyone else. ⁸ I begged the Lord three times to take this problem away from me. ⁹ But the Lord said, “My grace is all you need. Only when you are weak can everything be done completely by my power.” So I will gladly boast about my weaknesses. Then Christ's power can stay in me. ¹⁰ Yes, I am glad to have weaknesses if they are for Christ. I am glad to be insulted and have hard times. I am glad when I am persecuted and have problems, because it is when I am weak that I am really strong.

Paul's Love for the Believers in Corinth

¹¹ I have been talking like a fool, but you made me do it. You people are the ones who should say good things about me. I am worth nothing, but those “super apostles” are not worth any more than I am! ¹² When I was with you, I patiently did the things that prove I am an apostle—signs, wonders, and miracles. ¹³ So you received everything that the other churches have received. Only one thing was different: I was not a burden to you. Forgive me for this!

¹⁴ I am now ready to visit you for the third time, and I will not be a burden to you. I don't want any of the things you own. I only want you. Children should not have to save things to give to their parents. Parents should save to give to their children. ¹⁵ So I am happy to give everything I have for you. I will even give myself for you. If I love you more, will you love me less?

¹⁶ It is clear that I was not a burden to you, but you think that I was tricky and used lies to catch you. ¹⁷ Did I cheat you by using any of the men I sent to you? You know I didn't. ¹⁸ I asked Titus to go to you, and I sent our brother with him. Titus did not cheat you, did he? No, you know that his actions and his attitude were the same as ours.

* 12:2 a man In 12:2-5 Paul is probably talking about himself. † 12:7 painful problem Literally, “thorn in the flesh.”

¹⁹ Do you think that we have been defending ourselves to you all this time? No, we say these things in Christ and before God. You are our dear friends, and everything we do is to make you stronger. ²⁰ I do this because I am afraid that when I come, you will not be what I want you to be. And I am afraid that I will not be what you want me to be. I am afraid that I will find arguing, jealousy, anger, selfish fighting, evil talk, gossip, pride, and confusion there. ²¹ I am afraid that when I come to you again, my God will make me humble before you. I may have to cry over the loss of some who sinned before. Many of them have still not changed their hearts to be sorry for their evil lives, their sexual sins, and the shameful things they have done.

Final Warnings and Greetings

¹ This will be my third time to visit you. And remember, “For every complaint there must be two or three people to say that they know it is true.”[☆] ² When I was with you the second time, I gave a warning to those who had sinned. I am not there now, but I am giving another warning to them and to anyone else who has sinned: When I come to you again, I will punish you. ³ You want proof that Christ is speaking through me. My proof is that he is not weak in dealing with you but is showing his power among you. ⁴ It is true that Christ was weak when he was killed on the cross, but he lives now by God’s power. It is also true that we share his weakness, but in dealing with you, we will be alive in him by God’s power.

⁵ Look closely at yourselves. Test yourselves to see if you are living in the faith. Don’t you realize that Christ Jesus is in you? Of course, if you fail the test, he is not in you. ⁶ But I hope you will see that we have not failed the test. ⁷ We pray to God that you will not do anything wrong. Our concern here is not for people to see that we have passed the test in our work with you. Our main concern is that you do what is right, even if it looks as if we have failed the test. ⁸ We cannot do anything that is against the truth but only what promotes the truth. ⁹ We are happy to be weak if you are strong. And this is what we pray—that your lives will be made completely right again. ¹⁰ I’m writing this before I come so that when I am there I will not have to use my authority to punish you. The Lord gave me that authority to make you stronger, not to destroy you.

¹¹ Now, brothers and sisters, be filled with joy. Try to make everything right, and do what I have asked you to do. Agree with each other, and live in peace. Then the God of love and peace will be with you.

¹² Give each other the special greeting of God’s people.* All of God’s holy people here send you their greetings.

¹³ I pray that you will enjoy the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the fellowship[†] of the Holy Spirit.

[☆] 13:1 Quote from Deuteronomy 19:15. ^{*} 13:12 the special greeting of God’s people Literally, “a holy kiss.”

[†] 13:13 fellowship This can mean a sharing or participation in the Holy Spirit or the loving association and unity among believers that is created by the Spirit.

Galatians

¹ Greetings from Paul, an apostle. I was chosen to be an apostle, but not by any group or person here on earth. My authority came from none other than Jesus Christ and God the Father, who raised Jesus from death. ² Greetings also from all those in God's family who are with me.

To the churches in Galatia*:

³ I pray that God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will be good to you and give you peace. ⁴ Jesus gave himself for our sins to free us from this evil world we live in. This is what God our Father wanted. ⁵ The glory belongs to God forever and ever. Amen.

There Is Only One Good News Message

⁶ A short time ago God chose you to follow him. He chose you through his grace that came through Christ. But now I am amazed that you are already turning away and believing something different from the Good News we told you. ⁷ There is no other message that is the Good News, but some people are confusing you. They want to change the Good News about Christ. ⁸ We told you the true Good News message. So anyone who tells you a different message should be condemned—even if it's one of us or even an angel from heaven! ⁹ I said this before. Now I say it again: You have already accepted the Good News. Anyone who tells you another way to be saved should be condemned!

¹⁰ Now do you think I am trying to make people accept me? No, God is the one I am trying to please. Am I trying to please people? If I wanted to please people, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Paul's Authority Is From God

¹¹ Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that the Good News message I told you was not made up by anyone. ¹² I did not get my message from any other human. The Good News is not something I learned from other people. Jesus Christ himself gave it to me. He showed me the Good News that I should tell people.

¹³ You have heard about my past life in the Jewish religion. I persecuted the church of God very much. I tried to destroy his people. ¹⁴ I was becoming a leader in the Jewish religion. I did better than most other Jews my own age. I tried harder than anyone else to follow the traditions we got from our ancestors.

¹⁵ But God had special plans for me even before I was born. So he chose me through his grace. ¹⁶ It pleased him to let me see and know his Son so that I could tell the Good News about him to the non-Jewish people. I immediately prepared to do this work without asking for advice or help from anyone. ¹⁷ I did not go to Jerusalem to see those who were apostles before I was. But, without waiting, I went away to Arabia. Later, I went back to the city of Damascus.

¹⁸ Three years later I went to Jerusalem to meet Peter. I stayed with him 15 days. ¹⁹ I met no other apostles—only James, the brother of the Lord. ²⁰ God knows there is nothing untrue in any of this. ²¹ Later, I went to the areas of Syria and Cilicia.

²² No one in any of Christ's churches in Judea had ever met me before. ²³ They had only heard this about me: "This man was persecuting us. But now he is telling people about the same faith that he once tried to destroy." ²⁴ These believers praised God because of me.

2

The Other Apostles Accepted Paul

* 1:2 Galatia Probably the area where Paul began churches on his first missionary trip. Read Acts 13 and 14.

¹ After 14 years I went back to Jerusalem with Barnabas and took Titus with me. ² I went there because God showed me that I should go. I explained to them the message that I tell the non-Jewish people. I also met alone with those who were considered to be the leaders. I wanted to be sure we were in agreement so that my past work and the work I do now would not be wasted.

³ Titus, who was with me, is a Greek. But these leaders still did not force him to be circumcised. ⁴ We needed to talk about these problems, because some who pretended to be our brothers had come into our group secretly. They came in like spies to find out about the freedom we have in Christ Jesus. They wanted to make us slaves, ⁵ but we did not agree with anything those false brothers wanted. We wanted the truth of the Good News to continue for you.

⁶ Those men who were considered to be important did not change the Good News message I tell people. (It doesn't matter to me if they were "important" or not. To God everyone is the same.) ⁷ But these leaders saw that God had given me a special work, the same as Peter. God gave Peter the work of telling the Good News to the Jews. But God gave me the work of telling the Good News to the non-Jewish people. ⁸ God gave Peter the power to work as an apostle for the Jewish people. God gave me the power to work as an apostle too, but for those who are not Jews. ⁹ James, Peter, and John seemed to be the leaders. And they saw that God had given me this special gift of ministry, so they accepted Barnabas and me. They said to us, "We agree that you should go to those who are not Jews, and we will go to the Jews." ¹⁰ They asked us to do only one thing—to remember to help those who are poor. And this was something that I really wanted to do.

Paul Shows That Peter Was Wrong

¹¹ When Peter came to Antioch, he did something that was not right. I stood against him, because he was wrong. ¹² This is what happened: When Peter first came to Antioch, he ate and associated with the non-Jewish people. But when some Jewish men came from James, Peter separated himself from the non-Jews. He stopped eating with them, because he was afraid of the Jews who believe that all non-Jewish people must be circumcised. ¹³ So Peter was a hypocrite. The other Jewish believers joined with him, so they were hypocrites too. Even Barnabas was influenced by what these Jewish believers did. ¹⁴ They were not following the truth of the Good News. When I saw this, I spoke to Peter in front of everyone. I said, "Peter, you are a Jew, but you don't live like one. You live like someone who is not a Jew. So why are you trying to force those who are not Jewish to live like Jews?"

¹⁵ We are Jews by birth. We were not born "sinners," as we call those who are not Jews. ¹⁶ But we know that no one is made right with God by following the law. It is trusting in* Jesus Christ that makes a person right with God. So we have put our faith in Christ Jesus, because we wanted to be made right with God. And we are right with him because we trusted in† Christ—not because we followed the law. I can say this because no one can be made right with God by following the law.

¹⁷ We Jews came to Christ to be made right with God, so it is clear that we were sinners too. Does this mean that Christ makes us sinners? Of course not. ¹⁸ But I would be wrong to begin teaching again those things that I gave up. ¹⁹ It was the law itself that caused me to end my life under the law. I died to the law so that I could live for God. I have been nailed to the cross with Christ. ²⁰ So I am not the one living now—it is Christ living in me. I still live in my body, but I live by faith in‡ the Son of God. He is the one who loved me and gave himself to save me. ²¹ I am not the one destroying the meaning of God's grace. If following the law is how people are made right with God, then Christ did not have to die.

* 2:16 trusting in Or "the faithfulness of." † 2:16 because we trusted in Or "through the faithfulness of." ‡ 2:20 faith in Or "the faithfulness of."

God's Blessing Comes Through Faith

¹ You people in Galatia are so foolish! Why do I say this? Because I told you very clearly about the death of Jesus Christ on the cross. But now it seems as though you have let someone use their magical powers to make you forget. ² Tell me this one thing: How did you receive the Spirit? Did you receive the Spirit by following the law? No, you received the Spirit because you heard the message about Jesus and believed it. ³ You began your life in Christ with the Spirit. Now do you try to complete it by your own power? That is foolish. ⁴ You have experienced many things. Were all those experiences wasted? I hope they were not wasted! ⁵ Does God give you the Spirit because you follow the law? Does God work miracles among you because you follow the law? No, God gives you his Spirit and works miracles among you because you heard the message about Jesus and believed it.

⁶ The Scriptures say the same thing about Abraham. "Abraham believed God, and because of this faith he was accepted as one who is right with God."[☆] ⁷ So you should know that the true children of Abraham are those who have faith. ⁸ The Scriptures told what would happen in the future. These writings said that God would make the non-Jewish people right through their faith. God told this Good News to Abraham before it happened. God said to Abraham, "I will use you to bless all the people on earth."[☆] ⁹ Abraham believed this, and because he believed, he was blessed. All people who believe are blessed the same as Abraham was.

¹⁰ But people who depend on following the law to make them right are under a curse. As the Scriptures say, "They must do everything that is written in the law. If they do not always obey, they are under a curse."[☆] ¹¹ So it is clear that no one can be made right with God by the law. The Scriptures say, "The one who is right with God by faith will live forever."[☆]

¹² The law does not depend on faith. No, it says that the only way a person will find life by the law is to obey its commands.* ¹³ The law says we are under a curse for not always obeying it. But Christ took away that curse. He changed places with us and put himself under that curse. The Scriptures say, "Anyone who is hung on a tree[†] is under a curse."[☆] ¹⁴ Because of what Jesus Christ did, the blessing God promised to Abraham was given to all people. Christ died so that by believing in him we could have the Spirit that God promised.

The Law and the Promise

¹⁵ Brothers and sisters, let me give you an example from everyday life: Think about an agreement that one person makes with another. After that agreement is made official, no one can stop it or add anything to it, and no one can ignore it. ¹⁶ God made promises to Abraham and his Descendant.[‡] The Scripture does not say, "and to your descendants." That would mean many people. But it says, "and to your Descendant." That means only one, and that one is Christ. ¹⁷ This is what I mean: The agreement that God gave to Abraham was made official long before the law came. The law came 430 years later. So the law could not take away the agreement and change God's promise.

[☆] 3:6 Quote from Genesis 15:6. [☆] 3:8 Quote from Genesis 12:3. [☆] 3:10 Quote from Deuteronomy 27:26.

[☆] 3:11 Quote from Habakkuk 2:4. * 3:12 the only way ... commands See Leviticus 18:5. [†] 3:13 hung on a tree Deuteronomy 21:22-23 says that when a person was killed for doing wrong, his body was hung on a tree to show shame. Paul means the cross of Jesus was like that. [☆] 3:13 Quote from Deuteronomy 21:23. [‡] 3:16 Descendant Literally, "seed," which could also mean "family." In that case, it would refer to the one family of God in Christ.

¹⁸ Can following the law give us the blessing God promised? If we could receive it by following the law, then it would not be God's promise that brings it to us. But God freely gave his blessings to Abraham through the promise God made.

¹⁹ So what was the law for? The law was given to show the wrong things people do. The law would continue until the special Descendant of Abraham came. This is the Descendant mentioned in the promise, which came directly from God. But the law was given through angels, and the angels used Moses as a mediator to give the law to the people. ²⁰ But when God gave the promise, there was no mediator, because a mediator is not needed when there is only one side, and God is one.[§]

The Purpose of the Law of Moses

²¹ Does this mean that the law works against God's promises? Of course not. The law was never God's way of giving new life to people. If it were, then we could be made right with God by following the law. ²² But this is not possible. The Scriptures put the whole world in prison under the control of sin, so that the only way for people to get what God promised would be through faith in* Jesus Christ. It is given to those who believe in him.

²³ Before this faith came, the law held us as prisoners. We had no freedom until God showed us the way of faith that was coming. ²⁴ I mean the law was the guardian in charge of us until Christ came. After he came, we could be made right with God through faith.

²⁶⁻²⁷ You were all baptized into Christ, and so you were all clothed with Christ. This shows that you are all children of God through faith in Christ Jesus. ²⁸ Now, in Christ, it doesn't matter if you are a Jew or a Greek, a slave or free, male or female. You are all the same in Christ Jesus. ²⁹ You belong to Christ, so you are Abraham's descendants. You get all of God's blessings because of the promise that God made to Abraham.

¹ This is what I am saying: When young children inherit all that their father owned, they are still no different from his slaves. It doesn't matter that they own everything. ² While they are children, they must obey those who are chosen to care for them. But when they reach the age the father set, they are free. ³ It is the same for us. We were once like children, slaves to the useless rules* of this world. ⁴ But when the right time came, God sent his Son, who was born from a woman and lived under the law. ⁵ God did this so that he could buy the freedom of those who were under the law. God's purpose was to make us his children.

⁶ Since you are now God's children, he has sent the Spirit of his Son into your hearts. The Spirit cries out, "Abba,† Father." ⁷ Now you are not slaves like before. You are God's children, and you will receive everything he promised his children.

Paul's Love for the Galatian Believers

⁸ In the past you did not know God. You were slaves to gods that were not real. ⁹ But now you know the true God. Really, though, it is God who knows you. So why do you turn back to the same kind of weak and useless rules you followed before? Do you want to be slaves to those things again? ¹⁰⁻¹¹ It worries me that you follow teachings about special days, months, seasons, and years. I fear that my work for you has been wasted.

¹² Brothers and sisters, I became like you. So please become like me. You were very good to me before. ¹³ You know that I came to you the first time because I was sick. That was when I told the Good News to you. ¹⁴ My sickness was a burden to you, but you did not stop showing me respect or make me leave. Instead, you welcomed me as if I were an angel from God. You accepted me as if I were Jesus Christ himself! ¹⁵ You were very happy then. Where is that joy now? I can say without a doubt that you would have done anything to help me. If it had been possible, you would have taken out your own eyes and given them to me. ¹⁶ Am I now your enemy because I tell you the truth?

¹⁷ Those people[‡] are working hard to persuade you, but this is not good for you. They want to persuade you to turn against us and work hard for them. ¹⁸ It is good for you to work hard, of course, if it is for something good. That's something you should do whether I am there or not. ¹⁹ My little children, I am in pain again over you, like a mother giving birth. I will feel this pain until people can look at you and see Christ. ²⁰ I wish I could be with you now. Then maybe I could change the way I am talking to you. Now I don't know what to do about you.

The Example of Hagar and Sarah

²¹ Some of you people want to be under the law. Tell me, do you know what the law says? ²² The Scriptures say that Abraham had two sons. The mother of one son was a slave woman, and the mother of the other son was a free woman. ²³ Abraham's son from the slave woman was born in the normal human way. But the son from the free woman was born because of the promise God made to Abraham.

²⁴ This true story makes a picture for us. The two women are like the two agreements between God and his people. One agreement is the law that God made on Mount Sinai. The people who are under this agreement are like slaves. The mother named Hagar is like that agreement. ²⁵ So Hagar is like Mount Sinai in Arabia. She is a picture of the earthly Jewish city of Jerusalem. This city is a slave, and all its people are slaves to the law. ²⁶ But the heavenly Jerusalem that is above is like the free woman, who is our mother. ²⁷ The Scriptures say,

“Be happy, woman—you who cannot have children.

Be glad you never gave birth.

Shout and cry with joy!

You never felt those labor pains.

The woman who is alone[§] will have more children than the woman who has a husband.”

Isaiah 54:1

²⁸ My brothers and sisters, you are children who were born because of God's promise, just as Isaac was. ²⁹ But the other son of Abraham, who was born in the normal way, caused trouble for the one who was born by the power of the Spirit. It is the same today. ³⁰ But what do the Scriptures say? “Throw out the slave woman and her son! The son of the free woman will receive everything his father has, but the son of the slave woman will receive nothing.”[✠] ³¹ So, my brothers and sisters, we are not children of the slave woman. We are children of the free woman.

Keep Your Freedom

¹ We have freedom now, because Christ made us free. So stand strong in that freedom. Don't go back into slavery again. ² Listen! I, Paul, tell you that if you start following the law by being circumcised, then Christ cannot help you. ³ Again, I warn everyone: If you allow yourselves to be circumcised, then you must follow the whole law. ⁴ If you try to be made right with God through the law, your life with Christ is finished—you have left God's grace. ⁵ I say this because our hope of being right with God comes through faith. And the Spirit helps us feel sure as we wait for that hope. ⁶ When someone belongs to [‡] 4:17 Those people The false teachers who were bothering the believers in Galatia. See Gal. 1:7. [§] 4:27 woman ... alone This means her husband has left her. [✠] 4:30 Quote from Genesis 21:10.

Christ Jesus, it is not important if they are circumcised or not. The important thing is faith—the kind of faith that works through love.

⁷ You were doing so well. Who caused you to stop following the truth? ⁸ It certainly wasn't the one who chose you. ⁹ Be careful! "Just a little yeast makes the whole batch of dough rise."* ¹⁰ I trust in the Lord that you will not believe those different ideas. Someone is trying to confuse you. Whoever it is will be punished.

¹¹ My brothers and sisters, I don't teach that a man must be circumcised. If I do teach circumcision, then why am I still being persecuted? If I still taught circumcision, then my message about the cross would not be a problem. ¹² I wish those people who are bothering you would add castration[†] to their circumcision.

¹³ My brothers and sisters, God chose you to be free. But don't use your freedom as an excuse to do what pleases your sinful selves. Instead, serve each other with love. ¹⁴ The whole law is made complete in this one command: "Love your neighbor[‡] the same as you love yourself."[☆] ¹⁵ If you continue hurting each other and tearing each other apart, be careful, or you will completely destroy each other.

The Spirit and Human Nature

¹⁶ So I tell you, live the way the Spirit leads you. Then you will not do the evil things your sinful self wants. ¹⁷ The sinful self wants what is against the Spirit, and the Spirit wants what is against the sinful self. They are always fighting against each other, so that you don't do what you really want to do. ¹⁸ But if you let the Spirit lead you, you are not under law.[§]

¹⁹ The wrong things the sinful self does are clear: committing sexual sin, being morally bad, doing all kinds of shameful things, ²⁰ worshiping false gods, taking part in witchcraft, hating people, causing trouble, being jealous, angry or selfish, causing people to argue and divide into separate groups, ²¹ being filled with envy, getting drunk, having wild parties, and doing other things like this. I warn you now as I warned you before: The people who do these things will not have a part in God's kingdom. ²² But the fruit that the Spirit produces in a person's life is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, ²³ gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against these kinds of things. ²⁴ Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified their sinful self. They have given up their old selfish feelings and the evil things they wanted to do. ²⁵ We get our new life from the Spirit, so we should follow the Spirit. ²⁶ We must not feel proud and boast about ourselves. We must not cause trouble for each other or be jealous of each other.

Help Each Other

¹ Brothers and sisters, someone in your group might do something wrong. You who are following the Spirit should go to the one who is sinning. Help make that person right again, and do it in a gentle way. But be careful, because you might be tempted to sin too. ² Help each other with your troubles. When you do this, you are obeying the law of Christ. ³ If you think you are too important to do this, you are only fooling yourself. ⁴ Don't compare yourself with others. Just look at your own work to see if you have done anything to be proud of. ⁵ You must each accept the responsibilities that are yours.

Never Stop Doing Good

* 5:9 "Just ... rise" A proverb meaning that a small thing (like a little wrong teaching) can make a big problem or that just one person can have a bad influence on the whole group. † 5:12 castration Paul uses a word that means "to cut off" in place of "circumcision," which means "to cut around," to show how angry he is at the false teachers for forcing non-Jewish men to be circumcised. ‡ 5:14 your neighbor Or "others." Jesus' teaching in Luke 10:25-37 makes clear that this includes anyone in need. ☆ 5:14 Quote from Leviticus 19:18. § 5:18 law Here, a law system, like the Law of Moses.

⁶ Whoever is being taught God's word should share the good things they have with the one who is teaching them.

⁷ If you think you can fool God, you are only fooling yourselves. You will harvest what you plant. ⁸ If you live to satisfy your sinful self, the harvest you will get from that will be eternal death. But if you live to please the Spirit, your harvest from the Spirit will be eternal life. ⁹ We must not get tired of doing good. We will receive our harvest of eternal life at the right time. We must not give up. ¹⁰ When we have the opportunity to do good to anyone, we should do it. But we should give special attention to those who are in the family of believers.

Paul Ends His Letter

¹¹ This is my own handwriting. You can see how big the letters are. ¹² Those men who are trying to force you to be circumcised are only doing it so that their people will accept them. They are afraid they will be persecuted if they follow only the cross* of Christ. ¹³ They are circumcised, but they don't obey the law themselves. They want you to be circumcised so that they can boast about what they did to you.

¹⁴ I hope I will never boast about things like that. The cross of our Lord Jesus Christ is my only reason for boasting. Through Jesus' death on the cross the world is dead† to me, and I am dead to the world. ¹⁵ It doesn't matter if anyone is circumcised or not. The only thing that matters is this new life we have from God.‡ ¹⁶ Peace and mercy to those who follow this rule—to all God's people.§

¹⁷ So don't give me any more trouble. I have scars on my body that show* I belong to Jesus.

¹⁸ My brothers and sisters, I pray that the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ will be with your spirits. Amen.

* 6:12 cross Paul uses the cross as a picture of the Good News, the story of Christ's death to pay for people's sins. The cross (Christ's death) was God's way to save people. Also in verse 14. † 6:14 is dead Literally, "has been crucified."
‡ 6:15 this new life ... God Or "being the new people God has made." § 6:16 all of God's people Literally, "the Israel of God." * 6:17 scars ... show Many times Paul was beaten by people who tried to stop him from teaching about Christ. The scars were from these beatings.

Ephesians

¹ Greetings from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because that is what God wanted.

To God's holy people living in Ephesus,* believers who belong to Christ Jesus.

² Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Spiritual Blessings in Christ

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. In Christ, God has given us every spiritual blessing in heaven. ⁴ In Christ, he chose us before the world was made. He chose us in love to be his holy people—people who could stand before him without any fault. ⁵ And before the world was made, God decided to make us his own children through Jesus Christ. This was what God wanted, and it pleased him to do it. ⁶ And this brings praise to God because of his wonderful grace. God gave that grace to us freely. He gave us that grace in Christ, the one he loves.

⁷ In Christ we are made free by his blood sacrifice. We have forgiveness of sins because of God's rich grace. ⁸ God gave us that grace fully and freely. With full wisdom and understanding ⁹ he let us know his secret plan. This was what God wanted, and he planned to do it through Christ. ¹⁰ God's goal was to finish his plan when the right time came. He planned that all things in heaven and on earth be joined together with Christ as the head.

¹¹ In Christ we were chosen to be God's people. God had already planned for us to be his people, because that is what he wanted. And he is the one who makes everything agree with what he decides and wants. ¹² We Jews were the first to hope in Christ. And we were chosen so that we would bring praise to God in all his glory. ¹³ It is the same with you. You heard the true message, the Good News about the way God saves you. When you heard that Good News, you believed in Christ. And in Christ, God put his special mark on you by giving you the Holy Spirit that he promised. ¹⁴ The Spirit is the first payment that guarantees we will get all that God has for us. Then we will enjoy complete freedom as people who belong to him. The goal for all of us is the praise of God in all his glory.

Paul's Prayer

¹⁵⁻¹⁶ That is why I always remember you in my prayers and thank God for you. I have done this ever since I heard about your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all of God's people. ¹⁷ I always pray to the great and glorious Father, the God of our Lord Jesus Christ. I pray that he will give you the Spirit, who will let you know truths about God and help you understand them, so that you will know him better.

¹⁸ I pray that God will open your minds to see his truth. Then you will know the hope that he has chosen us to have. You will know that the blessings God has promised his holy people are rich and glorious. ¹⁹ And you will know that God's power is very great for us who believe. It is the same as the mighty power ²⁰ he used to raise Christ from death and put him at his right side in the heavenly places. ²¹ He put Christ over all rulers, authorities, powers, and kings. He gave him authority over everything that has power in this world or in the next world. ²² God put everything under Christ's power and made him head over everything for the church. ²³ The church is Christ's body. It is filled with him. He makes everything complete in every way.

From Death to Life

* 1:1 in Ephesus Some Greek copies do not have the words "in Ephesus."

¹ In the past you were spiritually dead because of your sins and the things you did against God. ² Yes, in the past your lives were full of those sins. You lived the way the world lives, following the ruler of the evil powers over the earth. That same spirit is now working in those who refuse to obey God. ³ In the past all of us lived like that, trying to please our sinful selves. We did all the things our bodies and minds wanted. Like everyone else in the world, we deserved to suffer God's anger just because of the way we were.

⁴ But God is rich in mercy, and he loved us very much. ⁵ We were spiritually dead because of all we had done against him. But he gave us new life together with Christ. (You have been saved by God's grace.) ⁶ Yes, it is because we are a part of Christ Jesus that God raised us from death and seated us together with him in the heavenly places. ⁷ God did this so that his kindness to us who belong to Christ Jesus would clearly show for all time to come the amazing richness of his grace.

⁸ I mean that you have been saved by grace because you believed. You did not save yourselves; it was a gift from God. ⁹ You are not saved by the things you have done, so there is nothing to boast about. ¹⁰ God has made us what we are. In Christ Jesus, God made us new people so that we would spend our lives doing the good things he had already planned for us to do.

One in Christ

¹¹ You were not born as Jews. You are the people the Jews call "uncircumcised.*" Those Jews who call you "uncircumcised" call themselves "circumcised." (Their circumcision is only something they themselves do to their bodies.) ¹² Remember that in the past you were without Christ. You were not citizens of Israel, and you did not know about the agreements[†] with the promises that God made to his people. You had no hope, and you did not know God. ¹³ Yes, at one time you were far away from God, but now in Christ Jesus, you are brought near to him. You are brought near to God through the blood sacrifice of Christ.

¹⁴ Christ is the reason we are now at peace. He made us Jews and you who are not Jews one people. We were separated by a wall of hate that stood between us, but Christ broke down that wall. By giving his own body, ¹⁵ Christ ended the law with its many commands and rules. His purpose was to make the two groups become one in him. By doing this he would make peace. ¹⁶ Through the cross Christ ended the hate between the two groups. And after they became one body, he wanted to bring them both back to God. He did this with his death on the cross. ¹⁷ Christ came and brought the message of peace to you non-Jews who were far away from God. And he brought that message of peace to those who were near to God. ¹⁸ Yes, through Christ we all have the right to come to the Father in one Spirit.

¹⁹ So now you non-Jewish people are not visitors or strangers, but you are citizens together with God's holy people. You belong to God's family. ²⁰ You believers are like a building that God owns. That building was built on the foundation that the apostles and prophets prepared. Christ Jesus himself is the most important stone[‡] in that building. ²¹ The whole building is joined together in Christ, and he makes it grow and become a holy temple[§] in the Lord. ²² And in Christ you are being built together with his other people. You are being made into a place where God lives through the Spirit.

Paul's Work for the Non-Jewish People

* 2:11 uncircumcised People not having the mark of circumcision like the Jews have. † 2:12 agreements The agreements with special promises that God gave at various times to people in the Old Testament. See "agreement" in the Word List. ‡ 2:20 most important stone Literally, "cornerstone." The first and most important stone in a building. § 2:21 temple God's house—the place where God's people worship him. Here, it means that believers are the spiritual temple where God lives.

¹ So I, Paul, am a prisoner because I serve Christ Jesus for you who are not Jews. ² Surely you know that God gave me this work through his grace to help you. ³ God let me know his secret plan by showing it to me. I have already written a little about this. ⁴ And if you read what I wrote, you can see that I understand the secret truth about Christ. ⁵ People who lived in other times were not told that secret truth. But now, through the Spirit, God has made it known to his holy apostles and prophets. ⁶ And this is the secret truth: that by hearing the Good News, those who are not Jews will share with the Jews in the blessings God has for his people. They are part of the same body, and they share in the promise God made through Christ Jesus.

⁷ By God's special gift of grace, I became a servant to tell that Good News. He gave me that grace by using his power. ⁸ I am the least important of all God's people. But he gave me this gift—to tell the non-Jewish people the Good News about the riches Christ has. These riches are too great to understand fully. ⁹ And God gave me the work of telling all people about the plan for his secret truth. That secret truth has been hidden in him since the beginning of time. He is the one who created everything. ¹⁰ His purpose was that all the rulers and powers in the heavenly places will now know the many different ways he shows his wisdom. They will know this because of the church. ¹¹ This agrees with the plan God had since the beginning of time. He did what he planned, and he did it through Christ Jesus our Lord. ¹² In Christ we come before God with freedom and without fear. We can do this because of our faith in Christ. ¹³ So I ask you not to be discouraged because of what is happening to me. My sufferings are for your benefit—for your honor and glory.

The Love of Christ

¹⁴ So I bow in prayer before the Father. ¹⁵ Every family in heaven and on earth gets its true name from him. ¹⁶ I ask the Father with his great glory to give you the power to be strong in your spirits. He will give you that strength through his Spirit. ¹⁷ I pray that Christ will live in your hearts because of your faith. I pray that your life will be strong in love and be built on love. ¹⁸ And I pray that you and all God's holy people will have the power to understand the greatness of Christ's love—how wide, how long, how high, and how deep that love is. ¹⁹ Christ's love is greater than anyone can ever know, but I pray that you will be able to know that love. Then you can be filled with everything God has for you.

²⁰ With God's power working in us, he can do much, much more than anything we can ask or think of. ²¹ To him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus for all time, forever and ever. Amen.

The Unity of the Body

¹ So, as a prisoner for the Lord, I beg you to live the way God's people should live, because he chose you to be his. ² Always be humble and gentle. Be patient and accept each other with love. ³ You are joined together with peace through the Spirit. Do all you can to continue as you are, letting peace hold you together. ⁴ There is one body and one Spirit, and God chose you to have one hope. ⁵ There is one Lord, one faith, and one baptism. ⁶ There is one God and Father of us all, who rules over everyone. He works through all of us and in all of us.

⁷ Christ gave each one of us a special gift. Everyone received what he wanted to give them. ⁸ That is why the Scriptures say,

“He went up high into the sky;
he took prisoners with him,
and he gave gifts to people.”

Psalm 68:18

⁹ When it says, “He went up,” what does it mean? It means that he first came down low to earth. ¹⁰ So Christ came down, and he is the same one who went up. He went up above the highest heaven in order to fill everything with himself. ¹¹ And that same Christ gave these gifts to people: He made some to be apostles, some to be prophets, some to go and tell the Good News, and some to care for and teach God’s people.* ¹² Christ gave these gifts to prepare God’s holy people for the work of serving, to make the body of Christ stronger. ¹³ This work must continue until we are all joined together in what we believe and in what we know about the Son of God. Our goal is to become like a full-grown man—to look just like Christ and have all his perfection.

¹⁴ Then we will no longer be like babies. We will not be people who are always changing like a ship that the waves carry one way and then another. We will not be influenced by every new teaching we hear from people who are trying to deceive us—those who make clever plans and use every kind of trick to fool others into following the wrong way. ¹⁵ No, we will speak the truth with love. We will grow to be like Christ in every way. He is the head, ¹⁶ and the whole body depends on him. All the parts of the body are joined and held together, with each part doing its own work. This causes the whole body to grow and to be stronger in love.

The Way You Should Live

¹⁷ I have something from the Lord to tell you. I warn you: Don’t continue living like those who don’t believe. Their thoughts are worth nothing. ¹⁸ They have no understanding, and they know nothing because they refuse to listen. So they cannot have the life that God gives. ¹⁹ They have lost their feeling of shame and use their lives to do what is morally wrong. More and more they want to do all kinds of evil. ²⁰ But that way of life is nothing like what you learned when you came to know Christ. ²¹ I know that you heard about him, and in him you were taught the truth. Yes, the truth is in Jesus. ²² You were taught to leave your old self. This means that you must stop living the evil way you lived before. That old self gets worse and worse, because people are fooled by the evil they want to do. ²³ You must be made new in your hearts and in your thinking. ²⁴ Be that new person who was made to be like God, truly good and pleasing to him.

²⁵ So you must stop telling lies. “You must always speak the truth to each other,”[☆] because we all belong to each other in the same body. ²⁶ “When you are angry, don’t let that anger make you sin,”[☆] and don’t stay angry all day. ²⁷ Don’t give the devil a way to defeat you. ²⁸ Whoever has been stealing must stop it and start working. They must use their hands for doing something good. Then they will have something to share with those who are poor.

²⁹ When you talk, don’t say anything bad. But say the good things that people need—whatever will help them grow stronger. Then what you say will be a blessing to those who hear you. ³⁰ And don’t make the Holy Spirit sad. God gave you his Spirit as proof that you belong to him and that he will keep you safe until the day he makes you free. ³¹ Never be bitter, angry, or mad. Never shout angrily or say things to hurt others. Never do anything evil. ³² Be kind and loving to each other. Forgive each other the same as God forgave you through Christ.

¹ You are God’s dear children, so try to be like him. ² Live a life of love. Love others just as Christ loved us. He gave himself for us—a sweet-smelling offering and sacrifice to God.

³ But there must be no sexual sin among you. There must not be any kind of evil or selfishly wanting more and more, because such things are not right for God’s holy people. ⁴ Also, there must be no evil talk among you. Don't say things that are foolish or filthy. These are not for you. But you should be giving thanks to God. ⁵ You can be sure of this: No one will have a place in the kingdom of Christ and of God if that person commits sexual sins, or does evil things, or is a person who selfishly wants more and more. A greedy person like that is serving a false god.

⁶ Don't let anyone fool you with words that are not true. God gets very angry when people who don't obey him talk like that. ⁷ So don't have anything to do with them. ⁸ In the past you were full of darkness, but now you are full of light in the Lord. So live like children who belong to the light. ⁹ This light produces every kind of goodness, right living, and truth. ¹⁰ Try to learn what pleases the Lord. ¹¹ Have no part in the things that people in darkness do, which produce nothing good. Instead, tell everyone how wrong those things are. ¹² Actually, it is shameful to even talk about the things those people do in secret. ¹³ But the light makes clear how wrong those things are. ¹⁴ Yes, everything is made clear by the light. This is why we say, “Wake up, you who are sleeping!

Rise from death,
and Christ will shine on you.”

¹⁵ So be very careful how you live. Live wisely, not like fools. ¹⁶ I mean that you should use every opportunity you have for doing good, because these are evil times. ¹⁷ So don't be foolish with your lives, but learn what the Lord wants you to do. ¹⁸ Don't be drunk with wine, which will ruin your life, but be filled with the Spirit. ¹⁹ Encourage each other with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs. Sing and make music in your hearts to the Lord. ²⁰ Always give thanks to God the Father for everything in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Wives and Husbands

²¹ Be willing to serve each other out of respect for Christ.

²² Wives, be willing to serve your husbands the same as the Lord. ²³ A husband is the head of his wife, just as Christ is the head of the church. Christ is the Savior of the church, which is his body. ²⁴ The church serves under Christ, so it is the same with you wives. You should be willing to serve your husbands in everything.

²⁵ Husbands, love your wives the same as Christ loved the church and gave his life for it. ²⁶ He died to make the church holy. He used the telling of the Good News to make the church clean by washing it with water. ²⁷ Christ died so that he could give the church to himself like a bride in all her beauty. He died so that the church could be holy and without fault, with no evil or sin or any other thing wrong in it.

²⁸ And husbands should love their wives like that. They should love their wives as they love their own bodies. The man who loves his wife loves himself, ²⁹ because no one ever hates his own body, but feeds and takes care of it. And that is what Christ does for the church ³⁰ because we are parts of his body. ³¹ The Scriptures say, “That is why a man will leave his father and mother and join his wife, and the two people will become one.”[☆] ³² That secret truth is very important—I am talking about Christ and the church. ³³ But each one of you must love his wife as he loves himself. And a wife must respect her husband.

Children and Parents

¹ Children, obey your parents the way the Lord wants, because this is the right thing to do. ² The command says, “You must respect your father and mother.”[☆] This is the [☆] 5:31 Quote from Genesis 2:24. [☆] 6:2 Quote from Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16.

first command that has a promise with it. ³ And this is the promise: “Then all will go well with you, and you will have a long life on the earth.”[☆]

⁴ Fathers, don’t make your children angry, but raise them with the kind of teaching and training you learn from the Lord.

Slaves and Masters

⁵ Slaves, obey your masters here on earth with fear and respect. And do this with a heart that is true, just as you obey Christ. ⁶ You must do this not just to please your masters while they are watching, but all the time. Since you are really slaves of Christ, you must do with all your heart what God wants. ⁷ Do your work, and be happy to do it. Work as though it is the Lord you are serving, not just an earthly master. ⁸ Remember that the Lord will give everyone a reward for doing good. Everyone, slave or free, will get a reward for the good things they do.

⁹ Masters, in the same way, be good to your slaves. Don’t say things to scare them. You know that the one who is your Master and their Master is in heaven, and he treats everyone the same.

Wear the Full Armor of God

¹⁰ To end my letter I tell you, be strong in the Lord and in his great power. ¹¹ Wear the full armor of God. Wear God’s armor so that you can fight against the devil’s clever tricks. ¹² Our fight is not against people on earth. We are fighting against the rulers and authorities and the powers of this world’s darkness. We are fighting against the spiritual powers of evil in the heavenly places. ¹³ That is why you need to get God’s full armor. Then on the day of evil, you will be able to stand strong. And when you have finished the whole fight, you will still be standing.

¹⁹ Also pray for me—that when I speak, God will give me words so that I can tell the secret truth about the Good News without fear. ²⁰ I have the work of speaking for that Good News, and that is what I am doing now, here in prison. Pray that when I tell people the Good News, I will speak without fear as I should.

Final Greetings

²¹ I am sending you Tychicus, the brother we love. He is a faithful servant of the Lord’s work. He will tell you everything that is happening with me. Then you will know how I am and what I am doing. ²² That’s why I am sending him—to let you know how we are and to encourage you.

²³ I pray that God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ will give peace and love with faith to all the brothers and sisters there. ²⁴ God’s grace to all of you who love our Lord Jesus Christ with love that never ends.

[☆] 6:3 Quote from Exodus 20:12; Deuteronomy 5:16.

Philippians

¹ Greetings from Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ.

To all of you in Philippi who are God's holy people in Christ Jesus, including your elders* and special servants.

² Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Paul's Prayer

³ I thank God every time I remember you. ⁴ And I always pray for all of you with joy.

⁵ I thank God for the help you gave me while I told people the Good News. You helped from the first day you believed until now. ⁶ I am sure that the good work God began in you will continue until he completes it on the day when Jesus Christ comes again.

⁷ I know I am right to think like this about all of you because you are so close to my heart. This is because you have all played such an important part in God's grace to me—now, during this time that I am in prison, and whenever I am defending and proving the truth of the Good News. ⁸ God knows that I want very much to see you. I love all of you with the love of Christ Jesus.

⁹ This is my prayer for you:

that your love will grow more and more; that you will have knowledge and understanding with your love; ¹⁰ that you will see the difference between what is important and what is not and choose what is important; that you will be pure and blameless for the coming of Christ; ¹¹ that your life will be full of the many good works that are produced by Jesus Christ to bring glory and praise to God.

Paul's Troubles Help the Lord's Work

¹² Brothers and sisters, I want you to know that all that has happened to me has helped to spread the Good News. ¹³ All the Roman guards and all the others here know that I am in prison for serving Christ. ¹⁴ My being in prison has caused most of the believers to put their trust in the Lord and to show more courage in telling people God's message.

¹⁵ Some people are telling the message about Christ because they are jealous and bitter. Others do it because they want to help. ¹⁶ They are doing it out of love. They know that God gave me the work of defending the Good News. ¹⁷ But those others tell about Christ because of their selfish ambition. Their reason for doing it is wrong. They only do it because they think it will make trouble for me in prison. ¹⁸ But that doesn't matter. What is important is that they are telling people about Christ, whether they are sincere or not. So I am glad they are doing it.

I will continue to be glad, ¹⁹ because I know that your prayers and the help the Spirit of Jesus Christ gives me will cause this trouble to result in my freedom.† ²⁰ I am full of hope and feel sure I will not have any reason to be ashamed. I am certain I will continue to have the same boldness to speak freely that I always have. I will let God use my life to bring more honor to Christ. It doesn't matter whether I live or die. ²¹ To me, the only important thing about living is Christ. And even death would be for my benefit.‡ ²² If I continue living here on earth, I will be able to work for the Lord. But what would I choose—to live or to die? I don't know. ²³ It would be a hard choice. Sometimes I want to leave this life and be with Christ. That would be much better for me; ²⁴ however, you people need me here alive. ²⁵ I am sure of this, so I know that I will stay here and be with you to help you grow and have joy in your faith. ²⁶ When I am there with you again, you will be bursting with pride over what Christ Jesus did to help me.

²⁷ Just be sure you live as God's people in a way that honors the Good News of Christ. Then if I come and visit you or if I am away from you, I will hear good things about you. I will know that you stand together with the same purpose and that you work together like a team to help others believe the Good News. ²⁸ And you will not be afraid of those who are against you. All of this is proof from God that you are being saved and that your enemies will be lost. ²⁹ God has blessed you in ways that serve Christ. He allowed you to believe in Christ. But that is not all. He has also given you the honor of suffering for Christ. Both of these bring glory to Christ. ³⁰ You saw the difficulties I had to face, and you hear that I am still having troubles. Now you must face them too.

Be United and Care for Each Other

¹ Think about what we have in Christ: the encouragement he has brought us, the comfort of his love, our sharing in his Spirit, and the mercy and kindness he has shown us. If you enjoy these blessings, ² then do what will make my joy complete: Agree with each other, and show your love for each other. Be united in your goals and in the way you think. ³ In whatever you do, don't let selfishness or pride be your guide. Be humble, and honor others more than yourselves. ⁴ Don't be interested only in your own life, but care about the lives of others too.

Learn From Christ to Be Unselfish

- ⁵ In your life together, think the way Christ Jesus thought.
- ⁶ He was like God in every way, but he did not think that his being equal with God was something to use for his own benefit.
- ⁷ Instead, he gave up everything, even his place with God.
He accepted the role of a servant, appearing in human form.
During his life as a man,
- ⁸ he humbled himself by being fully obedient to God,
even when that caused his death—death on a cross.
- ⁹ So God raised him up to the most important place and gave him the name that is greater than any other name.
- ¹⁰ God did this so that every person will bow down to honor the name of Jesus.
Everyone in heaven, on earth, and under the earth will bow.
- ¹¹ They will all confess, "Jesus Christ is Lord,"
and this will bring glory to God the Father.

Be the People God Wants You to Be

¹² My dear friends, you always obeyed what you were taught. Just as you obeyed when I was with you, it is even more important for you to obey now that I am not there. So you must continue to live in a way that gives meaning to your salvation. Do this with fear and respect for God. ¹³ Yes, it is God who is working in you. He helps you want to do what pleases him, and he gives you the power to do it.

¹⁴ Do everything without complaining or arguing ¹⁵ so that you will be blameless and pure, children of God without any fault. But you are living with evil people all around you, who have lost their sense of what is right. Among those people you shine like lights in a dark world, ¹⁶ and you offer them the teaching that gives life. So I can be proud of you when Christ comes again. You will show that my work was not wasted—that I ran in the race and won.

¹⁷ Your faith makes you give your lives as a sacrifice in serving God. Maybe I will have to offer my own life with your sacrifice. But if that happens, I will be glad, and I will share my joy with all of you. ¹⁸ You also should be glad and share your joy with me.

News About Timothy and Epaphroditus

¹⁹ With the blessing of the Lord Jesus, I hope I will be able to send Timothy to you soon. I will be glad to learn how you are. ²⁰ I have no one else like Timothy, who genuinely cares for you. ²¹ Others are interested only in their own lives. They don't care about the work of Christ Jesus. ²² You know the kind of person Timothy is. He has served with me in telling the Good News like a son with his father. ²³ I plan to send him to you quickly, as soon as I know what will happen to me. ²⁴ I am sure the Lord will help me come to you soon.

²⁵ For now, I think I must send Epaphroditus back to you. He is my brother in God's family, who works and serves with me in the Lord's army. When I needed help, you sent him to me, ²⁶ but now he wants very much to see all of you again. He is worried because you heard that he was sick. ²⁷ He was sick and near death. But God helped him and me too, so that I would not have even more grief. ²⁸ So I want very much to send him to you. When you see him, you can be happy. And I can stop worrying about you. ²⁹ Welcome him in the Lord with much joy. Give honor to people like Epaphroditus. ³⁰ He should be honored because he almost died for the work of Christ. He put his life in danger so that he could help me. This was help that you could not give me.

Christ Is More Important Than Anything

¹ And now, my brothers and sisters, be filled with joy in the Lord. It is no trouble for me to write the same things to you again. I want to be sure that you are prepared.

² Be careful of the dogs—those men whose work does only harm. They want to cut on everyone who isn't circumcised.* ³ But we are the ones who have the true circumcision[†]—we who worship God through his Spirit. We don't trust in ourselves or anything we can do. We take pride only in Christ Jesus. ⁴ Even if I am able to trust in myself, still I don't do it. If anyone else thinks they have a reason to trust in themselves, they should know that I have a greater reason for doing so. ⁵ I was circumcised on the eighth day after my birth. I am from the people of Israel and the tribe of Benjamin. I am a true Jew, and so were my parents. The law was very important to me. That is why I became a Pharisee. ⁶ I was so eager to defend my religion[‡] that I persecuted the church. And no one could find fault with the way I obeyed the Law of Moses.

⁷ At one time all these things were important to me. But because of Christ, I decided that they are worth nothing. ⁸ Not only these things, but now I think that all things are worth nothing compared with the greatness of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. Because of Christ, I lost all these things, and now I know that they are all worthless trash. All I want now is Christ. ⁹ I want to belong to him. In Christ I am right with God, but my being right does not come from following the law. It comes from God through faith. God uses my faith in[§] Christ to make me right with him. ¹⁰ All I want is to know Christ and the power that raised him from death. I want to share in his sufferings and be like him even in his death. ¹¹ Then there is hope that I myself will somehow be raised from death.

* 3:2 want to cut on ... circumcised There is a play on words here in Greek. The key word is like "circumcision" (see "circumcise, circumcision" in the Word List), but it means "mutilation" or "cutting to pieces." † 3:3 we are ... circumcision Literally, "we are the circumcision." See "circumcise, circumcision" in the Word List. ‡ 3:6 eager to defend my religion Before Paul became a believer in Jesus as the Messiah, he thought it was his duty as a good Jew to oppose the Jews who had become Christ-followers. § 3:9 my faith in Or "the faithfulness of."

Trying to Reach the Goal

¹² I don't mean that I am exactly what God wants me to be. I have not yet reached that goal. But I continue trying to reach it and make it mine. That's what Christ Jesus wants me to do. It is the reason he made me his. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, I know that I still have a long way to go. But there is one thing I do: I forget what is in the past and try as hard as I can to reach the goal before me. ¹⁴ I keep running hard toward the finish line to get the prize that is mine because God has called me through Christ Jesus to life up there in heaven.

¹⁵ All of us who have grown to be spiritually mature should think this way too. And if there is any of this that you don't agree with, God will make it clear to you. ¹⁶ But we should continue following the truth we already have.

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, join together in following my example. Also, learn by watching those who are living the way we showed you. ¹⁸ There are many who live like enemies of the cross of Christ. I have often told you about them. And it makes me cry to tell you about them now. ¹⁹ The way they live is leading them to destruction. They have replaced God with their own desires. They do shameful things, and they are proud of what they do. They think only about earthly things. ²⁰ But the government that rules us is in heaven. We are waiting for our Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ, to come from there. ²¹ He will change our humble bodies and make them like his own glorious body. Christ can do this by his power, with which he is able to rule everything.

Some Things to Do

¹ My dear brothers and sisters, I love you and want to see you. You bring me joy and make me proud of you. Continue following the Lord as I have told you.

² Euodia and Syntyche, you both belong to the Lord, so please agree with each other. ³ For this I make a special request to my friend who has served with me so faithfully: Help these women. They worked hard with me in telling people the Good News, together with Clement and others who worked with me. Their names are written in the book of life.*

⁴ Always be filled with joy in the Lord. I will say it again. Be filled with joy.

⁵ Let everyone see that you are gentle and kind. The Lord is coming soon. ⁶ Don't worry about anything, but pray and ask God for everything you need, always giving thanks for what you have. ⁷ And because you belong to Christ Jesus, God's peace will stand guard over all your thoughts and feelings. His peace can do this far better than our human minds.†

⁸ Brothers and sisters, continue to think about what is good and worthy of praise. Think about what is true and honorable and right and pure and beautiful and respected. ⁹ And do what you learned and received from me—what I told you and what you saw me do. And the God who gives peace will be with you.

Paul Thanks the Philippian Believers

¹⁰ I am so happy, and I thank the Lord that you have again shown your care for me. You continued to care about me, but there was no way for you to show it. ¹¹ I am telling you this, but not because I need something. I have learned to be satisfied with what I have and with whatever happens. ¹² I know how to live when I am poor and when I have plenty. I have learned the secret of how to live through any kind of situation—when I have enough to eat or when I am hungry, when I have everything I need or when I have nothing. ¹³ Christ is the one who gives me the strength I need to do whatever I must do.

¹⁴ But it was good that you helped me when I needed help. ¹⁵ You people in Philippi remember when I first told the Good News there. When I left Macedonia, you were the only church that gave me help. ¹⁶ Several times you sent me things I needed when I was in Thessalonica. ¹⁷ Really, it is not that I want to get gifts from you. But I want you to have the benefit that comes from giving. ¹⁸ I have everything I need. I have even more than I need. I have all I need because Epaphroditus brought your gift to me. Your gift is like a sweet-smelling sacrifice offered to God. God accepts that sacrifice and it pleases him. ¹⁹ My God will use his glorious riches to give you everything you need. He will do this through Christ Jesus. ²⁰ Glory to our God and Father forever and ever. Amen.

* 4:3 book of life God's book that contains the names of his chosen people. See Rev. 3:5; 21:27. † 4:7 can do ... minds Literally, "surpasses (is better than) every mind," which could also have the meaning "is beyond all understanding."

²¹ Give our greetings to God's people there—to each one who belongs to Christ Jesus. Those in God's family who are with me send you their greetings. ²² And greetings to you from all of God's people here, especially those who work in the service of the emperor.

²³ The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

Colossians

² To the holy and faithful brothers and sisters in Christ who live in Colossae. Grace and peace to you from God our Father.

³ In our prayers we always thank God for you. He is the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁴ We thank him because we have heard about the faith you have in Christ Jesus and the love you have for all of God's people. ⁵ Your faith and love continue because you know what is waiting for you in heaven—the hope you have had since you first heard the true message, the Good News ⁶ that was told to you. Throughout the world, this Good News is bringing blessings and is spreading. And that's what has been happening among you since the first time you heard it and understood the truth about God's grace. ⁷ You heard it from Epaphras, our dear friend and co-worker. He is a faithful servant of Christ for us.*

⁹ Since the day we heard these things about you, we have continued praying for you. This is what we pray:

that God will make you completely sure of what he wants by giving you all the wisdom and spiritual understanding you need; ¹⁰ that this will help you live in a way that brings honor to the Lord and pleases him in every way; that your life will produce good works of every kind and that you will grow in your knowledge of God†; ¹¹ that God will strengthen you with his own great power, so that you will be patient and not give up when troubles come.

Then you will be happy ¹² and give thanks to the Father. He has made you able to have what he has promised to give all his holy people, who live in the light. ¹³ God made us free from the power of darkness. And he brought us into the kingdom of his dear Son.

¹⁴ The Son paid the price to make us free. In him we have forgiveness of our sins.

The Son of God Is the Same as God

¹⁵ No one can see God,
but the Son is exactly like God.

He rules over everything that has been made.‡

¹⁶ Through his power all things were made:
things in heaven and on earth, seen and not seen—
all spiritual rulers, lords, powers, and authorities.
Everything was made through him and for him.

¹⁷ The Son was there before anything was made.
And all things continue because of him.

¹⁸ He is the head of the body, which is the church.
He is the beginning of everything else.

And he is the first among all who will be raised from death.§
So in everything he is most important.

¹⁹ God was pleased for all of himself to live in the Son.

* 1:7 us Many ancient Greek copies have “you.” † 1:10 that your life ... God Or “that your knowledge of God will produce more and more good works of every kind in your life.” ‡ 1:15 He ... made Literally, “He is the firstborn of all creation.” See “firstborn” in the Word List. § 1:18 first ... death Literally, “firstborn from the dead.”

²⁰ And through him, God was happy to bring all things back to himself again— things on earth and things in heaven. God made peace by using the blood sacrifice of his Son on the cross.

²¹ At one time you were separated from God. You were his enemies in your minds, because the evil you did was against him. ²² But now he has made you his friends again. He did this by the death Christ suffered while he was in his body. He did it so that he could present you to himself as people who are holy, blameless, and without anything that would make you guilty before him. ²³ And that is what will happen if you continue to believe in the Good News you heard. You must remain strong and sure in your faith. You must not let anything cause you to give up the hope that became yours when you heard the Good News. That same Good News has been told to everyone on earth, and that's the work that I, Paul, was given to do.

Paul's Work for the Church

²⁴ I am happy in my sufferings for you. There is much that Christ must still suffer. And I gladly accept my part of those sufferings in my body for the good of his body, the church. ²⁵ I became a servant of the church because God gave me a special work to do. This work helps you. My work is to tell the complete message of God. ²⁶ This message is the secret truth that was hidden since the beginning of time. It was hidden from everyone for ages, but now it has been made known to God's holy people. ²⁷ God decided to let his people know just how rich and glorious that truth is. That secret truth, which is for all people, is that Christ lives in you, his people. He is our hope for glory. ²⁸ So we continue to tell people about Christ. We use all wisdom to counsel every person and teach every person. We are trying to bring everyone before God as people who have grown to be spiritually mature in Christ. ²⁹ To do this, I work and struggle using the great strength that Christ gives me. That strength is working in my life.

¹ I want you to know that I am trying very hard to help you. And I am trying to help those in Laodicea and others who have never seen me. ² I want them to be strengthened and joined together with love and to have the full confidence that comes from understanding. I want them to know completely the secret truth that God has made known. That truth is Christ himself. ³ In him all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge are kept safe.

⁴ I tell you this so that no one can fool you by telling you ideas that seem good, but are false. ⁵ Even though I am far away, my thoughts are always with you. I am happy to see your good lives and your strong faith in Christ.

Continue to Follow Christ Jesus

⁶ You accepted Christ Jesus as Lord, so continue to live following him. ⁷ You must depend on Christ only, drawing life and strength from him. Just as you were taught the truth, continue to grow stronger in your understanding of it. And never stop giving thanks to God.

⁸ Be sure you are not led away by the teaching of those who have nothing worth saying and only plan to deceive you. That teaching is not from Christ. It is only human tradition and comes from the powers that influence* this world. ⁹ I say this because all of God lives in Christ fully, even in his life on earth. ¹⁰ And because you belong to Christ you are complete, having everything you need. Christ is ruler over every other power and authority.

¹¹ In Christ you had a different kind of circumcision, one that was not done by human hands. That is, you were made free from the power of your sinful self. That is the kind of circumcision Christ does. ¹² When you were baptized, you were buried with Christ, and you were raised up with him because of your faith in God's power. God's power was shown when he raised Christ from death.

¹³ You were spiritually dead because of your sins and because you were not free from the power of your sinful self. But God gave you new life together with Christ. He forgave all our sins. ¹⁴ Because we broke God's laws, we owed a debt—a debt that listed all the rules we failed to follow. But God forgave us of that debt. He took it away and nailed it to the cross. ¹⁵ He defeated the rulers and powers of the spiritual world. With the cross he won the victory over them and led them away, as defeated and powerless prisoners for the whole world to see.

Don't Follow Rules That People Make

¹⁶ So don't let anyone make rules for you about eating and drinking or about Jewish customs (festivals, New Moon celebrations, or Sabbath days). ¹⁷ In the past these things were like a shadow that showed what was coming. But the new things that were coming are found in Christ. ¹⁸ Some people enjoy acting as if they are humble and love to worship angels.† They always talk about the visions they have seen. Don't listen to them when they say you are wrong because you don't do these things. It is so foolish for them to feel such pride, because it is all based on their own human ideas. ¹⁹ They don't keep themselves under the control of the head. Christ is the head, and the whole body depends on him. Because of Christ all the parts of the body care for each other and help each other. So the body is made stronger and held together as God causes it to grow.

²⁰ You died with Christ and were made free from the powers that influence this world. So why do you act as if you still belong to the world? I mean, why do you follow rules like these: ²¹ “Don't eat this,” “Don't taste that,” “Don't touch that”? ²² These rules are talking about earthly things that are gone after they are used. They are only human commands and teachings. ²³ These rules may seem to be wise as part of a made-up religion in which people pretend to be humble and punish their bodies. But they don't help people stop doing the evil that the sinful self wants to do.

Your New Life

¹ You were raised from death with Christ. So live for what is in heaven, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God. ² Think only about what is up there, not what is here on earth. ³ Your old self has died, and your new life is kept with Christ in God. ⁴ Yes, Christ is now your life, and when he comes again, you will share in his glory.

⁵ So put everything evil out of your life: sexual sin, doing anything immoral, letting sinful thoughts control you, and wanting things that are wrong. And don't keep wanting more and more for yourself, which is the same as worshiping a false god. ⁶ God will show his anger against those who don't obey him,* because they do these evil things. ⁷ You also did these things in the past, when you lived like them.

⁸ But now put these things out of your life: anger, losing your temper, doing or saying things to hurt others, and saying shameful things. ⁹ Don't lie to each other. You have taken off those old clothes—the person you once were and the bad things you did then. ¹⁰ Now you are wearing a new life, a life that is new every day. You are growing in your understanding of the one who made you. You are becoming more and more like him. ¹¹ In this new life it doesn't matter if you are a Greek or a Jew, circumcised or not. It doesn't matter if you speak a different language or even if you are a Scythian.† It doesn't matter if you are a slave or free. Christ is all that matters, and he is in all of you.

Your New Life With Each Other

† 2:18 worship angels Or “worship with angels” (that they see in visions). * 3:6 against ... him Some Greek copies do not have these words. † 3:11 Scythians Known as wild and uncivilized people.

¹² God has chosen you and made you his holy people. He loves you. So your new life should be like this: Show mercy to others. Be kind, humble, gentle, and patient. ¹³ Don't be angry with each other, but forgive each other. If you feel someone has wronged you, forgive them. Forgive others because the Lord forgave you. ¹⁴ Together with these things, the most important part of your new life is to love each other. Love is what holds everything together in perfect unity. ¹⁵ Let the peace that Christ gives control your thinking. It is for peace that you were chosen to be together in one body.[‡] And always be thankful.

¹⁶ Let the teaching of Christ live inside you richly. Use all wisdom to teach and counsel each other. Sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs with thankfulness in your hearts to God. ¹⁷ Everything you say and everything you do should be done for Jesus your Lord. And in all you do, give thanks to God the Father through Jesus.

Your New Life at Home

¹⁸ Wives, be willing to serve your husbands. This is the right thing to do in following the Lord.

¹⁹ Husbands, love your wives, and be gentle to them.

²⁰ Children, obey your parents in everything. This pleases the Lord.

²¹ Fathers, don't upset your children. If you are too hard to please, they might want to stop trying.

²² Servants, obey your masters in everything. Obey all the time, even when they can't see you. Don't just pretend to work hard so that they will treat you well. No, you must serve your masters honestly because you respect the Lord. ²³ In all the work you are given, do the best you can. Work as though you are working for the Lord, not any earthly master. ²⁴ Remember that you will receive your reward from the Lord, who will give you what he promised his people. Yes, you are serving Christ. He is your real Master.[§] ²⁵ Remember that anyone who does wrong will be punished for that wrong. And the Lord treats everyone the same.

¹ Masters, give what is good and fair to your servants. Remember that you have a Master in heaven.

Some Things to Do

² Never stop praying. Be ready for anything by praying and being thankful. ³ Also pray for us. Pray that God will give us an opportunity to tell people his message. I am in prison for doing this. But pray that we can continue to tell people the secret truth that God has made known about Christ. ⁴ Pray that I will say what is necessary to make this truth clear to everyone.

⁵ Be wise in the way you act with those who are not believers. Use your time in the best way you can. ⁶ When you talk, you should always be kind and wise. Then you will be able to answer everyone in the way you should.

News About Those With Paul

⁷ Tychicus is my dear brother in Christ. He is a faithful helper and he serves the Lord with me. He will tell you everything that is happening with me. ⁸ That is why I am sending him. I want you to know how we are, and I am sending him to encourage you. ⁹ I am sending him with Onesimus, the faithful and dear brother from your group. They will tell you everything that has happened here.

¹⁰ Aristarchus, the one here in prison with me, sends you his greetings. Mark, the cousin of Barnabas, also sends his greetings. (I have already told you what to do about Mark. If he comes, welcome him.) ¹¹ And greetings from Jesus, the one who is also called

[‡] 3:15 body Christ's spiritual body, meaning the church—his people. [§] 3:24 Yes, you ... Master Or "Serve the Lord Christ." The Greek word translated "Lord" is the same as the word for "master" in verses 22 and 23.

Justus. These are the only Jewish believers who work with me for God's kingdom. They have been a great comfort to me.

¹² Epaphras, another servant of Jesus Christ from your group, sends his greetings. He constantly struggles for you in prayer. He prays that you will grow to be spiritually mature and have everything that God wants for you. ¹³ I know that he has worked hard for you and the people in Laodicea and in Hierapolis. ¹⁴ Greetings also from Demas and our dear friend Luke, the doctor.

¹⁵ Give our greetings to the brothers and sisters in Laodicea. Greetings also to Nympha and to the church that meets in her house. ¹⁶ After this letter is read to you, be sure it is also read to the church in Laodicea. And you read the letter that I wrote to them. ¹⁷ Tell Archippus, "Be sure to do the work the Lord gave you."

¹⁸ Here's my greeting in my own handwriting—PAUL. Remember me in prison. God's grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

To the church of those in Thessalonica, who are in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace and peace be yours.

The Life and Faith of the Thessalonians

² We always remember you when we pray, and we thank God for all of you. ³ Every time we pray to God our Father, we thank him for all that you have done because of your faith. And we thank him for the work you have done because of your love. And we thank him that you continue to be strong because of your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ.

⁴ Brothers and sisters, God loves you. And we know that he has chosen you to be his people. ⁵ When we brought the Good News to you, we came with more than words. We brought that Good News with power, with the Holy Spirit, and with the sure knowledge that it was true. Also you know how we lived when we were with you. We lived that way to help you. ⁶ And you became like us and like the Lord. You suffered much, but still you accepted the teaching with joy. The Holy Spirit gave you that joy.

⁷ You became an example to all the believers in Macedonia and Achaia. ⁸ The Lord's teaching has spread from you throughout Greece and beyond. In fact, your faith in God has become known everywhere, so we never have to tell anyone about it. ⁹ People everywhere are already telling the story about the good way you accepted us when we were there with you. They tell about how you stopped worshiping idols and changed to serve the living and true God. ¹⁰ And you began waiting for God's Son to come from heaven—the Son God raised from death. He is Jesus, who saves us from God's angry judgment that is coming.

Paul's Work in Thessalonica

¹ Brothers and sisters, you know that our visit to you was not a failure. ² Before we came to you, people in Philippi abused us with insults and made us suffer. You know all about that. And then, when we came to you, many people there caused trouble for us. But our God gave us the courage we needed to tell you his Good News. ³ When we encourage people to believe the Good News, it's not out of wrong motives. We are not trying to trick or fool anyone. ⁴ No, we did it because God is the one who gave us this work. And this was only after he tested us and saw that we could be trusted to do it. So when we speak, we are only trying to please God, not anyone else. He is the one who can see what is in our hearts.

⁵ You know that we never tried to influence you by saying nice things about you. We were not trying to get your money. We had no greed to hide from you. God knows that this is true. ⁶ We were not looking for praise from people—not from you or anyone else.

⁷ When we were with you, as apostles of Christ we could have used our authority to make you help us. But we were very gentle* with you. We were like a mother caring for her little children. ⁸ We loved you very much, so we were happy to share God's Good News with you. But not only that—we were also happy to share even our own lives with you. ⁹ Brothers and sisters, I know that you remember how hard we worked. We worked night and day to support ourselves, so that we would not be a burden to anyone while we did the work of telling you God's Good News.

* 2:7 But ... gentle Several Greek copies have "But we became babies."

¹⁰ When we were there with you believers, we were pure, honest, and without fault in the way we lived. You know, just as God does, that this is true. ¹¹ You know that we treated each one of you the way a father treats his own children. ¹² We encouraged you, we comforted you, and we told you to live good lives for God. He calls you to be part of his glorious kingdom.

¹³ Also, we always thank God because of the way you accepted his message. You heard it and accepted it as God's message, not our own. And it really is God's message. And it works in you who believe. ¹⁴ Brothers and sisters, you are just like God's churches in Judea. † I mean that you were treated badly by your own people, just as those believers in Christ Jesus were treated badly by other Jews—¹⁵ the same Jews who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets. And they forced us to leave their country. They are not pleasing to God, and they are against everyone else. ¹⁶ And they are trying to stop us from teaching those who are not Jews. They don't want them to be saved. But they are just adding more and more sins to the ones they already have. Now the time has come for them to suffer God's anger.

Paul's Desire to Visit Them Again

¹⁷ Brothers and sisters, we were separated from you for a short time. But even though we were not there, our thoughts were still with you. We wanted very much to see you, and we tried very hard to do this. ¹⁸ Yes, we wanted to come to you. I, Paul, tried more than once to come, but Satan stopped us. ¹⁹ You are our hope, our joy, and the crown we will be proud of when our Lord Jesus Christ comes. ²⁰ You bring us honor and joy.

¹⁻² We could not come to you, but it was very hard to wait any longer. So we decided to send Timothy to you and stay in Athens alone. Timothy is our brother. He works with us for God to tell people the Good News about Christ. We sent Timothy to strengthen and encourage you in your faith. ³ We sent him so that none of you would be upset by the troubles we have now. You yourselves know that we must have these troubles. ⁴ Even when we were with you, we told you that we would all have to suffer. And you know that it happened just as we said. ⁵ This is why I sent Timothy to you, so that I could know about your faith. I sent him when I could not wait anymore. I was afraid that the devil who tempts people might have defeated you with temptations. Then our hard work would have been wasted.

⁶ But now Timothy has come back from his visit with you and told us good news about your faith and love. He told us that you always remember us in a good way. He told us that you want very much to see us again. And it is the same with us—we want very much to see you. ⁷ So, brothers and sisters, we are encouraged about you because of your faith. We have much trouble and suffering, but still we are encouraged. ⁸ Our life is really full if you stand strong in the Lord. ⁹ We have so much joy before our God because of you! So we thank God for you. But we cannot thank him enough for all the joy we feel. ¹⁰ Night and day we continue praying with all our heart that we can come there and see you again. We want to give you everything you need to make your faith strong.

¹¹ We pray that our God and Father and our Lord Jesus will prepare the way for us to come to you. ¹² We pray that the Lord will make your love grow. We pray that he will give you more and more love for each other and for all people. We pray that you will love everyone in the same way we love you. ¹³ This will strengthen your desire to do what is right, and you will be holy and without fault before our God and Father when our Lord Jesus comes with all his holy people.

† 2:14 Judea The Jewish land where Jesus lived and taught and where the church first began.

A Life That Pleases God

¹ Brothers and sisters, now I have some other things to tell you. We taught you how to live in a way that will please God. And you are living that way. Now we ask and encourage you in the Lord Jesus to live that way more and more. ² You know all that we told you to do by the authority of the Lord Jesus. ³ God wants you to be holy. He wants you to stay away from sexual sins. ⁴ God wants each one of you to learn to control your own body. Use your body in a way that is holy and that gives honor to God.* ⁵ Don't let your sexual desires control you like the people who don't know God. ⁶ Never wrong any of your fellow believers or cheat them in this way. The Lord will punish those who do that. We have already told you this and warned you about it. ⁷ God chose us to be holy. He does not want us to live in sin. ⁸ So anyone who refuses to obey this teaching is refusing to obey God, not us. And God is the one who gives you his Holy Spirit.

⁹ We don't need to write to you about having love for your brothers and sisters in Christ. God has already taught you to love each other. ¹⁰ In fact, you love all the believers in Macedonia. We encourage you now, brothers and sisters, to show your love more and more.

¹¹ Do all you can to live a peaceful life. Mind your own business, and earn your own living, as we told you before. ¹² If you do these things, then those who are not believers will respect the way you live. And you will not have to depend on others for what you need.

The Lord's Coming

¹³ Brothers and sisters, we want you to know about those who have died. We don't want you to be sad like other people—those who have no hope. ¹⁴ We believe that Jesus died, but we also believe that he rose again. So we believe that God will raise to life through Jesus any who have died and bring them together with him when he comes.

¹⁵ What we tell you now is the Lord's own message. Those of us who are still living when the Lord comes again will join him, but not before those who have already died. ¹⁶ The Lord himself will come down from heaven with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trumpet call of God. And the people who have died and were in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ After that we who are still alive at that time will be gathered up with those who have died. We will be taken up in the clouds and meet the Lord in the air. And we will be with the Lord forever. ¹⁸ So encourage each other with these words.

Be Ready for the Lord's Coming

¹ Now, brothers and sisters, we don't need to write to you about times and dates. ² You know very well that the day when the Lord comes again will be a surprise, like a thief who comes at night. ³ People will say, "We have peace and we are safe." At that time destruction will come to them quickly, like the pains of a woman giving birth. And those people will not escape.

⁴ But you, brothers and sisters, are not living in darkness. And so that day will not surprise you like a thief. ⁵ You are all people who belong to the light. You belong to the day. We don't belong to the night or to darkness. ⁶ So we should not be like other people. We should not be sleeping. We should be awake and have self-control. ⁷ People who sleep, sleep at night. People who drink too much, drink at night. ⁸ But we belong to the day, so we should control ourselves. We should wear faith and love to protect us. And the hope of salvation should be our helmet.

⁹ God did not choose us to suffer his anger. God chose us to have salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁰ Jesus died for us so that we can live together with him. It is not

* 4:4 Or "God wants each of you to learn to live with your wife in a way that is holy and that gives honor to God."

important if we are alive or dead when Jesus comes. ¹¹ So encourage each other and help each other grow stronger in faith, just as you are already doing.

Final Instructions and Greetings

¹² Now brothers and sisters, we ask you to recognize the value of those who work hard among you—those who, as followers of the Lord, care for you and tell you how to live. ¹³ Show them the highest respect and love because of the work they do.

Live in peace with each other. ¹⁴ We ask you, brothers and sisters, to warn those who will not work. Encourage those who are afraid. Help those who are weak. Be patient with everyone. ¹⁵ Be sure that no one pays back wrong for wrong. But always try to do what is good for each other and for all people.

¹⁶ Always be full of joy. ¹⁷ Never stop praying. ¹⁸ Whatever happens, always be thankful. This is how God wants you to live in Christ Jesus.

¹⁹ Don't stop the work of the Holy Spirit. ²⁰ Don't treat prophecy like something that is not important. ²¹ But test everything. Keep what is good, ²² and stay away from everything that is evil.

²³ We pray that God himself, the God of peace, will make you pure—belonging only to him. We pray that your whole self—spirit, soul, and body—will be kept safe and be blameless when our Lord Jesus Christ comes. ²⁴ The one who chose you will do that for you. You can trust him.

²⁵ Brothers and sisters, please pray for us. ²⁶ Give all the brothers and sisters the special greeting of God's people.* ²⁷ I tell you by the authority of the Lord to read this letter to all the believers there. ²⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

* 5:26 the special greeting of God's people Literally, "a holy kiss."

2 Thessalonians

To the church of those in Thessalonica, who are in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

² Grace and peace to you from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

³ We thank God for you always. And that's what we should do, because you give us good reason to be thankful: Your faith is growing more and more. And the love that every one of you has for each other is also growing. ⁴ So we tell the other churches of God how proud we are of you. We tell them how you patiently continue to be strong and have faith, even though you are being persecuted and are suffering many troubles.

Paul Tells About God's Judgment

⁵ This is proof that God is right in his judgment. He wants you to be worthy of his kingdom. Your suffering is for that kingdom. ⁶ God will do what is right. He will punish those who are causing you trouble. ⁷ And he will bring relief to you who are troubled. He will bring it to you and to us when the Lord Jesus comes from heaven for all to see, together with his powerful angels. ⁸ He will come with burning fire to punish those who don't know God—those who refuse to accept the Good News about our Lord Jesus. ⁹ They will be punished with a destruction that never ends. They will not be allowed to be with the Lord but will be kept away from his great power. ¹⁰ This will happen on the day when the Lord Jesus comes to receive honor with his holy people. He will be admired among all who have believed. And this includes you because you believed what we told you.

¹¹ That is why we always pray for you. We ask our God to help you live the good way he wanted when he chose you. The goodness you have makes you want to do good. And the faith you have makes you work. We pray that with his power God will help you do these things more and more. ¹² Then the name of our Lord Jesus will be honored because of you, and you will be honored because of him. This can happen only by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Evil Things Will Happen

¹ Brothers and sisters, we have something to say about the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. We want to talk to you about that time when we will meet together with him. ² Don't let yourselves be easily upset or worried if you hear that the day of the Lord has already come. Someone might say that this idea came from us—in something the Spirit told us, or in something we said, or in a letter we wrote. ³ Don't be fooled by anything they might say. That day of the Lord will not come until the turning away from God happens. And that day will not come until the Man of Evil appears, the one who belongs to hell.* ⁴ He will stand against and put himself above everything that people worship or think is worthy of worship. He will even go into God's Temple† and sit there, claiming that he is God.

⁵ I told you before that all these things would happen. Remember? ⁶ And you know what is stopping that Man of Evil now. He is being stopped now so that he will appear at the right time. ⁷ The secret power of evil is already working in the world now. But there is one who is stopping that secret power of evil. And he will continue to stop it until he is taken out of the way. ⁸ Then that Man of Evil will appear. But the Lord Jesus will kill him with the breath that comes from his mouth. The Lord will come in a way that everyone will see, and that will be the end of the Man of Evil.

* 2:3 belongs to hell Literally, "is the son of destruction." † 2:4 Temple Probably the Temple in Jerusalem. See "Temple" in the Word List.

⁹ When that Man of Evil comes, it will be the work of Satan. He will come with great power, and he will do all kinds of false miracles, signs, and wonders. ¹⁰ The Man of Evil will use every kind of evil to fool those who are lost. They are lost because they refused to love the truth and be saved. ¹¹ So God will send them something powerful that leads them away from the truth and causes them to believe a lie. ¹² They will all be condemned because they did not believe the truth and because they enjoyed doing evil.

You Are Chosen for Salvation

¹³ Brothers and sisters, you are people the Lord loves. And we always thank God for you. That's what we should do, because God chose you to be some of the first people[‡] to be saved. You are saved by the Spirit making you holy and by your faith in the truth. ¹⁴ God chose you to have that salvation. He chose you by using the Good News that we told you. You were chosen so that you can share in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. ¹⁵ So, brothers and sisters, stand strong and continue to believe the teachings we gave you when we were there and by letter.

¹⁶⁻¹⁷ We pray that the Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father will comfort you and strengthen you in every good thing you do and say. God loved us and gave us through his grace a wonderful hope and comfort that has no end.

Pray for Us

¹ And now, brothers and sisters, pray for us. Pray that the Lord's teaching will continue to spread quickly. And pray that people will give honor to that teaching, the same as happened with you. ² And pray that we will be protected from crooked and evil people. Not everyone believes in the Lord, you know.

³ But the Lord is faithful. He will give you strength and protect you from the Evil One. ⁴ The Lord gives us confidence that you are doing what we told you and that you will continue to do it. ⁵ We pray that the Lord will cause you to feel God's love and remember Christ's patient endurance.

The Obligation to Work

⁶ Brothers and sisters, by the authority of our Lord Jesus Christ we tell you to stay away from any believer who refuses to work. People who refuse to work are not following the teaching that we gave them. ⁷ You yourselves know that you should live like we do. We were not lazy when we were with you. ⁸ We never accepted food from anyone without paying for it. We worked and worked so that we would not be a burden to any of you. We worked night and day. ⁹ We had the right to ask you to help us. But we worked to take care of ourselves so that we would be an example for you to follow. ¹⁰ When we were with you, we gave you this rule: "Whoever will not work should not be allowed to eat."

¹¹ We hear that some people in your group refuse to work. They are doing nothing except being busy in the lives of others. ¹² Our instruction to them is to stop bothering others, to start working and earn their own food. It is by the authority of the Lord Jesus Christ that we are urging them to do this. ¹³ Brothers and sisters, never get tired of doing good.

¹⁴ If there are some there who refuse to do what we tell you in this letter, remember who they are. Don't associate with them. Then maybe they will feel ashamed. ¹⁵ But don't treat them as enemies. Counsel them as fellow believers.

Final Words

¹⁶ We pray that the Lord of peace will give you peace at all times and in every way. The Lord be with you all.

[‡] 2:13 to be ... people Some Greek copies say, "from the beginning."

¹⁷ Here's my greeting in my own handwriting—PAUL. I do this in all my letters to show they are from me. This is the way I write.

¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

¹ Greetings from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle by the command of God our Savior and Christ Jesus our hope.

² To Timothy, a true son to me in the faith we share.

Grace, mercy, and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

Warnings Against False Teachings

³ When I went to Macedonia, I asked you to stay in Ephesus. Some people there are teaching things that are not true, and I want you to tell them to stop. ⁴ Tell them not to give their time to meaningless stories and to long lists of names to prove their family histories. Such things only cause arguments. They don't help God's work, which is done only by faith. ⁵ My purpose in telling you to do this is to promote love—the kind of love shown by those whose thoughts are pure, who do what they know is right, and whose faith in God is real. ⁶ But some have missed this key point in their teaching and have gone off in another direction. Now they talk about things that help no one. ⁷ They want to be teachers of the law,* but they don't know what they are talking about. They don't even understand the things they say they are sure of.

⁸ We know that the law is good if someone uses it right. ⁹ We also know that the law is not made for those who do what is right. It is made for those who are against the law and refuse to follow it. The law is for sinners who are against God and all that is pleasing to him. It is for those who have no interest in spiritual things and for those who kill their fathers or mothers or anyone else. ¹⁰ It is for those who commit sexual sins, homosexuals, those who sell slaves, those who tell lies, those who don't tell the truth under oath, and those who are against the true teaching of God. ¹¹ That teaching is part of the Good News that our blessed God gave me to tell. In it we see his glory.

Thanks for God's Mercy

¹² I thank Christ Jesus our Lord because he trusted me and gave me this work of serving him. He gives me strength. ¹³ In the past I insulted Christ. As a proud and violent man, I persecuted his people. But God gave me mercy because I did not know what I was doing. I did that before I became a believer. ¹⁴ But our Lord gave me a full measure of his grace. And with that grace came the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.

¹⁵ Here is a true statement that should be accepted without question: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, and I am the worst of them. ¹⁶ But I was given mercy so that in me Christ Jesus could show that he has patience without limit. Christ showed his patience with me, the worst of all sinners. He wanted me to be an example for those who would believe in him and have eternal life. ¹⁷ Honor and glory to the King who rules forever. He cannot be destroyed and cannot be seen. Honor and glory forever and ever to the only God. Amen.

¹⁸ Timothy, you are like a son to me. What I am telling you to do agrees with the prophecies† that were told about you in the past. I want you to remember those prophecies and fight the good fight of faith. ¹⁹ Continue to trust in God and do what you know is right. Some people have not done this, and their faith is now in ruins. ²⁰ Hymenaeus and Alexander are men like that. I have given them to Satan so that they will learn not to speak against God.

* 1:7 law Probably the Jewish law that God gave to Moses on Mount Sinai. See Exodus 19 and 20. Also in verse 8.

† 1:18 prophecies Things that prophets said about Timothy's life before those things happened.

God Wants Us to Pray for Everyone

¹ First of all, I ask that you pray for all people. Ask God to bless them and give them what they need. And give thanks. ² You should pray for rulers and for all who have authority. Pray for these leaders so that we can live quiet and peaceful lives—lives full of devotion to God and respect for him. ³ This is good and pleases God our Savior.

⁴ God wants everyone to be saved and to fully understand the truth. ⁵ There is only one God, and there is only one way that people can reach God. That way is through Christ Jesus, who as a man ⁶ gave himself to pay for everyone to be free. This is the message that was given to us at just the right time. ⁷ And I was chosen as an apostle to tell people that message. (I am telling the truth. I am not lying.) I was chosen to teach those who are not Jews to believe and understand the truth.

Special Instructions for Men and Women

⁸ I want the men everywhere to pray. Men who lift their hands in prayer must be devoted to God and pleasing to him. They must be men who keep themselves from getting angry and having arguments.

⁹ And I want the women to make themselves attractive in the right way. Their clothes should be sensible and appropriate. They should not draw attention to themselves with fancy hairstyles or gold jewelry or pearls or expensive clothes. ¹⁰ But they should make themselves attractive by the good things they do. That is more appropriate for women who say they are devoted to God.

¹¹ A woman should learn while listening quietly and being completely willing to obey. ¹² I don't allow a woman to teach a man or tell him what to do. She must listen quietly, ¹³ because Adam was made first. Eve was made later. ¹⁴ Also, Adam was not the one who was tricked.* It was the woman who was tricked and became a sinner. ¹⁵ But women will be saved in their work of having children. They will be saved if they continue to live in faith, love, and holiness with sensible behavior.

Leaders in the Church

¹ It is a true statement that anyone whose goal is to serve as an elder* has his heart set on a good work. ² An elder† must be such a good man that no one can rightly criticize him. He must be faithful to his wife.‡ He must have self-control and be wise. He must be respected by others. He must be ready to help people by welcoming them into his home. He must be a good teacher. ³ He must not drink too much, and he must not be someone who likes to fight. He must be gentle and peaceful. He must not be someone who loves money. ⁴ He must be a good leader of his own family. This means that his children obey him with full respect. ⁵ If a man does not know how to lead his own family, he will not be able to take care of God's church.

⁶ An elder must not be a new believer. It might make him too proud of himself. Then he would be condemned for his pride the same as the devil was. ⁷ An elder must also have the respect of people who are not part of the church. Then he will not be criticized by others and be caught in the devil's trap.

Special Servants

⁸ In the same way, the men who are chosen to be special servants must have the respect of others. They must not be men who say things they don't mean or who spend their time drinking too much. They must not be men who will do almost anything for money. ⁹ They must follow the true faith that God has now made known to us and always do what they know is right. ¹⁰ You should test them first. Then, if you find that they have done nothing wrong, they can be special servants.

¹¹ In the same way, the women[§] must have the respect of others. They must not be women who speak evil about other people. They must have self-control and be women who can be trusted in everything.

¹² The men who are special servants must be faithful in marriage.* They must be good leaders of children and their own families. ¹³ Those who do well as special servants are making an honorable place for themselves. And they will feel very sure of their faith in Christ Jesus.

The Secret of Our Life

¹⁴ I hope I can come to you soon. But I am writing this to you now, ¹⁵ so that, even if I cannot come soon, you will know how people should live in the family[†] of God. That family is the church of the living God. And God's church is the support and foundation of the truth. ¹⁶ Without a doubt, the secret of our life of worship is great:

Christ[‡] was shown to us in human form;
the Spirit proved that he was right;
he was seen by angels.

The message about him was told to the nations;
people in the world believed in him;
he was taken up to heaven in glory.

A Warning About False Teachers

¹ The Spirit clearly says that in the last times some will turn away from what we believe. They will obey spirits that tell lies. And they will follow the teachings of demons. ² Those teachings come through people who tell lies and trick others. These evil people cannot see what is right and what is wrong. It is like their conscience has been destroyed with a hot iron. ³ They say that it is wrong to marry. And they say that there are some foods that people must not eat. But God made these foods, and those who believe and who understand the truth can eat them with thanks. ⁴ Everything that God made is good. Nothing he made should be refused if it is accepted with thanks to him. ⁵ Everything he created is made holy by what he has said and by prayer.

Be a Good Servant of Christ Jesus

⁶ Tell this to the brothers and sisters there. This will show that you are a good servant of Christ Jesus. You will show that you are made strong by the words of faith and good teaching you have followed. ⁷ People tell silly stories that don't agree with God's truth. Don't follow what these stories teach. But teach yourself to be devoted to God. ⁸ Training your body helps you in some ways. But devotion to God helps you in every way. It brings you blessings in this life and in the future life too. ⁹ Here is a true statement that should be accepted without question: ¹⁰ We hope in the living God, the Savior of all people. In particular, he is the Savior of all those who believe in him. This is why we work and struggle.

§ 3:11 women Probably the women who serve as special servants (see Rom. 16:1). It could be translated, "their wives," meaning the wives of the special servants, although there is no word for "their" in the Greek text. * 3:12 faithful in marriage Literally, "a man of one woman." † 3:15 family Literally, "house." This could mean that God's people are like God's temple. ‡ 3:16 Christ Literally, "who." Some Greek copies have "God."

¹¹ Command and teach these things. ¹² You are young, but don't let anyone treat you as if you are not important. Be an example to show the believers how they should live. Show them by what you say, by the way you live, by your love, by your faith, and by your pure life.

¹³ Continue to read the Scriptures to the people, encourage them, and teach them. Do this until I come. ¹⁴ Remember to use the gift you have, which was given to you through a prophecy* when the group of elders laid their hands on you. ¹⁵ Continue to do these things. Give your life to doing them. Then everyone can see that your work is progressing. ¹⁶ Be careful in your life and in your teaching. Continue to live and teach rightly. Then you will save yourself and those who listen to your teaching.

¹ Don't speak angrily to an older man. But talk to him as if he were your father. Treat the younger men like brothers. ² Treat the older women like mothers. And treat the younger women with respect like sisters.

Taking Care of Widows

³ Take care of widows who really need help. ⁴ But if a widow has children or grandchildren, the first thing they need to learn is this: to show their devotion to God by taking care of their own family. They will be repaying their parents, and this pleases God. ⁵ A widow who really needs help is one who has been left all alone. She trusts God to take care of her. She prays all the time, night and day, and asks God for help. ⁶ But the widow who uses her life to please herself is really dead while she is still living. ⁷ Tell the believers there to take care of their family so that no one can say they are doing wrong. ⁸ Everyone should take care of all their own people. Most important, they should take care of their own family. If they do not do that, then they do not accept what we believe. They are worse than someone who does not even believe in God.

⁹ To be added to your list of widows, a woman must be 60 years old or older. She must have been faithful to her husband.* ¹⁰ She must be known for the good she has done: raising children, welcoming travelers into her home, serving the needs† of God's people, helping those in trouble, and using her life to do all kinds of good.

¹¹ But don't put younger widows on that list. When their strong physical needs pull them away from their commitment to Christ, they will want to marry again. ¹² Then they will be guilty of not doing what they first promised to do. ¹³ Also, these younger widows begin to waste their time going from house to house. They also begin to gossip and try to run other people's lives. They say things they should not say. ¹⁴ So I want the younger widows to marry, have children, and take care of their homes. If they do this, our enemy will not have any reason to criticize them. ¹⁵ But some of the younger widows have already turned away to follow Satan.

¹⁶ If any woman who is a believer has widows in her family, she‡ should take care of them herself. Then the church will not have that burden and will be able to care for the widows who have no one else to help them.

More About Elders and Other Matters

¹⁷ The elders who lead the church in a good way should receive double honor§—in particular, those who do the work of counseling and teaching. ¹⁸ As the Scriptures say, "When a work animal is being used to separate grain, don't keep it from eating the grain."⊛ And the Scriptures also say, "A worker should be given his pay."⊛

* 4:14 prophecy Something said about Timothy's life before that thing happened. * 5:9 faithful to her husband Literally, "a woman of one man." † 5:10 serving the needs Literally, "washing the feet," a social custom of the first century, because people wore open sandals on very dusty roads. ‡ 5:16 woman ... she Some Greek copies have "man or woman ... he/she." § 5:17 double honor Or "double pay." ⊛ 5:18 Quote from Deuteronomy 25:4. ⊛ 5:18 Quote from Luke 10:7.

¹⁹ Don't listen to someone who accuses an elder. You should listen to them only if there are two or three others who can say what the elder did wrong. ²⁰ Tell those who sin that they are wrong. Do this in front of the whole church so that the others will have a warning.

²¹ Before God and Jesus Christ and the chosen angels, I tell you to make these judgments without any prejudice. Treat every person the same.

²² Think carefully before you lay your hands on anyone to make him an elder. Don't share in the sins of others. Keep yourself pure.

²³ Timothy, stop drinking only water, and drink a little wine. This will help your stomach, and you will not be sick so often.

²⁴ The sins of some people are easy to see. Their sins show that they will be judged. But the sins of some others are seen only later. ²⁵ It is the same with the good things people do. Some are easy to see. But even if they are not obvious now, none of them will stay hidden forever.

Special Instructions for Slaves

¹ All those who are slaves should show full respect to their masters. Then God's name and our teaching will not be criticized. ² Some slaves have masters who are believers, so they are brothers. Does this mean they should show their masters any less respect? No, they should serve them even better, because they are helping believers, people they should love.

This is what you must teach and tell everyone to do.

False Teaching and True Riches

³ Some people will teach what is false and will not agree with the true teaching of our Lord Jesus Christ. They will not accept the teaching that produces a life of devotion to God. ⁴ They are proud of what they know, but they understand nothing. They are sick with a love for arguing and fighting about words. And that brings jealousy, quarrels, insults, and evil mistrust. ⁵ They are always making trouble, because they are people whose thinking has been confused. They have lost their understanding of the truth. They think that devotion to God is a way to get rich.

⁶ Devotion to God is, in fact, a way for people to be very rich, but only if it makes them satisfied with what they have. ⁷ When we came into the world, we brought nothing. And when we die, we can take nothing out. ⁸ So, if we have food and clothes, we will be satisfied with that. ⁹ People who want to be rich bring temptations to themselves. They are caught in a trap. They begin to want many foolish things that will hurt them. These things ruin and destroy people. ¹⁰ The love of money causes all kinds of evil. Some people have turned away from what we believe because they want to get more and more money. But they have caused themselves a lot of pain and sorrow.

Some Things to Remember

¹¹ But you belong to God. So you should stay away from all those things. Always try to do what is right, to be devoted to God, and to have faith, love, patience, and gentleness. ¹² We have to fight to keep our faith. Try as hard as you can to win that fight. Take hold of eternal life. It is the life you were chosen to have when you confessed your faith in Jesus—that wonderful truth that you spoke so openly and that so many people heard. ¹³ Before God and Christ Jesus I give you a command. Jesus is the one who confessed that same wonderful truth when he stood before Pontius Pilate. And God is the one who gives life to everything. Now I tell you this: ¹⁴ Do what you were commanded to do without fault or blame until the time when our Lord Jesus Christ comes again. ¹⁵ God will make that happen at the right time. God is the blessed and only Ruler. He is the King of all kings and the Lord of all lords. ¹⁶ God is the only one who never dies. He lives in light so bright that people cannot go near it. No one has ever seen him; no one is able to see him. All honor and power belong to him forever. Amen.

¹⁷ Give this command to those who are rich with the things of this world. Tell them not to be proud. Tell them to hope in God, not their money. Money cannot be trusted, but God takes care of us richly. He gives us everything to enjoy. ¹⁸ Tell those who are rich to do good—to be rich in good works. And tell them they should be happy to give and ready to share. ¹⁹ By doing this, they will be saving up a treasure for themselves. And that treasure will be a strong foundation on which their future life will be built. They will be able to have the life that is true life.

²⁰ Timothy, God has trusted you with many things. Keep these things safe. Stay away from people who talk about useless things that are not from God and who argue against you with a “knowledge” that is not knowledge at all. ²¹ Some people who claim to have that “knowledge” have gone completely away from what we believe.

God’s grace be with you all.

2 Timothy

¹ Greetings from Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus. I am an apostle because God wanted me to be. God sent me to tell people about the promise of life that is in Christ Jesus.

² To Timothy, a dear son to me.

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God the Father and from Christ Jesus our Lord.

Thanksgiving and Encouragement

³ I always remember you in my prayers day and night. And in these prayers I thank God for you. He is the God my ancestors served, and I have always served him with a clear conscience. ⁴ I remember that you cried for me. I want very much to see you so that I can be filled with joy. ⁵ I remember your true faith. That kind of faith first belonged to your grandmother Lois and to your mother Eunice. I know you now have that same faith. ⁶ That is why I want you to remember the gift God gave you. God gave you that gift when I laid my hands on you. Now I want you to use that gift and let it grow more and more, like a small flame grows into a fire. ⁷ The Spirit God gave us does not make us afraid. His Spirit is a source of power and love and self-control.

⁸ So don't be ashamed to tell people about our Lord Jesus. And don't be ashamed of me—I am in prison for the Lord. But suffer with me for the Good News. God gives us the strength to do that.

⁹ God saved us and chose us to be his holy people, but not because of anything we ourselves did. God saved us and made us his people because that was what he wanted and because of his grace. That grace was given to us through Christ Jesus before time began. ¹⁰ And now it has been shown to us in the coming of our Savior Christ Jesus. He destroyed death and showed us the way to have life. Yes, through the Good News Jesus showed us the way to have life that cannot be destroyed.

¹¹ I was chosen to tell people that message as an apostle and teacher. ¹² And I suffer now because of that work. But I am not ashamed, because I know the one I have put my trust in. And I am sure that he is able to protect what I have put into his care* until that Day.

¹³ What you heard me teach is an example of what you should teach. Follow that model of right teaching with the faith and love we have in Christ Jesus. ¹⁴ This teaching is a treasure that you have been trusted with. Protect it with the help of the Holy Spirit, who lives inside us.

¹⁵ You know that everyone in Asia has left me. Even Phygelus and Hermogenes have left me. ¹⁶ I pray that the Lord will show mercy to the family of Onesiphorus. Many times Onesiphorus encouraged me. He was not ashamed that I was in prison. ¹⁷ No, he was not ashamed. When he came to Rome, he looked and looked for me until he found me. ¹⁸ I pray that the Lord Jesus will make sure Onesiphorus receives mercy from the Lord God on that Day. You know how many ways this brother helped me in Ephesus.

A Loyal Soldier of Christ Jesus

¹ Timothy, you are a son to me. Be strong in the grace that we have because we belong to Christ Jesus. ² What you have heard me teach publicly you should teach to others. Share these teachings with people you can trust. Then they will be able to teach others these same things. ³ As a good soldier of Christ Jesus, accept your share of the troubles we have. ⁴ A soldier wants to please his commanding officer, so he does not spend any time on activities that are not a part of his duty. ⁵ Athletes in a race must obey all the rules to win. ⁶ The farmer who works hard deserves the first part of the harvest. ⁷ Think about what I am saying. The Lord will help you understand it all.

* 1:12 what ... care Or "what he has trusted me with."

⁸ Remember Jesus Christ. He is from the family of David. After Jesus died, he was raised from death. This is the Good News that I tell people. ⁹ And because I tell that message, I am suffering. I am even bound with chains like someone who has really done wrong. But God's message is not bound. ¹⁰ So I patiently accept all these troubles. I do this to help the people God has chosen so that they can have the salvation that is in Christ Jesus. With this salvation comes glory that never ends.

¹¹ Here is a true statement:

If we died with him,
we will also live with him.
¹² If we remain faithful even in suffering,
we will also rule with him.
If we refuse to say we know him,
he will refuse to say he knows us.
¹³ If we are not faithful,
he will still be faithful,
because he cannot be false to himself.

A Worker Who Pleases God

¹⁴ Keep on telling everyone these truths. And warn them before God not to argue about words. Such arguments don't help anyone, and they ruin those who listen to them.

¹⁵ Do your best to be the kind of person God will accept, and give yourself to him. Be a worker who has no reason to be ashamed of his work, one who applies the true teaching in the right way.

¹⁶ Stay away from people who talk about useless things that are not from God. That kind of talk will lead a person more and more against God. ¹⁷ Their evil teaching will spread like a sickness inside the body. Hymenaeus and Philetus are men like that. ¹⁸ They have left the true teaching. They say that the day when people will be raised from death has already come and gone. And they are destroying the faith of some people.

¹⁹ But God's strong foundation never moves, and these words are written on it: "The Lord knows those who belong to him."[☆] Also, these words are written there: "Everyone who says they believe in the Lord must stop doing wrong."

²⁰ In a large house there are things made of gold and silver. But there are also things made of wood and clay. Some of these are used for special purposes, others for ordinary jobs. ²¹ The Lord wants to use you for special purposes, so make yourself clean from all evil. Then you will be holy, and the Master can use you. You will be ready for any good work.

²² Stay away from the evil things a young person like you typically wants to do. Do your best to live right and to have faith, love, and peace, together with others who trust in the Lord with pure hearts. ²³ Stay away from foolish and stupid arguments. You know that these arguments grow into bigger arguments. ²⁴ As a servant of the Lord, you must not argue. You must be kind to everyone. You must be a good teacher, and you must be patient. ²⁵ You must gently teach those who don't agree with you. Maybe God will let them change their hearts so that they can accept the truth. ²⁶ The devil has trapped them and now makes them do what he wants. But maybe they can wake up to see what is happening and free themselves from the devil's trap.

Many People Will Stop Loving God

[☆] 2:19 Quote from Numbers 16:5.

¹ Remember this: There are some terrible times coming in the last days. ² People will love only themselves and money. They will be proud and boast about themselves. They will abuse others with insults. They will not obey their parents. They will be ungrateful and against all that is pleasing to God. ³ They will have no love for others and will refuse to forgive anyone. They will talk about others to hurt them and will have no self-control. They will be cruel and hate what is good. ⁴ People will turn against their friends. They will do foolish things without thinking and will be so proud of themselves. Instead of loving God, they will love pleasure. ⁵ They will go on pretending to be devoted to God, but they will refuse to let that “devotion” change the way they live. Stay away from these people!

⁶ Some of them go into homes and get control over weak women, whose lives are full of sin—women who are led into sin by all the things they want. ⁷ These women always want to learn something new, but they are never able to fully understand the truth. ⁸ Just as Jannes and Jambres* fought against Moses, these people fight against the truth. Their thinking has been confused. The faith they have and teach is worthless. ⁹ But they will not succeed in what they are trying to do. Everyone will see how foolish they are. That is what happened to Jannes and Jambres.

Last Instructions

¹⁰ But you know all about me. You know what I teach and the way I live. You know my goal in life. You know my faith, my patience, and my love. You know that I never stop trying. ¹¹ You know about my persecutions and my sufferings. You know all the things that happened to me in Antioch, Iconium, and Lystra—the persecution I suffered in those places. But the Lord saved me from all of it. ¹² Everyone who wants to live showing true devotion to God in Christ Jesus will be persecuted. ¹³ People who are evil and cheat others will become worse and worse. They will fool others, but they will also be fooling themselves.

¹⁴ But you should continue following the teaching you learned. You know it is true, because you know you can trust those who taught you. ¹⁵ You have known the Holy Scriptures† since you were a child. These Scriptures are able to make you wise. And that wisdom leads to salvation through faith in Christ Jesus. ¹⁶ All Scripture is given by God. And all Scripture is useful for teaching and for showing people what is wrong in their lives. It is useful for correcting faults and teaching the right way to live. ¹⁷ Using the Scriptures, those who serve God will be prepared and will have everything they need to do every good work.

¹ Before God and Jesus Christ, I give you a command. Christ Jesus is the one who will judge all people—those who are living and those who have died. He is coming again to rule in his kingdom. So I give you this command: ² Tell everyone God’s message. Be ready at all times to do whatever is needed. Tell people what they need to do, tell them when they are doing wrong, and encourage them. Do this with great patience and careful teaching.

³ The time will come when people will not listen to the true teaching. But people will find more and more teachers who please them. They will find teachers who say what they want to hear. ⁴ People will stop listening to the truth. They will begin to follow the teaching in false stories. ⁵ But you should control yourself at all times. When troubles come, accept them. Do the work of telling the Good News. Do all the duties of a servant of God.

* 3:8 Jannes and Jambres Probably the magicians who opposed Moses in Pharaoh’s court. See Exodus 7:11-12, 22.

† 3:15 Holy Scriptures Writings that Jews and followers of Christ accepted to be from God—the Old Testament.

⁶ My life is being given as an offering for God. The time has come for me to leave this life here. ⁷ I have fought the good fight. I have finished the race. I have served the Lord faithfully. ⁸ Now, a prize is waiting for me—the crown that will show I am right with God. The Lord, the judge who judges rightly, will give it to me on that Day. Yes, he will give it to me and to everyone else who is eagerly looking forward to his coming.

Personal Notes

⁹ Do your best to come to me as soon as you can. ¹⁰ Demas loved this world too much. That is why he left me. He went to Thessalonica. Crescens went to Galatia. And Titus went to Dalmatia. ¹¹ Luke is the only one still with me. Get Mark and bring him with you when you come. He can help me in my work here. ¹² I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.

¹³ When I was in Troas, I left my coat there with Carpus. So when you come, bring it to me. Also, bring my books. The books written on parchment are the ones I need.

¹⁴ Alexander the metalworker caused me so much harm. The Lord will punish him for what he did. ¹⁵ He fought against everything we teach. You should be careful that he doesn't hurt you too.

¹⁶ The first time I defended myself, no one helped me. Everyone left me. I pray that God will forgive them. ¹⁷ But the Lord stayed with me. The Lord gave me strength so that I could tell the Good News everywhere. He wanted all those who are not Jews to hear that Good News. So I was saved from the lion's mouth. ¹⁸ The Lord will save me when anyone tries to hurt me. He will bring me safely to his heavenly kingdom. Glory forever and ever be the Lord's. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹⁹ Give my greetings to Priscilla and Aquila and to the family of Onesiphorus. ²⁰ Erastus stayed in Corinth. And I left Trophimus in Miletus—he was sick. ²¹ Try as hard as you can to come to me before winter.

Greetings to you from Eubulus, Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers and sisters here.

²² The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

¹ Greetings from Paul, a servant of God and an apostle of Jesus Christ. I was sent to help God's chosen people have faith and understand the truth that produces a life of devotion to God. ² This faith and knowledge make us sure that we have eternal life. God promised that life to us before time began—and God does not lie. ³ At the right time, God let the world know about that life. He did this through the telling of the Good News message, and he trusted me with that work. I told people that message because God our Savior commanded me to.

⁴ To Titus, a true son to me in the faith we share together.

Grace and peace to you from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Savior.

Titus' Work in Crete

⁵ I left you in Crete so that you could finish doing what still needed to be done. And I also left you there so that you could choose men to be elders in every town. ⁶ To be an elder, a man must not be guilty of living in a wrong way. He must be faithful to his wife,* and his children must be faithful to God.† They must not be known as children who are wild or don't obey. ⁷ An elder‡ has the job of taking care of God's work. So people should not be able to say that he lives in a wrong way. He must not be someone who is proud and selfish or who gets angry quickly. He must not drink too much, and he must not be someone who likes to fight. He must not be a man who will do almost anything for money. ⁸ An elder must be ready to help people by welcoming them into his home. He must love what is good. He must be wise. He must live right. He must be devoted to God and pleasing to him. And he must be able to control himself. ⁹ An elder must be faithful to the same true message we teach. Then he will be able to encourage others with teaching that is true and right. And he will be able to show those who are against this teaching that they are wrong.

¹⁰ This is important, because there are many people who refuse to obey—people who talk about worthless things and mislead others. I am talking especially about those who say that men who are not Jews must be circumcised to please God. ¹¹ These people must be stopped, because they are destroying whole families by teaching what they should not teach. They teach only to cheat people and make money. ¹² Even one of their own prophets said, “Cretans are always liars. They are evil animals and lazy people who do nothing but eat.” ¹³ The words that prophet said are true. So tell those people that they are wrong. You must be strict with them. Then they will become strong in the faith, ¹⁴ and they will stop paying attention to the stories told by those Jews. They will stop following the commands of those who have turned away from the truth.

¹⁵ To people who are pure, everything is pure. But to those who are full of sin and don't believe, nothing is pure. Really, their thinking has become evil and their consciences have been ruined. ¹⁶ They say they know God, but the evil things they do show that they don't accept him. They are disgusting. They refuse to obey God and are not capable of doing anything good.

Following the True Teaching

* 1:6 faithful to his wife Literally, “a man of one woman.” † 1:6 faithful to God This word can mean “trustworthy” or “believers.” Here, both meanings may be included. Compare this verse with 1 Tim. 3:4. ‡ 1:7 elder Here, literally, “overseer.” See “elders (New Testament)” in the Word List.

¹ You, however, must tell everyone how to live in a way that agrees with the true teaching. ² Teach the older men to have self-control, to be serious, and to be wise. They must be strong in faith, in love, and in patience.

³ Also, teach the older women to live the way those who serve the Lord should live. They should not go around saying bad things about others or be in the habit of drinking too much. They should teach what is good. ⁴ By doing this they will teach the younger women to love their husbands and children. ⁵ They will teach them to be wise and pure, to take care of their homes, to be kind, and to be willing to serve their husbands. Then no one will be able to criticize the teaching God gave us.

⁶ In the same way, tell the young men to be wise. ⁷ You should be an example for them in every way by the good things you do. When you teach, be honest and serious. ⁸ And your teaching should be clearly right so that you cannot be criticized. Then anyone who is against you will be ashamed. There will not be anything bad they can say about us.

⁹ And tell this to those who are slaves: They should be willing to serve their masters at all times; they should try to please them, not argue with them; ¹⁰ they should not steal from them; and they should show their masters that they can be trusted. Then, in everything they do, they will show that the teaching of God our Savior is good.

¹¹ That is the way we should live, because God's grace has come. That grace can save everyone. ¹² It teaches us not to live against God and not to do the bad things the world wants to do. It teaches us to live on earth now in a wise and right way—a way that shows true devotion to God. ¹³ We should live like that while we are waiting for the coming of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ. He is our great hope, and he will come with glory. ¹⁴ He gave himself for us. He died to free us from all evil. He died to make us pure—people who belong only to him and who always want to do good.

¹⁵ These are the things you should tell people. Encourage them, and when they are wrong, correct them. You have full authority to do this, so don't let anyone think they can ignore you.

The Right Way to Live

¹ Remind your people that they should always be under the authority of rulers and government leaders. They should obey these leaders and be ready to do good. ² Tell them not to speak evil of anyone but to live in peace with others. They should be gentle and polite to everyone.

³ In the past we were foolish too. We did not obey, we were wrong, and we were slaves to the many things our bodies wanted and enjoyed. We lived doing evil and being jealous. People hated us and we hated each other. ⁴ But then the kindness and love of God our Savior was made known. ⁵ He saved us because of his mercy, not because of any good things we did. He saved us through the washing that made us new people. He saved us by making us new through the Holy Spirit. ⁶ God poured out to us that Holy Spirit fully through Jesus Christ our Savior. ⁷ We were made right with God by his grace. God saved us so that we could be his children and look forward to receiving life that never ends.

⁸ This is a true statement.

And I want you to be sure that the people understand these things. Then those who believe in God will be careful to use their lives for doing good. These things are good and will help everyone.

⁹ Stay away from those who have foolish arguments, who talk about useless family histories, or who make trouble and fight about what the Law of Moses teaches. These things are useless and will not help anyone. ¹⁰ Give a warning to all those who cause arguments. If they continue to cause trouble after a second warning, then don't associate with them. ¹¹ You know that people like that are evil and sinful. Their sins prove they are wrong.

Final Instructions and Greetings

¹² I will send Artemas and Tychicus to you. When I send them, try hard to come to me at Nicopolis. I have decided to stay there this winter. ¹³ Zenas the lawyer and Apollos will be traveling from there. Do all that you can to help them prepare for their trip. Be sure that they have everything they need. ¹⁴ Our people must learn to use their lives for doing good and helping anyone who has a need. Then they will not have empty lives.

¹⁵ All the people with me here send you their greetings. Give my greetings to those who love us in the faith.
Grace be with you all.

Philemon

¹ Greetings from Paul, a prisoner for Jesus Christ, and from Timothy, our brother. To Philemon, our dear friend and worker with us. ² Also to our sister Apphia, to Archippus, who serves with us in the Lord's army, and to the church that meets in your home.

Philemon's Love and Faith

⁴ I remember you in my prayers. And I always thank my God for you. ⁵ I thank God because I hear about the love you have for all of God's holy people and the faith you have in the Lord Jesus. ⁶ I pray that the faith you share will make you understand every blessing we have in Christ. ⁷ My brother, you have shown love to God's people, and your help has greatly encouraged them. What a great joy and encouragement that has been to me.

Accept Onesimus as a Brother

⁸ There is something that you should do. And because of the authority I have in Christ, I feel free to command you to do it. ⁹ But I am not commanding you; I am asking you to do it out of love. I, Paul, am an old man now, and I am a prisoner for Christ Jesus. ¹⁰ I am asking you for my son Onesimus. He became my son while I was in prison. ¹¹ In the past he was useless to you. But now he has become useful* for both you and me.

¹² I am sending him back to you, but it's as hard as losing part of myself. ¹³ I would like to keep him here to help me while I am still in prison for telling the Good News. By helping me here, he would be representing you. ¹⁴ But I did not want to do anything without asking you first. Then whatever you do for me will be what you want to do, not what I forced you to do.

¹⁵ Onesimus was separated from you for a short time. Maybe that happened so that you could have him back forever, ¹⁶ not to be just a slave, but better than a slave, to be a dear brother. That's what he is to me. And I know he will mean even more to you, both as your slave and as one who shares your faith in the Lord.

¹⁷ If you accept me as your friend, then accept Onesimus back. Welcome him like you would welcome me. ¹⁸ If he has done any wrong to you or owes you anything, charge that to me. ¹⁹ I, Paul, am writing this in my own handwriting: I will pay back anything Onesimus owes. And I will say nothing about what you owe me for your own life. ²⁰ So, my brother, as a follower of the Lord please do this favor† for me. It would be such a great encouragement to me as your brother in Christ. ²¹ I write this letter knowing that you will do what I ask, and even more than I ask.

²² Also, please prepare a room for me. I hope that God will answer your prayers and that I will be able to come and see you.

Final Greetings

²³ Epaphras is a prisoner with me for Christ Jesus. He sends you his greetings. ²⁴ Also Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke send their greetings. They are workers together with me.

²⁵ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

* 1:11 useless ... useful Paul here makes a play on words with the name Onesimus, which means "useful." † 1:20 please do this favor Paul here makes another wordplay on the name Onesimus, using a verb related to it.

Hebrews

God Has Spoken Through His Son

¹ In the past God spoke to our people through the prophets. He spoke to them many times and in many different ways. ² And now in these last days, God has spoken to us again through his Son. He made the whole world through his Son. And he has chosen his Son to have all things. ³ The Son shows the glory of God. He is a perfect copy of God's nature, and he holds everything together by his powerful command. The Son made people clean from their sins. Then he sat down at the right side* of God, the Great One in heaven. ⁴ The Son became much greater than the angels, and God gave him a name that is much greater than any of their names.

⁵ God never said this to any of the angels:

“You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father.”

Psalm 2:7

God also never said about an angel,

“I will be his Father,
and he will be my son.”

2 Samuel 7:14

⁶ And then, when God presents his firstborn Son to the world,[†] he says,

“Let all God's angels worship him.”[‡]

⁷ This is what God said about the angels:

“He changes his angels into winds[§] and his servants into flaming fire.”

Psalm 104:4

⁸ But this is what he said about his Son:

“God, your kingdom will last forever and ever.
You use your authority for justice.

⁹ You love what is right and hate what is wrong.
So God, your God, has chosen you, giving you more honor and joy than anyone like you.”

Psalm 45:6-7

¹⁰ God also said,

“O Lord, in the beginning you made the earth, and your hands made the sky.

¹¹ These things will disappear, but you will stay.
They will all wear out like old clothes.

¹² You will fold them up like a coat, and they will be changed like clothes.

* 1:3 right side The place of honor and authority (power). † 1:6 world This may mean the world into which Jesus was born (see Luke 2:1-14), or it may have the same meaning as in Heb. 2:5—the world to come, to which the risen Christ is presented as king (see Php. 2:9-11). ‡ 1:6 “Let ... him” These words are found in Deuteronomy 32:43 in the ancient Greek version and in a Hebrew scroll from Qumran. § 1:7 winds This can also mean “spirits.”

But you never change, and your life will never end.”

Psalm 102:25-27

¹³ And God never said this to an angel:

“Sit at my right side
until I put your enemies under your power.*”

Psalm 110:1

¹⁴ All the angels are spirits who serve God and are sent to help those who will receive salvation.

2

Our Salvation Is Greater Than the Law

¹ So we must be more careful to follow what we were taught. We must be careful so that we will not be pulled away from the true way. ² The teaching that God spoke through angels was shown to be true. And every time his people did something against that teaching, they were punished for what they did. They were punished when they did not obey that teaching. ³ So surely we also will be punished if we don't pay attention to the salvation we have that is so great. It was the Lord Jesus who first told people about it. And those who heard him proved to us that it is true. ⁴ God also proved it by using miraculous signs, wonders, and all kinds of miracles. And he proved it by giving people various gifts through the Holy Spirit in just the way he wanted.

Christ Became Like People to Save Them

⁵ God did not choose angels to be the rulers over the new world that was coming. That future world is the world we have been talking about. ⁶ It is written some place in the Scriptures, “Why are people so important to you?

Why do you even think about them?

Why do you care about the son of man*?
Is he so important?

⁷ For a short time you made him lower than the angels.
You crowned him with glory and honor.

⁸ You put everything under his control.†”

Psalm 8:4-6

If God put everything under his control, then there was nothing left that he did not rule. But we don't yet see him ruling over everything. ⁹ For a short time Jesus was made lower than the angels, but now we see him wearing a crown of glory and honor because he suffered and died. Because of God's grace, Jesus died for everyone.

¹⁰ God—the one who made all things and for whose glory all things exist—wanted many people to be his children and share his glory. So he did what he needed to do. He made perfect the one who leads those people to salvation. He made Jesus a perfect Savior through his suffering.

¹¹ Jesus, the one who makes people holy, and those who are made holy are from the same family. So he is not ashamed to call them his brothers and sisters. ¹² He says, “God, I will tell my brothers and sisters about you.

* 1:13 until I put ... power Literally, “until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.” * 2:6 son of man This can mean any human, but the name “Son of Man” (see “Son of Man” in the Word List) is often used to mean Jesus, who showed what God planned for all people to be. † 2:8 control Literally, “feet.”

Before all your people I will sing your praises.”

Psalm 22:22

¹³ He also says,

“I will trust in God.”

Isaiah 8:17

And he says,

“I am here, and with me are the children God has given me.”

Isaiah 8:18

¹⁴ These children are people with physical bodies. So Jesus himself became like them and had the same experiences they have. Jesus did this so that, by dying, he could destroy the one who has the power of death—the devil. ¹⁵ Jesus became like these people and died so that he could free them. They were like slaves all their lives because of their fear of death. ¹⁶ Clearly, it is not angels that Jesus helps. He helps the people who are from Abraham. ¹⁷ For this reason, Jesus had to be made like us, his brothers and sisters, in every way. He became like people so that he could be their merciful and faithful high priest in service to God. Then he could bring forgiveness for the people’s sins. ¹⁸ And now he can help those who are tempted. He is able to help because he himself suffered and was tempted.

Jesus Is Greater Than Moses

¹ So, my brothers and sisters, those chosen by God to be his holy people, think about Jesus. He is the one we believe God sent to save us and to be our high priest. ² God made him our high priest, and he was faithful to God just as Moses was. He did everything God wanted him to do in God’s house. ³ When someone builds a house, people will honor the builder more than the house. It is the same with Jesus. He should have more honor than Moses. ⁴ Every house is built by someone, but God built everything. ⁵ Moses was faithful as a servant in God’s whole house. He told people what God would say in the future. ⁶ But Christ is faithful in ruling God’s house as the Son. And we are God’s house, if we remain confident of the great hope we are glad to say we have.

We Must Continue to Follow God

⁷ So it is just as the Holy Spirit says:

“If you hear God’s voice today,

⁸ don’t be stubborn as you were in the past,
when you turned against God.

That was the day you tested God in the desert.

⁹ For 40 years in the desert, your people saw what I did.
But they tested me and my patience.

¹⁰ So I was angry with them.

I said, ‘Their thoughts are always wrong.
They have never understood my ways.’

¹¹ So I was angry and made a promise:

‘They will never enter my place of rest.’”

Psalm 95:7-11

¹² So, brothers and sisters, be careful that none of you has the evil thoughts that cause so much doubt that you stop following the living God. ¹³ But encourage each other every day, while you still have something called “today.*” Help each other so that none of you

* 3:13 today This word is taken from verse 7. It means it is important to do this now, while there is still opportunity.

will be fooled by sin and become too hard to change. ¹⁴ We have the honor of sharing in all that Christ has if we continue until the end to have the sure faith we had in the beginning. ¹⁵ That's why the Spirit said,

“If you hear God’s voice today, don’t be stubborn as in the past
when you turned against God.”

Psalm 95:7-8

¹⁶ Who were those who heard God’s voice and turned against him? It was all the people Moses led out of Egypt. ¹⁷ And who was God angry with for 40 years? He was angry with those who sinned. And their dead bodies were left in the desert. ¹⁸ And which people was God talking to when he promised that they would never enter his place of rest? He was talking to those who did not obey him. ¹⁹ So we see that they were not allowed to enter and have God’s rest, because they did not believe.

¹ And we still have the promise that God gave those people. That promise is that we can enter his place of rest. So we should be very careful that none of you fails to get that promise. ² Yes, the good news about it was told to us just as it was to them. But the message they heard did not help them. They heard it but did not accept it with faith. ³ Only we who believe it are able to enter God’s place of rest. As God said,

“I was angry and made a promise:
“They will never enter my place of rest.””

Psalm 95:11

But God’s work was finished from the time he made the world. ⁴ Yes, somewhere in the Scriptures he talked about the seventh day of the week. He said, “So on the seventh day God rested from all his work.”[☆] ⁵ But in the Scripture above God said, “They will never enter my place of rest.”

⁶ So the opportunity is still there for some to enter and enjoy God’s rest. But those who first heard the good news about it did not enter, because they did not obey. ⁷ So God planned another special day. It is called “today.” He spoke about that day through David a long time later using the words we quoted before:

“If you hear God’s voice today,
don’t be stubborn.”

Psalm 95:7-8

⁸ We know that Joshua did not lead the people into the place of rest that God promised. We know this because God spoke later about another day for rest. ⁹ This shows that the seventh-day rest* for God’s people is still to come. ¹⁰ God rested after he finished his work. So everyone who enters God’s place of rest will also have rest from their own work just as God did. ¹¹ So let us try as hard as we can to enter God’s place of rest. We must try hard so that none of us will be lost by following the example of those who refused to obey God.

¹² God’s word† is alive and working. It is sharper than the sharpest sword and cuts all the way into us. It cuts deep to the place where the soul and the spirit are joined. God’s word cuts to the center of our joints and our bones. It judges the thoughts and feelings in our hearts. ¹³ Nothing in all the world can be hidden from God. He can clearly see all things. Everything is open before him. And to him we must explain the way we have lived.

☆ 4:4 Quote from Genesis 2:2. * 4:9 seventh-day rest Literally, “Sabbath rest,” meaning a sharing in the rest God began after he created the world. † 4:12 God’s word God’s teachings and commands.

Jesus Christ Is Our High Priest

¹⁴ We have a great high priest who has gone to live with God in heaven. He is Jesus the Son of God. So let us continue to express our faith in him. ¹⁵ Jesus, our high priest, is able to understand our weaknesses. When Jesus lived on earth, he was tempted in every way. He was tempted in the same ways we are tempted, but he never sinned. ¹⁶ With Jesus as our high priest, we can feel free to come before God's throne where there is grace. There we receive mercy and kindness to help us when we need it.

¹ Every Jewish high priest is chosen from among men. That priest is given the work of helping people with the things they must do for God. He must offer to God gifts and sacrifices for sins. ² The high priest has his own weaknesses. So he is able to be gentle with those who do wrong out of ignorance. ³ He offers sacrifices for their sins, but he must also offer sacrifices for his own sins.

⁴ To be a high priest is an honor. But no one chooses himself for this work. That person must be chosen by God just as Aaron was. ⁵ It is the same with Christ. He did not choose himself to have the honor of becoming a high priest. But God chose him. God said to him,

“You are my Son.
Today I have become your Father.”

Psalm 2:7

⁶ And in another part of the Scriptures God says,

“You are a priest forever—
the kind of priest Melchizedek was.”

Psalm 110:4

⁷ While Jesus lived on earth he prayed to God, asking for help from the one who could save him from death. He prayed to God with loud cries and tears. And his prayers were answered because of his great respect for God. ⁸ Jesus was the Son of God, but he still suffered, and through his sufferings he learned to obey whatever God says. ⁹ This made him the perfect high priest, who provides the way for everyone who obeys him to be saved forever. ¹⁰ God made him high priest, just like Melchizedek.

Warning Against Falling Away

¹¹ We have many things to tell you about this. But it is hard to explain because you have stopped trying to understand. ¹² You have had enough time that by now you should be teachers. But you need someone to teach you again the first lessons of God's teaching. You still need the teaching that is like milk. You are not ready for solid food. ¹³ Anyone who lives on milk is still a baby and is not able to understand much about living right. ¹⁴ But solid food is for people who have grown up. From their experience they have learned to see the difference between good and evil.

¹⁻² So we should be finished with the beginning lessons about Christ. We should not have to keep going back to where we started. We began our new life by turning away from the evil we did in the past and by believing in God. That's when we were taught about baptisms,* laying hands on people, the resurrection of those who have died, and the final judgment. Now we need to go forward to more mature teaching. ³ And that's what we will do if God allows.

* 6:1-2 baptisms The word here may mean the baptism (brief 'burial' in water) of believers in Christ, or it may mean Jewish ceremonial washings.

⁷ Some people are like land that gets plenty of rain and produces a good crop for those who farm it. That kind of land has God's blessing. ⁸ But other people are like land that grows only thorns and weeds. It is worthless and in danger of being cursed by God. It will be destroyed by fire.

⁹ Dear friends, I am not saying this because I think it is happening to you. We really expect that you will do better—that you will do the good things that will result in your salvation. ¹⁰ God is fair, and he will remember all the work you have done. He will remember that you showed your love to him by helping his people and that you continue to help them. ¹¹ We want each of you to be willing and eager to show your love like that the rest of your life. Then you will be sure to get what you hope for. ¹² We don't want you to be lazy. We want you to be like those who, because of their faith and patience, will get what God has promised.

¹³ God made a promise to Abraham. And there is no one greater than God, so he made the promise with an oath in his own name—an oath that he would do what he promised. ¹⁴ He said, "I will surely bless you. I will give you many descendants."[☆] ¹⁵ Abraham waited patiently for this to happen, and later he received what God promised.

¹⁶ People always use the name of someone greater than themselves to make a promise with an oath. The oath proves that what they say is true, and there is no more arguing about it. ¹⁷ God wanted to prove that his promise was true. He wanted to prove this to those who would get what he promised. He wanted them to understand clearly that his purposes never change. So God said something would happen, and he proved what he said by adding an oath. ¹⁸ These two things cannot change: God cannot lie when he says something, and he cannot lie when he makes an oath.

So these two things are a great help to us who have come to God for safety. They encourage us to hold on to the hope that is ours. ¹⁹ This hope is like an anchor for us. It is strong and sure and keeps us safe. It goes behind the curtain.[†] ²⁰ Jesus has already entered there and opened the way for us. He has become the high priest forever, just like Melchizedek.

The Priest Melchizedek

¹ Melchizedek was the king of Salem and a priest for God the Most High. He met Abraham when Abraham was coming back after defeating the kings. That day Melchizedek blessed him. ² Then Abraham gave him a tenth of everything he had.

The name Melchizedek, king of Salem, has two meanings. First, Melchizedek means "king of justice." And "king of Salem" means "king of peace." ³ No one knows who his father or mother was or where he came from.* And no one knows when he was born or when he died. Melchizedek is like the Son of God in that he will always be a priest.

⁴ You can see that Melchizedek was very great. Abraham, our great ancestor, gave him a tenth of everything he won in battle. ⁵ Now the law says that those from the tribe of Levi who become priests must get a tenth from their own people, even though they and their people are both from the family of Abraham. ⁶ Melchizedek was not even from the tribe of Levi, but Abraham gave him a tenth of what he had. And Melchizedek blessed Abraham—the one who had God’s promises. ⁷ And everyone knows that the more important person always blesses the less important person.

[☆] 6:14 Quote from Genesis 22:17. [†] 6:19 curtain The spiritual curtain in the heavenly temple, which was symbolized by the physical one that separated the inner sanctuary (and God's presence) from the other room in the Holy Tent and in the Jerusalem Temple. See "curtain" in the Word List. Also in 10:20. ^{*} 7:3 No one ... came from Literally, "Melchizedek was without father, without mother, without genealogy."

⁸ Those priests get a tenth, but they are only men who live and then die. But Melchizedek, who got a tenth from Abraham, continues to live, as the Scriptures say. ⁹ Now those from the family of Levi are the ones who get a tenth from the people. But we can say that when Abraham paid Melchizedek a tenth, then Levi also paid it. ¹⁰ Levi was not yet born, but he already existed in his ancestor Abraham when Melchizedek met him.

¹¹ The people were given the law under the system of priests from the tribe of Levi. But no one could be made spiritually perfect through that system of priests. So there was a need for another priest to come. I mean a priest like Melchizedek, not Aaron. ¹² And when a different kind of priest comes, then the law must be changed too. ¹³⁻¹⁴ We are talking about our Lord Christ, who belonged to a different tribe. No one from that tribe ever served as a priest at the altar. It is clear that Christ came from the tribe of Judah. And Moses said nothing about priests belonging to that tribe.

Jesus Is a Priest Like Melchizedek

¹⁵ And these things become even clearer when we see that another priest has come who is like Melchizedek. ¹⁶ He was made a priest, but not because he met the requirement of being born into the right family. He became a priest by the power of a life that will never end. ¹⁷ This is what the Scriptures say about him: “You are a priest forever—the kind of priest Melchizedek was.”[☆]

¹⁸ The old rule is now ended because it was weak and worthless. ¹⁹ The Law of Moses could not make anything perfect. But now a better hope has been given to us. And with that hope we can come near to God.

²⁰ Also, it is important that God made a promise with an oath when he made Jesus high priest. When those other men became priests, there was no oath. ²¹ But Christ became a priest with God’s oath. God said to him,

“The Lord has made a promise with an oath
and will not change his mind:
‘You are a priest forever.’”

Psalm 110:4

²² So this means that Jesus is the guarantee of a better agreement from God to his people.

²³ Also, when one of those other priests died, he could not continue being a priest. So there were many of those priests. ²⁴ But Jesus lives forever. He will never stop serving as a priest. ²⁵ So Christ can save those who come to God through him. Christ can do this forever, because he always lives and is ready to help people when they come before God.

²⁶ So Jesus is the kind of high priest we need. He is holy. He has no sin in him. He is pure and not influenced by sinners. And he is raised above the heavens. ²⁷ He is not like those other priests. They had to offer sacrifices every day, first for their own sins, and then for the sins of the people. But Jesus doesn’t need to do that. He offered only one sacrifice for all time. He offered himself. ²⁸ The law chooses high priests who are men and have the same weaknesses that all people have. But after the law, God spoke the oath that made his Son high priest. And that Son, made perfect through suffering, will serve forever.

[☆] 7:17 Quote from Psalm 110:4.

¹ Here is the point of what we are saying: We have a high priest like that, who sits on the right side* of God's throne in heaven. ² Our high priest serves in the Most Holy Place.† He serves in the true place of worship‡ that was made by God, not by anyone here on earth.

³ Every high priest has the work of offering gifts and sacrifices to God. So our high priest must also offer something to God. ⁴ If our high priest were now living on earth, he would not be a priest. I say this because there are already priests here who follow the law by offering gifts to God. ⁵ The work that these priests do is really only a copy and a shadow of what is in heaven. That is why God warned Moses when he was ready to build the Holy Tent: "Be sure to make everything exactly like the pattern I showed you on the mountain."☆ ⁶ But the work that has been given to Jesus is much greater than the work that was given to those priests. In the same way, the new agreement that Jesus brought from God to his people is much greater than the old one. And the new agreement is based on better promises.

⁷ If there was nothing wrong with the first agreement, then there would be no need for a second agreement. ⁸ But God found something wrong with the people. He said,

"The time is coming, says the Lord,
when I will give a new agreement to the people of Israel and to the people of Judah.

⁹ It will not be like the agreement that I gave to their fathers.

That is the agreement I gave when I took them by the hand and led them out of Egypt.

They did not continue following the agreement I gave them, and I turned away from them, says the Lord.

¹⁰ This is the new agreement I will give the people of Israel.
I will give this agreement in the future, says the Lord:

I will put my laws in their minds,
and I will write my laws on their hearts.

I will be their God,
and they will be my people.

¹¹ Never again will anyone have to teach their neighbors or their family to know the Lord.
All people—the greatest and the least important—will know me.

¹² And I will forgive the wrongs they have done, and I will not remember their sins."

Jeremiah 31:31-34

¹³ God called this a new agreement, so he has made the first agreement old. And anything that is old and useless is ready to disappear.

Worship Under the Old Agreement

¹ The first agreement had rules for worship and a place for worship here on earth. ² This place was inside a tent. The first area in the tent was called the Holy Place. In the Holy Place were the lamp and the table with the special bread offered to God. ³ Behind the second curtain was a room called the Most Holy Place. ⁴ In the Most Holy Place was a golden altar for burning incense. And also there was the Box of the Agreement. The Box was covered with gold. Inside this Box was a golden jar of manna and Aaron's

* 8:1 right side The place of honor and authority (power). † 8:2 Most Holy Place Literally, "holies" for "holy of holies," the spiritual place where God lives and is worshiped. ‡ 8:2 place of worship Literally, "Tabernacle" or "tent." ☆ 8:5 Quote from Exodus 25:40.

rod—the rod that once grew leaves. Also in the Box were the flat stones with the Ten Commandments of the old agreement on them. ⁵ Above the Box were the Cherub angels that showed God’s glory. These Cherub angels were over the place of mercy.* But we cannot say everything about this now.

⁶ Everything in the tent was made ready in the way I have explained. Then the priests went into the first room every day to do their worship duties. ⁷ But only the high priest could go into the second room, and he went in only once a year. Also, he could never enter that room without taking blood with him. He offered that blood to God for himself and for the sins the people committed without knowing they were sinning.

⁸ The Holy Spirit uses those two separate rooms to teach us that the way into the Most Holy Place† was not open while the first room was still there. ⁹ This is an example for us today. It shows that the gifts and sacrifices the priests offer to God are not able to make the consciences of the worshipers completely clear. ¹⁰ These gifts and sacrifices are only about food and drink and special washings. They are only rules about the body. God gave them for his people to follow until the time of his new way.

Worship Under the New Agreement

¹¹ But Christ has already come to be the high priest. He is the high priest of the good things we now have. But Christ does not serve in a place like the tent that those other priests served in. He serves in a better place. Unlike that tent, this one is perfect. It was not made by anyone here on earth. It does not belong to this world. ¹² Christ entered the Most Holy Place only one time—enough for all time. He entered the Most Holy Place by using his own blood, not the blood of goats or young bulls. He entered there and made us free from sin forever.

¹⁵ So Christ brings a new agreement from God to his people. He brings this agreement so that those who are chosen by God can have the blessings God promised, blessings that last forever. This can happen only because Christ died to free people from sins committed against the commands of the first agreement.

¹⁶ When someone dies and leaves a will, there must be proof that the one who wrote the will is dead. ¹⁷ A will means nothing while the one who wrote it is still living. It can be used only after that person’s death. ¹⁸ That is why blood was needed to begin the first agreement between God and his people. ¹⁹ First, Moses told the people every command in the law. Then he took the blood of young bulls and mixed it with water. He used red wool and a branch of hyssop to sprinkle the blood and water on the book of the law and on all the people. ²⁰ Then he said, “This is the blood that makes the agreement good—the agreement that God commanded you to follow.”[☆] ²¹ In the same way, Moses sprinkled the blood on the Holy Tent. He sprinkled the blood over everything used in worship. ²² The law says that almost everything must be made clean by blood. Sins cannot be forgiven without a blood sacrifice.

Jesus Christ Is Our Sacrifice for Sin

* 9:5 place of mercy Or “mercy seat,” a place on top of the “Box of the Agreement,” where the high priest put the blood of an animal once a year to pay for the sins of the people. † 9:8 Most Holy Place Literally, “holies” for “holy of holies,” the spiritual place where God lives and is worshiped. Also in verses 12, 24. ‡ 9:14 Spirit Probably the Holy Spirit. See “Holy Spirit” in the Word List. ☆ 9:20 Quote from Exodus 24:8.

²³ These things are copies of the real things that are in heaven. These copies had to be made clean by animal sacrifices. But the real things in heaven must have much better sacrifices. ²⁴ Christ went into the Most Holy Place. But it was not the man-made one, which is only a copy of the real one. He went into heaven, and he is there now before God to help us.

²⁵ The high priest enters the Most Holy Place once every year. He takes with him blood to offer. But he does not offer his own blood like Christ did. Christ went into heaven, but not to offer himself many times like the high priest offers blood again and again. ²⁶ If Christ had offered himself many times, he would have needed to suffer many times since the time the world was made. But he came to offer himself only once. And that once is enough for all time. He came at a time when the world is nearing an end. He came to take away all sin by offering himself as a sacrifice.

²⁷ Everyone must die once. Then they are judged. ²⁸ So Christ was offered as a sacrifice one time to take away the sins of many people. And he will come a second time, but not to offer himself for sin. He will come the second time to bring salvation to those who are waiting for him.

Jesus Christ—the Only Sacrifice We Need

¹ The law gave us only an unclear picture of the good things coming in the future. The law is not a perfect picture of the real things. The law tells people to offer the same sacrifices every year. Those who come to worship God continue to offer those sacrifices. But the law can never make them perfect. ² If the law could make people perfect, those sacrifices would have already stopped. They would already be clean from their sins, and they would not still feel guilty. ³ But that's not what happens. Their sacrifices make them remember their sins every year, ⁴ because it is not possible for the blood of bulls and goats to take away sins.

⁵ So when Christ came into the world he said,

“You don't want sacrifices and offerings,
but you have prepared a body for me.

⁶ You are not pleased with the sacrifices of animals killed and burned or with offerings to take away sins.

⁷ Then I said, ‘Here I am, God.
It is written about me in the book of the law.
I have come to do what you want.’”

Psalms 40:6-8

⁸ Christ first said, “You don't want sacrifices and offerings. You are not pleased with animals killed and burned or with sacrifices to take away sin.” (These are all sacrifices that the law commands.) ⁹ Then he said, “Here I am, God. I have come to do what you want.” So God ends that first system of sacrifices and starts his new way. ¹⁰ Jesus Christ did the things God wanted him to do. And because of that, we are made holy through the sacrifice of Christ's body. Christ made that sacrifice one time—enough for all time.

¹¹ Every day the priests stand and do their religious service. Again and again they offer the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹² But Christ offered only one sacrifice for sins, and that sacrifice is good for all time. Then he sat down at the right side of God. ¹³ And now Christ waits there for his enemies to be put under his power.* ¹⁴ With one sacrifice Christ made his people perfect forever. They are the ones who are being made holy.

¹⁵ The Holy Spirit also tells us about this. First he says,

* 10:13 to be put under his power Literally, “to be made a footstool for his feet.”

¹⁶ “This is the agreement[†] I will make with my people in the future, says the Lord.
I will put my laws in their hearts.
I will write my laws in their minds.”

Jeremiah 31:33

¹⁷ Then he says,

“I will forget their sins and never again remember the evil they have done.”

Jeremiah 31:34

¹⁸ And after everything is forgiven, there is no more need for a sacrifice to pay for sins.

Come Near to God

¹⁹ And so, brothers and sisters, we are completely free to enter the Most Holy Place.[‡] We can do this without fear because of the blood sacrifice of Jesus. ²⁰ We enter through a new way that Jesus opened for us. It is a living way that leads through the curtain—Christ’s body. ²¹ And we have a great priest who rules the house of God. ²² Sprinkled with the blood of Christ, our hearts have been made free from a guilty conscience, and our bodies have been washed with pure water. So come near to God with a sincere heart, full of confidence because of our faith in Christ. ²³ We must hold on to the hope we have, never hesitating to tell people about it. We can trust God to do what he promised.

Help Each Other Be Strong

²⁴ We should think about each other to see how we can encourage each other to show love and do good works. ²⁵ We must not quit meeting together, as some are doing. No, we need to keep on encouraging each other. This becomes more and more important as you see the Day getting closer.

Don’t Turn Away From God’s Son

²⁶ If we decide to continue sinning after we have learned the truth, then there is no other sacrifice that will take away sins. ²⁷ If we continue sinning, all that is left for us is a fearful time of waiting for the judgment and the angry fire that will destroy those who live against God. ²⁸ Whoever refused to obey the Law of Moses was found guilty from the testimony given by two or three witnesses. Such people were not forgiven. They were killed. ²⁹ So think how much more punishment people deserve who show their hate for the Son of God—people who show they have no respect for the blood sacrifice that began the new agreement and once made them holy or who insult the Spirit of God’s grace. ³⁰ We know that God said, “I will punish people for the wrongs they do; I will repay them.”[✠] And he also said, “The Lord will judge his people.”[✠] ³¹ It is a terrible thing to face punishment from the living God.

Keep the Courage and Patience You Had

³² Remember the days when you first learned the truth. You had a hard struggle with much suffering, but you continued strong. ³³ Sometimes people said hateful things to you and mistreated you in public. And sometimes you helped others who were being treated that same way. ³⁴ Yes, you helped them in prison and shared in their suffering. And you were still happy when everything you owned was taken away from you. You continued to be happy, because you knew that you had something much better—something that would continue forever.

[†] 10:16 agreement The new and better agreement that God has given to his people through Jesus. See “agreement” in the Word List. [‡] 10:19 Most Holy Place Literally, “holies” for “holy of holies,” the spiritual place where God lives and is worshiped. [✠] 10:30 Quote from Deuteronomy 32:35. [✠] 10:30 Quote from Deuteronomy 32:36.

³⁵ So don't lose the courage that you had in the past. Your courage will be rewarded richly. ³⁶ You must be patient. After you have done what God wants, you will get what he promised you. ³⁷ He says,

“Very soon now, the one who is coming will come and will not be late.
³⁸ The person who is right with me will live by trusting in me.
But I will not be pleased with the one who turns back in fear.”

Habakkuk 2:3-4 (Greek version)

³⁹ But we are not those who turn back and are lost. No, we are the people who have faith and are saved.

11

¹ Faith is what makes real the things we hope for. It is proof of what we cannot see. ² God was pleased with the people who lived a long time ago because they had faith like this.

³ Faith helps us understand that God created the whole world by his command. This means that the things we see were made by something that cannot be seen.

⁴ Cain and Abel both offered sacrifices to God. But Abel offered a better sacrifice to God because he had faith. God said he was pleased with what Abel offered. And so God called him a good man because he had faith. Abel died, but through his faith he is still speaking.

⁵ Enoch was carried away from this earth, so he never died. The Scriptures tell us that before he was carried off, he was a man who pleased God. Later, no one knew where he was, because God had taken Enoch to be with him. This all happened because he had faith. ⁶ Without faith no one can please God. Whoever comes to God must believe that he is real and that he rewards those who sincerely try to find him.

⁷ Noah was warned by God about things that he could not yet see. But he had faith and respect for God, so he built a large boat to save his family. With his faith, Noah showed that the world was wrong. And he became one of those who are made right with God through faith.

⁸ God called Abraham to travel to another place that he promised to give him. Abraham did not know where that other place was. But he obeyed God and started traveling because he had faith. ⁹ Abraham lived in the country that God promised to give him. He lived there like a visitor who did not belong. He did this because he had faith. He lived in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who also received the same promise from God. ¹⁰ Abraham was waiting for the city* that has real foundations. He was waiting for the city that is planned and built by God.

¹¹ Sarah was not able to have children, and Abraham was too old. But he had faith in God, trusting him to do what he promised. And so God made them able to have children. ¹² Abraham was so old he was almost dead. But from that one man came as many descendants as there are stars in the sky. So many people came from him that they are like grains of sand on the seashore.

¹³ All these great people continued living with faith until they died. They did not get the things God promised his people. But they were happy just to see those promises coming far in the future. They accepted the fact that they were like visitors and strangers here on earth. ¹⁴ When people accept something like that, they show they are waiting for a country that will be their own. ¹⁵ If they were thinking about the country they had left, they could have gone back. ¹⁶ But they were waiting for a better country—a heavenly country. So God is not ashamed to be called their God. And he has prepared a city for them.

¹⁷⁻¹⁸ God tested Abraham's faith. God told him to offer Isaac as a sacrifice. Abraham obeyed because he had faith. He already had the promises from God. And God had already said to him, "It is through Isaac that your descendants will come."[☆] But Abraham was ready to offer his only son. He did this because he had faith. ¹⁹ He believed that God could raise people from death. And really, when God stopped Abraham from killing Isaac, it was as if he got him back from death.

²⁰ Isaac blessed the future of Jacob and Esau. He did that because he had faith. ²¹ And Jacob, also because he had faith, blessed each one of Joseph's sons. He did this while he was dying, leaning on his rod and worshiping God.

²² And when Joseph was almost dead, he spoke about the people of Israel leaving Egypt. And he told them what they should do with his body. He did this because he had faith.

²³ And the mother and father of Moses hid him for three months after he was born. They did this because they had faith. They saw that Moses was a beautiful baby. And they were not afraid to disobey the king's order.

²⁴⁻²⁵ Moses grew up and became a man. He refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter. He chose not to enjoy the pleasures of sin that last such a short time. Instead, he chose to suffer with God's people. He did this because he had faith. ²⁶ He thought it was better to suffer for the Messiah than to have all the treasures of Egypt. He was waiting for the reward that God would give him.

²⁷ Moses left Egypt because he had faith. He was not afraid of the king's anger. He continued strong as if he could see the God no one can see. ²⁸ Moses prepared the Passover and spread the blood on the doorways of the people of Israel, so that the angel of death[†] would not kill their firstborn sons. Moses did this because he had faith.

²⁹ And God's people all walked through the Red Sea as if it were dry land. They were able to do this because they had faith. But when the Egyptians tried to follow them, they were drowned.

³⁰ And the walls of Jericho fell because of the faith of God's people. They marched around the walls for seven days, and then the walls fell.

³¹ And Rahab, the prostitute, welcomed the Israelite spies like friends. And because of her faith, she was not killed with the ones who refused to obey.

³² Do I need to give you more examples? I don't have enough time to tell you about Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets. ³³ All of them had great faith. And with that faith they defeated kingdoms. They did what was right, and God helped them in the ways he promised. With their faith some people closed the mouths of lions. ³⁴ And some were able to stop blazing fires. Others escaped from being killed with swords. Some who were weak were made strong. They became powerful in battle and defeated other armies. ³⁵ There were women who lost loved ones but got them back when they were raised from death. Others were tortured but refused to accept their freedom. They did this so that they could be raised from death to a better life. ³⁶ Some were laughed at and beaten. Others were tied up and put in prison. ³⁷ They were killed with stones. They were cut in half. They were killed with swords. The only clothes some of them had were sheepskins or goatskins. They were poor, persecuted, and treated badly by others. ³⁸ The world was not good enough for these great people. They had to wander in deserts and mountains, living in caves and holes in the ground.

³⁹ God was pleased with all of them because of their faith. But not one of them received God's great promise. ⁴⁰ God planned something better for us. He wanted to make us perfect. Of course, he wanted those great people to be made perfect too, but not before we could all enjoy that blessing together.

[☆] 11:17-18 Quote from Genesis 21:12. [†] 11:28 angel of death Literally, "the destroyer." To punish the Egyptians, God sent an angel to kill the oldest son in each home. See Exodus 12:29-32.

We Also Should Follow Jesus' Example

¹ We have all these great people around us as examples. Their lives tell us what faith means. So we, too, should run the race that is before us and never quit. We should remove from our lives anything that would slow us down and the sin that so often makes us fall. ² We must never stop looking to Jesus. He is the leader of our faith, and he is the one who makes our faith complete. He suffered death on a cross. But he accepted the shame of the cross as if it were nothing because of the joy he could see waiting for him. And now he is sitting at the right side of God's throne. ³ Think about Jesus. He patiently endured the angry insults that sinful people were shouting at him. Think about him so that you won't get discouraged and stop trying.

God Is Like a Father

⁴ You are struggling against sin, but you have not had to give up your life for the cause. ⁵ You are children of God, and he speaks words of comfort to you. You have forgotten these words:

“My child, don't think the Lord's discipline is worth nothing, and don't stop trying when he corrects you.

⁶ The Lord disciplines everyone he loves;
he punishes everyone he accepts as a child.”

Proverbs 3:11-12

⁷ So accept sufferings like a father's discipline. God does these things to you like a father correcting his children. You know that all children are disciplined by their fathers. ⁸ So, if you never receive the discipline that every child must have, you are not true children and don't really belong to God. ⁹ We have all had fathers here on earth who corrected us with discipline. And we respected them. So it is even more important that we accept discipline from the Father of our spirits. If we do this, we will have life. ¹⁰ Our fathers on earth disciplined us for a short time in the way they thought was best. But God disciplines us to help us so that we can be holy like him. ¹¹ We don't enjoy discipline when we get it. It is painful. But later, after we have learned our lesson from it, we will enjoy the peace that comes from doing what is right.

Be Careful How You Live

¹² You have become weak, so make yourselves strong again. ¹³ Live in the right way so that you will be saved and your weakness will not cause you to be lost.

¹⁴ Try to live in peace with everyone. And try to keep your lives free from sin. Anyone whose life is not holy will never see the Lord. ¹⁵ Be careful that no one fails to get God's grace. Be careful that no one loses their faith and becomes like a bitter weed growing among you. Someone like that can ruin your whole group. ¹⁶ Be careful that no one commits sexual sin. And be careful that no one is like Esau and never thinks about God. As the oldest son, Esau would have inherited everything from his father. But he sold all that for a single meal. ¹⁷ You remember that after Esau did this, he wanted to get his father's blessing. He wanted that blessing so much that he cried. But his father refused to give him the blessing, because Esau could find no way to change what he had done.

¹⁸ You have not come to a place that can be seen and touched, like the mountain the people of Israel saw, which was burning with fire and covered with darkness, gloom, and storms. ¹⁹ There is no sound of a trumpet or a voice speaking words like those they heard. When they heard the voice, they begged never to hear another word. ²⁰ They did not want to hear the command: “If anything, even an animal, touches the mountain, it must be killed with stones.”[☆] 21 What they saw was so terrible that Moses said, “I am shaking with fear.”^{☆*}

22 But you have come to Mount Zion, to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem.[†] You have come to a place where thousands of angels have gathered to celebrate. 23 You have come to the meeting of God’s firstborn[‡] children. Their names are written in heaven. You have come to God, the judge of all people. And you have come to the spirits of good people who have been made perfect. 24 You have come to Jesus—the one who brought the new agreement from God to his people. You have come to the sprinkled blood[§] that tells us about better things than the blood of Abel.

25 Be careful and don’t refuse to listen when God speaks. Those people refused to listen to him when he warned them on earth. And they did not escape. Now God is speaking from heaven. So now it will be worse for those who refuse to listen to him. 26 When he spoke before, his voice shook the earth. But now he has promised, “Once again I will shake the earth, but I will also shake heaven.”[☆] 27 The words “once again” clearly show us that everything that was created will be destroyed—that is, the things that can be shaken. And only what cannot be shaken will remain.

28 So we should be thankful because we have a kingdom that cannot be shaken. And because we are thankful, we should worship God in a way that will please him. We should do this with respect and fear,²⁹ because our God is like a fire that can destroy us.

Worship That Pleases God

1 Continue loving each other as brothers and sisters in Christ. 2 Always remember to help people by welcoming them into your home. Some people have done that and have helped angels without knowing it. 3 Don’t forget those who are in prison. Remember them as though you were in prison with them. And don’t forget those who are suffering. Remember them as though you were suffering with them.

4 Marriage should be honored by everyone. And every marriage should be kept pure between husband and wife. God will judge guilty those who commit sexual sins and adultery. 5 Keep your lives free from the love of money. And be satisfied with what you have. God has said,

“I will never leave you;
I will never run away from you.”

Deuteronomy 31:6

6 So we can feel sure and say,

“The Lord is my helper;
I will not be afraid.
People can do nothing to me.”

Psalms 118:6

7 Remember your leaders. They taught God’s message to you. Remember how they lived and died, and copy their faith. 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever. 9 Don’t let all kinds of strange teachings lead you into the wrong way. Depend only on God’s grace for spiritual strength, not on rules about foods. Obeying those rules doesn’t help anyone.

[☆] 12:20 Quote from Exodus 19:12-13. [☆] 12:21 Quote from Deuteronomy 9:19. ^{*} 12:21 These verses refer to things that happened to the people of Israel in the time of Moses as described in Exodus 19. [†] 12:22 Jerusalem Here, the spiritual city of God’s people. [‡] 12:23 firstborn The first son born in a Jewish family had the most important place in the family and received special blessings. All of God’s children are like that. [§] 12:24 sprinkled blood The blood (death) of Jesus. [☆] 12:26 Quote from Haggai 2:6.

¹⁰ We have a sacrifice.* And those priests who serve in the Holy Tent cannot eat from the sacrifice we have. ¹¹ The high priest carries the blood of animals into the Most Holy Place† and offers that blood for sins. But the bodies of those animals are burned outside the camp. ¹² So Jesus also suffered outside the city. He died to make his people holy with his own blood. ¹³ So we should go to Jesus outside the camp and accept the same shame that he had. ¹⁴ Here on earth we don't have a city that lasts forever. But we are waiting for the city that we will have in the future. ¹⁵ So through Jesus we should never stop offering our sacrifice to God. That sacrifice is our praise, coming from lips that speak his name. ¹⁶ And don't forget to do good and to share what you have with others, because sacrifices like these are very pleasing to God.

¹⁷ Obey your leaders. Be willing to do what they say. They are responsible for your spiritual welfare, so they are always watching to protect you. Obey them so that their work will give them joy, not grief. It won't help you to make it hard for them.

¹⁸ Continue praying for us. We feel right about what we do, because we always try to do what is best. ¹⁹ And I beg you to pray that God will send me back to you soon. I want this more than anything else.

²⁰⁻²¹ I pray that the God of peace will give you every good thing you need so that you can do what he wants. God is the one who raised from death our Lord Jesus, the Great Shepherd of his sheep. He raised him because Jesus sacrificed his blood to begin the new agreement that never ends. I pray that God will work through Jesus Christ to do the things in us that please him. To him be glory forever. Amen.

²² My brothers and sisters, I beg you to listen patiently to what I have said. I wrote this letter to strengthen you. And it is not very long. ²³ I want you to know that our brother Timothy is out of prison. If he comes to me soon, we will both come to see you.

²⁴ Give my greetings to all your leaders and to all God's people. All those from Italy send you their greetings.

²⁵ God's grace be with you all.

* 13:10 sacrifice Literally, "altar." Here, it means the sacrifice (offering) of Jesus. He gave his life to pay for people's sins. † 13:11 Most Holy Place Literally, "the holies," the place in the Jewish Tabernacle or Temple where God met the high priest.

James

¹ Greetings from James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ. To God's people* who are scattered all over the world.

Faith and Wisdom

² My brothers and sisters, you will have many kinds of trouble. But this gives you a reason to be very happy. ³ You know that when your faith is tested, you learn to be patient in suffering. ⁴ If you let that patience work in you, the end result will be good. You will be mature and complete. You will be all that God wants you to be.

⁵ Do any of you need wisdom? Ask God for it. He is generous and enjoys giving to everyone. So he will give you wisdom. ⁶ But when you ask God, you must believe. Don't doubt him. Whoever doubts is like a wave in the sea that is blown up and down by the wind. ⁷⁻⁸ People like that are thinking two different things at the same time. They can never decide what to do. So they should not think they will receive anything from the Lord.

True Riches

⁹ Believers who are poor should be glad that God considers them so important. ¹⁰ Believers who are rich should be glad when bad things happen that humble them. Their riches won't keep them from disappearing as quickly as wildflowers. ¹¹ As the sun rises and gets hotter, its heat dries up the plants, and the flowers fall off. The flowers that were so beautiful are now dead. That's how it is with the rich. While they are still making plans for their business, they will die.

Temptation Does Not Come From God

¹² Great blessings belong to those who are tempted and remain faithful! After they have proved their faith, God will give them the reward† of eternal life. God promised this to all people who love him. ¹³ Whenever you feel tempted to do something bad, you should not say, "God is tempting me." Evil cannot tempt God, and God himself does not tempt anyone. ¹⁴ You are tempted by the evil things you want. Your own desire leads you away and traps you. ¹⁵ Your desire grows inside you until it results in sin. Then the sin grows bigger and bigger and finally ends in death.

¹⁶ My dear brothers and sisters, don't be fooled about this. ¹⁷ Everything good comes from God. Every perfect gift is from him. These good gifts come down from the Father who made all the lights in the sky. But God never changes like the shadows from those lights. He is always the same. ¹⁸ God decided to give us life through the true message he sent to us. He wanted us to be the most important of all that he created.

Listening and Obeying

¹⁹ My dear brothers and sisters, always be more willing to listen than to speak. Keep control of your anger. ²⁰ Anger does not help you live the way God wants. ²¹ So get rid of everything evil in your lives—every kind of wrong you do. Be humble and accept God's teaching that is planted in your hearts. This teaching can save you.

²² Do what God's teaching says; don't just listen and do nothing. When you only sit and listen, you are fooling yourselves. ²³ Hearing God's teaching and doing nothing is like looking at your face in the mirror ²⁴ and doing nothing about what you saw. You go away and immediately forget how bad you looked. ²⁵ But when you look into God's perfect law that sets people free, pay attention to it. If you do what it says, you will have God's blessing. Never just listen to his teaching and forget what you heard.

* 1:1 God's people Literally, "the twelve tribes." Believers in Christ are like the tribes of Israel, God's chosen people in the Old Testament. † 1:12 reward Literally, "wreath," a ring of leaves or branches that was placed on the head of the winners of athletic contests to honor them. It was a symbol of victory and reward.

The True Way to Worship God

²⁶ You might think you are a very religious person. But if your tongue is out of control, you are fooling yourself. Your careless talk makes your offerings to God worthless. ²⁷ The worship that God wants is this: caring for orphans or widows who need help and keeping yourself free from the world's evil influence. This is the kind of worship that God accepts as pure and good.

Love All People

¹ My dear brothers and sisters, you are believers in our glorious Lord Jesus Christ. So don't treat some people better than others. ² Suppose someone comes into your meeting wearing very nice clothes and a gold ring. At the same time a poor person comes in wearing old, dirty clothes. ³ You show special attention to the person wearing nice clothes. You say, "Sit here in this good seat." But you say to the poor person, "Stand there!" or "Sit on the floor by our feet!" ⁴ Doesn't this show that you think some people are more important than others? You set yourselves up as judges—judges who make bad decisions.

⁵ Listen, my dear brothers and sisters. God chose the poor people in the world to be rich in faith. He chose them to receive the kingdom God promised to those who love him. ⁶ But you show no respect to those who are poor. And you know that the rich are the ones who always try to control your lives. And they are the ones who take you to court. ⁷ And the rich are the ones who insult the wonderful name of Christ, the name by which you are known.

⁸ One law rules over all other laws. This royal law is found in the Scriptures: "Love your neighbor* the same as you love yourself."✠ If you obey this law, you are doing right. ⁹ But if you are treating one person as more important than another, you are sinning. You are guilty of breaking God's law.

¹⁰ You might follow all of God's law. But if you fail to obey only one command, you are guilty of breaking all the commands in that law. ¹¹ God said, "Don't commit adultery."✠ The same God also said, "Don't kill."✠ So if you don't commit adultery, but you kill someone, you are guilty of breaking all of God's law.

¹² You will be judged by the law that makes people free. You should remember this in everything you say and do. ¹³ Yes, you must show mercy to others. If you do not show mercy, then God will not show mercy to you when he judges you. But the one who shows mercy can stand without fear before the Judge.

Faith and Good Works

¹⁴ My brothers and sisters, if a person claims to have faith but does nothing, that faith is worth nothing. Faith like that cannot save anyone. ¹⁵ Suppose a brother or sister in Christ comes to you in need of clothes or something to eat. ¹⁶ And you say to them, "God be with you! I hope you stay warm and get plenty to eat," but you don't give them the things they need. If you don't help them, your words are worthless. ¹⁷ It is the same with faith. If it is just faith and nothing more—if it doesn't do anything—it is dead.

¹⁸ But someone might argue, "Some people have faith, and others have good works." My answer would be that you can't show me your faith if you don't do anything. But I will show you my faith by the good I do. ¹⁹ You believe there is one God. That's good, but even the demons believe that! And they shake with fear.

* 2:8 your neighbor Or "others." Jesus' teaching in Luke 10:25-37 makes clear that this includes anyone in need.
 ✠ 2:8 Quote from Leviticus 19:18. ✠ 2:11 Quote from Exodus 20:14; Deuteronomy 5:18. ✠ 2:11 Quote from Exodus 20:13; Deuteronomy 5:17.

²⁰ You fool! Faith that does nothing is worth nothing. Do you want me to prove this to you? ²¹ Our father Abraham was made right with God by what he did. He offered his son Isaac to God on the altar. ²² So you see that Abraham's faith and what he did worked together. His faith was made perfect by what he did. ²³ This shows the full meaning of the Scriptures that say, "Abraham believed God, and because of this faith he was accepted as one who is right with God."☆ Abraham was called "God's friend."☆ ²⁴ So you see that people are made right with God by what they do. They cannot be made right by faith alone.

²⁶ A person's body that does not have a spirit is dead. It is the same with faith—faith that does nothing is dead!

3

Controlling the Things We Say

¹ My brothers and sisters, not many of you should be teachers. I say this because, as you know, we who teach will be judged more strictly than others.

² We all make many mistakes. A person who never said anything wrong would be perfect. Someone like that would be able to control their whole body too. ³ We put bits into the mouths of horses to make them obey us. With these bits we can control their whole body. ⁴ It is the same with ships. A ship is very big, and it is pushed by strong winds. But a very small rudder controls that big ship. And the one who controls the rudder decides where the ship will go. It goes where he wants it to go. ⁵ It is the same with our tongue. It is a small part of the body, but it can boast about doing great things.

A big forest fire can be started with only a little flame. ⁶ The tongue is like a fire. It is a world of evil among the parts of our body. It spreads its evil through our whole body and starts a fire that influences all of life. It gets this fire from hell.

⁷ Humans have control over every kind of wild animal, bird, reptile, and fish, and they have controlled all these things. ⁸ But no one can control the tongue. It is wild and evil, full of deadly poison. ⁹ We use our tongues to praise our Lord and Father, but then we curse people who were created in God's likeness. ¹⁰ These praises and curses come from the same mouth. My brothers and sisters, this should not happen. ¹¹ Do good water and bad water flow from the same spring? Of course not. ¹² My brothers and sisters, can a fig tree make olives? Or can a grapevine make figs? No, and a well full of salty water cannot give good water.

True Wisdom

¹³ Are there any among you who are really wise and understanding? Then you should show your wisdom by living right. You should do what is good with humility. A wise person does not boast. ¹⁴ If you are selfish and have bitter jealousy in your hearts, you have no reason to boast. Your boasting is a lie that hides the truth. ¹⁵ That kind of "wisdom" does not come from God. That "wisdom" comes from the world. It is not spiritual. It is from the devil. ¹⁶ Where there is jealousy and selfishness, there will be confusion and every kind of evil. ¹⁷ But the wisdom that comes from God is like this: First, it is pure. It is also peaceful, gentle, and easy to please. This wisdom is always ready to help people who have trouble and to do good for others. This wisdom is always fair and honest. ¹⁸ People who work for peace in a peaceful way get the blessings that come from right living.

☆ 2:23 Quote from Genesis 15:6. ☆ 2:23 Quote from 2 Chronicles 20:7; Isaiah 41:8. † 2:25 She helped ... road The story about Rahab is found in Josh. 2:1-21.

Give Yourselves to God

¹ Do you know where your fights and arguments come from? They come from the selfish desires that make war inside you. ² You want things, but you don't get them. So you kill and are jealous of others. But you still cannot get what you want. So you argue and fight. You don't get what you want because you don't ask God. ³ Or when you ask, you don't receive anything, because the reason you ask is wrong. You only want to use it for your own pleasure.

⁴ You people are not faithful to God! You should know that loving what the world has is the same as hating God. So anyone who wants to be friends with this evil world becomes God's enemy. ⁵ Do you think the Scriptures mean nothing? The Scriptures say, "The Spirit God made to live in us wants us only for himself."* ⁶ But the kindness God shows is greater. As the Scripture says, "God is against the proud, but he is kind to the humble."☆

⁷ So give yourselves to God. Stand against the devil, and he will run away from you. ⁸ Come near to God and he will come near to you. You are sinners, so clean sin out of your lives.† You are trying to follow God and the world at the same time. Make your thinking pure. ⁹ Be sad, be sorry, and cry! Change your laughter into crying. Change your joy into sadness. ¹⁰ Be humble before the Lord, and he will make you great.

You Are Not the Judge

¹¹ Brothers and sisters, don't say anything against each other. If you criticize your brother or sister in Christ or judge them, you are criticizing and judging the law they follow. And when you are judging the law, you are not a follower of the law. You have become a judge. ¹² God is the one who gave us the law, and he is the Judge. He is the only one who can save and destroy. So it is not right for you to judge anyone.

Let God Plan Your Life

¹³ Some of you say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to some city. We will stay there a year, do business, and make money." Listen, think about this: ¹⁴ You don't know what will happen tomorrow. Your life is like a fog. You can see it for a short time, but then it goes away. ¹⁵ So you should say, "If the Lord wants, we will live and do this or that." ¹⁶ But now you are proud and boast about yourself. All such boasting is wrong. ¹⁷ If you fail to do what you know is right, you are sinning.

A Warning to Rich and Selfish People

¹ You rich people, listen! Cry and be very sad because much trouble will come to you. ² Your riches will rot and be worth nothing. Your clothes will be eaten by moths. ³ Your gold and silver will rust, and that rust will be a proof that you were wrong. That rust will eat your bodies like fire. You saved your treasure in the last days. ⁴ People worked in your fields, but you did not pay them. They are crying out against you. They harvested your crops. Now the Lord All-Powerful has heard their cries.

⁵ Your life on earth was full of rich living. You pleased yourselves with everything you wanted. You made yourselves fat, like an animal ready for the day of slaughter.* ⁶ You showed no mercy to good people. They were not against you, but you killed them.

Be Patient

* 4:5 "The Spirit ... himself" Other possible translations: "God strongly desires the spirit that he made to live in us." Or "The spirit that he made to live in us is full of envious desires." See Exodus 20:5. ☆ 4:6 Quote from Proverbs 3:34. † 4:8 so clean sin out of your lives Literally, "so wash your hands." * 5:5 You made yourselves fat ... slaughter Literally, "You fattened your hearts for the day of slaughter."

⁷ Brothers and sisters, be patient; the Lord will come. So be patient until that time. Look at the farmers. They have to be patient. They have to wait for their valuable crop to grow and produce a harvest. They wait patiently for the first rain and the last rain.[†]
⁸ You must be patient too. Never stop hoping. The Lord is coming soon. ⁹ Brothers and sisters, don't complain against each other. If you don't stop complaining, you will be judged guilty. And the Judge is ready to come!

¹⁰ Brothers and sisters, follow the example of the prophets who spoke for the Lord. They suffered many bad things, but they were patient. ¹¹ And we say that those who accepted their troubles with patience now have God's blessing. You have heard about Job's patience.[‡] You know that after all his troubles, the Lord helped him. This shows that the Lord is full of mercy and is kind.

Be Careful What You Say

¹² My brothers and sisters, it is very important that you not use an oath when you make a promise. Don't use the name of heaven, earth, or anything else to prove what you say. When you mean yes, say only "yes." When you mean no, say only "no." Do this so that you will not be judged guilty.

The Power of Prayer

¹³ Are you having troubles? You should pray. Are you happy? You should sing. ¹⁴ Are you sick? Ask the elders of the church to come and rub oil on you[§] in the name of the Lord and pray for you. ¹⁵ If such a prayer is offered in faith, it will heal anyone who is sick. The Lord will heal them. And if they have sinned, he will forgive them.

¹⁶ So always tell each other the wrong things you have done. Then pray for each other. Do this so that God can heal you. Anyone who lives the way God wants can pray, and great things will happen. ¹⁷ Elijah was a person just like us. He prayed that it would not rain. And it did not rain on the land for three and a half years! ¹⁸ Then Elijah prayed that it would rain. And the rain came down from the sky, and the land grew crops again.

Helping People When They Sin

¹⁹ My brothers and sisters, if anyone wanders away from the truth and someone helps that person come back, ²⁰ remember this: Anyone who brings a sinner back from the wrong way will save that person from eternal death and cause many sins to be forgiven.

[†] 5:7 first rain ... last rain The "first rain" came in the fall, and the "last rain" came in the spring. [‡] 5:11 Job's patience See the book of Job in the Old Testament. [§] 5:14 rub oil on you Oil was used like medicine.

1 Peter

¹ Greetings from Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ.

To God's chosen people who are away from their homes—people scattered all over the areas of Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia. ² God planned long ago to choose you and to make you his holy people, which is the Spirit's work. God wanted you to obey him and to be made clean by the blood sacrifice* of Jesus Christ.

I pray that you will enjoy more and more of God's grace and peace.

A Living Hope

³ Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has great mercy, and because of his mercy he gave us a new life. This new life brings us a living hope through Jesus Christ's resurrection from death. ⁴ Now we wait to receive the blessings God has for his children. These blessings are kept for you in heaven. They cannot be ruined or be destroyed or lose their beauty.

⁵ God's power protects you through your faith, and it keeps you safe until your salvation comes. That salvation is ready to be given to you at the end of time. ⁶ I know the thought of that is exciting, even if you must suffer through different kinds of troubles for a short time now. ⁷ These troubles test your faith and prove that it is pure. And such faith is worth more than gold. Gold can be proved to be pure by fire, but gold will ruin. When your faith is proven to be pure, the result will be praise and glory and honor when Jesus Christ comes.

⁸ You have not seen Christ, but still you love him. You can't see him now, but you believe in him. You are filled with a wonderful and heavenly joy that cannot be explained. ⁹ Your faith has a goal, and you are reaching that goal—your salvation.

¹⁰ The prophets studied carefully and tried to learn about this salvation. They spoke about the grace that was coming to you. ¹¹ The Spirit of Christ was in those prophets. And the Spirit was telling about the sufferings that would happen to Christ and about the glory that would come after those sufferings. The prophets tried to learn about what the Spirit was showing them—when it would happen and what the world would be like at that time.

¹² It was made clear to them that their service was not for themselves. They were serving you when they told about the things you have now heard. You heard them from those who told you the Good News with the help of the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Even the angels would like very much to know more about these things you were told.

A Call to Holy Living

¹³ So prepare your minds for service. With complete self-control put all your hope in the grace that will be yours when Jesus Christ comes. ¹⁴ In the past you did not have the understanding you have now, so you did the evil things you wanted to do. But now you are children of God, so you should obey him and not live the way you did before. ¹⁵ Be holy in everything you do, just as God is holy. He is the one who chose you. ¹⁶ In the Scriptures God says, "Be holy, because I am holy."[✠]

¹⁷ You pray to God and call him Father, but he will judge everyone the same way—by what they do. So while you are visiting here on earth, you should live with respect for God. ¹⁸ You know that in the past the way you were living was useless. It was a way of life you learned from those who lived before you. But you were saved from that way of living. You were bought, but not with things that ruin like gold or silver. ¹⁹ You were bought with the precious blood of Christ's death. He was a pure and perfect sacrificial Lamb. ²⁰ Christ was chosen before the world was made, but he was shown to the world in these last times for you. ²¹ You believe in God through Christ. God is the one who raised him from death and gave honor to him. So your faith and your hope are in God.

²² You have made yourselves pure by obeying the truth. Now you can have true love for your brothers and sisters. So love each other deeply—with all your heart. ²³ You have been born again. This new life did not come from something that dies. It came from something that cannot die. You were born again through God's life-giving message that lasts forever. ²⁴ The Scriptures say,

“Our lives are like the grass of spring, and any glory we enjoy is like the beauty of a wildflower.
The grass dries up and dies,
and the flower falls to the ground.

²⁵ But the word of the Lord lasts forever.”

Isaiah 40:6-8

And that word is the Good News that was told to you.

2

The Living Stone and the Holy Nation

¹ So then, stop doing anything to hurt others. Don't lie anymore, and stop trying to fool people. Don't be jealous or say bad things about others. ² Like newborn babies hungry for milk, you should want the pure teaching that feeds your spirit. With it you can grow up and be saved. ³ You have already tasted the goodness of the Lord.

⁴ The Lord Jesus is the living stone.* The people of the world decided that they did not want this stone. But he is the one God chose as one of great value. So come to him. ⁵ You also are like living stones, and God is using you to build a spiritual house.† You are to serve God in this house as holy priests, offering him spiritual sacrifices that he will accept because of Jesus Christ. ⁶ The Scriptures say,

“Look, I have chosen a cornerstone of great value, and I put that stone in Zion.
Anyone who trusts in him will never be disappointed.”

Isaiah 28:16

⁷ So, that stone brings honor for you who believe. But for those who don't believe he is

“the stone that the builders refused to accept,
which became the most important stone.”

Psalms 118:22

⁸ For them he is also

“a stone that makes people stumble, a rock that makes people fall.”

Isaiah 8:14

People stumble because they don't obey what God says. This is what God planned to happen to those people.

⁹ But you are his chosen people, the King's priests. You are a holy nation, people who belong to God. He chose you to tell about the wonderful things he has done. He brought you out of the darkness of sin into his wonderful light.

* 2:4 stone The most important stone in God's spiritual temple or house (his people). † 2:5 house God's house—the place where God's people worship him. Here, it means that believers are the spiritual building where God lives.

¹⁰ In the past you were not a special people, but now you are God's people.
Once you had not received mercy,
but now God has given you his mercy.‡

Live for God

¹¹ Dear friends, you are like visitors and strangers in this world. So I beg you to keep your lives free from the evil things you want to do, those desires that fight against your true selves. ¹² People who don't believe are living all around you. They may say that you are doing wrong. So live such good lives that they will see the good you do, and they will give glory to God on the day he comes.

Obey Every Human Authority

¹³ Be willing to serve the people who have authority§ in this world. Do this for the Lord. Obey the king, the highest authority. ¹⁴ And obey the leaders who are sent by the king. They are sent to punish those who do wrong and to praise those who do good. ¹⁵ When you do good, you stop ignorant people from saying foolish things about you. This is what God wants. ¹⁶ Live like free people, but don't use your freedom as an excuse to do evil. Live as those who are serving God. ¹⁷ Show respect for all people. Love your brothers and sisters in God's family. Respect God, and honor the king.

The Example of Christ's Suffering

¹⁸ Slaves, be willing to serve your masters. Do this with all respect. You should obey the masters who are good and kind, and you should obey the masters who are bad. ¹⁹ One of you might have to suffer even when you have done nothing wrong. If you think of God and bear the pain, this pleases God. ²⁰ But if you are punished for doing wrong, there is no reason to praise you for bearing that punishment. But if you suffer for doing good and you are patient, this pleases God. ²¹ This is what you were chosen to do. Christ gave you an example to follow. He suffered for you. So you should do the same as he did:

²² "He never sinned, and he never told a lie."

Isaiah 53:9

²³ People insulted him, but he did not insult them back. He suffered, but he did not threaten anyone. No, he let God take care of him. God is the one who judges rightly. ²⁴ Christ carried our sins in his body on the cross. He did this so that we would stop living for sin and live for what is right. By his wounds you were healed. ²⁵ You were like sheep that went the wrong way. But now you have come back to the Shepherd and Protector of your lives.

Wives and Husbands

¹ In the same way, you wives should be willing to serve your husbands. Then, even those who have refused to accept God's teaching will be persuaded to believe because of the way you live. You will not need to say anything. ² Your husbands will see the pure lives that you live with respect for God. ³ It is not fancy hair, gold jewelry, or fine clothes that should make you beautiful. ⁴ No, your beauty should come from inside you—the beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit. That beauty will never disappear. It is worth very much to God.

⁵ It was the same with the holy women who lived long ago and followed God. They made themselves beautiful in that same way. They were willing to serve their husbands.

‡ 2:10 In the past ... his mercy See Hosea 2:23. § 2:13 people ... authority Literally, "every human creation," meaning rulers, governors, presidents, or other government leaders.

⁶ I am talking about women like Sarah. She obeyed Abraham, her husband, and called him her master. And you women are true children of Sarah if you always do what is right and are not afraid.

⁷ In the same way, you husbands should live with your wives in an understanding way, since they are weaker than you. You should show them respect, because God gives them the same blessing he gives you—the grace of true life. Do this so that nothing will stop your prayers from being heard.

Suffering for Doing Right

⁸ So all of you should live together in peace. Try to understand each other. Love each other like brothers and sisters. Be kind and humble. ⁹ Don't do wrong to anyone to pay them back for doing wrong to you. Or don't insult anyone to pay them back for insulting you. But ask God to bless them. Do this because you yourselves were chosen to receive a blessing. ¹⁰ The Scriptures say,

“If you want to enjoy true life and have only good days,
then avoid saying anything hurtful,
and never let a lie come out of your mouth.

¹¹ Stop doing what is wrong, and do good.

Look for peace, and do all you can to help people live peacefully.

¹² The Lord watches over those who do what is right, and he listens to their prayers.

But he is against those who do evil.”

Psalms 34:12-16

¹³ If you are always trying to do good, no one can really harm you. ¹⁴ But you may suffer for doing right. If that happens, you have God's blessing. “Don't be afraid of the people who make you suffer; don't be worried.”[☆] ¹⁵ But keep the Lord Christ holy in your hearts. Always be ready to answer everyone who asks you to explain about the hope you have. ¹⁶ But answer them in a gentle way with respect. Keep your conscience clear. Then people will see the good way you live as followers of Christ, and those who say bad things about you will be ashamed of what they said.

¹⁷ It is better to suffer for doing good than for doing wrong. Yes, it is better if that is what God wants.

¹⁸ Christ himself suffered when he died for you, and with that one death he paid for your sins.

He was not guilty,
but he died for people who are guilty.
He did this to bring all of you to God.

In his physical form he was killed,
but he was made alive by the Spirit.*

¹⁹ And by the Spirit he went and preached to the spirits in prison. ²⁰ Those were the spirits who refused to obey God long ago in the time of Noah. God was waiting patiently for people while Noah was building the big boat. And only a few—eight in all—were saved in the boat through the floodwater. ²¹ And that water is like baptism, which now saves you. Baptism is not the washing of dirt from the body. It is asking God for a clean conscience. It saves you because Jesus Christ was raised from death. ²² Now he has gone into heaven. He is at God's right side and rules over angels, authorities, and powers.

[☆] 3:14 Quote from Isaiah 8:12. * 3:18 by the Spirit Or “in the spirit.” Also in verse 19.

Changed Lives

¹ Christ suffered while he was in his body. So you should strengthen yourselves with the same kind of thinking Christ had. The one who accepts suffering in this life has clearly decided to stop sinning. ² Strengthen yourselves so that you will live your lives here on earth doing what God wants, not the evil things that people want to do. ³ In the past you wasted too much time doing what those who don't know God like to do. You were living immoral lives, doing the evil things you wanted to do. You were always getting drunk, having wild drinking parties, and doing shameful things in your worship of idols.

⁴ Now those "friends" think it is strange that you no longer join them in all the wild and wasteful things they do. And so they say bad things about you. ⁵ But they will have to face God to explain what they have done. He is the one who will soon judge everyone—those who are still living and those who have died. ⁶ Some were told the Good News before they died. They were criticized by others in their life here on earth. But it was God's plan that they hear the Good News so that they could have a new life through the Spirit.*

Be Good Managers of God's Gifts

⁷ The time is near when all things will end. So keep your minds clear, and control yourselves. This will help you in your prayers. ⁸ Most important of all, love each other deeply, because love makes you willing to forgive many sins. ⁹ Open your homes to each other and share your food without complaining. ¹⁰ God has shown you his grace in many different ways. So be good servants and use whatever gift he has given you in a way that will best serve each other. ¹¹ If your gift is speaking, your words should be like words from God. If your gift is serving, you should serve with the strength that God gives. Then it is God who will be praised in everything through Jesus Christ. Power and glory belong to him forever and ever. Amen.

Suffering as a Follower of Christ

¹² My friends, don't be surprised at the painful things that you are now suffering, which are testing your faith. Don't think that something strange is happening to you. ¹³ But you should be happy that you are sharing in Christ's sufferings. You will be happy and full of joy when Christ shows his glory. ¹⁴ When people say bad things to you because you follow Christ, consider it a blessing. When that happens, it shows that God's Spirit, the Spirit of glory, is with you. ¹⁵ You may suffer, but don't let it be because you murder, steal, make trouble, or try to control other people's lives. ¹⁶ But if you suffer because you are a "Christ-follower," don't be ashamed. You should praise God for that name. ¹⁷ It is time for judging to begin. That judging will begin with God's family. If it begins with us, then what will happen to those who don't accept the Good News of God?

¹⁸ "If it is hard for even a good person to be saved, what will happen to the one who is against God and full of sin?" Proverbs 11:31
(Greek version)

¹⁹ So if God wants you to suffer, you should trust your lives to him. He is the one who made you, and you can trust him. So continue to do good.

The Flock of God

* 4:6 through the Spirit Or "in the spirit," meaning in the spiritual or heavenly realm.

¹ Now I have something to say to the elders in your group. I am also an elder. I myself have seen Christ's sufferings. And I will share in the glory that will be shown to us. I beg you to ² take care of the group of people you are responsible for. They are God's flock.* Watch over that flock because you want to, not because you are forced to do it. That is how God wants it. Do it because you are happy to serve, not because you want money. ³ Don't be like a ruler over those you are responsible for. But be good examples to them. ⁴ Then when Christ the Ruling Shepherd comes, you will get a crown—one that will be glorious and never lose its beauty.

⁵ Young people, I have something to say to you too. You should accept the authority of the elders. You should all have a humble attitude in dealing with each other.

“God is against the proud, but he is kind to the humble.”

Proverbs 3:34

⁶ So be humble under God's powerful hand. Then he will lift you up when the right time comes. ⁷ Give all your worries to him, because he cares for you.

⁸ Control yourselves and be careful! The devil is your enemy, and he goes around like a roaring lion looking for someone to attack and eat. ⁹ Refuse to follow the devil. Stand strong in your faith. You know that your brothers and sisters all over the world are having the same sufferings that you have.

¹⁰ Yes, you will suffer for a short time. But after that, God will make everything right. He will make you strong. He will support you and keep you from falling. He is the God who gives all grace. He chose you to share in his glory in Christ. That glory will continue forever. ¹¹ All power is his forever. Amen.

Final Greetings

¹² Silas will bring this letter to you. I know that he is a faithful brother in Christ. I wrote this short letter to encourage you. I wanted to tell you that this is the true grace of God. Stand strong in that grace.

¹³ The church in Babylon[†] sends you greetings. They were chosen just as you were. Mark, my son in Christ, also sends his greetings. ¹⁴ Give each other a special greeting[‡] of love when you meet.

Peace to all of you who are in Christ.

* 5:2 God's flock God's people. They are like a flock of sheep that need to be cared for. † 5:13 The church in Babylon Literally, “She in Babylon.” ‡ 5:14 special greeting Literally, “kiss.”

2 Peter

¹ Greetings from Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ.

To all of you who share in the same valuable faith that we have. This faith was given to us because our God and Savior Jesus Christ always does what is good and right.

² Grace and peace be given to you more and more, because now you know God and Jesus our Lord.

God Has Given Us Everything We Need

³ Jesus has the power of God. And his power has given us everything we need to live a life devoted to God. We have these things because we know him. Jesus chose us by his glory and goodness, ⁴ through which he also gave us the very great and rich gifts that he promised us. With these gifts you can share in being like God. And so you will escape the ruin that comes to people in the world because of the evil things they want.

⁵ Because you have these blessings, do all you can to add to your life these things: to your faith add goodness; to your goodness add knowledge; ⁶ to your knowledge add self-control; to your self-control add patience; to your patience add devotion to God; ⁷ to your devotion add kindness toward your brothers and sisters in Christ, and to this kindness add love. ⁸ If all these things are in you and growing, you will never fail to be useful to God. You will produce the kind of fruit that should come from your knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹ But those who don't grow in these blessings are blind. They cannot see clearly what they have. They have forgotten that they were cleansed from their past sins.

¹⁰ My brothers and sisters, God called you and chose you to be his. Do your best to live in a way that shows you really are God's called and chosen people. If you do all this, you will never fall. ¹¹ And you will be given a very great welcome into the kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, a kingdom that never ends.

¹² You already know these things. You are very strong in the truth you have. But I am always going to help you remember them. ¹³ While I am still living here on earth, I think it is right for me to remind you of them. ¹⁴ I know that I must soon leave this body. Our Lord Jesus Christ has shown me that. ¹⁵ I will try my best to make sure you remember these things even after I am gone.

We Saw Christ's Glory

¹⁶ We told you about the power of our Lord Jesus Christ. We told you about his coming. The things we told you were not just clever stories that people invented. No, we saw the greatness of Jesus with our own eyes. ¹⁷ Jesus heard the voice of the great and glorious God. That was when he received honor and glory from God the Father. The voice said, "This is my Son, the one I love. I am very pleased with him." ¹⁸ And we heard that voice. It came from heaven while we were with Jesus on the holy mountain.*

¹⁹ This makes us more sure about what the prophets said. And it is good for you to follow closely what they said, which is like a light shining in a dark place. You have that light until the day begins and the morning star brings new light to your minds. ²⁰ Most important of all, you must understand this: No prophecy in the Scriptures comes from the prophet's own understanding. ²¹ No prophecy ever came from what some person wanted to say. But people were led by the Holy Spirit and spoke words from God.

False Teachers

* ^{1:18} This event is described in the Gospels. See Matthew 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-8; Luke 9:28-36.

¹ In the past there were false prophets among God's people. It is the same now. You will have some false teachers in your group. They will teach things that are wrong—ideas that will cause people to be lost. And they will teach in a way that will be hard for you to see that they are wrong. They will even refuse to follow the Master who bought their freedom. And so they will quickly destroy themselves. ² Many people will follow them in the morally wrong things they do. And because of them, others will say bad things about the way of truth we follow. ³ These false teachers only want your money. So they will use you by telling you things that are not true. But the judgment against these false teachers has been ready for a long time. And they will not escape God who will destroy them.

⁴ When angels sinned, God did not let them go free without punishment. He sent them to hell. He put those angels in caves of darkness, where they are being held until the time when God will judge them.

⁵ And God punished the evil people who lived long ago. He brought a flood to the world that was full of people who were against God. But he saved Noah and seven other people with him. Noah was a man who told people about living right.

⁶ God also punished the evil cities of Sodom and Gomorrah. He burned them until there was nothing left but ashes. He used those cities as an example of what will happen to people who are against God. ⁷ But he saved Lot, a good man who lived there. Lot was greatly troubled by the morally bad lives of those evil people. ⁸ This good man lived with those evil people every day, and his good heart was hurt by the evil things he saw and heard.

⁹ So you see that the Lord God knows how to save those who are devoted to him. He will save them when troubles come. And the Lord will hold evil people to punish them on the day of judgment. ¹⁰ That punishment is for those who are always doing the evil that their sinful selves want to do. It is for those who hate the Lord's authority.

These false teachers do whatever they want, and they are so proud of themselves. They are not afraid even to say bad things against the glorious ones.* ¹¹ The angels are much stronger and more powerful than these beings. But even the angels don't accuse them and say bad things about them to the Lord.

¹² But these false teachers speak evil against what they don't understand. They are like animals that do things without really thinking—like wild animals that are born to be caught and killed. And, like wild animals, they will be destroyed. ¹³ They have made many people suffer. So they themselves will suffer. That is their pay for what they have done.

They think it is fun to do evil where everyone can see them. They enjoy the evil things that please them. So they are like dirty spots and stains among you—they bring shame to you in the meals you eat together. ¹⁴ Every time they look at a woman, they want her. They are always sinning this way. And they lead weaker people into the trap of sin. They have taught themselves well to be greedy. They are under a curse.†

¹⁵ These false teachers left the right way and went the wrong way. They followed the same way that the prophet Balaam went. He was the son of Beor, who loved being paid for doing wrong. ¹⁶ But a donkey told him that he was doing wrong. A donkey cannot talk, of course, but that donkey spoke with a man's voice and stopped the prophet from acting so crazy.

¹⁷ These false teachers are like springs that have no water. They are like clouds that are blown by a storm. A place in the deepest darkness has been kept for them. ¹⁸ They boast with words that mean nothing. They lead people into the trap of sin. They find people who have just escaped from a wrong way of life and lead them back into sin. They do this by using the evil things people want to do in their human weakness. ¹⁹ These false teachers promise those people freedom, but they themselves are not free. They are slaves to a mind that has been ruined by sin. Yes, people are slaves to anything that controls them.

* 2:10 the glorious ones Literally, "the glories." These seem to be some kind of angelic beings. † 2:14 under a curse Literally, "children of a curse," meaning that God will punish them.

²⁰ People can be made free from the evil in the world. They can be made free by knowing our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. But if they go back into those evil things and are controlled by them, then it is worse for them than it was before. ²¹ Yes, it would be better for them to have never known the right way. That would be better than to know the right way and then to turn away from the holy teaching that was given to them. ²² What they did is like these true sayings: “A dog vomits and goes back to what it threw up.”[☆] And, “After a pig is washed, it goes back and rolls in the mud again.”

Jesus Will Come Again

¹ My friends, this is the second letter I have written to you. I wrote both letters to you to help your honest minds remember something. ² I want you to remember the words that the holy prophets spoke in the past. And remember the command that our Lord and Savior gave us. He gave us that command through your apostles.

³ It is important for you to understand what will happen in the last days. People will laugh at you. They will live following the evil they want to do. ⁴ They will say, “Jesus promised to come again. Where is he? Our fathers have died, but the world continues the way it has been since it was made.”

⁵ But these people don’t want to remember what happened long ago. The skies were there, and God made the earth from water and with water. All this happened by God’s word. ⁶ Then the world was flooded and destroyed with water. ⁷ And that same word of God is keeping the skies and the earth that we have now. They are being kept to be destroyed by fire. They are kept for the day of judgment and the destruction of all people who are against God.

⁸ But don’t forget this one thing, dear friends: To the Lord a day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years is like a day. ⁹ The Lord is not being slow in doing what he promised—the way some people understand slowness. But God is being patient with you. He doesn’t want anyone to be lost. He wants everyone to change their ways and stop sinning.

¹⁰ But the day when the Lord comes again will surprise everyone like the coming of a thief. The sky will disappear with a loud noise. Everything in the sky will be destroyed with fire. And the earth and everything in it will be burned up.* ¹¹ Everything will be destroyed in this way. So what kind of people should you be? Your lives should be holy and devoted to God. ¹² You should be looking forward to the day of God, wanting more than anything else for it to come soon. When it comes, the sky will be destroyed with fire, and everything in the sky will melt with heat. ¹³ But God made a promise to us. And we are waiting for what he promised—a new sky and a new earth. That will be the place where goodness lives.

¹⁴ Dear friends, we are waiting for this to happen. So try as hard as you can to be without sin and without fault. Try to be at peace with God. ¹⁵ Remember that we are saved because our Lord is patient. Our dear brother Paul told you that same thing when he wrote to you with the wisdom that God gave him. ¹⁶ That’s what he says in all his letters when he writes about these things. There are parts of his letters that are hard to understand, and some people give a wrong meaning to them. These people are ignorant and weak in faith. They also give wrong meanings to the other Scriptures. But they are destroying themselves by doing that.

[☆] 2:22 Quote from Proverbs 26:11. * 3:10 will be burned up Among the other readings of this text in early Greek copies, many have “will be found,” and one has “will disappear.”

¹⁷ Dear friends, you already know about this. So be careful. Don't let these evil people lead you away by the wrong they do. Be careful that you do not fall from your strong faith. ¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Glory be to him, now and forever! Amen.

1 John

¹ We want to tell you about the Word* that gives life—the one who existed before the world began. This is the one we have heard and have seen with our own eyes. We saw what he did, and our hands touched him. ² Yes, the one who is life was shown to us. We saw him, and so we can tell others about him. We now tell you about him. He is the eternal life that was with God the Father and was shown to us. ³ We are telling you about what we have seen and heard because we want you to have fellowship† with us. The fellowship we share together is with God the Father and his Son Jesus Christ. ⁴ We write these things to you so that you can be full of joy with us.

God Forgives Our Sins

⁵ We heard the true teaching from God. Now we tell it to you: God is light, and in him there is no darkness. ⁶ So if we say that we share in life with God, but we continue living in darkness, we are liars, who don't follow the truth. ⁷ We should live in the light, where God is. If we live in the light, we have fellowship with each other, and the blood sacrifice of Jesus, God's Son, washes away every sin and makes us clean.

⁸ If we say that we have no sin, we are fooling ourselves, and the truth is not in us. ⁹ But if we confess our sins, God will forgive us. We can trust God to do this. He always does what is right. He will make us clean from all the wrong things we have done. ¹⁰ If we say that we have not sinned, we are saying that God is a liar and that we don't accept his true teaching.

Jesus Is Our Helper

¹ My dear children, I write this letter to you so that you will not sin. But if anyone sins, we have Jesus Christ to help us. He always did what was right, so he is able to defend us before God the Father. ² Jesus is the way our sins are taken away. And he is the way all people can have their sins taken away too.

³ If we obey what God has told us to do, then we are sure that we know him. ⁴ If we say we know God but do not obey his commands, we are lying. The truth is not in us. ⁵ But when we obey God's teaching, his love is truly working in us. This is how we know that we are living in him. ⁶ If we say we live in God, we must live the way Jesus lived.

Jesus Told Us to Love Others

⁷ My dear friends, I am not writing a new command to you. It is the same command you have had since the beginning. This command is the teaching you have already heard. ⁸ But what I write is also a new command. It is a true one; you can see its truth in Jesus and in yourselves. The darkness is passing away, and the true light is already shining.

⁹ Someone might say, "I am in the light," but if they hate any of their brothers or sisters in God's family, they are still in the darkness. ¹⁰ Those who love their brothers and sisters live in the light, and there is nothing in them that will make them do wrong. ¹¹ But whoever hates their brother or sister is in darkness. They live in darkness. They don't know where they are going, because the darkness has made them blind.

¹² I write to you, dear children, because your sins are forgiven through Christ.

* 1:1 Word The Greek word is "logos," meaning any kind of communication. Here, it means Christ—the way God told people about himself. † 1:3 fellowship Associating with people and sharing things together with them. Believers in Christ share love, joy, sorrow, faith, and other things with each other and with God. Also in verse 7.

¹³ I write to you, fathers,
because you know the one who existed from the beginning.

I write to you, young people,
because you have defeated the Evil One.

¹⁴ I write to you, children, because you know the Father.

I write to you, fathers,
because you know the one who existed from the beginning.

I write to you, young people,
because you are strong.

The word of God lives in you, and you have defeated the Evil One.

¹⁵ Don't love this evil world or the things in it. If you love the world, you do not have the love of the Father in you. ¹⁶ This is all there is in the world: wanting to please our sinful selves, wanting the sinful things we see, and being too proud of what we have. But none of these comes from the Father. They come from the world. ¹⁷ The world is passing away, and all the things that people want in the world are passing away. But whoever does what God wants will live forever.

Don't Follow the Enemies of Christ

¹⁸ My dear children, the end is near! You have heard that the enemy of Christ is coming. And now many enemies of Christ are already here. So we know that the end is near. ¹⁹ These enemies were in our group, but they left us. They did not really belong with us. If they were really part of our group, they would have stayed with us. But they left. This shows that none of them really belonged with us.

²⁰ You have the gift* that the Holy One† gave you. So you all know the truth. ²¹ Do you think I am writing this letter because you don't know the truth? No, I am writing because you do know the truth. And you know that no lie comes from the truth.

²² So who is the liar? It is the one who says Jesus is not the Messiah. Whoever says that is the enemy of Christ—the one who does not believe in the Father or in his Son. ²³ Whoever does not believe in the Son does not have the Father, but whoever accepts the Son has the Father too.

²⁴ Be sure that you continue to follow the teaching you heard from the beginning. If you do that, you will always be in the Son and in the Father. ²⁵ And this is what the Son promised us—eternal life.

²⁶ I am writing this letter about those who are trying to lead you into the wrong way. ²⁷ Christ gave you a special gift. You still have this gift in you. So you don't need anyone to teach you. The gift he gave you teaches you about everything. It is a true gift, not a false one. So continue to live in Christ, as his gift taught you.

²⁸ Yes, my dear children, live in him. If we do this, we can be without fear on the day when Christ comes again. We will not need to hide and be ashamed when he comes.

²⁹ You know that Christ always did what was right. So you know that all those who do what is right are God's children.

3

We Are God's Children

¹ The Father has loved us so much! This shows how much he loved us: We are called children of God. And we really are his children. But the people in the world don't understand that we are God's children, because they have not known him. ² Dear friends,

* ^{2:20} gift Literally, "anointing." This might mean the Holy Spirit. Or it might mean teaching or truth as in verse ²⁴. Also in verse ²⁷. † ^{2:20} Holy One God or Christ.

now we are children of God. We have not yet been shown what we will be in the future. But we know that when Christ comes again, we will be like him. We will see him just as he is. ³ He is pure, and everyone who has this hope in him keeps themselves pure like Christ.

⁴ Anyone who sins breaks God's law. Yes, sinning is the same as living against God's law. ⁵ You know that Christ came to take away people's sins. There is no sin in Christ. ⁶ So whoever lives in Christ does not continue to sin. If they continue to sin, they have never really understood Christ and have never known him.

⁷ Dear children, don't let anyone lead you into the wrong way. Christ always did what was right. So to be good like Christ, you must do what is right. ⁸ The devil has been sinning since the beginning. Anyone who continues to sin belongs to the devil. The Son of God came for this: to destroy the devil's work.

⁹ Those who are God's children do not continue to sin, because the new life God gave them ^{*} stays in them. They cannot keep sinning, because they have become children of God. ¹⁰ So we can see who God's children are and who the devil's children are. These are the ones who are not God's children: those who don't do what is right and those who do not love their brothers and sisters in God's family.

We Must Love One Another

¹¹ This is the teaching you have heard from the beginning: We must love each other. ¹² Don't be like Cain. He belonged to the Evil One. Cain killed his brother. But why did he kill him? Because what Cain did was evil, and what his brother did was good.

¹³ Brothers and sisters, don't be surprised when the people of this world hate you. ¹⁴ We know that we have left death and have come into life. We know this because we love each other as brothers and sisters. Anyone who does not love is still in death. ¹⁵ Anyone who hates a fellow believer is a murderer.† And you know that no murderer has eternal life.

¹⁶ This is how we know what real love is: Jesus gave his life for us. So we should give our lives for each other as brothers and sisters. ¹⁷ Suppose a believer who is rich enough to have all the necessities of life sees a fellow believer who is poor and does not have even basic needs. What if the rich believer does not help the poor one? Then it is clear that God's love is not in that person's heart. ¹⁸ My children, our love should not be only words and talk. No, our love must be real. We must show our love by the things we do.

¹⁹⁻²⁰ That's how we know we belong to the way of truth. And when our hearts make us feel guilty, we can still have peace before God, because God is greater than our hearts. He knows everything.

²¹ My dear friends, if we don't feel that we are doing wrong, we can be without fear when we come to God. ²² And God gives us what we ask for. We receive it because we obey God's commands and do what pleases him. ²³ This is what God commands: that we believe in his Son Jesus Christ, and that we love each other as he commanded. ²⁴ All who obey God's commands live in God. And God lives in them. How do we know that God lives in us? We know because of the Spirit he gave us.

John Warns Against False Teachers

¹ My dear friends, many false prophets are in the world now. So don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits to see if they are from God. ² This is how you can recognize God's Spirit. One spirit says, "I believe that Jesus is the Messiah who came to earth and became a man." That Spirit is from God. ³ Another spirit refuses to say this about Jesus.

* 3:9 the new life God gave them Literally, "his seed." † 3:15 Anyone ... murderer Those who hate someone have in their mind the same motive that causes murder. So, morally, hating is equal to murder. Jesus taught his followers about this sin. See Matthew 5:21-26.

That spirit is not from God. This is the spirit of the enemy of Christ. You have heard that the enemy of Christ is coming, and now he is already in the world.

⁴ My dear children, you belong to God, so you have already defeated these false prophets. That's because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world. ⁵ And they belong to the world, so what they say is from the world too. And the world listens to what they say. ⁶ But we are from God. So the people who know God listen to us. But the people who are not from God don't listen to us. This is how we know the Spirit that is true and the spirit that is false.

Love Comes From God

⁷ Dear friends, we should love each other, because love comes from God. Everyone who loves has become God's child. And so everyone who loves knows God. ⁸ Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love. ⁹ This is how God showed his love to us: He sent his only Son into the world to give us life through him. ¹⁰ True love is God's love for us, not our love for God. He sent his Son as the way to take away our sins.

¹¹ That is how much God loved us, dear friends! So we also must love each other. ¹² No one has ever seen God. But if we love each other, God lives in us. If we love each other, God's love has reached its goal—it is made perfect in us.

¹³ We know that we live in God and God lives in us. We know this because he gave us his Spirit. ¹⁴ We have seen that the Father sent his Son to be the Savior of the world, and this is what we tell people now. ¹⁵ Anyone who says, "I believe that Jesus is the Son of God," is a person who lives in God, and God lives in that person. ¹⁶ So we know the love that God has for us, and we trust that love.

God is love. Everyone who lives in love lives in God, and God lives in them. ¹⁷ If God's love is made perfect in us, we can be without fear on the day when God judges the world. We will be without fear, because in this world we are like Jesus.* ¹⁸ Where God's love is, there is no fear, because God's perfect love takes away fear. It is his punishment that makes a person fear. So his love is not made perfect in the one who has fear.

¹⁹ We love because God first loved us. ²⁰ If we say we love God but hate any of our brothers or sisters in his family, we are liars. If we don't love someone we have seen, how can we love God? We have never even seen him. ²¹ God gave us this command: If we love God, we must also love each other as brothers and sisters.

God's Children Win Against the World

¹ The people who believe that Jesus is the Messiah are God's children. Anyone who loves the Father also loves the Father's children. ² How do we know that we love God's children? We know because we love God and we obey his commands. ³ Loving God means obeying his commands. And God's commands are not too hard for us, ⁴ because everyone who is a child of God has the power to win against the world. ⁵ It is our faith that has won the victory against the world. So who wins against the world? Only those who believe that Jesus is the Son of God.

God Told Us About His Son

⁶ Jesus Christ is the one who came. He came with water and with blood.* He did not come by water only. No, Jesus came by both water and blood. And the Spirit tells us that this is true. The Spirit is the truth. ⁷ So there are three witnesses that tell us about Jesus: ⁸ the Spirit, the water, and the blood. These three witnesses agree.

⁹ We believe people when they say something is true. But what God says is more important. And this is what God told us: He told us the truth about his own Son. ¹⁰ Whoever believes in the Son of God has the truth that God told us. But people who do not believe God make God a liar, because they do not believe what God told us about his

* 4:17 Jesus Literally, "that one." * 5:6 water, blood Probably meaning the water of Jesus' baptism and the blood he shed on the cross.

Son. ¹¹ This is what God told us: God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. ¹² Whoever has the Son has life, but whoever does not have the Son of God does not have life.

We Have Eternal Life Now

¹³ I write this letter to you who believe in the Son of God. I write so that you will know that you have eternal life now. ¹⁴ We can come to God with no doubts. This means that when we ask God for things (and those things agree with what God wants for us), God cares about what we say. ¹⁵ He listens to us every time we ask him. So we know that he gives us whatever we ask from him.

¹⁶ Suppose you see your fellow believer sinning (sin that does not lead to eternal death). You should pray for them. Then God will give them life. I am talking about people whose sin does not lead to eternal death. There is sin that leads to death. I don't mean that you should pray about that kind of sin. ¹⁷ Doing wrong is always sin. But there is sin that does not lead to eternal death.

¹⁸ We know that those who have been made God's children do not continue to sin. The Son of God keeps them safe.† The Evil One cannot hurt them. ¹⁹ We know that we belong to God, but the Evil One controls the whole world. ²⁰ And we know that the Son of God has come and has given us understanding. So now we can know the one who is true, and we live in that true God. We are in his Son, Jesus Christ. He is the true God, and he is eternal life. ²¹ So, dear children, keep yourselves away from false gods.

† 5:18 The Son ... safe Literally, "The one who was born from God keeps him safe" or "... keeps himself safe."

To the lady[†] chosen by God and to her children.

I truly love all of you. And I am not the only one. All those who know the truth[‡] love you in the same way. ² We love you because of the truth—the truth that lives in us. That truth will be with us forever.

³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us from God the Father and from his Son, Jesus Christ, as we live in truth and love.

⁴ I was very happy to learn about some of your children. I am happy that they are following the way of truth, just as the Father commanded us. ⁵ And now, dear lady, I tell you: We should all love each other. This is not a new command. It is the same command we had from the beginning. ⁶ And loving means living the way he commanded us to live. And God's command is this: that you live a life of love. You heard this command from the beginning.

⁷ Many false teachers are in the world now. They refuse to say that Jesus Christ came to earth and became a man. Anyone who refuses to accept this fact is a false teacher and the enemy of Christ. ⁸ Be careful! Don't lose the reward we[§] have worked for. Be careful so that you will receive all of that reward.

⁹ Everyone must continue to follow only the teaching about Christ. Whoever changes that teaching does not have God. But whoever continues to follow the teaching about Christ has both the Father and his Son. ¹⁰ Don't accept those who come to you but do not bring this teaching. Don't invite them into your house. Don't welcome them in any way. ¹¹ If you do, you are helping them with their evil work.

¹² I have much to say to you. But I don't want to use paper and ink. Instead, I hope to come visit you. Then we can be together and talk. That will make us very happy. ¹³ The children of your sister* who was chosen by God send you their love.

* 1:1 Elder This is probably John the apostle. "Elder" means an older man or a special leader in the church (as in Titus 1:5). † 1:1 lady This might mean a woman. Or, in this letter, it might mean a church. If it is a church, then "her children" would be the people of the church. Also in verse 5. ‡ 1:1 truth The truth or "Good News" about Jesus Christ that joins all believers together. § 1:8 we Some Greek copies have "you." * 1:13 sister Sister of the "lady" in verse 1. This might be another woman or another church.

To my dear friend Gaius, a person I truly love.

² My dear friend, I know that you are doing well spiritually. So I pray that everything else is going well with you and that you are enjoying good health. ³ Some believers came and told me about the truth[†] in your life. They told me that you continue to follow the way of truth. This made me very happy. ⁴ It always gives me the greatest joy when I hear that my children are following the way of truth.

⁵ My dear friend, it is good that you continue to help the believers. They are people you don't even know. ⁶ They told the church about the love you have. Please help them to continue their trip. Help them in a way that will please God. ⁷ They went on their trip to serve Christ. They did not accept any help from people who are not believers. ⁸ So we should help them. When we help them, we share with their work for the truth.

⁹ I wrote a letter to the church, but Diotrephes will not listen to what we say. He always wants to be the leader. ¹⁰ When I come, I will talk with him about what he is doing. He lies and says evil things about us, but that is not all. He refuses to welcome and help the believers who travel there. And he will not let others help them. If they do, he stops them from meeting with the church anymore.

¹¹ My dear friend, don't follow what is bad; follow what is good. Whoever does what is good is from God. But whoever does evil has never known God.

¹² Everyone says good things about Demetrius, and the truth agrees with what they say. Also, we say good about him. And you know that what we say is true.

¹³ I have many things I want to tell you. But I don't want to use pen and ink. ¹⁴ I hope to visit you soon. Then we can be together and talk. ¹⁵ Peace to you. The friends here with me send their love. Please give our love to each one of the friends there.

* 1:1 Elder This is probably John the apostle. "Elder" means an older man or a special leader in the church (as in Titus 1:5). † 1:3 truth The truth or "Good News" about Jesus Christ that joins all believers together. Also in verses 8, 12.

Jude

¹ Greetings from Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James.

To those who have been chosen and are loved by God the Father and have been kept safe in Jesus Christ.

² Mercy, peace, and love be yours more and more.

God Will Punish Those Who Do Wrong

³ Dear friends, I wanted very much to write to you about the salvation we all share together. But I felt the need to write to you about something else: I want to encourage you to fight hard for the faith that God gave his holy people. God gave this faith once, and it is good for all time. ⁴ Some people have secretly entered your group. These people have already been judged guilty for what they are doing. Long ago the prophets wrote about them. They are against God. They have used the grace of our God in the wrong way—to do sinful things. They refuse to follow Jesus Christ, our only Master and Lord.

⁵ I want to help you remember some things you already know: Remember that the Lord* saved his people by bringing them out of the land of Egypt. But later he destroyed all those who did not believe. ⁶ And remember the angels who lost their authority to rule. They left their proper home. So the Lord has kept them in darkness, bound with everlasting chains, to be judged on the great day. ⁷ Also, remember the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah and the other towns around them. Like those angels they were full of sexual sin and involved themselves in sexual relations that are wrong. And they suffer the punishment of eternal fire, an example for us to see.

⁸ It is the same way with these people who have entered your group. They are guided by dreams. They make themselves dirty with sin. They reject God's authority and say bad things against the glorious ones.† ⁹ Not even the archangel Michael did this. Michael argued with the devil about who would have the body of Moses. But Michael did not dare to condemn even the devil for his false accusations. Instead, Michael said, "The Lord punish you!"

¹⁰ But these people criticize things they don't understand. They do understand some things. But they understand these things not by thinking, but by feeling, the way dumb animals understand things. And these are the things that destroy them. ¹¹ It will be bad for them. They have followed the way that Cain went. To make money, they have given themselves to following the wrong way that Balaam went. They have fought against God like Korah‡ did. And like Korah, they will be destroyed.

¹² These people are like dirty spots among you—they bring shame to you in the special meals you share together. They eat with you and have no fear. They take care of only themselves. They are like clouds without rain. The wind blows them around. They are like trees that have no fruit at harvest time and are pulled out of the ground. So they are twice dead. ¹³ Like the dirty foam on the wild waves in the sea, everyone can see the shameful things they do. They are like stars that wander in the sky. A place in the blackest darkness has been kept for them forever.

¹⁴ Enoch, the seventh descendant from Adam, said this about these people: "Look, the Lord is coming with thousands and thousands of his holy angels ¹⁵ to judge everyone. He will punish all those who are against him for all the evil they have done in their lack of respect for him. Yes, the Lord will punish all these sinners who don't honor him. He will punish them for all the evil things they have said against him."

* 1:5 the Lord Some of the oldest and best Greek manuscripts of Jude have "Jesus" here. If "Jesus" is accepted as the original reading, it should replace "the Lord" in verse 6 as well. † 1:8 the glorious ones Literally, "the glories." These seem to be some kind of angelic beings. ‡ 1:11 Korah He turned against Moses. See Num. 16:1-40.

¹⁶ These people always complain and find wrong in others. They always do the evil things they want to do. They boast about themselves. The only reason they say good things about others is to get what they want.

A Warning and Things to Do

¹⁷ Dear friends, remember what the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ said would happen. ¹⁸ They told you, “In the last times there will be people who laugh at God and do only what they want to do—things that are against God.” ¹⁹ These are the people who divide you. They are not spiritual, because they don’t have the Spirit.

²⁰ But you, dear friends, use your most holy faith to build yourselves up even stronger. Pray with the help of the Holy Spirit. ²¹ Keep yourselves safe in God’s love, as you wait for the Lord Jesus Christ in his mercy to give you eternal life.

²² Help those who have doubts. ²³ Rescue those who are living in danger of hell’s fire. There are others you should treat with mercy, but be very careful that their filthy lives don’t rub off on you. §

Praise God

²⁴ God is strong and can keep you from falling. He can bring you before his glory without any wrong in you and give you great joy. ²⁵ He is the only God, the one who saves us. To him be glory, greatness, power, and authority through Jesus Christ our Lord for all time past, now, and forever. Amen.

§ 1:23 that ... on you Literally, “hating even their undershirt that is defiled from the flesh.”

Revelation

John Tells About This Book

¹ This is a revelation* from Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show his servants what must happen soon. And Christ sent his angel to show it to his servant John, ² who has told everything he saw. It is the truth that Jesus Christ told him; it is the message from God. ³ Great blessings belong to the person who reads the words of this message from God and to those who hear this message and do what is written in it. There is not much time left.

John Writes to the Churches

⁴ From John,

To the seven churches in the province of Asia:

Grace and peace to you from the one who is, who always was, and who is coming; and from the seven spirits before his throne; ⁵ and from Jesus Christ. Jesus is the faithful witness. He is first among all who will be raised from death. He is the ruler of the kings of the earth.

Jesus is the one who loves us and has made us free from our sins with his blood sacrifice. ⁶ He made us his kingdom and priests who serve God his Father. To Jesus be glory and power forever and ever! Amen.

⁷ Look, Jesus is coming with the clouds! Everyone will see him, even those who pierced† him. All peoples of the earth will cry loudly because of him. Yes, this will happen! Amen.

⁸ The Lord God says, “I am the Alpha and the Omega.‡ I am the one who is, who always was, and who is coming. I am the All-Powerful.”

⁹ I am John, your fellow believer. We are together in Jesus, and we share these things: suffering, the kingdom, and patient endurance. I was on the island of Patmos§ because I was faithful to God’s message and to the truth of Jesus. ¹⁰ On the Lord’s Day, the Spirit took control of me. I heard a loud voice behind me that sounded like a trumpet. ¹¹ It said, “Write down in a book what you see, and send it to the seven churches: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and Laodicea.”

¹² I turned to see who was talking to me. When I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands. ¹³ I saw someone among the lampstands who looked like the Son of Man. He was dressed in a long robe, with a golden sash tied around his chest. ¹⁴ His head and hair were white like wool—wool that is white as snow. His eyes were like flames of fire. ¹⁵ His feet were like brass that glows hot in a furnace. His voice was like the noise of flooding water. ¹⁶ He held seven stars in his right hand. A sharp two-edged sword came out of his mouth. He looked like the sun shining at its brightest time.

¹⁷ When I saw him, I fell down at his feet like a dead man. He put his right hand on me and said, “Don’t be afraid! I am the First and the Last. ¹⁸ I am the one who lives. I was dead, but look, I am alive forever and ever! And I hold the keys of death and Hades. ¹⁹ So write what you see. Write the things that happen now and the things that will happen later. ²⁰ Here is the hidden meaning of the seven stars that you saw in my right hand and the seven golden lampstands that you saw: The seven lampstands are the seven churches. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches.

* 1:1 revelation An opening up (making known) of truth that was hidden. † 1:7 pierced When Jesus was killed, he was stabbed with a spear in the side. See John 19:34. ‡ 1:8 Alpha ... Omega The first and last letters in the Greek alphabet, meaning the beginning and the end. § 1:9 Patmos A small island in the Aegean Sea, near the coast of modern Turkey.

Jesus' Letter to the Church in Ephesus

¹ “Write this to the angel of the church in Ephesus:

“Here is a message from the one who holds the seven stars in his right hand and walks among the seven golden lampstands.

² “I know what you do, how hard you work and never give up. I know that you don’t accept evil people. You have tested those who say they are apostles but are not. You found that they are liars. ³ You never stop trying. You have endured troubles for my name and have not given up.

⁴ “But I have this against you: You have left the love you had in the beginning. ⁵ So remember where you were before you fell. Change your hearts and do what you did at first. If you don’t change, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place. ⁶ But there is something you do that is right—you hate the things that the Nicolaitans* do. I also hate what they do.

⁷ “Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. To those who win the victory I will give the right to eat the fruit from the tree of life, which is in God’s paradise.

Jesus' Letter to the Church in Smyrna

⁸ “Write this to the angel of the church in Smyrna:

“Here is a message from the one who is the First and the Last, the one who died and came to life again.

⁹ “I know your troubles, and I know that you are poor, but really you are rich! I know the insults you have suffered from people who say they are Jews. But they are not true Jews. They are a group[†] that belongs to Satan. ¹⁰ Don’t be afraid of what will happen to you. I tell you, the devil will put some of you in prison. He will do this to test you. You will suffer for ten days, but be faithful, even if you have to die. If you continue to be faithful, I will give you the reward[‡] of life.

¹¹ “Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches. Those who win the victory will not be hurt by the second death.

Jesus' Letter to the Church in Pergamum

¹² “Write this to the angel of the church in Pergamum:

“Here is a message from the one who has the sharp two-edged sword.

¹³ “I know where you live. You live where Satan has his throne, but you are true to me. You did not refuse to tell about your faith in me even during the time of Antipas. Antipas was my faithful witness[§] who was killed in your city, the city where Satan lives.

¹⁴ “But I have a few things against you. You have people there who follow the teaching of Balaam. Balaam taught Balak how to make the people of Israel sin. They sinned by eating food offered to idols and by committing sexual sins. ¹⁵ It is the same in your group. You have people who follow the teaching of the Nicolaitans. ¹⁶ So change your hearts! If you don’t change, I will come to you quickly and fight against these people with the sword that comes out of my mouth.

¹⁷ “Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches!

“I will give the hidden manna to everyone who wins the victory. I will also give each one a white stone that has a new name written on it. And no one will know this name except the one who gets the stone.

* 2:6 Nicolaitans A religious group that followed wrong ideas. Also in verse 15. † 2:9 group Literally, “synagogue.”
‡ 2:10 reward Literally, “wreath,” a ring of leaves or branches that was placed on the head of the winners of athletic contests to honor them. It was a symbol of victory and reward. § 2:13 faithful witness A person who speaks God’s message truthfully, even in times of danger.

Jesus' Letter to the Church in Thyatira

¹⁸ “Write this to the angel of the church in Thyatira:

“Here is a message from the Son of God, the one who has eyes that blaze like fire and feet like shining brass.

¹⁹ “I know what you do. I know about your love, your faith, your service, and your patience. I know that you are doing more now than you did at first. ²⁰ But I have this against you: You let that woman Jezebel do what she wants. She says that she is a prophet,* but she is leading my people away with her teaching. Jezebel leads my people to commit sexual sins and to eat food that is offered to idols. ²¹ I have given her time to change her heart and turn away from her sin, but she does not want to change.

²² “So I will throw her on a bed of suffering. And all those who commit adultery with her will suffer greatly. I will do this now if they don’t turn away from the things she does. ²³ I will also kill her followers. Then all the churches will see that I am the one who knows what people feel and think. And I will repay each of you for what you have done.

²⁴ “But others of you in Thyatira have not followed her teaching. You have not learned the things they call ‘Satan’s deep secrets.’ This is what I say to you: I will not put any other burden on you. ²⁵ Only hold on to the truth you have until I come.

²⁶ “I will give power over the nations to all those who win the victory and continue until the end to do what I want. ²⁷ They will rule the nations with an iron rod. They will break them to pieces like clay pots.† ²⁸ They will have the same power I received from my Father, and I will give them the morning star. ²⁹ Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

3

Jesus' Letter to the Church in Sardis

¹ “Write this to the angel of the church in Sardis:

“Here is a message from the one who has the seven spirits and the seven stars.

“I know what you do. People say that you are alive, but really you are dead. ² Wake up! Make yourselves stronger before what little strength you have left is completely gone. I find that what you do is not good enough for my God. ³ So don’t forget what you have received and heard. Obey it. Change your hearts and lives! You must wake up, or I will come to you and surprise you like a thief. You will not know when I will come.

⁴ “But you have a few people in your group there in Sardis who have kept themselves clean. They will walk with me. They will wear white clothes, because they are worthy. ⁵ Everyone who wins the victory will be dressed in white clothes like them. I will not remove their names from the book of life. I will say that they belong to me before my Father and before his angels. ⁶ Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Jesus' Letter to the Church in Philadelphia

⁷ “Write this to the angel of the church in Philadelphia:

“Here is a message from the one who is holy and true, the one who holds the key of David. When he opens something, it cannot be closed. And when he closes something, it cannot be opened.

⁸ “I know what you do. I have put before you an open door that no one can close. I know you are weak, but you have followed my teaching. You were not afraid to speak my name. ⁹ Listen! There is a group* that belongs to Satan. They say they are Jews, but they are liars. They are not true Jews. I will make them come before you and bow at your feet. They will know that you are the people I have loved. ¹⁰ You followed my command to endure patiently. So I will keep you from the time of trouble that will come to the world—a time that will test everyone living on earth.

¹¹ “I am coming soon. Hold on to the faith you have, so that no one can take away your crown. ¹² Those who win the victory will be pillars in the temple of my God. I will make that happen for them. They will never again have to leave God’s temple. I will write on them the name of my God and the name of the city of my God. That city is the new Jerusalem.† It is coming down out of heaven from my God. I will also write my new name on them. ¹³ Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Jesus’ Letter to the Church in Laodicea

¹⁴ “Write this to the angel of the church in Laodicea:

“Here is a message from the Amen,‡ the faithful and true witness, the ruler of all that God has made.

¹⁵ “I know what you do. You are not hot or cold. I wish that you were hot or cold! ¹⁶ But you are only warm—not hot, not cold. So I am ready to spit you out of my mouth. ¹⁷ You say you are rich. You think you have become wealthy and don’t need anything. But you don’t know that you are really miserable, pitiful, poor, blind, and naked. ¹⁸ I advise you to buy gold from me—gold made pure in fire. Then you will be rich. I tell you this: Buy clothes that are white. Then you will be able to cover your shameful nakedness. I also tell you to buy medicine to put on your eyes. Then you will be able to see.

¹⁹ “I correct and punish the people I love. So show that nothing is more important to you than living right. Change your hearts and lives. ²⁰ Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If you hear my voice and open the door, I will come in and eat with you. And you will eat with me.

²¹ “I will let everyone who wins the victory sit with me on my throne. It was the same with me. I won the victory and sat down with my Father on his throne. ²² Everyone who hears this should listen to what the Spirit says to the churches.”

John Sees Heaven

¹ Then I looked, and there before me was an open door in heaven. And I heard the same voice that spoke to me before. It was the voice that sounded like a trumpet. It said, “Come up here, and I will show you what must happen after this.” ² Immediately the Spirit took control of me, and there in heaven was a throne with someone sitting on it. ³ The one sitting there was as beautiful as precious stones, like jasper and carnelian. All around the throne was a rainbow with clear colors like an emerald.

⁴ In a circle around the throne were 24 other thrones with 24 elders sitting on them. The elders were dressed in white, and they had golden crowns on their heads. ⁵ Lightning flashes and noises of thunder came from the throne. Before the throne there were seven lamps burning, which are the seven Spirits of God. ⁶ Also before the throne there was something that looked like a sea of glass, as clear as crystal.

In front of the throne and on each side of it there were four living beings. They had eyes all over them, in front and in back. ⁷ The first living being was like a lion. The second was like a bull. The third had a face like a man. The fourth was like a flying eagle. ⁸ Each of these four living beings had six wings. They were covered all over with eyes, inside and out. Day and night they never stopped saying, “Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God All-Powerful.

He always was, he is, and he is coming.”

† 3:12 new Jerusalem The spiritual city where God’s people live with him. ‡ 3:14 Amen Used here, as a name for Jesus, it means to agree strongly that something is true.

⁹ These living beings were giving glory and honor and thanks to the one who sits on the throne, the one who lives forever and ever. And every time they did this, ¹⁰ the 24 elders bowed down before the one who sits on the throne. They worshiped him who lives forever and ever. They put their crowns down before the throne and said, ¹¹ “Our Lord and God!

You are worthy to receive glory and honor and power.

You made all things.

Everything existed and was made because you wanted it.”

5

Who Can Open the Scroll?

¹ Then I saw a scroll in the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. The scroll had writing on both sides and was kept closed with seven seals. ² And I saw a powerful angel, who called in a loud voice, “Who is worthy to break the seals and open the scroll?” ³ But there was no one in heaven or on earth or under the earth who could open the scroll or look inside it. ⁴ I cried and cried because there was no one who was worthy to open the scroll or look inside. ⁵ But one of the elders said to me, “Don’t cry! The Lion* from the tribe of Judah has won the victory. He is David’s descendant. He is able to open the scroll and its seven seals.”

⁶ Then I saw a Lamb standing in the center near the throne with the four living beings around it. The elders were also around the Lamb. The Lamb looked as if it had been killed. It had seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God that were sent into all the world. ⁷ The Lamb came and took the scroll from the right hand of the one sitting on the throne. ⁸ After the Lamb took the scroll, the four living beings and the 24 elders bowed down before the Lamb. Each one of them had a harp. Also, they were holding golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of God’s holy people. ⁹ And they all sang a new song to the Lamb:

“You are worthy to take the scroll and to open its seals,

because you were killed,

and with your blood sacrifice you bought people for God from every tribe, language, race of people, and nation.

¹⁰ You made them to be a kingdom and to be priests for our God.

And they will rule on the earth.”

¹¹ Then I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels. The angels were around the throne, the four living beings, and the elders. There were thousands and thousands of angels—10,000 times 10,000. ¹² The angels said in a loud voice,

“All power, wealth, wisdom, and strength belong to the Lamb who was killed.

He is worthy to receive honor, glory, and praise!”

¹³ Then I heard every created being that is in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, everything in all these places, saying,

“All praise and honor

* 5:5 Lion Used here to refer to Jesus.

and glory and power forever and ever to the one who sits on the throne and to the Lamb!"

¹⁴ The four living beings said, "Amen!" And the elders bowed down and worshiped.

6

The Lamb Opens the Scroll

¹ Then I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seven seals. Then I heard one of the four living beings speak with a voice like thunder. It said, "Come!" ² I looked, and there before me was a white horse. The rider on the horse held a bow and was given a crown. He rode out to defeat the enemy and win the victory.

³ The Lamb opened the second seal. Then I heard the second living being say, "Come!" ⁴ Then another horse came out, a red one. The rider on the horse was given power to take away peace from the earth so that people would kill each other. He was given a big sword.

⁵ The Lamb opened the third seal. Then I heard the third living being say, "Come!" I looked, and there before me was a black horse. The rider on the horse held a pair of scales in his hand. ⁶ Then I heard something that sounded like a voice. The voice came from where the four living beings were. It said, "A quart* of wheat or three quarts of barley will cost a full day's pay. But don't harm the supply of olive oil and wine!"

⁷ The Lamb opened the fourth seal. Then I heard the voice of the fourth living being say, "Come!" ⁸ I looked, and there before me was a pale-colored horse. The rider on the horse was death, and Hades was following close behind him. They were given power over a fourth of the earth—power to kill people with the sword, by starving, by disease, and with the wild animals of the earth.

⁹ The Lamb opened the fifth seal. Then I saw some souls under the altar. They were the souls of those who had been killed because they were faithful to God's message and to the truth they had received. ¹⁰ These souls shouted in a loud voice, "Holy and true Lord, how long until you judge the people of the earth and punish them for killing us?" ¹¹ Then each one of them was given a white robe. They were told to wait a short time longer. There were still some of their brothers and sisters in the service of Christ who must be killed as they were. These souls were told to wait until all the killing was finished.

¹² Then I watched while the Lamb opened the sixth seal. There was a great earthquake, and the sun became as black as sackcloth.† The full moon became red like blood. ¹³ The stars in the sky fell to the earth like a fig tree dropping its figs when the wind blows. ¹⁴ The sky was split in the middle and both sides rolled up like a scroll. And every mountain and island was moved from its place.

¹⁵ Then all the people—the kings of the world, the rulers, the army commanders, the rich people, the powerful people, every slave, and every free person—hid themselves in caves and behind the rocks on the mountains. ¹⁶ They said to the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us. Hide us from the face of the one who sits on the throne. Hide us from the anger of the Lamb!" ¹⁷ The great day for their anger has come. No one can stand against it."

The 144,000 People of Israel

¹ After this happened I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth. The angels were holding the four winds of the earth. They were stopping the wind from blowing on the land or the sea or on any tree. ² Then I saw another angel coming from the east. This angel had the seal of the living God. The angel called out in a loud voice to the four angels. These were the four angels that God had given the power to hurt the earth and the sea. The angel said to them, ³“Don’t harm the land or the sea or the trees before we mark the foreheads of those who serve our God.”

* 6:6 quart Literally, "choenix," the amount of the daily ration of grain for a soldier. Equals about 1 liter. † 6:12 sackcloth Literally, "sackcloth of hair." See "sackcloth" in the Word List.

⁴ Then I heard how many people had God’s mark on their foreheads. There were 144,000. They were from every tribe of the people of Israel:

- ⁵ from the tribe of Judah 12,000
- from the tribe of Reuben 12,000
- from the tribe of Gad 12,000
- ⁶ from the tribe of Asher 12,000
- from the tribe of Naphtali 12,000
- from the tribe of Manasseh 12,000
- ⁷ from the tribe of Simeon 12,000
- from the tribe of Levi 12,000
- from the tribe of Issachar 12,000
- ⁸ from the tribe of Zebulun 12,000
- from the tribe of Joseph 12,000
- from the tribe of Benjamin 12,000

The Great Crowd

⁹ Then I looked, and there was a large crowd of people. There were so many people that no one could count them all. They were from every nation, tribe, race of people, and language of the earth. They were standing before the throne and before the Lamb. They all wore white robes and had palm branches in their hands. ¹⁰ They shouted loudly, “Victory belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.”

¹¹ The elders and the four living beings were there. All the angels were standing around them and the throne. The angels bowed down on their faces before the throne and worshiped God. ¹² They said, “Amen! Praise, glory, wisdom, thanks, honor, power, and strength belong to our God forever and ever. Amen!”

¹³ Then one of the elders asked me, “Who are these people in white robes? Where did they come from?”

¹⁴ I answered, “You know who they are, sir.”

And the elder said, “These are the ones who have come out of the great suffering. They have washed their robes* with the blood of the Lamb, and they are clean and white. ¹⁵ So now these people are before the throne of God. They worship God day and night in his temple. And the one who sits on the throne will protect them. ¹⁶ They will never be hungry again. They will never be thirsty again. The sun will not hurt them. No heat will burn them. ¹⁷ The Lamb in front of the throne will be their shepherd. He will lead them to springs of water that give life. And God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.”

8

The Seventh Seal

¹ The Lamb opened the seventh seal. Then there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. ² And I saw the seven angels who stand before God. They were given seven trumpets.

³ Another angel came and stood at the altar. This angel had a golden holder for incense. The angel was given much incense to offer with the prayers of all God’s holy people. The angel put this offering on the golden altar before the throne. ⁴ The smoke from the incense went up from the angel’s hand to God. The smoke went up with the prayers of God’s people. ⁵ Then the angel filled the incense holder with fire from the altar and threw it down on the earth. Then there were flashes of lightning, thunder and other noises, and an earthquake.

* 7:14 washed their robes Meaning that they had believed in Jesus and had been made clean from sin by his blood sacrifice. See Rev. 5:9; Heb. 9:14; 10:14-22; Acts 22:16; 1 John 1:7.

The First of Seven Trumpet Blasts

⁶ Then the seven angels with the seven trumpets prepared to blow their trumpets.

⁷ The first angel blew his trumpet. Then hail and fire mixed with blood was poured down on the earth. And a third of the earth and all the green grass and a third of the trees were burned up.

⁸ The second angel blew his trumpet. Then something that looked like a big mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. And a third of the sea became blood. ⁹ And a third of the created beings in the sea died, and a third of the ships were destroyed.

¹⁰ The third angel blew his trumpet. Then a large star, burning like a torch, fell from the sky. It fell on a third of the rivers and on the springs of water. ¹¹ The name of the star was Bitterness.* And a third of all the water became bitter. Many people died from drinking this bitter water.

¹² The fourth angel blew his trumpet. Then a third of the sun and a third of the moon and a third of the stars were struck. So a third of them became dark. A third of the day and night was without light.

¹³ While I watched, I heard an eagle that was flying high in the air. The eagle said in a loud voice, “Terrible! Terrible! How terrible for those who live on the earth! The terrible trouble will begin after the sounds of the trumpets that the other three angels will blow.”

9

The Fifth Trumpet Begins

the First Terror

¹ The fifth angel blew his trumpet. Then I saw a star fall from the sky to the earth. The star was given the key to the deep hole that leads down to the bottomless pit. ² Then the star opened the hole leading to the pit. Smoke came up from the hole like smoke from a big furnace. The sun and sky became dark because of the smoke from the hole.

³ Then locusts came out of the smoke and went down to the earth. They were given the power to sting like scorpions. ⁴ They were told not to damage the fields of grass or any plant or tree. They were to hurt only those who did not have God’s mark on their foreheads. ⁵ They were not given the power to kill them but only to cause them pain for five months—pain like a person feels when stung by a scorpion. ⁶ During those days people will look for a way to die, but they will not find it. They will want to die, but death will hide from them.

⁷ The locusts looked like horses prepared for battle. On their heads they wore something that looked like a gold crown. Their faces looked like human faces. ⁸ Their hair was like women’s hair. Their teeth were like lions’ teeth. ⁹ Their chests looked like iron breastplates. The sound their wings made was like the noise of many horses and chariots hurrying into battle. ¹⁰ The locusts had tails with stingers like scorpions. The power they had to give people pain for five months was in their tails. ¹¹ They had a ruler, who was the angel of the bottomless pit. His name in Hebrew is Abaddon.* In Greek it is Apollyon.†

¹² The first terror is now past. There are still two other terrors to come.

The Sixth Trumpet Blast

¹³ The sixth angel blew his trumpet. Then I heard a voice coming from the horns on the four corners of the golden altar that is before God. ¹⁴ It said to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, “Free the four angels who are tied at the great river Euphrates.”

¹⁵ These four angels had been kept ready for this hour and day and month and year. The angels were set free to kill a third of all the people on the earth. ¹⁶ I heard how many troops on horses were in their army. There were 200,000,000.

* 8:11 Bitterness Literally, “Wormwood,” a very bitter plant; here, it is a symbol of bitter sorrow. * 9:11 Abaddon A Hebrew name meaning “death” or “destruction.” See Job 26:6 and Psalm 88:11. † 9:11 Apollyon A name that means “destroyer.”

¹⁷ In my vision, I saw the horses and the riders on the horses. They looked like this: They had breastplates that were fiery red, dark blue, and yellow like sulfur. The heads of the horses looked like heads of lions. The horses had fire, smoke, and sulfur coming out of their mouths. ¹⁸ A third of all the people on earth were killed by these three plagues coming out of the horses' mouths: the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur. ¹⁹ The horses' power was in their mouths and also in their tails. Their tails were like snakes that have heads to bite and hurt people.

²⁰ The other people on earth were not killed by these plagues. But these people still did not change their hearts and turn away from worshiping the things they had made with their own hands. They did not stop worshiping demons and idols made of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood—things that cannot see or hear or walk. ²¹ They did not change their hearts and turn away from killing other people or from their evil magic, their sexual sins, and their stealing.

The Angel and the Little Scroll

¹ Then I saw another powerful angel coming down from heaven. The angel was dressed in a cloud. He had a rainbow around his head. The angel's face was like the sun, and his legs were like poles of fire. ² The angel was holding a small scroll. The scroll was open in his hand. He put his right foot on the sea and his left foot on the land. ³ He shouted loudly like the roaring of a lion. After he shouted, the voices of seven thunders spoke.

⁴ The seven thunders spoke, and I started to write. But then I heard a voice from heaven that said, "Don't write what the seven thunders said. Keep those things secret."

⁵ Then the angel I saw standing on the sea and on the land raised his right hand to heaven. ⁶ The angel made a promise by the power of the one who lives forever and ever. He is the one who made the skies and all that is in them. He made the earth and all that is in it, and he made the sea and all that is in it. The angel said, "There will be no more waiting! ⁷ In the days when the seventh angel is ready to blow his trumpet, God's secret plan will be completed—the Good News that God told to his servants, the prophets."

⁸ Then I heard the same voice from heaven again. It said to me, "Go and take the open scroll that is in the angel's hand. This is the angel who is standing on the sea and on the land."

⁹ So I went to the angel and asked him to give me the little scroll. He said to me, "Take the scroll and eat it. It will be sour in your stomach, but in your mouth it will be sweet like honey." ¹⁰ So I took the little scroll from the angel's hand and ate it. In my mouth it tasted sweet like honey, but after I ate it, it was sour in my stomach. ¹¹ Then I was told, "You must prophesy again about many races of people, many nations, languages, and rulers."

11

The Two Witnesses

¹ Then I was given a measuring rod as long as a walking stick. I was told, "Go and measure the temple* of God and the altar, and count the people worshiping there. ² But don't measure the yard outside the temple. Leave it alone. It has been given to those who are not God's people. They will show their power over the holy city for 42 months. ³ And I will give power to my two witnesses. And they will prophesy for 1260 days. They will be dressed in sackcloth."

* 11:1 temple God's house—the place where God's people worship and serve him. Here, John sees it pictured as the special building in Jerusalem for Jewish worship. Also in verse 19.

⁴ These two witnesses are the two olive trees and the two lampstands that stand before the Lord of the earth. ⁵ If anyone tries to hurt the witnesses, fire comes from the mouths of the witnesses and kills their enemies. Anyone who tries to hurt them will die like this. ⁶ These witnesses have the power to stop the sky from raining during the time they are prophesying. These witnesses have power to make the water become blood. They have power to send every kind of plague to the earth. They can do this as many times as they want.

⁷ When the two witnesses have finished telling their message, the beast will fight against them. This is the beast that comes up from the bottomless pit. It will defeat and kill them. ⁸ The bodies of the two witnesses will lie in the street of the great city. This city is named Sodom and Egypt. These names for the city have a special meaning. This is the city where the Lord was killed. ⁹ People from every race of people, tribe, language, and nation will look at the bodies of the two witnesses for three and a half days. The people will refuse to bury them. ¹⁰ Everyone on the earth will be happy because these two are dead. They will have parties and send each other gifts. They will do this because these two prophets brought much suffering to the people living on earth.

¹¹ But after three and a half days, God let life enter the two witnesses again. They stood on their feet. All those who saw them were filled with fear. ¹² Then the two witnesses heard a loud voice from heaven say, "Come up here!" And both of them went up into heaven in a cloud. Their enemies watched them go.

¹³ At that same time there was a great earthquake. A tenth of the city was destroyed. And 7000 people were killed in the earthquake. Those who did not die were very afraid. They gave glory to the God of heaven.

¹⁴ The second terror is now past. The third terror is coming soon.

The Seventh Trumpet Blast

¹⁵ The seventh angel blew his trumpet. Then there were loud voices in heaven. The voices said,

"The kingdom of the world has now become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Messiah.
And he will rule forever and ever."

¹⁶ Then the 24 elders bowed down on their faces and worshiped God. These are the elders who sit on their thrones before God. ¹⁷ The elders said,

"We give thanks to you, Lord God All-Powerful.
You are the one who is and who always was.
We thank you because you have used your great power and have begun to rule.

¹⁸ The people of the world were angry,
but now is the time for your anger.
Now is the time for the dead to be judged.
It is time to reward your servants, the prophets,
and to reward your holy people,
the people, great and small, who respect you.
It is time to destroy those people who destroy the earth!"

¹⁹ Then God's temple in heaven was opened. The Box of the Agreement[†] could be seen in his temple. Then there were flashes of lightning, noises, thunder, an earthquake, and a great hailstorm.

[†] 11:19 Box of the Agreement This is like the special box kept in the Most Holy Place of the Israelite Holy Tent and, later, the Jerusalem Temple, which contained "proof" of the agreement between God and his people. See "Box of the Agreement" in the Word List.

The Woman Giving Birth and the Dragon

¹ And then a great wonder appeared in heaven: There was a woman who was clothed with the sun, and the moon was under her feet. She had a crown of twelve stars on her head. ² She was pregnant and cried out with pain because she was about to give birth.

³ Then another wonder appeared in heaven: There was a giant red dragon there. The dragon had seven heads with a crown on each head. It also had ten horns. ⁴ Its tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and threw them down to the earth. It stood in front of the woman who was ready to give birth to the baby. It wanted to eat the woman's baby as soon as it was born.

⁵ The woman gave birth to a son, who would rule all the nations with an iron rod. And her child was taken up to God and to his throne. ⁶ The woman ran away into the desert to a place that God had prepared for her. There she would be taken care of for 1260 days.

⁷ Then there was a war in heaven. Michael* and his angels fought against the dragon. The dragon and its angels fought back, ⁸ but they were not strong enough. The dragon and its angels lost their place in heaven. ⁹ It was thrown down out of heaven. (This giant dragon is that old snake, the one called the devil or Satan, who leads the whole world into the wrong way.) The dragon and its angels were thrown to the earth.

¹⁰ Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say, "The victory and the power and the kingdom of our God and the authority of his Messiah have now come. These things have come, because the accuser of our brothers and sisters has been thrown out. He is the one who accused them day and night before our God. ¹¹ They defeated him by the blood sacrifice of the Lamb and by the message of God that they told people. They did not love their lives too much. They were not afraid of death. ¹² So rejoice, you heavens and all who live there! But it will be terrible for the earth and sea, because the devil has gone down to you. He is filled with anger. He knows he doesn't have much time."

¹³ The dragon saw that he had been thrown down to the earth. So he chased the woman who had given birth to the child. ¹⁴ But the woman was given the two wings of a great eagle. Then she could fly to the place that was prepared for her in the desert. There she would be taken care of for three and a half years. There she would be away from the dragon.† ¹⁵ Then the dragon poured water out of its mouth like a river. It poured the water toward the woman so that the flood would carry her away. ¹⁶ But the earth helped the woman. The earth opened its mouth and swallowed the river that came from the mouth of the dragon. ¹⁷ Then the dragon was very angry with the woman. It went away to make war against all her other children. Her children are those who obey God's commands and have the truth that Jesus taught.

¹⁸ The dragon stood on the seashore.

The Beast From the Sea

¹ Then I saw a beast coming up out of the sea. It had ten horns and seven heads. There was a crown on each of its horns. It had an evil name written on each head. ² This beast looked like a leopard, with feet like a bear's feet. It had a mouth like a lion's mouth. The dragon gave the beast all of its power and its throne and great authority.

³ One of the heads of the beast looked as if it had been wounded and killed, but the death wound was healed. All the people in the world were amazed, and they all followed the beast. ⁴ People worshiped the dragon because it had given its power to the beast, and they also worshiped the beast. They asked, "Who is as powerful as the beast? Who can make war against it?"

* 12:7 Michael The archangel—leader of God's angels. See Jude 9. † 12:14 dragon Here and in verse 15 literally, "snake." See verse 9 above.

⁵ The beast was allowed to boast and speak insults against God. It was allowed to use its power for 42 months. ⁶ The beast opened its mouth to insult God—to insult his name, the place where he lives, and all those who live in heaven. ⁷ It was given power to make war against God’s holy people and to defeat them. It was given power over every tribe, race of people, language, and nation. ⁸ Everyone living on earth would worship the beast. These are all the people since the beginning of the world whose names are not written in the Lamb’s book of life. The Lamb is the one who was killed.

⁹ Anyone who hears these things should listen to this:

¹⁰ Whoever is to be a prisoner, will be a prisoner.
Whoever is to be killed with a sword,
will be killed with a sword.

This means that God’s holy people must have patience and faith.

The Beast From the Earth

¹¹ Then I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, but he talked like a dragon. ¹² This beast stood before the first beast and used the same power the first beast had. He used this power to make everyone living on the earth worship the first beast. The first beast was the one that had the death wound that was healed. ¹³ The second beast did great miracles.* He even made fire come down from heaven to earth while people were watching.

¹⁴ This second beast fooled the people living on earth by using the miracles that he had been given the power to do for the first beast. He ordered people to make an idol to honor the first beast, the one that was wounded by the sword but did not die. ¹⁵ The second beast was given power to give life to the idol of the first beast. Then the idol could speak and order all those who did not worship it to be killed. ¹⁶ The second beast also forced all people, small and great, rich and poor, free and slave, to have a mark put on their right hand or on their forehead. ¹⁷ No one could buy or sell without this mark. (This mark is the name of the beast or the number of its name.)

¹⁸ Anyone who has understanding can find the meaning of the beast’s number. This requires wisdom. This number is the number of a man. It is 666.

14

God’s People Sing a New Song

¹ Then I looked, and there before me was the Lamb, who was standing on Mount Zion.* There were 144,000 people with him. They all had his name and his Father’s name written on their foreheads.

² And I heard a sound from heaven as loud as the crashing of floodwaters or claps of thunder. But it sounded like harpists playing their harps. ³ The people sang a new song before the throne and before the four living beings and the elders. The only ones who could learn the new song were the 144,000 who had been bought from the earth. No one else could learn it.

⁴ These are the ones who did not do sinful things with women. They kept themselves pure. Now they follow the Lamb wherever he goes. They were bought from among the people of the earth as the first to be offered to God and the Lamb. ⁵ They are not guilty of telling lies; they are without fault.

The Three Angels

* 13:13 miracles False miracles—amazing acts done by the power of the devil. * 14:1 Mount Zion Another name for Jerusalem, here meaning the spiritual city where God’s people live with him.

⁶ Then I saw another angel flying high in the air. The angel had the eternal Good News to announce to the people living on earth—to every nation, tribe, language, and race of people. ⁷ The angel said in a loud voice, “Fear God and give him praise. The time has come for God to judge all people. Worship God. He made the heavens, the earth, the sea, and the springs of water.”

⁸ Then the second angel followed the first angel and said, “She is destroyed! The great city of Babylon is destroyed! She made all the nations drink the wine of her sexual sin and of God’s anger.”

⁹ A third angel followed the first two angels. This third angel said in a loud voice, “God will punish all those who worship the beast and the beast’s idol and agree to have the beast’s mark on their forehead or on their hand. ¹⁰ They will drink the wine of God’s anger. This wine is prepared with all its strength in the cup of God’s anger. They will be tortured with burning sulfur before the holy angels and the Lamb. ¹¹ And the smoke from their burning pain will rise forever and ever. There will be no rest, day or night, for those who worship the beast and its idol or who wear the mark of its name.” ¹² This means that God’s holy people must be patient. They must obey God’s commands and keep their faith in Jesus.

¹³ Then I heard a voice from heaven. It said, “Write this: From now on there are great blessings for those who belong to the Lord when they die.”

The Spirit says, “Yes, that is true. They will rest from their hard work. What they have done will stay with them.”

The Earth Is Harvested

¹⁴ I looked and there before me, sitting on a white cloud, was one who looked like the Son of Man. He had a gold crown on his head and a sharp sickle in his hand. ¹⁵ Then another angel came out of the temple. This angel called to the one who was sitting on the cloud, “Take your sickle and gather from the earth. The time to harvest has come, and the fruit on the earth is ripe.” ¹⁶ So the one who was sitting on the cloud swung his sickle over the earth. And the earth was harvested.

¹⁷ Then another angel came out of the temple in heaven. This angel also had a sharp sickle. ¹⁸ And then another angel, one with power over the fire, came from the altar. He called to the angel with the sharp sickle and said, “Take your sharp sickle and gather the bunches of grapes from the earth’s vine. The earth’s grapes are ripe.” ¹⁹ The angel swung his sickle over the earth. He gathered the earth’s grapes and threw them into the great winepress of God’s anger. ²⁰ The grapes were squeezed in the winepress outside the city. Blood flowed out of the winepress. It rose as high as the heads of the horses for a distance of 200 miles.†

15

The Angels With the Last Plagues

¹ Then I saw another wonder in heaven. It was great and amazing. There were seven angels bringing seven plagues. These are the last plagues, because after these, God’s anger is finished.

² I saw what looked like a sea of glass mixed with fire. All those who had won the victory over the beast and his idol and over the number of its name were standing by the sea. These people had harps that God had given them. ³ They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb:

“Great and wonderful are the things you do,
Lord God All-Powerful.
Right and true are your ways,

† 14:20 200 miles Literally, “1600 stadia,” a little less than 300 km.

Ruler of the nations.
⁴ All people will fear you, O Lord.
 All people will praise your name.
 Only you are holy.
 All people will come and worship before you,
 because it is clear that you do what is right.”

⁵ After this I saw the temple, the holy place of God’s presence,* in heaven. It was opened, ⁶ and the seven angels bringing the seven plagues came out. They were dressed in clean, shining linen cloth. They wore golden bands tied around their chests. ⁷ Then one of the four living beings gave seven golden bowls to the seven angels. The bowls were filled with the anger of God, who lives forever and ever. ⁸ The temple was filled with smoke from the glory and the power of God. No one could enter the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were finished.

16

The Bowls Filled With God’s Anger

¹ Then I heard a loud voice from the temple. It said to the seven angels, “Go and pour out the seven bowls of God’s anger on the earth.”

² The first angel left. He poured out his bowl on the land. Then all those who had the mark of the beast and who worshiped its idol got sores that were ugly and painful.

³ The second angel poured out his bowl on the sea. Then the sea became blood like a dead man’s blood. And everything living in the sea died.

⁴ The third angel poured out his bowl on the rivers and the springs of water. The rivers and the springs of water became blood. ⁵ Then I heard the angel of the waters say to God,

“You are the one who is and who always was.
 You are the Holy One.
 You are right in these judgments you have made.
⁶ The people have spilled the blood of your holy people and your prophets.
 Now you have given those people blood to drink.
 This is what they deserve.”

⁷ And I heard the altar say,

“Yes, Lord God All-Powerful, your judgments are true and right.”

⁸ The fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun. The sun was given power to burn the people with fire. ⁹ The people were burned by the great heat. They cursed the name of God, who had control over these plagues. But they refused to change their hearts and lives and give glory to God.

¹⁰ The fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast. And darkness covered the beast’s kingdom. People bit their tongues because of the pain. ¹¹ They cursed the God of heaven because of their pain and the sores they had. But they refused to change their hearts and turn away from the evil things they did.

¹² The sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates. The water in the river was dried up. This prepared the way for the rulers from the east to come. ¹³ Then I saw three evil spirits that looked like frogs. They came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. ¹⁴ These evil spirits are the spirits of demons. They have power to do miracles.* They go out to the rulers of the whole world to gather them for battle on the great day of God All-Powerful.

* ^{15:5} holy place of God’s presence Literally, “tent of the testimony.” See “Holy Tent” in the Word List. Read Exodus 25:8-22.

¹⁵ “Listen! I will come at a time you don’t expect, like a thief. Great blessings belong to those who stay awake and keep their clothes with them. They will not have to go without clothes and be ashamed for people to see them.”

¹⁶ Then the evil spirits gathered the rulers together to the place that in Hebrew is called Armageddon.

¹⁷ The seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. Then a loud voice came out of the temple from the throne. It said, “It is finished!” ¹⁸ Then there were flashes of lightning, noises, thunder, and a big earthquake. This was the worst earthquake that has ever happened since people have been on earth. ¹⁹ The great city split into three parts. The cities of the nations were destroyed. And God did not forget to punish Babylon the Great. He gave that city the cup filled with the wine of his terrible anger. ²⁰ Every island disappeared and there were no more mountains. ²¹ Giant hailstones fell on the people from the sky. These hailstones weighed almost 100 pounds[†] each. People cursed God because of this plague of the hail. It was terrible.

The Woman on the Red Beast

¹ One of the seven angels came and spoke to me. This was one of the angels that had the seven bowls. The angel said, “Come, and I will show you the punishment that will be given to the famous prostitute. She is the one sitting over many waters. ² The rulers of the earth sinned sexually with her. The people of the earth became drunk from the wine of her sexual sin.”

³ Then the angel carried me away by the Spirit to the desert. There I saw a woman sitting on a red beast. The beast was covered with evil names. It had seven heads and ten horns. ⁴ The woman was dressed in purple and red. She was shining with the gold, jewels, and pearls that she was wearing. She had a golden cup in her hand. This cup was filled with terribly evil things and the filth of her sexual sin. ⁵ She had a title written on her forehead. This title has a hidden meaning. This is what was written:

THE GREAT BABYLON
MOTHER OF PROSTITUTES
AND THE EVIL THINGS OF THE EARTH

⁶ I saw that the woman was drunk. She was drunk with the blood of God’s holy people. She was drunk with the blood of those who told about their faith in Jesus.

When I saw the woman, I was fully amazed. ⁷ Then the angel said to me, “Why are you amazed? I will tell you the hidden meaning of this woman and the beast she rides—the beast with seven heads and ten horns. ⁸ The beast you saw was once alive, but now it is not. However, it will come up out of the bottomless pit and go away to be destroyed. The people who live on the earth will be amazed when they see the beast, because it was once alive, is no longer living, but will come again. These are the people whose names have never been written in the book of life since the beginning of the world.

⁹ “You need wisdom to understand this. The seven heads on the beast are the seven hills where the woman sits. They are also seven rulers. ¹⁰ Five of the rulers have already died. One of the rulers lives now, and the last ruler is coming. When he comes, he will stay only a short time. ¹¹ The beast that was once alive but is no longer living is an eighth ruler. This eighth ruler also belongs to the first seven rulers. And he will go away to be destroyed.

¹² “The ten horns you saw are ten rulers. These ten rulers have not yet received their kingdom, but they will receive power to rule with the beast for one hour. ¹³ All ten of these rulers have the same purpose. And they will give their power and authority to the beast. ¹⁴ They will make war against the Lamb. But the Lamb will defeat them, because he is Lord of lords and King of kings. And with him will be his chosen and faithful followers—the people he has called to be his.”

¹⁵ Then the angel said to me, “You saw the waters where the prostitute sits. These waters are the many peoples, the different races, nations, and languages in the world. ¹⁶ The beast and the ten horns you saw will hate the prostitute. They will take everything she has and leave her naked. They will eat her flesh and destroy her with fire. ¹⁷ God put the idea in their minds to do what would complete his purpose. They agreed to give the beast their power to rule until what God has said is completed. ¹⁸ The woman you saw is the great city that rules over the kings of the earth.”

18

Babylon Is Destroyed

¹ Then I saw another angel coming down from heaven. This angel had great power. The angel’s glory made the earth bright. ² The angel shouted with a powerful voice,

“She is destroyed!

The great city of Babylon is destroyed!

She has become a home for demons.

That city has become a place for every unclean spirit to live.

She is a city filled with all kinds of unclean birds.

She is a place where every unclean and hated animal lives.

³ All the peoples of the earth have drunk the wine of her sexual sin and of God’s anger.

The rulers of the earth sinned sexually with her, and the merchants of the world grew rich from the great wealth of her luxury.”

⁴ Then I heard another voice from heaven say,

“Come out of that city, my people,

so that you will not share in her sins.

Then you will not suffer any of the terrible punishment she will get.

⁵ That city’s sins are piled up as high as heaven.

God has not forgotten the wrongs she has done.

⁶ Give that city the same as she gave to others.

Pay her back twice as much as she did.

Prepare wine for her that is twice as strong as the wine she prepared for others.

⁷ She gave herself much glory and rich living.

Give her that much suffering and sadness.

She says to herself, ‘I am a queen sitting on my throne.

I am not a widow;

I will never be sad.’

⁸ So in one day she will suffer great hunger, mourning, and death.

She will be destroyed by fire, because the Lord God who judges her is powerful.

⁹ “The rulers of the earth who sinned sexually with her and shared her wealth will see the smoke from her burning. Then they will cry and be sad because of her death. ¹⁰ The rulers will be afraid of her suffering and stand far away. They will say,

‘Terrible! How terrible, O great city,
O powerful city of Babylon!
Your punishment came in one hour!’

¹¹ “And the merchants of the earth will cry and be sad for her. They will be sad because now there is no one to buy the things they sell— ¹² gold, silver, jewels, pearls, fine linen cloth, purple cloth, silk, and scarlet cloth, all kinds of citron wood, and all kinds of things made from ivory, expensive wood, bronze, iron, and marble. ¹³ They also sell cinnamon, spice, incense, frankincense, myrrh, wine, olive oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, sheep, horses, carriages, and slaves—yes, even human lives. The merchants will cry and say, ¹⁴ ‘O Babylon, the good things you wanted have left you.

All your rich and fancy things have disappeared.
You will never have them again.’

¹⁵ “The merchants will be afraid of her suffering and will stand far away from her. They are the ones who became rich from selling those things to her. They will cry and be sad. ¹⁶ They will say, ‘Terrible! How terrible for the great city!

She was dressed in fine linen;
she wore purple and scarlet cloth.
She was shining with gold, jewels, and pearls!
¹⁷ All these riches have been destroyed in one hour!’

“Every sea captain, all those who travel on ships, the sailors, and all those who earn money from the sea stood far away from Babylon. ¹⁸ They saw the smoke from her burning. They cried out, ‘There was never a city like this great city!’ ¹⁹ They threw dust on their heads and cried loudly to show the deep sorrow they felt. They said, ‘Terrible! How terrible for the great city!

All those who had ships on the sea became rich because of her wealth!
But she has been destroyed in one hour!
²⁰ Be happy because of this, O heaven!
Be happy, God’s holy people and apostles and prophets!
God has punished her because of what she did to you.’ ”

²¹ Then a powerful angel picked up a large rock. This rock was as big as a large millstone. The angel threw the rock into the sea and said,

“That is how the great city of Babylon will be thrown down.
It will never be found again.

²² O Babylon, the music of people playing harps and other instruments, flutes and trumpets will never be heard in you again.
No worker doing any job will ever be found in you again.
The sound of a millstone

will never be heard in you again.
²³ The light of a lamp will never shine in you again.
 The voices of a bridegroom and bride
 will never be heard in you again.
 Your merchants were the world's great people.
 All the nations were tricked by your magic.
²⁴ You are guilty of the death of the prophets, of God's holy people, and of all those who have been killed on earth."

People in Heaven Praise God

¹ After this I heard what sounded like a large crowd of people in heaven. The people were saying,

"Hallelujah*!
 Victory, glory, and power belong to our God.
² His judgments are true and right.
 Our God has punished the prostitute.
 She is the one who ruined the earth with her sexual sin.
 God has punished the prostitute to pay her back for the death of his servants."

³ These people also said,

"Hallelujah!
 She is burning and her smoke will rise forever and ever."

⁴ Then the 24 elders and the four living beings bowed down. They worshiped God, who sits on the throne. They said,

"Amen! Hallelujah!"

⁵ Then a voice came from the throne and said,

"Praise our God,
 all you who serve him!
 Praise our God,
 all you small and great who honor him!"

⁶ Then I heard something that sounded like a large crowd of people. It was as loud as crashing waves or claps of thunder. The people were saying,

"Hallelujah!
 Our Lord God rules.
 He is the All-Powerful.
⁷ Let us rejoice and be happy and give God glory!
 Give God glory, because the wedding of the Lamb has come.
 And the Lamb's bride has made herself ready.
⁸ Fine linen was given to the bride for her to wear.
 The linen was bright and clean."

* 19:1 Hallelujah This means "Praise God!" Also in verses 3, 4, 6.

(The fine linen means the good things that God's holy people did.)

⁹ Then the angel said to me, "Write this: Great blessings belong to those who are invited to the wedding meal of the Lamb!" Then the angel said, "These are the true words of God."

¹⁰ Then I bowed down before the angel's feet to worship him. But the angel said to me, "Don't worship me! I am a servant like you and your brothers and sisters who have the truth of Jesus. So worship God! Because the truth of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

The Rider on the White Horse

¹¹ Then I saw heaven open. There before me was a white horse. The rider on the horse was called Faithful and True, because he is right in his judging and in making war. ¹² His eyes were like burning fire. He had many crowns on his head. A name was written on him, but he was the only one who knew its meaning. ¹³ He was dressed in a robe dipped in blood, and he was called the Word of God. ¹⁴ The armies of heaven were following the rider on the white horse. They were also riding white horses. They were dressed in fine linen, white and clean. ¹⁵ A sharp sword came out of the rider's mouth, a sword that he would use to defeat the nations. And he will rule the nations with a rod of iron. He will crush the grapes in the winepress of the terrible anger of God All-Powerful. ¹⁶ On his robe and on his leg was written this name:

KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS

¹⁷ Then I saw an angel standing in the sun. In a loud voice the angel said to all the birds flying in the sky, "Come together for the great supper of God. ¹⁸ Come together so that you can eat the bodies of rulers and army commanders and famous men. Come to eat the bodies of the horses and their riders and the bodies of all people—free, slave, small, and great."

¹⁹ Then I saw the beast and the rulers of the earth. Their armies were gathered together to make war against the rider on the horse and his army. ²⁰ But the beast was captured, and the false prophet was also captured. He was the one who did the miracles[†] for the beast. He had used these miracles to trick those who had the mark of the beast and worshiped its idol. The false prophet and the beast were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur. ²¹ Their armies were killed with the sword that came out of the mouth of the rider on the horse. All the birds ate these bodies until they were full.

¹ I saw an angel coming down out of heaven. The angel had the key to the bottomless pit. The angel also held a large chain in his hand. ² The angel grabbed the dragon, that old snake, also known as the devil or Satan. The angel tied the dragon with the chain for 1000 years. ³ Then the angel threw the dragon into the bottomless pit and closed it. The angel locked it over the dragon. The angel did this so that the dragon could not trick the people of the earth until the 1000 years were ended. After 1000 years the dragon must be made free for a short time.

⁴ Then I saw some thrones and people sitting on them. These were the ones who had been given the power to judge. And I saw the souls of those who had been killed because they were faithful to the truth of Jesus and the message from God. They did not worship the beast or its idol. They did not receive the mark of the beast on their foreheads or on their hands. They came back to life and ruled with Christ for 1000 years. ⁵ (The rest of the dead did not live again until the 1000 years were ended.)

[†] 19:20 miracles False miracles—amazing acts done by the power of the devil.

This is the first resurrection. ⁶ Great blessings belong to those who share in this first resurrection. They are God's holy people. The second death has no power over them. They will be priests for God and for Christ. They will rule with him for 1000 years.

The Defeat of Satan

⁷ When the 1000 years are ended, Satan will be made free from his prison. ⁸ He will go out to trick the nations in all the earth, the nations known as Gog and Magog. Satan will gather the people for battle. There will be more people than anyone can count, like sand on the seashore.

⁹ I saw Satan's army march across the earth and gather around the camp of God's people and the city that God loves. But fire came down from heaven and destroyed Satan's army. ¹⁰ And he (the one who tricked these people) was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur with the beast and the false prophet. There they would be tortured day and night forever and ever.

People of the World Are Judged

¹¹ Then I saw a large white throne. I saw the one who was sitting on the throne. Earth and sky ran away from him and disappeared. ¹² And I saw those who had died, great and small, standing before the throne. Some books were opened. And another book was opened—the book of life. The people were judged by what they had done, which is written in the books.

¹³ The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them. All these people were judged by what they had done. ¹⁴ And Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This lake of fire is the second death. ¹⁵ And anyone whose name was not found written in the book of life was thrown into the lake of fire.

The New Jerusalem

¹ Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth. The first heaven and the first earth had disappeared. Now there was no sea. ² And I saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, * coming down out of heaven from God. It was prepared like a bride dressed for her husband.

³ I heard a loud voice from the throne. It said, "Now God's home is with people. He will live with them. They will be his people. God himself will be with them and will be their God. ⁴ He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death, sadness, crying, or pain. All the old ways are gone."

⁵ The one who was sitting on the throne said, "Look, I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this, because these words are true and can be trusted."

⁶ The one on the throne said to me, "It is finished! I am the Alpha and the Omega, † the Beginning and the End. I will give free water from the spring of the water of life to anyone who is thirsty. ⁷ All those who win the victory will receive all this. And I will be their God, and they will be my children. ⁸ But those who are cowards, those who refuse to believe, those who do terrible things, those who kill, those who sin sexually, those who do evil magic, those who worship idols, and those who tell lies—they will all have a place in the lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death."

⁹ One of the seven angels came to me. This was one of the angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues. The angel said, "Come with me. I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb." ¹⁰ The angel carried me away by the Spirit to a very large and high mountain. The angel showed me the holy city, Jerusalem. The city was coming down out of heaven from God.

* 21:2 new Jerusalem The spiritual city where God's people live with him. † 21:6 Alpha ... Omega The first and last letters in the Greek alphabet, meaning the beginning and the end.

¹¹ The city was shining with the glory of God. It was shining bright like a very expensive jewel, like a jasper. It was clear as crystal. ¹² The city had a large, high wall with twelve gates. There were twelve angels at the gates. On each gate was written the name of one of the twelve tribes of Israel. ¹³ There were three gates on the east, three gates on the north, three gates on the south, and three gates on the west. ¹⁴ The walls of the city were built on twelve foundation stones. On the stones were written the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

¹⁵ The angel who talked with me had a measuring rod made of gold. The angel had this rod to measure the city, its gates, and its wall. ¹⁶ The city was built in a square. Its length was equal to its width. The angel measured the city with the rod. The city was 12,000 stadia[‡] long, 12,000 stadia wide, and 12,000 stadia high. ¹⁷ The angel also measured the wall. It was 144 cubits[§] high. (The angel was using the same measurement that people use.) ¹⁸ The wall was made of jasper. The city was made of pure gold, as pure as glass.

¹⁹ The foundation stones of the city walls had every kind of expensive jewels in them. The first foundation stone was jasper, the second was sapphire, the third was chalcedony, the fourth was emerald, ²⁰ the fifth was onyx, the sixth was carnelian, the seventh was yellow quartz, the eighth was beryl, the ninth was topaz, the tenth was chrysoprase, the eleventh was jacinth, and the twelfth was amethyst. ²¹ The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each gate was made from one pearl. The street of the city was made of pure gold, as clear as glass.

²² I did not see a temple in the city. The Lord God All-Powerful and the Lamb were the city's temple. ²³ The city did not need the sun or the moon to shine on it. The glory of God gave the city light. The Lamb was the city's lamp.

²⁴ The peoples of the world will walk by the light given by the Lamb. The rulers of the earth will bring their glory into the city. ²⁵ The city's gates will never close on any day, because there is no night there. ²⁶ The greatness and the honor of the nations will be brought into the city. ²⁷ Nothing unclean will ever enter the city. No one who does shameful things or tells lies will ever enter the city. Only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life will enter the city.

¹ The angel showed me the river of the water of life, clear as crystal. The river flows from the throne of God and the Lamb. ² It flows down the middle of the street of the city. The tree of life is on each side of the river, and it produces fruit every month, twelve times a year. The leaves of the tree are for healing the nations.

³ Nothing that God judges guilty will be there in that city. The throne of God and the Lamb will be in the city. God's servants will worship him. ⁴ They will see his face. God's name will be written on their foreheads. ⁵ There will never be night again. People will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun. The Lord God will give them light. And they will rule like kings forever and ever.

⁶ Then the angel said to me, "These words are true and can be trusted. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, has sent his angel to show his servants what must happen soon: ⁷ 'Listen, I am coming soon! Great blessings belong to the one who obeys the words of prophecy in this book.' "

⁸ I am John. I am the one who heard and saw these things. After I heard and saw them, I bowed down to worship at the feet of the angel who showed them to me. ⁹ But the angel said to me, "Don't worship me! I am a servant like you and your brothers the prophets. I am a servant like all those who obey the words in this book. You should worship God!"

¹⁰ Then the angel told me, "Don't keep secret the words of prophecy in this book. The time is near for these things to happen. ¹¹ Let anyone who is doing wrong continue to [‡] 21:16 stadia One Greek stadion was 600 feet, about 185 meters. [§] 21:17 cubits A cubit is the length of a man's arm from the elbow to the tip of the little finger, about half a meter.

do wrong. Let anyone who is unclean continue to be unclean. Let anyone who is doing right continue to do right. Let anyone who is holy continue to be holy.”

¹² “Listen, I am coming soon! I will bring rewards with me. I will repay everyone for what they have done. ¹³ I am the Alpha and the Omega,* the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.

¹⁴ “Great blessings belong to those who have washed their robes.† They will have the right to eat the food from the tree of life. They can go through the gates into the city.

¹⁵ Outside the city are all those who live like dogs—those who do evil magic, those who sin sexually, those who murder, those who worship idols, and those who love to lie and pretend to be good.

¹⁶ “I, Jesus, have sent my angel to tell you these things for the churches. I am the descendant from the family of David. I am the bright morning star.”

¹⁷ The Spirit and the bride say, “Come!” Everyone who hears this should also say, “Come!” All who are thirsty may come; they can have the water of life as a free gift if they want it.

¹⁸ I warn everyone who hears the words of prophecy in this book: If anyone adds anything to these, God will give that person the plagues written about in this book.

¹⁹ And if anyone takes away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away that person’s share of the tree of life and of the holy city, which are written about in this book.

²⁰ Jesus is the one who says that all of this is true. Now he says, “Yes, I am coming soon.”

Amen! Come, Lord Jesus!

²¹ The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all people.

* 22:13 Alpha ... Omega The first and last letters in the Greek alphabet, meaning the beginning and the end. † 22:14 washed their robes Meaning that they had believed in Jesus and had been made clean from sin by his blood sacrifice. See Rev. 5:9; 7:14; Heb. 9:14; 10:14-22; Acts 22:16; 1 John 1:7.
